

WHAT LIFE MEANS TO ME

as "temporarily insane." Death, corruption, a lifeless world, like the moon, have no attractions for me. It is true, Voltaire cursed God for giving us life, and teaching us to love it, and at the same time teaching us we have to lose it; though the best contribution that some men appear to have to offer life, is to get out and leave it.

Now, I believe Jesus Christ has meant all in this mortal life that he claimed he would mean. I have no reason whatever to believe he ever lied, so when he says concerning the future, "Because I live, ye shall live also," and "He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live," I simply believe it — and that the more readily and firmly, because I want to do so.
