JOHN BAILEY'S ALL RIGHT.

THE CONTRACT HOLDS, ALBEIT THE CHECK DANCE MARKED.

A Lively Little Talk in the City Council Over the Waterworks Department's Affairs—The Combine and Mr. P. Burns Get Little Raked.

The City Council met sharp on time last night, the Mayor taking the chair at 7 o'clock. The only absentees were Ald. Morrison, Woods and Frankland, the latter being in Europe.

Ald. Dodds propounded the following questions to Chairman Boustead of the Waterworks Committee: (1) Is it true that the tender for the coal contract sent in by Bailey & Co. (the Ontario Coal Company) was informal? (2) Is it correct, as charged, that the firm ceased from the tender the clause withholding 10 per cent. as a guarantee for the due fulfillment of the contract? (3) Is it true that the check sent in by Messrs. Bailey & Co. with the tender was not marked? "I am anxious to get an answer from Ald. Boustead. This is the time for inquiries, and I am anxious to know if what I have heard is correct."

Ald. Boustead: "All I have got to say to Ald. Dodds is that we held a $1400 marked check of Messrs. Bailey & Co., and that we withhold 10 per cent. of the contract price."

Ald. Dodds: "That is quibbling. What I want is an answer, yes or no, to my questions whether, at the time the Waterworks Committee gave the contract to Bailey & Co., the chairman held in his hand an unmarked check from that firm, and whether or not it is a fact that Bailey & Co. erased the 10 per cent. withhold clause from the specifications and wrote on the margin opposite the erasure that they would not be bound by any such stipulation?"

Ald. Boustead: "I will not discuss the matter at this point. When our report comes up in committee of the whole I will talk about it, and not until then."

Ald. Dodds: "I want an answer to my question."

Ald. McMillan: "I do not think that you should ask Ald. Boustead to speak now. I know how this little plan has been concocted with a certain object. You all can see that in those articles in an evening paper purporting to be an interview with Rogers."

Ald. Dodds: "I must have an answer to my question."

Ald. Gillespie: "I want to know if Ald. Boustead knew at the time that the tender was informal?"

Ald. Boustead: "I decline to answer, yes or no."

The Council went into committee of the whole on the Executive Committee's report at 10.30. Everything ran smoothly until page 14, containing Report No. 13 of the Waterworks Committee, came up. Ald. Boustead began to his feet and commenced his explanation of the Ontario Coal Company's tender. He first referred to the matter of the Rogers tender and its informality. He then told how the coal combine had clubbed together to get the contract, and had every promise of success, when Mr. P. Burns slipped in between and carried off the prize. This was a new element in the fight, and the combine were surprised. Mr. Burns offered to sell out, first for $2000, then for $1500, and lastly for $1000. Superintendent Hamilton had conversations with Mr. John Keith, one of the members of the combine, in which the latter told him the Waterworks Committee could get the coal cheaper than the Burns tender. The last tenders were called for and Bailey & Co.'s tender was found to be the lowest. There were no signatures, and he (the chairman) was not aware that the check was not marked until the next day, when he heard the talk about it on the street, and on finding that such was the case he at once communicated with Bailey & Co. and had the matter rectified. The reason why the check sent in with the tender was not marked was because the combine gang were bulldozing Mr. Bailey in his office, and he in his excitement forgot to see it marked. Ald. Boustead read several written statements of conversations Mr. Hamilton had with Mr. Keith bearing out his statements.

Ald. Maughan: "Do I understand that the chairman and Superintendent Hamilton are so remiss in their duties as not to know when an unmarked check is handed in with a tender? I would not be a member of that committee for anything. It is a disgrace. If the committee knew that the Bailey check was unmarked the members are better than the contractors themselves. The excuse of Ald. Boustead is very ingenious, but it will not wash."

Ald. Hallam: "If nobody is hurt by the Ontario Coal Company getting the contract and the city's interest is protected, I cannot see what harm will be done by the report being adopted."

Ald. Maughan: "That is all nonsense. The thing is informal."

Ald. Dodds: "I dissent entirely from Ald. Hallam. The city ought to be willing to sacrifice a few paltry dollars rather than its own honor."

Ald. McMillan was in favor of the report being adopted. There was really no informality in the matter. The marked check was in possession of the city and every requirement had been fulfilled.

Ald. Dodds moved for the ruling of the chair, whether the Council could really pass the report in the face of the informality. The chairman of the committee of the whole, Ald. Harvie, ruled that a majority of the Council could carry the report. Ald. Dodds appealed against the decision of the chair, but was overruled, and the report was adopted in committee.

In council with the Mayor in charge, when the Waterworks report came up, Ald. Dodds seconded by Ald. Shaw, moved that new coal tenders be called for, and that the Waterworks Committee be instructed to advertise again.

Ald. Carlyle (St. And.) said that there was no doubt that the Bailey tender was informal, and if an informal tender was to be accepted, why not accept ex-Ald. Rogers' tender? However, now that the thing had got this far, although it was not a square deal, he would vote for the adoption of the report, as it would save the citizens several thousands of dollars. Ald. Maughan returned to the charge again, and wrung from Ald. Boustead that the tender had been altered after having passed the Waterworks Committee. Ald. McMillan, Baxter and half a dozen others spoke on the subject. The amendment was lost by 10 yeas to 18 nays.

Again Ald. Dodds demanded the ruling of the chair as to the formality of the act of the Waterworks Committee in recommending the Bailey contract. The Mayor ruled that it was all in perfect order, and the much vexed contract passed into law.

The Council tackled several other important subjects which are referred to elsewhere, and did not get through until 12.45 this morning.

Hamilton Notes.

HAMILTON, June 18.—Four members of the family of Wm. Scott were taken very sick on Sunday after partaking of some corned beef which Mr. Scott purchased in the market on Saturday.

A fire occurred in the stables of Duffy's Hotel, just before midnight yesterday. Wm. Smith was nearly suffocated before he was aroused from a drunken sleep in the burning building.

Hackman Cline, charged with careless driving in running over a boy man of John Kavanagh on Saturday, was remanded until next Monday at the Police Court this morning.

The Sinking of the Tradewind Drowned.

OSHAWA, June 18.—John Rolland, mate of the schooner Tradewind, was found drowned in a morning. He left the schooner last night to come up town, and not returning last night or the morning Captain [illegible] sent his men in search, and after diligent search for some time his body was discovered in the lake. It is supposed that, on coming to the schooner in the dark, he missed his footing after getting off the dock and was drowned. He was about 30 years of age. His friends reside in Toronto, where his remains will be sent for burial.

PARKDALE'S BOTHERSOME BUDGET.

A Special Meeting of the Town Fathers that Did Not Materialize.

The Parkdale "town fathers" are perplexed. A month ago they concocted their annual budget. Owing to its importance its consideration was postponed. And since then postponements have been the order of the day. "Why is this?" is the general question which is more easily put than answered.

A synopsis of the year's financial statement was published in The World, and at first sight it was of a favorable nature. The general assessment only amounted to 12½ mills against 13 in the previous year. It was in fact a lower rate than had of late prevailed. But a change came o'er the spirit of the Finance Committee's dream when some influential property holders arraigned the Council on the ground of illegally appropriating local improvement debenture premiums for general improvement purposes, thereby diverting funds from the benefit of the property-holders in order to show a lower rate of taxation.

So outspoken were the remonstrants for reform that they threatened an injunction against the Council, and intimated that not only was the body corporate liable to prosecution, but individual members of the Council were liable to make good the amount so diverted from its legal uses.

This is the stumbling block in the way of the passing of the annual budget, and, ostrich-like, the Council postpones the inevitable day of reckoning. Last week, through an informality, the consideration of the financial statement was deferred. An adjourned meeting was held when procrastination again prevailed. Last night was the time appointed for a special meeting on the subject. It had been duly proposed, seconded and carried, but it was not to be. Some discontented members found a "mare's nest"—the clerk had not made a minute of the motion, nor had the Council when it adjourned in the "wee sma' hours" specified the date at which its deliberations would be resumed. Hence, at the eleventh hour, obstruction prevailed and no meeting was held.

At the time duly appointed The World's young man was the sole occupant of the well-furnished Council Chamber. The gas was lighted, and all preparations for the night's conclave ready, when the janitor entered, turned out the gas and said there would be no meeting. Some disappointed councillors came upon the scene. It was a question with them who was to blame, some alleging it was the Clerk's fault, others that there was a design to prevent a quorum being present, whilst others alleged it was desired to have the estimates passed at the end of next Monday's regular meeting without discussion. But it was the general opinion of the townspeople with whom The World talked that the assessment will have to be revised—that the influential petitioners will gain their point and prevent the local improvement debenture proceeds being applied to the maintenance of either waterworks or street railway.

Mayor Lund expressed his regret at the collapse of the proposed meeting and said that steps would have to be taken to convene another. The subject and its issues were too important to be balked. The opinion of the Town Solicitor would be had on the question and would doubtless have great effect. What was complained of had been the annual custom, but the Council must set an example of obeying the law. Councillors Hall, Threlkeld, Hewitt, Tait, Sinclair and one or two others expressed regret that nothing was to be done that night. The end is not yet.

REARRANGING THE SALARY BYLAW.

Ald. McMillan's New Scheme—It is Read a Second Time and Referred.

Ald. McMillan last night at the City Council introduced a bylaw to regulate the increase of salaries and fix the status of civic officials. The first clause arranges that all employes or persons in the employ of the city at the time of the passing of the bylaw, or who may in future be appointed, shall come under its provisions. Clause 2 provides that all employes who have been engaged for a period of five years and upwards, or so soon thereafter as a period of five years of their service shall have expired, shall have their names entered in the salary bylaw and shall be paid monthly at a fixed rate of remuneration per annum.

Clause 3 sets down that the maximum salary to be paid any clerk or employe (other than the head of a department, the deputy head and the chief clerk of a department) shall not exceed $1000 per annum. There shall be no increase of salary for any clerk or employe until he shall have served at least two years for the salary fixed at the time of his appointment. After that period the increase shall not be more than ten per cent. of such salary per year, if such salary at the date of appointment has been less or has not been subsequently raised to $1000; and if the salary at the time of the appointment equals or has been subsequently raised over $1000, the rate of increase shall not exceed 5 per cent. per annum.

Clause 6 stipulates that there shall be no deduction of salary for loss of time on account of sickness by any clerk or official who has served the city for a period of five years, and whose name is entered on the salary bylaw, unless such sickness is caused by improper conduct, always provided that such sickness does not extend beyond three months, at the expiration of which time the salary shall cease, and should the city dispense with his services through personal disability or ill-health a gratuity of three months' salary shall be given for each five years' service with the corporation. All employes of the corporation under the salary bylaw shall have such holidays as the committee under whom they may shall think proper, and in the case of heads of departments the Mayor shall fix the period. In the case of vacancies the rule of promotion is to be carried out, merit being considered.

The last clause provides that, notwithstanding the provisions of the bylaw, it will be in the power of the Council to give or forbid the increase. The bylaw was duly introduced, read a first and second time, and referred to the Executive Committee.

FIRE OR POLITICS.

An Election Which Must be Fought Over Again—A Close Vote.

PARIS, June 18.—In the election yesterday for member of the Chamber of Deputies for the department of the Charente, Gellibert (Bonapartist) received 31,401 votes, Weiller (Republican) 23,989, and De Roulede 20,651. Another ballot will be necessary.

MARSEILLES, June 17.—Premier Floquet, addressing the Municipal Council here to-day, said it was the ambition of the Government to maintain a peaceful policy abroad and to effect internal progressive reform. It was unjust to accuse the Ministry of desiring war while they were making preparations for an international exhibition.

Indiana's Plague.

JASPER, Ind., June 18.—Myriads of grasshoppers have appeared in many parts of Southern Indiana, and are devouring all vegetation as they go. They destroy meadows first, then the foliage of trees, and next corn, oats and garden vegetables. Thousands of acres of meadows have been devastated.

Iron Workers to Strike.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 18.—The wage scale of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers has been rejected by the manufacturers, and a strike is now certain.

The Rule of Chancellor Sustained.

CINCINNATI, June 18.—The report of the committee of the Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias is said to sustain Chancellor Rogers in suspending the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

Six Months for the Dis'ler Bars.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Madame Bernhardt and General DeBar were this morning sentenced to six months' imprisonment each in the penitentiary.

THE EMPEROR'S FUNERAL.

AN IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY AT THE FRIEDRICHSKRICHE.

Emblems of Grief Visible on Every Hand—Volleys and Minute Guns Fired by the Troops—The Dowager Empress' Farewell Look at Her Dead Husband.

POTSDAM, June 18.—Prince Bismarck and Count von Moltke and a number of foreign princes arrived here this morning. The railway stations at Berlin and Potsdam were closed against the public. Crowds gathered outside these buildings, and soldiers and police were posted around the stations to keep back the crowds. The Friedrichskron palace was guarded like a fortress. At 9 o'clock this morning the bells were tolled and the ministers who were to officiate at the Emperor's funeral took their places around the coffin in the palace. The choir sang the hymns "Soon Thou Callest Me to Higher Joys," and "Jesus is My Trust." Chaplain Koegel blessed the corpse and the mourners, after which the choir sang, "If I Am to Die." The commanders of twelve regiments, of which the late Emperor was the chief officer, carried the coffin to the hearse. Eight majors then took the horses by the bridle and the procession started for the church.

The second mortuary service over the remains of the Emperor was held at Friedrichskron Castle last evening. Dr. Koegel, court chaplain, officiated. Emperor William and the Empress, the Dowager Empresses Augusta and Victoria, all the members of the German Imperial and Royal families and the entire household were present. At the conclusion of the service the coffin was closed in the presence of the Emperor, Count von Stolberg-Wernigerode, court chamberlain; Dr. Friedburg, Prussian Minister of Justice, and the others who had been bidden to the ceremony, and was then placed on the same state bier used at the funeral of Emperor William.

At 9.15 o'clock this morning Potsdam was in mourning and emblems of grief were to be seen everywhere. All the way from the castle to the Friedenskirche, where the funeral was to take place, torches and cressets were seen illuminating with their pallid flames the morning light. Every here and there rose huge flag-staffs and poles bearing banners with mourning devices. The troops which were to take part in the funeral ceremony were already mustering. They comprised the entire garrison of Potsdam and a portion of the Berlin and Spandau garrisons. They consisted of one combined infantry battalion, two combined cavalry squadrons, two combined batteries of artillery, a regiment of the guard corps from Berlin and similar combined battalions and batteries from Spandau. At 10.30 o'clock the troops assumed their positions and the various dignitaries, deputations and associations proceeded to their places.

The ceremonies at the Friedrichskron Castle began with the performance of Bach's "Bald Kommt Der Mich von Hinnen Muss." Then the chorale "Jesus Meine Zuversicht" was sung. As the last strains died away Chaplain Koegel arose and offered a prayer, in which he alluded in feeling terms to the double grievous visitation upon the Imperial family and the nation. He thanked God for all the good done for the departed monarch, and implored heavenly consolation for the sorely tried members of the Imperial family and for the nation. The choir then sang "Wenn Ich Einmal Soll Scheiden" was then sung, after which the coffin was removed from the castle and placed on the funeral car, the choir meanwhile singing, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth." The procession was then formed and moved to the church. Upon arriving at the church the mourners took the seats assigned them. After the service Chaplain Koegel pronounced the benediction. There was no sermon. After the firing of volleys and minute guns by the troops the mourners took their departure. Before leaving the widowed Empress bent over the coffin and took a solemn farewell look at her dead husband's face. Court Preacher Persius pronounced the closing prayer and the choir intoned a dirge.

In the procession from the castle to the church the Prince of Wales walked with the Emperor and the King of Saxony. Among those who took part in the procession were Prince Henry, second son of the deceased Emperor, the hereditary Prince of Saxe-Meningen, and the generals of the army, headed by Count von Moltke, who carried a naked sword. The aides of the Prussian corps of the guard and the dragoon guard brought up the rear of the procession. The funeral ceremonies ended shortly before 1 o'clock.

William's Proclamation.

BERLIN, June 18.—The Emperor's proclamation was published to-day. It is as follows:

PROCLAMATION TO THE PRUSSIAN PEOPLE.

The grave had scarcely closed over William before Frederick was called away. Frederick bore his hard fate with heroic Christian resignation, and remained faithful to his kingly duties. In the few months allotted to him to rule he exhibited all the noble qualities of his mind and heart. His virtues, his courage on the battlefield, will be remembered as long as German hearts continue to beat.

I have taken the government upon myself, looking up to the King of all Kings for aid. I pray God that, like my beloved father, I may be a just and clement prince, that I may foster piety and the fear of God, that I may guard the peace and promote the welfare of my people, that I may be the helper of the poor and distressed, the firm guardian of the right, and that I may ever thrive in the execution of my kingly duties in unison with my people, who in good and in evil days have stood true to their king. I count upon the fidelity of my people in the consciousness that I shall ever be mindful of my Prince to a true people, both equally ready to make sacrifices for the Fatherland. I derive confidence from this belief.

I pray God to lend to me strength and wisdom to discharge my kingly office for the welfare of the Fatherland.

Mr. Gladstone's Tribute.

LONDON, June 18.—In the House of Commons to-day the rising of Mr. Smith was the signal for the uncovering of all members. Mr. Smith moved that an address be presented to Queen Victoria and the Empress of Germany, expressing, upon the part of the House of Commons, deep concern and condolence on the death of Emperor Frederick. The late Emperor, he said, had faced death in battle with the greatest courage, but that quality was common compared with the fortitude with which he faced the progress of the terrible disease.

Mr. Gladstone seconded the motion. He said that the trial that had befallen the German Emperor was probably the greatest that could happen to any human being. Was there any case in which one of so exalted rank and station had earned such claims upon the admiration and sympathy and pity of the world? It was touching to reflect upon the enhancements of the great trial, due to the circumstances under which it occurred, and the peculiar slowness but certainty of the disease; the extraordinary strength of the sufferer's constitution and the marvelous additions to the resources of the medical art which enabled its most skillful professors to secure for the patient a considerable prolongation of life. The English recollection of Emperor Frederick reached back over a long series of years. It was in the first period of his married life that he made a deep impression on the minds of the people of England. Since then they have felt that their interest in him was a personal interest, not alone founded upon his relations to their sovereign but upon the high quality of the man, the bright intelligence, wonderful simplicity, gentleness of character and kindliness which gave him open access to all men. Those qualities, he had lived on, were destined to be followed by the development of others, and when the Crown Prince came to England after the war of 1870 it was impossible not to be frequently struck with the fact that one who in youth displayed no peculiar talents, no great all-mastering faculty, could yet so fold varied endowments among the humanities of life, and so exhibit as if all were conscious of his supreme worth except himself.

Lord Hartington thanked Mr. Gladstone for the eloquent expression he had given to the sentiments that prevailed throughout the House.

In the House of Lords the Marquis of Salisbury moved a similar address of sympathy.

THE SECOND WITHIN THE YEAR.

Condolence on the Death of the Late German Emperor.

For the second time within the year the City Council was last night called upon to pass a resolution of condolence with the citizens and Imperial family of Germany. It was moved by Ald. Carlyle (St. Thomas) and Ald. Gibbs "that the Council desires to record the feelings of profound sorrow with which they have heard of the death, on June 15, of His Imperial Majesty Frederick William, Emperor of Germany, in the 57th year of his age, and within the brief space of three months since he succeeded his illustrious father, the late great Emperor William I. Inheriting the highest intellectual and administrative abilities, and giving evidence of a desire to follow in the footsteps of one whose highest achievement was the consolidation beneath his sway of the vast German empire, and inheriting also that which is of still higher personal worth, the love and veneration of his countless subjects, which was extended lovingly to his august consort, the eldest daughter of our beloved Queen—his early death is regarded as a national calamity, calling forth the sympathy and condolence of all communities by whom these eminent qualities are held in estimation." The resolution was carried unanimously.

THE MANITOBA ELECTIONS.

Nominations Will Take Place on July 4 and Polling on July 11.

WINNIPEG, June 18.—The writs for the general elections were issued to-day. Nominations will take place on July 4 and polling on July 11. Nearly all enumerators have been appointed returning officers.

The weather here is oppressively hot, 93° in the shade to-day.

The rivers are still rising.

The early closing movement has fallen through temporarily owing to a defect in the law.

The Chicoutimi and Saguenay Contest.

QUEBEC, June 18.—In the Chicoutimi and Saguenay election to-day for member of the House of Commons (Lib.) was returned by about 400 majority over Marcotte (Nat.).

Elected by Acclamation.

HALIFAX, June 18.—This was nomination day in Pictou for the House of Commons. Hon. C. H. Tupper, the new Minister of Marine and Fisheries, was elected by acclamation.

A SHOOTING GALLERY TRAGEDY.

Martin Foyle, Aged 23, Receives a Probably Fatal Wound at the Island.

The commencement of the summer season at the Island has been marked by a tragedy which in all probability has ere this proved fatal. At Hanlan's Point is a shooting gallery, run by a well known Toronto man named Martin Foyle for the proprietor, Charley Huber. The hot weather attracted a large number of visitors last night, and at the shooting gallery trade ran brisk. Late at night shooting was still going on. Foyle, who is a young man of 25, was managing the discs when he was accidentally shot. Whilst picking up something in front of one of the discs a bullet struck the carotid artery, almost severing it, and lodged in the throat. Foyle bled profusely and spit large quantities of blood. Some time elapsed before medical assistance could be procured. Drs. Bingham, Butcher and Ewing attended and probed for the bullet. They, however, failed to locate it. Foyle's sufferings were intense, and he was quite violent for a time. Dr. Macdonald also arrived, and at 11 o'clock it was thought the medical men had the sufferer would not live more than a few hours. When The World made inquiries at 1 o'clock this morning Dr. Macdonald was still at Hanlan's Hotel attending to the wounded man. It was feared from the first that the wound would prove fatal.

It was not learned who fired the shot which struck the unfortunate man.

For the Benefit of Idiots.

The "idiotic doctors," as they are called by some people humorously inclined, or the "Association of Superintendents for the Training and Education of Idiotic and Feeble-minded Persons," as they term themselves without the slightest regard for the convenience or time of people who may have occasion to refer to them, were to have commenced their annual session at the Rossin House yesterday afternoon. It appears, however, according to announcement, but the meeting was of a decidedly informal character and was held in the lobby of the hotel just as chance arranged. It was evident that the business of the transaction was not of a very important nature, and that the postponement for a day nobody was seriously discommoded. During the afternoon the doctors enjoyed a drive around the city, and in the evening were entertained at the residence of Dr. W. T. O'Reilly, Inspector of Asylums and Prisons for Ontario. This morning they will leave for Orillia, where they will be received by Dr. Beaton, Superintendent of the Orillia Institute. It is proposed that at Orillia several papers on subjects of interest to the association will be read, after which the learned gentlemen will "go fishing."

The Early Closing Bylaw Squelched.

There was a two hours' fight over early closing in the City Council last night, Ald. Shaw moving that the whole bylaw be repealed. He flourished four grocers' and one hardware petition before the eyes of the Council, and made things lively for Ald. Baxter in a 30-minute speech. Ald. Baxter spoke in turn for half an hour, and was in turn dressed down by Ald. Galbraith, who said if his advice had been followed all would have been well. After every alderman had something to say about the matter, the bylaw was repealed by a vote of 18 to 5, Ald. Boustead, St. Leger, Macdougall, Macdonald and St. Leger voting against repeal. The action of the Council therefore permits every business man to keep his store open as long as he likes.

The General Assembly.

HALIFAX, June 18.—In the General Assembly to-night Prof. Scrimger presented the report of the Board of French Evangelization, and made a strong appeal for support and sympathy from the whole Presbyterian Church. Rev. Prof. Armstrong, Rev. C. A. Doudiet and Rev. Mr. Cuhiniquy also spoke on the subject.

The scheme to purchase the Ottawa Ladies' College, to be under the control of the board, was endorsed by the assembly.

"Derby" cigarettes (5c.) are superior to any ten cent package manufactured by any other firm.

The Poisons Go to Owen Sound.

The town of Owen Sound have offered the Polson Iron Works Company of Toronto a free grant of ten acres of land, tax exemption for ten years and to dredge a channel in front of the property if they will establish a slip yard in that place. The offer has been accepted, and the new iron boat for the C.P.R. will be erected there. Work on the buildings will be commenced at once.

Another Action for Damages.

In a letter to the City Council last night Mr. Joseph Patrick Burke informed that body that he proposes to issue a writ against the city for damages sustained by injuries received by his wife and child in being thrown out of his buggy on King-street, owing to defects in the roadway.

Referred to the Executive.

On motion of Ald. Gillespie, the bylaw providing for the issue of debentures to the amount of $250,000 for the extension of the parks system was read a first and second time in the Council last night and referred to the Executive Committee.

Fires at Guelph.

GUELPH, June 18.—Fire at Kennedy's lime kiln did $150 damage on Saturday night.

Joseph Hefferman's stable, on the Elora road, was burned down this morning.

TALK FROM THE CAPITAL.

Rejoicing Over Charlie Tupper's Election—Murray Dodd Gets a Judgeship.

OTTAWA, June 18.—General satisfaction is expressed here to-night at the news from Pictou that "Charlie" Tupper, the new Minister of Marine and Fisheries, has been elected by acclamation, and dozens of congratulations were wired to him. He is expected to come to Ottawa at once.

There are now eight cruisers in commission in the fisheries protective service in the maritime provinces: the Acadia, Le Canadienne, Dream, C. H. Tupper, Advance, Critic, Vigilant and C. J. Brydges. The cruiser recently purchased from Col. Allan Gilmour is now in the canal basin undergoing repairs and will shortly proceed to Georgian Bay.

The Department of Fisheries is now in receipt of daily reports from the commanders of the cruisers, which are so far highly satisfactory. American fishermen are freely taking out the licenses permitted to them under the modus vivendi and everything appears to be working smoothly.

County Court Judge Tremaine of the 9th district, Cape Breton, has been placed on the superannuation bill, and Mr. Murray Dodd, ex-M.P. for the county, has been appointed his successor. Mr. Dodd was one of the Conservative whips in the House from 1883 to 1887, and made himself evidently popular. He was not a candidate at the last general election.

It is understood that the Department of Fisheries will repeat this summer the exploratory surveys made last year of the deep sea fishing grounds in the Pacific. Mr. Mowat, Inspector of Fisheries for British Columbia, will be in charge of the expedition, and the special subject of enquiry will be the black cod fishery banks.

This morning a mounted police seized a number of horses near Lethbridge, N.W.T., which had been smuggled into Canada. On examination by a veterinary surgeon the horses were found to be suffering from glanders, and the customs officers at Lethbridge ordered all the animals shot.

ARE THEY BURGLARS?

The Police Make a Strange Capture—A Gents' Furnishing Store Visited.

At 12.30 this morning the police discovered the door of Taylor & Wilson's cigar factory, in Bay-street, open. They went in and instituted a search of the building, and discovered two men and a woman concealed in the top story. They were taken to Police Headquarters, where the men gave their names as Lauren Armstrong and John Sawden. Armstrong claimed to be employed in the factory and Sawden a packer employed under him. The woman's name is Annie Morton and she told the sergeant in charge that she had met the male prisoners on the Island that evening, and had accompanied them home to the city. The men gave as their excuse for being in the building that thinking it was going to rain they had entered the factory to close down the windows to prevent the tobacco getting wet.

At 1 o'clock this morning Policeman Walker, while on beat on King-street east, discovered the grating of Alfred White's gents' furnishing store, at No. 65 in that street, removed. He went through the place and found a large quantity of the goods lying scattered around on the floor, and in a corner the hatchet and chisel the burglars had used in effecting an entrance. Owing to the absence of Mr. White it was impossible to learn whether any goods had been carried away.

Ald. Gillespie and Friend Cooper.

Among the many incidents which environed the business of the City Council last night was the crossing swords between Ald. Irwin and Gillespie. The latter wanted to know the cost of the civic deputations to Montreal and Ottawa, and appeared anxious to be informed as to what benefit had resulted to the city from them. Ald. McMillan of the Executive flatly refused to give the desired information, and then the member for St. George's Ward "went for" Ald. Baxter and sought to know from him if he intended to pay the costs incurred by the city in the matter of the Early Closing Bylaw.

Ald. Baxter jumped to his feet at once. "I am ready," he said, "when you can undertake to pay the cost of the works investigation. Then you and Friend Cooper can go to Chicago."

The "Mungo" cigar is "par excellence" the finest 5 cent cigar in the world.

Barrister Hands' Case.

J. Baldwin Hands said to The World yesterday, with reference to the case that the Discipline Committee of the Benchers of the Law Society have before them:

"I have never refused to give Miss Crain her bank stock. I notified her that I was to give it up, but I have offered in writing to give it to her upon payment of my bill. I have made that offer somewhat in this form: If my bill is too large there is a well known remedy, viz.: the taxing of it. She, however, wishes to repudiate my bill entirely, and takes the course she has in her endeavors to, if possible, compel me to pay her one out of it. For your benefit and for the benefit of your readers I wish to repeat that I have the lien on her bank stock, and when my bill is paid, and not till then, will I release or give up the stock. I regret that you published the statements you have, as they cause the slightest alarmed about my name being struck off the solicitors' roll. Any crank can lay a charge against a solicitor before the Law Society. But you know the evil effects of such unfounded statements, and I trust you will put put the matter right."

That Special Audit.

Ald. Maughan again saw fit to attack Ald. Boustead in last night's council meeting over the waterworks special audit. He asked: "So it is true that Mr. Crossley, one of the clerks employed to make the special audit of the waterworks books, has been again employed to finish the work, and the other, Mr. Wilson, has been left out?"

Ald. Boustead: "It is quite true."

Ald. Maughan: "Then I say the principle is wrong and should not be allowed. Both ought to be employed."

Subsequently Ald. Maughan handed in this notice of motion: "That the Waterworks Committee be requested to supply to this council a full and final report from Messrs. Wilson and Crosbie of their special audit of the books of the Waterworks Department."

A Mad Local Assembly.

This communication was read at the City Council last night:

I am instructed to forward the following resolution to you which was passed unanimously by L. A. 2622, K. of L., on June 5: "We, as an assembly of the Knights of Labor, cannot allow the cowardly action of the City Council in repealing the Early Closing Bylaw to pass without giving expression of our disappointment of such action, believing as we do that the gas and electric light monopolies in our city were the prime movers in the agitation for repeal."

The New Tribunal.

Ald. McMillan, seconded by Ald. Boustead, attempted last night to get a resolution through Council appointing a new court comprising ex-Judge Boyd, ex-Mayor W. H. Howland and Mr. Beverley Jones for the purpose of hearing complaints against juvenile offenders. Ald. Galbraith, Harvie, Macdougall, Maughan and Shaw led the fight against it, the motion being defeated by 18 nays to 10 yeas. Later Ald. Hallam brought in a motion referring the matter to Ald. McMillan, Gilbert, Macdougall and Boustead as a special committee.

THE RESOLUTION PASSED.

REV. MR. WILSON'S CASE AGAIN BEFORE THE CONFERENCE.

Dr. Dewart Gets His Motion Through After a Lively Discussion—The Matter Brought Up at the City Council—No Charge Has Been Preferred Against Officer Jarvis.

Rev. Dr. Dewart called up the motion which he moved on Saturday respecting Mr. Wilson's arrest, in the Methodist Conference yesterday. The resolution had been referred to a special committee, and the committee submitted it to Conference after it had been trimmed down as to the number of words used, but all its strength remained. There was practically no difference in the meaning of the resolution as it was printed in The World of yesterday. Dr. Dewart and Mr. Thomas Thompson, the introducers on Saturday, moved for its adoption.

Senator John Macdonald rose to protest against the passing of such a resolution, especially as the case was to go to a higher court and before men who were utterly incapable of doing anything but what was right in the matter. Whilst they should give every possible aid to Mr. Wilson, he thought they should be careful as to the kind of resolution they passed.

Rev. Dr. Parker claimed the right of the conference to express its opinion on the case.

Rev. John A. German opposed the resolution, and said the conference should not waste its breath on the little police magistrate.

Rev. Dr. Shaw deprecated the passing of the resolution. He sympathized with Mr. Wilson, and if he had been near Mr. Wilson at any time when the exercise of a little Christianity were necessary he would have given it.

Rev. LeRoy Hooker suggested the reference of the whole matter to the circuit Mr. Wilson traveled.

Dr. Stone went for the devoted heads of Policemen Jarvis and Col. Denison. He said Mr. Wilson was arrested and charged as a disorderly ruffian, and if all were true that he had heard they should take steps to give the Magistrate an opportunity of explaining his conduct. He (Dr. Stone) was a Justice of the Peace, and they could secure that if they acted right.

Then there were loud cheers.

Rev. Thos. Manning characterized the whole affair as a tempest in a teapot.

Rev. Dr. Pirritt and Rev. Mr. Brown supported Dr. Dewart.

Rev. Mr. Wilkinson thought it was a good thing to wait. Had he voted on Saturday he would have voted with Dr. Dewart, but now he thought they should allow the case to go to the courts and have Mr. Wilson every support in his endeavor to get justice. He would subscribe $10 for the purpose.

Mr. Daniel McLean in a racy speech supported Dr. Dewart.

Rev. J. F. German moved as an amendment and Rev. Wm. Galbraith seconded, "That this conference has heard with the deepest regret of the arrest and condemnation of one of its honored members in a Police Court in this city, and that the case is still before the conference awaits with confidence the final results of the judicial proceedings now pending, and expresses its fullest confidence in the Rev. Mr. Wilson as a christian minister and a law-abiding citizen."

Rev. Dr. Briggs, in a vigorous speech, declared that as The Globe, The Empire and The Telegram had each gone for the policeman and magistrate, consequently the conference should not rush headlong into the matter, but decide at once, and express its opinion on such an important subject.

A minority report was read but through an informality it could not be put, so the conference voted down by a very large majority Mr. German's amendment, and by an equally large majority carried the committee's resolutions.

NO CHARGE MADE YET.

Mayor Clarke Talks of the Arrest at the City Council Last Evening.

A gentleman high up in the confidence of the Police Commissioners told The World last night that it was not probable that Policeman Jarvis would be asked to appear before that body in connection with the arrest of Mr. Wilson, seeing that the Police Magistrate in fining Mr. Wilson had declared that Jarvis acted within his rights in arresting the well-known auctioneer of the city. Messrs. Oliver, Coate & Co., to conduct this sale, which will take place on Saturday, Tuesday, 19th, commencing at 11 o'clock. The residence and grounds will be offered at 12.30, and furniture at 11 o'clock. To those selling really good articles this sale presents an excellent opportunity to secure bargains. The furniture, carpets, etc., being all of the very best manufacture, and will be sold without any reserve.

Hon. G. W. Ross' Trip.

Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education, will leave town to-day at 12.20 o'clock on a journey through the New England States, accompanied by Prof. Galbraith, of the School of Practical Science. He will visit several seats of learning with the object of transplanting some of the educational methods in vogue there to the Ontario educational system. Higher branches of engineering are to be added to the curriculum of the School of Science ere long, and it is probable that a class of manual training will be started in connection with the Model School. Hon. Mr. Ross and Prof. Galbraith will be absent for two weeks.

Extension of Island Park.

The arbitrators in the matter of the Island Park extension held a preliminary meeting in the City Council chamber yesterday afternoon, adjourning after organization to meet again at the call of the chairman. The arbitrators are J. Enoch Thompson, chairman; J. J. Withrow, nominee of the city, and D. Defoe, for the lessees. City Solicitor Biggar conducts the case for the corporation, and ex-City Solicitor McWilliams looks after the interests of the five parties interested in the arbitration as lessees. The names of the latter are David Ward, lessee of the south-easterly half of lot 25; John Gray, lessee of lot 24; and H. L. Hime, J. T. Matthews and George Jackson, joint owners of lot 15.

What Will Make Toronto Great.

Her business, manufactures and railways are doing much to make Toronto a great city. But other things are also assisting, notably the fact that Toronto is an educational, a social and a political centre, and therefore a pleasant place to live in. We are afraid, however, that we are not doing enough to make Toronto attractive to outsiders so that they may either come and visit us or cast in their lot with us. Let us have plenty of parks, with elegant and extensive drives, where a leisure class may enjoy themselves, exhibit themselves. These people all have money to spend and only want the opportunity to distribute it.

Toronto is now, or soon will be, the first university city on the continent. It is one of the best places in the world for a man of limited means who wishes to educate a family, without leaving their homes, to locate in. We have public schools, high schools, private schools, medical, dental, scientific, art, veterinary, pharmaceutical, theological (at least six), colleges, and a university that is doing genuine university work, and which promises still better things. We have good libraries, which ought to be and are being extended.

As to society Toronto has a reputation ahead of any other similar sized city that we know of. Socially, then, we ought to be ready to welcome those who are willing to come and live with us. Toronto has already benefited largely from the presence of wealthy Americans and others who have been attracted by the society of the place.

Let us all join in making Toronto attractive to outsiders.

The Alabama Blunder.

A good deal is being said these days about the necessity for largely increasing the British navy. And a principal reason for this is, the enormous volume and value of Britain's shipping and the freight it carries on the high seas. If Great Britain had less afloat and at risk, the necessity for increasing the navy in order to protect the same would not be so pressing. England boasts of her wealth, but let her understand that she may any year find herself in great danger of losing much of it unless she makes liberal expenditure of some in order to make the remainder safe. This is now recognized as a live and practically a present danger, one that will bear trifling with no longer.

The situation of to-day recalls a most unfortunate precedent which England allowed to be made about a quarter of a century ago. When the Alabama escaped from Liverpool there were "Britishers" who thought that really a very clever thing had been done to beat the Yankees. How far the Government was responsible for the escape of the pirate cruiser has been much disputed; but she face that England had afterwards to pay under award Alabama damages to the amount of $— three millions sterling will remain in history as proof that she was by no means clear of blame. And this Alabama incident was surely one of the most unfortunate things for England that ever happened.

For England, having more value afloat than any other nation, was certainly the most heavily interested of all in having privateering rights, also the rights of neutrals to assist belligerents in any way, cut down to the very lowest notch. It was England's interest to have prevented the escape of the Alabama at all hazards, even had it required a squadron outside the Mersey and an army of soldiers on shore to do so. But England was in one of her crazy fits then; and Mr. Gladstone expressed only too truly the blundering view prevailing in commercial circles when he said afterwards that Jefferson Davis had created a nation. For that he has since been more or less excused, even in the Northern States. But the Alabama blunder is one the memory of which will last long; it will not soon be forgotten.

What that blunder really amounts to John Bull will never fully realize until he finds himself at war with France or Russia, or both. Then, doubtless, "Alabamas" of the most dangerous class will abound on the high seas; and England's liability to suffer damage will be in proportion to the immense value of her merchant shipping afloat. Perhaps she may make the latter tolerably safe, after all; but to do this she must spend her money freely, and that without delay and without any "summing and hawing" or grudging about it. How the terrible import of the Alabama blunder begins to appear. Imagine a wealthy man, with much in the shape of money and valuables at stake, interesting himself to get the law so changed as to make it easier for the enterprising burglar to work out his felonious little plans. Such a blunder did John Bull make in the Alabama business a quarter of a century ago.

The Policeman and the Citizen.

The World has enforced the doctrine that the police must not be interfered with, must not be advised, must not be resisted by citizens on the public streets; that the citizen's right and duty for the time being is to obey: to keep quiet, to move on, as ordered. The citizen who undertakes to lecture an officer on the street or to argue a point with him, as did Mr. Cheeseman on Saturday night, utterly mistakes his rights and his duty in the premises.

But while this is the duty of the citizen the policeman is also bound:

1. Not to lose his temper, no matter how much he may be provoked. He is not, like disturbers of the peace, looking for a row. His trade is to learn to control himself under all circumstances, and until he has learned to do that he is not fit for the position. To lose his temper and to swear at a citizen makes him worse than a barbarian. Don't be a barbarian.

2. He must be civil. His duty is to be firm on all occasions, and on all occasions respectful. The citizen is his paymaster, he is the servant and guardian of his paymaster, and whether the citizen be rich or poor, drunk or sober, insolent or the opposite, it is for the officer to be respectful toward him, and to handle him with care.

As to our Toronto police, we must say that they do not always exhibit these qualities. The commissioners and above all the chief constable and his assistant officers are responsible in this matter. It is their duty to instruct the men, daily if necessary, in the art of keeping their temper and in being civil. As we have said, teach them to be firm and strict, but always good-tempered and respectful.

We are glad to see a reform in the way of making arrests, though there is still room for improvement. We disagree entirely with the idea of taking a respectable man to the cells, if he or his friends can satisfy the officer who he is and that he can be reached by a summons. We also dissent from the practice of incarcerating respectable citizens in the cells. If they are able to go home, or if their friends will take them home, or if a citizen offers to bail them out, they ought to be released forthwith.

Of all things to be avoided is the growth of a feud between citizens and police!

The World, in conclusion, extends its most distinguished consideration to policemen and citizen alike, and at the same time suggests that Col. Grasett cut out this article and read it over, first to himself and then to his inspectors, and instruct his inspectors to read it over to their sergeants, and the sergeants to read it over to the constables, so that the whole force may be imbued with the philosophy of the case as unfolded by The World. For the foregoing is the pith and the marrow of this new bone of contention.

Some foolish persons are saying that Policeman Jarvis, who is said to be an Orangeman, ill-used Rev. W. F. Wilson, who is also said to be an Orangeman, because he mistook him for a Catholic priest. There might be some foundation for this assertion if it were true that Catholic clergymen were in the habit of being assaulted by Toronto policeman. But the facts are all the other way. It was only the other day that Father McBride, on behalf of the administrators of the diocese, wrote to Chief of Police Grasett, thanking him for the conduct of his men on the occasion of the funeral of Archbishop Lynch and at other times.

MASTER AND SERVANT.

The Case of Thomas Cormack against W. R. Brock & Co. Result in a Non-suit.

The somewhat important case of Thomas Cormack against W. R. Brock came to a sudden end in the Police Court yesterday by a non-suit being entered with costs. The plaintiff was examined at great length on his own behalf by Mr. N. Gordon Bigelow and cross-examined by Mr. J. K. Kerr, Q.C., for the defence on Saturday. Yesterday Mr. Fred. Wyld was examined on behalf of the plaintiff. At the close of Mr. Wyld's evidence, Mr. Bigelow rested his case for the plaintiff.

Mr. J. K. Kerr then said:

If my learned friend closes his case now I submit he has made no case. The plaintiff himself admits he used the expression, "Blackguard" so that he meant that to apply to all of them down at the warehouse, who were working against him, as he thought working against him; that he thought Mr. Brock was one of those, and named him as one of those to whom he meant this expression to apply, that if the cap fitted Mr. Brock he could wear it. He admits in the witness box here that he used the expression meaning it, he admitted having used it deliberately; that he knew what he was saying, and I cannot conceive that a witness, called the plaintiff, who admits that he did use such an expression towards his employer, can, under these circumstances, by any possibility, recover damages for dismissal, after having used such language. He admits also that at the time Mr. Brock dismissed him he told him that he had heard something that he (the plaintiff) had said, and the plaintiff did not ask explanation of what it was.

Mr. Bigelow, for the plaintiff, said:

The question to be decided here is whether there was a contract of hiring and whether that contract was broken by the defendant. The plaintiff, it is admitted, was engaged for a year. He was willing to perform his services to the end of the year, and Mr. Brock dismissed him before the expiry of the year. A reason is set up by the defendant; it is not the reason given by Mr. Brock, but the plaintiff, it is admitted, used the expression [illegible] as applying to those who were working against him, and if the cap fitted any person he might put it on. But those were words used, not in respect of the business he was employed to carry out, and were not spoken in the firm's time. They were words used in anger, and in consequence of his position being injured and himself being handicapped for doing work for his employers. They were not used against the interests of the firm; they were used in anger and simply in protest at the annoyance he had been subjected to. But the plaintiff did not stop to consider the meaning of them or the deliberation with which they were said. He saw they were wild words of anger and petulance, and he said more than that, he had no particular person in his mind, and it was only in cross-examination when my learned friend asked him on whom it applied, he said anybody the cap fitted could put it on.

His Lordship: "Don't you think if he had not meant it to apply to Mr. Brock he would have said that then?"

Mr. Bigelow: "He said he had no person in his mind at the time; he simply was annoyed at being injured in his business. I submit the further question as to whether he was dismissed for that or not should be allowed to go to the jury."

Mr. Kerr: "The language of Mr. Baron Anderson, in 'Smith on master and servant' (page 151), is very clear on that point."

His Lordship: "I am going to rule in your favor, Mr. Kerr."

Addressing the jury, His Lordship said:

I am going to withdraw this case from your consideration, holding, as I do, that the plaintiff on his own showing has disclosed such a state of facts as justified his dismissal. And I will tell you shortly why I have come to that conclusion, because juries do not always understand why cases are opened to them by counsel and in regard to which evidence has been led, are not allowed to go on and adjudicated upon by them—not allowed to be submitted to their decision on the evidence. I have, where the case has been withdrawn from the jury, made it a rule to explain the reasons of my so doing. Now, in this case the plaintiff tells us he was employed for a year by the firm of W. R. Brock & Co. for a particular service. He was employed as a special traveler to carry special lines of goods, woolens, tailors' trimmings, etc., with a sort of general or roving commission to go to any part of the country to which he might be sent by the firm without reference to the districts that might have been assigned to the other travelers of the house.

It appears that after he had been at that particular service for four or five months, the new departure was not found to work very well for some reason or another, not a sufficient one to allow the venture did not prove such a success as to satisfy the plaintiff himself, and a feeling of dissatisfaction grew up, not only on his part but on the part of the other travelers, who complained of the plaintiff trespassing on their special territory. Under these circumstances, the plaintiff says, he complained to Mr. Brock, and he claims that Mr. Brock did not protect him, and on giving expression to his feelings he admits he made use of certain expressions too filthy to be reiterated by me to you. That language, Mr. Brock says, justified him in dismissing Cormack from his employ. In the first place, as a matter of law, I think W. R. Brock & Co. had a perfect right to conduct their business as they thought best, and if they chose to pay Mr. Cormack salary for a year and kept him a absolutely nothing to do they were at perfect liberty to do so. Their reasons for so doing were entirely matters of their own business. In the next place, those words having been used, I hold, as a matter of law, it did not make any difference whether Mr. Brock knew of them at the time he dismissed the plaintiff or not, because the law is, as I understand it, that the master who has dismissed a servant can justify the dismissal on any ground existing at the time, even although the master did not know of that at the time the dismissal took place.

There is some evidence that Mr. Brock had heard of these expressions used by the plaintiff, because Cormack himself states that Mr. Brock said he had heard something about what he (Cormack) had said. The learned counsel for the defendant has argued with very great ingenuity and skill that we have nothing to do with that language used by the plaintiff; that the plaintiff was dismissed, not for that, but for other reasons; that that language was used outside of business hours, at the lunch hour, when the time was the plaintiff's own.

I hold as a matter of law that although they might not be able to command his services during that time, having allowed him to go for an hour, nevertheless the use of such language was entirely incompatible with the relations that ought to exist between master and servant. No master in the land would retain, or could be expected to retain, such a person in his employment, and I venture to hold that the law will justify the master in dismissing a servant making use of such foul and uncalled for language as the plaintiff here admits he used towards his employer. Then the next question is, "Did the language apply to Mr. Brock?" You have heard Mr. Cormack, the plaintiff's own statement as to that. It is perfectly clear to my mind and that is part of my decision that he did use the filthy language which you have heard repeated here, meaning that to apply to Mr. Brock; that he used those grossly insulting foul and disgraceful expressions to apply to all those down at the warehouse who were working against him, and there is no doubt from the plaintiff's own evidence these words he meant to apply to Mr. Brock, his employer, as well as others in the warehouse.

Under these circumstances I hold the plaintiff has made out no cause of action, and I dismiss the action with costs.

In the Police Court.

In the Police Court yesterday Wm. Coutts was fined $20 and costs for having a revolver in his possession. Coutts, who is on his way to British Columbia, was found drunk in Gould-street early yesterday morning. In lieu of the fine of $20 he took fifteen minutes in the cells and the pistol was confiscated. Eva Harris, concealment of birth, remanded for a week. Mike King, larceny, ten days. Wm. Ferguson, larceny, thirty days. Wm. Powell and John Henry, two boys, were charged with burglary. Powell was found guilty and will be sentenced Friday. Henry was discharged. A number of cases against violaters of the Early-Closing Bylaw were not gone into.

Another Story to the Model School Building.

The work of adding another story to the Model School building, St. James'-square, is going on. The Department of Education is spending $20,000 in improvements and additions. When the work is finished four new class rooms and a gymnasium will be available. The sheds that are now anything but an ornament to the place will be pulled down and slight internal changes will also be made in the Normal School.

THE COLLEGE BOYS WIN BY FOUR WICKETS IN ONE INNINGS.

The Toronto and East Toronto Cricket Clubs' Fixtures—Racing at Brighton Beach—Ball Games Yesterday—Games To-day—Turf and Baseball Gossip—Spots of Sport.

The Upper Canada College eleven defeated the Bankers on the Toronto Cricket Club grounds yesterday by 4 wickets. Play was begun at 3.30, the Bankers going first to bat. They put together 51 runs, of which Saunders contributed 14 in good form; none of the others reaching double figures.

The college boys followed and scored 57 runs at a cost of 6 wickets. Small showed splendid form in his innings, getting 20 before he was bowled by Muntz. Pardee played a fine innings for 13, and seemed to partly regain his last year's form. The heat was intense and very oppressive to the players. The following is the score:

The U.C.C. Day Boys Defeat Dovercourt.

A cricket match was played on Saturday between the Upper Canada College Day Boys and the Dovercourts, which resulted in a victory for U.C.C., by a score of 21 to 16 in the first innings. In the second innings U.C.C. made 74, to which C. Wood contributed 24. The Dovercourts only succeeded in scoring 7 runs for 4 wickets, when the stumps were drawn. The bowling of West and Wood for U.C.C. was very effective. The Day Boys have decided to change their name to the Stanley Cricket Club on account of confusion with the U.C.C. Juniors.

Dust from the Diamond.

Hamilton players who make home runs will be plucked by a local admirer.

Mr. Justice Rose was an admiring spectator of a game at Belleville last week.

Keats is no longer captain of the Clevelands. The team is now captained by Snyder.

Murphy of the Stars was fined $10 during the Syracuse-Rochester game last Wednesday for talking too much. The manager soaked him for $10 more.

Ben Young, the new umpire of the International Association, comes highly recommended from the Tri-State League. He wasn't getting enough pay there.

During the last two years the Chicago club has made more money from the sale of players than the capital stock amounts to. The transfer of Kelly, Clarkson, Gore, McCormick, Daltrymple and Sunday netted the club $30,000. The capital stock is only $20,000.

Syracuse and Rochester have made fewer changes than any club in the Association.

A board meeting of the Toronto Baseball Association was held yesterday afternoon, and the following officers elected: A. Foy and D. Armour as Associate Directors with President M. McConnell, G. W. Torrance, A. W. Smith and W. Macpherson. The board now feel confident in the engagement of Oberlander, that the success of last year will again be repeated.

Something startling may be looked for in Buffalo shortly. The club has been playing miserable ball, and the directors are very sore. It is reported that some of the players, notably Fanning, Lehane and Grant, have been drinking heavily. The directors are bound to have a winning team at any cost.

Billy Hoover, who has resigned from the staff of International umpires, will open a saloon in Rochester.

President Day favors the sending of one of the Giant twirlers over to Jersey City for the remainder of the season, but the matter has not been fully settled upon. President Day would like to see the Jersey Club winning just now, and it is more than likely that he will send either Titcomb or Crane over the river to do missionary work for the Jerseyites.

The directors of the Syracuse Star Baseball Association are puzzling their brains to explain why it is the public does not bestow better patronage on their ball club. In former years it has been an everyday expression that Syracuse must have a winning ball team or none at all, and that there was no end of money to be made with a club that should keep winning. So they went to work to secure the strongest club possible, with the result that they have the best playing, the best managed and the best behaved ball team that Syracuse ever had. The club took the lead in the league the first day, and has steadily increased it; yet the attendance is sadly below that of a year ago when the Stars had hard work to gain third place, or two years ago when the Stars won less than half their games. About 1000 attend daily, and the crowd is oftener below than above that figure; but the association is not more than $500 behind.—N. Y. Sun.

Some years ago a New York Central State College League was formed. Rochester University was a member of the league, and proved veritable pie for the other college teams. The reverses of the team finally became unbearable. It was then decided to strengthen the nine by the introduction of a couple of professionals. "Doc" Kennedy, now of the Rochesters, and Tommy Kearns of the Toronto team were secured. When the opposing team came upon the field and saw Kennedy and Kearns practicing they smelt a rat. Kearns and Kennedy were called off the field and subjected to a rigid cross-examination. Kearns acquitted himself well, but Kennedy gave the "snap" away when one of his questioners drew the work of a Greek author from his pocket, and, handing it to him, asked him what he thought of the latest method of scoring by Newphon, the Syracuse player. "What the fellow don't know about scoring ain't worth knowing," replied "Doc," minutely examining the book. It is needless to say that Kennedy's forgetfulness or ignorance was responsible for his and Kearns' retirement from the field.—Exchange.

The Game To-day.

The Indianapolis National League team will do battle on the diamond here this afternoon with the Torontos. The new pitcher, Oberlander, will be in the box for the home club, which will no doubt draw a large crowd to witness the south paw twirler perform. An excellent game should result. The game will be called at 4 o'clock.

Among the Amateurs.

A meeting of the Wanderers' Baseball Club will be held at the club house on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Standards are open for challenges from any junior club. T. Benson, secretary, 238 Manning-avenue.

The West End Y.M.C.A Baseball Club defeated the Metropolitans on Saturday by 13 to 7.

The Ontario Pump Company nine defeated the Massey Manufacturing Company team on Saturday by 43 to 4. Batteries: Till-Wilmer; Thompson, Monroe and Patton.

The White Stars of Etobicoke defeated Markham on Saturday at Uxbridge by 25 to 8.

A match was played yesterday in the Queen's Park between teams from the cigarmakers and plumbers on stalls, which resulted in a victory for the former by 27 to 7.

At Bracebridge yesterday the Junior team of that place defeated the Gravenhurst Juniors by 37 to 14.

Racing Abandoned at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 18.—The racing here has been abandoned, and owners, trainers and bookmakers leave for Chicago to-night, where racing begins next Saturday. The attempt at racing here was much too ambitious for the race-going public.

Racing at Brighton Beach.

NEW YORK, June 18.—There was a large attendance at Brighton Beach this afternoon. The weather was fine and track in fair condition. Results:

FIRST RACE—¾ mile. Ulveda won, Rio Grande 2d, Bess Viol 3d. Time, 1.18¾.

SECOND RACE—¾ mile. Wanderment won, Gracie 2d, Cato 3d. Time, 1.18¾.

THIRD RACE—1 mile. Cardinal McCloskey won, Bonnie S. 2d, Charles Arnold 3d. Time 1.48.

FOURTH RACE—1 mile. Bright Eyes won, Quibbler 2d, Little Mickey 3d. Time 1.51¾.

FIFTH RACE—Clifton Handicap 1¼ miles. Tattler won, Nettie 2d, Supervisor 3d. Time 2.09¾.

Betting Systems.

The Turf, Field and Farm says: The principal objection to the mutuels is that one never knows what he stands to win. The sole aim of racing, however, is not to foster a gambling spirit. The popularity of one system of betting over another is largely due to education. If the people cannot speculate through the books, they will through the auctions and the mutuels. This has been clearly demonstrated at Jerome Park. The true policy is to establish on jockey club tracks both kinds of betting. The public will then be able to choose between them, and one system will act as a check upon the other. If the odds are not good enough in the books the money will go into the mutuels, and when the mutuels prove unsatisfactory the current will be strongest towards the books. The radicals of both sides now seem to be in favor of this straddle. Friction has tamed the fiery spirit of each party, and it is not likely that hereafter the turf will be split into bitter factions over betting systems.

Derby Facts.

Out of the 100 winners of the Derby, twelve have won the Two Thousand Guineas (not founded until 1809), these being Sir Charles Bunbury's Smolensko in 1813, the Duke of Rutland's Cadland in 1828, the Earl of Jersey's Bay Middleton in 1836 and his West Australian in 1853, Mr. Naylor's Macaroni in 1859, Count de Lagrange's Gladiateur in 1865, Sir Richard Sutton's Lord Lyon in 1866, Mr. Jardine's Pretender in 1869, the Duke of Westminster's Shotover in 1882, the Duke of Westminster's Ormonde in 1886, and Ayrshire, Sir Charles Bunbury's Eleanor in 1801, Mr. W. Tanson's Blink Bonny in 1857, and the Duke of Westminster's Shotover are the only three fillies which have won the Derby, the two former having also won the Oaks, for which Shotover did not run. Eleven winners of the Derby—Mr. Wilson's Champion in 1840, Lord Clifden's Surpliice in 1848, Lord Edlingtoile The Flying Dutchman in 1849, Lord Zetland's Voltigeur in 1850, Mr. Bowes' West Australian in 1853, Mr. W. Tanson's Blair Athol in 1864, Count de Lagrange's Gladiateur in 1865, Sir Richard Sutton's Lord Lyon in 1866, Lord Falmouth's Silvio in 1877, Mr. Lorillard's Iroquois in 1881, and the Duke of Westminster's Ormonde in 1886—have also won the St. Leger.

Gossip of the Turf.

The imported filly Furbelow, in charge of Charlie Phair, left yesterday for Sheepshead Bay, where she will join Burgess' stable.

Trustee is to be sent to Monmouth Park next week, where he will try for honors between the flags.

Richard O'Leary will leave for London to-day with Harry Cooper, where he will run on Thursday and Friday. W. E. Owen will take Bonnie Duke to-morrow.

A match race for $50 a side will take place at Woodbine Park between Dr. Campbell's Pawnbroker and Mr. Deadsheet's Foundling. The distance is half a mile, weight for age, which will make Foundling carry 118 and Pawnbroker 117.

The Coney Island Stakes, for which the Bard had a walk-over on Saturday, was also won by Mr. Cassatt's horse last year, and previous to that every year since the race was inaugurated in 1882, as follows: 1883, Hindoo; 1884, Boutjack; 1884, Miss Woodford; 1885, Miss Woodford; 1886, Pontiac.

It is said that the Haggin people lost $35,000 by the defeat of their trio, Hidalgo, Firenzi and Aurelia in the Suburban.

The race horse Hypsaia was killed at Latonia on Thursday last. He was being put on a car to be shipped to Chicago and accidentally broke his leg, and he was killed to be put out of his suffering. He was owned by Mr. A. G. McCampbell of Louisville, and was valued at $2500.

The winter books all won on Elkwood, as he was hardly backed at all for the Suburban. For place, however, they were all hit hard, as Torra Cotta and Firenzi were well supported for winning "1, 2, 3."

No Commander for the Wimbledon Team.

OTTAWA, June 18.—The command of the Wimbledon team is still a matter of doubt. Colonel Macdonald, who was to have commanded the team, is for private reasons unable to go. The position has, it is understood, been offered to Col. Frank Bond of the Prince of Wales Rifles, who also for private reasons declines to accept. No information could be obtained to-night as to whom the next man is likely to be. The team sails on Thursday, and it looks as if the commander would have to follow later.

Spots of Sport.

The annual meet of the National League of American Wheelmen began at Baltimore yesterday. There are fifteen hundred members at the Monumental City, including many from Toronto.

A football match was played on Saturday at Campbellford between the Juniors of that place and the Norwood High School Juniors, which resulted in favor of the visitors by one goal to none.

A lacrosse match took place yesterday at Oshawa between the Maple Leafs of that place and the Whitby twelve, resulting in favor of the latter by four games to one.

The annual spring games of the Toronto Athletic Club will be held on June 23 and promise to be a great success. Among the most prominent entered are: Fletcher and Merrigold of Woodstock, Gibbs and Ball, Guelph, and Darrell, Kingston. In the sculling races H. P. Davies, Bert Brown, Johnston and Foster will be among the contestants.

Harry Bethune, the sprinter, after a short visit to his home in Cornwall, has started west on another ringing tour. Saturday last he ran in a 120-yard handicap at Council Bluffs and won first money in 11¾s. He was scratched at South Bend, Ind., 3 yards; Lozier of Chicago 8 yards.

An international bench show of dogs will be held at Buffalo from Sept. 11 to 14.

Mr. Maurice Gavin, president of the Gaelic Athletic Association of Dublin, and a party of Irish amateur athletes, will shortly make a tour through America.

The Toronto Athletic Club committee held a meeting in the Rosedale club house last night to make final arrangements for the coming races on Dominion Day next. President Pearson was in the chair. Four new members were received and a satisfactory report of the treasurer received.

Sixty oarsmen will compete in the summer regatta at Winnipeg on Saturday.

The second of the summer night handicaps of the Toronto Athletic Club will take place this evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Londstones that Attract the Crowds.

Saturday the surging crowds of anxious bargain purchasers was something wonderful at the Waterloo House. All this week—Ladies' fine summer vests 15c; large lace ties 5 for 25c.; real yak lace, worth 25c., for 5c.; wide flouncing laces 25c.; 25c. wide embroideries for 10c.; ladies' 10c. collars for 5c. and 12½c. for 5c.; white handkerchiefs 3 for 5c. or 18c. per doz.; seamless cashmere hose, 6 to 6, 20c. and 25c. a pair; children's seamless cot. hose, good and strong, 5c. a pair; all wool jersey cloths, new shades, 12½c., worth 20c. Ladies, remember McKendry's, 278 Yonge corner of Altee. ed

A Complete Union of Temperance Workers.

Last night a largely attended meeting was held in Chestnut-street Methodist church, when an address on temperance was delivered by Rev. H. S. Hartley, B.A., of Trinidad. He urged a complete union of all the temperance organizations of Canada for aggressive work.

Where is my wandering boy to-night? Oh, he has gone down to the Army and Navy to order one of those fine Halifax Tweed suits which they make to order for $15.00. Have no fear for him, for he is quite able to take care of himself. He knows how many beat make five. No high-priced West End tailor can make his clothes when he can get the same goods at the Army and Navy equally well made and very much lower in price. The young men of Toronto are beginning to find out that the Army and Navy is the place to go when they want a nice suit made to order. A Cool Spot.

—One of the coolest and most attractive places we happen into in our walks around town is the newly-established furniture house of G. Tickell & Co., 347 Yonge-street, west (nearly opposite Rossin House). The building was specially planned and fitted up for them; the goods are all new, fresh, bright and airy. This, coupled with the magnificent display of fine and fashionable furniture always to be seen in them, makes the place an exceedingly attractive one, at all times worthy of inspection. 26

A monster sign has just been painted on the Army and Navy store, corner Yonge and Temperance streets, by the Toronto Sign Company. It is the largest sign in Toronto, and advertises the cheapest clothing store in the country. If the Army and Navy do all the big sign says they do, it's the place to go when one wants to save two dollars and no shoddy, no matter how low the price. 135 King-street East and 138 Yonge-street. ed

There are so many cough medicines in the market, that it is sometimes difficult to tell which to buy. If we had a cough, a cold or any affliction of the throat or lungs we would try Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. Those who have used it think it far ahead of all other preparations recommended for such complaints. The little folks like it as it is as pleasant

BEERBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports as follows to-day: London—Floating cargoes—Wheat and corn nil. Cargoes on passage—Wheat and corn steady and quiet. Mark Lane—Wheat, flour and corn quiet. French country markets quiet. Paris—Wheat steady, flour firm. Good cargoes No. 1 Cal. wheat, off coast, 32s 3d, was 32s 3d. English farmers' delivery of wheat during the week past is as follows: Wheat 39,655 quarters; average price 31s 7d, was 31s 3d. Weather in England cold. Liverpool—Spot wheat neglected, corn dull, 6s 7½d. 1d cheaper. Good cargoes wheat, off coast, 32s, was 33s. Present and following month, 32s 6d, was 33s; do. Walla Walla wheat, off coast, 32s, was 32s. Present and following month, 32s, was 32.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports wheat quiet to-day with demand poor and holders offering freely, corn dull, demand poor. Quotations—Spring wheat, 6s 7d to 6s 8d; red winter, 6s 7d to 6s 8d; No. 1 Cal. 6s 7d to 6s 9d; corn, 4s 7d; peas 5s 10d; pork, 70s; lard, 42s 3d; cheese, 44s 6d.

Chicago Live Stock.

To-day's estimated receipts at the Union Stock Yards, Chicago, are 30,000; official Saturday, 9,843; shipments, 15,163; left over, about 2500; cattle receipts, 10,000; market steady.

The Coal Trade.

The Coal Trade Journal reports the production of anthracite last week at 556,891 tons, as against 607,546 tons same week last year. Since Jan. 1 the total production is 14,891,088 tons comparing with 14,533,270 tons same time last year, a decrease of 162,182 tons.

Canadian Oil.

The total clearances on the Petrolea Oil Exchange for the week ending June 7, were 23,592 bbls.; for the week ending June 14, were 17,379 bbls., with prices ranging from $1.12 to $1.13. The present price has stimulated drilling considerably and operations in the producing field are pretty active. On the McPherson farm in the eastern field Mr. C. McKenzie has tapped the same vein as the late McPherson well and has a pretty good pumper. If it does not prove more permanent than the others in that field it will not prove much of a market disturber. Marshall & Stokes are reported to have struck a good well south of the town on Bear Creek Hill, but its capacity is not yet known.

The inquiries for refined have been increasing and there is a strong confidence in the trade that this season will be an active one. There has been for the last two or three years determined efforts made to improve the quality of Canadian refined, and it is gratifying to know that a large measure of success has resulted.—Petrolea Topic.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING
EPPS'S COCOA.
BREAKFAST.
"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

PRESTON SUMMER RESORT AND MINERAL SPRINGS.

Preston, one of the prettiest towns in Western Canada, with its beautiful, cool, shady walks and drives, its lovely valleys, with the charming little River Speed running through it until it reaches the Grand River, has long been noted for its celebrated mineral springs. The remarkable curative qualities of the baths in the most obstinate cases of rheumatism, kidney and liver complaints, neuralgia, skin diseases of every description, as well as its recuperative powers to the business man needing quiet and rest after the year's labors, can be testified by hundreds of our prominent citizens. The hotel, situated on a slight eminence in the quiet part of the town, with cool, terraced gardens, croquet lawns, etc., is well adapted for the invalid or seeker of quiet summer repose and rest. The accommodations are most comfortable, with every modern convenience, the table first-class, billiard table and livery stable in connection; the rates lower than any other summer resort in the Dominion. Its close proximity to Toronto with low railway rates, make it the most desirable spot in Ontario for our citizens to spend their summer vacation. Preston can be reached by G.W.R. to Preston Station, by Credit Valley to Galt, within three miles, or by G.T.R. to Blair, one and a half miles. Tickets for Springs can be bought at reduced rates. Bus meets every train at Preston Station. Send for circular with rates and particulars to.
