HORSE AND CATTLE MEDICINE

THE TURKISH BLACK SALVE.

is a valuable addition to the catalogue of Horse and Cattle Medicines; forming an excellent application to Galls and Harness Galls, Broken Knees Lacerated or Contused Wounds, Tumours, Bone, Fistula of the Withers, Pole-Evil, Sand Cracks, False Quarter, Speedy Cutt, Treads, Overreaches, Bruises of the Frog, and other injuries of a similar character. It is also possessed of the power of effecting a speedy reduction of the enlarged and indurated Glands remaining after Distemper or Strangles. It is also a very good application for the Fot-Root in Sheep, and a sovereign never-failing cure for Inflamed Udder in Mares, Cows, Sheep, and Bitches.

THIS COMPANY, which has been established 30 years, commenced with a subscribed Capital of $3,000,000, and was the first, 20 years ago, to offer to the Public two Scales of Premium—the lower, to insure only a fixed amount; the higher, entitling the Insurers to a participation in the profits.

Advantages offered to Insurers.

Very low Rates of Premiums on Young Lives.

The security of a large realised and invested Capital.

Large Bonuses on Policies effected on the high Scale.

Prompt settlement of Losses.

The full value given for Policies when discontinued.

On Insurances for the Whole of Life: one-half of the Premiums, if desired, permitted to remain unpaid for the first seven years, as a Loan at interest, and then to be paid, or to remain as a permanent Loan, at the option of the Insurer.

Loans upon Policies for the Whole of Life, after payment of three Premiums, in proportion to the value of same.

The acceptance of Naval, Military, Climate, and Special Risks of all kinds, on payment of a commensurate Premium. Age admitted on the Policy when issued, if desired, on proof of date of birth.

Permission for the Lives assured to reside in any part of Europe, without extra premium or special license, and to, at and from California, at a small extra premium.

Insurances, if required immediately, may be effected any day between the hours of 10 and 4.

The Pamphlets published by this Company fully set forth the merits of Life Insurance; and copies thereof may be had, gratis, on application to the Agent, who is also prepared to furnish every information that intending Insurers may require.

BRITANNIA
LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY,
No. 1, Princess Street, Bank, London.

CAPITAL—ONE MILLION STERLING.

Empowered by Special Act of Parliament, 4 Vict., Chap. 9.

REDUCED RATES OF PREMIUM—HALF CREDIT RATES OF PREMIUM.

THE great and decided success which has attended this Institution, has induced the Directors to REDUCE the RATES originally required in British North America, to the ordinary European Rates. The result of such Reduction is to enable parties to avail themselves of the important benefits to Life Assurance at much lower Rates of Premium than those of any other Assurance Company transacting business in Canada.

The Directors have also resolved to extend to British North America the advantages afforded by the HALF CREDIT RATES of PREMIUM which have been so highly approved, and are so generally adopted by Policy Holders in the United Kingdom. The most liberal conditions are likewise offered to the Assured in the limits to which they may proceed for year or land, to other parts of North America without affecting their Interest in their respective Policies.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20, 1851.

On Monday last, the Legislative Assembly had another speech of nearly three hours length inflicted upon them without rhyme or reason by "the never ending still beginning" William Lyon Mackenzie upon the much vexed question of the Clergy Reserves. Extracts from the speech will be found elsewhere. We are heartily sick, both of Mr. Mackenzie and his speeches, and we wonder much that he will persist in wasting the time of the House upon a question, the discussion of which he must by this time see is distasteful to the majority of the members, since after his soporific speech he could muster no more than six abettors to his spoliation effort, among which was the conceited but very shallow and ignorant member for Middlesex. Mr. Notman is consistent in one point; he is in origin one of the unwashed himself, and he uses all the little influence he possesses to bring others down to his own ignoble level. Vulgar thoughts and early vulgar associations have made him in public life an enemy to the softer and more dignified amenities of life, and hence his hostility to conservative feeling and gentlemanly association. Mr. Notman's opposition to the Clergy Reserves arises not so much because he disapproves of what he and others of his kidney call the loaves and fishes, as from an intense hatred of the Church of England and his anxious desire to take away from her in this Province the small pittance that radical rapacity has left her. They have already despoiled her of the fishes, as they profanely call the temporalities of a Church Establishment; but they are still unsatisfied, they must now also have the loaves—they must now tear from her lips the dry crust which has been alone left to her of a sovereign's bounty. Yet this pure and would-be-thought stainless plebeian William Notman can lay his unwashed paws upon three hundred pounds of the public money, put into his pocket by his friends Baldwin & Co., and at the same time stand forward as the boasted champion in Parliament and call himself an independent member! In the "Public Account," "No 18," under the head of contingent expenses of criminal prosecutions, we find the following entry—"William Notman, for services as Crown Officer, &c., for the Spring and Fall Assizes of 1850, £301 0s. 0d."—a sum for which we have no doubt the immaculate and pious William Notman would write upon his door posts, like Grimaldi the clown, "No Religion," if Robert Baldwin or Francis Hincks would bid him. The specious plea of Education—Godless of course—which is set up as a sufficient reason for spoiling the Church, can have no weight with those who know what sort of an education such men as Mr Notman would substitute in its place—that would be an education in which no Clergyman of any persuasion, more particularly of the Church, should have anything to say. Men of the Mackenzie and Notman stamp have an intuitive dislike to Clergymen, because the latter are apt to think that Bibles and Catechisms should be in some measure at least the indispensable vehicles of instruction, while the former think these old-fashioned ways of making men good and wise ought to be exploded, and some more whiggish road to wisdom substituted in their place, such as Chambers' Educational Course, or indeed any other Course, that has no religion as a characteristic.

We argue against the dissipation of the Clergy Reserves rather as a principle than with any idea that they are of much—if any—importance to the prosperity of the Church as they now stand. The pittance they afford to each Clergyman is wholly inadequate for his sustenance, at the same time that they afford a sufficient apology for Congregations to declining contributing an adequate support for their Minister. Were all the Churches wholly and entirely and unreservedly voluntary, there would be no invidious distinctions by which to create jealousy and discontent, nor would we see those heartburnings and bickerings among bodies of Christians, whose only real difference consists in some unimportant points of Church Government, which now disfigure the Christian world. Were a Heathen stranger to come among us, his remark would no longer be, "Behold how these Christians love one another." His observation would rather lead him to say, "Behold how these Christians hate, abuse, villify and backbite, one another;" and even those of the same persuasion are not altogether free from this censure; the scandal potion is as sweetly sugared and made as palatable where a brother or sister is the subject of conversation, as if it were Presbytery versus Episcopacy, or Methodist versus Baptist. With respect to State Endowments of the Churches, if any must go, the whole entirely, and without reservation, must be confiscated to Civil purposes. The Roman Catholic as well as the Protestant must surrender his Endowments, for with this alone will the people be satisfied. It will not do to tell us that because the Clergy Reserves are of trifling amount, and the public property of the Romanists enormous, that the one must be taken and the other left. If the one is an abuse so is the other, and the amount of such abuse is exactly in proportion to the amount of income involved in either case. It can never be thought that a provision set aside for the support of the Protestant Churches by a Protestant Monarch, and confirmed by an Act of the Legislature, can be annulled, while a grant by a Foreign Prince to a people no longer his subjects can be respected or suffered to remain intact. Agitation has been going on against the interests of the Church of England particularly, and Roman Catholics have been taking a hostile part in the debates, and voting against that Church,—let them look to themselves, they have also glass windows, let them not throw stones. By all means confiscate the property of all the Churches to the purposes of education, and then we shall be able to make a fair estimate of what Church has the most influence, and which is most deeply seated in the hearts of the people. Mr. Mackenzie says, the people had no voice in the setting aside of the Clergy Reserves for sacred purposes—neither they had; but the people had just as little to say in the treaty by which Canada was formally ceded to the British, and in which treaty upwards of two millions of acres of land, including the whole rich and valuable Island of Montreal, was secured to the Roman Catholics. If we must have reform, or innovation, let even-handed justice be our guide, put all upon an equal footing—do not leave a Foreign Church, which in its very nature is hostile to Protestantism, rich and powerful, while the Native Protestant Churches are denuded of their property, and left to the tender mercies of a not very opulent population, however generous they may be in the support of their Clergy, when such support is really and literally left to them. This is a question as open upon the one side as it is upon the other: the Roman Catholics have themselves been instrumental in keeping alive and fostering this agitation, and if the weight of its results fall upon their own heads, they have none but themselves to blame.

PANORAMA OF THE MISSISSIPI.—We have had the pleasure of visiting this Painting of the Lower Missisipi, from St. Louis to the city of New Orleans. The general appearance of the several scenes is of a much more civilized character than those of the upper part of the River, though they are by no means so grand in their outline. The simple quiet character of the River bank is, however, equally attractive, the foregrounds are as rich, and the surface of the stream is enlivened by many a craft of the most phantastic build and various use. The numerous shipwrecks upon one part of the River also add no small interest to the Picture. We think that the Painting of the Lower Missisipi has considerably more finish than that of the Upper, and the numerous plantations, and rich foliage surrounding them, impart a very lively and giant air to the whole scene. New Orleans seems to be a very superior city to what it is usually represented in books of travels and columns of news papers.

We observe, from a communication in yesterday's Gazette, that, unbetrayed by the opposition which appears to be prepared for him by "the Proprietor of Mr. Hogg' flittings," Mr. Lee, with that energy and perseverance which marks his character, intends to continue his canvass for subscribers to his new Theatre. Mr. Lee remarks in his letter, that he and the "Proprietor," &c., aforesaid, "contemplate building two entirely different things." The one, it appears, thinks that such a building as will hold "the fittings" of the old Theatre, will meet the wants and wishes of Montreal; the other, that the establishment which the city requires, is one not more than half of that size, which can be managed at a moiety of the expense inevitably attending a larger building. Mr. Lee further says, that were such a Theatre as the mysterious personage alluded to projects, in his immediate neighbourhood, it would not affect his prosperity in the slightest degree. There can be little doubt but that a small, elegant, and comfortable Theatre, under Mr. Lee's management, could not fail of success.—Communicated.

The second Exhibition of the Montreal Horticultural Society will take place on Thursday, the 3d of July, in the large Hall over the Market. We believe more than usual competition is anticipated—certainly the season, though very backward, will be, with fair weather, very favorable.

DRAMA.—We regret to learn that a man named Eli Arnold, of Poole, England, carpenter of the bark British Empire, while employed in paying the seams of the vessel, yesterday, fell from the stage and was drowned. A Coroner's Inquest was held, and a verdict rendered according to the circumstances.

CANADIAN AFFAIRS.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

TORONTO, June 17, 1851

Yesterday there was no very important debate in the House.

Mr. Mackenzie moved to refer a Petition, praying that the Clergy Reserves and Rectory be devoted to education, to a Select Committee, for them to report on by Bill or otherwise.

Mr. Price objected that the question ought not to be discussed till to-morrow, when his resolution on the subject came up.

Mr. Mackenzie understood that he had a right to speak to all those questions of a public nature to which the Petition referred. He believed that if the people had been aware that the Clergy Reserves question would be shirked by Government as it had been, not one half of them would have been returned at the last election. And yet the Crown Lands Commissioner had interrupted him (Mr. Mackenzie), with a view of stifling discussion on this question. He then referred to the state of the question twenty-one years ago, quoting resolutions passed at a public meeting at that time, deprecating the employment of the Reserves for sectarian purposes, and which proceedings were endorsed by Mr. Baldwin. He (Mr. M.) wished to argue the question, that we have a constitutional right to dispose of these revenues. The existing settlement, as it was called, was made in defiance of the people of this country. He then showed the inequality of the distribution of the Clergy Reserves Revenue, showing the injustice of the Imperial Bill. During the first Session of the present Parliament, nothing was done with the question; and in the second Session, when the question was brought up, the Government contrived to stave off discussion, and the mover of the resolution for inquiry voted against his own motion, and the mover was not there at all. Then in the third Session the thing was taken up, but not, as it should have been, by Bill. His firm conviction was, the Government had no desire to settle this question; in proof of which, he quoted an extract from an official document written by Mr. Sullivan, when a member of the present Government and Secretary of the Province, stating, in reference to the Reserves, that the Government is Trustee of special funds, which they were not prepared to sacrifice to the general policy of the Government; he also quoted a letter of Mr. Price, denying a statement in the Examiner, that there was no difference of opinion on the subject of the Reserves among the members of the Government, and also the statement of Mr. Baldwin on the floor of the House. The Government could not have taken up the question as a Government one; because it had no mind on the subject. He then read from the petition of the Bishop of Toronto against all interference with the Clergy Reserves, and from the despatch of Lord Elgin, which deprecated the renewed agitation of this question, and contained a hint to the Church to agitate it in the Province. Lord Elgin was a good man, but he (Mr. M.) had no doubt he was in favor of the system of Church and State. He then referred to the history of Scotland and the present condition of England as illustrating the bad effects of that system. Mr. Mackenzie continued to speak in this strain for two hours and a half.

Mr. Price rose to say that he had been anxious to save the time of the House in objecting to the member for Haldimand going into the general question. He should vote against the motion on the ground that this House has no power to dispose of the question by Bill.

Mr. W. Boulton said, the averment of Mr. McKinnon in the petition that referred to himself (Mr. B.) was entirely incorrect.

Mr. Morrison could not but feel full with the course of the hon. member for Haldimand, but he (Mr. Mackenzie) had referred to his (Mr. Morrison's) motion on the subject in the first Session. He did not take the course he did on that occasion with a view to give the question the go-by. No matter what hon. members might say, this was a question that deeply interested the people of Upper Canada; he thought it ought to be settled before the next Election; but he denied that it had been kept back as electioneering capital at the next Election. Although the course of the hon. member for Haldimand might not be the best, he should be voting against his conscience if he were to oppose it; he should, therefore, support the motion.

Mr. Macfarlane was in favour of the course proposed by this motion; he was in favour of that course last Session; and he should vote for it.

Mr. Merritt was in favour of the course taken by the Ministry, and should, therefore, vote against the motion.

Hon. Mr. Boulton wished to explain why he should vote for the motion; he then went on to show that the question could be disposed of by Bill, reserving it for the consideration of Her Majesty.

The question was then put and lost:—yeas, 9; nays, 47.

Legislative Council.

(Abridged from Toronto Patriot.)

MONDAY, June 16, 1851.

A message from His Excellency, stating that he had granted leave of absence for the Session to the Hon. D. B. Tiger, was brought down by the Hon. Mr. Leslie.

A Petition was presented from G. Benjamin, Grand Master of the Orange Society, praying for the repeal of the "Party Procession Act." In presenting this petition, the Hon. Mr. Ross had to state in justice to himself, that he did not approve of the Society of which Mr. Benjamin was the head. His opinions on that subject were well known; and no one could be more strongly opposed to the organization than he was; but he had agreed at once to present the petition when asked to do so, as he would present any petition that was respectfully worded. He was particularly opposed to party processions, believing that they were calculated to lead to not an bloodshed, and had therefore been much pleased with the act for their suppression. But since it came into operation, it was not found to prevent the evil, or at least as much good, as was expected by its framers, and collisions had repeatedly taken place. Speaking from his own experience in supporting the entire business for the Crown, it was almost impossible to obtain convictions under the Act. That being the case, it might be a subject for consideration, whether the enactment of the Act was beneficial or not, and whether it might not might not be repealed or suspended, and the effect of conciliation tried. He understood that the prosecutions were about to be abandoned; but if the act were repealed, and they were continued with the concomitant evils of collisions and breaches of the peace, then he believed he was correct in stating that the evil would be prevented. The act was against under the common law of the land. There was one grand fact that could not be denied; that the Orange institution in this country was composed of a powerful body of men—formidable by their organization—and that recently, when a good deal of anxiety was felt, and justly, with regard to the political fate of this province and its connection with the mother country, that body rallied round its principles of loyalty to the throne and the constitution; for that conduct, their petition deserved the respectful consideration of the Legislature. In conclusion, he would say that he hoped Canada might for the future be spared the scenes of turbulence and violence through which it had already passed.

Hon. Mr. Irving protested against singling out one class of our population as exceptionably disloyal. So far from remembering the Party Processions Act, he would rather legislate to bind the particular loyalty bound and fast. The House then adjourned.

Legislative Assembly.

MONDAY, June 16.

A number of petitions were brought up.

The Hon. Joseph Howe, delegate from Nova Scotia, and the Hon. Mr. Chandler, delegate from New Brunswick, on the subject of the Quebec and Halifax Railway, were introduced by Mr. Lafontaine and Sir Allan N. MacNab, and took a seat within the bar on the right hand of the Speaker.

Mr. MacKenzie moved to refer so much of the petition of M. Macdonell, former of the township of Vaughan, as related to the Clergy Reserves, and the appropriation of the proceeds thereof to general education, the abolition of Rectories, and the placing of all churches on an equal footing before the law, to a select Committee, with instructions to report a bill for the accomplishment of these objects. He was proceeding, when—

Mr. Price interrupted the hon. member on a point of order. He did not think that the proper time to bring up the whole question of the Clergy Reserves, which, besides, would come before the House to-morrow.

Mr. Speaker ruled the hon. member from Halldimand out of order.

Mr. Mackenzie went on at great length in comment on the conduct of the ministry with reference to the Clergy Reserves, contending they had completely shirked the question. He condemned the system of religious establishments, and the operation of the Reserves and Rectories, in this Province. He asserted the doctrine of religious equality, and denied that the Parliament had any right to grant religious preference. He denounced the Bishop of Toronto as a political bishop, and his attempts to establish a Dominant Church, as an injustice to the people of this province. Dr. Strachan should attend to his religious duties instead of interfering with politics. He went on at great length to denounce the system of State Churches in general, contending that their effect was ever pernicious and subversive of true religion; during the course of his speech he was interrupted with noises, upon which he said he knew the subject was unpleasant to some members, and that he was up to speaker.

Dr. Parizeau got up after Mr. Mackenzie had been speaking for upwards of two hours, and begged to be allowed to state that the House was tired with such a long speech. (Loud laughter.)

Mr. Price would raise the motion before the House, as it was to refer Mr. Macdonell's petition to a committee, to report a bill that the House could not sustain, after the previous action it had taken. As the hon. member for Haldimand had chosen to give poor McKinnon the go by by linking his case with that matter, he (Mr. P.) could not help it.

Mr. W. H. Boulton made some explanations of Mr. McKinnon's case.

Mr. Morrison supported the motion, and stated that the course was similar to that he himself had taken during the last Session of Parliament. He did not think the course of the hon. member for Haldimand was the most prudent on this occasion, but he felt in duty bound to vote for it, as he should in conscience vote for every measure that had for its object the abolition of the Rectories, and appropriating the Clergy Reserves to general education.

Mr. McFarland said a few words in support of the motion.

Mr. Merritt opposed it because he approved of Mr. Price's course.

Mr. H. S. Boulton briefly supported it.

The motion was put and lost: yeas 9; nays 47. The following gentlemen only voting in the affirmative:—Messrs. Morrison, DeWitt, Norman, Scott (of Two Mountains), McFarland, Hall, H. J. Boulton, McConnell, and Mackenzie.

Mr. W. H. Boulton gave notice of a motion for an address for returns relative to the Lunatic Asylum.

Mr. Cayley gave notice of an amendment to Mr. Price's resolutions relative to the Clergy Reserves, affirming the propriety of retaining the present arrangement.

Mr. Sherwood gave notice of a Bill for incorporating a Railway Company from Lake Superior to the Pacific; also of an address relative to the census in Lower Canada.

On motion of Mr. Mackenzie, an address was ordered for reports relative to Upper Canada College and Grammar School; also an address to His Excellency relative to the organization of a Company for the construction of a Railroad from Port Erie to Brantford.

Mr. Merritt moved sundry resolutions whereon to found an address to Her Majesty, on the subject of a line of steamers between Liverpool and Quebec.—Carried.

The Bill to naturalize Ira Gould and others, was read a 3d time.

The Bill to incorporate the Quebec Pilots was read a 3d time.

On motion of Mr. Rose, to add to and amend the Act relative to the Protection of Game in Lower Canada was read a first time.

The bill to amend the Act relative to the Salaries of Officers of Justice in Lower Canada was read a third time.

The Report of the Committee of the Whole on the Census Bill was received, Mr. H. Sherwood declaring his intention to give the bill all the opposition in his power upon the second reading.

The bill to facilitate the execution of judgments in Lower Canada, was referred to a Special Committee, to which was referred the bill to render exclusory the judgements of the Circuit Court of St. Francis.

On motion of Mr. Christie, the bill to amend the act incorporating the Bar of Lower Canada, was read a second time. This bill was also committed.

Mr. Meyers moved the second reading of the bill, to remove doubts relative to the acquisition of Public Works by Municipal Corporations, without their limits. He made a few remarks in support of the bill, but they were inaudible in the Reporter's gallery. Motion carried.

The House resolved again in Committee, considered the bill to amend the Act for the maintenance of good order in Churches. He explained that the bill was to prevent disorders at Church doors.

The Bill was opposed by Dr. Boutillier and Mr. Letellier, as calculated only to increase publicity to a crime which was rarely committed. It seemed a terrible thing indeed, said the latter gentleman, to send a young man to prison for thirty days, for a momentary indiscretion, and it would be an infamy to confine a young girl to the society of a jail for so trifling an offence. The present imprisonment (15 days he understood) had never been inflicted, so far as he knew, in his county; why, then, give one the opportunity to inflict so much greater punishment.

Mr. Johnson said if persons did not like to go to prison, they could pay the fine.

Mr. Chauveau, after declaring the bill to be perfectly useless, moved that the Committee do rise.

Dr. Letellier said, the only disorders that ever took place at the Church door was a little love making between girls and bachelors.

The Committee then rose.

The Montreal and King-ton Railway Incorporation Bill was read a second time and referred.

The Bill to amend the act for establishment of Mutual Insurance Companies for country places, was read a second time; after the bill to allow notaries to call meetings of relations in certain cases.

The House then adjourned.

MONTREAL, June 19, 1851.

To the Editor of the Montreal Courier:

SIR,—The Montreal Transcript having refused to insert the following communication, which, in correspondence, I desired to have published, in answer to a letter which it inserted but a few days before, reflecting on my character, I respectfully request that you will afford me an opportunity of replying to an article which does me great injustice, and thus enable me to avail myself of one of the really legitimate uses of the Press, and oblige

Your obedient servant,

MICHAEL KELLY.

This is what the Transcript refused to insert:—

To the Editor of the Montreal Transcript.

SIR,—In your issue of last Tuesday there was published, by request, a letter addressed to George Moffatt, Architect, and signed "Jos. P. Leroux, Amable Archambault, P. U. Archambault, Augustin Chaput." This letter—evidently written under the influence of a joy produced by its escape from an impending danger—reflects on my character as builder of the "L'Assomption" Bridge, although I am persuaded nothing derogatory to me was meant by the gentlemen whose names were appended to the letter in question, which is manifest from the following certificate in my possession:—

L'ASSOMPTION, May 22, 1851.

We, the undersigned, willingly bear testimony to the skill and ability displayed by Mr. Michael Kelly, as contractor, in the construction of the bridge across the river opposite this village, which, so far as he was concerned, gave us entire satisfaction.

AUGUSTIN CHAPUT,
F. A. LAROCQUE.

Had these gentlemen reflected a little at the time they signed the letter to Brown, I am sure the document would never appear—or if it should, it would be in very different terms.

When the fact would have occurred to their minds, that to the alterations suggested by me, from the original design, is due the stability of the whole structure, they would not, I am certain, award to another the merit which, of right, belongs to me—nor forget the incapacity of an Architect, (?) which my humble abilities had thus to supply. I will content myself, at present, by merely stating, that I have four different plans still in my possession, for the structure in question, furnished by, and signed "George Brown, Architect," and I challenge an examination of the whole work in comparison with these plans, by competent men—a course which alone can prove who is really entitled to merit for the L'Assomption bridge.

I am,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,
MICHAEL KELLY.

Montreal, 2nd June, 1851.

THE ADVENTISTS.—On Saturday last, a party arrived here from the States, calling themselves "Adventists," declaring their intention to pre-ach night and day for a certain period. They erected a large tent alongside of the Roman Catholic Church, and issued hand-bills stating the subjects on which they intended to preach. On Saturday evening the services commenced; when a large number of noisy boys assembled in and around the tent, but no serious interruption occurred. On Sunday, we regret to say, the result was different; large crowds thronged the ground during the day, and the services were several times broken in upon most rudely. The Mayor was appealed to, and four policemen sent to keep the peace; but in the evening the crowd increased greatly, and the police on the ground being unable to quell the increasing tendency to mischief—the preachers broke up their tents and removed the materials. The Mayor having been again communicated with, was speedily on the ground and assured the parties that he was prepared to protect them, and that while he thought it would be much more judicious in them to obtain a hall in the midst of number of preachers, if they desired to reopen their tent, he would call out such a force as would effectually preserve the peace. We understand that the parties expressed themselves gratified with the course adopted by the Mayor, and resolved to seek for a place of worship in this city, and failing that, to set up the tent in a locality less likely to evoke feeling.—Toronto Globe.

A singular scene took place on Saturday evening, in the St. Lawrence Hall, at the conclusion of Madame Rank's Concert. It appeared that the lady, finding her audience too small to pay her for the $250 worth of prizes which she had promised, privately told the messenger who brought the goods, to carry them back to her hotel; and then, previous to her last song, came forward and said, in broken English, that they had been stolen. The audience bore their disappointment with great good humour, although many whose faces were longer than the rest, inquired anxiously whether they could not have their money back! Afterwards, the lady was besieged in the retiring room by several persons demanding payment of their bills for painting, &c., who followed her to the Asylum. [illegible] some altercation, they were paid.

Thus ended the first and we will venture to say the last "Prize Concert" in Toronto. These concerts are common enough in New York, but we are not at all desirous to see them established amongst us; and therefore come sympathize very deeply with the losers of the dupes on this occasion.—Toronto Patriot.

ABD-EL-KADER.—We are glad to perceive by the following paragraph, which we copy from the Siecle, that the generous interference of the Marquis of Londonderry on behalf of Abd-el-Kader, has already been the cause of some amelioration in the condition of that illustrious captive:—"A short time since, a detachment of the 7th Chasseurs were sent to the garrison of Amboise, for the purpose of escorting Abd-el-Kader in the procession which the Emir has been authorized to make in the country surrounding his place of confinement. On Tuesday, for the first time since his arrival at Amboise (says the Progrès d'Indre-et-Loire) the Emir left the chateau. His dignitary rode in a small carriage, drawn by two white horses, and was escorted by 18 Chasseurs, in full uniform. The party left about three o'clock, drove as far as Chaumontoux, and returned to the chateau at seven o'clock."

Shipping Intelligence.

The schr Lady, arrived this morning, reports about twenty sail, inward bound, between this and Brandy Pots

The bark Orbit, of Liverpool, was spoken on the 8th inst, in lat 45,41, N, long 57,10, W, by the brig Marinus, Mapel, at this port.

Captain Davidson, of the Corinthian, of Hull, which arrived here on the 15th instant, reports having boarded, on the 7th inst, the splendid new ship Birmingham, 70 miles to the S E of the Island of St. Paul's, 7 days out from Quebec, and bound to Liverpool, all well on board. Several other ships were in sight. The Birmingham appeared to be going ahead of the fleet at a rate not usually seen by a merchant ship

MARRIED.

AUTOMATON SEAMSTRESS.

A. B. WILSON'S SEWING MACHINE is now on exhibition at the OTTAWA HOTEL, Great St. James Street, Montreal, and is attracting unusual attention in this City. It is practicable for Tailors, Cap Makers, Shoe Makers, Shirt Makers; in fact, almost all kinds of sewing usually done with the needle, can be done with this Machine. As for cheapness and simplicity, they far excel any ever offered to the public. It will seam curved or straight seams, and any child twelve years old can do the work of several persons. Every family that has much sewing should have one of these Machines, as it is justly a labor-saving Machine. The public generally are respectfully invited to call and witness the wonderful amount of labor produced by the little Seamstress. Price of Machine, $65.

CHANGE OF EXHIBITION,
COMMENCING
THIS EVENING, (MONDAY,) JUNE 16.

LEWIS' PANORAMA
OF THE
LOWER MISSISSIPPI,

Being a continuation of the Picture which has been shown here for the last four weeks

THIS magnificent Work of Art is painted on 20,000 square feet of Canvas, showing the course of the MIGHTY RIVER through six STATES of the UNION.

The Picture begins with a Splendid Nautical View of the GULF OF MEXICO, representing the Two Principal Mouths of the River, viz.:—The S.E. and S.W. Passes; and thence forward faithfully depicts the continuous and ever varying Scenes of Interest, until the Spectator arrives at ST. LOUIS, which is represented under the Inundation of 1844, (which destroyed nearly $5,000,000 worth of Property,) on the memorable night of the 17th May, 1844.

To give some idea of the magnitude of this Great Work, it may be stated, that the View of NEW ORLEANS alone covers 400 square yards of Canvas, and represents 300 Ships, Steamboats, and numerous other River Craft.—The Views of NATCHES, MEMPHIS, CAIRO, and VICKSBURG, at the Mouth of the OHIO RIVER, will also be found of great interest.

Admission, as before, 1s. 3d.

Doors open at HALF-PAST SEVEN.

Picture moves at QUARTER-PAST EIGHT, precisely.

CANTON HOUSE.
FAMILY TEA, COFFEE AND SUGAR WAREHOUSE,
No. 109, Notre Dame Street.
SAMUEL COCHRAN invites the attention of Customers to his stock of TEAS and COFFEES, which have been selected with the greatest care, and on such terms as allow him to offer them at unusually low prices.
THE MACHINERY on the Premises, worked by a Four Horse Power Steam Engine, for Roasting and Grinding Coffee, is on the very improved plan, the Coffee being closely confined in polished metal cylinders, which are constantly revolving and ventilating in heated air chambers, to prevent imbibing taint from Smoke, danger of partial carbonization of the Bean and loss of Aroma, so important to Connoisseurs, which is further ensured by attention to Grinding at the shortest time prior to Sale. To this elaborate process SAMUEL COCHRAN owes the high reputation his Coffee has obtained through a large portion of the Province.
SAMUEL S. WOOD.
CRYSTALIZED SUGAR (much admired for Coffee); REFINED SUGAR in small loaves, and WEST INDIA SUGARS, of the best qualities, always on hand.
A few of the choicest selections of TEAS may be had at the CANTON HOUSE, in Native Catty Packages, unrivalled in flavor and perfume, at moderate terms.
Families residing distant from Montreal will have their orders scrupulously attended to, and forwarded with immediate despatch.

PRICES OF BOARD FOR THE SEASON OF 1851:—FIVE SHILLINGS PER DAY, or FIVE POUNDS PER MONTH.
Caledonia Springs, 2nd June, 1851.
MONTREAL, 4th June, 1851.
DEAR SIR,—In compliance with your request, I have much pleasure in giving you my opinion of the extraordinary efficacy of the Waters of the Caledonia Springs, so long and highly appreciated by the Public, based upon the observations of some twenty-five years' experience, and tested as they have been by a great number of persons of mine and others, labouring under Rheumatic affections and the different forms of disease to which the human frame is liable. I consider that invalids, (and many persons, except those who have suffered from this dreadful malady, can justly appreciate their wonderful salutary effects,) have often seen persons carried to this Spring, (myself for one during ten years,) which baffled all medical skill, both in England and on the Continent, result to the Caledonia Springs walking on crutches, and others that could not walk at all, were cast by protracted sufferings, and treatment and want of exercise, return to their homes free from pain, leaving behind (with inexpressible joy) their crutches, and with health, strength, appetite, and activity perfectly restored. Many such cases, as well as the curative action of these Waters, the International and Sulphur Springs in particular, have been almost as efficient in other diseases, such as Lepra, generally called Job's disease, and other affections of the skin; in various of Dyspeptic Complaints, Chronic Affections of the Liver and Kidneys; and I am sure that a great number of those cases that have the Springs proved beneficial, but not completely restored, would have been cured by a more extended use of the spa. That these Waters have acted in many instances as a specific, seems to be generally admitted, and so much respectable testimony to this effect has already been laid before the Public, that to my more would be superfluous.
I remain, dear Sir, yours truly,
Thos. Metcalfe, M.D.
Member of Royal College of Surgeons, London.
To John L. Wilkinson, Esq.,
Proprietor of the Caledonia Springs.
MONTREAL, 13th December, 1848.
DEAR SIR,—I have to state that I consider the use of the Caledonia Waters as a very valuable curative agent in the treatment of many forms of disease. Circumstances beside me to great you a favorable Certificate with more than usual propriety, many of my own Patients tested the efficacy and benefit derived from the use of the Waters. Of all diseases that have come under my notice, in which a persevering use of the Waters told well, Rheumatism ranks the first. Many of the cures in this disease have been truly astonishing. I met with a case last summer, where the individual, a German Female, had been suffering severely for more than nine months; she had completely lost the use of her limbs, and could only walk a few steps with great pain and difficulty. After a residence of six weeks at the Caledonia Springs, she left, free from pain, and strong enough to walk a considerable distance without fatigue. I have also found the Waters most efficacious in Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Liver, Secondary Syphilis, and some of the forms of Cutaneous Disease.
In conclusion, allow me to add, from a personal visit to your Establishment, that (independently of the actinic properties of the Waters) the great care and pains have been put to in the improvement of the place, and the unwearied care and attention which you bestow to the comfort and convenience of your Boarders, justly entitled you to a share of patronage and encouragement.
I remain, dear Sir, yours very truly,
George W. Gardner, A.M., M.D.
Professor of Surgery, McGill College.
To the Proprietor of the Caledonia Springs.
MONTREAL, December 5th, 1848.
SIR,—I beg to state that I consider the Caledonia Waters efficacious in cases of Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, or where the constitution has been impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, and Secondary Syphilis. I would also add, in certain Cutaneous Diseases. I have frequently recommended their use in the above complaints, and witnessed their good effects. I hope that the benefits that are derivable from them may not be lost to society, by the indiscriminate and almost universal use they have been put to, and like the best of all good things of our other excellent remedies, fall into a merited disrepute.
I have never visited the Establishment, but I have often heard it most favorably spoken of.
I am, Sir, your obedient servant,
James Crawford, M.D.
To the Proprietor of the Caledonia Springs.
☞A FRESH SUPPLY of the above WATERS has been received at the Depot, which can be had at the Counter, or sent to order to any address in town or country. Price of the Water very moderate.

Truth for the Million.
The great number of patients, (including the most eminent physicians of the Dominion,) who have testified to the efficacy of these waters, whilst it has placed them high in the estimation of the public, has induced some other proprietors of so-called mineral springs, to try to put their waters on the same footing with the Plantagenet. Nothing can be more absurd than this. The Waters of inferior Springs have been known to the public in some instances for fifty years, and in that time what have they done? Have they anything to show for the patronage they have received from the public? How have they stood since the Plantagenet came into the field? It is now only three or four years since the Plantagenet Waters were introduced to the Public, and in that short space of time what has become of our Springs, which were known before them? Can any amount of puffing make the public believe that they deserve to be mentioned in the same breath with the Plantagenet Spring? It may be safely said that no one who has once used the Plantagenet Water will ever use any other water. Their inferiority is to marked, and they are comparatively so worthless, that hundreds have declared that they would scorn to pay twenty times the price for Plantagenet Spring Water, than for the best of them. Yet some of these Springs have a great advantage in locality over the Plantagenet, in as much as they are nearer Montreal, and are accessible, (if they are worth seeking,) to all classes without difficulty.
One great cause of this preference is the distinct character of the Plantagenet Water; and more especially its solidity of body, and the glutinous quality it possesses, which distinguishes it in a remarkable degree from all other waters, which appear poor and thin in comparison with it. It may be truly said to have done more for the public health in four years, than any other water has ever performed in fifty, and some of the cures it has effected are truly miraculous. Many of these facts are already before the public, and others can be ascertained at

HALSEY'S CURE-ALL.

THIS Article is a delightful Anodyne Liniment, of extraordinary power for the cure of Outward Complaints, such as Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sores, Chilblains, Frost Bites, Corns, Tetter, Tumors, Ulcers, Felons, Sore Throat, Quinsy, Croup, Toothache, Earache, Sore Eyes, Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Contracted Limbs, Spasms, Stiffness, Lameness, Sprains, Chilblains, Frost Bites, Corns, Tetter, Tumors, Ulcers, Felons, Sore Throat, Quinsy, Croup, Toothache, Earache, Sore Eyes, Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Contracted Limbs, Spasms, Stiffness, Lameness, Sprains, Bruises, Scalds, Cuts, Wounds, Piles, Burns, Scalds, Bruises, and other accidents, and Old Ulcerations, caused by the use of an inferior article, which has been used for the last three years.

The most convincing testimony, extracted from the Journals of the Medical Faculty, and other publications, can be produced, if necessary, to prove the fact, that Halsey's Cure-All is the most powerful remedy ever used for the cure of Contracted Limbs, Spasms, Stiffness, Lameness, Sprains, Bruises, Scalds, Cuts, Wounds, Piles, Burns, Scalds
