FIFTEENTH YEAR MONDAY MORNING OCTOBER 8 1894. ONE CENT.

CALLED TO THE DOOR AND SHOT DOWN.

Attempted Midnight Assassination in Parkdale.

FRANK WESTWOOD, AGED 18, THE VICTIM

Answered the Doorbell and Received a Bullet Through the Body.

Failed to Recognize His Would-Be Assassin—The Whole Case Wrapped in Mystery—Various Hypotheses Advanced, But the Detectives Have Thus Far Failed to Make An Arrest—The Wounded Man in a Critical Condition, But He May Possibly Recover.

A pistol shot rang out at the south end of Jameson-avenue Saturday night when the staid residents of that neighborhood had retired or were about to retire for the night. Then there was a pause of perhaps a minute and a second shot rang out. After this the patter of footsteps of some person evidently in a hurry was, it is claimed, heard.

It was not until nearly an hour after that the occupants of the houses who had rushed out to learn what the matter was became aware that a man had been shot. One person claimed that he saw a man rushing up the avenue with a revolver dangling in his hand, but the detectives were unable to locate the man who, it was alleged, made this statement, and it is very doubtful if the would-be assassin was seen by anyone except the victim.

The Scene of the Shooting.

Lakeside Hall, the palatial residence of Mr. Benjamin Westwood, of the firm of Allcock, Laight & Westwood, fishing tackle manufacturers, 73 Bay-street, is situated at the foot of Jameson-avenue. His grounds extend from Hawthorne-street south to the lake-front. Immediately to the north is the Salvation Army Industrial Home for Young Women. There are several houses on the opposite side of the street, but all are vacant with the exception of the residence of Mr. W. H. Carter.

The dwelling of Mr. Westwood is large and built substantially of brick. The grounds extend to the lake shore, and have two entrances from Jameson-avenue, which join in front of the main entrance to the house. Six steps lead to the landing in front of the broad doors. The bell-pull is located on the porch-door.

Summoned By the Assassin.

At 10.50 on Saturday night the bell was pulled. Mr. Benjamin Westwood, feeling indisposed as the result of a cold, had retired to his room about 10 o'clock. His wife and their son Frank, aged 18, employed with Henry Smith, wholesale fancy goods, 53 Bay-street, remained in the dining-room reading. They had extinguished the lights downstairs and ascended to the first landing, when the doorbell rang. Frank descended the steps to answer the summons at the door. After lighting the gas in the rear hall he walked to the front door, unlocked it and threw it open. From the one hasty glance he got at the caller he says he is able to give only this partial description: The caller was a young man of medium size, dressed in dark clothes and had a mustache. He claims that he had never seen the man before.

Fired At His Breast.

Young Westwood looked at the man, expecting that he would state his errand. As he did so the visitor, without saying a word, raised a pistol which he had in his hand and fired at young Westwood. So quick was the action that Westwood had not time to close the door. Simultaneously with hearing the discharge he felt a stinging sensation, and realized that he had been shot. He cried out, "I am shot!" and fell unconscious to the floor. Without attempting to discharge another shot the man made off, with the smoking pistol in his hand.

Mrs. Westwood, who had heard her son's cry, ran downstairs and called to her husband to come down and bring his revolver, as there were burglars in the house. Mr. Westwood ran down, and on reaching the downstairs hall saw his son lying on the floor near the open door. The hall was still filled with smoke from the would-be assassin's revolver. Mr. Westwood returned upstairs at once, took his revolver from the drawer and again descending the stairs, went to the door and fired one shot from his revolver, to scare the assassin off. This was the second shot heard by the neighbors. Mr. Westwood's attention was thereafter given to the wounded man, and no search was made at that time for the party who did the shooting. Mrs. Westwood assisted her son upstairs and into his bedroom. A second son, Willie, who had come down stairs after the shooting, also helped his brother to his room.

Shot Clean Through the Body.

On opening his clothing he found that his undergarments were dripping with blood, which was issuing freely from a wound in the right side, underneath the lower rib. Drs. Lynd, Harte and Sparrow were hastily summoned by telephone and examined the young man's injuries. It was found that the bullet had passed clean through the body and lodged in the back, where it still remains buried in the muscular tissue. Repeated probings failed to locate it. Although the patient is yet in a critical condition, the attending physician, Dr. Lynd, does not think the wound will result fatally, unless there should be unforeseen complications, a diagnosis which is concurred in by Dr. Cameron, who was last evening called in in consultation.

At 2.30 o'clock this morning, however, the patient was not so easy, and grave fears were entertained at that hour that he would not pull through. A second consultation will be held this morning, and should the patient's condition warrant it the County Crown Attorney will take his ante-mortem statement.

The Police Investigate.

Word was promptly telephoned to Police Headquarters, and shortly after midnight Detectives Slemin, Porter and McGrath were at work upon the case. But there was hardly a clue to go on. The description of his assailant furnished by young Westwood was so general that it might fit scores of residents of the city, while the wounded lad was apparently as much at a loss to account for the deed as were the detectives. He is generally spoken of as an inoffensive and agreeable young man, and is not known to have had a quarrel with anyone.

Who Fired the Shot?

Various hypotheses were advanced by residents of the locality yesterday. It was hinted that there might be a woman in the case. This probably arose from the fact that he was always well dressed and a general favorite with the fair sex, but his parents and friends who know the young man best scoff at this theory as absurd. Another theory is that the assassin intended the shot for Mr. Westwood, sr., and in the uncertain light mistook the son for the father. Mr. Benjamin Westwood told The World yesterday, however, that he could not think of an enemy who would desire to kill him, and he inclined to the belief that the would-be murderer was some unknown crank who had through pure wantonness rang the bell and shot down the man who answered the door, without knowing or caring who he was. Frank had reached his bedroom when the door bell rang and, as the window fronts the grounds, could easily be observed by any person outside. The detectives utterly discredit the story of an unknown man's doing the shooting and believe that there is a raison d'etre for the occurrence that has not been made known to them. The statement was made yesterday that the bullet in the young man's body was of the same calibre as the family revolver used by Mr. Westwood. Dr. Lynd stated last night, however, that this was all a matter of supposition. The wound was evidently made by a large bullet of at least 44-calibre, but at present nothing further can be learned on this matter.

"The bullet," said the doctor, "entered the lad's body about five inches above the navel, a little toward the left side. It sped through the cartilage that lies adjacent to the lower ribs, and is supposed to be lodged in the tissue near the spine." He considered the young man's condition too dangerous to admit of probing yesterday.

The waistcoat of young Westwood is in the hands of the police and is not burned, so the shot could not have been fired close to the lad.

At 3 o'clock this morning Detectives Slemin and Porter, who had been working on the case since early Sunday morning, had not succeeded in solving the mystery. The dangerous condition of the wounded man would not permit of his being interviewed by the officers, and they were consequently hampered in their investigations. The authorities do not hesitate to ridicule the theory that Westwood was shot down by a man who called at the house, but further than this will say nothing. The only stranger seen about the place for some hours before the shooting was a man about 30 years of age, with light mustache and shabbily dressed. He passed along Jameson-avenue at about 6 o'clock Saturday night and enquired from a boy where Westwoods lived. The boy was a 12-year-old brother of the victim, and he replied that his name was Westwood, and that they lived at No. 28. The man walked past the house once or twice, and then proceeded east along King-street. He was seen shorly before 8 o'clock on the platform at Parkdale Railway Station.

How He Spent Saturday Evening.

If there was any entanglement with a woman as is currently reported, but not believed, it had its genesis prior to Saturday night. The authorities have learned that Westwood spent the evening wandering along Queen-street and in the neighborhood of his home with three chums, named Lennox, Cooper and Anderson. Westwood has been suffering recently from liver complaint, and at about 8.30 o'clock he went to Dr. Griffin's surgery in Macdonnell-avenue, and got a prescription, which he immediately took to Gray's drug store and had filled. He was seen several times after that at different places in the vicinity of his home. He went into the house at about 10 o'clock.

Early this morning The World again called upon Mr. Westwood and informed him that the detectives doubted the story with reference to the stranger calling at the house. He replied that the story was true, that the shooting was not "a family affair" as claimed by the authorities and that the version he had given was absolutely correct.

His Head Blown Off.

London, Ont., Oct. 6.—George S. Nixon, an employe of the Parisian Steam Laundry Co., was killed to-night by the accidental discharge of a gun, which he was removing from a buggy. The hammer caught in some manner, and exploded the charge, which blew off the top of the young man's head.

The B. B. of Bribers.

The weather sharps are already predicting a cold winter, but some of our aldermen who have been making use of their official authority to enrich themselves dispute the prophets and fear an atmosphere too stifling for comfort. But though the whole fabric of society be shaken by an investigation, the problem of effective neck dressing must not be lost sight of by our citizens. A glance at quinn's will reveal a collection of ties so truly artistic, charming, attractive and cheap that a glance means a purchase.

Capt. Grant Simmons of Cambridge, Mass., loaded a shotgun with nails last night and fired the charge through his heart. The cause of the suicide is unknown.

DIED EN ROUTE TO THE PARADE.

Joel Garden, a Well-Known Resident of St. John's Ward, Dies Suddenly in the Street.

Joel D. Garden, a messenger in the Customs House for the last six months, died suddenly yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock in McBride's coal yard, Edward and Elizabeth-streets, while on his way to view the Highlanders' parade.

Meeting some friends at the coal yard, he stopped for a few minutes to converse with them, when he was suddenly seized with a fainting spell. Drs. Guinane and Smith were immediately summoned, but he expired a few minutes after their arrival. The cause of death is given as a rupture of a blood vessel near the heart. Joel Garden was a native of Charleston, South Carolina, but came to this city when quite young, where he has continued to reside since. He was well known to nearly every resident of St. John's Ward, where he has been a prominent and effective worker in the Conservative interest for the past 20 years. The deceased was about 40 years of age and leaves two sisters and two brothers. Mrs. E. D. Gallagher, 147 Dovercourt-road, is a sister, where resides the other sister, who is unmarried. The two brothers live in New York.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon from his late boarding place, 108 Edward-street.

JUMPED THE TRACK.

A Passenger Train Wrecked and Burned in Tennessee.

Bristol, Tenn., Oct. 7.—At a few minutes past 1 o'clock this afternoon train No. 5 fron New York on the Southern Railway jumped the track about three miles south of Bristol. The engine fell across the track and the express and mail cars caught fire. The flames consumed the entire train of eight coaches, with the exception of the last car, a Pullman sleeper, which was cut loose and backed from the train. A train with physicians from Bristol arrived about an hour after the wreck. Ten persons were injured. Samuel Smith, engineer, will probably die.

EXAMINED BY PROXY.

A Mail Clerk Confesses That a Substitute Wrote for Him.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—The Board of Civil Service Examiners has reported to the Justice Department a case which has come before them.

H. L. Desilettes, a mail clerk from Three Rivers, was asked certain questions concerning his examination and as to how he secured his certificate. He refused to answer at first, but the appearance of a Dominion policeman had the desired effect, and, with some hesitation, he gave the information desired. He said that at an examination in Montreal some three years ago a medical student from Quebec personated him. Desilettes says that he does not know where the medical student has gone since that time, but that he is somewhere outside of Quebec practising his profession. The name of the young doctor is withheld until such time as Desilettes' story is verified.

The City Solicitor's Office.

The candidates for the City Solicitor's position, in succession to Mr. Meredith, are beginning to declare themselves. On Saturday Mr. James Fullerton, Q. C., whose name was favorably mentioned in connection with the office the last time it was vacant, stated that he is a candidate. Another name mentioned, although he has not himself stated that he is a candidate, is that of Mr. Wallace Nesbitt of the Beatty firm, who occupies a very prominent position at the Ontario bar. Mr. J. B. Clarke, Q.C., Mr. Meredith's partner, is also likely to be a candidate for the position. Mr. W. G. Murdock is also mentioned, and has quite a number of friends who are ready to back his nomination. Dr. James Beaty, Q.C., formerly M.P. for West Toronto, is now almost recovered in health, and has announced that he will be a candidate. He is thoroughly conversant with civic affairs and was Mayor of the city for two or three years.

Editor World: Dear Sir,—Referring to the advertisement of Mr. William Mara, 79 Yonge-street, in your issue of this date and in several other recent issues of your paper, offering what he alleges to be his own bottling of our ale at 90 cents per dozen quart and 60 per dozen pints, we beg to state that we have not sold Mr. Mara any ale for bottling purposes since Oct. 25, 1893.

While, even if we cared to try, we could not prevent Mr. Mara from trying to injure us by advertising our ale for sale at these prices, we consider that we owe it to our customers and to the public to state that we always charged Mr. Mara our regular price for ale for bottling purposes, and to point out that if Mr. Mara sells our ale at the prices above mentioned, he sells from the small quantity which remains of his last purchase made a year ago.

We caution the public against purchasing bottled ale alleged to be our ale unless the cork and which is not in bottles bearing our diamond-shaped labels with registered trade-mark thereon.

Now For That Hotel.

Editor World: The building of the trunk sewer and tunnel under the Bay is advocated, not so much because they are necessary, as to provide work; a wasteful and unsound system, which is largely responsible for our heavy debt. An opportunity will shortly be offered to provide occupation for twice as many men as could work on the sewer and tunnel combined, without the expenditure of one dollar of the ratepayers' money, and at the same time supplying a much needed appurtenance of a large city.

Briefly, there is a probability of a million dollar hotel being commenced immediately, if certain privileges be granted by the city, and it will not be my fault if 400 or 500 men are not at work on it in the near future.

A book that is almost a necessity in every business office in the city is Irwin's Tariff Handbook. It contains the tariff as revised and corrected up to date. Many rulings that do not appear elsewhere are incorporated in the work, and this is a feature that makes it more valuable than any other similar compilation. For sale at John P. McKenna's Bookseller, 80 Yonge-street. It should also be mentioned that the Handbook contains a resume of Ontario commercial law, prepared by a firm of commercial lawyers, together with money tables and other information valuable for ready reference in the counting room.

THE CABINET COUNCILS WERE NOT CALLED FOR FUN.

Some of the Business That Was Transacted Has Leaked Out—The French Are Closely Watching Great Britain's Course in China—Smalley's Opinion of the Irish Party and of Mr. Blake.

New York, Oct. 7.—George W. Smalley cables from London to The New York Tribune:

Last Wednesday's war scare illustrates how easily the Continent may be disturbed by what a great statesman described as the hare-brained chatter of an irresponsible press. For months past newspaper friction between England and France has been materially ddeveloping; largely owing to those flamboyant boulevard journals, which on many occasions have done the Republic grave injury.

In the present case, however, it is not difficult to explain the origin of their mischief. Since it became evident that the Czar would not allow France to adopt an aggressive attitude toward Germany, and especially since Emperor William has shown a desire to conciliate the French people, the Republic has sought an outlet for its Chauvinist energies in the field of colonial policy. It has here been brought into contact with its old rival, Great Britain, and within a few months more than a dozen questions have arisen over which the two states have been in distinct antagonis. Apart from the larger issues involved in Egypt, Newfoundland and Siam, the Paris organ of the French Colonial Minister has pointedly enumerate eleven minor disputes in Africa alone. In addition to these the question of Madagascar is just now a burning theme in France, and as Great Britain has an interest in that island, it naturally follows that French newspapers would pursue their usual Anglo-phobe bent and hold England responsible for all their grievances with the Hova Government.

These aspects of the situation were attracting a good deal of attention, when suddenly it was announced that M. Decrais was to be recalled because he was not sufficiently responsible to M. Hamtaux's well-known masterful methods. While people were considering why such a change should have been necessary there came news of the hasty summoning of the English Cabinet, owing to what The Times called a hitch in the relations with France. This was supplemented by a story that the French Cabinet was to meet on the same day, and that Great Britain was to deal with the question of Madagascar, and the further story that a blockade had been declared of all Madagascar ports. You are already aware how these fictions have crumbled to pieces, and how, to their credit, be it said, the leading newspapers of Paris, like The Figaro, Debats and Temps, have assisted to disperse the alarm. The excitement was much greater in London than in Paris, for it so happened that these events were occurring at the very moment when several English newspapers were severely criticising the condition of the British navy, and pointing out as a lesson of the Yaloo victory how easy it would be for the French to overcome the British Mediterranean fleet.

What the Cabinet Did.

Lord Rosebery's Cabinet met and dispersed, after nearly three hours' deliberation. According to semi-official statements they were chiefly concerned with arranging for the safety of British subjects at the Chinese treaty ports. Alarming accounts of the violence of Chinese mobs towards foreigners have reached this country during the last few days. The Cabinet, we are assured, met to agree upon measures of protection, the result being an order to despatch four warships, with complements of 1000 men, to reinforce Admiral Fremantle's squadron of 22 vessels. But it is unreasonable to suppose that this subject alone occupied the attention of Lord Rosebery and his colleagues. The Foreign Minister and the Admiralty could have taken all necessary precautions and carried out clerks' work like this without the need of summoning their colleagues in desperate haste at unusual date and at manifest personal inconvenience to most of them. It is far more likely that the chief subjects of deliberation had a good deal to do with Madagascar, as well as with China.

It is true that England has allowed France a protectorate or controlling influence over Madagascar so far as regards foreign relations. But France is now seeking to control commercial and internal affairs to place the Hova under her protection and to establish a place of arms and naval station on the coast. It is clear that France's action will interfere with British, and in a larger degree with American, interests. Lord Rosebery is being strongly pressed even by some supporters to obtain guarantees of protection for these interests if France goes beyond Lord Salisbury's concessions of 1890. This aspect of the question is believed to have been very much to the front at Wednesday's Cabinet meeting, but nothing has so far leaked out as to the Government's intentions. Another topic said to have been debated relates to the action of the Japanese Government.

England and Russia in Accord.

England and Russia are known to be pursuing an accordant policy in the far east. Neither desires to see the collapse of the Chinese Empire and the possible development of anarchy over a change of dynasty. France, Germany and every civilized state having interests in China naturally wish to avoid a great national cataclysm. Russia also has her own particular interests in excluding Japan from the Asian continent. She therefore seeks to prevent the annexation of Corea.

It is said that Russia recently intimated to Japan to act with moderation, and to reckon upon other powers besides herself taking part in the terms of peace. In response, Japan exhibited not the slightest disposition to acquiesce. The increase of Admiral Fremantle's fleet was adopted, simultaneously with reinforcements from Russia at Vladivostock, and orders if necessary to restrain Japan from the annihilation of her enemy. These points are more likely to have been under discussion than the mere protection of the treaty ports. It may be noted that the changes and rearrangements of the fleets which follow from the decisions of Wednesday's Cabinet will strengthen British naval power in the Mediterranean.

Hard Words for the Irish Party.

After referring to the English contributions Mr. Smalley says:

The whole truth is that the politicians who are managing the affairs of the Irish Parliamentary party are grossly and ludicrously unfit for their task. They have neither business ability nor political sense; they wander helplessly from one mistake into another, dragging what is left of their organization along with them. When they are caught floundering some of them try to lie their way out, while others sit down and invite everybody to weep for poor Ireland. These empty egotists have played ducks and drakes with the political inheritance they took from Parnell; their British Liberal allies have lost all sense of reliance in them; their British Tory Unionist foes make merciless capital out of their weaknesses and follies, and, worse still, the Nationalist movement in Ireland is going to pieces. I have just returned from a journey spent wholly in the rural parts of Cork and Kerry, and I have found by talks with laborers, farmers, small traders and priests one universal story of disaffection, disgust and indifference. Very little more of this present regime will land Ireland back politically where she was when Butt died.

Charges Blake With "Mystification."

The venerable Dr. Thomas Addis Emmett came over here, remained sequestered under the guardianship of the chairman of the Westminster Palace Hotel meeting, wise publicly asked in his speech for English subscriptions, saw no Irishman who presented any different view, and presently sailed home again no wiser than when he came, but having issued a sort of manifesto, which, if it were taken literally at any weight, would make intelligent Irish patriots truly despair. Mr. Edward Blake, by no authority of party, but as spokesman suppose that this subject alone occupied the attention of Lord Rosebery and his colleagues. The Foreign Minister and the Admiralty could have taken all necessary precautions and carried out clerks' work like this without the need of summoning their colleagues in desperate haste at unusual date and at manifest personal inconvenience to most of them. It is far more likely that the chief subjects of deliberation had a good deal to do with Madagascar, as well as with China.

THE HEIR CHARGED WITH MURDER

William D. Trombley Arrested on Suspicion of Killing His Uncle.

Detroit, Oct. 7.—William D. Trombley, a long sought-for heir to one-half of the murdered miser Chauvin's $250,000 estate turned up in Detroit late Friday night. John Seitz of this city purchased from Trombley for a stated sum each month his expectancy in his uncle's estate, and for two years Seitz kept up the payments, the money going through the hands of a New Jersey lawyer. Mr. Seitz is said to have run upon Trombley in New York, where he was working as a waiter in a restaurant.

Trombley stayed at Seitz's house last night. Both men came to town early Saturday morning and went to the office of Cyrus Lothrop, the attorney of the murdered Chauvin. While there Trombley was arrested by a local detective, taken to Police Headquarters and locked up on the charge of having murdered Charles B. Chauvin on the morning of Sept. 9. The police sent out for Frank Brown, Thomas June, Fred Andrews and "Doc" Kramer, who were expected to identify Trombley as the man seen around Chauvin's house on the night before the murder, but they failed to do so.

ESSERY MAY OPPOSE HOBBS.

London's Mayor May Be Put Forward for Mr. Meredith's Seat.

London, Oct. 6.—The appointment of W. R. Meredith to the Chief Justiceship has caused some talk of allowing Mr. T. S. Hobbs, Liberal, who opposed Mr. Meredith in the late provincial elections, to take the seat without opposition.

The Conservatives are not likely to take kindly to any such proposition, and the name of Mayor E. T. Essery is mentioned as the Conservative candidate.

The Church Parades.

Redcoats and Kilties paraded to church yesterday. Thousands of citizens lined the streets to see the soldier boys march past, and many were the comments upon the fine physique of the men. In most instances this is to be ascribed to the use of East Kent ale, the appetizing and strengthening qualities of which make it of the greatest use in keeping men strong.

Ladies Invited to Attend During the Next Six Days.

To-day, for the first time, the ladies may see the fur styles which will rule this winter. The big opening week at Dineens' commences to-day, and every new style, those from London and Paris as well as designs of American origin, will be displayed.

In the big fur parlors at the corner of King and Yonge-streets there will be on view an unexampled assortment of the finest furs in jackets, capes, caps and all the miscellaneous articles of apparel in which fur is used.

Every lady in the city is invited to attend. To-day is opening day only, and visitors will not be asked to buy. They may do as they please in that respect, but many pretty capes and jackets are sure to be sold to-day. For that reason it is well that ladies who wish to see the stock in its entirety should call to-day, or at least early in the week.

JAPS LAND THEIR FORCES.

TRANSPORTS PUT 30,000 MEN ON CHINESE SHORES.

China and Japan Must Not Hamper the Freedom of Foreigners—Concerted Action to Be Taken By the Powers to Protect the Lives and Liberties of Their Citizens.

London, Oct. 8.—The Daily Graphic prints to-day a despatch from Shanghai saying that Japanese transports have landed a large force at Talien-Wan, on the Chinese coast, northeast of Port Arthur.

Japanese Proceeding Cautiously.

The Tien-Tsin correspondent of The Times telegraphs: "The Japanese are pursuing their campaign toward Moukden cautiously, avoiding all dashing enterprises. Japanese cruisers are closely watching the Chinese fleet in the Gulf of Pechili. Ping Yang fugitives describe the Japanese tactics at the battle as most scientific and the Japanese weapons as perfect, while the Chinese operations were conducted in antiquated fashion. The Japanese, by paying for supplies and keeping descipline, are gaining the sympathies of the Coreans. The French admiral is here."

The Week's Developments.

London, Oct. 6.—It can be stated on authority that the developments of the past week in Eastern affairs will lead to concerted action on the part of the European powers.

On Monday last N. R. O'Connor, the British Minister at Pekin, warned the Foreign Office by cable that the condition of affairs in China was such that the Government was not able to guarantee protection to foreign residents at the treaty ports and the missionaries in the interior of the country. The Minister, in the same despatch, stated that the Chinese Imperial Council was disorganized and that the collapse of the Government was not looked upon as an impossibility, and advised that instant action be taken for the protection of the lives and property of British subjects in China. The substance of this despatch was at once communicated by Lord Rosebery to the Governments of France, Russia and Germany, with the suggestion that the powers co-operate in increasing the guard at the treaty ports, and in measures for the protection of the missionaries.

The Powers All Agree.

When the Cabinet met on Thursday, friendly responses from all three of the powers named had been received, and those so thoroughly cleared up the situation as to enable the Ministers to give the Premier and the Earl of Kimberley, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a free hand to take whatever steps in the matter he might consider necessary. No question of intervention between Japan and China has arisen, however. It is reported that preparations are being made to send 10,000 troops to occupy the leading treaty ports, and if the present intention is carried out Parliament on reassembling will be asked to grant a credit of £4,000,000 to cover the expenses of the expedition.

Since the holding of the Cabinet Council instructions have been cabled to the British Minister at Pekin and to the British Consuls at all the treaty ports to send to the mission stations in the interior imperative instructions of the withdrawal of all the missionaries to the protected coast districts.

Will Call Upon the Admiral.

The consuls are empowered by their instructions to call for assistance upon Vice-Admiral Fremantle, commanding the British fleet in Chinese waters, who is authorized to send gunboats to any possible distance if such action be deemed necessary to cover the withdrawal of the missionaries. The instructions also direct that all missionaries, without regard to nationality, shall be protected. The few and meagre telegrams thus far received by the Minister and consuls from the nearest mission stations indicate that the missionaries there are determined not to desert their posts, but to continue their work in the face of all risks.

Private advices to The Army and Navy Gazette explain away the Japanese charge that Vice-Admiral Fremantle signalled to the Chinese the approach of the Japanese fleet. The British vessels, it is said, used their search lights in order to reveal their nationality and thus prevent an assault upon them by mistake.

Will Let Them Fight It Out.

The offers of mediation between China and Japan are all widely divergent. The truth of the matter is that it is the general belief in official circles that the members of the Cabinet are unanimously against any foreign interference, and so far as Great Britain is concerned favor allowing the Japanese to reap the full fruits of their victories unless, of course, they seek to injure the commercial interests of Europe.

Rice Is Not Contraband.

The British Government at Hong-Kong recently asked the Home Government for a decision upon the question whether or not rice was to be considered as contraband of war. The Earl of Kimberley, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, telegraphed a negative answer, and at the same time warned the Japanese authorities of the refusal of the Government to admit rice as a contraband. The settlement of this question was shirked during the Franco-Chinese troubles and the decision is against the interests of the Japanese and will not tend to increase the friendliness of that nation towards England.

Joseph Marquis, trade barber, residence nowhere, was arrested on Saturday charged with stealing a pair of rubber bags from the store of L. Kurtz, York-street.

THE THEORY OF CHEAP RATES.

A despatch from Montreal says that the street railway company of that city is about to do away with transfers and reduce the price of tickets. It is said twelve will be sold for twenty-five cents. We do not know what truth there is in the despatch, but it would not surprise us to hear of some such reduction as that referred to being made. In determining the rate at which a commodity should sell, or at which a service should be performed, several points that do not appear on the exterior ought to be considered. The idea will be better brought out by referring to some particular instance, say the rate at which gas is sold. The Consumers' Gas Co. are entitled by law to pay dividends up to ten per cent. We have no doubt there are half a dozen different rates at which gas can be sold, and under each of them the company will be able to pay the maximum dividend. The company could sell gas at $1.25 and earn ten per cent., or at $1.10, $1 and so on. In each case the profits from the increased consumption would more than offset the loss occasioned by the reduced price. A question that vitally affects the people is the determination of the lowest selling rate that will permit of the company's earning its ten per cent. The company has kept reducing the rate from time to time, and yet it has never failed to pay its customary dividend. Now, it is a very pertinent question to locate the rate that will make it possible to pay exactly ten per cent and no more. The finding of this rate is not a matter of concern to the shareholders of the Consumers' Gas Co., because they draw the maximum dividend at the existing rate. They have a dead sure thing as it is at present, and as no possible change in the rate can enable them to pay eleven per cent., they simply don't bother their head about new rates. They call this the Consumers' Gas Co. That's a rank misnomer. It should be the Shareholders' Gas Co. The consumer hasn't a word to say in the company. His medicine is placed before him and he has to take it. Brother Pearson ought to get the name of the company changed in accordance with the facts.

Admitting for the present that we have to pay ten per cent. on the capital of the Gas Company, real and fictitious, it is a matter of no little concern to the people of Toronto to have the price adjusted so nicely that the ten per cent. would be earned if that rate were adopted, but would not be possible if the rate were reduced further by a single cent. Surely the citizens of Toronto have a right to insist on the lowest possible rate being enforced that will allow the shareholders their customary dividends. The citizens ought to have a right in fixing this rate. If our aldermen were alive to the importance of this matter they would insist on having a voice in the determination of the price of gas. As the statute governing the company does not give the people the right to determine the price of gas, our representatives in the Local House, backed up by the Council, should see to it that the statute is amended the coming session. The company cannot resist such a reasonable and equitable demand as this. If a committee of investigation (not Ald. Bailey's) were to make an effort to locate the lowest possible price that gas could sell at, consistent with the statute right of the company to collect ten per cent. dividends, we imagine they would get down to 60 cents per thousand. We believe the low-water mark we are in search of is below 50 cents. If the price of gas were reduced to the low-water mark the consumer's bill to the company would not be less. On the other hand, it would be double or three times as much as it is. If the Consumers' Gas Company will sell gas at the lowest figure the business will stand, few tons of anthracite coal will be imported into Toronto and the heating of our houses in winter will become simplified and cheapened.

Now as to street car fares. The people have no right to insist on a reduction in fares. If reduced fares are in store for Toronto, the initiative will have to be taken by the Railway Company. We firmly believe the low water mark in street car fares in Toronto has not been reached. Just what that mark is is a debatable point. It probably fluctuates between two and three cents, and is more likely to be nearer the former than the latter. In determining the rate that will yield them the largest profits, the company ought to start out on the assumption that a lower rate would not reduce the aggregate receipts from nine-tenths of the people who use the cars. A family that spends $25 a year on car fares at four cents will not spend a cent less than that amount if the fares are reduced to two and a half cents. But the lower fare would cause thousands of people who never ride to use the cars. In this way the receipts of the company would be increased. It is not at all unlikely if a cheaper rate were introduced in Toronto the cars would be filled during the whole day, much the same as they are during the red-ticket hours in the morning and evening.

THE PEN MUST GO.

The alphabetic keyboard, within the 25 years of its existence, has created nothing short of a revolution in the sphere over which the pen rules supreme. Latterly it has extended its domain over the type-setting process, and the typographical fraternity is viewing the conquest with considerable alarm. The International Union will meet in Louisville, Ky., this week, and we are told that type-setting machines will absorb most of the discussion. The union recognizes that the machines have come to stay, and its principal concern is to look after the interest of its members during the changing conditions in which the trade finds itself. There is no doubt the compositors of to-day are feeling somewhat acutely the effects of the machines, but it will not take more than a few years for matters to become adjusted. The business of the old-time newspaper compositor ought to be looked upon as fast becoming one of the lost arts. There will be no new apprentices in this trade, and consequently the unsettled state of affairs will be limited to those actually in the business. The machines will give employment to one-third or one-half of these, and the remainder will have to drift into other occupations and turn their hand to whatever they are best able to do. In five years the effect of the disturbance will hardly be perceptible, as far as the men are concerned. But the public will be immensely benefited by the revolution that is now simplifying the printing industry. More books will be published, though to tell the truth we have enough now. Books that are expensive and have but a limited circulation will become cheaper and find their way into the hands of a larger number of readers. When the use of type-setting machines has become general there will be little use for the public library. With paper at 2 and 3 cents a pound and composition reduced to one-third its old rate, as it will be within a few years, there ought to be no trick in flooding the market with literature at a price that will make it preferable to buy books and pass them round than to waste time in getting them from a public library. With cheaper typesetting the papers will increase in size and in number, and before long employment for more men and women will be found on these machines than ever set type at the frame. It is the case of the web printing machine over again. Instead of reducing the number of pressmen the perfect machines require many times more men than ever were needed to feed the old presses. It cannot be many years either before the key-board will supplant the pen. All that is wanted is the production of a cheap and simple machine that will wholesale at two or three dollars. When such a one is forthcoming every desk in our public schools will be equipped with it and we will find them in every house in the land. In short, the pen will be discarded as slow and illegible, and every pupil that passes through a school will be a thoroughly competent compositor. Only poetry will be written by the pen, and for that the goose quill is much the best. A good joke or a fine line can never, we believe, spring from a keyboard.

LET THE CITY COME IN.

Citizen Johnston's case against the Consumers' Gas Company is due to come off within a short time. The city ought to furnish him with the best legal counsel available. He is doing what the council should have undertaken long ago to defend the rights of the citizens against the Gas Company. In a case where a corporation enjoying a monopoly tramples rough-shod over the people who grant them that monopoly, it should not be left to a private individual to bear the expense of fighting them. The City Council should assume the responsibility of ascertaining through the courts whether the provision that was inserted in the company's charter to ensure the reduction of rates from time to time is operative, or whether it was merely inserted for the fun of the thing.

Send for Christopher Robinson or S. H. Blake and give them a free hand, and watch the gas monopoly coon come down.

THE WORKINGMEN FAVOR IT.

"The municipal ownership of all natural opportunities and public conveniences which are of a general nature is approved of by your committee. The question of civic lighting, now agitating the public mind, providing that power can be produced as cheap by the city as by a company, should be controlled by the corporation. There is no doubt but that the city can produce its own light at a much less cost than that supplied us by the Gas Company, or any other Company which uses coal in the production of such light." Report of committee approved by the Trades and Labor Council.

The Grens and Kilties Parade.

Toronto had on her soldier clothes yesterday. The Royal Grenadiers attended Divine service at Church of Redeemer, Bloor-street west, marching by way of Jarvis and Bloor, and returning via Bloor, Yonge and King.

Noticeable on parade was the good turn-out of I company. This company had recently been rather demoralized but under the command of Capt. Lehman it is now assuming a prosperous condition. The 48th Highlanders assembled at Old Upper Canada College and marched by way of King, John and Grange-road to McCaul-street Methodist Church, where the Rev. A. B. Chambers, LL.D., preached an eloquent sermon. The return march was via Beverley, College, Yonge and King.

Toronto is justly proud of her soldiers, which fact was proved by the crowds of citizens that lined the streets on either route.

Both regiments are to be congratulated for their good marching and soldierly bearing while on parade.

Chronic Derangements of the Stomach, Liver and Blood are speedily removed by the active principle of the ingredients entering into the composition of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. These Pills act specifically on the deranged organs, stimulating to action the dormant energies of the system, thereby removing disease and renewing life and vitality to the afflicted. In this lies the great secret of the popularity of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills.

Brown Will Fill Gaynor's Place.

New York, Oct. 6.—The committee appointed at the recent Democratic State convention to fill vacancies and notify candidates performed both duties to-day. The first by selecting Charles F. Brown of Newburgh to fill the vacancy on the State ticket caused by the declination of Justice Gaynor of Brooklyn for Justice of the Court of Appeals; and the second by waiting upon Senator Hill and Congressman Lockwood at the headquarters of the Democrat State Committee.

MRS. HIPKISS' BABY.

Mother of An Abandoned Babe Said to Live in Hayter-street.

Duncan M. Dermott was committed for trial at Kincardine Saturday on a charge of abandoning a 2-month-old babe on the lawn of George Sturgeon, the bee king at Kincardine. Dermott claims that the mother of the child is a Mrs. Hipkiss, whose place of residence is Hayter-street, Toronto, that she came in to Kincardine on the 4.30 train, went to the village by stage, that he drove her and her child back to Kincardine that evening, that he left her about 4 o'clock and drove home, after giving her $20, that she agreed to leave for Toronto that morning and bring the child with her. She left the hotel in which she had spent the night and went to the Royal, where she took the bus for the morning train. She had no valise and no child, and did not appear to be agitated. This would indicate that she could not have walked out to the Claybanks that morning in the brief space of time between Dermott's departure and the departure of the early morning train, and is the only evidence pointing to his guilt. Dermott denies being the father of the child.

A Society Event.

DeKoven and Smith's new comic opera, "Rob Roy," opens at the Grand to-night. The sale for "Rob Roy," which has been going on for the past four days, has been exceedingly gratifying to the management, and the indications are that Manager O. B. Sheppard's popular playhouse will contain within its walls this evening as large and fashionable an audience as ever heretofore assembled there. No more important organization than the Whitney Opera Company, which is to interpret this opera, has ever visited Toronto. The cast which has been submitted contains many names well known to the musical world of this city. The title-role in "Rob Roy" will be sung by William Pruette, who will be remembered for his long connection with the Emma Abbott Grand English Opera Company. Mr. Hugh Chilvers is also included in the cast, as are also Baron Berthold, Richard F. Carroll, Joseph Herbert and Harry Parker. Among the principal female support we find Toronto's favorite prima donna contralto, Lizzie Macnichol, also Juliet Corden and that very pleasing artist Anna O'Keefe. The minor roles in "Rob Roy" have been entrusted to Carrie Reiger, Mittie Atherton, Frankie Leonard and Julie Senac. According to criticisms passed upon "Rob Roy," by such an able writer as George Goodale of The Detroit Free Press, it is destined to be the greatest success in the comic opera way presented to the public in recent years. All the scenery used in the production of "Rob Roy" is carried by the company. Signor A. de Novellis, the musical conductor of the Whitney Opera Company, arrived in the city at 8.30 o'clock yesterday, and spent the day rehearsing the 24 musicians, who will occupy the regular orchestra space below the footlights to-night.

Australian Novelty Company.

The Australian Novelty Company, one of the strongest vaudeville organizations on the road, will be the attraction at the Academy this week. In addition to the company, Mr. Press Eldridge, the American Grossmith, has been engaged for the week in Toronto. Eldridge will give his famous drawing-room entertainment at every performance. He is said to be the highest salaried artist on the American vaudeville stage. Other special features are Barry & Spawn, acrobats and knockabout comedians; Mat Farnum, champion clog and jig dancer; McMaster and King, in their plantation pastimes; Maud Raymond, one of the most dashing serio-comic vocalists on the stage; George Graham, the celebrated character comedian; Ramza and Arno, daring and skilful bar performers; Emma Ward, song and dance artist, and the Ryans in their refined dancing specialty. There will be a matinee every afternoon.

"Orphans of New York."

The ever-popular N. S. Wood and his superb company of players will begin a week's engagement at Jacobs & Sparrow's Opera House this evening in the "Orphans of New York." It is plays of this character that have made the reputation of this popular young delineator of heroic characters. Mr. Wood has experienced a wonderfully brilliant career, and nothing better proves this assertion than the packed houses to which he plays throughout the country. Matinees will be given on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Ovide Musin.

The rapid sale of tickets for the Foresters' concert, at Massey Music Hall next Thursday, bids fair to crowd the house.

Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. Kirkpatrick have extended their kind patronage, and will be present.

The kindly presence of Mayor Kennedy and other notables will grace the occasion, and justly so, for no greater musical attraction visits this city than Ovide Musin, the violinist, and his splendid company of vocal and musical artists. All profits are to be devoted to benevolent work in the Canadian Order of Foresters, a most deserving society, numbering hundreds of members in Toronto. The reserved seat plan is now open at Messrs. A. & S. Nordheimers'.

Massey Music Hall Course.

At the lecture by Dean Hole of Rochester Cathedral, England, on Nov. 19, a chorus made up of the combined Episcopal Church choirs will render suitable selections. The chorus will be under the direction of Mr. J. W. F. Harrison, choirmaster of St. Simon's Church. This event will be the first of the six lectures which will form the Massey Music Hall course.

The Seidl Orchestra.

The prices for the Seidl Orchestra concert on Nov. 20 are just one-half of what they were when the orchestra was here two years ago. The subscribers' list at Nordheimers' is being largely signed.

Try It. — It would be a gross injustice to confound that standard healing agent—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—with the ordinary unguents, lotions and salves. They are offensive inflammatory and astringent. This Oil is, on the contrary, eminently cooling and soothing when applied externally to relieve pain, and powerfully remedial when swallowed.

CANADIAN SECURITIES.

Are Attracting More Attention in New York—Mr. Yarker's Views.

Mr. G. W. Yarker returned on Saturday afternoon from a business visit of some days to New York. He informed The World that he found a marked and favorable change in the attitude and feeling of the large financial houses towards Canadian affairs. Mr. Yarker states that these astute financiers, formerly so shy, are now easily interested in Canadian municipal and industrial securities. Only a few weeks ago a well-known firm purchased a round amount of Buffalo 3 per cents, paying par for them, and expressed surprise on learning afterwards that Toronto 3 1-2 per cents, which they would have preferred, could be had at the same or a lower price. They said if Toronto debentures were listed in New York, as well as in London, investors would be found for them in large sums. The law in the case of some insurance companies prohibits investment in securities outside the United States, but in some cases it only goes so far as not to recognise such investments, and these companies, notably Hartford ones, are buyers of various Canadian bonds, though receiving no credit for them in government returns, and consequently they cannot form part of their reserve, as demanded by law. While London is the great financial centre, and likewise the cheapest and wealthiest money market of the world, yet certain investment securities listed both in London and New York have great advantages. There are only two important Canadian stocks — the Canadian Pacific and Province of Quebec—listed in New York as well as in London, and the holders of these securities during the current year could and did borrow money in the open market in New York at 2 to 3 per cent. per annum and at 1 to 3 per cent. on quick call, and hence doubtless the reason why some other Canadian securities are now being domiciled in New York. It is an easy market to reach, no serious difficulty of exchange and no very vexatious stamp duty to contend with. Investment securities in New York are never hammered, to use a professional word; it is the speculative issues that are tossed up and down. Since the disclosures in the sugar, whisky and other businesses Canadian industrials have attracted considerable attention in the United States, and syndicates are being formed to look into them.

ROYAL GRENS.

The Rifle Matches on Saturday An Unqualified Success.

About 200 men put in an appearance on the Long Branch rifle ranges, to compete for the prizes offered in the Royal Grenadiers' annual rifle match. The shooting was good, although the wind, which was from the rear, and a variable light caused some of the best shots to come to grief, Major Bruce securing first place, with the creditable score of 92 points. The Rifle Committee in charge of the arrangements were Major Bruce, Lieuts Boyd and Pringle, and everything passed off smoothly and satisfactorily. Major Orchard, Capt. Mutton and Lieuts. McNeil and Windeyer acted as range officers, while the Queen's Own Rifles and 48th Highlanders furnished register keepers. In the evening the Rifle Committee entertained the executive officers, Major Sankey and the range officers to dinner at Webb's. The principal prize-winners were:

Treasurer Coady and City Bonds.

Editor World: One of the evening papers in this city has been making such a contemptible and uncalled for attack on the City Treasurer since his recent visit to England with Ald. Shaw to effect a sale of city bonds that I have made it my business to enquire into the circumstances of the case, it is, of course, well known that about two months ago Ald. Shaw and Mr. Coady were sent to England on city business, part of which was to endeavor to sell a million dollars of the city's bonds. While in London they called upon the agents of leading Canadian banks and financial institutions. They remained in England three or four weeks, and made what is supposed to be an excellent arrangement to sell the securities, said to be the best offer in the last five years. But, unfortunately for themselves, they did not like to take the responsibility of closing the bargain until they reported to the Finance Committee. As soon, however, as Ald. Shaw and the Treasurer sailed for home the agent of a syndicate in London, a sharp business man, learned that the deal had not been finally closed, and also learned something about the terms. He cabled the information to a leading Toronto bank. The consequence was that a few days before Ald. Shaw and Mr. Coady arrived in the city a sealed tender was sent in for the bonds, doubtless at a little higher price. Now, if under the circumstances the council accept a higher tender who ought to have the credit for the increase? Why, of course, Ald. Shaw and Treasurer Coady. It will be shown that the English bid is an excellent one, and if it were not for that bid and the competition it brought about the other parties would not have tendered within three points as high as what they have now done.

Pupils View the Fiji Exhibit.

The Fiji exhibit at Messrs. Murdoch, Barker & Co.'s offices at 28 Wellington-street east was one of the attractions for Saturday afternoon, to hear the lecture given to the pupils of the senior fifth classes of our Public schools. This was arranged for by Inspector Hughes. The attendance of teachers and scholars was large. The lecture proved intensely interesting, and as a result all present are entering in the essay competition suggested by this firm, as to the impressions gathered and information obtained from the object lesson offered. The lectures are to be continued every Saturday for some weeks, and it was indeed interesting to those present to observe the pupils with pencils and paper noting all that was suggested by the exhibit and lecturer, and this cannot fail to be of great practical benefit. The exhibit will be open to the public from 9 to 5 daily. It is indeed well worthy of a visit.

For several years nearly all kinds of foods fermented on my stomach, so that after eating I had very distressing sensations, but from the time I commenced the use of the Vegetable Discovery I obtained relief."

S.M.C. DEFEAT MAPLE LEAFS.

The College Nine Score Their Fifth Consecutive Victory.

The St. Michael's boys played their last game of the season on the College grounds Saturday afternoon with the Maple Leafs of this city.

The Leafs are a strong team, but were easily defeated by the college nine, who are playing good ball this season. Smith, the pitcher for the Leafs, who held the Wilmots down to six hits, in their last match, was batted freely by the collegians.

In the first inning the playing was of the loose kind, the visitors scoring seven runs, with the help of their only base hit, to the college four. This gave them a good lead, which they failed to keep. The college boys batted out three runs in the third inning, five in the fifth and three in the sixth, while after the first inning the Leafs began to fall, not a single hit being made off McDermott.

At the end of the sixth inning the score was 15 to 7 in favor of the college, and losing heart the Maple Leafs gave up the game.

Benson and Gloynes made some difficult running catches. McDermott's effective pitching and Reath's base-running were the noticeable points of the college play.

It will be in order now, writes the college secretary, for some spectator to blame the umpire, but it base hits to 1 and 2 errors to 7, need no other explanation of defeat. In the early days of baseball the players were men who accepted defeat as the fortune of war and resolved to do better next time. Now in defeat they howl like babies and blame the umpire. Perhaps this is not so much the fault of the players as it is of the select crowd who follow them, and who help to make the game so popular in Toronto. Score:

St. Michael's College 4 0 3 0 5 3 — 15 11 2
Maple Leafs ... ... 7 0 0 0 0 0 — 7 1 7

Two-base hit, Brady. Struck out by Donovan 1, McDermott 7, Smith 1. Batteries Donovan, McDermott and Fallon; Smith and Crew.

The Third of the Series.

New York, Oct. 6. — More than 20,000 persons saw the New Yorks win their third game from the Baltimores at New York to-day in the series for the Temple Cup. Rusie pitched another magnificent game, though he was rather poorly supported. Hemming was in good form, too, but his work did not begin to compare with Rusie's. Errors by Robinson, Reitz and Hemming helped Ward's men wonderfully in the way of scoring runs. Just before the game began the Catholic Protectory Band gave a concert, and escorted the New Yorks across the field amid a great demonstration. The Champion Baltimores were also well received, although many persons made exception of Brodie and McGraw, and hooted them all through the game. Score:

Athletic and General Notes.

The skiff Flora, from the Royal Toronto Sailing Skiff Club, is on her way to Vancouver, B.C. She was the fastest 17-foot skiff in Toronto in 1893. She will be entered in all the races in Vancouver and neighboring cities.

George Dixon, the featherweight champion, and Al Griffith, better known as "Young Griffo," have been matched to a finish fight before the club offering the largest purse and $5000 a side. The contest is to take place in six weeks after the acceptance by both pugilists of the purse.

A very interesting game of baseball was played on the Don flats on Saturday afternoon between the Young Canadians and Claremonts, the former winning by 7 to 8. Batteries: Avison and Parker, Brogan, Woodhouse, Harding and Blair. A feature of the game was the hard hitting of Parker and Myers. Umpire, W. Matthews.

Sheriff Killed By Policeman.

Denver, Col., Oct. 6.—Deputy Sheriff Milt Smith was shot and killed last night by Policeman Boykin. The sheriff's force is Republican, while the police force is Populist. Trouble has been brewing for a long time, and there have been several fights over prisoners. It is the common belief that there will be trouble on election day. The killing last night will intensify the feeling.

IT WAS HENRY OF NAVARRE.

Clifford and Domino Beaten in a Great Race at Morris Park—Bookmakers Are Hit Hard.

Morris Park, Oct. 6.—The great drawing card to-day was the struggle between Henry of Navarre, Domino and Clifford. There was a monstrous crowd all ready with their money to pit on these grand racers. In the early betting Domino was a warm favorite at 6 to 5, Clifford a second choice at 8 to 5 and Henry of Navarre quoted at 3 to 1. The track was lightning fast, and great time was expected. A few minutes after the odds were posted the crowd fell upon the 6 to 5 offered against the Keene colt, and his price went down to even money, while 2 to 1 was offered against Clifford and 4 to 1 against Henry of Navarre. They went to the post at these odds: Domino, 6 to 5; Clifford, 7 to 5; Henry of Navarre, 4 to 1. No big or sensational bets were made.

At 4.25 o'clock the horses appeared at the post. Domino declined to first break. Then Clifford declined. The next break was refused by Clifford and Navarre. They then broke, with Domino slightly in the lead. They were moving and the flag went down. A mighty shout, "They are off," arose from the 25,000 people present. Henry of Navarre kept at Domino's throatlatch all the way up the incline. Simms rated along in the rear with Clifford as they swept across the brow of the hill. The excitement was intense. There was not a change of any kind in their positions when the tower was reached.

Domino's black muzzle hid the chestnut's outstretched nose. They swung into the homestretch in this order. The pace was terrific, and still Henry of Navarre hung on.

"Domino is beaten, Domino's beaten," was the shout. Taral drew his whip and brought it down on Domino's glossy flanks again and again with terrific force. He drove him with whip and spur for half a furlong. It was no use. Clayton was sitting immovable on Henry of Navarre. Clifford then made his effort, and, amid groans of disappointment, Domino fell back beaten. Taral humanely and sensibly gave up the useless struggle.

It's Clifford's race, then rang out as the mighty 4-year-old closed up on Navarre with a bound. Clifford had his nose in front for a few strides. Clayton then called upon Henry of Navarre. He rode the grand old colt as he had never been ridden before. The 3-year-old, to the consternation of the talent, responded nobly. He gradually forged to the front, and, amid a perfect pandemonium of cheers, he won the supremacy of the American turf by a length. Clifford, urged to the utmost limit of endurance, beat Domino, who was eased up, by 15 lengths. Domino showed signs of temper when punished. The official time of the race was: First furlong .13, second .24, third .37, fourth .51, fifth 1.04 1-4, seventh 1.28 3-4, mile and a furlong 1.52 1-4. No official time was taken for the mile. A few of the bets made were: Bob Akins bet $500 on Domino; Leo Swatts $500 on Clifford; Leo Rayer, the Western plunger, took the Navarre end. He had $800 on against $8200. The general opinion seems to be that Henry of Navarre was never better in his life, and that Byron McClelland's assertions to the contrary were made simply to influence the betting.

It is estimated that the Western plunger won a big fortune on the race. The bulk of his money was bet in out of town books. The bookies were hit hard with the result. Clifford and Navarre were played by all the small punters for a place. Summaries:

First race, 3-4 mile—Iola, 107, Doggett, 3 to 5, 1; Fondoline, 99, Clayton, 8 to 1, 2; Hazelhatch, 112, Regan, 20 to 1, 3. Time 1.10. Gov. Sheehan, Melody also ran.

They Shook Hands.

Messrs. Hendrie and Patteson, the principals of the O.J.C. warring factions, came together Saturday at the Hunt Club's meeting, and everyone will be gratified to hear that it was in a friendly manner. In the secretary's office they cordially shook hands and exchanged the usual friendly courtesies. What effect this will have on the proceedings that are at present sub judice remains to be seen, but every well-wisher of the Canadian turf can only hope that the incident will be the means of a happy end, and that the opposing parties will now see their way to bury the hatchet and unite in promoting the greatest race meeting next spring in the history of the Ontario Jockey Club.

HAWKE'S VICTORIOUS CARREER.

The English Cricketers Force the Fifteen Yankees to Follow On.

Lowell, Mass., Oct. 6.—The cricket match between Lord Hawke's eleven and 15 representing All-Massachusetts opened here this morning. The visitors won the toss and elected to defend the wickets. And although 4 wickets were down for 8 runs, Mordaunt, De Trafford and Hardie brought the score up to a respectable figure. Then Uncle Sam's aggregation started in, and there was a steady procession to and from the stumps. Hill's grubs were no good, but Hillyard had a wonderful analysis with the ball, while Bathurst with his left hand slows secured 5 for 21. The whole side was out for 53, and a follow-on Monday morning is necessary. The score:

MONTREAL AND SHAMROCKS.

The Eastern Lacrosse Men Play a Tie, Scoring 2 Goals Each.

Game.	Won by.	Scored by.	Time.
1st	Shamrocks	Wall	16.26
2nd	Capitals	P. Murphy	16.12
3rd	Shamrocks	Tansey	1.30
4th	Capitals	Carlton	28.26
5th	—	—	2.30

Montreal, Oct. 6.—The Capital-Shamrock match here to-day resulted in a draw of two to two, after, to use the classic words of Dennis Tansey, "The finest lacrosse I ever seen." The match was on the whole clean, sharp and well contested, but the Shamrocks played the better lacrosse, their men doing better combination work.

The Shamrocks played around their opponents in the first game, but Crown saved several close calls. In the second Dwyer got his hand badly hurt and had to go off, and he was replaced by Ketchum. Powers and young Murphy did great work for youngsters. Kelly was ruled off in the fourth for cross-check. The tie will be played off next Saturday. The teams were:

Referee— Harry Brophy.

Ketchums in Four Straights.

On Saturday afternoon on Ketchum Park, where the Victors went to wipe the earth with the North End Ketchums, a good game of lacrosse was played, in which there was a great deal of roughness. Although not at the head of the school series, the game the Ketchums put up Saturday against a first-class junior team like the Victors shows what they can do with practice. The final result was four straight games for the Ketchums.

Caused by Boys.

The fire brigade was called out at noon Saturday to 132 Argyle-street, an empty house. Some mischievous boys had set the house on fire. Damage $30.

THE RUGBY UNION RESULTS.

Osgoode Hall and Hamilton Easily Defeat Varsity and Toronto—Other Contests.

The Rugby Union championship contests opened auspiciously Saturday afternoon. The weather was fine and clear and almost perfect for the game. Toronto was beaten 15 points by Hamilton's Tigers, and yet the Garnets made a better showing than did Varsity against the Hall fifteen. And thus it looks as if Osgoode Hall and Hamilton must meet in the first of their home-and home second round matches here Oct. 20.

Queen's and Royal Military College did not play on Saturday, as they have a bye in the second round. They play their first game next Saturday.

The games were more closely contested in the intermediate series, as will be seen by the scores below. Owing to the demoralization in the street car service several members of Toronto's second team were unable to reach the cricket grounds, and they will ask Varsity to play the game this week. All the results:

Hamilton 25, Toronto 10.

Shortly after the scheduled time, 3.30, Toronto and Hamilton lined up for their initial championship struggle of the Rugby season at Rosedale Saturday afternoon. It was a fine day, but on account of the many counter attractions only about 300 persons saw a fairly well-played game. Hamilton won by 25 points to 10, and thus has a 15 points' advantage for next Saturday. Captain Joe Wright won the toss, and kicked east, with the decided advantage of sun and wind. Play was pretty even in the first half, the score standing 8 to 6 in Hamilton's favor when they crossed over. There was much give-and-take play at the outset until Gale punted across the line and Barker rouged. Then Hamilton went over for a try, and Toronto soon forced another rouge. Hamilton touched down again and the score was 8 to 2 in the visitors' favor. Just before half time Whitehead's long punt was well followed up by Brooke, who went across for a try. McMurrich failed at goal.

The sun became less bright and the wind decreased when Cosby took his place at the east goal. Toronto's place was well returned by Harvey, and for half an hour play was altogether in Garnet territory. Leggatt went around for a try and again the kick failed. In fact of Hamilton's five tries at the posts not one was successful. McMurrich and Marshall went off for scrapping and returned in five minutes. Hamilton's next point was a rouge, followed quickly by a safety touch, Whitehead being forced across his own line, 15—6. Ripley next made a touch down and Harvey scored a goal from a flying kick, 23—6. Here Lee and Ripley went off, the Hamilton man being hurt, and Briggs punted over for a rouge, and soon another came. Toronto took three free kicks for the Tigers' deliberate off side play. Glassco was so suddenly stopped while making a run, that he, too, was forced to retire, Munro going off with him. Thus the game continued 13 a side. The Garnets now seemed to take new life.

Marshall was late in his off-side attempt to intercept Cartwright's pass to Gale. The lacrosse man made the run of the day and landed safe behind, 25—10. Captain Wright failed at goal and soon after the kick-off time was up.

The visitors punted the better, while their wings were superior in following up the ball. Toronto's halves did not punt sufficiently with the wind in the first half, while in the second the Hams gained much ground by their long kicks.

Torontos' scrimmage had the best of it, Cartwright being given every chance and he was better than Briggs.

The teams: Toronto (10)—Back, Cosby; halves, Muntz, Gale, Whitehead; quarter, Cartwright; scrimmage, Paine, Wright (capt.), Thompson; wings, Hedley, Jones, Burnside, McMurrich, Lee, Carlyle, Sutherland and Brooke.

Hamilton (25)—Back, Barber; halves, Glassco, Southam, Harvey; quarter, J. Briggs; scrimmage, Irving, Hamilton, Dewar (capt.); wings, Marshall, McCarthy, H. Harvey, Leggatt, D. Martin, Ripley, Stewart.

Osgoode Hall 29, Varsity 8.

In the Rugby championship match on the Lawn, Osgoode Hall was victorious over Varsity by 29 to 8.

The spectators were treated to a fine display of football, although before the game had proceeded far Varsity, whose playing at the outset was remarkably good, seemed to break all to pieces. In the scrimmages their opponents were decidedly the stronger side.

Osgoode kicked off, Varsity scored the first point, a rouge, then Kingston got a touch in goal. Shortly afterwards the ball was taken over the line by Kingston, from which Gilmour kicked a goal. Up to this time Varsity had had matters pretty much their own way, but the Osgoode players began to pick up, and from a touch down by Martin Smellie kicked a goal. At this stage Culbert received a kick in the head and had to leave the field. Boyd took his place at back and Barr filled the vacancy at half. Osgoode again carried the ball close up to the line, and looked like again scoring, but Boyd pluckily saved and the ball was returned to infield. Osgoode continued to play an excellent game, and, after a splendid piece of passing from one end of the field to the other obtained a touch down. Smellie, however, failed to secure a goal. At half-time the score stood: Osgoode 10, Varsity 8.

In the second half Varsity did not score at all. At the commencement, through a miss of Boyd's, Osgoode obtained a touch-down from which Smellie kicked a goal. After some even play Boyd was hurt and left the field. Barr took his place at back and Craig went off for Osgoode. Martin then secured a touch-down, but Smellie failed to kick a goal. Osgoode obtained another try, which was also unsuccessful. Osler then got a try but Smellie once more failed. Some neat passing by Gilmour and Kingston looked dangerous, but it did not materialize. Osgoode finished up with a rouge, making the score 29 points to 8 in favor of Osgoode.

The teams were as follows:

Pope's Cockneys Beat Petrolea.

Petrolea, Oct. 6.—In the intermediate series at Petrolea to-day the teams lined up at 3.30. Captain Pope, winning the toss, elected to defend the southern goal. After about ten minutes of open play, Marquis scored a touch-down for Petrolea from a pass by Captain McDonald, which Anderson failed to convert into a goal. London scored after 20 minutes' play, when McDonald rouged a long kick by Pope. After the kick out, Auld and Leckie carried the ball up to the London goal line, when on a scrimmage being formed a penalty kick was awarded London. The pigskin was in short order returned to Petrolea territory and Anderson was forced to rouge. London again scored, Pomphrey securing a try, which Pope easily converted. After about 20 minutes' open play, Petrolea forced the ball to the London line, when Stokes secured a touch-down without a try. Shortly after the kick-off Pope, by a brilliant dash, secured a try, which he afterwards failed to convert. When time was called Petrolea had the ball well into London's territory. Score 13 to 9 in favor of London. Reed of Toronto refereed the game satisfactorily.

Lornes Tie With the Champs.

The Lornes played a drawn game with Osgoode Hall II., last year's champions, Saturday on Trinity's campus, the score being 14 all. Both teams played good Rugby, and it was a hard fight for victory. The same teams will meet again next Saturday, and a good game may be looked for. The teams were:

Osgoode II. (14): Back, Cameron; halves, Richardson, Laing, Sims; quarter, Bond; left wing, Cheown, Barker, McLean and White (captain); right wing, Grant, Moss and Brown; scrimmage, Martin, McKenzie, Storey.

Lornes (14): Back, Mickleburgh; halves, Eby, Morton, Dockray; quarter, Watson (captain); forwards, Sanderson, F. Wilson, Meek; wings, Tremayne, Hoskin, Winnans, J. W. Cooper, P. Eby, Anderson, Boyd. Referee, Osler.

Hobbs was over the line for a Varsity touch-down near the goal. Morrison put up a marvelous game for the Lornes at half-back. The teams:

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

The Toronto Association Football League season opened on Saturday, when the Gore Vales again vanquished their old opponents, the Toronto Scots. Play was commenced at 3.45 p.m. on the Baseball grounds, the Scots winning the toss and kicking with a strong wind and the sun at their backs. Purvis kicked off, but poor playing and high kicking against the wind on the part of the Gore Vale defence allowed the Scots to score after three minutes' play. The Vales then pulled themselves together and dribbled cleverly down the field. They were very speedy, and had no difficulty in running around the Scots' defence, but the strong wind proved a more formidable opponent, many shots going wide of the goal. Humphrey centred, but the Scots' backs cleared. A few minutes later Humphrey again centred, and Johnston put the ball through. Score 1 to 1.

After half-time play was transferred almost entirely to the Scots' goal, and how the ball was kept out as long as it was, was something the spectators could not account for. At times the Scots' forwards would break away, but they never proved dangerous, Gordon having no trouble in keeping his goal clear. About eight minutes before time was called, Bulmer scored the final goal for the Gore Vales. The teams:

Gore Vales (3): Goal, Gordon; backs, A. Anderson, Mott; halves, Hunter, J. E. Little, Powers; forwards, Humphrey, Bulmer, Purvis, Singer, Johnston.

A Tie Game on the Lawn.

The Intermediate Association football match on the University Lawn Saturday between Varsity II. and the Riversides resulted in a draw, not a goal being scored on either side. The teams were:

A MAGNIFICENT INAUGURAL

BRILLIANT SUCCESS OF THE NEW HUNT CLUB'S RACES.

Splendid Weather Favors the Meeting, But a Break-Down in the Street Car Service Spoils the Attendance—Beefeater, Dodo, Coquette, Idaho and The Piper the Winners.

From Sunday World.

Judge—T. C. Patteson.
Associate judges — G. W. Torrance, C. W. Clinch.
Starter—John Stanton.
Assistant starter—R. Myles.
Clerk of the course — Lyndhurst Ogden.
Clerks of the scales — C. T. Mead, W. P. Fraser.
Timers — Dr. C. P. Strathy, E. W. Cox, Charles Brown.

Most heartily must the Country and Hunt Club be congratulated upon the brilliant success of their inaugural race meeting. Although the day opened cloudy and somewhat unpromising, the afternoon turned out most splendidly, the sun being bright and warm. Owing to a break-down of the street car service about the time people should be going down, the attendance was somewhat interfered with, but fully 2300 were present, including nearly all the leading people of the city.

In spite of the recent rains the track was in good condition, although a trifle heavy. Five bookies did a brisk business. All the events were keen and interesting, but the Open Handicap Steeplechase produced one of the best contests ever seen at the course.

Beefeater Beats the Favorite.

First race — The Country Plate; open flat race; purse $200, of which $40 to second and $20 to third; for all ages; selling allowances; 6 furlongs.

G. B. Hall's ch. g. Beefeater, 5, by Vassal — Regalia, 114 lbs... ... (Douglas) 1
J. Duggan's ch. c. Foam, 4, by Ocean Wave — Zoonomy, 122 lbs.... (Blair) 2
Newmarket Stable's b. f. Carnation, 2, by imp. Cheviot — Runaway, 74 lbs. (Songer) 3
W. Hendrie's ch. f. Bowstring, 3, 106, inc 3 lbs. over ... ...(Flint) 0
A. Smith's ch. f. Maid of Ellerslie, 3, 100 1-2 lbs, inc. 3 1-2 lbs. over..... (Murray) 0
George Doherty's ch.f. Baneletta, 3, 93, lbs... ... ... k... ....(Nutt) 0

Time 1.18 1-4.

Betting — Evens Foam, 3 to 1 against Beefeater, 4 to 1 Bowstring, 12 to 1 Maid of Ellerslie, 12 to 1 Carnation, 15 to 1 Baneletta.

Beefeater, Foam, Carnation and Bowstring got away on about even terms, with Baneletta and Maid of Ellerslie trailing. The first four continued fairly bunched for the first furlong, and then Beefeater and Foam opened a gap, with Bowstring following and Carnation alongside her. Rounding the lower turn Beefeater and Foam were still fighting for the lead, with little to choose between them. At the head of the stretch Douglas drew his whip and Beefeater went into the lead. Foam, however, would not be stalled off, and it was not until opposite the betting ring that Beefeater could be said to have anything decisive in his favor. From there he came away and won rather handily by a length from Foam, who had that much the best of the light-weighted Carnation, with Bowstring lapping her and the others beaten off. Mr. Duggan was very cross about the ride Blair gave him with Foam, and, truth to say, the boy did not seem over persistent after Beefeater had once got to the front.

Dodo Captures the Red-Coat Race.

Second race — The Club Steeplechase; purse $60, of which $20 to second; for horses that had never won a race, and were the property and ridden by members of the Country and Hunt Club; short steeplechase course, about 1 3-4 miles; in hunting costume.

W. Forester's ch. m. Dodo, by Northland, 168 lbs... ... ...(Mr. Forester) 1
F. N. Beardmore's b. g. Laddie, a., by Princeton, 168 lbs... (Mr. F. Beardmore) 2
R. O. McCulloch's br. m. Maritana, 5, by Sharpcatcher, 168 lbs.... ... ... (Mr. McCarthy) 3
R. Skinner's br. g. Surefoot, a., 168 (Mr. Skinner); A. Darling's b. g. Hornpipe, a., 168 (Mr. Crean), and George Carruthers gr. g. Grey Friar, a., 168 (Mr. Carruthers), also ran.

Time 5.26 1-4.

Betting — Evens Hornpipe, 8 to 5 against Dodo, 2 to 1 Maritana, 3 to 1 Laddie, 5 to 1 Surefoot, 5 to 1 Grey Friar.

Gray Friar showed the way to the post and rails opposite the grove and then came a cropper, rolling over his rider, Mr. George Carruthers, but not seriously hurting him. Grey Friar was out of the hunt, but Mr. Carruthers remounted him and went the complete course, receiving much applause as he rode in, with his horse going strongly and well. After Grey Friar had passed out Hornpipe became pilot and opened quite a gap, with Surefoot, Dodo, Maritana and Laddie following. They navigated the eastern field in this way, and continued to the fatal post and rails opposite the grove in the west field, when Mr. Crean lost a stirrup, and Hornpipe ran out. Surefoot surmounted the obstacle all right, and then took it into his head to sulk. Dodo without more ado assumed command, literally running away from the remainder of the field. Laddie, who had previously passed Maritana, went into second place, and Surefoot consented to follow in his wake with Maritana fourth and Hornpipe, who had been again got into the running, last. No change took place in the order after this, Dodo easily landing the money by half a dozen lengths from Laddie, who made up a lot of ground on the flat, running like a scarred cat. Maritana came third the same distance behind Laddie as he was behind Dodo. Surefoot was fourth, a good space in the rear of Maritana, and Hornpipe fifth.

Third race — Open Flat Handicap; purse $200, of which $40 to second and $20 to third; all ages; 1 1-16 miles.

G. B. Hall's ch. f. Beefeater, 5, 112.... (Douglas) 3
W. Forester's b. g. Tippoo, a., 100... ... (Johnson) 0

Time 1.52 3-4.

Betting — 2 to 5 against Coquette, 2 to 1 Kapanga colt, 5 to 2 Beefeater, 6 to 1 Tippoo.

The quartet, comprising Coquette, Beefeater, Kapanga colt and Tippo, were on as near as possible even terms when the flag fell. Beefeater was the first to show in the van, with Coquette at his shoulder and the Kapanga colt third, Tippo being last. They ran this way past the judges' stand, and round the club house turn, where the Kapanga colt closed up on Coquette and fell in behind Beefeater. Past the quarter Coquette moved up to Beefeater, and along the back stretch took the command. At the half Mr. Hendrie's filly was in the load by a full length, with the Kapanga colt right up on Beefeater. Rounding the turn to the three-quarters, Coquette opened a gap and Beefeater shot his bolt, the Kapanga colt going after Coquette, who easily kept in front, finally winning in a common canter by half a dozen lengths from the Doctor's colt, Beefeater coming third four lengths in the rear of him, and Tippoo beaten off.

Fourth race — Open Handicap Steeplechase; purse $200, of which $40 to second and $20 to third; full course, about 2 1-2 miles.

C. Phair's ch. g. Lexington, a., by Long Taw—Mollie Seabrooks, 141 ... (Phair) 3
F. Doane's ch. g. Baronet, a., 152..... (Noel) 0

Waterloo 148, Dodo 138, and Speculator 142, did not finish.

Time 6.32 3-4.

Betting — Evens Baronet, 2 to 1 against Idaho, 4 to 1 each against Dodo and Waterloo, 6 to 1 Burr Oak, 10 to 1 each Lexington and Speculator.

This was the greatest race of the day. Seven of the eight on the card faced the flag, namely, Idaho, Dodo, Baronet, Lexington, Burr Oak, Speculator and Waterloo, Winslow being the only absentee. Baronet essayed to show the way on the fall of the flag, with Idaho second, Lexington third, Burr Oak fourth, Speculator fifth, Dodo sixth and Waterloo last. Before coming to the wall Maddocks took Idaho in hand and fell back to fifth, Burr Oak taking the lead, followed by Lexington, Baronet and Dodo. At the wall Speculator struck hard and threw his jockey, who failed to remount. Speculator, however, joined in the race, and, without a rider, actually went the whole course and finished among the first three, stopping of his own accord when the long journey was finished, and turning as if to weigh in. It was a great illustration of what training will do, and it was quite amusing to see the old gelding shake his head and gather himself for each jump, which he always took alongside the leader. Waterloo remained in the rear for one round and then his owner signalled to Wood, his jockey, to pull up. The last field was finished in this order: Burr Oak, Baronet, Lexington, Dodo and Idaho. Coming to the water Speculator the riderless, forced Dodo out and she had to go back. At this time Burr Oak was still leading, with Lexington second. At the wall for the second time Burr Oak ran out, and Baronet, passing Lexington, took up the running, with Idaho, still well in hand, third. Idaho by this time had again got into the hunt, and fell in behind Burr Oak, who was once more going straight, Baronet still led, but old Burr Oak game hard and passed Lexington, Idaho becoming fourth. At the wall for the final time Dodo, who was palpably tired after her exertions in the Club Steeplechase, and again in this race, stumbled and gave up the chase. Burr Oak continued in the lead, Lexington having again supplanted Baronet, who tired badly. Idaho now began to close up on the leader, and entering the flat had them about collared. Once in the stretch Maddocks called upon the sturdy 4-year-old Idaho, who was a great bargain at Grand's spring sale, and coming away he won in gallant style by three lengths from old Burr Oak, who finished two lengths in front of Lexington, third, with Baronet a poor fourth. The result was entirely due to the masterly riding of Maddocks, who handled Idaho with rare skill and judgment. Burr Oak, a hard horse to manage, was also splendidly ridden by H. Wilson, a most deserving and persevering young man.

The President Scores Again

Fifth race — The Brush Purse; open flat race; purse $160, of which $40 to second, $20 to third; selling allowances; 5 furlong heats

W. Hendrie's b. g. The Piper, 3, by Falsetto — Madie Bayles, 107, inc. 4 lbs. over... ... .(Flint) 1 3 1
A. Smith's ch. f. Maid of Ellerslie, 3, by Knight of Ellerslie — Penelope, 105 ... ...(Johnson) 2 1 2
C. Phair's imp. b. m. Ochone, 4, by Trapeze — Mahone, 102 (Murray) 4 2
E. Phair's ch. g. Blue Wing, 5, 104 1-2, inc. 2 1-2 lbs. over... ... ... (Harrison) 2 4
J. Duggan's ch. g. Merrythought, 3, 105 .. ..(Randall) 5 5

Time 1.05 1-4, 1.06 1-4, 1.07.

Betting — First heat, 3 to 5 against The Piper, 2 to 1 Merrythought, 4 to 1 Blue Wing, 5 to 1 each Maid of Ellerslie and Ochone. Second heat, 4 to 5 against The Piper, 8 to 5 Ochone, 4 to 1 each Merrythought and Blue Wing, 5 to 1 Maid of Ellerslie. Third heat, 2 to 5 against The Piper, 3 to 1 Maid of Ellerslie.

There was a good deal of speculation on this race, the betting being done mainly on the heats. The five starters in the first heat went away almost in a bunch, Merrythought getting a trifle the worst of it. They ran together until the stretch, when The Piper stayed steadily, being only urged by the hands—he has a horror of whip and spur—and won by half a length from Blue Wing, who ran surprisingly well, Maid of Ellerslie being third, Ochone fourth and Merrythought last.

In the second heat another good start was effected, but The Piper could not get through his horses, and being held on the rail in the last furlong, finished only third to Maid of Ellerslie, Ochone separating them. Blue Wing was fourth and Merrythought, after leading for a part of the distance, again last.

The third heat was a picnic for The Piper, who went to the front at the start, and won hands down by five lengths. This brought a great day's racing to a close, the officers of the Country and Hunt Club being universally complimented on the brilliant success of their inaugural meeting.

Commissioner for Toronto Island.

Mr. Edgar J. Jarvis is an applicant for the position of commissioner for Toronto Island. For 30 years Mr. Jarvis has been an active and enterprising citizen. Rosedale, with its bridges, roads and avenues of trees, is an outcome of his labors. He has watched the works carried on at the Island for some years and his opinion is that, although at Centre Island they have been of great benefit and have effected a grand improvement on the dismal swamp of the past, they have cost more than double the sum they should have done.

To reach, re-claim and restore such unfortunates to health and happiness, is the aim of an association of medical gentlemen who have prepared a book, written in plain but chaste language, treating of the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. The World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Ask Some Questions about Pearline, of any woman who uses it. Ask her what she thinks of it, and whether it's quite safe to use, and if washing and cleaning is any easier with it. Ask her how the clothes look and last, when they're not rubbed over the washboard. Ask her how it would seem to go back to that eternal rub, rub, rub, now that she has got rid of it.

If she has used Pearline faithfully, and just as directed on every package, she'll probably have one question to ask you: "How in the world do you manage to get along without it."

Send it Back or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back. Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" 357 JAMES PYLE, New York.

Tips From Wall-Street.

The market closed very strong to-day.

Henry A. King & Co.'s special wire from Ladenburg, Thalman & Co., New York: The week ends with a scarcity of stocks, in which the bear party displayed their activity on Monday and Tuesday last. The tendency to cover, which was so marked yesterday, was again apparent in to-day's transactions, and though the trading was confined to a small portion of the list prices generally showed an appreciating tendency. Chicago Gas and Western Union were the features of this movement, it being understood that the White party had taken hold of the latter, with the assistance of a powerful operator. Sugar was somewhat neglected, while D. C. F. showed strength on the statement that the concern has been a heavy buyer of corn, and is about to start up its plant.

Henry A. King & Co.'s special wire from Logan & Co., Chicago: The wheat market has been dull to-day, with small fluctuations. There is no change in the situation, but there is a decided change in the sentiment. This feeding question is receiving a great deal of attention. One circular sent out by a live stock commission house puts the present consumption about 50,000,000 bushels per month. It looks a little large, but it is evident from their returns that wheat is being fed, and fed extensively. Half that consumption will necessitate the importation of it. Corn has been very steady and firm. The price is high, but the demand at present seems to warrant it. Receipts are light, without any prospect of increasing. So long as this continues it will do to buy when weak. The feature of the provision market is the buying by packers. The selling is scattered, and by pit professionals. The well-informed men look for higher prices.

Schwartz, Dupee & Co., Chicago, wired Dixon: Wheat firm all day, closing 1-2c over Friday. There was the usual Saturday disinclination to risk going home short. An estimate by the Mallorys of the stockyard that 37 per cent. of hogs were being fed on wheat caused some buying. The prospect of a small increase in the visible supply, about one-third of last year's, helped the price in a measure. Primary receipts were less than 700,000; local receipts light. Minneapolis and Duluth had 862 cars, against 980 last year. Corn acted indifferently; was weak early, and rather firm towards the close. There was not much cash business, as there seldom is on Saturday. Receipts were light, 88 cars. Charters were 87,000 bushels. Oct. was relatively the firmer, getting to 1-2c over May. The local stock Monday should show a decrease of 300,000 bushels. Provisions were nervous and irregular, within a narrow range. The market closed a little higher than yesterday on moderate covering by two or three leading packers. A large run of hogs is expected next week, and should give us lower prices again.
