TENTH YEAR. FRIDAY MORNING JUNE 7, 1889. PRICE ONE CENT.

THE LIVING AND THE DEAD

TAKING A CENSUS OF THE WATER-WHELMED VALLEY.

Many of the Bodies yet Unidentified—To be Placed in Nameless Graves To-day—How One Family Died—Trying to Break the Railway Blockade.

JOHNSTOWN, June 6.—Up to noon to-day 728 bodies had been embalmed at St. Columbus Catholic Church, Cambria City. The only one secured to-day was that of a small child. A number of bodies were taken from the debris at Kernville this morning. A number of people arrived from Pittsburg to-day, causing considerable trouble, as there are no provisions here and they only eat up what is here for the survivors. Even the undertakers were unable to remain at work in the Fourth Ward morgue this morning owing to the stench. The bodies were in the small schoolroom. All the unknown dead were taken from the room and placed in the front yard. They will be kept for a day or two longer, but in the hot sun decomposition will set in very soon. Four bodies were found near the stone bridge this morning. They are at the Pennsylvania Railroad station. One was identified as that of John McKee. The others were those of a young woman and two small children. The First Presbyterian Church contains 9 unknowns. Burials will have to be made to-morrow.

This morning women found three members of Benjamin Hoffman's family, who occupied a large residence in the rear of Lincoln-street. Benjamin Hoffman, the head of the family, was found seated on the edge of the bedstead. He was evidently preparing to retire when the flood struck the building. He had his socks in his pockets. His 20-year-old daughter was found close by attired in a night dress. The youngest member of the family, a 3-year-old infant, was also found beside the bed. The body of a woman, supposed to be Mrs. Reese, was also brought in this morning. The only identification at the Presbyterian Church was that of Mrs. William Rich.

The real work of ascertaining who the living and dead of Johnstown are was started this morning. A corps of clerks under the direction of the Relief Committee started out and will go to every house in this vicinity and secure the names of the living. Another corps of men will endeavor to find out who the missing are and in this manner it can be nearly definitely known just how many lives were lost. A revision of the registration list shows that only 13,000 people had registered up to 1 o'clock this afternoon at the different registration stations. By this list it is plainly apparent that a large number of the survivors will not take the trouble to register.

It seems almost incredible that so many bodies remain unidentified. Thousands of people from the different sections of the state have seen them, yet they remain unidentified. At Nineveh they are burying all the unidentified dead but in the morgues in this vicinity no bodies have been buried unless identified.

A Village Almost Swept Away.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., June 6.—The village of Crescent on the Northern Central Railway has been nearly all washed away. Many houses and a part of the works are gone. The water was up to the roofs of most of the houses. A part of the people took refuge in a church on the hill. Sixty people are destitute. Aid is asked for.

Food for the Hungry.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., June 6.—All apprehensions as to further suffering from hunger have been dissipated. The seven cars of supplies brought up yesterday evening by the Secretary of the Commonwealth are ready to be unloaded. Advices coming in show that the loss of property has been very heavy in all places near here. Morris, Tioga County, is a total wreck. As the water gets lower new evidence of the disastrous work of the flood appears. Some large mills are still filled with homeless people and freight cars and improvised shanties are used by others.

Lifting the Railway Blockade.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—A train of five cars, carrying 132 east bound passengers, started from Altoona at 2 o'clock this afternoon over the Pennsylvania Railroad for Philadelphia. They go to the Montgomery Bridge via Lockhaven, and if that structure is not sufficiently completed to allow of the train passing it will run to Sunbury. At Sunbury the passengers will be ferried across the river and will then be placed in another train and brought to Philadelphia, probably reaching here to-night. This is the first train to leave Altoona eastward since last Friday. It is expected more trains will follow.

German Sympathy.

BERLIN, June 6.—The North German Gazette speaking of the Johnstown calamity says: "The Americans are always charitable. The condition of the sufferers by the Johnstown floods demands German assistance."

New Hampshire's Gift.

CONCORD, N.H., June 6.—The Legislature to-day appropriated $10,000 for the Conemaugh sufferers.

Can't Give the State's Money.

BOSTON, June 6.—The State Attorney-General has decided that the bill appropriating $30,000 for the Johnstown flood sufferers is unconstitutional. The appropriation will therefore fall through.

Lost All But Their Lives.

HAMILTON, June 6.—Mr. Frank Whitelock of No. 98 West-avenue north, this city, left yesterday afternoon for Johnstown to look after the family of his brother, which consists of Edward Whitelock, his wife and two children. This morning a telegram was received stating that all the members of the family had escaped and were well, but they lost everything, their house being washed away with the others.

The Professor's Family all Lost.

Last year Professor Seymour, a phrenologist and temperance lecturer, spent several months in Toronto, enlightening the public on his special subjects at Shaftesbury Hall, in Queen's Park on Sunday afternoons and in several of the places of worship. He made many friends in this city, prominent amongst whom was Rev. Dr. Wild. All who had any acquaintance with the Professor will be sorry to hear that his wife and five children are stated to have been drowned in the Pennsylvania flood. The family lived at Johnstown. At the time of the flood Prof Seymour was traveling in Western Ontario, and when he heard the news at once started for home. Mrs. Scott of 138 Shuter-street received a card from her husband, Professor Seymour's advance agent, written from London on Monday, saying that the Professor had gone home. On Wednesday Mr. Scott wrote again, saying that Seymour had wired him that the whole family were missing, and were undoubtedly drowned. No trace of their bodies has been found

TOPICS FROM THE CAPITAL.

Lively Times Looked for in Behring Sea This Summer.

OTTAWA, June 6.—There will likely be a lively time in Behring Sea this season. Despite the denial of the report that British men-of-war will not recapture Canadian vessels seized by the American cutters, a gentleman in Victoria to an Ottawa friend says he puts no faith in the British denial. The Canadian sealers, he says, will go north as usual in a few days and if asked to heave to will resist seizures. If overpowered they will be retaken by British cruisers. The Canadian vessel owners entered Behring Sea last summer and were not molested, though frequently sighted by American cutters. They feel confident the American cutter will again keep out of their way this season.

Correspondence is still in progress between the British and Canadian Governments relative to the erection of the proposed defences on the Pacific Coast in British Columbia. The force to be stationed at Esquimalt and Vancouver will be maintained by the Canadian Government, though the armament, ammunition and submarine stores are to be supplied by the Imperial authorities. England has also agreed to provide seventy-five Royal marine artillery, including fifteen submarine divers. Part of the armament has already reached the Pacific Coast.

Yesterday at noon as Recorder Champagne, one of the License Commissioners of Hull, was walking down Victoria-street to his dinner Mr. Thompson, a grocer of the city who had been refused a license to sell liquor this year, ran after him and horsewhipped him. A warrant for the arrest of Thompson has been issued. He cannot be found.

It is rumored in militia circles that Lieut.-Col. Miller of the 8th Royal Rifles of Quebec has resigned the command of that battalion. Major Barstall is likely to succeed him.

Messrs. G. R. Pugsley, Senator McInnes and E. B. Osler, the chief promoters of the Regina and Long Lake Railway, were in the city yesterday. They say that the road will be proceeded with this season.

General Sir Fred Middleton will inspect the military camp at Niagara on June 18. He will afterwards inspect the Royal Military College at Kingston and "A" Battery of Artillery.

Messrs. Fred. Cook, president of the Canadian Shorthand Writers' Association, and Secretary J. L. Payne waited on the Minister of Customs to-day and urged the granting of the application of the Canadian Shorthand Society of Toronto for the free admission of a bust of Isaac Pittman, the inventor of phonography. It is proposed to place the bust in the theatre of the Education Department at Toronto. Mr. Bowell said he would have pleasure in recommending his colleagues to grant the request.

PARIS, June 6.—In the debate on the educational budget in the Chamber of Deputies to-day the rising of ex-Premier Ferry to address the House caused a great uproar. A member of the Right shouted "The blood of the Tonquin dead chokes you," and many similar cries were heard. M. de Cassagnac advised the House to submit and listen. "We swallow our disgust," exclaimed M. Bourgeois, a deputy for the Department of Vendee. Finally on the demand of the President order was restored and M. Ferry proceeded with his remarks.

BAY OF QUINTE CONFERENCE.

The Big Log Jam Near Belleville Broken—130,000 Logs in the Bay.

BELLEVILLE, June 6.—The annual session of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the Methodist Church was opened this morning. Considerable time was occupied in the reception of the delegates, after which the election of officers took place. The candidates for the presidency were Rev. Drs. Burwash and Williams. The former was elected. Rev. Wm. Johnston was elected secretary.

Shortly after noon to-day the 130,000 logs which were piled up in the river from the Canifton bridge to the distillery at Corbyville broke loose and were carried down the river in a solid mass at great speed. The timber went out into the bay. The expense to the lumbermen will be great.

Thirteen factories boarded 1140 boxes of cheese to-day; sales 280 boxes colored at 8 7-8c.

SEATTLE, W.T., IN FLAMES

A LOSS OF $5,000,000 ALREADY SUSTAINED.

The Remainder of the City in Danger—Firemen Helpless—A Blaze at Simcoe Which Is Supposed to Have Grown Out of a Fire Engine Fight.

CHICAGO, June 6.—A despatch received here this evening says Seattle, W.T., is burning. A loss of $5,000,000 is reported and the remainder of the city is in danger.

Later.

SEATTLE, W. T., June 6.—Fire broke out at 2 p.m. to-day in the Pontiac building on Front-street and by 4.30 was raging over a district of five or six blocks with tremendous fury. The wind was from the north and the direction of the fire was along the water in Front-street and from the water front to the big brick block between Columbia and San Francisco-streets. The indications were that the whole business portion of the city would be swept away, involving a loss of millions. The magnificent San Francisco store and the other stores in the row were on fire and the whole big block seemed doomed. The local firemen were helpless and telegraphed in all directions for aid. At 4.30 p.m. a conflagration was rushing through the heart of the city. To add to the peril a smart breeze began blowing off the bay, fanning the flames, and at the same time a thousand feet of hose was caught in the advancing blaze and destroyed. The opera house block, the block opposite, all the warehouses at the foot of Cobourg-street and also the great group of buildings in the rear of The Post-Intelligence newspaper office were burning. The people in the Yester block, occupied by The Western Union Telegraph Company and the Post-Intelligence, were hurriedly moving out of the writing the Western Union had but one wire undisturbed, over which this despatch was being sent.

FIREBUGS AT SIMCOE.

Incendiarism Alleged to Be the Outgrowth of a Fire Engine Fight.

SIMCOE, June 6.—The large two-story frame building in the North Ward for many years used as a fanning mill factory was gutted by fire at 2 o'clock this morning, and the residence of Mr. J. T. Carson adjoining was also damaged by the flames. The mill was worth about $1000 and the stock another $1000, both partially insured. Mr. Carson's loss is about $500, fully insured.

The circumstances surrounding the origin of the fire are such as to create considerable excitement in town. For some weeks past Simcoe has been the scene of a bitter steam fire engine fight between the Ronald engine of Brussels and the Waterous Company of Brantford. A considerable majority of the people favored the purchase of the larger Ronald engine, but a majority of the council were in favor of buying two Waterous engines and this was finally done. During the fight three members of the council were the recipients of anonymous letters, threatening them with the destruction of their property by fire if they persisted in buying the Waterous machines. At the time these letters were laughed at as the work of practical jokers, but now that one of the council, Mr. Carson, has been made the victim of an incendiary opinion has changed.

At a special meeting of the council tonight the Mayor was authorized to offer a reward of $200 for the apprehension and conviction of the firebugs.

A Hotel Burnt.

BERLIN, June 6.—A cotton mill at Offenburg was burned to-day. Several workmen were killed. The loss is 300,000 marks.

SCHWATKA'S FIND.

Cliff and Cave Dwellers in Southern Chihuahua—A Peculiar People.

DEMING, N.M., June 6.—Lieut. Schwatka arrived here to day. His party has been very successful in its exploration, especially in Southern Chihuahua. There living cliff and cave dwellers were found in great abundance. Their abodes are similar to the abandoned cliff dwellings of Arizona and New Mexico. It was almost impossible to get near them, so wild and timid were they. The cliff dwellers are sun worshippers. They throw their new born children out in the full rays of the sun. They are usually tall, lean and well formed. Their color is a blackish red, nearer that of the negro than that of the Indian. Schwatka thinks his investigation will be of immense anthropological and archæological value. He estimates the cave and cliff dwellers number from 3000 to 12,000. They are armed only with bows, arrows and stone hatchets.

THE JESUITS ACT.

Big Mass Meeting at St. Catharines—Col. O'Brien and Others Talk.

ST. CATHARINES, June 6.—The Opera House was filled to-night to hear the speeches by Col. O'Brien and others on the Jesuits Estates Act. Amongst those on the platform were noticed: Dr. Comfort, Rev. Messrs. Burson, Bland, Ratcliffe, Armitage, Ald. McGeachie, Mr. Thomas Keyes and others. The best of order prevailed and many ladies were present. The usual resolutions were passed.

Arrested for Robbery.

GUELPH, June 6.—Acting on information furnished by Mr. David Shaw, from near Rockwood, who was so brutally assaulted by two young men in the York-road some days ago the police last night located and arrested Albert Ginter and John Hunt as the parties who were guilty of the assault and attempt to rob, as the charge will be. This morning both the young men were picked out of a group of prisoners by Mr. Shaw and the boy who was with him, and they will be sent down to Rockwood to be tried before Squire Strange, as the assault was committed outside Magistrate Saunders' usual jurisdiction.

Sullivan's Speculations.

CHICAGO, June 6.—In the Cronin inquest to-day J. W. Moore, cashier of John T. Lester & Co., brokers, testified that between June 1, 1882, and April 13, 1883, Alexander Sullivan paid to the firm on transactions with the firm the sum of $133,800, that during the same period he drew out $115,318 in check, and stock worth $14,000, showing a net loss of about $4500.

One of Lester & Co.'s bookkeepers was put on the stand and read an abstract of the transactions in stocks which Sullivan had with the firm. The list was quite long.

ROBBED BY FOOTPADS.

Two Hamiltonians Victimized at Midnight—The Stony Creek Celebration.

HAMILTON, June 6.—George Myers, a laborer, and John Bradley were arrested early this morning by Constables Cruickshank and Cameron on a charge of assault and robbery. The complainant, Robert Stonehouse, informed the police that at about midnight, as he was walking in Merrick-street, two men jumped out of an alleyway near James-street and overpowered him, one of them holding him while the other robbed him of $1.30 and a necktie and scarf pin. When Myers and Bradley were arrested Stonehouse said they were the men who had robbed him. The defendants were brought up before the Police Magistrate this morning and remanded until to-morrow.

Wm Mapham, No. 109 Caroline-street, was in the vicinity of where the robbery took place. When the arrests were made a crowd collected and some one in the crowd snatched Mapham's silver watch, a Geneva open face, and ran off with it. Mapham reported the affair to the police and this afternoon Harry Headland, caretaker of the police station, found the watch in his garden adjoining the police station. It was evidently thrown there by the thief, who must have followed the officers who arrested Myers and Bradley to the station.

At the celebration of the anniversary of the Battle of Stony Creek by the Wentworth Pioneer and Historical Society yesterday this resolution moved by Judge Jones, seconded by Sheriff McKellar, was unanimously adopted: "That this meeting urge the importance of forming Pioneer and Historical Societies throughout the Dominion, as a valuable and influential agency for the collection and preservation of the necessary materials for reliable histories of our country, and as an indication of the loyalty of the Canadian people to their country and their attachment to British laws and institutions."

The report of the secretary, Rev. J. Wood, showed that churches have been established in British Columbia, Portage la Prairie and Brandon, with good prospects before them. Fifty-six missionaries have been engaged during the year. Most of the churches are supplied with pastors and six churches have been self-sustaining.

The afternoon was taken up with reports from the Foreign Mission Society, which show that the work is progressing favorably and that there is a balance of cash on hand.

Yesterday the marshals corralled Walker in a negro hut thirty miles west of Paul's Valley, in the Chickasaw Nation. Upon going to the door Deputy Marshal Williams was held up by Robert and Clen Franklin, while Walker shot and instantly killed him. Walker was instantly shot by the other marshals, and the Franklin brothers were arrested and brought to Paul's Valley station, where they were chained until taken to Paris, Texas, for trial.

The secretary was instructed to write the offenders and notify them of their fauls with a request that they rectify it.

Ald. Gillespie believed that the city should make everyone guarantee in the Guarantee Company, and let the city foot the bill. It was finally determined to allow the present sureties stand for the present year, but a sub-committee composed of the chairman, Ald. Gillespie, Booth and Carlyle was appointed to devise a scheme for next year.

The sum of $60, printing experts' fees, was set aside in connection with the recent contract investigation. There was a long talk over the offer of Mr. Thomas Griffith to sell a piece of land on the northwest corner of Adelaide and Victoria-street for $1000 to the city. The City Solicitor reported that he found it impossible to determine whether Mr. Griffith owns the land or not in consequence of the impossibility to locate the true north boundary of Adelaide-street. The committee resolved to provide the funds necessary should the City Solicitor report a good quit claim deed.

Shall the Contract be Given to an American Firm?

STEEL PLATE PIPE.

	6000 ft. 60 in. diam.	4600 ft. 48 in. diam.	10,500 ft. without flange.	4600 ft. 48 in. diam.
Tender No. 18	$13 23	$11 02	$10 92	$8 70
" 22	11 68	9 68	9 03	8 79
" 32	12 65	10 13	.....	8 26
" 33	10 60	8 40	8 40	7 57
" 34	10 75	7 98	8 39	7 23
" 35	17 50	14 40	13 90	12 00

Beg to recommend, subject to the approval of the deputation named below, that tender No. 34 (Stewart Worden of Syracuse, N.Y.) be accepted for 6000 feet of 60 inch at $10.75 per foot, and 4600 feet of 48 inch pipe without flange at $7.25 per foot.

This clause in the Waterworks Committee report caused quite an explosion. Ald. Dodds made a bitter attack on the American manufacturers, holding that he could show that a Canadian firm from Peterboro put in a much lower tender. The Canadian tender referred to was No. 33, as against No. 34, the American and successful tender. Ald. Dodds held that the Canadian tender for 6000 feet 60 inch pipe amounted to $63,600, while the American's figures for the same item reached $64,500, giving a difference in favor of the Canadian firm of $900. The remaining two items, 4600 feet of 48 inch, the amounts of both tenders were as follows: American $7.25, Canadian $7.57. By joining both American items, the 60 and 48, a net saving is made of $572. But if the contract for 60 inch had been given to the Peterboro firm the saving on that item alone would be $900, and by allowing the 48 inch item to the American firm the net saving all round would be $1472 as against $572 if the Syracuse firm's tender was accepted. Ald. Dodd used some pretty strong language, stating that the Canadian firm had not been fairly treated.

Ald. Boustead got rather angry at the language of the member from St. Andrew's. He explained that the American firm wanted all or none, and by bulking the 60 and 48 together the committee believed it was doing the right thing.

Ald. Denison made a fiery speech about the Yankee, and expressive of his Canadian sentiments. He wanted no American firm to come across here to take the bread out of the mouths of Toronto citizens.

Ald. Dodds moved that the steel pipe item be referred back, which was carried much to the disgust of Ald. Boustead. The latter stated that the steel pipes would be made in Toronto as well as the engines.

The Johnstown Sufferers—The Motion for City Relief Defeated.

American Vice-Consul Hirschfelder appeared to ask what was the intention of the city in regard to sending relief to the Johnstown sufferers. Several persons had called on him with reference to the matter, but he did not like to take any steps until he heard what the committee's opinion was.

Ald. Fleming: "I believe we ought to do something. The calamity was a terrible one."

Ald. Gillespie: "We ought to do something. I will take my chances as to the legality and vote for a grant."

Ald. Booth: "I will not support any such thing until I know whether it is legal or not."

Ald. Fleming: "I regret the occasion of my motion, but I move that it be a request to Council to send $5000 to the Johnstown sufferers, and that the president of the council be asked to receive subscriptions from citizens."

Ald. Small: "I cannot support such a large amount. I move in amendment $2500."

Ald. Denison: "Why should we give a cent at all? Vote it down."

Ald. Dodds: "There is no doubt we must do something, but you must not forget that we have had disasters in our own country. Look at the last fire in Quebec and Toronto sending nothing. I am not in favor of so large a grant."

Ald. Gillespie: "When the big disaster occurred at St. John, N.B., the editor of The Boston Globe, Mr. Jordan, a prominent citizen of Boston, took an active part in sending assistance to the distressed town. I shall never forget the reception these gentlemen got in St. John when they visited it later. I shall support the Fleming motion."

Ald. Small withdrew his amendment, and on the motion being put to the committee it was defeated on the following division: Yeas—Fleming, Vokes and Gillespie. Nays—Small, Booth, Dodds, Denison, Carlyle.

Ald Dodds: "This is a matter I think the council should decide. It is not fair to us to ask us to take it up." The committee agreed that that was the proper course, and the subject dropped after a motion being passed requesting the President of the Council to receive subscriptions.

THE EDUCATION PARLIAMENT.

Trustee Vair Impugns the Fair Fame of St. John's Ward.

The Public School Board met last night. Present Chairman Herbert Kent, and Trustees Williams, Roden, John Kent, Henderson, Hastings, Howland, Whiteside, Schoff, Vair, Dr. Ogden, McMurrich, Lee, Kerr, McSpadden, Downard, Brown, McCracken, Somers, Willcock, Baird, Oliver, Denison, Johnston and Middleton. The appearance of Trustee John Kent after his three months' absence in England was greeted with cheers and other mild expressions of satisfaction. In the matter of the disputed property at Jesse Ketchum school, the solicitor of the board wrote recommending a survey. In the Finance Committee's report accounts to the amount of $2253.07 were recommended for payment; that the St. Lawrence Hall caretaker be allowed $15 for services in connection with the drill class of the city teachers; that the caretaker of Jesse Ketchum school be given $4 a month increase; and that a Parkdale coal account for $254.80 due John Keith be paid. The report was adopted without amendment.

The School Management's report suggested that the closing public examinations be held on Thursday, June 27, that the summer vacation extend from Friday, June 28, until September 2; that the presentation of prizes take place on the evening of June 27 in the Pavilion, and that this committee be empowered to carry out the above arrangements.

Miss M. A. Fleming was recommended for appointment to Victoria-street School, and leave of absence was granted Miss A. H. Saunders, Wellesley School, Miss K. Burt, Niagara-street School, Miss L. Devlin, Phœbe-street School, and Miss C. Sykes, Jesse Ketchum School. This part of the report was passed without discussion.

Law-makers Law-breakers.

There was a grand fight, however, over the following clause:

Your committee further report that it has come to their knowledge that some members of the board have given permission to certain teachers to transgress the rules of the board by taking up subscriptions in the schools, also by dismissing the pupils. Your committee recommend that in future the trustees be more careful in such matters and endeavor in every way to assist the teachers in conforming with the rules and regulations adopted by the board for their guidance.

Trustees Vair and Somers had been the offending ones in this connection, and made a big fight to have the clause struck out, but the board was against them and carried the report intact by an overwhelming majority.

Four New Schools.

At 10.10 the board went into committee of the whole on report No. 8 of the Sites and Buildings Committee. The contracts for the erection of the schools on Irving-avenue, Brock-avenue, Dawson-street and Cottingham street were approved of without discussion. Trustee Kerr opposed the clause asking the board to give $100 per foot for the Milligan property on north side of Carr Etwell-street.

Trustee Vair held that the St. John's Ward children should be kept to themselves, not that they were less respectable but it was well to keep them by themselves. He favored the enlargement of the Elizabeth-street school and therefore moved that the clause be referred back.

Trustee Somers got mad at these reflections on the children of the Noble Ward and grew quite scathing in his remarks. Nevertheless the clause was referred back. The resignation of W. Haud, caretaker of Jesse Ketchum school, was accepted, and A. Allan secured the appointment. R. Rennie & Son were given the contract for felt roofing, etc., Hamilton street school at $406, Boyd & Robinson refusing to carry it out. The board adjourned at 11.45 for lack of a quorum.

Families leaving town for the summer can have their furniture carefully stored with Mitchell, Miller & Co., 45 Front-street east.

The Bakers' Strike.

The World had a talk with Mr. J. D. Nasmith, President of the Master Bakers' Association, yesterday regarding a statement appearing in an evening paper to the effect that the master bakers were openly discontented with the conduct of Mr. Nasmith in the bakers' strike.

Mr. Nasmith said: "This is the first time I have heard of it. The other members of the association approve of my stand. But I have had little or nothing to do with the matter except in an official capacity. All the master bakers' places are now filled, as far as I know, by non-union men. Most of the masters are glad that the trouble has come and gone, because the attitude of those men who thought they possessed a little power has been intolerable. As far as I can see the strike has thoroughly collapsed."

The Normal's Ugly Fence.

From the fact that a hundred feet or so of fence to match the big ugly looking thing that surrounds the Normal School buildings is being put up in the gap made by the removal of the gardener's house in Victoria-street it is evident that the Reform Government of this province are so conservative that they will not yield to the general wish to either remove the fence entirely or to substitute a low iron structure for the present unsightly one, which Rev. Dr. Wild on a recent occasion denounced from his pulpit as a disgrace to the Educational Department, the city of Toronto, and the ugliest thing in it.

THAT JUNKETING TRIP!

THE REPORT OF THE TRAVELING COMMITTEE CAUSES A BREEZE.

Public School Trustees Give Wild Vent to Their Feelings—The Chairman on the Rack—The Report Will Be in Next Meeting.

There was blood in the eye of more than one trustee at last night's meeting of the Public School Board. There were several rhetorical fights, the biggest of which started right off when the chairman took his seat and opened up the order of business. The struggle was over that mysterious report of the committee to the States, the disappearance of which had caused such a flutter at the last meeting. The opposition, led by Trustees McMurrich and Howland, backed up later on in the night by Trustee Denison, made a determined attack on the chairman. He was assisted in his defence by a faithful following composed of Trustees Hastings, Downard, Somers; in fact, all the exploring committee being in the soup, as it were, boldly helped the leader to

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 7, 1889.

A Rapid Transit.

This is the greatest want of Toronto at the present day. We are accustomed to brag consumedly about our street car service. And rightly. As a horse service it is superb. With all its faults the expiring Easton agreement has given us a service which for elasticity of application and expansion will assuredly not be equalled by the system, whatever it may be, that succeeds it. Indeed it is altogether likely that the street car service of Toronto will in the future be nothing like as good, comparatively, as it now is. And even at its best a horse service is not suited to a place the size of Toronto. When two hundred thousand people are gathered together some of them must travel long distances to and from work. To do three miles by street car takes half an hour. An hour a day is too long a time to be taken up in going to and from business. We want suburban service west, north and east—and we want it rapid, frequent and infallible. At least a hundred thousand of our citizens are dependent on the street cars. If dependent on any kind of car they might as well at once be dependent on steam. The same time that is consumed by horses in laboriously dragging a load of people one mile would take them four or five miles if steam were the motive power. Shoals of our citizens would go out further to live if they could get rapid transit, such as that by which several suburbs, containing each about one hundred thousand people, have been built up around Chicago. The Chicago railways find their suburban business enormously profitable.

Why should not the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific aim at the same means of replenishing their not overfull coffers?

The first of these roads that gives us a real suburban service will give to the real estate market a twist in the direction which it will maintain for years afterward. The first in the field will get the cream of the traffic.

It is quite time a genuine movement was made. There has been quite enough of humbugging, charter-broking, double-dealing in the matter. The public now want deeds not words.

Why does not the Canadian Pacific exhibit here its suburban enterprise as shown in Montreal? Toronto offers a far better field for suburban traffic than Montreal. The prize is a great one, grab it.

Alien School Trustees.

The Globe is, as usual, wrong in its law. It says that the Separate School Act requires city trustees to be British subjects. It requires no such thing. It requires rural school trustees to be British subjects, and the same clause containing this requirement absolves rural school trustees from the necessity of being voters. That is, it enables priests who own or occupy no property to become trustees. This clause does not apply to city schools. We should like to know by what warrant priests sit on the Toronto Separate School Board. Our school laws are not models of precision. They reflect in too many places the condition of mind into which Hon. Adam Crooks fell during the last few unhappy years of his life. There is the same involvement and obscurity to be traced in these laws as there was in poor Mr. Crooks' conversation. The snarls and tangles have not yet been straightened out of the wordy web, notwithstanding that a consolidation has since taken place. And it is likely enough that the Government, in the present state of public feeling, will not volunteer to interfere with Separate school matters even in so far as to secure the crossing of a "t" or the dotting of an "i."

Death of Mr. William Reading.

Mr. William Reading, who has been for nearly five years past, and for a few years before, connected with the real estate and insurance firm of Wm. A. Lee & Son, Adelaide-street east, died rather suddenly at 9.30 last night at 81 McCaul street. In the office on Wednesday afternoon Mr. Reading complained of feeling ill and went home. He became worse early yesterday morning and died last night of hemorrhage. The deceased, who was about 56 years of age, belonged to a good family in England, where he has a wife and family. So far his friends here do not know of his family's address and the funeral notice will not appear till to-morrow.

POLICE! POLICE!

Mr. Joseph Nimmo, Jr., on Canadian "Aggression" upon U. S. Commerce.

"A Canadian Scheme of Aggression upon American Commerce, and how it should be Treated," is the title of a pamphlet just issued by Joseph Nimmo, jr., in which he attacks Canada and her railroads. Here are the six counts of his indictment, stated in his own words:

The Canadian Pacific is a political and military enterprise conceived and carried to execution for the purpose of accomplishing the following objects:

1st. Politically to unite the four disconnected blocks of inhabited territory comprising the Dominion of Canada.

2nd. To cause these four sections of the Dominion to trade among themselves instead of trading with the United States.

3rd. To suppress the growth in Canada of a sentiment favorable to annexation to the United States.

4th. To divert as much as possible of the internal and foreign commerce of the United States from American transportation lines and American cities.

5th. To serve as a line of military communication between the different parts of the Dominion.

6th. To promote the scheme of British Imperial confederation, to which the leaders of the Dominion Government are devoted.

To these Mr. Nimmo adds another, that the Premier of Canada regards as his chief aim the establishment upon this continent of a strong government based upon monarchical principles.

WINNERS IN THE ART UNION.

Those Who Drew the Successful Numbers Last Night.

The Ontario Society of Artists had a busy time yesterday. There was a large attendance in the evening when the annual prize drawing of the art union took place. Hon. G. W. TO CONSUME THEIR SMOKE.

What Manufacturers Think About This Nuisance Reform.

Ald. St. Leger presided at a meeting of the sub-committee of the Local Board of Health held yesterday to deal with the smoke nuisance. Ald. J. E. Verral, Geo. Verral and Ald. Woods were the only members of the committee present. A number of manufacturers were also on hand.

The Secretary read the circular sent out and the chairman explained the objects of the meeting. To quote the alderman they were met to "cure the smoke nuisance."

Mr. Geo. Gooderham said he did not see any means of preventing the nuisance at present.

Mr. Edmund Wragge, Local G. T. R. Manager, said the only smoke created by the Grand Trunk Company came from the locomotives when firing up in the round house. To burn hard coal, Mr. Wragge explained that every G.T.R. engine must be re-constructed. Complaints had been made against the Grand Trunk, but the local manager could suggest no remedy.

Ald. Verral thought that Mr. Hime, one of the complainants, should have been on hand. His absence made matters somewhat awkward.

Concerning Property Rather Than Health.

Dr. Canniff, Medical Health Officer, said that he had occasion to see and smell the smoke from the railways every morning, but had not suffered ill health through it. The question, however, was not whether the smoke was sanitary or unsanitary but whether or not it injured property. He had hoped that Mr. Wragge could have suggested some means of preventing the smoke from the shunting engines, which was the principal source of the nuisance.

Mr. Ellis of Barber & Ellis was glad to learn that the smoke nuisance was not a cause of ill-health. He had tried hard coal and so far as he was aware no injury to the boilers resulted. During the winter Mr. Ellis had used hard coal and then no complaints were received.

Dr. Canniff corrected any wrong impression he may have created by saying that the smoke was not injurious to his health. In order to correct this idea the secretary read a report submitted by Dr. Canniff in 1887. In this the health aspect of the question was dealt with and the decision arrived at by the Health Officer that the smoke was injurious to health.

Mr. James Clarkson of the Central Prison was next called upon to state his views. Soft coal, if used with any degree of care, Mr. Clarkson said, was a source of but little trouble.

The Economical Aspect of the Question.

Mr. Brown said that he could not burn hard coal for various reasons. Among these was the additional expense. The cost would be increased through the use of hard coal by $1000 a year. However, latterly he had adopted a unique contrivance and at present but little smoke was produced. Before this method had been adopted injunctions had been served upon his company to prevent the smoke nuisance. Since its adoption their coal bill was reduced by $30 for the first month. Mr. Brown would not advise the committee to attempt to force the public to adopt any method, particularly that of compelling them to burn hard coal. The patent used by Mr. Brown is the Ellis Smoke Consumer.

"We don't keep a bottle, but any gentleman is welcome to come to the factory, and the engineer will show him our method.

Mr. James Dempster believed that if hard coal were substituted for soft coal the air would be more impure than at present. A great deal could be done by securing an intelligent stoker.

Mr. Peterkin of Hastings & Peterkin explained that in his establishment shavings were burned. He also recommended the Ellis consumer. One of those who had complained of the smoke before the consumer had been put in was Dr. Adams, Bay-street. Since its adoption no complaints had been received.

"We will go around and see the consumer," said Ald. St. Leger.

Mr. Barchard of Barchard & Co. and Mr. Robert Parker of Parker's Dye Works also contributed useful information.

Mr. Hutchison of Rowsell & Hutchison said some time ago the company received a letter complaining of the smoke. He discovered that one of his men was using soft coal. Orders were given that nothing should afterwards be used but hard coal. He believed that it cost no more.

Nothing definite was arrived at by the committee. The chairman assured the gentlemen present that every effort would be made to secure some means of preventing the smoke trouble which would not affect their interests.

Don't be beguiled! Don't be misled! Clothing that has ruined two or three dealers is not the stuff you want. Does it pay to buy old cut-color clothing when you can get new, fresh Boyds, Albany & Navy stores for ten per cent. over the cost of production. Beware of bankrupt stocks! Beware of fraudulent! Beware of those who boast of their ability to undersell all competitors and do not blush to own that it is because they themselves only paid half their debt. Beware! Beware! Beware!

Torontonians at Shelburne.

The Shelburne Free Press, the newest paper in Dufferin county, publishes a three column report of the anti-Jesuit meeting there on Saturday last and has this to say concerning the Toronto speakers:

When Mr. Hughes came forward a welcoming burst of applause resounded through the hall. From the prominent position he occupies in educational circles as Inspector of the Toronto Public Schools, Mr. Hughes is well known all over the province. Up till the present agitation he was a good Conservative, now he is with and for any man or organization opposed to the Jesuit encroachments. The Inspector is an enthusiastic Orangeman and the immediate Past Master of the County Lodge of Toronto, being at the head of the procession on the last 12th of July. He has a strongly marked face and a wiry, athletic form which he developed as one of the darling players of the Toronto Lacrosse Club early in the seventies when "Chimo" was the war-cry that led the Queen City twelve to victory on every field. In those days "Jim" Hughes was at once the pride and envy of every small boy who could handle a stick; now the "young idea" regard him with awe and respect.

Rev. G. M. Milligan was welcomed with rousing applause when introduced by the chairman. Mr. Milligan is a compactly-built, medium-sized man, with a full reddish-brown beard, keen eye, good forehead and a clear ringing voice of which any man might well be proud. As pastor of Old St. Andrew's Church at the corner of Jarvis and Carlton-streets, he occupies a prominent place in Presbyterian circles and is one of the best known clergymen in Toronto. As he remarked on Saturday, he belongs to no party, but is a firm believer in principle, and consequently a true Liberal.

No sympathy is given to sufferers from Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, etc., who will not give Dyer's Quinine and Iron Wine a trial, its efficacy is beyond question. Druggists keep it. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal.

The "Annex" Public School—Another Version.

EDITOR WORLD: It was deemed necessary [in 1887 or 1888] that a school should be erected for the then recently added portion of Toronto called the "Annex," and a site was selected and purchased for that purpose in a central portion of the district to be accommodated thereby.

In the latter part of 1888 the property owners in Elgin-avenue petitioned that that avenue be extended to Bedford-road, Elgin-avenue having no entrance except from the east. This was done and the cost is assessed on the property in Elgin-avenue, this extension about 80 feet being in the Annex. Now an effort is being made to get rid of the school by dumping it on a lot in Elgin-avenue outside the Annex, and to the detriment of those property owners who, to improve the street, and values, have assessed themselves to the amount of several thousand dollars, the result of which would be no school in the Annex; and children at Bathurst-street, the west limit of the Annex, would be at least one and a quarter miles from the school.

The property owners in Elgin-avenue gave satisfactory reasons to the School Board why the school should not be erected in their avenue. The proposed site was in a shallow block about 200 feet deep, with houses on the north half, and war distant not ⅓ of a mile from the Jesse Ketchum school.

The ratepayers of Elgin-avenue do not feel themselves too good for a public school, but they think a school ought to be in the right place and with proper surroundings.

TO REVIVE JUMPING RACES

THE BRIGHTON BEACH ASSOCIATION TO GIVE STEEPLECHASES.

The Sport Will Become Popular—The Epsom Grand Prize—Racing at Jerome Park, St. Louis and Chicago—Ball Games Yesterday—Baseball and Turf Gossip.

The determination of the Brighton Beach Racing Association to give steeplechases and hurdle races during the season which will shortly open has met with the approval of horsemen both in the United States and Canada. It was during the season of 1885 that "jumping" races were abolished at Brighton, because of the unsatisfactory character of the sport, a public condemnation of the alleged crooked practices in vogue rendering such a course necessary. This example was pretty extensively followed, at least by all the Eastern Associations. Even at Jerome Park, where such contests proved so popular, they were eliminated from the program, and the crowds that assembled on Deadhead Hill lost the best part of the sport they had journeyed out to witness.

There can be no doubt as to the popularity of steeplechases. They have at all times proved the greatest kind of attractions on racing programs, the fair sex especially being pleased with such sport because of the element of danger introduced. The settling back and steadying for the water jump, its negotiation and recovery therefrom invariably call forth suppressed exclamations of admiration, wonder or fear. As the innumerable accidents the greatest concern is evinced for the participants, even though not one in a hundred is ever attended with bodily injury, let alone fatal results.

The experiment at Brighton Beach is considered certain to be popular and the Association will find its attendance largely augmented by the introduction of such races on its program. It is believed that with unflagging care and watchfulness the circumstances that caused so much unpleasantness and dissatisfaction two or three years ago can be avoided. The steeplechase jockeys that then took part have for the most part been out of lucrative employment ever since. Here is an opportunity afforded to earn a good living and delight the public which it is not believed will be thrown away by them. The inner field at the Brighton Beach course has received a thorough overhauling to render it fit for a renewal of the sport, which will commence next week.

The N.Y. Tribune says: The Canadian stable run in the name of George Forbes is so very, very smart that some day it will try to beat a buzz-saw for keenness. Then there will be a slight ripping and tearing sound, and the severed halves of the Canadian stable will go back to Canada with all their smartness gone. Many people are watching the running of Fred. B., St. Valentine and other Canadian horses at Jerome Park. Mr. Forbes should bear in mind that Behring Sea is a classum place for Canadian sealers, and take care that American racecourses do not become a clausum mare for Canadian horses.

Many Interesting Papers are Read and the Annual Meeting Breaks Up by Choosing Dr. Temple as Its Head—A Satisfactory Increase in the Attendance.

The Ontario Medical Association closed its ninth annual meeting in the Normal School theatre yesterday with three sessions morning, afternoon and evening. While not listening to the discussions within the members enjoyed themselves in the halls renewing old acquaintances and walking about the beautiful grounds. He spoke a few words expressive of his deep interest in the success of the association of which he had been a godfather, and it pleased him greatly to notice the success of the profession in this province.

Dr. Temple believed in cold water and in whisky for such cases. Dr. Howitt had faith in the cold water bath for typhoid patients, and Dr. Richardson told of how in a few hours he had cured a girl patient of partial paralysis of the face by means of a half pint of whisky administered at intervals, and Dr. Workman bore testimony to the same effect.

Everything you want at exact wholesale price, which is about one-fourth to one-third less than retail price. If you want a good coat, pants, vest, tie or underwear go to Army & Navy is the place to go to. Buy furnishings there once and you always buy there. And no credit is given at the Army & Navy stores.

STILL WANTING PROXIES.

THE LATEST MOVE MADE BY THE FEDERAL DIRECTORS.

Coming Bank Statements—A Boom in Canadian Stocks—The Montreal and Toronto Exchanges Both Busy—Grain and Produce.

The circular referred to a few days ago has at last been issued and distributed by the Board of Directors of the Federal Bank. It is as follows:

To the Shareholders of the Federal Bank of Canada:

With reference to Mr. Nordheimer's circular of the 20th instant, which refers to cuts of the 17th, it is necessary to bear in mind the fact that the relations and transactions in detail between the Commercial Loan and Stock Company and the bank have never been fully disclosed to the shareholders of the latter. The company consisted of but five persons, each of whom was closely connected with the bank, Mr. Nordheimer being a director of the company as well as president of the bank.

That a very large sum of money was lost on account of the Company's transactions is beyond question, and we believe that the directors of the bank who, under the advice of eminent counsel, have directed proceedings which will result in a full disclosure, deserve the shareholders' support, and we intend to vote for their re-election. Mr. Hammond and Mr. Hoskin, the members of the executive committee, specially deserve support.

We do not prejudge the case or say that Mr. Nordheimer has made any personal profit out of his position in the bank; but if he be responsible for losses sustained through the company, the matter is too important to be overlooked.

We join heartily in the request that you attend the meeting in person, and if you do attend any proxy which you may give cannot be used. But for fear something should prevent your personal attendance, it would be well that your proxy should be forwarded in good time.

A Federal shareholder said to The World yesterday: "It seems to me that this is the old story. One eminent lawyer advises one thing and another eminent lawyer advises another. The clients go to law and the lawyers rake in the spoils. As far as I am concerned, I do not propose to give my proxy to anybody. I shall go to the meeting myself and furthermore, I'll oppose any move to put the matter into court. The money is just as well in my pocket as it is in the pockets of the lawyers. I do not see, so far as I know of the facts, how Mr. Nordheimer is responsible any more than the other directors."

The annual general meeting of the shareholders of the Bank of Toronto will be held on Wednesday, June 19. From the advance sheet we find that the year's business has been very profitable. The annual meeting of the Canadian Bank of Commerce stockholders will be held on Tuesday, June 18th. The advance sheet shows a state of affairs that cannot fail to be satisfactory to the shareholders. Two dividends at 7 per cent. per annum have been paid, amounting in all to $420,000, and $100,000 has been transferred to the rest account. The net profits of the year, after making allowance for bad debts, are $553,912.23. The balance is $33,912.23.

Harbor Notes.

These vessels from Oswego arrived in port yesterday: Lewis Ross with coal for Congor, Dundee with coal for Crane, W. T. Greenwood with coal for Crane.

It is said that vessel owners will very shortly give up carrying coal at 25c. per ton. They believe there is no money in it. If they could secure a cargo down, 25c. per ton might be remunerative, but as it is they have a cargo only one way.

I Thought My Case was Hopeless.

I got so bad I could neither eat, sleep nor rest at night. My mouth, nose and throat were ulcerated, and so sore and tender that my life was a misery, giving me the most horrible sensations anyone ever experienced. I lost my appetite, had the most excruciating pain in my stomach after meals, would bloat and hiccough after taking the plainest food in ever so small a quantity. The Catarrh had extended to my right lung, producing terrible pain there also, and I thought there was no help for me until a friend advised me to visit the physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, 198 King-street west, which I did and to-day I am a healthy and happy man. This is the story told by Mr. F. Addison of 1068 Queen-street west. He called on us over a year ago suffering from ulcerative catarrh and dyspepsia of a bad type, and although he had not much confidence that anyone could cure him he is to-day perfectly well and is willing and will be glad to answer any questions asked him by parties suffering similar troubles, and can be found either at his home, 1068 Queen-street west, or at the large and well-known wine and liquor establishment of Messrs. W. Shields & Co., 922 Queen-street west, where he holds a responsible position. Our address is 198 King-street west, formerly 170. Office hours, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Sunday, 2 to 4 p.m.

THE DIPLOMA DECLINED.

What Miss Beatrice Lukes Told Hon. G. W. Ross.

EDITOR WORLD: Will you kindly give the enclosed letter space in your valuable paper? As I was publicly awarded the certificate I wish publicly to decline the same.

The work is still on exhibition and anyone is at liberty to judge of the justice of my remarks. BEATRICE LUKES,
68 Church-street, Toronto. June 4, 1889.

[COPY.]

The Honorable the Minister of Education:

SIR,—I herewith beg to enclose by registered letter the certificate granted me at the recent competition for gold medal given to the Ontario Art Schools. In doing so I am acting on the advice of some of the most competent art critics of the city, who assert that the award of Monday evening was palpably unfair and most unjust to me. Knowing that my work deserved the highest recognition I can not in justice to myself accept a "Gold Medal Diploma."

The object in granting medals is to encourage emulation among the students and promote as far as possible the study of art; this end will never be accomplished by sending the medal in turn to the different art schools to the exclusion of superior work. I beg to remain, sir, yours truly,

BEATRICE LUKES,
Toronto Art School.

Women and Missions.

The third annual meeting of the Canada Congregational Women's Board of Missions began yesterday in Zion's Church, College-avenue, at 10 a.m. After devotional exercises, led by Mrs. D. McCallum, the business and nominating committees were appointed. Encouraging reports were received from the Toronto and Ottawa branches and the various auxiliaries. Thirty-one delegates answered the roll-call, after which the meeting adjourned.

At the afternoon session Mrs. E. Barker, Toronto, gave an address of welcome, to which Mrs. Brown, Melbourne, replied. The following representatives were received: Mrs. Macdonnell from the W.C.T.U., Mrs. Ewart from the Presbyterian Missionary Society, Mrs. Dr. Ogden from the Methodist Missionary Society and Mrs. P. Freeman from the Baptist. Letters of greeting were read from the McAll Missionary, from Mrs. Wheeler of Harpoot, India. There are in connection with the board 55 societies with a membership of 1000. $1190 has been received during the year. Mrs. R. W. Cowan, foreign secretary, reviewed the progress of the work in Africa and India. The meeting closed with an interesting paper by Mrs. R. Robinson on women's work. The board meets again to-day.

H. A. McLaughlin, Norland, writes: "I am sold out of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. It sells well, and I find in every instance it has proved satisfactory. I have reason to believe it is the best preparation of the kind in the market." It cures Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Torpidity of the Liver, Constipation and all diseases arising from impure blood, Female Complaints, etc.

HOW TO CURE HEADACHE.—Some people suffer untold misery day after day with headache. There is rest neither day nor night until the nerves are all unstrung. The cause is generally a disordered stomach, and a cure can be effected by using Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, containing mandrake and dandelion. Mr. Fizlay Wark, Lysander, P.Q., writes: "I find Parmelee's Pills a first-class article for bilious headache."

PUBLIC ABATTOIRS RECOMMENDED.

The sub-Committee on Markets and Health Endorse the Scheme.

The sub-Committee on Markets and Health met yesterday afternoon, Ald. J. E. Verral, Woods, Geo. Verral present, with Ald. St. Lager presiding. The abattoir question was taken up. Ald. J. E. Verral believed that an abattoir should be put up by the city. He believed the public would vote the money if they recognised the pressing necessity which existed for a public abattoir.

Dr. Canniff was glad to hear some of the members say that a public abattoir was necessary from a sanitary standpoint. There were many slaughter houses which were violating the bylaw. He had prepared a report which he proposed to submit at the next meeting of the Local Board of Health. In one instance a citizen had threatened and was going to commence a civil action to have a certain slaughter house removed from his vicinity. The Doctor thoroughly approved the scheme of a public abattoir, or possibly two or three.

Finally Ald. George Verral moved that the sub-committee report to the Markets and Health Committee: That we heartily concur in the proposal to establish one or more public abattoirs in the city, and recommend that all necessary steps be taken to carry the scheme to completion at once.

"My daughter was greatly troubled with Scrofula, and, at one time, it was feared she would lose her sight. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has completely restored her health, and her eyes are as well as ever, with not a trace of scrofula in her system."—G. King, Killingly, Conn.

The Spartan Disabled.

The steamer Passport left for Montreal at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon with a large number of passengers. The Spartan, which came up on Wednesday morning, was all ready to leave at 2 o'clock with a good number of passengers, including a bridal party. But her air valve burst and as the boat could not leave the passengers had to disembark. When the Passport left yesterday she had in tow the Spartan, which she left at Queen's Wharf, where the Doxys will repair the damage.

It Makes You Hungry

Spring medicine means more now-a-days than it did ten years ago. The winter of 1888-89 has left the nerves all jagged out. The nerves must be strengthened, the blood purified, liver and bowels regulated. Paine's Celery Compound—the Spring medicine of to-day—does all this, as nothing else can. Prescribed by Physicians, Recommended by Druggists, Endorsed by Ministers, Guaranteed by the Manufacturers to be
