A.14 Partly, sir. As a teacher I have had much experience in psychology. I have had a six weeks' course in psychology from the Department of Education at the University of Alberta, in tests and measurements, and also six months' experience with Capt. Kibblewhite, the Assistant Army Examiner of this Training Centre.

Q.15 Do you recognize the accused?

A.15 I do.

Q.16 Have you examined him recently?

A.16 Yes, sir.

Q.17 What were your findings?

A.17 He was interviewed on August 4th, 1942, at the Personnel Selection Office in this camp, by myself. While he appears normally bright and alert there is no doubt that his life has been definitely affected by his passion for music -- even to such an extent that he has no sense of responsibility. It is my opinion that when his mind is centred on music he could perform an act involuntarily without being conscious of such action. Holosko does not appear to be an ordinary discipline case and I failed to detect any evidence of criminal tendencies.

Objection: The Prosecutor objects to the foregoing evidence on the ground that it is opinion evidence and is inadmissible under Chapter VI, M.M.L., paragraph 63, and that paragraph 64 of the same Chapter does not apply to this witness.

The Defending Officer answers the objection: It is the submission of the defence that this witness is well qualified to give such an opinion. He is employed for the special purpose of examining men so that they may go into the proper channels in which they may best serve. It is his daily work at this Training Centre and this evidence is his considered opinion.

The Prosecutor replies: The Prosecution submits that this witness is not an expert within the meaning of the Army Act.

Questioned by the Court.

Q.18 What is your opinion of your work?

A.18 I have examined practically all of those who have come in -- that is, both of us, I myself and Capt. Kibblewhite.

The Court is closed to consider their decision.

The Court allow the objection, and the Court is re-opened and the decision announced and the Court proceed with the trial.

The evidence of the only witness for the defence having been successfully objected to, the Court rules that the accused may now make a statement giving his account of the subject of the charge against him.

The accused in his defence addresses the Court through his Defending Officer:

"The Defending Officer, gentlemen, now addresses the Court on behalf of the accused. In other words, my interpretation of it is that I am merely the mouthpiece of the accused and I so address you.

"The accused has made music a study all through his life so far. He has concentrated on the one thing. He has been absorbed in his work to the exclusion of all else. Sense of any duty, not only to his country, is subordinated to an uncontrollable urge to perfect himself in this art. His teacher was Professor Garbowitsky who was conductor of the Calgary Symphony Orchestra, and it is quite true that only pupils of distinction have the privilege of taking lessons from him. And then when he sees success finally in sight, the whole world, as he knows it, crashes about his ears. He is called up for service and reports to Camrose. He sees the ambitions of his parents, who are poor, people, swept away all in one moment. He has no opportunity to study in this camp. He has no teacher whom he can go to . He finds himself taking muscular exercises as set out in the Army Syllabus of Training, that are ruining his technique, and as far as he is concerned in his world, everything is lost. The nights he spent on his cot were filled with worry and turmoil, and in this state of desperation he left camp. This is no normal youth. Look at him now. I do not believe at this moment now, sir, he realizes the full import of the undertakings here."

The Defending Officer makes a Closing Address. The address is recorded, marked "Exhibit Q", signed by the President and attached to the Proceedings.

The Prosecutor makes a Closing Address. The address is recorded, marked "Exhibit R", signed by the President and attached to the Proceedings.

Opening Address of the Defending Officer:

"It is the submission of the defence, that because of his peculiar mentality, evidence of which we shall present to you, the accused could not be so responsible for his act as to render him capable of committing such a crime as desertion of which intention to desert is an essential factor."

Closing Address of the Defending Officer:

"As to the charge against the accused: nowhere in the Prosecution has there appeared one iota of evidence as to the accused's intent to desert His Majesty's Forces, and intention is admitted by all authorities to be the basis of desertion. So now, as you go to your finding, gentlemen, if you convict him there must be no doubt in your mind but what he had the intention of deserting. For unless you are quite convinced and clear in your own minds on this one point, you must acquit him, and to convict him you must believe he was aware of all the implications and all the results of his act."

The Accused addresses the Court through his Defending Officer:

"May it please the Court:

"The Defending Officer addresses the Court at this place in the proceedings, where the trial is over, the finding has been made, and now it remains for the accused to be sentenced. In doing so, I wish to sketch briefly for you a resume of the accused's life. His age has just been mentioned in Court. He is not a very old boy. Early in his life we find that he has a leaning towards a musical career. He is born of poor parents -- his father is a labourer working for the Imperial Oil Company of Canada. In a cutting from the Calgary Albertan dated November 19th, 1929, I have here an account of a reception given to the Honorable Mackenzie King, Premier of Canada. Many musical people of note were there to add to the day and Emil Holosko's name appears as one who gave a violin recital. I also have here, and I ask the privilege of presenting it to you, a picture of the Calgary Junior Symphony Orchestra, of which Emil Holosko is marked as a member. And I have here, almost pathetic in a way, a school paper of a Calgary High School, put out, I suppose, by the students of that school, in which this paragraph appears:

"'One of the highlights of the afternoon was when Emil Holosko, this school's contribution to the musical world, favoured us with a well executed violin solo. We believe if this boy pursues his studies, his name will soon be seen in the hall of musical fame.'

"I have here a copy of an Adjudicator's finding in a musical festival -- his comment: 'What lovely tone!' I have here a letter from his mother telling us the sacrifices they had to make in order that they could secure for the accused the instruction, the services of a teacher that they felt to be fitting for a boy with his ability. And here I have a document, a testimonial certifying that Emil Holosko was second in the violin Open Competition in 1937.

"I present these to the Court so that you may understand that this is no normal boy that faces you this afternoon. He is a boy that lives in a world by himself and the harsher phases of life are totally unknown as far as he is concerned.

"I wish to read to you from a striking letter written from this Training Centre to Headquarters, M.D. 13, by Colonel Louis Scott:

"'This soldier is of a nervous, high-strung temperament but is well educated, having reached Grade 12 according to his own statement. In view of the fact that Private Holosko is a young soldier and quite evidently not aware of the gravity of his offence, may authority be granted please to deal summarily with this case as one of absence without leave.'

"These are the comments of the former Commandant of this Training Centre.

"You may say: 'But the country is at War.' True -- but those years when these events took place were his formative years. He didn't know the War was to come: none of us did: the War wasn't in sight: nor was he to blame for the conflict but the War did come and swept away all his hopes and ambitions. Surely these are things which the Court must consider.

"Gentlemen, I want you to look at the accused: he is presentable, he is clean. He could be your boy and with his attainments in the musical world you could be well proud of him, as a father. But you have your duty to do -- you must pronounce sentence. And I ask you that you temper that sentence with mercy. He has already served, the Prosecutor has stated, sixty-nine days in custody.

"Gentlemen, six months in custody to one man is totally different from six months in custody to another -- to one day in custody to another. The Court are all men who wear ribbons showing that they have served in wartime. You know quite well how easy it was for some men to go into action,-- they were men of rough fibre. Other men, temperamentally highly-strung, first had to fight themselves before getting near to fight the enemy. Again, take the barnyard foul: you can take it, put it in confinement, feed it and give it water and it will prosper. But bring down the eagle from flying around in his vast expanse of sky, and place it in the same confinement and feed it and water it -- it will waste away and die.

"What are we fighting for? Aren't we fighting for tolerance? Aren't we fighting for freedom -- just for the one thing: the right to live our own lives in our own way? Punish this boy; yes. But in punishing him let your punishment bear the key-note of the prayer that came down from the Cross on Calvary -- forgiveness.

"The defence rests."

contrôle du docteur Carrette.

L'accusé est venu à l'hôpital d'isolation vers le 8 de juil. 902. A son entrée, j'ai examiné du pus provenant de son urètre. J'ai trouvé seulement des cellules inflammatoires. Le lendemain, j'ai examiné de nouveau son écoulement et j'ai trouvé des débris. La même journée j'ai encore examiné son écoulement d'urètre et j'ai trouvé des microbes de gonocoque. Le 11 juil. j'ai encore examiné l'écoulement de l'urètre et j'ai trouvé des cellules inflammatoires seulement. Pas de gonocoque. Le 14 juil. j'ai encore examiné l'écoulement de l'urètre de l'accusé après qu'il eut subit un massage de prostate par le docteur Carrette ou le Surgeon Magreault, et j'ai trouvé des cellules inflammatoires avec staphylocoques. Pas de gonocoques. Le 15 juil. 1902 nouvel examen au microscope et résultat négatif.

Q. 7 Etes-vous médecin?

A. 7 Non.

Q. 8 Etes-vous chimiste?

A. 8 Non.

Q. 9 Avez-vous déjà fait du travail de laboratoire?

A. 9 Non.

Q. 10 Pour quelle raison l'accusé fut-il envoyé de l'hôpital militaire de Québec à l'hôpital d'isolation à Valcartier ?

R. 10 Je ne le sais pas.

Q. 11 Saviez-vous que l'accusé avait déjà souffert 3 fois de gonorrhée à différentes dates ?

R. 11 Je me souviens de l'avoir vu à l'isolation mais je ne me rappelle pas combien de fois. Je ne me souviens pas pourquoi.

Q. 12 Saviez-vous que l'accusé avait souffert d'urétrite en mai 1942 ?

R. 12 Non, je ne me souviens pas.

Q. 13 Avez-vous vu à ce que l'accusé, avec vous séparément, soit averti d'être de 4 à 6 heures sans uriner ?

R. 13 Non. Je n'ai jamais entendu parler de cela.

Q. 14 Saviez-vous que des précautions sont nécessaires afin de savoir si il y a encore des gonocoques ?

R. 14 Non.

Q. 15 Savez-vous ce que c'est qu'une urétrite ?

C. 11

R. 15 Non. Je ne connais pas cela.

Q. 16 Savez-vous qu'il y a des cas de gonorrhée qui ne sont pas décelés par l'examen bactériologique?

Réf. R. ~~16~~ 16 Non. Je ne connais pas cela.

Q. 17 Qu'entendez par examens sous le contrôle du Capt. Barrette?

Réf. R. 17 Je colore la lame, j'examine au microscope et si j'ai quelque difficulté, je réfère au Capt. Barrette.

Q. 18 Le Capt Barrette a-t-il fait l'examen du pus dans chaque cas pour l'accusé?

R. 18 Je ne peux pas dire. Il en a certainement fait.

Q. 19 Pouvez-vous jurer qu'à l'examen du 15 juillet que vous avez pris un test du pus?

R. 19 Le 15 juil. j'ai fait un examen d'urine et non un examen du pus.

Q. 20 Préparez-vous vous même les solutions pour l'examen du pus?

R. 20 Non.

Q. 21 Vous servez-vous du procédé de Gram pour l'examen du pus?

A. 21 Oui.

Q. 22 Vos solutions sont-elles gardées à la lumière

A. 22 Non. dans des bouteilles colorées.

Q. 23 Savez-vous que ces solutions sont très sensibles à la lumière?

Board witness for prosecution.

Captain Elgin Barrette, Nos Det. 1.61.20 being duly sworn ~~to the~~ is examined by the Prosecutor.

Je suis préposé au traitement des maladies vénériennes à l'hôpital d'isolation à Valcartier, depuis le 22 janvier 1942. Je suis médecin depuis 4 ans. Je ne suis pas spécialiste en maladies vénériennes. J'en ai traité au cours de ma pratique. J'ai vu l'accusé à l'hôpital d'isolation le 8 juillet 1942. Il est venu de l'hôpital militaire de Québec marqué "gonorrhée avec archi-epididymite". Il est arrivé à l'hôpital 6 vers du 8. Le lendemain, après avoir pris connaissance du rapport de l'examen de la veille, j'ai constaté au microscope la véracité du rapport. J'ai trouvé des débris en abondance et des cellules d'inflammation et à contact. Il n'y avait pas de gonocoques. J'ai fait faire un second examen. Le rapport en était le même. J'ai dit à l'accusé de venir passer un autre examen aussitôt qu'il verrait de l'écoulement à son urètre. Environ une heure plus tard, le patient s'est présenté au laboratoire avec un écoulement purulent de son urètre. L'examen s'est révélé positif au gonocoque. ~~C'est~~ Cet examen montrait une gonorrhée à l'état aigu. J'ai prescrit le traitement habituel, des pilules de sulphathiazole, 16 pilules pour les premières 24 heures et en diminuant.

Le 11 juil. l'accusé a subit un examen d'urine, le matin au lever, le rapport démontrait qu'il n'y avait que des cellules inflammatoires et pas de pus. Normalement, si l'accusé avait souffert d'une gonorrhée, comme le montrait son examen du 11, il y aurait eu du pus en assez grande abondance dans l'urine. Le 14, j'ai fait à l'accusé un massage de prostate et j'ai trouvé du staphylocoque et des cellules d'inflammation mais pas de gonocoque du tout. Le 15, l'accusé a subit un autre examen d'urine. Résultat tout à fait négatif. D'après mon expérience, le résultat de tous ces examens dans si peu de jours était anormal. Cliniquement, je ne peux pas expliquer cet état de chose.

Du 9 au 15 juil., excepté le dimanche, j'ai visité l'accusé et j'ai trouvé à l'entrée du méat urinaire un dépot graisseux jaunâtre qui n'avait pas du tout les caractères du pus. C'était une goutte qui restait collée sur place, tandis que le pus s'étale, et qui ressemblait à ce que contient les tubes de prophylaxie.

Avant son départ de l'hôpital le 15 aurait du prendre un total de 64 pilules. Le caporal Gagnes m'a rapporté 48 pilules de la médication que l'accusé aurait du prendre. J'ai fait venir l'accusé. Il a dit devant moi au Lt Magneault qu'il n'avait pas besoin de prendre de pilules parce qu'il guérissait seul. Il a avoué avoir pris des pilules la première journée seulement. Je produis ces bitules dans la boîte dans laquelle elles ont été trouvées. Exhibit "M" signed by the President. Il faut remarquer que plusieurs de ces bitules ont perdu leur lustre, ce qui indique qu'elles ont souffert de l'humidité. Après avoir découvert que l'accusé n'avait pas suivi son traitement, je l'ai ramené de l'hôpital sous escorte à son unité.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer

Q 28 Vous avez traité des maladies vénériennes pendant combien de mois?

A. 28 Sept mois à Falaise.

Q. 29 Avez vous fait vous-même l'examen microscopique du pus de l'accusé?

A. 29 Oui.

Q 30 Etes vous prêt à jurer que l'accusé souffrait pas de gonorrhée entre le 8 et le 15 juillet?

A 30 Non, car c'était la 6e fois qu'il était admis à l'hôpital en rapport avec une gonorrhée ou une urétrite. Il souffrait d'une gonorrhée chronique.

Q 31 Y a-t-il eu un examen quelconque des dépôts trouvés dans l'urètre de l'accusé?

Q. 31 Non.

Q. 32 Pourquoi avez-vous renvoyé l'accusé de l'hôpital le 15 juillet?

R. 32 Parce qu'il a avoué ne pas avoir pris ses pilules et que son examen d'urine ce matin là était négatif.

Re-examined by the Prosecutor

Q. 33 Vous avez dit que vous avez renvoyé l'accusé de l'hôpital parce qu'il n'avait pas pris ses pilules et que dans son examen d'urine du 15 il n'y avait pas d'apparence de pus. Vous êtes vous simplement basé sur cet examen d'urine du 15, ou si vous avez également tiré en considération les examens négatifs antérieurs?

R. 33 Je me suis aussi basé sur le rapport des examens antérieurs

Q. 34 Voulez vous expliquer à la Cour ce que c'est qu'une gonorrhée chronique? Est-ce que dans une gonorrhée chronique on trouve nécessairement du gonocoque?

R. 34 Oui et non. Il y a des laps de temps où on trouve du microbe, et d'autres fois seulement du pus qui n'est pas nécessairement du pus à gonocoques. Parfois il y a de l'écoulement, parfois pas. Mais la plupart du temps, ce que nous constatons, c'est la goutte matutinale. Jamais à l'état aussi virulent qu'on l'a constaté chez l'accusé et pouvant arrêter aussi subitement. Je parles toujours cliniquement en disant cela.

R.C. 83 (B) has been complied with.

No E-20636 Corporal Jean Charles Borgnes No 5 Det. R.C.A.M.C. being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Je suis infirmier à l'hôpital d'isolation à Bruxelles. Je connais l'accusé. Je suis les patients pour m'assurer qu'ils suivent leur traitement. Le 15 juil. 47, en faisant mon inspection, j'ai trouvé dans le lit du soldat Vince, sous son oreiller, une boîte vide de cigarettes Winchester contenant des pilules de sulphatiazol. J'en ai fait rapport immédiatement au Cap. Barrette. Il m'a donné l'ordre d'aller chercher l'accusé.

La boîte qui m'est montrée par la Cour est semblable à celle que j'ai trouvé dans le lit de l'accusé.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q. 35 Avez vous jamais constaté que l'accusé ne prenait pas ses pilules?

A. 35 Je ne sais pas.

C. 25

Q. 36 Avez-vous vu l'accusé prendre ses pilules comme le font les autres patients?

A. 36 Oui.

Q. 37 Étiez-vous présent quand l'accusé aurait déclaré ne pas avoir pris ces pilules et qu'est-ce qu'il a dit?

A. 37 J'étais présent. Il a dit qu'il ne prenait pas ces pilules parce qu'il était gêné.

No. E-25914 Sergeant Lucien Roberge, No. 5 Det. R.C.A.M.P. being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Je suis serveur R.C.A. à l'hôpital militaire d'isolation à Alexandrie. Je connais l'accusé. Dans l'après-midi du 15 juillet, j'étais de service au bureau. Le lieutenant Roberts a fait venir l'accusé. Le Serg. Magnenault a demandé à l'accusé si les pilules trouvées sous son oreiller étaient les siennes. L'accusé a répondu que oui. J'ai entendu la question et la réponse. Le Capt. Lacroix a alors renvoyé l'accusé de l'hôpital sous escorte. Quelques minutes plus tard l'escorte est revenue seule et a déclaré avoir perdu le prisonnier. J'en ai immédiatement informé la police militaire du camp.

First witness for the Defence.

The accused, No E-6057 Private Louis Philippe Pierce, Royal 22e Regiment, C.A., attached to A.S.P.C. A-13 C.A. being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer

J'ai jamais déclaré que j'avais une gonorrhée. Le 5 de juil. 1942 j'ai été au "sick parade" à 6 heures du soir pour un testicule enflé. Le dit a constaté en même temps un écoulement. On m'a tout de suite envoyé à Québec. Je suis entré à l'hôpital militaire de Québec à 9.30 heures le même soir. Je n'ai pas vu de spécialiste le lendemain je n'en ai pas vu non plus le surlendemain, le Colonel Petitclerc m'a examiné et il m'a prescrit de la glace. Deux jours plus tard, j'ai été envoyé à Valcartier parce qu'on s'était aperçu que je coulais. Quand je suis descendu à Québec, je suis allé à l'hôpital de l'Immigration. Le médecin m'a examiné, il m'a demandé si j'avais déjà eu des oreillons. Je lui ai dit: Non. Jamais. C'est après cela qu'on m'a envoyé à l'hôpital d'isolation à Valcartier. Je n'ai jamais fait de déclaration que j'avais la gonorrhée. Personnellement je ne sais pas quelle maladie que j'ai, mais je coule depuis 6 ans. Je voudrais passer un autre examen n'importe quand devant des spécialistes en maladies vénériennes parce que j'ai absolument la même goutte jaune dans le canal (see further for explanation on page 42)

Cross-examined by the Prosecutor

Q. 41 Vous savez ce que c'est qu'une chaude-pisse?

A. 41 Oui.

Q. 42 Par conséquent, vous avez subi des traitements pour cela? Vous comprenez cela.

A. 42 Oui.

Q. 43 Vous dites que vous vous êtes rapporté le 5 juillet parce que, pour me servir de votre expression, vous avez une grosse enflée?

A. 43 Oui.

Q. 44 Vous avez dit tout à l'heure, que vous n'avez pas de chaude-pisse?

A. 44 J'ai dit que je n'avais déclaré que j'avais une gonorrhée.

Q. 45 Vous avez dit aussi que depuis 6 ans vous avez une goutte jaunâtre dans le canal?

A. 45 Oui.

Q. 46 Vous vous étiez déclaré malade le 5 parce que vous avez dit avoir un testicule enflé, c'était la cause de la maladie dont vous prétendiez souffrir à ce moment? Alors pourquoi n'avez vous pas déclaré ce fait en entrant à l'hôpital d'isolation?

D-7

R. 46 C'est parce que j'ai été traité à l'hôpital militaire de Québec pour un testicule enflé. On m'a déchargé parce qu'il n'était plus enflé, et cela devrait être dit sur la "décharge" de l'hôpital. On m'a envoyé à l'isolation parce qu'on s'est aperçu que je couvais.

Q. 47 Pourquoi n'avez vous pas pris vos médicaments après la découverte d'une chaude-pisse à l'examen du 9 juillet, le deuxième examen?

R. 47 Je les ai pris.

Q. 48 Si vous les avez pris, comment expliquez vous qu'on ait trouvé ces médicaments sous votre oreiller?

R. 48 Je couchais dans le milieu de la salle. Il y avait quelques jours que je connaissais dans l'autre coin et le lit à côté de lui, en bas, était pris par un autre qui a été déchargé dans ce temps là. Alors, je suis "monté" et j'ai pris sa place. Il y avait un vieux matelas. J'ai voulu le changer pour prendre celui là en haut qui était roulé et en le déroulant, j'ai trouvé les pilules que j'ai mis dans la boîte. (Les parties for explanation on page 45)

Q. 49 Vous déclarez sous votre serment que les pilules produites devant la cour n'étaient pas les vôtres.

D-9

Q. 49 Oui.

Q. 50 Par conséquent, si vous étiez innocent pourquoi n'avez vous pas déclaré cela au Capitaine Barrette quand vous êtes paru devant lui?

A. 50 C'est la cause que je n'ai pas comparu devant le Cap. Barrette.

Q. 51 Avez vous comparu devant le Sgt Mignault

A. 51 Oui,

Q. 52 Pourquoi ne lui avez vous pas déclaré cela à lui?

A. 52 C'est la cause qu'il était "drafté" pour l'autre côté le même soir. J'ai cru qu'il ne serait à rien de lui faire une déclaration.

Q. 53 Avez vous déclaré soit au Sgt Mignault ou au Cap. Barrette en réponse à leurs questions "Pourquoi n'avez vous pas fait vos pilules?" que vous étiez guéri et que vous guérissiez seul.

A. 53 Je ne m'en souviens pas

The Defending Officer declares to p. Granaire (A.O. 83 B)

The witness, on his evidence being read to him, makes the following explanations:

1. Pendant les 6 ans, il est arrivé que la goutte était blanche et très collante dans le canal. Quand la goutte est blanche elle sort en pressant la verge. Quand elle est jaune elle sort moins.

2. Quand j'ai trouvé les pilules, il y avait 3 pilules qui n'étaient pas des sulphatiogol et je les ai mis dans la boite avec les autres.

The Prosecutor and the Defending Officer decline to examine him respecting the above explanations.

Second witness for the Defence

Marie-Ange St Pierre, married and divorced, waitress for the Canada Steamship lines, 90 boulevard Charest, Quebec, being duly sworn as examined by the Defending Officer.

Je connais le soldat Pierce, l'accusé depuis 1½ ans. Il m'a déjà dit qu'il souffrait de maladies vénériennes. Je l'ai constaté moi-même entre la fin de juin et le commencement de juillet 1942. Il est venu à l'hôpital d'isolation parce qu'il était malade. Vers le 4 juillet, j'ai eu un rapport sexuel avec l'accusé et j'ai constaté qu'il était malade.

Cross-examined by the Prosecutor.

Q. 54 Avez-vous eu des relations sexuelles à plusieurs reprises avec l'accusé?

A. 54 Assez souvent.

Q. 55 Depuis mettons environ 6 mois, combien

D-13

de fois?

A. 55 5 ou 6 fois par mois jusqu'au ~~4~~ 4 juillet.

Q. 56 Vous avez déclaré que vous saviez que l'accusé souffrait et malade récemment et vous aviez des relations ~~d~~ avec lui quand même 5 ou 6 fois par mois?

A. 56 Je voyais toujours avec des "safes" et il paraît que c'est guéri cela.

Q. 57 Dites donc comment vous vous êtes pris pour constater que l'accusé était malade?

A 57 Parce qu'il couchait.

The Court in accordance with Rule of Procedure 86(D) recalls the first witness for the Defence, the accused, who on his former oath states in reply to the President as follows

Q. 58 Vous avez entendu le Cap. Barrette déclarer qu'il a examiné votre écoulement le 9 de juillet 2 fois et qu'il n'y avait pas de gonorrhée. Qu'il vous a demandé de lui montrer votre écoulement aussitôt qu'il apparaîtrait de nouveau; qu'une heure plus tard vous lui avez montré de l'écoulement qui révélait une gonorrhée à l'état aigue et qu'ensuite à d'autres examens il n'y avait plus rien. Quelle explication pouvez vous fournir à ce sujet?

A. 58 Dabord, à l'hôpital, quand on passe un examen ils viennent vous chercher et puis à toutes les fois que j'en ai passé un, j'ai toujours pissé avant et j'ai dit au Capt Magnenault que je venais de pisser ce matin du 9 juillet et puis, ils m'ont dit de pas pisser et si ce ce remontrait d'aller les voir. C'est ce que j'ai fait. A chaque examen que j'ai toujours pissé avant. Je suis déjà allé à l'hôpital avant cela et puis j'avais pas d'écoulement, seulement une goutte dans le canal, blanche ou jaunâtre et j'ai resté 32 jours pour cela. Durant ces 32 jours, j'ai eu des examens d'urine que des matins étaient négatifs et d'autres matins positifs.

9. COUR PERMANENTE D'ENQUETE.
La Cour Permanente d'Enquête s'assemblera aux endroit, date et heure que fixera le Président pour enquérir et faire rapport sur les blessures subies par le Sdt. H-99518 Edward Taylor, C.F.C., att. au A.I.T.C., A/13, le 26 juillet, '42.

Les procédures devront être transmises en triplicata, au D.A.A.G., 5ième R.M. (Q.39-T-1601) (GnOs.2449)

10. ROLE NOMINAL DE COMPAGNIE.
Un rôle nominal complet de chaque compagnie devra être transmis à l'Officier en charge des Records, au plus tard à 1600 heures, lundi le 17 août'42, pour l'usage de l'Officier Dentaire du Camp. Ce rôle nominal sera tel qu'en date de 2359 heures, dimanche, le 16 août'42.

11. MISE EN DISPONIBILITE DES SPECIALISTES DES DIFFERENTES UNITES FORMATIONS etc. DANS L'INTERET DU BON FONCTIONNEMENT GENERAL.
L'expansion rapide de l'Armée Canadienne crée une demande considérable d'officiers et sous-officiers expérimentés pour occuper de nouveaux postes importants.

Ces officiers et sous-officiers doivent être obtenus pour la plupart des formations, unités et H.W.E. actuellement en sevice.

Il s'en suit que les Quartiers-Généraux, unités et effectifs de toute catégorie doivent être en position de libérer tout officier ou sous-officier de leurs effectifs à un très court avis.

Il est de la responsabilité des commandants de toutes les formations, unités, etc., d'organiser et de maintenir l'entrainement de subalternes de manière à ce que la perte de quelques spécialistes n'affecte pas le bon fonctionnement de son commandement.

En un mot, aucun officier ou sous-officier jugé indispensable ne doit être sur les effectifs, et la perte d'un officier affectant le bon fonctionnement d'une unité dénote un manque d'habilité et de clairvoyance de la part du commandant.
(O.C.V.1800)

Closing address by the Defending Officer

L'accusation est d'avoir feint la maladie au Dépôtoire Garnotte entre les 1er et 15 juillet. J'attire l'attention de la Cour à l'M.R. 18 note 3.

Considering le record médical de l'accusé. Il a déjà souffert de gonorrhée. Il est envoyé de l'Hôpital de Québec où il a été examiné par le Colonel Pettelere. Son rapport est marqué gonorrhée et orchi-épididymite.

Je soumets que la poursuite n'a pas fait sa preuve de la première accusation et demande que l'accusé en soit acquitté.

Je n'ai rien à dire sur les autres accusations.

"P"

A.P. Archer L. St. Paul
Cus. D.T.M.

Closing address by the Prosecutor.

Ma preuve est faite sur les 1re et 3e accusations, l'accusé doit en être trouvé coupable.

Sur la première accusation l'accusé a assez d'expérience sur la gonorrhée pour feindre cette maladie qu'il n'avait pas au temps donné dans l'accusation.

On ne peut pas mettre en doute la bonne foi des témoins, le Capt. Barrette et ses subordonnés auxquels nous avons confiance.

L'accusé dans son témoignage a essayé de jeter un doute quand à la sincérité de ces témoignages rendus. La question préliminaire dans le Règlement qui est soumise au tribunal est la suivante. En premier lieu l'accusé se déclare malade souffrant d'un testicule enflé. Cette question de gonorrhée a ce moment là. On l'envoie à l'Hôpital Militaire de Québec où là on l'envoie à Valcartier avec un écoulement. A son entrée le 8 juillet commence la simulation de l'accusé me basant sur le témoignage du Capt. Barrette. On lui fait subir un examen on trouve des débris mais pas de gonorrhée le lendemain non plus, plus tard il montre une gonorrhée aiguë, 2 jours après, l'examen d'urine ne montre rien. Le 14 juillet non plus. Comment se fait-il que sur 6 examens un seul décèle une gonorrhée aiguë. Le Capt. Barrette déclare cela inexplicable.

(Att. to A.I.T.C. A-13, C.A.)

1. Receipt is acknowledged of your Q.39-H-1070(JA) dated September 1st, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded for registration and custody the proceedings of the marginally noted District Court-Martial.

2. In addition to the irregularities mentioned in your letter, the following have been noted in the proceedings:-

(a) In the marginal notation on the Charge Sheet for the second charge the same should have read "Sec. 15(1)," instead of merely "Sec. 15".

(b) No mention is made in the proceedings of the order detailing the other two members of the Court and which order was attached to the proceedings and marked "X-1".

(c) It would have been preferable if the entries, made in the proceedings for the various documents put in evidence, had been in the form as set forth on Page 61 of the Handbook.

(d) The various documents admitted in evidence have been marked with letters commencing with "Q". It is preferable that these exhibits should commence with the letter "C".

(e) The addresses of the Defending Officer and Prosecutor should have appeared in the proceedings after the various exhibits, which were attached to the proceedings and not before.

3. The proceedings are returned herewith in order that the above noted irregularities may be brought to the attention of all officers concerned and further in order that the attention of the D.M.O. may be called to the evidence given by Captain Barrette as mentioned in Para. 3 of your letter. When they have served these purposes may they please be returned to this office.

For the last 15 months, I have been working at the Isolation Hospital Laboratory in Valcartier. I am doing the microscopic tests of pus in the urine of patients, under the supervision of Captain Barrette.

The accused entered the Isolation Hospital around July 8, 1942. When admitted I examined some pus taken out of his urethra. I found only inflamatory cells. On the following day, I again tested his discharge and I found some waste matter. On the same day, I again tested his urethral discharge and I found some gonococci. On July 11th, I again tested the discharge of the accused and I found some inflamatory cells only, and no gonococci. On July 14th, I again tested the urethral discharge of the accused after he had undergone a massage of the prostate by Captain Barrette or Sgt. Migneault, and I found inflamatory cells with staphylococci, but no gonococci. On July 15, 1942, a new microscopic examination with a negative result.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING-OFFICER.

Q.7 Are you a physician?
A.7 No.

Q.8 Are you a chemist?
A.8 No.

Q.9 Did you ever do any laboratory work?
A.9 No.

C-9 C-11 C-13 (pages 15-17-19)

Q.10 Why was the accused sent from the Quebec Military Hospital to the Isolation Hospital in Valcartier?
A.10 I do not know.

Q.11 Did you know that the accused had already suffered from gonorrhea on three different occasions?
A.11 I remember having seen him at the Isolation Hospital, but I do not remember how many times, neither do I remember why he was there.

Q.12 Did you know that the accused had suffered from urethritis in May, 1942?
A.12 No, I do not remember.

Q.13 Before your tests did you see to it that the accused be warned not to urinate for four to six hours?
A.13 No, I never heard anything about it.

Q.14 Did you know that these precautions were necessary in order to find out whether any gonococci were remaining?
A.14 No.

Q.15 Do you know what orchitis is?
A.15 No, I do not know.

Q.16 Do you know that there are cases of gonorrhea which are not detected by the bacteriological test?
A.16 No, I am not aware of that.

Q.17 What do you mean by tests under the supervision of Captain Barrette?
A.17 I stain the blade, I examine it with a microscope, and if I have some difficulty I refer to Captain Barrette.

Q.18 Did Captain Barrette make the pus test in each case for the accused?
A.18 I cannot say; he certainly made some.

Q.19 Can you swear that in the examination of July 15th you took a pus test?
A.19 On July 15th, I made a urine test and not a pus test.

Q.20 Do you prepare the solutions yourself for the pus test?
A.20 No.

Q.21 Do you use Gram's method for the pus test?
A.21 Yes.

Q.22 Are your solutions kept in the light?
A.22 No, in coloured bottles.

Q.23 Do you know that these solutions are very sensitive to light?
A.23 No.

Q.24 Do you know that solutions A & B do not keep?
A.24 No.

Q.25 How long had you had solution "C"?
A.25 We receive them every fortnight.

Q.26 Do you know that they do not keep for more than a month?
A.26 No.

Q.27 Are you ready to swear that the accused was not suffering from gonorrhea between the 8th and the 15th of July?
A.27 I cannot swear it.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE

R.P. 83 (b) has been complied with.

The witness withdraws.

Fourth Witness for Prosecution

Captain Elzear Barrette, No. 5 Det. R.C.A.M.C. being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

"I have been in charge of venereal diseases at the Isolation Hospital at Valcartier since January 22, 1942. I have been a physician for four years. I am not a specialist in venereal diseases, but I have treated some of them during my practice. I saw the accused at the Isolation Hospital on July 8, 1942. He came from the Quebec Military Hospital with the mention "Gonorrhea with intensive epididymitis". He arrived at the hospital in the evening on the 8th. The following day, after having taken cognizance of the report on the examination of the previous day, I noted by use of microscope that the report was correct. I found a lot of waste matter and inflamatory cells and that is all. There were no gonococci. I had another test made. The report was the same. I told the accused to come for another examination as soon as he would notice a discharge from the urethra. About an hour later, the patient called at the laboratory, /a there being purulent discharge from his urethra. The test gave a positive reaction to gonococci. The test showed an acute gonorrhea. I prescribed the usual treatment, sulfathiazole pills, 16 pills for the first 24 hours and then gradually decreasing.

On July 11th, the accused had a second urine test, in the morning upon getting up, the report showed that there were no inflamatory cells and no pus. Normally if the accused /as had suffered from gonorrhea shown by the test of the 11th, there would have been a rather considerable amount of pus in the urine. On the 14th, I gave the accused a massage of the prostate and I found some staphylococci and inflamatory cells, but no gonococci. On the 15th, the accused had another urine test, and the result was absolutely negative. According to my experience, the result of all these tests, within so short a time, was abnormal. From a clinical point of view I cannot explain such a condition. From July 9th to July 15th, except on Sunday, I visited the accused and I found at the entrance of the urinary meatus a greasy yellow deposit which had not at all the characteristics of pus. It was a drop which remained stuck there, whereas pus spreads, and it resembled the contents of prophylactic tubes.

Before his leaving the hospital on the 15th, he should have taken a total of 64 pills. Corporal Forgues brought back to me 48 pills of the medicament which the accused should have taken. I called the accused. He stated to Sgt. Migneault in my presence that he didn't need to take any pills because it was getting cured by itself. He admitted having taken pills on the first day only. I am producing these pills in a box in which they were found.

EXHIBIT "M" (signed by the President).

It should be noted that many of these pills have lost their polish which indicates that they have suffered from dampness. Upon discovering that the accused had not followed his treatment, I sent him back from the hospital to his unit with an escort.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING-OFFICER.

Q.28 During how many months have you been treating venereal diseases?
A.28 Seven months at Valcartier.

Q.29 Did you make a microscopic examination of the pus of the accused yourself?
A.29 Yes.

Q.30 Are you ready to swear that the accused did not suffer from gonorrhea between July 8th and July 15th?
A.30 No, because it was the 6th time that he was admitted to the hospital in connection with a gonorrhea or urethritis. He may be suffering from chronic gonorrhea.

Q.31 Was there any test made of the deposits found in the urethra of the accused?

A.31 No.

Q.32 Why did you dismiss the accused from the hospital on July 15th?
A.32 Because he admitted that he had not taken his pills and that his urine test, that very morning, was negative.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Q.33 You said that you dismissed the accused from the hospital because he had not taken his pills and that his urine test on the 15th did not show any pus? Did you base yourself simply on that urine test of the 15th, or did you also take into consideration the prior negative tests?
A.33 I also took into account the report of the previous tests.

Q.34 Will you explain to the Court what is a chronic gonorrhea? Do you necessarily find gonococci in a chronic gonorrhea?
A.34 Yes and no. There are intervals during which the bacterium is found, and on similar occasions there is only some pus which does not necessarily contain gonococci. Sometime there is a discharge and sometime there is none. But most of the time we note what is called gleet, but never in such virulent form as was noted in the accused and which could stop so suddenly. I am now speaking from a purely clinical point of view."

R.P. 83 (b) has been complied with.

The witness withdraws.

Fifth Witness for Prosecution

E-20626-Corporal Jean Charles Forgues, No. 5 Det. R.C.A.M.C. being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

"I am orderly at the Isolation Hospital in Valcartier. I know the accused. I watch the patients to make sure that they follow their treatment. On July 15, 1942, during my inspection, I found in Pte. Hinse's bed, under his pillow, an empty box of Winchester cigarettes containing sulfathiazole pills. I immediately reported to Captain Barrette. He ordered me to go and fetch the accused.

The box which is shown to me by the Court is similar to that which I found in the bed of the accused.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING-OFFICER.

Q.35 Did you ever notice that the accused was not taking his pills?
A.35 I do not know.

Q.36 Did you see the accused take his pills such as other patients do?

A.36 Yes.

Q.37 Were you present when the accused is alleged to have stated that he didn't take his pills, and what did he say?

A.37 I was present. He said that he wasn't taking his pills because he was cured.

"I am senior N.C.O. at the Military Isolation Hospital in Valcartier. I know the accused. In the afternoon of July 15th, I was on duty at the Office. Captain Barrette called for the accused. Sgt. Migneault asked the accused if the pills found under his pillow were his. The accused replied that they were. I heard the question and the reply. Captain Barrette then sent the accused away from the hospital under escort. A few minutes later, the escort came back alone and said that he had lost the prisoner. I immediately notified the Military Police of the Camp."

First Witness for the Defence.

The accused No. E-6057-Pte. Louis Philippe Hinse, Royal 22nd Regiment, C.A., attached to A.(I)T.C. A-13, C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending-Officer.

"I never stated that I had gonorrhea. On July 5, 1942, I was on sick parade at 6 o'clock P.M. for a swollen testicle, The M.O. also noted a discharge . I was at once sent to Quebec. I entered the Quebec Military Hospital at 9:30 on that same evening. I saw no specialist. On the following day, I didn't see any. On the following day, Lieut.-Col. Petitclerc examined me and prescribed ice. Two days later, I was sent to Valcartier because they noticed that I had a discharge. When I went down to Quebec, I went to the Immigration Hospital. The Doctor examined me and asked me if I had ever had the mumps. I told him that I never had had the mumps. It was then that he sent me to the Isolation Hospital in Valcartier. I never stated that I was suffering from gonorrhea. Personally I do not know what disease I am suffering from, but I have had a discharge for the last six years. I would like to submit to another examination at any time by venereal disease specialists, because I have absolutely the same yellow drop in the canal. (See further for explanation on page 43).

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Q.41 Do you know what clap is?
A.41 Yes.

Q.42 Consequently you underwent a treatment for it? You understand that?
A.42 Yes.

Q.43 You said that you reported on July 5th, because, to use your own expression, you had a swollen testicle?
A.43 Yes.

Q.44 You said a moment ago that you had not the clap?
A.44 I said that I never stated that I had gonorrhea.

Q.45 You also said that you had for the last six years a yellow drop in the canal?
A.45 Yes.

Q.46 You went on the sick parade on the 5th, because you said you had a swollen testicle, and that was the cause of the ailment of which you said you were then suffering? Then why did you not report it when you were admitted to the Isolation Hospital?

A.46 Because I was treated at the Quebec Military Hospital for a swollen testicle. I was discharged because the swelling had disappeared, and it must have been mentioned on the hospital discharge. I was sent to the Isolation Hospital when it was noticed that I had a urethral discharge.

Q.47 Why did you not take your medicaments when it was discovered that you had the clap on the second examination on July 9th?
A.47 I took them.

Q.48 If you took them how do you explain that they were found under your pillow?
A.48 I was sleeping in the centre ward. There was somebody that I knew in the other corner, and the bed beside his, the lower bed, was occupied by another man who was discharged at the time. I then moved and took his place. There was an old mattress. I wanted to change it to take that which was in the upper bed and which was rolled up. When unrolling it I found the pills which I put in the box. (See further for explanation on page 45).

Q.49 You state under oath that the pills produced before this Court were not yours?
A.49 Yes.

Q.50 Consequently, if you are innocent, why did you not say so to Captain Barrette when you appeared before him?
A.50 The reason is that I did not appear before Captain Barrette.

Q.51 Did you appear before Sergeant Migneault?
A.51 Yes.

Q.52 Why did you not say so to him?
A.52 Because he was drafted for Overseas that same evening, and I thought that it would be useless to make such a statement to him.

Q.53 Did you state, either to Sgt. Migneault or to Captain Barrette, in reply to their questions,"why did you not take your pills" that you were cured and that your illness was getting cured by itself?
A.53 I do not remember.

THE DEFENDING-OFFICER DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE.

R.P. 83 (b) has been complied with.

The witness, on his evidence being read to him, makes the following explanations:

1. During the six years, it happened that the drop was white and quite sticky in the canal. When the drop is white, it comes out when I press on the penis, and when it is yellow, it doesn't come out so easily.

2. When I found the pills, there were three of them which were not sulfathiazole pills and I put them together in the box with the others."

THE PROSECUTOR AND THE DEFENDING-OFFICER DECLINE TO EXAMINE HIM RESPECTING THE ABOVE EXPLANATIONS.

Second Witness for the Defence

Marie-Ange St. Pierre, married and divorced, waitress for the Canada Steamship Lines, 90 Boulevard Charest, Quebec, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending-Officer.

"I have known Pte. Hinse, the accused, for 1½ years. He already told me that he was suffering from a venereal disease between the end of June and the beginning of July, 1942. He came to the Isolation Hospital because he was sick. Around July 4th, I had a sexual relation with the accused and I noticed that he was sick.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Q.54 Had you sexual relations with the accused on several occasions?
A.54 Rather often.

Q.55 During the last six months, about how many times?
A.55 Five or six times a month until July 4th.

Q.56 You say that you knew that the accused was suffering from a venereal disease and you nevertheless had sexual relations with him five or six times a month?
A.56 I always had safes, and it is said that they are guaranteed.

Q.57 Tell us how you proceeded to find out that the accused was sick?
A.57 Because he had a discharge.

On the 18th of August, 1942, at 2:00 o'clock the Court re-assemble, pursuant to adjournment, present the same members as on the morning of the same day.

The Court in accordance with Rule of Procedure 86 (D) recalls the first witness for the Defence, the accused, who on his former oath states in reply to the President as follows:

Q.58 You heard Captain Barrette when he stated that he had tested your discharge twice on July 9th, and there were no gonococci, and he asked you to notify him as soon as the discharge would reappear, and an hour later you showed him the discharge which indicated acute gonorrhea, and later upon other tests being made, there was nothing wrong. How can you explain that?

A.58 In the first place, when we undergo an examination at the Hospital, they come to fetch us, and then each time I underwent an examination, I always urinated before, and I said to Sgt. Migneault that I had just urinated that morning of July 9th, and then they told me not to urinate, and if it showed up again to come and see him. That is what I did. At each following examination, I always urinated before. I had gone to the hospital before and I had no discharge, only a white or yellow drop in the canal, and I remained 32 days on that account. During these 32 days, I underwent urine tests which on some mornings were negative and on some other mornings were positive.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING-OFFICER

The charge is to have feigned disease to Captain Barrette between July 1st and July 15th. I am calling the attention of the Court upon A.A.18, note 3.

If we consider the medical record of the accused, he has already been suffering from gonorrhea; he was sent to the Quebec Hospital, where he was examined by Lt.-Col. Petitclerc, and the report indicates gonorrhea and orchiepididymitis.

I submit that the prosecution has not proven the first charge, and I ask that the accused be acquitted thereon. I have nothing to say as regards the other charges.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR.

My case is closed on the 2nd and 3rd charges, and the accused should be found guilty on these two counts.

As regards the first charge, the accused had enough experience with gonorrhea but feigned such disease/which he was not suffering at the time indicated in the charge.

/from

The good faith of the witnesses, Captain Barrette and his subalterns, in whom we have confidence, cannot be doubted.

In his evidence, the accused tried to raise a doubt as to the truth of such evidence. The essential point in this strange case submitted to the Court is the following:
In the first place the accused declares that he is ill and suffering from a swollen testicle. There is no mention being made then of gonorrhea. He is sent to the Quebec Military Hospital and from there to Valcartier while he had a urethral discharge. Upon his admission to the hospital, the accused starts feigning disease, judging by the evidence given by Captain Barrette. Upon being examined, waste matter is found but no gonococci. None are found on the following day, later he shows an acute gonorrhea, and two days later a urine test is negative. On July 14th, same result. How is it that out of six examinations, one only shows an acute gonorrhea. Captain Barrette finds it inexplicable.

From July 9th to July 15th, except on Sunday, I visited the accused and I found at the entrance of the urinary meatus a greasy yellow deposit which had not at all the characteristics of pus. It was a drop which remained stuck there, whereas pus spreads, and it resembled the contents of prophylactic tubes.

Before his leaving the hospital on the 15th, he should have taken a total of 64 pills. Corporal Forgues brought back to me 48 pills of the medicament which the accused should have taken. I called the accused. He stated to Sgt. Migneault in my presence that he didn't need to take any pills because it was getting cured by itself. He admitted having taken pills on the first day only. I am producing these pills in a box in which they were found.

EXHIBIT "M" (signed by the President).

It should be noted that many of these pills have lost their polish which indicates that they have suffered from dampness. Upon discovering that the accused had not followed his treatment, I sent him back from the hospital to his unit with an escort.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING-OFFICER.

Q.28 During how many months have you been treating venereal diseases?
A.28 Seven months at Valcartier.

Q.29 Did you make a microscopic examination of the pus of the accused yourself?
A.29 Yes.

Q.30 Are you ready to swear that the accused did not suffer from gonorrhea between July 8th and July 15th?
A.30 No, because it was the 6th time that he was admitted to the hospital in connection with a gonorrhea or urethritis. He may be suffering from chronic gonorrhea.

Q.31 Was there any test made of the deposits found in the urethra of the accused?

A.31 No.

rather considerable amount of pus in the urine. On the 14th, I gave the accused a massage of the prostate and I found some staphylococci and inflamatory cells, but no gonococci. On the 15th, the accused had another urine test, and the result was absolutely negative. According to my experience, the result of all these tests, within so short a time, was abnormal. From a clinical point of view I cannot explain such a condition. From July 9th to July 15th, except on Sunday, I visited the accused and I found at the entrance of the urinary meatus a greasy yellow deposit which had not at all the characteristics of pus. It was a drop which remained stuck there, whereas pus spreads, and it resembled the contents of prophylactic tubes.

C-9 C-11 C-13 (pages 15-17-19)

Q.10 Why was the accused sent from the Quebec Military Hospital to the Isolation Hospital in Valcartier?

A.10 I do not know.

Q.11 Did you know that the accused had already suffered from gonorrhea on three different occasions?

A.11 I remember having seen him at the Isolation Hospital, but I do not remember how many times, neither do I remember why he was there.

Q.12 Did you know that the accused had suffered from urethritis in May, 1942?

A.12 No, I do not remember.

Q.13 Before your tests did you see to it that the accused be warned not to urinate for four to six hours?

A.13 No, I never heard anything about it.

Q.14 Did you know that these precautions were necessary in order to find out whether any gonococci were remaining?

A.14 No.

Q.15 Do you know what orchitis is?

A.15 No, I do not know.

Q.16 Do you know that there are cases of gonorrhea which are not detected by the bacteriological test?

A.16 No, I am not aware of that.

Q.17 What do you mean by tests under the supervision of Captain Barrette?

A.17 I stain the blade, I examine it with a microscope, and if I have some difficulty I refer to Captain Barrette.

Q.18 Did Captain Barrette make the pus test in each case for the accused?

A.18 I cannot say; he certainly made some.

Q.19 Can you swear that in the examination of July 15th you took a pus test?

A.19 On July 15th, I made a urine test and not a pus test.

Q.20 Do you prepare the solutions yourself for the pus test?

A.20 No.

Q.21 Do you use Gram's method for the pus test?

A.21 Yes.

Q.22 Are your solutions kept in the light?

A.22 No, in coloured bottles.

Q.23 Do you know that these solutions are very sensitive to light?

A.23 No.

Q.32 Why did you dismiss the accused from the hospital on July 15th?
A.32 Because he admitted that he had not taken his pills and that his urine test, that very morning, was negative.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Q.33 You said that you dismissed the accused from the hospital because he had not taken his pills and that his urine test on the 15th did not show any pus? Did you base yourself simply on that urine test of the 15th, or did you also take into consideration the prior negative tests?
A.33 I also took into account the report of the previous tests.

Q.34 Will you explain to the Court what is a chronic gonorrhea? Do you necessarily find gonococci in a chronic gonorrhea?
A.34 Yes and no. There are intervals during which the bacterium is found, and on similar occasions there is only some pus which does not necessarily contain gonococci. Sometime there is a discharge and sometime there is none. But most of the time we note what is called gleet, but never in such virulent form as was noted in the accused and which could stop so suddenly. I am now speaking from a purely clinical point of view."

R.P. 83 (b) has been complied with.

The witness withdraws.

Fifth Witness for Prosecution

E-20626-Corporal Jean Charles Forgues, No. 5 Det. R.C.A.M.C. being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

"I am orderly at the Isolation Hospital in Valcartier. I know the accused. I watch the patients to make sure that they follow their treatment. On July 15, 1942, during my inspection, I found in Pte. Hinse's bed, under his pillow, an empty box of Winchester cigarettes containing sulfathiazole pills. I immediately reported to Captain Barrette. He ordered me to go and fetch the accused.

The box which is shown to me by the Court is similar to that which I found in the bed of the accused.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING-OFFICER.

Q.35 Did you ever notice that the accused was not taking his pills?
A.35 I do not know.

Q.36 Did you see the accused take his pills such as other patients do?

A.36 Yes.

Q.37 Were you present when the accused is alleged to have stated that he didn't take his pills, and what did he say?

A.37 I was present. He said that he wasn't taking his pills because he was cured.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE

R.P. 83 (b) has been complied with.

The witness withdraws.

A D J OU R N M E N T.

At 4:30 o'clock the Court adjourns until 10:00 o'clock on the 18th.

On the 18th of August, 1942, at 10:00 o'clock the Court re-assemble, pursuant to adjournment, present the same members as on the 17th of August, 1942.

Sixth Witness for Prosecution.

E-25914-Sergeant Lucien Roberge, No. 5 Det. R.C.A.M.C. being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Translation

"I am senior N.C.O. at the Military Isolation Hospital in Valcartier. I know the accused. In the afternoon of July 15th, I was on duty at the Office. Captain Barrette called for the accused. Sgt. Migneault asked the accused if the pills found under his pillow were his. The accused replied that they were. I heard the question and the reply. Captain Barrette then sent the accused away from the hospital under escort. A few minutes later, the escort came back alone and said that he had lost the prisoner. I immediately notified the Military Police of the Camp."

THE DEFENDING-OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE.

R.P. 83 (b) has been complied with.

First Witness for the Defence.

The accused No. E-6057-Pte. Louis Philippe Hinse, Royal 22nd Regiment, C.A., attached to A.(I)T.C. A-13, C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending-Officer.

"I never stated that I had gonorrhea. On July 5, 1942, I was on sick parade at 6 o'clock P.M. for a swollen testicle, The M.O. also noted a discharge . I was at once sent to Quebec. I entered the Quebec Military Hospital at 9:30 on that same evening. I saw no specialist. On the following day, I didn't see any. On the following day, Lieut.-Col. Petitclerc examined me and prescribed ice. Two days later, I was sent to Valcartier because they noticed that I had a discharge. When I went down to Quebec, I went to the Immigration Hospital. The Doctor examined me and asked me if I had ever had the mumps. I told him that I never had had the mumps. It was then that he sent me to the Isolation Hospital in Valcartier. I never stated that I was suffering from gonorrhea. Personally I do not know what disease I am suffering from, but I have had a discharge for the last six years. I would like to submit to another examination at any time by venereal disease specialists, because I have absolutely the same yellow drop in the canal. (See further for explanation on page 43).

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Q.41 Do you know what clap is?
A.41 Yes.

Q.42 Consequently you underwent a treatment for it? You understand that?
A.42 Yes.

Q.43 You said that you reported on July 5th, because, to use your own expression, you had a swollen testicle?
A.43 Yes.

Q.44 You said a moment ago that you had not the clap?
A.44 I said that I never stated that I had gonorrhea.

Q.45 You also said that you had for the last six years a yellow drop in the canal?
A.45 Yes.

Q.46 You went on the sick parade on the 5th, because you said you had a swollen testicle, and that was the cause of the ailment of which you said you were then suffering? Then why did you not report it when you were admitted to the Isolation Hospital?

D-7 D-9 (pages 41-43)

A.46 Because I was treated at the Quebec Military Hospital for a swollen testicle. I was discharged because the swelling had disappeared, and it must have been mentioned on the hospital discharge. I was sent to the Isolation Hospital when it was noticed that I had a urethral discharge.

Q.47 Why did you not take your medicaments when it was discovered that you had the clap on the second examination on July 9th?
A.47 I took them.

Q.48 If you took them how do you explain that they were found under your pillow?
A.48 I was sleeping in the centre ward. There was somebody that I knew in the other corner, and the bed beside his, the lower bed, was occupied by another man who was discharged at the time. I then moved and took his place. There was an old mattress. I wanted to change it to take that which was in the upper bed and which was rolled up. When unrolling it I found the pills which I put in the box. (See further for explanation on page 45).

Q.49 You state under oath that the pills produced before this Court were not yours?
A.49 Yes.

Q.50 Consequently, if you are innocent, why did you not say so to Captain Barrette when you appeared before him?
A.50 The reason is that I did not appear before Captain Barrette.

Q.51 Did you appear before Sergeant Migneault?
A.51 Yes.

Q.52 Why did you not say so to him?
A.52 Because he was drafted for Overseas that same evening, and I thought that it would be useless to make such a statement to him.

Q.53 Did you state, either to Sgt. Migneault or to Captain Barrette, in reply to their questions, "why did you not take your pills" that you were cured and that your illness was getting cured by itself?
A.53 I do not remember.

THE DEFENDING-OFFICER DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE.

R.P. 83 (b) has been complied with.

The witness, on his evidence being read to him, makes the following explanations:

1. During the six years, it happened that the drop was white and quite sticky in the canal. When the drop is white, it comes out when I press on the penis, and when it is yellow, it doesn't come out so easily.

2. When I found the pills, there were three of them which were not sulfathiazole pills and I put them together in the box with the others."

THE PROSECUTOR AND THE DEFENDING-OFFICER DECLINE TO EXAMINE HIM RESPECTING THE ABOVE EXPLANATIONS.

Second Witness for the Defence

Marie-Ange St. Pierre, married and divorced, waitress for the Canada Steamship Lines, 90 Boulevard Charest, Quebec, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending-Officer.

"I have known Pte. Hinse, the accused, for 1½ years. He already told me that he was suffering from a venereal disease between the end of June and the beginning of July, 1942. He came to the Isolation Hospital because he was sick. Around July 4th, I had a sexual relation with the accused and I noticed that he was sick.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Q.54 Had you sexual relations with the accused on several occasions?
A.54 Rather often.

Q.55 During the last six months, about how many times?
A.55 Five or six times a month until July 4th.

Q.56 You say that you knew that the accused was suffering from a venereal disease and you nevertheless had sexual relations with him five or six times a month?
A.56 I always had safes, and it is said that they are guaranteed.

Q.57 Tell us how you proceeded to find out that the accused was sick?
A.57 Because he had a discharge.

Q.58 You heard Captain Barrette when he stated that he had tested your discharge twice on July 9th, and there were no gonococci, and he asked you to notify him as soon as the discharge would reappear, and an hour later you showed him the discharge which indicated acute gonorrhea, and later upon other tests being made, there was nothing wrong. How can you explain that?

A.58 In the first place, when we undergo an examination at the Hospital, they come to fetch us, and then each time I underwent an examination, I always urinated before, and I said to Sgt. Migneault that I had just urinated that morning of July 9th, and then they told me not to urinate, and if it showed up again to come and see him. That is what I did. At each following examination, I always urinated before. I had gone to the hospital before and I had no discharge, only a white or yellow drop in the canal, and I remained 32 days on that account. During these 32 days, I underwent urine tests which on some mornings were negative and on some other mornings were positive.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING-OFFICER

The charge is to have feigned disease to Captain Barrette between July 1st and July 15th. I am calling the attention of the Court upon A.A.18, note 3.

If we consider the medical record of the accused, he has already been suffering from gonorrhea; he was sent to the Quebec Hospital, where he was examined by Lt.-Col. Petitclerc, and the report indicates gonorrhea and orchiepididymitis.

I submit that the prosecution has not proven the first charge, and I ask that the accused be acquitted thereon. I have nothing to say as regards the other charges.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR.

My case is closed on the 2nd and 3rd charges, and the accused should be found guilty on these two counts.

As regards the first charge, the accused had enough experience with gonorrhea but feigned such disease/which he was not suffering at the time indicated in the charge.

/from

The good faith of the witnesses, Captain Barrette and his subalterns, in whom we have confidence, cannot be doubted.

In his evidence, the accused tried to raise a doubt as to the truth of such evidence. The essential point in this strange case submitted to the Court is the following:
In the first place the accused declares that he is ill and suffering from a swollen testicle. There is no mention being made then of gonorrhea. He is sent to the Quebec Military Hospital and from there to Valcartier while he had a urethral discharge. Upon his admission to the hospital, the accused starts feigning disease, judging by the evidence given by Captain Barrette. Upon being examined, waste matter is found but no gonococci. None are found on the following day, later he shows an acute gonorrhea, and two days later a urine test is negative. On July 14th, same result. How is it that out of six examinations, one only shows an acute gonorrhea. Captain Barrette finds it inexplicable.

Herewith proceedings of trial by District Court-Martial of the m/n soldier, for registration by and custody of the Judge Advocate-General.

2. The following irregularity has been noted and will be brought to the attention of the Officers concerned for their future guidance :-

(a) Folio 69 - M.F.B. 1481: The date of transportation should be shown in the particulars.

3. It will be noted that, according to the evidence (See folio 19), a new draft warning was obtained from the accused after he was apprehended and returned to his unit, because it was considered by his company commander that the original draft warning had been irregularly signed by the accused. It will be further noted, from the evidence, that this new draft warning was destroyed and the original draft warning used at the trial. It has already been brought to the attention of the Officers concerned that the obtaining of a new draft warning from the accused was an improper procedure and steps should be taken to avoid the recurrence of a similar incident.

4. Owing to the fact that AFM 255 is not available, the provisions of para. 7(b) of CARO 3241 have not been complied with.

---The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

---In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(b).

---The witness withdraws.

...— ...—

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — Lieut. J. A. C. A U L D, A-10 C.I.T.C.,C.A., being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q-33 Mr. Auld, you are the Administrative Officer of No.2 Coy., at A-10 C.I.T.C.?

A- I am.

Q-34 Is that the trained soldier's company?

A- It was at the time the accused went absent.

Q-35 And the company, at that time, from which drafts were sent overseas; is that correct?

A- That's correct.

Q-36 Will you look at the accused. Can you identify him?

A- Yes, sir, Pte. Herman, who was in No.2 Coy. at that time.

Q-37 At what time?

A- The time the draft left.

Q-38 Was the accused a member of No.2 Coy. on the third of May, 1943?

A- He was.

Q-39 What did you have, if anything, to do with the accused on the 3rd of May?

A- About 1500 hours, approximately, on the 3rd of May, I went down to the Company Hut P-41-A, I think it was, with a nominal roll of the numbers of the men who were proceeding on a draft for which we had just been warned.

Q-40 That you had been warned for. That is, through the Orderly Room?

A- We had been told to warn these men for draft and I read out the draft warning.

Q- 41 Did you call the roll?

A- I called the roll.

Q-42 Was the accused present?

A- Yes, sir. I read out the draft warning and asked each one if they all understood it and I explained it thoroughly and explained what the penalty would be for being absent when the draft left and I witnessed each man sign the draft warning.

Q -43 Do you recall what you read?

A-43 Well, it is a printed form. I think it says, "This certifies I have been duly warned for draft to proceed overseas on short notice after", then a date is stamped in. I think it was the 6th of May.

Q-44 Yes.

A- Then a second paragraph, "I understand that if I am absent without leave when the draft moves I may be proceeded against as a deserter." I think that is about what it says.

Q-45 Did you ask if there were any questions?

A- Yes, sir. Several times.

Q46 Were there any questions?

A- There were none.

Q-47 After that had been done what did you do?

A- After that had been read and explained each man in turn signed the draft warning.

Q-48 Did the accused sign the draft warning?

A- He did, in my presence and I witnessed the signature.

Q-49 I am showing you a document; a warning for draft. Can you identify that?

A- That is the draft warning which the accused signed on Tuesday afternoon, the 3rd of May, 1943.

Q-50 Is that your signature as a witness?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-51 Is that the signature of the accused?

A- Yes, it is.

(Warning for draft, dated May 3, 1943, is read to the Court, marked Exhibit "K", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.)

Q-52 Was there any indication given to you at that time, by the accused, that he did not understand what had taken place?

A- None, whatsoever.

Q-53 Was the accused given any leave?

A- He was given leave before the draft. He wasn't given any leave after that time.

Q-54 After the 3rd of May?

A- No, sir.

Q-55 Did the draft leave?

A - We were originally warned for the draft to proceed overseas on the 7th, which was the following Friday, but didn't leave until the following Tuesday, which was the 11th, at approximately 2030 hours, I think it was.

Q-56 Was the accused present on the 7th of May?

A- He was not.

Q-57 Was he present on the 11th of May?

A- He was not, to the best of my knowledge.

Q-58 To the best of your knowledge had the accused been given permission to be absent on the 11th of May?

A- He had not.

-----See page "L" for minute of adjournment and reassembly.

P. M. SESSION

Lieut. J. A. C. A U L D, A-10 C.I.T.C.,C.A., being recalled and acknowledging his former oath continues to be examined by the Prosecutor;

Q -59 Mr. Auld, during the noon recess it has come to my attention that your evidence of this morning is not correct in every detail and that you wish to now amend it; is that correct?

A- That is correct.

Q-60 Will you, then, tell the Court exactly what happened in connection with this charge against the accused, so far as it is within your knowledge?

A- Well, previously I had stated that the accused was warned for draft at 1530 hours on the 3rd of May. Well, during the noon recess I was checking up on the records looking for the roll that had been called when those men were warned. I couldn't find it but I found a list of men who were on fatigues and the accused was one of them. There were twenty men and they went to the Ordance to help unload some bombs. I checked with the various members of the staff in the offices and I found those men were all warned the following morning.

Q-61 What men?

A- Those twenty men who were on fatigues that day. I checked with Sgt. Keilty--we checked over the roll we had of those available for draft and those not available, and those that were wanred, and Sgt. Keilty said--

Q-62 What did you do?

A- Sometime on the morning of the 4th of May, between 0800 and 1200 hours Sgt. Keilty came into my office and as a result of what he told me I went out to the outer offices and warned two or three men for draft. There were several groups that morning that came in. We were the fatigue company at that time and we supplied all the fatigues from the trained soldiers. As we got these men we warned them for draft and I went out to the office and warned several groups of men. One group, I think it was two or three men, of which the accused was one. I read over the draft warning in the same way I stated beforehand. Possibly, if anything, I went into it a little more clearly than I had before with the other groups. I asked them individually if they had any questions or if they didn't understand the warning, sir, and each of them signed and I witnessed their signatures in Sgt. Keilty's presence. As a matter of fact the warning was signed at his desk in the office.

Q-63 I am showing you now what is marked as Exhibit "K".

A- That is the draft that was signed in the morning at Sgt. Keilty's desk in No.2 Company office.

Q-64 Was any warning given to the accused on the 3rd of May?

A- None whatsoever.

Q-65 Did he sign any paper or warning on that day?

A- No, sir, he did not. Not to my knowledge.

Q-66 And this Exhibit "K" is the warning which the accused signed on the 4th of May?

A- That is correct.

Q-67 When the accused was brought back to camp?

A- When the accused was brought back to camp after being apprehended he came up before the Company Commander in the Company Office. That was about a week ago--a little more than a week ago; A week ago Monday, I think, and the Company Commander----the accused was marched out of the Company office and it was suggested to me----

Q-68 Don't tell me what somebody suggested to you.

A- All right. I was handed the certificate of apprehension, the charge sheet, etc., and the draft warning, and upon the instructions of Major Smith, Company Commander, I inspected this draft warning which had been attached as evidence. That is the one which he had signed on the 4th of May, and I stopped the accused who was at that time out in front of the office with the escort---they were just going to take him to the detention room--and I called him into the office and told him that I believed that the original warning he had signed was incorrect and would he sign another; that is one with the same date and so on; one of the mimeographed forms which the accused had signed on the 4th of may. The accused expressed his willingness to do so and signed again. The reason that the second draft warning was signed, in other words this one the accused signed, was that I had been told his signature was not in the correct place. Then the accused was taken to detention. I returned to my office and was looking over this charge and wondering about the whole thing and checked into the matter a little more closely and found out that the original draft warning had been signed correctly at the bottom as on the Exhibit "K" there, and the one I had just had signed was incorrect and was unneccessay anyway.

I then went out to the outer office and spoke to Cpl.Wilson who had witnessed all this previous signing that morning and told him I thought I better get rid of the thing. I showed it to him and then burned it in the stove in the Coy. Office.

Q-69 That is the second one he signed?

A- The one he signed after he came back.

Q -70 Can you account, Mr. Auld, for the fact that your evidence this afternoon is considerably different from your evidence this morning and also the evidence you gave at the taking of the summary?

A- Well, the only reason that I can explain it was that I was unable to find the roll that was called on the afternoon of the third when the men were checked off as having signed the warning. It seems to have disappeared, and I knew the accused had signed a warning because I saw my own signature there as having witnessed it and I presumed he had been warned with the rest of the group. I didn't recollect that fatigues had been supplied at that time. We had supplied a lot of fatigues at that time.

Q-71 Do you recollect now,the actual circumstances that took place on the 3rd of May and on the 4th of May?

A- I do now, sir.

Q-72 Is there any doubt in your mind that the accused was present on the 4th of May and signed a draft warning?

A- Absolutely nothing.

Q-73 Is there any doubt in your mind as to when the document, now exhibited as "K", was signed?

A- None whatsoever.

Q-74 Is that the document that was signed on the 4th of May, 1943? (Indicating Exhibit "K")

A- It is.

Q-75 What had occured before that document was signed on the 4th of May?

A- The document had been read over,to the accused, paragraph by paragraph. Each paragraph was explained and at the con-of the reading of each paragraph the accused was asked if he had any questions; whether he understood what the document he was signing was, and----

Q-76 Do you actually recall doing that?

A- I do.

Q-77 Did the accused have any questions to ask'

A- He did not. There was only one man who had a question to ask that morning. He was a chap who has just come back to A-10. I don't recall his name but we put him in protective custody. The accused did not have any questions.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q-78 You have testified, Mr. Auld, that the document which is now marked Exhibit "K", was signed by the accused on the 4th of May.

A- That's correct.

Q-79 Will you look at the document. What is it dated?

A- May 3, 1943.

Q-80 Yet you testified it was signed on the 4th of May, 1943?

A- Yes.

Q-81 By whom was it witnessed?

A- By myself.

Q-82 When was it witnessed?

A- The morning of the 4th of May.

Q-83 Do I understand you witnessed a signature to a document which was dated the 3rd of May but was signed on the 4th of may?

A- I did, for this reason. We had mimeographed sheets such as this with several warnings on it and all dated May 3, 1943. We didn't have any more of these warnings without the date and it would have been necessary to go over to the Unit Orderly Room and have a new stencil cut and run off again for more copies. It didn't seem to me to make a great deal of difference to me provided he signed it before the 6th of May when the warning was due.

Q-84 You say, in other words, one or another considerations of convenience caused you to permit a date to stand upon a document which was other than the correct date, and a document which you had signed as a witness?

A- Right. I might say that as you know we have been having a lot of notice about shortages of stationery--I won't put it that way---and I felt that under the circumstances it would be permissible to allow a change of one day.

Q-85 I have had no experience in the warning of drafts, but in your experience is there anything to lead you to believe that the erasure or correction of the stenciled date on a document and the insertion of the longhand written corrected date together with your initial and the initial of the signor would make that document invalid?

A- I couldn't say. I have been told not to change these things, If the document is printed and is signed and so on that that is the way it should stand and that any erasures make it invalid.

Q-86 You have been told that any trifling with a document makes it invalid? By whom were you told?

A- By Capt. Thompsoh, of No.2 Coy., who was Administrative Officer before I came.

Q-87 Did he tell you that in an administrative capacity or off the record?

A- I would say in an administrative capacity. That is hearsay, but that is what I heard.

Q-88 The document Exhibit "K", is the document you have testified as being the document signed on the 4th of May?

A- That's right.

Q-89 There was a document entitled Warning for Draft, signed by the accused after he returned to Camp Borden?

A- That's right.

Q-90 That document, you say, was subsequently destroyed?

A- That's right.

Q-91 You recall what was on that document?

A- I do.

Q-92 Whose signature was on that document?

A- The accused's.

Q-93 Who witnessed the signature?

A- I witnessed it.

Q-94 You witnessed it?

A- I think I did. I'm not sure if I signed it as a witness or if I burnt it first.

Q-95 Would you have witnessed his signature at any other time than the moment you saw the accused sign the document?

A- I'm afraid I can't answer that because I don't know if I would have or not because to my knowledge the circumstance hadn't arisen.

Q-96 Are you prepared to testify as to what date appeared on that document.

A- Which document?

Q-97 The document which was signed after the accused returned to Camp Borden?

A- Yes, I am, because all the draft warnings had the same date on it.

Q-98 What date did that document have on it?

A- May 3, 1943.

Q-99 What date was it signed on?

A- 17th of May, I think; the date the accused returned or was up before the Company Commander.

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE: It must have been after the 17th because the accused was apprehended at 2130 hours in Toronto on the 17th of May.

BY THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, it was the 18th of May.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: (continuing cross-examination)

Q-100 Is it then true that on the 18th of May you required, or requested the accused's signature for a document dated the 3rd of May and to that document you appended your signature as a witness?

A- It is true. I requested he sign it and the document was dated the 3rd of May, 1943 and in all respects similar to that signed by all members of the draft. Whether I signed it as a witness or not I couldn't swear.

Q-101 This document was in all respects similar to Exhibit "K"; had the same wording and the same date?

A- It had nothing else except what appears there on Exhibit "K".

Q-102 Nothing that you know of?

A- No.

Q-103 Did it bear something of this sort; Copy?

A- No,sir.

Q-104 It didn't bear the words, "copy". It represented itself as the original document you had signed?

A- Yes.

Q-105 What was your intention with respect to this document? Why did you procure it?

A- Because, as I said, I had been instructed that the original document the accused had signed was incorrectly signed and it was my intention if that was the case and the accused was willing to sign the thing at the time--if he was willing to sign another, witnessed by myself, that he do so, and it be sent to the Adjutant as a copy to be given to the Commanding Officer with such information on it. The idea was that if the accused admitted signing the orginal document he should have no hesitation in signing the copy which would be correct, but it turned out that it wasn't needed so without any more typing on it it was burned.

Q-106 But when the accused signed it it was not marked "Copy". In other words it purported to be the original document.

A- Yes.

Q-107 In other words, when the accused, at your request, signed the document it didn't purport to be a copy?

A- No.

Q-108 What use were you going to put to either this original document or the copy of it? Was it to be used as evidence?

A- That's correct.

Q-109 And in the condition which the accused left that document with you; a signed document at that time purporting to be an original? You were going to present that document to the Court?

A- As a copy.

Q-110 But at that moment it was not marked, Copy, but purported to be an original. Is that correct?

A- Yes.

Q-111 Can you offer any proof that the document which you were going to serve in substitution for Exhibit "K" would not have been presented to the Court unless it was marked copy?

A- Yes. There is another witness who saw me burn it.

Q-112 Is the substance of your proof the declaration to that fact?

A- Yes, that's right, and might I make another answer to your question as to the intention of what would have happened. If it was necessary that the sign another warning to be presented as evidence it would in its regular channels go up to the Commanding Officer with the original attached with a statement as to why we had to make a copy. Because you can't make a copy without an original and they both must be available to compare one with the other in order to certify a true copy. It was not necessary to do so in this case so the copy was burned in front of a witness.

Q-113 You have a witness that it was destroyed?

A- I have, sir.

Q-114 Who is that witness?

A- Corporal Wilson, P.B.

Q-115 To make sure I understand the difference in this matter, between the testimony of this morning and of this afternoon, the roll that was taken of the group warned for draft the day before--that is, on the third of may------No further questions.

---The Prosecuter declines to re-examine.

----In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(b).

--- The witness withdraws.

BY THE PROSECUTOR: It is irregular for the Prosecution to recall a witness and can only be done in extraordinary circumstances with the permission of the Court. I am calling Sgt. Keilty to testify in connection with the new evidence which had been adduced this afternoon and of which I had no knowledge when Sgt. Keilty was a witness this morning. I ask the Court's indulgence.

BY THE COURT: You may call Sgt. Keilty.

4th Witness for: THE PROSECUTION. No. C-117004, Pte. (A/Sgt.) F. J. K E I L T Y, being recalled and acknowledging his former oath, is examined by the Prosecutor :-

Q-116 Do you recall the 3rd of May, 1943?

A- Yes, I do.

Q-117 Do you recall a number of men at A-10 being warned for draft on that day?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-118 Were you present at the draft warning?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-119 Who gave the warning?

A- Mr. Auld read the warning out, sir.

Q-120 Was a nominal roll called?

A- I wouldn't say for sure, sir, that the nominal roll was called, but I was there when themen were warned.

Q-121 Do you know, of your own knowledge, whether the accused was present on the 3rd of May?

A- I don't think the accused was present on the 3rd of May. He was on a fatigue party at the Camp Ordnance Office. I was detailed to take 20 men up there and Rfn. Herman being a training soldier was put on that fatigue.

Q-122 Did you detail that party?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-123 Did you detail the accused on that fatigue?

A- I think the accused was on that fatigue party.

Q-124 Are you sure? If not, say so.

A- Well, sir, I think that he was on it because he wasn't there to sign the draft warning at that time.

Q-125 When?

A- In the afternoon when most of the company went to sign it.

Q-126 On May 3rd?

A- On May 3rd.

Q-127 Do you recall May 4th?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-128 What occurred on that morning?

A- On the morning of May 4th, I went down to the company linesto get some of the men that were on fatigue party the afternoon before; took them up and signed the draft warning. I brought either 3 or 4 men up to the company office and I called Mr. Auld out to warn the men that they were proceeding on draft and to explain to them what the penalty would be if they were A.W.L.

Q-129 Was the accused there at that time?

A- Yes, he was there.

Q-130 Do you remember that?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-131 Is there any doubt in your mind about it?

A- No, sir. I remember the situation.

Q-132 What occurred?

A- I called Mr. Auld out and he warned the men and they signed the draft warning.

Q-133 Do you remember what Mr. Auld told them?

A- Well, he, more or less, told them exactly what the draft warning read.

Q-134 What did he tell them?

A- He told them that they would be proceeding on draft shortly after May 6th and if they were not present, they would be charged with Desertion, or something very similar to that effect, and he warned them what the penalty would be, that they might be charged with two years' hard labour, and he asked them if they all realized what it meant to sign a draft warning and they said that they understood what it meant, if they weren't present when the draft would leave.

Q-135 Did the accused have any questions?

A- No, sir, there wasn't anyone had any questions.

Q-136 Were these men asked to sign a draft warning?

A- Yes, sir, I asked the men down in the company lines to sign the draft warning. I asked them to come up to the company office, brought them up there, and I told them they were going to sign a draft warning and I , not knowing the circumstances very well, was going to get them to sign the draft warning myself, but realizing that this situation might arise, I went in and got Mr. Auld and he came out and gave them the lecture and while Mr. Auld and I were standing there, these men signed the draft warning.

Q-137 Did you witness the signing of the draft warning yourself?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-138 Did you sign the draft warning?

A- No, sir, I didn't sign the draft warning.

Q-139 Who did?

A- Lieut. Auld, I think, sir.

Q-140 Did he sign it himself?

A- Did Mr. Auld sign it?

Q-141 Yes.

A- Well, sir, I just witnessed the accused sign the draft warning. I won't swear that I saw Mr. Auld witness it but I know that Mr. Auld witnessed it because I was there present at the same time.

Q-142 I am showing you Exhibit "K". Do you recognize that?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-143 What is it - a draft warning?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-144 Have you ever seen it before?

A- Yes, I have, sir.

Q-145 Where?

A- In the company office.

Q-146 When?

A- I think I saw that on the 4th of May.

Q-147 Did you see it signed?

A- Yes, sir, I was present.

Q-148 Did you see that signature "W. Herman" on it?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-149 Who placed that signature on it?

A- W. Herman.

Q-150 Is that the accused?

A- Yes, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q-151 You testified, Sgt. Keilty, that you were present when the accused signed Exhibit "K"?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-152 Were you present during the whole affair?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-153 When the warning order was read and they were all asked whether they understood it?

A- Yes, sir, I had the three men there.

Q-154 You were present during the entire business?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-155 You testified, did you not, that nobody asked any questions?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-156 No one asked any questions?

A- No, sir, not to my knowledge.

Q-157 Originally you put that more positively. You said no one had asked any questions. Are you still as positive?

A- I would say that no one asked any questions.

---The Prosecutor declines to re-examine.

---In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b).

---The witness withdraws.

BY THE PROSECUTOR: Before this next witness is sworn, I would like to say that the witness was not called at the taking of the Summary of Evidence. It is apparent now that what he had to say was not known at that time. I propose to call him now but have not given the required notice under the Rules of Procedure to the accused and his Defending Officer. I am asking for the purpose of the record whether the Defending Officer has any objection to this witness now being called. The testimony which I propose to adduce from Cpl. Wilson is concerning the destruction of the draft warning which is alleged to have been signed by the accused after his return to the unit.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: No objection.

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE: Under Rule of Procedure 76, it is the duty of the Court to inform the accused that he has the right to ask for an adjournment after the taking of the evidence of this witness if he wishes to meet it with other evidence, or has the right to ask for a postponement of the cross-examination of the witness so that he may prepare himself for such cross-examination of the witness. ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ A.J.A.

5th Witness for: THE PROSECUTION.

No. B-610490, Corporal P. B. WILSON, R.C.R., C.A., att. A-10 Canadian Infantry Training Centre, C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor :-

Q-158 Cpl. Wilson, do you recall May the 18th when the accused, Pte. W. Herman, appeared at company office?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-159 What occurred on that morning?

A- Well, the accused came up for company office in the morning and there was a draft warning on him. When he went in for company office, when the company office was over, Major Smith, the O.C. of No. 2 Coy. noticed that.....

Q-160 Don't tell us that, nor what he said, but as a result of any instructions he may have given, what was done by you or by any person else?

A- Lieut. Auld went out and called Rfmn. Herman back in again and asked him if he would mind signing another draft warning. He showed him another draft warning and said he had signed it before and that to sign it again. Rfn. Herman signed it and....

Q-161 Before you go on there. Did Rfn. Herman make any objection to this procedure?

A- No, he never.

Q-162 Was he asked if he had any objection?

A- Well, I couldn't say that. I was sitting at a typewriter; I didn't hear. He just asked him if he would sign it and Rfn. Herman signed it.

Q-163 Then what happened?

A- Mr. Auld went into the back office and he came out to me later on and he said"the first one is alright and I better destroy ~~the first~~ this other one in case there is any trouble over it", so he went to the stove, put it in the stove, and burnt it.

Q-164 Put it in the stove and burned it?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-165 Did you see the second one signed?

A- Yes, I did.

Q-166 Did you see it when Mr. Auld brought it out from the back office?

A- He put it in front of me and said he better burn it.

Q-167 Was the one that Mr. Auld showed you and put in the stove the same one you say signed?

A- Yes, sir, it was.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q-168 You saw the draft order signed?

A- That is right, sir.

Q-169 By whom?

A- By Rfn. Herman.

Q-170 Was any other signature placed on that draft order?

A- No, sir, there wasn't that I saw.

Q-171 None that you saw?

A- No, sir.

Q-172 But could you testify that no other signature was placed on that draft order even though you testify that you saw no other being placed on it?

A- At the time Rfn. Herman signed the draft warning, I testified that I didn't see anyone else sign for the draft warning on it, but on all draft warnings the Administrative Officer or whoever warns him puts a signature to the left of his signature.

Q-173 Did this one contain that signature?

A- I didn't notice.

Q-174 The document was shown to you by Mr. Auld between the time that it was signed and the time that it was destroyed, is that correct?

A- That is right.

Q-175 Did you read it?

A- No, I didn't, sir. I just glanced at where he had signed.

Q-176 How did you know it was the document signed by Rfn. Herman if you hadn't read it?

A- I looked at it and saw Rfn. Herman's signature on it.

Q-177 You saw Rfn. Herman's signature?

A- Yes, sir.

Q-178 Did you read the text?

A- No, sir. I have worked with Mr. Auld and I have made them out; I have made the stencils out.

Q-179 Can you explain to the Court why that fact makes it possible for you to say that the document which had Rfn. Herman's signture on it was the copy of the draft document the Court has as Exhibit "K"?

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE; I am afraid I don't understand that question, and I don't believe the witness does either.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: (resuming examination)

Q-180 Did you say that you had not read the document?

A- I did not read the document Rfn. Herman signed; I have read others.

Q-181 How do you recognize this as one of those others?

A- It had the very same wording on it. It had the same spacing, and it had the same dates - the date warned before and the date warned that the draft was to leave.

Q-182 What was the date?

A- I believe it was the 3rd of May.

Q-183 What date did you see this signed?

A- The second one, I saw it signed the morning Rfn. Herman was brought up on charge; it would be the 18th.

Q-184 Did you see whether the document had been marked "copy" or something like that?

A- I never saw that; no.

Q-185 And you recognize the document to be of the same appearance, the same general appearnce, but you didn't read the text?

A- That is right.

Q-186 You couldn't testify what the document was on oath?

A- I couldn't testify what it was, but I have seen lots of them around. I don't read every one of them. I know what they have on them. That is why I didn't read Rfn. Herman's warning.

Q-187 But, can you declare on oath that no other context was on that document? Have you any other way of knowing whether the text of that document had not been changed?

A- Mr. Auld came out of the office and he asked me to get him another draft warning and I took out one from the place where they are all kept and handed him one. It is the very same draft warning that the other men had signed.

Q-188 But at the moment that Mr. Auld would show you the document that he subsequently destoryed, can you testify what appeared on that document besides Rfn. Herman's signature?

A- As far as I know, I don't believe anything else was on it. It was the very same draft warning.

Q-189 You repeat that it was the same draft warning. Did you read it?

A- No, sir., I never read it.

seen the demeanour of the witness, that he is a sincere witness and conscientious in his duty, and that it was no attempt on his part to mislead this Court on the evidence that he gave, and I think that the Court can take it that the story as now told by the witness is the true story. Having had an opportunity to refresh his memory, he is now sure enough. A draft warning was given to the accused on the 4th of May and Exhibit "K" is tangible evidence that he received that warning and signed it. As to the subsequent draft warning which he signed after being returned to his unit, I have nothing to say as to the propriety or the irregularity of this procedure because it does not affect this case. Something has been suggested by the Defending Officer as to false evidence or false testimony or the fabricating of evidence. Whether or not that would have been the case, the Court need not concern itself because that is pure hypothesis. That warning was never used. It was destroyed. The Court is not concerned with conjecture, with supposition, with what might have been done had circumstances been different. The Court is concerned with what is before it in evidence here to-day and I submit that the Court can forget all about that subsequent warning which was signed, regularly or irregularly, and concern itself entirely with that warning which is now before it, Exhibit "K", and which the witness - and I submit a reliable witness - has sworn is the warning which he gave, which he read and explained to the accused on the 4th of May, and which was signed by the accused. I submit that the accused had full knowledge of the fact that he was to proceed on a special duty sometime after the 6th of May. With that knowledge, on the 5th of May he absented himself without leave and he was still absent when the special duty occurred on the 11th of May.

In the face of those facts, I submit that it is quite open to the Court, that it is an irresistible inference, and that they must come to the conclusion that the accused did absent himself with the intention of avoiding that special duty.

of desertion as to vitiate it if it was not given. It assists the Court in inferring the intent or the intention, but even if there had been no draft warning given whatsoever and that the accused had not been told that if he were absent when the draft left, he would be liable to a charge of desertion, the elements of the charge are still present, if the Court is satisfied that the accused went absent with the intention of avoiding the special duty. If he knew that there was a draft, no matter how he came to know it, and he knew when it might go and was absent intentionally and wilfully at that time, the Court can readily infer that the accused had no intention of proceeding with that draft. However, it has been seen fit by the authorities to provide for a draft warning, and I think the discrepency between the evidence of Mr. Auld as given in the first instance and as he gave it this afternoon can be readily understood. An officer who is given the task of warning approximately 100 men as in this case and who is also given the task of warning other drafts of probably the same or larger numbers can hardly be expected to remember clearly each individual soldier. What there is to refresh his memory on that point is his own signature on the draft warning as a witness. He follows a procedure which is almost formal - the reading of the warning, the explanation, the asking if there were any questions, and then the signing. And it may be that he cannot remember the face of each individual man or the actual instance of that man signing the draft warning, but if he can satisfy himself with those things with which he is entitled to refresh his memory that the accused was present or that any particular man was present when he gave the warning, and if he has before him his own signature witnessing the signature of the man, then surely we must take him as a reliable witness. It was easy for him to have thought that the accused in this case was one of those warned on the 3rd of May. However, on refreshing his memory, it comes back to him what actually took place, and I submit to the Court, after they have

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Mr. President and Members of the Court; First of all, not in any sense of trying to escape from any responsibility, I wanted it to be clear in the Court's mind that the very radical change in testimony between this morning and this afternoon is something just as fresh to me as it is to the Court. It came to me as quite a surprise and has placed me in rather an embarrassing position in the conduct of the Prosecution. However, we are dealing here with a charge of desertion, that type of desertion which consists of a man going absent without leave with the intention of avoiding a special duty. Evidence has been given of the man's absence and his subsequent apprehension. There has been evidence given that there was a special duty, thats draft did proceed from A-10 C.I.T.C. on May 11th, and that the accused man was one of the men who it was intended should go on that draft, and that he was absent when the draft left. It is for the Court to determine from those facts whether the accused went absent with the intention of avoiding that special duty, and the Court is free to infer the intentions of the accused, it being the only way, or nearly the only way, in which intentions can be determined. The Court cannot get into a man's mind, and they must, therefore, make their inferences from his words and from his actions. In order to determine whether this man when he went absent had the intention of avoiding this special duty, we can look at what notice he had of the special duty, and that is where the draft warning comes into the picture. We have heard a great deal to-day about this draft warning and the manner in which it was given. I am well aware of the provisions of Routine Order 1677 which sets out that a draft warning of the nature shown in this Court shall be given to all men who are detailed for special duty, whether it be overseas duty or whether it be some duty in Canada, but I submit to this Court that whether or not such draft warning was given or whether it was given in an irregular manner does not so strike to the root of a charge

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER :-

Mr. President and Members of the Court: It is quite correct as the Prosecutor began to suggest by stating that the accused was absent without leave during the period from the 5th to the 17th of May. It is also quite correct that there was a special duty in that period. It may be quite correct and it appears quite correct that the accused was intended to be a part of that special duty. That does not, however, it seems to me, approach the heart of the matter which was whether or not the accused had declared himself aware that he was, in fact, a part of that special duty.

The testimony of the first two witnesses, that is, of Cpl. Gillies and of Sgt. Keilty, testimony which has not been contested in the Court, is simply to the effect that the accused was absent. The testimony of Mr. Auld is the crucial testimony in regard to the accused's having declared himself to be on that draft. Now it is not my intention, it is very far from my intention, to impeach the integrity of that witness, Mr. Auld, and the Prosecution's defence of Mr. Auld's integrity is quite aside from the point. The question is as to the reliability - or if I may repeat myself rather differently - as to the possibility of error.

The weight of the Prosecution depends upon the premise that the Court is entitled to infer, and the basis upon which this inference is to be made is testimony by a witness whose reliability in terms of accuracy is open to question. The Prosecution mentioned that an officer in charge of large numbers of drafts would be unable to remember faces of specific people. In regard to that, it is quite normal, and the Prosecution felt that it is quite permissible to rely upon, in the first place, memory, and in the second place, his own signature upon the document which he had witnessed.

Mr. Auld's memory is not unimpeachable. That, I think, is quite clear from the testimony. In the first and in the, of course, most serious instance, the entire weight of direction, purpose, and effect of the testimony given upon the foundation of memory in Court this morning was contradicted, contradicted to a fundamental purpose and effect, by the testimony given in the afternoon. But even in the afternoon, his memory cannot escape the charge of, at least, inaccuracy because he said when he was doing his obvious best to summon the exact circumstances, he declared that only one question was asked him by the ~~mm~~ the group of men, of which he did not remember whether it consisted of two or three soldiers. He remembered quite clearly that the question was asked by a man who had returned from absence without leave. He could not, however, remember the name of the man nor the effect of the question. Sgt. Keily, however, who testified that he was present at this same collection of the signatures and I beg to remind the Court that this is a case where it was not one hundred or thereabouts soldiers warned for draft but two or, perhaps, three. Sgt. Keily testified that he was present and said in reply to a question from the Prosecutor that no questions had been asked, and when the Defence insisted that he be certain whether or not he was positive that no questions had been asked, he replied that he was positive that no questions had been asked. I merely indicate that a memory which in vital circumstances was not infallible this morning has demonstrated that it is not equally infallible this afternoon. And on the basis of that fallible memory I do not believe an inference of guilt can be placed.

Now in connection with a signature which should help a memory, that is to say that the witness was able to refresh his memory by glancing at his own signature, I do not for one moment attempt now what I declared unwilling to attempt a few minutes ago, that is, to impeach the integrity of Mr. Auld either as a witness nor as an Administrative Officer, but it is very clear that in each case, each of the two cases of the collection of the Rifleman Herman's signature for a draft, or the alleged collection for a draft order, Mr. Auld's signature as witness was incorrectly appended. That is a matter, of course, of mere administrative book-keeping, but administrative book-keeping or administrative routine of that nature over a large scale and over a long time can give a picture of inaccuracy. The document which is before this Court is signed and witnessed as being produced on the 3rd of May whereas it was actually on the 4th of May. A similar document is alleged to have been extracted on the 16th of May. The signature for that was accepted by the witness and he was prepared to witness it. That does not mean a dereliction from integrity. It means simply that the conveniences and routine of administrative book-keeping are paramount in the mind of Mr. Auld. Now the conveniences and routine of administrative book-keeping may, as I have said, lead to a misleading picture, a picture from which it is beyond the competence of the Court to infer guilt. May I repeat very briefly that the Court is in possession of evidence that there was an absence without leave on the part of Rfn. Herman, that this absence extended over a period in which there was a special duty, that the evidence may be competent that he was intended as a part of this special duty, but that there is no evidence which is competent that Rfn. Herman accepted, signed, and returned a declaration that he was a part of that special duty, that the destruction of the alleged copy of Exhibit "K" was made by Mr. Auld in an attempt to keep book-keeping straight and was not witnessed by Cpl. Wilson except in as far as the signature itself was concerned, that the text of the document which Mr. Auld described cannot be established from the testimony of Cpl. Wilson who testified that he did not read the document.

If guilt of desertion is to be inferred in this case, it must be inferred - I regret to labour this point but it seems to be to me the important one - it must be inferred upon the basis of a memory which has several times proven itself not to be infallible and which has involved itself in contradictory evidence, and on the basis of such hesitancy, testimony which might be imagined to be of no special worth. I, therefore, submit that guilt in the charge of desertion has no case.

FINAL ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER :-

Mr. President and Members of the Court: That the accused was absent from the 5th to the 17th of May is clear. What interpretation of that absence has been given by the Court I do not know. At any rate, that he was guilty of a military crime is, as I say, clear.

To say that a man is guilty of a crime is shorthand for saying that he has been derelict in his duty to the community. But to assess the gravity of dereliction of duty to the community, it is necessary to ascertain the opportunities that that man has had to realize or become aware of the obligation to the community.

I should like to review by giving a brief personal history of the accused, the circumstances in which such a realization of obligation to the community could have been made.

He was born 27 years ago in Quebec City of a father and a mother who died three years later. His mother was the second wife of his father, and so close and satisfactory were the home ties and home environment that he does not know whether his father had five or seven children by his first wife. As for the other two children by the accused's mother, he has never seen them since virtually from infancy. He was three, as I say, when he was orphaned, and a batchelor uncle of his adopted him. The uncle was a farmer in the neighbourhood who lived with his sister. When the accused became of sufficient age to attend school, his aunt suggested several times to his uncle that he be sent to school. His uncle refused on the grounds that the accused was required to help work on the farm. His education was no concern to his uncle. His uncle was obliged to feed him and had the right to extract from him an equivalent amount of work. He remained on the farm without one day or hour of instruction or education until his uncle died when he was fourteen. Shortly thereafter he got into trouble with the civilian authorities. He was caught after he had left a house which he had entered to steal a pair of boots and a blanket. In the confused and rudimentary logic of the accused, the reason for entering and stealing these articles was a very simple one: he needed it.

This first encounter with law was actually the only lucky break that he ever got because he was consigned by a juvenile court to a reform institution, a sort of education farm for delinquent children, where he remained for three years, at the end of which time he was discharged. The maximum term was three years which he got. At the end of three years, he tried very hard to persuade the authorities of the institution to allow him to remain. The only occasion on which he had ever had the slightest chance of learning anything. He tells me that he learned the rudiments of reading and writing which he hasn't mastered. It is a curious sort of commentary on his life before that and since, that nothing appears to have affected his life as this reform institution which most of us regard as a grim business to which we must confine children when they have committed crimes. But to him it was a benediction; but a single or sole benediction; there has been no other.

When he emerged, a series of non-rooted, dislocated, half-jobs follow one another in very irregular succession - the kind of thing one could imagine for the accused when one hears his personal history.

He was doing half-time steel work when he enlisted in the Army in January, 1941, voluntarily. Some dim, some not strong, not clear, nevertheless present, appreciation of the national cricis induced him to enlist. After he enlisted in the Army, he received no instructions as to the meaning of that obligation to the Army. Those of us who do training in Army training centres are very well aware that a 45-minute period, called T.A.B.C. is allotted for the instruction of recruits to the nature of the war, the function of the Army, and the place of the soldier in the Army. We are also aware that in a quarter of a year's training which is considerably more than the service of a recruit in any advanced training centre, this period may be given once, in which it is not likely that he will learn very much. However, these rudimentary obligations which he felt, which prompted him to enlist in the Army were not reinforced and died.

Now, I submit that it is not ~~strained~~ STRANGE that a man of quite literally, not figuratively this time, no education, quite literally no position in the community, quite literally anti-social in his home life, displays certainly dereliction of duty in performing a military crime, but does not display anything more in the way of viciousness than, perhaps, anti-socialism. In spite of the fact that the accused was found guilty at a court-martial in 1942 of leaving with intent to avoid a draft, he declares himself to be very anxious - not merely ready, but very anxious - to get into service overseas. I, therefore, ask that the Court in awarding punishment to the accused, take into consideration: first, that no vicious criminal traits have been adduced in his conduct; secondly, that he can be of a great deal more use and make himself much more happy overseas than in a penal institution.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of B64973 Rifleman Wilfred Herman, Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, C.A. Attached to A-10 Canadian Infantry Training Centre, C.A., charged with desertion.

The accused's rights in respect to a Summary of Evidence are explained to him.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: B131847 Cpl. N. Gillies, General List, att. A-10 C.I.T.C., C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am a corporal in No. 2 Coy. A-10 C.I.T.C., C.A., Camp Borden, Ont., to which Coy the accused is attached. At A-10 C.I.T.C., C.A., at 0600 hrs, 5 MAY 43, as barrack room corporal for No. 2 Coy, I called the reveille roll call and the accused failed answer his name. Immediately after calling the roll I made a thorough search of the barrack rooms, ablution hut and Coy. lines of No. 2 Coy., but the accused could not be found. I then reported him to No. 2 Coy. office as being absent without leave from 0600 hrs, 5 MAY 43. To the best of my knowledge the accused remained so absent without leave until his apprehension at Toronto, Ont. at 2130 hrs, 17 MAY 43."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

.....Cpl.
B131847 (N. Gillies) A-10 C.I.T.C., C.A.

SECOND WITNESS: C117004 Sgt. F.J. Keilty, H.& P.E.R., att. A-10 C.I.T.C., C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am the Administrative Sergeant of No. 2 Coy. A-10 C.I.T.C., C.A., to which Coy. the accused is attached. At about 0730 hrs, on 5 MAY 43, the accused having been reported to me as being absent without leave from 0600 hrs, 5 MAY 43, I made a thorough search of the barrack rooms, ablution hut, and Coy. lines of No. 2 Coy. but the accused could not be found. To the best of my information, knowledge, and belief the accused remained so absent until he was apprehended at Toronto, Ont. at 2130 hrs, 5 MAY 43, dressed in military uniform. I identify the accused to be the person referred to in the following documents now shown to me:-

(a) M.F.M. 216 dated 18 MAY 43,

(b) M.F.B. 1481 dated 19 MAY 43."

The above mentioned documents are read over to the accused and marked Exhibits "A" and "B" respectively.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

F.J. Keilty
.....Sgt.

THIRD WITNESS: Lieut. J.A.C. Auld, Q.O.R. of C., att. A-10 C.I.T.C., C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am the Administrative Officer of No. 2 Coy, A-10 C.I.T.C., C.A to which Coy. the accused is attached. At A-10 C.I.T.C., C.A., at abou 1530 hrs., 3 MAY 43, the accused in my presence signed the warning fo draft was produced by me after the same had been read by me to the accused, who stated that he thoroughly understood the meaning thereof. The draft for which the accused was warned proceeded overseas from Camp Borden, Ont., at about 2030 hrs, on 11 MAY 43. The accused was absent without leave at the time the draft left.".

The said warning for draft is marked Exhibit "C", and is read over to the accused.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

J.A.C. Auld .....Lieut.
(J.A.C. Auld) A-10 C.I.T.C., C.A.

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

ANSWER BY THE ACCUSED "No Sir".

W. Herman .....Rfn.

1. Receipt is acknowledged of your T.20-H-4951 dated 1st September, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded for registration and custody the proceedings of the marginally noted District Court-Martial.

2. The following irregularity has been noted in the proceedings:

(a) On the Convening Order, one of the members of the Court is described as "Captain T.A. Philips, etc." and on Page "A" of the proceedings it would seem that the same officer is described as "Captain T. Philips."

3. In other respects it appears that the Finding is supported by the evidence and the Sentence legal. The proceedings are therefore retained for custody.

---The Prosecutor declines to make an opening address.

~~The prosecutor makes an opening address thereof in a written address, which is read, marked xxxxxxx signed by the President, and attached xx to the proceedings.xx~~

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. No. A-4283, Sgt. J. E. KROPF, A-10, I. (A). T. C., C. A.,

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q-5 What is your present employment?

A-5 Sergeant Instructor at the present time.

Q-6 Do you recognize the accused?

A-6 Yes, sir.

Q-7 The accused is charged with desertion. What is your evidence in that connection?

A-7 I was Corporal in charge of the Barrack room, and I called the roll shortly after Reveille, on the 12th of July, 1942, and the accused did not answer his name. I reported him to the Orderly Sergeant as being absent without leave, after making a thorough search of the Barrack room.

Q-8 You reported it to the Orderly Sergeant?

A-8 Yes, sir.

Q-9 Did you make a search of the Company area for the accused?

A-9 Yes, sir; I made a thorough search.

Q-10 You are satisfied he could not be found at that time?

A-10 Yes, sir.

Q-11 Your evidence is he was absent without leave from the 12th of July?

A-11 Yes, sir.

Q-12 Did he return at any time subsequent to that?

A-12 Not to my knowledge. I never saw him from the time I called the roll until he was apprehended.

Q-13 You would have known it, if he had been back?

A-13 Yes, sir.

---The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

---In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with R. P. 83 (b).

---The witness withdraws.

2nd witness for:
The Prosecution. No. B-79427, Cpl. Whyte, W., A-10, I. (A). T. C., C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q-14 What is your present employment?

A-14 I am Administrative Corporal of No. 2 Company, A-10.

Q-15 How long have you been employed as such?

A-15 Approximately three months.

Q-16 Do you recognize the accused?

A-16 Yes, sir.

Q-17 He was a member of No. 2 Company?

A-17 Yes, sir.

Q-18 And his name?

A-18 Rifleman Herman.

Q-19 What is your evidence with regard to his alleged absence?

A-19 On the morning of July 12th, at 0730 hours, then Cpl. Kropf, who is now Sergeant, came to me and reported the accused did not answer his name at Reveille roll call. I made a thorough search of the lines, and did not find the accused anywhere, and I placed his name on the Absentee Report as of 0200 hours, as the accused had been on a daily pass the previous day, and at roll call he had been absent from 0200 hours.

Q-20 You are quite satisfied the accused could not be found at that time?

A-20 Yes, sir.

Q-21 Can you identify the person named in this document (indicating)?

A-21 The accused here, sir, (indicating).

THE PROSECUTOR: This is form 216, which I would like to file with the court.

(Form 216, marked exhibit "H" attached.)

Q-22 Now, the certificate of apprehension indicates that the accused was apprehended at Toronto. To the best of your knowledge, was the accused present at any time during that period?

A-22 No, sir, he was not.

Q-23 Would you have known it, in the course of your duties if he had returned?

A-23 Yes, sir.

Q-24 And further, did he at any time communicate with the Company in any way, send a message in, ---

A-24 There was never any message received in No. 2 Company, office at any time.

Q-25 Until the time of his apprehension?

A-25 Until the time of his apprehension.

---The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

---In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with R. P. 83 (b).

---The witness withdraws.

3rd witness for: The Prosecution. Captain O. H. MACE, A-10, I. (A). T. C., C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q-26 What is your employment?

A-26 At present 2 i/c No. 2 Company.

Q-27 Do you recognize the accused?

A-27 Yes, sir.

Q-28 Can you identify this document (indicating), and the person named in it?

A-28 Yes, he signed this document before me.

(Draft warning, marked exhibit "I" attached.)

Q-29 You identify the signature as that of the accused?

A-29 Yes, sir.

Q-30 At the time this warning was signed, were you satisfied that the accused understood fully the significance of it, and the provisions in it?

A-30 Yes, the draft warning was read to him by myself - amongst other people - and they were given permission to ask questions about it, and if they fully understood it, they said they did.

Q-31 How many people were being warned at the same time?

A-31 I cannot say exactly. Approximately 30 at the time he was warned.

Q-32 There was not such a large crowd, that he could not hear?

A-32 No, sir. Everybody was given full permission to raise their hands if they did not understand, and fully realize what it was.

Q-33 Did the draft in question subsequently leave Camp Borden?

A-33 Yes, sir.

Q-34 At what time and date?

A-34 At 1415 hours on the 18th of July.

Q-35 And proceeded over-seas?

A-35 Yes, sir.

---The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

---In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with R. P. 83 (b).

---The witness withdraws.

---The Prosecutor has no further witnesses.

1st witness for:
The Defence.

The Accused, No. B-64973, Rfmn. Wilfred Herman, Queens Own Rifles of Canada, att'd A-10 I. (A). T. C., C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q-38 How old are you?

A-38 36, sir.

Q-39 Are you married or single?

A-39 Single.

Q-40 Where is your home?

A-40 Quebec City.

Q-41 When did you join the Army?

A-41 I joined the Army on the 20th of January, 1942.

Q-42 Why did you join the Army?

A-42 Because I thought it was my duty, and all my friends were there, and I figured I would like to get over-seas.

Q-43 Were you in the Militia?

A-43 Yes, sir.

Q-44 When did you join the Militia?

A-44 It was around the 29th of August, 1939.

Q-45 What Unit did you join?

A-45 The Queens Own Rifles.

Q-46 Whereabouts?

A-46 The University Armouries.

Q-47 Were you drilling at night in the militia

A-47 Yes, sir, three nights a week.

Q-48 Before joining the Army, what was your occupation in civil life?

A-48 I worked in aluminum and steel.

Q-49 Why were you taken off this steel job?

A-49 The boss I was working for figured I was kind of nervous, and maybe I might get into some accident, or something like that, so he thought I probably had better go and get another job somewhere.

Q-50 You were relieved of that job on account of your nervousness, the fear of accident, and possibly causing some damage?

A-50 Yes.

Q-51 After you were taken off the job, what happened then?

A-51 I went to get another job, and I worked at that job up until I joined the Army.

Q-52 Then you joined the Active service, did you not?

A-52 Yes, sir.

Q-53 How did you feel about joining the active service in the Army?

A-53 I was nervous of getting past the re-Board. I did not know whether I would get in or not, but I was trying my best. I was surprised after I passed the Board that I got in.

Q-54 You thought it would be best, when your nervousness was not getting any better, to apply to get by the Board in the Army than leave it to a later date?

A-54 Yes.

THE JUDGE ADVOCATE: I have given you a great deal of leeway, as regards leading questions. In matters of this nature it is not so important, but try and not put evidence into the mouth of the witness.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q-55 After joining the Army, where were you stationed?

A-55 For one week in the Exhibition Grounds, and then I was up in Guelph, at the Basic Training Centre.

Q-56 After doing your basic training, you went where?

A-56 Up to Borden here.

Q-57 Which Company in Borden were you posted to?

A-57 To No. 5 Company.

Q-58 How long were you in No. 5 Company?

A-58 I was there about three or four months.

Q-59 And then went where?

A-59 To No. 2 Company.

Q-60 On June 24th , last year, you signed a draft warning?

A-60 Yes, sir.

Q-61 Did you know the importance of the warning youhad signed?

A-61 Yes; I knew it was important. I knew it was for special duty over-seas.

Q-62 After signing this warning, what happened then?

A-62 There was not very much to do. We were cleaning up some of the things we had around the hut, getting ready to leave.

Q-63 Immediately after you signed this draft warning?

A-63 We got a pass for embar ation. leave, for four days.

Q-64 After this four days had expired, did you come back from that leave?

A-64 Yes, sir.

Q-65 You were back on time?

A-65 Yes, sir.

Q-66 Then you had quite a lapse of time; you came back from the four days on time - what happened?

A-66 They woke us up at five o'clock the same morning, and told us were were going out on Army week demonstration.

Q-67 Where did you go on this Army week?

A-67 To Penetang, and Colling wood and Midland, sir.

Q-68 On that Army week demonstration were you given any passes?

A-68 No, sir. The Commanding Officer told us we did not need any passes; to come back between 12 and one o'clock - that we were on our own.

Q-69 Were you ever absent on that four-day scheme?

A-69 No, sir.

Q-70 You were back every night?

A-70 Yes, sir.

Q-71 Did you return back to Camp Borden after the four-days' scheme, with the company you left with?

A-71 Yes, sir.

Q-72 And what did you do when you got back to Camp?

A-72 There was not very much to do; we were just working around the huts, and getting things ready for the draft.

Q-73 When did you leave Camp Borden, to go A. W. L?

A-73 I got a pass in the afternoon - I think it was on a Saturday - for Barrie. It was good until two o'clock in the morning.

Q-74 What kit did you take with you when you left?

A-74 I had no kit at all.

Q-75 What were you wearing?

A-75 I had my battle dress on, sir.

Q-76 Did you know when this draft for which you had signed the draft warning, left?

A-76 I did not have any idea.

Q-77 Why did you decide to go A. W. L?

A-77 Because I was not getting very much sleep and my nerves were all on the rocks, and I thought I would go A. W. L. so when I came back I would get re-boarded.

Q-78 Was it ever your intentuon to evade this draft?

A-78 No, sir.

Q-79 On July 12th, where did you go?

A-79 I was in Toronto for a little while, about one day, and from there I went to Montreal.

Q-80 What clothes were you wearing in Toronto?

A-80 I had my battle dress on all the time.

Q-81 Where did you go from Toronto?

A-81 I left there and went to Montreal. I was down there fourteen days or so.

Q-82 Why did you not go on to your home in Quebec City?

A-82 When I got to Montreal I started to think things over, and I did not want to get down there and get them to know what was happening, and make trouble for them, so I turned around and came back.

Q-83 After you had been in Montreal for a little over two weeks, what did you do?

A-83 I decided I had better change my mind and come back to Borden here, sir.

Q-84 You were apprehended in Toronto?

A-84 Yes, sir.

Q-85 How long were you there?

A-85 I was there only a few days.

Q-86 What clothes were you wearing?

A-86 I still had my battle dress on.

Q-87 When you were apprehended by the Military Police, where were you?

A-87 I was at 41 Ontario street, and I was sleeping in bed, sir.

Q-88 Did the Military Police come into your bed room?

A-88 Yes. I was sleeping when they came in, and they woke me up.

Q-89 What did they tell you to do?

A-89 They told me to hurry up and get my clothes on, and I was kind of excited, and did not know what was coming off.

Q-90 What clothes, in your excitement, did you put on?

A-90 I put on a pair of civilian pants I had on a chair in that room. I was going to press my uniform, and through my excitement I got mixed up and put these pants on.

Q-91 This bed you were sleeping in; had you slept there before?

A-91 Yes, that is where I used to stay when I was working - the same bed room.

Q-92 Were you living at that house when you joined the active service?

A-92 Yes, sir.

Q-93 Did you realize that you had put on civilian clothes?

A-93 I never realized I had these clothes on until I got downstairs by the door.

Q-94 Why did you not wear your uniform? Why did you not go back and get your uniform?

A-94 The reason why I could not get it on was they were in such a rush to get me out of there, that they just would not give me time to get it, and when I was in the car, they told me they would look after that, up here.

Q-95 Did you have your identification disc on at the time?

A-95 Yes, I put this disc on when I was warned for draft, and I have worn it ever since.

Q-96 Due to the nervousness and the mental strain you have been under, did you ever apply for a reboard?

A-96 Never, sir.

Q-97 Had it ever entered your mind to apply for it?

A-97 It did. I did not know just how to go about it; maybe they would not believe me, and would think I was trying to make up some kind of a story, or something.

Q-98 Coming back to Montreal; when you were in Montreal were you offered a job?

A-98 Yes, sir.

Q-99 Why did you not take the job?

A-99 The reason why I did not take the job, was because I had no intention of staying away. I had my mind made up to come back and get things straightened up.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q-100 On the 24th of June, you signed the warning for draft, what date was on that warning?

A-100 I never remembered the date.

Q-101 There was a date on it?

A-101 Yes, sir.

Q-102 And you have already given evidence to the effect that you understood - and Captain Mace, in his previous evidence, testified that you understood completely, what was in that warning for draft? You still don't know what date it was? Did you know at that time?

A-102 I understood it was the 12th of July.

Q-103 That the draft might move on the 12th, or any date thereafter?

A-103 Any time after.

Q-104 And you went absent on the 12th of July?

A-104 Yes, sir.

Q-105 Now, you give as your reason for going absent, the fact that your nerves were in bad condition, and you would get re-boarded. What made you think you would get re-boarded? What circumstance on your return, led you to believe that there might be an investigation? Is it customary when a man returns from absence without leave, if that was what you intended to re-board him?

A-105 I knew very well I was not fit to go over-seas.

Q-106 Had you any idea that you might miss the draft by leaving on the 12th, other than the fact that the date on the warning was the 12th? Did it occur to you that you might miss it?

A-106 I was not warned. I was not sure exactly when the draft was leaving.

Q-107 You said you were sure Now, nobody knows the exact date of a draft, but you knew that any time on or after the 12th of July, it might move?

A-107 Yes, sir.

Q-108 But, notwithstanding that, you were in Toronto for a day, even though the draft might have moved? And then you went to Montrea

A-108 My intention was to go down and see some of my people.

Q-109 The thought never occurred to you that during the period you were away, you might miss the draft?

A-109 I was not quite sure of the dates, exactly, when it was leaving, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q-110 When Court adjourned this morning you had just been asked a question, "Did the thought never occur to you that you might miss the draft". I want you to think carefully. You should be able to give either a "Yes" or "No" answer to that question. Anything further to a "Yes" or "No" answer, in order to explain your answer, may be given, but I think there should be a definite answer "Yes" or "No". Did the thought occur to you that you might miss that particular draft?

A-110 Yes, sir.

Q-111 It did occur to you?

A-111 Yes, sir.

Q-112 What did you plan to do about it? You thought you might miss the draft; what did you do about it?

A-112 I thought I was not exactly fit to go over-seas. I thought I might be able to get a re-board.

Q-113 In order to get that re-board, did you plan to miss the draft?

A-113 Yes, sir.

Q-114 You understood the draft was to leave on or after July 12th?

A-114 Yes, sir.

Q-115 And you were warned for that draft?

A-115 Yes, sir.

Q-116 Did you understand that by going absent, after having been warned, you would be treated as a deserter?

A-116 Yes, sir.

H. Robinson Major Pres.

THE PROSECUTOR: I have very little to say. The circumstances surrounding this charge are very clear. The absence has been established as having commenced at 0200 hours, on the 12th of July, and having ceased, on apprehension, at 0300 hours on the 4th of August. Further, the President of the Court in the questions just asked, has established the question of intention, which it might have been necessary for me to go into at some length to bring out. I was having difficulty with the accused in my questioning, and was not prepared to press the point.

I would like to point out two things brought forward by the Defence. First, the argument about the civilian clothes, which has absolutely no bearing on this case, as far as I am concerned. The charge reads "Having been warned to proceed for special duty, with intent to avoid the draft, absented himself without leave".

The fact that he was in civilian clothes during that absence has very little to do with it, except that it might have established, had it been necessary, that he was trying to avoid apprehension.

The mere statement of the accused that he intended to return to the Unit has no bearing on the case. He knew the draft was warned for the 12th of ~~xxxxxxxx~~ July, and I submit his intention was to evade that draft. His subsequent intentions have no bearing on the case at all, but his intention, upon his own admission, was to miss the draft, and that is the charge upon which he is being tried today.

Other than that I have nothing to say. I merely wanted to point these things out.

- - - - - - - - -

A. E. Gilmour Major.
Pres.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Mr. President and members of the Court: After hearing the evidence of the accused, as to just what happened, I submit to you that it never was his intention to desert the Army. He had, the draft in mind, as he admitted himself, but his intention, to my mind, was to return to his Unit, and he was on his way back at the time of his apprehension in Toronto, where he stayed over night at his former boarding house. Had he not been apprehended, he would have been back in Camp the next morning.

This chap is of a very nervous type, and his nervous and mental strain was too much. He knew he signed this document, and it preyed on his mind, and he thought with a reboard he would get his nerves settled up, and he wanted that before he proceeded over-seas. That was on his mind. While he was in Montreal he claimed he was offered a job, which he refused. That is another reason why I submit to you his intention was to return. He tell he has worked at several different jobs in civilian life, and has been let out of these jobs on account of his nerves. He must have been glad to havebeen in the Army, or else a couple of years ago he would not have taken such an interest in it as to go down to the Armouries and train at night, in the Militia, and then eventually join the Active Service, of his own free will. He has gone through his elementary training, his basic training, and I saw his crime sheet, and it only had a couple of minor offences on it. I suggest to you this purely another case to be treated as A. W. L., and this man should receive medical attention which he never got around to getting, after whatever sentence the court may award has been served.

I believe that is all I have to say, sirs.

- - - - - - - -

H. P. Gilmour Major. 2-I-53
Pres.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Gentlemen, I would like to bring out that the accused is, as you have seen, in a very nervous state in front of the court, and is not too overly bright. I believe he wants to go over-seas, and he figured on going. Had he gone with his own Unit, he might have been a burden to them after getting over. I ask you to be lenient in the way of punishment, as it would be better to fix him up, and there is no sense in filling up the Detention Barracks, when men are needed over seas to bring this war to a successful conclusion.

I ask the Court for leniency.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of B64973 Rifleman Wilfred Herman, Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, C.A. Attached to A-10 Infantry (Advanced) Training Centre, C.A., charged with desertion.

The accused's rights in respect to a Summary of Evidence are explained to him.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: A4283 Sgt. J.E. Kropf, R.C.R., att. A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am a sergeant attached to No. 2 Coy. A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., Camp Borden, Ont. On 12 JUL 42, I was a corporal attached to No. 2 Coy. to which Coy. the accused is attached. At 0700 hrs, 12 JUL 42, as barrack room corporal for No. 2 Coy., I called reveille roll call and the accused failed to answer his name. Immediately after calling the roll I made a thorough search of the barrack rooms, ablution hut and Coy. lines of No. 2 Coy., but the accused could not be found. I then reported him to No. 2 Coy. office as being absent without leave from 0700 hrs, 12 JUL 42. To the best of my knowledge the accused remained absent without leave until his apprehension at 0300 hrs, 4 AUG 42."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

J. Kropf .....Sgt.
A4283 (J.E. Kropf) A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A.

SECOND WITNESS: B79427 Cpl. W. Whyte, Irish Reg't., att. A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am the administrative corporal for No. 2 Coy. A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., Camp Borden, Ont., to which Coy. the accused is attached. Sergeant (then corporal) Kropf reported to me on the morning of 12 JUL 42, at about 0730 hrs, that Rfm. Herman did not answer his name at reveille roll call. I then made a thorough search of the barrack rooms, ablution hut and Coy. lines of No. 2 Coy., but the accused could not be found. As he had been on daily pass, I entered his name on the absentee report, as being absent without leave from 0200 hrs, 12 JUL 42, at which time his daily pass expired. To the best of my knowledge the accused remained so absent until he was apprehended at Toronto, Ont., at 0300 hrs, 4 AUG 42. I identify the accused to be the person referred to in the document now shown to me:-

(a) M.F.M. 216 dated 4 AUG 42."

The above mentioned document is read over to the accused and marked Exhibit "A".

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Wm Whyte .....Cpl.
B79427 (W. Whyte) A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A.

THIRD WITNESS: Capt. O.H. Mace, Calgary Highlanders, att. A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am the Officer Commanding No. 2 Coy. A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., Camp Borden, Ont., to which Coy. the accused is attached. At A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., on 24 JUN 42, in No. 2 Coy. office the accused in my presence signed the warning for draft now produced by me after the same had been read by me to the accused, who stated that he thoroughly understood the meaning thereof. The draft for which the accused was warned proceeded overseas from Camp Borden, Ont., at about 1415 hrs, [illegible]JUL 42. The accused was absent without leave at the time the draft left."

The said warning for draft is read over to the accused and marked Exhibit "B".

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

.....Capt.
(O.H. Mace) ~~A-10 I.(A)~~ T.C., C.A.

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

ANSWER BY THE ACCUSED: (Having been duly sworn) "I admit that I went absent without leave from A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., Camp Borden, Ont., from 0200 hrs, 12 JUL 42, until I was apprehended at Toronto, Ont., at 0300 hrs, 4 AUG 42. I would like to make the following statement in respect to my actions. I am subject to nervousness and to a nervous condition which I can't explain, but which frequently gets me all mixed up on occasions when I am surprised, or under any tension, and for a long period I have been afraid that this would effect my ability to soldier. I really wanted to be re-boarded for this condition, but I did not ask for it because I believed that the condition would reveal itself, and I would eventually be automatically re-boarded. I had this in mind when I went absent without leave. I did not intend to desert in the true sense of the word, but I wanted a re-board, and as I hadn't received it, I wanted to have a chance again to get re-boarded and figured by going away and missing the draft I would have that chance. I always intended to come back to A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., and had refused work in Montreal and had returned to Toronto with that in mind. With regard to being in civilian clothes I have this to say: I had not stopped wearing my uniform. When I was apprehended, I was in bed and my uniform was hanging on the wall. When I arrived at Camp Borden, I was in civilian clothes, but that was because I was so excited on being apprehended and nervous that I put on the first thing I saw, which was my civilian clothes. They were handy because I had worn them on occasions in the house. I definitely state that, however, knowing that I am under oath, that I never wore anything but my uniform outside of the house. I have nothing further to say at this time."

.....Rfn.
B64973 (W. Herman) A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A.

The accused declines to call any witnesses in his own behalf.

Rules of Procedure 4 (c) (d) (e) and (f) have been complied with.

Taken down be me in the presence of the accused at Camp Borden, Ontario, this fifth day of August, 1942.

Receipt is acknowledged of your T-20-H-4942 (AJAG) dated 15th September, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded, for registration and custody, Proceedings of the marginally-noted District Court-Martial.

2. The following irregularities have been observed:

(a) The letters and words "C.A. and Attached" should have been inserted between the name of the Regiment and the attachment of the Judge Advocate on page A of the Proceedings.

(b) The permanent grade of the shorthand writer should have been set out before the Acting Rank, which latter should have been in brackets.

(c) In M.F.B. 375, the attachment of the accused was not shown in the fifth line and the Regiment was not shown in the 8th line.

(d) It is thought that the cost of meals in M.F.B. 1482 should have been more particularized.

3. It is not considered necessary to return the Proceedings which are accordingly retained for custody. May the above noted irregularities be brought to the attention of all officers concerned for their future guidance.

A-4 Answer. No, sir.

~~The prosecutor makes an opening address (handing a written address, which is duly marked xxxxxx, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings).~~

---The Prosecutor declines to make an opening address.

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. No.B-79427, Corporal W. WHYTE, Irish Regiment, attached A-10 I. (A) T.C., C.A.,

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q-5 Cpl. Whyte, what is your present employment?

A-5 I am administrative corporal of No. 2 Coy. A-10.

Q-6 Do you recognize the accused?

A-6 Yes, I do, as Pte. Hubbard. He is attached to No. 2 Coy.

Q-7 I have here a series of documents which I want you to, in turn, identify. I want you to identify the person named in them. This is M.F.B. 375?

A-7 It refers to Pte. Hubbard, the accused, sir.

(M.F.B.375, read to the Court, marked Exhibit "I" signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.)

Q-8 Again, Cpl. Whyte, will you identify the person named in this document (indicating)?

A-8 Pte. Hubbard, the accused, sir.

BY THE PROSECUTOR: This is M.F.B.216, Certificate of Apprehension

(M.F.B.216, Certificate of Apprehension, read to the Court, marked Exhibit "J", signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.)

Q-9 Will you identify, in turn, each of these: M.F.B. 1481 dated 28th of July, 1942?

A-9 It refers to the accused, sir.

(M.F.B.1481 dated 28 JUL 42 read to the Court, marked Exhibit "K", signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.)

Q-10 M.F.B.1481 dated 7th day of August, 1942?

A-10 It refers to the accused, sir.

(M.F.B.1481 dated 7 AUG 42 read to the Court, marked Exhibit "L" signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.)

Q-11 M.F.B.1482 dated 7th of August, 1942?

A-11 It refers to the accused, sir.

(M.F.B.1482 dated 7 AUG 42 read to the Court, marked Exhibit "M", signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.)

Q-12 We have established the fact that the accused went absent on the 10th day of June and that he was apprehended on the 27th of July. Was the accused continually absent during that period?

A-12 He was.

Q-13 You would have known if he had returned at any time?

A-13 Yes, sir. The lines were carefully searched every day. The accused was not anound at any time.

---The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

---In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b).

---The witness withdraws.

2nd witness for: The Prosecution. Captain O. H. MACE, Calgary Highlanders, att'd. to A-10 Infantry (Advanced) Training Centre, C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor :-

Q-14 What is your employment at A-10 I.(A) T.C?

A-14 At the present time as 2 i/c of No. 2 Coy?

Q-15 Do you identify the accused?

A-15 Yes (indicating the accused), Pte. Hubbard.

Q-16 He was a member of your company?

A-16 Yes, he was.

Q-17 We have here a document. Will you identify the person named in it and also identify the document?

A-17 This is a draft warning signed by Pte. Hubbard in my presence.

Q-18 Will you read the warning to the Court and identify both the signature of the accused and of the witness, please?

A-18 "To O.C. No. 2 Coy, from A-58394, Pte. Hubbard, S.B. (Kent Regt) June 2nd, 1942. Warning for draft. One: This certifies that I have been duly warned for draft to proceed overseas on short notice after June 11th, 1942. Two: I understand that should I be absent without leave when the draft moves, I may be proceeded against as a deserter." It is signed by "S.B. Hubbard". The witnesses are myself and Lieut. W.S. McBean.

(Warning for Draft marked Exhibit "N", signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.)

Q-19 Did the draft for which the accused was warned leave Camp Borden subsequent to the 11th of June?

A-19 Yes, sir. It left on the 12th of June, 1942.

Q-20 Was the accused present?

A-20 No, sir.

---The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

QUESTIONED BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q-21 Is there any doubt in your mind that the accused understood the nature of the draft warning?

A-21 No, sir.

Q-22 What makes you say that?

A-22 Because when that draft warning was read out, anybody that did not understand it was given an opportunity to raise their hands, and no one raised their hands, in the group.

Q-23 The accused was in the group?

A-23 Yes, sir.

Q-24 Did you actually see him sign Exhibit "N"?

A-24 Yes, sir.

Q-25 And that is your signature?

A-25 Yes, sir.

---In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b).

---The witness withdraws.

- - - - -

---The Prosecution has no further witnesses.

---The Prosecution is closed.

Q-48 They told me to see a specialist and I went to Dr. Dwyte Hendricks and had my nose X-rayed. I intended to have an operation on it and they told me it might succeed and come back in a few month's time and they would reconsider it. I was called into No. 12 Basic Training centre before I had it fixed.

Q-49 In what capacity, did you apply for enlistment in the Air Force - as what?

A-49 Wireless gunner.

Q-50 You reported after receiving your call to No. 12 (B) T.C. at Chatham?

A-50 Yes, sir.

Q-51 What was your occupation at the time you reported to Basic Training Centre, Chatham?

A-51 I was welding at Canada Top and Body Corp'n.

Q-52 You were a welder by trade?

A-52 Yes, sir.

Q-53 What education have you had?

A-53 3 years high school.

Q-54 Your father who will be called as a witness is the reeve of the town of Tilbury, I believe?

A-54 Yes, sir.

Q-55 You were living in Tilbury before your marriage?

A-55 Yes, sir.

Q-56 He is also, I believe, President of the Tilbury branch of the Canadian Legion?

A-56 Yes, sir.

Q-57 You reported to Basic Training Centre at Chatham. How long were you there?

A-57 I served 5 weeks there.

Q-58 What happened while you were at the Basic Training Centre at Chatham with respect to your going active?

A-58 Wel , I didn't want to remain a trainee, and naturally I picked the Kent Regiment. I had served with them and I knew a lot of the officers and men of the Kent Regiment and I wished to turn Active with them and at the same time and Trade School officer came around to get recruits for the Army Trade School. At the same time that I was considering, this Trade School officer interviewed us with regard to taking an Army trade. That could only be done through turning Active, so I was sworn into the Kent Regiment with the understanding that I should obtain a trade course.

Q-59 Did you want to go Active with any other unit except the Kent Regiment?

A-59 No, sir.

Q-60 The Kent Regt. was recruited from the Chatham, Tilbury, and Wheatley district, was it not?

A-60 Yes, sir.

Q-61 As you said, you knew many of the officers and men in the unit because of your association with them while a reserve of the unit?

A-61 That is right, sir.

Q-62 Where was the Active Kent Regiment at the time you went Active?

A-62 I believe in Debert, N.S.

Q-63 At the time you went Active, was it definitely understood by you as to the unit that you were becoming attached to?

A-63 I was given to understand that a soldier signing of his own free will to a regiment had his right to go to it.

Q-64 What did you understand you regiment would be?

Q-64 The 1st Kent Regiment.

Q-65 When did you go Active? You told us you were at the Chatham Training Centre. To the best of your knowledge, when did you go Active?

A-65 It was the 2nd week of October, sir.

Q-66 At that time you were at the Basic Training Centre at Chatham. What happened after that?

A-66 I continued with my Basic Training at No. 12 (B) T.C. for a period of 5 weeks.

Q-67 While you were at the Basic Training Centre at Chatham, was any suggestion made to you that you might be able to become an N.C.O. while there?

A-67 Yes, sir.

Q-68 What was that? What was said to you and what happened?

A-68 Mr. Treadgold, our platoon commander, offered me the opportunity of going to an N.C.O. Training School and returning to the staff in Chatham.

Q-69 What did you say to that?

A-69 I told him that I preferred to go with the Kent Regiment, and I wanted my trade training.

Q-70 Then what happened?

A-70 I was accepted for the Trade School and transferred to Kitchener.

Q-71 What did you do at Kitchener?

A-71 I attended the Army Trade School for approximately two months and three weeks.

Q-72 Learning what trade?

A-72 Motor mechanics.

Q-73 Did anything happen at the Trade School regarding your affiliation with the Kent Regiment?

A-73 I was still under the impression I would go there when my training was complete.

Q-74 What happened at Kitchener after you had finished at the Trade School there?

A-74 I had not completed my Basic Training in Chatham, so I was transferred into the Kitchener Training Depot - No. 10 Basic Training Centre.

Q-75 Before you left the Trade School at Kitchener, were you told anything as to what was going to happen to you?

A-75 We were told we would be proceeding to advanced Trade School in either London or Hamilton on the completion of our Basic Training.

Q-76 Did you complete your basic training?

A-76 Yes, sir.

Q-77 Where?

A-77 In Kitchener.

Q-78 While you were at Kitchener, was any offer of promotion made to you?

A-78 Yes, sir.

Q-79 When? You don't have to remember the exact date.

A-79 The 3rd week I was in the training centre, I believe.

Q-80 The third week while you were doing your basic training what happened?

A-80 Mr. Campbell our platoon commander and my company commander interviewed me in the company orderly room and I was offered the chance of another N.C.O's. course and a staff job there.

Q-81 What did you say to that?

A-81 I refused for the same reason I had in Chatham.

Q-82 That reason was that you wanted to get to the Kent Regt. after completing your trade training, is that right?

A-82 That is right, sir.

Q-83 After you completed your basic training at Kitchener, where were you sent?

A-83 A-10, Borden.

Q-84 Where you have been, since?

A-84 Yes, sir.

Q-85 What company were you first posted to after coming to A-10?

A-85 No. 1 Company.

Q-86 When did you arrive at A-10?

A-86 March 10th, 1942.

Q-87 You went into No. 1 Coy?

A-87 Yes, sir.

Q-88 How long were you there?

A-88 I am not positive, sir, three to five weeks.

Q-89 While you were in No. 1 Coy, was there any offer of promtion made to you?

A-89 Mr. Brier, our platoon commander, asked me if I was interested in going to the School of Instruction here in Borden ?

Q-90 To take a course ~~xx~~ which, if you succeeded, would qualify you as an N.C.O.?

A-90 Yes, sir.

Q-91 What did you say to that?

A-91 I turned it down.

Q-92 Where did you go from there?

A-92 To No. 4 Coy.

Q-93 How long were you there?

A-93 Only a matter of a week or a week and a half.

Q-94 Where did you go then?

A-94 To No. 2 Coy.

Q-95 Up until the time you went to No. 2 Coy, was there any thought in your mind that you belonged to any other unit than the Kent Regt?

A-95 No, sir.

Q-96 What happened after you got to No. 2 Coy?

A-96 We went on with your advanced training for approximately 5 weeks.- up until the time we were called up for this draft.

Q-97 Tell the Court about being called out for this draft, as you put it?

A-97 The whole company was called out on the parade square ....

Q-98 Just a moment. I want to get the date of this that you are telling us about. Was it the date that the draft warning was signed or the day before, to the best of your recollection?

A-98 The day before, sir.

Q-99 You were then a member of No. 2 Coy?

A-99 Yes.

Q-100 Go ahead.

A-100 We were called out on the parade square - the whole company. Our names were called out according to the regiment to which we belonged. I was called with the two other Kents and we were put in a group by ourselves. I was under the impression that the 3 of us were going to the Kent Regiment.

Q-101 No. 2 Coy. is the Trained Soldiers' Coy.of A-10, is it not?

A-101 Yes, sir.

Q-102 Yes, go on?

A-102 Later on our names were called out over again and my name was called out with a group of the R.C.R. Regiment and I was told to fall in there.

Q-103 The first time your name was called that day, you were left in a group with 2 other members of the Kent Regiment?

A-103 That is right.

Q-104 That is, there was a group of 3 of you standing by yourselves?

A-104 Yes, sir.

Q-105 Then the roll was called over again?

A-105 Yes, sir.

Q-106 On the same parade?

A-106 Yes, sir.

Q-107 And this time you found yourself with a group of men you knew to be R.C.R's?

A-107 Yes, sir.

Q-108 Were you told anything at that time about becoming an R.C.R. whether you liked it or not?

A-108 No, sir.

Q-109 The situation then was that you found yourself with a group of men that you knew to be members of the Royal Canadian Regiment?

A-109 Yes, sir.

Q-110 Then, what happened?

A-110 There were a few remarks passed about new recruits for the R.C.R's. When the parade was broken off, I approached Capt. Mace and asked him if I was being put into the R.C.R. Regiment and he said that nothing was definite about it, and I told him that I wanted to go to the Kent Regiment - to my own unit, and he said he'd see about it. He said nothing definitely had been done about it. Just then, an N.C.O. I believe it was, walked up to him, so I walked back to the ranks.

Q-111 Then what happened?

A-111 I finished the day with a group of R.C.R's, and I fell out on parade with them the following morning.

Q-112 That would be the 2nd of June, 1942?

A-112 I believe so, sir.

Q-113 Go ahead?

A-113 Well, we were paraded to the Drill Hall and officers were there with the draft warning. I got into the line that was signing at Capt. Mace's table and I asked him before I signed it if I was definitely transferred to the R.C.R. Regiment and he said that there would be a number of us pulled off the draft before it left. I told him I really very much wanted to go to the Kent Regiment. He said there was nothing he could do about it. He had orders - I cannot repeat it word for word - but he said he had orders that the whole of the company was to sign the draft warning and proceed on embarkation leave, so I signed the warning.

Q-114 In that draft warning, I noticed that you are referred to as belonging to the Kent Regiment?

A-114 Yes, sir.

Q-115 Up until the time you signed the draft warning, what regiment did you continue to believe you were a member of?

A-115 The Kent Regiment, sir.

Q-116 Before you signed the draft warning, did you get in touch with your father?

A-116 Yes, sir.

Q-117 When?

A-117 The day that we were called up and formed up into the respective groups.

Q-118 You 'phoned, did you?

A-118 Yes, sir.

Q-119 From Borden and he was in Tilbury?

A-119 Yes, sir.

Q-120 Did you tell him what had happened to you on that day - the 1st of June, that is - that you had been called up with a group of R.C.R's?

A-120 Yes, sir.

Q-121 Did you tell him how you felt about it?

A-121 I told him that I would like to have him get in touch with Col. Tosland and have him call me at the Kent Regiment.

Q-122 How did you feel at that time? Did you feel that you might be getting, what you thought, was a raw deal?

A-122 Yes, sir.

Q-123 Although you hadn't actually been transferred to the Royal Canadian Regiment, you felt that if you didn't do something you might be forced to Join the R.C.R's?

A-123 Yes, sir.

Q-124 You 'phoned your father on the 1st of June?

A-124 Yes, sir.

Q-125 Did he say he would do something about it?

A-125 He said he would wire to Col. Codlin immediately.

Q-126 You told us what happened on the 2nd of June - you signed this draft warning after you had this conversation with Capt. Mace?

A-126 Yes, sir.

Q-127 Did anything else happen on the 2nd of June?

A-127 Not that I can recollect, sir.

Q-128 What happened after that?

A-128 The following day we were given our embarkation leave. That was at approximately noon that day until the following Sunday mid-night.

Q-129 What was in your mind regarding embarkation leave? Why did you think you were receiving embarkation leave?

A-129 Well, as I said, Capt. Mace told me that orders were to hold the Kent Regiment after embarkation leave.

Q-130 Was it in your mind that although you were a member of the Kent Regiment, you would.....

A-130 Will you repeat that, sir.

Q-131 Did you think that while still being amember of the Kent Regiment, you would be getting embarkation leave?

A-131 Under ordinary circumstances, I didn't expect to but if the company was to have it, I would get it with everybody else.

Q-132 You went home on embarkation leave. What, if anything, happened while you were at home with respect to your going to the Kent Regiment?

A-132 I spoke to my father about it.

Q-133 Did he say ~~xxxx~~ that he had done anything about it?

A-133 He told me that Col. Codlin had been wired.

Q-134 As a result of what your fathertold you while you were home on embarkation leave, hat did you consider your chances of being sent to the Kent Regiment?

A-134 I expected to be sent there when I returned to Borden.

Q-135 Did you return from embarkation leave within the proper time?

A-135 Yes, sir.

Q-136 When did you get back to your company from embarkation leave?

A-136 On the last train in on Monday morning.

Q-137 Do you remember that date?

A-137 It was Sunday, sir, I don't recall the date.

Q-138 What happened after you got back to No. 2 Coy?

A-138 I continued to parade with the R.C.R. troop.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Q-139 You came back from embarkation leave; you continued to parade with No. 2 Coy. Do you remember that?

A-139 Yes, sir.

Q-140 Then what happened?

A-140 While on parade - during the break-off - I approached Capt. Mace and I asked him if he had heard anything about my transfer coming through. He said he had not heard anything about it.

Q-141 How long after you returned from your embarkation leave, did this take place?

A-141 I am not positive, sir. I think it was the 2nd day I was back.

Q-142 What answer did he give you?

A-142 He said he had heard nothing of it.

Q-143 Was anything else said at that time?

A-143 No, sir.

Q-144 Then, what happened after that?

A-144 Well, I continued to parade with my group that I was placed with until the following afternoon when, after the break-off, I 'phoned my father to have him get in touch with Col. Godlin to see why my transfer hadn't come through. He told me that he'd get in touch with Colonel Codlin again and also told me that my wife was ill. Well, I was beginning to feel none too sure, that is, as to going with my regiment. Well, when I left I fully expected to go to the Kent Regiment whereas at the time of the last 'phone call I thought that I was going to be shipped overseas. I wasn't positive I'd be shipped overseas but I, more or less, expected it.- unless my transfer came through between the time I left Borden and the time I reached the Coast. So, I decided I'd go home and see her again in case my transfer didn't come through in time.

Q-145 Why did you want to see your wife again?

A-145 She was ill.

Q-146 Your father had told you in this 'phone conversation between you and your father?

A-146 Yes, sir.

Q-147 Was this the date that you went absent?

A-147 Yes, sir.

Q-148 You actually left Camp on the 9th?

A-148 Yes, on the evening of the 9th.

Q-149 What was your state of mind when you left Camp on the 9th?

A-149 I guess I was rather flustered, sir.

Q-150 "Guess you were"?

A-150 I certainly was.

Q-151 Would you say that you were in a very agitated state of mind? Your wife was sick and you wanted to see her again before you might possibly go over seas. Was that the idea?

A-151 Yes, sir.

Q-152 How long did you intend to stay away?

A-152 I intended to come back the following night.

Q-153 What did you do when you left Camp on the 9th? Where did you go?

A-153 I took a train to Tilbury?

Q-154 That is your father's home?

A-154 Yes, my father's home.

Q-155 What time did you arrive there?

A-155 5 A.M. on the10th of June.

Q-156 What did you do then?

A-156 I asked Dad for the use of his car.

Q-157 Did you see your father?

A-157 Yes, sir.

Q-158 Right away?

A-158 Yes, sir.

Q-159 Did you tell him what had happened?

A-159 No, sir not right then.

Q-160 What happened next?

A-160 I told him that I had come home without leave. I told him I was going back and he advised me to send a telegram to that effect.

Q-161 Did you send a telegram?

A-161 Yes, sir.

Q-162 To whom?

A-162 Capt. Mace.

Q-163 Telling him what?

A-163 I told him I was taking the last train back to Borden that night.

Q-164 What happened then?

A-164 I went to Wheatley to see my wife.

Q-165 What happened after that?

A-165 I spent the day with her.

Q-166 Was she sick?

A-166 Yes, sir.

Q-167 Go ahead?

A-167 Well, I came back too late to catch the train back that night.

Q-168 You came back from where?

A-168 From Wheatley to Tilbury.

Q-169 You went from Wheatley to Tilbury to catch the train on the night of the 10th of June?

A-169 Yes, sir.

Q-170 You say you were late - by how much?

A-170 Approximately 20 or 25 minutes.

Q-171 What did you do then?

A-171 I went to my father's home and spent the night there.

Q-172 Then what happened?

A-172 I intended to return the next morning.

Q-173 Why didn't you?

A-173 I realized.....

Q-174 Don't be afraid to say that you were afraid.....

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE: I don't think you should lead at this particular point.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q-175 Go ahead.

A-175 I realized what I had done, sir, and knew that I would probably be charged with desertion and, well, I didn't like to come back and face a desertion charge.

Q-176 You were away a total of 47 days and 16 hours. Did you make any effort to return during that entire absence of 47 days?

A-176 Yes, sir.

Q-177 What efforts did you make?

A-177 Well, I started out by train twice for Borden and got as far as Toronto.

Q-178 Let me understand this. You started out by train from Tilbury to return to Borden?

A-178 That is right, sir.

Q-179 And you got as far as Toronto?

A-179 Yes.

Q-180 What happened then?

A-180 I returned to Tilbury once - I was alone. The second time, my wife was with me and she took sick and so I came back.

Q-181 When was the first time that you took the train to return to Borden, to the best of your recollection?

A-181 It would have been approximately the 18th of June.

Q-182 Were you alone then?

A-182 Yes, sir.

Q-183 That was when you reached Toronto and returned to Tilbury?

A-183 Yes, sir.

Q-184 Why didn't you continue on to Borden?

A-184 I didn't like facing desertion.

Q-185 You got afraid when you reached Toronto and turned back, is that it?

A-185 (no audible answer).

Q-186 When was the second time you took the train with your wife and your wife got sick and you returned with here?

A-186 That was approximately 2 weeks later or a week and a half.

Q-187 Except for these two trips by train, did you at any time start out during your absence to return to Borden?

A-187 Yes, sir. I started hitch-hiking my way a number of times.

Q-188 How many times?

A-188 Really, I couldn't say, sir.

Q-189 To the best of your recollection?

A-189 8 to 11; somewhere around there.

Q-190 Each time you turned back because why?

A-190 Most of the times I got stuck.

Q-191 Lost courage?

A191 I guess so, sir.

Q-192 Did you, at any time, intend to desert His Majesty's service?

A-192 I did not, sir.

--- CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q-193 Pte. Hubbard, you stated that you didn't return because you did not want to face a charge of desertion?

A-193 Yes, sir.

Q-194 Did that mean that you realized that you had deserted?

A-194 After I had been home, sir, I realized that I had signed a draft notice and I would probably be charged with desertion.

Q-195 You were aware of that?

A-195 Yes, sir.

Q-196 The fact of your intention to return eventually has very little to do with this charge.....

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I don't want to interfere with the Prosecution but I think that is a matter of law.

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE: Yes, that is for the Court to decide.

BY THE PROSECUTOR: I believe it has been established far enough to my satisfaction. Those are all the questions I have.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q-197 Originally, before you enlisted in the Active Service, you were serving with the 1st Kent Regiment in the Militia?

A-197 That is right, sir.

Q-198 I understood you to say, before lunch, that when it became mobilized, you transferred to the 2nd Kent Regiment?

A-198 Yes, sir.

Q-199 I am not very clear on that - when you wanted to soldier with the ~~first~~ 1st Kent Regiment, and then you transferred to the 2nd?

A-199 I was advised by Major Duck that because of my age and education, it would be best for me to transfer to the 2nd until I became of age and acquired more education.

Q-200 Your wife, when you missed the train on the 10th day of June and you returned with her, was she very ill?

A-200 Yes, sir.

Q-201 How far is your home from your father's?

A-201 It is approximately ~~17~~ about 17 miles, sir.

Q-202 Yet you spent the night at your father's?

A-202 Yes, sir.

~~Q-203~~ BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q-203 You have already stated that you remember signing the warning for draft - Exhibit "N"?

A-203 Yes, sir.

Q-204 That was on June 2nd?

A-204 Yes, sir.

Q-205 I think the Court wants to give you an opportunity to state whether you fully understood the meaning of the Warning for Draft given you on June 2nd?

A-205 I don't believe I did, sir.

Q-206 What was your understanding of it?

A-206 Well, I knew that it was a draft but, really, I cannot recollect having heard it read.

Q-207 Would you deny that it was read to you?

A-207 No, I wouldn't, sir.

Q-208 Would you deny that it was explained to you?

A-208 No, sir.

Q-209 Would you deny that you had an opportunity to ask questions and satisfy yourself as to the meaning of the Warning?

A-209 No, sir. I asked Capt. Mace about my transfer and, well, he said the Company was to sign the Draft and go on embarkation leave.

Q-210 Did you realize that the Warning was to take effect any time after the 11th of June?

A-210 Yes, sir.

Q-211 You have already admitted that you signed Exhibit "N"?

A-211 Yes, sir.

Q-212 Can you say whether or not you read it before you signed it?

A-212 No, I didn't read it, sir.

Q-213 Any reason why you didn't?

A-213 No, sir, well except that the lads behind me were in a hurry.

Q-214 What did you understand you were signing?

A-214 I knew that I was signing a draft but I thought I was still in the Kent Regiment, and it never occurred to me to look for "overseas" on the draft notice.

Q-215 Did you know you were signing a Warning for Draft that might proceed overseas on short notice?

A-215 No, sir, I didn't know it was a draft overseas. I was still in the Kent Regiment. At the present time they are in New Westminster, British Columbia. That was where I thought I was going.

Q-216 Is the Court to understand then that when you signed the Warning, you did not understand you were signing a warning for draft that might proceed overseas any time after June 11th?

A-216 Yes, sir.

Q-217 When you signed Exhibit "N", you did not understand that it was a Warning For Draft which might proceed overseas any time after June 11th, 1942?

A-217 I knew, sir, that most of the regiments that were represented there were overseas regiments and I had the opinion that they would be going with their regiments, that is, overseas, but my regiment is in New Westminster.

Q-218 Did you understand that you were receiving a warning for draft?

A-218 Yes, sir.

Q-219 When?

A-219 After the 11th of June.

Q-220 Did you realize or understand that if you went absent without leave when the draft moved, you might be proceeded against as a deserter?

A-220 I didn't know, sir. I knew that it was applicable to an overseas draft, but if I wasn't going overseas I wasn't sure.

Q-221 I understood you to say that you understood you were being warned for overseas draft?

A-221 For a draft, sir, not necessarily overseas. I knew that a lot of fellows there belonged to overseas regiments and were going overseas but in my case I expected to be sent to my regiment which was not overseas.

Q-222 You are quite definite in stating that when you signed this Warning for Draft, Exhibit "N", you did not understand that it was a Warning for a Draft which might proceed overseas?

A-222 That is right, sir. Although, I knew that some of them were going overseas.

Q-223 Did you have any reason to think that the Warning might not apply to you whereas it might apply to others?

A-223 Well, my regiment isn't overseas and if I was going with them which I fully believed I was.

Q-224 At the time you signed Exhibit "N", you didn't fully believe you were going with the Kent Regiment?

A-224 I hadn't been told otherwise. I was rather leary about the subject.

Q-225 You still hoped to?

A225 Yes, sir.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Might I suggested "expected"?

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q-226 You still hoped and expected to join the Kent Regiment?

A-226 Yes, sir.

Q-227 What did you do during the 47 days and 16 hours that you were A.W.L?

A-227 I stayed at home with my wife.

Q-228 At your parents' home?

A-228 No, at her parents' home. That is, part of the time; part of the time we were by ourselves. While she was sick, we stayed at her parents' home.

Q-229 You realized that quite a length of time had elapsed from the time you went A.W.L?

A-229 Yes, sir.

Q-230 What did you propose to do about it?

A-230 I didn't think that there was any timeperiod concerned with me, although I tried to get back before the 21st day was past.

Q-231 After that you made no further attempt?

A-231 No, I made further attempts.

Q-232 Were you going to remain away indefinitely?

A-232 No, sir.

Q-233 You, I presume, talked the situation over with other people - your father, for instance?

A-233 Not a great deal.

Q-234 Did you, at all?

A-234 I don't believe so, sir, not after the 1st day.

Q-235 Were you advised to return to your unit?

A-235 Yes, sir, the first day I was home he advised me to go right back. I intended to go right back. It was the same time that he advised me to send a telegram to Capt. Mace.

Q-236 Were you advised but once?

A236 Yes, sir.

Q-237 Were you in uniform all the time?

A-237 Yes, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q-238 You told us that although you signed Exhibit "N", you did not read it?

A-238 That is right, sir.

Q-239 Did you tell us a little while ago that the reason you continually set out for Camp and then went home again was because you didn't want to be proceeded against as a deserter? Is that correct?

A-239 Yes, sir.

Q-240 How did you know you would be proceeded against as a deserter?

A-240 I didn't, sir, but if my transfer hadn't come through I was in an overseas unit and it was a draft.

Q-241 Do you want to go overseas?

A-241 I want to go with my unit overseas. If they won't have me, I'll go with any other unit.

Q-242 When you left Camp on the 10th day of June, was it your intention to avoid a draft of any kind?

A-242 No, sir.

Q-243 Were you prepared at that time to come back in a day after seeing your wife who was ill and, if necessary, go overseas with the R.C.R's?

A-243 If my transfer hadn't come through by the time I left the Coast, I would go over with them. I wouldn't be very well satisfied, sir, but I would have gone.

---The Defending Officer declines to re-examine.

---In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b).

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: At this stage of the proceedings, I would like to submit and file as exhibits certified true copies of correspondence relating to this matter and which I think is of great importance.

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE: Certified by whom?

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Certified by the assistant adjutant. The originals are in the files of the unit.

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE: Would it not be advisable for the Court to see the originals in order that the Court may certify the copies.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Yes.

---At this point the originals of the correspondence were introduced in Court and compared by the Court with the copies and the copies certified by the Court.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: With the permission of the Court, I would like to submit these certified true copies as evidence.

(Copy of letter from H.Q. M.D.No.11 to D.O.C,M.D. No.2,dated 6 JUN 42, read to the Court, marked Exhibit "O", signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.)

(Copy of telegram from B.A.Hubbard to Lt.-Col.Codlin, dated 3 JUN 42, read to the Court, marked Exhibit "P", signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.)

(Copy of letter dated 12 JUN 42 from H.Q.,M.D.No.2 to Camp H.Q.,Camp Borden,Ont. read to the Court, marked Exhibit "Q", signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.)

(Copy of letter from A.10 I(A)TC CA. to Camp H.Q.,Camp Borden, dated 15 JUN 42, read to the Court, marked Exhibit "R", signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.)

(Copy of letter from H.Q.,M.D.No.2 to Camp H.Q.,Camp Borden, dated 20 JUN 42, read to the Court, marked Exhibit "S", signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.)

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: In view of the contents of the last letter (Exhibit "S"), I should like to ask the Court to alter the description of the accused on the Charge Sheet from the "Royal Canadian Regiment"to the "Kent Regiment". I think that is Rule of Procedure 33.

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE: Are you putting this in the form of a motion?

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Yes.

---The Court closed to consider the motion.

---The Court denies the motion, and the Court reopens and the decision is announced.

---The Court proceeds with the trial.

2nd Witness for: The Defence Mr. B. A. HUBBARD, field-manager, Tilbury, Ontario, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer :-

Q-244 You are the father of the accused?

A 244 I am.

Q245 You live in Tilbury, Ontario?

A-245 I do.

Q-246 What is your occupation?

A-246 Field manager of the Canadian-Dominion Steel Co.

Q-247 What is your official position, if any, with respect to the town of Tilbury?

A-247 I am reeve.

Q-248 What connection, if any, have you with the Canadian Legion?

A-248 President, sir.

Q-249 Of what?

A-249 Of the Canadian Legion Branch at Tilbury.

Q-250 Your son has told us that he was in the reserve of the Kent Regiment before they mobilized?

A-250 He was.

Q-251 And, you yourself are a veteran of the last War?

A-251 Yes, sir.

Q-252 And, I presume, have been keenly interested in your son's military career?

A-252 Yes, sir.

Q-253 Were you acquantied with the Officer Commanding the Active

Kent Regiment?

A-253 I was.

Q-254 How well acquainted were you with him?

A-254 Quite well.

Q-255 How would you describe the interest shown by your son in the Kent Regiment before they mobilized as an Active unit?

A255 He was very enthusiastic about it.

Q-256 What sort of progress did he make there, as far as you know?

A-256 I think he learned to be a fairly smart soldier

Q-257 When the Reserve Kents became the Active Kent Regiment, your son transferred?

A-257 He remained in the 2nd. He was automatically taken into the 2nd when he didn't mobilize. At least, that is my understanding of it.

Q-258 Your son has given us as the reason why he .....

A-258 He and I had a talk with Major Hutton or Colonel Hutton, I am not sure of the name. Col. Codlin was attending a school somewhere, and he advised me to hold him back, and his mother thought that he was a little young for enlisting at that time.

Q-259 So, he continued in the 2nd Kent Reserve?

A-259 Yes, sir.

Q-260 I don't want you to repeat what your son has already said regarding his attempts to get into the Air Force. He has already told us of that. Will you verify that?

A-260 Yes, sir.

Q-261 He did try to get in the Air Force but was rejected because of a nasal condition?

A-261 Yes, sir. I drove him to Windsor a number of times when he was attempting to join.

Q-262 Then, he was called up as a trainee and reported to the Basic Training Centre at Chatham?

A-262 Yes, sir.

Q-263 As you know, he turned Active there as a reinforcement for the Kent Regiment?

A-263 Yes, sir.

Q-264 Then he went to Kitchener?

A-264 Yes, sir.

Q-265 From Kitchener, he went to the Advanced Training Centre at

A-10 I.(A) T.C., at Borden?

A-265 Yes, sir.

Q-266 When did you first learn from your son, the accused, that there was some chance of his not proceeding to the regiment of his choice, the Kent Regiment?

A-266 May I answer that in my own way. Each time that he came home on week-end leave, the matter was talked over and we were anticiapting a call from the Kent Regiment and he was practically waiting all through the winter - all the period that he was down here. The first few days of June he got the wind up and called me up from Camp Borden and told me that they were shoving him in another outfit and asked me if anything could be done about it, and I immediately attempted to do what I could.

Q-267 What did you do?

A-267 Well, I sent a wire to Col. Codlin who was the O.C. of the Kents.

Q-268 The telgram you sent to Col. Codlin as a result of that conversation with your son, is that it (indicating Exhibit "P")?

A-268 Yes, sir.

Q-269 What took place then?

A-269 Well, I received a reply from Col. Codlin and expected.....

Q-270 In what form was that reply?

A-270 You have it there. It was a telegram asking for him and advising me that he would have to make application himself.

Q-271 Where is the original telegram that you received from Col. Codlin?

A-271 It has, apparently, become lost.

Q-272 Did you make any effort to obtain a copy?

A-272 Yes.

Q-273 What did you do?

A-273 I got a copy from the telegraph agent.

Q-274 Would you recognize the contents of that telegram?

A-274 I would.

Q-275 From this telegram I show you solely for the purpose of refreshing your memory as to the contents of the telegram you received, can you tell us from inspecting that document what the contents were of the telgram that you received from Col. Codlin?

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE: In your own words, tell the Court what the contents of the telegram were you received on such and such a date from Col. Codlin.

A-275 In my own words, it would be that he had asked for his transfer and that the boy would have to ask that he be transferred himself.

Q-276 That telegram was dated the 4th of June, 1942?

A-276 I believe it was, sir, but I cannot remember dates very well.

By the Defending Officer

Q-277 You told of receiving this telegram. What happened next as far as you were concerned regarding your son's situation?

A-277 So far as I can remember, he called me again and said that he wasn't making any headway and that they were shoving him into this unit, and he didn't want to go into it, and they didn't, apparently, believe what he had said or paid no attention to it, and so I telegraphed to Col. Codlin and asked him if he would notify his O.C. to verify that he was being asked for.

Q-278 Did you receive any reply from Col. Codlin to that second telegram to him?

A-278 I received a letter from him.

Q-279 Is this the letter that you refer to?

A279 Yes, sir.

(Letter from Kent Regiment to Mr.B.Hubbard dated 10 JUN 42, mead to the Court, marked Exhibit "I", signed by the President, and attached to the Proceedings.)

Q-280 Then what happened after that?

A-280 The next morning when I get up, I found the boy in my kitchen.

Q-281 Will you tell us what took place then?

A-281 I immediately went after him, rather rough-shod, and told him that his best move was to notify his Company O.C. that he'd be back on the next train, by telegram, and to get back onthe next train; and he wouldn't do it.

Q-282 This would be the morning of the 10th of June. What did you find your son's state of mind to be when you got up and found him in the house?

A-282 He was certainly upset about everything. I don't know how to describe it, sir.

Q-283 Can you tell the Court what sort of a temperament your boy has. How does he take what we might call"hard knocks"?

A-283 Well, he is very emotional and he'll fight back if it is possible to at all, and he was of the opinion, it seems to me, that the Army was giving him a raw deal in things, and at the same time his wife wasn't very well. As a matter of fact, when I was talking to him on the 'phone I mentioned to him that his wife wasn't very well, and all these things, I think, contributed to the fact that the boy was pretty well upset. At the same time, I don't think he intended to do anything greatly wrong. I think he knew he was doing wrong, and I think he was going to make the best of it. I think he thought he would do some time without pay and that would be the end of things.

Q-284 You told him to get back , and he did send a telegram?

A-284 Yes, sir.

Q-285 He didn't return that night. He said he arrived at the station late and spent the night at your home. Do you remember that?

A-285 I remember that he came up to meet the train but I am not certain whether he spent the night at our place.

Q-286 You do know that he did not return to Camp?

A-286 I am not certain of that. My understanding was that he had returned. In fact, he showed up at my place after being away for 2 or 3 weeks and I said: "What crime did you get?" And, he said: "Well, they gave me suspended sentence."

Q-287 He gave you the impression he had returned and had received punishment for the offence. You did not know that he continued absent over this long period of time?

A-287 I didn't know he had been absent up until then but I knew for, possibly, a week before he came back he was absent. In fact, if he hadn't been my own son, I would have turned him in. I felt that I was sort of in a spot.

Q-288 Were you well acquainted with other officers in the Kent Regiment in addition to Col. Codlin?

A-288 Some other officers.

Q-289 How did you, personally, feel about your son's opportunity to make progress in the Kent Regiment as compared to others?

A-289 I helped to recruit for the Kent Regiment or, at least, spoke when the Kent Regiment was being recruited and I told the people of my own town that I'd rather have my own boy go overseas with the Commander of the Kents than with any other officer I knew, so that was the way I felt about the Kents and that was the way I felt about my boy joining the Kents.

---The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine.

BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q-290 Did you speak to your son again after the first night. Outside of the first night, did youspeak to him again about the subject?

A-290 Yes, he avoided me as much as he could but I told him on one occasion, specifically that I can recall, but on 2 or 3, I think - on every occasion, there was an argument as to his being away, until it go so that I didn't see him - it got so that I wasn't at home when he came.

Q-291 How do you account for your son's actions in being A.W.L?

A-291 Gentlemen of the Court, we Hubbards make mistakes sometimes, but we are not deserters or not quitters.

---In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b).

---The witness withdraws.

- - - -

3rd witness for : The Defence. Mrs. L. D. HUBBARD, Store clerk, Wheatley, Ontario, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer :-

Q-292 You are the wife of Pte. Hubbard?

A-292 I am.

Q-293 Do you remember your husband coming home on embarkation leave?

A-293 Yes.

Q-294 Then he returned to Camp?

A-294 Yes.

Q-295 Then he came home again?

A-295 Yes.

Q-296 That date, I believe, was the 10th of June, 1942, and on that date, what was your condition?

A-296 Well, I had been ill since the latter part of May.

Q-297 I don't want to take you over all the period of your husband's absence without leave. He has told us of one occasion on which you accompanied him to Toronto by Train?

A-297 Yes.

Q-298 How long had he been absent at that time, to the best of your recollection?

A-298 Well, I'd say about 3 weeks. I am not sure.

Q-299 Why did you got with him to Toronto. Was there any particular reason?

A-299 Well, he was just a little afraid. He was bashful about returning, and I thought it would be a little easier for him to return if I came with him.

Q-300 You got as far as Toronto, and what happened then?

A-300 I took sick.

Q-301 Then what happened?

A-301 I wanted him to return, but he wouldn't hear of it. He was more worried about me.

Q-302 And he returned with you?

A-302 Yes.

---The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine.

---In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b).

---The witness withdraws.

- - - -

---The Defence has no further witnesses.

---The Defence is closed.

- - - -

---The Defending Officer makes a closing address. (See document marked "U", attached.)

---The Prosecutor makes a closing address. (See document marked "V", attached.)

---The Judge Advocate and the Court think a summing-up is unnecessary.

Daily Order Part I No 203 Page 3

7. DEPENDENTS ALLOWANCE Cont'd

(b)In consequence, changes in relationship that affect awards of Dependents Allowance should be reported immediately such changes take place in order to avoid overpayments in these allowances which if incurred are recoverable from the officer or soldier concerned

(c)The most flagrant cases involving overpayments of Dependents Allowance that have come to attention through non-reporting of changes of relationship have arisen in respect of changes in domestic status such as Separation Divorce etc, as such cases are governed by the provisions of Article 101 Provisoes (iii) and (iv) FR&I (Canada) necessitating in practically every instance a revision in the current award of Dependents Allowance.

(d)Prompt notification of death of dependents or other occurrences affecting dependency is also required, in order to avoid overpayments of Dependents Allowance

(e)All concerned will be impressed with the absolute necessity for the reporting of changes in relationship between themselves and their dependents immediately such changes occur. This information will be made available to the Unit Paymaster as soon as received.

H.Q. 1772-101-23

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Sirs: Surely, this Court is not going to brand this accused for life with the ignominy of being found a deserter. He does not come of a deserting stock. He is not, himself, a deserter. He is a very young man of an emotional nature who, through no fault of his own, found himself forced into a difficult, unexpected, and troublesome situation, a situation which he tired to meet with as much courage as he could muster and what he considered to be his sense of duty under the circumstances. What he has done has not been the result of any intention to desert or to escape any special duty or to escape going overseas with the R.C.R's. or any otherunit. He found himself in a difficult situation which would have presented difficulty to a much older and wiser man. To him, it was a very distressing situation. He didn't know exactly what to do about it. He did what he thought was best. If he had returned within a few days, he would not, I suggest to the Court, be facing this Court or a ny other Court.

First of all, he belonged - and I say this in all sincerity - to the Kent Regiment and not to any other unit. It is very easy to say: "We are all in the Canadian Army. What difference does it make what unit we are in?" Yet, I myself am an officer, and I would feel very badly were I compelled to join any other unit than my own. I would have felt badly at first but certainly much more so since then. I am trying to get before the Court the state of mind of the accused. He is not as wise as the Court or myself or, perhaps, the officers under instruction. He wanted to join the Kent Regiment. He was in the Reserve of that regiment when the 1st Kent Regiment went Active. His father and himself went to whoever was the Commander and he advised that the boy wait until later when he was a little older. We are dealing with a soldier, not a boy. He tried, not merely superficially, to join the AirForce. Certainly, a very Active unit. Not as a clerk - he didn't want to fight with a pen; he wanted to do some real fighting. He wanted to join the Air Force. He applied and was rejected through no fault of his own. He tried twice and was rejected because of a nasal condition. He was called up, and was up at Basic Training Centre for a few weeks. During that time, he considered what he should do. He decided on the Kent Regiment. His was not merely a mere interest in the Kent Regiment. It was not merely the case of a man living in Tilbury or like a man like myself living in Windsor and wanting to join the Essex Scottish. He had a real stake in that regiment. He had been in the Reserve of that regiment. He knew the Colonel; the Colonel knew him. His father knew the officers. His father had helped to recruit that unit. It was important to that boy; it was important to his father; it was very important to this boy that he go to the Kent Regiment. He went Active upon the understanding - I will call it more than that - upon the promise that he would be in the Kent Regiment. He was attested to the Kent Regiment; his "2" shows that. He was attested to the Kent Regiment, not the Royal Canadian Regiment. That was his unit and he went Active under those circumstances.

What sort of a soldier was he? Three times at each Training Centre that he went to, he was offered promotion or a chance of promotion. Does that speak well for the boy? That he was singled out at each Training Centre that he went to as likely N.C.O. material. Could there be a higher recommendation? At each Training Centre, he was a stranger. He wasn't home at Chatham; he wasn't home at Kitchener; he wasn't home at Borden. He wasn't home. Yet at each place he was asked if he would consider promotion. He said: "No, thanks", probably, but "no" definitely, "no, because I wanted to go to my unit - the Kent Regiment." He belonged to the Kents; he was proud of the Kents; he wanted to be with them. He had every reason to believe he would be with them. He was getting along alright until the 1st of June, 1942. He was in the Trained Soldiers' Company. Why he wasn't despatched to his unit before that, I don't know. I am not criticizing the Training Centre. What happened is not their fault. What happened is not Hubbard's fault. A call came in for re-inforcements for the R.C.R's for overseas. Apparently, the Officer Commanding No. 2 Coy. was instructed: "Everybody in your company gets embarkation leave." What happened? First, they are called out - the 3 Kent Regiment in one group - on the 1st of June. Alright. Then, at the same parade, they are called out again - put with a group of R.C.R's. The accused wasn't told from that moment on that he was going to be an R.C.R. but he began to wonder. Was he told anything definite? Was he ever told? Is there a bit of evidence that that he was told: "You are in the Royal Canadian Regiment and not any other Regiment"? Was he ever told that? I submit he was not - not definitely. I am not criticizing anybody for that because nobody knew. The situation then was that everybody in 2 Coy. was to go on embarkation leave. The following day, he calls up his father. Was he trying to get out of anything? No. His father's heart was in the Kent Regiment. So was his. He called his father as any intelligent good son would do. "I found myself out on parade; I was called out in the R.C.R's; I am afraid I will not be called out with my unit. Will you do something about it?" His father telegraphs, on the 4th of June, the C.O. of the Kent Regiment. The Commanding Officer of the Kent Regiment said in a telegram to the accused's father: "I have asked for your son to be transferred to my unit." That is what happened. It is right in the evidence. I say, in all sincerity, that from that minute No. 2 Coy. held this accused in trust for the Kent Regiment. He should not have been called and should not have remained on that draft at all if the communications between the Kent Regiment and A-10 been slowed through the various labyrinths these things have to follow. I am not criticizing the training Centres, but from the 4th of June to the 10th of June was plenty of time for A-10 to be notified: "We want this man; he belongs to the Kent Regiment." Had No. 2 Coy., A-10 been notified of that, his name would have been removed.

What happened at the warning for draft. He signed the warning for draft. Yes, he admitted that. Was he to say: "I won't sign it." He was told this in all honesty. What was he told? Before he signed the Warning for Draft on that parade, he went to Capt. Mace for the 2nd time. He had went to him before when he was called out in this group of R.C.R's. He said: "Am I going to be in the R.C.R's? Capt. Mace said, in effect: "I cannot tell you definitely". He said: "Some men won't be going on this draft; some men won't be proceeding overseas." Is that a definite warning? Can it possibly be construed as a definite warning. "Young man, you are going overseas; forget about anything else." You are going to go overseas any time after June 12th." He wasn't told that. Capt. Mace didn't tell him that. Capt. Mace had instilled in his mind - let us remember this - "every man must be given embarkation leave. My instructions are to give every man embarkation leave. Therefore, every man must sign this draft warning." I strongly urge upon you that that was all that happened this day. What did the accused think? Was there a chance of his going overseas? Of course, he had a remote chance. A remote chance that his transfer would not go through, but that was extremely remote as his father had been in touch with the O.C. of the Kent Regiment. Can we say he thought: "When I sign this draft warning I am definitely going overseas after the 12th." What does the accused say. He says: "I knew I was on draft, yes - on draft to my own regiment." Was there anything wrong with thinking that under the circumstances? Cannot a man go on draft to his own unit? It has been done. Men have been given embarkation leave from their training centres and then sent to join their units whether on the west coast or to Debert. What his state of mind was at that time is of great importance.

Then, what happened after that. He goes on embarkation leave. Does he stay home? No, he returns. He came back. Then, he asked again about a transfer to the Kent Regiment and still there was nothing definite. Had anybody told him yet: "Hubbard you are R.C.R?" No, it was still indefinite. And all this time, from the 4th of June on, the Kent Regiment had ear-marked him and said: "He is our man; we want him." I say it would have been a tragedy under those circumstances if this man had gone with the R.C.R's. Just because a letter written in Vancouver didn't reach Borden until the 14th or 15th of June. It is only 24 hours away by air-mail. I say, in all sincerity, that it would have been as bad as anything the accused has done.

What happened next? He called his father again on the 9th. His father told him that his wife was ill. Why did he leave? I don't know why he left. He was agitated, undoubtedly worried. Worried about not going to the Kent Regiment. He said he intended to stay away only over-night. Is there any evidence to support that that was his intention. He sent a telegram the following morning. Would a man intending to desert, gentlemen, in all sincerity, go home where he was the son of, perhaps, the best known person in the community - the reeve. Why did he stay away 47 days? He got cold feet. That is all. He was afraid. He is not to be given a medal for that; he is to be punished. It has been an ordeal for his father. His father had trouble with him; the son deceived him - lied to him. The son told the father that he had gone back and been punished. The son was afraid to return. He was not a deserter. He did not intend to desert. If he hadn't been put in this position, he wouldn't have found himself before this Court. The reason he is here is because a letter written on the 4th of June didn't reach this Training Centre until the 14th or 15 th of June. I am not criticizing how things are done. I say that nothing was ever brought definitely to the mind of this accused, beyond a doubt, that he was ear-marked for overseas - that he would be despatched overseas after a certain date. Desertion, I don't have to tell this Court, is perhaps the most ignominious of all the offences. Is this man to be convicted of desertion. Can it be said that there isn't, in the minds of the Court, a doubt, a reasonable doubt? Can it be said the Court isn't satisfied there is more than a reasonable doubt. I have never said this to any Court, either civil or military, before but I am going to be bold enoughto say that to convict this man as a deserter would be a miscarriage of justice.

After this boy is released from here, he is going to his regiment. That has been arranged.

BY THE PROSECUTOR: I have nothing to say in reply. I have presented the facts of this case. I think the interpretation of the Defence's case is a matter for the Court to decide.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: Gentlemen: The accused was guilty of absence without leave once before. I think the punishment was 14 days C.B. Obviously, it was not serious.

With respect to this offence, whatever this Court does to him, he is going to his unit. He is going to the Kent Regiment, out on the West coast.

He is a good soldier; he is good material. Let us get him to his unit as soon as we can. Who of us knows that he may not be needed more on the west coast than overseas. We don't know where the enemy will strike first. He is a good soldier. He comes of good stock. May I respectfully suggest to the Court that here is a chance to save a good soldier. He has already been punished; he has been in custody for 31 days. The punishment of his own mind that he has broken his father's heart is added to the punishment which this Court may give him. I respectfully suggest to the Court and I strongly urge the Court - I feel more strongly about this case than any other I have ever had - I suggest that the Court be lenient. I suggest that this accused would be greatly encouraged to go to his unit, get there, and have reason to be grateful for being in the Army, and make a good job, which, I am sure, he can do.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of A58394 Private Sylvester Budd Hubbard, Royal Canadian Regiment, C.A. Attached to A-10 Infantry (Advanced) Training Centre, C.A., charged with desertion.

The accused's rights in respect to a Summary of Evidence are explained to him.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: B79427 Cpl. W. Whyte, Irish Reg't., att. A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am the administrative corporal for No. 2 Coy. A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., Camp Borden, Ont., to which Coy. the accused is attached. To the best of my knowledge, information and belief the accused was continuously absent without leave from A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., from 0600 hrs, 10 JUN 42, until he was apprehended at Leamington, Ont., at 2200 hrs, 27 JUL 42. If the accused had been present with his Coy. at any time during such period, I would have knowledge thereof. I identify the accused to be the person referred to in the following documents now shown to me:-

(a) M.F.B. 375 dated 6 JUL 42.

(b) M.F.M. 216 dated 27 JUL 42.

(c) M.F.B. 1481 dated 28 JUL 42.

(d) M.F.B. 1481 dated 7 AUG 42.

(e) M.F.B. 1482 dated 7 AUG 42."

The above mentioned documents are read over to the accused and marked Exhibits "A", "B", "C", "D" and "E" respectively.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Wm Whyte .....Cpl.
B79427 (W. Whyte) A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A.

SECOND WITNESS: Capt. O.H. Mace, Calgary Highlanders, att. A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am 2 i/c of No. 2 Coy. A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., Camp Borden, Ont., to which Coy. the accused is attached. On 2 JUN 42, I was the Officer Commanding No. 2 Coy. At. A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., Drill Hall on 2 JUN 42, the accused in my presence signed the warning for draft now produced by me after the same had been read by me to the accused, who stated that he thoroughly understood the meaning thereof. The draft for which the accused was warned proceeded overseas from Camp Borden, Ont., at about 2200 hrs, 12 JUN 42. The accused was absent without leave at the time the draft left."

The said warning for draft is read over to the accused and marked Exhibit "F".

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

O.H. Mace .....Capt
(O.H. Mace) A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A.

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

ANSWER BY THE ACCUSED: (Having been duly sworn) "I admit that I went absent without leave from A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., Camp Borden, Ont., from 0600 hrs, 10 JUN 42, until I was apprehended at Leamington, Ont., at 2200 hrs, 27 JUL 42. With reference to my conduct I would like to make the following statement. When I originally joined the Army, I joined the Kent Regiment which I liked and had always hoped to remain with. About two months after I joined up I decided to get married. My fiance was not in the best of health and has always suffered from a nervous condition and has a weak heart or a leaking valve I think they call it. I thought a long time before getting married, because I did not want to marry her and then go right overseas. However, it was my understanding, that the Kent Regiment would not be going overseas for sometime and on the basis of that information I decided to get married. When I was first warned for draft at A-10 I.(A) T.C., C.A., I was told I had to transfer to the Royal Canadian Regiment in order to proceed overseas. This was quite a surprise to me and I wired Colonel T. Codlin, Kent Regiment, New Westminster, B.C., asking his advise, who wired advising me to ask for a transfer to my Unit at New Westminster, adding that he had already taken steps for this transfer at New Westminster through the correct channels. I immediately went to Capt. Mace and asked for this transfer, who told me he would see what he could do although he had heard nothing about it. I had already been asked to sign my certificate of draft warning which I had done after I wired Colonel Codlin but before I had received his reply. Shortly after my interview with Capt. Mace we were granted embarkation leave. When I arrived home I told my wife what had happened. It was quite a shock to her, and as a matter of fact she fainted. When I returned to Camp after my embarkation leave I learned that nothing had been done about my transfer, and as I could not get hold of a telegraph operator in Camp Borden, I telephoned my father and asked him to wire Colonel Codlin again. While I was talking to my father over the telephone I learned that my wife was ill again. Perhaps I lost my head, but I went right back to my hut packed a couple of shirts and left for home. I intended to stay only one night, but as realization came to me of what I had done, I kept putting off the issue of returning. I told my father that I had come home, but I thought that I was going right back the next day and told him so. That was what I intended to do. I remember that I wired Capt. Mace, that I was coming right back. Then as I explained above I kept putting it off. I have nothing further to say."

S.B. Hubbard .....Pte.
A58394 (S.B. Hubbard) A-10 I.(A)T.C., C.A.

The accused declines to call any witnesses in his own behalf.

Rules of Procedure 4 (c) (d) (e) and (f) have been complied with.

Taken down by me in the presence of the accused at Camp Borden, Ontario, this thirteenth day of August, 1942.

1. Receipt is acknowledged of your K.55-H-1747 (JAG) dated September 23rd, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded to this office for registration and custody the proceedings of the marginally noted District Court-Martial.

2. In addition to the irregularities mentioned in your memorandum forwarded along with your letter, the following have been observed in the proceedings:-

(a) It would have been preferable if the Statement of Particulars for the first offence had disclosed the Unit from which the accused absented himself.

(b) The Medical Officer who signed the M.F.B. 246 should have stated his attachment after his signature.

3. It is not considered necessary to return the proceedings which are, therefore, retained for custody. May the foregoing irregularities please be brought to the attention of the officers concerned for their future guidance.

(a) In the Charge Sheet it is not necessary to use the words "without leave" where the desertion is unassociated with intent to avoid special duty, etc. (See Specimen charges 30 to 33A on page 720 of Manual of Military Law.)

(b) In the M.F.M.216 the deletions are not initialled.

(c) In M.F.B.1481, dated 1st August, 1942, the deletions are not initialled and the non-applicable phrase is not struck out.

(d) In M.F.B.1481, dated 31st July, 1942, deletions are not initialled.

(e) In M.F.B.355 there is a slight oversight in that the soldier's name is incorrectly spelled where it first appears.

(f) Production of a certified true copy of a Daily Order setting forth the Record of the Declaration of a Court of Inquiry would appear to be introducing secondary evidence of secondary evidence. While this would appear to be admissible under appendix to Routine Order 1877 para 7(a), nevertheless the M.F.B.375 was the proper document to be used in this case.

STEALING PROPERTY BELONGING TO A PERSON SUBJECT TO MILITARY LAW:

THIRD CHARGE
Section 18 (4)
Army Act.

STEALING PROPERTY BELONGING TO A PERSON SUBJECT TO MILITARY LAW:

The Commanding Officer directed that the evidence be taken upon Oath.

FIRST WITNESS:

No. B-33188, CORPORAL HINDS, G.W., (QOR) V.T.School, Huron Barracks, Toronto, Ontario, having been duly sworn, stated as follows:-

I am Corporal of the Regimental Police, V.T.School, Huron Barracks, Toronto, Ontario. I was making my round through the building on the 23rd. July, 1942, about 0030 hours, and on reaching the third floor I found the accused, No. B-53132, Sgmn. Housdon, J.A., in Room 310, and I questioned him as to his being there. I then brought him down to R.S.M.Davies, who instructed me to put him under close arrest, which I did. Room 310 is about four or five doors from Room 316, and it is quite easy for any person to go from one room to the other. I identify the accused, No. B-53132, Sgmn. Housdon, J.A., as the soldier found on the third floor of Huron Barracks, Toronto, at the time and place mentioned above.

G. W. Hinds Cpl.

The accused declined to cross examine the witness.

SECOND WITNESS:

No. B-60541, R.S.M.DAVIES, H., (Ont.Regt)(T), V.T. School, Huron Barracks, Toronto, Ontario, having been duly sworn, stated as follows:-

I am R.S.M. of V.T.School, Huron Barracks, Toronto. At approximately 0030 hours, 23rd. July, 1942, [illegible] the accused, No. B-53132, Sgmn.Housdon, J.A., was found on the third floor of Huron Barracks, V.T.School, Toronto, and was paraded to me. I questioned him and he stated he was from Vimy Barracks, Kingston, and gave his name as Housdon. As his pass did not appear to be genuine I had Corporal Hinds place him under close arrest. I identify the accused, No. B-53132, Sgmn. Housdon, J.A., as the soldier who was brought before me at the time and place above mentioned.

During a tour of inspection of the Huron Barracks, Toronto, Ontario, in company with C.S.M.Ching, at about 1500 hours, 24th. July, 1942, we found that certain cupboards containing books etc., had been opened in Room 316. C.S.M.Ching opened the bottom cupboard in the room and found a battle dress trousers and blouse with L/Corporal's stripes on the latter. On searching for identification marks the name "Soulsby" was found written inside the trousers. On further search other articles were found, which C.S.M.Ching will produce as Exhibits.

H Davies RSM

The accused declined to cross examine the witness.

THIRD WITNESS: No. B-51535, C. S. M. CHING, C.E., (LER) V.T. School, Toronto, Ontario, having been duly sworn, stated as follows:-

I am C.S.M. of V.T. School, Huron Barracks, Toronto, Ontario. Sometime previous to the 23rd. July, 1942, a pair of dirty trousers were found in place of a pair of battle dress trousers belonging to a member of the Northern School group by the name of Soulsby, in the pocket of which was found a telegram addressed to "No. B-35152, Sgmn. Houston,J.A.,RCCS.M.T.Company,Vimy Barracks" which I now produce as Exhibit "A". This document refers to the accused, No. B-35152, Sgmn. Houston,J.A.

EXHIBIT "A" Telegram above referred to, produced and marked.

I kept this telegram for some time, and when the accused was brought before the R.S.M. I checked up with the accused and he acknowledged it was addressed to him and that he had had a birthday about the 8th. May, 1942. On the 24th. July, 1942, at about 1500 hours, whilst on a tour of inspection with R.S.M.Davies, we found in a cupboard in Room 316 on the third floor of Huron Barracks a battle dress blouse, a pair of battle dress trousers and braces, a pair of anklets, and one pair of chevrons attached to the battle dress blouse. I noticed on the inside band of the trousers the name "Soulsby" written in indelible pencil. This man, Soulsby, has left this School on draft. I identify the battle dress blouse the accused is wearing, the chevrons having been removed by the present modification of No. 31 Company, Canadian Provost Corps, as the one that was found as stated above. I produce herewith the pair of battle dress trousers as an Exhibit.

EXHIBIT "B" Battle dress trousers above referred to, produced and marked.

I now produce a wallet containing a number of snapshots and a registration certificate made out in the name of Isaac Alexander Graham, as well as a number of addresses and various other papers.

EXHIBIT "C" Wallet and contents above referred to, produced and marked.

I also produce a notebook with the name "Private Gray,M.,B-97185" inscribed thereon.

EXHIBIT "D" Notebook above referred to produced and marked.

I also produce one notebook with no name on it as a means of identification; also one book entitled "Task System" containing the name of Sgmn. J. Housdon, B-53132, RCCS, Vimy Barracks, Kingston."

EXHIBIT "E" Book above referred to produced and marked.

I also produce an envelope containing two pawn tickets made out to J. Housdon, one for a camera and one for a watch, one dated 9th. July, 1942, and the other dated 15th. July, 1942.

EXHIBIT "F" Envelope containing pawn tickets above referred to produced and marked.

Exhibits C, D, E and F were found in the battle dress blouse discovered in the cupboard in Room 316, Huron Barracks, Toronto, as mentioned in the first of my evidence. They were turned over to Corporal McGillicuddy, No. 31 Coy., C.P.C., and returned to me intact.

G. E. Chung, L.S.M.

The accused declined to cross examine the witness.

FOURTH WITNESS: No. B-54056, DRIVER I. A. GRAHAM, (RCASC) V.T. School, Huron Barracks, Toronto, Ontario, having been duly sworn, stated as follows:-

I am a member of the V.T.School, Northern School Group, Toronto, Ontario. I came off picquet duty at 1400 hours, Monday, 6th. July, 1942, and went to my bunk to have a sleep. At that time I had my battle dress hanging behind my bed with a leather wallet in the left front pocket of the trousers, containing $8.00 in bills, my registration card, an English three-penny bit, a collar clip, photographs and numerous addresses. This wallet was taken between 1400 hours and 1600 hours whilst I was sleeping as I noticed it was missing as soon as I woke up. I identify the wallet and contents now produced to me as Exhibit "C", as belonging to me.

BY MAJOR MENZIES:

Q. Is there anything missing from this wallet?
A. Yes, sir, $8.00 in cash, an English three penny bit and a sterling silver collar clip.

I. A. Graham

The accused declined to cross examine the witness.

FIFTH WITNESS: No. B-91785, PRIVATE GRAY, M.M., (RCAMC) V.T.School, Huron Barracks, Toronto, having been duly sworn, stated as follows:-

On or about the 17th. July, 1942, I lost a 620 Brownie box camera. It was taken from a locked kit bag from my room in the Barracks. I also lost a notebook at the same time.

BY MAJOR MENZIES:

Q. Have you seen the camera since then ?
A. No, sir, not since it was taken.

Q. Do you identify any of the Exhibits as belonging to you ?
A. Yes, sir, that is my book containing the notes I had from Basic training. (indicating Exhibit D)

The accused declined to cross examine the witness. M.M. Gray

SIXTH WITNESS: No. D-121581, DRIVER GRAY, D.W., (RCASC) V.T. School, Huron Barracks, Toronto, Ontario, having been duly sworn, stated as follows:-

Sometime ago I lost a Bull's Eye camera at the V.T. School, Huron Barracks, Toronto, Ontario.

BY MAJOR MENZIES:

Q. Have you seen the camera since it was lost ?
A. I was taken down to a pawnshop by a Provost Corporal to identify one. I could not prove it was mine, but it was of the same type that I lost.

D.W. Gray

The accused declined to cross examine the witness.

SEVENTH WITNESS: No. B-97602, CORPORAL McGILLION, E.J., No. 31 Coy., Canadian Provost Corps, Lansdowne Barracks, Toronto, having been duly sworn, stated as follows:-

I am a member of No. 31 Company, Canadian Provost Corps, and on the 24th. July, 1942, I was detailed to carry out an investigation regarding the accused. On the 25th. July, 1942, the accused was interrogated by myself in the presence of L/Corporal Clarke, No. 31 Coy., C.P.C., as a result of which a signed statement was obtained from the accused after he had been duly warned by me.

BY MAJOR MENZIES:

Q. Was this statement purely voluntary or were any promises or threats made to obtain it ?
A. No threats or promises were made as is shown by the warning which is written at the top of the statement, which statement is now produced to me and marked as my Exhibit "G".

EXHIBIT "G" Statement above referred to produced and marked.

Nine snapshots were found in the accused's possession and also one tie clip. These items he admitted having stolen from the Vocational Training School whilst staying there during the time he was AWL. I also found in his possession one Army issue tie, which he also admitted having stolen from the Training School. Investigation of the two pawn tickets found by C.S.M.Ching and turned over to me resulted in one having been obtained through the pawning of a Bull's Eye 620 size camera. The property produced by C.S.M.Ching previously and entered as Exhibits have been in my possession until turned over to him for filing as Exhibits. The Army jack knife mentioned in this statement was recovered from amongst the accused's personal possessions at the No. 2 District Depot,C.A. Guard Room, which I now file as the next Exhibit.

EXHIBIT "H"	Nine snapshots above referred to, produced and marked.
EXHIBIT "I"	One tie clip and chain above referred to, produced and marked.
EXHIBIT "J"	One army tie above referred to, produced and marked.
EXHIBIT "K"	One jack knife above referred to, produced and marked.

B97682 M J McGuigan Cpl

NINETH WITNESS: No. L-19534, SAPPER MADER, W.R., (RCE) V.T.Wing, No. 2 District Depot,C.A., having been duly sworn, stated as follows:-

I am a Member of the V.T.School, Huron Barracks, Toronto, Ontario. I was quartered in Room 302 of the said Barracks during the month of July, 1942. On or about the 18th July, 1942, I missed a number of my personal belongings, including a number of snapshots, pen and pencil set, a sleep knife, an army tie, khaki in colour, and a tie clip and chain.

BY MAJOR MENZIES:

Q. Do you identify any of these articles marked as Exhibits "H" "I" "J" and "K" as belonging to you ?

A. Yes, seven of these snapshots are of my wife and two are of my wife and her girlfriend (indicating Exhibit "H") and my handwriting is on the back of most of them. I also identify the tie clip and chain as belonging to me. (indicating "I") The knife I could not swear to, but it is similar to one I had in my possession, but as it is not specifically marked I could not identify it. I cannot identify the tie because the tie I lost was of a khaki colour.

W.R. Mader.

The accused declined to cross examine the witness.

COME ON CANADA! — BUY THE NEW VICTORY BONDS

31 Coy., Can. Provost Corps,
280 Lansdowne Ave. Toronto.
July 25th. 1942.

STATEMENT OF B 53132, Signalman, HOUSDON, J. A., R.C.C.S., "C" Coy., Vimy Barracks, Kingston.

You have been warned that you might be charged with a Military Offence, to wit, unlawfully possession of personal property of other soldiers of the Vocational Training School, M. D. 2., Huron and College, Toronto. That you have nothing to fear from any threat, nor nothing to gain from any promise or favor held out, and that you need not say anything, but if you do say anything same may be taking down in writting and used in evidence at your trial.

I Reg. No. B 53132, Signalman HOUSDON, J. A., of the R.C.C.S., stationed at Vimy Barracks, Kingston, Ont. state as follows: I left my Barracks at Kingston on June 20th. 1942 for Toronto on two pass. I was to report back to my Unit on June 22nd. 1942, 0600 Hrs. I did not report back and was eventually arrested at Vocational Training School, Huron and College Aves. Toronto, on July 23rd. 1942. While in Toronto, I slept and ate at the Vocational Training School Barracks, without the knowledge of the R.S.M. While staying at these barracks, I stole a wallet belonging to a soldier by name of G-sham, in this wallet there was $8.00 in cash and some papers, I took the money and left the Wallet in my tunic. I stole two Cameras from the 2nd. floor. One was Brownie Junior Box Camera and the other was a Bulls-eye 6-20 size Camera. I pawned the Bulls-eye Camera for $1.00. The Pawn-ticket I left in my tunic. The other Camera I left in a Weston Co., Bread wagon at the back of the Weston Bakeries. From the 2nd. floor of the same Barracks, I also stole one pair of Puttees, one pair of Shorts, one pair of Boots and one summer issue shirt, one issue black Tie, One Tie clip, a number of photos, 6¢ in cash, 2 Packages of Tobacco, one large package of cigarettes, one pair of Battle-dress trousers, and one of Anklets. To replace some of the articles I took, I left behind, one of Battle dress trousers, one summers issue shirt and one pair of boots. I also took, one issue Jack knife.

When arrested at Vocational Training School Barracks, I had one Battle-dress blouse and one pair of Battle dress trousers in a cupboard on the second floor. The battle-dress blouse had Lance/Cpl. sewn on the sleeves.

The above statement has been read over by me and is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. This statement has been made of my own free will, no threats or promises have been held out to me.

Signed: J. A. Housdon.

Re: Application for District Court-Martial,
B.53132, Sgmn. J. A. Housdon,
(RCCS) No. 2 District Depot, C.A.

1. Receipt is acknowledged of your T.20-H-5304 (AJAG) dated the 29th September, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded to this office application for District Court-Martial of the marginally noted soldier, together with Summary of Evidence and Charge Sheet.

2. It would appear from perusal of the Summary that there is sufficient evidence to establish a prima facie case against the accused and to put him on trial. The Charge Sheet as drawn by you seems to be in order. The application is therefore granted and the documents enclosed with your letter are returned herewith.

3. Regarding the telegram addressed to the accused it would seem doubtful as to whether this will be admitted in evidence. Apparently C.S.M.Ching only knows what someone else told him about the finding of the same and his testimony therefore concerning the telegram is hearsay.

1. Receipt is acknowledged of your C.B.20-H-22 (AJAG) dated October 1st, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded for registration and custody the proceedings of the marginally noted District Court-Martial.

2. The following irregularities have been observed:-

(a) The particulars of the second charge on the Charge Sheet do not disclose how the absence ended, whether by apprehension or surrender or by or to the civil or military authorities.

(b) In connection with the confirmation at Camp Borden which was added to the proceedings as well as that by the District Officer Commanding, M. D. No. 2, it is noted that the said confirmation was made by Colonel R. Wood as Acting Commander Camp Borden. It is pointed out, that the power to confirm is a personal power to a particular officer and that that officer is "persona designata" and no one can sign for him or in his absence. Under P.C. 6106 the person authorized to confirm Findings and Sentences is the officer appointed to command the area. If Colonel Wood was not duly and authoritatively appointed to command Camp Borden, he has no power to confirm, as he has not the powers of a District Officer Commanding given to him. The matter is not of importance in this particular case as it is considered that the proper confirming authority was the District Officer Commanding, M. D. No. 2.

3. It is not considered necessary to return the proceedings which are, accordingly, retained for custody. May the above noted irregularities be brought to the attention of the officers concerned for their future guidance.

District Court-Martial
B.46131, Tpr. A.J.Holmes,
A-9 C.A.C. (A) T.C.,C.A.

Herewith Proceedings of the marginally-noted District Court-Martial for registration and custody.

2. By reason of the creation of Camp Borden as a separate entity as of September 11th, 1942, and upon the advice of the Judge Advocate-General, the Finding and Sentence were confirmed by the District Officer Commanding, Military District No. 2, and concurred in by an additional confirmation by the Acting Commander, Camp Borden, and promulgation effected and endorsed.

3. It will be noted that the order for trial is dated the 31st day of August, 1942, and it is pointed out that the accused was unable to undergo trial at the court-martial held on the 3rd of September, 1942, by reason of ill health. In this connection, there is attached to the proceedings, an M.F.B.246 certifying that the accused was unfit to undergo trial on the 3rd of September, 1942.

4. It will also be noted that the first endorsement of promulgation was incorrect and, accordingly, an additional endorsement was obtained.

5. It is noted that the Certificate of Apprehension, Exhibit "B", has not had the deletions initialled by the officer signing same. This has been brought to the attention of the officers concerned, and it is pointed out that considerable difficulty is consistently being experienced in obtaining proper M.F's.M.216 or M.F's.M. 215. The certificates when received are usually incorrect and since same are usually received from points a considerable distance from this Headquarters, the time involved in obtaining a corrected certificate results in the accused being kept in custody awaiting trial for an inordinate length of time.

(A.C. Spencer) Brigadier,
Commander, Camp Borden.

*All printed matter not applicable to the particular Court being held should be struck out and initialled by the President.

Proceedings on Plea of Guilty

*To be struck out in case no "Not Guilty" has been pleaded with.

*[The Court having been sworn, the accused is again brought before the Court and the charge is read to him, and he is asked if he has anything to say why the sentence of the Court should not be pronounced upon him.]

The accused No.B-46131,Tpr.Alfred James HOLMES,Canadian Armoured Corps,attached to A-9 Canadian Armoured Corps(Advanced)Training Centre(CA), (Camp Borden, Ont., is found guilty of all the charges.

*The summary (~~SEALED~~) of evidence is read, marked "I" , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

Q-6 Question to the accused. Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?

A-6 Answer. The accused ~~in mitigation of punishment~~ says:— No, sir.

~~[On being sworn the accused makes the following statement, marked "I", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings]~~

Instruction. * If there is no summary or abstract of evidence, sufficient evidence to enable the Court to determine the sentence, and to enable the confirming officer to know all the circumstances connected with the case, will be taken on a separate sheet in the same manner as on a plea of "Not Guilty."

If from the statement of the accused, or from the summary or abstract of evidence, or otherwise, it appears to the Court that the accused did not understand the effect of his plea of "Guilty," the Court shall alter the record, and enter a plea of "Not Guilty," and proceed with the trial accordingly.

DD

Q-7 Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character? Question to the accused.

A-7 I wish to give evidence myself. Answer.

Evidence as to character.

The Accused, No.B-46131, Tpr. Alfred James HOLMES, Canadian Armoured Corps, attached to A-9 Canadian Armoured Corps (Advanced) Training Centre, (CA), Camp Borden, Ont., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer :-

Q-8 When did you join the Army?

A-8 Sometime in August, '40.

Q-9 At Toronto?

A-9 Yes, sir.

Q-10 You enlisted of your own free will and because you wished to serve in some particular branch of the Army?

A-10 Yes, sir.

Q-11 What branch of the service did you join or want to join?

A-11 Army Service Corps, sir.

Q-12 Was there any particular reason for wanting to join the Army Service Corps?

A-12 All my parters were in that outfit, sir.

Q-13 Any other reason?

A-13 No, sir.

Q-14 Have you any special qualifications or trade?

A-14 No, sir.

Q-15 What happened when you were posted to the R.C.D. in Toronto?

A-15 I was in that outfit, sir, about a day. Then they moved me over to the Toronto Scottish;from there I went back to where I enlisted. There I met some Lieut.-Colonel and he advised me I would be well satisfied with the Canadian Armoured Corps.

Q-16 That is how you came to the Armoured Corps, is that correct?

A-16 Yes, sir.

Q-17 Are you satisfied with the Armoured Corps?

A-17 No, sir.

Q-18 What do you feel about the service generally?

A-18 I don't know, sir. If they'd let me in the outfit I wanted to get in first, I would have had no trouble at all.

Q-19 In other words you feel that you want to be in the service you wanted to join?

A-19 Yes, sir.

Q-20 When you surrendered at the Guard House at Camp Borden on August 11th, you surrendered voluntarily?

A-20 Yes, sir.

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE: You are asking leading questions.

Q-21 In other words you came in and gave yourself up?

A-21 Yes, sir.

Q-22 Will you tell the Court why?

A-22 It was only for the wife and baby, sir. I didn't want them to go on with me being like that.

Q-23 You realized you were facing a serious charge?

A-23 Yes, sir.

Q-24 You wanted to sort of clean up the slate?

A-24 Yes, sir.

Q-25 Any particular reason you had for that?

A-25 No, sir.

--- CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q-26 You tell us that you enlisted in August, '40?

A-26 Yes, sir, around there.

Q-27 Were you discharged from the Army?

A27 Yes, sir.

Q-28 For what reason?

A-28 Bad conduct.

Q-29 When was that?

A-29 Around 1939.

Q-30 And you re-enlisted?

A-30 Yes, sir.

Q-31 And you were discharged in '39?

A-31 Yes, sir, I re-enlisted in 1940.

Q-32 According to your documents you enlisted in May, '41?

A-32 I wasn't sure exactly.

Q-33 You are satisfied with that?

A-33 Yes, sir.

Q-34 It was May, '41 not August, 1940?

A-34 Yes, sir.

Q-35 Where does your wife live?

A-35 79 Essex St.

Q-36 Where?

A-36 Toronto - with her moter.

Q-37 Where did you spend your time when you were away?

A-37 All over, sir.

Q-38 In Toronto much?

A-38 All the time, sir.

Q-39 Were you living with your wife?

A-39 No, sir.

Q-40 Did you see your wife very often?

A-40 No, sir.

Q-41 You are not very fond of your wife?

A-41 I wouldn't say that, sir.

Q-42 You have been in the Army since May, '41, which is about 16 months ago, is that correct?

A-42 Yes, sir.

Q-43 Would you be surprised if I suggested that in 16 months you have been either A.W.L. or in detention for 12 months?

A-43 No, sir.

--- RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q-44 Are your domestic relations unhappy?

A-44 In a way, sir.

--- QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q-45 Were you working during the time you were absent?

A-45 Yes, sir.

--- BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q-46 There has been some mention made of your domestic troubles or the situation at home. Would you care to inform the Court whether that had anything to do with your A.W.L?

A-46 I don't think I would care to, sir.

Q-47 You don't wish to speak about that at all?

A-47 No, sir.

Q-48 I would like you to understand the question. I am not asking you to tell the Court what the situation is but whether it had anything to do with your going A.W.L?

A48 It did in a way, sir.

Q-49 You don't wish to go into detail?

A-49 No, sir.

---In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b).

Q-50 Question by the President. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused? Answer by the Witness. A-50 ;Yes, I produce M.F.B.755 and certified true copy of M.F.R.6.

The above statement [with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with] is read, marked "Y-2", signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q-51 Question by the President. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read? Answer by the Witness A-51 ;Yes, sir.

Q- 52 Question. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books? Answer A-52 ;Yes, sir.

Q- 53 Question. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries? Answer. A-53 ;Yes, sir.

[Instruction.—If by reason of the nature of the sentence of the accused in a departmental corps, or otherwise, the finding of the Court renders him liable to any exceptional punishment in addition to that to be awarded by the Court the prosecutor must call the attention of the Court to the fact, and the Court must inquire into the nature and amount of that additional punishment.]

~~Cross-examined by the accused~~

---The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

---In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate,it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b).

Q-54 Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court? Answer. A-54 ;Yes, through my Defending Officer. (See document marked "J", attached.)

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE 6 Pages Preceding Pres.

in the case of

B-46131 Tpr. Alfred James HOLMES, Canadian Armoured Corps, attached to A-9 Canadian Armoured Corps (Advanced) Training Centre (CA), Camp Borden, Ont., a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on Active Service.

Charges:-

1. Absence Without Leave.
2. Absence Without Leave.
3. Losing by Neglect.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: Lieut. C. S. Dickson, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am Assistant Administrative Officer of A-9 Canadian Armoured Corps (Advanced) Training Centre (CA), Camp Borden, Ont., and as such present the following documentary evidence in the case of the accused, B-46131 Tpr. Alfred James HOLMES, which evidence refers to the accused:-

(a) Certified true copy of Declaration of Court of Inquiry (M.F.B. 375) (Exhibit "A") declaring the accused illegally absent from 0600 hours, 1st December, 1941 and still so absent 27th December, 1941, at which time he was Struck Off Strength as a Deserter.

(b) Certificate of apprehension of the accused by B-67014 L/Cpl. Bramble, A., and B-97660 L/Cpl. Woodward, A.F., of the Canadian Provost Corps, CA., No. 12 Coy., Toronto, Ont. (Exhibit "B").

(c) Certified true copy of Declaration of Court of Inquiry (M.F.B. 378) (Exhibit "C") declaring the accused illegally absent from 1600 hours, 11th February, 1942 and still so absent 12th March, 1942, at which time he was Struck Off Strength as a deserter.

C. S. Dickson Lieut.
Lieut. C. S. Dickson

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS: B-61642 Tpr. Cooper, E. C., having been duly sworn, states:-

I am on the strength of #2 Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Holding Unit, Camp Borden, Ont., attached for all purposes to A-9 Canadian Armoured Corps (Advanced) Training Centre (CA), Camp Borden, Ont.

On 11th February, 1942 I was employed in the Guard House at A-9 Canadian Armoured Corps (Advanced) Training Centre (CA), Camp Borden, Ont., as a member of the Regimental Police. At about 1530 hours I was directed to take the accused, B-46131 Tpr. Alfred James HOLMES, whom I recognize, and who was then under close arrest awaiting trial by District Court Martial, to the ablution room, T-68 at A-9 Canadian Armoured Corps (Advanced) Training Centre (CA), Camp Borden, Ont., where he was to wash his clothes, I was then to return him to the Guard House.

While in the ablution room and while he was dressed in battle dress trousers and in his shirt sleeves with no tunic or hat he asked to be permitted to use the urinal in the adjoining room at about 1600 hours. I took him in to the urinal and when I turned my head to speak to someone passing by, the accused, B-46131 Tpr. Alfred James HOLMES made a dash for the door and escaped. He hid himself so that I was unable to find him and I have not seen him since that date until I saw the accused, B-46131 Tpr. Alfred James HOLMES on the 17th of

August, 1942 after his return from Absence Without Leave. He did not return to the Guard House after escaping from my custody and was continuously away until 11th August, 1942 for I would have known of his return had he returned before that.

E C Cooper
B-61642 Tpr. Cooper, E. C.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS: B-102608 Cpl. Boville, C., having been duly sworn, states:-

I am Corporal in charge of the night shift on duty in the Guard House at A-9 Canadian Armoured Corps (Advanced) Training Centre (CA) Camp Borden, Ont. and have been so for about seven (7) months.

At 0245 hours on the 11th August, 1942, the accused, B-46131 Tpr. Alfred James HOLMES, whom I recognize, surrendered himself at the Guard House at the above centre from Absence Without Leave. , and was placed under close arrest. He was sober and properly dressed.

The accused when under close arrest went Absent Without Leave on the 11th February, 1942 and as Corporal employed in the Guard House I know that at no time since that date did the accused, B-46131 Tpr. Alfred James HOLMES return to A-9 Canadian Armoured Corps (Advanced) Training Centre (CA) until he surrendered at 0245 hours on the 11th of August, 1942. Had he returned at any time in the interval I would have known of it.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: The only thing I can say to the Court on behalf of the accused is merely that, after a long conversation with the accused before he came before this Court, he certainly feels that he wants to clear up the record. That is one of the main reasons why he returned. He also feels that he would be better at his trade - in the original branch of the service which he wished to join. There is also undoubtely domestic trouble but I think, after discussing the case thoroughly, it is really the desire of the accused to throw himself on the mercy of the Court in order that he may be able to show in future that he can become a good soldier. That is all I have to say, sir.

REPORT ON CONDUCT

Department of National Defence,
H. Q. C. 55- H-290, (IEMS)
OTTAWA, July 24th, 1943.

To:- Commandant CAMLING HEIGHTS, Military Detention Barracks.

1. Soldier under sentence	B.87928, Pte. C. A. HORTON,
2. PLEASE STATE:-
(i) Date of sentence	June 24th. 1943
(ii) Sentence	6 Months
(iii) Date you received soldier	2 July 43
(iv) (a) Can soldier read and write?	Yes.
(b) Religion	Methodist
(c) Married, Widower, Single	Single (Divorced)
(d) What Army trade has soldier?	None.
(v) (a) Conduct of soldier	Good.(Since his incarceration)
(b) Industry of soldier	Good.An excellent soldier.
(c) Remission earned:-
(i) Number of days actually earned	6 Days.
(ii) Number of days obtainable to date	6 Days.
(vi) Medical Officer or Surgeon's report on physical and mental condition; if soldier is ill, should state:-	Physically fit. Mentally above average Anxious to get overseas. Should be a good soldier. amo.
(a) Whether detention will seriously aggravate soldier's condition.
(b) Whether further confinement is likely to prove fatal.
(vii) (a) Whether in your opinion conduct of soldier warrants suspension of sentence?	Conduct while under sentence has been very good and it is my opinion that should this man be drafted for Over-Seas service directly from Military Detention Bks he would prove to be an efficient soldier. The above opinion is based on the fact that domestic trouble has been the undelying cause of his previous bad record.
(b) Moral effect confinement has had?
(c) If returned to Army, is soldier likely to become a good soldier?
(viii) Date term will expire if all remission earned from now on.	Sentence with remission will expire 24 Nov.43

Re: District Court-Martial,
B.87928, Pte. Horton, C.A.
No. 5 Coy, A-29, C.I.C.T.C.,C.A.

Receipt is acknowledged of your L.28-H-101 dated the 14th July 1943, under cover of which you forwarded for registration and custody the proceedings of the marginally-noted District Court-Martial.

2. The proceedings have been reviewed and the following irregularities noted:

(a) On page A of the proceedings it is stated that Capt. N.E.Porte was not available to serve as a Member of the Court-Martial and that the Waiting Member, Capt.H.D.McLeod, took his place as a Member of the Court. However, Capt. Porte is listed above this statement as one of the two Members of the Court. Where a Waiting Member takes the place of a Member of the Court, under the heading "Members" on page A his name should appear instead of the name of the Member detailed in the Convening Order who has been found unavailable to serve. See page 32, paragraph 11, Handbook on District Courts-Martial as amended.

(b) On page B, the words "and Judge Advocate" in the first line should have been struck out, and the word "and" inserted between "President" and "Members". See page 36, of the Handbook.

(c) As noted by you in your letter, Exhibit "B" (2 sheets) is not admissible in evidence. Exhibit "C", however, does not contain any evidence of the surrender of Pte. Horton to the American authorities. The correct procedure in such circumstances is described on page 22 of the Amendment to the Handbook on District Courts-Martial which replaces pages 61 to 63 inclusive thereof.

(d) Exhibit "E" is not admissible in evidence since it is required that it be completed by the officer who authorized the transportation. Although as you state in your letter, the Transport Officer was absent on duty, there is no provision for the completion of the document by a Sergeant. However, I do not consider it necessary to have the sentence commuted by deducting the amount shown in Exhibit "E", since the total transportation expenses were included in the Particulars of the Charge and the accused did not dispute the accuracy of this amount, but pleaded Guilty.

(e) The correct military number of Pte. Horton appears to be B.87928. In Exhibit "F" (M.F.B.375) his number is stated in every instance as A.87928. Pte.

Noted
L. H. Clayton
L. H. CLAYTON

Inspector of Courts-Martial
JUL 2 1 1943

.....(over)

Horton is, however, adequately identified in Exhibit "F" by name, initial, rank, company, etc. Therefore, this error may in this instance be regarded merely as an irregularity.

(f) Exhibit "G" is not admissible in evidence. The witness who produced this exhibit should have included in his testimony the facts contained in Exhibit "G". To assist him in doing so he could have used the sheet submitted as Exhibit "G" to refresh his memory, in the manner described on page 89, paragraph 70, M.M.L. Exhibit "F" is however admissible, and since the amount found to be due by the Court-Martial is less than the amount shown in Exhibit "F" and the accused had an opportunity to question the amount but did not do so, the inadmissibility of Exhibit "G" does not affect the decision of the Court on this matter.

3. It is not considered necessary to return the proceedings which are accordingly retained for custody. May the above noted irregularities be brought to the attention of all officers concerned for their future guidance.

(R.J.Orde), Brigadier,
Judge Advocate-General.

The proceedings in connection with the District Court-Martial of the m/n accused are enclosed herewith. Your attention is directed to the following irregularities.

2. The documents now comprising pages 21 and 23 of the proceedings although not properly admissible in evidence were admitted at the request of the Defending Officer. (See page 35 of the proceedings.)

3. On page 27 of the proceedings in the M.F.B. 1481 the deletions are not initialled by the officer executing the document.

4. Page 29 the M.F.B. 1481 is signed by the Transport Sergeant with respect to transportation authorized. At the time this transportation was authorized the sergeant who executed this certificate was in fact the only one with authority to authorize this transportation, as the Transport Officer was absent on duty.

5. The delay in forwarding these proceedings was occasioned by the necessity of distributing and properly instructing the Officers commanding the units in connection with the completion of form M.F.M. 288.

6. It is trusted that you will find the proceedings in all other respects in order.

THE PROSECUTOR:

In regard to Exhibit "B" to the Summary of Evidence, pursuant to R.P. 60, footnote 1, I should state that this document, which forms part of the Summary, establishes that the accused did surrender himself to the American Military Authorities on the 31st day of May; and in the Charge Sheet he is charged with being absent without leave until that time. The proper form, M.F.M.216, which is also part of the Summary, only establishes that the accused came into custody of the Canadian Military Authorities on 1st June. So that it makes a difference of one day in the period of absence with which the accused is charged.

-- The Defending Officer requests that these documents be admitted.

ADDRESS BY DEFENDING OFFICER IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

The accused, Pte Horton, realizes that he has done wrong, and he has pleaded guilty to both charges. He has no desire to take up your time, andhe places himself at the mercy of the Court.

His past record, it is true, hasn't been very good; but during his basic training at Chatham he was recommended as possible N.C.O. material. He has a high M-test score, and could be a good soldier. Since enlisting he has been willing and anxious to go overseas. I am sure if you could include with his punishment a recommendation that he be put on some future draft, that he would become a credit to the Canadian Army.

I certify that No. B-67928 Pte. Horton, G.A.

Re: DISTRICT COURT-MARTIAL.
B.27928, Gnr. HORTON, C.A.
No. 1 District Depot, (CA) (A).

Receipt is acknowledged of your L.28-H-101, dated 6th October, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded to this office for registration and custody the Proceedings of the marginally-noted District Court-Martial.

2. The following irregularities have been observed:

(a) In the marginal notation on the Charge Sheet, the word "Charge" was omitted.

(b) In the particulars of the Charge, the words "On charges of bigamy and perjury" should have been omitted. These particulars had no reference to the charge itself.

(c) On Form W.F.B. 375, the letters "A.F." after the description of No. 1 District Depot should have been omitted. The letters "C.A." are sufficient to denote Active Service.

3. Itis not considered necessary to return the Proceedings and they are, therefore, retained for custody. May the foregoing irregularities be brought to the attention of all officers concerned for their future guidance.

Judge Advocate-General.

A.14 This is a document I was asked to witness when the 69th Battery were warned for embarkation.

Q.15 Read the document; that part of it that effects the accused?

A.15 "The 69th L.A.A. Bty. R.C.A.(CA) will proceed on special duty any date after today, 3rd July, 1941. Any soldier who by being absent without leave or by overstaying his pass or furlough, is absent when the Unit proceeds on such special duty, will be liable to be charged with desertion. I, the undersigned, have heard the above warning and understand exactly its meaning."

Q.16 Is there anything there further that relates to the accused before this Court?

A.16 There is one B.87928, Gnr. C.O. Horton, signed here.

Q.17 He is one of the signatories to this warning order?

A.17 Yes, Sir.

Q.18 Where do you come in? What is the statement at the foot there? Would you read that?

Q.18 At the foot of the paper it says----

Q.19 Your connection with the document?

A.19 Witness to the above signatures. My name is signed.

Q.20 That is your signature at the bottom, is it?

A.20 Yes, Sir.

Q.21 You recognize your signature on that document?

A.21 Yes, Sir.

DOCUMENT HEADED "69TH L.A.A. BATTERY R.C.A. (CA) 3rd JULY,1941," MARKED EXHIBIT "J",SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT AND ATTACHED TO THE PROCEEDINGS.

Q.22. Mr. Stevenson, would you remember the circumstances under which this warning order was completed?

A.22 Yes, Sir. Major Gossage read the statement, which I read here, to the 69th Battery, who were drawn up on the parade ground; and warned verbally by him. He asked them if every person heard him clearly and understood the meaning of the statement he had read. I was asked by Major Gossage to sign as witness to these signatures, and I did.

Q.23 Did you actually see each of the persons sign?

A.23 Yes, Sir.

Q.24 They signed before you?

A.24 Yes, Sir; they signed at the bottom of the hall of"H" Hut, which is now known as 5-A and 5-B, Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.25. Lieut. Stevenson, do you recognize the accused?

A.25 I couldn't swear to that, Sir.

Q.26 If you couldn't recognize the accused, then you can't recognize his signature?

A.26 Not after that length of time.

Q.27 The date of this document is the 3rd of July?

A.27 Yes, Sir.

Q.28 What time was it on that day?

A.28 I couldn't tell you, Sir.

Q.29 Was it in the morning?

A.29 I couldn't tell you, Sir.

Q.30 Was it in the afternoon?

A.30 I believe it was the afternoon.

Q.31 About what time?

A.31 Sometime after dinner, Sir.

Q.32 Immediately after dinner?

A.32 I couldn't verify that statement, Sir.

Q.33 That is very important?

A.33 After a year's lapse of time and thousands of men have gone through the school, it is very difficult to remember.

Q.34 This signature here was read as Gunner C.O. Horton; it might be an "A". This might be an "E", but you can't remember what time of day these boys were paraded?

A.34 No sir, I cannot.

Q.35 Were you in the parade?

A.35 Yes,Sir, but I don't know what time it was. I believe it was sometime after dinner.

Q.36 You heard the verbal warning given?

A.36 Yes, Sir.

Q.37 And these boys were paraded to you and signed this document?

A.37 Yes, Sir.

Q.38 But you cannot identify the accused?

A.38 No, Sir, I wouldn't say that.

Q.39 Where was this document signed?

A.39 It was signed on the south side of the parade ground, Sir,at the bottom of the hall of "H" hut, right along the parade ground; the hut is directly behind the flag; it is now known as 5-A and 5-B.

Q.40 At Queens Park?

A.40 No, at Woodstock.

Q. 41 Signed at Woodstock?

A.41 Yes, Sir.

Q.42 And not at Queens Park ?

A.42 No,Sir.

Q.43 And not at London?

A.43 No, Sir.

THE PRSOECUTOR DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.44 Mr. Stevenson, are you sure in your own mind that this man was present when you witnessed the document?

A.44 I can't swear to this man. All I can swear to on that document is my signature.

Q.45 You were present when all those signatures were put on that document?

A.45 Yes, Sir.

Q.46 In case a point maybe made of this later, and to clear up the point: what do you say as to whether or not you were present when the men whose signatures are purported to be, were actually signed on this document?

A.46 I was, Sir.

Q.47 And did they sign directly in front of you, or over at that far corner of the parade ground, or over there?

A.47 They signed on a table the same as you are using now.

Q.48 Where were you?

A.48 Sitting behind, Sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE

Q.49 That is to say, they paraded along past a table at which you were sitting behind, and each man stopped and wrote his name, is that right?

A.49 That is right, Sir.

Q.50 Who put the numbers down in each case, that is the regimental numbers, who wrote them down, the man himself?

A.50 I believe the man himself wrote it down, Sir; signed his name and his number, Sir.

Q.51 The man stopped, wrote out his number, rank and signed his name?

A.51 Yes, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R. P. 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

1st Witness for Defence — The accused, B.87928, Gunner Charles Allen Horton, No. 1 District Depot (CA) (A), being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.55. Tell the Court your number and full name?

A.55 B.87928, Gunner Horton, C.A.

Q.56. Gunner Horton, I want you to tell the Court your story from the 3rd of July - what happened on the 3rd of July, until the present, if you like - in detail, for the next three months, approximately three months?

A.56. I was at the barracks at Woodstock on the 3rd day of July; and I had just been married to a girl in Guelph. I attempted to get a pass to go back to Guelph to see her, and was refused a pass by my troop officer. He wouldn't parade me to the Battery Commander ...I don't know why he wouldn't what the reason was. I waited until Saturday, which would be the 5th of July. I went away Saturday afternoon, and intended returning Saturday night back to the barracks. When I arrived at Guelph my wife wasn't home....

Q. 57. Just a moment: may I get back a little, to the 3rd of July. You were in barracks at Woodstock on the 3rd of July?

A.57 No, I arrived in barracks at Woodstock about four o'clock on that afternoon, sir; just before mess time.

Q.58 Just before mess time?

A.58 Yes, Sir.

Q.59 Was there any parade that you attended that day?

A.59 No, I did not.. ..When I got into barracks, Sir, the troops were out on parade somewhere, and I went and worked in the kitchen that night, Sir.

Q.60 On the 3rd of July did you sign any document warning you for overseas service or special duty ?

A.60 No, Sir, I never saw any such document.

Q.61 Did you ever see Lieut. Stevenson before?

A.61 No, Sir.

Q.62 You didn't see him on the 3rd of July?

A.62 I never saw him before in my life.

Q.63 Never saw him in your life before until today?

A.63 I am sure of that.

Q.64 You never signed any statement that day. You were not in parade for being warned for any special duty, and you went to work in the kitchen?

A.64 I never was on any parade that day, Sir.

Q.65 Go along with your story....on Saturday the 5th....?

A.65 The 5th of July, Sir.

Q.66 You were telling us about requesting a pass?

A.66 I tried to get a pass from Lieut. Mathews, my troop officer, Sir; he refused me a pass. I tried to get him to parade me to Major Gossage, and he wouldn't parade me. I waited until Saturday, and went to Guelph. When I got there my wife wasn't there, and her mother wasn't. I stayed around until Saturday night, and she didn't return. I was kind of worried at that time - I had only been married three weeks. I waited until Sunday...Sunday night she wasn't back. My mother-in-law went and told the police, the Guelph Police. She didn't return yet on Monday; so at this time, I think Monday or Tuesday, I am not positive, I learned that I was being looked for for bigamy. I had never been in trouble before with the civilian authorities, and I guess I made a kind of a bad mistake not coming back to camp, to go away from the law.

Q.67 Where did you go from there?

A.67 I went first to Niagara Falls to my father's place to see if she was there. She hadn't been there. I heard she was at Woodstock; I returned there, and was only there a couple of hours, and went back to the Falls; and that is where I spent the time until I was returned to the civilian authorities at Guelph.

Q.68 You went from Guelph sometime Monday or Tuesday to your father's place in Niagara District....Stamford?

A.68 Yes, Sir.

Q.69 And how were you dressed?

A.69 Uniform, Sir.

Q.70 And you stayed around your father's place or in that district with your relatives for a matter oftwo or three months?

A.70 Yes, Sir.

Q.71 Did you leave the home? Did you hide yourself?

A.71 No, Sir. I was around town. I was at my sisters' place, and all my relatives down there. I wasn't hiding.

Q.72 You went around?

A.72 Yes, Sir.

Q.73 Did you ever come up further into Western Ontario?

A.73 I was at Tilsonburg once, Sir.

Q.74 And where did you go from Tilsonburg?

A.74 Back to the Falls again, Sir.

Q.75 Didn't you go any place else?

A.75 I was in Brantford. I was at Tilsonburg. I went to Brantford, and it was a Saturday night, and I decided I was going to turn myself back to the army, so I went to Brantford...

Q76 What date was that?

A.76 The latter part of September....I wouldn't be sure.

Q.77 It was a Saturday night?

A.77 Saturday night, Sir. I attempted to turn myself in at this training centre at Brantford; and I told the sergeant on the guard I was absent without leave from Woodstock, and he said "We can't turn you in here; you will have to go back to your Unit."

Q.78 That was on a Saturday night near the end of September in Brantford?

A.78 Yes, it was. There was a dance on there, or something of that sort.

Q.79 Where did you go from there?

A.79 Back to the Falls, Sir.

Q.80 You went back to the Falls, and then what happened?

A.80 I stayed around there a few more days.....I realized how foolish I had been, and so I went to Welland and turned myself in to the Provincial Police.

Q.81. You went to Welland and turned yourself in...

A.81 To the City Police.

Q.82 To the City Police?

A.82 City Police, Welland.

Q.83 When you went to the Police Station what did you say?

A.83 I said "I understand there is a warrant for my arrest for bigamy, and I am also Absent without leave from the army. I am going to turn myself in."

Q.84 What date was that, or approximate date?

A.84 The 21st of October.

Q85 How long were you in jail in Welland?

A.85 I was held there on remand, Sir, on a charge....just a holding charge of vagrancy, for seven or eight days, I am not positive which.

Q.86 Seven or eight days?

A.86 Yes.

Q.87 Who came for you?

A.87 A police officer, a detective by the name of Hodgkiss, and another Mr. Gill, from Guelph City Police; they came for me, and took me back to Guelph.

Q.88 Took you back to Guelph?

A.88 Yes, Sir.

Q.89 When you left the barracks at Woodstock on the 5th of July, at noon, after you had requested a pass and it was refused, when the other boys were getting passes, it was (Continued) refused, and you asked to see the senior officer, and it was refused.....?

A.89 Yes, Sir.

Q.90 Being a half holiday you decided to go to Guelph?

A.90 Yes, Sir.

Q.91 You went off to Guelph - what did you intend to do?

A.91 I intended to go and see my wife, Sir, that afternoon, and return that night at 9.30 at roll call.

Q.92 To roll call at 9.30?

A.92 Yes, Sir.

Q.93 Then you found your wife had disappeared?

A.93 Yes, Sir.

Q.94 And you were naturally worried, and stayed around for a few days. During the time you were absent from the army how were you dressed?

A.94 I was dressed in uniform at all times.

Q.95 You have stated you didn't try to hide yourself?

A.95 No, Sir.

Q.96 You were dressed in uniform and you circulated freely about the people...?

A.96 Yes, Sir.

Q.97 And then on the 21st day of October, not the 28th as the charge sheet says, you were not apprehended by the police?

A.97 No, I voluntarily turned myself in.

Q.98 You voluntarily turned yourself into the police at Guelph ?

A.98 Yes, Sir.

Q.99 And you were held there for at least one week?

A.99 Yes, Sir.

Q.100 CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Gunner Horton, would you tell us what happened on the 3rd of July: where were you when you woke up in the morning on the 3rd of July?

A.100 I was in detention at London, Sir.

Q.101 And what happened during the day?

A.101 Well, I was in detention, Sir, until about 1.30. My escort came for me and took me back to Woodstock, where I was released.

Q.102 How did they take you back?

A.102 Truck, Sir.

Q.103 What time did you arrive at Woodstock?

A.103 It was very very close to parade....parade was just over I think; that would be 4.30, very shortly after the parade was over, I think.

Q.104 Were you on any parade that day?

A.104 No, I went straight to the kitchen that day.

Q.105 I don't mean drill parade necessarily, but were you in any gathering where the troop got together? Was there a parade for any purpose that day?

A.105 Not when I came back; there was hardly no one around the barracks. The boys were out on a recruiting parade or something, all over the country. There was one man there in the kitchen....

Q.106 What time did you go to work in the kitchen?

A.106 Before supper; as soon as I got my clothes changed.

Q.107 When you came back to Woodstock you were released and immediately warned for duty in the Kitchen, is that so?

A.107 It wasn't necessary that I go into the kitchen, but there was another guy there, and he wanted to get off and go out, and he wanted me to come and take his place; that is why I went into the kitchen. There was no parade that day. I was never on parade that day, Sir.

Q.108 What did you learn about the Battery when you came back to Woodstock - any news about the Battery? You know when you get back, you ask what happened, what is going on, and what has happened?

A.108 While I was in detention, Sir, I heard our regiment was moving; We had been hearing that ever since I had been in the outfit.

Q.109 Did you hear anything more along that line when you got back to Woodstock?

A.109 No, I wouldn't say I heard anythingspecial, Sir; but it wasn't with any intention of avoiding any draft that I left.

Q.110 Have you seen this document? Would you say that was your signature? (Produces Exhibit "J" to witness)

A.110 I would say it looks like it.

Q.111 You would say it looks like it?

A.111 Yes, Sir.It is my name and number all right.

Q.112 I think the Court and you will realize that that "A"....it looks like an "O".....Do you not think that for instance that capital "H" of yours is absolutely typical; it is an unusual "H". Those three are the same?

A.112 I wouldn't be prepared to say that, Sir.

Q.113 Would you be prepared to say, Gunner Horton, that you did not sign this sheet?

A.113 I am certain, Sir, that if I signed that sheet, I never saw that sheet before.

Q.114 Sirs, the document which Gunner Horton has just said he

Q.114 (continued) did not sign and did not see before was the warning order, Exhibit "J". The specimen signatures that I have shown him for comparison, and which I would like to present to the Court, are the signatures on the Summary of Evidence in this trial; the other is M.F.M. 2 purporting to be M.F.M. 2 for B.87928 Charles Allen Horton. Is that your signature?

A.114 Yes, Sir.

Q.115 And this is your statement in the Summary of Evidence taken before this trial, which is signed by C.A. Horton: is that your signature?

A.115. Yes, Sir.

Q.116. The two signaturew which you have identified, and the third signature on the warning order, what do you say as to the similarity between those three signatures?

A.116 Well, they look very much alike.

Q.117 What do you say as to this one, the warning order's signature being your signature?

A.117 I would say it wasn't; it couldn't be.

Q.118 And you say you did not sign this form?

A.118 I could have signed the form, but it never had that on it when I signed it, and I never signed it on that date. I could have signed it sometime, but not as a warning for draft.

Q.119 Gunner Horton, did you sign it the next day?

A.119 No, Sir.

Q.120 There has been no suggestion that the signing wasn't completed on that day, but I would like to put that question: your answer is "no"?

A.120 "No".

Q.121 When you left on the 5th, as you have told us, did you know that the Battery had been warned for overseas?

A.121 No,Sir.

Q.122 Was the entire 69th Battery at Woodstock?

A.122 I couldn't say that, Sir; Idon't know.

Q.123 Do you recognize any of these names as having been at Woodstock: Gunner House, Gunner Hughes, Gunner J.H.Hughes....?

A.123 No, Sir.

Q.124 Gunner W.W. Homes?

A.124 No, I couldn't answer that man, Sir.

Q.125 Gunner Harwood?

A.125 Yes, I know that man.

Q.126 Harwood, you recognize was at Woodstock with the 69th Battery at that time?

A.126 Yes, Sir.

Q.127 And Gunner Holmes?

A.127 No, Sir.

Q.128 Gunner Hardy?

A.128 No, Sir.

Q.129 Gunner Hammer?

A.129 I remember the name, but I don't remember the man.

Q.130 Gunner Howard?

A.130 Yes, Sir.

Q.131 Two, Howard E.W. and C.P. Gunner Husnik?

A.131 No, Sir.

Q.132 Gunner Hutchinson?

A.132 No, Sir.

Q.133 Gunner Hand, R.J.Hand?

A.133 I remember the name, but it is a long time; I don't remember all of the men.

Q.134 Gunner Hays?

A.134 No, Sir.

Q.135 Gunner Harding? Lance-Bombadier Harding?

A.135 Yes, I remember him.

Q.136 You remember him at Woodstock?

A.136 Yes.

Q.137 Those men were at Woodstock with the 69th Battery at the time you went back , they were members of the unit?

A.137 They were members of the unit, Yes, Sir.

Q.138 How long had you been away from the unit?

A.138 21 days, Sir.

Q.139 Here we have a unit warned for overseas, and all of these men, for instance, here are in "H's" you will notice - just one letter of the alphabet, and you have recognized a good few of them..some of them....Those men had signed this form and they knew that the battery was warned for overseas - no fooling this time; because this doesn't happen until you are going. I admit there are always rumors that you are going to move and going to move; but in this case it was serious and definite; these men knew it. Can you suggest how on the 5th, when you went away, you didn't know it?

A. 139 I had never been told; there was never any parade that I attended.

Q.140 Did you know it as a matter of common knowledge?

A.140 I just knew what I said before, that we were going to move....we were in Guelph, and of course went to Woodstock; I heard that.

Q.141 When you went from Guelph to Woodstock you didn't have all This business of warning?

A.141 No, Sir.

Q.142 I submit to you it would have been very difficult, Gunner Horton, to have been in that Camp at Woodstock when the 69th Battery were moving for overseas, and you a member of that unit, without knowing? The air would be full of it. ....Without your knowing that the outfit was going overseas. You say that at the time you went absent without leave on the 5th of July you did not know that the 69th Battery was moving overseas, is that so?

A.142 I did not know; If I had I wouldn't have ever went absent.

Q.143 Then you went home, you went to Guelph?

A.143 Yes, Sir.

Q.144 You didn't go back: you came, according to your evidence, close to Woodstock....in Woodstock on one occasion? Did you know that the Battery had gone?

A.144 No, I don't think it had yet. I dom't know when it left, but that was only about five days after I left when I was back in Woodstock.

Q.145 According to your evidence, which is in Court as part of this case, on the 15th of July, all the men who, and you as one, did not go to the 4th Light Anti-Aircraft Regiment were transfer red to the strength of No. 1 District Depot - that is the 15th of July, that is when ithad been completed. When did you know that the outfit had gone?

A.145 The fist time I had definite knowledge of it, Sir, was when I was doing time up at the Ontario Reformatory. I saw the Battery Commander's picture in the paper, and it said he was in England.

M.F.M. 2 OF ACCUSED MARKED EXHIBIT "L",SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT AND ATTACHED TO THE PROCEEDINGS.

Q.146 When you gave yourself up to the City Police in Welland on some date in October, 1941, on what charge did you surrender?

A.146 On the two charges, Sir.

Q.147 The civilian charge?

A.147 And the military charge.

Q.148 The City Police then did what, what did they do to you then?

A.148 I told them about being absent without leave, and they asked me my name, number and unit. They said they would get in touch with the Provosts; and nothing happened. The Police from Guelph came down and got me about a week later.

Q.149 In other words, they proceeded with the civil charge?

A.149 Yes, Sir.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q.150 How long were you in Woodstock altogether?

A.150 Stationed there, Sir?

Q.151 Yes.

A.151 I couldn't say that, Sir; I am not sure.

Q.152 You can tell the Court if you were there a week, two weeks or a month?

A.152 I would say a month; I am not positive of the time, Sir.

Q.153 About a month?

A.153 I would say that is right, Sir.

Q.154 Around that barracks every day for a month?

A.154 I was there about four days when I got this 21 up here; then I came back and that is the rest of my time....

Q.155 You were only at Woodstock four days prior to this warning order that you are supposed to have signed?

A.155 Yes, I would say I wasn't there.....About that, yes.

Q.156 The point I am getting at is, what opportunity you had to become acquainted with Mr. Stevenson?

A.156 We moved into Woodstock, Sir, and we were there about three days when I went absent and got married. I was gone twelve or fifteen days and I cam back and got twenty-one days detention. After I got out of there...that is the 3rd of July.

Q.157 You were only actually in Woodstock three or four days prior to the time of the signing of the order?

A.157 Yes, Sir.

Q.158 How long were you down around St. Catharines....?

A.158 Niagara Falls.

Q.159 How long were you down there?

A.159 This time?

Q.160 When you were absent without leave?

A.160 I was down there all the time I was away.

Q.161 How long would that be, six or seven weeks.. ..three and a half months. You were about three and a half months in uniform?

A.161 Yes, Sir.

Q.162 Didn't your in-laws or wife question your being in uniform?

A.162 I wasn't living there with my wife.

Q.163 But you mentioned about your mother or father or some relative....?

A.163 I stayed with my father...I have a father and three sisters there, and an uncle and an aunt and soforth.

Q.164 Didn't they want to know what you were doing there all the time in uniform?

A.164 They might have, but I never stayed very long at one place.

Q.165 Didn't they ask you that question?

A.165 No, they did not.

Q.166 They never asked you all that time you were around there whether you were on leave or but of the army?

A.166 No, Sir.

Q.167 No one ever asked you that question?

A.167 No, I can't say they did. I don't remember they did.

Q.168 How did you support yourself during that time?

A.168 I had some money of my own, and I stayed with my father and sisters and soforth.

Q.169 You claim you were released here from detention on the 3rd of July at 1.30?

A.169 Yes, Sir.

Q.170 What time did you arrive in Woodstock?

A.170 I would say it was around four o'clock.

Q.171 How did you go from here to Woodstock?

A.171 Truck.

Q.172 Did it take three hours, or two and a half hours to go in a truck...?

A.172 We stopped along the way and I am not sure about the time; but when we got back to Woodstock the boys had been on parade, and gone back when I got there.

Q.173 How long did it take you to go from London to Woodstock?

A.173 I don't know; I didn't have any watch.

Q.174 How long approximately?

A.174 I sayan hour or an hour and a half. We made one stop at least, Sir, at a gasoline station; I remember that. I don't know how long it took us.

Q.175 You just stopped at a gasoline station, and got gas?

A.175 No, we got soft drinks; two of us got out.

Q.176 How long did you stop at the gasoline station?

A.176 Not very long; twenty minutes or half an hour, at the longest.

Q.177 Then immediately you arrived back at Woodstock who did they deliver you to, or where did you go?

A.177 We drove in front of the orderly room when I got out of the truck, and I was released from detention by Sgt. Wagg. I went over to the hut. There was only two or three soldiers around the hut. This one wanted me to take his place in the kitchen; he said he wanted me to go in before supper. I took off my battle-dress, and went into the kitchen.

Q.178 It seems strange that you were let out of detention barracks and went into kitchen duty for a friend...?

A.178 He paid me for it.

Q.179 Do you know his name?

A.179 No; he was a Frenchman.

Q.180 He was a friend of yours?

A.180 Yes, Sir.

Q.181 You don't know his name?

A.181 I don't know his name. I came back into Barracks, and we were sitting talking for a while; he wanted to go out and wanted to know if anybody would take his place in the Kitchen.

Q.182 What was the gist of the conversation then?

A.182 We were talking about how thing were up in London at Detention; just ordinary conversation.

Q.183 There was a general conversation for fifteen or twenty minutes?

A.183 I couldn't tell you what we talked about.

Q.184 Was anything mentioned about the unit going overseas during this discussion?

A.184 No, not that I remember, Sir.

Q.185 Do you suggest that the men wereon parade signing this order when you arrived back into camp then?

A.185 No, the men weren't signing the warning order that day; they had been out recruiting or something, wut with the trucks, and just came back about the time I went into the kitchen; no soldiers around camp from my hut.

Q.186 Do you suggest that during this time you were in camp there weren't any men around that it would have been possible to hold a parade to sign this order ?

A.186 No, there was no such parade.

Q.187 There was no such parade around during the time you were there?

A.187 No, Sir.

Q.188 To your knowledge?

A.188 No, Sir.

Q.189 Captain Thomas, the Prosecutor, read the names of the men on this warning order, Exhibit "J"; some of them you said you didn't know, some of them you thought you knew. When you returned from Detention and arrived at Woodstock on the 3rd of July were those men with the Unit stationed at Woodstock? I will read all those names to you again. (List of names on Exhibit "J" read to witness). Now were those men , or do you remember any of those men being around the station or training centre, or where ever you were at Woodstock, on your return from Detention Barracks on the 3rd of July?

A.189 No, Sir, I can't remember seeing any of them right on my return.

Q.190 Did you see them then the day following, say the 4th of July, or the 5th, Saturday the 5th before you went off to Guelph?

A.190 I saw a few of them.

Q.191 Can you give me the name of more than one you saw?

A.191 The only one I remember of seeing is Lance-Bombadier Harding.

Q.192 You saw Harding?

A.192 Yes, Sir.

Q.193 Can you remember when you saw Harding.....From the night of your return, the following day or was it Saturday before you went away?

A.193 I saw him; I couldn't tell exactly when I saw him, but I know I saw him and talked to him.

Q.194 Do you remember seeing anybody else besides Harding?

A.194 I know some of the other men.

Q.195 Were any of these men, whose names I read out, of your troop?

A.195 This L/Bdn. Harding.

Q.196 Any others besides Harding?

A.196 I don't remember, no; there may have been, but I don't know; it is quite a while ago.

Q.197 Did Harding, for example, say anything to you about the Battery leaving?

A.197 They were mostly talking, Sir, about examinations they had had...All the rest of the boys had had gas detention examinations, and I had missed that. That is all they talked about mostly; they were always talking about moving.

Q.198 I understand that, but had rumors and talk about moving began to crystalize into what was going to be a reality?

A.198 Not to my knowledge.

Q.199 Not to your knowledge perhaps, but did you between the time you returned from Detention Barracks the 3rd of July, to the time you went away on Saturday afternoon the 5th of July, did you at that time understand from any source at all that the prospects of the Battery leaving

Q.199 (continued) were very very much better than they had been say since you went off to the Detention Barracks?

A.199 No, I wouldn't say that.

Q.200 Was there any change in the attitude of the men that might be attributed to the fact that the Battery was going to start moving?

A.200 I don't think there was any change in the attitude.

Q.201 How long after your arrival at Guelph.....When were you sentenced?

A.201 By the civilian Court?

Q.202 Yes?

A.202 Iwas sentenced on the 14th of November.

Q.203 The 14th of November?

A.203 I believe that is right.

Q.204 After leaving on the 5th of July, how long was it before you heard from any source anything which would suggest to you that your Battery had arrived in England?

A.204 It was in January, I believe, Sir; sometime in the winter.

Q.205 You say you spent the period of your absence around Niagara Falls?

A.205 Yes, Sir.

Q.206 And did you earn any money anywhere?

A.206 No, Sir.

Q.207 How much money did you have when you went absent? You said you had some money - how much did you have?

A.207 I believe I had around $14.00, Sir; I had some more coming.

Q208 Are you quite content that the Court should understand that during the entire period of your absence, when you circulated about your relatives, your father, one brother, I think you said, and some sisters, with whom I understood you to say you lived and got money, that none of these people at that time asked you or suggested to you the suspicion that you were absent without leave?

A.208 I don't know what they suspected; but they never asked me, Sir.

Q209 Might I suggest they knew you were absent without leave, and that is why they didn't ask you?

A.209 I don't know, Sir; I never stayed very long with one person.

Q.210 How long did you stay with somebody?

A.210 The longest I ever stayed with my father.....I stayed two weeks with him at one time.

Q.211 Your absence then, which was three and a half months, was spent then around among others. How many other people did you visit?

A.211 I visited my uncle in Tilsonburg.

Q.212 In Tilsonburg once?

A.212 I visited my sister in Niagara Falls, and another sister.... that is two sisters in Niagara Falls, and I have another sister living out in the country.

Q.213 Did you visit her?

A.213 Yes.

Q.214 Whoelse did you visit?

A.214 I visited another uncle at a place called Currie Station.

Q.215 That is five. Whoelse?

A.215 Then I have a man who is a second cousin of my father.

Q.216 Did you visit him?

A.216 Yes.

Q.217 How long?

A.217 I stayed there a couple of days different times.

Q.218 That is six people. Whoelse did you visit?

A.218 I guess that is about all, Sir.

Q.219 Two weeks with your father was the longest visit you had?

A.219 Yes, Sir.

Q.220 And you have given us or described five other people with whom you visited, and what do you say was the longest you had visited any one of them?

A.221 I stayed with this cousin of my father off and on with him; I stayed out there at one time for maybe six or seven days....

QUESTIONED BY THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE

Q.222 You were present when Lieut. Stevenson gave his evidence?

A.222 Yes, Sir.

Q.223 And you remember that he said in answer to a question of mine that he was sitting behind a table, something like one of these, a folding table like this, and that the men came along outside the table, and each man stopped, wrote down his number and his name, and as they came along the paper was there, and they signed their name. Now your name, or what purports to be your name, is the fifth on the list. You say you never saw Lieut. Stevenson in your life before?

A.223. No, Sir.

Q.224 Did you ever sign a list of "H's" with nothing on it, just a piece of paper?

A.225 No, not that I know of.

Q.226 And if you did would you tell the Court why the first "H" would be started down in the middle of the page?

A.226 I wouldn't know, Sir.

Q.227 I want you to come up here. I want you to notice two things - this first exhibit put in, what is called the warning order, you will notice what purports to be your signature there No. 5 down?

A.227 Yes, Sir.

Q.228 I want you just to notice...This is supposed to be on the 3rd of July, 1941....I want to show you your M.F.M. 2, that is you, No. B.87928?

A.228 Yes, Sir.

Q.229 Is that your number?

A.229 The number is right, Sir.

Q.230 You have already said that is your signature on Exhibit "L"?

A.230 Yes, Sir.

Q.231 Is that also your signature on Exhibit "L" the second one?

A.231 Yes, Sir.

Q.232 And over here, this is exactly the same form as Exhibit "L", that is your signature?

A.232 Yes, Sir.

Q.233 I want you to look again at the dates. This signature on Exhibit "L" is the 25th of March, 1941?

A.233 Yes, Sir.

Q.234 And that purports to be the 3rd of July, 1941, marked Exhibit "J" . That is the same year, is it not?

A.234 Yes, Sir.

Q.235 I want you to look carefully at the first "C" in Exhibit "L", the "C" in "Charles"...all the three signatures, do you see that?

A.235 Yes, Sir.

Q.236 Those are all very much the same?

A.236 Yes.

Q.237 Now will you look at that "C" on Exhibit "J"; that "C" look s very similar to that, doesn't it?

A.237 Yes.

Q.238 Also looking at the whole word "Horton" in the three exhibits: the "T" like that; The tail of the "n" goes back to cross the "t", in the second signature of Exhibit "L" and the third signature of Exhibit "L"?

A.238 No, the third signature doesn't.

Q.239 But the first two signatures on Exhibit "L", the tail of the "n" is used to cross the "t", and on the third it is not? On Exhibit "J" you notice the tail of the "n" is used to cross the "t"?

A.239 Yes.

Q.240 And the tail of the "n" in both these signatures as it comes to the left is very close to the top of the "t" - do you notice that?

A.240 Yes, Sir.

Q.241 And then it comes back underneath, you notice that?

A.241 Yes, Sir.

Q.242 Having heard what Mr. Stevenson says, that he saw this signed, and having looked now at the signatures made in the same year, and you admit two of those, and one which you say is not yours, and your never having seen Mr. Stevenson before, could you suggest any reason why he would say that the men paraded and each one gave his number and each one signed his name, if you were not present on that occasion?

A.241 I can't see any reason.

Q.242 Now having looked at "H" and "n" in the signature on Exhibit "J"..."H" and "n" in the word Horton particularly - both the signature in the front of Exhibit "L" and the signature on Exhibit "J" ...do you want to suggest to the Court that that is not your signature on Exhibit "J"?

A.242 It looks very much like my signature.

Q.243 Do you know anybody that could copy it that closely?

A.243 I never saw it copied.

Q.244 Nobody in that Battery would be apt to copy your signatre?

A.244 Why should they?

Q.245 That is what I want to understand. Do you not think that is your signature and you have forgotten about it?

A.245 Sir, if I had signed a thing like that I would never have went absent.

Q.246 You might have under some stress or strain?

A.246 No, Sir.

Q.247 Do you say that is not your signature?

A.247 I can't say it isn't my signature; it looks very much like it, but I can't say it is because I don't remember doing it.

Q.248 You don't remember signing that thing, but it looks very much like your signature?

A.248 It looks like my signature.

Q.249 You wouldn't tell anybody that it wasn't your signature?

A.249 No, because I don't know what it could have been....sometime but I don't know how.

Q.250 It could be your signature - you don't remember signing that any sheet?

A.250 Yes, sir; I know I never signed that sheet; at least, that wasn't on it when I signed it.

Q.251 The warning at the top of Exhibit "J" wasn't on the sheet when you signed it, if you did sign it?

A.251 If I did sign it.

Q.252 But you do tell the Court that looks very much like your signature?

A.252 Looks very much like my signature.

Q.253 Were you ever warned for draft?

A.253 No, I was never warned for draft....I understood a warning for draft.

Q.254 Were you ever warned for draft in any other way? Do you suggest that there is any particular formality about being warned for draft?

A.254 I never was on a draft; wouldn't know anything about the formality.

Q.255 This L/Bdr Harding, when did you know he was warned for draft?

A.255 I never knew he was warned for draft; I never knew anyone was warned for draft.

Q.256 Did you ever sign a piece of paper along with another bunch of men whose names started with "H"?

A.25 6 Only paper I signed were pay parade papgers - stuff like that.

Q.257 I mean outside of forms. Did you ever sign a blank sheet of foolscap paper along with another bunch of men whose names started with "H"?

A.257 No, not that I know of, Sir.

Q.258 If you signed that, you can see four people signed ahead of you?

A.258 Yes, Sir.

Q.259 Did you ever sign any blank sheets of paper in that order, which you have seen there?

A.259 No, I would say no.

Q.260 Do you swear no, or do you want to say you don't remember?

A.260 I wouldn't swear I didn't; I don't remember.

Q.261 What you mean is, when you say you never did, "If I did so I don't remember"?

A.261 If I did so, I don't remember.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULES OF PROCEDURE 83(B).

2nd Witness for Defence) A.56091 L/Cpl G. H. Hodgkiss, 30th Provosts Coy.,(CA) being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.262 Will you give your name and number?

A.262 Hodgkiss George H., A.56091.

Q.263 L/Cpl Hodgkiss, you were a police officer on the Guelph Police Force?

A.263 I was, Sir.

Q.264 Did you ever see the accused before?

A.264 I did, Sir.

Q.265 Where did you see him?

A.265 In Welland.

Q.266 Under what circumstances?

A.266 He was under arrest being held awaiting removal to Guelph by the Guelph Police Department.

Q.267 What date was that, that you--?

A.267 It was late in the fall, last year; I don'tknow the exact date.

Q.268 You were sent from Guelph to Welland to pick up this man?

A.268 That is right, Sir.

Q.269 To escort him back to Guelph?

A.269 Yes, Sir.

Q.270 It was late in October, you say?

A.270 Approximately in around there sometime; late in the fall.

Q.271 You don't remember the date?

A.271 No, Sir, I do not.

Q.272 Do you know how long this man was held in Welland before you picked him up?

A.272 Not definitely, Sir.

Q.273 How long is a man generally held in a case like that?

A.273 I understand he was arrested on a vagrancy charge, held on a vagrancy charge, and could be held on remand for one week.

Q.274 Supposing you got him on the 28th of October, as we know you did, only you don't remember that, he would likely have been arrested or given himself up the week previous, about the 21st?

A.274 That is possible, Sir; but it may have happened that he was arrested later, and it was arranged with a Justice of the Peace that an officer would come and transfer him.

Q.275 But the general thing is about a week?

A.275 Yes, Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q.276 Cpl. Hodgkiss, you were employed in civilian life with the Guelph City Police?

A.276 Guelph Police.

Q.277 You went from Guelph to Welland to pick this man up in the line of duty?

A.277 Yes, Sir.

Q.278 It was on the civil charge?

A.278 Yes, on a civil warrant.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE.

QUESTIONED BY THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE

Q.279 Did you know at thattime that he was wanted by the military authorities as an absentee?

A.279 I am not positive of that, Sir.

Q.280 Was it brought to your attention?

A.280 Yes, it was afterwards, Sir.

Q.281 Later?

A.281 Yes, Sir.

Q.282 And you don't know whether or not you knew it at that time?

A.282 That is right.

Q.283 Do you know of your knowledge when a man walks in to a Police Station and tells the policeman he is wanted by some other police force, and tells them the charge he is wanted on is something definite such as theft, or wanted for false pretenees, do you book him in the police station under a charge of vagrancy or book him under a charge of theft?

A.283 Book him on a charge of vagrancy?

Q.284 Always?

A.284 Yes, Sir.

Q.285 No matter what he tells you?

A.285 No matter what he tel s us.

Q.286 If he told you he was wanted for murder, he would be held on vagrancy?

A.286 It would always be a vagrancy charge, even if it was murder.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULES OF PROCEDURE 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

AT 1230 hrs, 23 SEPTEMBER 1942 THE COURT ADJOURNED UNTIL 1400 hrs 23 SEPTEMBER 1942. ON THE 23 SEPTEMBER 1942 AT 1400 hrs THE COURT RE-ASSEMBLED PURSUANT TO ADJOURNMENT, PRESENT THE SAME MEMBERS AS WHEN ADJOURNED.

d Witness for Defence) A.56049 Sgt-Major Edward Lamb, Military Detention Barracks, London, Ontario, being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.287 Sgt-Major Lamb, will you tell the Court your name, rank and number?

A.287 A.56049, Edward Lamb, W.O.1.

Q.288 Sgt-Major Lamb, you are in charge of the Detention Barracks at Carlings Heights, London?

A.288 Yes, Sir.

Q.289 You have the oversight of the reception and release of prisoners that come to your detention barracks?

A.289 That is correct, Sir.

Q.290 How long have you been Sgt-Major in charge of the Detention Barracks?

A.290 Since December 28, 1940.

Q.291 Naturally you would very likely be there on July 3,1941?

A.291 I would, Sir.

Q.292 You don't remember definitely?

A.292 I have no reason to believe otherwise, Sir.

Q.293 You have a certain hour, or you have a definite time at which you release the prisoners when the day of sentence is up, have you?

A.293 1400 hours, Sir.

Q.294 Is that in your instructions, or is that a matter of --?

A.295 It is laid down in rules and regulations of Military Detention Barracks, Sir.

Q.295 Sometimes if their escort does not come in time it is even later than that?

A.295 Quite often it is the next day.

Q.296 It is often later inthe day; sometimes it might be earlier?

A.296 It could be, yes, Sir.

Q.297 Under special circumstances?

A.297 But if it was earlier, Sir, we would have a letter from the Commander of that particular unit stating that that man should be released to the escort when he arrived.

Q.298 Otherwise you release only at 1400 hours or later?

A.298 That is right.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q.299 Mr. Lamb, have you any records relating to the release of Gunner Horton, the accused, before this Court?

A.299 Yes, I have, Sir.

Q.300 Would the Court permit Mr. Lamb to refresh his memory from his own documents? Could you tell us on what day Gunner Horton was released?

A.300 Yes sir, I can. He has been released on two occasions....

Q.301 July, 1941?

A.301 He came into us on the 13th of June, 1941 for twenty-one days detention, and was released on the 3rd of July, 1941.

Q.302 Your record doesn't extend to the actual time released, or does it?

A.302 It doesn't state the time.

Q.303 It is customary to release at 1400 hours?

A.303 Or after.

Q.304 Is that the day on which the sentence expired or the day after the sentence expired?

A.304 The release appears "would expire 3/7/41".

Q.305 The prisoner is allowed to go on 1400 hours on that day?

A.305 Upon the arrival of the escort, Sir.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R. P. 83 (B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: I have no further witnesses.

3rd Witness for Prosecution recalled in rebuttal

THE PROSECUTOR WITH LEAVE OF THE COURT RECALLS LIEUT. G.E.D. STEVENSON A.D. & M. SCHOOL, WOODSTOCK, ONTARIO, FOR THE PURPOSE OF REBUTTING A MATERIAL STATEMENT MADE BY THE ACCUSED. THE WITNESS ON HIS FORMER OATH BEING EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR STATES AS FOLLOWS:

Q.306 Mr. Stevenson, the accused in his testimony, which was given after you left the room raises a question about this Exhibit "J" - part of his testimony was if he signed this piece of paper it did not have this heading on it. What are you prepared to say about the completeness of this form in its present state, when it was signed ?

A.306 As far as I know, Sir, it was complete.

Q.307 Are you prepared to state that this heading was on the form when the signatures were given before you?

A.307 Yes, I believe it was. There were several of those forms; that isn't the only form I signed.

Q.308 It is obvious they were prepared in alphabetical order; the man finds which sheet he belongs on....?

A.308 Yes.

Q.309 You say the forms were complete as far as you know?

A.309 Yes, Sir.

Q.310 Were any of them blank sheets, or any of them just plan white paper?

A.310 No, not that I remember.

Q.311 Are you prepared to state the forms signed by these men were not blank sheets of paper, but were headed with the warning order?

A.311 They all had the warning order on the same as that one.

Q.312 They all had the warning order on them?

A.312 Yes, Sir.

Q.313 Can you tell us something about how these men appeared before you, how they formed up?

A.313 They came up to the table all in single file.

Q.314 Were they just standing around in a group, or were they paraded to this space between the huts?

A.314 They paraded up alphabetically.

Q.315 They paraded alphabetically?

A.315 As far as I remember, Sir, Yes.

Q.316 Were they marched there in alphabetical order?

A.316 The whole Battery was on the parade ground...I can't remember... It is sometime ago since.....whether they were arranged alphabetically as they came on the parade or not. Each man came in single file and signed his name to the paper.

Q.317 Where did they come from, were they called off the parade alphabetically?

A.317 As far as I remember, yes.

Q.318 Then what did they do, did they fall out then?

A.318 Beg your pardon?

Q.319 After the signing of the form did each man fall out or go back in his place?

A.319 He just went off after that; in fact, If I remember, they went off to their huts. I don't remember that they fell in any particular place or in parade.

Q.320 After signing the warning orders the men did not fall in on parade again?

A.320 Not that I remember.

Q.321 Did the men sign one below the other?

A.321 Yes.

Q.322 Did each man sign below the signature of the man preceding him in line?

A.322 As they came up to the table they signed the slip of paper that you have, and turned to the left and went off, I don't remember where.

Q.323 The next man then signed on the line below that?

A.323 Yes, Sir.

Q.324 And them came to you in alphabetical order?

A.324 Yes, Sir.

Q.325 So the signature which is a third of the way down the list would have been well up among the "H's"?

A.325 I don't recall how far along in the "H's" he was.

Q.326 If that is Horton's signature on Exhibit "J", would he or would he not have been at the tail end of the parade?

A.326 He wouldn't have been at the tail end of the parade, because a man by the name of Harding signed his name last on this sheet.

Q.327 How many names are there after Horton?

A.327 Eleven.

Q.328 There are eleven signatures on Exhibit "J" after Horton?

A.328 Yes.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.329 Lieut. Stevens, these sheets when they were presented to you had the heading as on that document Exhibit "J"?

A.329 Yes, Sir.

Q.330 You are absolutely sure of that?

A.330 I believe I am right in saying so.

Q.331 You believe.....?

A.331 I certainly wouldn't sign a blank document.

Q.332 You remember that quite distinctly?

A.332 Yes, Sir.

Q.333 These sheets when they were given to you, were they given to you in alphabetical order?

A.333 Yes, Sir.

Q.334 One had all the "B's", and so on....?

A.334 Some of them, I think....other letters of the alphabet would continue on to another sheet.

Q.335 But you had quite a number of those sheets on your desk before you?

A.335 Yes, Sir.

Q.336 And an "A" man came along to the "A's" and "B" to the "B's", and one man took them?

A.336 Yes.

Q.337 You remember that quite distinctly?

A.337 Yes, Sir.

Q.338 The men were lined up and spoken to, and then the signatures took place after that?

A.338 That is right, Sir.

Q.339 You tell us that the parade broke off then?

A.339 I didn't tell you the parade broke off.

Q.340 To your knowledge it didn't form up again that afternoon?

A.340 I said the parade was called into the parade grounds and the Battery was read this warning.

Q.341 Was there not something said just a moment ago that Captain Thomas brought out, that they weren't formed up again that afternoon?

A.341 I said after they signed the paper they were not formed up again.

Q.342 And it would take sometime for you to collect some 300 signatures?

A.342 I don't recall how many signatures there were; it took quite a while for everybody to sign.

Q.343 Can you give us an idea how long it took? How long were you behind the table taking these signatures?

A.343 I recall going from there over to the mess when it was finished, before dinner.

Q.344 You can remember distinctly that these papers, all of them, had that heading all thesame, a year ago last July?

A.344 I can remember that the papers were all the same, Sir.

Q.345 There were no blank ones?

A.345 Not that I know of, Sir.

Q.346 Yes or no?

A.346 All that I saw were not blank.

Q.347 You say that you can remember quite distinctly that all this sheaf of papers were headed the same; no blanks among them; and yet you can't tell this Court what time of day it was, whether morning or afternoon or what hour it was...You say that when you finished signing up these 300 or so men you went to supper, but youcan't tell what time of day?

A.347 I believe I told you it was in the afternoon.

Q.348 In the afternoon, you thought; what time in the afternoon?

A.348 I am not prepared to say what time it was.

Q.349 But you can remember distinctly that this paper had that heading, that sheaf of paper, but youcan't remember what time in the afternoon this took place ?

A.349 Quite true.

QUESTIONED BY THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE

Q.350 As these papers were signed up in front of you, following right along, were there any blank lines left for any person to write ~~x~~ names in, or each man sign up against the other?

A.350 Not that I remember; it followed right along in that sheet of paper there, as each man...

Q351 Did you instruct any man "don't sign on that line, leave that for Pte. Holmes or Gunner Harding"?

A.351 No, I did not instruct anybody to leave any blank lines.

Q.352 Did you have any muster-roll to check against to see that all the "H's " signed, all the "A's" and "D's" signed?

A.352 As I remember, Sir, the man's name was called as he came up and signed.

Q.353 Someone was caling out the names, and as a name was called out the man came up and signed?

A.353 Yes, as I remember, Sir, the name was called out.

Q.354 All your job was was to witness his signature?

A.354 Yes, sir, that is right.

Q.355 It was somebody' else's job to see that each man signed?

A.355 That is right, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULES OF PROCEDURE 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Finding*

*To be struck out except in cases where trial has taken place on a plea of "Not Guilty."

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court find that the accused B.87928, Gunner Charles Allen Horton, No. 1 District Depot (CA) (A) is guilty of the charge, except that he went absent from Woodstock and not London, and was apprehended by the civil authorities on the 21st October, 1941, at Welland, Ontario, and not on 28th October, 1941 at Guelph, Ontario.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

*When the Court is already open this sentence will be struck out.

*The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it. Captain C.H. Lowther, Adjutant, No. 1 District Depot (CA), on his former oath, states ~~is duly sworn.~~

Evidence of character, &c.

Q.356 Question by the President. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?

A.356 Answer by the Witness. Yes, Sir, I have M.F.B. 355

The above statement [with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with] is read, marked "Y", signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q.357 Question by the President. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?

A.357 Answer by the Witness. Yes, Sir.

Q.358 Question. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?

A.358 Answer. have, Sir.

Q.359 Question. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?

A.359 Answer. They are.

[Instruction.—If by reason of the nature of the service of the accused in a departmental corps, or otherwise, the finding of the Court renders him liable to any exceptional punishment in addition to that to be awarded by the Court the prosecutor must call the attention of the Court to the fact, and the Court must inquire into the nature and amount of that additional punishment.]

~~Cross-examined by the accused.~~

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE.
IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R. P. 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Q.360 Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

A.360 Answer. No, Sir. My Defending Officer will speak for me.

STATEMENT

By the accused, No. B-87928, Gunner Horton, C.A., No. 1 District Depot (CA) (A), London, Ontario.

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

ANSWER BY THE ACCUSED:

"I will make a statement on oath, Sir!"

No. B-87928, Gunner Horton, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"I was married in Guelph, Ontario, on the 31st day of May, 1941, without permission, and was arrested immediately afterwards by the R.C.M.P. at Niagara Falls, for being A.W.L. and sentenced to twenty one days detention in Wolseley Barracks after which I was returned to my Unit as Woodstock, Ontario. Being unable to get a pass, I went to Guelph Ontario, to see my wife.

Being unable to find my wife as she had moved to Woodstock, Ontario, and hearing that the civil authorities were looking for me, I made a mistake and instead of returning to my Unit, I went A.W.L.

Since then, I have obtained a divorce and am a single man and I am willing to do anything to get back into useful service of my country."

FINAL ADDRESS BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Members of the Court, in the first place I would like to draw your attention to the fact that the charge in the charge sheet is incorrect in at least three particulars, showing a good deal of confusion of some kind in this case. It reads at London, Ontario....This offence, if it did take place, didn't take place in London. All the evidence both for the Prosecution and for the Defence has revealed that it took place in Woodstock. In the second place, "until apprehended by the civil authorities at Guelph... " This man was not apprehended by the civil authorities anywhere; he surrendered himself to the police, saying "I am wanted for bigamy, and I am also A.W.L. from the Army." Again, it wasn't at Guelph, it was at Welland, where this surrender took place; and then it states that on the 28th day of October, when the evidence that was brought out shows that it was the 21st day of October. This mass of incorrect statements perhaps doesn't prove very much, but it certainly proves this, Gentlemen, that the accused is not guilty of the charge according to the Charge Sheet, and I don't see how it is possible to find him guilty of any charge on a Charge Sheet like that.

Here is a prisoner, accused of desertion after having been warned to proceed on special duty, with intent to avoid so proceeding, absented himself without leave. Here is a man who comes and tells a straight story of the happenings of the 3rd of July, the time that this signature was supposed to have been appended to this document, and a straight story of what happened afterwards. There has been no inkling of evidence to disprove the statements given to you under oath, under the most rigid, stiffest cross-examination possible, and his story has not been shaken one particle, in my opinion... no evidence to disprove his testimony. Lieut. Stevenson comes before the Court, and tells us that those documents all have a certain heading, quite a sheaf of them, and yet he can't remember whether it was morning or afternoon; he thinks it was afternoon...."early in the afternoon", I think was his statement this morning. Yet here is a lad who was released from detention that day in London, not earlier, on sworn testimony from Sgt-Major Lamb, than two o'clock, maybe three o'clock, claims he didn't get back to Woodstock until four o'clock, never attended any parade that day, and never signed any document. There has been no evidence submitted to this Court in any manner, shape or form to prove that these statements of the accused are not true. True, there is a document with a signature onit that looks like his signature, but Gentlemen, look at the three signatures onthe M.F. 1, and the signature on that form, and one of those signatures is different in a very particular way from the other three; and I submit that, if any, findings of this are certainly very very doubtful. You have this man's sworn statement that he did not sign that document, that he wasn't on parade, he wasn't warned, he wasn't warned for any special duty.

Now he is charged with desertion. I don't need to go into the idea ofdesertion. Two factors enter into it: one the idea of not returning - which he did; and the other the idea to escape some special duty. On the evidence submitted to this Court no evidence has been submitted that he was warned for this special duty. We find this boy requesting from his O.C. a pass after spending 21 days in detention - a natural thing - that he might go and see his wife in Welland. He was refused. Saturday afternoon was a holiday; he decided to slip away to Quelph to see his wife , on his sworn testimony, and be back to camp at 9.30, that night. When he got to Guelph his wife disappeared; her mother terribly upset over it. I have a letter I wrote to the Chief of Police in Guelph - there happened to be a Chief of Police Convention in some place, and they did not reply to it - to confirm this idea that her mother requested the police to find her. This boy stayed around Guelph for two or three days, and then went back to Woodstock for a couple of hours, thinking he would find his wife there. He heard rumors she was there. Then he finds he was in a jam, and goes down to his father at Niagara Falls. This boy stayed in uniform all the time. He didn't try to hide himself. He went to Stamford, Niagara Falls, from Niagara Falls to Brantford. The last Saturday in September, he did go to a military camp in Brantford and asked to give himself up, and the sergeant at the gate says "We haven't any place for absentees to give themselves up here." The lad turns around and goes away again - all this time not hiding himself - properly dressed. Then he goes back down to Niagara Falls again, and feeling that things are getting warmer all the time, knowing that he has done wrong, thinking about this thing, he goes to Welland, walks into the Police Station and says "I understand I am wanted on a charge of bigamy; I am also A.W.L. from the army."

Now, Gentlemen, I submit that there has not been one particle of evidence submitted in this Court to prove the guilt of this man as a deserter from the Canadian Army. If there is a doubt, and there can't help but be a doubt in the minds of everyone of you, youmust find him guilty, not of desertion but of A.W.L. If his evidence under oath, and under the very stiffest cross-examination is not to be accepted, then you will have to find him guilty of the charge as laid down. But I venture to say, Gentlemen, that the evidence has certainly been not only inconclusive, but very unconvincing in every way, and no charge of guilty of desertion has been proven.

FINAL ADDRESS BY PROSECUTOR

Mr. President and Members, the Defending Officer has called attention to certain descrepencies in the Charge Sheet.. .The President has called them "troublesome". I agree they are not material to the facts of the charge - they are unfortunate; they shouldn't have occurred. The place he went absent without leave is shown on M.F.B. 375 as London; and it is easy to understand how that mistake can be made. His Regiment was at Queens Park; all their men left behind were handed over to No. 1 District Depot on Part II Orders, without any particular description where the men were, except as to why they were handed over, such as in hospital, absent without leave and soforth. Thedate andplace apprehended in this particular case, does not make any difference to the accused's pay, because of the fact that the time at which the absence ceased to be voluntarily, whether it was the 21st, 20th or 28th, was immediately followed by civil custody, leading to a conviction, and the penalty for the civil custody followed by a convenction, is exactly the same as absence without leave; in other words, pay is lost under the Army Act for one as for the other. The President says these details are "troublesome"; but I say they do not make any material difference to the facts as laid down in the charge, which is being faced by Gunner Horton.

There has been a great deal of testimony centering around the warning order, which the prosecution places in evidence to show that Gunner Horton was warned for some special important service. Now the place on which the signature, which the prosecution claims is Gunner Horton's signature...the place on the form occupied by that signature, puts him fairly early on the parade; but the circumstances of the parade, which we have heard as given in evidence was that the parade was rather late in the day. Mr. Stevenson, who is our witness to prove the warning order, can't remember the time of day, and the Defence has tried to throw doubt on the credibility of

Mr. Stevenson, because of his failure to remember the time of day this took place. I say that that shows Mr. Stevenson is a careful witness, a witness with a tender conscience; he doesn't all ow himself to be committed to anything which he could not remember clearly; but the circumstances, that the man did not fall in for parade again after signing the warning order, and the circumstances that apparently Mr. Stevenson's duties were over when that business was finished, because he went from that to the mess, all put the thing rather late in the day. So it seems to me that the whole business could have happened. There has been a lot of time spent on the question of time spent by Gunner Horton in being released and getting himself down to Woodstock; but I submit that the evidence does not add up to an alibi, which is what the Defence is trying to establish that he could not have been there. I think if we take the chronology of all these different things, there is time for all of them to have happened. Now Gunner Horton denies being on that parade - that is his sworn testimony - and the prosecution can only say that that testimony is not believed; that we believe that Gunner Horton was on that parade, and that he did sign that warning order. We believe so because the signature on the warning order looks like his signature; it is a very very characteristic signature: there is a capital "H" that is very very characteristic - there is a little trick of bringing the tail of the end back, which appearas in every time, but sometimes.....We don't have to produce a handwriting expert in a Court of this kind. Nevertheless, I think that the Court has seen enough, and enough similarity to suggest a number of important peculiarities in the various signatures which have been put in evidence to reach their own conclusion that the same hand signed the three or four or five different signatures which have been put in evidence, including the signature on the warning order.

In spite of all this special orwarning order, I submit that in order to prove desertion in the sense of paragraph 20, page 19 of the Army Act, a warning order is not necessary; and it seems to me very very strange that Gunner Horton was able to go back to Woodstock from detention on the 3rd of July, and no know that his unit was warned for overseas. Certainly if anybody was around here last night they would have known that there were a bunch of men who were going overseas. The air was full of it. Everybody is excited, and everybody knows about it; it is a thing that has happened - little enough happens to you in the army, and when anything happens everybody gets excited about it....that Gunner Horton was able to go back to Woodstock from detention and stay there two days, not knowing that his own unit was going overseas, I find definitely incredible. They did go overseas; and the effective date on which transfers were made of the men who could not be take, was the 13th; that is ten days after. And the date of that warning order is the effective date... the effective date was the same day, the 3rd of July. So we have here a set of circumstances, the essentials of which have been proved, and which add up to desertion within the meaning of the act, within the second meaning, the intention never to return. I feel that there is also a pretty good case against Gunner Horton under the primary meaning - the straight intention not to return . It is true that he did give himself up, but he gave himself up on another charge...He naturally mentioned the second one at the same time. In some part of his statement he says he knew the law was after him; and I am prepared to go considerable distance in showing that the primary meaning of desertion is also a thing we could have proved in this case. However, I don't think it is necessary; it is a question of unit being moved overseas because of a warning order.

I submit, Mr. President and Gentlemen, that the evidence which has been laid before you is clear proof of the charge against Gunner Horton.

SUMMING-UP BY JUDGE ADVOCATE

I think this a case wherein I should sum up. It is an experienced Court so I need not take long in summing up what is the law of desertion. A very good definition of the two kinds of desertion is contained on page 19 of the Manual, with which we are all familiar. One kind of desertion is where one goes absent without leave, and intends never to come back to any portion of His Majesty's Service; that is to say, as it reads in the act - the offence of desertion implies an intention on the part of the offender either not to return to His Majesty's Service at all, or to escape some particular important service as mentioned in para 20.... It is, as I see it, two forms of desertion.

This charge before you today is a charge of desertion in that the man went absent with intent to avoid proceeding, after having been warned; so that the draftsman of the charge has confined himself to this particular instance. It is a charge of desertion in that the man, after having been warned to proceed on special duty, absented himself without leave. That throws upon the prosecution the onus of proving that the man was warned to proceed on special duty. Before proceeding on that, in order that the question of the difference in the particulars might be cleared up - the draftsman of this charge, or the man who prepared the charge, the Officer Commanding No. 1 District Depot, was confined to his information at the time he laid the charge, to the documents Exhibits "G", "H", "I", "J", "L"; Exhibit "K" was the Summary...the signature on the summary, if you will recall it. Now the evidence before the draftsman of the charge therefore shows that the particulars as shown in the charge sheet were in fact the particulars at that time. If, in fact, these documents which are the only available things before the draftsman of the charge, if in fact they are wrong, that is for the defence to prove that they are wrong, and they can be w righted. If in fact, as it now appears, this man left from Woodstock, then 375 has erred in stating he went absent from London. You have the evidence of the policeman who was called, and picked him up at Welland; you have the evidence of the man himself, and the evidence of Mr. Stevenson, that it was at Woodstock, where this warning was given; and the evidence of the man himself that he went absent from Woodstock. I am of the opinion, and I so give my opinion to the Court, if it sees fit to bring in a special verdict as to the change to be made in those particulars in view of the evidence which has been produced before it: that is to say, the evidence that it was at Woodstock from which he went absent, it is proper.

Now then let us get to the apprehension at Guelph: it is stated by the accused he gave himself up in Welland on the 21st, and it is stated by the former police officer from Guelph, that he went to Welland and got him on the 28th. Again, the Part II Orders were in that respect deceiving. May I point out in this regard that at the time of the taking of the Summary it was within the knowledge and the sole knowledge of the accused to tell the draftsman on that occasion when he heard the charge read, as he must have, "well you are wrong here, you are wrong there.....; and do not forget that he cannot be cross-examined upon any statement or questioned upon any statement he may make at the Summary. So that, if the accused, having heard these particulars taken at the summary, and knew they were wrong, can he now be heard to come into the Court, after the charge has been laid, and having held to himself something which ispeculiarly within his own knowledge, now take advantage of something which he knew and could have disclosed at that time? That is for you and the Court to decide.

Now let us consider the particulars in so far as they apply....It reads, after having been warned for special duty, and with intent to escape proceeding, absented himself....

The Prosecutor files Exhibit "J",to substantiate the charge he calls Lieut. Stevenson, a member of the staff of No. 11 A.D. & M. School, Woodstock. After looking at Exhibit "J" as he is entitled to do, says "Yes...onthe day in question, the 3rd of July, in the afternoon...I can't say whether early or late.... but sometime in the afternoon. When we finished up, I know it was close to supper time...I can't swear in a year, what hour it was but I do remember that the 69th Battery were brought before me, one by one at the special request of Major Gossage. I do remember the place they were brought to....they were brought to me in the hall between H- hut, which is now known as so-and-so... I do remember that they came before a desk, and that somebody was calling out the names, and as a name was called out a man stepped up, and on a blank sheet of paper, of which this is one, he put down his own number, his own rank and his own name." I find on this Exhibit "J", the 5th name down is B.87928, Gnr C.A. Horton, and he was in the 69th Battery, and he was at Woodstock on the 3rd of July. It is true that at first Gunner Horton says that is not my signature, but under cross-examination, he says "Well, it looks like my signature, but I never signed anything with writing on it like that." When he was asked did he sign a blank sheet, he said "I don't think I did." When he is confronted with the signature which is submitted on Exhibit "L", he finally ends up by saying "It looks like my signature, but if I signed it I have forgotten." In the face of that you have the actual routine of it. Lieut. Stevenson said they were paraded in alphabetic order, and he eye-witnessed the signature on each paper.

Gunner Horton was also asked if there was anybody in the Battery who had forged or was there any reason why anybody would forge his name, to which he answered "No, I can't say why anybody could." Now there is something about this being a blank sheet of paper. Gunner Horton gives his age....born in 1918, over twenty-one. A man of twenty-one years of age is presumed to know the kind of document to which he is appending his name. A man of twenty-one doesn't sign a note in blank and get away without paying it. He doesn't sign a contract without reading it; if he does he is stuck with it. So the whole thing comes down to whether the Court believew Horton when he says he did not sign that, or whether , or whether they believe the contents of all the exhibits filed and the evidence of Mr. Stevenson that he did sign it, and therefore he is taken to have gist and contents of the document which he signed.

Mr. Stevenson says he saw those signatures put on, heard the names called; as a name was called the man stepped up in alphabetical order. And on that I see B.87928 Gnr. Horton. When he says he does not know the man - I can't see how he would know the man. I would be very likely tempted to advise the Court, if he said he did know the man - I don't think he could remember a man's face that he saw that day. When Gunner Horton says he never saw Stevenson before - he might say that he never saw Stevenson before, when he only saw him for the flash of a moment when he signed this....I wouldn't blame hi m for that at all. I would say that Mr. Stevenson is such a man that he can't take a look at a man and come back in a year and say that "I know that man." That he would be either a superman or some person that nobody would believe.

It might also be pointed out that there is nothing particular about the man's behaviour to make him remember. If one of these gunners or bombadiers had been walking up there drunk and cursing and swearing, he might remember; but when a decent soldier comes up and signs his name, and walks on, I doubt very much, in the fleeting glance, that unless he is a freak of nature, that he would remember.

A great deal was made of the fact that Mr. Stevenson could remember that these sheets were all alike f except for the fact that some of them had different letters on. I venture to say that every officer here is perfectly able to get up and say that M.F.M. 2's that he has seen are exactly alike; this is a form prescribed by Routine Orders. I doubt very much if any officer, in a case of this kind, would permit a man to sign a sheet that was blank. He would be open to grave discipline, I must say, if he permitted a man to sign a blank sheet when it was meant for the very purpose for which this was being used.

Now going on further...The form of this is laid down - I have forgotten whether it is inRoutine Orders or in a circular letter, but I have seen it; it came from Ottawa; that is the form laid down by Ottawa to be filed. You have got also this to consider in Gunner Horton's arrival back to the Battery sometime in the afternoon of the 3rd of July; if he was let out of here at the regular hour, one or two o'clock, he would get back to Woodstock in due course, somewhere around three or a little after...by truck - thirty miles. He himself says in his evidence he thought it was about 1.30. Under those circumstances I think the Court can accept it that he left here about two or nearly two as he could have gotten away. This parade took place after the men had done their ordinary day's work; they had been out recruiting, and had come back. That was the evidence of the accused himself. The Battery had been out recruiting and came back in. This parade was then formed up,and then what happened...certainly most of the Battery accepted it - most of them did - very few of them stayed behind. What does he do? The Court is entitled to take this into consideration, because it is in evidence. He had just spent 21 days in London, and it was the first freedom he had had for 21 days, and he was a newly married man - he asked for a pass, and didn't get one. After a warning order like this nobody gets a pass. That is the reason for the warning order. It has the effect of being an order to stand to, and people are not given passes when they are standing to. You are entitled to consider that.

It is not my opinion, and I will agree that it is not my opinion, but if you have any reasonable doubt in the matter you must find him not guilty of the charge, but , under Section 56 you may find him guilty of absent without leave. A pass at any time, embarkation or otherwise, is not a matter of right, but a matter of privilege; and if the Officer Commanding the 69th Battery at that time was of the opinion that a leave should not be granted, it was perfectly within his right to refuse all leaves.

I don't want to drag it out any longer: it is up to the Court to either believe the evidence of the accused, and refuse this documentary evidence, Exhibit J, K & L, or to believe the documents "J", which purports to have his signature on it. And if the Court thinks that after having received this order he deliberately went absent , then I say to the Court you are at liberty to come to the opinion that he went absent without leave with the intention of avoiding the service - if you believe the documents. If you do not, or if, as I say, you have any doubt whatsoever in the matter then in that event you must resolve that doubt in favour of the accused, and find him not guilty of desertion, but guilty of absence without leave.

If I have expressed any opinion, the President of the Court is an able, trained man, many years experience at the Bar, and he has been in the positionof Judge at the Bar; he has been Master of the Supreme Court where he has had to make his own decisions, he will not be influenced by any opinion I have made, or seemed to have made.

ADDRESS BY DEFENDING OFFICER IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

Gentlemen, thereis very little I have to say, very little needs to be said. I have been in close contact with this lad , his record is not good with the Army or in civilian life; but I have been in close contact with him for the last few days, and I have found him to tell a straight story, and always tell the same story. I have asked him definitely about the matter of the question of escaping the draft, and he says "Padre, I want to go overseas; if they will put my name on the draft today I will go." "I didn't try to escape the draft..." As I have said, I have found him to tell a straight story. He knows he is going to be punished; he knows it is coming to him. The only thing I can ask is that This Court.....And may I quote from No. 17, page 19, "Further, even assuming that he is charged with desertion the Court that tries him should not find him guilty of desertion unless fully satisfied on the evidence..." I would ask for leniency, that your feelings in this matter may not override the evidence submitted, and any break that the lad can get should be given to him. He promises me that when he gets out he will be a good soldier. He has learned his lesson, he claims, and if the Court is fair with him that he will do the job that he started out to do.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

*Instruction. (See R. P. 39 (A))

Question. Q.5 *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. A.5 No Sir

The prosecutor makes an opening address [~~[illegible]~~ 8KIII, which is read, marked "Q", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings].

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. } Captain L.H.C. Payne, Irish Regt of Can (C.A.)

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q.6 Captain Payne, will you give to the Court your rank, name, initials and Regiment, please.

A.6 Acting Captain L.H.C. Payne, The Irish Regiment of Canada, C.A.

Q.7 Captain Payne, I have various documents which I wish you to produce to the Court.

A.7 I present to the Court the following documents: (1) Part II Order No. 7 of "C" Company, the Irish Regt of Can (C.A.) dated 10 Aug 42 (Read by the President of the Court and marked exhibit "G" and attached to the Proceedings). (2) the next document is Part II Order No. 14, "C" Company the Irish Regt of Can (C.A.) dated 28 Aug 42 at Gaspe, Quebec. (Read by the President of the Court and marked exhibit "H" and attached to the proceedings). The next document is a record of the declaration of a Court of Inquiry assembled at Gaspe Defences Headquarters on 27th August, 1942, which shows the deficiencies of kit of the accused. (Read by the President of the Court and marked exhibit "I" and attached to the Proceedings). The next document is a certificate of apprehension, M.F.M. 216 which indicates that Corporal Harvey was apprehended in Toronto, Ontario. (Read by the President of the Court and marked exhibit "J" and attached to the Proceedings).

Q.8 Captain Payne, can you make a declaration to the Court that all these documents refer to the accused.

Judge Advocate
As that is a leading question we cannot allow it.

Q.9 Captain Payne, can you declare that these documents refer to the accused.

Judge Advocate
You are still leading the witness.

Q.10 To whome do these documents refer.

A.10 They refer to the accused, Corporal Harvey, Sir.

The Defending Officer declines to cross examin the witness.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b)

The witness withdraws.

Second Witness for Prosecution Major R.D. Glendening, The Irish Regiment of Canada C.A. being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:

Q.11 Major Glendening, what is your position in the Irish Regiment of Canada, C.A.

A.11 I am Company Commander of "C" Company, The Irish Regt of Can C.A.

Q.12 Where was your Company located between the dates 2nd August, 1942, and 6th August, 1942.

A.12 Headquarters, Gaspe Defences, Quebec.

Q.13 Was the accused a member of your Company at that time.

A.13 He was Sir

Q.14 Do you recognize the accused.

A.14 Yes

Q.15 Major Glendening, will you explain to the Court in your own words the circumstances surrounding the accused between the dates 2nd August and 6th August, 1942.

A.15 Corporal Harvey came to me and requested a pass to go to Matapedia, it is the main road junction. I gave him a 48 hour pass, or, if he had any difficulty getting to there or back, a further extension would be granted to him. The pass was made out from 2nd August, 1942, to the morning of the 5th, and at morning roll call Corporal Harvey did not answer his name. The next day I received a telegram stating that he had difficulty getting back and that he should be leaving Campbelltown on the 6th. However he did not appear and I have not seen him until he appeared before me on this charge of Absence without Leave.

Cross examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.16 Major Glendening, when Corporal Harvey asked you for this pass, did he explain why he wanted it.

A.16 Yes, he requested a pass to meet a relative whom he said was willing to loan him some money.

Q.17 And you sympathized with him.

A.17 Yes

Q.18 When you received his telegram, were you surprised.

A.18 No, we have had difficulty in getting out of Gaspe and I was quite willing to accept his story.

Q.19 Since this Regiment has been mobilized, you have, I believe, performed the duties of either Acting Company Commander, or Company Commander, from time to time.

A.19 Yes

Q.20 In the course of those duties, you have had considerable experience with the offence of men being Absent without Leave.

A.20 Yes I have.

Q.21 Is it your experience that a man intending to go absent without leave from a pass acts as this man did in telegraphing you as to the date of his return.

A.21 At the time of sending the telegram I would say that he intended to come back.

Q.22 How long had Corporal Harvey been with your Company.

A.22 Approximately two weeks.

Q.23 He had come to your Company from another Company.

A.23 Yes, from Headquarters Company.

Q.24 What were his duties with your Company during those two weeks he was with you.

A.24 He was Training N.C.O.

Q.25 Were you satisfied with his performance as Training N.C.O.

A.25 When Corporal Harvey wants to apply himself, he is one of the best instructors we have in the Battalion.

The Prosecuting Officer declines to re-examine the witness.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b)

The witness withdraws.

Third witness for Prosecution B. 78602 Sergeant J. Leitch, The Irish Regiment of Canada, C.A.

being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor

Q.26 Sergeant Leitch, will you state, in your own words, what took place in Toronto on the 16th September, 1942, and what orders you received from your Commanding Officer.

A.26 Sir, while on embarkation leave I received instructions from my Commanding Officer to report at M.D. No. 2 for the purpose of escorting Pte. Roddy and Pte Robson back to Debert Camp, N.S. On reporting to Stanley Barracks the morning of the 16th September, 1942, I was informed by the Sergeant in charge --

Judge Advocate

Never mind what you were told by the Sergeant in charge, just tell us what you did.

--I took in charge Privates Roddy and Robson, also Corporal Harvey returned with me under open arrest. I received warrants for the railroad tickets and meal tickets at the Union Station, Toronto. I handed Corporal Harvey his railroad tickets and meal tickets . I travelled with the party until reaching the Battalion Orderly Room at Debert, N.S., where I reported to the Adjutant. I was ordered by the Adjutant to place all the men in the Guardhouse, which I did. That is all Sir

Q.27 Sergeant Leitch, will you present these documents to the Court.

A.27 I here produce M.F.B. 1482 and M.F.B. 1481.

Judge Advocate

I must advise the Court that, in my opinion, neither of these documents are properly made out and should not be allowed in the record. Neither of these documents are signed by the Officer who actually issued the warrants.

The Court refused to accept the documents in question.

The witness is cross examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.28 You brought Corporal Harvey back under open arrest, is that correct.

A.28 Yes Sir

Q.29 Did you have any trouble on the way down.

A.29 No Sir

Q.30 Would you state that his conduct whilst in your charge was very soldierly.

A.30 He was very good Sir.

The Prosecuting Officer declines to re-examine the witness.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b)

The witness withdraws.

Fourth Witness for Prosecution B. 78504 A/CQMS Bain, C.M.

being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor

Q.31 Will you give to the Court the circumstances surrounding the deficiencies in kit of the accused.

A.31 Being attached to "C" Company and being sent up to Gaspe from Mulgrave, I took over from C.Q.M.S. Farmer, now discharged. Corporal Harvey's kit, which had been collected by C.Q.M.S. Farmer, had been placed for safe keeping in his stores. The list of deficiencies which have already been submitted--

Judge Advocate

Submit the list again, please.

--The list of deficiencies which I now submit, are, to the best of my belief, correct Sir.

Judge Advocate

Q.32 You have checked the equipment which was returned against the equipment which is missing and you are now prepared to swear that the total deficiencies which are shown here amount to $37.04, and you have personally checked all these items.

A.32 Yes Sir

Q.32 Will you please state these deficiencies.

A.32

Prosecuting Officer

Q.33 At what charge were the clothing and regimental necessaries valued in this list.

A.33 Full value Sir

Judge Advocate

Q.34 Then this amount of $37.04 shows the total value of these items and not 75% of the value.

A.34 No Sir, they are shown at full cost.

The Defending Officer cross examines the witness:

Q.35 You have told the Court that these articles are valued at full cost, how do you arrive at this.

A.35 From the list of prices submitted by the Regiment.

Q.36 By the Regiment?

A.36 From the Regimental price list.

Q.37 As to one article, namely the Kilt, how was the price of $25.00 arrived at, as I understand that this article is not Government property but rather Regimental property.

Prosecuting Officer

I object Sir, as I understand these Kilts belong to the Government at this time.

Judge Advocate

We are only concerned with establishing the value of the Kilt. Whether it is Government or Regimental property is of secondary importance. Under the circumstances, it is a matter to be decided by the Court.

Prosecuting Officer

Q.38 How is the value of the Kilt arrived at.

A.38 It is a Regimental custom to set the value of the Kilt at 25.00.

Q.39 Do you know in what condition this Kilt was in when it was issued to the accused.

A.39 I could not say Sir

Q.40 Was it in good condition.

A.40 Yes Sir

Q.41 Do you know how old this Kilt was.

A.41 No Sir

Q.42 It amounts to this then, the valuation you placed on the kilt was not a valuation placed on it by your own knowledge, but was heresay.

A.42 Yes Sir

Q.43 I understand that the kilt is being forwarded to the Regiment. You have not received it yet.

A.43 I have not received it yet, Sir

Judge Advocate

There is no evidence before the Court to show that the Kilt is being returned. If this Kilt is returned at a later date, and if the accused is found guilty of this charge, it will not be charged against him.

Prosecuting Officer

If there is doubt as to where the amount was obtained as to the cost of the Kilt, the Prosecution would like to bring forward another witness who could give evidence as to the cost of the Kilt.

Judge Advocate to Defending Officer

Q.44 Have you any objection to the Prosecuting Officer bringing another witness before this Court in an endeavour to establish the value of this Kilt

A.44 No objection Sir

Judge Advocate to Prosecuting Officer

Q.45 Who is this witness

A.45 Captain George R. Duncan, Quartermaster, The Irish Regiment of Canada, C.A.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b)

Fifth Witness for Prosecution

Captain (Q.M.). George R. Duncan, The Irish Regiment of Canada, C.A.

The witness withdraws.

being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.46 In what capacity do you act in the Irish Regt of Can C.A.

A.46 As Quartermaster

Q.47 Will you give to the Court what you know in reference to the value placed on Kilts in the Irish Regiment of Can. C.A.

A.47 These Kilts were purchased some time ago from Beecham & Howe, at a charge to the Regiment of $25.00 each. They are Regimental clothes, not government property, therefore they do not come under the rules of reduced rates for length of wear. To replace this Kilt it would cost the same amount as when bought.

Cross examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.48 You have a certain number of Kilts in your stores at present.

A.48 Yes

Q.49 Are they all worth $25.00

A.49 No Sir, but to replace them it would cost $25.00 each.

Q.50 Do you always, when issueing a Kilt, issue a new one.

A.50 No Sir

Q.51 So that it might follow that if you issued a worn Kilt to a man, and he lost it, you would charge him $25.00

A.51 That is the custom.

Q.52 What is the basis of that custom.

A.52 I couln't say

Q.53 Have you any knowledge of the Kilt issued to Corporal F.R. Harvey.

A.53 I do not know anything about the Kilt issued to Corporal Harvey, but it would not be a new one, as he has had it for some time.

Q.54 So, of your own knowledge, you could not say what the Kilt at this time would be worth.

A.54 No Sir

Re-examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.55 When a Kilt is lost in the Regiment, what are the circumstances surrounding such a loss.

Judge Advocate

I dont see how the witness can answer that question. I would like to point out to the Court that both the President of the Court and one of the members are at present serving in Regiments which have Kilts. For this reason I think that the value of the Kilt and whether any value can be charged at all may be left to the Court. I stand corrected on my first sentence, what I meant to say was the President was a member of a Highland Regiment in the last war. If you leave the case in the hands of the Court they will decide upon the value of the Kilt and whether it is to be charged at all. With Kilts as expensive as this, I am surprised a Scotchman ever thought them up.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b)

The witness withdraws.

Q.56 Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

A.56 Answer. Yes Sir

Q.57 Question. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

A.57 Answer. No Sir

Question. ~~Is he a witness as to character only? [illegible]~~

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE COURT

(i) When the answers to the above questions have been recorded, the Court will follow the provisions of Rules of Procedure 40 and 41 respecting the order of evidence and addresses which is applicable to the circumstances of the case.

(ii) All addresses by prosecutor, counsel or defending officer, whether recorded by the Court or handed in in writing will be attached to the proceedings in the order in which they are made. Any address which the accused is entitled to make pursuant to Rules of Procedure 40 (C) (iv) and 41 (A) (i) and (iii) will be similarly dealt with. Written addresses will be read to the Court, marked and signed by the President. If any person who is entitled to make an address declines to do so, a record will be made to that effect.

(Where any evidence is given for the defence.)

The evidence of the accused (and of the witnesses for the defence including witnesses as to character) is recorded on a separate page (see overleaf).

(Where the accused does not give evidence upon oath.)

Question to the accused. ~~Have you anything to say in your defence?~~

Answer. ~~The accused in his defence says:~~

~~Handing a written address which is signed, marked signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.~~

† In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

First Witness for Defence — B. 78801 Corporal Francis Reginald HARVEY, The Irish Regiment of Canada, C.A.

Having been duly sworn is examined by Defending Officer

Q.58 You are Corporal Francis Reginald Harvey, The Irish Regiment of Canada, C.A.

A.58 Yes Sir

Q.59 You are the accused N.C.O.

A.59 Yes Sir

Q.60 You have been charged, and the charges have been read out to you, and in order to establish for the benefit of the Court background surrounding this offense, will you give to the Court a brief resume of your military career.

A.60 At the age of 14 I enlisted in the Imperial Army, namely the King's Royal Regiment , with whom I served for 4½ years, during which time I served 3 years in India and Egypt. Upon coming to this country in 1922 --

Defending Officer

Q.61 May I interrupt; what were the circumstances surrounding your release from the Imperial Army.

A.61 In 1922 the big reduction of the British Army took place and quite a number were allowed to obtain their discharge to civilian life.

Q.62 You were one of those men.

A.62 Yes Sir

Q.63 What did you do when you came to Canada.

A.63 On my arrival in Canada in 1922 I enlisted with the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery in Kingston, Ontario, being a member of their band.

Q.64 You served with them how long.

A.64 Three years Sir

Q.65 Why were you discharged from that Unit.

A.65 I wished to go to the Royal Canadian Regiment, Headquarters London Ontario.

Defending Officer

I produce copy of Discharge from the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery.

Q.66 Is this the certificate you received upon discharge from Royal Canadian Horse Artillery.

A.66 Yes Sir

The certificate was read by the President, marked as exhibit "K" and attached to the proceedings.

Q.67 On leaving the R.C.H.A., you say you joined the Royal Canadian Regiment.

A.67 Yes Sir

Q.68 How long did you serve in that Regiment.

A.68 5½ Years Sir.

Q.69 What were the circumstances of your leaving that Regiment.

A.69 I purchased my discharge upon wishing to return to civil life.

Q.70 I produce what purports to be a Certificate of Discharge of Corporal F.R. Harvey from the Royal Canadian Regiment, dated 2nd February, 1933; is this the Certificate you received.

A.70 It is Sir

The certificate was read by the President, marked as exhibit "L" and attached to the proceedings.

Q.71 What Unit did you join next.

A.71 The Non-Permanent Active Militia Sir, The Irish Regiment of Canada.

Q.72 What year

A.72 1934 Sir

Q.73 With what rank.

A.73 Sergeant, Sir

Q.74 Did you, or did you not, continue with that Unit until the outbreak of war.

A.74 I did Sir

Q75 At the outbreak of war, what did you do.

A.75 At the outbreak of war I was sent to Camp Borden, Ontario, with a Detachment of men to perform guard duties with the R.C.A.F. guarding their hangers.

Q.76 How long were you with this Guard detachment.

A.76 Until the Irish Regiment of Canada mobilized in June, 1940.

Q.77 What was your rank with the Guard detachment.

A.77 First as a Sergeant, then, later, six months as Company Sergeant Major.

Q.78 Who was the Officer in charge of that Detachment.

A.78 Major E.R. Hughes, M.C., The Irish Regiment of Canada, C.A.

Q.79 On your completion of service with the Guard Detachment, did you obtain any recommendation from Major Hughes as to your conduct.

A.79 I had cause to ask Major Hughes for a recommendation after I had been with the Guard Detachment for three months with a view of going to the R.C.A.F. as a Disciplinarian. However, on talking to my Colonel I abandoned the idea, but I did receive a recommendation from Major Hughes.

Q.80 I produce to you a letter signed by Major Hughes, is that the recommendation you received.

A.80 Yes Sir

Judge Advocate to Prosecuting Officer

Q.81 Do you object to this letter being used as evidence.

A.81 I do not Sir

The letter was read by the President, marked as exhibit "M" and attached to the Proceedings.

Defending Officer

Q.82 When the Irish Regiment of Canada C.A. mobilized, you told us you enlisted with them, in what rank.

A.82 With the rank of Private for one week, then C.S.M. Headquarters Company.

Q.83 How long did you continue in that rank.

A.83 Until July 16th, 1942.

Q.84 Where was Headquarters Company located on July 16th, 1942.

A.84 At Mulgrave, Nova Scotia.

Q.85 What occurred on 16th July, 1942.

A.85 I reverted to the rank of Corporal at my own request.

Q.86 What was the reason for that reversion at your own request.

A.86 The cause being that I owed certain money to subordinate ranks.

Q.87 Now, on that reversion, you were transferred to another Company - what Company was that.

A.87 "C" Company, Sir, stationed at Gaspe, Quebec.

Q.88 Commanded by Major Glendening at that time.

A.88 Yes Sir

Q.89 Did you report to Gaspe

A.89 Yes Sir

Q.90 What date - approximately.

A.90 17th July, 1942, Sir

Q.91 Will you give the Court the circumstances leading up to your going Absent without Leave.

A.91 I had a long distance telephone call from Halifax from a cousin of mine telling me that he was going through on the train to Toronto on a certain date and that he could probably, if I saw him, would be able to help me financially. I applied for leave and obtained it from Major Glendening.

Q.91 You applied for leave to go where.

A.91 To Matapedia, Sir

Q.92 Is that where the train was to pass through.

A.92 Yes Sir, but the pass was made out for Campbelltown instead, which allowed me to meet the train just the same and still saved me a few miles.

Q.93 You have told the Court that your object in meeting the train was to get in touch with this relative of yours.

A.93 That is correct Sir

Q.94 When had you received your last pay from the Army.

A.94 On the last day of July Sir.

Q.95 How much did you draw.

A.95 One dollar and ninety cents Sir

Q.96 What was the reason for such a small amount being drawn on that date.

A.96 The reason being that my assigned pay as a Sergeant Major was $45.00 and the time did not permit the pay and records to make the necessary changes on my wife's check.

Q.97 By the way, had your wife been informed of your reversion.

A.97 No Sir

Q.98 Did you at this time still owe money.

A.98 Yes Sir

Q.99 You have told the Court that you hoped to obtain money from this relative.

Judge Advocate
Will you please stop leading the witness.

Prosecuting Officer
I have no objections

Q.100 What occurred when you proceeded on that pass.

A.100 Upon reaching Campbelltown I met the train that I intended to, but no-one appeared at all. I immediately felt pretty low about the whole thing and I sent a telegram to my Commanding Officer telling him that I would be back a day later as my means of transportation would have had to be by the road. In the morning I felt very much the worse with myself and I got an idea in my head that I might be able to go somewhere and raise the necessary cash. After further deliberation I took that attitude and proceeded towards Halifax where I thought I might accomplish this. My idea being that if I could get the necessary money and clean it all up in a hurry, that that would be the finish of the whole thing. This idea was paramount in my mind.

Q.101 What happened next.

A.101 I proceeded as far as Truro, all the time thinking that I should turn back, but the days went on and I proceeded to Halifax, knowing that I was in a worse state than ever. I couldn't think of any means by which I could raise the sum except by working, but I could not bring myself to take my uniform off and decided to return. In the meantime I heard through a relative of mine in Halifax that my Mother had been taken to the St Josephs Hospital in Toronto, and, knowing that she did not understand anything of the whole affair, I decided to try and make Toronto and explain the whole thing, which otherwise might have been disasterous to her as she is suffering with Diabetis. Upon reaching Toronto I stayed at the Y.M.C.A. overnight, with the intention of getting my clothes pressed before seeing my people. In the morning I proceeded to get my clothes pressed at a "While you Wait" establishment where I was picked up by the Provost and escorted to the Detention Barracks in Toronto.

Q.102 Did you see your Mother.

A.102 Yes Sir

Q.103 How did you manage this.

A.103 I asked permission to go out for a couple of hours, with an escort, in order that I might see my Mother. I was the weekend leave without an escort and told to report Monday morning, which I did. They then placed me on the roll of a Company in the Grounds.

Q.104 How did you return.

A.104 I had orders to see Sgt. Leitch who gave me my ticket and I returned with his party.

Q.105 Up until July 16th, 1942, what have you to say about any crimes you may have committed during your military career.

A.105 I had no crimes against me Sir.

Q.106 Does that apply to your whole Military Career.

A.106 It does Sir.

The Prosecuting Officer cross examines the witness:

Q.107 Corporal Harvey, in your long experience with the Army you have probably acquired a knowledge of rules and regulations affecting all ranks of the Army.

A.107 Yes Sir

Q.108 It would be fair to say then that you knew well the regulations concerning a member of the army going Absent without leave.

A.108 Very well, Sir.

Q.109 Did you find your Commanding Officer agreeable to assisting you in clearing up your financial affairs.

A.109 Yes Sir, he was.

Q.110 Did your commanding Officer give you your pass for that reason, that is, so that you could clear up your financial affairs.

A.110 Yes Sir

Q.111 Then it would be fair to say Corporal Harvey, that if you had of applied for an extension of leave on your pass, your Commanding Officer would, in all probability have granted it.

Judge Advocate

That question or any like it are purely guesswork, and it is not fair to ask the witness to answer them.

Q.112 Did you apply to your Company Commander for an extension of your pass.

A.112 No Sir

Judge Advocate

Q.113 You stated that you drew your last pay of $1.90, then how were you able to travel from Gaspe to Halifax, then to Toronto with no money.

A.113 I only had a couple of dollars on me Sir, but I obtained lifts at various points.

Q.114 You hitch-hiked from Gaspe to Halifax then to Toronto.

A.114 Yes Sir

Q.115 How much was this sum that you needed.

A.115 $80.00 Sir

NPAM/507
Sgt. F.R. Harvey.

This is to certify that I have known the marginally noted Non-Commissioned Officer for a number of years, both as a soldier and civilian and have always found him honest and honourable, a good organizer, a first class instructor and disciplinarian.

Sergeant Frank Harvey was chosen by Lieutenant-Colonel Allan Cockeram, our former Officer Commanding, to represent this Regiment, The Irish Regiment of Canada (M.G.), at the Coronation of King George VI. The choice proved a very popular one with all ranks.

When this Detachment was called out, Sergeant Harvey was one of the first N.C.O.s to answer the call. He has been under my command in Camp Borden for the past three months, and I have always found him willing and ready to assist at all times. He has proven himself an excellent instructor and I do not hesitate to recommend him to anyone who could use his services.

Address for Defence "N"

Cpl. Harvey, F.R.

Mr. President and Gentlemen - Cases of absence without leave are usually pretty well cut and dried. The offence is certainly too common a one and its proof and punishment are generally routine - varying only with the length of the absence and the record of the accused.

I venture to think that this is not an entirely usual case, and that is why I entered a plea of "not guilty" to an arraignment which all of us know would never have reached the stage for a Court Martial had it not been easily provable.

We base our defence not on attacking the evidence of the prosecution, but on a full explanation of the circumstances surrounding it. We invite the Court to consider the motives leading to the commission of the offence, the reasons the accused man had for continuing it, once committed. We ask the Court to consider the accused's record, not only in the present army but previous to that. In view of all these matters we feel justified in asking that the Court in passing sentence exercise the greatest leniency in its discretion.

I mentioned a few moments ago that I felt this to be an unusual case of absence without leave. It is unusual becuase it involves an N.C.O. who a short time ago was a Warrant Officer, Class II with a long and creditable military record behind him - a record which, according to his statement, backed up by official documents was unblenished by even the most trivial military crime. Cpl. Harvey's military record stretches back to the end of last war in the Imperial Army, which he entered as a boy. From that time until his reversion to the rank of Corporal, his military history is one of steady and intelligent progress, culminating in his rank of W.O. II in his present regiment. It was a position which had taken more than 20 years to build up and it is not difficult to imagine the force with which his reversion to junior N.C.O.'s rank must have struck him. Th e effect was not only on his pride. His family, dependent on him for support, has learned naturally enough to live at a standard only maintainable on a Sergeant-Major's pay. His reversion demanded a drastic revision downward of their standard of living, or that Cpl. Harvey himself give up any hope of paying back the money which had been the original cause of his downfall.

(I should like to make clear at this stage, Gentlemen, that these remarks of mine are not intended to reflect criticism on the punishment itself - they are intended to help you realize the frame of mind that this N.C.O. was in when he went absent) To cap the matter, a friend on whom he had been counting to help him financially, failed to arrive at Campbellton. Harvey had, by this time, already overstayed his leave, but he had telegraphed his Commanding Officer, which is certainly not the act of a man intending to go absent over a long period. The final failure of his friend to arrive on a later time, was appearently the last show. He conceived the wild idea of going off and getting a job, earning or borrowing some money and repaying his debts. I have called it a wild idea Gentlemen, and wild it certainly is - but no wilder, I venture to think, than would have occurred to some of us in the same situation. And Harvey, by his own admission, realized soon enough how wild it was. The scheme, had he carried it out, would have involved his going into civilian clothes, which might have amounted to desertion - and he is too old a soldier to consider that - but precisely because he is an old soldier he was horrified at being A.W.L. and like a good many soldiers who have been in his position he grew more and more reluctant to return as the period of his absence grew longer. Finally he made up his mind to surrender himself and was only delaying long enough to visit his mother who was sick in hospital when he is arrested by the Provost.

Now, his wish to visit his mother in hospital may well be considered as something of a tear jerker and requires some corroboration. That corroboration is furnished by the fact that once lodged in jail he made a request to visit her under escort, and once the request was investigated by the authorities, was granted permission to do so without escort and merely under open arrest.

One or two other thoughts I should like to offer the Court. It may well be said, as my friend the prosecutor undoubtedly will say, that this offence is made still more serious, this having been committed by an N.C.O. who was a Warrant Officer. No doubt this is true, but I suggest with respect that the circumstances surrounding this particular case are more than sufficient to explain why the offence occurred and to offer a reasonable basis for a lenient sentence. In time of war, Gentlemen, it is doing no service to the Army and discipline in the Army to penalize an N.C.O. expertly trained for years as such, so that he ceases to be of use to the Army which he serves. This is so unless the Court is convinced that by giving a lenient sentence it is overlooking a flagrant and definite breach of discipline. If the court is of this opinion, all that I have said has been a waste of their time. If so I shall apologize - but I hope I shall not have to do so.

"O" 55

L P Hanna Major

Mr President and Gentlemen of the Court; the Prosecution has attempted to bring forward to the Court the facts that the accused, Corporal Harvey was absent without leave during the period stated; that he was not seen by his Commanding Officer during the period stated; that he was away and that he was brought back in a party under the supervision of a Sergeant of this Regiment. The Prosecution has also brought forward a list of the deficiencies which the accused was not in possession of on his return. That is all Sir

"P" 57

It is not my intention to sum up, as I sometimes do. The charge here as the Defending Officer has said himself has pointed out, are straightforward enough. It is now the duty of the Court to make up its mind on these charges. They have heard the evidence and I am sure they are capable of attaching the proper weight to this evidence, without any advice from me.

I do however wish to congratulate both the Prosecuting Officer and the Defending Officer, as well as the Irish Regiment in general for the most capable and soldierly escort which they have had before the Court this morning. I do not think there is anything else I have to say.

"Q"

K P Harris Maj President

Mr President and Gentlemen of the Court. B.78801 Corporal Harvey, F.R. The Irish Regiment of Canada a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on Active service is charged with, (1) Absence without Leave and (2) Losing by neglect his clothing, equipment and regimental necessaries. The evidence which the Prosecution proposes to produce is that the accused did not return from a pass that he was given when it was due, that he was not seen in his Company during the period from August 5th, 1942, to September 14th or 15th, 1942, that the accused on not returning to the Regiment, the kit left by him was checked and found to be deficient, by a Court of Inquiry amounting to $71.98, but on the return of the accused he brought back certain equipment which still left him deficient in kit amounting to $37.04. That is all Sir.

District Court-Martial
B-76801 Cpl. Francis Reginald Harvey
Irish Regiment of Canada, CA

1. Receipt is acknowledged of your 7D-5-4-5-12 dated October 6th, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded to this of ice for registration and custody the proceedings of the marginally noted District Court-Martial.

2. The following irregularities have been observed in the proceedings:-

(a) It is preferable if the Christian names or initials of the shorthand writer appear in the proceedings before his surname instead after the same.

(b) It is noted that the two documents M.F.B. 1481 and 1482 were not admitted in evidence. However it is preferable even though they are not admitted in evidence that the same should be forwarded to this office for perusal.

(c) There should, in this case, have been a Special Finding made on the first charge inasmuch as there is no evidence to support the costs of apprehension in the amount of $21.85 as the two forms M.F.B. 1481 and 1482 have been rejected.

(d) The words "When on Active Service" should have been omitted in the Statement of the Offence in the first charge on the Charge Sheet.

3. The proceedings are r turned in order that the above noted irregularities may be brought to the attention of the officers concerned for their future guidance and further in order that the two original discharge certificates belonging to the accused, which were attached to the proceedings may be deleted and returned to him. I would ask you to insert certified copies of the same in place of these originals. When the proceedings have served their purpose, may they please be returned to this office.

Reference H.M. 1286 (JAG) dated 1 Nov 44:

1. It is noted from the statement of the accused in the Standing Court Martial proceedings herein that he complains that he did not receive the proper increases in rates of regimental pay provided by G.A.R.O. 3481.

2. His M.F.M. 6 discloses that during the period from February, 1942 to January 1944 he has been charged and found guilty of five offences involving forfeiture of pay. However, he apparently enlisted 27 Aug 39.

3. May his M.F.M. 14 be examined please to determine whether or not his complaint is justified.

4. It is noted that he was confined in military custody for a period of 24 days awaiting trial.

5. May this Headquarters be informed please as to whether his Officer Commanding considers that this man is entitled to increased rates of pay. May information be received as to the reason why this soldier was held in custody awaiting trial such a length of period of time.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

D

The Prosecutor has no further witness to call.
The Prosecution is closed.

Motion – No Case

It is open to the accused, his Counsel or Defending Officer at the close of the case for the prosecution to submit that the evidence given for the prosecution has not established a prima facie case against him, and that he should not therefore be called upon for his defence. If such Motion is made, the proceedings will be recorded on separate pages which will be inserted immediately before the present page D. If the Court is satisfied that the Motion is well founded, it must acquit the accused and register its Finding on Page A.

Defence

The President will now address the acused as follows:—

"It is my duty at this stage to advise you as to your rights in the general conduct of your defence. The procedure to be followed depends entirely on the answers given to the formal questions which are about to be put to you. It is therefore important that you should understand and appreciate the effect of your answers to these questions. You do not need to give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so, but if you do give sworn evidence you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court."

"If you do not give evidence on oath you are entitled to make a statement giving your account of the subject of the charge against you. You will not be sworn and no question may be put to you by the Court or any person with respect to such statement. I must warn you, however, that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the Court than a mere statement not on oath."

If there is no Defending Officer the President should then explain to the accused the effect which his answer to the formal questions on Page D of the proceedings will have on the order of the Closing Addresses as provided in R.P. 40 and 41.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness, or do you wish to make an unsworn statement?

Answer. Yes sir I apply to give evidence as a witness.

Question to the accused. Do you intend to call any witness in your defence?

Answer. No sir.

Question to the accused. ~~Is the witness to be called a witness as to character only?~~ Answer.

56

First Witness for the Defence) The Accused, F.49883 Pte. H.B.Hayes, No. 1 Transit Camp, C. A.

being duly sworn is examined by the defending officer

Q. Will you tell your story to the Court?

A. Sir--I have been in the army for five years, over five years and ever since my category was lowered and I left my unit I have been kicked around quite a bit and have done nothing but fatigues and I was sick and fed up. I was disgusted. I tried to get overseas and I was promised to be put on three drafts. I was promised this by three different Colonels, but I was never even put on a draft sir. I have even had stripes, I have been a Cpl. twice and I have worn stripes 4 or 5 months and I never have beenpaid for them and I am still only drawing $1.30 a day pay I have never even got the .20¢ raise although I have had my basic and advanced training for years. When I left here I was pretty well fed up with everything. The last job I had around here was running around all day with a toilet plunger. I was at that for about a month before I went on leave. I have two brothers overseas with the 3rd Division and all my friends that I was with in the first of the war and when I left them everything seemed to go wrong. I would like to go overseas very much, even after any punishment which I expect to get I would still like to go sir. That is about all sir.

Q. You have been in the army over five years, have you?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What has been your intention all along regarding the army?

A. I expected to get overseas, I expected to get over as soon as I enlisted.

Q. How long have you been in this camp?

A Since the 20th April 1943.

Q. You said something about still receiving only $1.30 a day regimental pay?

A. That is right sir.

Q. How long have you gone without a summary crime against you, that is from the last crime until this time?

A. Around seven or eight months.

Q. I believe it is 13 months. You also mentioned that you had requested at various times to go on draft?

A. That is right sir.

Q. When was the last time you asked to be put on draft?

A. Last December was the last time sir.

Q. Who did you see at that time?

A. Col. Brooks.

Q. What did he say?

A. He turned to the Adjutant and told him to see that I was put on draft right away.

Q. What was your category then?

A. B-1 I was to be reallocated and put in a unit that I could go overseas with.

55

Q. Did you at any time make further application?

A. Sir I was taken to the Army Examiner--Capt. Fraser and also to see Capt. Barnhill, who was supposed to be interceding for me.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q. What was your original unit?

A. The North Nova Scotia Highlanders.

Q. How long were you with them roughly?

A. About two years and a half sir.

Q. Why were you taken off their strength?

A. My category sir.

Q. And since you left the North Novas you have been doing fatigues practically all the time?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And that was the reason that you went A.W.?L. on the 1st of April?

A. Mostly sir, well I was pretty well fed up.

Q. On account of that you couldn't get overseas?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Were you apprehended on the 10th September 1944?

A. Yes sir.

Q. At Springhill?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Is Springhill your home?

A. Yes sir.

Q. From the 1st of April until the 16th of September, were you at home all the time?

A. No sir I was working on a farm.

Q. Near your home?

A. A few miles outside of town.

Q. Did you try to hide during that period?

A. Well sir not exactly, some.

Q. You didn't go out of your way?

A. No sir.

Q. Was it your intention to come back to the army?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Actually you went because you were fed up and couldn't get overseas?

A. Yes sir.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT.

Q. How were you employed when you were apprehended?

A. I was still working on the farm I had just came up to town.

Q. How long did you intend to keep working on the farm?

A. It would be finished within a few weeks.

Q. Was it your farm?

A. No sir, friends of mine.

Q. Are you married?

A. No sir.

Q. Do you know what your category is now?

A. No sir, it is three years since I have had a reboard.

Q. Are you a trained soldier?

A. Yes sir, I had by basic and Advanced training with my unit--the North Nova Scotia Highlanders.

THE WITNESS RESUMES HIS SEAT.

THE DEFENCE HAS NO FRUTHER WITNESSES.

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO MAKE A CLOSING ADDRESS.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO MAKE A CLOSING ADDRESS.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

After the Court has arrived at a Finding on all the charges against the accused and such Finding has been announced to the accused, the Prosecutor will tender to the President M.F.B. 355, together ,when it is possible, with an M.F.M. 6.

These documents are read to the Court by the President, are marked "Y" and "Z", signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Have you any statement to make concerning the documents which have just been read to you?

Answer. No sir.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court?

Answer. Yes sir through my defending officer.

DEFENDING OFFICER: There is no doubt that this man feels very discouraged and disappointed with his brothers and all his friends who he joined the army with at the first of the war, gone overseas and him left behind, doing fatigue work. He is a fully trained soldier and resents doing fatigue work as he feels that he should do some fighting. It is a fact that Hayes has a very lengthy M.F.M. 6, but apart from that his conduct from March 1943 until April 1944--13 months he has had a good record. As I stated before it is his intention to go overseas and I might state that I know that Hayes has seen the Army Examiner within the past few days and the Army Examiner recommended him for the Army Service Corps and I believe that the documents have already gone to his C.O. and have been acted on. That is all sir.

The Sentence is then recorded on Page "A' of the proceedings and same is announced to the accused in open Court.

The President then completes and signs the "Warrant of Commitment", if any, which shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commanding Officer of the accused. He will also complete and sign in every case, the "Certificate of trial by Standing Court-Martial", and address same as directed by the regulations. The proceedings, with all documents, will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General.

1. Receipt is acknowledged of your H.H-1286 dated October 5th, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded to this office for registration and custody the proceedings of the marginally noted District Court-Martial.

2. The following irregularities have been observed in the proceedings:-

(a) The Medical Officer who signed Form M.F.B. 246 neglected to state his Corps and Unit after his signature.

(b) The Officer who signed the M.F.B. 1481 neglected to strike out the inapplicable parts. In addition, it is preferable that in the completion of this Form, each particular should be properly dated.

(c) M.F.B. 1482 is also improperly completed in that there is not a full description of the accused, his Corps and Unit having been omitted after his name. It is likewise preferable in completing this Form to have each item of the particulars dated.

(d) It was improper for the Prosecutor to make any reference as to what the Sentence should be before the Finding had been made by the Court. In making closing addresses, Prosecutors should confine themselves to the evidence in the case.

3. It is not considered necessary to return the proceedings which are, therefore, retained for custody. May the foregoing irregularities please be brought to the attention of all officers concerned for their future guidance.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

*Instruction. (See R. P. 29 (A)) Question.

Q. 4 *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

A. 4 Answer. No Sir.

The prosecutor makes an opening address. ~~[xxxx

Q. 9 In your own opinion would you say that the Company concerned had failed to report that man at the Orderly Room on the second and third time for publication?

A. 9 No Sir. Not in my opinion.

Q. 10 Why can you not produce documents showing those records?

A. 10 You will understand that as records clerk I can only produce documents handed to me.

Q. 11 In other words, the fact that you are evidence in this case for the prosecution, is it not your duty to see that you have all documents pertaining to that man's absence?

A. 11 Yes Sir.

Q. 12 Then, if you have produced exhibit "H" showing the first publication, where are Part 11 Orders showing the second and third time published?

A. 12 I have no other documents.

Q. 13 Could you tell the Court where you get the voucher to base the expenses incurred for the escort or meals?

A. 13 As long as the prisoner or the accused is apprehended and an escort is sent for him from the Depot to wherever he was apprehended, expenses incurred on the trip bringing him back to here, the escort concerned submits to the officer issuing these warrants his expenses, and form MFB-1481 and MFB-1482 are compiled.

Q. 14 There were no vouchers accompanying that account?

A. 14 There were no receipts attached, Sir.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 83 (B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Second Witness for the Prosecution. F-49779 Sgt. R.W.Briggs, No. 6 District Depot, (CA), being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q. 15 What Company are you a member of?

A. 15 Casualty Company.

Q. 16 What are your duties in that Company?

A. 16 Platoon Sergeant.

Q. 17 Of what platoon?

A. 17 Nos. two and three, now, Sir.

Q. 18 What platoon were you previously platoon Sergeant of?

A. 18 Number five.

Q. 19 Was the accused, Pte. Hayes, a member of your platoon?

A. 19 Yes Sir.

Q. 20 Did you find him absent at any time?

A. 20 Yes Sir.

Q. 21 On what date?

A. 21 24th. July, 1942.

Q. 22 About what time?

A. 22 After the morning parade at 0800 hours.

Q. 23 What did you do when you found him absent?

A. 23 I reported it to the absentee Sergeant.

Q. 24 Did you check to make certain the accused was not on some other duty?

A. 24 Yes Sir.

Q. 25 Could you find him?

A. 25 No Sir.

Q. 26 Was his name called daily after that on all parades of the Company?

A. 26 Yes Sir.

Q. 27 Do you know if the accused returned to the Depot on his own account?

A. 27 No Sir. I did not see the accused until he was warned for Company office.

Q. 28 Did you know that he was apprehended?

A. 28 No Sir.

Q. 29 Do you recognize the accused here in Court?

A. 29 Yes Sir.

Q. 30 Who is he?

A. 30 Pte. Hayes, H.B.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q. 31 You say you were platoon Sergeant of No. 5 Platoon on the 24th. of July, 1942?

A. 31 Yes Sir.

Q. 32 When did you leave No. 5 Platoon and go to Platoons numbers 2 and 3?

-6

A. 32 I cannot recall the date.

Q. 33 Was it in July?

A. 33 Yes Sir.

Q. 34 You do not know what date?

A. 34 No Sir.

Q. 35 In August you were in No. 2 and 3 Platoons?

A. 35 Yes Sir.

Q. 36 When you went to No. 2 and 3 Platoons, did you transfer Pte. Hayes to those platoons?

A. 36 No Sir.

Q. 37 He was still in No. 5?

A. 37 Yes Sir.

Q. 38 Then, how could you call his name daily on parade?

A. 38 The absentee Sergeant called his name.

Q. 39 Not according to your evidence in the summary of evidence which reads as follows:-- "I am Platoon Sergeant of No. 5 Platoon, Casualty Company, No. 6 District Depot, (CA). On the 24th. July, 1942, the accused was posted on sanitary fatigue. After roll call at 0800 hours on the 24th. July, 1942, I checked the duties and found the accused to be absent. I reported his absence to the Absentee Sergeant and continued to call his name daily on parade and he failed to answer his name. I did not see the accused until I was called as a witness against him before his Company Commander on 5th. September, 1942". Did you say that?

A. 39 Yes Sir.

Q. 40 The accused was on sanitary fatigue?

A. 40 Yes Sir.

Q. 41 Who put him on that fatigue?

A. 41 He was posted there while I was on pass.

Q. 42 Do you know what job he was doing?

A. 42 He was changing foot-baths.

Q. 43 How did you find that out?

A. 43 It was marked on the platoon roll.

Q. 44 Is it not a fact that you found Pte. Hayes in the hut and asked him what he was doing, and he told you he was changing foot-baths?

A. 44 No Sir.

Q. 45 You are sure of that.

A. 45 Yes Sir.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Q. 46 When you found the accused was absent to whom did you report his absence?

A. 46 To Sgt. Conrod.

Q. 47 What are Sgt. Conrod's duties in the Company?

A. 47 Absentee Sergeant.

Q. 48 Does he keep a list of the absentees?

A. 48 Yes Sir.

Q. 49 Does he call those names on every parade?

A. 49 Yes Sir.

Q. 50 That, then, is what you mean when you say his name was continued to be called daily?

A. 50 Yes Sir.

Q. 51 Does the platoon Sergeant still call the names of the men absent as well?

A. 51 Yes Sir.

Q. 52 There is a double check then?

A. 52 Yes Sir.

R.P. 83 (B) HAS BEEN COMPLIED WITH.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

THE PROSECUTOR HAS NO FURTHER WITNESSES.

D

The prosecution is closed.

Defence

Q. 53 Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

A. 53 Answer. No Sir.

Q. 54 Question. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

A. 54 Answer. No Sir.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE COURT

(i) When the answers to the above questions have been recorded, the Court will follow the provisions of Rules of Procedure 40 and 41 respecting the order of evidence and addresses which is applicable to the circumstances of the case.

(ii) All addresses by prosecutor, counsel or defending officer, whether recorded by the Court or handed in in writing will be attached to the proceedings in the order in which they are made. Any address which the accused is entitled to make pursuant to Rules of Procedure 40 (C) (iv) and 41 (A) (i) and (iii) will be similarly dealt with. Written addresses will be read to the Court, marked and signed by the President. If any person who is entitled to make an address declines to do so, a record will be made to that effect.

(Where any evidence is given for the defence.)

(Where the accused does not give evidence upon oath.)

Q. 55 Question to the accused. Have you anything to say in your defence?

A. 55 Answer. No Sir.

The Prosecutor makes a closing address.
(See document marked "M" attached.)

The Defending Officer makes a closing address.
(See document marked "N" attached.)

† In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

23

E

Finding*

*To be struck out except in cases where trial has taken place on a plea of "Not Guilty."

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court find that the accused No. F-49983 Private Harold, Benedict HAYES, No. 6 District Depot, (CA) is found guilty of the charge.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

*When the Court is already open this sentence will be struck out.

*The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

Evidence of character, &c.

Lieut. M.R.Cummings, No. 6 District Depot (CA) is duly sworn.

Q. 56 Question by the President. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused? Answer by the Witness. A-56 Yes, I produce MFB-355 and MFM-6.

The above statement [with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with] is read, marked "Y" and "Z" signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q. 57 Question by the President. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read? Answer by the Witness. A-57 Yes.

Q. 58 Question. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books? Answer. 58. Yes.

Q. 59 Question. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries? Answer. 59. Yes.

[Instruction.—If by reason of the nature of the service of the accused in a departmental corps, or otherwise, the finding of the Court renders him liable to any exceptional punishment in addition to that to be awarded by the Court the prosecutor must call the attention of the Court to the fact, and the Court must inquire into the nature and amount of that additional punishment.]

~~Cross-examined by the accused~~

The Defending Officer declined to cross-examine.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B).

The witness withdraws.

Q. 60 Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court? Answer. 60. No Sir.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

Opening Address by the Prosecutor.

Gentlemen:--

In opening the proceedings for the Prosecution there is not much I can say. The charge against the accused is absence without leave. The accused was not struck off strength by a Court of Inquiry. He remained absent until apprehended at Amherst, N.S. at 1500 hours on the 31st. August, 1942. A certificate to that effect will be entered as evidence.

I wish at this time to draw the Court's attention to the date on the charge sheet. The date from which the accused is charged with being absent, namely 29th. July, 1942. All the evidence for the prosecution shows the accused as having been absent from 0600 hours on the 24th. of July, 1942. This error in the date on the charge sheet evidently was made when the charge was being typed. That is the only explanation the prosecution can offer. It was not noticed before the charge was sent in, in time to be rectified.

Closing address by the Prosecutor.

Gentlemen:--

In closing the proceedings for the prosecution there is just one thing I wish to draw to your attention.

The accused absented himself without leave, remained absent until apprehended by a member of the Military Police. He is lucky he is not charged with desertion. He was away long enough, 38 days and 7 hours. The fact that he had not been struck off strength by a Court of Inquiry saved him from a desertion charge. There can be no doubt about his being absent. The circumstances warrant the prosecution to ask for a much longer sentence than is usually given in ordinary cases of absence without leave. That is the idea of bringing the accused to trial by a District Court-Martial.

Closing address by the Defending Officer.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Court.--

In my closing address the first thing I am going to ask for is that the Court take into consideration the evidence which I shall point out, give justice to the accused and dismiss the charge.

In the first place the accused was marked absent, and it was published in Orders as the first time. Nothing further was published in Orders, which, if the Company had been doing their job, would have. I also wish to point out that in the costs of meals no receipt voucher accompanied it, and that, in my opinion, is wrong. Again, in the evidence of Sgt. Briggs I wish to point out this fact. As the platoon Sergeant of No. 5 in July calling the roll, reporting him absent, and so on. Still, in July, he leaves that platoon with the roll and everything else and still calls the man's name on parade with the other platoon.

In my opinion the evidence of Sgt. Briggs should be entirely washed out.

*To be ~~taken~~ in case no plea of "Not Guilty" has been proceeded with.

~~*[The Court having been re-opened, the accused is again brought before it, and the charge to which he has pleaded "Guilty" read to him again.]~~

The accused No. G-19851 Private Lester Matthew HOPKINS, A-30 Canadian Infantry Training Centre, C.A. is found guilty of both charges.

*The summary ~~(or abstract)~~ of evidence is read, marked "G", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

Q.5. Question to the accused. Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?

A.5. Answer. The accused in mitigation of punishment ~~says:—~~

~~[or~~ hands in a written statement, which is read, marked "H", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]

Instruction.

* If there is no summary or abstract of evidence, sufficient evidence to enable the Court to determine the sentence, and to enable the confirming officer to know all the circumstances connected with the case, will be taken on a separate sheet in the same manner as on a plea of "Not Guilty."

If from the statement of the accused, or from the summary or abstract of evidence, or otherwise, it appears to the Court that the accused did not understand the effect of his plea of "Guilty," the Court shall alter the record, and enter a plea of "Not Guilty," and proceed with the trial accordingly.

DD

Q.6. Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character?

Question to the accused.

A.6. No Sir.

Answer.

Evidence as to character.

E

*To be struck out except in cases where trial has taken place on a plea of "Not Guilty."

Finding*

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

Evidence of character, etc.

Q.7. Question by the President. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused? Answer by the Witness. A.7. Yes, I produce M.F.B. 355 and M.F.M. 6.

The above statements [with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with] is read, marked "Y" & "Z" respectively, signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q.8. Question by the President. Is the accused the person named in the statements which you have heard read? Answer by the Witness. A.8. Yes.

Q.9. Question. Have you compared the contents of the above statements with the regimental books? Answer. A.9. Yes.

Q.10. Question. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?

A.10. Answer. Yes.

[Instruction.—If by reason of the nature of the service of the accused in a depot, regimental corps, or otherwise, the finding of the Court renders him liable to any exceptional punishment in addition to that to be awarded by the Court the prosecutor must call the attention of the Court to the fact, and the Court must inquire into the nature and amount of that additional punishment.]

~~Cross-examined by the accused.~~

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

In the opinion of the Court, it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(b).

The Witness withdraws.

Q.11. Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court? Answer. A.11. Yes Sir, through my Defending Officer. See document marked "I" attached.

PRESIDENT: The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence. The Sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open Court are accordingly terminated.

Address by the Defending Officer on behalf of the Accused before Sentence at the trial by District Court-Martial of No. G-19851 Private Lester Matthew HOPKINS, A-30 Canadian Infantry Training Centre, C.A.

Well we are going to make a plea on the defence's behalf Sir on the basis of early circumstances as set out in his written statement. His mother died when he was two years of age and then he was left more or less to defend for himself. At the age of three when his father ran off with another woman, he was left with his father's sister, who had a family of her own to take care of and I suppose he was more or less neglected. So it was very easy for him to fall in with the wrong type of companions, so that at about the age of twelve, he was sent to Reform School. Any youngster at that age who has been sent to Reform School naturally finds it pretty hard to find companionship when he returns again and is looked upon as more or less of an outcast . Being in that position, I think the trend would be for him to retire, the man himself might very easily get off the straight and narrow. Even today, according to his own admission, he prefers solitude, rather than company, finds it hard to speak with anyone else, prefers his own company. According to the history he has given, his mother was German. It is therefore possible that his statement that he is sympathetic towards the Germans, the German people, but not to the German leaders might be true. You may even go farther to say his desire not to carry arms against the German People is true. In that connection, he has told me that he would willingly serve in the Merchant Marine, where it would not be necessary for him to carry arms. He could do a service in the Merchant Marine, which would be of just as much value to the Country as in the front line. The failure, if it is not possible to place him in the services of the Merchant Marine, he feels the wisest thing would be internment, since his feelings will never permit him to become a good soldier in the Canadian Army. So to sum up the plea on his behalf, it is either service in the Merchant Marine, if possible, or internment. That is all Sir.

G-19851 Private Lester Matthew Hopkins,
No. 7 District Depot, C.A.

1. Receipt is acknowledged of your J/38-H-642 dated October 10th, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded to this office for registration and custody the proceedings of the marginally noted District Court-Martial.

2. The following irregularities have been observed in the proceedings:-

(a) In completing the Forms M.F.B. 1481 and 1482 it is preferable that each item of the particulars in the same should be dated.

(b) In Form M.F.B. 1482 the accused was not fully described, his corps and unit having been omitted after his name.

3. It is not considered necessary to return the proceedings and they are, therefore, retained for custody. May the foregoing irregularities please be brought to the attention of the officers concerned for their future guidance.

RE APPLICATION FOR D.C.M.
G-19851 Private L.M. HOPKINS
No. 7 District Depot, C.A.

1. A District Court-Martial for the trial of the marginally named soldier will assemble at No. 7 District Depot, C.A., Fredericton, N.B. on Thursday, 24th of May at 0930 hours.

2. I enclose herewith the undermentioned documents:

(a) Convening Order.
(b) Charge sheet.
(c) Summary of Evidence.
(d) Exhibits "A" to "G" inclusive.
(e) Conduct sheet.
(f) Statement as to Character.
(g) List of exhibits.

3. It is your responsibility to see that the accused is warned of the trial and copies of the convening order, charge sheet and summary of evidence are delivered to him at least 24 hours before his trial.

4. It also is your responsibility to arrange for the attendance of all witnesses.

5. The marginal notation in the charge sheet is incorrect. It should be amended to read:

CHARGE
Section 12 (1)(a)
Army Act

6. As no charge of deficiencies has been laid against the accused the evidence of R.Q.M.S. Burrill is surplusage.

7. Exhibit "A" establishing the date upon which the accused was taken on strength of your unit is not necessary.

8. The unit of the accused should be indicated in the headnote to M.F.B. 375.

9. The typewritten insertion "and is still so absent" made between the 3rd and 4th lines of the copy of the Declaration of the Court of Inquiry is not necessary.

10. The certificate of apprehension describes the accused as belonging to the Royal Canadian Engineers. If any evidence is available to explain this description it should be produced at the trial.

11. Exhibit "E" establishing that the accused was taken on strength of your unit following apprehension is not necessary.

12. While not applicable to this charge it is noted that in listing the deficiencies the Court of Inquiry has charged both clothing and equipment and regimental necessaries at 100% and then deducted 25% from the total making the charge on all items 75%.

13. Corporal Currie should initial the deletions on Exhibit "F".

14. It is preferred that all documents forwarded with the application for the assembly of a District Court-Martial be submitted in triplicate.

15. As Lieutenant John Keeffe was a member of the Court of Inquiry which investigated the illegal absence of the accused he is not eligible to serve as a member of the Court-Martial held for his trial.

*Instruction (See R. P. 39 (A)

Q.4 Question. * Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

A.4 Answer. No, Sir.

The prosecutor makes an opening address ~~[hands in a written address,~~ which is ~~read,~~ marked "G" , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. Captain F. F. CREIGHTON, Adjutant, No. 7 District Depot, C.A.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q.5 Will you identify yourself to the Court please?
A.5 Captain F. F. Creighton, Adjutant and Officer in Charge of Records and Documents at No. 7 District Depot, C.A., Fredericton, N.B.

Q.6 Will you explain to the Court the signifigance of this M.F.B. 375, a Declaration of a Court of Inquiry?
A.6 Sir, I present to the Court an M.F.B. 375 which is a Declaration of a Court of Inquiry showing the illegal absence of the accused.

M.F.B. 375, is read, marked Exhibit "H", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

Sir, I present in evidence certified true copy of Part II Order No. 162 issued by Lieutenant-Colonel W. A. McDougall, Officer Commanding No. 7 District Depot, C.A. which shows the accused struck of strength as the result of the Declaration of the Court of Inquiry, and also deficiencies at that time, effective date being 8th July 1942.

Part II Order No. 162, is read.

By the President: The Court have already accepted the Declaration of the Court of Inquiry, M.F.B. 375, as prima facie evidence of the accused's absence and in view of the fact that this order does not agree in hours that the accused absented himself with the M.F.B. 375 the Court will not accept this order in evidence.

I present in evidence a Certificate of Apprehension signed by Sergeant P.P. Merritt, N.C.O. in charge Amherst, Nova Scotia Detachment, No. 37 Provost Company, Canadian Provost Corps, C.A. dated at Amherst 5th September 1942.

Q.7 Captain Creighton could you explain how that certificate of apprehension reads that the accused belongs the Royal Canadian Engineers?

A.7 What evidence I could give on that would be entirely hearsay.

By the Defending Officer: The accused is willing to accept that this certificate refers to him and that he belongs to No. 7 District Depot rather than the R.C.E.

M.F.B. 216, is read, marked Exhibit "I", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

I present in evidence M.F.B. 1481 showing the expense of apprehending and bringing the accused back to his own unit.

M.F.B. 1481, is read, marked Exhibit "J", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

By the President: The Court has accepted this document but they would like to say that it has not been perfectly made out.

Sir, I present M.F.B. 1482 showing the incidental expenses of the escort in bringing the accused back to his own unit.

M.F.B. 1482, is read, marked Exhibit "K", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

By the President: I would like to say once again that this is not perfectly made out and it makes it very difficult for the Court to decide whether to reject these documents or accept them.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULE OF PROCEDURE 83 (B).

WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

THE PROSECUTION HAS NO FURTHER WITNESSES.

The prosecution is closed.

Defence

Q.8	Question to the accused.	Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A.8	Answer.	Yes, Sir.
Q.9	Question.	Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A.9	Answer.	No, Sir.

~~Question. Is he a witness as to character only? Answer.~~

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE COURT

(i) When the answers to the above questions have been recorded, the Court will follow the provisions of Rules of Procedure 40 and 41 respecting the order of evidence and addresses which is applicable to the circumstances of the case.

(ii) All addresses by prosecutor, counsel or defending officer, whether recorded by the Court or handed in in writing will be attached to the proceedings in the order in which they are made. Any address which the accused is entitled to make pursuant to Rules of Procedure 40 (C) (iv) and 41 (A) (i) and (iii) will be similarly dealt with. Written addresses will be read to the Court, marked and signed by the President. If any person who is entitled to make an address declines to do so, a record will be made to that effect.

(Where any evidence is given for the defence.)

The evidence of the accused ~~(and of the witnesses for the defence including witnesses as to character)~~ is recorded on a separate page (see overleaf).

(Where the accused does not give evidence upon oath.)

Question to the accused.	Have you anything to say in your defence?
Answer.	The accused in his defence says† [Hands in a written address which is read, marked , signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.]

Instruction. † In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

FIRST WITNESS for the defence

G-19851 Private Lester Matthew HOPKINS, No. 7 District Depot, C.A., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.10 Will you identify yourself to the Court by giving your number, rank, name and unit?
A.10 I am, G-19851 Private Lester Matthew Hopkins of No. 7 District Depot.

Q.11 You are a soldier of No. 7 District Depot?
A.11 Yes, Sir.

Q.12 On or about the 16th of June you went to Sackville. Did you go there with a pass or without a pass?

By the President: I do not want to interrupt you. I will allow you any latitude but I do not want you to make your questions leading. Will you try to word your questions differently.

Q.13 Did you go on pass or without a pass?
A.13 I went on pass.

Q.14 Why did you ask for a pass?
A.14 I received a letter from my cousin that my aunt was sick and I requested a pass.

Q.15 Suppose you tell us what happened when you got to Sackville?
A.15 I went to see my aunt, she is over 40. She could not afford to keep me while I was on leave so I went up to my sisters. I got there, I don't see any reason, but she could not keep me she has a good home.

Q.16 What did you do then?
A.16 When she turned me away, when she did that, well, I got some liquor and started drinking, I felt kind of sick or low about it, I have not been turned away much, I just went to pieces then I started hitch-hiking and after a while all my money was gone.

Q.17 Were you in uniform all that time?
A.17 Yes, Sir.

Q.18 When did you take your uniform off?
A.18 I took it off just about two days before I surrendered myself.

Q.19 Why did you take it off?
A.19 I took it off to go to Amherst to get a job.

Q.20 Why did you want to go to work?
A.20 I was hungry, no food and could not get a job without a discharge paper from the army. I was promised work by a fellow in Amherst. When I got there they had another man in my place so instead of going back, I never thought of getting my uniform, I just went up and surrendered myself to Sergeant Merritt.

D - 57

Q.21 Had you intended to return to the army?
A.21 As soon as I got enough money I intended to return.

Q.22 Did you know that you could obtain transportation by surrendering yourself?
A.22 No, I did not.

Q.23 After you surrendered yourself did you did you remain in civilian clothes until you came back here?
A.23 No my uniform was sent for.

Q.24 Where did you get your uniform?
A.24 I got it while I was in gaol in Amherst.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Q.25 Hopkins, you said that your aunt was sick?
A.25 Yes, Sir.

Q.26 And that is why you got a pass?
A.26 That is right, Sir.

Q.27 When you reported your visit to your aunt you found that you were unable to stay there?
A.27 Yes, Sir.

Q.28 Why did you not return?
A.28 I was allowed my freedom from the army from one minute to twelve Thursday evening. That is why I did not come back.

Q.29 Did you dislike the bit of army life you saw?
A.29 No I liked the army alright.

Q.30 When your sister was unable to take you in you said that you began to drink?
A.30 Yes, Sir.

Q.31 Then you had sufficient funds to come back at that time if you wanted too?
A.31 Yes, Sir.

Q.32 You kept your uniform until two days before you surrendered?
A.32 Yes, Sir.

Q.33 Where did you leave your uniform?
A.33 At West Sackville.

Q.34 At a relatives?
A.34 Yes, Sir.

Q.35 Did you know the danger to you of taking off your uniform?
A.35 No, Sir, I didn't.

Q.36 After you surrendered yourself to Sergeant Merritt you sent for your uniform in Sackville?
A.36 Yes, Sir.

Q.37 When you took your uniform off you intended to return here after you got money?
A.37 Yes, Sir, as soon as I could pay my way back.

Q.38 You didn't think it possible to come back without doing that?
A.38 I could have hitch-hiked but traffic is very scarce.

Q.39 You intended to get the job?
A.39 Yes, Sir, to get money.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q.40 Hopkins, the nature of the job that you were taking there, was it a permanent job or just by the day?
A.40 Just by the day, Sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT.

Q.41 Why did you not return here after your pass was up?
A.41 I could not, Sir, the reason I was away and could not get back is because I didn't have the money to pay my way and did not know anything about surrendering to the military police.

Q.42 In other words you had spent all your money?
A.42 Yes, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULE OF PROCEDURE 83 (B).

THE WITNESS RESUMES HIS SEAT AS THE ACCUSED.

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED.

Finding*

*To be struck out except in cases where trial has taken place on a plea of "Not Guilty."

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court find that the accused No. G-19851 Private Lester Matthew Hopkins, No. 7 District Depot, C.A., is not guilty of desertion but is guilty of absence without leave.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

*When the Court is already open this sentence will be struck out.

* The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

Captain F. F. Creighton, Adjutant, No. 7 District Depot, C.A. is examined on his former oath ~~is duly sworn.~~

Evidence of character, etc.

Q.44 Question by the President. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused? Q.43 Answer by the Witness. Yes, Sir, I produce M.F.B. 355

The above statement [with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with] is read, marked "Y", signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q.45 Question by the President. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read? A.45 Answer by the Witness. Yes, Sir.

Q.46 Question. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books? A.46 Answer.

Q.47 Question. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries? A.47 Answer. Yes, Sir.

[Instruction.—If by reason of the nature of the service of the accused in a departmental corps, or otherwise, the finding of the Court renders him liable to any exceptional punishment in addition to that to be awarded by the Court the prosecutor must call the attention of the Court to the fact, and the Court must inquire into the nature and amount of that additional punishment.]

~~Cross-examined by the accused.~~

The defending officer declines to cross-examine this witness.
In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with Rule of Procedure 83 (B).
Witness withdraws.

Q.48 Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court? A.48 Answer. No, Sir.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

PROSECUTOR'S CLOSING ADDRESS

XXXXXXXXXXX

It has been shown that the accused left his unit, No. 7 District Depot at 0630 hours on the 16th of June 1942 and that he was found to be absent by a Court of Inquiry as shown in the documentary evidence and that he continued to be absent until he surrendered himself to the military authorities at Amherst, N.S. on the 5th of September 1942. He was away a total of 81 days during which time he changed into civilian clothes for the purpose, as he states, of getting back here. When his attempt to obtain work was unsuccessful he gave himself up to military authorities although he tells us he did not know about this previous to the time he took off his uniform. It has been shown conclusively that he was away 81 days. The only evidence towards desertion was the fact he changed into civilian clothes and it is a matter for the Court to decide what his intention was from the evidence given here. It has also been shown by the forms 1481 and 1482 that the cost of getting him back here was $14.01.

Pres. District Court Martial

DEFENDING OFFICERS ADDRESS

xxxXxxx

The Court as the prosecutor said, will decide on the evidence whether there was an intent which forms the basis of the charge of desertion. The defence has shown by evidence that the accused made no attempt to conceal his whereabouts during the period of his absence, that he remained in uniform until driven to hunt work, due to the fact that he had unwisely spent his money and I think the Court will realize that a man who serves in the army is prejudiced, would not apt to turn to the military police except as the last resort, since there seems to be an impression, well, there is a natural impulse to stay away from the police as much as possible unaware that he could obtain transportation to his unit by applying to them and he tried every other method of earning enought money to return to his unit before going to the military police, which he did voluntarily. Under the circumstances I fail to see how any case of desertion can be established, the defence admits the absence without leave.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any,~~ complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. N O S I R .....[5]
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.[1] The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.[1]
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.[1]
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECO[illegible] FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. .....[1]
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.[1]
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.[1]
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.[1] The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).[2] The Court is closed, and considers the submission.[3] The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).[4]
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. ..... Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. .....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.[1]
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 66(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(a).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).[1] The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.[2] The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.[1]
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.[2]
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?[1]
Ans. Call char witness NOTE ATT .....
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service[1], and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)[2], purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex. B and Ex. D respectively.[3]
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?[1] Ans. BY MY DEF OFFR (NOTE ATT) .....
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.[1]
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.[1] The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and the JA, if any.~~[2]
(1. *When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No. L 36644, Private Albert HADFIELD, Canadian Infantry Corps, No. 5 Canadian Infantry Training Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on Oath.

FIRST WITNESS: Lieutenant R.G. TAIT, CIC, 5 Canadian Infantry Training Regiment, having been duly sworn states:

I am the assistant Regimental Adjutant, 5 C.I.T.R. I produce the following documents pursuant to Overseas R.O. 5352.

(a) Original Statement of Witness of P.C. 3212, A. Cane.
(Original Statement of Witness of P.C. 3212, A. Cane, read over and shown to accused, marked Exhibit "A" and attached hereto).

(b) Certificate of Surrender to Civil Police of a Deserter or Absentee Without Leave, dated 16 May 45.
(Certificate of Surrender, dated 16 May 45, read over and shown to accused, marked Exhibit "B" and attached hereto).

I recognize and identify the accused, No. L 36644, Private Albert HADFIELD as the person to whom these documents relate.

R. G. Tait Lt.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS: No. D. 136933, Sergeant LODGE, J., CIC, 5 C.I.T.R. having been duly sworn states:

I was Coy. Orderly Sergeant, 9 C.I.T.Bn. of 5 C.I.T.R. from Friday, 11 May 45 until Friday, 18 May 45, in which Coy. the accused, No. L 36644, Private Albert HADFIELD, whom I recognize and identify as the accused was then a member. The accused was on pass from 1300 hrs, Saturday 12 May 45 until 2359 hrs. Sunday, 13 May 45. On having roll call at 0730 hrs. 14 May 45, the accused was then found absent. I then checked with the Guard Room and found that he had not returned from pass.

John Lodge Sgt.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

EXA

President and Members of the Court:

The accused, L-36644 Pte Hadfield, A., joined the army 16 August 1940 at the age of fifteen. Early in 1943 he came overseas and left for Italy in April 1944, where he served with Cape Breton Highlanders at the front for a period of six months. Two witnesses which you have just heard have testified that he was a Bren gunner in their section, that he did a good job, and that they had no trouble with him as far as drinking was concerned. Also, CQMS McKinley, a man of long experience has also testified that during the time he was at the holding unit, No. 1 C.B.R.D., Hadfield carried out his duties efficiently. The accused has already spent fourteen days in custody awaiting trial.

May the above facts be taken into consideration, Also the fact that he has volunteered for the Far East.

We ask the court to be as lenient as possible in considering its finding.

2. May it be considered by the appropriate authority whether a/m soldier should not, on account of the repeated charges of drunkenness against him, be returned to Canada with a view to his discharge.

3. He stated to Comd 5 CITR when the charges on which he subsequently was tried by FGCM were being investigated, that so long as he had any money in his possession he could not pass by a public house without entering it, and having taken a drink there, could not bring himself to stop until he was intoxicated.

4. Such being the case it would appear uneconomical to the Cdn Armed Forces to retain his services further.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p [redacted] 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(~~s~~)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(~~s~~).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. Yes sir (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (~~their~~) plea(~~s~~) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (~~not~~) so informed, ~~and he (they)~~ ~~change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(~~s~~) to which the plea(~~s~~) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records findings of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex. A., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the .....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the .....charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para. if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), (14), 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans.....
(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Noise the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the .....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans. No sir
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(~~s~~) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (~~copies~~) of Conduct Sheet(~~s~~)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(~~s~~) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex. B and Ex. C respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(~~s~~) and Conduct Sheet(~~s~~) and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans. Yes def Offr.....(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. *When several accused tried separately see RP 7(D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its provisn, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RD 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of L36644, Fus. Albert Hadfield, the Princess Louise Fusiliers, (Motor) C.A. All evidence being taken on oath by order of the Commanding Officer.

FIRST CHARGE	Sec. 15 (4)	Army Act.
SECOND CHARGE	Sec. 40	Army Act.

6th Oct. 1942.

FIRST WITNESS

F35485 L/Cpl. Surrette J.W., "D" Coy. P.L.Fus. (Motor) C.A. having been duly sworn states:

I am F35485 L/Cpl. Surrette J.W. "D" Coy. P.L.Fus.(Motor) C.A. On the third of October 1942 at 1730 hours I went to relieve the Truck Guard, Fus. Jardine. He informed me about a soldier having taken a Universal Carrier from the Unit Transport Lines. I met Lieut. Rogers and he told me to jump in the back of the Peep and we would go and look for the soldier. I went out with Lieut. Rogers to the Training Area and found the accused in the carrier with the engine running and the tracks in gear. The accused was at the controls. There was no one else with him. Lieut. Rogers ordered him out of the carrier which the accused did. Lieut. Rogers ordered him into the Peep with me and we brought him to the Guard House, and placed him under close arrest at approximately 1800 hours, the third of October, 1942. He appeared to be under the influence of alcoholic stimulants.

Accused declined to question the witness.

L/Cpl Surrette J.W.

L/Cpl. Surrette J.W.

SECOND WITNESS

F34858 Sgt. McNamara H.W. "B" Coy. P.L.Fus. (Motor) C.A. having been duly sworn states:

I am F34858 Sgt. McNamara H.W. "B" Coy. P.L.Fus. (Motor) C.A. At about 1345 hours the third of October 1942 I gave the accused an order to take a carrier to the wash stand and wash it. At 1400 hours I checked to see if the work had been done and found that the carrier had not been washed. The accused was not to be found. At approximately 1700 hours the third of October, 1942, I reported to "A" Coy. orderly room that the accused had failed to comply with an order and that he was absent from 1400 hours the third of October, 1942.

Accused questions witness.

Q. 1. Was it at 1345 hours you told me to wash the carrier?

A. 1. It was approximately 1345 hours.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

THIRD WITNESS

Lieut. P.G.Rogers, "C" Coy. P.L.Fus.(Motor) C.A. having been duly sworn states;

I am Lieut. PG.Rogers, "C" Coy. P.L.Fus. (Motor) C.A. At 1730 hours, the third of October, 1942, I was returning a vehicle to the garage of the P.L.Fus. (Motor) C.A. At the garage I met L/Cpl. Surrette who informed me he was Guard Commander of the Truck Guard and he reported to me that an unknown soldier had removed a Universal Carrier from the Unit Vehicle Lines without written permission from the Transport Officer which is required before any vehicle may be removed. The man did not stop when warned by the sentry. The sentry reported that he thought the man was under the influence of liquor. I took L/Cpl. Surrette and a driver from the Transport Section and we drove into the Training Area where it was believed thatthe Carrier had been taken. We discovered fresh carrier tracks and followed them until we found the carrier caught up on a stump. I went over to the carrier and found the accused behind the wheel. I ordered him to turn off the motor and get out of the machine. The accused appeared to have been drinking but was still in possession of his faculties. I asked him his name and number and he gave them to me as being L36644, Fus. Hadfield A. I took the accused to the unit lines and placed him under close arrest. The

The accused declined to question the witness.

P.G. Rogers Lieut.

Lieut. P.G.Rogers.

FOURTH WITNESS

F 5597 Fus. Jardine W.R. "D" Coy. P.L.Fus. (Motor) C.A. having been duly sworn states:

I am F 5597 Fus. Jardine W.R. "D" Coy. P.L.Fus.(Motor) C.A. I was on truck guard duty at the transport lines of the P.L.Fus.(Motor) C.A. on the third of October 1942. At about 1730 hours of that day an unknown soldier drove a carrier out of the lines passed me. I tried to stop him by yelling at him. I was within five feet distance of him. He just kept on going. I reported the incident to the Corporal of the Guard, L/Cpl. Surrette.

The accused declines to question the witness.

Jardine W.R.

Fus. Jardine W.R.

FIFTH WITNESS

Lieut. F.A. Neal, H.Q. Coy. P.L.Fus. (Motor) C.A. having been duly sworn states;

I am Lieut. F.A. Neal, Transport Officer of the P.L.Fus. (Motor) C.A. Fus. Hadfield had no permission from me as O.C. of the Transport School to be absent during the afternoon parade on the third of October 1942. He was absent from the Transport lines from 1400 hours at which place he should have been. On that date there were no vehicles of the Transport School being used outside the vehicle lines without my permission. Fus. Hadfield did not have my permission. The vehicle which Fus. Hadfield was found in possession of was a D.N.D. vehicle belonging to the P.L.Fus.(Motor) C.A.

Accused declines to question witness.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Capt. W.F.Bayne, O.C. "A" Coy. P.L.Fus. (Motor) C.A. having been duly sworn states:

I am Capt. W.F.Bayne O.C. "A" Coy. P.L.Fus. (Motor) C.A. On the 1st Oct. 1942, Fus. Hadfield A. was ordered to attend the Unit Transport School starting on that date.

Accused declines to question the witness.

W.F. Bayne Capt
Capt. W.F.Bayne.

The question is put to the accused: "Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

Having been duly cautioned the accused replied; "Yes Sir." and having been duly sworn states:

I am L36644 Fus. Albert Hadfield, "A" Coy. P.L.Fus.(Motor) C.A. In Sgt. McNamara's statement he stated that it was about 1345 hours that he ordered me to wash the carrier. I make the statement that it was about 1130 hours. Sgt. McNamara was not talking to me after roll call on the afternoon of the 3rd of October 1942.

ON ACTIVE SERVICE

At 11.30 I was fixing a carrier Sgt. Mercomere told me to take another carrier out and wash it

I took it out to the wash stand and washed it till 12.00. Then I took the carrier back to the line. Sgt Mercomere said it wasn't clean enough and told me to finish washing it after dinner.

I went over and had dinner after I came back to the school at about 1.15. Then
I took the carrier back to the washing stand.
Then I went and lined up for roll call at 1.30
About 1.35 I went back to the carrier intending to wash. I saw a guy who
I thought was on the school driving a carrier around so I drove around in the carrier I was detailed to wash till between 3 and 3.30. Then I went into the canteen ~~to~~
to get some cigarettes
I met two ~~guys~~ from the Fresh Regt. They invited me to have a drink with them I had six

Closing address by Defending Officer

I would like to explain to the Court the meaning of the Charge, Sir: There was a transport School in operation, and it was from this school that Fus. Hadfield was absent. He was not absent from his Unit lines.

The fact that he had had something to drink was the cause for his being away from his duty.

That is all Sir

Receipt is acknowledged of your 7D/5-4-5-12, dated 19th October, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded, for registration and custody, the Proceedings of the marginally-noted District Court-Martial.

2. The following irregularities have been observed:

(a) The Order appointing the Prosecutor and Defending Officer was not produced to the Court. It is observed that the Convening Order detailed other officers to fill these capacities. May I be advised if, in fact, the Prosecutor was approved by the Convening authority.

(b) The Minute of adjournment was not marked as it should have been or signed by the President, and was not in the approved form set out in M.M.L.

(c) The pages of the Proceedings were not numbered consecutively, with page A being numbered 1.

(d) The word "and" should have been inserted between "President" and "Members" on page B.

(e) The permanent or substantive rank of the shorthand writer should have been set out in his description before his acting rank. (See Routine Order 2194).

(f) No notation appears on page B that the shorthand writer was sworn. May I be advised if, in fact, he was sworn.

(g) It might have been preferable, in the second last line on page B, to use the words "both charges" instead of "First and second charges". The same remarks apply to the Finding on page CC.

(h) The Unit of the accused was not set out after his name in his description on the Charge Sheet.

(i) The statement of the offence of the first charge, under Army Act, Sec. 15(4) was improper and did not follow the required form set out in Part II of Appendix I of M.M.L. However, the form used discloses an offence under the Section.

(j) There is no provision whereby a Defending Officer can make a closing address before the Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence on a plea of guilty.

(k) The words "The accused declines to cross-examine" should have been "The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine". The accused being represented had no right to cross-examine.

Receipt is acknowledged of your P.6-O-M-296, dated 21st October, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded for registration and custody the Proceedings of the marginally-noted District Court-Martial.

2. The following irregularities have been observed:

(a) A Minute of adjournment and reassembly should have been attached to the Proceedings in addition to the notations as to the times set out on page A and Page B of the Proceedings.

(b) The proper section of the Army Act under which the first charge was laid is Sec. 12(1)(A) and not Sec. 12(1).

(c) The description of the accused should have been set out in the 5th and 7th lines of M.F.B.375.

(d) The inapplicable words of the sentence on page D of the Proceedings beginning " The evidence of the accused, etc." should have been struck out and initialled.

(e) Inasmuch as the Court, at this stage, had not been closed, the first printed sentence of the Proceedings, On conviction before sentence, should have been struck out and initialled.

3. It is not considered necessary to return the Proceedings, which are accordingly retained for custody. May the above noted irregularities be brought to the attention of all officers concerned for their future guidance.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION; C-30750, Sergeant Thomas STOREY R.C.A.M.C., C.A., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor;

Q. 6. Sergeant Storey, what are your duties at Petawawa Military Hospital?

A. 6. N.C.O. i/c Operating Room.

Q. 7. What duties were you performing on the night of 14th July, 1942?

A. 7. I was Orderly Sergeant of the Day, Sir.

Q. 8. Can you tell just what happened that night in regard to the accused?

A. 8. At 2215 hours, I went in to call the roll and found everyone present except Private Hoff, who was absent from his bed. I put in my report the following morning that Private Hoff was absent without leave.

Q. 9. Is that all you have to tell the Court?

A. 9. Yes Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER;

Q. 10. Did you look any place else for him?

A. 10. We always check the lavatory and the other side of the hut, and outside the door. We always do that when we call the roll.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT;

Q. 11. Did you make a check for him next morning?

A. 11. No Sir, my duties finished that night at 12 oclock.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b).

The witness withdraws.

Answer. 12. Yes Sir.

Question. 13. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

Answer. 13. No Sir.

Question. ~~Is he a witness as to character only?~~ Answer.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE COURT

(i) When the answers to the above questions have been recorded, the Court will follow the provisions of Rules of Procedure 40 and 41 respecting the order of evidence and addresses which is applicable to the circumstances of the case.

(ii) All addresses by prosecutor, counsel or defending officer, whether recorded by the Court or handed in in writing will be attached to the proceedings in the order in which they are made. Any address which the accused is entitled to make pursuant to Rules of Procedure 40 (C) (iv) and 41 (A) (i) and (iii) will be similarly dealt with. Written addresses will be read to the Court, marked and signed by the President. If any person who is entitled to make an address declines to do so, a record will be made to that effect.

(Where any evidence is given for the defence.)

The evidence of the accused (and of the witnesses for the defence including witnesses as to character) is recorded on a separate page (see overleaf).

~~(Where the accused does not give evidence upon oath.)~~

Question to the accused. Have you anything to say in your defence?

Answer. The accused in his defence says†

[Hands in a written address which is read, marked signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.]

---

† In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE; The Accused, C-30770, Private George HOFF, Petawawa Military Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer;

Q. 14. Will you tell the Court your story about your leaving, your intentions and why you returned?

A. 14. A couple of days before the 14th July, I got a letter saying that Dad and Mother were sick. The 14th July was pay day and I went to the canteen and had a few drinks, I had the thought that my dad and mother were sick, and I always had them in my mind. I got a little liquor in me and got kind of drunk, and then I went home. While I was home, I did work like cutting wood for mother and dad. One day I brought my uniform to the cleaners. I went and got the uniform after it was cleaned. I met a few fellows I knew and we went and had a couple of drinks. The first thing I knew, my uniform was stolen, so then I was afraid to come back. I was scared and my dad and mother were sick at the time, and I didn't want to come back in civilian clothes because I was afraid. I kept putting it off each day, saying that I was going to come back every day. One day I told my mother I was going to come back, and I kept putting it off. I surrendered to the Constable down at the corner. I don't remember the constable's name. I asked him if he knew the number of the Provost and he said "Yes". I gave myself up to the civilian police and the Provost, and I had no intention to desert.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR;

Q. 15. When did you enlist Hoff? How long have you been in the Army?

A. 15. I joined up in March, 1941. I was sixteen then.

Q. 16. You knew you could obtain compassionate leave from the Officer Commanding if you asked for it.

A. 16. It was late that evening, Sir, it was around 7 o'clock, and I was intoxicated. I never thought of asking for a pass so I went home to see my mother and dad

Q. 17. But you realized you could obtain compassionate leave, didn't you? Any Officer Commanding would have given compassionate leave, why did you not apply for it?

A. 17. I didn't think of it, Sir.

Q. 18. You stated that your uniform was sent to the cleaners'. What happened after that?

A. 18. I got it at the cleaners'. I got it myself. I went to a tavern and left the uniform lying around. I went to the lavatory a few times, and when I got back one time the uniform was stolen.

Q. 19. Just the uniform was stolen?

A. 19. My tie and hat, also, Sir.

Q. 20. You gave yourself up presumably at 0415 hours 13th September That seems to be a very early hour of the morning to give yourself up.

A. 20. I was home, Sir, and I was not sleeping. I live in the top apartment and I went down stairs and gave myself up to the constable. I knew that if I gave myself up, it would help me a little bit.

Q. 21. Were you drunk the night you surrendered yourself?

A. 21. It was Sunday morning. I had a few drinks on the Saturday like.

Q. 22. You don't drink on Sunday?

A. 22. I was at home.

Q. 23. And you went down stairs and surrendered yourself?

A. 23. The apartment is right on the top floor, and I was home and thinking about coming back. I went down and phoned the Provost.

Q. 24. I thought you gave yourself up to the civilian police?

A. 24. I did, Sir, because I asked the civilian police to phone the Provost, and he did. There was a phone in the Restaurant down-stairs.

Q. 25. So all this took place in a restaurant?

A. 25. Yes Sir.

Q. 26. Is the restaurant underneath your flat?

A. 26. Yes Sir.

The Defending Officer declines to re-examine the witness.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT;

Q. 27. When you went down in the morning and surrendered yourself, did you get out of bed, or were you just getting in or what?

A. 27. I was just sitting on the bed.

Q. 28. Were you fully dressed?

A. 28. I had my pants and shirt on.

Q. 29. Did you bring back any evidence from a doctor as to the sickness of your mother and father?

A. 29. No Sir.

Q. 30. You have no evidence at all?

A. 30. I guess I could get it, Sir, if I wrote home.

Q. 31. What was the trouble?

A. 31. My mother has nervous trouble. My dad has all kinds of heart trouble and stomach trouble and asthma.

Q. 32. When you were home what were they doing?

A. 32. They couldn't do much. I had to work in cutting the wood and all the work that a man would do around the house. Dad tried to work but they sent him home. He couldn't work.

Q. 33. Was your mother confined to bed?

A. 33. My mother has never been to a doctor, Sir.

Q. 34. How are they now?

A. 34. Dad has not been alright for years now.

Q. 35. When you gave yourself up, did they seem alright?

A. 35. My mother was about the same, and dad was not too bad then. He gets alright for a while then he falls down again.

Q. 36. Have you any brothers or sisters?

A. 36. I got 4 little sisters and a brother who turned 16 on the 17th September.

Q. 37. Are your sisters younger or older?

A. 37. Younger.

Q. 38. How old are you now?

A. 38. I was 18 on the 12th August.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b).

APPENDIX "J"

THE PROSECUTOR ADDRESSES THE COURT

Mr. President and Members of the Court:

In this case of Desertion, the accused was absent without leave from 14th July, 1942 until 13th September, 1942. Although he gave himself up in civilian clothes in a very early hour of the morning, his story sounds very fishy and does not quite hand together in my opinion.

Another thing; it is only his statement thathis father and mother were sick. We have no medical evidence to this effect to support his statement in any way.

He says his mother is nervous but not confined to her bed. Lots of women are nervous around a certain period of life, and I would suppose she was around that age, judging from the age of the accused.

He says his father was sick, and I submit that we should have medical evidence to that effect, too.

He was absent without leave for approximately two months. This story about him losing his uniform; he admits himself that he had been drinking that night. The uniform was stolen through neglect, and I submit it is possible that it was lack of funds that forced him to think of surrendering.

The story about his mother and father being sick is certainly no proof of intention.

I don't think there is anything further I can add to that.

J.H. Wilson Maj RCE
Pro D.C.M.

APPENDIX "K"

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT

Mr. President and Members of the Court;

In a charge of desertion, the onus of proof must rest with the Prosecution that the intent was there to desert.

This young boy, thoughtlessly and probably carelessly, dwelling on the fact that his mother and father were ill, decided to go and see them.

Probably after he was there a while, he started to think it over and decided that he should return. He did give himself up.

There has been no proof of intent to desert, and therefore the charge of desertion is not borne out by the Prosecution.

Receipt is acknowledged of your K.55-H-1093 (JAG), dated 11th of November, 1942, under cover of which you forwarded the original Charge Sheet and Summary of Evidence in respect to the marginally-noted Application for District Court-Martial.

2. In my opinion, the Summary of Evidence does not disclose sufficient evidence to establish that the property in possession of the accused was public property, and accordingly, I do not consider that an order for trial should be made on the Charge Sheet on the evidence as it presently stands.

3. The documents enclosed with your letter are returned.

Application for District Court-Martial
C.89417, Pte. Henry Joseph HARVEY
Headquarters Staff, Internment Camp 31
V.G. of C.

Herewith enclosed original Charge Sheet and Summary of Evidence in respect of a charge under Section 40 of the Army Act of being improperly in possession of public property, for the attention of the Judge Advocate-General, under the provisions of Para 540 K.R. (Can).

2. In the opinion of the Assistant J.A.G. at this Headquarters, there is not sufficient evidence of ownership to justify proceeding to trial on this charge. It is true that Peter Pan butter is made use of as an Army ration, but the evidence that this particular pound of butter was Army ration is not at all conclusive, and in fact, the soldier concerned might quite easily have purchased the butter anywhere in Kingston.

3. While the circumstances indicate that this may have been a theft of public property, nevertheless, it is felt that the charge would not succeed.

Proceeding on Plea of Not Guilty

*Instruction. (See R. P. 39 (A)) Question.

Q.6 *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. A.6 No, Sir.

The Prosecutor declines to make an Opening Address.

~~The prosecutor makes an opening address [hands in a written address, which is read, marked , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings].~~

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution.

Lieut. D.V. Roland, R.C.Sigs., C.A., C.S.T.C. (A7), C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q.7 Carry on, Lieut. Roland.

A.7 As Officer in charge of records, C.S.T.C., I present documentary evidence in the form of M.F.B.375, Record of the Declaration of a Court of Inquiry in the case of B.32540 Signm Huffman, T.J.

(Read, marked EXHIBIT "G", signed by the President and attached to the Proceedings)

I present further documentary evidence in the form of M.P.M.215 regarding the surrender to civil authorities of B.32540 Signm Huffman, T.J.

(Read, marked EXHIBIT "H", signed by the President and attached to the Proceedings)

I present further documentary evidence in the form of M.F.B.1481 to cover the cost of apprehension of B.32540 Signm Huffman, T.J.

(Read, marked EXHIBIT "I", signed by the President and attached to the Proceedings)

The Accused is the Signm.Huffman mentioned in these documents which I have just presented.

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B).

The witness withdraws.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION) C.29771 Corporal Edward James PITT, R.C.Sigs., C.A., C.S.M.C. (A7), C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.8 Cpl Pitt, will you tell the Court, in your own words, what you know of the escape from custody of B.32540 Sigman Thomas James Huffman?

A.8 Yes, Sir. On November 8th at approximately 0645 hours I was in charge of sixteen prisoners. I marched the prisoners to No. 4 Mess. On arriving at No. 4 Mess I counted the prisoners again and only had fourteen. I immediately reported the matter to Sgt Hill and told the rest of the guards to march the prisoners back to the Guard Room. Sigman Huffman was one of the sixteen prisoners and on arriving at No. 4 Mess I called the roll and I found that Sigman Huffman did not answer his name. The Sigman Huffman mentioned is the accused.

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B).

The witness withdraws.

The Prosecution has no further witnesses.

D

The prosecution is closed.

Defence

Question to the accused. Q.9 Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

Answer. A.9 Yes, Sir.

Question. Q.10 Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

Answer. A.10 No, Sir.

Question. ~~Is he a witness as to character only? Answer.~~

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE COURT

(i) When the answers to the above questions have been recorded, the Court will follow the provisions of Rules of Procedure 40 and 41 respecting the order of evidence and addresses which is applicable to the circumstances of the case.

(ii) All addresses by prosecutor, counsel or defending officer, whether recorded by the Court or handed in in writing will be attached to the proceedings in the order in which they are made. Any address which the accused is entitled to make pursuant to Rules of Procedure 40 (C) (iv) and 41 (A) (i) and (iii) will be similarly dealt with. Written addresses will be read to the Court, marked and signed by the President. If any person who is entitled to make an address declines to do so, a record will be made to that effect.

(Where any evidence is given for the defence.)

The evidence of the accused ~~(and of the witnesses for the defence including witnesses as to character)~~ is recorded on a separate page, ~~(see Overleaf).~~

(Where the accused does not give evidence upon oath.)

Question to the accused. ~~Have you anything to say in your defence?~~

Answer. The accused in his defence says†

[Hands in a written address which is read, marked signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.]

† In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE) The Accused, B.32540 Sigmn Thomas James HUFFMAN, A-7, C.S.T.C., C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q.11 Will you tell the Court exactly, from the time you arrived here, what work you were placed on? Give the Court a general idea what work you were put on and why you acted as you did?

A.11 I arrived here last April 6th, Sir, and I was put on operating course. I was on the operating course for two months and was called up to the medical room and taken down to Kingston and given a medical reboard which lowered my category to C.1 and I therefore lost my chance to go overseas as planned. I lost interest in the work and it was for that reason I went absent without leave. When I came back I did detention and then I was put in the kitchen. I went up to Company office frequently to see if I could get out of the kitchen. I could not get out of the kitchen so I went absent without leave again. I saw my chance while serving my sentence and I took it. I stayed away for 36 days then I surrendered. I think if I had the chance of doing something I could really soldier if I had the chance in a different unit where I could be of some good. That is all, Sir.

Q.12 Were you given any opportunity of going into another trade when you failed in the operating course?

A.12 No, Sir.

Q.13 Were you given any opportunity of going into other type of work after you were placed in the kitchen?

A.13 No, Sir.

Q.14 You actually got discouraged after you were placed in the kitchen?

A.14 Yes, Sir.

Q.15 What training did you have in civilian life which could qualify you for a trade in Signals?

A.15 None that I could see, Sir. I had two years in technical school in Ottawa.

Q.16 What did you take at technical school?

A.16 An industrial course which is general on all subjects.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine.

In the opinionof the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B).

The witness resumes his seat.

The Prosecutor makes a Closing Address.

(See document marked "J")

The Defending Officer makes a Closing Address.

(See document marked "K")

E

Finding*

*To be struck out except in cases where trial has taken place on a plea of "Not Guilty."

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court find that the accused B.32540 Sigm Thomas James HUPPMAN, A-7, C.S.T.C., C.A., is NOT GUILTY of desertion, but is GUILTY of absence without leave on the first charge with the exception that the cost of apprehension and return to his unit should be $19.12.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

*When the Court is already open this sentence will be struck out.

*The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

Evidence of character, etc.

is duly sworn.

Question by the President.

Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused? Answer by the Witness.

The above statement [with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with] is read, marked , signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Question by the President.

Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read? Answer by the Witness.

Question.

Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books? Answer.

Question.

Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries? Answer.

Cross-examined by the accused.

[Instruction.—If by reason of the nature of the service of the accused in a departmental corps, or otherwise, the finding of the Court renders him liable to any exceptional punishment in addition to that to be awarded by the Court the prosecutor must call the attention of the Court to the fact, and the Court must inquire into the nature and amount of that additional punishment.]

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to address the Court? Answer.

~~The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.~~

CC

Proceedings on Plea of Guilty

*To be struck out in case no plea of "Not Guilty" has been proceeded with.

*[The Court having been re-opened, the accused is again brought before it, and the charges to which he has pleaded "Guilty" are read to him again.]

The accused B.32540 Sigmn Thomas James HUFFMAN, A-7, C.S.T.C., C.A., is found guilty of the second and third charges.

*The summary ~~(or abstract)~~ of evidence is read, marked "L", signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Q.17 Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?

A.17 No, Sir.

Answer. ~~The accused in mitigation of punishment says:—~~

[or hands in a written statement, which is read, marked , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]

Instruction. * If there is no summary or abstract of evidence, sufficient evidence to enable the Court to determine the sentence, and to enable the confirming officer to know all the circumstances connected with the case, will be taken on a separate sheet in the same manner as on a plea of "Not Guilty."

If from the statement of the accused, or from the summary or abstract of evidence, or otherwise, it appears to the Court that the accused did not understand the effect of his plea of "Guilty," the Court shall alter the record, and enter a plea of "Not Guilty," and proceed with the trial accordingly.

Q.18 Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character?

Question to the accused.

A.18 No, Sir.

Answer.

Evidence as to character.

E.2

Finding*

*To be struck out except in cases where trial has taken place on a plea of "Not Guilty."

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court find that the accused

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence

*When the Court is already open this sentence will be struck out.

~~*The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.~~

Capt. J.H.P. Hadfield, A-7, C.S.T.C., C.A., is duly sworn.

Evidence of character, etc.

Question by the President. Q.19 Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused? Answer by the Witness. A.19 Yes, I produce M.F.B.355 and M.F.M.6

The above statements [with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with] are read, marked Y & Z, signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Question by the President. Q.20 Is the accused the person named in the statements which you have heard read? Answer by the Witness. A.20 Yes, Sir.

Question. Q.21 Have you compared the contents of the above statements with the regimental books? Answer. A.21 Yes, Sir.

Question. Q.22 Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheet a fair and true summary of those entries? Answer. A.22 Yes, Sir.

[Instruction.—If by reason of the nature of the service of the accused in a departmental corps, or otherwise, the finding of the Court renders him liable to any exceptional punishment in addition to that to be awarded by the Court the prosecutor must call the attention of the Court to the fact, and the Court must inquire into the nature and amount of that additional punishment.]

~~Cross-examined by the accused.~~

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B).

The witness resumes his seat.

Question to the accused. Q.23 Do you wish to address the Court? Answer. A.23 No, Sir.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR

We have brought forth the time the accused went absent without leave, or absented himself, and also the time that he did surrender himself to Provincial Constable at Burks Falls and have brought forth for the Court's consideration the facts of the cost of apprehension and cost of his deficiencies of kit. I have nothing further to say. The case rests with the Court.

J. E. Dowsley, Major, 43.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I think the actual statement made by the accused and brought out in evidence, he gave himself up voluntarily is definite proof he had no intention of staying away any particular time or doing anything apart from showing the fact that he was discouraged by the job he was doing here.

His age has not been brought out, but he still is a comparatively young man, a category man at the moment. It has been brought out he has technical training and should be of considerable use to the Army. One point brought out, this accused was given no other opportunity for another trade here. I think he admitted himself he failed as an operator and he was given no other chance at a trade. I think if he had of been it would have changed the entire course of this.

I would like to ask the leniency of the Court, Sir, due to the fact he is a young man in good shape and as already stated he is willing to go overseas.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

1st Witness

Lieut. D.V. Roland, R.C. Signals, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Officer in charge of Records, C.S.T.C. I herewith present documentary evidence in the form of C.S.T.C. Part II Order No. 263, dated 5th November, 1942, Para. 6 of which refers to B32540 Sigmn. Huffman, T.J. I present further documentary evidence in the form of M.F.B. 375, a record of the Declaration of the Court of Inquiry in the case of B32540 Sigmn. Huffman, T.J. I present further documentary evidence in the form of M.F.M. 215, regarding the surrender to Civil Authorities of B32540 Sigmn. Huffman, T.J. I present further documentary evidence in the form of M.F.B. 1481, to cover the cost of apprehension of B32540 Sigmn. Huffman, T.J. Further documentary evidence in the form of a statement by the Green Star Restaurant at Burks Falls, Ontario, certified by B.R. Ball, Provincial Constable. I present further documentary evidence in the form of M.F.D. 811, expense claim for D24020 S/Sgt. Phillips, R.A., escort for B32540 Sigmn. Huffman, T.J. I certify that, to the best of my knowledge, the B32540 Sigmn. Huffman, T.J. mentioned in the above documents is B32540 Sigmn. Huffman, the Accused."

D.V. Roland

The Accused declines to cross-examine the Witness.

2nd Witness

C29771 Cpl. Pitt, E.J., R.C. Signals, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"Sir, I am employed on the Provost Staff of the Canadian Signal Training Centre, Vimy Barracks, Kingston, Ontario. At approximately 0645 hours, 6th November, 1942, I was in charge of eight men in close arrest and eight men in detention at Vimy Barracks Guardroom. I proceeded to No. 4 Mess with the combined sixteen prisoners. On arriving at No. 4 Mess, I made a count of the men and found that I had only fourteen. I told the six guards to march the rest of the prisoners back to the Guardroom. I immediately reported the matter to Sgt. Hill, H.D."

3rd Witness

C64542 Cpl. Dean, W.C., R.C. Signals, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"On the morning of the 6th November, 1942 I was Orderly N.C.O. in charge of the Guardroom at Vimy Barracks, Kingston, Ontario. At approximately 0645 hours, I detailed Cpl. Pitt, E.J., C29771, along with 6 escorts, to take 16 men who were confined in the Guardroom to No. 4 Mess. This had been the usual practice for some months. Approximately five minutes later, Cpl. Pitt returned to the Guardroom and informed Sgt. Hill and myself that he had only 14 men in No. 4 Mess, Sir. The men were immediately marched back to the cells and a search for the two absentees was immediately started, Sir."

C64542 Cpl. Dean W.C.

The Accused declines to cross-examine the Witness.

4th Witness

B31277, Sgt. Hill, H.G., R.C. Signals, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"Sir, I am Provost Sgt. and N.C.O. in charge of the Guardroom at Vimy Barracks, Kingston, Ontario. On the 6th November, 1942, at approximately 0650 hours, C29771 Cpl. Pitt, E.J. reported to me that two men had escaped. I immediately had the roll called, and found Sigmn. Huffman and Sigmn. Roberts to have escaped. I immediately notified the Adjutant and a search was organized, but without success."

B31277 Sgt. Hill H.G.

The Accused declines to cross-examine the Witness.

5th Witness

F2702 Cpl. Driscoll, D.L., R.C. Signals, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am employed in the Quartermaster Stores at C.S.T.C., Vimy Barracks, Kingston, Ontario, as N.C.O. in charge of checking kits. On the 17th December, 1942, I checked the articles of clothing and equipment which B32540 Sigmn. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

No. B32540 Sigmn. Thomas James Huffman, Royal Canadian Corps of Signals, C.A., a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on Active Service.

Charged with: Absenting himself Without Leave.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

1st Witness K38645 L/Cpl. Flood, F., R.C. Signals, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am corporal in charge of tent line No. 5, Operating Company, in Area 6. I called the roll at Reveille, 0615 hours, October 6th, 1942. Sigmn. Huffman, T.J. failed to answer his name. I reported this immediately to the Orderly Sergeant of Operating Company and also to the Orderly Sergeant of "A" Wing, on being informed that Huffman was being transferred to "A" Wing. I have called the roll continuously every morning since October 6th, and the Accused was not present at any roll call since that date."

K38645 F. Flood L/Cpl.

The Accused declines to cross-examine the Witness.

2nd Witness P40244 Sgt. Newton, J.W., R.C. Signals, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"As Company Orderly Sergeant for "A" Wing, C.S.T.C., it was reported to me by the Corporal in charge of Tented Area No. 6 that the Accused, B32540 Sigmn. Huffman, T.J. was absent at the Reveille Roll Call on 6th October, 1942. Knowing him to be in possession of a Midnight Pass only, I placed his name on the Absentee Report as being absent from 0001 hours, 6th October, 1942. To the best of my knowledge, he remained absent until reporting in to the guardroom on the 13th October, 1942. On Friday, October 9th, I detailed L/Cpl. Johnston, W.S. to turn in Huffman's kit to the Quartermaster Stores, which was done."

J. Newton Sgt. P40244

The Accused declines to cross-examine the Witness.

3rd Witness B393 Cpl. Jeffries, P., R.C. Signals, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"I was Assistant Guard Commander on 13th October, 1942. The Accused, B32540, Sigmn. Huffman, T.J., reported to me at 2245 hours. Knowing him to be an absentee, I placed him in close arrest. He was sober and in uniform."

Jeffries P. Cpl. B-393

The Accused declines to cross-examine the Witness.

Question Asked of the Accused:

"Do you wish to make any statement, or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given as evidence."

Answer by the Accused:

"Sir, I do not wish to make any statement."

.....T.J. Huffman.....

I certify that Rules of Procedure 4 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

Taken down by me in the presence of the Accused at the Canadian Signal Training Centre, Vimy Barracks, Kingston, Ontario, this 15th day of October, 1942.

Signature of Officer detailed to take Summary of Evidence .....J.P. Lambert.....,Capt., R.C. Signals, C.A.

F. Rowsley, Major,
President, D.M.

When I signed up as a active service man I signed up as a man, and I expected to be treated as such; instead of that, I was taken off overseas service and put on general duties. If I wanted to work in the kitchen I would have sign up as a cook, when I sign up.

When I was released from detention last August, the Commanding Officer told me he would give me a discharge, if I was ever up on orders again. That's enough to give anyone a good reason for going A.W.L.

I was also up to Company office 4 or 5 times in about two weeks to see if I could get out of the kitchen; but they are always too busy or haven't got time to listen to you, and send you back to your work.

I also have a debt in civilian life to pay. At the rate I am paying it off, it will take me 16 years, whereas if I could get back in civilian life and get a decent job and wage, I could pay twice as much as I am now and be free that much sooner, to live my life freely and peacefully.

Off/ORDERS

1. E/25913, Pte. Louis-Philippe HAMEL, No. 5 Coy., Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, C.A., was tried by General Court-Martial on the 25th day of November, 1942, on two charges -

The first under Section 40 of the Army Act in that he, when employed in connection with army medical examinations in Military District No. 5, received sums of money in varying amounts from divers parties in relation to their military medical examinations, and in relation to the performance of his military duties.

The second under Section 40 of the Army Act in that he, when employed in connection with army medical examinations in Military District No. 5, distributed to other military medical personnel moneys mentioned in the first charge.

That a plea in bar of trial was offered by the accused to both charges.

He was found guilty of both charges and the Court found that the said plea in bar was not proved. He was sentenced to undergo detention for ninety days.

2. The finding of guilty on both charges and the finding of the Court with respect to the plea in bar of trial, and the sentence having been confirmed by Governor-in-Council, the charges, finding and sentence were duly promulgated.

A 10 h. 45 de l'avant-midi, le 25 novembre 1942, la cour a ajourné jusqu'à 2 h. de l'après-midi le 25 novembre 1942, le cas du présent accusé, afin de procéder au procès du No. E-75008, soldat Paul-Henri Cloutier, Dépot du District No. 5, A.C.

Le 25 novembre 1942, à 2 h. de l'après-midi, conformément à l'avis d'ajournement, la cour continue le procès du présent accusé; sont présents les mêmes membres que lors de la suspension des débats.

ACTE D'ACCUSATION

L'acte d'accusation est signé par le président, marqué B2 et annexé au procès-verbal.

L'inculpé est mis en accusation sous chaque chef dont il est fait mention dans l'acte d'accusation.

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à l'accusation:

" Avant que l'accusé ne plaide, j'aurais une objection à faire en vertu de la règle de procédure 32, si la Cour me permet d'exposer mon objection."

Le Procureur, avec la permission de la Cour, pose la question suivante à l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.3 Est-ce que votre objection va s'appliquer aux deux chefs d'accusation ou seulement au premier?

A.3 Aux deux.

L'avocat de l'accusé continue:

" Monsieur le Président, l'accusé est appelé à répondre devant vous à une plainte qui est portée en vertu de l'article 40 de l'"Army Act". Hors, cet article 40 se lit comme suit:

"Every person subject to military law who commits any of the following offences; that is to say --is guilty of any act, conduct, disorder, or neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline-- shall, on conviction by court-martial, be liable, if an officer, to be cashiered, or to suffer such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned, and if a soldier, to suffer imprisonment, or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned. Provided that no person shall be charged under this section in respect of any offence for

CHARGE SHEET

The accused: E-25913, Private Louis-Philippe HAMEL, No. 5 Coy, Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, C.A., a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on Active Service, is charged with:-

FIRST CHARGE
Sec. 40
Army Act.

CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE

In that he, at the City of Quebec, PQ., between the first day of June, 1942, and the seventeenth day of October, 1942, when employed in connection with army medical examinations, in Military District No.5, received sums of money in varying amounts from divers parties in relation to their military medical examinations, and in relation to the performance of his military duties.

SECOND CHARGE
Sec. 40
Army Act.

CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE

In that he, at the City of Quebec, P.Q., between the first day of June, 1942, and the seventeenth day of October, 1942, when employed in connection with army medical examinations, in Military District No.5, distributed to other military medical personnel moneys mentioned in the first charge.

which special provision is made in any other section of this Act, and which is not a civil offence; nevertheless the conviction of a person so charged shall not be invalid by reason only of the charge being in contravention of this proviso, unless it appears that injustice has been done to the person charged by reason of such contravention; but the responsibility of any officer for that contravention shall not be removed by the validity of the conviction."

Ma prétention est celle-ci: évidemment si la Cour me le permet je vais d'abord exposer ma prétention, quitte à l'appuyer avec preuve.

En vertu du droit anglais qui nous régit en la matière, et plus spécialement en vertu de "Bribery of Public Officials" que je trouve dans Archbold's "Criminal Pleading Evidence and Practice", page 1232, 30ème édition, qui se lit comme suit:

"It has been held to be a misdemeanor at common law to bribe a privy councillor or to bribe a juryman. The offer of a bribe is an attempt to bribe, and is also a misdemeanor. So is the taking of a bribe by an officer judicial or ministerial."

Et un peu plus loin:

"It is a common law misdemeanor for an officer who has a duty to do something in which the public are interested to receive a bribe either to act in a manner contrary to his duty or to show favour in the discharge of his functions. To bribe the colonel of a regiment to show favour in the matter of a canteen contract for the regiment is a misdemeanor at common law; similarly, for the colonel to receive such a bribe is a misdemeanor."

Pour que mon objection soit bien comprise, je la résume: puisque en vertu du droit anglais, l'offense de recevoir de l'argent dans l'exécution de fonctions publiques, comme celles que remplissait d'après l'acte d'accusation, l'accusé, est un acte prévu par la loi civile anglaise, l'article 40 ne peut pas s'appliquer parce qu'il tombe sous le proviso "provided it is not a civil offence".

Afin que mon objection soit même considérée par la cour, il faut que je fasse la preuve du droit anglais, et si la cour me le permet, je désire faire cette preuve.

La permission est accordée par la Cour.

L'avocat de l'accusé continue.

Pour faire ma preuve, je comprends que d'après la règle générale, on peut faire la preuve d'une loi étrangère en produisant un expert de cette loi, un homme qui la connait, qui peut établir que véritablement les textes qu'on lui montre ou encore qui peut dire véritablement que la loi est de telle ou telle façon.

Comme nous n'avons pas beaucoup de gens versés en la matière à Québec, je demanderais la permission de faire entendre un des membres de cette Cour, lequel est, je crois, le seul homme ici présent qui soit versé dans la loi anglaise. Il est 'barrister' et a droit de pratiquer comme tel en Angleterre. Je désire nommer le Colonel Roche. Je demande la permission de faire entendre le Colonel Roche comme témoin."

Le juge-avocat réfère la Cour à l'article 92 du chapitre VI (M.M.L. p.95); à la note 5 à l'article 50 de l'"Army Act" (M.M.L. p.478); et à la note 1 à la règle de procédure 77 (M.M.L. p.666).

La Cour accorde la permission demandée par l'avocat de l'accusé.

PREMIER TEMOIN POUR LA DEFENSE SUR L'OBJECTION A L'ACCUSATION

Lieut.-Colonel (A/Col.) J. R. Roche, Le Régiment de Maisonneuve, A.C., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.4 Colonel, êtes-vous avocat au Barreau de Québec?

A.4 Oui, monsieur.

Q.5 Et je comprends que vous êtes également 'barrister' au Barreau d'Angleterre?

A.5 Oui, monsieur.

Q.6 Avez-vous le droit de pratiquer comme 'barrister' en Angleterre?

A.6 Oui, monsieur.

Q.7 Voulez-vous prendre connaissance d'un volume, soit "Archbold's Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice", 30th edition ?

A.7 Oui, monsieur.

Q.8 Avez-vous le droit de pratiquer la loi anglaise?

A.8 J'ai le droit de pratiquer en Angleterre et je suis admis comme avocat.

Q.9 Si vous pratiquez en Angleterre, pratiquez-vous en vertu de la loi anglaise, du droit anglais?

A.9 Oui, monsieur.

Q.10 Et en vertu du droit commun anglais?

A.10 Oui, monsieur.

Contre-interrogé par le procureur:

Q.11 A quelle occasion avez-vous été admis au Barreau anglais, Colonel?

A.11 Aux sessions de juin 1941, aux sessions régulières du Leicestershire; j'ai été appelé au Barreau et j'ai été prononcé avocat d'Angleterre et du pays de Galles, et à la suite de l'appel au Barreau, j'ai signé le "roll" des avocats, à l'entrée, comme le veut la loi.

Q.12 Avez-vous passé des examens spéciaux pour être admis au barreau anglais?

A.12 J'ai passé des examens.

Q.13 Etaient-ce des examens spéciaux?

A.13 Les examens se font comme ceci: on examine le dossier du candidat et s'il est déjà avocat dans un barreau reconnu de l'Empire, et s'il a des diplômes d'Université --d'une Université reconnue--, et s'il a un certain nombre d'années de pratique et qu'il est recommandé par le Ministre de la Justice ou un procureur-général intéressé, son dossier est pris en considération et il peut être appelé au barreau.

Q.14 Somme toute, c'est la même procédure suivie dans le cas d'un avocat de la Province de Québec qui serait admis au barreau de la Province d'Ontario parce qu'il serait déjà avocat de la Province de Québec, une admission qui ne demande aucun examen spécial, l'avocat-candidat ayant déjà passé des examens pour être admis au barreau de la Province de Québec?

A.14 Je ne suis pas en mesure de répondre à cette question parce que j'ignore comment les choses se passent en Ontario.

Q.15 Maintenant, avez-vous fait des études spéciales du droit anglais avant d'être admis au barreau anglais?

A.15 Non, je n'ai pas fait d'études spéciales.

Q.16 Et les seules études légales que vous eussiez faites sont celles que vous avez faites avant d'être admis au barreau de Québec?

A.16 Oui, monsieur.

Interrogé de nouveau par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.17 Est-ce que ces études, Colonel, vous ont permis d'avoir des notions du droit commun anglais?

A.17 Oui, monsieur.

Q.18 Vos études vous ont-elles appris le droit commun anglais?

A.18 Oui, monsieur.

Q.19 Dans quel domaine?

A.19 J'ai subi les examens du barreau de la Province de Québec.

Q.20 Pendant que vous étiez en Angleterre, avez-vous eu occasion de suivre des causes ou des procès?

A.20 J'ai eu occasion de suivre quelques causes.

Q.21 Qui procédaient...?

A.21 C'étaient des causes qui procédaient en vertu du droit anglais.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.22 Permettez-moi une question, Colonel; avez-vous pratiqué le droit anglais?

A.22 Je n'ai pas conduit de causes de l'enquête jusqu'à la fin du procès. Je ne tenais pas bureau en Angleterre. J'étais membre du barreau; j'avais l'avantage d'y demeurer, d'assister, et je l'ai fait. J'étais employé comme militaire.

Q.23 Vous étiez en service militaire?

A.23 Oui, monsieur.

Le Procureur s'adresse à la Cour:

" Je désire m'objecter à la preuve qu'on veut faire par le Colonel Roche, parce que la loi veut que lorsque nous voulons prouver du droit étranger, il faut le faire par un expert. Le Colonel Roche est un membre du barreau anglais, il est vrai, mais il n'est pas un expert en droit commun anglais.

" Malgré que mon confrère, Me Rivard, ait une très bonne connaissance du 'common law' anglais, je ne crois pas qu'il pourrait être admis devant cette Cour comme expert pour nous dire quelles sont les lois d'Angleterre, de quelle façon elles s'appliquent, les éléments de ces lois, etc.

" Le Colonel Roche est dans la situation de l'avocat du barreau de la Province de Québec qui a appris le 'common law' anglais en relation avec notre droit au Canada; il n'a aucune expérience au barreau anglais; il n'a fait aucune étude spéciale pour être admis au barreau anglais. Et je soumets que le Colonel Roche, comme tel, ne peut être reconnu comme expert devant cette Cour pour prouver le 'common law' ou interpréter le 'common law' anglais."

L'Avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour:

" En réponse à mon savant ami, il est très évident que je ne suis pas expert en droit commun anglais; je ne suis même pas expert en droit commun québécois ou canadien --comme vous voudrez l'appeler--. Je crois que c'est l'usage ordinaire des tribunaux de produire pour prouver une loi étrangère, non pas des professeurs, non pas des gens qui sont versés dans une partie spéciale du droit plutôt qu'une autre, mais des gens de droit, des gens de loi, et ceci s'applique surtout lorsqu'il s'agit de droit comme le droit commun anglais, lequel droit s'applique ici, dans ce pays, dans presque tout ce qui regarde notre droit public et notre droit commun, droit qui n'est presque pas codifié et sur lequel notre code criminel est basé. Pour notre propre droit public et constitutionnel, on doit nécessairement apprendre à connaître les fondements du 'common law' anglais.

" Quand le Colonel Roche a passé des examens pour être reçu au barreau de Québec, il a nécessairement fait des études où il a appris et connu le droit commun anglais, et c'est pour cette raison qu'une fois rendu en Angleterre, il n'a pas eu à passer d'examen pour être admis au barreau anglais; ces examens, il les avait déjà passés pour être admis au barreau de la Province de Québec.

" On ne fait pas passer des examens à des gens quand on sait d'avance qu'ils vont les passer et qu'ils sont capables de les subir avec succès. On ne soumet pas à une épreuve des gens quand on est certain qu'ils connaissent bien la matière qui est le sujet de l'épreuve.

" Je soumets que nous avons fait dans cette cause ce que, dans mon humble opinion j'ai vu faire devant la plupart des tribunaux, non pas amené un expert versé d'une façon spéciale dans les lois d'un pays étranger, mais un homme qui a le droit de pratiquer en vertu de cette loi, un homme qui, par ses études connait nécessairement la loi et est en mesure de nous dire si un texte qu'on lui montrera est un texte qui a force de loi en Angleterre."

Le Juge-Avocat donne ses directives à la Cour;

" La question soulevée est excessivement délicate. Certains principes très bien connus sont parfois, dans leur application, très difficiles. Le cas mentionné en est un, monsieur le Président et messieurs le membres de la Cour, où l'application du principe a donné lieu à des divergences d'opinion et à bien des débats.

" Le principe général est que la loi étrangère, (et dans ce cas-ci, la loi anglaise est une loi étrangère, sauf pour ce qui regarde la preuve) doit être prouvée comme un fait par un témoin ou par des témoins; la question est de savoir par qui la loi étrangère peut être prouvée comme il se doit.

" Je ne peux faire mieux que de référer au volume le plus récent sur la loi de la preuve en Angleterre, "Phipson on Evidence", 8ème édition, aux pages 11, 13, 17, 382 à 384, et 539. Voici comment s'exprime Phipson, l'autorité la plus récente sur une question de cette nature-là;

"Foreign Law, which includes Scotch and Colonial Law, except on appeals to the House of Lords and Privy Council respectively, must, unless ascertained under the statutory procedure, be proved as a fact by skilled witnesses.

"In foreign law, the expert may be either a professional lawyer, or a person "peritus virtute officii", i.e., the holder of an official situation which requires and therefore implies legal knowledge; or perhaps some other person who from his profession or business has had peculiar means of becoming acquainted with the law in question.

"The following have been held "competent": A foreign judge, barrister, or solicitor practising in the Courts of his own country; an English barrister, who, though not practising in Malta, was familiar with, and had been employed by the Colonial Office in reference to such questions, as to Maltese Law; one who, though he had not practised in Rhodesia, was the reader in Roman-Dutch law at the Inns of Court, as to Rhodesian law; one who had studied Italian law in Italy and was counsel to the Italian consulate, as to Italian law; one, who, though not technically entitled to practise in Uruguay, was qualified to do so and familiar with the law there, as to such law."

" Ces exemples et plusieurs autres sont donnés aux pages 382 et 383 de "Phipson on Evidence", 8ème édition.

"Experts on the subject may refer to Codes and precedents in support of their views; and the passages cited will then be treated as part of their testimony. Moreover, where the evidence of the witnesses is conflicting or obscure, the Court may go a step further and examine and construe the passages cited for itself in order to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion.

"Foreign law must, in general, be proved ON OATH, either orally, or, in some cases, by affidavit, and not by the mere certificates of experts, though this strictness has occasionally been relaxed. Moreover, previous decisions upon the same point, and even between the same parties, are not admissible, for being a question of fact it must be decided on evidence and not on authority; in addition to which the law is continually liable to change. An interrogatory involving a question of foreign law will not be allowed unless the party interrogated is shown to be an expert in such law."

" On emploie 'skilled witness' d'abord et, plus loin, le terme 'expert'. Sur la qualification d'un témoin, je ne peux pas donner à la Cour autre chose que les textes que je viens de lire; ce sont les plus récents et le principe y est clairement exposé. La question qui se pose est donc celle-ci: "Is Colonel Roche a 'skilled witness', an 'expert witness' in English law?" On trouvera quelque chose dans le même sens dans "Archbold's Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice".

La Cour siège en audience privée afin de délibérer.

Le Colonel J.R. Roche ne délibère pas .

L'audience publique étant reprise, le Juge-Avocat annonce que la Cour, après mûre délibération, a décidé que la Défense n'avait pas établi à la satisfaction de la Cour que le Colonel Roche est un témoin compétent pour prouver le droit anglais.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B)

Le témoin reprend son siège comme Membre de la Cour.

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour:

" Je comprends, monsieur le Président, que mon objection a été enregistrée, et que évidemment puisque je ne peux pas faire la preuve du droit anglais, étant donné la décision de la Cour..."

Le Président s'adresse à l'avocat de l'accusé;

" La Cour a seulement décidé que vous ne pouviez pas le faire par ce témoin-ci."

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour;

" Je dois déclarer que je n'ai pas d'autres témoins pour prouver la loi anglaise, et je comprends que mon application est renvoyée."

Le Président s'adresse à l'avocat de l'accusé;

" C'est votre privilège et votre droit. Si vous voulez faire entendre quelqu'un d'autre, vous êtes libre de le faire. Par les questions posées et la preuve qui nous a été donnée, nous avons jugé que les réponses données et la preuve apportée n'étaient pas assez fortes pour nous faire décider que le Colonel Roche est un témoin compétent et expert en droit anglais."

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour;

" Monsieur le Président, sur cette question --et c'est un dernier effort que je tente-- puis-je demander à la Cour si, pour interpréter l'objection et la décider, elle s'est servie, à la suggestion du Juge-Avocat, de Phipson qui est un auteur anglais de droit anglais et lequel s'est lui-même servi d'autres auteurs de droit anglais?

" Pour interpréter la façon dont on devait juger la compétence du Colonel Roche, est-ce que la Cour ne peut pas se servir de "Archbold", lui aussi auteur anglais bien connu, pour connaître le droit commun anglais?"

Le Président s'adresse à l'avocat de l'accusé;

" La Cour a décidé et c'est la Cour qui conduit."

Le Juge-Avocat cite la sous-section 128 de l'Army Act (M.M.L.p.541) et la règle de procédure 73(B) (M.M.L.p.665).

L'avocat de l'accusé n'a pas d'autres témoins à faire entendre sur l'objection à l'accusation.

L'avocat de l'accusé demande la permission de la Cour pour faire une autre motion.

La permission est accordée par la Cour.

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour;

" Nous présentons un "plea in bar of trial" pour la raison que l'accusé a été jugé sommairement par son Officier-commandant.

" Cette motion est basée sur la règle de procédure 36 (A) (i), M.M.L., p. 639. Je veux établir devant la Cour que l'accusé était caporal; qu'après avoir fait certaines déclarations établissant devant son Officier-commandant les actes qu'on lui reproche aujourd'hui, on l'a sévèrement réprimandé et on lui a demandé, voir même forcé, d'abandonner son grade de caporal.

" Je soumets respectueusement, par conséquent, que son Officier-commandant "dealt summarily with the offence". J'attire également l'attention de la Cour sur l'article 471 du King's Rules and Regulations (Can.)."

Le Procureur s'adresse à la Cour;

" Je comprends que c'est une question de fait, et je vais attendre la preuve qui va être faite."

PREMIER TEMOIN POUR LA DEFENSE SUR LE "PLEA IN BAR OF TRIAL".

Lieut.-Colonel Jules MERCIER, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., Officier Médical en Chef du District Militaire No. 5, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé;

Q.24 Colonel, quelle position occupez-vous dans l'Armée ici, à Québec?

A.24 Je suis médecin en chef de la cinquième région militaire, soit le District Militaire No. 5.

Q.25 Comme tel, est-ce que vous vous trouvez à avoir autorité sur la 5ème Compagnie de ce corps à Québec?

A.25 Oui, monsieur.

Q.26 Connaissez-vous l'accusé en cette cause, le soldat Hamel?

A.26 Oui, monsieur.

Q.27 Avez-vous eu occasion, le 17 octobre dernier, de voir le soldat Hamel à votre bureau?

A.27 Le 19, je crois, monsieur.

Q.28 Pouvez-vous dire à la Cour dans quelles circonstances?

A.28 J'ai fait venir Hamel à mon bureau le 19 au soir pour l'interroger en rapport avec certains incidents et certains faits que j'avais découverts le 17, le samedi précédent.

Q.29 Qu'est-ce que vous avez dit au soldat Hamel dans cette circonstance-là?

A.29 J'ai dit à Hamel... D'abord, je l'ai mis en garde.

Q.30 Quelle espèce de mise en garde?

A.30 Lui disant que s'il se considérait coupable, il n'était pas obligé de parler et qu'il pouvait avoir les services d'un avocat.

Q.31 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé ensuite? Je ne veux pas être "leading"; voulez-vous dire à la Cour qui était à votre bureau à ce moment-là?

A.31 Le Major Kirouac.

Q.32 Le Major Lacasse était-il là?

A.32 Le Major Lacasse est arrivé à la fin, après que le soldat Hamel a écrit et signé une déclaration.

Q.33 Je suis peut-être un peu "leading" dans le moment, et ce n'est que pour aller plus vite; je comprends qu'en cette circonstance-là le soldat Hamel a signé une déclaration?

A.33 Oui, monsieur.

Q.34 De certains faits?

A.34 Oui, monsieur.

Q.35 Après qu'il a signé une déclaration de certains faits, qu'est-ce que vous lui avez dit?

A.35 Exactement ce que je lui ai dit, je ne peux pas me rappeler; si vous voulez...

Q.36 Colonel, à ce moment-là, le soldat Hamel avait-il un grade?

A.36 Oui, monsieur.

Q.37 Qu'est-ce qu'il était?

A.37 Caporal.

Q.38 A-t-il été question de son grade?

A.38 Oui, monsieur.

Q.39 De quelle façon?

A.39 Je lui ai dit, "Sous les circonstances, je me demande s'il ne conviendrait pas mieux que tu demandes d'être réduit au rang de'private'".

Q.40 Qu'est-ce qu'il a dit?

A.40 Il a dit: "Non".

Q.41 Et c'est tout ce qui s'est passé chez-vous à ce sujet-là?

A.41 Je ne crois pas avoir insisté ce soir-là davantage.

Q.42 Quand vous lui avez dit ça, est-ce que le Major Lacasse était présent?

A.42 Franchement, je ne me rappelle pas.

Q.43 Quelle était la relation entre le Major Lacasse et le soldat Hamel?

A.43 Le Major Lacasse était directement son Officier-commandant.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat.

Q.44 Si la Cour vous comprend bien, vous n'étiez pas l'Officier-commandant de l'accusé?

A.44 Non, monsieur.

Q.45 Vous ne commandiez pas la compagnie No. 5?

A.45 Non, monsieur; je suis médecin en chef, et la compagnie 5 a un Officier-commandant qui est le Major Lacasse.

L'avocat de l'accusé continue son interrogatoire.

Q.46 L'accusé dans ce temps-là était-il caporal?

A.46 Oui, monsieur.

Interrogé par la Cour.

Q.46 Qui était le Commandant de l'accusé, l'Officier qui, d'après les termes de la loi, disposait du pouvoir de commandant de bataillon?

A.46 C'était le Major Lacasse.

L'avocat de l'accusé continue son interrogatoire.

Q.47 Est-ce qu'il y avait un Sergent-major Drolet à votre bureau ce soir-là?

A.47 Oui, il y avait un Sergent-major Drolet; toutefois, je ne me rappelle pas s'il est resté tout le temps avec nous autres. Il était certainement au bureau; j'ai eu affaire à lui ce soir-là et je pense que l'accusé a eu affaire à lui ce soir-là.

Le Procureur refuse d'interroger contradictoirement.

De l'avis de la Cour et du juge-avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

DEUXIEME TEMOIN POUR LA DEFENSE SUR LE "PLEA IN BAR OF TRIAL".

Major L.J. LACASSE, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., Officier-commandant de la 5ème Compagnie, Corps Médical de l'Armée Canadienne, A.C., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.48 Major, au mois d'octobre dernier, étiez-vous Commandant de la 5ème Compagnie médicale à Québec?

A.48 Oui, monsieur.

Q.49 Aviez-vous l'accusé sous vos ordres?

A.49 Oui, monsieur.

Q.50 Vous rappelez-vous d'avoir vu l'accusé? Est-ce que l'accusé a été paradé à votre bureau quelque temps après le 18 ou 19 octobre, ou vers ce temps-là?

A.50 A peu près vers ce temps-là.

Q.51 Précédemment à ce qu'il soit paradé à votre bureau, avez-vous eu connaissance d'une entrevue de l'accusé avec le Colonel Mercier?

A.51 Je n'étais pas présent à l'entrevue.

Q.52 Par qui le caporal a-t-il été paradé à votre bureau?

A.52 C'est-à-dire qu'il a été paradé à mon bureau même. Quand il est venu me voir, je crois que c'est le sergent-major ou le "staff serjeant" qui l'a paradé.

Q.53 Le sergent-major...?

A.53 Drolet, ou le 'staff serjeant' Plamondon.

Q.54 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé quand il a été paradé devant vous?

A.54 Il a demandé l'autorisation de retourner au rang de simple soldat.

Q.55 Lui-même vous l'a demandé?

A.55 Oui, monsieur.

Q.56 Est-ce qu'il vous a dit pourquoi?

A.56 Etant donné qu'il avait une accusation contre lui.

Q.57 Avant qu'il le demande, avant qu'il fasse cette demande, lui en avez-vous parlé?

A.57 Personnellement, je ne lui en ai pas parlé.

Q.58 Etiez-vous consentant?

A.58 Je lui ai dit que j'étais consentant, et il a enlevé son chevron de caporal dans mon bureau même.

Q.59 Qui était présent?

A.59 Le même qui l'avait paradé; même je ne sais pas si les deux étaient là, si le sergent-major Drolet ou si le sergent Plamondon était là, ou si les deux ensemble y étaient.

Contre-interrogé par le procureur:

Q.60 C'est l'accusé lui-même qui a demandé d'abandonner son grade de caporal?

A.60 Oui, monsieur.

Q.61 Cela ne lui a pas été donné comme punition?

A.61 Non, non.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas interroger le témoin de nouveau.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.62 Depuis combien de temps, Major, êtes-vous dans l'Armée?

A.62 En service actif depuis le 26 août 1939, et dans la force non-permanente depuis le premier septembre 1935.

Q.63 Lorsque l'accusé vous a été paradé, comme vous disiez tout à l'heure, est-ce qu'il vous a été paradé avec une accusation régulière?

A.63 Non; il m'a été paradé pour me faire cette demande; j'avais eu connaissance indirectement de sa confession; j'ai signé comme témoin de sa déclaration.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

TROISIEME TEMOIN POUR LA DEFENSE SUR LE "PLEA IN BAR OF TRIAL".

No. E-20613, Sergent-major Joseph Drolet, 5ème Cie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.64 Occupiez-vous les mêmes fonctions au mois d'octobre dernier que vous occupez en ce moment?

A.64 Oui, monsieur.

Q.65 Connaissiez-vous l'accusé?

A.65 Oui, monsieur.

Q.66 Au cours du mois d'octobre, avez-vous eu occasion de le parader devant le Major Lacasse?

A.67 Non, je ne le crois pas, monsieur.

Q.68 Ou de le parader devant le Colonel Mercier?

A.68 Dans le mois d'octobre?

Q.69 L'avez-vous paradé devant le Colonel Mercier?

A.69 Oui, monsieur.

Q.70 L'avez-vous paradé ensuite devant le Major Lacasse?

A.70 Oui, monsieur.

Q.71 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé devant le Major Lacasse?

A.71 Il a demandé au Major Lacasse de le réduire au rang de soldat.

Q.72 Après la visite chez le Colonel Mercier?

A.72 Oui, monsieur.

Q.73 A-t-il donné des raisons?

A.73 Pas que je me rappelle.

Le Procureur ne désire pas contre-interroger le témoin.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.74 Lorsque vous avez paradé l'accusé devant le Major Lacasse, était-ce pour un "Orderly Room", ou au point de vue discipline avec un "charge-sheet" disant qu'il avait commis une certaine erreur?

A.74 Il n'y avait pas de "charge-sheet", monsieur.

Q.75 Il n'a pas eu de punition alors que vous l'avez paradé devant le Major Lacasse?

A.75 Non, monsieur.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

QUATRIEME TEMOIN POUR LA DEFENSE SUR LE "PLEA IN BAR OF TRIAL".

L'accusé, No. C-25913, soldat Louis-Philippe Hamel, 5ème Cie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par son avocat:

Q.76 Avez-vous eu occasion d'avoir été paradé au mois d'octobre 1942?

Le Procureur demande à la Cour de mettre l'avocat de l'accusé en garde contre les questions suggestives.

Le Juge-Avocat se rend à cette demande.

L'avocat de l'accusé continue son interrogatoire.

Q.76a Soldat Hamel, voulez-vous raconter à la Cour ce qui est arrivé vers le 17 octobre 1942?

A.76a Oui, monsieur. Lundi soir, j'ai été demandé par le Major Kirouac; j'étais hospitalisé à l'Hôpital Saint-Sacrement. J'ai passé un examen devant le docteur, qui me trouvait correct pour aller subir l'enquête. On me disait que j'étais obligé d'aller travailler au bureau; je ne me sentais pas bien et j'ai eu la permission de me lever. "Tout est correct, tu peux venir avec moi." Je suis allé au bureau et au bureau ils m'ont questionné.

Q.77 Qui?

A.77 Le Colonel Mercier.

Q.78 Qu'est-ce qu'il vous a dit le Colonel Mercier?

A.78 Le Colonel Mercier m'a demandé combien d'argent je donnais à chez nous. A ça je lui ai répondu que j'avais assigné $20.00 à ma mère et que, en plus de ça, de temps en temps je donnais de $5.00 à $10.00 pour les aider. Et sur ça, il m'a répondu: "Hamel, ça serait pas mieux pour toi de ne pas donner d'argent à un officier et de le donner chez vous?" J'ai répondu, "Oui, monsieur." Il a dit, "Tu sais à quoi je veux en venir?" J'ai dit: "Oui, monsieur." Il a dit, "Tu sais au juste le but?" J'ai dit: "Au juste, non; mais je pense saisir un peu.". Il a dit: "Je vais y aller plus précisément" et il m'a demandé, "A la place de donner $10.00 au Capitaine Grondin, ça serait pas mieux d'en donner $10.00 chez vous?" Et c'est là que j'ai fait ma déclaration, monsieur.

Q.79 Quelle déclaration?

A.79 Qu'un type avait été classé "E"; qu'il était venu quinze jours après, chez nous, sans que je lui demande; je ne le reconnaissais pas; il était habillé en civil.

Q.80 Lorsque vous avez été traduit devant le Colonel Mercier, a-t-il été question à ce moment-là de vous dégrader?

A.80 Oui, monsieur.

Q.81 Racontez ce qui est arrivé; la conversation entre vous et le Colonel Mercier.

A.81 "Au point où tu en es", il a dit, "ça serait pas mieux de demander de dégrader, la façon que tu es agi"? Je lui ai dit, "C'est vous-même qui m'avez donné mes barres, si vous voulez me les ôter, ôtez-moi les." Il a dit: "Je n'ai pas le droit; il faut que ça soit le Major Lacasse." J'ai dit: "Si le Major veut, il les ôtera." Il a dit: "Il faut que tu le demandes.". J'ai dit: "Si vous voulez, ôtez-moi les, je ne le demande pas."

Q.82 Subséquemment, avez-vous été paradé devant votre Commandant, le Major Lacasse?

A.82 Pas la même journée.

Q.83 Quand?

A.83 Environ le mardi ou le mercredi suivant.

Q.84 A l'occasion de cette parade-là, racontez au tribunal ce qui s'est passé devant votre commandant, le Major Lacasse.

A.84 Le Sergent Drolet et le Staff Plamondon m'ont paradé devant le Major Lacasse, et le Major Lacasse m'a demandé: "Hamel, savez-vous pourquoi vous venez ici?" J'ai répondu: "Au juste, non.".

J'ai demandé au'Staff Sgt.' et il a dit: "Je pense à propos de déclarations." J'ai dit: "Qu'est-ce que vous me demander de déclarer? Si c'est rendu à un point de même, j'aime aussi bien me faire dégrader; d'une manière ou d'une autre, je suis dans le trou."

Q.84a Qu'est-ce que votre Officier-commandant, le Major Lacasse, vous a dit?

Le procureur s'objecte à la question.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.85 Qui a dit ça?

A.85 C'est moi-même qui ai dit ça. Me voyant pris de même, j'ai dit: "J'aime autant me faire dégrader."

Q.86 Qui vous a dit que vous étiez pris?

A.86 Le Colonel m'a dit: "Hamel..."

Q.87 Nous sommes devant le Major Lacasse. Lorsque vous êtes entré dans le bureau du Major Lacasse, il a dû vous dire pourquoi?

A.87 Il m'a demandé si je savais au juste pourquoi on me paradait.

Q.88 Et vous lui avez fait quelle réponse?

A.88 J'ai dit: "Monsieur, je ne le sais pas."

Q.89 Alors, est-ce qu'il vous a donné une explication?

A.89 Il a demandé au 'Staff Sgt.',je pense bien, le 'Staff Sgt.' Plamondon au lieu du Sergent-Major Drolet; je me rappelle pas, j'étais malade; il a demandé au sergent pourquoi je venais ici. Il a dit: "C'est à cause de la déclaration." Le Major Lacasse a dit: "Demandez-vous d'être dégradé?" J'ai répondu: "Monsieur, au point où j'en suis à l'heure actuelle, j'aime autant être dégradé." Le Colonel Mercier me prenait pour un criminel; pourtant j'ai toujours agi honnêtement.

A.89 (suite)

Q.90 Est-ce que vous désiriez être dégradé?

A.90 Non, monsieur, je ne le désirais pas; au contraire.

Q.91 Comme question de fait, Hamel, avez-vous été dégradé à ce moment-là?

A.91 Oui, monsieur.

Contre-interrogé par le procureur:

Q.92 Vous n'avez pas été dégradé à la suite d'une punition. Vous avez demandé qu'on vous "revert to rank" ou de retourner au rang de soldat?

A.92 Je n'ai pas saisi sur ce point-là...

La Cour demande au procureur de faire produire le "Part II Order" pour constater l'entrée qui y fut faite et pour voir pourquoi l'accusé est passé de caporal au rang de soldat.

Le procureur s'adresse à la Cour:

" J'étais pour faire ça sur la preuve de la poursuite; je suis en contre-interrogatoire, et c'est pour ça que je questionne le témoin. Il n'y a aucun doute que la preuve orale peut être détruite par la preuve écrite."

Le procureur poursuit son contre-interrogatoire:

Q.93 Est-ce que c'était comme punition que vous avez été dégradé?

A.93 A mon point de vue, oui, monsieur.

Q.94 Est-ce qu'on a lu un acte d'accusation contre vous?

A.94 Non, monsieur.

Q.95 Aucun acte d'accusation n'avait été lu contre vous?

A.95 Non, monsieur.

La Cour demande au procureur de faire produire le "Part II Order" indiquant que l'accusé a été puni ou "reverted to rank of private".

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas ré-interroger le témoin.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

L'accusé, No. C-25913, soldat Louis Philippe Hamel, 5ème Cie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., reprend son siège.

PREMIER TEMOIN POUR LA POURSUITE SUR LE "PLEA IN BAR OF TRIAL"

Major L.J. LACASSE, Officier-commandant, 5ème Compagnie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., sous le serment prêté antérieurement, est interrogé par le procureur:

Q.96 Major Lacasse, sous le serment que vous avez prêté tout à l'heure, voulez-vous dire à la Cour si vous avez un 'Routine Order' dans lequel l'accusé a été réduit au rang de 'private'?

A.96 Oui, je l'ai ici en ma possession.

Q.97 Voulez-vous le produire à la Cour?

A.97 Je produis une copie exacte de "Part II Order" No. 113, de la 5ème Cie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., en date du 20 octobre 1942.

Copie conforme et certifiée de "Part II Order" No. 113 de la 5ème Cie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., en date du 20 octobre 1942, est marquée "G", signée par le président et jointe au procès-verbal.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas contre-interroger le témoin.

De l'avis de la cour et du juge-avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour:

" L'accusé, par son procureur, demande respectueusement à la Cour que son plaidoyer "in bar of trial" soit maintenu. Nous soumettons que la preuve faite établit que l'accusé a d'abord été amené chez le Colonel Mercier où il a fait des déclarations concernant les faits de cette cause, que là et alors, le Colonel Mercier lui a suggéré d'abandonner son rang et qu'il a refusé, et que, subséquemment, il a été paradé devant son Officier-commandant, et si la prépondérance de la preuve, contradictoirement à ce que dit l'accusé, est à l'effet qu'il aurait demandé d'abandonner son rang, la preuve établit également que cette demande a été faite alors que l'accusé était sous l'impression qu'il était sous le coup d'une offense grave, et qu'à la suggestion de son officier supérieur, le Colonel Mercier, il devait faire le sacrifice de son grade et s'infliger lui-même cette punition."

La Cour siège en audience privée pour délibérer sur le "plea in bar of trial".

La Cour siège en audience publique.

Le Juge-Avocat annonce que la Cour rejette le plaidoyer, les témoignages entendus n'ayant pas établi que l'accusé avait été puni en perdant son rang pour l'accusation qui lui est reprochée devant la Cour aujourd'hui.

La Cour reprend le procès.

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse à l'accusé:

Q.98 Etes-vous coupable ou non coupable du premier chef d'accusation qu'on vous a lu?

A.98 Non coupable.

Q.99 Etes-vous coupable ou non coupable du deuxième chef d'accusation qu'on vous a lu?

A.99 Non coupable.

C

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty

*Instruction. (See R. P. 39 (A)) Question. Q.100

*Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer.100 No, Sir.

The prosecutor ~~makes an opening address~~ [hands in a written address, which is read, marked "H" , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. Major Louis G. Lacasse, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., Officier-commandant de la 5ème Compagnie, Corps Médical de l'Armée Canadienne, A.C., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

~~being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor~~

Q.101 Connaissez-vous l'accusé en cette cause?

A.101 Oui, monsieur.

Q.102 Où l'avez-vous rencontré?

A.102 Je l'ai rencontré au bureau du médecin-chef de la 5ème région militaire, et je l'ai toujours vu travailler là depuis qu'il est dans l'Armée.

Q.103 Quelles étaient ses fonctions chez le médecin-chef de la région militaire No. 5?

A.103 Les fonctions de l'accusé consistaient à voir à ce que les résultats des radiographies -qu'il s'agisse de licenciement ou encore même de tenir les enrôlements à date et en ordre- de plus, lorsqu'il s'agit de radiographies spéciales demandées par les spécialistes soit en maladies pulmonaires ou maladies du coeur ou des os, de voir à ce que ces résultats soient proprement copiés sur une formule spéciale (45); en un mot, il agissait comme commis ayant comme charge spéciale le département de la radiographie.

Q.104 Dans l'exercice de ses fonctions, quelles étaient les obligations ou quels étaient les devoirs de l'accusé vis-à-vis des civils?

A.104 Il n'avait aucun devoir à faire envers les civils, sauf les devoirs de politesse quand un civil lui parlait. Il n'y avait affaire uniquement lorsqu'il s'agissait de rédiger les listes de recrues envoyées dans les hôpitaux.

Q.105 Avait-il à interviewer les candidats qui se présentaient pour l'examen médical?

A.105 Cela n'était pas dans ses fonctions.

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.106 Je comprends, Major, qu'à un certain moment, il y a au bureau médical un surcroît de travail?

A.106 Oui, monsieur.

Q.107 Est-ce qu'il pouvait arriver à un certain moment qu'un employé attaché à un bureau spécial reçoive peut-être un ordre, ou qu'on lui demande d'aller aider dans un autre département surchargé?

A.107 Le département surchargé se trouvait sur le même étage, dans le même bureau; c'est un tout connexe qui se complète l'un l'autre. Il a pu fort bien arriver que n'ayant pas un travail qui lui était spécialement alloué, qu'il ait eu à copier à la machine des rapports pour d'autres de ses confrères.

Q.108 Est-ce que c'était considéré comme une irrégularité de sortir de son domaine pour en aider d'autres?

A.108 Non; nous nous aidons les uns les autres le plus possible.

Q.109 Maintenant, il avait certains rapports avec les civils aussi?

A.109 Le seul rapport, c'était d'appeler les civils lorsqu'ils partaient pour la radiographie.

Q.110 Et à certains moments, il avait des questions à poser aux civils pour marquer sur le 'stencil'?

A.110 Il n'était pas en charge du département de réception des recrues; lorsqu'il faisait la formule No. 45, ou la formule No. 30, il allait demander le nom de l'homme, son âge, etc.

Le Procureur demande à ce que le témoin reste à la disposition de la Cour, en vue de la production ultérieure de documents.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.111 Les formules dont vous venez de mentionner les numéros, viendront-elles dans le témoignage des autres témoins? Qu'est-ce que la formule 30?

A.111 La formule 30 est la formule employée pour enrégistrer le résultat des radiographies pulmonaires lors de l'enrôlement des soldats.

Q.112 Et la formule 45?

A.112 La formule 45 est employée dans tous les cas où l'on demande une radiographie spéciale chez un homme déjà enrôlé, faisant déjà partie de l'Armée

Q.113 Les deux formules se rapportent aux radiographies?

A.113 Oui, monsieur.

Le Procureur demande de faire établir la définition du mot "civil" ou de faire donner par le témoin la signification spécifique de ce mot.

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à ce que les témoins soient appelés à définir les mots de la langue française.

Le Juge-Avocat annonce que la Cour se chargera d'établir la signification.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas interroger contradictoirement.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 93(B).

Le témoin se retire.

DEUXIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

Roger Larose, fils de cultivateur, domicilié à Saint-Isidore, Comté de Dorchester, âgé de 18 ans, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.114 Quel est votre nom et où demeurez-vous?

A.114 Roger Larose; je demeure à Saint-Isidore, Comté de Dorchester.

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte au témoin et s'adresse à la Cour:

Ce témoin n'a pas été entendu au sommaire d'évidence et nous avons reçu un avis seulement hier soir. Nous n'avons pas eu les 24 heures auxquelles nous avons droit.

La Cour demande à l'Avocat de l'accusé s'il désire un ajournement de ce fait ou s'il désire entendre d'abord le témoin, quitte à demander un ajournement pour son contre-interrogatoire.

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour:

Je ne m'objecte pas à ce qu'on entende le témoin, mais si après qu'il aura été entendu, j'ai besoin d'un ajournement pour le transquestionner, je le demanderai.

La Cour décide d'entendre le témoin, sous réserve, en vertu de la règle de procédure 76. (M.M.L. p.666)

Le procureur continue son examen.

Q.115 Quel est votre emploi?

A.115 Je suis fils de cultivateur, et dans le moment, je travaille chez-nous.

Q.116 Avez-vous eu occasion de vous enrôler dans l'Armée?

A.116 Oui, monsieur.

Q.117 A quelle date?

A.117 Au commencement d'octobre.

Q.118 De quelle année?

A.118 Cet automne.

Q.119 1942?

A.119 Oui, monsieur.

Q.120 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour ce qui s'est passé à cette occasion?

A.120 Voici. Premièrement, je me suis présenté pour m'enrôler dans l'aviation. J'ai passé mon 'test' psychologique et quand est venu le temps de passer mon examen médical, je l'ai passé et j'ai été passer mon rayon-X à l'Hôpital de l'Enfant-Jésus. Ils ont eu un rapport au bureau d'enrôlement de l'aviation que mon rayon-X était douteux.

L'avocat de l'accusé fait remarquer que le témoin parle d'un document (le rayon-X) qui n'a pas été produit devant la Cour comme évidence documentaire.

Le Procureur poursuit son interrogatoire:

Q.121 Voulez-vous nous dire, monsieur Larose, ce qui est arrivé ensuite?

A.121 Je me suis présenté pour enrôlement dans l'Armée.

Q.122 Voulez-vous raconter ce qui s'est passé lors de votre enrôlement dans l'Armée?

A.122 Je vais encore répéter les affaires de l'aviation; ça fait un peu partie de ça.

La Cour demande au témoin de dire ce qu'il sait et non pas ce qu'on lui a dit.

Le Procureur poursuit son interrogatoire:

Q.123 Qu'est-ce qui est arrivé?

A.123 Je suis allé au bureau d'enrôlement de l'Armée, sur la rue St-Jean. Le docteur m'a ausculté, le docteur Desmeules, et il a trouvé que j'avais certainement quelque chose sur les poumons, mais il ne m'a pas dit quoi. Là, je suis sorti de là et c'est là que monsieur Hamel -c'était le soir- est venu me demander, me dire: "Aimes-tu mieux signer dans l'Armée pour obtenir une 'décharge' ou si tu aimes mieux t'en retourner de même?" Là, il m'a dit: "Reviens demain matin." Moi, je lui ai dit que j'allais poursuivre pour ma 'décharge'. Là, quand je suis revenu le lendemain matin, c'était en son bureau fermé là, j'ai signé au bureau en bas et je suis monté encore en haut pour passer mon examen médical, sauf le rayon-X dont ils savaient déjà le résultat.

A.123 (suite)

Q.123a Est-ce que Hamel vous a demandé quelque chose?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question, à moins qu'elle ne soit une question préliminaire, pour la raison que l'accusé n'est pas mis en accusation pour avoir sollicité ou demandé de l'argent, mais pour en avoir reçu.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.124 Voulez-vous nous raconter, témoin, la conversation que vous avez eue avec Hamel?

A.124 En sortant de mon examen médical, j'ai vu le résultat que j'étais classé "E"; alors, je suis descendu en bas pour avoir ma 'décharge', et en descendant, monsieur Hamel m'a suivi dans l'escalier et m'a dit: "Vu que tu es envoyé par l'aviation, les docteurs de l'Armée ne sont pas supposé savoir déjà que tu es 'déchargé' d'avance. Ils ne sont pas supposé passer un autre examen. Ordinairement on fait donner $5.00". Moi, je lui ai dit: "Je ne suis pas capable de donner plus que $3.00." Alors, il m'a dit: "Ca va faire." Je suis descendu en bas; là, j'ai eu ma 'discharge'. Mon témoignage est rendu.

Q.125 Est-ce que le montant de $3.00, vous l'avez donné?

A.125 Oui, je l'ai donné à monsieur Hamel.

Q.126 Maintenant, monsieur Hamel -- le voyez-vous dans cette Cour? Le reconnaissez-vous?

A.126 Oui, monsieur.

Q.127 Où est-il?

A.127 Là. (il désigne l'accusé)

Q.128 Qu'est-ce qu'il a dit, Hamel, alors que vous lui avez donné $3.00? Vous avez donné $3.00 à Hamel et vous vous êtes en allé?

A.128 Oui, monsieur.

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.129 Monsieur Larose, vous êtes venu à Québec, ici, à un moment donné pour vous enrôler dans l'Armée?

A.129 Oui, monsieur.

Q.130 Et, à ce moment-là, vous aviez déjà été refusé dans l'aviation?

A.130 Oui, monsieur.

Q.131 Avez-vous été appelé par la voie du service militaire?

A.131 Non, je n'ai pas encore l'âge.

Q.144 C'était une maladie spéciale? C'était le spécialiste Desmeules?

A.144 Oui, monsieur.

Q.145 Spécialiste pour les poumons?

A.145 Oui, monsieur.

Q.146 Le lendemain, vous êtes retourné et vous avez signé les papiers régulièrement?

A.146 Oui, monsieur.

Q.147 Vous êtes monté en haut et vous avez passé votre examen?

A.147 Oui, monsieur.

Q.148 Régulièrement?

A.148 Oui, monsieur.

Q.149 Savez-vous les noms des médecins devant qui vous avez passé?

A.149 Non, monsieur.

Q.150 Hamel était-il avec vous lorsque vous avez passé votre examen?

A.150 Non, monsieur.

Q.151 Vous avez rencontré Hamel après?

A.151 Oui, monsieur.

Q.152 Et Hamel savait à ce moment-là que vous aviez vos papiers de décharge? Les aviez-vous entre les mains?

A.152 Non, je ne les avais pas encore.

Q.153 Est-ce que vous le saviez?

A.153 Je savais mon rapport; j'ai vu mon rapport de classement "B".

Q.154 Vous aviez vu votre rapport de classement "B"?

A.154 Oui, monsieur.

Q.155 Et vous avez rencontré Hamel dans l'escalier?

A.155 Oui, monsieur.

Q.156 Et il vous a demandé $5.00 pourquoi?

A.156 Il m'a dit pour "récompenser les docteurs".

Q.132 Vous vous êtes présenté au bureau de recrutement pour vous enrôler?

A.132 Oui, monsieur.

Q.133 Et vous avez d'abord subi un examen chez le docteur Desmeules?

A.133 Oui, monsieur.

Q.134 Au bureau de recrutement?

A.134 Oui, monsieur.

Q.135 Qui vous a informé que vous aviez quelque chose aux poumons?

A.135 Oui, monsieur.

Q.136 Quand vous avez passé votre examen chez le docteur Desmeules, vous n'aviez pas vu Hamel?

A.136 Non, monsieur.

Q.137 Vous ne connaissiez pas Hamel?

A.137 Non, monsieur.

Q.138 Vous vous étiez enrôlé régulièrement à ce moment-là; aviez-vous signé vos papiers quand le docteur Desmeules vous a examiné?

A.138 Non, monsieur. C'est comme je vous dis; j'ai été envoyé par l'aviation.

Q.139 C'est l'aviation qui vous a envoyé au docteur Desmeules, pour savoir, pour avoir un rapport spécial sur vos poumons?

A.139 Oui, monsieur.

Q.140 Et en sortant du bureau du spécialiste, du docteur Desmeules, vous aviez quelque chose aux poumons?

A.140 Oui, monsieur.

Q.141 Mais vous n'aviez pas un résultat définitif de votre demande d'enrôlement dans l'aviation?

A.141 Non, monsieur.

Q.142 Et c'est là qu'Hamel, d'après votre témoignage, vous aurait dit: "Veux-tu laisser ça comme ça ou si tu veux t'enrôler dans l'armée" ?

A.142 Oui, monsieur.

Q.143 Et: "Tu auras probablement, avec le rapport qu'il y a là, une 'décharge'" ?

A.143 Oui, monsieur.

Q.157 Il vous a dit que c'était pour récompenser les docteurs?

A.157 Oui, monsieur.

Q.158 Vous ne connaissiez pas les médecins?

A.158 Non, monsieur.

Q.159 Et il vous a demandé $5.00?

A.159 Oui, monsieur.

Q.160 Vous lui avez donné $3.00?

A.160 Oui, monsieur.

Q.161 Et vous êtes parti?

A.161 Oui, monsieur.

Interrogé de nouveau par le Procureur.

Q.162 Hamel vous a-t-il demandé de l'argent avant de passer l'examen ou après?

A.162 Il me l'a demandé après.

Q.163 Il n'en a pas été question avant votre examen?

A.163 Il en avait été question un peu la veille.

Q.164 De quelle façon en avait-il été question la veille?

A.164 Il m'a dit: "On donne quelquechose au docteur, et c'est moi qui arrange ça."

Q.165 Il n'a pas pensé de monter la veille?

A.165 Non, monsieur.

De l'avis de la Cour et du juge-avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

TROISIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

René BOURQUE, 22 ans, sans emploi, demeurant au numéro 16, 11ème rue, à St-François d'Assise, P. Q., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.166 Monsieur Bourque, quelles sont vos occupations actuellement?

A.166 Dans le moment, je ne travaille pas.

Q.167 Connaissez-vous l'accusé?

A.167 Monsieur Hamel - je l'ai connu au recrutement.

Q.168 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour dans quelle circonstance vous l'avez rencontré?

A.168 J'étais sur les Cove Fields et je suis tombé malade; j'ai été transféré à Montmagny et rendu à Montmagny, un de ses amis est venu me voir; c'est-à-dire que je suis venu en passe à Québec et ma mère m'a dit, "Va donc voir monsieur Hamel." Je suis monté au recrutement; j'ai demandé monsieur Hamel; j'avais en ma possession un certificat du Dr. Poulin comme de quoi j'étais malade et j'ai demandé à monsieur Hamel, "Pensez-vous qu'avec ce certificat j'aurais ma décharge?", et monsieur Hamel m'a dit, "Vous courez un grand risque de l'avoir." J'ai demandé à monsieur Hamel, "Qu'est-ce que je dois faire pour avoir ma décharge?" Monsieur Hamel m'a dit, "Descendez en bas et enrôlez-vous". Je suis descendu en bas pour m'enrôler, mes papiers m'ont été refusés, vu que je n'avais pas mes papiers de Montmagny.

Je suis remonté en haut et j'ai dit à monsieur Hamel, "J'ai pas pu avoir mes papiers". C'est alors que monsieur Hamel est descendu avec moi en bas et là, je me suis procuré mes papiers par monsieur Hamel.

Là, je suis remonté en haut et là j'ai donné mon certificat à monsieur Hamel qui l'a accroché à mon document. Ensuite, j'ai été appelé pour aller me deshabiller pour passer mon examen. J'ai passé mon examen et là je suis sorti; je suis allé me rhabiller. J'ai demandé à monsieur Hamel, "Est-ce que vous avez eu mon rapport de l'examen?" Et monsieur Hamel m'a dit, "Pas encore", et il a dit, "Mais il va falloir que vous reveniez cet après-midi pour passer un examen devant le Dr. Miller." Alors, je suis revenu dans l'après-midi et j'ai passé devant le Dr. Miller. Vu que j'étais en passe, je suis reparti pour Montmagny le lundi soir.

Quatre jours après, j'ai été appelé à l'hôpital à Montmagny et ils m'ont dit que Québec me faisait demander pour passer un "board".

Je suis descendu à Québec avec un infirmier et un autre soldat. J'ai passé une autre fois devant le Dr. Miller, et j'ai passé ensuite devant trois médecins. Et je suis reparti avec l'autre infirmier. J'ai passé la soirée chez nous et je suis reparti pour Montmagny.

Une trentaine de jours après, on me faisait demander au bureau à Montmagny et on me disait que j'étais déchargé.

Quand je suis revenu à Québec, quelques jours après, j'ai demandé à mon ami où restait monsieur Hamel, et il m'a dit que monsieur Hamel restait à 77, rue St-Luc. Je suis allé chez monsieur Hamel et je lui ai dit à monsieur Hamel, "J'ai reçu ma décharge". Je lui ai montrée et c'est alors que j'ai pris quatre billets de dix dollars que j'ai déposés sur une petite table qui se trouvait dans le centre de la chambre, en lui disant: "Cela c'est pour payer votre trouble et les dérangements que je vous ai donnés, monsieur". Monsieur Hamel m'a dit: "C'est pas à moi que vous devez; avec ça, je récompenserai les médecins."

A.168 (suite)

C'est tout, monsieur.

Et aussi chez le docteur Miller, quand je suis passé la deuxième fois, je lui ai demandé si je pouvais le récompenser. Le docteur Miller m'a dit: "Certainement." J'ai pris dix dollars que j'avais dans mes poches et je lui ai offert. Il m'a dit: "Si tu..."

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à ce que le témoin raconte les paroles du docteur Miller.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.169 Maintenant, je comprends qu'un de vos amis vous a dirigé vers Hamel?

A.169 Oui, monsieur.

Q.169a Est-ce qu'il vous a dit quelle était...?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question comme à toute conversation entre le témoin et son ami hors la présence de l'accusé.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.170 Avez-vous vu votre ami en présence du soldat Hamel?

A.170 Oui, monsieur.

Q.171 De quoi a-t-il été question dans cette entrevue? D'abord, comment appelez-vous votre ami?

A.171 Monsieur Lemay.

Q.172 Où demeure-t-il?

A.172 35, 9ème rue.

Q.173 Que s'est-il passé au cours de cette conversation entre Lemay, Hamel et vous?

A.173 J'ai vu monsieur Hamel avec monsieur Lemay quand je suis allé passer mon examen.

Q.174 Où a eu lieu cette entrevue?

A.174 Chez monsieur Hamel.

Q.175 C'est-à-dire que lorsque vous êtes allé voir Hamel, après avoir reçu votre 'décharge', Lemay était avec vous?

A.175 Lemay n'était pas avec moi chez l'accusé.

Q.176 Quand, alors?

A.176 Quand j'étais en passe; quand je suis allé pour m'enrôler, monsieur Lemay est venu le soir. Je voulais récompenser monsieur Hamel tout de suite.

Q.177 Vous dites que vous étiez en passe quand vous êtes allé voir monsieur Lemay?

A.177 C'est-à-dire, monsieur Lemay est venu me voir à Montmagny et quand je suis venu en passe, sa mère s'est occupée de moi.

Q.178 Est-ce que Hamel était présent?

A.178 Non, monsieur.

Q.179 Où avez-vous vu Hamel la première fois?

A.179 Je l'ai vu au recrutement.

Q.180 Est-ce que au bureau de recrutement il a été question de décharge entre Hamel et vous?

A.180 Non; j'ai dit à monsieur Hamel simplement; "Si j'ai ma "discharge", je vous récompenserai".

Q.181 Vous lui avez dit cela avant l'examen?

A.181 Oui, monsieur.

Q.182 A quelle date ces faits-là se sont-ils passés?

A.182 Je me suis enrôlé le 18.

Q.183 De quel mois?

A.183 Septembre.

Q.184 De quelle année?

A.184 1942. J'ai passé le 'board' le 22 septembre 1942.

Q.185 Et à quelle date avez-vous été voir Hamel chez lui?

A.185 Je suis passé le matin; je crois que c'est le 18 au soir.

Q.186 Est-ce à cette date-là, le 18 au soir, que vous avez donné de l'argent à Hamel?

A.186 Non, monsieur.

Q.187 A quelle date avez-vous donné de l'argent à Hamel?

A.187 J'ai donné de l'argent à monsieur Hamel le 9 octobre.

Q.188 Le 9 octobre dernier?

A.188 Oui, monsieur.

Interrogé contradictoirement par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.189 Monsieur Bourque, vous étiez déjà dans l'Armée alors?

A.189 Oui, monsieur.

Q.190 Et vous êtes tombé malade ici, sur les Cove Fields?

A.190 Oui, monsieur.

Q.191 De dépression nerveuse?

A.191 Oui, monsieur.

Q.192 Et vous avez été ensuite transféré à Montmagny?

A.192 Oui, monsieur.

Q.193 Et vous étiez encore malade?

A.193 Oui, monsieur.

Q.194 Vous ne connaissiez pas Hamel à ce moment-là?

A.194 Non, monsieur.

Q.195 Et à un moment donné, vous étiez en passe ici à Québec?

A.195 Oui, monsieur.

Q.196 Vous avez rencontré cet ami, monsieur Lemay, qui lui connaissait Hamel?

A.196 Oui, monsieur.

Q.197 Et vous vous plaigniez de ce que l'on ne vous soignait pas dans l'armée?

A.197 Justement.

Q.198 Et votre cas nerveux ne s'améliorait pas?

A.198 Non, monsieur.

Q.199 Et vous vouliez trouver un moyen d'en sortir?

A.199 Oui, monsieur.

Q.200 Avant d'aller voir au bureau de recrutement, vous êtes allé voir un médecin?

A.200 J'ai fait venir le médecin chez nous.

Q.201 Quel est le nom de ce médecin-là?

A.201 Le Dr. Poulin.

Q.202 Et son premier nom?

A.202 Je ne le sais pas.

Q.203 Où est-ce qu'il pratique à Québec?

A.203 Sur la 1ère avenue.

Q.205 Et vous avez obtenu ce certificat-là?

A.205 Oui, monsieur.

Q.206 Avec ce certificat, vous êtes allé au bureau et vous avez demandé Hamel?

A.206 Le premier certificat que j'ai eu, j'étais malade; j'étais sur les Cove Fields - je l'ai donné au sergent Atlas.

Q.207 Je parle quand vous êtes allé au bureau de recrutement, vous avez demandé à voir Hamel? Vous ne le connaissiez pas avant?

A.207 Non, monsieur.

Q.208 On vous a dirigé vers lui?

A.208 C'est monsieur Hamel qui a répondu lui-même. Je lui ai demandé pour parler à monsieur Hamel, et il a dit, "C'est moi-même."

Q.209 Lui avez-vous expliqué votre cas?

A.209 Je lui ai dit que j'étais malade et je lui ai demandé si je pouvais avoir ma décharge avec ce certificat-là.

Q.210 Vous lui avez dit, "Pensez-vous qu'avec ce certificat je puis obtenir ma décharge?"

A.210 Oui, monsieur.

Q.211 Et celui-ci vous a dit; "Vous courez un grand risque de l'avoir." ?

A.211 Oui, monsieur.

Q.212 Il vous a dit qu'il fallait que vous vous enrôliez?

A.212 Oui, monsieur.

Q.213 Qu'il fallait que vous signiez vos papiers?

A.213 Oui, monsieur.

Q.214 Les avez-vous signés?

A.214 Oui, monsieur.

Q.215 Avez-vous rempli vos formules?

A.215 Oui, monsieur.

Q.216 Et vous êtes... et à vos formules il a ajouté le certificat du Dr. Poulin?

A.216 Oui, monsieur.

Q.217 Est-il allé avec vous pour subir l'examen?

A.217 Non, monsieur.

Q.219 En sortant de là, est-ce qu'on vous a dit immédiatement au bureau des examinateurs que vous deviez subir un examen chez le Dr. Miller?

A.219 C'est monsieur Hamel.

Q.220 En sortant de là, Hamel vous a dit qu'il fallait que vous subissiez un autre examen chez le Dr. Miller?

A.220 Oui, monsieur, à 3 h. ou 3 h. 15.

Q.221 Vous êtes allé chez le Dr. Miller?

A.221 Oui, monsieur.

Q.222 Et ensuite vous êtes allé à Montmagny?

A.222 Oui, monsieur, le lundi.

Q.223 Et là, après un certain délai, vous avez reçu une nouvelle?

A.223 Je suis venu passer un 'board'.

Q.224 Un nouvel examen chez le Dr. Miller?

A.224 Devant trois médecins, et je suis retourné à Montmagny.

Q.225 Et ensuite de cela, vous avez été déchargé?

A.225 Oui, monsieur.

Q.226 Et après que toute cette procédure a été faite, vous êtes revenu à Québec et vous vouliez voir monsieur Hamel?

A.226 Oui, monsieur.

Q.227 Pourquoi vouliez-vous le voir?

A.227 Pour le remercier de ses services et pour le récompenser.

Q.228 Et vous avez demandé son adresse?

A.228 Oui, monsieur.

Q.229 Vous vous êtes rendu chez lui et comme question de fait, je crois qu'il n'y était pas quand vous êtes arrivé?

A.229 Justement; je l'ai attendu.

Q.230 Et quand il est arrivé, vous avez pris quatre billet de dix dollars?

A.230 Oui, monsieur.

Q.231 Et vous les avez déposés sur une tablette ou un petit meuble qu'il y avait là?

A.231 Oui, monsieur.

Q.232 N'est-il pas vrai qu'il a d'abord refusé de les prendre?

A.232 Oui; il m'a dit: "Vous ne me devez rien."

Q.233 Il vous a dit: "Vous ne me devez rien"?

A.233 Oui, monsieur.

Q.234 Et "Donnez ça à d'autres, pas à moi"?

A.234 Justement, oui.

Q.235 Et vous avez insisté pour les laisser là?

A.235 Oui, monsieur.

Q.236 Et quand vous êtes parti, les quarante piastres étaient encore sur le petit meuble?

A.236 Oui, monsieur.

Interrogé de nouveau par le procureur.

Q.237 Est-ce que Hamel vous a retourné ces quarante dollars?

A.237 Non, monsieur.

De l'avis de la Cour et du juge-avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

QUATRIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

André SAVARD, comptable, 26 ans, demeurant au numéro 509, 3ème avenue, Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.238 Monsieur Savard, je comprends que vous êtes comptable à Québec?

A.238 Oui, monsieur.

Q.239 Avez-vous eu occasion de vous présenter au bureau de recrutement, au bureau des médecins?

A.239 Oui, monsieur.

Q.240 Et voulez-vous raconter ce qui s'est passé en cette occasion?

A.240 On m'a fait remplir les formules.

Q.241 A quelle date vous êtes-vous présenté?

A.241 Le 30 septembre de cette année; on m'a fait signer la formule d'usage.

Q.242 Ensuite?

A.242 On m'a référé à un monsieur Cloutier -j'ai entendu ce nom- on m'a fait donner certaines déclarations, nom, prénoms, adresse,occupation, et j'ai signé la formule qu'on m'a présentée, ou les formules. Et ces formules ont été prises par un nommé Hamel, qui m'a conduit au Corps Médical. On m'a remis à une place...

Q.243 Ce Hamel dont vous venez de parler, le voyez-vous dans la Cour?

A.243 Oui. (Le témoin indique l'accusé Hamel)

Q.244 Ensuite?

A.244 On m'a remis à une place et j'ai attendu dans la salle du vestiaire et on a appelé mon nom et alors je me suis présenté devant les médecins et on m'a passé un examen médical.

Q.245 Où avez-vous rencontré Hamel? En haut ou en bas?

A.245 En bas.

Q.246 Avec qui, en bas?

A.246 Il était avec le personnel sur le plancher.

Q.247 A-t-il eu connaissance que vous signiez vos formules?

A.247 Je ne crois pas qu'il y était lorsque j'ai signé; j'étais en présence de Cloutier qui était le type préposé au clavigraphe qui a rempli les formules au clavigraphe, lesquelles j'ai signées en trois ou quatre copies, en quatre copies je crois.

Q.248 Et de quelle façon êtes-vous parti du bureau de recrutement en bas, pour monter en haut?

A.248 Simplement, monsieur Hamel a pris les formules, et je suis monté en haut. Il m'a remis à des gens préposés au vestiaire où je me suis déshabillé.

Q.249 Maintenant, au cours de votre voyage du bureau de recrutement au bureau des médecins, avez-vous eu une conversation avec Hamel?

A.249 Aucune.

Q.250 Vous n'avez pas parlé?

A.250 Aucunement.

Q.251 Et par la suite, qu'est-ce qui est arrivé?

A.251 J'ai passé devant le Corps Médical que je ne connaissais pas alors; j'ai passé un examen; on m'a retourné au vestiaire et on m'a rappelé une seconde fois devant une couple de médecins. Après ça, on m'a dit de m'habiller et j'ai attendu, et l'heure se passait. J'ai demandé au militaire Hamel le résultat de mon affaire. Je lui ai dit, "Le temps presse; mon patron devait partir et j'avais été rappelé à mon bureau". Alors, il est allé chercher les documents au Corps Médical et il a rempli une décharge, suivant la formule que j'avais remplie. Nous avons descendu en bas.

A.251 (suite)

Q.252 Qui a rempli la formule de décharge?

A.252 Le militaire Hamel, au clavigraphe, au troisième plancher. On est descendu en bas et il l'a transmise à d'autres que je ne connais pas.

Q.253 Et par la suite, est-ce qu'il est arrivé quelque chose?

A.253 Par la suite, lorsque je suis sorti?

Q.254 Je comprends que vous avez fini au bureau médical?

A.254 La décharge m'a été remise en me disant que dans quelques semaines je recevrais un bouton.

Q.255 Par la suite, avez-vous eu encore affaire avec Hamel?

A.255 Pas directement.

Q.256 Si ce n'est pas directement, de quelle façon avez-vous eu affaire à lui?

A.256 J'ai envoyé par malle, à monsieur Hamel, un bon de poste de $5.00 qu'il a refusé puisque j'ai été avisé qu'il l'avait détruit. Alors, j'ai fait une déclaration au bureau de poste pour être remboursé de cette somme, laquelle m'a été remboursée par un duplicata.

Q.257 Quand avez-vous été remboursé de ce montant-là?

A.257 La semaine dernière.

Q.258 Quand aviez-vous adressé ce mandat de poste?

A.258 Le 15 octobre.

Q.259 Alors, la semaine dernière, vous avez été avisé que Hamel avait détruit le bon de poste?

A.259 Oui, monsieur.

Q.260 Mais jusqu'à la semaine dernière, vous n'aviez pas eu de nouvelles?

A.260 C'est ce qu'on m'a dit. On m'a dit de faire une demande pour être remboursé.

Q.261 Avez-vous été remboursé?

A.261 Oui, par les autorités fédérales; directement d'Ottawa on m'a envoyé un duplicata.

Q.262 A votre ordre?

A.262 Oui, évidemment.

Q.263 Ca, c'est la semaine dernière?

A.263 Oui, j'ai reçu ça, voulez-vous voir le document à cet effet?

Q.264 Jusqu'à la semaine dernière, le soldat Hamel n'a jamais communiqué avec vous au sujet de ce $5.00?

A.264 Aucunement.

Q.265 Pourquoi lui avez-vous donné le $5.00?

A.265 A titre de reconnaissance personnelle - j'ai jamais été sollicité par lui de ça. Je l'ai fait de mon propre chef; j'ai jamais été sollicité directement ni indirectement, d'aucune manière que ce soit. Je l'ai fait de mon propre chef.

Q.266 Hamel lui-même vous en a-t-il demandé de l'argent?

A.266 Jamais.

Interrogé contradictoirement par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.267 Je comprends que monsieur Hamel ne vous a jamais demandé d'argent?

A.267 Non, monsieur.

Q.268 Vous ne lui en avez jamais offert avant votre examen?

A.268 Non, monsieur, jamais.

Q.269 Avant que vous passiez votre examen il n'a jamais été question d'argent entre vous et Hamel?

A.269 Jamais.

Q.270 Il n'a jamais été question d'acheter quelqu'un ou de donner de l'argent à quelqu'un?

A.270 Jamais.

Q.271 Après avoir subi ces procédures, comme Hamel vous avait piloté dans le dédale des procédures, vous lui avez envoyé $5.00 par mandat-poste?

A.271 Tout juste.

Q.272 Ce que vous savez personnellement, c'est que le $5.00 n'a jamais été entre les mains de Hamel parce que vous avez été remboursé?

A.272 Oui, monsieur.

Q.273 Avez-vous un reçu?

A.273 Oui, j'ai un document des autorités fédérales me disant qu'ils me transmettaient un duplicata du bon de poste brûlé, détruit; j'ai rempli la formule que j'ai déposée à la Banque Royale et on m'a remboursé du $5.00.

A.273 (suite)

Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger de nouveau.

Interrogé par la Cour.

Q.274 Vous avez dit tantôt que monsieur Hamel a préparé le certificat bleu; est-ce bien monsieur Hamel qui l'a fait à la machine à écrire?

A.274 Oui, monsieur.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

L'Avocat de l'accusé fait une motion d'ajournement afin de lui permettre d'étudier un document qui doit être produit par le témoin à charge suivant.

La motion est admise par la Cour.

A 5 h. de l'après-midi, le 25 novembre 1942, la Cour s'est ajournée jusqu'à 10 h. de l'avant-midi le 26 novembre 1942.

Le 26 novembre 1942, à 10 h. de l'avant-midi, la Cour se rassemble conformément à l'avis d'ajournement; sont présents les mêmes membres que lors de la suspension des débats.

PREMIER TEMOIN POUR LA POURSUITE SUR LE VOIR DIRE.

Gérard Paul Emile LECAVALIER, constable de la Gendarmerie Royale à Cheval du Canada, demeurant à 596, rue St-Jean, Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.275 Constable LeCavalier, voulez-vous dire à la Cour quelles sont vos occupations, quel est votre emploi?

A.275 Je suis membre de la Gendarmerie Royale à Cheval du Canada.

Q.276 Avez-vous rencontré l'accusé et en quelle circonstance?

A.276 J'ai rencontré l'accusé le 23 octobre 1942, au bureau de la Gendarmerie Royale.

Q.277 A votre bureau à Québec?

A.277 Oui, monsieur.

Q.278 Quel est le nom de l'accusé; voulez-vous regarder l'accusé et dire si c'est lui?

A.278 Oui, monsieur; Louis Philippe Hamel.

Q.279 A cette occasion, constable, voulez-vous raconter à la Cour ce qui s'est passé?

A.279 Louis Philippe Hamel est arrivé sous escorte au bureau. Je lui ai demandé s'il était prêt à nous donner une déclaration, de venir voir le Staff Sergeant Desrosiers avec moi en bas. Après plusieurs questions que le Sergent Desrosiers lui a posées, quelques minutes après, le Staff Sergeant a été obligé de s'absenter et il a dit "Donc, LeCavalier, tu vas prendre la déclaration, si Louis Philippe Hamel consent à la donner".-

J'ai commencé à prendre la déclaration. Vers 11 heures et demie à peu près, j'ai demandé à Louis Philippe Hamel de venir diner avec moi. Nécessairement, je lui ai donné la mise-en-garde au début.

Q.280 Quelle est la nature de la mise-en-garde que vous lui avez donnée au début?

A.280 "Vous êtes obligé de rien dire; vous n'avez rien à espérer d'aucune promesse ou faveur; rien à craindre d'aucune menace, que vous disiez quelque chose ou non, mais tout ce que vous direz peut servir de preuve."

Q.281 Est-ce la mise-en-garde que vous avez donnée à cette occasion?

A.281 Oui, monsieur.

Q.282 Quelles sont les promesses que vous lui avez faites à cette occasion?

A.282 Aucune.

Q.283 Quelles sont les menaces que vous lui avez faites?

A.283 Aucune.

Q.284 Et après cette mise-en-garde qu'est-ce qui s'est passé?

A.284 Là, il m'a conté toute son histoire; là, je lui ai dit; "Maintenant, si tu n'as pas d'objection, je vais prendre ça en écrit."Quand certaines choses n'étaient pas claires, à mon point de vue, je le questionnais pour faire suivre l'histoire. Quand tout était terminé, Louis Philippe Hamel a lu la déclaration et l'a signée.

Q.285 Je comprends bien que c'est vous qui l'avez écrite et que c'est Hamel lui-même qui l'a relue?

A.285 Oui, monsieur.

Q.286 Et après l'avoir lue, il l'a signée?

A.286 Oui, monsieur, et initialéles pages, les premières pages.

Q.287 Lorsque vous avez donné la mise-en-garde à l'accusé, est-ce qu'il y avait d'autres personnes présentes?

A.287 Non, j'étais seul.

Q.288 Avez-vous été seul avec l'accusé pendant toute la déclaration?

A.288 Oui, monsieur.

Q.289 Voulez-vous prendre connaissance de cette déclaration et dire si c'est celle dont il a été mention au cours de votre témoignage?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour;

Si mon confrère le permet, je crois que sur le voir-dire, il serait important que la déclaration soit produite afin qu'on sache en quelles termes elle est faite. La Cour pourrait en prendre connaissance. Je comprends qu'elle n'est pas en preuve, mais je crois qu'il a été décidé assez souvent, dans les questions d'aveux, que la façon que l'aveu est fait est un élément dont la Cour doit prendre connaissance, pour savoir si l'aveu est fait volontairement et librement; il peut y avoir dans la déclaration des expressions qui seraient à l'effet qu'ils l'ont forcé de faire la déclaration; à tout évènement, de quelle façon la déclaration est faite.

Le Juge-Avocat;

Jusqu'à maintenant, la poursuite s'est bornée à faire identifier le document; vous êtes en contre-interrogatoire, et si vous, comme avocat de la défense, vous jugez à propos de prendre la responsabilité de faire produire la déclaration sur voir-dire, cela sera la responsabilité de la défense.

Interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.290 Monsieur LeCavalier, vous êtes membre de la Gendarmerie Royale du Canada?

A.290 Oui, monsieur.

Q.291 Le 24 octobre 1942, Hamel a été conduit sous escorte à votre bureau?

A.291 Pardon, le 23 octobre.

Q.292 Au bureau de la Gendarmerie?

A.292 Oui, monsieur.

Q.293 Savez-vous d'où il venait?

A.293 Je ne le sais pas d'où il venait.

Q.294 Mais vous saviez qu'il n'était pas libre?

A.294 Je savais qu'il n'était pas libre.

Q.295 Il était sous escorte?

A.295 Oui, monsieur.

Q.296 Est-ce que vous l'aviez fait demander?

A.296 C'était mon supérieur qui m'a dit le matin que Louis Philippe Hamel viendrait au bureau.

Q.297 Vous aviez été informé par votre supérieur que Louis Philippe Hamel irait au bureau?

A.297 Oui, monsieur.

Q.298 Quel était votre supérieur?

A.298 Dans le cas actuel, dans cette enquête, c'était le Staff Sergeant DesRosiers.

Q.299 Le Staff Sergeant DesRosiers vous a informé que Hamel viendrait au bureau?

A.299 Oui, monsieur.

Q.300 Aviez-vous vu Hamel auparavant?

A.300 Non, monsieur; je n'avais pas vu Hamel auparavant.

Q.301 Etait-il à votre connaissance qu'auparavant Hamel avait déjà fait une déclaration?

A.301 J'avais vu une déclaration de Louis Philippe Hamel.

Q.302 Vous aviez vu auparavant une déclaration de Louis Philippe Hamel?

A.302 Oui, monsieur.

Q.303 Faite devant qui?

A.303 Je ne puis pas dire au juste; je crois que c'est devant le Colonel Jules Mercier.

Q.304 Savez-vous depuis combien de temps datait cette déclaration antérieure?

A.304 Non, je ne puis pas vous dire.

Q.305 Lorsque Hamel est arrivé à votre bureau, vous aviez pris connaissance de la déclaration antérieure faite, au meilleur de votre souvenir, devant le Colonel Mercier?

A.305 Oui, monsieur.

Q.306 Et vous saviez ce dont il s'agissait dans cette déclaration?

A.306 A peu près.

Q.307 La déclaration de Hamel, dont vous aviez pris connaissance, faite selon votre souvenir devant le Colonel Mercier, était-elle signée par Hamel?

A.307 Je ne puis pas vous dire.

Q.308 L'aviez-vous entre les mains?

A.308 La déclaration?

Q.309 Celle faite devant le Colonel Mercier, l'aviez-vous entre les mains lorsque Hamel est arrivé pour vous voir?

A.309 Non, je ne l'avais pas.

Q.310 Quand en aviez-vous pris connaissance?

A.310 La veille ou l'avant-veille, je ne sais pas exactement.

Q.311 Qui vous l'avait communiquée?

A.311 C'est le 'Staff Serjeant' Desrosiers.

Q.312 Et le 'Staff Serjeant' Desrosiers l'avait gardée?

A,312 Oui, monsieur.

Q.313 Lorsque Hamel est arrivé sous escorte, c'est vous le premier officier de la Gendarmerie qu'il a vu?

A.313 C'est le type du "Orderly Room". Il a dit: "Je crois que c'est un type pour vous autres". Je lui ai demandé si c'était Louis-Philippe Hamel et il m'a répondu que oui.

Q.314 Il est entré dans votre bureau, et à ce moment-là, il y avait Desrosiers et vous, ou est-ce que vous étiez seul?

A.314 Peut-être dans le passage; quand il est arrivé, j'étais dans le passage.

Q.315 Vous étiez seul avec lui et l'escorte?

A.315 Oui, monsieur.

Q.316 Après avoir identifié Hamel comme étant Louis-Philippe Hamel, il est entré dans le bureau?

A.316 Je suis allé dire au 'Staff Serjeant' que Louis-Philippe Hamel était arrivé et je lui ai demandé: "Est-ce que c'est le temps de le descendre?" Et il a dit: "Oui".

Q.317 Saviez-vous pourquoi Louis Philippe Hamel se rendait à votre bureau?

A.317 Parce que M. DesRosiers m'avait dit qu'il voulait faire une déclaration, que Louis Philippe Hamel voulait faire une déclaration.

Q.318 Vous étiez informé qu'il voulait faire une déclaration?

A.318 Quelquechose semblable à ça, je ne puis dire les mots précis.

Q.319 Voulez-vous tâcher de rappeler vos souvenirs; pourriez-vous dire ce dont vous avez été informé; était-ce qu'il voulait faire une déclaration ou si vous alliez prendre une déclaration?

A.319 "Voulait faire une déclaration" ou "avait une déclaration à faire". Il y a un mois que ces choses-là se sont passées.

Q.320 Je comprends, et je ne vous fais aucun reproche, constable. Il est alors entré dans votre bureau?

A.320 Oui, monsieur.

Q.321 Et à ce moment-là, il y avait vous et DesRosiers?

A.321 Oui, monsieur.

Q.322 Après être entré dans le bureau, qu'est-ce qui s'est dit?

A.322 Le Staff Sergeant DesRosiers a dit: "C'est toi, Louis Philippe Hamel?" Et il a dit: "Oui". Là, il s'est assis et s'est mis à conter son histoire d'un bout à l'autre.

Q.323 Là, il s'est assis et a conté son histoire d'un bout à l'autre. Est-ce que l'histoire qu'il a contée à ce moment-là était à peu près en susbstance la même que celle que vous avez reproduite dans la déclaration?

A.323 Oui, j'ai pris des notes.

Q.324 A ce moment-là, le Staff Sergeant DesRosiers se trouvait dans la salle avec vous?

A.324 Oui, monsieur.

Q.325 Après qu'il eût conté toute son histoire, qu'est-ce qui s'est passé?

A.325 Après qu'il eût conté toute son histoire, j'ai dit: "tu n'es pas obligé de le dire".

Q.326 Après qu'il eût conté toute son histoire, vous lui avez dit qu'il n'était pas obligé de la dire?

A.326 Je lui ai dit: "Je dois te donner une mise-en-garde avant de la prendre en écrit."

Q.327 A ce moment-là, il l'avait donnée, son histoire, verbalement devant deux constables?

A.327 Oui, monsieur.

Q.328 Il l'avait donnée verbalement avant d'avoir eu une mise en garde?

A.328 La mise en garde, il l'a eue au début, "tu n'es pas obligé de rien dire".

Q.329 Si je comprends bien votre témoignage, et je ne veux pas vous prendre par surprise, ce que j'ai compris tout à l'heure dans votre témoignage, c'est que Hamel est entré, DesRosiers lui a demandé son nom, Hamel s'est assis et Hamel a commencé à raconter son histoire; c'est ce que vous m'avez dit?

A.329 Oui, monsieur.

Q.330 Alors, il n'a pas été question de mise en garde à ce moment?

A.330 Pas de mise en garde directe.

Q.331 Il a raconté toute son histoire, et après avoir raconté toute son histoire, là, la mise en garde est arrivée. Là, la mise en garde est arrivée pour l'écrit?

A.331 Oui, monsieur.

Q.332 Et à ce moment-là, DesRosiers était sorti depuis combien de temps à peu près?

A.332 Une demi-heure à peu près, peut-être.

Q.333 Alors, avez-vous commencé à prendre la déposition par écrit alors que DesRosiers se trouvait là?

A.333 Non, monsieur.

Q.334 Alors, qu'est-ce qui s'est passé entre le moment où la mise en garde lui a été donnée après sa déclaration et le moment que vous avez commencé à écrire; qu'est-ce qui s'est passé pendant la demi-heure?

A.334 Voulez-vous répéter?

Q.335 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé entre le moment où DesRosiers l'a mis en garde après sa déclaration verbale et le moment où vous-même vous avez commencé à prendre sa déposition par écrit?

A.335 Après que le Staff a été parti ou avant? Durant que le Staff était là...

Q.336 Vous me dites que quand vous avez commencé à écrire, DesRosiers n'y était pas?

A.336 Non.

Q.337 Vous me dites qu'après la déclaration verbale, le sergent DesRosiers l'a mis en garde au sujet de la déclaration écrite?

A.337 Ce n'est pas le sergent DesRosiers, c'est moi.

Q.338 En présence du Sergent DesRosiers?

A.338 Non, seul.

Q.339 Alors, après sa déclaration verbale, qu'est-ce que le Sergent DesRosiers a fait?

A.339 Il s'est absenté.

Q.340 Il s'est absenté alors?

A.340 Oui, monsieur.

Q.341 Ce que vous voulez me dire probablement, c'est que la déclaration verbale de Hamel a duré environ une demi-heure?

A.341 A peu près.

Q.342 Dans le courant de la déclaration verbale, est-ce que vous avez eu occasion de poser des questions?

A.342 Moi-même, oui.

Q.343 Le Sergent DesRosiers?

A.343 Le Sergent DesRosiers a posé des questions.

Q.344 Pendant la première déclaration verbale?

A.344 Oui, monsieur.

Q.345 Et il a répondu à ces questions-là?

A.345 Oui, monsieur.

Q.346 Est-ce que dans la déclaration verbale, à un certain moment, dans le cours de sa déclaration, soit au début, soit au milieu, soit à la fin, Hamel a dit qu'il faisait sa déclaration dans le but d'être libéré le plus tôt possible?

A.346 Il a dit qu'il voulait tout dévoiler pour se clairer le plus tôt possible, pour que tout soit fini le plus tôt possible.

Q.347 Cela, c'est dans la déclaration verbale?

A.347 Oui, monsieur.

Q.348 Après avoir fait la déclaration verbale, le Sergent DesRosiers est parti, et là, vous lui avez demandé s'il avait objection à ce que ça soit pris par écrit?

A.348 Oui, monsieur.

Q.349 Et là, vous lui avez lu la mise en garde?

A.349 Oui, monsieur.

Q.350 Ca faisait combien de temps à peu près qu'il était chez vous, en votre présence, quand vous lui avez lu la mise en garde?

A.350 Environ une heure, je pourrais dire.

Q.351 Ca faisait environ une heure que vous parliez, que vous conversiez avec lui quand vous lui avez lu la mise en garde?

A.351 A peu près.

Q.352 Et la mise en garde que vous lui avez lue, c'est celle dont vous nous avez donné connaissance tout à l'heure?

A.352 Oui, monsieur.

Q.353 Vous avez commencé à prendre sa déposition?

A.353 Oui, monsieur.

Q.354 Vous l'écriviez à la longue main?

A.354 Oui, monsieur.

Q.355 Et de temps en temps vous lui posiez des questions pour éclaircir certains points?

A.355 Oui, monsieur.

Q.356 Et à un certain moment l'heure du midi est arrivée?

A.356 Oui, monsieur.

Q.357 Est-ce que pendant que vous le questionniez et que vous preniez sa déposition, les escortes étaient dans la salle?

A.357 Non, monsieur.

Q.358 Alors, l'heure du diner étant arrivée, vous avez décidé de l'amener diner avec vous?

A.358 Oui, monsieur.

Q.359 Les escortes aussi?

A.359 Non, monsieur; seul avec moi.

Q.360 Pourquoi?

A.360 Parce que nous faisons diner tous nos prisonniers.

Q.361 Est-ce que vous allez dîner avec tous les prisonniers que vous avez?

A.361 Généralement on n'a jamais assez de prisonniers, un ou deux.

Q.362 Est-ce que cela arrive souvent, constable, que vous alliez prendre des repas comme ça avec les prisonniers?

A.362 Oui, souvent.

Q.363 Où allez-vous? Où êtes-vous allé dîner?

A.363 Au Restaurant Jos. Coté, coin des rues Cartier et St-Jean.

Q.364 Qui a payé le dîner?

A.364 C'est moi-même; c'est-à-dire que j'ai mis ça sur mon compte de dépenses après.

Q.365 Vous avez payé le dîner?

A.365 Oui, monsieur.

Q.366 Pendant le dîner, avez-vous parlé de la cause?

A.366 Pas à ma connaissance; peut-être quelques mots, mais très peu.

Q.367 Avez-vous averti les escortes que vous le preniez sous vos charges?

A.367 Oui, monsieur.

Q.368 Les escortes sont retournées manger à la Citadelle?

A.368 Je ne sais pas où elles sont allées.

Q.369 Vous n'avez pas payé le dîner des escortes?

A.369 Non, monsieur.

Q.370 Vous étiez en bons termes pendant le repas avec Hamel?

A.370 En très bons termes.

Q.371 La conversation a été cordiale?

A.371 Très, oui.

Q.372 Et de temps en temps, vous glissiez un mot sur le sujet de la cause, - peu, mais de temps en temps?

A.372 Très peu.

Q.373 Alors, de temps en temps c'est très peu?

A.373 Oui, monsieur.

Q.374 Et après le repas, vous êtes retourné continuer la déclaration?

A.374 Immédiatement après.

Q.375 Quelle partie de la déclaration y avait-il de faite à peu près avant le dîner?

A.375 Un paragraphe ou deux paragraphes.

Q.376 Et vous avez continué après?

A.376 Oui, monsieur.

Q.377 Est-ce que ça été plus vite après dîner?

A.377 Pas plus, parce que souvent il disait des choses qui n'étaient pas au point - ça allait trop vite pour l'histoire. Et je lui disais de ne pas aller trop vite, de revenir sur ces points-là.

Q.378 A la fin de sa déclaration écrite, il a répété encore devant vous, et vous l'avez pris par écrit, qu'il faisait sa déclaration dans le but --celle qu'il vous avait faite dans sa déclaration orale et qu'il consentait à signer-- dans le but que tout soit éclairci le plus tôt possible "afin que je sois libre le plus tôt possible" ?

A.378 Oui, monsieur.

Ré-interrogé par le procureur:

Q.378a Lorsque le 'Staff Sgt.' Desrosiers était présent, et avant que Hamel commence à raconter son histoire, est-ce que le 'Staff' Desrosiers lui a dit qu'il était obligé de parler ou s'il lui a fait des..."

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.379 Qu'est-ce que le 'Staff' Desrosiers a dit à Hamel avant qu'Hamel commence à raconter son histoire, à votre connaissance personnelle?

A.379 C'est assez difficile de dire les mots exacts. Je sais qu'il a été question de ça: "Hamel", a dit le sergent, "tu es au courant de tout ce qui s'est passé à 322, rue St-Jean, dans le Corps Médical," quelque chose qui avait trait à Hamel, et Hamel a dit: "Oui", et c'est là qu'il a raconté toute son histoire.

Q.379a Quel avertissement le Staff Desrosiers a-t-il donné à ce moment-là?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la forme de la question.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.380 Est-ce qu'un avertissement a été donné par le 'Staff' Desrosiers?

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse au témoin:

" ...à votre connaissance personnelle."

A.380 Je ne peux pas l'affirmer.

L'avocat de l'accusé demande à la Cour, en vertu de la règle de procédure 85 (B) de faire préciser le point suivant par le témoin:

"Le témoin, en réponse à mon confrère, a dit que lorsque Hamel était entré, Desrosiers lui a demandé son nom, qu'il s'est assis et qu'il a commencé à raconter son histoire. En réponse à mon savant ami, il a ajouté qu'après avoir fait asseoir Hamel probablement, Desrosiers lui a dit: "Tu connais ce qui se passe au bureau, rue St-Jean". Alors, je veux savoir à quel moment il lui a dit ça: "Tu connais ce qui se passe sur la rue St-Jean?".

Le procureur s'adresse à la Cour, en réponse à la demande de l'avocat de l'accusé:

" Le témoin a dit à un moment donné dans son témoignage que Desrosiers lui avait dit qu'il n'était pas obligé de parler. Si on veut discuter cela, je demanderais que le témoin sorte."

L'avocat de l'accusé demande à la Cour la permission de retirer la question afin de ne pas prolonger les débats.

La Cour permet à l'avocat de l'accusé de retirer la question.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

DEUXIEME TEMOIN
POUR LA POURSUITE
SUR LE VOIR DIRE

'Staff Serjeant' Joseph-Ernest DESROSIERS, de la Gendarmerie Royale du Canada, 596, rue St-Jean, Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le procureur:

Q.381 'Staff' Desrosiers, je comprends que vous êtes au bureau de la Gendarmerie Royale du Canada à Québec?

A.381 Oui, monsieur.

Q.382 Avez-vous eu occasion de rencontrer l'accusé Hamel?

A.382 Oui, monsieur.

Q.383 Avez-vous eu occasion de rencontrer l'accusé Hamel et vous souvenez-vous de la date?

A.383 Je pense le 23 octobre 1942.

Q.384 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour ce qui s'est passé à cette occasion?

A.384 Hamel est arrivé, si je comprends bien, sous escorte. Il est descendu en bas où j'étais, avec le constable Lecavalier, et je lui ai demandé ce qu'il connaissait dans le cas du 'racket' qui existait au bureau de recrutement. Il m'a répondu: "Je suis venu ici pour vous dire tout ce que je connais dans ce cas", ou des mots semblables. Je lui ai posé des questions et il m'a répondu; et à un moment donné, j'ai reçu un téléphone et je fus obligé de le laisser avec le constable LeCavalier parce que j'étais appelé.

Q.385 Avez-vous à cette occasion fait une mise en garde à l'accusé?

A.385 Je ne me rappelle pas; je ne voudrais pas assermenter que j'en ai faite une, mais il me semble que j'en ai faite une avant de partir.

Q.386 Avant qu'il commence à parler de son histoire?

A.386 Non, monsieur.

Q.387 L'avez-vous pressé de répondre aux questions?

A.387 Non, monsieur.

Q.388 Lui avez-vous fait quelques menaces?

A.388 Je n'ai fait aucune promesse ni menace.

Q.388a Alors, si je comprends bien, avant que vous puissiez faire aucune mise en garde...

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la forme de la question.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.388b Alors, en arrivant, Hamel est le premier qui a parlé?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question pour la raison qu'elle est suggestive.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.389 Qui est le premier qui a parlé lorsque vous avez vu Hamel?

A.389 C'est moi.

Q.390 Qu'est-ce que vous avez dit?

A.390 Je lui ai demandé ce qui était arrivé au bureau de recrutement.

Q.391 Et immédiatement c'est là qu'il a raconté cela?

A.391 Oui, monsieur.

Interrogé contradictoirement par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.392 Monsieur DesRosiers, vous saviez que Hamel devait venir ce matin-là au bureau de la Police Montée?

A.392 Oui, monsieur.

Q.393 Comment le saviez-vous, l'aviez-vous fait demander?

A.393 Je crois que oui.

Q.394 Vous étiez à ce moment-là, en charge de l'enquête que la Gendarmerie Royale conduisait dans cette affaire-ci?

A.394 Oui, monsieur.

Q.395 Aviez-vous déjà vu Hamel?

A.395 Non, monsieur.

Q.396 Etait-il à votre connaissance que Hamel avait déjà fait une déclaration, pour être plus précis, devant le Colonel Mercier?

A.396 Je ne m'en rappelle pas.

Q.397 Est-ce que vous n'aviez pas en mains une déclaration de Hamel faite devant le Colonel Mercier?

A.397 Non.

Q.398 Et n'aviez-vous pas communiqué la veille au constable LeCavalier une déclaration de Hamel faite devant le Colonel Mercier et dont le constable LeCavalier a pris connaissance, et qu'il vous a laissée entre les mains?

A.398 Pas que je me rappelle.

Q.399 A tout évènement, vous saviez que Hamel était sous arrêts?

A.399 Oui, monsieur.

Q.400 A qui vous étiez-vous adressé pour le faire descendre?

A.400 Il est tout probable que c'est le Colonel Mercier.

Q.401 Quand Hamel est entré dans votre bureau, vous ne l'aviez jamais vu, vous lui avez demandé son nom probablement ou quelqu'un vous a dit que c'était Hamel?

A.401 Si je me rappelle, je savais qu'il devait descendre au bureau et il se peut que je lui aie demandé son nom.

Q.402 Immédiatement après lui avoir demandé son nom, vous lui avez demandé ce qu'il connaissait; voulez-vous me répondre?

A.402 Je ne me rappelle pas au juste des mots. Ce qu'il connaissait de l'histoire, de raconter ce qui existait au bureau de recrutement.

Q.403 C'était l'affaire sur laquelle vous enquêtiez?

A.403 Oui, monsieur.

Q.404 Et là, il a commencé à parler?

A.404 Oui, monsieur.

Q.405 Vous lui avez posé des questions?

A.405 Oui, monsieur.

Q.406 Pourquoi lui posiez-vous des questions?

A.406 Sur certains faits qu'il connaissait.

Q.407 Est-ce que vous ne lui posiez pas aussi des questions pour faire confirmer certaines informations que vous aviez, vous?

A.407 Il est tout probable.

Q.408 C'est-à-dire que vous lui posiez des questions pour compléter votre enquête?

A.408 Oui, absolument.

Q.409 Et cela a duré combien de temps?

A.409 Ah, peut-être une demi-heure.

Q.410 Après cela, vous vous êtes...

A.410 Je me suis retiré.

Q.411 Et vous n'avez pas pris connaissance, vous, de la façon dont la déclaration écrite a été faite devant LeCavalier?

A.411 Non, monsieur.
Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger de nouveau.
Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat.

Q.412 Afin d'éclairer ma religion et pour plus de certitude; j'ai cru comprendre que ce que Hamel vous aurait dit au début de tout, c'est: "Je suis venu ici pour dire ce que je connais dans ce cas-là."?

A.412 Oui, monsieur.

Q.413 Est-ce que cela a été le commencement de la conversation entre vous et Hamel?

A.413 Oui, monsieur.

Q.414 Est-ce que d'autre chose a été dite auparavant?

A.414 Non, rien du tout.

L'avocat de l'accusé demande à la Cour, en vertu de la règle de procédure 85(B) de poser la question suivante au témoin (Q.415).

Q.415 Lorsque l'accusé Hamel est entré dans votre bureau, vous nous dites en réponse à une question du Juge-Avocat, qu'il "est venu ici pour dire ce qu'il connaissait de l'histoire". Maintenant, la défense voudrait savoir quand vous avez posé la question: "Qu'est-ce que tu connais de l'histoire?" Est-ce après ça, ou avant?

A.415 Justement avant.

Le Procureur demande à la Cour de prendre note qu'il s'agit toujours de l'enquête au bureau de recrutement.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

PREMIER TEMOIN
DE L'ACCUSE
SUR LE VOIR DIRE.

Major Louis G. Lacasse, Officier-commandant de la Compagnie No.5, Corps Médical de l'Armée Canadienne, A.C., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.416 Major, vous étiez le commandant de l'accusé au mois d'octobre dernier?

A.416 Oui, monsieur.

Q.417 Voulez-vous me dire, si vous pouvez nous le dire, à quelle date l'accusé a été arrêté et mis en détention?

A.417 Exactement le 20 octobre 1942.

Q.418 Il était encore en détention le 23 octobre?

A.418 Oui, monsieur. Il y a une distinction entre détention et "sous arrêt de rigueur".

Q.419 Il était sous arrêt de rigueur?

A.419 Oui, monsieur.

Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger le témoin contradictoirement.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

Le Procureur s'adresse à la Cour pour faire une motion à l'effet que les aveux de l'accusé devraient être admis en preuve.

La poursuite soumet que les aveux faits par l'accusé, lors de sa visite le 23 octobre 1942, sont admissibles, en preuve, parce que faits librement et volontairement. Si la Cour réfère au Manuel de Droit Militaire, page 91, paragraphe 78, elle y trouvera comme guide le résumé des autorités sur la façon dont les admissions doivent être faites pour être admises en preuve.

La poursuite soumet qu'elle a prouvé devant cette Cour que l'accusé a parlé librement, volontairement, sans aucune crainte de menaces et sans aucune promesse de faveur.

L'accusé aurait été 12 heures, 14 heures, 16 heures avant de faire une première déclaration, un premier aveu, si on fait une mise en garde avant qu'il fasse cet aveu, l'admission faite par l'accusé est admissible en preuve.

Dans le cas du présent accusé, il se rend chez la Police Montée, il est prisonnier, c'est vrai, la Police Montée nous explique qu'ils lui ont encore posé quelques questions, c'est encore vrai, questions qui lui ont été posées pour élucider certaines ambiguités dans son témoignage, tel que mentionné au paragraphe 7, à la page 92 du Manuel de Droit Militaire.

L'accusé, lorsqu'on lui demande ce qu'il connait de l'histoire au bureau de recrutement, de l'enquête au bureau de recrutement, répond; je suis venu ici pour tout dire. Ce n'est pas la situation d'un homme qu'on force à parler; si lui, l'accusé, lors de son arrivée chez la police montée, avait pris l'attitude de ne pas répondre aux questions, il n'aurait certainement pas donné au Staff Sgt. DesRosiers la réponse: "je suis venu ici pour tout dire et j'ai l'intention de tout dire". Les deux témoins entendus disent qu'il a parlé, qu'il a compté toute son histoire, que quelques questions lui ont été posées et qu'il a répondu mais que ces questions lui ont été posées pour éclairer certains points que l'accusé n'avait pas donnés et qui laissaient ambiguité.

Je réfère la Cour à Archbold's "Criminal Pleading Evidence and Practice", 30ème édition, page 393, au bas de la page et au haut de la page 394, dont je ferai lecture à la Cour:

"Rex -vs- Brown"

"In Rex v. Brown, 68 J.P.15, on a trial for murder, the prosecutor proposed to put in evidence answers given by one of the prisoners, a soldier, to a commanding officer of military police. Their officer had come to the barracks of the prisoner's regiment, and a parade of the regiment was ordered. The prisoner was arrested and taken to the guard-room, where the officer asked him certain questions at the suggestion of the superintendent of the police. After the prisoner had answered a few questions, the superintendent of the police stopped the officer from asking more, and arrested the prisoner. Wills, J. held the answers were admissible, as the officer had held out no threat or inducement, and there was no compulsion, and nothing to force the prisoner into a position in which he would be likely to make an untruthful answer.

J'ajouterai comme référence le dernier paragraphe de l'article 78, du Chapitre VI, du Manuel de Droit Militaire (pp. 92, 93), où, après avoir parlé des précautions qu'on doit prendre, avant de produire les aveux d'un accusé, ajoute:

"...but the better view appears to be that a statement is in law admissible notwithstanding non-observance of the rules, if the prosecution satisfy the court that it was not in fact induced by any fear of prejudice or hope of advantage as explained in the preceding paragraphs."

Il est clairement démontré devant cette Cour que l'accusé n'a pas fait de déclaration sous le coup de menaces ou de promesses, que l'accusé a lui-même dit: "je veux faire mes déclarations pour en finir". C'était son affaire, mais ce n'est pas la Police qui lui a dit: "Si tu parles on va te finir plus vite; tu vas être libre plus vite." Il n'y a aucune preuve de cela et il n'y a eu aucune promesse à cet effet-là.

Mon confrère, Me Boisvert, me fait remarquer que la plupart des admissions faites par des accusés sont faites par les accusés dans l'intention d'aider la justice et d'éluder le point.

Plaidoierie de l'avocat de l'accusé sur la motion de la poursuite sur l'admissibilité des aveux.

Sur cette question de l'admisibilité des aveux, il y a des principes sur lesquels tout le monde devrait s'entendre. C'est à la poursuite à prouver que les aveux sont libres et volontaires et c'est elle qui doit décharger ce fardeau; cela veut dire que si il y a dans l'esprit de la Cour un doute sur la liberté de la confession, ce doute doit être interprété en faveur de l'accusé et pour le rejet de la confession.

Mon savant ami a lu des articles de la loi militaire qui concernent les confessions. J'attire l'attention également de la Cour sur cette même page 92, du M.M.L., aux paragraphes 2,3 et 4 de l'article 78, lesquels disent:

(2) Whenever a police officer has made up his mind to charge a person with a crime, he should first caution such person before asking any questions or any further questions, as the case may be.

(3) Persons in custody should not be questioned without the usual caution being first administered.

(4) If the prisoner wishes to volunteer any statement, the usual caution should be administered.
It is desirable that the last two words of the usual caution should be omitted, and that the caution should end with the words "be given in evidence".

Ceci est la règle. Maintenant, quelle est la preuve qui a été faite?

Vous avez devant vous un accusé qui est à ce moment-là accusé et qui est détenu. On le fait demander devant des personnes "in authority"; de cela il n'y a pas de doute. On le fait demander -ça ce n'est pas en preuve, et c'est peut-être pas nécessaire que ça soit en preuve, mais évidemment pour quelque chose. Evidemment pour lui demander et lui faire faire une déclaration, puisque dès qu'il arrive devant le Staff Sgt. DesRosiers, la première chose qu'on lui demande est: "Qu'est-ce que tu connais?" Je dis que c'est là la première irrégularité.

Je crois qu'il faut dire premièrement, lorsqu'une personne est détenue et accusée, il y a là un premier 'inducement' pour elle à parler ou en accuser d'autres -cela n'est pas libre; deuxièmement, lorsque cette personne-là parle devant une personne en autorité, qui a le pouvoir de la détenir, ou qui a le pouvoir de lui donner sa liberté, c'est un second "inducement" à parler. Troisièmement, lorsque cette personne en autorité lui pose des questions, c'est un troisième "inducement" à parler. Et c'est pour cela que la règle dit qu'aucune question ne doit être posée à un accusé sans le mettre en garde et qu'on ne doit pas non plus accepter une déclaration d'un accusé avant qu'on le mette en garde et qu'on lui dise qu'il n'est pas obligé de parler.

Je soumets donc que la déclaration faite au Staff Sgt. DesRosiers n'est pas admissible, et mon savant ami répondra que ce n'est pas exactement de celle-là dont il s'agit mais de la seconde.

Je soumets respectueusement que quand l'accusé a fait une première confession ou une première déclaration, et d'après la preuve qu'on vient de faire elle est identique à celle qu'on veut produire, je soumets que cette première déclaration est entachée d'illégalité et étant entachée d'illégalité, les autres le sont également, et je me permets de citer à la Cour les autorités suivantes: Rex -vs- Doherty, 13, Cox Criminal Cases, page 23; Roscoe Criminal Edition, 15ème édition, pp 46 et 47; Russel on Crime, 7ème édition, pp 20 et 21; Regina -vs- Thompson, 1893, C.Q.B., page 12.

La Cour n'acceptera peut-être pas la jurisprudence canadienne?

Le Juge-Avocat;

"La Cour l'acceptera si elle est basée sur des textes identiques."

L'avocat de l'accusé continue.

Toute notre jurisprudence ne peut être basée que sur le droit commun anglais; nous n'avons rien dans notre code sur l'admissibilité des aveux, aucun article. Ce qui regarde la liberté d'un aveu, c'est essentiellement du droit commun anglais. Si la Cour me permet de citer des décisions canadiennes qui ratifient les décisions anglaises, je citerai Rex -vs- Kong, 24 CCC, p.142; Rex -vs- Miles, 40 C.C.C., p.84; Rex -vs- Young, 10 C.C.C., p.466.

Je ne sais pas si la Cour pourra en prendre connaissance, mais si mon savant ami y consentirait, j'ai ici la décision de la Cour d'Appel de Québec dans la cause du Roi -vs- Phillips. J'ai ici des notes du juge. Dans cette cause, il y a deux confessions.

Le Juge-Avocat demande à l'avocat de l'accusé si cette cause n'est pas rapportée, et ce dernier répond qu'elle n'est pas rapportée.

L'avocat de l'accusé continue.

Je crois qu'il y a deux causes, une est rapportée et l'autre ne l'est pas. Dans cette cause, il y a deux confessions, la première est nettement illégale. La Couronne n'a pas voulu la produire, mais elle a voulu produire la seconde; mais on a décidé dans cette cause qu'une fois qu'un accusé s'était mis à parler devant toute personne en autorité -procédure qu'elle avait trouvée illégale- il faut qu'il continue; il ne peut plus s'arrêter. Je soumets que dans cette cause-ci, une fois que Hamel avait fait sa déclaration, sans mise en garde, en répondant aux questions du Staff DesRosiers, évidemment, il n'était pas question pour lui d'arrêter de parler, de répondre et de mettre ses déclarations par écrit.

Il y a une admission au dossier que tant devant DesRosiers que devant LeCavalier, Hamel a déclaré qu'il faisait cette déclaration: "afin que je sois libre le plus tôt possible". Alors, quel est le but? C'est de se libérer. C'est l'espoir qu'il a de se libérer en faisant une déclaration devant deux personnes en autorité alors qu'il est sous détention.

Je soumets respectueusement que je ne crois pas que la Couronne ne soit libérée du fardeau qu'elle avait de prouver hors de tout doute, que cette déclaration est libre et volontaire. Et l'examen sur voir dire devrait convaincre la Cour que cette déclaration ne peut pas être produite.

A 11 h. 15 de l'avant-midi, le 26 novembre 1942, la cour s'est ajournée jusqu'à 1 h. 30 de l'après-midi, le 26 novembre 1942.

Le 26 novembre 1942, à 1 h. 30 de l'après-midi, la cour se rassemble conformément à l'avis d'ajournement; sont présents les mêmes membres que lors de la suspension des débats.

La Cour demande au Juge-Avocat d'éclairer le tribunal sur l'admissibilité de la déclaration offerte en preuve par la poursuite.

Directives du Juge-Avocat;

" Au moment de l'ajournement, la Cour en était rendue au point où la poursuite et la défense avaient respectivement terminé la preuve de voir-dire sur la question de l'admissibilité ou non d'une déclaration écrite faite par l'accusé, laquelle a été offerte en preuve par la poursuite, déclaration signée par l'accusé et attestée par le constable Lacavalier.

" La défense et la poursuite ont cité à l'appui de leurs prétentions respectives divers textes et divers jugements dont j'ai eu l'occasion de prendre connaissance depuis l'ajournement.

" Sur le principe général, tout le monde est d'accord: que pour être admissible, la déclaration d'une personne incriminée doit être libre et volontaire. Le fardeau incombe à la poursuite d'établir que la déclaration était bien libre et volontaire.

" Lorsque l'accusé, au moment d'une déclaration, est privé de sa liberté, en état d'arrestation, il y a des règles à observer. Dans cette cause-ci, est-ce qu'il y a l'impression que les déclarations qu'il a faites ne sont pas libres et volontaires; pour interroger cette personne, il est de toute nécessité que la mise en garde régulière lui soit donnée. Sur ce principe il n'y a pas désaccord.

" Il s'agit de savoir jusqu'à quel point l'application de ce principe fera pencher la balance dans le cas qui nous occupe, dans l'espèce actuelle, le cas du prévenu Hamel.

" La Cour a pris connaissance, entre autres, des textes des causes de Rex -vs- Kong, rapportée à 24 C.C.C., page 142; Rex -vs- Miles, rapportée à 40 C.C.C., page 84, ainsi que d'autres textes. Mais ceux-ci sont particulièrement soulignés comme donnant des exemples se rapprochant beaucoup de l'espèce actuelle.

" Pour éviter une perte de temps et pour rendre les procédures aussi courtes que possible, je ne donnerai lecture que du jugé dans la cause de Rex -vs- Kong, 24 C.C.C., page 142, qui se lit comme suit:

> "When a person is in custody as a material witness and is interrogated by the Police without being cautioned and thereupon makes admissions implicating himself in the crime, his repetition of the same statement before the same officers on another occasion and after being cautioned that he is not obliged to answer but that if he does so, his statement may be used against him, will not be admitted if he was not further cautioned that his previous statements could not be used and that he need not repeat them or say anything further unless he so desired."

" La doctrine est affirmée dans ce texte et les autres textes ne sont que la répétition du même principe avec d'autres paroles, une autre phraséologie."

La Cour siège en audience privée pour étudier la question.

La Cour siège en audience publique et annonce sa décision:

" Le Tribunal admet la motion de la défense et rejette la déclaration de l'accusé."

Le Procureur demande la permission à la Cour de faire entendre un témoin, notamment, le Lieut-Colonel Jules Mercier, D.M.O., M.D. No. 5, sur voir dire pour prouver un autre aveu que l'accusé a fait dans une autre circonstance.

Le Procureur ajoute:

"Jusqu'à ce matin, lors de la transquestion de Me Rivard, je n'étais pas au courant de cette confession. De cette façon, je demande à faire entendre des témoins pour prouver cette confession et je demande comme témoin le Lieut-Colonel Jules Mercier, D.M.O., M.D. No. 5."

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour:

" Sur ce point-là, j'attire l'attention de la Cour sur la règle de procédure 76 (MML p.666). Nous étions informés par le sommaire d'évidence qu'il y aurait déclarations faites devant le constable LeCavalier, évidemment par erreur, on ne m'avait pas communiqué cette information et on m'a accordé un ajournement.

La déclaration faite devant le Colonel Mercier - nous n'en n'avons jamais été informés, ni par le sommaire d'évidence ni par aucun avis que des témoins devaient être entendus pour en faire la preuve.

Pour ma part, à moins de connaître le contenu de cette déclaration, je ne suis pas prêt à accepter la preuve ni à contre-interroger des témoins au point de vue du voir dire. "

Le Procureur fait lecture de la règle de procédure 76, M.M.L. p. 666:

"If the prosecutor intends to call a witness whose evidence is not contained in any summary or abstract of evidence given to the accused, notice of such intention shall be given to the accused a reasonable time before the witness is called, together with an abstract of his proposed evidence; and if the witness is called without such notice or abstract being given, the court shall, if the accused so desire it, either adjourn after taking the evidence of the witness, or allow the cross-examination of the witness to be postponed, and the court shall inform the accused of his right to demand such an adjournment or postponement."

Le seul droit de la défense actuellement c'est de demander, après avoir entendu les témoins, un ajournement pour transquestionner. "

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour.

" La demande que je fais est un peu différente de celle que mon savant ami suggère; peut-être pour raccourcir la procédure l'on pourrait m'accorder un court ajournement pour prendre connaissance de cette déclaration.

Si la déclaration en elle-même n'est pas une déclaration à laquelle je crois devoir m'objecter ou qu'il n'y ait pas lieu à ce que je transquestionne le témoin..."

La Cour demande à l'avocat de l'accusé s'il peut prendre connaissance de la déclaration sans que la cour ajourne.

L'avocat de l'accusé prend connaissance de la déclaration faite par l'accusé au Lieut-Colonel Jules Mercier, D.M.O., M.D. No. 5, et annonce qu'il est prêt à entendre le témoin.

PREMIER TEMOIN POUR LA POURSUITE SUR LE VOIR DIRE

Lieut-Colonel Jules Mercier, D.M.O., District Militaire No. 5, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q. 420 Connaissez-vous l'accusé?

A. 420 Oui, monsieur.

Q. 421 Voulez-vous dire à la Cour où vous l'avez rencontré?

A. 421 Je l'ai rencontré à mon bureau, monsieur.

Q. 422 Avez-vous eu affaire à l'accusé au cours du mois d'octobre?

A. 422 Oui, monsieur.

Q. 423 En quelle occasion?

A. 423 Le 19 octobre au soir, je l'ai fait venir à mon bureau.

Q. 424 Ensuite?

A. 424 Je lui ai dit que j'avais découvert des irrégularités; je ne me rappelle pas si je lui ai mentionné le samedi; à tout évènement, je lui ai fait part que j'avais découvert des irrégularités, et que je présumais qu'il pouvait être impliqué; je lui ai fait une mise en demeure, à savoir: qu'il n'était pas obligé de parler et qu'il pouvait réquérir les services d'un avocat. Il a manifesté, je ne pourrais pas dire de la joie, mais une certaine satisfaction à me déclarer certaines choses dans le sens, je crois, qu'il voulait se décharger, et je lui ai posé certaines questions, et il m'a répondu très volontiers à toutes mes questions. Après ça, je lui ai demandé s'il voulait écrire sa déclaration de sa propre main. Il a accepté, et nous l'avons envoyé dans un autre bureau, afin qu'il prépare, qu'il écrive sa déclaration lui-même. La mise en garde a été faite, pardon, que je lui ai faite, a été faite en présence du Major Kirouac, et pour la signature de sa déclaration, les témoins ont été moi-même, le Major Kirouac et le Major Lacasse.

A.424 (suite)

Q.425 L'avez-vous accompagné dans le bureau où il est allé pour écrire sa déclaration?

A.425 Je ne l'ai pas accompagné; je crois que j'y suis allé une fois le voir, et j'ai juste passé dans la chambre. Je ne suis pas resté avec lui le temps qu'il a écrit sa déclaration.

Q.426 Qui était avec lui le temps qu'il a écrit sa déclaration?

A.426 Je ne pourrais vous le dire.

Q.427 Au moment où vous questionniez Hamel, pourriez-vous nous dire si Hamel était libre ou sous arrêts?

A.427 Hamel était libre.

Q.428 Est-ce qu'il y avait une accusation de portée contre lui?

A.428 Non; parce que je poursuivais l'enquête que j'avais commencée le samedi, et je ne savais pas où j'en étais encore.

Q.429 C'est-à-dire, est-ce que vous aviez décidé de porter une accusation contre lui ou non?

A.429 Je n'avais pas encore décidé de porter une accusation contre lui.

Q.430 Pour obtenir cette déclaration, quelles sont les promesses que vous avez faites à Hamel?

A.430 Je n'ai fait aucune promesse.

Q.431 Est-ce que vous lui avez fait des menaces?

A.431 Aucune menace.

Q.432 Est-ce que, le soir que vous avez pris cette déclaration, vous avez mis Hamel sous arrêts immédiatement?

A.432 Non; je lui ai dit que je pouvais peut-être le mettre sous arrêts, seulement après qu'il était sorti de l'hôpital, je préférais l'envoyer à l'hôpital militaire de Québec, et de fait, je l'ai envoyé à l'hôpital militaire de Québec avec deux de mes hommes, mais je ne l'ai pas mis sous arrêts.

Interrogé contradictoirement par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.433 Si je comprends bien, Colonel, vous étiez l'autorité supérieure du Corps Médical ici à Québec?

A.433 Oui, monsieur.

Q.434 Et l'accusé était un soldat appartenant à ce corps?

A.434 Exactement, monsieur.

Q.435 L'entrevue que vous nous avez rapportée est une entrevue qui a eu lieu le 19 octobre?

A.435 Le 19 octobre, lundi le 19.

Q.436 A ce moment-là, l'accusé était à l'hôpital?

A.436 Oui, monsieur, l'hôpital St-Sacrement.

Q.437 Vous étiez à poursuivre une enquête sur des irrégularités, que vous aviez découvertes, dites-vous, quelques jours auparavant, et votre enquête marchait depuis le samedi?

A.437 Oui, monsieur.

Q.438 L'enquête que vous aviez faite, vous avait amené le nom de l'accusé?

A.438 Oui, monsieur.

Q.439 Et vous aviez à ce moment-là des informations à l'effet que l'accusé était impliqué dans cette affaire-là?

A.439 Etait ou pouvait être impliqué, parce que, évidemment je ne m'étais pas encore formé une opinion bien nette.

Q.440 Vous n'aviez pas de certitude, mais vous vouliez contrôler les informations que vous pouviez avoir pouvant impliquer l'accusé?

A.440 Oui, pouvant impliquer l'accusé ou n'importe quel autre. Mon intérêt n'était que de chercher les coupables; mon intérêt était de faire une enquête afin de trouver certaines irrégularités, s'il y en avait; je n'essayais pas d'accumuler des irrégularités contre un tel monsieur ou un autre. Je faisais une enquête pour trouver des irrégularités, s'il y en avait.

Q.441 Et c'est dans ce but que vous avez fait venir l'accusé?

A.441 Oui, monsieur.

Q.442 A quelle heure avez-vous envoyé chercher l'accusé à l'hôpital?

A.442 Exactement, l'heure, je ne me rappelle pas, parce que j'ai téléphoné d'abord pour avoir certaines informations auprès de l'hôpital, à savoir si Hamel était suffisamment rétabli pour venir à mon bureau. Je présume que Hamel a dû venir à mon bureau; je ne puis pas vous dire exactement, entre huit heures et neuf heures, je présume.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.443 Du soir?

A.443 Oui, monsieur.

L'avocat de l'accusé continue son examen contradictoire.

Q.444 Cela pourrait être aussi plus tard que ça?

A.444 Oui, monsieur.

Q.445 Est-il arrivé à votre bureau seul, ou s'il a été conduit à votre bureau sous escorte?

A.445 Je l'ai envoyé chercher par un de mes médecins, pas un de mes hommes; je voulais être certain que Hamel était en condition physique et de santé suffisante pour venir à mon bureau.

Q.446 Qui était le médecin?

A.446 Je pense que c'est le Major Kirouac.

Q.447 Quand Hamel est entré dans votre bureau, qui était présent?

A.447 Le Major Kirouac était présent; j'ignore s'il y en avait d'autres.

Q.448 Voulez-vous nous dire ce que vous avez dit à Hamel quand il est entré dans votre bureau?

A.448 Je l'ai fait asseoir; je me suis informé de sa santé et il y a eu certaines questions de posées en rapport avec son état de santé; et puis, j'ai amené le sujet, directement ou indirectement, sur le fait de certaines irrégularités que j'avais découvertes et dans lesquelles je présumais qu'il était impliqué. J'ai ajouté qu'il n'était pas obligé de parler, qu'il pouvait avoir les services d'un avocat.

Q.449 Et pouvez-vous nous dire de quelle façon vous lui avez dit qu'il pouvait être impliqué dans certaines irrégularités?

A.449 Oui, monsieur.

Q.450 Qu'est-ce que vous lui avez dit?

A.450 Je pense que je lui ai demandé s'il aidait sa mère et, je crois, que je lui ai demandé le montant d'argent qu'il donnait mensuellement à sa mère, à sa famille, et il m'a dit qu'il aidait sa mère; sur ça, je lui ai dit: "Tu ne penses pas ou vous ne pensez pas qu'il serait plus convenable de donner plus d'argent à votre mère et de ne pas en donner aux médecins?"

Q.451 Qu'est-ce qu'il vous a répondu?

A.451 Je ne me rappelle pas exactement ce qu'il m'a répondu; je ne sais pas s'il m'a dit oui ou non; je pense qu'il m'a dit oui que cela serait plus raisonnable de ne pas donner d'argent aux médecins.

Q.452 Après cette réponse-là, qu'est-ce que vous lui avez dit?

A.452 Exactement, après cette réponse, je ne puis pas vous dire exactement ce que je lui ai dit.

Q.453 Lui avez-vous dit à un moment donné, pendant le cours de la conversation: "Il faut que tu parles;si tu ne parles pas, on va te mettre dans le 'klink'"ou des mots dans le même sens?

A.453 Je pense que je puis jurer, monsieur Rivard, que je ne l'ai jamais menacé. Je lui ai dit au cours de la conversation que je pouvais le mettre dans le 'klink', comme je l'ai rapporté, je pense que je lui ai dit; mes propres paroles sont les suivantes ou le texte: "Je pourrais t'envoyer" --je crois, après sa déclaration, pas avant-- "je pourrais t'envoyer dans le 'klink', mais franchement, cela me fait de la peine, tu sors de l'hôpital, je vais attendre".

Q.454 C'est avant qu'il aille faire sa déclaration écrite? Il vous a fait une déclaration orale?

A.454 C'est entre la déclaration orale et sa déclaration écrite, c'est-à-dire, quand je lui ai dit ça, j'avais fait la mise en garde.

Q.455 Et, je comprends, vous lui avez fait la mise en garde, il vous a fait une déclaration verbale, et entre la déclaration verbale et la déclaration écrite, vous lui avez dit ce que vous venez de rapporter, entre les deux déclarations?

A.455 Je ne veux pas que cela soit interprété comme des menaces.

La Cour demande au témoin de donner son témoignage seulement, qu'elle se chargera d'interpréter.

Q.456 La Cour interprétera, Colonel...

A.456 Maintenant, est-ce que vous me permettez d'ajouter ceci...

Q.457 Je vais vous questionner.

Le Procureur demande à la Cour qu'on laisse le témoin compléter sa réponse.

La Cour permet.

A.457 Je dois ajouter quelque chose à ce qui a été écrit; ce n'est pas parce j'ai dit ou que j'ai demandé au soldat Hamel de faire une déclaration que je l'enverrais dans le 'klink'; je n'ai jamais dit ça.

A.457 (suite)

Q.458 Vous avez dit ce que vous nous avez rapporté tout à l'heure; vous rappelez-vous de ce que vous avez dit?

(Lecture est faite des questions et réponses 453 à 455 inclusivement)

A.458 Oui, monsieur.

Q.459 Colonel, après ça, vous lui avez dit: "Tu vas faire une déposition devant le Capitaine Kirouac"?

A.459 Pardon, je ne lui ai pas dit: "Vous allez faire".

Q.460 "Veux-tu faire?" ?

A.460 "Voulez-vous mettre par écrit ce que vous m'avez dit, l'écrire et le signer?"

Q.461 Devant le capitaine Kirouac?

A.461 Je lui ai demandé ça devant le Major Kirouac.

Q.462 Est-ce que le Major Lacasse était là au cours de l'entrevue?

A.462 Je ne puis pas vous dire si le Major Lacasse a été là tout le temps; je ne me rappelle pas.

Q.463 Vous ne vous rappelez pas s'il a été dans votre bureau en même temps que l'accusé pendant que vous le questionniez?

A.463 Non, je ne me rappelle pas. Je sais que le Major Lacasse était à mon bureau; je ne me rappelle pas si le Major Lacasse est venu pendant que j'interrogeais le soldat.

Q.464 Et au cours de l'entrevue, de la déclaration qu'il vous a faite verbalement, vous l'avez questionné?

A.464 Oui, monsieur.

Q.465 Et vous l'avez questionné pour vérifier les informations que vous aviez recueillies à date, le concernant?

A.465 Oui, c'était des informations très "floues" (vagues)

Q.466 Pour faire préciser les informations vagues que vous aviez recueillies à date à son sujet?

A.466 A son sujet et au sujet d'autres.

Q.467 Et dans lesquelles il pouvait être impliqué?

A.467 Ou en impliquer d'autres; je dois ajouter que je ne cherchais pas à trouver Hamel plus qu'un autre; je cherchais à faire une enquête pour trouver ce qu'il y avait d'irrégulier, et y mettre ordre immédiatement.

Q.468 Il est sorti et il est allé dans une chambre à côté, et il a fait une déclaration écrite de sa main?

A.468 Oui, monsieur.

Q.469 Est-ce que quelqu'un est resté avec lui pendant qu'il faisait sa déclaration?

A.469 Je serais porté à dire oui, mais je ne pourrais pas le jurer.

Q.470 Si quelqu'un est resté avec lui, qui est-ce que cela serait?

A.470 Peut-être le sergent-major.

Q.471 Qui?

A.471 Drolet, ou un autre; il y en avait d'autres au bureau ce soir-là; il y avait le sergent Plamondon.

Q.472 Est-il à votre connaissance que le sergent-major Drolet soit entré pendant qu'il écrivait?

A.472 Ce n'est pas à ma connaissance personnelle; il est certainement possible que le Major Kirouac y soit allé, étant donné que le soldat Hamel écrivait dans le bureau du Major Kirouac.

Q.473 Au cours des questions que vous lui posiez pendant qu'il était dans votre bureau, lui avez-vous, à un moment donné, reproché de ne pas vous avoir averti de ces irrégularités?

A.473 Je ne le sais pas si je lui ai reproché; je ne pourrais pas dire.

Q.474 Colonel, pour rafraîchir votre mémoire, vous ne lui avez pas dit: "Pourquoi que tu n'as pas averti, as-tu l'intention de nous mêler?" ?

A.474 Ce sens...c'est unexpression...c'est une phrase que j'ai prononcée, je suis certain, au cours de mon enquête, mais je ne puis pas jurer que j'ai dit ces paroles au soldat Hamel, au cours de mon enquête, mais je ne me rappelle pas si oui ou non c'est au soldat Hamel. Je ne le nie pas.

Q.475 C'est possible que vous l'ayiez dit à Hamel?

A.475 Oui, c'est possible.

Q.476 Maintenant, vers quelle heure de cette soirée avez-vous envoyé reconduire le soldat Hanel à l'hôpital, au meilleur de votre souvenir?

A.476 Il devait être tard, peut-être dix heures et demie, onze heures -- assez tard.

Q.477 Est-ce qu'il n'était pas vers une heure du matin quand tout a été fini?

A.477 Il est possible, je ne puis pas vous dire l'heure; je n'ai pas regardé ma montre beaucoup cette soirée-là.

Q.478 Il a retourné à l'hôpital sous escorte?

A.478 Non, monsieur.

Q.479 Avec qui?

A.479 Avec deux de mes hommes, un pour conduire le char et un autre pour l'accompagner; il n'était pas arrêté.

Q.480 Pourquoi un autre homme pour accompagner le chauffeur?

La Cour s'adresse à l'avocat de l'accusé;

" Il faut un assistant-chauffeur; le chauffeur doit avoir un assistant; c'est une loi militaire, Me Rivard."

Q.481 J'aurais voulu que le Colonel me le dise.

A.481 Probablement parce qu'habituellement nous faisons ça; je n'avais pas de raison spéciale, c'est un réflexe.

Q.482 Combien de temps en tout, Hanel, ce soir-là, a-t-il passé dans votre bureau, soit dans votre bureau à vous, soit dans la chambre adjacente où vous lui avez demandé d'aller faire sa déclaration, entre le moment où il est arrivé et le moment où il est parti?

A.482 Si vous étiez capable de me dire l'heure qu'il est arrivé.

Q.483 Je n'y étais pas.

A.483 Je ne le sais pas exactement.

Q.484 Trois heures?

A.484 Je ne le sais pas; d'autres témoins pourront vous le dire; au meilleur de ma connaissance, moi-même, au meilleur de ma connaissance, je ne suis pas capable de vous le dire.

Ré-interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.485 Au sujet de la question du "klink", est-ce que dans le temps, Hamel vous avait raconté les faits?

A.485 Exactement.

Q.486 Est-ce que les faits qu'il vous avait racontés étaient ceux qu'il a par la suite mis par écrit?

A.486 Exactement.

Q.486a Au moment où il faisait cette confession verbale, il n'avait pas été question du 'klink'?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.487 A quel moment a-t-il été question du "klink"?

A.487 Après sa déclaration verbale.

Q.488 Est-ce le seul temps où il a été question du 'klink'?

A.488 Exactement.

Q.489 Au moment où il a fait cette déclaration verbale dont il est question dans votre témoignage, est-ce qu'il y avait d'autres personnes que vous présentes?

A.489 Le Major Kirouac.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

DEUXIEME TEMOIN POUR LA POURSUITE SUR LE VOIR DIRE.

Major Charles A. KIROUAC, 5ème Cie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.490 Major Kirouac, connaissez-vous l'accusé?

A.490 Oui, monsieur.

Q.491 Vous souvenez-vous de l'avoir rencontré au cours du mois d'octobre?

A.491 Oui, monsieur.

Q.492 Pourriez-vous nous dire en quelle circonstance?

A.492 J'ai été le chercher à l'hôpital St-Sacrement pour l'amener au bureau du Médecin-chef du District, qui voulait lui parler.

Q.493 Vers quelle heure était-ce?

A.493 A peu près vers 9 h. ou 9 h. 15 du soir.

Q.494 Vous souvenez-vous de la date?

A.494 La date, je ne suis pas certain, c'est autour du 17 octobre; à peu près dans ces jours-là; je ne suis pas certain de la date.

Q.495 Etiez-vous avec quelqu'un quand vous êtes allé chercher le soldat Hamel à l'hôpital?

A.495 Non, monsieur.

Q.496 Vous étiez seul?

A.496 Oui, monsieur.

Q.497 Sur les instructions de qui?

A.497 Du Médecin-chef du District.

Q.498 Alors, vous étiez seul quand vous êtes allé le chercher à l'hôpital?

A.498 Oui, monsieur.

Q.499 En cours de route, avez-vous eu une conversation avec Hamel?

A.499 Une petite conversation comme ça. Je lui ai demandé comment était son état de santé et je lui ai dit que le Colonel Mercier avait affaire à lui, probablement au sujet de son ouvrage.

Q.500 Est-ce qu'il a été question d'enquête?

A.500 Non, monsieur.

Q.501 Alors, vous l'avez conduit où?

A.501 Je l'ai conduit au bureau du Médecin-chef, 322, rue St-Jean.

Q.502 Et vous l'avez monté au bureau du Médecin-chef?

A.502 Oui, monsieur.

Q.503 Qui était au bureau du Médecin-chef?

A.503 Il y avait le Médecin-chef, le sergent-major Drolet dans un autre bureau; dans le bureau même du Colonel Mercier, seulement tous les deux.

Q.504 Et l'accusé, je comprends?

A.504 Oui; tous les trois. En arrivant, l'accusé n'est pas entré en même temps que moi dans le bureau. Il a été appelé après.

Q.505 Alors, au moment où l'accusé est entré dans le bureau. Je comprends que l'accusé a été amené ensuite devant le Médecin-chef?

A.505 Oui, monsieur.

Q.506 Le Colonel Mercier?

A.506 Oui, monsieur.

Q.507 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé lorsque l'accusé est arrivé en présence du Colonel Mercier?

A.507 Le Colonel Mercier lui a demandé comment il se trouvait au point de vue de sa santé, vu qu'il sortait de l'hôpital, et il lui a posé quelques questions d'ordre personnel, comment ça allait chez lui, quelles étaient ses responsabilités vis-à-vis de sa famille, s'il leur aidait au point de vue finance, s'il avait quelques dépendants.

Q.508 Qu'est-ce que l'accusé a dit?

A.508 Après ça, l'accusé lui donnait les réponses.

Q.509 Donnez les réponses comme les questions.

A.509 Alors, le Médecin-chef lui a demandé s'il aidait sa famille; l'accusé a répondu "Oui", qu'il donnait un certain montant d'argent pour aider sa mère. Je ne me rappelle pas, dans le moment, le montant qu'il a spécifié; le montant, je ne m'en rappelle pas dans le moment.

Après ça, il a expliqué qu'il faisait très peu de dépenses personnelles; c'est alors que le Médecin-chef lui a dit: "Ecoute", en parlant à Hamel, "j'ai d'autres questions plus importantes à te poser, et je te mets en garde. Je tiens à t'avertir que tout ce que tu pourras dire pourra servir contre toi plus tard. Tu n'es pas obligé de parler; si tu préfères, tu peux demander les services d'un avocat et attendre à plus tard pour répondre à mes questions."

Q.510 Quelle a été la réponse de l'accusé?

A.510 La réponse de l'accusé a été: "Je n'ai pas besoin d'avocat, j'aime mieux me décharger le coeur, tout de suite."

De nouveau, le Colonel Mercier lui a répété que c'était son droit de refuser de parler, parce que tout ce qu'il pourrait dire pourra être contre lui plus tard.

Q.511 Je comprends que le Colonel Mercier lui a répété deux fois?

A.511 Oui, monsieur.

Q.512 Est-ce que le Colonel Mercier lui a fait des promesses à cette occasion?

A.512 Non, monsieur.

Q.513 Lui a-t-il fait des menaces?

A.513 Non, monsieur.

Q.514 Vous-même, lui avez-vous fait des promesses?

A.514 Non, monsieur.

Q.515 Vous-même, lui avez-vous fait des menaces?

A.515 Non, monsieur.

Q.516 Alors, je comprends que l'accusé, comme vous venez de le dire, a consenti à parler?

A.516 Oui, monsieur.

Q.517 Ensuite, qu'est-ce qui s'est passé?

A.517 Bien, après avoir parlé avec le médecin-chef, le médecin-chef lui a demandé s'il consentait à aller dans un autre appartement de nos bureaux et d'écrire lui-même ce qu'il nous avait dit et sur la réponse affirmative de l'accusé, il est allé dans le bureau voisin où on lui a donné plume et papier et moi je suis resté avec le médecin-chef.

Q.518 Pendant que l'accusé...?

A.518 Pendant une partie du temps que l'accusé a rédigé sa confession.

Q.519 Où a-t-il rédigé cette déclaration, dans quel bureau?

A.519 Dans mon bureau.

Q.520 Est-ce qu'il y avait quelqu'un avec lui pendant qu'il rédigeait sa déclaration?

A.520 Il peut avoir entré quelqu'un ou sortir.

Q.521 Mais personne ne l'accompagnait?

A.521 Non, monsieur.

Q.522 Au moment où l'accusé a été amené devant le médecin-chef, est-ce à votre connaissance qu'il avait une accusation contre lui?

A.522 Non, monsieur.

Q.523 Au moment où l'accusé a été amené devant le médecin-chef, est-ce à votre connaissance qu'il était sous arrêts ou non?

A.523 Je ne suis pas certain, mais je ne crois pas qu'il était sous arrêts, parce qu'il n'était pas sous arrêts quand je suis allé le chercher à l'hôpital.

Q.524 Vous avez, par la suite, pris connaissance de la déclaration écrite de l'accusé?

A.524 Oui, monsieur.

Q.525 Etait-elle différente et en quoi, de la déclaration verbale faite par l'accusé au Colonel Mercier, en votre présence?

A.525 Je ne crois pas qu'elle était différente.

Interrogé contradictoirement par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.526 Major, vous avez dit le 17, mais on s'entend autour du 19 octobre? Le 19 octobre, est-ce que vous étiez avec le Colonel Mercier occupés à cette enquête qui se faisait sur les irrégularités dont vous étiez informés?

A.526 Quand il me le demandait seulement.

Q.527 Il vous a demandé vers 9 h. ou 9 h. 30 d'aller chercher Hamel qui était à l'hôpital St-Sacrement?

A.527 Oui, monsieur.

Q.528 Quand vous êtes allé là, est-ce que Hamel était couché?

A.528 Je ne le sais pas, monsieur.

Q.529 Vous avez attendu quelques minutes?

A.529 J'ai demandé à la soeur hospitalière; ils m'ont fait monter au troisième étage et j'ai attendu le médecin de l'hôpital.

Q.530 Et Hamel est descendu avec vous en automobile jusqu'au bureau du Colonel Mercier?

A.530 Oui, monsieur.

Q.531 Vous êtes entré le premier dans le bureau du Colonel?

A.531 Oui, monsieur.

Q.532 Et Hamel est entré après vous?

A.532 Il a attendu dans l'anti-chambre et il est entré à la demande du Colonel Mercier.

Q.533 Vous nous dites qu'il y a eu d'abord des questions de posées sur des sujets personnels?

A.533 Oui, monsieur.

Q.534 N'est-il pas vrai, Major, qu'après la réponse de Hamel, le Colonel Mercier lui a dit: "Tu ferais mieux de donner plus d'argent à chez vous plutôt que d'en donner aux officiers"?

A.534 Je ne suis pas certain, je ne me souviens pas.

Q.535 Et que c'est après avoir dit ça, qu'il aurait été question de la mise en garde?

A.535 Comme je vous dis, il l'a mis en garde après avoir causé; je sais qu'il lui a demandé son état de santé, s'il aidait ses parents, mais les paroles que vous venez de prononcer, je ne m'en rappelle pas.

Q.536 Vous vous souvenez qu'au cours de la conversation le Colonel Mercier a fait reproche à Hamel de ne pas lui avoir rapporté ces faits-là?

A.536 Il a mentionné quelque chose de ce genre-là, mais je ne crois pas que c'était un reproche; je crois plutôt que c'était une constatation, dans ce sens que normalement, si une chose telle se produisait, le médecin-chef devait en être averti.

Q.537 Est-ce qu'il n'a pas dit "Tu aurais dû nous avertir?"

A.537 Je ne me rappelle pas les paroles exactes.

Q.538 N'a-t-il pas dit; "Veux-tu nous caler?" ?

A.538 Pas à ma connaissance.

Q.539 Jurez-vous qu'il ne l'a pas dit?

A.539 Non, je ne jure pas qu'il ne l'a pas dit, mais je ne jure pas qu'il l'a dit non plus.

Q.540 Est-ce que, à un moment donné, après la déclaration, ou après que le questionnaire du Colonel Mercier a été terminé, le Colonel Mercier lui a dit; "Je pourrais te mettre dans le 'klink', mais j'ai pitié de toi parce que tu es à l'hôpital et je vais t'envoyer à l'hôpital"?

A.540 Je ne me rappelle pas non plus.

Q.541 Vous vous souvenez pas mal de ce qui s'est dit, les premières paroles. Bien, voulez-vous essayer de vous rappeler ce qui s'est dit entre la déclaration verbale et la déclaration écrite et les paroles que le Colonel Mercier a dites à Hamel à ce moment-là; n'est-il pas vrai qu'il a été question de "klink"?

A.541 Je ne suis pas certain; je ne me rappelle pas; il peut en avoir été question.

Q.542 N'est-il pas vrai qu'il lui a dit: "Si tu ne parles pas, je vais te mettre dans le 'klink'" ?

A.542 Je ne le crois pas.

Q.543 Jurez-vous qu'il ne l'a pas dit?

A.543 Non, monsieur.

Q.545 Jurez-vous qu'il n'a pas dit:"Tu es mieux de parler" ?

A.545 Non, monsieur.

Q.546 Vous ne jurez pas qu'il ne l'a pas dit?

A.546 Non, et je ne jure pas qu'il l'a dit non plus.

Q.547 Vous, vous étiez présent? Vous rappelez-vous de la substance de ce qui s'est dit?

A.547 En partie.

Q.548 Vous rappelez-vous de la déclaration faite par Hamel?

A.548 Je me rappelle quelques parties.

Q.549 Pas de tout?

A.549 Probablement pas de tout.

Q.550 Il a pu se dire bien des choses que vous ne vous rappelez pas?

A.550 C'est possible.

Q.551 Entre'autres choses les paroles que j'ai rapportées?

A.551 Oui, monsieur.

Q.552 Il est parti à un moment donné sur la demande du Colonel Mercier et il s'est rendu dans une salle, et là il a fait sa déclaration?

A.552 Oui, monsieur.

Q.553 Vous avez été là presque tout le temps?

A.553 Avec l'accusé, non monsieur.

Q.554 Qui était avec lui?

A.554 Il n'était pas supposé avoir personne avec lui.

Q.555 Jurez-vous qu'il n'était pas supposé y avoir personne avec lui?

A.555 Oui, monsieur.

Q.556 Vous jurez qu'en fait, personne n'était avec lui?

A.556 En fait, je ne le sais pas, je n'étais pas là.

Q.557 La déclaration a été signée devant vous?

A.557 Oui, monsieur.

Q.558 Vous étiez toujours à la vue?

A.558 Oui, monsieur.

Q.559 L'avez-vous lu la déclaration, avant qu'il la signe et avant que vous la signiez?

A.559 Je l'ai lue après qu'il la signa, et avant de la signer moi-même.

Q.560 Vous rappelez-vous de ce qu'il aurait dit dans la déclaration?

A.560 En partie.

Q.561 Vous rappelez-vous suffisamment de la déclaration et suffisamment du questionnaire pour pouvoir jurer que la déclaration est conforme à celle qu'il avait faite verbalement?

A.561 En autant que je me souvienne.

Q.562 Vous souvenez-vous assez pour jurer?

A.562 C'est bien difficile à dire.

Q.563 Major, il est arrivé chez le Colonel Mercier vers quelle heure?

A.563 Vers neuf heures et demie.

Q.564 A quelle heure aurait-il parti?

A.564 Probablement autour de onze heures.

Q.565 N'est-il pas vrai qu'il était autour de une heure?

A.565 Peut-être; je ne me rappelle pas exactement. A la question de l'avocat de l'accusé, je désire ajouter qu'au moment où j'ai lu la déclaration faite par l'accusé, ça faisait à peine quelques minutes qu'il avait fait sa déclaration verbale, et à ce moment-là, j'étais à même de comparer que la déclaration écrite était la même que la déclaration verbale; alors, aujourd'hui, je peux répondre.

Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger le témoin de nouveau.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat.

Q.566 Après avoir lu la déclaration écrite de la main de l'accusé, vous avez constaté que ce qu'il avait écrit était en substance la même chose qu'il avait déclaré verbalement auparavant?

A.566 Oui, monsieur.

Q.567 Voulez-vous donner à la Cour une explication, une idée sommaire de la disposition des pièces; est-ce que le bureau du Colonel Mercier et le vôtre sont des pièces connexes?

A.567 Non, monsieur.

Q.568 Des pièces qui communiquent par autre chose qu'un couloir?

A.568 Non, monsieur.

Q.569 Au même étage?

A.569 Oui, monsieur.

Q.570 Major, voulez-vous produire un croquis sommaire indiquant les positions respectives des bureaux du médecin-chef, le Colonel Mercier, et de votre bureau à vous-même.

A.570 Oui, monsieur.

Croquis indiquant les positions respectives des bureaux du médecin-chef, le Colonel Mercier, et du Major Kirouac, situés sur le même plancher à 322, rue St-Jean, Québec, est signé par le Président, marqué " I", et joint au procès-verbal.

Q.571 Maintenant, durant le temps que l'accusé Hamel était dans votre bureau précisément à écrire la déclaration, où vous trouviez-vous vous-même, étiez-vous avec le Colonel Mercier?

A.571 Oui, excepté une couple de fois que je suis allé dans mon bureau voir s'il avait tout ce qu'il lui fallait.

Q.572 En autant que vous le sachiez, durant ce temps-là, l'accusé Hamel aurait pu aller et revenir librement?

A.572 Oui, monsieur.

Q.573 Vous le jurez?

A.573 Oui, monsieur.

Q.574 Il n'y avait personne qui le gardait?

A.574 Non, monsieur.

Q.575 Est-ce que l'accusé aurait pu retourner à l'hôpital de lui-même?

A.575 Qu'entendez-vous par "de lui-même"?

Q.576 Sans en être empêché.

A.576 Comme militaire, il était obligé de suivre les ordres donnés par ses supérieurs.

Interrogé par la Cour.

Q.577 A l'heure qu'il est retourné, est-ce qu'il y aurait eu danger s'il était retourné par lui-même de se faire arrêter parce que sans permission?

A.577 Oui, à moins que nous lui aurions donné une formule avant son départ.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

TROISIEME TEMOIN POUR LA POURSUITE SUR LE VOIR DIRE.

Major Louis.-J. LACASSE, Officier-commandant de la 5ème Compagnie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., District Militaire No. 5, C.A., Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.578 Major Lacasse, connaissez-vous l'accusé?

A.578 Oui, monsieur.

Q.579 Voulez-vous nous dire si vous avez assisté à une entrevue que l'accusé aurait eue avec le Médecin-chef au cours du mois d'octobre 1942?

A.579 A l'entrevue qu'il a eue avec le Médecin-chef? Non.

Q.579a Avez-vous été appelé au bureau du Médecin-chef en rapport avec une déclaration qu'aurait faite l'accusé?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question.

La Cour suggère au Procureur de préciser une date.

La question est retirée.

Q.580 Avez-vous eu connaissance que l'accusé ait eu une entrevue avec le Médecin-chef au cours du mois d'octobre?

A.580 Je n'ai pas eu connaissance qu'il ait eu une entrevue avec le Médecin-chef.

Q.581 De quoi avez-vous eu connaissance?

A.581 J'ai eu connaissance que le soir du 19 octobre, alors que j'ai été appelé par le Médecin-chef, de me rapporter au bureau, je suis arrivé et j'ai vu l'accusé en train d'écrire une déclaration.

Q.582 Où était l'accusé?

A.582 L'accusé était dans le bureau du Major Kirouac.

Q.583 Qui était avec l'accusé?

A.583 Le Major Kirouac.

Q.584 Etes-vous resté longtemps à regarder l'accusé écrire?

A.584 Je suis resté quatre ou cinq minutes et je suis allé après ça au bureau du Colonel.

Q.585 Ensuite de cela, qu'est-ce qui est arrivé après ça, à votre connaissance?

A.585 L'accusé est venu au bureau du Colonel avec sa déclaration, que le Colonel a lue, et la déclaration a été copiée au clavigraphe et devant moi l'accusé a signé sa déclaration. J'ai d'ailleurs apposé ma signature à titre de témoin sur le document.

Q.586 Voulez-vous nous dire si le document auquel vous référez, voulez-vous nous dire si la signature sur le document que vous mentionnez est celle que je vous exhibe?

A.586 Oui, monsieur.

Q.587 Je comprends que cela a été lu par l'accusé?

A.587 (pas de réponse).

Interrogé contradictoirement par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.588 Si je comprends bien, le 19 au soir, vous étiez à votre bureau?

A.588 J'étais chez moi.

Q.589 Vous avez été appelé au bureau du Colonel Mercier?

A.589 Oui, monsieur.

Q.590 Et à un moment donné, vous avez vu l'accusé qui écrivait dans une chambre?

A.590 Non, en passant, je suis allé là.

Q.591 Et vous êtes entré dans la chambre?

A.591 Oui, monsieur.

Q.592 Il y avait déjà le Major Kirouac, là?

A.592 Oui, monsieur.

Q.593 Il était là assis?

A.593 Oui, assis à son bureau.

Q.594 Et à ce moment-là, où se trouvait l'accusé?

A.594 L'accusé était assis au bureau voisin.

Q.595 Les bureaux ne sont pas loin l'un de l'autre?

A.595 On peut passer entre.

Q.596 Le Major Kirouac peut passer entre?

A.596 Oui, monsieur.

Q.597 Vous, étiez-vous assis?

A.597 Non, j'ai dit quelques mots au Major Kirouac, et je suis retourné.

Q.598 Le Major Kirouac est resté assis?

A.598 Oui, monsieur.

Q.599 Vous êtes retourné dans le bureau du Colonel Mercier?

A.599 Oui, monsieur.

Q.600 Et vous avez attendu, je suppose bien, jusqu'à ce que le document soit terminé?

A.600 Oui, monsieur.

Q.601 Combien de temps avez-vous attendu? A peu près dix minutes, un quart d'heure?

A.601 Probablement plus longtemps que cela.

Q.602 Peut-être une demi-heure?

A.602 Probablement.

Q.603 Et à un moment donné, le Major Kirouac est arrivé avec l'accusé et la déclaration?

A.603 Franchement, je ne saurais dire si le major Kirouac accompagnait l'accusé.

Q.604 Le Major Kirouac n'est pas revenu avant la fin de la déclaration?

A.604 Pas à ma connaissance.

Q.605 Maintenant, quand il est arrivé, la déclaration n'était pas signée encore?

A.605 Non, monsieur.

Q.606 Il l'a signée par devant le Colonel Mercier qui le lui a demandé?

A.606 Il l'a lu pour voir si ça se tenait debout et pour voir si c'est bien ce qu'il a voulu dire. Il l'a demandé à l'accusé et l'accusé a répondu oui, et il a signé.

Q.607 Le Major Kirouac a contresigné et vous-même?

A.607 Oui.

Interrogé de nouveau par le Procureur.

Q.608 Pendant que vous étiez dans le bureau du Major Kirouac, est-ce qu'il s'est dit quelquechose?

A.608 Au sujet de la déclaration?

Q.609 Entre vous et le Major Kirouac?

A.609 Quand l'accusé composait, non.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

QUATRIEME TEMOIN POUR LA POURSUITE SUR LE VOIR DIRE

No. E-20613, C.S.M. Joseph Drolet, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.610 Connaissez-vous l'accusé?

A.610 Oui, monsieur.

Q.611 Vous souvenez-vous à quelle date vous avez vu l'accusé pour la dernière fois au bureau de l'officier, le D.M.O. ?

A.611 La date, je ne me rappelle pas.

Q.612 Quand est-ce?

A.612 Cette semaine, au commencement de la semaine?

Q.613 Avez-vous eu connaissance que l'accusé soit allé chez le D.M.O. dans le cours du mois d'octobre?

A.613 Oui, je l'ai vu dans les premiers temps du mois d'octobre.

Q.614 Et ensuite, est-ce que c'est à votre connaissance si l'accusé est allé à l'hôpital ou non?

A.614 Oui, il est entré à l'hôpital.

Q.615 A quelle date?

A.615 Je crois, le 16 octobre.

Q.616 A quelle date en est-il sorti?

A.616 Je ne me rappelle pas.

Q.617 Si la date est essentielle, c'est pour essayer de ne pas venir sur la question trop directement; avez-vous au cours du mois d'octobre assisté à une entrevue entre le Colonel Mercier et l'accusé?

A.617 Oui, monsieur.

Q.618 Vous avez assisté à une entrevue?

A.618 Oui, monsieur.

Q.619 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé à cette occasion-là?

A.619 Je ne me rappelle pas mot à mot ce qui s'est passé.

Q.620 Contez à la Cour ce qui s'est passé; est-ce que l'accusé était là?

A.620 Oui, monsieur, le soir je travaillais au bureau; je suis descendu en bas et j'ai vu Hamel dans un des bureaux.

Q.621 Dans quel bureau?

A.621 La première fois que je l'ai vu, il était dans le bureau en avant, en avant de la salle d'entrée; je l'ai revu dans le bureau du Colonel.

Q.622 Quand?

A.622 Je crois que le Colonel l'avait fait demander.

Q.623 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé dans le bureau du Colonel Mercier?

A.623 (pas de réponse)

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.624 Est-ce que vous vous rappelez ou non?

A.624 Je ne me rappelle pas.

Q.625 Pas du tout?

A.625 Quelques faits.

Le Procureur continue son examen.

Q.626 Dites-les.

A.626 Il a demandé s'il était mieux.

Q.627 Est-ce qu'il a été question d'une déclaration?

A.627 (pas de réponse).

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse à l'accusé:

> "Sergent-major Drolet, ne vous laissez pas énerver; pensez lorsque vous étiez dans le bureau médical; on vous demande ce qui s'est passé; on vous demande seulement ce dont vous vous souvenez; pensez à ce qui s'est passé."

Le Procureur continue son examen.

Q.628 Avez-vous assisté, Sergent-major, à toute l'entrevue entre le Colonel Mercier et l'accusé?

A.628 Je ne me rappelle pas.

Q.629 Vous rappelez-vous de ce qui s'est dit à cette occasion?

A.629 (pas de réponse)

Interrogé par la Cour.

Q.630 Pourriez-vous vous rappeler de quelquechose?

A.630 Je me rappelle que le Colonel lui a demandé s'il était mieux.

Le Procureur continue son examen.

Q.631 C'est tout ce dont vous vous rappelez de cette entrevue-là?

A.631 Je crois qu'il lui a demandé s'il donnait de l'argent à ses parents.

Q.632 Est-ce au début ou à la fin del'entrevue?

A.632 C'est au début je crois.

Q.633 Ensuite de cela, vous souvenez-vous d'autres choses?

A.633 Non, monsieur.

Q.634 Est-ce que l'accusé, ce soir-là, est sorti de l'appartement; comme question préliminaire, est-ce qu'il est allé dans le bureau du Major Kirouac?

A.634 Oui, il est allé avec le Major Kirouac.

Q.635 Etes-vous allé vous-même dans le bureau avec le Major Kirouac et l'accusé?

A.635 Non.

Q.636 Etes-vous au courant de ce qui s'est passé dans le bureau du Major Kirouac?

A.636 Non, monsieur.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas interroger le témoin contradictoirement.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

Le Procureur s'adresse à la Cour et présente sa plaidoierie sur l'examen au sujet du voir dire.

Qu'il plaise à la Cour,

Si l'on me le permet, au sujet de l'examen sur le voir dire qui vient d'être fait devant la Cour pour la confession qui aurait été faite par l'accusé au Colonel Mercier, en présence du Major Kirouac, la poursuite prétend que cette confession est admissible, et ce pour les raisons suivantes:

Premièrement, Hamel, au moment où il a été amené devant le Lieutenant-Colonel Mercier, Hamel n'était pas sous arrêts. Le Lieutenant-Colonel Mercier conduisait une enquête, et comme il l'a déclaré lui-même, qu'il ne s'était pas fait l'idée de le mettre sous arrêts.

A ce sujet, je réfère la Cour au Chapitre VI du Manuel de Droit Militaire, article 78, sous-paragraphe (1), p. 91,

> "When a police officer is endeavouring to discover the author of a crime, there is no objection to his putting questions in respect thereof to any person or persons, whether suspected or not, from whom he thinks that useful information can be obtained."

Or, au moment où Hamel était devant le Colonel Mercier, le Colonel Mercier était exactement dans la position décrite au sous-paragraphe (1) de l'article 78 du M.M.L. Plus que cela, le Colonel Mercier, par précaution, sans qu'il y soit obligé, fait une mise en garde à l'accusé à l'effet qu'il n'était pas obligé de parler et que tout ce qu'il pourra dire pourra servir contre lui. Il ajoute: "Vous avez le droit d'être représenté par un avocat, si vous le désirez."

Quelle est la réponse de l'accusé? L'accusé répond, "Je n'ai pas besoin d'avocat. Je vais tout dire ce que j'ai à dire". Par conséquent, c'est une déclaration libre.

Y a-t-il eu menaces? Aucune menace. Les témoins qui ont assisté à ces déclarations, le Lieutenant-Colonel Mercier, et le Major Kirouac, viennent déclarer devant la Cour qu'il n'a été question ni de menaces ni de promesses pour obtenir la confession d'Hamel.

Je dis donc, m'appuyant sur le paragraphe 78, sous-paragraphes (1) et (2), ainsi que le dernier sous-paragraphe de 78, que la poursuite a démontré que la confession faite à cette occasion par le soldat Hamel était libre et volontaire, et conséquemment devrait être admise devant cette Cour.

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour;

J'ai fait motion lors de la défense pour que cette déclaration soit rejetée du dossier.

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse au Procureur:

Dois-je comprendre que l'argument que vous venez de faire s'applique à la fois aux déclarations verbales et aux déclarations écrites?

Le Procureur, en réponse, déclare;

"Cela s'applique tant aux déclarations verbales qu'aux déclarations écrites."

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour;

J'ai été, jusqu'à ce moment-ci, sous une fausse impression. J'avais compris jusqu'à la question du juge-avocat, que la déclaration que l'on voulait produire était une déclaration écrite. C'était l'impression que j'avais.

Si ce n'est pas cela, je dois déclarer que sur le voir dire, j'ai une preuve à faire, si la Cour me le permet.

La Cour déclare qu'elle permettra à l'avocat de l'accusé à faire cette preuve si c'est dans l'intérêt de la justice.

Le Procureur s'adresse à la Cour;

Mon intention est de mettre devant la Cour tant les déclarations verbales faites au Colonel Mercier et au Major Kirouac , par l'accusé, que les notes rédigées par l'accusé.

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse au Procureur;

Etant donné la déclaration que vous venez de faire, est-ce que la Cour doit comprendre que vous n'avez pas d'autres témoins à faire entendre, en tant qu'il s'agit des déclarations verbales et des déclarations manuscrites de l'accusé Hamel?

Le Procureur déclare qu'il n'a pas d'autres témoins à faire entendre sur le voir dire.

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse à l'avocat de l'accusé;

Me Rivard, avez-vous d'autres témoins à faire entendre sur le voir dire, en autant qu'il s'agit des déclarations verbales que des déclarations manuscrites de l'accusé Hamel?

L'avocat de l'accusé déclare vouloir faire entendre l'accusé, le soldat Louis Philippe Hamel, comme témoin sur le voir dire.

PREMIER TEMOIN DE LA DEFENSE SUR LE VOIR DIRE

L'accusé,
No. E-25913, Soldat Louis Philippe Hamel, 5ème Compagnie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.637 Hamel, le 19 octobre dernier, où étiez-vous?

A.637 A l'hôpital, monsieur.

Q.638 A quel hôpital?

A.638 A l'hôpital St-Sacrement, monsieur.

Q.639 Etes-vous sorti ce jour-là de l'Hôpital St-Sacrement?

A.639 Oui, monsieur, j'ai sorti vers neuf heures, neuf heures et demie du soir.

Q.640 Qui est venu vous chercher?

A.640 Le Major Kirouac. Il m'a dit qu'il y avait un certain officier d'Ottawa qui devait venir le lendemain visiter, qu'ils étaient en retard dans le travail, et il m'a demandé si je pouvais aller travailler au bureau.

Q.641 Qu'est-ce que vous avez fait?

A.641 Sur ça, j'ai dit: "Si je suis capable, certainement j'irai vous aider."

Q.642 Comme question de fait, êtes-vous sorti?

A.642 Oui, monsieur.

Q.643 Avec qui?

A.643 Avec le Major Kirouac.

Q.644 Où vous êtes-vous rendu?

A.644 Au D. M. O.

Q.645 En arrivant au D.M.O., qu'est-ce que vous avez fait?

A.645 Là, le Major Kirouac a dit: "Attends, le Colonel Mercier veut te parler."

Q.646 Et alors?

A.646 J'ai attendu dans l'anti-chambre du bureau d'hospitalisation, environ dix ou quinze minutes; plus tard, le Colonel Mercier m'a fait demander.

Q.647 Voulez-vous dire qu'est-ce qui s'est passé quand vous êtes entré chez le Colonel Mercier?

A.647 Quand je suis entré dans le bureau, le Colonel Mercier s'est informé de ma santé et je lui ai dit que ça allait assez bien, mais que ça pourrait aller mieux. Ensuite, il m'a demandé combien je donnais d'argent chez nous. J'ai répondu. Il a dit sur ça: "Penses-tu, Hamel, que ça ne serait pas mieux d'en donner à chez vous au lieu d'en donner à un certain officier?"

A.647 (suite)

Q.648 Qu'est-ce que vous avez répondu?

A.648 Sur ça, j'ai répondu, "Oui, monsieur".

Q.649 Ensuite, est-ce qu'il s'est dit autre chose?

A.649 Il a dit;"Tu sais au sujet de quoi je veux en venir?" J'ai dit: "Au juste, je ne peux pas dire; je ne peux pas dire oui ou non," mais j'ai dit: "je me doute de quelquechose mais je ne peux pas l'assurer". Pour être plus précis, il a dit: "Ca ne serait pas mieux, à la place de donner $10.00 à un certain officier, de le donner à ta mère?" Il m'a donné le nom de l'officier. J'ai dit: "Oui, monsieur." Là, il m'a demandé de raconter ce qui s'était passé. Je lui ai raconté ce qui s'était passé à propos du $10.00.

Q.650 Avant de vous demander ce qui s'était passé, est-ce qu'il a dit autre chose?

A.650 Après qu'il eut posé la première question, que ça serait mieux d'en donner à chez vous, il a dit: "Hamel, tu savais qu'il y avait quelque chose qui ne marchait pas en haut; pourquoi n'es-tu pas venu m'en parler avant?" - J'ai dit, "Jusqu'à maintenant, je pensais que tout était correct."

Q.651 Vous a-t-il dit autre chose avant qu'il vous demande de raconter ce qui s'était passé?

A.651 Il a dit: "Hamel, tu veux ma tête"; il a dit: "Ton devoir était de venir m'avertir." J'ai dit: "Quand on n'est pas au courant de certaines choses, c'est difficile de venir avertir."

Q.652 A-t-il été question d'avocat?

A.652 Non, monsieur; aucunement.

Q.653 A-t-il été question de procès?

A.653 Non, monsieur; aucunement.

Q.654 De quelle façon, vous a-t-il demandé de raconter ce qui s'était passé?

A.654 Il m'a demandé de lui raconter ce qui était arrivé le soir à propos du $10.00 que j'avais donné à un certain officier. Sur ça, je lui ai raconté toute l'histoire au juste. Il m'a demandé si je n'avais pas reçu d'argent d'autres types. Je lui ai dit; "Non, monsieur.". Ensuite, il m'a demandé... ça, c'est après qu'il m'eut fait une certaine menace, en voulant dire qu'il était pour m'envoyer dans le "clink".

A.654 (suite)

Q.655 Voulez-vous, au meilleur de votre souvenir, dire à la Cour dans quels termes cela s'est dit?

A.655 Voici. Je m'en rappelle assez bien; le Colonel Mercier m'a dit: "Hamel, je te pensais plus droit que ça." Il m'a dit; "A part de ça, au point de vue conduite, je n'ai rien à te reprocher, tout est très bien en haut, mais là je vois que t'as agi crochement". J'ai dit, "Colonel Mercier, à mon point de vue, j'ai agi très droitement." Il a dit; "Le fait que tu viens de citer..." Sur ça, j'ai rien répondu.

Ensuite, il a dit que s'il voulait, il pourrait m'envoyer dans le "clink". Ca se résume à ça, à peu près, je ne peux pas dire juste mot pour mot, mais ça se résume à ça.

Q.656 A part de ça, a-t-il été question d'autre chose?

A.656 Ensuite de ça, il m'a demandé pour donner une déposition par écrit; si je voulais bien faire une déposition par écrit; j'ai dit; "Certainement, monsieur".

Q.657 Où êtes-vous allé pour faire cette déposition?

A.657 Dans le bureau du Major Kirouac.

Q.658 Seul?

A.658 Le Major Kirouac est venu en premier lieu; il m'a donné du papier et une plume; non, il m'a donné du papier seulement parce que j'avais ma plume. J'ai commencé à écrire et j'ai posé certaines questions au Major Kirouac au sujet du commencement de l'entrevue du Colonel Mercier. Le Colonel Mercier m'avait dit que j'étais responsable, même si j'avais reçu une cigarette ou 5 cents, 10 cents ou 25 cents, et sur ça, j'ai demandé au Major Kirouac si j'étais pour raconter les faits à propos des types que j'avais eus, en voulant dire les 25 cents de cigarettes, même les 5 cents; il m'a dit, "Marque ce que tu veux."

Q.659 Est-ce qu'il est resté avec vous?

A.659 Presque tout le temps, monsieur.

Q.660 Après cela, vous êtes retourné?

A.660 Il faut dire que le Major Lacasse est venu au bureau aussi.

Q.661 Est-ce qu'il vous a parlé?

A.661 Pas à ma connaissance.

Q.662 Est-ce qu'il est resté quelque temps là?

A.662 Environ trois, quatre, cinq minutes.

Q.663 Est-ce que c'était votre Officier-commandant, le Major Lacasse?

A.663 Oui, monsieur.

Q.664 Après cela, qu'est-ce qui s'est passé, quand vous avez terminé d'écrire votre déposition?

A.664 Bien, j'ai demandé à qui il fallait que je remette les papiers. Le Major Lacasse m'a dit là-dessus: "Au Colonel Mercier". Même, je suis retourné voir le Colonel Mercier et il m'a demandé si j'étais prêt à signer mon papier; j'ai dit: "Oui".

Q.665 Vous êtes arrivé avec votre papier. Alors, qu'est-ce que le Colonel Mercier vous a demandé?

A.665 Il m'a demandé si j'avais ma déclaration, -je m'en rappelle assez bien - si c'était ma déclaration que j'avais entre les mains; j'ai dit: "Oui, monsieur."

Q.666 Alors, qu'est-ce qui s'est passé après?

A.666 Il m'a demandé si j'étais prêt à la signer; j'ai répondu, "oui, monsieur".

Q.667 Avant de vous demander si vous étiez prêt à la signer, est-ce qu'il vous a dit quelque chose?

A.667 Je sais qu'il m'a parlé mais je ne me rappelle plus au juste ce qu'il m'a dit.

Q.668 Est-ce qu'il vous l'a lue?

A.668 Non, monsieur; pas à ma connaissance.

Q.669 Est-ce qu'il l'a lue, lui?

A.669 Je ne m'en rappelle pas, monsieur.

Q.670 Vous l'avez signée?

A.670 Oui, monsieur.

Q.671 Vous êtes retourné où, après cela?

A.671 Je suis retourné dans le bureau du sergent-major Drolet.

Q.672 Qu'est-ce que vous avez fait, là?

A.672 Là, franchement, je me suis reposé, j'étais rendu à bout; je sortais de l'hôpital.

Q.673 A quelle heure êtes-vous retourné à l'hôpital?

A.673 Je ne peux pas dire au juste, mais quand j'étais au lit, j'ai regardé ma montre et il était une heure.

Q.674 Vous étiez avec qui?

A.674 Il y avait le sergent Plamondon et le Caporal Guérin.

Interrogé contradictoirement par le Procureur.

Q.675 Hamel, lorsque vous êtes arrivé dans le bureau du Colonel Mercier, le Major Kirouac était là?

A.675 Je m'en rappelle assez bien. Je suis entré avec le Major Kirouac.

Q.676 Alors, pendant tout le temps de l'entrevue que vous avez eue avec le Colonel Mercier, le Major Kirouac était là?

A.676 Je ne peux pas vous l'assurer, monsieur, parce que, à ma connaissance, je pense que le Major Kirouac est sorti une couple de fois; mais il revenait presque immédiatement.

Q.677 Au début, le Major Kirouac était là?

A.677 Oui, monsieur.

Q.678 Est-ce qu'il est resté quelque temps?

A.678 Du moins, je le pense. Il était là au commencement, il est entré avec moi.

Q.679 Est-ce qu'il est resté quelque temps avec vous et le Colonel Mercier?

A.679 Oui, monsieur.

Q.680 Et là, comme vous nous l'avez dit, il a été question de votre papier?

A.680 Oui, monsieur.

Q.681 Et après qu'il a été question de votre papier, il a été question aussi des montants d'argent que vous auriez remis à un certain officier médical?

A.681 Oui, monsieur.

Q.682 N'est-il pas vrai, là, que le Colonel Mercier vous a dit: "Tu n'est pas obligé de parler" ?

A.682 Je ne m'en souviens pas, monsieur.

Q.683 Il est possible que le Colonel Mercier l'ait dit, mais que vous ne vous en souveniez pas?

A.683 Depuis que je suis arrêté, j'ai tout pensé à mon affaire, et le Colonel Mercier ne m'a jamais proposé d'avocat et il ne m'a pas dit que je n'étais pas obligé de parler.

Q.684 N'est-il pas vrai que le Colonel Mercier, en cette occasion, vous a dit: "Tu n'es pas obligé de parler"?

A.684 Je ne me souviens pas de ça.

Q.685 Ou quelque chose dans le même sens?

A.685 Je ne m'en rappelle pas, monsieur.

Q.686 N'est-il pas vrai que le Colonel Mercier vous a dit que si vous parliez, que cela pourrait servir contre vous?

A.686 La première fois que j'ai entendu ces paroles-là, moi, je pense, c'était devant la Police Montée. Je trouvais ça drôle, et je me demandais comment ça se faisait que le Colonel Mercier m'avait demandé de faire une déclaration. La Police Montée m'a lu un texte, que je n'étais pas obligé de parler.

Q.687 Et le Colonel Mercier, vous ne vous souvenez pas qu'il vous a dit que vous n'étiez pas obligé de parler?

A.687 Au meilleur de ma connaissance, je pense que le Colonel Mercier ne m'en a pas fait.

Q.688 Vous avez entendu le témoignage du Colonel Mercier?

A.688 Oui, monsieur.

Q.689 Quand le Colonel Mercier dit qu'il vous a mis en garde, alors vous prétendez que le Colonel Mercier mentait?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question et soumet que le témoin n'est pas obligé de répondre.

L'objection est renvoyée par la Cour.

A.689 Non, monsieur.

Q.690 Vous avez entendu témoigner le Colonel Mercier?

A.690 Oui, monsieur.

Q.691 Vous l'avez entendu dire qu'il vous avait mis en garde?

A.691 Oui, monsieur.

Q.693 Vous l'avez entendu dire également qu'il vous a dit que vous n'étiez pas obligé de parler?

A.693 Oui, monsieur.

Q.694 Et que si vous vouliez avoir un avocat, vous pouviez l'avoir?

A.694 Non, monsieur.

Q.695 Quand il a témoigné ici, vous l'avez entendu dire cela?

A.695 Oui, monsieur.

Q.696 Et vous avez entendu le Major Kirouac répéter la même chose?

L'avocat de l'accusé fait remarquer à la Cour que le Major Kirouac n'a pas répété exactement la même chose que le Colonel Mercier.

La Cour demande au Procureur de préciser davantage.

Q.696a Vous avez entendu témoigner le Major Kirouac?

A.696 Oui, monsieur.

Q.697 Et vous lui avez entendu dire, ici à la Cour, des paroles dans le même sens que le Colonel Mercier avait dites?

A.697 Oui, monsieur; du moins, à peu près.

Q.698 Et n'est-il pas vrai que c'est cela que le Colonel Mercier vous a dit ce soir-là?

A.698 Non, monsieur.

Q.699 Est-ce que le Colonel Mercier vous a fait des promesses?

A.699 Non, monsieur.

Q.700 Est-ce qu'il vous a fait des menaces?

A.700 Oui, d'un certain côté; parce qu'il m'a dit... Je ne peux pas dire en quelle circonstance qu'il m'a menacé, mais du moins il m'a menacé du "clink"; il m'a dit: "je pourrais vous envoyer au "clink".

Q.701 Quand vous a-t-il dit cela?

A.701 Je pense que c'est après ma déclaration verbale, monsieur.

Q.702 Quelles sont les paroles que le Colonel Mercier a employées à cette occasion-là?

A.702 Le Colonel Mercier a pris des papiers dans le panier à gauche de son bureau; je pense, au meilleur de ma connaissance, que ce sont des "stencils" de recrues; il a dit: "Hamel, si tu ne veux pas parler, je vais être obligé d'agir.".

Q.703 Là, vous n'aviez pas encore fait votre déclaration?

A.703 Oui, verbalement.

Q.703a Dans cette déclaration-là, vous aviez fait des aveux que vous avez ensuite réduit en écrit?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.704 Lors de cette entrevue avec le Colonel Mercier, vous avez fait certaines déclarations?

A.704 Oui, monsieur.

Q.705 Ces déclarations-là, vous les avez ensuite mises par écrit?

A.705 Oui, monsieur.

Q.706 Etaient-elles dans le même sens que celles que vous aviez faites au Colonel Mercier verbalement?

A.706 Environ, monsieur; à peu près dans le même sens.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat.

Q.707 La déclaration que vous avez écrite de votre main, est-ce que quelqu'un vous a forcé de la donner?

A.707 Bien, si vous voulez, comme forcé, parce que le Colonel Mercier m'avait dit, avant, par ces mots: "Hamel, tu veux te jouer de notre tête; tu veux nous couler". Il m'a montré des piles de 'stencils' et il m'a dit: "Si tu ne parles pas, Hamel, je peux te mettre dans le 'clink'." C'est là que j'ai fait toutes mes déclarations; mes déclarations ont été écrites dans le bureau du Major Kircuac.

Le Procureur poursuit son contre-interrogatoire:

Q.708 Après être arrivé au bureau du Colonel Mercier, est-ce que vous avez été forcé de la faire d'une façon quelconque, par qui que ce soit?

A.708 Non, monsieur, mais de la manière que j'étais pris, entre les officiers et avec la preuve qu'il y avait à l'effet que j'avais donné de l'argent à un certain officier, je lui ai dit ce qui s'était passé.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas ré-interroger le témoin.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.709 Etiez-vous sous arrêt à ce moment-là?

A.709 Non, monsieur, pas à ce moment-là, monsieur.

Q.710 Quand avez-vous été mis sous arrêts?

A.710 Immédiatement à mon entrée à l'hôpital militaire de Québec; il y avait deux gardes à la porte.

Q.711 A votre entrée, la première fois?

A.711 Non, en premier lieu, j'étais à l'hôpital St-Sacrement; la deuxième fois, c'était à l'hôpital Militaire, vers deux heures dans la nuit, si je me rappelle bien.

Q.712 Après avoir donné les déclarations dont vous venez de parler?

A.712 Oui, monsieur.

Q.713 Combien de temps après?

A.713 Environ une heure après, je pense.

Q.714 Dans la même nuit?

A.714 Oui, monsieur.

Q.715 Vous êtes arrivé à une heure à l'Hôpital Militaire, et à peu près une heure plus tard on vous a mis sous arrêts?

A.715 Oui.

Q.716 Avec qui étiez-vous, là? Qu'est-ce qu'on vous a dit lorsqu'on vous a mis sous arrêts?

A.716 Bien, je me suis vu sous arrêts; j'ai demandé de me lever de mon lit pour sortir de ma chambre et des gardes m'ont suivi.

Q.717 Ces gardes-là n'étaient pas des infirmiers?

A.717 Non, monsieur.

Q.718 Etaient-ils là en service d'infirmier ou en service de garde?

A.718 Je ne peux pas dire, mais ils avaient ordre de rester là et de me garder.

Q.719 Savez-vous leur nom?

A.719 Non, monsieur, mais je pense que le sergent-major Landry pourra vous le dire.

Q.720 Alors, vous êtes parti de l'Hôpital St-Sacrement et vous êtes allé au bureau du Colonel Mercier?

A.720 Oui, monsieur.

Q.721 Là, on vous a envoyé à l'Hôpital Militaire de Québec?

A.721 Oui.

Q.722 Vous n'êtes pas retourné à l'Hôpital St-Sacrement?

A.722 Non, monsieur.

Q.723 Et vos effets?

A.723 Le Major Kirouac a dit de les apporter avec moi, et si j'avais besoin d'être hospitalisé après, que je retournerais soit à l'Hôpital St-Sacrement soit à l'Hôpital Militaire de Québec, et que je pourrais emporter mon linge avec moi.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin, l'accusé, reprend son siège.

PLAIDOIERIE DU PROCUREUR SUR LE VOIR DIRE

Qu'il plaise à la Cour:

Voici, il y a une preuve additionnelle au dossier; c'est la déclaration de l'accusé lui-même qui vient de se faire entendre.

L'accusé vient de déclarer à la Cour qu'au moment où il s'est présenté devant le Colonel Mercier, il n'était pas sous arrêts. Le Colonel Mercier l'affirme lui-même et le Major Kirouac l'affirme lui aussi.

L'accusé n'avait aucune accusation contre lui. Le Colonel Mercier conduisait une enquête sur certaines irrégularités qui avaient été découvertes quelques jours avant ou quelques heures avant chez le D.M.O. à Québec. Au cours de son enquête, le Colonel Mercier fait demander l'accusé. Dans le temps, il n'était pas l'accusé; il était une personne qui pouvait donner des informations.

L'accusé se rend devant le Colonel Mercier. Le Colonel Mercier nous dit: "Je lui ai fait une mise en garde". La mise en garde que le Colonel Mercier lui fait est celle-ci: "Tu n'es pas obligé de parler; tu peux avoir un avocat; si tu parles, cela va servir contre toi."

Le Major Kirouac, qui était présent à cette entrevue, confirme cela; ses paroles ne sont pas tout-à-fait identiques, mais, je dirais, elles tendent vers un même but. Il est vrai que les évènements se sont passés il y a plus d'un mois, et comme la Cour s'en rend compte, l'enquête a été assez fructueuse, bien que les témoins ne se rappellent pas de tous les petits détails. Mais l'accusé lui-même nous a raconté qu'il avait parlé à cette occasion-là librement, sans y être forcé en aucune façon, ni par des promesses, ni par des menaces.

Il est allé devant son Officier-commandant et il lui a raconté ce qu'il savait.

La question du "clink" que la défense a soulevée au cours du contre-interrogatoiredes témoins de la poursuite, est éclaircie. L'accusé a admis que c'est avant qu'il fasse ses déclarations écrites, mais après avoir fait ses déclarations orales. Si un doute reste parce que les déclarations écrites auraient été faites sous le coup d'une menace, ce que je n'admets que comme hypothèse seulement, la déclaration verbale n'a pas cette partie qui pourrait laisser croire qu'il y a eu menaces, et je soumets que le Colonel Mercier a prouvé son écrit. Donc ceci cadre exactement avec le paragraphe 78, sous-paragraphes (1) et (2), Chapitre VI du Manuel de Droit Militaire, pages 91 et 92.

Le Colonel Mercier, à ce moment-là, n'avait pas de mise en garde à faire à l'accusé, car au moment où l'accusé se présentait devant lui, le Colonel Mercier conduisait une enquête. Le Colonel Mercier l'a affirmé: "je n'avais pas pris de décision quant à le faire arrêter." En fait, l'accusé n'est pas mis sous arrêts le 19 octobre au soir. L'accusé a été mis sous arrêts, d'après le Colonel Mercier, le lendemain.

C-159

Le document écrit par l'accusé ce soir-là, l'accusé l'admet. C'est une confirmation ou un résumé de ce qu'il avait donné verbalement au Colonel Mercier, et dans l'opinion de la poursuite, cette confession tant orale que écrite, a été faite librement et volontairement par l'accusé dans les conditions autorisées par la loi, et la poursuite soumet que tant les déclarations orales de l'accusé que le document écrit devraient être admis par la Cour.

PLAIDOIERIE DE L'AVOCAT DE L'ACCUSE SUR LE VOIR DIRE

Je soumets que ni l'une ni l'autre de ces preuves ne devraient être soumises devant la Cour. D'abord, je crois qu'il faut diviser l'argument en deux parties, la déclaration écrite et la déclaration verbale.

Je soumets que d'après la preuve faite devant vous, pour ce qui concerne la déclaration écrite, qu'il ne fait pas de doute actuellement qu'elle ne puisse être admise. De l'aveu même des témoins de la poursuite, cette déclaration a été obtenue à la suite d'une menace. On pourrait peut-être dire que, étant la copie ou le résumé d'une déclaration précédente, faite verbalement, que cette déclaration écrite pourrait être admise et maintenue. Je soumets que non, et que si l'on veut produire d'abord une déclaration spécifique, portant la signature de l'accusé, et où par conséquent, là, il n'y aurait plus de différence sur les termes des déclarations écrites par l'accusé, déclarations qui l'incrimineraient, et si l'on veut placer cela devant la Cour, prenant en considération le fait qu'on l'a menacé avant de faire sa déclaration écrite, dans les circonstances qui ont été rapportées à la Cour, menaces qui ont été admises par celui qui les a faites et corroborées par l'accusé lui-même, je dis donc que la Cour ne peut pas en prendre connaissance parce que ces déclarations ont été faites sous menaces.

Mon savant ami dit: "L'accusé a éclairé la situation au point de vue du 'clink' ". La situation était claire avant que l'accusé parle. L'accusé a corroboré, purement et simplement, pas autre chose, le témoignage du Colonel Mercier qui avait affirmé lui-même que cette question de "clink" était venue entre la déclaration verbale et la déclaration écrite. Il reste la déclaration verbale.

Sur ce point, la Cour me permettra peut-être, non pas que je veuille rappeler des principes que la Cour connaît, mais pour pouvoir mettre au dossier les autorités sur lesquelles nous nous reposons.

Dans une question d'admissibilité d'aveux, il ne suffit pas qu'une personne vienne dire: je n'ai pas fait de menaces. C'est à la Cour à le décider. Il ne suffit pas qu'une personne dise: je n'ai pas fait de promesses. C'est à la Cour à le décider. Il faut prendre l'ensemble des circonstances, et c'est de l'ensemble des circonstances que la Cour doit décider si oui ou non il y a eu, ou il n'y a pas eu un "inducement", soit exprès, soit implicite.

Là-dessus, la Cour me permettra de citer d'abord la cause qui est la première du type, du Conseil Privé, la cause d'Ibrahim -vs- le Roi, qui est la cause-type, et qui est précisément une cause où il s'agissait d'un aveu fait à un Officier-commandant. Ibrahim -vs- le Roi, 1914, p. 710.

Je me permettrai également de citer la cause de Sankey -vs- le Roi, Cour Suprême. Dans cette cause, les mêmes principes du droit commun ont été appliqués que dans celle d'Ibrahim. La Cour trouvera cette cause à 48 C.C.C., p. 97.

Le résumé de Sankey se trouve dans Crankshaw au No. 68, p. 772, de la section 685 du Code Criminel:

"The onus is on the Crown to establish the voluntariness of a confession, and this can rarely if ever be established by the evidence of the policeofficer who took the statement that it was voluntarily and freely given. All the surrounding circumstances and details must be given."

Et c'est par l'étude de l'ensemble des circonstances que l'on décide si oui ou non la personne qui a fait la déclaration était dans un état d'esprit tel qu'elle la faisait librement. Il peut y avoir une question posée par une personne en autorité; une personne ordinaire qui ne provoquera aucune crainte pourra ne pas être un "inducement", et d'aucunes questions posées à une autre personne, dans des circonstances différentes, pourra devenir un "inducement".

Ici, dans la cause de Sankey, si la Cour réfère au rapport, elle verra qu'il s'agissait d'une petite Indienne, je crois, qui était plus ou moins instruite, à qui on avait donné une mise en garde plus ou moins sûre, et la Cour a décidé que, étant donné les circonstances, l' "inducement" qu'il y avait de la personne en autorité était suffisant et que la mise en garde n'avait pas écarté l' "inducement".

Il est vrai, comme le dit mon savant ami, que l'accusé n'était pas sous arrêts. Mais cette déclaration est faite à une personne en autorité; pas seulement à une personne, mais cette déclaration est faite à deux et peut-être à trois personnes: le Colonel Mercier, le Major Kirouac, et pour un certain temps, il y a le Major Lacasse.

En second lieu, il y a un autre élément qui doit être pris en considération: c'est dans quel état d'esprit et dans quel état de santé se trouve à ce moment-là le "private" que l'on va chercher à l'hôpital, que l'on amène sous une curieuse de raison au bureau du Colonel Mercier.

Une fois rendu au bureau, on le parade devant le Commandant. Qu'est-ce que le Commandant lui dit d'abord? Il y a d'abord là, un état d'esprit qui se crée chez ce "private", qui est sorti de l'hôpital et qui est paradé devant le Commandant. Là, le Commandant lui demande des renseignements sur sa famille et avant toute mise en garde, il dit: "Hamel, vous seriez mieux, au lieu de donner de l'argent à un certain officer, d'en donner à chez vous".

Qu'est-ce que cela veut dire dans l'esprit d'Hamel? Cela veut dire que Hamel, à ce moment-là, se dit: le Colonel sait quelquechose contre moi; le Colonel a une preuve contre moi. Et, par conséquent, s'il a une preuve contre moi, peut-être bien que je vais m'en tirer mieux si je parle. Puis le Colonel le questionne. Le Colonel Mercier dit qu'il l'a mis en garde. La Cour a dû remarquer que la mise en garde rapportée par le Colonel Mercier est infiniment moins compliquée que celle du Major Kirouac; celle du Major Kirouac est presque parfaite: on dirait qu'il l'a lue avant d'entrer en Cour; c'est la loi elle-même. Tandis que celle du Colonel Mercier est plus brève. Et je soumets que l'accusé a rendu un témoignage honnête sur ce point-là.

L'accusé ajoute ceci: "Il me semble que la première fois que j'ai entendu ces mots-là, de la mise en garde, c'est lorsque la Police Montée m'a lu la mise en garde." Ce ne sont pas là des choses qui s'inventent; ce ne sont pas des choses qui se trouvent, qui se suggèrent. Vous avez là la preuve que, comme question de fait, il n'y a pas eu de mise en garde.

Il n'y a pas eu de mise en garde pour une excellente raison, et c'est le Colonel Mercier qui nous la donne; c'est que le Colonel Mercier n'avait pas l'intention de l'arrêter. Il faisait une enquête non seulement sur Hamel, mais sur tout le monde; alors, il n'avait pas besoin de faire une mise en garde à Hamel. En droit, le Colonel Mercier avait évidemment le droit de questionner tout le monde -cela ne fait pas de doute- seulement entre le droit d'un policier ou d'une personne en autorité de poser des questions pour amener la découverte d'un crime, et le droit de mettre cela subséquemment comme preuve, il y a de la marge.

Les détectives ont le droit de faire une enquête, mais cela ne veut pas dire que toutes les enquêtes et toutes les questions qu'ils posent, suivies des réponses, que c'est de la preuve légale ou des admissions qui peuvent être mises au dossier.

Pour que ces déclarations soient admissibles, il faut que la Cour soit convaincue que quand Hamel a parlé au Colonel Mercier, quand il a fait ses déclarations, qu'il n'avait pas l'idée, ni la pensée qu'il était obligé de parler, et non plus qu'il améliorerait son sort vis-à-vis de son Commandant et vis-à-vis des autres Officiers-commandants, s'il parlait.

La Cour ne peut être convaincue qu'un examen qui commence à neuf heures et demie et qui finit vers une heure et demie dans la nuit, examen d'un "private" que l'on va chercher à l'hôpital, que l'on fait écrire avec un officier à côté de lui, est un examen, une déclaration admissible comme libre et volontaire. Je soumets qu'on ne peut pas dire, hors de tout doute, que toutes les questions posées et toutes les réponses données ont été libres et volontaires.

Dans les circonstances, je soumets que les déclarations de l'accusé, tant verbales qu'écrites, ne devraient pas être admises.

La Cour siège en audience privée pour étudier la question.

La Cour siège en audience publique et annonce que la transcription de certains témoignages est nécessaire afin d'éclairer la Cour dans ses délibérations, et en ordonne la transcription.

A 5 h. 20 de l'après-midi, le 26 novembre 1942, la cour s'est ajournée jusqu'à dix h. de l'avant-midi, le 27 novembre 1942.

A 10 h. de l'avant-midi, le 27 novembre 1942, la cour se rassemble conformément à l'avis d'ajournement; sont présents les mêmes membres que lors de la suspension des débats.

Le Juge-Avocat annonce que la Cour a décidé de ne pas accepter la déclaration manuscrite de l'accusé offerte par la poursuite et d'accepter la déclaration verbale.

CINQUIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

Lieut.-Colonel Jules MERCIER, Médecin-chef du District Militaire No. 5, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.724 Colonel Mercier, vous rappelez-vous que l'accusé est allé chez vous à la date du 19 octobre 1942?

A.724 Oui, monsieur.

Q.725 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour ce que l'accusé vous a dit en cette occasion?

A.725 Après lui avoir fait la mise en garde, l'accusé m'a raconté, et je crois, sans que je lui pose beaucoup de questions, volontairement, il m'a raconté qu'il avait reçu d'un nommé René Bourque, la somme de $40.00. Cet argent, je crois, lui a été remis chez lui et a été laissé sur une table, qu'il m'a dit, et sur le montant de $40.00, il a déclaré en avoir donné au Capitaine Grondin.

Q.726 A qui?

A.726 Un officier de la 5ème Compagnie, lequel est accusé.

Q.727 Quelles sont ses fonctions?

A.727 Le Capitaine Grondin travaillait sur le bureau des examinateurs.

Q.728 A quel titre?

A.728 Il travaillait soit comme membre ou président d'un 'board', d'une commission militaire.

Q.729 Est-ce que le soldat Hamel vous a déclaré autre chose à cette occasion?

A.729 Le soldat Hamel m'a parlé aussi du sergent Fortin.

Q.730 Est-ce que Hamel à l'occasion de sa déclaration, a déclaré avoir donné de l'argent à d'autres médecins ou à d'autres membres du personnel du D.M.O.?

A.730 Non, monsieur.

Q.731 Hamel a-t-il, à cette occasion, déclaré avoir reçu de l'argent de d'autres que de Bourque?

A.731 Non, monsieur.

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.732 Je comprends que Hamel vous a dit qu'un nommé Bourque était allé chez lui?

A.732 Oui, monsieur.

Q.733 Et qu'il avait placé sur une table une somme de $40.00?

A.733 Oui, monsieur.

Q.734 Et il vous a dit également qu'il n'y avait jamais eu d'entente entre Bourque et lui au sujet d'un montant qu'il devait recevoir?

A.734 Je ne me rappelle pas s'il m'a dit qu'il n'y avait aucune entente; à tout évènement, il n'a pas mentionné aucune entente.

Q.735 Et il vous a dit qu'à même ce montant il avait remis $10.00 au Capitaine Grondin?

A.735 Oui, monsieur.

Q.736 C'est la seule occasion qu'il vous a rapportée comme étant une occasion où il aurait reçu de l'argent et la seule occasion qu'il vous a rapportée comme étant une occasion où il en aurait remis à des officiers ou à d'autres?

A.736 Oui, monsieur.

Q.737 Et vous lui avez demandé de vous rapporter tous les cas où il avait pu recevoir de l'argent ou en remettre?

A.737 Je lui ai demandé de dire la vérité.

Le Procureur ne désire pas ré-interroger le témoin.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

SIXIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

Major Charles KIROUAC, Officier-commandant, 5ème Compagnie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.738 Vous souvenez-vous, Major, d'avoir assisté à une entrevue entre le Colonel Mercier et le soldat Hamel, le 19 octobre 1942?

A.738 Oui, monsieur.

Q.739 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour quelles sont les déclarations que Hamel a faites en cette occasion?

A.739 Le soldat Hamel a déclaré qu'il avait eu la visite, d'abord au bureau, qu'il avait rencontré un civil du nom de Bourque qui voulait passer son examen médical devant le conseil de révision; il lui a dit où aller, soit pour aller chercher ses documents, dans quelle salle se présenter et que dans la soirée, le civil Bourque s'est présenté chez lui, l'a remercié de lui avoir facilité les choses pour passer son examen sans être obligé d'attendre. C'est le civil Bourque qui est allé remercier le soldat Hamel chez lui, toujours d'après la déclaration de l'accusé, et il lui aurait offert de l'argent; je crois que c'est un montant de $40.00 qu'il a dit dans le temps. Le soldat Hamel a déclaré qu'il avait refusé ce montant malgré les instances du civil Bourque parce que à son dire, il avait absolument fait rien que son devoir, en guidant le soldat au bureau des officiers médicaux.

Après le départ du Civil Bourque, le soldat Hamel s'aperçut que la somme d'argent qu'il lui avait offerte était demeurée chez lui. Le civil Bourque l'avait laissée chez Hamel.

Le soldat Hamel déclara alors que comme il n'était pour rien dans le résultat de l'examen, il a pensé que le médecin qui avait fait passer l'examen avait droit plus que lui à une rémunération et il déclara alors avoir donné une somme de $10.00 au Capitaine J.A. Grondin.

Q.740 Quelles sont les fonctions du Capitaine Grondin?

A.740 Au moment de ces évènements, le capitaine Grondin était membre du conseil de révision médical, composé de trois membres, un des membres de ce conseil pour les examens des recrues, soit des recrues appelées ou des recrues volontaires.

Q.741 Est-ce que le Capitaine Grondin fait partie de l'Armée Canadienne?

A.741 Oui, monsieur.

Q.742 Il travaillait chez le D.M.O. à titre d'officier médical?

A.742 Oui, monsieur.

Q.743 Est-ce que l'accusé a déclaré devant le Colonel Mercier avoir reçu de d'autres personnes des montants d'argent?

A.743 Il a déclaré avoir reçu - je crois que c'est un montant de 50 cents du soldat Cloutier à titre de pourboire, pour avoir préparé au clavigraphe je ne me souviens pas si c'est une formule de libération ou une autre formule. Il a déclaré dans ce temps-là aussi que le soldat Cloutier lui avait demandé de préparer cette formule immédiatement parce que la personne concernée devait s'en retourner et attendait après.

A.743 (suite)

Q.744 Est-ce que Hamel, à cette occasion, a déclaré avoir payé à d'autres officiers que le Capitaine Grondin ou à d'autres personnes des montants d'argent?

A.744 Je ne crois pas, je ne m'en souviens pas.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas contre-interroger le témoin.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.745 Quand vous dites que le Capitaine Grondin travaillait au bureau médical, la Cour comprend qu'il y travaillait dans le temps, entre la période de juin à octobre, n'est-ce-pas?

A.745 Dans le temps, oui, monsieur.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

SEPTIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

No. B-20613, C.S.M. Joseph DROLET, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.746 Je comprends que vous êtes le sergent-major régimentaire de la 5ème Compagnie du Corps Médical?

A.746 Je n'en fais pas partie.

Q.747 Vous êtes du D.M.O.?

A.747 Oui, monsieur.

Q.748 Est-il à votre connaissance personnelle, la date à laquelle l'accusé a été mis sous arrêts?

A.748 En voyant le "Part II", je pourrais vous dire ça?

Q.749 Voulez-vous prendre connaissance du "Part II Order" de la 5ème Cie Médicale, en date du 20 octobre 1942, pièce déjà soumise comme Exhibit "G"?

A.749 D'après le "Part II", c'est depuis le 20 octobre.

Q.750 De quelle année?

A.750 1942.

Q.751 D'après l'Exhibit "G" ?

A.751 Oui, monsieur.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas contre-interroger le témoin.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

Le Procureur annonce qu'il n'a pas l'intention de faire entendre le dernier témoin dont le nom apparait au sommaire de la preuve, à savoir, le Capitaine J.A. Grondin.

L'avocat de l'accusé déclare ne pas désirer interroger le Capitaine J.A. Grondin.

Le procureur n'a plus de témoins à appeler.

La preuve de la poursuite est close.

DEFENSE

Questions à l'accusé.

Q.752 Désirez-vous comparaître, vous-même, comme témoin?

A.752 Non, monsieur.

Q.753 Désirez-vous faire comparaître d'autres témoins en votre faveur?

A.753 Oui, monsieur, un témoin.

Q.754 Doit-il témoigner en faveur de votre réputation seulement?

A.754 Non, monsieur.

Q.755 Désirez-vous faire une déclaration non assermentée sur laquelle vous ne pourriez pas être interrogée?

A.755 Non, monsieur.

(voir pages D-3 et seq.)

PREMIER TEMOIN
A DECHARGE.

Docteur Jean-Charles MILLER, domicilié à Giffard, P.Q., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.756 Docteur, vous êtes médecin pratiquant à Québec?

A.756 Oui, monsieur.

Q.757 Depuis plusieurs années?

A.757 Oui, monsieur.

Q.758 Depuis combien de temps?

A.758 Depuis une vingtaine d'années.

Q.759 Est-ce que vous êtes spécialiste dans une des branches de la médecine?

A.759 Oui, monsieur.

Q.760 Dans quelle branche?

A.760 Les maladies mentales et nerveuses.

Q.761 Avez-vous fait des études spéciales pour cela?

A.761 Oui, monsieur.

Q.762 Où?

A.762 Aux Etats-Unis et à Paris.

Q.763 Détenez-vous certains diplômes?

A.763 Oui, monsieur.

Q.764 Où avez-vous pratiqué cette spécialité?

A.764 Aux Etats-Unis et puis ici, à Québec.

Q.765 Etes-vous attaché à une institution spéciale à Québec?

A.765 A St-Michel Archange.

Q.766 Faites-vous partie du Corps Médical de l'Armée Canadienne?

A.766 Oui, monsieur.

Q.767 A quelle unité appartenez-vous?

A.767 A la 19ème Ambulance.

Q.768 Avez-vous été demandé depuis le mois de juin au mois d'octobre à faire des examens à la demande du Corps Médical de l'Armée?

A.768 Oui, monsieur.

Q.769 Ces examens portaient sur quoi?

A.769 Sur l'état nerveux et mental des hommes.

Q.770 Et vous faisiez ces examens lorsque ces hommes vous étaient envoyés par qui?

A.770 Par les commandants, par les médecins régimentaires.

Q.771 Avez-vous eu occasion, dans le cours de l'automne de 1942, d'examiner un nommé René Bourque?

A.771 Oui, monsieur.

Q.772 Pouvez-vous dire à la Cour à quelle date cet examen a été fait?

A.772 Est-ce que je puis consulter le dossier?

Q.773 Pour être plus clair, je crois qu'il y a eu deux examens; c'est du premier dont je vous parle actuellement.

A.773 Je l'ai vu le 18 septembre et le 22 septembre.

Q.774 1942?

A.774 Oui, monsieur.

Q.775 Le 18 septembre, vous avez fait cet examen à la demande de qui?

A.775 Je ne puis vous dire exactement, monsieur.

Q.776 Ce que je veux savoir, est-ce que c'est à sa demande à lui ou à la demande de d'autres personnes?

A.776 Il est venu à moi régulièrement, par la filière ordinaire. Les demandes d'examens de spécialistes sont toujours ordonnées et reçues au bureau par les officiers en charge des bureaux. Et ensuite elles sont référées à chaque spécialiste.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.777 Ce que la défense voudrait savoir est ceci: Est-ce que Bourque vous a été envoyé par les autorités militaires, par les autorités civiles ou s'il y est allé de lui-même?

A.777 Ca a été par la filière des autorités militaires.

L'avocat de l'accusé poursuit son interrogatoire:

Q.778 L'avez-vous examiné?

A.778 Oui, monsieur.

Q.779 Voulez-vous dire à la Cour, docteur, quel a été le résultat de ce premier examen?

A.779 J'ai conclu à un état psycho-constitutionnel.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.780 Ce qui veut dire, docteur, en termes ordinaires?

A.780 Débilité nerveuse constitutionnelle qui comporte une prédisposition, une résistance nerveuse ou une prédisposition aux maladies mentales.

L'avocat de l'accusé poursuit son interrogatoire:

Q.781 Est-ce qu'il vous appartenait, après avoir fait ce diagnostic, d'établir le classement de l'individu?

A.781 Non, monsieur.

Q.782 Vous donnez seulement le diagnostic?

A.782 Oui, monsieur.

Q.783 Cet examen, dans quelles conditions s'est-il fait, docteur?

A.783 Je ne me rappelle pas exactement.

Q.784 Est-ce que ça s'est fait régulièrement ou irrégulièrement?

Le Juge-Avocat déclare que la question en est une d'opinion, que la Cour décidera elle-même.

La question est retirée.

Q.785 Avez-vous procédé dans ce cas comme dans les autres cas ou d'une façon différente?

A.785 Comme dans les autres.

Q.786 Subséquemment, avez-vous eu à examiner de nouveau le civil Bourque?

A.786 Oui, monsieur.

Q.787 Vous ne vous rappelez pas à quelle occasion et pourquoi?

A.787 Je ne sais pas pourquoi.

Q.788 De quelle façon vous est-il arrivé, la deuxième fois?

A.788 Il était très énervé.

Q.789 De quelle façon; pouvez-vous nous dire s'il vous est arrivé régulièrement? Qui vous l'a envoyé, la deuxième fois?

A.789 Je ne le sais pas.

Q.790 Est-ce par les autorités civiles, par lui-même ou par les autorités militaires?

A.790 Tout ce que je fais au bureau, je le fais comme venant des autorités militaires.

Q.791 A qui faisiez-vous rapport de cet examen, docteur?

A.791 Je remettais les dossiers à un de mes commis.

Q.792 Des commis de quoi?

A.792 Des commis de bureau.

Q.793 Quel bureau? La Cour ne le sait pas.

A.793 Du grand bureau général.

Q.794 Où cet examen se tenait-il, se faisait-il?

A.794 Dans une des salles d'examen du bureau.

Q.795 De quel bureau, de qui? Votre bureau personnel?

A.795 Dans le bureau de la milice de la rue St-Jean.

Q.796 Et vous remettiez le rapport à un des commis au bureau de la milice?

A.796 Oui, monsieur.

Q.797 Voulez-vous nous donner le résultat du deuxième examen?

A.797 C'est une explication plus détaillée du premier.

Q.798 Pourriez-vous donner à la Cour, en référant à vos notes, cette explication que vous avez donnée?

Le Procureur s'objecte à la question, et s'adresse à la Cour:

" Je ne veux pas m'objecter inutilement. Si on veut trouver que Bourque n'est pas en état de témoigner, c'est un autre cas. Si c'est question de prouver si l'examen est régulier ou irrégulier, c'est inutile de mettre publiquement ici le dossier médical d'un 'board'. Somme toute, ce n'est pas un mal de genoux que cet homme-là a. Qu'il me soit permis d'ajouter que les rapports médicaux sont considérés comme confidentiels.

" Si le témoin se sert du dossier, il faut qu'on le produise. Je ne veux pas créer de difficultés pour la défense; mais, mon devoir est de mettre les faits devant le Tribunal, tous les faits que je connais en laissant à la défense la latitude voulue. Je ne suis pas ici comme persécuteur mais comme procureur, et je voudrais que les débats restent justes pour les gens qui ne sont pas présents ici."

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.799 Docteur, est-ce que le deuxième examen que vous avez fait a confirmé le premier?

A.799 Oui, monsieur.

Contre-interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.800 Docteur, est-ce que la maladie dont souffre Bourque l'empêche de témoigner sensément; est-ce qu'il est 'compos mentis'; est-ce qu'il a ses facultés mentales pour témoigner?

A.800 Je crois que c'est relatif. Il y a déjà deux mois que je l'ai vu. La condition de ses prédispositions est très variable d'une période à l'autre. Quand je l'ai vu, dans l'état où je l'ai vu, je puis dire qu'il n'était certainement pas en possession de tous ses moyens.

Q.801 Moyens mentaux?

A.801 Oui, monsieur.

Q.802 Depuis deux mois, vous ne pouvez pas dire ce qui en est?

A.802 Non, monsieur.

Q.803 Est-ce que la maladie de Bourque ne dépendait pas du fait qu'il était dans l'Armée comme recrue?

A.803 C'est ce que j'ai pensé, oui, monsieur.

Q.804 Et que le seul fait d'être licencié de l'Armée pouvait parfaitement le guérir?

A.804 C'est la première condition de son amélioration.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas ré-interroger le témoin.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.805 Vous avez dit que vous faisiez partie de la 19ème Ambulance?

A.805 La Réserve, oui, monsieur.

Q.806 Quel est votre grade?

A.806 Major.

Q.807 Dans toutes ces transactions, vous agissiez pour l'autorité militaire et vous étiez payé par elle?

A.807 Oui, monsieur.

Q.808 Vous faisiez vos rapports à l'autorité militaire?

A.808 Oui, monsieur.

Q.809 Bourque vous était envoyé à titre militaire?

A.809 Oui, monsieur.

Q.810 Comme soldat et appelé en service militaire?

A.810 Je ne savais pas réellement à quelle catégorie était cet homme.

Q.811 Il s'est présenté à vous comme recrue pour examen médical?

A.811 Oui, monsieur.

Q.812 Etait-il en uniforme?

A.812 C'est un "R" recruit.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

CONCLUSION

La Cour siège en audience privée.

La Cour déclare l'accusé, No. E-25913, soldat Louis-Philippe HAMEL, 5ème Compagnie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., coupable des deux chefs d'accusation.

PROCES-VERBAL DE DECLARATION DE CULPABILITE AVANT LA SENTENCE

Témoignage quant à la réputation etc.

L'audience publique étant reprise, l'accusé comparaît de nouveau par devant la Cour.

Major L. J. LACASSE, Officier-commandant, 5ème Compagnie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., prête dûment serment.

Interrogé par le Président:

Q.813 Avez-vous quelque déposition à faire touchant la réputation et les états de service de l'accusé?

A.813 Oui, je soumets la formule M.F.B. 355 de l'accusé.

La formule M.F.B. 355 ci-dessus est lue, marquée "Y", signée par le Président et jointe au procès-verbal.

Q.814 L'accusé, est-il la personne nommée dans la formule M.F.B.355 que je viens de lire?

A.814 Oui, monsieur.

Q.815 Avez-vous comparé le contenu de ce document avec les livres régimentaires?

A.815 Oui, monsieur.

Q.816 Est-ce que ce document est un résumé authentique des livres régimentaires?

A.816 Oui, monsieur.

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.817 Major, vous avez le soldat Hamel sous vos ordres depuis combien de temps?

A.817 Depuis le commencement de septembre.

Q.818 De quelle année?

A.818 1942; je l'avais indirectement sous mes ordres depuis le mois de janvier 1941.

Q.819 Voulez-vous nous dire, à votre connaissance, de quelle façon le soldat Hamel remplissait ses devoirs?

A.819 Je dois dire que le soldat Hamel s'est toujours acquitté de ses devoirs avec conscience et, de plus, qu'il a toujours fait preuve d'une bonne volonté, toute égale à celle des autres membres de notre Corps; le soldat Hamel, que ce fût pendant les heures régulières de travail ou pour des circonstances qui sortaient de l'ordinaire, ou encore pour tenir son travail à date, venait même travailler le soir.

Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger le témoin.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

L'accusé est interrogé par le président:

Q.820 Désirez-vous adresser la parole à la Cour?

A.820 ...

L'avocat de la défense fait la déclaration suivante au nom de l'accusé:

" Je désire souligner à la Cour que, en plus de la preuve devant elle, le soldat Hamel n'a jamais eu une conduite répréhensible dans l'Armée, et que son 'conduct sheet' est blanc.

" De ce fait, il est évident que sa conduite sort de l'ordinaire puisque son Officer-commandant vient de lui donner un certificat de travail, de fidélité au travail et de conscience dans l'exécution de ses devoirs, lequel, il me semble, devrait être pris en considération par la Cour.

" Je sais que la Cour prendra également en considération le fait que le soldat Hamel est déjà en détention depuis trente-huit jours, et que, dans les circonstances qui ont été révélées au Tribunal, le soldat Hamel a été caporal et qu'il a déjà été réduit au grade de simple soldat, et qu'en plus de cela, il a également perdu son 'tradespay'."

La Cour siège en audience privée en vue de l'examen de la sentence à imposer.

OPENING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR
in the case of
E/25913, Pte. Louis-Philippe HAMEL,
No. 5 Coy, R.C.A.M.C., C.A.

Monsieur le Président, messieurs les membres de la Cour:—

Le Soldat Hamel est ici devant cette Cour avec deux accusations portées contre lui sous la Section 40 de l'Acte de l'Armée.

Pour prouver ces accusations, la Poursuite fera d'abord entendre un témoin qui viendra décrire les fonctions de l'accusé chez le D.M.O. à Québec.

Ensuite, pour prouver la première accusation, savoir: "lorsqu'il était employé chez le D.M.O. à Québec, auprès des Bureaux des Examinateurs Médicaux de l'Armée, a reçu différents montants d'argent, de différentes personnes, dans l'exécution de ses devoirs militaires."

Pour prouver cette accusation, la Poursuite fera entendre trois témoins civils qui viendront dire à la Cour qu'à l'occasion de leurs examens militaires à la suite de leur enrôlement dans l'Armée, ils ont rencontré l'accusé et ont versé à l'accusé pour les services qu'il leur avait rendus, certaines sommes d'argent.

Enfin pour prouver la deuxième accusation, à savoir: d'avoir distribué à du personnel militaire, des montants d'argent qu'il avait ainsi reçues des candidats, la Poursuite fera entendre les personnes mêmes qui ont reçu cet argent et qui l'ont accepté.

Enfin, l'accusé a fait des aveux, et la Poursuite entend mettre en preuve que ces aveux ont été faits librement et volontairement, et que, conséquemment, ils sont admissibles contre l'accusé à son procès.

C'est là la preuve de la Poursuite dans le cas de l'accusé Hamel.

PLAIDOIRIE DE CLOTURE DE L'AVOCAT
DE L'ACCUSE

Jacqueline Bizé
Pvs. G.C.M.

Qu'il plaise à la Cour.

Je vais tenter de résumer aussi brièvement que possible la position que la défense prend dans cette cause.

Au début de mes remarques, il y a certaines règles et certains principes que je crois devoir rappeler, bien que je suis convaincu à l'avance que la Cour les connait bien et désire les appliquer.

J'attire l'attention de la Cour sur l'article 67, Chapitre V du Manuel de Droit Militaire, p. 58:

"67. At the outset of their deliberations the Court must remember that it is a principle of English law that the accused is presumed to be innocent until he is proved to be guilty, and that the burden of proof rests upon the prosecution. Unless, therefore, the guilt of the accused has been established beyond reasonable doubt, the accused must be acquitted, as the prosecution has failed to sustain adequately the burden of proving his guilt.

Generally speaking, it is legally open to a court to convict an accused person upon the evidence of one credible witness. But in some cases corroboration of such witness is required by law; in others it is required by practice almost amounting to a rule of law. In some instances it is desirable that corroboration should be looked for though not actually required by law or practice."

J'attire également l'attention de la Cour sur l'article 68, qui se lit comme suit:

"68. The Court, in considering their decision, must not be influenced by the consideration of any supposed intention of the convening officer in sending the accused for trial by a particular kind of court-martial. In many cases, the convening officer will have decided no more than that a prima facie case against the accused is shown upon the summary of evidence, and that he will have formed no opinion as to the guilt of the accused. An acquittal, therefore, is not in itself a reflection upon the convening officer. Even if it were, it would afford no reason whatever for a court to convict, unless the evidence established the charge."

Si je me permets de citer cette clause-ci, c'est parce que évidemment l'accusé est amené devant vous dans des circonstances peut-être particulières, et qui peuvent peut-être, à première vue, apporter à l'étude de sa cause une gravité qu'en somme la preuve ne révèle pas. Ce n'est pas parce que l'accusé est amené devant vous avec d'autres accusés; ce n'est pas parce que l'accusé est ici devant une Court Martiale Générale que la présomption d'innocence qui est en sa faveur doit être mise de côté et qu'une gravité plus spéciale doit être attachée à des actes qui, en eux-mêmes, je le soumets respectueusement, n'ont pas cette gravité.

L'accusé est devant vous sous deux chefs d'accusation, les deux sous l'article 40, c'est-à-dire d'avoir eu une conduite préjudiciable au bon ordre et à la discipline de l'Armée, premièrement, en recevant de l'argent dans l'exécution de ses fonctions, et deuxièmement, en en remettant à d'autres, en étant également dans l'exécution de leurs fonctions.

PLAIDOIRIE DE CLOTURE DE L'AVOCAT DE L'ACCUSE (suite)

Pour le premier, on pourra peut-être invoquer l'article 421 (B) du K.R. (Can.), qui se lit comme suit:

"421(B) Officers and soldiers are forbidden to accept presents in money from public bodies or private individuals in recognition of services rendered in the performance of their duty."

" Je soumets respectueusement que je ne crois pas que vous puissiez prendre en considération cet article, car si vous le prenez en considération, vous ne pourrez pas juger l'accusé suivant l'article 40 de l'"Army Act". Cela serait une offense déjà prévue aux articles 9 et 11 de l'"Army Act". On aurait dû le poursuivre en relation avec ces articles, car je ne crois pas qu'on puisse le trouver coupable d'une offense précise déjà prévue par un autre texte de la Loi Militaire. En vertu de la Section 40 de l'"Army Act", par conséquent, il faut que vous trouviez que les actes en eux-mêmes, actes qu'on reproche à l'accusé, sont des actes préjudiciables au bon ordre et à la discipline de l'Armée.

" On n'accuse pas l'inculpé d'avoir désobéi à un article spécial; on l'accuse d'avoir eu une conduite préjudiciable, d'avoir posé des actes qui sont préjudiciables au bon ordre et à la discipline de l'Armée, alors que ces actes-là ne sont pas spécifiquement défendus par aucun texte de la loi.

" Alors, il nous reste donc à examiner premièrement, sur le premier chef, quels sont les faits qui ont été révélés et qui vous permettraient de décider si l'accusé a posé des actes qui sont préjudiciables au bon ordre et à la discipline de l'Armée.

" Le premier témoin entendu sur cet item, c'est le témoin Larose. Le témoin Larose est un monsieur qui s'est présenté d'abord à l'Aviation, qui avait été refusé, mais dont le sort n'était pas complètement décidé. Il s'est présenté au début d'octobre au bureau d'enrôlement; il s'est présenté pour enrôlement dans l'Armée.

" Il s'est présenté chez le docteur Desmeules, après avoir signé ses formules régulièrement. Il n'y a rien d'irrégulier dans la façon dont il s'est conduit, dans la façon qu'il a été amené devant le docteur Desmeules. Le docteur Desmeules l'ausculte et déclare lui trouver quelque chose aux poumons.

" Je note immédiatement que ce témoin n'est pas dans le sommaire d'évidence; c'est un témoin nouveau qui nous a été amené au procès. Hamel lui dit, lorsqu'il sort de chez le docteur Desmeules: "Aimes-tu mieux signer dans l'Armée pour une 'décharge' ou t'en aller de même?" Il déclare qu'il aime mieux s'enrôler dans l'Active et il a signé. Il a passé son examen, et en sortant de l'examen médical, il est classé "E". Il nous dit que Hamel l'a suivi et qu'il lui a dit: "Ordinairement, on charge $5.00." Alors, Larose aurait donné $3.00 à Hamel.

" Ceci, je le déclare immédiatement, c'est la preuve la plus formelle qu'il y a contre Hamel. Seulement, je crois devoir vous dire en premier lieu que vous êtes en présence du témoignage d'un complice.

PLAIDOIRIE DE CLOTURE DE L'AVOCAT DE L'ACCUSE (suite)

Il est évident que si c'est une offense pour un militaire de recevoir de l'argent dans l'exécution de ses fonctions, c'est également une offense d'être complice et d'être partie à cette offense en lui remettant de l'argent.

Et j'attire immédiatement l'attention de la Cour sur le Chapitre VI du Manuel de Droit Militaire, p. 94;

"86. The evidence of an accomplice is admissible against his principal, and vice versa, subject, if they are tried together, to what has been stated in the preceding paragraph. As has been stated in paragraph 46, the evidence of an accomplice should always be received with great caution."

En référant maintenant au paragraphe 46, Chapitre VI, Manuel de Droit Militaire, p. 83, je crois pouvoir dire que c'est un principe de droit bien reconnu en droit anglais que le témoignage d'un complice doit être toujours reçu avec beaucoup de précautions.

(Le Juge-Avocat déclare qu'il donnera à la Cour les directives à l'effet que les témoignages des complices sont admissibles mais qu'il est dangereux pour la Cour de trouver un accusé coupable sur le témoignage non corroboré d'un complice.)

J'attire l'attention de la Cour sur ceci dans le cas de Larose. Le témoignage de Larose n'est corroboré par personne; plus que cela, il est contredit; il est contredit par la preuve de la Couronne elle-même, par la preuve qu'elle a faite de la confession de l'accusé qui, appelé devant le Colonel Mercier, a dit les personnes qui lui avaient remis de l'argent, a nommé la personne qui lui avait remis de l'argent, n'a nommé qu'une personne et a déclaré ne pas en avoir reçu de d'autres, alors qu'on lui avait demandé de dire toute la vérité.

Par conséquent, vous avez ici non seulement le témoignage d'un complice qui n'est pas corroboré, et par conséquent dangereux pour la Cour d'accepter, mais vous avez en plus de cela, un témoignage qui dans la preuve faite par la Couronne est contredit.

Je soumets que le moins que l'on puisse dire, c'est que dans une matière comme celle-ci, il y a certainement au moins un doute sur ce qui s'est passé, et que le fait que l'accusé aurait reçu $3.00 de Larose, n'est pas un fait prouvé hors de tout doute. Si après étude de la cause, vous avez un doute quant à ce fait-là, je répète ce que le Juge-Avocat vient de vous dire, qu'il est dangereux de condamner un accusé sur le témoignage de Larose non corroboré et surtout lorsque ce témoignage n'est pas corroboré, mais est même contredit.

Je crois qu'il n'y a aucune admission quelconque de la part de Hamel relativement à Larose, et je soumets que dans l'examen des aveux qui a été produit par le Colonel Mercier, non seulement il n'y a pas d'admission mais des négations; parce que, quand on lui a demandé s'il en avait reçu de d'autres personnes -et c'est le procureur qui a lui-même posé cette question- il a déclaré qu'il n'en avait reçu que de Bourque, dont nous étudierons le cas par la suite.

PLAIDOIRIE DE CLOTURE DE L'AVOCAT DE L'ACCUSE (suite)

Après le témoignage de Larose, vous avez le témoignage de Simard. André Simard, le 30 septembre, s'est présenté au bureau; il a rempli certaines formules, et je crois qu'il nous a dit qu'il les a remplies devant Cloutier. A tout évènement, Cloutier n'était pas là quand il a rempli ses formules. Quand il s'agit de le conduire au bureau des médecins examinateurs, il monte avec Hamel, et en cours de route rien ne se dit; il n'est pas question de conversation ou d'arrangement ou d'entente au point de vue paiement puisque rien ne se dit; il dit: "je monte avec Hamel".

Après l'examen, Hamel a rempli son certificat de licenciement. On pourra peut-être dire: ce n'était pas exactement dans ses devoirs, mais je crois que la preuve faite par le Major Lacasse qu'à certains moments, quand il y avait beaucoup d'ouvrage dans un département, les autres pouvaient aller aider le département qui était surchargé; et il reste à tout évènement ceci: c'est que rien d'irrégulier a été prouvé devant vous concernant l'examen de Simard et concernant son licenciement; par conséquent, pas d'arrangements, pas d'irrégularités, tout s'est passé comme ça doit se passer.

Subséquemment, alors qu'aucune demande d'argent n'a été faite, qu'aucune entente n'a été faite, Simard lui envoie par mandat-poste, à Hamel, $5.00.

Evidemment, qu'il plaise à la Cour, on ne peut toujours pas faire un reproche à Hamel de ce que Simard lui ait envoyé $5.00. Ce n'est pas de sa faute; en fait, la preuve a été faite qu'aucune demande n'a été formulée, qu'aucune entente n'existait.

Est-ce que Hamel a encaissé ce mandat-poste? Est-ce que Hamel a reçu ce mandat-poste? Vous avez la preuve qu'il ne l'a jamais encaissé ce mandat-poste, puisque Simard a reçu l'argent de son mandat-poste du Département des Postes d'Ottawa. Pourquoi? Parce qu'il a informé le Départment des Postes qu'il avait été averti --et ceci, ça été dit à la demande de la poursuite-- le lendemain ou le surlendemain que Hamel refusait le mandat-poste et l'avait déchiré. Et Simard, aujourd'hui, nous dit: "J'ai dans ma poche le $5.00 que j'avais voulu donner à Hamel."

Est-ce que vous avez ici la preuve que Hamel a reçu de l'argent et est-ce que ce témoin-là prouve quelquechose? Je soumets que le témoin Simard ne prouve absolument rien.

Nous restons donc maintenant avec le témoin Bourque. Le témoin Bourque a une histoire qui est peut-être plus compliquée, mais cela ce n'est pas la faute d'Hamel. Bourque était dans l'armée; il se disait malade et prétendait qu'on ne le soignait pas. Il était nerveux et il était déprimé, malade, ici à Québec. Il est envoyé au camp de Montmagny. Un jour qu'il est en "passe", il va trouver un de ses médecins, le Dr. Poulin, et reçoit un certificat établissant que son état physique et mental n'est pas normal.

Il se présente au bureau et il demande à Hamel, qui se trouve là, à qui il montre son certificat du Dr. Poulin: "Pensez-vous qu'avec ce papier je peux avoir ma décharge?" Hamel lui répond: "Vous courez un grand risque de l'avoir." Alors, Bourque décide de s'enrôler pour avoir son licenciement, parce qu'il prétend qu'on en a pas soin.

PLAIDOIRIE DE CLOTURE DE L'AVOCAT DE L'ACCUSE (suite)

Jusque là, qu'il plaise à la Cour, il n'y a rien de bien bien irrégulier, et à tout évènement, rien au soutien de la charge.

Il signe ses papiers; il s'enrôle dans l'Active, il va subir un examen médical.

Que la Cour remarque ici qu'on ne sait pas quels sont les médecins devant qui il subit son examen médical. Est-ce que c'est en preuve? Non. Et je crois que ceci peut être intéressant; je crois que la preuve ne démontre pas que le Dr. Grondin dont on parle dans cette histoire-ci, est celui qui a présidé à l'examen médical de Bourque.

On peut toujours, lorsqu'il appartient à la Couronne de faire une preuve, supposer des faits qui n'existent pas. Cette preuve n'a pas été faite; la Couronne pouvait la faire, mais on ne l'a pas faite. Quels sont les médecins? On ne le sait pas.

Après avoir subi son examen, les médecins n'ont pas pris sur eux de décider du sort de Bourque, et ils l'ont référé au Dr. Miller. Il subit un premier examen devant le Dr. Miller. Qu'est-ce que le Dr. Miller trouve? Le docteur Miller trouve que c'est un malade, un déficient mental. Il n'y a rien qui puisse faire supposer devant le docteur Miller un examen irrégulier, un examen truqué.

Il sort de chez le docteur Miller et il demande à Hamel s'il peut avoir un rapport de son examen; Hamel lui dit que non et il repart pour Montmagny.

Au bout de quinze jours, il est rappelé à Québec. Pas quinze jours d'après les rapports; deux, trois jours, le 18, 19 ou 22, il subit un examen devant le docteur Miller et celui-ci trouve encore la confirmation de son premier examen, que c'est un déficient mental, qu'il doit nécessairement, suivant ses conclusions, sortir de l'Armée.

Hamel n'a rien à faire là-dedans; Hamel ne le conduit pas chez le docteur Miller. Qui le suggère au docteur Miller de le trouver malade? Ce n'est pas Hamel; on le rappelle de Montmagny pour un second examen. Il retourne au camp de Montmagny et au bout de quinze jours, suivant la procédure régulière, il obtient son licenciement.

Cet homme est évidemment content. Qu'on le remarque; jusqu'à la question d'argent entre le témoin Bourque et l'accusé, il n'a jamais été question de conditions. Tout ce que l'accusé a fait, il lui a donné des renseignements, il l'a piloté, il l'a aidé. Quand l'homme sort, il est évidemment content; il est peut-être plus content qu'il ne devrait l'être, et il veut peut-être exprimer sa reconnaissance d'une façon normale, mais n'oublions pas que c'est un déficient mental. Déficient nerveux d'après les docteurs, avec effets désastreux sur son intelligence.

PLAIDOIRIE DE CLOTURE DE L'AVOCAT DE L'ACCUSE (suite)

Il se rend de lui-même chez Hamel; Hamel n'y est pas. Il l'attend et il dit à Hamel -et ceci vient dans le témoignage de Bourque; vous avez les aveux ou la confession par Hamel- "Je veux vous récompenser", et il met de l'argent sur une table. Hamel refuse l'argent. C'est en preuve. Il dit: "J'ai rien fait pour que vous m'apportiez ça". et "Ce n'est pas moi qui vous ai exempté; ceux qui le méritent, c'en est d'autres; peut-être les médecins, pas moi.". Il dit: "Je vais vous le donner quand même". Hamel ne le prend pas et Bourque sort en laissant l'argent sur la table. C'est la preuve. Bourque est sorti.

Qu'est-ce qu'on veut que Hamel fasse? Qu'il court après dans la route? Qu'il le poursuive pour lui remettre de l'argent? Qu'il prenne l'argent et qu'il le brûle? Ecoutez, l'héroïsme a des limites! En fin de compte, voici un monsieur qui s'en vient et qui veut faire un cadeau pour des choses parfaitement régulières, parce qu'il croit qu'il a eu des renseignements qui lui ont été utiles. Il a obtenu son licenciement d'une façon irréprochable et satisfait d'avoir eu ces renseignements, lesquels étaient de s'enrôler dans l'Active, et surtout content d'être sorti de l'Armée, étant donné son état de déficience mental, il laisse de l'argent, et quand il veut la donner, on la refuse et alors il part et le laisse là. Qu'est-ce que vous voulez que Hamel fasse? En quoi, Messieurs, la conduite de Hamel est-elle préjudiciable au bon ordre et à la discipline de l'Armée?

Parce que Hamel n'a pas couru après, en quoi cela est-il préjudiciable au bon ordre et à la discipline de l'Armée? Qui subit un préjudice parce que Hamel n'a pas fait de recherches pour retrouver Bourque et lui remettre l'argent? En quoi, je vous demande, y a-t-il préjudice au bon ordre et à la discipline de l'Armée? Et ceci, c'est le premier chef.

Le deuxième chef se lit comme suit: "Is charged with conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that he, at the City of Quebec, P.Q., between the first day of June, 1942, and the seventeenth day of October, 1942, when employed in connection with army medical examinations, in Military District No.5, distributed to other military medical personnel moneys mentioned in the first charge."

Vous avez la preuve qu'après avoir reçu $40.00, il a pris $10.00 et l'a remis au Dr. Grondin. Avez-vous la preuve que ce $10.00 a été remis au Dr. Grondi parce qu'il avait rempli une charge d'examinateur? Vous avez la preuve que le docteur Grondin est examinateur, mais vous n'avez pas la preuve que Grondin a examiné Bourque; vous n'avez pas la preuve que le docteur Grondin avait quelque chose à faire dans l'examen de Bourque.

La preuve que vous avez c'est qu'il a reçu $10.00 de Hamel. Est-ce qu'il l'a reçu pour avoir fait quelque chose d'irrégulier? Evidemment que non, puisque la preuve est claire et que tout s'est fait régulièrement dans l'examen de Bourque.

PLAIDOIRIE DE CLOTURE DE L'AVOCAT DE L'ACCUSE (suite)

Est-ce que vous avez la preuve qu'il a reçu $10.00 pour manquer à son devoir comme examinateur? Nous avons fait la preuve que tout le monde a fait son devoir dans l'examen de Bourque. Est-ce que vous avez la preuve qu'il a reçu ce $10.00 pour avoir rendu un service spécial? Nous n'avons pas de preuve qu'il y a eu de service spécial.

Est-ce que le docteur Grondin avait prêté de l'argent à Hamel? On l'ignore. Est-ce que Hamel voulait rembourser le docteur Grondin? On l'ignore. Est-ce que Hamel voulait prêter de l'argent au docteur Grondin? Je l'ignore. La seule preuve que vous avez est qu'il a remis $10.00, mais vous n'avez pas de preuve pour attacher ce $10.00 à l'examen de Bourque. La preuve que vous avez c'est que l'argent dont Hamel s'est servi pour donner $10.00 venait de Bourque. C'est tout. Il a eu $40.00, et sur le $40.00, il a donné $10.00 au Dr. Grondin - pourquoi? Si on avait fait la preuve que le docteur Grondin avait examiné Bourque, que le docteur Grondin avait été vu par Hamel avant l'examen de Bourque, qu'il avait assigné le Dr. Grondin pour examiner Bourque...mais on n'a pas cru devoir l'interroger pour savoir s'il y avait eu convention avant.

Evidemment, là on relierait le don de $10.00 à l'exécution des fonctions officielles du docteur Grondin, mais vous n'avez pas ça en preuve, et je soumets respectueusement que vous êtes liés par la preuve qui est devant vous, et en l'étudiant à la lumière des principes que j'ai essayé de rappeler, et qui sont reconnus par la loi militaire, l'étudiant avec cette largeur de vue qui caractérise les conseils de guerre, et je crois que s'il manque un élément quelconque, vous ne pouvez pas trouver l'accusé coupable.

Le fait, et je soumets que c'est le seul fait prouvé, --dans le fait qu'un sous-officier remet à un officier $5.00, $10.00 ou $15.00-- le seul fait prouvé, qu'est-ce qu'il y a de préjudiciable au bon ordre et à la discipline de l'Armée? Est-ce que Hamel avait fait une commission pour le docteur Grondin? Est-ce que le docteur Grondin lui avait demandé d'acheter quelquechose? Je l'ignore; ce n'est pas à moi de l'expliquer.

Tant que la poursuite n'a pas prouvé que suivant l'acte d'accusation, l'accusé a remis de l'argent au docteur Grondin, dans l'exécution de ses devoirs, je soumets qu'il n'y a pas de preuve, et que, par conséquent, j'ai le droit de demander que l'accusé soit libéré.

Maintenant, qu'il plaise à la Cour, ce sont des considérations qui peut-être ne devraient pas venir immédiatement, mais que je crois tout de même de mon devoir de soumettre.

L'accusé est en détention depuis le 20 octobre.

(Le Juge-Avocat fait remarquer que cette déclaration est prématurée.)

L'Officier de la défense me demande, avec beaucoup de justesse, de vous rappeler ceci qui se rattache à l'argument que je faisais au début; on a parler d'une offense prévue à l'article 421 du K.R. (Can)., mais les offenses prévues à cet article ne peuvent être poursuivables en Cour-Martiale, et que les punitions qui devraient être reçues en conséquence de ces offenses devraient venir du Commandant.

PLAIDOIRIE DE CLOTURE DE L'AVOCAT DE L'ACCUSE (fin)

De toute manière, ce n'est pas d'une de ces offenses dont il est accusé.

Dans les circonstances, je crois que la preuve n'a pas établi, hors de tout doute, la culpabilité de l'accusé, et je demande par conséquent sa libération.

REQUISITOIRE DU PROCUREUR

La poursuite sera brève dans son adresse à la Cour. La Cour a suivi avec attention les témoignages qui ont été donnés, et je ne ferai que résumer la preuve et la question de droit qui se sont présentées dans cette cause.

Premièrement, je tiens à répondre et à réfuter le dernier argument de la défense, en disant que l'article 421 du K.R. (Can), ne s'appliquerait pas parce que si cet article s'appliquait, la poursuite aurait dû être prise sous la section 11 de l'"Army Act", le dernier paragraphe de cette section, à la page 436 du Manuel de Droit Militaire, se lisant comme suit;

"Provided that the expression "general orders" in this section shall not include the King's Regulations for the Army or any order in the nature of a regulation published for the general information and guidance of the Army."

Je n'insisterai pas davantage sur ce point-là, vu que les notes à la suite de la section 11 établissent clairement que la section 11 ne peut pas s'appliquer dans le présent cas.

Maintenant, si nous venons à la section 40 de l'"Army Act", à la page 458 du Manuel de Droit Militaire, mon confrère --je me permets de l'appeler 'confrère' dans une cause de justice, la Cour me le permettra--, quel crime a commis l'accusé qui permet à la poursuite de l'amener devant la Cour-martiale sous la section 40?

D'abord, en plus de la citation de la défense de l'article 421 du K.R. (Can), je désire citer l'article 426 des mêmes règlements, à savoir;

"426. (a) Officers, soldiers, and others in military employment, must at all times guard against being placed in such a position as may lay them open to the suspicion of being influenced in the discharge of their duty by other than purely public considerations. They are to be scrupulously careful in their relations and are to have no private dealings with Militia contractors, their agents, or employees."

Qu'est-ce qui constitue un acte au préjudice du bon ordre et de la discipline militaire? C'est l'accusation la plus générale de l'Armée. Elle comporte tout ce qui n'est pas régulier, tout ce qui n'est pas essentiellement correct, tout ce qui peut laisser prévoir des soupçons. J'y reviendrai peut-être avec plus de détails lorsque je toucherai la déclaration de l'accusé.

On a la déclaration de l'accusé au sujet d'une somme de $10.00. On a également parlé d'un prêt. Est-ce un prêt que le Capitaine Grondin avait fait au soldat Hamel? Les prêts sont des choses défendues dans l'Armée. Un officier ne peut pas prêter à un soldat et un soldat ne peut pas prêter à un officer; non plus, un officier ne peut pas emprunter d'un soldat. C'est élémentaire dans l'Armée.

REQUISITOIRE DU PROCUREUR (suite)

Je n'ai pas l'intention de réciter les principes élémentaires de la Loi de l'Armée. La Cour a un "judicial notice", et je ne crois pas qu'il soit nécessaire de réciter ces devoirs militaires. La Cour connait les coutumes et les exigences du service et je n'ai aucunement l'intention d'en réciter les éléments mens rea.

Je mets devant la Cour, tel que mon devoir de procureur me le demande, les faits relevés par notre enquête, et je laisse à la Cour le soin de décider si oui ou non les faits apportés en preuve devant cette Cour révèlent une conduite préjudiciable au bon ordre et à la discipline militaire.

Ce sont là les devoirs du procureur de la Couronne; il n'est pas du devoir de la Couronne de faire du zèle pour obtenir la condamnation d'un accusé. Le procureur est ici pour mettre les faits devant la Cour et la Cour jugera elle-même si oui ou non les faits apportés en preuve par la poursuite justifient une condamnation ou un acquittement.

Je n'ai pas l'intention de m'étendre sur tous les détails de chaque témoignage, mais je désire corriger certaines impressions que la Cour pourrait avoir acquises après avoir entendu la plaidoirie de la défense.

On a parlé de Larose. On a dit que Larose descendait l'escalier pour aller chercher sa 'discharge' quand on lui a mentionné la question d'argent. Je désire corriger l'impression qui aurait pu rester à la Cour sur ce point. Le témoin Larose déclare, sans mentionner le montant d'argent, que la première journée qu'il s'est présenté au bureau, Hamel lui a laissé entendre qu'il fallait quelque chose, que ça coûtait quelque chose pour les médecins. J'attire l'attention de la Cour sur ce point et elle pourra en référer au témoignage du témoin Larose.

J'attire également l'attention de la Cour sur le fait qu'avant l'examen, avant que Larose ait son licenciement, il a été question, non pas d'un montant fixe d'argent, mais que l'accusé Hamel a laissé voir ou entendre à Larose qu'il aurait quelquechose à payer.

J'admets immédiatement que le montant de $5.00 a été fixé après l'examen; je veux être juste envers l'accusé et dire que Larose n'a payé que $3.00 après l'examen. Tout de même, un fait à retenir, c'est qu'avant l'examen, Hamel a dit à Larose que ça coûtait quelquechose sans spécifier un montant.

Il y a aussi question d'un complice. Permettez-moi de toucher à ce point immédiatement. J'admets en entier les principes énumérés; ce sont des principes reconnus, sur lesquels il n'est pas nécessaire de discuter. Maintenant, Larose était-il un sujet militaire? Larose peut-il être accusé sous la section 40? Non! Larose est un civil. C'est en preuve; lui-même le déclare; il est licencié de l'armée. Est-il complice de Hamel? Lorsqu'il vient devant cette Cour témoigner, alors que Hamel est accusé de conduite préjudiciable au bon ordre et à la discipline de l'armée, je ne peux pas porter d'accusation contre Larose sur ce point. Et conséquemment, s'il n'est pas complice, son témoignage est admissible devant la Cour.

J'irai plus loin. La défense a admis que tout avait été régulier. Il ne serait pas complice. Il n'y a pas même d'actes criminels. Où Larose aurait-il commis un acte criminel? Et même si Larose est complice, la Cour peut condamner quand même sur le témoignage d'un complice corroboré. Est-ce que les faits subséquents, est-ce que la série de faits apportés postérieurement --les aveux de l'accusé-- lesquels ont été rapportés devant cette Cour, ne donnent pas une corroboration indirecte de la déclaration faite par Larose?

Sur la question d'André Simard. André Simard vous a dit qu'il avait été examiné en fin de septembre. C'est un point important à retenir, parce que André Simard n'a reçu avis que la semaine dernière (et nous en sommes aujourd'hui au 27 novembre 1942) (et lors de son témoignage nous en étions au 26), que l'accusé refusait le montant. Or, l'accusé savait qu'il viendrait devant une Cour Martiale, qu'il était sous arrêts depuis le 20 octobre 1942. Si l'accusé n'avait pas eu l'intention d'accepter ce montant, il l'aurait retourné bien avant la semaine dernière alors qu'il a avisé Simard qu'il n'accepterait pas le montant.

Mais il reste un autre fait; le fait de Bourque. Bourque nous a conté qu'il était allé au bureau de recrutement. Pourquoi est-il allé au bureau de recrutement? Parce qu'on lui avait conseillé de voir Hamel? Pourquoi lui a-t-on conseillé de voir Hamel? L'homme voulait un licenciement de l'Armée. Pourquoi Bourque paierait-il de l'argent à Hamel? Parce qu'il considérait qu'il lui avait rendu service. "Parce que je considérais" dit-il "qu'il m'avait rendu service". C'est Bourque qui paie l'argent après avoir eu des entrevues avec Hamel et après que Hamel ait déclaré à Bourque sur vue du certificat du docteur Poulin, "Avec ça, mon vieux, tu ne passeras pas dans l'Armée". Est-ce dans les fonctions de Hamel d'aviser les candidats sur leurs capacités médicales? Non. Hamel est aux Rayons-X. Il peut aider au commis, mais il n'est certainement pas chez le médecin-chef pour aviser de la capacité physique d'un candidat.

Et, par le témoignage de Bourque, il est entré en preuve qu'il appert que Hamel avait des agents pour lui envoyer les candidats. On a le nom d'un nommé "Lemay": Ce Lemay qui est allé avec Bourque voir Hamel. Il n'y a aucun doute que l'accusé, lorsqu'il admet le fait d'avoir reçu de l'argent de Bourque -fait admis au Colonel Mercier. Le geste de Hamel raconté par Bourque n'a rien de surprenant. Pour se couvrir, Hamel, au moment où Bourque lui offre de l'argent, fait le geste, "Non, non, je n'ai pas le droit; ce n'est pas à moi, c'est pour les médecins." Soit, une "couverture". Pourquoi ce geste? Tout accusé, toute personne qui fait quelque chose d'irrégulier, fait un geste dans le but plus tard d'avoir une défense.

REQUISITOIRE DU PROCUREUR (suite)

Hamel, s'il était sincère lorsqu'il a reçu le montant d'argent de $40.00 de Bourque, aurait avisé son supérieur. Hamel était caporal, c'est donc qu'on lui avait reconnu certains mérites puisqu'on lui a donné son grade de caporal. Hamel savait, plus qu'un soldat ordinaire, plus qu'une simple recrue qui entre dans l'Armée, que si quelque chose d'irrégulier se passait, son premier devoir était d'en avertir son Officier-commandant. En a-t-il parlé? Non. Hamel en a parlé à son Officier-commandant seulement lorsque celui-ci l'a fait venir pour lui faire part de certaines irrégularités qui se commettaient.

Si Hamel avait été honnête, sérieux, la première chose qu'il aurait faite après l'entrevue avec Bourque, chez lui, ce n'est pas au docteur Grondin qu'il serait allé porter $10.00; non, il aurait dit au Colonel Mercier ou au Major Lacasse: "Messieurs, voici ce qui est arrivé hier." Et il aurait raconté les faits tels qu'ils s'étaient passés. "Voici le $40.00", il aurait ajouté, "dites-moi quoi faire." C'était le devoir de Hamel, c'était le devoir d'un militaire.

Hamel n'a pas suivi son devoir et sa conduite est préjudiciable au bon ordre et à la discipline de l'Armée.

Au sujet du second chef d'accusation, la défense dit: "Quelle relation y a-t-il entre l'accusé et le capitaine Grondin?" "Pourquoi Hamel a-t-il donné cet argent au capitaine Grondin?". Je ne crois pas que j'aie à établir sur l'acte d'accusation tel que produit, les raisons pour lesquelles Hamel a remis de l'argent à un officier supérieur, en l'occurence, le capitaine Grondin.

Mais, tout de même, malgré que la poursuite n'ait pas cette obligation, voyons ce que le Colonel Mercier a dit lorsqu'il a rapporté la déclaration de Hamel. Voyons ce que le Major Kirouac a rapporté lorsqu'il a parlé de la déclaration de Hamel. Je ne veux pas mettre la Cour sous une fausse impression car, croyez bien, je ne suis pas ici pour faire du zèle, mais seulement pour établir les faits. Je demanderais à la Cour, lors de ses délibérations, de relire les témoignages, et je crois que la Cour verra dans l'un des témoignages qu'il est rapporté qu'un témoin a dit à peu près ces mots: "Quand j'ai vu ça, je pense que le mieux que je peux faire, c'est de donner un présent au capitaine Grondin qui l'avait examiné." La Cour pourra vérifier en relisant le témoignage cité, témoignage fait par un témoin en parlant de l'accusé. Je reste également sous l'impression que les déclarations du Colonel Mercier et du Major Kirouac relient le capitaine Grondin aux membres d'un "board" qui a examiné Bourque.

En sus, le seul fait qu'un subalterne remette de l'argent à un officier supérieur, que cet officier supérieur soit un W.O.I, un W.O. II, un lieutenant, un capitaine ou un Lieutenant-Colonel, le seul fait qu'un subalterne fasse un cadeau à un supérieur, révèle qu'il y a conduite au préjudice du bon ordre et de la discipline de l'Armée.

Et pourquoi? L'économie de l'Armée, du droit militaire, veut que nous ayons tous, hommes ou officiers, des supérieurs. Nous avons tous des supérieurs, qui, à un moment donné, auront des ordres à nous donner, des ordres qui peuvent bien souvent ne pas nous être agréables à accomplir, mais auxquels nous devons nous soumettre; et si par des cadeaux ou par des récompenses, nous réussissons à attirer les bonnes grâces d'un officier supérieur, si nous pouvons par des cadeaux ou des récompenses, obtenir l'influence d'un supérieur auprès de notre officier-commandant, il y a là autant de dangers qui sont préjudiciables à la bonne conduite, au bon ordre et à la discipline militaire.

Non, dans l'Armée, il n'est pas question qu'un tel ou tel autre puisse être refusé du service pour une question d'argent. Les règlements de l'Armée décrètent que tout homme inapte au service, qu'il soit pauvre ou qu'il soit riche, sera exempté du service, que tout homme, qu'il soit pauvre ou qu'il soit riche, passera par les mêmes articles s'il entre dans l'armée ou qu'il est appelé en service. Et on ne doit pas, on ne peut pas, par des moyens détournés, essayer de corrompre directement ou indirectement ses officiers supérieurs.

Messieurs, je termine. Je sais qu'il est inutile de le rappeler, mais je crois de mon devoir de le faire; j'avais devant cette Cour le fardeau de la preuve, c'était à moi de prouver la culpabilité de l'accusé, comme procureur de la Couronne, et je l'ai fait au meilleur de ma connaissance, avec les faits que je connaissais.

Je remets le sort de l'accusé entre les mains de la Cour pour son verdict, en ajoutant, avec la permission de la Cour cette dernière citation:

Ch.VI, s.14, Manuel de Droit Militaire, p. 78.

"14. Intention is not capable of positive proof; it can only be inferred from overt acts.

As a general rule, a person is presumed in law to have intended the natural and probable consequences of his act."

DIRECTIVES DU JUGE-AVOCAT

" La tâche est grandement facilitée par la plaidoirie de l'avocat de l'accusé et le réquisitoire du procureur de la Couronne. Ils ont résumé la preuve de façon telle que je puis me dispenser moi-même de le faire.

" Il n'y a dans la preuve aucune contradiction apparente quant aux faits. Les deux parties en présence sont apparemment d'accord sur les faits essentiels; il ne s'agit que de les interpréter. Je m'abstiendrai donc de résumer la preuve elle-même.

" Si nous lisons la feuille d'accusation, nous constatons qu'il y a deux chefs d'accusation, tous les deux sous l'Article 40 de l'"Army Act".

" Le premier chef d'accusation est particularisé de la façon suivante: "En ce que, dans la Cité de Québec, entre le premier juin 1942 et le 17 octobre 1942", soit les deux premiers éléments: l'endroit et la période de temps, "alors qu'il était employé relativement à des examens médicaux militaires de l'armée", soit le troisième élément: fonctions de l'accusé, "dans le district militaire No. 5", le quatrième élément: l'endroit, aurait fait quoi? cinquième élément: "aurait reçu des sommes d'argent, de montants variables, de différentes personnes", sixième élément: "relativement à leurs examens militaires médicaux", et septième élément: "dans l'exécution de ses devoirs militaires".

" La Cour, en considérant le premier chef d'accusation, aura à se poser la question: "Est-ce que tous les éléments de l'offense incriminée ont été établis à la satisfaction de la Cour?" Si les membres du Tribunal en viennent à la conclusion qu'un de ces éléments n'est pas prouvé, c'est un doute dont l'accusé a le bénéfice, en droit. La Cour devrait alors acquitter l'accusé.

" Si, par contre, les membres de la Cour en viennent à la conclusion que tous ces éléments sont prouvés à sa satisfaction, le devoir de la Cour ne sera pas terminé; elle devra se demander une autre question: "Est-ce que ces faits-là, l'ensemble de ces faits-là, constituent ce qui, dans le texte écrit, est appelé "Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline"? Ce qui est traduit par un texte officiel, "conduite préjudiciable au bon ordre et à la discipline de l'Armée". Je répète. La Cour, si elle vient à la conclusion que tous les éléments de l'offense sont prouvés, devra de plus se demander: "Est-ce que ces faits-là constituent quelque chose, une conduite, qui soit au préjudice du bon ordre et de la discipline de l'Armée?

" Ce que j'ai dit pour la première accusation s'applique au second chef, sauf que les éléments sont variables et distincts. Pour le second chef d'accusation, les éléments sont: 1o l'endroit, la Cité de Québec; 2o le temps, entre le premier juin et le 17 octobre 1942, 3o alors qu'il était employé relativement à des examens médicaux de l'Armée; 4o qu'il aurait distribué des sommes mentionnées dans le premier chef d'accusation et 5o à des personnes faisant partie du personnel médical militaire.

" Encore une fois, si la Cour en vient à la conclusion que tous ces divers éléments ne sont pas prouvés, le devoir de la Cour sera d'acquitter l'accusé; mais si la conclusion de la Cour est que tous ces éléments sont prouvés à sa satisfaction, la Cour devra se poser la question additionnelle: "Est-ce que ces faits sont au préjudice du bon ordre et de la discipline militaires?" C'est tout ce que j'ai à dire sur ces points.

" Sur les questions de droit soulevées de part et d'autre, les textes auxquels on a référé ont été cités et lus à la Cour; je ne crois pas à propos de les relire.

" Je dirai tout simplement que j'abonde dans le sens de la défense, et c'est d'ailleurs l'attitude la poursuite qu'il ne peut y avoir de contestation du texte des paragraphes 67 et 68 du Chapitre V du Manuel (p.58). Ce sont là des principes généraux appliqués par les tribunaux militaires comme par les tribunaux civils. L'accusé a toujours droit au bénéfice d'un doute raisonnable.

" Sur la question soulevée par la défense à l'effet que le paragraphe 421(B) du K.R. (Can.), qu'on appelle les "Ordonnances et Règlements Royaux de la Milice Canadienne", sur la prétention de la défense relativement à cet article, je signalerai à la Cour le fait que les Ordonnances, les dispositions du K.R. (Can.) n'ont aucune sanction. Les dispositions de ces règlements, pour employer un terme anglais, (notre droit public est d'origine anglaise), sont "directory", plutôt que "mandatory". Ces règlements disent que telle chose devrait être faite. Ils sont des directives, et aucune punition n'est imposée pour la violation de ces règlements, sauf que sous l'article 11 (onze) de l'"Army Act", à la page 436 du Manuel de Droit Militaire, on lit:

"11. Every person subject to military law who commits the following offences, that is to say, neglects to obey any general or garrison or other orders, shall, on conviction by court-martial, be liable, if an officer, to be cashiered, or to suffer such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned, and if a soldier, to suffer imprisonment, or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned."

" Le proviso à cet article se lit comme suit:

"Provided that the expression "general orders" in this section shall not include the King's Regulations for the Army or any order in the nature of a regulation published for the general information and guidance of the Army."

" Les dispositions du K.R. (Can.), étant donné ce proviso, sont exclues de la signification des mots 'general orders' tel qu'employés dans l'Article 11 de l'"Army Act". Ceci est qualifié sous le même article dans le deuxième paragraphe des notes par les mots suivants: "Disobedience of a King's Regulation may be punished under Section 40."

" Les membres de cette Cour sont des officiers d'expérience, qui ont eu l'occasion d'examiner ces décisions à maintes reprises. Je ne les élaborerai pas; je ne fais que les citer pour éclairer la religion des membres de la Cour.

" Il se soulève une autre question sur laquelle je dois signaler le pour et le contre, c'est la question du témoignage d'un complice.

" La Cour aura d'abord à se poser la question: "Est-ce que les témoins qui ont été appelés par la poursuite et qui ont déclaré avoir donné ou offert diverses sommes d'argent à l'accusé, sont des complices ou non?"

" Le mot "complice", comme beaucoup d'autres termes, peut avoir plusieurs significations; sens général, sens dans le langage courant, ceci selon le dictionnaire. Il peut avoir également un sens restreint, un sens limité d'après le texte du droit criminel. Je ne connais pas de texte de droit militaire donnant la définition du mot "complice", sauf les commentaires du Manuel.

" La Cour aura donc à décider si elle doit considérer ces témoins comme des complices au sens général du terme ou à son sens restreint. Autrement dit, pour donner une définition qui est purement la mienne, et sans référer à quoi que ce soit: "une personne qui aurait participé à une transaction, soit criminelle, soit irrégulière."

" Si la Cour venait à la conclusion que ces personnes sont des "complices", c'est un principe reconnu universellement par les tribunaux criminels en Canada, la Cour devra se rappeler qu'un complice ne peut pas corroborer un autre complice.

" Les principes sur cette question du témoignage d'un complice sont, premièrement, que le témoignage d'un complice est admissible; deuxièmement: qu'un tribunal peut légalement déclarer un accusé coupable sur le témoignage non corroboré d'un complice; troisièmement, qu'il est dangereux de déclarer un prévenu coupable sur le témoignage d'un seul complice non corroboré; et quatrièmement, qu'un juge -et dans le cas présent, le juge-avocat d'un tribunal militaire- a le devoir d'avertir les membres de la Cour ou le jury de ce danger.

" C'est ce que je fais en ce moment. A partir de ce moment, le tribunal a une discrétion à exercer et ses membres l'exerceront selon leur conscience et leur intelligence.

La Cour décide, après délibérations, de se prévaloir du pouvoir discrétionnaire qui lui est donné sous le paragraphe "D" de la règle de procédure 71, et annonce que la sentence du présent accusé sera prise en considération en même temps que celles des autres accusés, et non immédiatement.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA

TUESDAY, the 16th day of FEBRUARY, 1943.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL:

WHEREAS the Associate Minister of National Defence reports that K. 25913, Private Louis-Philippe HAMEL, of No. 5 Company, Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, C.A., a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on Active Service, was by a General Court-Martial held at the Drill Hall, Quebec, P.Q., on the 25th November 1942, tried on the following charges:-

> CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE in that he, at the City of Quebec, P.Q., between the first day of June 1942, and the seventeenth day of October 1942, when employed in connection with army medical examinations, in Military District No. 5, received sums of money in varying amounts from divers parties in relation to their military medical examinations, and in relation to the performance of his military duties.
> CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE in that he, at the City of Quebec, P.Q., between the first day of June, 1942, and the seventeenth day of October 1942, when employed in connection with army medical examinations, in Military District No. 5, distributed to other military medical personnel moneys mentioned in the first charge.

That a plea in bar of trial was offered by the accused to both charges and the Court found that the said plea in bar was not proved;

That the accused pleaded Not Guilty to both charges, was found Guilty of both charges and was sentenced to undergo detention for ninety days;

The Honourable
The Minister of National Defence.

That/

That the Judge Advocate General has reported that the proceedings are regular, the Findings on the said charges including that in respect of the plea in bar of trial, as aforesaid, properly made and the Sentence according to law.

THEREFORE, His Excellency the Governor General in Council, on the recommendation of the Associate Minister of National Defence, is pleased to confirm and doth hereby confirm the Finding of Guilty of both charges, the Finding in respect of the plea in bar of trial, and the said Sentence.

1. To obtain P.C. approval of sentence of General Court Martial.

2. Charges:- under A.A. 40 conduct to the prejudice, etc. in that while a medical orderly:-

(a) Received money in relation to military duty and
(b) Distributed money received in (a) to other military medical personnel.

3. Defence offered plea in bar of trial that offence, if any, was civil and A.A. 40 required civil trial. Endeavoured to prove English law by Col. J. R. Roche one of the Canadian Officer Lawyers admitted to English Bar in 1941 while attached to C.M.H.Q. Court held "not proven by competent witness" as Col. Roche admitted,

(a) Never practised in England.
(b) Never passed any English Bar Exams and
(c) Never studied English Law.

4. Evidence:- Statements of accused taken before Lt. Col. Jules Mercier, D.M.O., M.D. 5, and the R.C.M.P. were held inadmissible.

Pertinent evidence:-

(a) Larose. "Hamel asked for $5.00 to pay Doctors. Could only afford $3.00 which I gave to him." Knew beforehand that he was category "E".

(b) Bourque. An "R" recruit stationed at Montmagny Camp. Came to Quebec and Hamel arranged medical examination. Subsequently re-boarded category E and discharged. After discharge went to Hamel's house and left $40.00 on table. No conversation re money up to that time. Hamel said "you owe me nothing; give it to the others not to me." Nevertheless Bourque left the money and it was not returned to him.

(c) Captain G.A. Grondin, R.C.A.M.C. In the summary of evidence:- at first refused to give evidence but on being told by officer detailed to take the summary that he would have the protection of the Court, stated that Hamel had given him $10.00 in an envelope; that he did not know what it was for and assumed it was a gift. Spent the money.

5. Sentence:- Found guilty on both charges and sentenced to 90 days detention.

6. A.G. convened Court on the application of D.O.C., M.D. 5. President of Court, Brigadier J. A. Leclaire. Judge Advocate, Major Maurice Lalonde, A.J.A.G. of M.D. 4.

7. A.G. concurs in finding and sentence. J.A.G. recommends confirmation and states that there does not appear to be any reasons to warrant mitigation or commutation of sentence.

GENERAL COURT-MARTIAL
E.25913, Pte. Louis-Philippe HAMEL,
No. 5 Coy., R.C.A.M.C., C.A.

The marginally-noted soldier was tried by General Court-Martial on 25th November, 1942, at the Drill Hall, Quebec, P. Q., on the following charges:

"CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE in that he, at the City of Quebec, P. Q., between the first day of June, 1942, and the seventeenth day of October, 1942, when employed in connection with army medical examinations, in Military District No. 5, received sums of money in varying amounts from divers parties in relation to their military medical examinations, and in relation to the performance of his military duties".

"CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE in that he, at the City of Quebec, P. Q., between the first day of June, 1942, and the seventeenth day of October, 1942, when employed in connection with army medical examinations, in Military District No. 5, distributed to other military medical personnel, moneys mentioned in the first charge".

2. A plea in bar of trial was offered by the accused to both charges. The Court found that the said plea in bar was not proved.

3. The accused soldier pleaded Not Guilty to both charges, was found Guilty of both charges, and was sentenced to undergo detention for ninety days.

4. I have reviewed the Proceedings and hereby certify that the same are regular, the Findings on the said charges, including that in respect of the plea in bar of trial as aforesaid, properly made, and the Sentence according to law.

5. The Adjutant-General has, pursuant to K.R.(Can) 575, as amended by G.O. 225/1941, reviewed the Proceedings and concurs in the Sentence awarded. There do not appear to be any reasons which, in my opinion, would warrant any mitigation or commutation of the Sentence in question, and accordingly I attach a draft Submission to the Governor in Council recommending that the Finding of Guilty on both charges, the Finding in respect of the plea in bar of trial and the Sentence be confirmed.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
in the case of:

No. E-25913, Pte. Louis Philippe HAMEL.
5th Coy., RCAMC., C.A. -

ORIGINAL

1st Charge: Conduct to the Prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline, in that he received sums of money in varying amounts from divers parties in relation ~~in relation~~ to their military medical examinations, and in relation to the performance of his military duties.

2nd Charge: Conduct to the Prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline, in that he distributed to other medical personnel moneys mentioned in the first charge.

The C.O. directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

1st Witness: Capitaine G.A.GRONDIN, R.C.A.M.C., C.A.

Being duly sworn, states;-

" Le témoin déclare avoir objection à répondre et invoque à son appui le paragraphe 95 du chapitre VI du Manuel de Droit Militaire, vu que ses déclarations pourraient l'incriminer.

Dans ces circonstances, le Lt.-Colonel LAVAL FORTIER, officier désigné pour prendre le Sommaire de la Preuve, accorde au témoin la protection de la Cour et l'assure que le témoignage qu'il rendra au cours de ce Sommaire de Preuve, dans le cas de E-25913- Pte. L.P.Hamel, ne pourra pas servir de preuve contre lui à son procès, si procès il y a, mais ajoute que cette protection de la Cour ne le protège pas contre le parjure. Etant assuré de cette protection, le témoin rend le témoignage suivant;-

Je connais E-25913- Pte. L.P.Hamel pour l'avoir connu chez le D.M.O., à Québec où il a travaillé jusque vers le milieu d'octobre.

A une date dont je ne puis me souvenir j'ai reçu de l'accusé, le soldat Hamel, un montant de $10.oo qu'Hamel m'a remis dans une enveloppe cachetée. J'ai pris l'argent sans mot dire sans savoir pourquoi, ni en quel nom, ni pour quelle raison il me le donnait. Je l'ai pris comme un cadeau qu'il me donnait. En autant que je me rappelle, il avait mis sa carte ou c'était sur l'enveloppe "avec mes compliments". J'ai pris l'enveloppe, je l'ai mise dans ma poche et j'ai dépensé l'argent. Au meilleur de mon souvenir, je n'ai pas fait d'autre transaction avec le soldat Hamel et dans les circonstances relatives au cas où j'ai accepté une somme de $10.oo, il n'y avait aucune entente avec le Cpl. Hamel et moi. J'ignore le nom de celui qui avait remis l'argent à Hamel.

QUESTIONEBY THE ACCUSED

Vous rappelez-vous, Capitaine Grondin, quand je vous ai remis le $10.oo dans l'enveloppe, s'il y avait une carte?

ANSWER BY THE WITNESS

Comme je viens de le dire, je ne m'en rappelle pas exactement. J'ai émis une hypothèse, je ne m'en rappelle pas. Le fait important c'est que Hamel m'a remis l'enveloppe dans laquelle il y avait $10.oo. Il ne m'a pas dit pourquoi, ni pour quelle raison; je ne l'ai pas questionné.

G.A. Grondin, Capt Pl Rec'd 1/600

2nd Witness: Mr. René BOURQUE, No. 16, 11th street, LIMOILOU, P.Q.

I certify that in my opinion the evidence of Mr. René BOURQUE of No. 16, 11th Street LIMOILOU, P.Q., owing to the lost of time involved, is not readily procurable, and a written statement of his evidence signed by him has been read to the accused, and is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

Lieut.-Col.,
(Laval FORTIER) - Lieut.-Colonel,
Officer detailed to take the present Summary of Evidence.

3rd Witness: Mr. André SAVARD, No. 509, 3rd Avenue LIMOILOU, P.Q.:

I certify that in my opinion the evidence of Mr. André SAVARD, No. 509 - 3rd Avenue LIMOILOU, P.Q., owing to the lost of time involved, is not readily procurable, and a written statement of his evidence signed by him has been read to the accused, and is attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

(Laval FORTIER) - Lieut.-Col.,
Officer detailed to take the present Summary of Evidence.

QUESTION POSEE A L'ACCUSE:- "Désirez-vous faire une déclaration ou rendre témoignage sous serment? Vous n'êtes pas obligé de dire quoi que ce soit ni de rendre témoignage à moins que vous ne le désiriez, mais tout ce que vous direz ou toute déclaration que vous ferez sera pris par écrit et pourra servir de preuve."

REPONSE DE L'ACCUSE:- "J'attends que je sois avec mon avocat."

Hamel 5/25.9.43

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of 2 pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused at Quebec, P.Q., between the 9th of November 1942 and the 13th of November 1942, and that Rules of Procedures 4 (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g), were complied with.

DECLARATION DE René BOURQUE,
16, 11ème Rue, Limoilou, P.Q.

QUEBEC, P. Q., le 2 novembre, 1942.

Je, soussigné, René BOURQUE, demeurant à 16, 11ème Rue, Limoilou, déclare les choses suivantes après avoir eu la mise en garde :

J'étais dans l'armée depuis le 5 août 1942. J'ai été posté au Cove Fields pour trois semaines environ, et ensuite j'ai été posté au T.C. No 54, Montmagny, P.Q. Vers la fin de septembre 1942, je suis allé subir un examen médical à 322 St-Jean. (Bureau de Recrutement) pour m'enroler dans l'active. Lorsque je suis arrivé au bureau de recrutement, j'ai rencontré HAMEL. Je lui ai dit: "Je m'en viens subir un examen médical pour m'enroler dans l'active. J'ai un certificat du médecin POULIN, 1ère Ave., Limoilou, et crois-tu que je vais avoir ma discharge avec ça. HAMEL L.P. m'a répondu: "Les médecins décideront ça". J'ai subi l'examen médical dans l'avant-midi, et j'y suis retourné dans l'après-midi pour passer devant le Dr. MILLER. Je suis retourné au Camp à Montmagny.

Une semaine plus tard, l'hopital de Montmagny m'a renvoyé à Québec pour subir un autre examen médical, accompagné d'un infirmier. J'ai vu HAMEL et il m'a demandé : " Qu'est-ce que vous venez faire ici? Je lui ai répondu: "Je viens passer un autre examen". J'ai passé un examen devant trois médecins. Les médecins m'ont fait signer des papiers d'invalidité, et je suis retourné à Montmagny dans la soirée. Quinze jours plus tard environ, j'ai reçu mes papiers de "Discharge". Je me suis en venu chez mes parents à Québec.

Quelques jours plus tard, j'ai vu HAMEL chez lui à 77 St-Luc, et je lui ai donné $40.00 pour le récompenser pour son treuble. Ca n'était pas dans le but d'acheter ma discharge. HAMEL ne semblait pas être bien consentent à accepter l'argent. Je lui ai donné l'argent, c'est-à-dire, je l'ai laissé sur une table, et je suis sorti en lui disant: "Prends ça, ça me vaut ça." Je suis parti et je ne l'ai pas revu depuis.

J'ai fait cette déclaration volontairement, et elle contient toute la vérité.

ET J'AI SIGNE :-

DECLARATION DE André SAVARD,
509, - 3ème Ave., Limoilou, P.Q.

QUEBEC, P.Q., le 29 octobre 1942.

Je, soussigné, André SAVARD, demeurant à 509, - 3ème Ave. Limoilou, P.Q., dis les choses suivantes après avoir eu la mise en garde :-

J'ai été appelé le ou vers le 27 mars 1942 pour subir un examen médical, lequel j'ai subit devant le Dr. Paul BROCHU, interne à l'Hôpital St-Frs. d'Assise. J'avais été classé dans la catégorie "C1".

De nouveau, j'ai subit un examen médical de révision au No. 111 côte de la Montagne, Québec, le 28 septembre, 1942.

Ce n'est que le lendemain, le 29 sept. 1942, qu'on m'a informé que j'avais été classé dans une catégorie apte au service militaire.

Je me suis alors rendu au Bureau de Recrutement, rue St-Jean, Québec, dans le but de m'enrôler. Je fus reçu par le soldat Ph. HAMEL, et le soldat CLOUTIER. Ce dernier m'a fait signer les formules d'usage puis sous la direction du soldat HAMEL, je fus conduit au 3ème plancher pour y subir un examen médical.

Je déclare donc que sur présentation d'un rapport médical émis par l'interne de l'Hopital de St-Frs. d'Assise de Québec, ou je fus interné en 1940 pour y subir un examen, et après avoir été examiné par le corps médical le 30 septembre 1942, vers 10.00 A.M., l'on m'a déclaré inapte au service dans l'armée active. On m'a ensuite remis une discharge au premier plancher.

Je déclare donc n'avoir jamais donné, soit directement, soit indirectement, un montant d'argent à qui que ce soit dans le but de me faire décharger par un corps médical quelconque.

J'ajoute que j'ai fait parvenir par la poste un montant de $5.00 à Ph. HAMEL, 77 rue St-Luc, de Québec, en reconnaissance du service qu'il m'avait rendu, mais non dans l'intention de payer la "Discharge" que j'avais obtenue. Et pour expliquer ceci, j'ajoute que jamais le soldat Ph. HAMEL m'a invité à le rencontrer au Bureau de recrutement ou ailleurs dans le but de me faire "décharger de l'armée."

ET J'AI SIGNE :-

(signé) André Savard,
509, 3ème Avenue,
Québec.

Re: GENERAL COURTS-MARTIAL
Major C. E. GUILLET, et al.

1. In connection with the Applications for General Courts-Martial of the above mentioned Officer, together with four other Officers and four O. R's., same have been granted, and the Convening Orders and other necessary documents have today been despatched to the D.O.C., M.D. 5. You will notice from the copy of the Convening Order hereunder that the trial will be held at the Drill Hall, Quebec, P. Q. on Wednesday, the 25th of November, 1942, at 1000 hours.

2. It would appear that all Officers composing the Court are present in M. D. 5, with the following exceptions:

(a) Brigadier J. A. Leclaire, 15th Infantry Brigade, C.A., who is presently with the 7th Canadian Division at Debert, N. S.

(b) Lieut.-Colonel (A/Col.) J.R. Roche, who is at National Defence Headquarters, Ottawa, Ont.

(c) Judge Advocate, Major M.G. Lalonde, A. J. A. G., M. D. 4, Montreal, P. Q.

3. Will you please forthwith by telegraph issue the necessary instructions to the G.O.C., 7th Division, at Debert, N. S., and the D.O.C., M. D. 4, at Montreal, P. Q., to have Brigadier Leclaire and Major Lalonde, respectively, report to the D.O.C., M.D. 5 at Quebec, on Monday, the 23rd of November, 1942.

4. Will you please also make the necessary arrangements to have Colonel Roche at N.D.H.Q. warned for the duty and instruct him to report at Quebec in ample time for the trial, at the time and place aforesaid.

1. Attached hereto are the following:

(a) Letter to the D.O.C., M.D.5, enclosing twelve copies of Convening Order with instructions as therein stated, and returning certain necessary documents forwarded with the Applications.

(b) Letter to Brigadier J.A. Leclaire, the President of the Court, enclosing the original Convening Order, with eight duplicate originals thereof, Charge Sheets and Summaries of Evidence in connection with all the accused persons. This letter and the said documents will be forwarded by me in a sealed envelope to the D.O.C., M.D.5. The letter under (a) above instructs the said D.O.C., M.D. 5, to deliver the said sealed envelope to the President of the Court, on his arrival in Quebec City.

2. The Convening Orders, letters and the Orders for Trial on the Charge Sheets above mentioned should be signed by you, if you concur. The date of signing same should also be inserted.

3. Attached herewith are also several additional copies of the Convening Order, which will be required for the personal files of the marginally-noted persons.

4. If, after signature, you will return all the said documents with files to me, I will see that they are properly despatched.

R. J. Orde
Brigadier,
Judge Advocate-General.

RHB/S.

(b) You will ensure that all the necessary witnesses be available and present when the trial takes place.

(c) You will arrange for the due attendance of all those officers composing the Court who are under your jurisdiction or in your District; also the Prosecutor, Counsel for the Prosecutor and the accused.

(d) It is preferable that two or more shorthand writers be made available, who may relieve each other at periodic intervals.

4. The original Convening Order with the necessary number of duplicate originals, Charge Sheets and Summaries of Evidence in respect of each accused person, are enclosed herewith in a sealed envelope and will be delivered by you to the President of the Court, Brigadier J.A. Leclaire, who will report to you on Monday, the 23rd of November, 1942.

5. If you have not already done so, a copy of the Charge Sheet and the Summary of Evidence in respect of each accused person should forthwith, pursuant to R.P. 14 and 15, be delivered to each said accused person.

6. As Counsel will appear on behalf of the Prosecutor, and as the Prosecutor himself has legal qualifications, notice thereof must be given to each accused person pursuant to R.P.39, unless, of course, such notice have already been given.

7. It will be observed that the Convening Order does not detail Defending Officers for any of the accused persons. It is observed that several of the accused have requested a particular officer to act as such and you will detail for such duty the officers so requested, subject always to Military exigencies. However, every effort should be made that each accused person has the benefit of the Defending Officer requested by him.

8. The original M.F.R.555, copy of Charge Sheet and Summary of Evidence and other necessary documents forwarded with each application are returned herewith.

9. Please acknowledge receipt forthwith and indicate what members of the Court and other officers detailed in the Convening Order have been duly warned by you.

OTTAWA, Ont., 28 February, 1944.

E-25868, Pte. HOUDE, Leopold.
No. 5 Company, R.C.A.M.C., C.A.

1. The sentence of nine months' detention awarded the marginally-noted soldier on 8 January, 1943, was suspended by the Minister of National Defence on 17 June, 1943. (See folios flagged A).

2. Pte. Houde was transferred to No. 5 District Depot and a few days later he was sent to hospital. While in hospital he was placed in medical category "E" and discharged from the Canadian Army on 27 August, 1943.

3. The Officer Commanding No. 5 District Depot advises that the conduct of Pte. Houde, while in hospital, was good.

4. In order to bring this case to a finality and having regard to the foregoing, I recommend that the above-noted sentence be remitted by the Adjutant-General as Superior Military Authority under Section 57A, as of the date of discharge, namely, 27 August, 1943.

Re: General Court-Martial
Capt. Georges Etienne Yves Gadbois,
Major Ludovic Lavallee,
Major Joseph Eugene Celestin Emilien Guimont,
E.25868, Private Leopold Houde.

The petitions put forward by their counsel, Mr. Antoine Rivard, K.C. on behalf of the marginally noted officers and soldier in which, for the reasons therein mentioned, revocation was sought of the Findings and Sentences of the respective General Courts-Martial, were pursuant to K.R.(Can.) 574, referred to the confirming authority, in this case the Governor General in Council, for his consideration. Inasmuch as the said petitions raised certain questions of law they were pursuant to the said Paragraph 574 referred to the Judge Advocate-General prior to being submitted to the Governor General in Council.

2. The Governor General in Council duly considered the petitions, which were submitted as stated, and there are enclosed copies of Orders in Council, dated 15th June, 1943, and numbered P.C.4121, 4122, 4123 and 4124 respectively.

3. You will note therefrom that the Governor General in Council was unable to grant the prayers of the said petitions and further directed that the petitioners be so informed.

4. Pursuant to such directions conveyance of this information to each of these petitioners would properly be effected by transmitting to each of the said petitioners a copy of the Order in Council in question. Such copies duly certified as being true copies of the original are enclosed for this purpose.

5. Will you therefore be good enough to transmit the certified copy of such Order in Council to each of the petitioners to whom the same relates and advise when this has been done.

Suspension of Sentence.

1. With reference to para 2 of the Memorandum from D of Admin. dated 22nd, June 1943, two folios down, it is my understanding that the proper procedure is that the direction of the Superior Military Authority is entered on Part VI of M.F.M. 288, (British Army Form A 3104 at pages 804-808, M.M.L.) and not on the proceedings of the Court-Martial. Said Form is then sent to the O.C. of the unit concerned in order that the necessary entries may be made in Part II Orders and in the documents of the accused.

2. Might I have your comments, please.

3. It is to be noted that in the case on this file no M.F.M.288 was prepared and the direction of the Superior Military Authority (in this case the Minister) was endorsed on page F of the proceedings (See folio flagged B).

Reference telephone conversation Lieut-Colonel MacDermid to Lieut-Colonel Clayton today.

2. I can find no provision for promulgation of suspension of sentence. As this is the first case of this kind that has arisen it might be well to refer this point to the J.A.G. for his opinion as to whether there should be any promulgation or any formal note on the proceedings.

3. You will further note that no directions have been made as to the disposal of the soldier. In view of the nature of the offence which he committed his retention in his present unit may be considered undesirable and it is requested that when your action is complete you return the file in order that further consideration may be given to this.

Dear Madam:

K.25668 Pte. Leopold HOUDE

Your letter of 21st May, has been referred to me for reply.

I am pleased to be able to inform you that directions have been given to suspend the sentence imposed upon this soldier and for his release from confinement. No doubt his release will very shortly be effected.

Yours very truly,

Deputy Minister (Army)

DEPT. N.D. OTTAWA

1. The report to the Governor-in-Council forwarding the petition of Private Houde for the quashing of the finding and sentence went forward to Council on 17th May and has not, I think, been dealt with yet.

2. At Flag "B" the Adjutant-General recommended suspension of sentence under the powers given by Section 57A Army Act.

3. Houde was sentenced to nine months on 8th January 43.

4. Grounds for recommendation for suspension of sentence;
   (a) wife is expecting child and has suffered accident.
   (b) Houde has been doing good work in detention barracks.
   (c) Of those who were tried with him he is the only one still in detention.
   (d) Another soldier against whom the evidence was at least as damaging as in Houde's case received a sentence of ninety days.
   (e) When matters were under investigation Houde was of great assistance to the authorities.

5. Inspector of Courts Martial recommends.

6. If you approve of suspension of sentence your signature is required to the minute of suspension on the back of the folio at Flag "A".

Major L. LAVALLEE, R.C.A.M.C.

Pursuant to the Minister's telephone conversation and the subsequent one which I had with you, I have made a further draft of a submission to the Governor in Council in respect of the Petition forwarded by each of the marginally noted persons. The file of Captain Gadbois has not yet been received though I am still making strenuous inquiries therefor.

2. With regard to the submissions as now redrafted, you will note that there is attached to each the original petition forwarded by the accused together with one copy of an English translation; these are attached to the original copy of the submission.

3. The terms of this submission have been the subject of much consideration by myself, together with Colonels Nolan and Moss and we also consulted Mr. J.E. Read, K.C., Legal Adviser, Department of External Affairs.

4. It is our opinion that the form of the submission as now drafted is the most proper. It follows explicitly the provisions of K.R. (Can.) 574. The purpose of this is that if the Minister should be questioned in the House or otherwise, he would be in a position to state that the King's Regulations make provision for such cases as the one under discussion and that said provisions were explicitly followed.

RECOMMENDING that there not be granted the redress sought by Private Houde in his Petition, namely, that the finding and sentence of the General Court-Martial for which he was tried be revoked.

To -

HIS EXCELLENCY

THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

The undersigned has the honour to report: -

That E.25868, Private Leopold Houde was, by a General Court-Martial assembled at Quebec, P.Q., on 25th November, 1942, found guilty of two charges of conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he at the City of Quebec between 1st June, 1942, and 17th October, 1942, when employed in connection with Army medical examinations in Military District No. 5, -

(a) received sums of money of varying amounts from divers parties in relation to their Military medical examinations and in relation to the performance of his Military duties;

(b) distributed to other Military Medical personnel monies as aforementioned; and was sentenced to undergo detention for nine months (which finding and sentence was duly confirmed by Your Excellency in Council by an Order-in-Council dated 9th February, 1943, P.C. 1040).

That Private Houde, through his counsel, has forwarded a Petition asking that the finding and sentence of the said General Court-Martial be quashed and revoked, and that the petitioner be released. This Petition was forwarded pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 574 of the King's Regulations and Orders for the Canadian Militia, 1939, which provides that any officer or soldier who considers himself aggrieved by the finding or sentence of a Court-Martial may forward a Petition to the Confirming or Reviewing Authority, through the usual channels. The said paragraph also provides that if such Petition raises any question of law it should be referred to the Judge Advocate-General.

That the Judge Advocate-General, to whom the Petition was referred, has expressed the opinion that the questions raised in the said Petition do not afford any legal basis for any interference with the finding of the said General Court-Martial.

The undersigned has, therefore, the honour to transmit the said Petition for the consideration of Your Excellency in Council as Confirming Authority pursuant to the said paragraph 574 of the King's Regulations and orders for the Canadian Militia, 1939.

Respectfully submitted,

No. 5 Coy., R.C.A.M.C.

The purpose of this submission is to invoke the provisions of Section 57A, sub-section 2(b) of the Army Act in the case of the marginally named soldier, and to obtain from you as a Superior Military Authority under the above-mentioned Section and pursuant to General Order 93 of 1925, an order suspending the sentence which the marginally named soldier is now undergoing.

2. The facts herein are as follows:

(a) Pte. Houde was one of Other Ranks tried by General Court-Martial in connection with the acceptance of money with regard to medical examinations in Quebec City in November and December last. The first charge against him was that he received money in connection with medical examinations and in relation to his military duty. The second charge was that he distributed to other military medical personnel the money mentioned in the first charge.

(b) He was found guilty on both charges and sentenced to undergo detention for nine months. The sentence was dated the 8th January, 1943, and consequently he will have served four months of his sentence on the 8th May.

(c) Various representations were made for remission in view of the fact that his wife was expecting a child and that she recently had an accident dislocating one of her shoulders. It was also represented that Pte. Houde has been doing good work in the Detention Barracks and that of all those who were tried with him and sentenced he was the only one still in detention.

(d) It has been advised by the Prosecutor at the trials of personnel involved in these irregularities that Pte. Houde, against whom the evidence was not any more damaging than against Pte. Fortin, one of the other accused, and maybe less so, received a sentence of nine months detention, whereas Pte. Fortin only received a sentence of ninety days' detention.

(e) The Prosecutor also advises that when the whole matter was under investigation, Pte. Houde was of great assistance to the Authorities in bringing all the facts to light.

3. In view of the above the Inspector of Courts-Martial recommends that further consideration be given to the question of clemency in this case. He does not recommend that remission be made but suggests that the sentence be suspended under the provisions of

.....2

Section 57A, sub-section 2(b) of the Army Act, and I concur.

4. Therefore it is recommended that an order be given by you suspending the sentence in this case under the provisions of Section 57A, sub-section 2(b). If you approve, may the Minute of Suspension at flag "A" be completed, please.

and sentenced to undergo detention for nine months (which finding and sentence was duly confirmed by your Excellency in Council by an Order-in-Council dated 9th February, 1943, P.C. 1046).

That Major Guimont has through his counsel forwarded a Petition asking that the finding and sentence of the General Court-Martial be quashed and revoked, and that the petitioner be released.

That the said Petition has been forwarded pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph 574 of the King's Regulations and Orders for the Canadian Militia 1939, which provides that an officer or soldier who considers himself aggrieved by the finding or sentence of the Court-Martial, may forward a Petition to the Confirming or any Reviewing Authority through the usual channels, and that if such Petition raises any question of law it should be referred to the Judge Advocate-General.

Pursuant to your Minute of April 21st, herewith draft Submissions respecting the Petitions put forward on behalf of the marginally noted persons.

The only outstanding Petition is that made on behalf of Captain Gadbois whose file, so you stated, would be forwarded as soon as it was available.

According to my office records this is the first occasion in which it has been necessary to seek the pleasure of His Excellency in Council in respect of a Petition seeking redress of a finding and sentence of a Court-Martial. Consequently there were no forms or precedents to follow and it was, therefore, necessary to evolve ab initio what we conceived to be a submission that would deal with the matter.

Attached are letters asking for remission of sentence for which this man is now serving.

2. He was one of the other ranks tried by General Court-Martial in connection with the acceptance of money in connection with medical examinations in Quebec in November and December last. The charges against him were that he received money in connection with medical examinations and in relation to his military duty and that he distributed to other military medical personnel money mentioned in the first charge.

3. He was found guilty on both charges and sentenced to undergo detention for nine months. The sentence was dated 8th January. Consequently the time runs from that date.

4. A petition against the finding and sentence is now under consideration by the Minister and it has been possible to secure the Court-Martial file, H.C.Q.55-H-299 for only a few moments, as it is now in use by the Minister.

5. The facts set out in this correspondence as to entitling the soldier to remission of sentence are :

(1) His wife is expecting a child.
(2) She dislocated one of her shoulders recently. This added to her trouble.
(3) He is alleged to have done good work in the detention barracks.
(4) They want to get him out for Easter so that he can attend the Christening of his child.
(5) He is the only one of those tried still serving his sentence.

6. This man has served less than 4½ months of the nine months' sentence awarded him for a very serious offence. It is not recommended that any remission be given at this time.

Submitted herewith is a Petition of the marginally named soldier through his Counsel against the finding and sentence of a General Court-Martial held on 25th November, 1942, at Quebec. This Petition is submitted under the provisions of para. 574 K.R. (Can.).

2. Said finding and sentence were confirmed by His Excellency the Governor-in-Council on 9th February, 1943.

3. The Petition was submitted to the Judge Advocate-General and he states that the questions raised in the Petition were considered by him when he reviewed the proceedings prior to the same being submitted to the Governor-in-Council and that after giving the matter further and full consideration in the light of the Petition he is of the opinion that the questions raised in the Petition do not afford any sufficient legal basis for any interference with the finding of the court.

4. Insofar as the Petition relates to the quantum of sentence this matter was fully considered prior to submission being made to the Governor-in-Council for confirmation of the finding. The finding and sentence, having been confirmed by His Excellency the Governor-in-Council, it is recommended that there be no remission.

PETITION

QUEBEC, March 1st, 1943.

To the Officer Commanding,
M.D. No 5.

Sir:

Re: General Court Martial
E.25860, Pte Léopold Houde,
Coy No 5 - N.C.A.M.C., (C.A.)

Please find herewith the petition which Private Léopold Houde wishes to forward, through the usual channel, to the appropriate authorities with a view to having the proceedings of the Court Martial which was called upon to try his case in November and December 1942 reviewed.

It seems to us that the finding and sentence [illegible] of the Court on January 8, 1943, published and promulgated on February 20, 1943, are ill-founded, in fact and in law, and we respectfully submit that they should be quashed and revoked by the appropriate authorities. We should be grateful to you if you would kindly forward this petition as early as possible to the appropriate authorities so that they may consider and grant it.

GENERAL GRIEVANCES.

The first grievance submitted by the accused deals with the jurisdiction of the Court Martial to dispose of his case. When the accused was called to answer the charge, he objected to the jurisdiction, basing his objection on Rule of Procedure 32 and submitting that the charge, as laid, was irregular, illegal and could not give the Court Martial jurisdiction to bring him on trial and judge him. That objection was dismissed and we wish to submit it again. Two charges were laid against Houde; he was tried jointly on both these charges.

He was charged with: 1o in contravention of Section 40 of the Army Act, conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that he, in the City of Quebec between June 1, 1942 and October 17, 1942, when employed in connection with army medical examinations in M.D. No 5, received sums of money in varying amounts from divers parties in relation to their military examinations, and in relation to the performance of his military duties. 2o in contravention of the provisions of the same section of the Army Act, /conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that he, in the City of Quebec between June 1, 1942 and October 17, 1942, when employed in connection with army medical examinations in M.D. No 5, distributed to other military medical personnel moneys mentioned in the first charge.

Section 40 of the Army Act provides that "no person shall be charged under this Section in respect of any offence for which special provision is made in any other part of the Army Act and which is not a civil offence", that is, an offence provided for by the Ordinary law of England.

It is unquestionable that the two charges laid against the accused constitute an offence known in English law under the name of "bribery". There is an English statute referred to by all authors and known underthe name of "Bribery Act of Public Officials". It is to be found especially on pages 393 and 394 of "Archbold's Criminal Pleadings." We contended that the Court was automatically bound to refer to the acts of the English Parliament, English Public Laws, and especially those dealing with crimes which under the Army Act are civil offences which become military offences. Actually section 41 lays down that any offence punishable under an English law becomes a military offence for which punishment cannot be however greater than that provided for in section 40. The principle on which the exception provided for in section 40 is based is that an accused cannot be punished twice for the same offence.

If under section 40 a soldier could be punished for offences already provided for by the Criminal Law, a punishment could constitute a plea of "autrefois convict" or of "autrefois acquit", in proceedings taken before Criminal Courts for the same offences. That is not the case. We must also add that we offered to submit expert evidence in support of English Law. The decision of the Court is wrong and causes the whole proceedings in that case to be irregular.

ILLEGAL EVIDENCE ALLOWED

We submit that the Court allowed as illegal evidence admissions allegedly made by the accused to the district Medical Officer, M.D. No. 5, Lt.-Col. Mercier. An inquiry on "voir-dire" was conducted; we submit that such inquiry established that the statements made by Houde and signed by the latter were neither free nor voluntary.

The evidence brought forward on that point and the arguments submitted before the Court may be referred to. We do not intend to repeat what we have already said as the principles of law are well known and it will be sufficient to point out that it was only at the third interview, when he stated he did not want to reply, that Houde beset by questions and impressed by the staging surrounding these interviews, on his being paraded for the third time before his Commanding Officer and Superior Officers and believing that he would be helping his cause, made the statements which were proved. The allowance of that illegal evidence is sufficient to make the whole trial illegal, this causing irreparable prejudice to the accused.

SENTENCE TOO SEVERE

On January 8th, 1943, the Court-Martial which had reserved the sentences in all the cases it had heard, sentenced the accused to nine months' detention. We submit that the facts adduced did not warrant such sentence. It should be noted that the accused had already been punished when, at the suggestion of Lt.-Col. Mercier and his C.O., Major Lacasse, he had agreed to give up the rank of A/Sgt. which he was then holding and that of corporal which was then his, to be reverted to private. It should also be pointed out that it has not been established in any case that Houde bribed officers charged with the medical examinations of recruits. He accepted rewards, the amounts of which vary according to the degree of friendship and intimacy that existed between him, the accused, and those who wanted to give the said amounts to him, but in no case has he obtained for a recruit, in consideration of money a categorization to which the latter was not entitled. It might be irregular for a non-commissioned officer to accept tips and rewards in the discharge of duties, but we submit that such irregularity involves no dishonesty and does not warrant as severe a sentence as the one imposed upon him.

Obviously what strikes the imagination in this case is the fact that a Mr. Aubé handed to Houde the sum of $600.00 with a view to having him attend to the case of his son. It must be borne in mind in considering that case that the evidence shows it was Aubé himself who applied to Houde, that Aubé was quite a close friend of the Houde family, that in the past he had generously helped and through considerable amounts the father of Houde the accused and the accused himself. Aubé is well off and it was on account of his previous relations with Houde the accused that he offered and wanted to give that rather large sum. At any rate, the evidence shows that Aubé, the recruit, was rightly exempted and that there has been no irregularity in the proceedings which brought his discharge.

For all these reasons we respectfully ask that the finding and sentence of the General Court Martial be quashed and revoked for all legal purposes and that Pte Léopold Houde, the claimant, be released.

I remain

Yours truly,

(Sgd) Antoine Rivard,
Counsel for the accused.

Re: Léopold Houde R.C.M.C.

J'accuse réception de votre lettre du 24 février dernier.

Comme il est à votre connaissance, je suis maintenant en devoir au Ministère de la Défense Nationale à Ottawa et une demande de pardon telle que contenue dans votre lettre, doit être soumise par l'officier commandant du district militaire auquel appartient le soldat.

Quoique que je crois que votre demande soit prématurée, si vous croyez quand même devoir faire valoir immédiatement les raisons qui militent en faveur de la libération de votre époux, je vous suggérerais de communiquer avec les autorités militaires du district No. 5 à Québec.

Monsieur,

Les dernières nouvelles reçues me forcent à me rendre à vous. Vous ayant déjà parlé au téléphone, je ne doute pas une minute, que vous refuserez de me lire et de me répondre par le retour du courier. Vous ne pouvez croire combien la sentence de mon mari a à Proppie. Etant en ceinte de huit mois et mère de quatre jeunes

enfants - et l'inquiétude que nous avons, les forces diminuent et la morale baisse. Ne pou-vant avoir aucune
bonne pour le moment,
la chose est encore plus grave. Je vous prie de croire, Monsieur, que j'ai encore une bonne espérance - que vous parle-
rez pour nous et que vous obtiendrez le pardon
afin qu'il soit avec moi dans quelques jours. Je vous dis, d'abord, qu'il

a toujours fait une pression très basse de 100° ou 105° degré. Dans l'armée trois médecins l'ont examiné – on lui disait si tu veux rester
parmi nous ne dis pas
un mot, car c'est aussi dangereux une pression
basse que trop haute.
Mais en l'avenir, on au-
rait bien parlé pour qu'il soit sorti des rangs de l'armée. Les nouvelles du jour peuvent nuire à sa santé et je crains même qu'il devienne incapable – et alors, voyez au triste avenir qui nous attend. De plus,
depuis près de trois ans

qu'il est militaire. Jamais il a manqué une minute de son temps n'arrivé en retard ou en boisson, ni paradé une fois devant les officiers comme tant d'autres. Vous connaissez aussi les notes que son commandant lui a données. Je vous demande d'intervenir fortement pour avoir son pardon.

En terminant, je vous redis que j'ai pleine confiance et vous certifie que la chose ne se répétera jamais. Mon mari n'est pas un rebelle, il avait à coeur de travailler et même se sacrifier pour le bien être de sa famille. Considérez ma demande et faites l'im-possible pour sa libéra-

tion - je vous en prie.
Et je compte sur une
prompte réponse.

The accused: E-25868, Private Léopold HOUDE, No. 5 Coy, Royal Canadian Medical Corps, C.A., a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on Active Service, is charged with:-

FIRST CHARGE
Sec. 40
Army Act.

CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE

In that he, at the City of Quebec, P.Q., between the first day of June, 1942, and the seventeenth day of October, 1942, when employed in connection with army medical examinations, in Military District No. 5, received sums of money in varying amounts from divers parties in relation to their military medical examinations, and in relation to the performance of his military duties.

SECOND CHARGE
Sec. 40
Army Act.

CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE

In that he, at the city of Quebec, P.Q., between the first day of June, 1942, and the seventeenth day of October, 1942, when employed in connection with army medical examinations, in Military District No. 5, distributed to other military medical personnel moneys mentioned in the first charge.

Signed at QUEBEC, P.Q., this fourteenth day of November, 1942.

J.L. Lacasse - Major,
(J.L. LACASSE) - Major,
Officer Commanding

To be tried by GENERAL COURT-MARTIAL.

Signed at OTTAWA, Ont., this 18th day of November, 1942.

H.F.G. Letson
(H.F.G. Letson),
Major-General,
Adjutant-General.

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à l'acte d'accusation et s'adresse à la Cour:

" Avant que l'accusé ne plaide, j'ai une objection à enrégistrer sur les deux chefs d'accusation. Cette objection est basée sur la règle de procédure 32.

" Les deux chefs d'accusation que l'on vient de lire établissent que l'accusé est devant la Cour en vertu de la section 40 de l'"Army Act" de la loi militaire. Cette section fait une offense qui peut être soumise devant un conseil de guerre à tout soldat qui pose un acte ou qui a une conduite qui crée du désordre, ou qui se rend coupable de négligence, au préjudice du bon ordre et de la discipline de l'Armée.

" Dans la section 40, on dit également: "Provided that no person shall be charged under this section in respect of any offence for which special provision is made in any other section of this Act, and which is not a civil offence."

" Je soumets respectueusement que, en vertu du droit commun anglais, et plus spécialement en vertu du "Bribery Act", tel qu'on le trouve rapporté dans le statut anglais et dans les auteurs anglais, tout particulièrement dans "Archbold's Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice", 30ème édition, à la page 1232 -"It has been held to be a misdemeanor at common law to bribe a privy councillor", et aussi à la page 1233 -It is a common law misdemeanor for an officer who has a duty to do something in which the public are interested to receive a bribe either to act in a manner contrary to his duty or to show favour in the discharge of his functions. To bribe the colonel of a regiment to show favour in the matter of a canteen contract for the regiment is a misdemeanor at common law, similarly, for the Colonel to receive such a bribe is a misdemeanor."

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse à l'avocat de l'accusé;

" Est-ce que vous n'êtes pas à citer du droit étranger sans en faire la preuve?"

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour;

" L'objection que je viens de faire est basée sur le droit commun anglais dont, je crois, la Cour m'obligera à faire la preuve. Je désire maintenant faire entendre le Capitaine Simon Parent, pour tenter de prouver la loi anglaise."

PREMIER TEMOIN POUR LA DEFENSE SUR L'OBJECTION A L'ACCUSATION.

Capitaine Simon PARENT, Royal 22ème Régiment, A.C., attaché au Dépot de District No. 5, Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.3 Capitaine, vous faites partie de quelle force, de quelle unité?

A.3 Du Royal 22ème Régiment, monsieur.

Q.4 Vous êtes également avocat?

A.4 Depuis le mois de janvier 1938.

Q.5 Avant d'être avocat, vous avez fait des études universitaires?

A.5 Oui, monsieur.

Q.6 Avez-vous des degrés universitaires?

A.6 Je suis licencié en droit.

Q.7 De quelle université?

A.7 De l'Université Laval.

Q.8 Au cours de vos études à l'Université Laval, avez-vous étudié le droit commun anglais?

A.8 Oui, monsieur, surtout en matière criminelle.

Q.9 Vous avez étudié le droit commun anglais au criminel?

A.9 Oui, monsieur.

Q.10 Après avoir étudié le droit commun en matière criminelle à l'Université Laval, avez-vous eu occasion de le voir fonctionner?

A.10 Oui, monsieur.

Q.11 En Angleterre?

A.11 Oui, monsieur.

Q.12 Et quel a été votre travail, ou votre service, plus spécialement en Angleterre?

A.12 Voici: Je suis arrivé en Angleterre au début du mois d'août 1940. Immédiatement, j'ai été attaché à ce qui est devenu subséquemment la "First Canadian Divisional Unit", comme officier juridique, où j'ai eu l'occasion d'agir plusieurs fois comme "prosecutor"; plus tard, c'est-à-dire le ou vers le 20 août, j'ai été transféré au Royal 22ème Régiment proprement dit, régiment en campagne, où j'ai continué à exercer les mêmes fonctions jusqu'au 20 mai 1941, alors que j'ai été transféré aux Quartiers-généraux militaires à Londres et assigné, c'est-à-dire attaché, à la branche du Juge-Avocat Général; au début, à la section des réclamations où mes devoirs consistaient à reviser les enquêtes faites par les officiers en charge des réclamations qui sont attachés aux différentes formations.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.13 Les officiers-enquêteurs?

A.13 Oui, les officiers-enquêteurs. Je revisais leurs opinions au point de vue légal parce que, eux, n'avaient pas de livres sous la main et n'étaient pas censés avoir le matériel voulu pour étudier la loi anglaise.

Le Procureur demande à la Cour si ce n'est pas une opinion que le témoin vient d'exprimer.

Le Juge-Avocat demande au témoin de restreindre ses réponses.

Le témoin continue sa réponse:

A.13 (suite)

Alors, pour étudier la loi anglaise, j'avais accès à la bibliothèque de la "Law Society Library League". Naturellement, à ce moment-là, c'étaient surtout des questions qui correspondraient à notre droit civil plutôt que criminel, mais j'avais aussi à étudier l'aspect criminel de ces enquêtes pour savoir quelle action disciplinaire devait être prise devant les tribunaux civils, s'il y avait lieu.

L'avocat de l'accusé poursuit son interrogatoire:

Q.14 Quand vous dites que vous avez étudié le droit civil, de quel droit civil parlez-vous?

A.14 Du "Common Law", mais en matière civile, en comparaison avec le droit criminel.

Q.15 Aviez-vous accès à la bibliothèque?

A.15 Oui, monsieur.

Q.16 Avez-vous profité de cet accès?

A.16 Oui, maintes fois.

Q.17 Connaissez-vous certains auteurs en droit public et criminel anglais?

A.17 Oui, principalement Archbold.

Le Procureur s'objecte à la question (No.17) pour la raison qu'il s'agit d'une question d'opinion et qu'il n'est pas encore établi que le témoin est qualifié.

L'avocat de l'accusé soumet que cela a été établi.

Le Juge-Avocat déclare que l'avocat de l'accusé en est rendu au point qu'il désire obtenir l'opinion du témoin, et que, par conséquent, le procureur pourrait contre-interroger le témoin.

Contre-interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.18 Capitaine, vous avez été reçu avocat en 1938?

A.18 Oui, monsieur.

Q.19 Combien de fois avez-vous pratiqué dans la Province de Québec?

A.19 D'avril 1938 jusqu'à ce que je prenne l'uniforme, le ou vers le 15 janvier 1940.

Q.20 Et vous n'êtes parti pour l'Angleterre qu'en août 1940?

A.20 Je suis parti en juillet et je suis arrivé le 1er août en Ecosse.

Q.21 En arrivant en Angleterre, évidemment, vous n'avez pas été versé immédiatement dans la branche légale?

A.21 Si vous voulez dire la branche des Quartiers-Généraux, non, monsieur.

Q.22 Vous êtes revenu d'Angleterre à quelle date?

A.22 Je suis parti d'Angleterre le 5 juin 1942.

Q.23 Et vous avez été tout le temps de votre séjour en Angleterre attaché à l'Armée Canadienne?

A.23 Oui, monsieur.

Q.24 Et vous avez travaillé au C.M.H.Q. dans l'Armée Canadienne?

A.24 Oui, monsieur.

Q.25 Les questions de droit que vous avez eues à étudier étaient en rapport avec l'Armée Canadienne?

A.25 Elles s'appliquaient à l'Armée Canadienne, oui, monsieur.

Q.26 Les études que vous aviez l'avantage de faire pendant que vous étiez en Angleterre, dans la bibliothèque de la firme que vous avez nommée, à savoir, "Law Society", est l'organisation professionnelle des "solicitors"? Ils ont une bibliothèque?

A.26 Oui, monsieur.

Q.27 Et vous avez fait ces études en surplus de votre travail?

A.27 Oui, monsieur, au cours de mon travail.

Q.28 Est-ce que cela a pris la plus grande partie de votre temps, le temps que vous avez été en Angleterre?

A.28 Cela a pris la plus grande partie de mon temps du 20 mai, lorsque je suis arrivé à Londres, jusque ou vers le 13 octobre 1940, alors que je suis passé aux Cours Martiales, dans la même branche juridique des Quartiers-Généraux militaires.

Q.29 Et les études ou les occasions que vous avez eues d'étudier le droit anglais étaient en rapport avec les conseils de guerre de l'Armée?

A.29 Oui, mais pas uniquement pour cela.

Q.30 Quelles étaient les autres raisons?

A.30 Comme je l'ai expliqué; il s'agissait d'actions disciplinaires. Maintenant, dans les cas d'accidents, par exemple, il y avait parfois la question de 'manslaughter', où il fallait étudier la loi du pays; ou encore, d'avoir conduit en état d'ébriété, etc.; cela n'était pas prévu par les règlements militaires.

Q.31 Avez-vous étudié le 'Bribery Act' au cours de ces enquêtes-là?

A.31 Non, monsieur.

Q.32 Avez-vous eu à étudier ce droit anglais sur certaines questions seulement?

A.32 Oui, monsieur.

Q.33 Et vous n'avez pas, au cours de votre séjour en Angleterre et vos visites au "Law Society", fait une étude complète du "Common Law" anglais?

A.33 Non, monsieur.

Q.34 Et si on vous citait une décision rapportée dans un manuel anglais, seriez-vous, actuellement, en mesure de dire si ce jugement-là a été cassé ou non?

A.34 S'il a été cassé depuis que je suis parti d'Angleterre, non, monsieur.

Q.35 Prétendez-vous avoir étudié suffisamment le droit commun anglais pour être en mesure aujourd'hui de donner des opinions sans erreur sur ce droit?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.35a Croyez-vous connaître votre droit anglais, le droit commun anglais, de la même façon qu'un avocat anglais?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question.

Le Juge-Avocat avise la Cour que la question conduit à un témoignage d'opinion.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.36 Avez-vous été admis au Barreau anglais?

A.36 Non, monsieur.

Q.37 Avez-vous plaidé des causes en Angleterre pendant que vous étiez là?

A.37 Je n'ai pas plaidé devant les tribunaux civils, mais j'ai suivi des causes comme "Friend of the accused" devant des cours criminelles.

Q.38 Quelles étaient les accusations portées?

A.38 Ah, il y a eu plusieurs causes; des causes de vols, une cause de meurtre, ensuite, des causes de voies de fait.

Q.39 Vous n'avez pas eu de causes de 'bribery'?

A.39 Non, monsieur.

Avec la permission de la Cour, le témoin ajoute la déclaration suivante:

" Sans avoir été admis au Barreau, j'ai eu à interpréter le droit anglais, car j'ai fait fonction de Juge-Avocat très fréquemment à partir du mois d'octobre 1941, jusqu'à mon retour, dans les Cours Martiales. Seulement, les accusations étaient assez fréquemment sous la section 41 de la loi de l'Armée, parce que nous étions dans le pays et nous n'avions pas à faire la preuve de la loi, et je voulais à ce moment-là m'efforcer d'éclairer les tribunaux militaires sur les points de droit anglais."

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas contre-interroger le témoin.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.40 Dans le cours de l'exercice des fonctions de Juge-Avocat, devant les tribunaux militaires canadiens en Angleterre, lorsqu'il s'agissait de l'article 41, est-ce que vous avez eu occasion d'avoir des cas où l'accusation en était une de "bribery" ou une accusation similaire?

A.40 Non, monsieur.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

Plaidoirie de l'Avocat de l'accusé sur la preuve du droit anglais

---

" C'est évidemment la même question qui revient. Je n'ai pas voulu troubler les membres de cette Cour tel que j'avais été obligé de la troubler dans la dernière cause. (Soldat Louis-Philippe Hamel)

" Evidemment, suivant le droit qui a été expliqué par le Juge-Avocat dans l'autre cause, il faut que la loi soit prouvée par quelqu'un qui connait la loi - un "skilled witness". Il ne fait pas de doute que c'est par un mécanisme assez étrange qu'on prouve la loi étrangère, surtout quand elle est reconnue par un texte. Au lieu de prendre le texte de loi dont on pourrait prouver l'authenticité, et le mettre devant la Cour, on est obligé d'avoir quelqu'un qui connaît cette loi-là sur tous les points et l'expliquer.

" Je soumets qu'il n'est pas nécessaire qu'une personne soit qualifiée à prouver la loi, si c'est une personne qui s'occupe de droit et qui a une connaissance générale du droit - peu importe si elle a des connaissances spécialement sur l'article et sur le point qui est soulevé. Autrement, je soumets qu'il y aurait rarement des gens qui seraient qualifiés pour prouver le droit anglais. Il faudrait supposer un homme qui a étudié toutes les causes de droit commun anglais. C'est impossible.

" Il nous suffit d'avoir quelqu'un qui a accès au droit, qui a eu l'occasion d'apprendre les principes généraux, qui, en conséquence, en connaît la structure. Il nous suffit d'avoir quelqu'un qui a eu l'occasion de le voir fonctionner, qui a eu l'occasion de le voir en opération, et qui a eu l'occasion de l'étudier, peut-être pas sur cette question-ci, mais sur d'autres questions et qui est, par conséquent, en état de nous dire sur un point s'il y a une loi, un texte qui regarde le "bribery". S'il a l'habitude d'étudier les questions, s'il a eu l'habitude et l'occasion d'aller dans des bibliothèques et l'examiner, je suis certain que cette personne est une personne "skilled", dans le sens du droit anglais, et qu'elle est en état de nous dire de quelle façon elle l'entend et l'interprète.

" Voici au point de vue du "bribery" jusqu'où la loi anglaise va, en s'appuyant évidemment sur des autorités, sur des textes, des auteurs, que la Cour elle-même sera à même de vérifier et de contrôler.

" Par conséquent, je soumets respectueusement qu'il nous faut interpréter toute loi avec l'intention de la rendre opérante. Et il y a une question qui se pose et qui se poserait même avant que j'interroge le témoin, et j'avoue que je suis bien prêt à la poser à la Cour et me soumettre immédiatement à la direction qui a déjà peut-être été prise. Mais, en lisant le droit militaire et la loi militaire,-évidemment mes notions sont peut-être légères là-dessus-- mais la loi militaire qui existe chez nous, qui est en force par son statut, réfère à la loi anglaise. Est-ce que vous ne devez pas prendre "judicial notice" du "Common Law" anglais et incorporer le statut? Est-ce que vous ne devez pas prendre "judicial notice" du statut que la loi anglaise incorpore? Et, alors, est-ce que j'ai besoin de prouver la loi anglaise, si elle est incorporée dans le statut?

" Qu'il plaise à la Cour, je suppose que la Cour actuelle siège à Londres. Ca serait la même loi; nous serions sous le même statut; nous serions gouvernés par les mêmes règles, et je n'aurais certainement pas besoin, (je pense que le Juge-Avocat Général va me donner raison là-dessus) de faire la preuve du droit anglais."

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse à l'avocat de l'accusé;

" A Londres, devant un tribunal militaire de l'armée canadienne, je suis d'avis que vous seriez obligé de faire la preuve de la loi anglaise."

L'avocat de l'accusé continue sa plaidoirie;

" J'avoue sincèrement qu'à l'intelligence d'un profane, cela me semble bien contradictoire, qu'une loi réfère et incorpore le droit commun anglais et qu'en même temps il faille considérer cette loi comme une loi étrangère. L'"Army Act" est incorporé dans le droit canadien; l'"Army Act" réfère au droit commun anglais. Elle dit d'une façon spéciale, il y a un article là-dessus..."

Le Juge-Avocat fait remarquer à l'avocat de l'accusé que l'"Army Act" ne réfère pas à tout le droit commun anglais, mais qu'il réfère presqu'exclusivement à la loi de la preuve.

L'avocat de l'accusé continue sa plaidoirie;

" Il faut bien dire que la loi militaire réfère au droit commun anglais en plusieurs occasions, et plus spécialement dans l'article 40 qui nous occupe. Alors, est-ce qu'on doit supposer que cette loi militaire, qui est une loi d'origine anglaise, qui réfère au droit commun anglais et qui, par conséquent, si vous ne la preniez pas à l'origine, ne référerait pas à une loi anglaise? Lorsque nous l'avons incorporée, nous l'avons, par conséquent, incorporée rien qu'à moitié. Nous avons incorporé la loi militaire qui nous réfère au droit commun anglais, et je soumets avec toute la déférence possible, m'inclinant devant les autorités connaissant bien mieux la loi militaire que moi, et qui ont eu plusieurs occasions de l'appliquer, que la loi militaire, référant au droit commun anglais, à certains articles --je ne dis pas qu'elle incorpore le droit commun anglais-- donne l'obligation à la Cour de prendre 'judicial notice' des articles ou des points de droit commun anglais auxquels il est référé dans le 'Manual of Military Law', non comme une loi étrangère, mais comme une loi du pays. Et le témoin a appris la loi militaire. Si ceci était admis, je n'aurais pas besoin de prouver si le Capitaine Parent est habile à prouver la loi anglaise.

"En terminant, je dis que la loi anglaise n'est pas une loi étrangère au pays; que le droit anglais est la source même du droit canadien, en autant que le droit public est concerné, et que tout notre droit public est basé sur le droit anglais; et quiconque a voulu faire des études de droit canadien a voulu apprendre le droit criminel, le droit public, a dû commencer par approfondir les notions élémentaires du droit commun anglais.

"Je soumets respectueusement qu'un avocat canadien de la Province de Québec, qui a passé ses examens, qui les a passé sérieusement --parce qu'il faut admettre que tous les avocats font toujours les choses sérieusement-- qu'un avocat qui a passé les degrés universitaires, est compétent pour interpréter le droit anglais, en autant qu'il s'agit du droit public ou criminel. S'il s'agit du droit privé, nous avons nos lois françaises. Mais, en autant qu'il s'agit du 'Bribery', je soumets que n'importe quel avocat canadien est une personne 'skilled', une personne qui est capable de prouver ce droit et de l'établir devant une Cour."

Plaidoirie du Procureur sur la preuve du droit anglais

" Je ne pense pas devoir insister sur le dernier argument de mon confrère, parce que la pratique tant devant nos cours civiles canadiennes que les cours civiles anglaises ne permet pas qu'on prouve par n'importe qui la loi étrangère à un pays.

" Comme la Cour et le Juge-Avocat l'ont fait remarquer, pour prouver le droit étranger, il faut que le témoin qui est appelé à le prouver soit ce qu'on appelle en anglais "skilled and expert". Le témoin offert par la défense, comme le capitaine Simon Parent, est un avocat pour lequel j'ai beaucoup de respect, un avocat qui a travaillé dans le même bureau que moi; je reconnais ses capacités, mais je regrette de dire qu'au sens de la loi, le Capitaine Parent n'est pas un "skilled and expert witness of the Common Law".

" Quant à savoir si on doit faire la preuve du droit anglais pour prouver la section 41 de l'Acte de l'Armée, je dois dire que si l'Acte de l'Armée s'applique ici, il s'applique en vertu d'un statut qui est la loi de la milice canadienne; et s'il s'applique ici, c'est parce que nous avons l'article 69 de la loi de la milice canadienne qui dit que l'Acte de l'Armée s'appliquera en Canada et seulement L'Acte de l'Armée.

" On admet la loi de la preuve anglaise devant un Conseil de guerre parce que les articles 126 et 128 de l'Acte de l'Armée disent que devant un Conseil de guerre, la loi de la preuve anglaise s'appliquera; parce que la règle 73 dit que c'est la seule façon de faire la preuve devant un Conseil de guerre. La section 41 ne mentionne pas les crimes; elle n'en fait pas une énumération. Vous lirez la note en bas de la section 41 qui dit que les crimes punissables en Angleterre seront punis dans l'Armée Anglaise sous la section 41, sauf certains crimes énumérés dont on en verra à l'autorité civile. Dans cette loi, le droit commun anglais vient s'appliquer à l'Armée Canadienne; le droit anglais est étranger et comme toute autre loi, elle doit être prouvée devant cette Cour par quelqu'un dûment qualifié pour le faire, et je soumets que la défense n'a pas produit devant cette Cour ce quelqu'un qualifié pour le faire."

DIRECTIVES DU JUGE-AVOCAT
SUR LA PREUVE DU DROIT ANGLAIS

" La Cour n'a qu'une question à se poser:"La défense a-t-elle établi à la satisfaction du Tribunal que le Capitaine Simon Parent est un témoin habile à faire la preuve du "Common Law" anglais, et de la partie du "Common Law" anglais qui constitue spécifiquement le droit criminel, le droit criminel anglais?"

" C'est entièrement une question de preuve, et la question de preuve est laissée entièrement à la discrétion du Tribunal. Il n'y a absolument aucune directive à donner en droit sur la question - c'est une question de preuve. La défense a entendu le témoin sur ses qualifications en ce domaine-là, et la Cour a un pouvoir discrétionnaire à appliquer dans cette cause, étant donné que c'est une question de conscience et de jugement.

" Si je n'élabore pas plus longuement les principes qui régissent cette question de preuve de droit étranger, c'est que la question a déjà été soulevée dans la cause antérieure, celle du soldat Louis-Philippe Hamel. J'ai déjà eu l'occasion d'exposer les principes à ce moment-là, et je ne crois pas qu'il soit nécessaire de les répéter, étant donné que ces explications furent données devant les mêmes membres de la Cour qui siègent aujourd'hui; les principes sont les mêmes et c'est le même cas d'espèce. "

L'avocat de l'accusé, avec la permission de la Cour, réfère la Cour au paragraphe 11 (onze) du Chapitre VI du Manuel de Droit Militaire (p.72), qui se lit comme suit:

"11. By Rule of Procedure 74 the court are expressly authorized to take judicial notice of all matters of notoriety, including all matters within their general military knowledge. Thus, evidence need not be given as to the relative rank of officers, as to the general duties, authorities and obligations of different members of the service, or generally as to any matters which an officer, as such, may reasonably be expected to know. Again, it would not be necessary to prove that an important battle was fought on the 18th June, 1815. Among the matters of which it is the duty of all judges to take judicial notice may be mentioned:- Acts of Parliament; the general course of proceedings and privileges of Parliament, the date and place of the sittings of each House, but not transactions in their journals; the course of proceedings and rules of practice in the Supreme Court of Judicature; the accession of the King, the existence and title of every State and Sovereign recognized by the King, the Great Seal, the Privy Seal, the Seals of the Superior Courts of Justice, the seal of any notary-public in the British Dominions, and various other seals; the extent of the territories under the dominion of the Crown, and the territorial and political divisions of the different parts of the United Kingdom; the ordinary course of nature, natural and artificial divisions of time, and the meaning of English words; and all other matters which they are directed by any statute to notice. Judicial notice will also be taken of the fact that the country is at war."

La Cour fait remarquer que les textes cités sont des expressions d'opinion et non la loi même.

L'avocat de l'accusé demande à la Cour si, en vertu du paragraphe 11 cité et de la règle de procédure 74, à la page 665 du M.M.L., la Cour ne devrait pas prendre "judicial notice" du droit commun anglais et des Actes du Parlement.

Le Juge-Avocat donne lecture de la règle de procédure 74 (M.M.L. p. 665) :

"74. The Court may take judicial notice of all matters of notoriety, including all matters within their general military knowledge.", et du paragraphe 10 du Chapitre VI (M.M.L. p.72):

"10. The Court are said to take judicial notice, in other words not to require evidence, of any facts which are so generally known as not to require special proof."

La Cour siège en audience privée pour étudier la question.

La Cour siège en audience publique et le Juge-Avocat annonce la décision de la Cour:

" La Cour a décidé que la preuve faite par la défense n'a pas établi à la satisfaction de la Cour que le Capitaine Simon PARENT est qualifié pour prouver 'The Common Law of England'. "

La Cour reprend le procès.

En vertu de la règle de procédure 36(A) (i), l'avocat de l'accusé fait un plaidoyer "in bar of trial" au premier chef d'accusation.

" Je veux établir par une preuve, que je demande la permission de faire, que l'accusé était "Acting-Sergeant" avant le 17 octobre 1942; qu'après avoir déclaré certains faits en relation avec la cause qui l'amène devant cette Cour, il a été dégradé, et que son officier supérieur et son officier-commandant ont disposé ainsi sommairement de son offense, si offense il y a."

L'accusé est interrogé par la Cour:

Q.41 Voulez-vous rendre témoignage vous-même ou appeler des témoins en votre faveur, à l'appui du plaidoyer spécial?

A.41 Je veux rendre témoignage, monsieur, et faire entendre des témoins aussi.

PREMIER TEMOIN POUR
LA DEFENSE SUR LE
"PLEA IN BAR OF TRIAL".

L'accusé, No. E-25858, soldat Léopold HOUDE, 5ème Cie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.42 Houde, à quelle unité appartenez-vous au mois d'octobre 1942?

A.42 A la 5ème Compagnie du Corps Médical.

Q.43 Qui était votre officier-commandant?

A.43 Le Major Lacasse.

Q.44 Et quel était l'officier supérieur du Corps Médical à Québec?

A.44 Le Lieutenant-Colonel Jules Mercier.

Q.45 Au mois d'octobre, le dix-sept octobre 1942, quel grade aviez-vous?

A.45 "Acting-Sergeant".

Q.46 Depuis combien de temps?

A.46 Depuis le mois de juin.

Q.47 Le dix-sept octobre 1942, avez-vous eu l'occasion de voir le Colonel Mercier?

A.47 Oui, monsieur.

Q.48 En une fois, deux fois ou trois fois?

A.48 En trois fois, monsieur.

Q.49 La première fois, voulez-vous nous dire en quelle occasion et en quelle circonstance?

A.49 La première fois, il m'a questionné à propos...

Q.50 Un instant; n'allez pas trop vite. Etes-vous allé voir le Colonel Mercier de vous-même ou si on vous a demandé d'y aller? Pourquoi êtes-vous allé voir le Colonel Mercier?

A.50 Il m'a demandé.

Q.51 Qui vous a averti que le Colonel Mercier voulait vous voir? Qui vous a dit cela?

A.51 C'est le soldat Blouin qui m'a dit que le Colonel Mercier voulait me voir.

Q.52 Est-ce que vous travailliez dans le même édifice où le Colonel Mercier travaillait?

A.52 Dans le même édifice, mais pas le même plancher.

Q.53 Vous êtes-vous rendu chez le Colonel Mercier?

A.53 Oui, monsieur.

Q.54 Y avait-il quelqu'un de présent à ce moment-là, la première fois?

A.54 Oui, monsieur.

Q.55 Qui était là avec le Colonel Mercier?

A.55 Le Staff DesRosiers de la Police Montée.

Q.56 Vers quelle heure c'était?

A.56 Il était vers quatre heures, quatre heures et demie de l'après-midi.

Q.57 Vers quatre heures, quatre heures et demie de l'après-midi?

A.57 Oui, monsieur.

Q.58 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé? Qu'est-ce que le Colonel Mercier vous a dit à ce moment-là?

A.58 Il m'a demandé des questions au sujet du Sergent Fortin.

Q.59 Qui était le Sergent Fortin?

A.59 Le Sergent Fortin, c'est le sergent en charge de nous autres sur le même plancher, mais pas dans le même "appartement".

Q.60 Sans donner les questions qui vous ont été posées et les réponses que vous avez données, sur quoi portaient ces questions?

A.60 Il voulait savoir si j'avais eu du trafiquage avec le Sergent Fortin.

Q.61 Au sujet de quoi?

A.61 Il n'a pas été question d'argent quand il m'a questionné la première fois.

Q.62 Avez-vous répondu?

A.62 J'ai répondu que je ne le savais pas.

Q.63 L'entrevue a-t-elle duré longtemps?

A.63 Non, monsieur.

Q.64 Vous êtes sorti? Où êtes-vous retourné?

A.64 Je suis sorti et j'ai monté au troisième étage.

Q.65 Avez-vous été re-demandé chez le Colonel Mercier.

A.65 Oui, monsieur.

Q.66 Vers quelle heure?

A.66 Vers six heures ou six heures et quart.

Q.67 Quand vous êtes entré chez le Colonel Mercier la deuxième fois, qui y avait-il là?

A.67 Il y avait le Staff Sgt. DesRosiers de la Police Montée, le Staff Plamondon; je crois que le Colonel Fortier était là, mais je n'en suis pas sûr.

Q.68 Voulez-vous nous dire qu'est-ce qui s'est passé quand vous êtes entré?

A.68 En entrant au bureau du Colonel Mercier, il a pris les ciseaux dans son tiroir et il a dit: "Va ôter tes barres".

Q.69 Qu'est-ce qui a été fait après?

A.69 Le Staff Sgt. Plamondon est venu me les découdre.

Q.70 Les a-t-il ôtées là ou en dehors?

A.70 En dehors du bureau du Colonel.

Q.71 Le Staff Sgt. Plamondon a sorti et a décousu vos barres?

A.71 Oui, monsieur.

Q.72 Après, où êtes-vous allé? Etes-vous monté travailler?

A.72 Il m'a redemandé après et si je me rappelle bien, à son bureau et il m'a questionné encore.

Q.73 Subséquemment à cela, ce soir-là, êtes-vous retourné chez vous?

A.73 Non, monsieur.
Q.74 Qu'est-ce qui est arrivé?
A.74 Il m'a envoyé dans le grand bureau et il m'a fait coucher...

Q.75 Le 17?

A.75 Oui, monsieur.

Q.76 Où avez-vous couché ce soir-là?

A.76 J'ai couché au "clink".

Interrogé contradictoirement par le Procureur.

Q.77 Houde, vous dites que la première entrevue que vous avez eue avec le Colonel Mercier a eu lieu à quatre heures de l'après-midi?

A.77 Quatre heures ou quatre heures et quart.

Q.78 Voulez-vous répéter qui était présent à cette entrevue?

A.78 Je sais que le Staff Sgt. DesRosiers était là.

Q.79 Vous jurez que le Staff Sgt. DesRosiers était là?

A.79 Si je me rappelle bien, il était là.

Q.81 Etes-vous sûr qu'il était là?

A.81 Je suis à peu près sûr.

Q.82 Etes-vous prêt à le jurer?

A.82 Oui, je suis prêt à le jurer puisqu'il était là.

Q.83 Et la deuxième entrevue a eu lieu vers six heures?

A.83 Vers six heures ou six heures et quart.

Q.84 Donc là, il y avait le Staff Sgt. DesRosiers?

A.84 Oui, il y avait le Staff Sgt. DesRosiers et vous-même.

Q.85 Et moi-même?

A.85 Oui.

Q.86 Au cours de ces deux entrevues que vous avez eues avec le Colonel Mercier, est-ce qu'on vous a lu un acte d'accusation?

A.86 Il m'a dit de parler rien que si je voulais, que j'étais pas obligé, et que je pourrais prendre un avocat plus tard.

Q.87 Il vous a dit que vous pourriez avoir un avocat un peu plus tard?

A.87 Il m'a dit que je pouvais avoir un avocat.

Q.88 Est-ce qu'on vous a lu un acte d'accusation en cette occasion?

A.88 Il ne m'a rien lu. Il m'a dit que j'étais pas obligé de parler, oui ou non; j'étais pas obligé.

Q.89 Est-ce qu'on vous a lu un acte d'accusation, un "charge-sheet" comme on l'appelle dans l'Armée?

A.89 Il ne m'a rien lu de ça.

Q.90 Est-ce qu'on vous a dit qu'on vous enlevait vos barres comme punition?

A.90 Non, monsieur.

Q.91 Maintenant, vous étiez Acting-Sergeant, vous?

A.91 Oui, monsieur.

Q.92 Quel était votre rang d'"acting"? Pourquoi étiez-vous acting-sergeant? Etiez-vous "Acting-Sergeant while so employed"?

A.92 C'est parce que j'avais quelqu'un en charge en haut; il m'a dit qu'il fallait des grades, des barres.

Q.93 Retiriez-vous la paie de Sergent?

A.93 Je l'ai déjà eue; ils me l'ont ôtée quand j'ai été transféré dans le Corps Médical.

Q.94 C'est-à-dire, le 17 octobre 1942, vous n'aviez pas la paie de sergent?

A.94 Non, monsieur.

Q.95 Et vous portiez vos barres d'"Acting-Sergeant"?

A.95 Oui, monsieur.

Q.96 Parce que vous aviez charge d'un certain personnel en haut?

A.96 Oui, monsieur.

Q.97 Maintenant, vous étiez "Acting-Sergeant while so employed"?

A.97 Oui, monsieur, j'étais "Acting-Sergeant".

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.98 Quel était votre grade permanent? Etiez-vous soldat, lance-caporal ou caporal?

A.98 J'avais le rang d'"Acting-Sergeant".

Q.99 A quel temps? Quand?

A.99 J'étais "Acting-Sergeant" le 17 octobre.

Q.100 Quelle paie receviez-vous?

A.100 J'avais pas de paie le 17 octobre.

Q.101 Vous avez déjà eu une paie?

A.101 Oui, mais je ne l'étais pas dans ce temps-là.

Q.102 Est-ce que c'était $1.50, $1.70?

A.102 J'avais $1.30; seulement les allouances - $1.00. J'avais $1.30.

Q.103 Alors, votre emploi permanent était soldat?

A.103 Oui, monsieur.

Le Procureur s'adresse à la Cour:

"En vertu de l'Ordre de Routine 471, un "Acting-Sergeant" doit être accusé comme un "private"; peut-être que la défense n'est pas au courant de cela. Je comprends que Me Rivard est dans le civil aujourd'hui, mais je peux lui soumettre l'Ordre de Routine qui veut qu'un "Acting-Sergeant" -surtout dans les conditions de l'accusé Houde- soit accusé comme un "private".

Avec la permission de la Cour, l'avocat de l'accusé prend connaissance de Routine Order No. 471.

RO 471 is a Supplement (Blue) and is Appl'ble. pronounce and sentence - Nothing will be serve to do with point in question.

Le Procureur poursuit son contre-interrogatoire:

Q.104 A cette occasion-là, que s'est il passé chez le Colonel Mercier.

A.104 La première fois que j'y suis allé ou la deuxième fois?

Q.105 La première fois que vous y êtes allé et la deuxième fois aussi.

A.105 La première fois, il m'a parlé au sujet du sergent Fortin.

Q.106 Et la deuxième fois?

A.106 Il a voulu me faire dire des affaires; il m'a questionné

Q.107 Il vous a questionné sur quoi?

A.107 Pour l'affaire qui s'est passée en haut.

Q.107a Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé en haut?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question et s'adresse à la Cour:

" Je comprends que l'accusé a offert son témoignage sur un "plea in bar of trial", mais je ne crois pas qu'on puisse l'interroger au mérite, ou tenter d'obtenir de lui des admissions qui pourraient être prises en considération par cette Cour au mérite."

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse à la Cour:

" Le "plea in bar of trial", de la manière que je le comprends, est comme suit: La défense dit: "nous prétendons que nous avons été punis pour l'offense qu'on nous reproche aujourd'hui." Par conséquent, pour réussir sur un tel plaidoyer, il faut que la défense établisse que l'accusé a déjà été puni pour l'offense qui lui est reprochée maintenant. Je ne vois pas très bien comment cette preuve pourrait être faite sans entrer dans le mérite de la cause.

" Toutefois, le témoin pourrait peut-être répondre aux questions sans préjudice."

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour:

" Nous n'avons pas d'objection à ce que l'accusé réponde aux questions qui lui seront posées sur ce qui s'est passé chez le Colonel Mercier, sans préjudice --suivant les termes employés par le Juge-Avocat-- et avec l'entente que les réponses qu'il donnera sur son plaidoyer spécial ne pourront servir de preuve sur l'issue finale."

Le Juge-Avocat n'est pas d'opinion que la Cour puisse aller jusque là.

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour:

" Qu'il plaise à la Cour. Je me permets de prendre un exemple, une analogie, sur le voir dire, sur l'admissibilité d'une confession. Si je suis devant une Cour criminelle, je vais mettre l'accusé dans la boîte et l'accusé va parler. Comme question de fait, sur le voir dire, on va faire sortir les jurés pour que les jurés ne soient pas empoisonnés... Ici, je n'ai pas peur du poison, mais je voudrais qu'il soit bien entendu que les réponses de l'accusé ne seront pas prises en considération lors du mérite de l'affaire. Sur un examen qui se fait sur un plaidoyer spécial, ou sur un examen de voir dire, je ne crois pas qu'on puisse se servir des réponses données par un accusé comme de la preuve, comme des admissions ou comme des aveux, au mérite."

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse à la Cour:

" Nous ne pouvons pas procéder par analogie dans ce cas-ci avec la procédure en cours devant les tribunaux criminels. Nous entrons là dans un domaine excessivement délicat et difficile, parce que devant les tribunaux criminels, les tribunaux canadiens peuvent donner une protection; mais dans ce cas-ci, nous ne pouvons pas le faire.

" Il y a une grande différence entre la procédure des tribunaux anglais et la procédure des tribunaux canadiens. Alors, l'analogie ne s'appliquerait pas dans ce cas-ci.

" Nous sommes dans une situation excessivement difficile. Je suis d'avis que la Cour permette à l'accusé, au témoin, de faire sa déclaration, réservant ses droits, et je suis assuré que les membres du Tribunal...les membres de la Cour feront tout ce qui est humainement possible pour éliminer ces faits lorsqu'on sera au procès; ils le feront consciencieusement et en autant que cela peut se faire humainement."

Le Procureur poursuit son contre-interrogatoire:

Q.108 Alors, Houde, que s'est-il passé entre le Colonel Mercier et vous, cette journée du 17 octobre 1942?

A.108 La deuxième fois qu'il m'a parlé, à six heures et quart?

Q.109 La première fois, il vous a parlé, dites-vous, du sergent Fortin. Alors, de quoi a-t-il été question au sujet du sergent Fortin?

A.109 Il m'a demandé si j'étais au courant du trafiquage qui se faisait, en haut; j'ai répondu que non. Ensuite, après qu'il m'eut fait ôter mes 'barres', je ne me rappelle pas au juste ce qu'il m'a dit.

Q.110 Cela, c'est lors de la première entrevue qu'il vous a parlé du sergent Fortin?

A.110 Oui, monsieur.

Q.111 Vous avez répondu au Colonel Mercier que vous ne connaissiez rien de ce qui s'était passé en haut?

A.111 Oui, monsieur.

Q.112 Là, ensuite de cela, vous avez eu une autre entrevue?

A.112 Oui, monsieur.

Q.113 Au cours de cette deuxième entrevue, de quoi a-t-il été question?

A.113 Il m'a demandé si j'avais eu un flacon de 'scotch' de quelqu'un.

Q.114 Qu'est-ce que vous avez répondu?

A.114 J'ai répondu, "oui", "oui, monsieur".

Q.115 Racontez à la Cour ce que vous avez dit.

A.115 Je ne m'en rappelle pas assez pour vous le raconter.

Q.116 Vous ne vous en rappelez pas assez pour nous le raconter?

A.116 Non, monsieur.

Q.117 De quelle façon? Dites-nous ce que vous savez.

A.117 Je sais que c'est au sujet de cette affaire-là, mais...

Q.118 Est-ce que c'était vrai qu'il avait été question d'un flacon de 'scotch'?

A.118 Oui, monsieur.

Q.118a A quelle occasion?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question et s'adresse à la Cour:

" Je m'objecte à ce que l'on demande au témoin ce qui s'était passé au sujet du flacon de 'scotch'. On peut le questionner sur ce qu'il a déclaré au Colonel Mercier, mais je soumets qu'on ne peut pas lui demander si ce qu'il a dit au Colonel Mercier était vrai. C'est une question à être décidée au mérite."

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse au Procureur:

" Le débat actuel, qui est un genre de 'trial within a trial', a pour objet d'établir si oui ou non l'accusé a été puni pour les offenses qui lui sont reprochées aujourd'hui, à savoir, le d'avoir reçu des sommes d'argent; 2o d'en avoir distribué. Voudriez-vous essayer, monsieur le Procureur, de restreindre le débat à ce domaine-là?"

Le Procureur demande à la Cour de prendre note du fait qu'il est en contre-interrogatoire.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Le Procureur poursuit son contre-interrogatoire:

Q.119 Voulez-vous dire à la Cour si, à cette occasion, vous avez déclaré au Colonel Mercier avoir reçu des sommes d'argent?

A.119 Je ne me rappelle pas s'il me l'a demandé. La deuxième fois que j'ai été là, je sais qu'il m'a demandé des questions et je ne me souviens pas ce que j'ai répondu.

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse au Procureur et lui demande si cela était avant que les chevrons du témoin lui soient enlevées.

Le Procureur répond que c'était avant la deuxième entrevue chez le Colonel Mercier.

Le Juge-Avocat dit avoir compris que les chevrons du témoin lui avaient été enlevés à la première entrevue.

Vu l'heure avancée, la Cour décide de ne pas faire relire le témoignage de l'inculpé avant l'ajournement, mais en ordonne la transcription avant la reprise de l'audience, à 10 h. de l'avant-midi, le 28 novembre 1942.

A 5 h. 15 de l'après-midi, le 27 novembre 1942, la cour s'est ajournée jusqu'à dix heures de l'avant-midi, le 28 novembre 1942.

Le 28 novembre 1942, à 10 h. de l'avant-midi, la cour se rassemble, conformément à l'avis d'ajournement; sont présents les mêmes membres que lors de la suspension des débats.

A la reprise de l'audience, la transcription du témoignage est lue par le Juge-Avocat.

Avant que le contre-interrogatoire se poursuive, l'avocat de l'accusé demande à la Cour la permission de retirer son "plea in bar of trial" et s'adresse à la Cour:

" Monsieur le Président, afin de hâter les procédures, nous désirons retirer notre plaidoyer spécial. Hier, lors de la discussion sur ce plaidoyer, le Procureur m'a renseigné sur un point que j'aurais peut-être dû savoir mais que j'ignorais, à savoir, l'existence d'un 'Routine Order' concernant la façon dont on pouvait enlever les grades d'un sous-officier intérimaire, d'un 'Acting N.C.O.'. J'en ai pris connaissance ce matin. Après en avoir pris connaissance, je crois de mon devoir de déclarer que l'accusé retire son plaidoyer "in bar of trial", avec la permission de la Cour."

Le Procureur s'adresse à la Cour:

" Avant que la défense puisse retirer son "plea in bar of trial", je crois devoir dire qu'il y a peut-être une raison autre que celle donnée par mon confrère, quoique je ne doute pas de celle-ci. Je ferais remarquer, toutefois, que l'on veut retirer le plaidoyer spécial "in bar of trial" au moment où l'accusé est dans la boîte, au moment où il est pressé de questions. La défense a fait son lit. On a placé l'accusé dans la boîte et on a permis à la poursuite de commencer un contre-interrogatoire.

" Hier, pour une raison technique, afin que le sténographe n'ait pas à relire tout le témoignage de Houde, mais puisse plutôt le transcrire, on a ajourné à ce matin. Il est évident que l'accusé a droit à une pleine et entière défense, mais, lorsqu'elle a offert à la poursuite de faire entendre l'accusé, le témoin, la défense ne peut, à un moment donné, sauf pour enrégistrer un plaidoyer de coupable, retirer l'accusé de la boîte.

" Etant donné les avantages que la défense a donnés à la poursuite hier, la poursuite soumet qu'il est juste que le procès suive son cours normal."

Avec la permission de la Cour, l'avocat de la défense fait la réplique suivante:

" Evidemment, un accusé a le droit de changer son plaidoyer au cours du procès. Il a également le droit de retirer les objections qu'il a faites. Ceci se fait tout le long de la preuve; une objection est faite et l'accusé la retire. L'accusé était dans la boîte simplement sur cette question, savoir; si oui ou non on avait disposé sommairement de son cas; la poursuite ne pouvait tirer d'autres avantages de la transquestion de l'accusé que de faire décider par la Cour qu'on n'avait pas déjà disposé de son cas sommairement. On ne pouvait pas obtenir un avantage pour le procès, puisque l'accusé n'avait pas encore plaidé. L'accusé demande donc de retirer son objection, et je pense qu'avec le retrait de l'objection, et même, je crois, toute la procédure qui l'accompagnait, et tout ce qui était nécessaire pour qu'il en fasse la preuve, pour la considérer, doit nécessairement cesser.

" Je soumets respectueusement qu'il n'y a plus de raisons de contre-interroger l'accusé parce qu'il n'y a plus rien à faire décider par la Cour."

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse au Procureur et à l'Avocat de l'accusé;

" Voulez-vous argumenter à fond ce prétendu droit absolu de la défense de retirer un "plea in bar of trial"? Je crois que c'est une situation très spéciale; cela ne s'est jamais présenté à ma connaissance.

" Je ne suis pas en mesure, dans le moment, de vous donner une opinion, à moins d'avoir des textes ou que vous puissiez éclairer ma religion. Même, je serais porté à croire que je serai obligé de communiquer avec le Juge-Avocat Général, à Ottawa."

La Cour siège en audience privée pour étudier la question.

La Cour siège en audience publique.

Le Procureur et l'avocat de l'accusé déclarent ne pas avoir à soumettre à la Cour d'autres arguments que ceux déjà soumis.

Le Président déclare que le Juge-Avocat s'est mis en communication avec le Juge-Avocat Général relativement à la question en litige et demande au Juge-Avocat de donner la décision de la Cour.

Le Juge-Avocat annonce la décision de la Cour;

" La Cour décide que, en quelque temps que ce soit, un accusé a le droit, à sa discrétion, de retirer un plaidoyer quelconque, à n'importe quel stage de la procédure, y compris le moment où il serait témoin en sa propre cause, et à être contre-interrogé."

" Cette opinion a été soumise au Juge-Avocat Général, lequel l'a confirmée."

La Cour décide donc de permettre à l'accusé de retirer son plaidoyer spécial de "in bar of trial".

Le témoin reprend son siège comme accusé.

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse à l'accusé;

Q.120 Etes-vous coupable ou non coupable du premier chef d'accusation qu'on vous a lu?

A.120 Non coupable.

Q.121 Etes-vous coupable ou non coupable du deuxième chef d'accusation qu'on vous a lu?

A.121 Non coupable.

L'avocat de l'accusé déclare qu'il n'a aucune objection à ce que la Cour procède sur les deux chefs d'accusation et prie la Cour d'ajourner l'audition au lundi, 30 novembre, 1942.

A 11 h. 57 de l'avant-midi, le 28 novembre 1942, la Cour s'est ajournée jusqu'à 10 h. 30 de l'avant-midi, le 30 novembre 1942.

Le 30 novembre 1942, à 10 h. 30 de l'avant-midi, la Cour se rassemble conformément à l'avis d'ajournement; sont présents les mêmes membres que lors de la suspension des débats.

C

Proceeding on Plea of Not Guilty

*Instruction. (See R. P. 39 (A)) Question.

Q.122 *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer.122 No, Sir.

The prosecutor [hands in a written address, which is read, marked "G" , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings].

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution.

J. Adélard AUBE, négociant, 111, rue St-Cyrille, Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.123 Monsieur Aubé, connaissez-vous l'accusé?

A.123 Oui, monsieur.

Q.124 Où l'avez-vous rencontré?

A.124 Je l'ai rencontré chez son frère, chez lui, chez ses parents.

Q.125 Vous le connaissez de vieille date?

A.125 Depuis douze ans.

Q.126 Avez-vous eu affaire à l'accusé dans le cours du mois de juin dernier?

A.126 Dans la crainte de m'incriminer, je fais objection de parler.

Q.127 La question est: "Avez-vous rencontré l'accusé dans le courant du mois de juin dernier?"

A.127 Je l'ai rencontré, mais pas pour lui parler.

Q.128 Quand l'avez-vous rencontré pour lui parler?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question pour la raison que la réponse pourrait incriminer le témoin et s'adresse à la Cour:

" Je crois qu'il y a une objection de faite, une objection qui est faite par le témoin. La Cour me permettra d'attirer son attention sur le paragraphe 95 du Chapître VI, (M.M.L. p.96) qui dit que lorsqu'il y a danger pour un témoin de s'incriminer, la Cour doit l'avertir que les réponses qu'il donne aux questions qu'on lui pose, suscitent pour lui un danger de s'incriminer. Il n'est pas obligé de parler. C'est en vertu de la loi militaire et de toute autre loi."

Le Juge-Avocat donne sa directive à la Cour;

" Il ne peut pas être forcé à répondre à une question qui pourrait l'incriminer; naturellement c'est à la Cour de juger si la réponse à une question posée peut être incriminante. Je crois que la réponse à la dernière question posée ne peut pas être incriminante pour le témoin et qu'il doit répondre."

L'objection est rejetée par la Cour.

A.128 Dans le mois d'août, à la fin d'août; je ne sais pas la date exacte.

Q.129 A quelle occasion, monsieur Aubé?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question.

Le Procureur fait remarquer que c'est au témoin à s'objecter et non pas à l'avocat de l'accusé.

Directives du Juge-Avocat;

" La Cour a pris note de l'attitude du témoin. Je demanderais au témoin de ne pas répondre tant que la Cour n'aura pas déclaré si la réponse peut être incriminante ou non.

" C'est de lui-même que le témoin doit demander ou invoquer ce privilège, parce que c'est lui qui sait en quoi cela peut l'incriminer.

" Nous en sommes rendus à un point très important. Cette question se présentera de nouveau avec une foule de témoins qui peuvent être appelés. J'ai examiné les résumés de la preuve, et j'ai pensé qu'il y avait lieu d'examiner cette question-là à fond. Je l'ai fait pendant trois jours, à la bibliothèque du barreau de Montréal. Mon opinion est formée et je donnerai à la Cour les directives nécessaires à ce sujet. Est-ce que, Messieurs de la poursuite et de la défense, vous voulez plaider maintenant à fond cette question de "privilege of silence" du témoin? Et si vous voulez la plaider à fond, voulez-vous un ajournement pour le faire ou êtes-vous prêts à la plaider maintenant?"

Le Procureur s'adresse à la Cour;

" Il est impossible de plaider maintenant parce que c'est la question ou les questions et les réponses du témoin données à ces question qui peuvent soulever l'objection et qui peuvent amener une discussion."

La Cour déclare comme suit:

" Nous en sommes rendus à une question délicate. Jusqu'à présent, les réponses ne pouvaient pas être incriminantes. Quant à la question qui vient d'être posée, nous sommes rendus à un moment où il est possible que la réponse à cette question soit incriminante. Il serait à propos de plaider la question à fond maintenant."

Le Procureur demande à la Cour de considérer la question, qui est la suivante:

"Quand l'avez-vous rencontré?"

Le Juge-Avocat déclare que la réponse peut être incriminante, comme étant "the first link in a chain".

Le Procureur fait remarquer qu'il faudrait que le témoin explique à la Cour en quoi cela l'incriminerait.

L'avocat de l'accusé répond que si le témoin explique pourquoi la réponse l'incriminerait, le témoin s'incriminerait par le fait même.

Directives du Juge-Avocat:

" Le témoin a témoigné au résumé de la preuve; il a donné une déclaration écrite de sa main.

" Je crois que la question peut être vidée. Il est peut-être possible que la réponse ne soit pas incriminante; il est également possible qu'elle le soit. A chaque question à laquelle le témoin refuse de répondre il faut qu'une directive soit donnée à la Cour, et il faut que la Cour soit mise au courant de la loi. C'est pour cela que je vous suggérerais d'en finir avec les principes régissant ce point-là, de vider cette question à fond."

L'avocat-conseil du procureur s'adresse à la Cour:

" Qu'il plaise à la Cour, nous avons peut-être atteint le point le plus important de la procédure dans cette cause, et peut-être de toutes les causes qui viendront après. Cette cause est entendue en vertu de l'"Army Act", et, en vertu de l'"Army Act", c'est la loi de la preuve en usage devant les cours civiles en Angleterre qui doit s'appliquer. Et, en vertu de cette loi de la preuve, il y a une différence --la plus importante des différences entre la loi de la preuve en usage au Canada et celle en usage devant les cours civiles anglaises, et quand je dis "civiles anglaises", je veux dire les cours de juridiction criminelle d'après l'interprétation donnée dans l'"Army Act".

" En vertu de la loi de la preuve, un témoin a le droit de refuser de répondre si les réponses qu'il donnerait pourraient l'incriminer soit dans une procédure civile soit dans une procédure criminelle, soit dans une autre procédure devant une autre cour martiale. C'est un privilège qui n'est pas donné, je le soumets respectueusement, à la défense. C'est un privilège donné uniquement au témoin. C'est au témoin de juger si la réponse qu'il donnera l'incriminerait et chaque fois qu'une question lui est posée, il doit donner devant la Cour les circonstances qui permettront au Tribunal de juger si sa réponse l'incriminerait. Alors, ce n'est pas le témoin, qui, en définitive, est le seul à juger si la question qui lui est posée entraînerait une réponse qui l'incriminerait; c'est le Tribunal, c'est la Cour qui peut juger d'après l'exposé des circonstances si la réponse pourra l'incriminer.

" Et je soumets respectueusement que la question pourra revenir à chaque interrogatoire, parce qu'il serait facile pour le témoin de dire que ça l'incriminerait et refuser de répondre à toutes les questions, ce qui équivaudrait à refuser de témoigner dans une cause.

" Alors, la doctrine et l'esprit de la loi anglaise de la preuve n'est pas de prévenir le témoignage d'un témoin, d'empêcher un témoin de témoigner devant la Cour, mais bien de lui permettre de témoigner; mais si à une question, la réponse peut l'incriminer, c'est un privilège qui lui est personnel d'invoquer le droit de refuser de répondre. Or, je soumets donc que les avocats ne pourraient pas invoquer ce privilège pour lui. C'est lui seul qui doit l'invoquer, et quand il l'invoque, il doit donner les circonstances qui permettent au tribunal de dire si sa réponse l'incriminerait ou non.

" Cela pourrait faire durer le procès, mais je crois qu'il serait du devoir de la poursuite d'obtenir une décision sur chaque réponse que le témoin pourra être appelé à donner ou pas donner."

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour;

" Comme le dit mon savant ami, il y a des principes sur lequel il est facile de s'entendre. Ce n'est pas le privilège de la défense, c'est clair, évidemment; ce n'est pas la défense qui doit l'invoquer, c'est le témoin, qui dans le cas actuellement devant vous, doit l'invoquer et c'est le témoin lui-même qui l'a invoqué.

" Une fois que le témoin l'a invoqué, la défense, qui doit être pleine et entière, a intérêt aussi à ce que la preuve légale soit admise devant la Cour et c'est sur cela que je veux parler, quand je fais mon objection.

" Pour éclairer notre religion en la matière, j'admets le principe admis par mon savant ami, qu'il y a une différence radicale entre le droit canadien et le droit anglais. Cette différence est celle-ci: en vertu de l'article 5 de la loi de la preuve du Canada, un témoin qui déclare que la réponse qu'il peut donner peut l'incriminer, va être quand même obligé de répondre parce que le juge peut lui donner un certificat que toutes les réponses qu'il donnera ne pourront servir contre lui plus tard à un procès. Ceci est une disposition canadienne qu'on ne trouve pas dans le droit anglais, et par conséquent, nous restons avec l'article 95, Chapitre VI du M.M.L., page 96, purement et simplement, pour le privilège du témoin.

"Il est peut-être bon de le lire, et je demande la permission de la Cour de le lire:

"95. A witness (other than the accused himself when giving evidence on his own application, and as to the offence wherewith he is charged), cannot be compelled to answer a question if the answer would, in the opinion of the Court, have a tendency to expose him to any criminal charge, penalty, or forfeiture, or to any military punishment."

"L'article va plus loin. Par conséquent, je m'accorde avec mon savant ami; ce n'est pas au témoin de décider si la réponse à la question peut l'incriminer ou non, c'est à la Cour. Seulement, je diffère un peu avec mon savant ami, car si un témoin est obligé d'expliquer à la Cour en quoi sa réponse va l'incriminer, il est aussi bien de parler, parce que, évidemment, en disant à la Cour en quoi sa réponse va l'incriminer, il va donner la réponse qui l'incrimine.

"Ici, comme le Juge-Avocat le disait, on a eu occasion d'avoir vu le sommaire d'évidence; mon savant ami, le Colonel Fortier, le procureur, y a fait allusion. Il est facile de voir qu'à la question qui est posée, la réponse que peut donner le témoin peut -pour prendre le texte de la loi - "has a tendency to expose him to a criminal charge, penalty or forfeiture".

"Je crois que dans les circonstances, quand on demande à un témoin dans une cause où il s'agit de savoir si l'accusé a reçu de l'argent de certaines personnes dans l'exécution de ses fonctions, au bureau médical, et ce, sans revenir sur ce qui a été dit, si la Cour se rappelle l'exposé de faits qui a été prononcé devant elle par l'avocat de la poursuite, il est facile de voir à mon sens qu'une question générale comme cell-là, expose certainement le témoin à donner une réponse qui pourrait l'incriminer.

"C'est évidemment à la Cour de le juger.

"J'admets bien avec mon savant ami qu'en pratique, si on veut aller jusque là, le point peut se soulever sur chaque question. Et je soumets que maintenant que le témoin a invoqué ce privilège, je crois qu'il est du devoir de la Cour -je le soumets respectueusement- de considérer chaque question, s'il plait à la poursuite de procéder ainsi, pour savoir si chaque question a une tendance à exposer le témoin à une poursuite.

"Si dans l'opinion de la Cour, une réponse peut exposer le témoin à une poursuite, le privilège doit être donné au témoin, et la Cour doit lui dire, qu'il n'est pas obligé de répondre.

"Evidemment, je m'étais préparé un peu sur la différence entre le droit anglais et le droit canadien. Si nous considérons Phipson, il n'y a rien dans le droit anglais qui voit à une protection devant la Cour. La question qui se soulève est: "Est-ce que véritablement la question que l'on pose peut offrir pour le témoin un danger qu'il s'incrimine?" Et si en vertu de la loi, dans l'opinion de la Cour, il y a doute, s'il y a une possibilité qu'il s'incriminerait, ce doute-là doit être interprété en faveur du témoin.

" Je remercie la Cour du privilège qu'elle m'a donné d'exposer mes vues sur cette question."

Directives du Juge-Avocat:

" 'Il est de mon devoir de donner à la Cour une directive sur la question de droit qui vient d'être soulevée par le témoin lui-même.

" La poursuite et la défense, comme moi-même d'ailleurs, sommes d'accord sur la question que la loi à appliquer, les règles de la preuve à appliquer dans l'espèce, sont celles qui régissent les tribunaux civils de juridiction criminelle en Angleterre, et non pas la loi de la preuve canadienne.

" Si je souligne ce fait avec un peu d'emphase, c'est qu'il s'agit d'une des rares différences essentielles qu'il y a entre les règles de la preuve en Angleterre et les règles de la preuve au Canada, d'après le droit canadien.

" Un tribunal canadien peut dire à un témoin: "Vous avez la protection de la Cour; ce que vous direz ne pourra pas servir plus tard contre vous dans des procédures quelconque."

" En droit anglais, la Cour ne peut pas donner de protection à un témoin. Au contraire, on doit aviser le témoin que, si les réponses qu'il est sur le point de donner sont de nature à l'incriminer, c'est son privilège de demander à la Cour de ne pas être forcé de répondre aux questions posées. C'est ce qui est connu en droit anglais comme "the privilege of silence". Ceci est bien résumé au paragraphe 95 du Chapitre VI (M.M.L. p.96). Les principes essentiels sont là condensés d'une façon très pratique.

" Cependant, comme la question soulève des questions ancillaires, telle que celle de savoir à qui le bénéfice du doute doit être donné, il me va falloir entrer de façon détaillée dans toute la matière, et je ne crois pouvoir faire mieux que de donner lecture à la Cour du texte d'un auteur reconnu sur la loi de la preuve en Angleterre, "Best on Evidence".

" J'ai consulté également "Phipson on Evidence" (8ème édition, 1942), ce qui est plus récent, à la page 187, à la page 198 et les pages suivantes, et aux pages 443 à 451; de même que "Archbold's Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice" (30ème édition, 1938) particulièrement à la page 480, et "Roscoe Criminal Evidence" (15ème édition, 1938), pages 172 à 175.

La doctrine est la même; elle est parfois exposée en phraséologie différente, mais l'exposé le plus clair, et que je crois le plus de nature à éclairer le tribunal, est celui que je trouve dans "Best on Evidence". Il faut retourner aux éléments de la loi de la preuve:

"BEST ON EVIDENCE", 11ème édition (1911).

P.650 (5) : A witness may refuse to answer questions which in the opinion of the Court may tend to incriminate him for the future; but he may be questioned as to a conviction for past crime, and the convictions may be proved against him if he denies it or refuses to answer.

P.115: What persons are compellable to give evidence. Para.125. The law allows no excuse for withholding evidence which is relevant to the matters in question before its tribunals, and is not protected from disclosure by some principle of legal policy, a person, therefore, who, without just cause, absents himself from a trial at which he has been dully summoned to attend as a witness; or a witness who refuses to give evidence, or to answer questions which the Court rules proper to be answered, is liable to punishment for contempt.

P.116. Para. 126. No action lies against a witness in respect of his evidence.

P.117. "...the law extends a personal privilege to witnesses of declining to answer particular questions, a privilege based on the principle of encouraging all persons to come forward with evidence in courts of justice, by protecting them as far as possible from injury or needless annoyance in consequence of so doing. It is therefore a settled rule that a witness is not to be compelled to answer any questions, the answering of which has a tendency to expose him to a criminal prosecution, or to proceedings for a penalty, or for a forfeiture of an estate or interest. "Nemo tenetur seipsum accusare" - "Nemo tenetur seipsum prodere". This is laid down in all our books, is the established practice of the Courts, and is recognized by the Witness Act, 1806, 46, Geo. 3 C. 37 (1) and Other Acts.

P.118. Para. 127. In order to entitle a witness to refuse to answer a question on the ground that it might tend to incriminate him, the question need not be such that the answer thereto would itself be evidence against him on a criminal charge; it is sufficient if the answer might furnish a link in a chain of evidence which might implicate him in such a charge...

P.119. Para.128. When the grounds of privilege are before the Court, it is for the Court, and not for the witness or party interrogated, to decide as to their sufficiency. But much difference of opinion has been expressed, as to whether, if a witness or party interrogated objects to answering a particular question, alleging on oath that the answer would tend to expose him to criminal proceedings, penalty, or forfeiture, the Court is bound to disallow the question, even though it does not see in what possible way the answer to it could have that effect...

In Fisher vs Ronalds, Jervis, C.J., and Maule J. laid down in the most unequivocal terms that the Court is bound by the statement on oath of the witness; and their language was cited with approbation in Adams vs Lloyd, by Pollock, C.B., but with this qualification, that the judge must be perfectly certain that the witness is not trifling with the authority of the Court, and availing himself of the rule of law, in order to keep back the truth, having, in reality no ground whatever for claiming the privilege. The whole doctrine was, however, distinctly denied by Parks, B. in Osborne vs The London Dock Company, and by Stuart, V.C. in Sidebottom vs Adkins, the latter of which is an express decision on the subject, the others being only dicta unnecessary for the determination of the cases in which they are found. In support of the exclusive right of the party or party interrogated, it was urged that, as he alone can know in what way the answer to any particular question could affect him, the requiring him to explain this to the Court would be a virtual denial of the privilege; seeing that it is impossible to affirm a priori, that any imaginable fact can under no possible circumstances whatever become evidentiary, either immeidately or mediately of any other... On the other hand, however, it is to be remembred that the judge is the proper authority to determine all questions relative to the reception of testimony; and consequently to decide whether, taking into consideration all the circumstances, including the demeanor of the person who claims the privilege, an answer to any particular question ought to be exacted; and that, to allow the witness or party interrogated the exclusive right contended for, would not only introduce an anomaly into the law of evidence, but enable every witness, who might be swayed by improper motives, and be indifferent to his reputation, easily and with perfect impunity, to evade giving any evidence whatever...

P.120. Para 126(A). The whole question came at last before the Queen's Bench in Rex vs Boyes, where the dicta in Fisher vs Ronalds were distinctly overruled by an unanimous decision of that Court. The considered judgment of the Court was as follows:

"It was contended that a bare possibility of legal peril was sufficient to entitle a witness to protection; nay, further, that the witness was the sole judge as to whether his evidence would bring him into danger of the law; and that the statement of his belief to that effect, if not manifestly made mala fide, should be received as conclusive. With the latter of these propositions, we are altogether unable to concur. Upon a review of the authorities, we are clearly of opinion...that to entitle a party called as a witness to the privilege of silence, the court must see from the circumstances of the case and the nature of the evidence which the witness is called to give, that there is reasonable ground to apprehend danger to the witness from his being compelled to answer. We indeed quite agree that, if the fact of the witness being in danger be once made to appear, great latitude should be allowed to him in judging for himself of the effect of any particular question, there being no doubt...that a question that might appear at first sight a very innocent one might, by affording a link in a chain of evidence, become the means of bringing home an offence to the party answering.

Subject to this reservation, a judge is, in our opinion, bound to insist on a witness answering, unless he is satisfied that the answer will tend to place the witness in peril. Further than this, we are of opinion that the danger to be apprehended must be real and appreciable, with reference to the ordinary operation of law in the ordinary course of things. We think that a merely remote and naked possibility, out of the ordinary course of the law, and such as no reasonable men would be affected by, should not be suffered to obstruct the administration of justice. The object of the law is to afford to a party, called upon to give evidence in a proceeding "inter alios", protection against being brought by means of his own evidence without the penalties of the law. But it would be to convert a salutary protection into a means of abuse, if it were to be held that a mere imaginary possibility of danger, however remote and improbable, was sufficient to justify the withholding of evidence essential to the ends of justice.

P.123. Para. 129. It used to be considered that the witness who intended to claim the privilege of not answering questions of this nature was bound to claim this privilege at once; and that if he began a criminative statement when he might have refused to make it, he was compelled to go on with it...But in Rex vs Garbett, a majority of the judges overruled the old notion, and held that the witness might claim his protection at any stage of the inquiry.

P.125 Para. 131. It was formerly a disputed point whether witnesses were compellable to answer questions the answers to which would subject them to civil proceedings. To set this matter at rest, the "Witness Act", 1806, 46 Geo.3, C.37 was passed, which, after reciting the existing doubts on the subject, declared and enacted that,-

"Witness cannot by law refuse to answer a question relevant to the matter in issue, the answering of which has no tendency to accuse himself or to expose him to penalty or forfeiture of any nature whatsoever, by reason only, or on the sole ground, that the answering of such question may establish or tend to establish that he owes a debt, or is otherwise subject to a civil suit."

" Je demande pardon à la Cour d'avoir pris de son temps à lire des textes plutôt arides. Je suis porté à croire que c'était de nature à donner le principe général en vertu duquel un témoin, dans certains cas, peut demander à la Cour de ne pas être obligé de répondre aux questions.

" Les principes qui se dégagent de ce texte me semblent être les suivants:

D'abord, un témoin doit répondre aux questions, ceci sous peine de différentes sanctions. Un témoin a le privilège de ne pas répondre si les réponses aux questions posées sont de nature à l'incriminer. Le mot "incriminer", tel qu'exposé dans ce texte comprend à la fois la possibilité de procédures criminelles, la possibilité de procédures pouvant donner lieu à des impositions de pénalités, ce que nous appelons généralement des sanctions pénales, comme sous la "Loi des Liqueurs", ou ce qui est connu en droit anglais comme des "forfeitures", et en matière militaire, d'une accusation militaire.

" Maintenant, en autant qu'il s'agit d'accusations militaires, un témoin qui n'est pas lui-même sujet au droit militaire, un civil, ne pourra pas être jugé par un tribunal militaire.

" Alors, la Cour aura à se poser une question: "Est-ce qu'un témoin civil, en répondant aux questions posées, plus spécifiquement la dernière réponse posée, donnerait un témoignage qui pourrait servir contre lui lors d'une accusation contre lui devant les tribunaux criminels. S'il y a un doute dans l'esprit de la Cour, ce doute doit être résolu en faveur de l'attitude du témoin.

" Il n'appartient pas au témoin de décider lui-même s'il doit répondre ou non, ou si la question est incriminante ou non. La Cour doit donner beaucoup d'importance à l'attitude que prend le témoin car il n'y a que lui qui sache la réponse qu'il va donner et jusqu'à quel point elle l'incriminerait, mais la Cour n'est pas liée par les opinions du témoin. "

L'avocat de l'accusé demande au Juge-Avocat de bien vouloir attirer l'attention de la Cour sur l'article 158 du Code Criminel.

Le Juge-Avocat déclare comme suit:

" Je ne le peux pas, et vous savez peut-être pourquoi. J'ai omis de dire dans mon résumé que le témoin ne peut pas refuser de répondre simplement parce que ses réponses pourraient le rendre susceptible de procédures devant des tribunaux civils; cela est couvert dans le paragraphe 17 du Chapitre VI (M.M.L.p.74). C'est d'ailleurs un principe général.

La Cour ordonne au témoin de répondre à la dernière question posée, savoir:

Q.129 A quel occasion avez-vous rencontré monsieur Aubé?

A.129 Je dois répondre?

Q.130 Oui.

A.130 Mon fils, ayant été classé "E" par son médecin, la soeur de l'accusé me dit...

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à toute conversation entre le témoin et une autre personne hors la présence de l'accusé.

Le Juge-Avocat instruit le témoin à l'effet que toute conversation entre lui-même et une autre personne hors la présence de l'accusé ne doit pas être répétée.

Le témoin répond de nouveau à la question No. 130:

A.130a Alors, je suis allé, sur sa demande, le rencontrer à sa maison privée.

Q.131 Sur la demande de qui?

A.131 La demande de l'accusé, par l'intermédiaire d'un autre. Alors, je lui ai demandé s'il était possible d'obtenir le refus final de l'Armée à mon fils, ajoutant qu'il en connaissait le rouage. Enfin, il dit: "C'est un peu difficile" et "Je vais essayer. Dites à Jos qu'il vienne me voir demain soir."

Q.132 C'est le nom de votre fils, Jos?

A.132 Oui. Alors, avant même que Jos aille le voir, il est venu lui-même un matin chez moi, s'entendre avec mon fils. Quelques jours après, le lendemain ou le surlendemain, je reçois un téléphone de l'accusé me disant d'aller le voir au bureau de la milice, sur la rue St-Jean.

J'y suis allé. Il m'a dit: "On passe Jos ce matin et vous allez être bien surpris; ça va vous coûter bien cher."

Avant ça, je lui avais dit: "Je ne veux pas acheter la justice. Je ne veux pas faire quelque chose comme ça." Il a dit: "Ca va vous coûter bien cher." Je lui ai dit: "Dis le montant que ça va coûter; enfin, tu peux toujours le dire." Il a dit: "A moins de sept à huit cents piastres, on n'est pas capable de le passer". J'ai dit: "Ca coûte bien cher, cette affaire-là". Il a dit: "Ils savent que vous êtes un 'big boy'." Je me sers de son expression. Je m'en rappelle; et il a dit:"Ca en fait plusieurs à graisser".

Alors, comme j'en avais pas d'argent sur moi, il m'a dit: "Vous reviendrez dans une heure; ici-même, m'apporter ça; il faut que ça soit ici, à moi-même et non pas en chèque."

Alors, dans la crainte qu'ils renversent le classement de mon fils, de son médecin de famille, j'ai fait le sacrifice que vous connaissez.

La Cour fait remarquer au témoin qu'elle ne sait rien du "sacrifice" dont il parle.

Le témoin dit qu'il a un "post-scriptum" à ajouter, si ça peut intéresser la Cour.

De nouveau, la Cour déclare qu'elle ne connait rien, absolument rien de ce à quoi le témoin réfère en parlant du "sacrifice que vous connaissez".

Le Juge-Avocat demande à la Cour de considérer si la déposition du témoin ne devient pas incriminante pour lui-même et s'il n'est pas du devoir de la Cour de l'aviser de ses droits.

La Cour siège en audience privée pour étudier la question.

La cour siège en audience publique.

A 12 h. 30 de l'après-midi, le 30 novembre 1942, la cour s'est ajournée jusqu'à 2 h. de l'après-midi, le 30 novembre 1942.

Le 30 novembre 1942, à 2 h. de l'après-midi, la cour se rassemble conformément à l'avis d'ajournement; sont présents les mêmes membres que lors de la suspension des débats.

La Cour siège en audience privée pour compléter ses délibérations.

La Cour siège en audience publique à 2 h. 30 de l'après-midi, le 30 novembre 1942.

Le Président demande au Juge-Avocat de donner lecture de la décision de la Cour.

Le Juge-Avocat;

" La décision de la Cour est la suivante; - La Cour, ayant délibéré, décide qu'au stage actuel des procédures, le témoin ne saurait réclamer le privilège du silence."

Le Procureur poursuit son interrogatoire;

Q.133 Qu'est-ce que vous voulez dire par le "sacrifice que vous connaissez" ?

A.133 Bien, le sacrifice, c'est que j'ai pris $800.00 et je le lui ai donné.

Q.134 A qui?

A.134 A monsieur l'accusé.

Q.135 Comment s'appelle-t-il?

A.135 Léopold Houde.

Q.136 Et je comprends qu'antérieurement, avant de verser cet argent à monsieur Houde, vous l'aviez rencontré?

A.136 Oui, monsieur.

Q.136a Qui avait sollicité le montant d'argent?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question pour la raison que l'inculpé n'est pas accusé d'avoir sollicité de l'argent.

L'Objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.137 A la demande de qui avez-vous donné ce $800.00?

A.137 A la demande de l'accusé, monsieur Léopold Houde.

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.138 Monsieur Aubé, vous connaissez la famille de monsieur Houde depuis assez longtemps?

A.138 Oui, monsieur.

Q.139 Et je comprends que vous avez même aidé la famille de monsieur Houde auparavant?

A.139 Beaucoup.

Q.140 Son frère avait été en affaires et vous l'avez aidé?

A.140 Son père d'abord et son frère ensuite.

Q.141 Et l'accusé lui-même?

A.141 Et l'accusé lui-même.

Q.142 Vous l'aviez déjà aidé?

A.142 Oui, monsieur.

Le Procureur ne désire pas ré-interroger le témoin.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.142a A quelle date était-ce, monsieur Aubé?

A.142a Je ne suis pas capable de dire la date précise, mais je crois que c'est à la fin d'août.

Q.143 De cette année?

A.143 Oui, quelque temps avant ça. Quand l'examen militaire est arrivé; c'est en même temps que l'examen militaire de mon fils. La date précise, je crois que c'est à la fin d'août.

Q.144 Si j'ai bien compris votre témoignage, vous avez mentionné dans le temps que ce n'était pas un chèque qu'on voulait.

A.144 Oui, monsieur.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

DEUXIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE

Jean Ferrier, horloger, domicilié à Deschaillons, P.Q., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q. 145 Monsieur Ferrier, je comprends que vous êtes de Deschaillons, Comté de Lotbinière?

A.145 Oui, monsieur.

Q.146 Voulez-vous dire à la Cour si vous vous êtes présenté au bureau de l'Armée pour examen médical?

A.146 J'ai été aux "Cove Fields"; je me suis présenté là le vendredi et le samedi, et je suis allé avec les autres passer mon examen sur la rue Saint-Jean.

Q.147 A quelle date était-ce?

A.147 Vers le 20 septembre.

Q.148 De quelle année?

A.148 1942.

Q.149 Continuez, monsieur Ferrier, parlez fort.

A.149 J'étais assis dans le passage, et je suis parti pour aller m'acheter un "coke" dans l'appartement de l'autre côté. Il y avait un monsieur qui était là; il a commencé à parler avec moi. Il m'a demandé si je venais du comté de Lotbinière et j'ai dit que oui. On a parlé ensemble. Ensuite, il m'a demandé si j'aimerais à avoir ma "discharge". Je suis resté un peu surpris et j'ai dit "oui". Avant ça, il m'a dit que j'étais pas un physique pour faire un militaire, un soldat; que je ne serais pas capable de résister. Après ça, il m'a dit que pour l'avoir, je serais obligé de débourser quelque chose. Je suis resté surpris un peu et j'ai dit :- "Oui, je vous donnerai quelque chose".

Q.150 Qui est le monsieur?

A.150 D'après le portrait, c'est monsieur Léopold Houde.

Q.151 Est-ce que vous le voyez, monsieur Houde, ici?

A.151 Oui. (le témoin indique l'accusé Houde)

Q.152 Et est-ce qu'il vous a dit que ça vous coûterait quelque chose?

A.152 Oui, monsieur.

Q.153 Qu'est-ce qui est arrivé après ça?

A.153 Je suis allé dans le passage et un autre m'a fait passer dans un autre appartement. Et il m'a fait passer un petit examen. Il m'a dit qu'il n'était pas docteur. Ensuite, je suis passé dans l'autre appartement; je me suis déshabillé comme les autres, et monsieur Houde m'a dit; "Si tu passes pas, si tu es bloqué, tu iras t'enrôler volontaire; tu viendras en haut et on te donnera ta décharge".

A.153 (suite)

Q.154 Au moment où vous vous êtes présenté en haut, vous n'aviez pas signé encore votre enrôlement?

A.154 Non, monsieur.

Q.155 Et ensuite, qu'est-ce qui est arrivé? Vous avez été passer votre examen, si je comprends?

A.155 Oui, monsieur; je suis allé passer mon examen avant de descendre en bas.

Q.156 Avant d'aller vous enrôler?

A.156 Oui, monsieur.

Q.157 Qu'est-ce qui est arrivé après ça?

A.157 En bas?

Q.158 Non, non, avec Houde, en ce qui regarde Houde?

A.158 Je suis allé en bas et j'ai donné le papier à un autre dans le bureau, qui m'a fait ma formule d'enrôlement. Il m'a donné ma décharge et je suis allé dans la chambre de toilette; monsieur Houde est venu me trouver et j'ai payé.

Q.159 Combien?

A.159 C'est trente-cinq ou quarante-cinq piastres.

Q.160 Est-ce que Houde était en uniforme ou en civil?

A.160 Il était en uniforme.

Q.161 Pourquoi avez-vous payé $35. ou $45. à Houde?

A.161 C'est pas mal difficile à dire parce que je suis resté un peu surpris quand il m'a demandé ça, et j'ai accepté.

Q.162 Lors du petit examen dont vous avez parlé est-ce que Houde était présent?

A.162 L'examen?

Q.163 Le petit examen que vous avez passé.

A.163 Non.

Q.164 Vous étiez seul avec un autre?

A.164 Oui.

Interrogé contradictoirement par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.165 Lors de l'examen que vous avez passé d'abord par un homme qui a dit qu'il n'était pas médecin, Houde n'y était pas?

A.165 Non, monsieur.

Q.166 Quand vous avez passé devant les médecins, Houde n'y était pas non plus?

A.166 Non, monsieur.

Q.167 Et ce n'est pas Houde non plus qui vous a remis votre certificat de licenciement, de décharge?

A.167 Ce n'est pas lui.

Interrogé de nouveau par le Procureur.

Q.168 Est-ce lui qui a pris l'argent, Houde?

A.168 Oui, c'est lui qui a pris l'argent.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.169 Est-ce que la Cour doit comprendre que lorsque vous étiez aux "Cove Fields", vous étiez en service?

A.169 J'avais reçu une deuxième lettre de me présenter aux "Cove Fields".

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.170 Vous n'avez jamais porté l'uniforme?

A.170 Non, monsieur.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.171 Lorsque vous êtes allé dans la chambre de toilette avec Houde, est-ce qu'il y avait quelqu'un d'autre là?

A.171 Non, nous étions seuls tous les deux.

Q.172 Avant d'avoir vos papiers pour votre licenciement, ou après?

A.172 Après.

Q.173 Pourquoi avez-vous donné ce montant d'argent, ce $35.00 ou $45.00 ?

A.173 Il m'a demandé si je pouvais donner quelquechose pour avoir ma décharge. J'étais obligé de donner quelquechose.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 85(B).

Le témoin se retire.

TROISIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE

Jos. Aubé, voyageur, 37 ans, domicilié à 66, rue d'Artigny, Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.174 Quelle est votre occupation?

A.174 Voyageur.

Q.175 Connaissez-vous Adélard Aubé?

A.175 Oui, c'est mon père.

Q.176 Monsieur Aubé, connaissez-vous un monsieur Houde?

A.176 Oui, monsieur.

Q.177 Le voyez-vous ici en cour?

A.177 Oui, monsieur.

Q.178 Où est-il?

A.178 Ici en avant.(indiquant l'accusé)

Q.179 Avez-vous rencontré monsieur Houde dans le cours du mois de septembre ou à la fin d'août?

A.179 A la fin d'août.

Q.180 A quelle occasion?

A.180 Monsieur Houde est venu chez mon père comme nous étions à quitter les lieux pour notre ouvrage. Mon père m'a dit:"...

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à ce que le témoin rapporte une conversation entre lui et son père hors de la présence de l'accusé.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Le témoin continue sa réponse:

A.180a Alors, le soldat Houde m'a demandé -il savait que je souffrais d'une maladie- il dit: "Dans un cas semblable, la milice donne un refus". J'ai dit: "Je le crois moi-même". Il a dit: "Peut-être que j'rais voir un médecin de ma connaissance pour savoir ce qui en est." Sur l'invitation de Houde, sur sa suggestion, je suis allé avec lui le lendemain ou le surlendemain. Je suis allé le chercher; nous sommes allés chez un médecin et j'ai subi un examen personnel. Et de là, nous sommes remontés et je suis allé le reconduire chez lui.

A.180a (suite)

Il n'a aucunement été question de cette chose-là, et deux jours après ou le lendemain, j'ai eu un téléphone et je me suis rendu au bureau sur la rue St-Jean. Je suis monté au troisième étage et j'ai vu le soldat Houde. Je lui ai demandé ce que j'avais à faire. Alors, il a dit: "Nécessairement, il te faut tes papiers; il faut que tu signes des formules lesquelles te donneront le droit de subir un examen militaire." Je suis allé en bas signer les papiers et je suis remonté passer mon examen. Je suis resorti et je suis allé en bas chercher un reçu, mais il était trop tard. Je suis retourné dans l'après-midi; mes papiers étaient signés et je me suis en allé.

Q.181 Avez-vous rencontré monsieur Houde avec votre père?

A.181 Je l'ai vu chez moi.

Q.182 Votre père était là aussi?

A.182 Oui, monsieur.

Q.183 De quoi a-t-il été question entre Houde, votre père et vous?

A.183 Mon père m'a dit: "Le soldat Houde..."

Q.184 Vous vous êtes rencontrés, Houde, votre père et vous ensemble?

A.184 Oui, monsieur.

Q.185 Qu'est-ce qui s'est dit à cette occasion-là?

A.185 "Prends le conseil du soldat Houde; va voir un médecin pour te faire examiner pour savoir ce qu'il en est".

Q.186 Est-ce qu'il a été question d'argent à cette entrevue-là?

A.186 Jamais.

Q.186a Etes-vous au courant si votre père a eu quelque chose à régler avec Houde?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question comme étant trop vague.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.187 Avez-vous eu votre licenciement?

A.187 Oui, monsieur.

Q.187a Après ça, êtes-vous au courant de ce qui s'est fait entre votre père et Houde?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question pour la raison que le témoin est peut-être au courant par oui-dire ou par des informations données ou par des conversations hors de la présence de l'inculpé.

Le Juge-Avocat demande au Procureur de préciser la question.

Question retirée.

Q.188 Etes-vous personnellement au courant de choses qui se seraient passées entre Houde et votre père?

A.188 Absolument pas.

Q.188a Est-ce que votre père vous a rapporté quelque chose?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas contre-interroger le témoin.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

QUATRIEME TEMOIN A CHARGE:

Léopold Bédard, chauffeur-mécanicien, 32 ans, domicilié à Loretteville, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

L'Avocat de l'accusé fait remarquer que ce témoin n'est pas mentionné dans le Sommaire d'évidence et qu'il n'a reçu aucun avis à l'effet qu'il serait appelé comme témoin.

Le Juge-Avocat déclare que la règle de procédure 76, (M.M.L. p.666), sera appliquée dans le cas du présent témoin, et que s'il y a lieu, la défense pourra avoir un ajournement pour son contre-interrogatoire.

Le Président donne lecture de la règle de procédure 76 (M.M.L. p.666):

"76. If the prosecutor intends to call a witness whose evidence is not contained in any summary or abstract of evidence given to the accused, notice of such intention shall be given to the accused a reasonable time before the witness is called, together with an abstract of his proposed evidence; and if the witness is called without such notice or abstract having been given, the court shall, if the accused so desire, either adjourn after taking the evidence of the witness, or allow the cross-examination of the witness to be postponed, and the court shall inform the accused of his right to demand such an adjournment or postponement."

Le Procureur interroge le témoin.

Q.189 Monsieur Bédard, avez-vous au cours de septembre eu affaire au bureau de recrutement à Québec?

A.189 Oui, monsieur.

Q.190 Voulez-vous dire à quelle date?

A.190 Le 17 septembre.

Q.191 De quelle année?

A.191 De 1942.

Q.192 Voulez-vous dire à la Cour ce qui s'est passé en cette occasion?

A.192 Je suis allé m'engager comme volontaire et j'ai passé mes examens et on m'a déchargé. J'ai rencontré un militaire avant de passer mon examen et on a jasé.

Q.193 Qu'est-ce qu'il vous a dit ce militaire-là?

A.193 C'est moi qui lui ai posé des questions.

Q.194 Quelles sortes de questions?

A.194 De quelle manière se présenter pour passer notre examen. Il a dit: "C'est bien facile; tu as seulement à te présenter devant le docteur; présente-toi en brave". Il m'a demandé si j'avais des maladies et j'ai dit "oui". Il a dit: "Aies pas peur". Je suis allé passer mon examen et j'ai eu ma décharge.

Q.195 Le connaissez-vous ce militaire-là?

A.195 Si je le reconnais? (Le témoin regarde dans la salle). Je crois que c'est ce monsieur-là. (Indiquant l'inculpé). Je l'ai vu seulement une fois là.

Q.195 Vous ne le connaissiez pas avant?

A.195 Non.

Q.196 Après ça, vous ne l'avez pas revu?

A.196 Je ne l'ai pas revu après que je suis parti du bureau.

Q.197 Avant de partir du bureau, vous, l'avez-vous revu?

A.197 Oui.

Q.198 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé?

A.198 Je l'ai remercié; je l'ai récompensé; je lui ai fait un présent.

Q.199 De quelle nature?

A.199 En argent.

Q.200 Quel montant?

A.200 $10.00

La défense renonce à son droit à un ajournement et le témoin est contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé;

Q.201 Vous croyez que c'est l'accusé?

A.201 Oui, monsieur.

Q.202 Vous ne pouvez pas jurer que c'est lui?

A.202 Non, monsieur.

Ré-interrogé par le procureur;

Q.202 A quel endroit avez-vous rencontré le soldat Houde?

L'avocat de l'accusé demande à la Cour si la question est juste.

Le Procureur dit que les rayons du soleil empêchent le témoin de voir l'accusé et demande au témoin d'avancer sa chaise. Le témoin se lève, avance sa chaise et se rasseoit sans se prononcer.

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte au procédé soumettant qu'il est illégal sur une preuve d'identification.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

CINQUIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

André LAPOINTE, chauffeur de taxi, 21 ans, domicilié à Laurier Station, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur;

Q.203 Monsieur Lapointe, avez-vous eu affaire au bureau des médecins de l'Armée?

A.203 Oui, monsieur.

Q.204 En quel temps?

A.204 J'ai passé mon examen pour avoir une décharge.

Q.205 Quand avez-vous passé cet examen militaire-là?

A.205 Je ne me rappelle pas au juste la date, mais c'est dans le mois d'octobre.

Q.206 Quelle année?

A.206 1942.

Q.207 Voulez-vous raconter ce qui s'est passé en cette occasion?

A.207 Le matin, je suis arrivé; j'ai passé par la porte centrale et je me suis engagé volontaire. Je suis monté passer mon examen et ils m'ont dit de revenir.

Q.208 Avez-vous rencontré quelqu'un? Avez-vous parlé à quelqu'un?

A.208 J'ai parlé à un monsieur Houde qui était assis à son bureau?

Q.209 Qui est-ce, ça?

A.209 Monsieur Léopold Houde.

Q.210 Le voyez-vous ici?

A.210 Oui, c'est l'accusé.(l'indiquant).

Q.211 Qu'est-ce que vous avez dit avec monsieur Houde?

A.211 En rentrant, j'ai donné mes formules et il a dit; "Tu viens passer ton examen ce matin" et j'ai dit "oui". Il m'a dit de me déshabiller pour aller passer mon examen.

Q.212 Qu'est-ce que vous avez fait?

A.212 Je me suis déshabillé et j'ai attendu qu'on me demande pour passer mon examen.

Q.213 Avez-vous passé votre examen?

A.213 J'ai passé mon examen.

Q.214 Après ça, qu'est-ce qui est arrivé?

A.214 Après ça, je me suis rhabillé, j'ai parlé quelques mots avec monsieur Houde; je ne me rappelle pas exactement et je lui ai dit; "Il faut que je revienne passer un autre examen", et là, je suis parti et je suis monté chez nous.

Q.215 Etes-vous retourné?

A.215 Oui, monsieur; je suis retourné.

Q.216 Qu'est-ce qui est arrivé?

A.216 Je suis monté au troisième; j'ai passé mon examen après que je me suis déshabillé, et là ils m'ont dit de revenir encore une troisième fois.

Q.217 L'avez-vous vu à la deuxième occasion?

A.217 Oui, à son bureau.

Q.218 Il ne s'est rien passé de spécial?

A.218 Non, monsieur.

Q.219 Et vous êtes revenu une troisième fois?

A.219 Oui, et j'ai fait la même chose; je suis monté au troisième plancher; je me suis déshabillé; ils m'ont fait mon examen encore et là, ils m'ont classé "E".

Q.220 Qu'est-ce qui est arrivé?

A.220 Après ça, je suis descendu sur le premier plancher, et ils m'ont donné ma décharge et je suis monté en haut.

Q.221 Qu'est-ce que vous êtes allé faire en haut?

A.221 J'ai donné un 'tip' à monsieur Houde.

Q.222 Quelle sorte de 'tip' ?

A.222 $100.00

Q.223 Connaissiez-vous Houde avant?

A.223 Oui, monsieur.

Q.224 L'aviez-vous vu avant de vous présenter au bureau de recrutement?

A.224 Je l'avais vu chez nous, c'est-à-dire, chez son beau-père.

Q.225 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé à cette occasion-là?

A.225 On a parlé de différentes choses. Il m'a dit ça; "Quel classement as-tu chez ton médecin?" Je lui ai dit que j'avais été classé "E". Il a dit: "T'as pas envie d'avoir ta décharge?" J'ai dit: "Peut-être que oui; j'ai idée d'aller travailler en dehors". Il a dit: "T'as beau de te présenter". J'ai dit: "Je le sais pas." Il a dit: "J'ai pas d'affaire là-dedans". Monsieur Houde m'a dit;"T'as beau à te présenter, moi j'ai aucune affaire dans les décharges, mais tu es classé E par ton médecin". Je suis descendu à Québec au bout de trois semaines et je suis venu passer mes examens. C'est de même que je l'ai connu.

Q.226 Qui a suggéré d'aller s'enrôler - est-ce vous ou Houde?

A.226 C'est moi-même.

Q.227 Et qu'est-ce qu'il a été question ensuite chez votre beau-père?

A.227 C'est le beau-père de Houde.

Q.228 Est-ce qu'à cette occasion-là, il a été question de ce qui se passerait par la suite?

A.228 Non.

Q.229 Pourquoi avez-vous donné à Houde un 'tip' de $100.00 comme vous dites?

A.229 Aucun intérêt.

Q.230 Est-ce qu'il en avait été question au préalable avec Houde?

A.230 Non.

Q.231 Est-ce que vous vous fréquentiez, Houde et vous?

A.231 Il vient chez nous; il vient chez son beau-père, et moi je sors avec une de ses belles-soeurs.

Interrogé contradictoirement par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.232 Si je comprends bien, monsieur Lapointe, vous aviez l'occasion de rencontrer de temps à autre, Houde?

A.232 Oui, monsieur.

Q.233 Et ça, bien avant qu'il soit question de l'Armée?

A.233 Oui, monsieur.

Q.234 Vous sortez avec une de ses belles-soeurs?

A.234 Oui, monsieur.

Q.235 Et vous aviez occasion de le voir quand il allait chez son beau-père?

A.235 Oui, monsieur.

Q.236 Comment s'appelle-t-il, son beau-père?

A.236 Gérasime Garneau.

Q.237 Où demeure-t-il?

A.237 A Laurier Station.

Q.238 Et vous?

A.238 A Laurier Station.

Q.239 Il a été question de votre enrôlement à une visite que Houde faisait chez son beau-père, à Laurier Station?

A.239 Oui, ce n'est pas lui qui m'en a parlé.

Q.240 C'est vous?

A.240 Oui.

Q.241 Vous lui avez dit que vous vouliez vous enrôler?

A.241 Pas directement; je lui ai dit que j'aimerais à avoir ma décharge pour travailler en dehors.

Q.242 Vous lui avez parlé de votre décharge? Et vous vous êtesdécidé de vous enrôler?

A.242 Oui, monsieur.

Q.243 Vous lui avez dit que vous aviez un certificat du médecin, n'est-ce-pas?

A.243 Oui, monsieur.

Q.244 Que vous aviez obtenu avant?

A.244 Oui, monsieur.

Q.245 Et, il vous a dit à ce moment-là qu'il n'avait rien à faire dans la décharge?

A.245 Oui, monsieur.

Q.246 Que cela ne le regardait pas?

A.246 Oui, monsieur.

Q.247 Vous vous êtes présenté au bureau, et connaissiez-vous, quand vous êtes arrivé au bureau, d'autres personnes que Houde?

A.247 Non, monsieur.

Q.248 Alors, vous lui avez demandé comment faire quand vous vous présenteriez chez le médecin? C'était la première fois que vous subissiez une procédure comme celle-là?

A.248 Oui, monsieur.

Q.249 Il vous a dit comment faire?

A.249 Il m'a pas dit comment faire; je suis allé moi-même; je suis monté en haut et j'ai rempli mes formules.

Q.250 Vous êtes monté en haut; vous avez rempli vos formules et vous avez passé votre premier examen?

A.250 Oui, monsieur.

Q.251 Et après cet examen-là, on vous a dit de revenir?

A.251 Oui, monsieur.

Q.252 Vous avez passé un second examen?

A.252 Oui, monsieur.

Q.253 Et alors, là, vous avez vu Houde?

A.253 Oui, monsieur.

Q.254 Et cet examen ne s'est pas terminé d'une façon définitive, il a fallu que vous passiez un troisième examen?

A.254 Oui, monsieur.

Q.255 Après avoir passé ce troisième examen, vous avez cru devoir faire un cadeau à Houde?

A.255 Oui, monsieur.

Q.256 Avait-il jamais été question avant de cela de prix entre Houde et vous?

A.256 Non, monsieur.

Q.257 C'est vous-même qui avez décidé de lui faire un cadeau?

A.257 Oui, monsieur.

Ré-interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.257a Faites-vous souvent des cadeaux de ce genre-là?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.258 Qui vous a amené à ce bureau-là?

A.258 Je savais qu'il se trouvait à travailler au bureau d'enrôlement militaire.

Le Procureur continue son ré-interrogatoire:

Q.259 Vous vous êtes rendu là de vous-même ou si quelqu'un vous a amené?

A.259 Je me suis rendu là de moi-même.

Q.260 Est-ce Houde qui vous a dit de vous présenter là?

A.260 Non, monsieur.

Q.261 Houde vous avait-il dit qu'il travaillait là?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la forme de la question.

L'objection est renvoyée par la Cour.

A.261 Oui, monsieur.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat;

Q.262 Vous dites que vous avez fait un cadeau de $100.00 à l'accusé. Pourquoi? Est-ce qu'il vous avait rendu quelque service?

A.262 Oui, monsieur.

Q.263 Quel service?

A.263 Des services qu'il me rend pour différentes choses quand j'achète ici, en ville; il se trouve à avoir de la protection aux magasins; ça se trouve à passer par lui.

Q.264 Alors, pourquoi lui faisiez-vous un cadeau?

A.264 Pour services rendus.

Q.265 Rendus où, quand, comment?

A.265 Quand je l'amenais avec moi, vu qu'il était "protégé" par les premiers.

Q.266 Quels magasins est-ce?

A.266 Quand j'allais chez Smith avec lui.

Q.267 Qu'est-ce que vous achetiez chez Smith?

A.267 Du linge, de la lingerie pour hommes.

Q.268 Et vous lui avez donné un cadeau de $100.00 parce qu'il avait certaine "protection", comme vous dites, lorsque vous achetiez du linge chez Smith?

A.268 Oui, monsieur.

Q.269 Vous êtes sous serment; c'est seulement pour ça que vous donniez $100.00 à Houde?

A.269 Pour ça et d'autres choses.

Q.270 Quelles sont ces autres choses-là?

A.270 Voyez-vous, je croyais qu'il m'avait peut-être donné une chance pour avoir ma 'discharge' aussi.

Q.271 Pour combien de linge "de secondemain" avez-vous acheté chez Smith?

A.271 Pour plusieurs piastres de linge.

Q.272 Combien, à peu près?

A.272 (pas de réponse)

Q.273 $25.00, $50.00, $100.00, $500.00 ou $1,000.00?

A.273 Pas pour $1,000.00

Q.274 Pour à peu près combien d'argent avez-vous acheté de linge "de seconde main", chez Smith?

A.274 Une affaire de $30.00; mais j'ai acheté d'autres morceaux à part de cela.

Q.275 En tout et partout, une cinquantaine de piastres aux magasins, au plus?

A.275 On peut mettre ça, à peu près, une cinquantaine de piastres, et encore...

Q.276 Quand vous parlez de la "protection" que Houde aurait pu avoir chez Smith, qu'est-ce que vous voulez dire? Est-ce que vous achetiez à meilleur marché à cause de son influence?

A.276 Oui, monsieur.

Q.277 Combien calculez-vous qu'il vous a sauvé comme ça, par sa protection en achetant chez Smith?

A.277 Plusieurs piastres.

Q.278 Pas plus que $50.00.

A.278 Non, parce que je n'ai pas acheté plus.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

SIXIEME TEMOIN A CHARGE.

Gérard SIMARD, agent vendeur, 38 ans, domicilié à 83, rue Dorchester, Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.279 Monsieur Simard, avez-vous eu affaire au bureau médical sur la rue St-Jean?

A.279 Oui, monsieur.

Q.280 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour qu'est-ce qui s'est passé en cette occasion-là?

A.280 Sur mon cas?

Q.281 Ce qui s'est passé; qui avez-vous rencontré?

A.281 Pour commencer; je suis allé voir un monsieur Gosselin qui m'a dit...

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à toute déclaration faite au témoin hors la présence de l'accusé.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.282 Qui avez-vous rencontré au bureau médical?

A.282 Je suis allé voir monsieur Portin.

Q.283 En avez-vous vu d'autres que monsieur Fortin?

A.283 Pas la première fois.

Q.284 La deuxième fois?

A.284 Monsieur Houde.

Q.285 Connaissez-vous monsieur Houde?

A.285 Oui, monsieur.

Q.286 Où l'avez-vous vu?

A.286 Au bureau de recrutement.

Q.287 Le voyez-vous ici, monsieur Houde?

A.287 Oui, monsieur. (Le témoin indique l'accusé).

Q.288 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé entre vous et monsieur Houde?

A.288 Je lui ai dit que je voulais voir monsieur Fortin. Houde m'a dit qu'il était en passe. J'ai dit; "Ca va faire peut-être pareil", et je lui ai demandé; "Est-ce que je peux avoir une 'décharge' pour monsieur Raymond?"

Q.289 Alors, qu'est-ce qui est arrivé?

A.289 Monsieur Houde lui a demandé; "As-tu ton certificat de médecin?" Et monsieur Raymond lui a dit; "Non." Monsieur Houde lui a dit; "Retourne-t-en et reviens avec un certificat de médecin." Nous sommes retournés le lendemain matin et j'ai vu monsieur Fortin.

Q.290 Avez-vous eu d'autres affaires avec monsieur Houde?

A.290 Je lui ai donné $5.00.

Q.291 Pourquoi lui avez-vous donné $5.00 à monsieur Houde?

A.291 Je l'avais dérangé la veille et le matin; parce qu'il s'était donné du trouble pour moi.

Q.292 Et est-ce que monsieur Raymond a eu sa 'décharge'?

A.292 Oui, monsieur.

Q.293 Monsieur Raymond a eu sa 'décharge'?

A.293 Oui, monsieur.

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé;

Q.294 Ce n'était pas pour vous?

A.294 Non, monsieur.

Q.295 C'était pour un nommé Raymond; comment s'appelle-t-il?

A.295 Charles Raymond.

Q.296 Vous, si je comprends bien, c'est à la deuxième visite que vous avez vu Houde?

A.296 A la première visite.

Q.297 Vous vouliez un nommé Fortin qui n'y était pas?

A.297 Oui, monsieur.

Q.298 Alors, vous avez dit que vous vouliez avoir une décharge pour Raymond?

A.298 Oui, monsieur.

Q.299 Il vous a demandé si vous aviez un certificat de médecin?

A.299 Oui, monsieur.

Q.300 Vous n'en n'aviez pas?

A.300 Non, monsieur.

Q.301 Il vous a dit d'aller en chercher un?

A.301 Oui, monsieur.

Q.302 Vous êtes reparti?

A.302 Oui, monsieur.

Q.303 Pour son trouble, vous lui avez donné $5.00?

A.303 Pas de suite; le lendemain, je suis retourné, j'ai fait affaire avec monsieur Fortin, et en passant je lui ai donné $5.00.

Q.304 Est-ce qu'il vous avait demandé de l'argent?

A.304 Non, aucunement.

Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger le témoin de nouveau.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

SEPTIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

Roland Trudel, employé du C.N.R., 22 ans, domicilié à 76, avenue des Erables, Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.305 Monsieur Trudel, au cours du mois de septembre 1942, avez-vous eu affaire au bureau médical?

A.305 Non, monsieur.

Q.306 Dans quel temps?

A.306 Le 8 octobre 1942.

Q.307 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé à cette occasion-là?

A.307 Je me suis présenté au bureau, j'ai rempli les formules, au premier étage; ils m'ont donné des formules, et je suis monté au troisième subir mon examen. Après mon examen, j'ai attendu une demi-heure, trois-quarts d'heure, et ils m'ont donné ma 'décharge'.

Q.308 Qui avez-vous rencontré au bureau médical?

A.308 Monsieur Houde.

Q.309 Le voyez-vous?

A.309 Oui, monsieur.

Q.310 Où est-il?

A.310 Là. (indiquant l'accusé)

Q.311 Vous avez rencontré monsieur Houde?

A.311 Oui, monsieur.

Q.312 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé entre Houde et vous?

A.312 Je l'avais rencontré quelques jours avant.

Q.313 Qu'est-ce qui s'était passé quelques jours auparavant entre Houde et vous?

A.313 Il m'a conseillé, vu que j'avais passé deux examens médicaux auparavant et que j'avais passé inapte, il m'a conseillé d'aller subir l'examen médical par mon docteur de famille et de me faire donner un certificat par lui. Après ça, je lui ai dit que j'étais pour le récompenser.

Q.314 En fait, l'avez-vous récompensé?

A.314 Oui, monsieur.

Q.315 Quand, ça?

A.315 Après.

Q.316 Après?

A.316 Quand j'ai eu obtenu ma 'décharge'.

Q.317 Quelle récompense lui avez-vous donnée?

A.317 $25.00.

Q.318 Où lui avez-vous donné ça?

A.318 Dans la chambre de toilette, au troisième.

Q.319 Est-ce qu'il y en avait d'autres que vous et Houde dans la chambre de toilette?

A.319 Non, monsieur.

Q.320 Vous étiez seuls?

A.320 Oui, monsieur.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas interroger le témoin contradictoirement.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

HUITIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

Antoine Beaudet, machiniste, 26 ans, domicilié à 47 rue des Remparts, Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.321 Monsieur Beaudet, avez-vous eu affaire au bureau de recrutement, au cours de l'automne dernier?

A.321 Oui, monsieur.

Q.322 Dans quel mois?

A.322 Au commencement d'octobre.

Q.323 De quelle année?

A.323 Cette année.

Q.324 1942?

A.324 Oui, monsieur.

Q.325 Qu'est-ce qui est arrivé à cette occasion-là?

A.325 A cette occasion, je me suis présenté au bureau de recrutement pour passer mon examen médical et j'ai rencontré monsieur Houde qui était officier en charge, je pense bien.

Q.326 Le voyez-vous ici, monsieur Houde?

A.326 Oui. (Le témoin indique l'accusé).

Q.327 Vous avez rencontré monsieur Houde qui était l'officier en charge là?

A.327 Je le crois, oui.

Q.328 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé quand vous avez vu monsieur Houde?

A.328 On a parlé de différentes choses; monsieur Houde venait du même comté que moi; on a parlé de tout ça.

Interrogé par l'avocat-conseil du Procureur:

Q.329 Quel comté?

A.329 Lotbinière.

Le Procureur poursuit son interrogatoire:

Q.330 Continuez.

A.330 Il m'a demandé si mon cas était correct, si j'étais arrangé avec quelqu'un. J'ai dit: "Non".

Q.331 Il vous a demandé si vous étiez arrangé avec quelqu'un?

A.331 Oui, monsieur.

Q.332 Quels arrangements?

A.332 Pour mon examen médical, je pense. J'ai dit: "Non". Il a dit que peut-être il pourrait m'aider.

Q.333 Et ensuite, qu'est-ce qui s'est passé, monsieur Beaudet?

A.333 Je me suis déshabillé et j'ai passé l'examen médical. Je suis retourné à trois reprises différentes. A la troisième fois, j'ai été classé "E", et là, monsieur Houde m'a dirigé pour signer "actif" pour obtenir ma 'décharge'.

Q.334 Vous n'aviez pas signé encore quand vous avez passé votre examen médical?

A.334 Non, monsieur.

Q.335 Et vous avez de nouveau rencontré Houde, après quoi il vous a dirigé en bas pour vous faire signer vos papiers?

A.335 Oui, monsieur.

Q.336 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé?

A.336 Ensuite de cela, je lui ai donné $20.00 comme récompense pour m'avoir aidé un peu.

Q.337 Quelle aide vous avait-il donnée?

A.337 Pour m'avoir dirigé pour obtenir ma 'décharge' plus vite.

Q.338 Est-ce le dernier examen médical que vous avez passé? Avez-vous passé d'autres examens depuis l'enrôlement?

A.338 Oui, lundi dernier.

Q.338a Et dans quelle catégorie avez-vous été placé?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question comme n'ayant pas rapport à la cause.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Interrogé contradictoirement par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.339 Monsieur Beaudet, vous avez passé, avant d'avoir votre licenciement, trois examens médicaux?

A.339 Oui, monsieur.

Q.340 Est-ce que monsieur Houde a assisté aux examens médicaux?

A.340 Non, monsieur.

Q.341 Monsieur Houde vous avait conseillé d'avoir un certificat de votre médecin?

A.341 Non, monsieur.

Q.342 Aviez-vous un certificat de votre médecin?

A.342 Non, monsieur.

Q.343 Avez-vous vu monsieur Houde les trois fois que vous êtes allé au bureau?

A.343 Oui, monsieur; je l'ai vu les trois fois.

Q.344 Et est-ce lui qui vous a fait remplir les formules d'application pour l'enrôlement?

A.344 Non, monsieur.

Q.345 Est-ce lui qui a rempli la formule pour votre licenciement, pour votre 'décharge'?

A.345 Non, monsieur.

Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger le témoin de nouveau.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.346 C'est peut-être en dehors de la cause, mais je voudrais me faire éclairer. Les témoins disent qu'ils ont passé trois ou quatre examens médicaux; si c'est vrai, le Gouvernement du Canada le saura. Est-ce trois fois que vous avez passé par les mêmes préliminaires, ou est-ce un examen médical divisé en trois parties?

A.346 La première a été complète; la deuxième, on m'a sondé le coeur et on a pris ma pression artérielle.

Q.347 Alors, c'est simplement un examen médical en différentes parties?

A.347 Oui.

Q.348 C'est un examen médical; on vous a envoyé pour radiographie, pour vous faire sonder le coeur et les poumons; et ils ne vous ont pas fait faire la même chose trois fois?

A.348 Non.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.349 Connaissiez-vous Houde, l'accusé, avant d'aller au bureau?

A.349 Non, monsieur.

Q.350 Est-ce que vous aviez fait du service l'an dernier ou l'année précédente?

A.350 Non, monsieur.

Q.351 Vous n'avez pas fait un mois dans le service?

A.351 Non.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

NEUVIEME TEMOIN A CHARGE.

Roland Blouin, menuisier, 31 ans, originaire de Matane, P.Q., ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.352 Monsieur Blouin, je comprends que vous avez eu votre appel pour service militaire au cours de l'été dernier?

A.352 Oui, monsieur.

Q.353 Vous vous êtes rapporté à Québec par la suite?

A.353 Oui, monsieur.

Q.354 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour ce qui s'est passé à ce sujet?

A.354 J'ai été appelé comme recrue; je suis monté sur les "Cove Fields; j'ai été là deux jours et au bout de deux jours on m'a amené sur la rue St-Jean, au bureau; les médecins n'étaient pas arrivés et on a attendu. On était une vingtaine, tous assis. Monsieur Houde est arrivé et m'a demandé si je n'étais pas parent avec un gars qui travaillait en bas. J'ai dit "non", que je ne le connaissais pas et on a parlé un peu. Il m'a demandé d'où je venais et ce que je faisais. Il m'a demandé si j'étais malade; j'ai dit "oui" et ce que j'avais. Je lui ai demandé si les médecins étaient bien sévères et il m'a dit "pas mal". C'est tout ce qui est arrivé.

Q.355 Il n'a pas été question d'autre chose entre vous et Houde?

A.355 Il a dit: "Il y a peut-être moyen d'arranger cela; si tu es malade, pour avoir ta décharge." C'est tout, et je ne l'ai pas revu. J'ai passé mon examen comme les autres et après que ça a été fini, je suis descendu à l'hôpital passer un rayon-X.

Q.356 Il a dit: "Si tu es malade, on peut arranger ça" ? Qu'est-ce qui s'est dit à ce sujet-là à part de ça?

A.356 C'est tout ce qui s'est passé; il m'a dit ça: "Ca peut peut-être s'arranger" ou: "On peut arranger cela".

Q.356a A-t-il été question de votre salaire dans le civil?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question pour la raison qu'elle est suggestive.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.357 A-t-il été question d'autre chose avec Houde?

A.357 Non, monsieur.

Q.358 C'est tout ce dont vous vous rappelez?

A.358 Oui, monsieur.

Q.359 L'avez-vous vu par la suite, Houde?

A.359 Non, monsieur.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas contre-interroger le témoin.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.360 Vous avez dit à la Cour, tout à l'heure, que vous aviez rencontré Houde?

A.360 Ce monsieur-là, (indiquant l'accusé). C'est ce monsieur-là que j'ai vu.

Q.361 Une autre question, une autre déclaration qui n'est pas claire. Vous avez dit: "On peut arranger cela" - arranger quoi?

A.361 Il m'a demandé ce que j'avais, si j'étais malade; je lui ai dit ce que j'avais. Il a dit: "Si tu es malade, ils ne te garderont pas ici". C'est tout.

Q.362 Qu'est-ce que "on pouvait arranger" ?

A.362 Pour une "discharge".

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

PREMIER TEMOIN
POUR LA POURSUITE
SUR LE VOIR-DIRE.

Lieut.-Colonel Jules Mercier, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., Médecin-chef, 5ème Région Militaire, Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.362 Colonel Mercier, connaissez-vous l'accusé?

A.362 Oui, monsieur.

Q.363 Je comprends que l'accusé travaillait chez le D.M.O.?

A.363 Oui, monsieur.

Q.364 Avez-vous eu occasion d'interviewer l'accusé le 17 octobre 1942?

A.364 Oui, monsieur.

Q.365 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour dans quelle circonstance vous avez interviewé l'accusé?

A.365 Brièvement ou en détail?

Q.366 Brièvement.

A.366 Voici. Le 17 octobre 1942, entre 4 h. et 4 h.30 de l'après-midi, j'ai fait venir devant moi le sergent intérimaire Houde pour l'interroger sur les allées et venues d'un sergent; pour lui demander s'il avait vu quelque chose d'anormal se passer en haut, au troisième étage, où se faisait l'examen des recrues.

Je ne l'ai pas interrogé sur sa conduite personnelle; je n'avais aucun doute sur lui; j'avais un doute sur un autre sergent. Il m'a répondu dans la négative; je l'ai laissé partir et j'en ai fait venir un autre.

Q.367 Revenons à Houde, Colonel.

A.367 J'ai fait revenir Houde une deuxième fois. Houde, la deuxième fois, m'a répondu dans la négative; je l'ai envoyé. Une troisième fois, je l'ai fait venir de nouveau. Je l'avais appelé quelques minutes auparavant, il était sorti. Je l'ai fait parader. Je lui ai fait une mise en garde parce que là j'avais des doutes, parce qu'il m'avait répondu par la négative, et par son attitude, j'avais cru comprendre qu'il en savait plus long qu'il n'en voulait dire sur l'autre sergent.

Q.368 Quelle mise en garde lui avez-vous faite?

A.368 Qu'il n'était pas obligé de parler; ce qu'il me dirait ou ce qu'il m'apprendrait pourrait servir contre lui et qu'il pouvait avoir les services d'un avocat.

Q.369 Est-ce qu'il y avait d'autres personnes présentes lors de la déclaration de Houde?

BUREAU FOR TRANSLATIONS
Date 4-43
24-45
NATIONAL DEFENCE

A.369 Les deux premières fois il y avait le Major Lacasse et le sergent-major Drolet; alors que je l'ai interrogé sur les allées et venues d'un autre sergent.

Q.370 Et la troisième fois?

A.370 La troisième fois, lorsque je lui ai fait la mise en garde, je l'ai interrogé sur ses actes à lui, sur sa conduite. Il y avait là le Major Lacasse, l'accusé et moi-même.

Q.371 Au moment où vous avez fait la mise en garde, est-ce qu'il y avait une accusation de portée contre Houde?

A.371 Il n'y avait aucune accusation de portée.

Q.372 Est-ce qu'il était sous escorte?

A.372 Non, monsieur.

Q.373 Quelles étaient les personnes présentes lors de la déclaration lorsque vous l'avez mis en garde? Lorsque Houde vous a fait des déclarations, est-ce que le Major Lacasse, vous-même et l'accusé étaient là?

A.373 Voulez-vous répéter, s'il vous plait?

Q.374 Qui était présent à cette entrevue?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour:

" Je comprends qu'on entre sur un examen de voir-dire, pour production de déclaration. Evidemment, nous sommes sur un terrain non couvert par le sommaire de la preuve ni par les avis.

" Je comprends que, pour le moment, mon savant ami désire procéder. Je n'ai pas d'objection, mais quand il aura terminé son enquête, je serai peut-être obligé de demander un ajournement pour savoir si j'ai moi-même une preuve à faire sur la preuve de voir-dire."

La Cour déclare que ce sera le droit de la défense de demander un ajournement après que les témoins de la poursuite auront été entendus, afin de les contre-interroger et d'assigner ses propres témoins sur "voir-dire", et que la Cour accordera l'ajournement si la défense le demande.

A.374 Aux deux premières entrevues pendant lesquelles j'ai interrogé Houde sur la conduite d'un autre sergent, il y avait le Major Lacasse et le sergent-major Drolet. L'entrevue où j'ai fait la mise en garde et à laquelle j'ai interrogé Houde sur sa conduite à lui, il y avait le Major Lacasse, l'accusé et moi-même.

Q.375 Quelles sont les menaces que vous avez faites à l'accusé?

A.375 Je n'ai fait aucune menace.

Q.376 Quelles sont les promesses que vous avez faites à l'accusé?

A.376 Je n'ai fait aucune promesse.

Q.376a Lui avez-vous laissé entendre que s'il parlait, il aurait une chance d'avoir de la clémence?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé;

Q.377 Si je comprends bien, Colonel, vous aviez, ce jour-là, des informations au sujet de certaines irrégularités concernant un sergent qui n'était pas là?

A.377 Exactement.

Q.378 Et, en premier lieu, vers quatre heures, quatre heures et demie, de l'après-midi, vous avez fait descendre Houde pour l'interroger?

A.378 Oui, monsieur.

Le Procureur s'adresse à la Cour;

" Comme je ne voudrais pas revenir en ré-examen sur un point, je demanderais que mon savant confrère suspende son contre-interrogatoire."

Le Procureur poursuit son examen en chef.

Q.379 Alors, après la mise en garde, je comprends que Houde vous a fait une déclaration?

A.379 Oui, monsieur.

Q.380 Est-ce qu'il y a eu d'autres déclarations; est-ce que cela a été mis par écrit?

A.380 Vous voulez me demander si, après la déclaration que je viens de mentionner, Houde m'en a fait une autre?

Q.381 Oui.

A.381 Le lendemain soir.

Q.382 Est-ce que Houde a fait seulement une déclaration verbale ou s'il l'a mise dans des termes qu'on peut trouver aujourd'hui?

A.382 C'est-à-dire, il m'a fait une déclaration verbale et je prenais des notes. Après ça, quand on a eu fini, j'interrogeais Houde et je faisais écrire par le sergent-major la déclaration que vous voyez.

Q.383 Déclaration qu'il a signée?

A.383 Oui; et même je lui ai dit qu'il n'était pas obligé de la signer. Et à ce moment-là, il y avait plus de témoins. A part du Major Lacasse, de l'accusé et de moi-même, il y avait le sergent-major, ce dernier écrivait cela à la machine à écrire; et je pense qu'il y en avait d'autres aussi.

Q.384 Au moment de la prise par écrit ou de la signature?

A.384 Au moment de la signature par Houde.

Q.385 Qui y avait-il?

A.385 Je pense que le Colonel Fortier assistait lorsque le sergent Houde a signé sa déclaration.

Q.386 Est-ce qu'il y en avait d'autres à part cela?

A.386 Je pense qu'à ce moment-là le sergent Desrosiers de la police fédérale était arrivé.

Q.387 Il a pu y avoir un intervalle, je ne m'en rappelle pas, pas un intervalle très long s'il y en a eu, mais je ne m'en rappelle pas.

Q.388 Est-ce qu'avant la déclaration écrite de l'accusé il a été question de quelque chose entre Houde, vous et les personnes qui étaient là?

A.388 A ma connaissance, je ne me rappelle pas qu'il se soit passé quelque chose d'extraordinaire.

Q.389 Quelles sont les promesses faites à Houde pour lui faire faire sa déclaration écrite?

A.389 Aucune promesse n'a été faite.

Q.390 Quelles sont les menaces qui lui ont été faites?

A.390 Aucune menace ne lui a été faite.

Q.391 L'avez-vous forcé de signer?

A.391 Non, je lui ai dit qu'il n'était pas obligé de signer.

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.392 Pour revenir à ce que vous disiez, Colonel, vous avez, le 17 octobre, dans le courant de la journée, été informé de certaines irrégularités qui concernaient un sergent qui n'était pas Houde?

A.392 Oui, monsieur.

Q.393 Houde ne se trouvait pas immédiatement sous vos ordres?

A.393 Il était attaché à la 5ème Compagnie.

Q.394 Il était sous les ordres du Major Lacasse, mais également sous votre juridiction comme faisant partie du Corps Médical?

A.394 Oui, monsieur. Est-ce que vous me permettez d'ouvrir une parenthèse? Lorsque j'eus été informé de certaines irrégularités, je suis allé voir le commandant de la 5ème Compagnie et je lui ai dit: "On vient de m'informer de quelque chose;je vais commencer à faire une enquête et je t'appellerai un peu plus tard."

Q.395 Vous avez fait demander Houde; et quand Houde est entré, vous avez commencé à le questionner?

A.395 Oui, monsieur.

Q.396 Vous lui avez demandé s'il avait eu connaissance de certaines irrégularités qui s'étaient passées à l'étage où il travaillait?

A.396 Oui; je ne me rappelle pas de la forme, mais c'est le sens.

Q.397 Et Houde vous a répondu: "Non" ?

A.397 Oui, exactement.

Q.398 Lui avez-vous posé d'autres questions? Vous l'avez questionné pendant combien de temps à peu près?

A.398 Je pense que je lui ai posé seulement une ou deux questions; je l'ai renvoyé immédiatement.

Q.399 Parce qu'il a répondu "non", dans la négative, aux demandes d'informations que vous vouliez avoir?

A.399 Oui, monsieur.

Q.400 Si je comprends bien, à cette première entrevue, Houde n'a pas voulu vous donner d'informations?

A.400 Non, monsieur.

Q.401 Il est sorti. Vous l'avez redemandé combien de temps après, à peu près?

A.401 A peu près, pas absolument longtemps, peut-être vingt minutes, un quart d'heure après.

Q.402 Et là encore vous avez recommencé à lui poser à peu près les mêmes questions touchant le même sergent?

A.402 Oui, je pense que je lui ai posé surtout la question à savoir s'il avait remarqué un sergent concerné qui parlait assez souvent aux recrues à l'écart, soit dans une chambre ou dans une autre, s'il a parlé avec des recrues surtout concernant ce sergent.

Dans le temps, je n'avais absolument rien qui pouvait me faire croire que le sergent Houde était coupable ou incriminé. Son attitude...

Q.403 C'était la deuxième entrevue?

A.403 Oui, monsieur.

Q.404 Son attitude à la deuxième entrevue, peut-être aussi à la première, malgré ses dénégations, a commencé à vous laisser soupçonner quelque chose?

A.404 Oui, monsieur.

Q.405 Alors même qu'il refusait de vous donner des informations, vous avez commencé à croire qu'il pouvait avoir fait quelque chose qui n'était pas correct le concernant?

A.405 C'est une impression que j'avais, mais je n'ai pas voulu aller plus loin.

Q.406 Quand?

A.406 Je l'ai eu la première fois et la deuxième fois que Houde ne me disait pas la vérité. Seulement, je n'ai pas voulu le questionner sur lui-même parce que je voulais mener mon enquête rapidement et je voulais en interroger d'autres, alors, je l'ai laissé partir.

Q.407 Entre la deuxième et la troisième entrevues, vous avez continué votre enquête avec d'autres, sans nous dire qui ils étaient?

A.407 Oui, monsieur.

Q.408 Et vous avez alors obtenu, -ce n'était pas une conviction - c'était plus qu'une impression, que Houde était mêlé à des choses irrégulières?

A.408 Oui, monsieur.

Q.409 Et quand vous l'avez fait revenir pour la troisième fois, c'était pour vous convaincre ou pour lui faire admettre que véritablement il y avait des irrégularités?

A.409 C'était pour l'interroger, non sur les autres, mais sur lui-même.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.410 A ce moment-là, vous l'aviez sous soupçon?

A.410 Oui, parce que j'en avais interrogé un autre.

Q.410 Le soupçon avait germé dans votre esprit?

A.410 Oui, monsieur.

L'avocat de l'accusé poursuit son interrogatoire contradictoire.

Q.411 Alors, à ce moment-là, quand il est entré, c'était la troisième fois que vous le faisiez parader dans une période de combien de temps?

A.411 De une heure et demie à peu près.

Q.412 Et la troisième fois, quand il est entré, quelles sont les personnes qui étaient présentes?

A.412 Le Major Lacasse et moi-même.

Q.413 Son commandant et vous?

A.413 Oui, monsieur.

Q.414 Il n'y en avait pas d'autres à ce moment-là?

A.414 Non, il pouvait y avoir les allées et venues de mon sergent-major, comme assistant, le Major Lacasse et moi.

Q.415 Vous avez demandé à ce qu'il soit paradé?

A.415 Oui, je l'ai appelé; j'ai sonné et il est venu.

Q.416 Qu'est-ce que vous lui avez dit quand il est entré pour la troisième fois?

A.416 Je lui ai dit que je voulais l'interroger, qu'il n'était pas obligé de répondre, que j'allais lui poser des questions, qu'il n'était pas obligé de répondre, que s'il se sentait coupable qu'il pouvait même avoir les services d'un avocat et que ce qu'il me dirait pourrait servir de preuve contre lui.

Q.417 C'est la première chose que vous lui avez dite?

A.417 Oui, monsieur. Là je ne voulais pas l'interroger sur les autres mais sur lui-même; je savais ce que j'avais à faire dans le moment, j'avais déjà suivi la même procédure avec les autres.

Q.418 Voulez-vous répéter la mise en garde que vous lui avez faite?

A.418 Je ne peux pas répéter textuellement, seulement, je peux donner le sens. Je lui ai dit que je voulais l'interroger, qu'il n'était pas obligé de me répondre, qu'il pouvait avoir les services d'un avocat et que ce qu'il me dirait servirait contre lui, que je m'en servirais.

Q.419 N'est-il pas vrai qu'à ce moment-là, il vous a dit: "Je ne veux pas répondre" ?

A.419 A ce moment-là, l'accusé m'a dit: "je ne veux pas répondre" et sans que je lui pose aucune autre question, il a ajouté...

Q.420 Ce que je veux mettre en preuve, immédiatement après que vous lui avez dit que vous alliez le questionner, et immédiatement après l'avoir mis en garde, la première chose qu'il vous a dite a été "Je ne veux pas répondre" ?

A.420 "Je refuse de répondre".

Q.421 Et après ça, il a commencé à faire des déclarations?

A.421 C'est-à-dire, pour être franc, je me rappelle très bien que ça m'a surpris; il a continué sa phrase - il a fait seulement une phrase - "je refuse". Seulement, il a fait un aveu en même temps qu'il refusait.

Q.422 Une déclaration; après avoir dit: "je refuse de répondre", il a fait une déclaration?

A.422 Oui, monsieur.

Q.423 L'avez-vous questionné au cours de la déclaration?

A.423 Oui, monsieur.

Q.424 Est-ce qu'à un certain moment vous ne lui avez pas dit: "Tu ne m'as pas dit la vérité?", soit à la première ou à la deuxième entrevue?

A.424 Si je lui ai dit cela, c'est plutôt à la troisième; il est possible que je lui aie dit, je ne peux pas me rappeler; je ne nie pas, mais pas à la première ni à la deuxième entrevue.

Q.425 Mais quand il s'agissait de lui, vous lui avez dit à un certain moment, "Houde, je ne te crois pas; tu ne dis pas la vérité" ou "Tu mens, tu ne me dis pas la vérité." ?

A.425 Je pense que je lui ai dit: "Tu ne me dis pas la vérité".

Q.426 C'était au cours de sa déclaration?

A.426 Au cours de sa déclaration.

Q.427 Lui avez-vous fait d'autres remarques pour la déclaration

A.427 Je crois plutôt que je lui ai posé des questions.

Q.428 Et vous lui avez posé des questions pour faire confirmer les soupçons que vous aviez à cause de l'enquête que vous aviez faite dans l'après-midi?

A.428 Oui, monsieur.

Q.429 Et vous interrogiez pour que ces soupçons soient confirmés et surtout, si possible admis par lui?

A.429 Voici exactement ce que je cherchais; je cherchais à connaître toute la vérité dans cette histoire.

Q.430 En autant que lui était concerné?

A.430 Pas seulement lui, tout le monde.

Q.431 La troisième fois?

A.431 Honnêtement, la troisième fois, comme chaque fois que je l'ai interrogé, je ne cherchais pas des preuves pour inculper un tel ou un autre, je cherchais toute la vérité pour arrêter les irrégularités que j'avais découvertes.

Q.432 N'est-il pas vrai que quand vous avez fait revenir Houde la troisième fois, vous vouliez faire préciser et faire confirmer des soupçons que vous aviez sur lui?

A.432 Sur lui et sur les autres.

Q.433 Les autres, vous venez de le dire.

A.433 Oui, c'était mon point de vue; j'ai insisté - parce que j'ai une position responsable, n'est-ce-pas? Je ne cherchais pas à faire condamner un tel ou un tel; je cherchais à connaître la vérité. C'est pour ça que je veux être absolument juste; je cherchais à faire préciser certains faits non seulement avec lui-même mais en rapport avec tout le monde.

Q.434 Et parmi tout le monde il y avait lui?

A.434 Oui, monsieur.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.435 Votre enquête n'était pas dirigée spécialement contre l'accusé?

A.435 Non, elle était générale.

Q.436 Elle était générale?

A.436 Oui, n'importe quoi.

L'avocat de l'accusé poursuit son contre-interrogatoire:

Q.437 N'est-il pas vrai qu'après les deux premières entrevues, si vous n'aviez pas eu des informations concernant Houde particulièrement, vous ne l'auriez pas fait venir?

A.437 Monsieur; je suis obligé de dire le contraire. Je l'aurais fait revenir quand même, parce que même si le sergent Houde était parfaitement en dehors de la question, même si j'avais cru que Houde n'était pas intéressé personnellement, je savais par les témoignages au préalable qu'il était au courant. Et je l'aurais interrogé.

Après ça, vous m'avez demandé si je lui avais posé des questions. J'ai dit "oui"; cela aurait été n'importe qui, cela aurait été pareil, n'importe qui, sans distinction. Je n'étais pas intéressé seulement dans son cas. Ce que je voulais, c'était la vérité, que ça intéresse un officier ou un homme.

A.437 (suite)

Q.438 Quand?

A.438 Au cours de sa déclaration.

Q.439 Au cours de sa déclaration verbale, vous avez pris des notes?

A.439 Oui, monsieur.

Q.440 Est-ce que vous les avez, ces notes-là?

A.440 Non.

Q.441 Vous ne les avez pas gardées?

A.441 Supposons qu'il me disait un nom. Je mettais le nom et je mettais le montant.

Q.442 Vous ne les avez pas gardées, ces notes-là?

A.442 Non, monsieur.

Q.443 Vers quelle heure est-il entré, la troisième fois?

A.443 La troisième fois, je crois que c'est autour de sept heures.

Q.444 Cette entrevue a duré combien de temps, la déclaration verbale?

A.444 Cela n'a pas été absolument long - je pense, une dizaine de minutes.

Q.445 Est-il sorti entre la déclaration verbale et la déclaration écrite?

A.445 Non, je crois qu'il est sorti après que la déclaration écrite a été faites à la machine; je crois qu'il est sorti entre la terminaison et le temps qu'il l'a signée.

Q.446 Maintenant, la déclaration écrite qui a été signée devant vous, a-t-elle été dictée par lui?

A.446 Non, monsieur.

Q.447 Elle a été dictée par vous?

A.447 Oui, et je lui demandais si c'était bien ça qu'il avait voulu dire.

Q.448 Et elle a été reproduite sur le dactylographe par le sergent-major?

A.448 Oui, monsieur.

Q.449 Maintenant, vous posiez des questions à l'accusé et les questions que vous posiez à l'accusé ne sont pas reproduites dans la déclaration?

A.449 Je ne le crois pas.

Q.450 Vous n'avez rapporté dans la déclaration que les réponses?

A.450 Oui, monsieur.

Q.451 Réponses que vous résumiez et que vous dictiez vous-même au sergent-major?

A.451 Exactement; en me servant des notes que j'avais.

Q.452 Quand cela a été terminé, avez-vous remis le document à Houde?

A.452 Oui, avant qu'il signe.

Q.453 Vous l'avez remis à Houde?

A.453 Oui, monsieur.

Q.454 L'avez-vous lu à Houde?

A.454 Je crois qu'il l'a lu lui-même.

Q.455 Jurez-vous qu'il l'a lu?

A.455 Je le pense, du moins; je ne peux pas jurer qu'il l'a lu. Mais là, je me rappelle, je jure que je le lui ai lu.

Q.456 Lui avez-vous dit quelque chose après l'avoir lu?

A.456 Je lui ai dit qu'il n'était pas obligé de la signer.

Q.457 A ce moment-là, est-ce qu'il était entré quelqu'un dans votre bureau pendant que cela se faisait?

A.457 Après que cette déclaration eut été écrite, je crois que le Colonel Fortier est entré et le sergent-major Desrosiers est entré; je ne le sais pas exactement.

Q.458 Le Colonel Fortier y était ainsi que le sergent-major Desrosiers quand cela a été signé?

A.458 Le Colonel Fortier y était.

Q.459 Et le sergent-major Desrosiers?

A.459 Il est arrivé quelque temps après ou avant. Je ne peux pas déterminer exactement quand il est arrivé. Peut-être quelque temps avant.

Q.460 Qui a suggéré de faire mettre par écrit sa déclaration?

A.460 Moi-même.

Q.461 De quelle façon, comment avez-vous dit cela?

A.461 Je pense que j'ai fait venir mon sergent-major et je lui ai dit: "Tu vas prendre par écrit les déclarations du sergent Houde."

Q.462 C'est tout ce qui a été dit au sujet de la déclaration?

A.462 Oui, monsieur.

Q.463 A la fin de tout, vous dites que vous avez relu à haute voix la déclaration?

A.463 Oui, je l'ai lue.

Q.464 A haute voix?

A.464 Oui.

Q.465 En présence du Colonel Fortier, du staff DesRosiers et du Major Lacasse?

A.465 Je ne peux pas jurer en présence du Staff DesRosiers, mais en présence du Major Lacasse, certain.

Q.466 Et du Colonel Fortier?

A.466 Je le croirais, A coup sûr, en présence du Major Lacasse.

Q.467 Et vous avez dit à Houde qu'il n'était pas obligé de signer, en présence de ces messieurs?

A.467 Oui, monsieur.

Q.468 A quel moment avez-vous demandé à Houde d'enlever ses chevrons?

A.468 J'ai demandé à Houde d'enlever ses chevrons? C'est après cela, longtemps après ça, parce que là j'ai fait sortir l'accusé et j'ai eu une conversation avec le Colonel Fortier et le Staff DesRosiers. C'est après cela que j'ai fait venir Houde et c'est là que l'histoire des chevrons est commencée.

Q.469 Vous me dites que, quand vous avez dit à Houde d'enlever ses chevrons, la déclaration verbale était faite et la déclaration écrite, signée?

A.469 Oui; il n'était pas arrêté.

Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger le témoin de nouveau.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

Le Procureur s'adresse à la Cour:

" On a mentionné mon nom au cours du témoignage, et je comprends que le Procureur doit témoigner le premier dans une cause lorsqu'il est intéressé. Je ne savais pas que le Colonel Mercier allait mentionner mon nom sur un tel point."

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour:

" Avant que le Colonel Portier soit entendu, je désire faire objection à ce témoignage parce que je crois que quand l'avocat de la poursuite veut se faire entendre, la procédure dans ce cas est qu'il doit se faire entendre en premier lieu."

Directives du Juge-Avocat:

" C'est plutôt une directive. Je suggère que le témoignage du Colonel Portier, le Procureur, soit entendu sous réserve de l'objection de la défense."

DEUXIEME TEMOIN
POUR LA POURSUITE
SUR LE "VOIR-DIRE".

Le Procureur, Lieutenant-Colonel Laval PORTIER, Assistant Juge-Avocat Général, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat-conseil de la poursuite:

Q.470 Lieutenant-Colonel, le témoin précédent a mentionné votre nom comme ayant été présent à la signature d'un certain document?

A.470 Oui, monsieur.

Q.471 Etiez-vous présent lors de la signature de ce document?

A.471 En autant que je me rappelle, j'étais présent lorsque le soldat Houde a signé sa confession ou sa déclaration écrite. Je suis arrivé chez le médecin-chef au moment où cette déclaration se signait. Quant à ce qui s'est dit avant la signature de Houde; j'ai essayé, lorsque mon nom a été mentionné tout à l'heure, de me souvenir des faits, et je ne me rappelle absolument rien de ce qui aurait pu se dire lors de cette signature. J'ai vu monsieur Houde signer la déclaration; c'est la seule chose que j'ai vue.

Q.472 Avez-vous entendu la lecture de la déclaration?

A.472 Je ne me rappelle rien de cela.

Q.473 Avez-vous assisté à la prise de la déposition de Houde?

A.473 Au meilleur de mon souvenir, non.

Q.474 Avez-vous quelque chose à ajouter à la déclaration que vous venez de faire devant le Tribunal?

A.474 Non, c'est tout.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas contre-interroger le témoin.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin reprend ses fonctions comme Procureur.

TROISIEME TEMOIN POUR LA POURSUITE SUR LE "VOIR-DIRE".

Major J.L. LACASSE, Officier-commandant de la 5ème Compagnie Médicale, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.475 Major, avez-vous assisté à des entrevues entre l'accusé et le Colonel Mercier, le 17 octobre 1942?

A.475 Oui, monsieur.

Q.476 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour ce qui s'est passé à l'occasion de ces entrevues?

A.476 Le 17 octobre 1942, dans le courant de l'après-midi, le Colonel Mercier m'a avisé qu'il commençait une petite enquête, étant donné que des choses un peu irrégulières s'étaient passées. Et vers les quatre heures, entre quatre heures et quatre heures et demie de l'après-midi, il m'a fait demander à son bureau. Je me suis rendu à son bureau; à ce moment-là, nous avons commencé l'enquête proprement dite en essayant d'avoir un peu de détails de tout le personnel qui travaillait sur l'étage où l'accusé se trouvait lui-même. Ce n'est qu'au cours de la troisième entrevue que le soldat Houde a été à même de faire une confession.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.477 Voulez-vous employer le terme 'déclaration'. La Cour appréciera si c'est une confession ou non.

A.477 Oui, monsieur. Au cours de la déclaration...

Le Procureur poursuit son interrogatoire:

Q.478 Au cours de la première entrevue, de quoi a-t-il été question?

A.478 De la manière d'agir généralement du personnel sur cet étage.

Q.479 Est-ce qu'il était question de Houde?

A.479 Non.

Q.480 Au cours de la deuxième entrevue avec Houde?

A.480 Non plus, il n'a pas été question de lui-même.

Q.481 C'est à la troisième entrevue, si je comprends bien, qu'il a été question de Houde?

A.481 Oui, monsieur.

Q.482 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé?

A.482 Il s'est passé ceci; c'est petit à petit, les autres hommes nous avaient laissé entendre que contrairement à ce que l'accusé nous avait dit précédemment, il avait eu un rapport avec un autre des accusés, et quand il a appris que nous étions au courant de cela, et après avoir été mis en garde...

Q.483 Qu'est-ce que vous entendez par mis en garde?

A.483 La mise en garde a consisté en ceci: Le Colonel Mercier a dit au sergent Houde que s'il se croyait coupable, s'il y avait quelque chose d'anormal dans sa conduite, qu'il n'était pas obligé de parler, qu'il pouvait demander les services d'un avocat, et que de plus, s'il voulait parler, tout ce qu'il pourrait dire pourrait servir contre lui; et la réponse de Houde là-dessus a été : "Je ne veux pas répondre aux questions"; et il a commencé sa déclaration quand même.

Q.484 Maintenant, qui était présent à cette entrevue?

A.484 Le Colonel Mercier et moi-même.

Q.485 Il n'y en avait pas d'autres?

A.485 Pas dans le moment.

Q.486 A-t-il été question de menaces?

A.486 Aucune.

Q.487 A-t-il été question de promesses?

A.487 Aucune, non plus.

Q.488 Vous dites qu'à ce moment vous étiez seul avec le Colonel Mercier; est-ce qu'il y a eu, au cours de l'entrevue, d'autres personnes qui ont été présentes?

A.488 A la fin de l'entrevue, si je me rappelle bien, vous-même (Le Colonel Laval Fortier), après avoir été appelé par téléphone, êtes arrivé au bureau, et aussi après que la déclaration a été faite, le sergent d'état major DesRosiers est venu au bureau.

Q.489 Vous voulez dire de la Police Montée?

A.489 Oui, monsieur.

Q.490 La déclaration était faite dans ce temps-là?

A.490 Oui, monsieur.

Q.491 Maintenant, vous voulez dire au cours de la déclaration verbale?

A.491 Oui, monsieur.

Q.492 Est-ce qu'il y a une autre déclaration de Houde?

A.492 C'est-à-dire, sa déclaration verbale a été mise sur le papier par notre sergent-major Drolet.

Q.493 Est-ce que, pendant que vous étiez avec Houde et le Colonel Mercier, ou lorsqu'il y a eu d'autres personnes présentes, quelles sont les menaces que vous avez faites, vous-même, à l'accusé?

A.493 Je n'en ai fait aucune, et je n'ai posé aucune question.

Q.493a Quelles sont les promesses qui ont été faites à l'accusé?

A.493a Aucune.

Q.494 Est-ce qu'en votre présence il y en a d'autres qui ont fait des menaces ou des promesses?

A.494 Non, monsieur, non plus.

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé;

Q.495 Major, vous étiez, n'est-ce-pas, le commandant de Houde?

A.495 Commandant de la 5ème Compagnie.

Q.496 Dont Houde faisait partie?

A.496 Houde est attaché à la 5ème Compagnie.

Q.497 Cette après-midi-là, le 17 octobre, vous avez eu connaissance de trois visites de Houde au Colonel Mercier?

A.497 Oui, monsieur.

Q.498 Les trois fois, il a été paradé à la demande du Colonel Mercier?

A.498 Oui, monsieur.

Q.499 La première fois et la deuxième fois c'était pour vous informer auprès de Houde de certaines irrégularités concernant d'autres employés, d'autres soldats, ou d'autres sous-officiers qui étaient sur le même étage?

A.499 Oui, monsieur.

Q.500 Et, les deux premières fois qu'il a été questionné, Houde n'a pas voulu vous donner d'informations; il a dit qu'il ne connaissait rien?

A.500 C'est exact.

Q.501 Entre la deuxième et la troisième visite, au cours de votre enquête, vous vous êtes convaincus, le Colonel Mercier et vous-même, que Houde ne vous avait pas dit la vérité?

A.501 Oui, monsieur.

Q.502 Et vous vous êtes également convaincus, que Houde pouvait être lui-même impliqué dans cette affaire?

A.502 Oui, monsieur.

Q.503 Et c'est entre ces deux entrevues que vous, ou si pas vous, le Colonel Mercier, avez décidé de faire revenir Houde une troisième fois?

A.503 Oui, monsieur.

Q.504 Quand Houde est entré, vous nous dites que le Colonel Mercier l'a mis sur ses gardes?

A.504 Oui, monsieur.

Q.505 Et si j'ai compris ce que vous avez dit il y a un instant, le Colonel Mercier lui a dit que s'il se croyait coupable, s'il avait quelque chose à se reprocher, il n'était pas obligé de parler?

A.505 C'est ça.

Q.506 Qu'il pouvait avoir les services d'un avocat?

A.506 Oui, monsieur.

Q.507 Est-ce qu'il ne lui a pas parlé de procès?

A.507 Non, monsieur.

Q.508 Il lui a dit qu'il pourrait se servir de ce qu'il dirait, contre lui?

A.508 Si jamais il y avait un procès.

Q.509 Alors, il en a parlé?

A.509 Non; il n'était pas accusé dans le temps.

Q.510 Il n'en a pas parlé?

A.510 Non.

Q.511 Il lui a dit qu'il pourrait se servir de ce qu'il lui dirait, contre lui?

A.511 Oui, monsieur.

Q.512 Et sur cette mise en garde, Houde a dit qu'il ne voulait pas répondre?

A.512 Qu'il ne voulait pas répondre aux questions.

Q.513 Et subséquemment?

A.513 Et subséquemment, sans autre question, il a commencé à dire ce qu'il avait reçu.

Q.514 Seulement, il avait eu d'autres questions dans le cours de l'entrevue?

A.514 D'autres questions, simplement pour éclaircir les affirmations de Houde.

Q.515 Est-ce que les questions, à votre connaissance, Major, n'ont pas surtout été faites pour faire préciser et confirmer les soupçons que vous aviez sur Houde? Est-ce que les questions qui ont été posées par le Colonel Mercier n'avaient pas pour objet de faire confirmer par Houde les soupçons que vous aviez sur lui?

A.515 Nous n'avions pas de soupçons à ce moment-là sur lui.

Q.516 La troisième fois?

A.516 Non, rien de définitif; nous savions par les témoignages précédents que, contrairement à ce qu'il nous avait dit, Houde avait été en contact avec des personnes, alors qu'il avait nié être en contact avec elles.

Q.517 Est-ce que à ce moment-là, vous étiez convaincu qu'il était impliqué dans l'affaire?

A.517 Nous ne savions pas qu'il était question d'argent; nous étions convaincus d'une chose, c'est que l'accusé avait été en relation avec le soldat Fortin alors qu'il nous avait dit que Fortin n'avait eu aucune entrevue avec lui; qu'il n'avait jamais eu rien à faire avec lui.

Q.517a Vous nous dites que vous n'aviez pas, à ce moment-là, ni le Colonel Mercier, de soupçons?

Le Procureur s'objecte à la question pour la raison que le témoin ne peut répondre pour un tiers.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.518 Vous n'aviez pas, à ce moment-là, de soupçons sur Houde?

A.518 Pas sur le fait qu'il n'avait jamais pris d'argent.

Q.519 Vous aviez des soupçons sur Houde?

A.519 Oui, monsieur.

Q.520 Ca, c'est pour vous?

A.520 Oui, monsieur.

Q.521 Et alors, le Colonel Mercier lui a dit; "si tu te crois coupable, tu n'es pas obligé de parler"?

A.521 Oui, monsieur.

Q.522 Et si vous n'aviez pas de soupçons sur lui, pourquoi le mettre en garde?

A.522 Ce n'est pas moi, je le regrette beaucoup, qui faisais l'enquête.

Q.523 Au cours de l'enquête, avez-vous eu connaissance que le Colonel Mercier lui aie dit, à une ou deux reprises; "Je ne te crois pas, tu mens, tu ne dis pas la vérité" ?

A.523 C'est possible.

Q.524 Après qu'il eut ainsi parlé, qui a décidé de faire mettre cela par écrit?

A.524 Le Colonel Mercier prenait des notes au fur et à mesure qu'il relatait les sommes d'argent qu'il avait données et reçues.

Q.525 Qui a fait la rédaction finale qui a été subséquemment signée par Houde?

A.525 C'est le Colonel Mercier, lui-même, sous forme de notes prises à la main.

Q.526 Mais je parle de la transcription faite au dactylographe?

A.526 D'après ces notes-là.

Q.527 Qui a dicté au sténographe, au sergent-major?

A.527 Franchement, je ne saurais vous dire si ça été dicté ou si cela a été fait sur les notes elles-mêmes.

Q.528 Vous ne pouvez pas me dire si c'est le Colonel Mercier qui a dicté les notes au sergent-major Drolet ou si c'est le sergent-major Drolet qui a écrit à même les notes qui lui auraient été remises?

A.528 Je crois que les deux cas se sont présentés alternativement et évidemment ça remonte à au-delà de un mois, mais en autant que je me rappelle, la première partie a été faite d'après les notes et la fin de la déclaration aurait été dictée.

Q.529 Alors, cela a été fait dans le bureau du Colonel Mercier?

A.529 Oui, monsieur.

Q.530 Le dactylographe était dans le bureau du Colonel Mercier?

A.530 Oui, monsieur.

Q.531 Qui a écrit les notes?

A.531 C'est le sergent-major quand il l'a appelé; je sais moi-même qu'il s'est servi des notes.

Q.532 Le sergent-major Drolet s'est servi des notes pour rédiger la première partie de la déclaration?

A.532 Oui, monsieur.

Q.533 Et la dernière partie a été dictée par le Colonel?

A.533 Oui, monsieur.

Q.534 Pendant le temps que cela se faisait, il y avait dans le bureau du Colonel, vous, le sergent-major et Houde?

A.534 Oui, monsieur.

Q.535 A un moment donné, le Colonel Fortier est-il arrivé? A quel moment?

A.535 Le Colonel Fortier est arrivé soit immédiatement avant que le soldat Houde ne relise sa déclaration, soit immédiatement avant qu'il la signe.

Q.536 Vous me dites que le soldat Houde a relu sa déclaration?

A.536 Oui, monsieur.

Q.537 Elle ne lui a pas été relue?

A.537 Elle a été relue avant.

Q.538 Qui l'a relue?

A.538 Le Colonel Mercier.

Q.539 Pas vous?

A.539 Non, pas moi.

Q.540 Il l'a relue à haute voix?

A.540 Oui, il lui a passé le papier; je ne sais pas si Houde a lu jusqu'au bout; seulement il l'a regardé et après cela il a signé

Q.541 Quelqu'un lui a-t-il demandé de signer?

A.541 Evidemment.

Q.542 Qui?

A.542 Le Colonel Mercier.

Q.543 Comment?

A.543 "Voici, c'est bien conforme à ce que tu as déclaré?" Il a répondu; "oui, monsieur"; et le Colonel a dit: "Si tu veux signer?" Et il a signé.

Q.544 A ce moment-là, le Colonel Fortier était là?

A.544 Oui, monsieur.

Q.545 Le sergent-major Drolet?

A.545 Oui, monsieur.

Q.546 Le sergent-major DesRosiers?

A.546 Oui, monsieur.

Q.547 Le Colonel Mercier?

A.547 Oui, monsieur.

Q.548 Quelle heure était-il?

A.548 Il devait être pas loin de 8 heures.

Q.549 Il était entré à quelle heure?

A.549 Il était entré après 6 h.30 .

Q.550 Ca a duré tout ce temps-là?

A.550 Pendant ce temps-là, le Colonel a fait des téléphones; il a rejoint le Colonel Fortier.

Q.551 A quel moment?

A.551 Après que le soldat Houde a été entré.

Q.552 Pendant que le soldat Houde était là?

A.552 Oui, monsieur.

Q.553 Qu'est-ce qu'il a dit au Colonel?

A.553 Qu'il avait des cas spéciaux, qu'il voulait avoir des renseignements et qu'il lui demandait de passer au bureau immédiatement.

Q.554 Ca n'a pas été long?

A.554 Il n'a pas pu l'attraper immédiatement.

Q.555 Vous avez eu de la misère à le rejoindre?

A.555 Il n'était pas au bureau à cette heure-là.

Q.556 Il a été rejoint à la fin?

A.556 Oui, monsieur.

Q.557 La conversation avec le Colonel Fortier n'a pas été longue?

A.557 Non, ça n'a pas été long après le téléphone; Ca été plus long pour l'avoir au téléphone.

Q.558 Combien cela a-t-il pris de temps?

A.558 Je n'ai pas regardé ma montre.

Q.559 Après ça, est-ce qu'il y a eu d'autres téléphones?

A.559 Là, je ne pourrais pas l'affirmer sous serment, mais je suis sous l'impression qu'il a téléphoné chez lui une ou deux fois.

Q.560 Pour dire qu'il ne pourrait pas aller dîner?

A.560 Je ne sais pas au juste.

Q.561 C'est pas long; on ne tient pas à ce que ça soit long?

A.561 (pas de réponse)

Q.562 Tout le reste du temps, qu'est-ce qu'il a fait avec Houde dans le bureau s'il parlait de même, librement?

A.562 Un homme peut parler librement et prendre beaucoup de temps à dire quelque chose.

Q.563 Jurez-vous qu'il a pris longtemps?

A.563 Il y a eu des intermissions entre.

Q.564 Dans sa déclaration verbale, combien de temps a-t-il parlé?

A.564 Il a commencé par mentionner un premier montant.

Q.565 Je vous demande combien de temps cela a pris? Pour faire la déclaration verbale?

A.565 Il a pris au moins 20 minutes.

Q.566 Ilest entré à quelle heure?

A.566 Je vous ai dit après 6 h.30.

Q.567 On est rendu vers 7 heures?

A.567 Oui, monsieur.

Q.568 L'heure après, qu'est-ce qui s'est fait?

A.568 Le temps de taper cette chose-là à la machine, ça prend du temps.

Q.569 Combien est-ce que ça a pris de temps, une page et deux lignes?

A.569 Celui qui l'a fait le dira mieux que moi.

Q.570 A quelle heure a-t-il fini?

A.570 Je n'ai pas regardé l'heure.

Q.571 Avant huit heures?

A.571 Un peu avant 8 heures. Quand le Colonel Fortier est arrivé, c'est encore une période detemps qui a été prise alors que Houde était chez nous; il ne parlait pas; il n'écrivait pas.

Q.572 C'était tout écrit?

A.572 Pas complètement.

Q.573 Vous avez dit que le Colonel Fortier est arrivé soit avant que Houde le lise ou soit après?

A.573 Il pouvait y avoir quelques phrases à la fin à écrire.

Q.574 Jurez-vous que le Colonel Fortier a vu écrire quelques phrases?

A.574 Je ne le jure pas; je le dis au meilleur de ma connaissance.

Q.575 Est-ce qu'il s'est passé bien du temps après que cela a été écrit et avant que Houde signe?

A.575 Pas très longtemps.

Q.576 Est-ce qu'il a hésité?

A.576 Peut-être cinq ou dix minutes.

Q.577 La mise en garde dont vous avez parlé, c'est la seule qui a été faite et au début de tout?

A.577 Oui, monsieur.

Q.578 Dans la forme que vous avez donnée?

A.578 Oui, monsieur.

Q.579 Il n'y en a pas eu d'autres?

A.579 Non, monsieur.

Q.580 Ni avant la déclaration écrite ni avant la signature?

A.580 Non.

Interrogé de nouveau par le Procureur.

Q.581 Est-ce que l'accusé était sous arrêts au moment de la déclaration?

A.581 Non, monsieur.

Q.582 Quand vous employez le terme "paradé", l'employez-vous dans le sens comme "parader sous escorte"?

A.582 Non, monsieur.

Q.583 Dans quel sens?

A.583 Dans le sens employé dans l'armée; c'est quand un sous-officier ou qu'un homme doit être amené; quand il est présenté à son commandant. Il doit être accompagné d'un autre.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

QUATRIEME TEMOIN
POUR LA POURSUITE
SUR LE "VOIR-DIRE"

Staff Sergeant Ernest DesRosiers, de la Gendarmerie à Cheval du Canada, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.584 Monsieur DesRosiers, avez-vous été appelé au bureau du médecin-chef de la région No. 5, le 17 octobre 1942?

A.584 Oui, monsieur.

Q.585 Quand vous êtes arrivé sur les lieux, pourriez-vous raconter ce dont vous avez eu connaissance?

A.585 Il y avait présents, le Colonel Fortier, le Colonel Mercier et le Major Lacasse.

Q.586 C'était les trois présents?

A.586 Oui, monsieur.

Q.587 L'accusé était-il là?

A.587 Non, monsieur.

Q.588 Est-ce que vous avez vu l'accusé au cours de cette soirée-là?

A.588 Oui, monsieur.

Q.589 Quand?

A.589 Vers les 8 h. 30.

Q.590 L'accusé, lorsqu'il est venu devant vous, c'était pour quoi faire?

A.590 C'est le Colonel Mercier qui l'avait fait venir. Il lui a dit à l'accusé Houde: "Tu te rappelles de l'avis que je t'ai donné voilà un moment; je vais te le répéter: tu n'es pas obligé de rien dire et tu peux avoir les services d'un avocat si tu veux."

A.590 (suite)

Q.591 A quelle occasion lui a-t-il dit cela?

A.591 En arrivant.

Q.592 Lorsque vous êtes arrivé, est-ce qu'il y avait une déclaration écrite de faite?

A.592 Oui, monsieur.

Q.593 Est-ce qu'elle était signée par Houde?

A.593 Oui, monsieur.

Q.594 Est-ce que vous étiez là quand elle a été signée?

A.594 Non, monsieur.

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.595 Vous n'avez pas vu signer la déclaration?

A.595 Non.

Q.596 Vous n'avez pas eu connaissance de rien qui aurait précédé la déclaration quand vous êtes arrivé là?

A.596 Non, monsieur.

Le Procureur ne désire pas ré-interroger le témoin.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

CINQUIEME TEMOIN POUR LA POURSUITE SUR LE "VOIR-DIRE".

No. E-20613, C.S.M. Joseph DROLET, attaché au bureau du Médecin-chef, District Militaire No. 5, A.C., Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.597 Je comprends que vous travaillez au bureau du Médecin-chef, à Québec?

A.597 Oui, monsieur.

Q.598 Le 17 octobre 1942, au soir ou dans l'après-midi, avez-vous eu connaissance d'entrevues entre le Médecin-chef, le Colonel Mercier et l'accusé?

A.598 Oui, monsieur.

Q.599 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour ce dont vous avez eu connaissance?

A.599 Dans le bureau du Colonel Mercier, Houde est venu. Il a fait demander Houde.

Q.600 A quelle heure, ça?

A.600 Aux environs de 4 h. ou 4 h.30 la première fois.

Q.601 Qu'est-ce qui s'est passé?

A.601 Le Colonel lui a demandé s'il s'était aperçu qu'il y avait quelque chose qui ne marchait pas en haut; c'était pour parler de l'organisation en haut. La deuxième fois, je ne sais pas l'heure au juste; ça été à peu près dans le même genre encore.

Q.602 Qu'est-ce que Houde a répondu à ça?

A.602 Il a répondu "Non, monsieur."

Q.603 La troisième fois?

A.603 Moi, je suis entré dans le bureau du Colonel et Houde était déjà là; le Colonel m'avait fait demander pour 'typer'.

Q.604 Qu'est-ce qui s'est fait à votre connaissance?

A.604 Le Colonel m'a remis des notes que j'ai "typées"; Houde lui disait quelque chose que le Colonel me répétait et que je 'typais'.

Q.605 Je comprends que vous étiez éloigné un peu du Colonel?

A.605 Non, monsieur.

Q.606 Vous "typiez" des choses que le Colonel vous répétait?

A.606 Oui, monsieur.

Q.607 Est-ce que... Qu'est-ce que vous avez fait tout le temps que vous avez été avec le Colonel et l'accusé Houde?

A.607 Vous voulez parler de la troisième fois, - je 'typais'.

Q.608 C'est tout ce que vous avez fait?

A.608 Oui, monsieur.

Q.609 Vous avez 'typé' quoi?

A.609 Les notes que le Colonel Mercier m'avait données et les phrases qu'il donnait au Colonel et que le Colonel me répétait.

Q.610 Etiez-vous présent lorsque Houde a signé? Est-ce que ça a été signé ces notes-là?

A.610 Je ne me rappelle pas que cela a été signé devant moi.

Q.611 Vous n'avez pas eu connaissance de la signature par Houde?

A.611 Non, monsieur.

Q.612 Est-ce que cette déclaration a été lue devant vous?

A.612 Pas devant moi.

Q.613 Ni par le Colonel?

A.613 Pas que je me rappelle.

Q.614 Ni par Houde?

A.614 Pas que je me rappelle.

Interrogé contradictoirement par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.615 Sergent-major, la troisième fois que vous êtes entré là, Houde y était déjà?

A.615 Oui, monsieur.

Q.616 L'avez-vous vu entrer?

A.616 Non, monsieur.

Q.617 A quelle heure est-il entré la troisième fois?

A.617 Je ne le sais pas.

Q.618 A peu près?

A.618 Je ne peux pas dire à peu près; je n'ai pas regardé ma montre.

Q.618 Avez-vous soupé ce soir-là?

A.618 Non, j'ai soupé à onze heures.

Q.619 Pourquoi?

A.619 Je ne reste pas à Québec, monsieur.

Q.620 Le Colonel vous a demandé de 'typer' une déclaration; qu'est-ce que le Colonel vous a demandé?

A.620 Il m'a donné les notes, et il m'a dit; "Type-moi ça."

Q.621 Alors, vous avez commencé à 'typer' sur des notes que le Colonel Mercier vous a passées?

A.621 Oui, monsieur.

Q.622 Est-ce qu'il y avait pas mal de notes?

A.622 Je ne me rappelle pas. Depuis ce temps-là, ça fait assez longtemps et j'en ai 'typé' plusieurs depuis ce temps-là.

Q.623 Voulez-vous regarder sur la déclaration et me dire où les notes finissent?

A.623 Je ne suis pas capable de vous dire où les notes finissent.

Q.624 A un moment donné, avez-vous abandonné les notes ou si le Colonel Mercier a dit: "Lâche les notes et je vais te parler"?

A.624 Je ne me rappelle pas.

Q.625 Comment ça se fait qu'à un moment donné vous ne vous êtes plus servi de notes?

A.625 Probablement qu'il n'y avait plus de notes.

Q.626 Est-ce ça?

A.626 Je ne me rappelle pas.

Q.627 Vous ne vous rappelez pas si vous aviez épuisé les notes ou si le Colonel vous a dit de les laisser aller?

A.627 Je ne me rappelle pas; j'ai 'typé' beaucoup de déclarations depuis celle-là.

Q.628 Avez-vous copié les notes textuellement, telles qu'écrites par le Colonel Mercier ou si vous avez arrangé cela pour que ça paraisse mieux?

A.628 Je n'ai rien arrangé.

Q.629 Ou si vous avez rédigé cela pour que ça paraisse mieux?

A.629 Je ne puis pas dire, monsieur.

Q.630 Ça commence "je soussigné" - est-ce que c'était écrit dans les notes ces premiers mots-là?

A.630 Je ne peux pas dire, monsieur; ça fait trop longtemps.

Q.631 Si ce n'était pas écrit dans les notes, où avez-vous pris ça, les premiers mots de la déclaration?

A.631 Je n'ai pas dit que ce n'était pas écrit; j'ai dit: "je ne me rappelle pas; ça fait assez longtemps de cela."

Q.632 Sergent-major, vous avez commencé par copier les notes?

A.632 Oui, monsieur.

Q.633 Alors, il fallait que ça soit écrit dans les notes?

A.633 Cela a pu être écrit dans les notes.

Q.634 Et ça pouvait ne pas être écrit?

A.634 Non, j'ai copié seulement d'après les notes.

Q.635 Si cela n'avait pas été écrit, vous ne l'auriez pas copié?

A.635 Non, monsieur.

Q.636 A un moment donné, soit parce qu'il n'y avait plus de notes, vous aviez tout copié, soit parce que le Colonel a dit: "Je vais poser des questions, tu prendras les réponses"; à un moment donné, vous n'avez plus suivi les notes?

A.636 Oui, monsieur.

Q.637 A quel moment, vous ne le savez pas?

A.637 Non, monsieur.

Q.638 Vous dites que le Colonel lui posait des questions?

A.638 Je ne me rappelle pas si le Colonel posait des questions.

Q.639 Vous dites que Houde lui faisait des réponses?

A.639 Le bureau où je 'typais' est assez loin du bureau du Colonel Mercier; les bureaux sont rapprochés l'un de l'autre...

Q.640 Vous deviez toujours entendre parler quelqu'un pour que vous puissiez mettre cela sur le papier? Vous entendiez Houde et vous entendiez le Colonel Mercier?

A.640 Pas plus l'un que l'autre.

Q.641 Vous entendiez les deux?

A.641 Houde disait quelque chose au Colonel et le Colonel me le répétait.

Q.642 Est-ce que le Colonel posait les questions?

A.642 Je ne m'en rappelle pas.

Q.643 Avez-vous rapporté les questions qui étaient posées par le Colonel?

A.643 Là-dessus, je ne vois pas de questions.

Q.644 Ce que vous avez écrit, c'est ce que le Colonel vous disait d'écrire?

A.644 Oui, monsieur.

Q.645 Vous n'êtes pas en état de dire que le Colonel vous a dicté textuellement ce que Houde disait?

A.645 Non, monsieur.

Q.646 Mais vous êtes en état de me dire que vous avez reproduit textuellement ce que le Colonel dictait?

A.646 Oui, monsieur.

Q.647 Combien cela a-t-il pris de temps, à peu près, vous rappelez-vous?

A.647 Non, monsieur.

Q.648 A peu près?

A.648 Je ne le sais pas, monsieur.

Q.649 Est-ce que ça a pris une heure?

A.649 Non, monsieur.

Q.650 Est-ce que ça a pris une demi-heure?

A.650 Peut-être une demi-heure, monsieur.

Q.651 Cela a pris une demi-heure, ça?

A.651 Je ne le sais pas.

Q.652 Est-ce qu'il y avait des moments avec des silences où vous avez arrêté d'écrire pendant longtemps et que le Colonel et Houde se parlaient?

A.652 Quand Houde parlait au Colonel...

Q.653 Vous n'écriviez pas?

A.653 Non, monsieur.

Q.654 Est-ce qu'il y a des moments où le Colonel disait: "Arrête un peu", questionnait Houde, Houde répondait, et quand ils s'étaient entendus sur la réponse, il vous dictait?

A.654 Non, monsieur.

Q.655 Comment cela marchait-il?

A.655 Le Colonel, je ne sais pas si le Colonel interrogeait Houde ou si Houde parlait; mais quand le Colonel répétait, je 'typais'; je ne sais pas si le Colonel questionnait Houde.

Q.656 L'entendiez-vous parler, le Colonel, à Houde?

A.656 Oui, monsieur.

Q.657 Vous devez savoir si c'était des questions qu'il posait ou s'il parlait de la déclaration? Certainement, vous savez s'il lui posait des questions, voyons?

A.657 Je ne me rappelle pas si c'était des questions.

Q.658 Est-ce que, comme question de fait, le Colonel ne posait pas des questions précisément sur les sujets qui sont dans la déclaration?

A.658 Je ne me rappelle pas; ça fait déjà assez longtemps - un peu plus d'un mois. Et depuis ce temps-là, j'en ai copié des déclarations.

Q.659 Souvent?

A.659 Assez souvent.

Q.660 Dans les mêmes circonstances?

A.660 Je ne me rappelle pas si ce sont les mêmes.

Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger le témoin de nouveau.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.661 En référant à la déclaration qui vous a été montrée et qui commence par: "Je soussigné", est-ce que cette déclaration écrite est bien la première copie que vous avez faite ou est bien la copie que vous avez faite lorsque le Colonel Mercier vous a donné la déclaration que le soldat Houde faisait, ou si après avoir été clavigraphiée une première fois, cette copie n'a pas été mise au propre?

A.661 Si ça été mis au propre, ça ne l'a pas été fait par moi.

Q.662 Est-ce qu'il y a quelqu'un d'autre qui pouvait clavigraphier une telle déclaration?

A.662 Ce soir-là?

Q.663 Ce soir-là, ça doit être ce soir-là?

A.663 Il y avait d'autres commis au bureau, monsieur.

Q.664 Vous rappelez-vous que c'est la déclaration que vous avez écrite; pouvez-vous l'identifier comme celle que vous avez écrite?

A.664 En autant que je me rappelle, c'est exactement celle que j'ai écrite.

Q.665 Avez-vous signé comme témoin là-dessus?

A.665 Non, monsieur.

Q.666 Qui a signé comme témoin?

A.666 Le Lieut-Colonel Jules Mercier et le Major Lacasse.

Q.667 Vous reconnaissez ce document comme étant celui que vous avez écrit?

A.667 Oui, monsieur, du moins, je crois me souvenir que c'est bien celui que j'ai écrit.

En vertu de la règle de de procédure 85(B), l'avocat de l'accusé demande à la Cour de poser la question suivante (No. 668)
La question est posée par le Juge-Avocat.

Q.668 En examinant le document que vous avez actuellement dans les mains, avez-vous un moyen quelconque de déterminer que c'est bien le document que vous avez copié à la machine, vous-même? Connaissez-vous un signe qui vous permettrait de l'identifier comme étant le document que vous avez écrit à la machine, une marque de base, une lettre barrée à votre manière, quelque chose qui pourrait vous indiquer que c'est le document que vous avez écrit?

A.668 Il n'y a aucune initiale.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat.

Q.669 Initiales ou autres marques qui permettraient de dire que c'est vous qui avez tapé ce papier-là

A.669 Je ne vois aucune marque, monsieur.

Q.670 Alors, êtes-vous aussi certain que vous l'étiez que c'est le document que vous avez tapé?

A.670 Maintenant, comme je le dis, autant que je peux me souvenir, c'est celui-là que j'ai tapé.

Q.671 Est-ce qu'il y a quelque chose sur ce document qui peut vous faire dire que c'est vous qui l'avez fait? Vous rappelez-vous l'avoir fait sur une couleur de papier comme vous avez en mains?

A.671 Oui, monsieur.

Q.672 C'était un papier comme ça?

A.672 Oui, monsieur.

Q.673 Vous rappelez-vous du nombre de pages?

A.673 Je me rappelle de deux pages.

Q.674 Combien de pages y a-t-il là?

A.674 Deux pages.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

A 5 h. 35 de l'après-midi, le 30 novembre 1942, la cour s'est ajournée jusqu'à 10 h. de l'avant-midi, le 1er décembre 1942.

Le 1er décembre 1942, à 10 h. 15 de l'avant-midi, la cour se rassemble conformément à l'avis d'ajournement; sont présents les mêmes membres que lors de la suspension des débats.

Le Procureur annonce qu'il a fini de présenter sa preuve sur le voir-dire.

L'avocat de l'accusé déclare qu'il n'a pas de témoins à faire entendre sur le voir-dire.

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour:

"J'ai déclaré ne pas avoir de témoins à faire entendre sur le voir-dire, et je désirerais faire quelques remarques à la Cour sur les motions que je désire faire pour demander le rejet d'une confession que l'on veut mettre en preuve."

Le Procureur s'adresse à la Cour:

"Alors, vu que la défense n'a pas de témoins à faire entendre sur le voir-dire, la poursuite soumet que la déclaration écrite et la déclaration verbale sont admissibles, et cela en se basant sur le paragraphe 78, à la page 91 du Manuel de Droit Militaire, sous-paragraphes 1 et 2 dudit article.

"La Cour se rappelera qu'au moment où Houde est allé devant son officier-commandant, Houde n'était pas sous arrêts. Le Lieutenant-Colonel Mercier conduisait une enquête pour savoir quelles étaient les irrégularités qui lui avaient été rapportées, jusqu'à quel point Houde était au courant des agissements d'un sergent à l'étage supérieur. Ce n'est qu'à la troisième entrevue, après avoir interviewé plusieurs membres du personnel qu'il a eu des soupçons sur l'accusé Houde. Immédiatement il a mis Houde en garde, lui disant qu'il n'était pas obligé de parler, qu'il avait le droit de voir un avocat, et que s'il paralti, cela pourrait servir contre lui.

"Je soumets qu'à cette occasion Houde a parlé librement devant le Lieutenant-Colonel Mercier, et devant le Major Lacasse, et que même si le Lieutenant-Colonel Mercier n'avait pas fait la mise en garde à Houde, mise en garde que l'on connaît, la déclaration de Houde serait admissible parce que faite sans menaces et sans promesses, le tout tel que mentionné au haut de la page 93 du Manuel de Droit Militaire.

"Si vous vous rappelez du ou des témoignages du Lieutenant-Colonel Mercier et du Major Lacasse, vous vous souviendrez qu'après la mise en garde, la première réponse de Houde, c'est; "je refuse de parler". Et sans autres questions, il a immédiatement commencé sa déclaration.

"Je soumets que la déclaration écrite est la suite de sa déclaration verbale, et que Houde, tel que l'a dit le Lieutenant-Colonel Mercier, l'a lue ou cela lui a été lu, et on lui a dit qu'il était libre de signer et que s'il ne voulait pas la signer,il était encore libre de refuser.

"Je soumets, pour ces raisons, que la déclaration verbale aussi bien que la déclaration écrite devraient être mises en preuve."

PLAIDOIRIE DE L'AVOCAT DE L'ACCUSE
SUR LE VOIR-DIRE

Qu'il plaise à la Cour.

Je ne veux pas retenir la Cour inutilement en répétant des choses que j'ai déjà dites dans une cause précédente, seulement comme chaque cause doit avoir son dossier complet, je désire simplement donner certaines références afin que ce dossier-ci soit complet, en autant que la position de la défense est concernée.

Il y a évidemment des principes qu'on ne discute pas et sur lesquels tout le monde s'entend.

La déclaration ou confession doit être libre et volontaire, et il appartient à la poursuite de prouver que cette confession a été faite librement et volontairement. Et je crois qu'il faut ajouter dans cette cause-ci, qu'une personne en autorité qui questionne quelqu'un sous soupçons, doit la mettre en garde légalement, et que le fait qu'elle soupçonne cette personne-là indique qu'elle la questionne dans le but de vérifier si ces soupçons de culpabilité sont fondés ou non. Sur ce point j'attirerai l'attention de la Cour sur une décision anglaise, Rex vs Mathews, Tome XIV, Criminal Appeal Reports, p. 23;

"A Police Officer has no right to try to elicit admission from persons whom he suspects".

J'attire également l'attention de la Cour sur le paragraphe 75 et le paragraphe 77 du chapitre VI du "Manual of Military Law", à la page 91. Je n'aurai pas besoin, évidemment, de lire tous ces paragraphes.

Il y a également dans cette cause-ci deux genres de déclarations que l'on veut mettre devant la Cour; une déclaration verbale et une déclaration écrite.

La première objection que je veux faire s'attaque et à la déclaration verbale et à la déclaration écrite. Et je soumets que si la déclaration verbale a été obtenue illégalement, évidemment, elle entache la déclaration écrite parce que la déclaration écrite n'a pas été précédée d'aucune autre mise en garde et qu'il n'y a eu en somme qu'une mise en garde, celle du début.

Je ferai remarquer à la Cour qu'il est vrai que d'après les témoignages du Lieutenant-Colonel Mercier et du Major Lacasse, on a d'abord interrogé Houde à deux reprises sur des irrégularités qui se seraient commises dans le département où il était, mais alors qu'on ne faisait pas enquête sur lui. Seulement, la Cour doit se demander quel a été l'effet sur l'esprit de Houde d'être amené deux fois devant le D.M.O. et l'officier-commandant pour être interrogé sur ces irrégularités.

La première fois, il refuse de répondre. Evidemment, cela n'indique pas qu'il est prêt à faire une déclaration volontairement et librement. La deuxième fois, il refuse encore de donner des informations. Cela n'indique pas qu'il est prêt à faire une déclaration librement et volontairement.

(Le Président fait remarquer à l'avocat de l'accusé qu'il n'a pas été dit qu'il avait refusé de répondre la première fois).

Je me corrige. Il refuse de donner des informations et il dit qu'il ne connaît rien. Je ne pense pas que je dépasse les bornes en disant qu'on peut assimiler cela à un refus de répondre quand il dit: "Je ne connais rien". A tout évènement, il ne veut pas faire de déclarations affirmative l'incriminant. Evidemment, on n'est pas satisfait de cette explication à propos de certaines irrégularités et on le ramène une deuxième fois. Evidemment, Houde doit se demander si on ne veut pas avoir de lui quelque chose. Entre la deuxième et la troisième fois, le Lieutenant-Colonel Mercier et le Major Lacasse poursuivent leur enquête et sont convaincus à ce moment-là que Houde les a trompés et que Houde est personnellement impliqué dans ces irrégularités. Et la troisième fois, c'est le témoignage du Colonel Mercier, Houde est soupçonné. C'est à une question du Juge-Avocat que le Colonel Mercier a répondu qu'il tenait à ce moment-là Houde sous soupçons.

Houde rentre et alors le Colonel Mercier lui fait une mise en garde. Le Colonel Mercier nous rapporte brièvement la mise en garde. J'attire l'attention de la Cour d'une façon spéciale -car c'est là l'argument de la défense et c'est sur cela qu'il se repose- sur la mise en garde telle que rapportée par le Major Lacasse. Je l'ai prise en note. Je la rapporte de mémoire telle que prise à la longue main, et si cela est nécessaire, je demanderais respectueusement à la Cour -parce que c'est l'argument fondamental- de consulter les notes sténographiques. Le Major Lacasse dit: quand Houde est entré, le Lieutenant-Colonel Mercier lui a dit, "Si tu es coupable ou si tu as quelque chose à te reprocher". C'est ce que le Major Lacasse a dit. Ce sont les notes que j'ai prises: "Si tu es coupable, si tu te sens coupable"; "si tu te sens coupable" "Si tu as quelque chose à te reprocher, tu n'es pas obligé de parler.".

Ceci n'est pas une mise en garde. C'est pire que s'il n'y avait pas de mise en garde. Qu'est-ce que cela veut dire? Cela veut dire à Houde: "Si tu ne parles pas, c'est parce que tu te sens coupable. Si tu ne parles pas, c'est parce que tu as quelquechose à te reprocher." Il n'y a pas d'autre moyen d'envisager la question. "Si tu te sens coupable, si tu as quelque chose à te reprocher, tu n'es pas obligé de parler". Or, Houde est là qui écoute; cela fait deux fois qu'on le fait venir. Cela fait deux fois qu'on le descend. Cela fait deux fois qu'il entend dire: "Si tu es coupable, si tu te sens coupable, si tu as quelque chose à te reprocher, tu n'es pas obligé de parler". Alors Houde se dit: pour prouver que je ne suis pas coupable, pour prouver que je n'ai rien à me reprocher, je suis mieux de parler. Même au commencement de cela, il commence par dire: J'aime mieux pas parler. Est-ce là l'indication qu'il parle librement et volontairement?

S'il consent à parler la troisième fois, c'est parce que l'invitation qu'on lui a faite travaille dans son esprit et qu'il se dit:"si je continue à ne pas parler, avec ce que le Colonel vient de me dire, c'est signe que j'ai quelque chose à me reprocher. Alors, pour prouver que j'ai rien à me reprocher, je vais parler. Pour prouver que je ne suis pas coupable, je vais parler. Pour prouver que je ne me sens pas coupable, je vais parler.". Il parle.

Vous trouverez sur la mise en garde une jurisprudence constante qui a établi que cette mise en garde devait être faite dans des termes tels qu'elle ne laissait supposer en aucune façon qu'elle était une invitation à parler ou à ne pas parler.

J'attire l'attention de la Cour sur une décision de Rex vs Baldwin, rapporté au Tome XXIII, Criminal Appeal Reports, p. 62:

> "If the Judge at the trial is satisfied that the defendant was properly cautioned before he made a statement, that statement is admissible in evidence; the defendant is not entitled at that stage to give evidence that the statement was improperly obtained".

Evidemment, ce n'est peut-être pas le même point, mais cela indique par exemple l'importance qu'il y a à ne mettre dans la mise en garde rien qui pourrait empêcher une personne innocente de parler, ou laisser supposer à la personne, par leurs questions, que c'est en répondant qu'elle établira qu'elle n'a rien à se reprocher et qu'elle ne se sent pas coupable.

Je vous avoue bien sincèrement que je ne vois pas comment vous pouvez admettre qu'une mise en garde faite dans la forme qui a été rapportée par le Major Lacasse, est une mise en garde qui n'est pas une invitation à parler.

Mon savant ami dit: sans une mise en garde, nous pourrions peut-être admettre la déclaration. Je n'ai pas besoin de faire d'admission sur ce point-là, mais il y a une chose certaine que je dois déclarer, c'est qu'avec la mise en garde actuelle, ces déclarations ne peuvent pas être admises, évidemment ni la déclaration verbale ni la déclaration écrite. Et les déclarations verbales telles que rapportées, qui commencent pas, l'affirmation de la volonté du prévenu, disant: jene veux pas parler; y -a-til moyen que vous ayiez la preuve plus claire qu'elles sont faites par une personne qui ne veut pas parler?

Il parle ensuite, et au cours de sa déclaration, on le questionne. On ne le questionne pas, qu'il plaise à la Cour, pour faire préciser certains termes; on ne le questionne pas pour faire préciser une date; on le questionne pour lui faire préciser les soupçons que le Colonel Mercier a sur son sujet à ce moment-là. Et alors? J'attire l'attention de la Cour sur la page 92 du Manuel de Droit Militaire, au paragraphe 7, qui rapporte les règles qui ont été admises par la Cour d'Appel criminelle en Angleterre, et la façon dont devaient se conduire les hommes en autorité qui faisaient une enquête ou qui obtenaient des déclarations:

A.78. Chapitre VI, M.M.L. , p. 92.

"A.78, paragraphe (7)

A prisoner making a voluntary statement must not be cross-examined, and no questions should be put to him about it except for the purpose of removing ambiguity in what he has actually said. For instance, if he has mentioned an hour without saying whether it was morning or evening, or has given a day of the week and day of the month which do not agree, or has not made it clear to what individual or what place he intended to refer in some part of his statement, he may be questioned sufficiently to clear up the point."

Maintenant, le Colonel Mercier nous dit que ce n'est pas là-dessus qu'il l'a questionné. Il l'a questionné pour faire préciser les soupçons qu'il avait, par conséquent, pour obtenir de lui des admissions de culpabilité Il n'y a pas moyen d'interpréter autrement le témoignage du Colonel Mercier. Or même que vous supposeriez que la mise en garde aurait été légale et qu'il est légal de mettre un homme en garde en lui disant: si tu te crois coupable tu n'est pas obligé de parler, si tu te sens coupable, tu n'est pas obligé de parler. Et si tu n'es pas coupable, parle.

Si vous êtes convaincus que cette mise en garde est légale, évidemment, mon argument ne vaut plus rien.

Mais même si mon argument ne vaut plus rien sur le premier point, il n'en reste pas moins vrai que cette déclaration volontaire qui commence par dire: je ne veux pas parler, cette déclaration volontaire a été accompagnée d'un questionnaire, contrairement aux règles posées par les autorités judiciaires anglaises en cette matière.

Dans ces circonstances, je crois qu'il ne peut pas être question d'admettre la déclaration verbale. Et mon argument, évidemment, s'applique à la déclaration écrite, puisque la déclaration écrite n'a pas été précédée d'une nouvelle mise en garde et a été la conséquence de ce qui s'est fait lors de la déclaration verbale. Je dois souligner le temps que l'on prend à obtenir ces déclarations spontanées et volontaires de l'accusé:Il rentre là vers six heures et demie et il en sort à huit heures pour faire des déclarations qui contiennent une page et deux lignes de papier de correspondance. Evidemment, cela n'a pas marché tout seul.

En plus de ces arguments, et en autant que la déclaration écrite est concernée, je soumets qu'il ne peut pas être question d'admettre la déclaration écrite parce que d'abord, la règle 9 que l'on trouve à la page 92 du M.M.L. (Chapitre VI), n'a pas été suivie:

"A.78 (9) Any statement made in accordance with the above rules should, whenever possible, be taken down in writing and signed by the person making it after it has been read to him and he has been invited to make any corrections he may wish".

Vous n'avez pas de preuve là-dessus, qu'on l'a invité à faire des corrections qu'il désirait.

* Mais en plus de cela, la déclaration écrite qui est là n'est pas la déclaration de l'accusé C'est une déclaration qui, pour partie a été prise sur des notes rédigées par le Colonel Mercier, et pour partie sur un rapport des réponses faites par l'accusé aux questions du Colonel Mercier; rapport des réponses dictées par le Colonel Mercier.

Alors, je soumets que lorsque dans une procédure ou dans une entrevue où l'on a des aveux ou des déclarations que l'on obtient, si ces déclarations sont faites en réponse à des questions, il faut avoir dans la déclaration non seulement les réponses, mais aussi les questions.

Ici, vous avez la preuve qu'il y a eu des questions de posées et vous n'avez pas une question qui est rapportée. Sur ce point, j'attire l'attention de la Cour sur la cause --une cause canadienne, mais qui, encore une fois, est basée sur le droit anglais, une cause récente - la cause de Thiffault, 60 C.C.C., p.97, où l'on a rejeté la déclaration. La Cour Suprême a rejeté la déclaration et l'écrit verbal, premièrement parce que toutes les personnes n'avaient pas été présentes, et deuxièmement, parce que la déclaration écrite n'était pas un rapport "verbatim" de ce qui s'était dit. Et ici, il n'y a certainement pas un rapport "verbatim" de ce qui s'est dit.

(Le Juge-Avocat demande à l'avocat de l'accusé de faire la lecture du jugement, tel que rapporté dans Crankshaw)

"Held, that a statement in writing made to police officers by the accused while in custody was not admissible in evidence against him on a trial for murder since the document though written in the first person and read over to and signed by him was not a verbatim report of what occurred but merely a clerk's summary of the course of interrogatories and answers, and indeed, contained a substantial mis-statement together with a record of an admission which was both admissible and prejudicial".

(Le Juge-Avocat fait remarquer que l'accusé, dans la cause citée, était 'in custody')

Evidemment, il n'y a pas d'erreur, mais ceci se rattache au premier argument que j'ai fait, dans la cause de Baldwin: lorsque la personne est sous soupçons, elle doit être considérée comme 'in custody'. Le Colonel Mercier, évidemment, croyait qu'il était obligé de faire une mise en garde à la troisième entrevue.

(Le Juge-Avocat fait remarquer que dans la cause de Thiffaut, il s'agissait tout simplement de clarifier la situation de l'accusé.)

(L'avocat de l'accusé dit: "Oui; il était sous arrêts")

Je soumets donc que cette déclaration écrite ne rencontre pas les prescriptions données par le droit anglais et la précaution que l'on doit prendre avant de faire signer l'accusé, et en second lieu, elle n'est pas faite dans une forme telle qu'elle puisse être acceptable.

Dans une déclaration, lorsqu'un accusé fait une déclaration concernant sa culpabilité, un mot de changé, qui, dans l'esprit de celui qui l'écrit peut avoir le même sens, rendu au procès, peut changer complètement l'aspect de la déclaration. Un 'et' que l'on met pour un 'ou'. Si cela n'est pas la déclaraction exacte, complète, "verbatim" de l'accusé, je soumets que cela ne peut pas entrer en cause, et ceci évidemment ne concerne que la déclaration écrite.

Et pour terminer, je soumets donc que ces deux déclarations ne peuvent entrer en cause, et j'attire l'attention de la Cour encore une fois en terminant, parce que je crois que c'est un point excessivement important dans cette cause-ci, sur l'effet de la mise en garde rapportée par le Major Lacasse et prononcée par le Colonel Mercier lorsqu'il dit à l'accusé: "Si tu te sens coupable, si tu as quelque chose à te reprocher, tu n'es pas obligé de parler."Je crois que ceci annule la mise en garde, et, au contraire, est une invitation dans les circonstances à parler."

REPLIQUE DU PROCUREUR SUR LE VOIR-DIRE

J'ai quelques point à corriger, si la Cour me le permet. D'abord, dans les affirmations de mon confrère, je veux rappeler à la Cour que lors de la première et la deuxième entrevue que Houde a eues avec le Colonel Mercier, et le Major Lacasse, il n'était pas question d'irrégularités en argent. Il était question, comme le Colonel Mercier l'a dit, d'un sergent qui travaillait au même étage que Houde et qui parlait à l'écart avec des civils. Houde n'a pas refusé de parler. Houde a nié avoir eu connaissance que Fortin ou le sergent en question, pour ne pas le nommer, avait des entrevues avec les civils.

Maintenant, cela change l'aspect de la cause. Ce sont d'autres qui ont relié Houde à Fortin, et dès que le Colonel Mercier a eu des soupçons, il l'a mis en garde. Mon confrère fait grant état des mots employés et rapportés par le Major Lacasse: "Si tu te sens coupable". Loin de penser comme mon confrère, ces mots disent à l'accusé plus clairement que la mise en garde banale qui est ordinairement lue à un accusé, et qui ne sait pas ce dont il est question, mise en garde vague, indéfinie. Tandis que là, il lui dit carrément: "Si tu te sens coupable, tu n'es pas obligé de parler". Ce n'est pas un 'inducement' à parler, au contraire.

Si l'argument de mon confrère était bon; l'accusé pour prouver sa non-culpabilité, vient et s'accuse - ce serait ridicule. Il fait une déclaration. Cela serait ridicule. Le Major Lacasse, au sujet des questions du Colonel Mercier, a bien dit dans son témoignage que le Colonel Mercier demandait certaines précisions. Mon confrère réfère la Cour au sous-paragraphe (7) de l'Article 78. Cela se rapporte à un prisonnier, et la preuve devant cette Cour est claire que Houde au moment où il a comparu devant le Colonel Mercier n'était pas un prisonnier.

Au sujet de la déclaration écrite, mon confrère cite le paragraphe 9. Je m'accorde avec lui en ce qui regarde le sous-paragraphe (9) de l'Article 78. La déclaration a été lue par Houde ou elle a été lue par le Colonel Mercier, et le Colonel Mercier lui a dit: "Tu n'es pas obligé de la signer; regarde si c'est correct". Le Colonel Mercier rapporte que encore là, il lui a dit: "Tu n'es pas obligé de la signer". Et malgré cela, l'accusé l'a signée.

Maintenant, au sujet du 'verbatim'. Dans l'Armée, la forme du 'verbatim', on l'emploie moins souvent. On emploie la forme narrative plutôt qu'une autre.

Dans Phipson, 7ème édition, p. 258, il est dit:

"...and the better opinion is that confessions made in answer to questions by the police to the accused, even when in custody, are in strict law admissible, provided there was no promise or threat used.

Plus bas, sur la même page:

"The Court remarked that these rules have not the force of law, but are administrative directions which should be observed by the police for the fair administration of justice, and that statements obtained from prisoners contrary to their spirit may be rejected at the trial."

Et à la page 259:

"The form of confession is, in general, immaterial. Thus, it may be made either orally or in writing; and a letter written by the prisoner to the prosecutor, even when in custody and although no caution was given him, is receiveable."

A la page 262, même édition, Phipson, la Cour pourra prendre connaissance de la forme des confessions qui ont été admises, formes des questions posées à l'accusé, qui ont été acceptées par le Tribunal Anglais.

En voici des exemples: "Be a good girl and tell the truth"; "Be sure to tell the truth"; "I should advise you to answer truthfully" etc.

Je soumets que les déclarations, avec la preuve de voir-dire, devant cette Cour, devraient être admises.

DIRECTIVES DU JUGE-AVOCAT

" Je vais être aussi bref que possible. La Cour est maintenant appelée à décider s'il y a lieu ou non d'accepter les déclarations verbales et les déclarations écrites qui ont été faites par l'accusé.

" Pour en venir à une conclusion, la Cour devra être guidée par certains principes, lesquels sont bien connus et qui ont été exposés au long dans la cause du soldat Hamel, et encore dans cette cause de Houde par le Procureur de la poursuite et l'avocat de la défense. Ces principes généraux trouvent leur application dans la présente cause comme dans toute autre, et il s'agit de savoir quels sont les principes qui reçoivent leur application en l'espèce, et lesquels de ces principes-là il faut choisir comme guides pour la Cour.

" Un point qui se soulève dans le présent cas est celui de savoir si les déclarations ont été faites devant des "personnes 'in authority'" telles que mentionnées dans les divers rapports judiciaires et dans la doctrine sur ce point.

" J'aviserai la Cour que dans mon opinion, le Colonel Mercier et le Major Lacasse sont toutes deux des personnes "in authority". L'un était l'Officier-commandant de l'accusé; l'autre était l'Officier Senior, en autant qu'il s'agit du corps médical de district.

" Je dois évidemment dire qu'il y a de la doctrine et de la jurisprudence à l'effet que, dans de tels cas, une mise en garde est essentielle, tout comme si l'accusé était aux arrêts, en détention ou arrêté. Comme question de fait, une mise en garde a été donnée.

" La question que la Cour a à se poser est celle-ci: "Cette mise en garde est-elle viciée et doit-elle être considérée comme nulle, comme n'ayant pas été donnée?" "Est-ce que les termes employés, au lieu de prévenir l'accusé que ce qu'il pourrait dire pourrait être mis en preuve à un procès qu'il subirait subséquemment; est-ce que cette mise en garde aurait pu être interprétée par l'accusé comme une invitation à parler?" C'est là une question sur laquelle la Cour aura à se prononcer en se basant sur la preuve qui a été faite.

" La défense a insisté sur ce qu'elle considère comme une incitation à parler, laquelle serait constituée par l'emploi des mots, au début de la mise en garde; "Si tu te sens coupable..." La Cour appréciera si l'emploi de ces mots-là a privé l'accusé de sa liberté intellectuelle, mentale, au point de constituer pour lui une incitation à faire certaines révélations, lesquelles il n'aurait pas faites si le Colonel Mercier n'avait pas employé ces mots-là. C'est une question de fait que la Cour aura à déterminer.

" On a référé à diverses reprises aux "Rules issued by the Judges of the King's Bench Division", reproduites aux pages 91, 92 et 93 du Manuel de Droit Militaire. Je l'ai dit dans la cause de Hamel, et je le répète afin que cela soit enregistré dans les procédures de la présente cause: ces règles ont été rédigées pour la gouverne des officiers de police ou de toutes autres personnes chargées de faire une investigation, mais elles n'ont pas force de loi. Elles sont le produit de la sagesse et de l'expérience, mais elles n'ont pas un caractère absolument "binding", qui lie d'une façon absolue.

" Je ne saurais mieux rendre ma pensée qu'en citant au texte la fin de la page 92;

"Provided that such rules are observed there can be no question as to the admissibility of the statement. Whether non-observance of them renders a statement inadmissible is perhaps doubtful; but the better view appears to be that a statement is in law admissible notwithstanding that it was obtained by a person in authority, and notwithstanding non-observance of the rules, if the prosecution can satisfy the court that it was not in fact induced by any fear of prejudice or hope of advantage, as explained in the preceding paragraphs."

" Le fait de ne pas se conformer à ces règles ne signifie pas que la déclaration devient 'ipso facto' non admissible. Il faut toujours que la Cour en revienne aux principes essentiels, aux principes de base et se pose la question: "Est-ce que la déclaration a été faite librement et volontairement?"

La Cour siège en audience privée pour étudier la question.

La Cour siège en audience publique et annonce sa décision. La Cour déclare qu'elle accepte la preuve des déclarations verbales et des déclarations écrites de l'accusé.

La Cour reprend le procès.

DIXIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

Lieutenant-Colonel Jules MERCIER, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., Médecin-chef, District Militaire No. 5, Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.675 Lieutenant-Colonel Mercier, au sujet de l'entrevue du 17 octobre 1942 avec Houde, pourriez-vous examiner le document que je vous exhibe et nous dire si vous connaissez ce document?

A.675 (Le témoin prend connaissance du document en question).
Oui, monsieur.

Q.676 Qu'est-ce que c'est?

A.676 C'est la confession que...

Le Juge-Avocat demande au témoin de se servir du mot "déclaration" et ajoute que la Cour appréciera si c'est une "confession" ou non.

A.676a C'est la déclaration qu'a faite le soldat Léopold Houde.

Q.677 Voulez-vous dire quelles sont les signatures, si vous les connaissez, qui apparaissent à la page 2 de ce document?

A.677 Il y a la signature du soldat Léopold Houde, la signature du Major Lacasse, Commandant de la 5ème Compagnie, et la mienne.

Q.677a Voulez-vous lire le document, Colonel...?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question parce que le document contient des déclarations qui ne concernent pas la cause de l'accusé, ni les accusations qui sont portées contre lui.

Le Procureur soumet que le document contient des déclarations de l'accusé relativement aux accusations portées contre lui, et que s'il y a d'autres choses qui ne regardent pas Houde, on est tout de même obligé de prendre le document dans son tout.

Le Juge-Avocat déclare qu'on doit prendre le document comme un tout.

La Cour renvoie l'objection de la défense.

Q.677b Voulez-vous lire ce document, Colonel, et dire à la Cour s'il contient les déclarations verbales qui vous ont été faites par Houde à l'occasion de cette entrevue?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la forme de la question.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.677c Voulez-vous lire ce document, Colonel, et dire s'il contient quelque chose que Houde vous aurait pas déclarée?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la forme de la question.

Le Juge-Avocat demande au Procureur de procéder par ordre chronologique afin de ne pas prolonger les débats.

Question retirée.

Q.678 Colonel, voulez-vous relater à la Cour l'entrevue que vous avez eue avec le soldat Houde le 17 octobre 1942, et ce qui s'est dit dans cette occasion?

A.678 Voulez-vous dire la deuxième ou la troisième entrevue?

Q.679 A la troisième entrevue.

A.679 A la troisième entrevue, après avoir fait une mise en garde comme je l'ai expliqué hier dans mon témoignage, le soldat Houde a dit qu'il refusait de répondre; mais cependant il a ajouté...(Le témoin s'adresse au Procureur: "Est-ce que je dois tout dire?").

Q.680 Pour votre information, la Cour a décidé d'accepter les déclarations verbales et écrites faites en votre présence.

A.680 Il a dit: "Je refuse de répondre". Cependant, il a avoué, sans autres questions, qu'il avait donné... je suis obligé de nommer d'autres noms...qu'il avait donné vingt piastres au Capitaine Grondin.

Q.681 Ensuite?

A.681 Ensuite, je lui ai demandé combien d'argent qu'il avait eu ou qu'il avait reçu; il m'a répondu: "Deux cent à deux cent cinquante piastres". Il a ajouté qu'il recevait des gens qui s'informaient auprès de la catégorie médicale qui leur serait attribuée, et qu'il les dirigeait au sergent Fortin. Il a avoué aussi avoir donné une somme de quarante à quarante-cinq piastres au sergent Fortin, provenant d'une somme totale d'environ soixante ou soixante-cinq piastres, somme qu'il aurait reçue lui-même. Ensuite, il a avoué avoir reçu trente piastres d'un individu de la Baie Comeau; cinq piastres d'un individu nommé Raymond, par l'entremise ou l'intermédiaire d'un nommé Simard, et une bouteille de "scotch" d'un nommé Trudel. Il a aussi mentionné qu'il avait offert de l'argent au Major Girard et qu'il avait refusé --selon son expression - "de se laisser acheter". Il a mentionné aussi qu'il avait demandé en différentes occasions aux médecins --il n'a pas mentionné de noms -- à différents médecins, la catégorie médicale dans laquelle serait placé tel ou tel individu, et que les médecins lui auraient répondu que selon les ordres du D.M.O., ils ne pourraient lui rendre ce service. Je pense que c'est à peu près ce qu'il m'a dit lors de ma troisième entrevue du 17 octobre. Le lendemain...

A.681 (suite)

Q.682 Non, laissez faire pour le lendemain. Le document que vous avez identifié tout à l'heure comme ayant été signé par Houde, devant vous, ayant comme témoins le Colonel Mercier et le Major Lacasse, voulez-vous dire à la Cour qu'est-ce que c'est ce document-là?

A.682 C'est la déclaration écrite, c'est identique avec ses déclarations verbales; même il y a des expressions qui sont celles que le soldat Houde a employées.

Q.683 Voulez-vous produire comme évidence documentaire la déclaration écrite en date du 17 octobre 1942 et portant la signature "No. E-25868, soldat Léopold Houde, No. 5 Coy, R.C.A.M.C., C.A." ?

Déclaration écrite, dactylographiée, en date du 17 octobre 1942, portant la signature du No. E-25868, Pte. HOUDE, Léopold, No. 5 Coy, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., et les signatures des témoins Jules MERCIER, Lieut.-Col., D.M.O. 5, J.Louis LACASSE, Major, O.C. No. 5 Coy, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., est signée par le Président, marquée "H" et jointe au procès-verbal.

L'avocat de l'accusé contre-interroge le témoin.

Q.684 Vous avez questionné l'accusé pendant cette entrevue?

A.684 Oui, monsieur.

Q.685 Quelle est la première chose qu'il vous a dite après avoir dit qu'il ne voulait pas parler.

A.685 Il a ajouté, sans que je lui pose aucune question, qu'il avait donné $20.00 au Capitaine Grondin.

Q.686 Avez-vous posé des questions à ce sujet-là?

A.686 Je lui ai posé une question. Je pense que je lui ai demandé d'où venait cet argent.

Q.687 Qu'est-ce qu'il a dit?

A.687 Je pense qu'il ne m'a pas répondu sur cela.

Q.688 Quelle est la deuxième chose qu'il vous a dite?

A.688 Vous savez, exactement, les questions posées à Houde, comme ça...mais je pense que le témoignage que je viens de rendre... La deuxième chose, voici; il a ajouté quelque chose sur son témoignage à l'effet qu'il avait donné vingt piastres au Capitaine Grondin; je sais qu'il m'a dit être sous l'impression que le Capitaine Grondin en avait remis un peu ou une certaine partie au Major Guimont. Ca, il a ajouté ça.

A.688 (suite)

Q.689 Ensuite?

A.689 Ensuite, je lui ai évidemment demandé la somme totale des montants reçus; il m'a dit, cette journée-là, qu'elle devait s'élever entre deux cent à deux cent cinquante piastres.

Q.690 Lui avez-vous demandé pourquoi il avait eu cet argent-là, en quelle circonstance?

A.690 Il recevait ça de gens...arrêtez, je vais tâcher de m'en rappeler exactement.

Le Juge-Avocat demande à la Cour de faire lecture de la déclaration écrite, jointe au procès-verbal comme pièce à conviction "H".

Le Président donne lecture de la déclaration.

Q.691 Lui avez-vous demandé pourquoi il avait eu cet argent-là, en quelle circonstance?

A.691 De gens qui, d'après lui, auraient été classés "E" quand même. Je pense, même, qu'il y a beaucoup d'expressions qui sont exactement celles qu'a employées le soldat Houde.

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé(suite):

Q.692 Bien, j'espère que c'est sa déclaration?

A.692 Seulement, on peut changer la forme; c'est ça que j'entends. Le sens, c'est exactement le sens. Je pourrais dire que c'est pratiquement les mêmes mots qu'a employés le soldat, je crois. Evidemment, je l'ai corrigé pour avoir plus de clarté. Vous savez ce que je veux dire.

Q.693 Cette déclaration produite comme Exhibit "H", c'est vous qui l'avez dictée, n'est-ce-pas?

A.693 Oui, c'est moi qui l'ai dictée. Voici; quand j'ai interrogé le soldat Houde, j'ai pris des notes sur ses réponses; ensuite de cela nous avons mis ça pour que ça se tienne ensemble. Je disais au soldat Houde; "Est-ce que c'est cela que tu veux dire ou que tu as dit?" Quand il disait; "Oui", on le copiait.

Q.694 Est-ce que, pendant un certain temps, il y en a une partie qui a été copiée sans que cela soit sur vos notes?

A.694 J'étais à côté du sergent-major, et je demandais au sergent-major si c'était ça qu'il avait dit. J'étais en arrière de lui.

Q.695 Au début, est-ce que le sergent-major a copié directement les notes sans que vous ayiez à intervenir?

A.695 J'étais à côté du sergent-major. J'étais en arrière afin de voir que cela soit exactement la déclaration du soldat Houde.

Q.696 Par exemple, ici, dans la déclaration, "Je soussigné, E-25868, Private Léopold Houde, acting-sergeant", ça c'est vous qui avez dit cela?

A.696 Oui.

Q.697 "..refuse de répondre aux questions du Lieutenant-Colonel Jules Mercier, D.M.O., M.D. No. 5" - c'est vous qui avez dit cela?

A.697 Seulement je lui ai demandé si c'était bien ça.

Q.698 Mais, il refuse de répondre? "après la mise en garde"...c'est vous qui avez mis cela?

A.698 Je lui ai demandé si c'était ça, il a dit "Oui" que c'était ça.

Q.699 Vous n'avez pas cru rapporter votre mise en garde, hein? Vous ne l'avez pas rapportée dans la déclaration?

A.699 Non; ça, c'est textuellement quand il m'avait dit; "Je refuse de parler".

Q.700 Cependant, "après cela, j'avoue avoir donné" - jurez-vous qu'il a dit; "j'avoue avoir donné"? ou s'il a dit; "j'ai donné"?

A.700 Monsieur, je ne m'en rappelle pas.

Q.701 N'est-il pas vrai que le mot "j'avoue" - que c'est vous qui l'avez ajouté?

A.701 Je ne peux pas jurer l'avoir dit ou ne pas l'avoir dit. Je comprenais que je donnais le sens, je ne donnais pas le texte exact. Seulement - quel temps il employait, je ne pensais pas que cela avait une importance capitale.

Q.702 N'est-il pas vrai qu'il n'a pas dit; "J'avoue avoir donné"?

A.702 Je serais sur mon lit de mort et je ne pourrais pas vous répondre à la question exactement, vu que je n'ai pas plus attaché d'importance à ce mot-là. Quand je lui disais; "Est-ce bien cela que tu as dit, ou que tu veux dire?" et qu'il me disait;"Oui, c'est correct", je le mettais.

Q.703 N'est-il pas vrai que vous avez suggéré l'expression; "J'avoue avoir donné" ?

A.703 Je ne peux pas m'en rappeler. Je ne peux pas me rappeler si c'est moi qui ai suggéré cela. J'ai fait cela au meilleur de ma connaissance, dans aucun autre but que je vous l'ai expliqué hier.

Q.704 Maintenant, voulez-vous nous dire qu'est-ce que vous avez voulu dicter lorsque vous dites: "Je pense qu'il a donné sur ce montant.." là, c'est fait à la première personne...?

A.704 Le "je pense" qu'il y a dans la déclaration, c'est l'accusé qui parle: "Je pense qu'il a donné au Major Guimont".

Q.705 "Je pense qu'il a donné sur ce montant au Major C.E. Guimont, No. 5 Company, R.C.A.M.C., C.A."...Qui a dit: "Il a donné seulement trente piastres" ? Qu'est-ce que cela veut dire?

A.705 J'ai rapporté textuellement la réponse du soldat Houde. D'après lui, c'était le Major Guimont qui a dit ça; je l'ai marqué exactement comme il l'a dit.

Q.706 Je voudrais essayer de comprendre cela: "J'avoue avoir donné au Capitaine G.A. Grondin, No. 5 Company, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., la somme de vingt piastres.Je pense qu'il a donné sur ce montant au Major C.E. Guimont, No. 5 Company, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., qui a dit:-il a donné seulement trente piastres." ?

A.706 Vous ne pouvez pas me blâmer parce que ce n'est pas bien clair. J'ai compris ce que le soldat Houde voulait dire: il voulait dire ceci...

Q.707 Un instant - ce que Houde voulait dire, la Cour va l'apprécier par les réponses qu'il a données. Je ne crois pas que c'est vous qui allez l'interpréter?

A.707 Voici; je pense que je ne peux pas l'interpréter; d'ailleurs, ce n'est pas mon droit. "Je pense qu'il a donné sur ce montant au Major C.E.Guimont.." ça, c'est le soldat Houde qui parle.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.708 Cela correspond aux mots qu'il a dits?

A.708 Qu'il a dits.

L'avocat de l'accusé poursuit son contre-interrogatoire:

Q.709 "Je pense qu'il a donné sur ce montant au Major C.E. Guimont, No. 5 Company, R.C.A.M.C., C.A. qui a dit: "

A.709 C'est le Major Guimont qui a dit.

Q.710 Dit quoi?

A.710 "Seulement trente piastres". C'est entre parenthèses.

Q.711 Ce n'est pas entre parenthèses, c'est entre guillemets. Ce n'est pas la même chose.

Q.711 (suite)

La phrase suivante maintenant: "J'admets avoir reçu". Il n'a jamais dit: "J'admets avoir reçu" ? Il n'a jamais dit ça, Houde? C'est vous qui avez suggéré cela: "J'admets avoir reçu" ?

A.711 Je ne me rappelle pas quel verbe il a employé.

Q.712 Mais êtes-vous certain qu'il a employé le mot "j'admets" ?

A.712 En tout cas, je suis certain que c'est ce qu'il a dit.

Q.713 Vous jurez qu'il a dit: "J'admets avoir reçu" ?

A.713 Peut-être pas le verbe, mais le sens qu'il avait reçu $200.00 à $250.00.

Q.714 Mais vous ne pouvez pas jurer qu'il a dit: "J'admets avoir reçu" ?

A.714 Non, mais je ne peux pas jurer qu'il ne l'a pas dit non plus.

Q.715 "L'argent provient d'individus qui étaient réellement et physiquement inaptes au service d'après moi". Il n'a jamais dit cela?

A.715 Il a peut-être dit qu'ils étaient "unfit".

Q.716 Il n'a jamais dit ce que vous avez écrit là, ces mots-là?

A.716 Monsieur Rivard, vous ne pouvez pas prétendre qu'il s'est dit ça pas plus que moi.

Q.717 Je ne le prétends pas; je n'y étais pas; c'est vous qui étiez là. Colonel, je vous questionne pour savoir si vous ne pouvez pas jurer qu'il a dit cela?

A.717 Moi, je vais jurer que le soldat Houde m'a fait une déclaration que j'ai tâché de traduire afin qu'elle soit compréhensible.

Q.718 Vous ne pouvez pas jurer qu'il a dit: "L'argent provient d'individus qui étaient réellement et physiquement inaptes au service d'après moi". Vous ne pouvez pas jurer qu'il a dit cette phrase-là?

A.718 Non, mais je peux jurer ceci: que chaque phrase lui a été lue, et j'ai demandé au soldat Houde: "Est-ce que c'est cela que tu veux dire, ou que tu as dit?" Et il a dit: "Oui, monsieur."

Q.719 A chaque fois?

A.719 Oui, monsieur.

Q.720 Après cette phrase-là aussi?

A.720 Après cette phrase-là comme après les autres.

Q.721 Après chaque phrase?

A.721 Oui, monsieur; après chaque phrase, parce que je ne voulais absolument pas lui faire dire des choses qu'il n'avait pas dites ou qu'il ne voulait pas dire.

Q.722 "Ils auraient eu quand même leur 'discharge'" - Est-ce cela?

A.722 Oui, ça, c'est le terme; cela s'emploie souvent.

Q.723 "Les types venaient me voir et je les dirigeais au sergent Georges Portin". Est-ce qu'il a dit cela?

A.723 Oui, monsieur.

Q.724 "J'ai reçu les trente piastres d'un type de Baie Comeau". Quand vous parlez de trente piastres - il a été question d'autre chose avant, parce que vous parlez des trente piastres dans la déclaration?

A.724 Ca, c'est la phrase exacte.

Q.725 "J'ai reçu les trente piastres" ?

A.725 Oui, monsieur.

Q.726 Lui aviez-vous parlé de ces trente piastres-là avant?

A.726 C'est sa phrase; moi, je n'ai pas été capable de tirer ça au clair.

Q.727 Avez-vous essayé de tirer cela au clair?

A.727 J'ai essayé à tirer bien des choses au clair; je n'ai pas été capable.

Le Président de la Cour:

" La Cour a confiance dans le témoin. Le paragraphe 54 du Chapître V, du Manuel de Droit Militaire, p. 54, se lit comme suit:

"As a witness gives his evidence it must be taken down in narrative form, as nearly as possible in the words used; occasionally it may be material or desirable to take down question and answer verbatim..."

" Je ne veux pas prétendre que lorsque la déclaration fût faite au bureau du Colonel Mercier...il ne faut pas prétendre que l'accusé se servait d'un français impeccable. Mais je sais que le Colonel Mercier a essayé de reconstituer la scène, qu'il a essayé de clarifier ou de corriger certaines déclarations qui étaient faites par l'accusé. Je crois que la Cour est de mon avis que le témoin a essayé de tout son être, de mettre ces déclarations sur du papier. Il y a des choses que je ne comprends pas et que même les immortels ne comprendraient pas. Mais je crois que la Cour est satisfaite."

L'avocat de l'accusé poursuit son contre-interrogatoire:

Q.728 Alors, pour les trente piastres du type de la Baie Comeau, il ne vous avait pas donné de détails là-dessus?

A.728 Non, monsieur. Si vous me permettez, monsieur Rivard, je vais vous dire quelque chose qui pourra peut-être éclaircir la situation. Je ne peux pas dire que le soldat Houde était hostile, mais que seulement le soldat Houde m'avait dit qu'il refusait de parler. Par conséquent, quand il ne voulait pas me donner d'autres explications, j'étais obligé d'accepter ce qu'il disait. Quand je le questionnais et qu'il ne voulait pas parler, je le laissais faire. Je prenais seulement ce qu'il voulait dire.

Q.729 Il parlait "à reculons" ?

A.729 Non, je ne peux pas dire qu'il parlait "à reculons", mais quand il me semblait qu'il ne voulait pas éclaircir une situation, je le laissais faire; je le laissais parler. Il y a certains détails qui n'étaient pas très clairs dans mon esprit, alors je n'étais pas capable de les rendre plus clairs sans changer le sens de ce qu'il disait. Alors, je ne le changeais pas. Si c'était clair dans mon esprit, je me suis peut-être permis de mettre une phrase plus compréhensible.

Q.730 "Quand j'ai donné au sergent Fortin la somme de quarante à quarante-cinq piastres"...est-ce qu'il vous a dit de qui il avait eu cela?

A.730 Non, monsieur.

Q.731 Lui avez-vous demandé?

A.731 Je pense qu'il a dit qu'il ne s'en rappelait pas exactement.

Q.732 "J'avais reçu la somme de soixante ou soixante et cinq piastres". Est-ce qu'il vous avait dit de qui?

A.732 Non, monsieur.

Q.733 "J'ai reçu aujourd'hui 17 octobre 1942 la somme de $5.00 d'un nommé Raymond par l'entremise d'un nommé Simard qui l'accompagnait" ?

A.733 C'est lui-même qui a dit cela sans que je l'interroge. La bouteille de 'scotch'...il parle d'une bouteille de 'scotch' dans sa déclaration....c'est lui-même qui me l'a dit; je ne l'ai pas interrogé sur ça.

Ré-interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.734 Est-ce que cette déclaration a été lue par vous ou lue par le témoin avant la signature?

A.734 Je l'ai lue au témoin et le témoin l'a lue lui-même, je crois, parce qu'on lui a donné le papier.

Q.735 Avant sa signature?

A.735 Oui.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.736 Est-ce que la Cour doit comprendre que dans la déclaration écrite qui a été produite comme Exhibit "H", se trouvent à la fois des choses qui vous avaient été révélées par Houde lui-même au moment des déclarations verbales qu'il a faites alors que vous preniez des notes, et d'autres choses qui vous ont été révélées par Houde lors de la transcription de ces notes-là antérieurement par l'interrogatoire d'autres témoins. La question est claire?

A.736 Oui, votre question est claire, monsieur. Je vais vous dire jusqu'où ces déclarations... Voulez-vous me permettre de regarder cela, monsieur.

Avec la permission de la Cour, le témoin prend connaissance de la déclaration écrite, produite au dossier comme pièce à conviction "H".

A.736a (suite)

Sa déclaration, jusqu'à la phrase: "J'ai reçu aujourd'hui, 17 octobre 1942, la somme de $5.00 d'un nommé Raymond"...la première partie jusqu'à cet endroit-là comprend exactement la déclaration verbale qu'il m'avait faite. A partir de la phrase: "J'ai reçu aujourd'hui le 17 octobre 1942, la somme de $5.00..." à aller jusqu'à la fin de la déclaration, ce sont des choses qu'il a ajoutées.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.737 C'est la rédaction de ses remarques?

A.737 Oui, monsieur.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.738 Lui avez-vous aidé à faire les remarques qu'il faisait?

A.738 Oui, monsieur.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.739 Alors, c'est bien clair, Colonel Mercier, que ce qui est contenu dans cette déclaration est seulement ce qui s'est transigé entre l'accusé et vous-même, à votre bureau, et qu'il n'y a rien d'autre chose qui a été incorporé dans cela?

A.739 Non; il n'y a rien autre chose. Ce qui reste d'indécis ou flou, c'est parce que je n'ai pas été capable de tirer cela au clair; je n'ai pas été capable de lui faire dire autre chose que ce qu'il y a d'écrit. Alors, je n'ai pas voulu changer le sens.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

ONZIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

Major J.Louis Lacasse, Officier-Commandant, 5ème Compagnie Médicale, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.740 Major Lacasse, voulez-vous raconter à la Cour ce qui s'est passé au cours de la troisième entrevue de Houde avec le Colonel Mercier, le 17 octobre 1942?

A.740 Au cours de la troisième entrevue, l'accusé a fait des déclarations. Est-ce la teneure de ses déclarations?

Q.741 Oui.

A.741 L'accusé a admis avoir reçun une somme d'environ $200.00 à $250.00 de différentes personnes, dont $30.00 d'un homme de Baie Comeau, $60.00 d'un autre dont je ne me souviens pas. Une bouteille de scotch d'un monsieur Trudel, je crois, et la journée même, le 17, $5.00 d'un monsieur Raymond. De plus, il a dit avoir donné $20.00 au capitaine Grondin et une somme de $40.00 à $45.00 au sergent Fortin.

Q.742 Voulez-vous dire à la Cour ce que le capitaine Grondin...qui est le Capitaine Grondin?

A.742 Le Capitaine Grondin était employé sur le conseil d'examinateurs médicaux pour les recrues.

Q.743 Et le sergent Fortin?

A.743 Le sergent Fortin travaillait sur le même étage en charge des radiographies.

Q.744 Alors, je comprends que les deux, le capitaine Grondin et le sergent Fortin travaillaient chez le D.M.O. à Québec?

A.744 Oui, monsieur.

Q.745 A la suite de ces déclarations verbales,... Est-ce qu'il y a d'autre chose que vous voulez ajouter dans la déclaration verbale?

A.745 Il y aurait le fait que le soldat Houde dirigeait parfois des recrues ou des gens qui venaient pour avoir une idée de leur catégorie médicale, vers les médecins privés qui travaillent à notre bureau, pour s'assurer si ces gens-là seraient bien "E" ou "A", et je crois qu'il a même rendu un témoignage d'honnêteté envers l'un de nos officiers.

Q.746 Qui est-il?

A.746 A qui, apparemment, il aurait offert de l'argent et qu'il n'a pas voulu se laisser acheter; le major Girard.

Q.747 A la suite de ces déclarations verbales de l'accusé, qu'est-il arrivé?

A.747 C'est à ce moment-là que la transcription s'est commencée.

Q.748 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour dans quelles conditions?

A.748 Comme je l'ai dit hier, le Colonel, au fur et à mesure que le soldat Houde faisait sa déclaration, il prenait des notes; puis, une fois que ces notes-là ont été prises, il a appelé le sergent-major Drolet qui est venu taper à la machine cette déclaration.

Q.749 Ensuite?

A.749 Il y a les différents incidents que j'ai mentionnés à la Cour hier.

Q.750 Quels sont ces incidents?

A.750 Le téléphone fait à vous-même, au sergent DesRosiers et les téléphones faits à la maison du Colonel.

Q.751 Et à la suite de cette transcription, qu'est-il arrivé?

A.751 Une fois que ces formules ont été écrites à la machine, elles ont été lues au soldat Houde et elles lui ont été remises entre ses mains.

Q.752 Qu'est-ce qu'il en a fait, lui?

A.752 Après, je ne sais pas s'il les a lues au complet, mais après avoir regardé ces choses, cette feuille de papier...

(Le Juge-Avocat fait remarquer que le témoin parle des déclarations; et qu'il n'y en a seulement qu'une.)

Q.753 Ensuite?

A.753 Il a signé cette déclaration.

Q.754 Voulez-vous prendre connaissance de l'exhibit "H" et dire à la Cour si c'est le document auquel vous référez dans votre témoignage?

A.754 Oui, monsieur.

Q.755 Par quoi pouvez-vous l'identifier?

A.755 D'abord par ma signature propre; par celle du Colonel que je connais très bien, et même je reconnais l'écriture du soldat Houde.

Q.756 Est-ce que cela a été signé en votre présence?

A.756 Oui, cela a été signé en ma présence.

Interrogé contradictoirement par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.757 Il a commencé par dire qu'il ne voulait pas parler?

A.757 Oui, monsieur.

Q.758 Quelle est la première déclaration qu'il a faite après cela? Qu'est-ce qu'il a dit en premier?

A.758 Si je me rappelle bien, il a déclaré avoir donné $20.00 au capitaine Grondin.

Q.759 Ensuite?

A.759 Vous les donner toutes par ordre, je ne suis pas capable.

Q.760 Cela serait plutôt difficile, je comprends, mais répétez-moi les donc?

A.760 Je crois que la première ou la première chose mentionnée fut celle de $20.00 données au Capitaine Grondin.

Q.761 Ensuite?

A.761 Parce que lors de ce cadeau qu'il avait fait, il était censé avoir reçu trente piastres de l'homme de la Baie Comeau.

Q.762 Ensuite?

A.762 Puis il nous a dit avoir donné une somme de $40.00 à $45.00 au sergent Fortin, alors que lui-même il avait reçu une soixantaine de piastres.

Q.763 Vous avez dit tout à l'heure qu'il dirigeait les recrues vers les médecins pour s'assurer de leur catégorie?

A.763 Oui.

Q.764 N'est-il pas vrai, Major, qu'il avait également ajouté qu'il avait décidé de demander au médecin quelles étaient leurs catégories, que le médecin avait refusé parce que les ordres du D.M.O. le défendaient?

A.764 Oui, monsieur.

Q.765 Est-ce exact?

A.765 Oui, monsieur.

Q.766 Qu'est-ce qu'il était, lui?

A.766 Le soldat Houde était en charge de la salle de réception des hommes qui viennent pour subir un examen médical. C'est une salle de déshabillage et aussi une salle de douches. Les recrues entrent dans cette salle, enlèvent leurs vêtements, prennent une douche, reçoivent une serviette et attendent leur tour d'être appelés soit devant le bureau d'examinateurs, soit devant le bureau de révision médicale.

Q.767 Qui siègent dans le même édifice?

A.767 Oui, dans le même édifice, sur le même étage.

Q.768 Alors, les recrues qui venaient pour passer un examen devaient nécessairement s'adresser au soldat Houde?

A.768 Oui, ils devaient s'adresser au soldat Houde pour se déshabiller et prendre leur douche.

Ré-interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.768a Etait-ce dans ses fonctions de donner des avis sur les catégories médicales aux recrues?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question parce que le témoin n'est pas en état d'établir les faits.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.769 En plus de voir à faire déshabiller les hommes, quelles étaient les autres fonctions du soldat Houde?

A.769 Il devait, en plus, s'occuper de la garde des serviettes, voir à ce qu'elles soient lavées; même, si je ne me trompe, il était chargé lui-même de les compter et de s'assurer qu'elles soient lavées à la buanderie.

Q.769a Quelles étaient les personnes que le D.M.O. avait autorisées à donner des opinions médicales?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question pour la raison que la Cour doit avoir un 'judicial knowledge' des devoirs du D.M.O. et des officiers.

Le Procureur soumet à la Cour que, parfois, des infirmiers pourraient donner des opinions.

Le Juge-Avocat s'adresse au Procureur:

" Si vous entrez dans ce domaine-là, cela prendra probablement bien du temps pour en sortir."

La Cour prendra pour acquis que ce sont les médecins qui donnent les opinions médicales."

Le Procureur poursuit son ré-examen.

Q.770 Vous avez employé deux expressions. Vous avez parlé du "conseil de révision médical" et du "bureau des examinateurs médicaux" ?

A.770 Oui.

Q.771 Voulez-vous, sommairement, expliquer à la Cour le fonctionnement de ces deux bureaux-là, en vue d'en faire la différence, la distinction?

A.771 Nous avons deux organisations médicales, l'une qui sert à l'admission des hommes dans l'armée - c'est le groupe de médecins exactement que j'ai voulu dénommer tout à l'heure par "le bureau des examinateurs". C'est-à-dire, il s'agit d'établir la catégorie des hommes au moment de l'enrôlement.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.772 Cela s'applique à la fois aux recrues?

A.772 Oui, cela s'applique aux recrues et à la force active. Et après avoir eu un examen médical, quand sa catégorie est établie, cet homme passe devant un "conseil de révision médical", lorsqu'il s'agit d'un changement de classe.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.773 S'il est dans l'armée, il peut se faire examiner de nouveau, et c'est le conseil de révision qui le fait?

A.773 Oui, lorsqu'il s'agit d'un changement de classe; lorsqu'il n'est pas dans l'armée, c'est le bureau des examinateurs.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.774 Est-ce que chaque médecin ne travaille que sur un bureau?

A.774 Il y a des circonstances où il nous faut prendre des médecins dans le bureau des examinateurs pour donner une chance au conseil de révision.

Q.775 Et inversement?

A.775 Oui, et inversement.

Q.776 Maintenant, l'un et l'autre de ces bureaux, le "conseil de révision" comme le "bureau des examinateurs" s'occupent à la fois des enrôlements et des licenciements, tant pour les recrues "A" que pour les recrues "R"?

A.776 Oui, monsieur.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

DOUZIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

No. E-20613, C.S.M. Joseph DROLET, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.777 Sergent-major Drolet, je comprends que vous étiez présent au bureau du médecin-chef le 17 octobre 1942?

A.777 Oui, monsieur.

Q.778 Et que comme tel vous avez été appelé à transcrire certaines notes?

A.778 Oui, monsieur.

Q.779 Pourriez-vous prendre connaissance de l'exhibit "H" et dire à la Cour si les notes...si vous connaissez ce document?

A.779 (Le témoin prend connaissance de l'exhibit "H") Je le connais comme l'ayant 'typé'; j'ai 'typé' ce document-là?

Q.780 Qu'est-ce qui vous le fait reconnaître, sergent-major?

A.780 Le caractère de la machine.

Q.781 Est-ce que ce document-là a été signé en votre présence, sergent-major?

A.781 Non, monsieur.

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.782 Quand vous avez fini le document, il n'était pas signé?

A.782 Non, monsieur.

Q.783 Quelle espèce de machine avez-vous?

A.783 Une Remington, monsieur.

Q.784 A-t-elle un caractère spécial ou si elle a le caractère de toutes les 'Remington' ?

A.784 Je crois, monsieur; je ne le sais pas, si elle a un caractère spécial; je ne peux pas vous dire.

Q.785 Qu'est-ce qu'il a de spécial dans le caractère pour que vous puissiez jurer que c'est votre machine?

A.785 C'est la seule 'Remington' qu'on a au bureau.

Q.786 Jurez-vous que ceci est le caractère d'une 'Remington' ?

A.786 Ah, je ne peux pas le jurer.

Q.787 Si vous ne pouvez pas le jurer, comment pouvez-vous jurer que c'est bien le document que vous avez écrit, et que ce document a été écrit sur la machine 'Remington' que vous avez? Comment pouvez-vous reconnaître cela par le caractère comme étant l'écrit que vous avez 'typé'?

A.787 C'est semblable à l'écrit que j'ai 'typé'.

Q.788 Jurez-vous que c'est celui-là?

A.788 Je peux le jurer par le caractère de la machine que c'est celui-là.

Q.789 Jurez-vous, par le caractère de la machine, que c'est celui-là?

A.789 C'est difficile de jurer que c'est celui-là.

Q.790 Pouvez-vous le jurer par d'autre chose?

A.790 Comme j'ai dit hier, il n'y a aucun signe pour le faire reconnaître.

Q.791 Alors, vous n'êtes pas en état de jurer si c'est là le document que vous avez 'typé'?

A.791 Non, monsieur.

Ré-examiné par le Procureur:

Q.791a Au meilleur de votre connaissance?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

A 12 h. 05 de l'après-midi, le 1er décembre 1942, la Cour s'est ajournée jusqu'à 2 h. de l'après-midi le 1er décembre 1942.

Le 1er décembre 1929, à 2 h. 10 de l'après-midi, la Cour se rassemble conformément à l'avis d'ajournement; sont présents les mêmes membres que lors de la suspension des débats.

TREIZIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

Borromée Germain, 32 ans, domicilié à Pont-Rouge, employé dans un moulin comme 'millwright', ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.792 Monsieur Germain, avez-vous eu affaire au bureau de recrutement?

A.792 Oui, j'ai été m'enrôler.

Q.793 A quelle date, monsieur Germain?

A.793 Ah, je crois que c'est le 14, je ne suis pas certain.

Q.794 Le 14 de quel mois?

A.794 Du mois d'octobre.

Q.795 Le 14 octobre?

A.795 Oui.

Q.796 De quelle année?

A.796 1942.

Q.797 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour ce qui s'est passé à cette occasion?

A.797 J'ai été m'enrôler; j'ai arrivé en bas; ils m'ont donné des formules que j'ai remplies. Ensuite de ça, j'ai remonté en haut, il me semble. Après ça, ils m'ont fait déshabiller. J'ai passé mon examen; après ça, j'ai redescendu en bas et c'est là qu'ils m'ont donné ma 'discharge'.

Q.798 Voulez-vous dire à qui vous avez eu affaire à cette occasion-là?

A.798 A personne.

Q.799 Tout est arrivé tout seul?

A.799 Oui.

Q.800 Aviez-vous un certificat de votre médecin lorsque vous vous êtes présenté au bureau de recrutement?

A.800 Non.

Q.801 Alors, avant de vous enrôler, vous n'avez vu personne?

A.801 Non, personne.

Q.802 Vous n'avez parlé à personne non plus?

A.802 Non.

Q.803 Il n'a pas étéquestion de récompense avec qui que ce soit?

A.803 Non.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas interroger le témoin contradictoirement.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

QUATORZIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

Emmanuel Germain, 31 ans, domicilié à Pont-Rouge, P.Q., menuisier, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur.

Q.804 Monsieur Germain, avez-vous eu affaire au bureau médical au sujet de votre enrôlement?

A.804 J'ai été au bureau de recrutement, 322, rue St-Jean; là je me suis enrôlé.

Q.805 A quelle date, monsieur Germain?

A.805 Le 15 d'octobre.

Q.806 De quelle année?

A.806 1942.

Q.807 Qu'est-ce qui est arrivé à cette occasion-là?

A.807 Là j'ai été chercher mes formules pour en bas.

Q.808 Qui vous a dit d'aller chercher vos formules en bas?

A.808 Bien, je me suis enrôlé; je me suis présenté là.

Q.809 Qui vous a dit de vous présenter là?

A.809 Personne.

Q.810 Et qu'est-ce qui est arrivé?

A.810 Ca fait qu'ils m'ont envoyé en haut passer mon examen.

Q.811 Qui? Qu'est-ce qui est arrivé, là?

A.811 Ils m'ont fait déshabiller.

Q.812 Qui cela?

A.812 Ah, je ne le sais pas.

Q.813 Qu'est-ce qui est arrivé en haut? Avez-vous eu affaire à parler à quelqu'un en haut?

A.813 Non.

Q.814 A personne?

A.814 A personne.

Q.815 Vous n'avez pas vu personne pendant que vous étiez là, que vous vous êtes présenté pour votre enrôlement?

A.815 Non.

Q.816 Connaissez-vous un nommé Bertrand de Ste-Catherine?

A.816 Bertrand de Ste-Catherine? Non.

Q.817 Vous ne le connaissez pas?

A.817 Non.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas contre-interroger le témoin.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

QUINZIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE.

Major J. A. GIRARD, 5ème Cie, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.818 Docteur Girard, connaissez-vous l'accusé?

A.818 Oui, monsieur.

Q.819 Où l'avez-vous rencontré?

A.819 A 322, rue St-Jean.

Q.820 Qu'est-ce qu'il y a à 322, rue St-Jean?

A.820 Le bureau médical des examinateurs.

Q.821 Qu'est-ce qu'il faisait là, l'accusé?

A.821 Je crois qu'il avait la surveillance des recrues.

Q.822 Avez-vous eu affaire avec le soldat Houde en dehors du bureau médical?

A.822 Il m'a demandé en trois ou quatre circonstances si je voulais bien donner mon opinion sur de ses connaissances ou de ses amis, mon opinion médicale; alors, je lui ai dit "oui". Alors, ils sont venus à mon bureau privé à Limoilou.

Q.823 Pourriez-vous nous donner les noms?

A.823 Je me rappelle d'un cas; les autres je ne me rappelle pas de leurs noms.

Q.824 Celui dont vous vous rappelez?

A.824 Monsieur Aubé.

Q.825 Qu'est-ce qui est arrivé dans le cas de monsieur Aubé?

A.825 Le sergent Houde m'a demandé si je pouvais bien l'examiner et donner mon opinion; je lui ai dit que oui. Il m'a dit qu'il y aurait de l'argent à faire. Je ne l'ai pas pris au sérieux et ce n'est pas mon genre. Cele ne me regarde pas. Alors, je l'ai examiné, monsieur Aubé. Il ne m'a pas parlé d'argent du tout. Il m'a donné deux piastres pour mes honoraires professionnels, et je l'avais classé "A".

Q.826 Qu'est-ce que vous avez dit à Houde à la suite de votre examen?

A.826 J'ai fait revenir Houde à mon bureau et je lui ai dit: "Il n'y a rien à faire; on n'agit pas comme ça; ça serait injuste, malhonnête et cela ne serait pas soldat".

Q.827 Est-ce qu'il a été question de la catégorie de Aubé entre Houde et vous?

A.827 Non, monsieur.

Q.828 A-t-il été question de la catégorie de Aubé entre Aubé et vous?

A.828 Je lui ai dit qu'il était classé "A".

Q.829 A Aubé?

A.829 Oui.

Q.830 Où avait lieu cet examen?

A.830 A 203, 3ème avenue, Limoilou.

Q.831 Chez qui est-ce cela?

A.831 Chez moi.

Q.833 Vous souvenez-vous des noms d'autres candidats?

A.833 Je n'ai pas tenu de records. Tout ce que je sais, c'est qu'il n'a pas été question du tout pour les autres; celui-là...

Contre-interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé:

Q.834 Major, vous étiez membre dans le bureau des examinateurs?

A.834 Oui, monsieur.

Q.835 Et vous examiniez à votre bureau privé des recrues?

A.835 Quelques fois.

Q.836 Et vous vous faisiez remettre des honoraires professionels pour ces examens?

A.836 Oui.

Q.837 Vous en avez fait des examens, pour d'autres que pour Houde?

A.837 Quelques-uns.

Le Procureur fait remarquer à la Cour qu'il ne s'agit pas de faire le procès du témoin.

La Cour demande à l'avocat de l'accusé de ne pas contre-interroger dans ce sens-là.

Q.838 Vous avez, en deux ou trois fois, comme vous l'avez dit, en d'autres occasions, examiné des personnes qui vous étaient amenées par Houde?

A.838 Oui, monsieur.

Q.839 Et ce sont ces personnes-là elles-mêmes qui vous payaient?

A.839 Oui, monsieur.

Q.840 Dans le cas de Aubé, c'est Aubé lui-même qui vous a payé et non pas le soldat Houde?

A.840 Oui, c'est monsieur Aubé qui m'a payé.

Q.841 Il n'a pas été question de classement entre Houde et vous?

A.841 Non, monsieur; il ne connaît pasça.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.842 Avez-vous dit: "Je ne connais pas ça" ou "Il ne connait pas ça" ?

A.842 Monsieur Houde ne connaît pas ça; il n'y a pas eu d'entente du tout.

L'avocat de l'accusé poursuit son contre-interrogatoire:

Q.843 Il n'y a pas eu d'ententes entre vous et monsieur Houde?

(La Cour demande à l'avocat de l'accusé de se servir du mot "soldat" Houde et non de "monsieur", lequel s'applique aux officiers.)

Q.843a Vous dites qu'il n'a pas été question entre vous et le soldat Houde d'argent?

A.843 Non, monsieur, directement.

Q.844 A-t-il été question de montants?

A.844 Non, monsieur.

Q.845 N'est-il pas vrai que vous avez dit à Houde que $200.00 serait assez?

A.845 Jamais; il n'a jamais été question de quelque montant que ce soit entre Houde et moi. La seule circonstance qu'il m'a parlé d'argent, c'est lorsqu'il s'est agi d'examiner monsieur Aubé et qu'il m'a dit qu'il y aurait de l'argent à faire. C'est tout.

Q.846 Qu'est-ce que vous avez répondu là-dessus?

A.846 Je ne l'ai pas pris au sérieux, monsieur. Il ne m'a jamais offert d'argent.

Q.847 Il ne vous a jamais offert d'argent?

A.847 Directement, jamais.

Q.848 Et vous n'en avez jamais reçu de Houde?

A.848 Je n'en aurais jamais pris.

Q.849 Qu'est-ce que c'est que vous avez voulu dire alors quand vous avez répondu tout à l'heure: "Il n'y a rien à faire, on n'agit pas comme ça" ?

A.849 J'ai cru sincèrement de lui donner cet avis-là au cas où il aurait été tenté d'accepter. Je pense que je pouvais lui dire cela, ce n'était pas un mauvais conseil.

Q.850 Quand lui avez-vous dit cela?

A.850 Tout de suite après l'examen de monsieur Aubé, dans mon bureau. J'ai dit: "Il n'y a rien à faire; l'argent ne change rien à la catégorie; les catégories ça ne se changent pas comme ça."

Q.851 Mais s'il ne vous demandait pas de rien changer, pourquoi lui disiez-vous cela?

A.851 Au cas où il aurait été tenté de mal faire, monsieur.

Q.852 Mais il ne vous donnait pas l'impression qu'il avait tenté de mal faire?

A.852 Bien, la question était un peu douteuse.

Q.853 Il ne vous avait rien dit?

A.853 Comment, il ne m'avait rien dit?

Q.854 Il ne vous avait rien dit laissant supposer qu'il était tenté de mal faire?

A.854 Il m'avait dit qu'il y avait de l'argent à faire.

Q.855 Mais vous ne l'aviez pas pris au sérieux?

A.855 Non, monsieur.

Q.856 Vous n'aviez pas cru cela?

A.856 Non, monsieur.

Q.857 Alors, pourquoi lui disiez-vous qu'il n'y avait rien à faire?

A.857 Au cas où il aurait été tenté de mal faire. Ensuite, je lui donnais ce conseil-là.

Q.858 "Il n'y a rien à faire" - qu'est-ce que vous vouliez dire? Qu'est-ce que vous vouliez dire par là? Dans quel sens disiez-vous cela?

A.858 Il m'avait dit qu'il y aurait de l'argent à faire. J'ai compris qu'il voulait dire qu'il y aurait de l'argent à faire en changeant les classements.

Q.859 Mais Houde n'avait pas tenté de rien faire?

A.859 Parce que je vous ai dit avant, qu'il y aurait de l'argent à faire en le classant "E".

Q.860 Vous dites que Houde a dit qu'il y aurait de l'argent à faire si vous le classiez "E"?

A.860 Oui, il a dit qu'il y aurait de l'argent à faire s'il y avait moyen de le classer "E".

Q.861 Vous avez dit cela au début?

A.861 Oui, quelque chose comme cela.

Q.863 Vous êtes certain qu'il vous a dit qu'il y avait de l'argent à faire s'il y avait moyen de le classer "B"?

A.863 Oui, quelque chose comme ça. C'est cela que ça veut dire.

Q.864 Et vous n'avez pas accepté d'argent?

A.864 Jamais, monsieur. Je n'en ai jamais accepté et je n'en accepterai jamais.

Q.865 Et d'après vous, il a été classé "A"?

A.865 D'après moi, je le mettrais dans la classe "A".

Q.866 Vous ne l'avez pas examiné après comme membre du bureau des examinateurs?

A.866 Non, monsieur.

Q.867 Et en cette occasion-là, à part de ce que vous venez de dire, Houde ne vous a rien offert, Houde ne vous a rien donné?

A.867 Non, monsieur.

Q.868 A-t-il été question du docteur Gélinas à cette entrevue-là?

A.868 Ah, j'ai pu lui dire, monsieur, d'après moi, qu'il était classé "A"; seulement, comme je n'étais pas spécialiste des yeux, des oreilles, j'ai dit: "Il peut vous trouver quelque chose; il vous classera comme bon lui semblera."

Q.869 Qui vouliez-vous dire en disant "il vous classera"?

A.869 C'est le docteur Gélinas, parce que moi, je ne suis pas spécialiste des yeux, des oreilles. Un spécialiste peut trouver mieux que moi.

Q.870 Avez-vous suggéré qu'il soit examiné par le docteur Gélinas?

A.870 Non, monsieur; je ne suis pas spécialiste des yeux, des oreilles. L'armée a des spécialistes pour les yeux, les oreilles, et l'armée fait cela avec toute justice.

Q.871 Qui a amené le nom du docteur Gélinas dans la conversation?

A.871 C'est peut-être moi parce que je lui ai dit ceci: "Vous allez être examiné par un spécialiste, je crois que c'est le docteur Gélinas, il vous examinera."

Q.872 Le docteur Gélinas est-il un docteur de l'Armée?

A.872 Il est un médecin civil.

Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger le témoin de nouveau.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.873 Est-ce que ces choses-là sont arrivées en présence de l'accusé - les déclarations que vous venez de faire? Ces déclarations-là sont-elles arrivées en présence de l'accusé?

A.873 Bien, pas toutes.

L'avocat de l'accusé explique à la Cour qu'il a tenté de faire établir par le témoin des conversations entre l'accusé et lui-même.

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.874 Durant cette période-là, étiez-vous employé au bureau des examinateurs médicaux?

A.874 Oui, monsieur.

Q.875 Dans le bureau des examinateurs ou dans le bureau de revision?

A.875 Au bureau des examinateurs seulement.

Q.876 Etiez-vous employé 24 heures par jour, sept jours par semaine?

A.876 Oui, monsieur.

Q.877 "Full time"?

A.877 Oui. On m'avait dit qu'un officier de réserve avait le droit d'examiner et depuis la dernière circulaire j'en ai fait plusieurs. On m'avait dit qu'un officier de réserve avait droit de donner son opinion; c'est pour cela que je l'ai fait, mais je n'ai jamais accepté aucune cent et je n'en accepterai jamais.

Q.878 Quel était le montant de vos honoraires dans ces trois ou quatre cas?

A.878 $2.00.

Q.879 Et quel est le montant d'honoraires que le médecin charge généralement?

A.879 C'est cela. Je charge habituellement $2.00.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

SEIZIEME TEMOIN
A CHARGE

Yvan FRENETTE, domicilié à 37½, rue Crémazie, Québec, machiniste à l'emploi de la Dominion Machine Shop, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par le Procureur:

Q.880 Monsieur Frenette, avez-vous été vous présenter pour enrôlement au cours de l'automne dernier?

A.880 Oui, monsieur.

Q.881 Voulez-vous dire à la Cour à quelle date?

A.881 Je crois que c'est la deuxième semaine du mois d'octobre, je ne peux pas dire au juste.

Q.882 De quelle année?

A.882 C'était un lundi, 1942.

Q.883 Voulez-vous raconter à la Cour ce qui s'est passé à cette occasion-là?

A.883 Bien, voici: je suis allé au bureau de recrutement sur la rue St-Jean pour m'enrôler, je suis monté au troisième étage, et là il y a un militaire qui m'a reçu.

Q.884 Quel militaire?

A.884 Je crois que c'est monsieur Houde.

Q.885 Le voyez-vous ici, ce militaire-là?

A.885 Oui, il est là, il est assis à ma droite.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.886 Lequel? Il y en a trois d'assis à votre droite?

A.886 Celui qui est là, le blond.

Le Procureur poursuit son interrogatoire.

Q.887 Voulez-vous l'indiquer à la Cour?

A.887 Celui-là (indiquant l'accusé Houde).

Q.888 Puis?

A.888 En arrivant, il m'a dit: "Monsieur Frenette?" J'ai dit: "Oui." Alors, il m'a dit "Assis-toi là; attends quelques instants". Alors, le militaire Houde est parti; il est allé trouver un militaire; il a discuté quelques instants avec, et après ça il m'a dit: "déshabille-toi, va passer ton examen". Alors, j'ai été passer un examen. Puis, il y a un autre militaire qui est arrivé; puis il m'a dit...

Q.889 Laissez faire pour l'autre militaire, ce qu'il vous a dit.

A.889 (pas de réponse)

Interrogé par le Juge-Avocat:

Q.890 Est-ce que c'est en présence du soldat Houde?

A.890 Je sais, quand j'étais assis, qu'il m'a dit...

Q.891 Qui "il"?

A.891 Monsieur Houde a été trouver un autre militaire; là ils ont discuté.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.892 Ensemble, tous les deux?

A.892 Oui.

Q.893 Alors, vous et les deux autres étiez ensemble?

A.893 Non, j'attendais sur le banc, moi.

Q.894 Quand ils vous ont dit cela, vous étiez sur le banc? Alors est-ce que le soldat Houde et l'autre militaire étaient avec vous quand ils vous ont dit cela?

A.894 Non, c'est monsieur Houde qui me l'a dit.

Le Procureur poursuit son interrogatoire.

Q.895 Alors, qu'est-ce qu'il vous a dit, le soldat Houde?

A.895 Il m'a dit de me déshabiller; il a dit: "Déshabille-toi et va passer ton examen".

Q.896 Ensuite, qu'est-ce qui est arrivé?

A.896 J'ai passé mon examen. L'autre militaire, à qui monsieur Houde avait parlé, il m'a dit...

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la suite de la réponse comme étant du oui-dire.

L'objection est maintenue par la Cour.

Q.897 Est-ce que l'autre militaire avec qui monsieur Houde avait parlé était avec Houde dans ce temps-là?

A.897 Oui, monsieur.

Q.898 Alors, qu'est-ce qui s'est dit, là?

A.898 Alors, ils m'ont dit d'aller m'enrôler en bas, d'aller chercher les papiers pour m'enrôler.

Q.899 Aviez-vous passé votre examen médical dans ce temps-là?

A.899 Oui, monsieur.

Q.890 Vous n'étiez pas enrôlé encore?

A.890 Non, monsieur.

Q.891 Qu'est-ce qui est arrivé après ça?

A.891 Ensuite, j'ai descendu en bas; j'ai été m'enrôler; je suis monté en haut; j'ai donné le papier à l'autre militaire qui était avec monsieur Houde.

Q.892 En présence du soldat Houde?

A.892 Oui, monsieur.

Q.893 Ensuite?

A.893 Ensuite, ils m'ont dit de revenir le lendemain pour passer un autre examen. J'ai repassé à cette date et ensuite tous les jours durant une semaine, pour subir un autre examen, vu que je travaillais pour la guerre, à la Dominion Machine Shop. Le contremaître m'a demandé, me disant si je voulais aller travailler encore; j'ai dit "oui", "je vais y retourner lundi". Ils m'avaient dit d'aller me rapporter lundi pour passer un autre examen et c'est depuis ce temps-là que je n'y ai pas retourné.

Q.894 Lors de la première entrevue que vous avez eue avec Houde, de quoi a-t-il été question?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question, soumettant que la preuve que la poursuite veut faire d'après les réponses données par le témoin sur ce qui s'est passé, est une preuve qui n'est pas couverte par l'accusation.

Le Juge-Avocat demande au Procureur de poser la question sous une autre forme.

Le Procureur s'adresse à la Cour;

" Je demande; "Qu'est-ce qui s'est dit à la première entrevue avec Houde". "

L'avocat de l'accusé s'adresse à la Cour;

" Cela peut être, s'il a reçu de l'argent, une circonstance aggravante; seulement, s'il n'en a pas reçu, c'est une preuve que la Cour ne peut pas considérer."

La Cour demande au Procureur de poser la question sous une autre forme.

Le Procureur poursuit son interrogatoire;

Q.895 Que s'est-il passé lors de la première entrevue avec le soldat Houde?

A.895 Lors de la première entrevue avec monsieur Houde, il m'a reçu en haut, au troisième étage; c'est le commencement de tout. Il m'a dit, "Monsieur Frenette, asseyez-vous là." J'ai attendu. Il ne s'est rien passé, rien du tout.

Q.896 A-t-il été question de votre enrôlement?

A.896 Non, monsieur.

Q.897 Qui vous envoyait là, vous, vous enrôler?

L'avocat de l'accusé s'objecte à la question.

L'objection est renvoyée par la Cour.

A.897 C'est un type qui travaillait avec moi.

Q.898 Avez-vous eu affaire à Houde au sujet de votre enrôlement?

A.898 Du tout.

Q.899 Du tout?

A.899 Non, monsieur.

Q.900 Alors, vous ne le connaissez pas, Houde?

A.900 Non, monsieur; je l'ai connu simplement là-bas, de vue, mais pas de nom.

Q.901 Il n'a pas été question de rien entre vous et Houde?

A.901 Non, monsieur, du tout.

Q.902 Vous jurez cela?

A.902 Oui, monsieur.

L'avocat de l'accusé ne désire pas contre-interroger le témoin.

Interrogé par la Cour:

Q.903 Avez-vous eu plus d'une entrevue avec le soldat Houde?

A.903 Non, monsieur.

Q.904 Seulement une?

A.904 Seulement une.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer à la R. de P. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

Le Procureur n'a plus de témoins à appeler.

PREMIER TEMOIN
DE MORALITE
POUR LA DEFENSE

Major J. Louis Lacasse, Officier-commandant de la 5ème Compagnie Médicale, R.C.A.M.C., C.A., Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé;

Q.908 Major Lacasse, vous êtes commandant de la 5ème Compagnie du Corps Médical à Québec?

A.908 Oui, monsieur.

Q.909 L'accusé Houde a été sous vos ordres?

A.909 Oui, monsieur.

Q.910 Voulez-vous dire à la Cour quel est son caractère jusqu'à ce que cette cause commence?

A.910 Jusqu'à ce que cette cause commence, je dois dire que le soldat Houde nous avait donné pleine et entière satisfaction. Il s'était toujours montré dévoué, prêt à faire tout ce que nous pouvions lui demander, en n'importe quelle circonstance, et de plus, le fait de l'avoir placé en charge de cette salle, est une preuve que nous avions pleine et entière confiance en lui.

Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger le témoin contradictoirement.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

DEUXIEME TEMOIN
DE MORALITE
POUR LA DEFENSE

Lieutenant-Colonel Jules Mercier, D.M.O., M.D. No. 5, Québec, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé;

Q.911 Colonel, comme D.M.O. à Québec, vous avez connu le soldat Houde?

A.911 Oui, monsieur.

Q.912 Il a fait du service sous votre juridiction?

A.912 Oui, monsieur.

Q.913 Voulez-vous dire à la Cour de quelle façon le soldat Houde jusqu'à ce que cette cause commence, remplissait ses devoirs?

A.913 Jusqu'à cette cause, le soldat Houde a rempli ses devoirs à notre entière satisfaction.

Q.914 Qu'avez-vous à dire au sujet de son caractère jusqu'à cette cause-ci?

A.914 Il avait un bon caractère. Nous n'avons jamais porté aucune accusation contre lui. Il a fait très bien ce qu'on lui demandait de faire.

Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger le témoin contradictoirement.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

TROISIEME TEMOIN DE MORALITE POUR LA DEFENSE.

Sergent d'état-major J.E.E. DesRosiers, de la Gendarmerie Royale du Canada, ayant dûment prêté serment, est interrogé par l'avocat de l'accusé.

Q.915 Sergent-major, vous faites partie de la Gendarmerie Royale du Canada, n'est-ce-pas?

A.915 Oui, monsieur.

Q.916 Je comprends que comme tel, vous avez été appelé à faire des enquêtes au sujet de certaines irrégularités qui se seraient commises au bureau du recrutement et dans les bureaux médicaux à Québec?

A.916 Oui, monsieur.

Q.917 Avez-vous eu, au cours de votre enquête, l'occasion de voir le soldat Houde?

A.917 Oui, monsieur.

Q.918 Voulez-vous dire de quelle façon le soldat Houde a aidé ou a empêché la justice ou les renseignements de parvenir à vous?

A.918 Le soldat Houde a fait tout son possible pour m'aider à l'investigation.

Le Procureur ne désire pas interroger le témoin contradictoirement.

De l'avis de la Cour et du Juge-Avocat, il n'est pas nécessaire de se conformer au C.P.M. 83(B).

Le témoin se retire.

Le Procureur prononce un réquisitoire.

OPENING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR
in the case of
E/25868, Pte. Léopold HOUDE,
No. 5 Coy., R.C.A.M.C., C.A.

Monsieur le Président, Messieurs les Membres du Tribunal,-

Dans le cas de l'accusé Houde, la Poursuite se propose de mettre devant cette Cour les faits suivants,- En premier lieu, les devoirs et les fonctions de l'accusé alors qu'il travaillait pour le D.M.O. à Québec. Ensuite, pour prouver la première accusation, savoir que l'accusé a reçu différents montants d'argent de différentes personnes au sujet des examens médicaux en rapport avec ses devoirs militaires.

La Poursuite entend prouver que Houde, en différentes circonstances, a reçu de candidats à l'examen médical, des montants d'argent variant de $5.00 à $800.00. Pour faire cette preuve, la Poursuite entendra les candidats qui ont payé ces différents montants.

Pour ce qui regarde la deuxième accusation, savoir qu'il a donné à des membres du personnel du D.M.O. à Québec, différents montants d'argent venant de candidats desquels il avait déjà reçu une récompense, la Poursuite fera entendre les personnes mêmes qui ont reçu ces différentes sommes d'argent.

La Poursuite ne croit pas qu'il soit nécessaire d'établir devant cette Cour que les examens médicaux dans l'Armée se font gratuitement et que pour être classé dans la catégorie "E", il n'est nullement nécessaire de verser des pots de vin à qui que ce soit. La Cour est au courant de ces choses et sait que le plus fortuné comme le plus pauvre a le droit à son licenciement de l'Armée s'il est inapte au service et cela sans qu'il soit nécessaire de payer quoi que ce soit à qui que ce soit. Ce sont là les faits que la Poursuite entend mettre en preuve devant ce Tribunal.

Deposition "H"
No 9 C.M.

QUEBEC, P.Q., le 17 octobre. 1942.

Je soussigné E-25868 Private Léopold HOUDE (A-Sgt.) refuse de répondre aux questions du Lieutenant-Colonel Jules MERCIER, D.M.O.- M.D., No.5 après la mise en garde. Cependant j'avoue avoir donné au capitaine G.A. GRONDIN, No.5 Company R.C.A.M.C.(4) C.A., la somme de vingt piastres ($20.00) au capitaine GRONDIN. Je pense qu'il a donné sur ce montant au Major C.E. GUIMONT, No.5 Company R.C.A.M.C.(4) C.A., qui a dit:- "Il a donné seulement trente piastres($30.00). J'admets avoir reçu deux cents à deux cents cinquante piastres($200.00 à $250.00) depuis, et pendant le courant de l'été. L'argent provient d'individus qui étaient réellement et physiquement inaptes au service d'après moi. Ils auraient eu quand même leur "discharge". Les types venaient me voir et je les dirigeais au Sergent Georges FORTIN. J'ai reçu les trentes piastres($30.00) d'un type de Baie Comeau. Quand j'ai donné au Sergent FORTIN la somme de quarante à quarante cinq piastres($40.00 à $45.00). J'avais reçu la somme de soixante pu soixante cinq piastres($60.00 ou $65.00). Quand j'ai donné au Capitaine G.A. GRONDIN R.C.A.M.C.(4)C.A., la somme de vingt piastres($20.00) sur le trente piastres($30.00) reçu, il m'a dit de lui remettre à l'après-midi. J'ai reçu aujourd'hui le 17 octobre, 1942 la somme de cinq piastres($5.00) d'un nommé RAYMOND par l'entremise d'un nommé SIMARD qui l'accompagnait. J'ai demandé deux(2) ou trois(3) fois à des officiers médicaux si un tel individu allait être classé "A" ou "E". Ils m'ont toujours dit qu'ils ne pouvaient pas car le D.M.O., avait donné des ordres sévères a cet effet. En plus il y avait le caporal HAMEL qui avait recu vingt-cinq piastres($25.00) il y a trois(3) ou quatre(4) semaines. J'ai reçu il y a deux(2) ou trois(3) jours une bouteille de "Scotch" d'un nommé TRUDEL de la rue Crémazie je crois.

-2-(suite)

J'ai offert de l'argent au Major GIRARD, mais ce dernier m'a déclaré que le "gars" serait classé "A". Le major GIRARDn 'a pas voulu se faire acheter.

REQUISITOIRE DU PROCUREUR

Qu'il plaise à la Cour.

L'accusé devant cette Cour avait deux accusations contre lui. La première, d'avoir, entre le 1er juin 1942 et le 17 octobre 1942, reçu de diverses personnes différents montants d'argent alors qu'il était employé chez le D.M.O; et la deuxième, d'avoir distribué à des membres du personnel du D.M.O. des montants d'argent qu'il avait reçus de diverses personnes mentionnées dans la première accusation.

Les deux accusations sont sous la section 40 de l'Acte de l'Armée, conduites au préjudice du bon ordre et de la discipline militaire.

La poursuite a fait entendre plusieurs témoins. Le premier témoin est monsieur Adélard Aubé qui est venu raconter à la Cour dans quelles circonstances il avait rencontré l'accusé et le fait qu'il avait discuté avec l'accusé qu'il voulait, pour employer ses termes, une "discharge" pour son fils "Joe"; le fait que l'accusé lui ait demandé d'envoyer son fils "Joe" le rencontrer et enfin, après l'examen médical de monsieur Aubé fils, que l'accusé lui avait demandé la somme de $800.00, montant que monsieur Aubé a payé à l'accusé.

Fait à noter, c'est que l'accusé, lorsqu'il a fait la demande de ce montant a rappelé à monsieur Aubé qu'il ne voulait pas de chèque, qu'il voulait que ce soit en billets de banque, en comptant.

Pour obtenir l'argent, et la somme assez considérable qu'il a demandée, Houde a prétendu que cela coûtait cher parce qu'il y en avait plusieurs à graisser.

Le fils de monsieur Aubé a témoigné lui aussi. Il a fait part à la Cour qu'il a rencontré Houde, que Houde l'a suivi dans son examen. Et par le témoignage du major Girard, nous voyons que Houde l'a même attiré, l'a même amené plus tard chez le Major Girard subir un examen au préalable, avant qu'il soit présenté devant le "board".

Peu importe les moyens que Houde a employés, le fait brutal c'est que Houde aurait dit qu'il était à l'emploi du D.M.O., et qu'il a reçu à cette occasion-là la somme de $800.00.

Un autre témoin, André Lapointe, est venu témoigner à la Cour pour nous dire qu'il avait rencontré Houde chez le beau-père de Houde. Il avait été question que Lapointe voulait de l'ouvrage aux Trois-Rivières et qu'il a été question d'un licenciement de l'Armée. Houde l'a dirigé; Lapointe s'est présenté au bureau médical, a vu Houde, et après avoir vu Houde, il a passé son examen médical, et là il a laissé ce qu'il a appelé un pourboire de $100.00.

La Cour se rappelera d'avoir longuement examiné le témoin sur le pourquoi d'un pourboire aussi considérable. Et le témoin, tout en admettant qu'une partie avait pu servir pour les services rendus par Houde en d'autres occasions, entr'autres, achat de marchandises chez un nommé Smith; l'autre partie, peu importe la valeur, le montant - c'était pour les services rendus à l'occasion de son enrôlement.

REQUISITOIRE DU PROCUREUR (suite)

Un autre témoin, un nommé Jean Ferrier, de Deschaillons, se rappelle qu'il était du dépôt du district militaire No.5, qu'il est allé au bureau médical, et là, sans connaître Houde, Houde l'interpelle et lui dit qu'il ne peut pas, avec sa stature faire un militaire; il lui dit qu'il n'est pas de la grandeur physique pour faire un soldat; il a ajouté, c'est-à-dire le témoin ajoute: "Il m'a demandé si j'aimerais à avoir ma 'discharge' en me disant que cela coûterait quelque chose". Houde suit Ferrier. Ferrier passe des examens sans s'enrôler, alors qu'il est classé...alors plutôt, parce que ce n'est pas en preuve, après son examen médical régulier fait au bureau de recrutement, il signe ses formules, monte de nouveau chez le D.M.O., rencontre Houde qui est là. L'entrevue dans la chambre de toilette avec Houde a lieu et il remet à Houde $35.00 ou $45.00.

Le même procédé a été suivi dans le cas d'un nommé Léopold Bédard qui lui a versé à Houde, une somme de $10.00.

Un témoin, Gérard Simard, est venu nous dire qu'à l'occasion de l'examen d'un nommé Raymond, il a donné à Houde $5.00, en lui disant, "Ca, c'est pour te récompenser pour ton trouble".

Les autres témoins, Trudel, Beaudet, sont venus eux aussi, témoigner devant cette Cour qu'à l'occasion de leur examen médical, ils ont rencontré Houde, et que à la suite de leur examen médical,le premier, Trudel, lui a versé la somme de $25.00, et le deuxième, Beaudet, lui a versé la somme de $20.00.

Enfin, Roland Blouin, qui est venu dire qu'il s'est présenté au bureau médical et que là Houde l'a interviewé pour voir s'il consentirait à donner quelque chose s'il avait sa "discharge".

Je soumets que tous ces actes sont des actes au préjudice du bon ordre et de la discipline militaire et sont contraires au K. R. (Can.), sections 421 et 426, et que si telles choses étaient tolérées dans l'Armée, il n'y aurait pas moyen de maintenir le bon ordre et la discipline.

Sur la deuxième accusation, la poursuite a déposé devant cette Cour les aveux écrits de l'accusé, et en plus a fait entendre deux témoins qui sont venus raconter à la Cour les déclarations faites le 17 octobre 1942 au Colonel Mercier et au Major Lacasse.

Dans ces déclarations, l'accusé confirme avoir donné au Capitaine Grondin un montant de $20.00, au sergent Fortin, un montant de $40.00 à $45.00, et après avoir reçu lui-même en diverses occasions, de candidats qui se présentaient à l'enrôlement, la somme de $200.00 à $250.00.

REQUISITOIRE DU PROCUREUR (fin)

La poursuite a mis devant cette Cour les faits tels qu'elle les connaissait. Malheureusement nous avons pris quelque temps de la Cour pour trois témoins sur l'information que ces gens avaient des faits à raconter. Je le regrette, mais je croyais de mon devoir de mettre devant la Cour toute la preuve que je connaissais, tant favorable à l'accusé que défavorable.

Je crois qu'avec la preuve faite par la poursuite, les actes d'accusation portés contre Houde ont été prouvés, et je laisse à la Cour le soin d'étudier ces différents faits et de rendre le verdict qu'elle se croit justifiée de rendre dans cette cause.

"J"

PLAIDOIRIE DE CLOTURE DE L'AVOCAT DE L'ACCUSE

Qu'il plaise à la Cour.

Il est de mon devoir, pour exécuter le mandat que j'ai accepté, de retenir encore quelques instants l'attention de la Cour et de réclamer l'indulgence du Tribunal.

Je n'ai d'ailleurs pas l'intention d'en abuser. Ce que je veux faire, c'est de tenter de ramener la preuve faite dans cette cause aux bornes réels qu'elle doit avoir, laissant entièrement à la Cour le soin de décider s'il y a là une irrégularité qui rencontre ou plutôt qui va à l'encontre des prescriptions de la loi militaire.

Je n'ai évidemment pas besoin de rappeler au Tribunal les articles 67, 68 et 69 du Chapitre VI, que l'on trouve à la page 58 du Manuel de Droit Militaire.

Une première considération s'impose. L'accusé est devant vous sous l'accusation d'avoir accepté de l'argent dans l'exécution de ses devoirs. Mais je crois devoir attirer l'attention de la Cour sur ce fait que dans cette cause, il n'y a pas eu de corruption d'officiers-médicaux, contrairement peut-être à ce à quoi on pouvait s'attendre. Il n'y a pas de preuve devant vous que des officiers médicaux ont donné des classements par faveur. Les classements ont été faits régulièrement, et je crois que ceci doit être dit au nom de la défense.

Il y a des cadeaux qui ont été donnés dans quelques circonstances, et pourquoi? Je soumets que ces circonstances-là sont des circonstances que la Cour doit prendre en considération. Il y a un premier fait qui, évidemment, frappe par le montant, c'est le cas de Aubé.

Mon savant ami dit; Aubé rapporte que Houde lui a dit; "Ca va coûter cher parce qu'il y a bien du monde à graisser". Je suis convaincu que la Cour ne peut pas prendre cela en considération, parce quesi la Cour prenait cela en considération et avait cru véritablement que Aubé avait payé Houde pour graisser quelqu'un, la Cour aurait accordé à Aubé le privilège du silence. Il n'y a pas de doute là-dessus.

Si la Cour n'a pas accordé à Aubé le privilège du silence, c'est parce que la Cour était convaincue que Aubé donnait de l'argent sans savoir et sans avoir l'intention d'acheter qui que ce soit. Le montant frappe. Il faut prendre également les circonstances.

Aubé nous le dit lui-même. C'est un ami de la famille de Houde. Il a aidé son père; il a aidé son frère et il l'a aidé lui-même. Et lorsque le fils de Aubé a été appelé, il a communiqué avec Houde lui-même. Ce n'est pas Houde qui est allé le chercher, c'est lui qui est allé le rencontrer parce qu'il l'avait déjà aidé.

Aubé, qu'il plaise à la Cour, est un homme qui a été... il n'y a pas de preuve que Aubé a été régulièrement refusé de l'Armée. Aubé a été régulièrement classé. Vous n'avez pas de preuve contraire. Et alors, pour le piloter, pour l'aider, eh bien, évidemment, il a donné un fort montant. Il ne l'aurait pas donné à n'importe qui; il l'a donné pourquoi? Parce qu'il connaissait Houde, parce qu'il l'avait déjà aidé, à cause des relations de famille et d'amitié qu'il y avait avec Houde et non pas tant à cause des relations que Houde avait au point de vue de l'examen militaire.

PLAIDOIRIE DE CLOTURE DE L'AVOCAT DE L'ACCUSE (suite)

Et les autres montants qui ont été donnés? Vous n'avez pas de preuve qu'il y avait une entente de faite entre les candidats et Houde. Ce que Houde a fait, c'est qu'il a reçu des pourboires, des 'tips', des cadeaux, et ceci est un acte que je laisse, évidemment, entièrement à votre discrétion. Mais je tiens, par exemple, à les ramener à leur signification exacte. Houde n'a pas promis à un tel: vous serez exempté si vous me donnez tant. Houde n'a pas dit: si vous êtes classé "E", vous me donnerez tant; et si vous êtes classé "A", vous ne me donnerez rien. Et la preuve révèle qu'en aucune occasion, Houde serait intervenu dans aucun examen médical, et ceci doit être aussi considéré.

Il n'y a pas de preuve que les examens médicaux aient été influencés en quoi que ce soit par les cadeaux que Houde recevait, et jusqu'à présent, il est en preuve devant cette Cour que les examens médicaux ont été faits régulièrement. Il n'y a pas de preuve qu'il y a eu des pourparlers entre les médecins et Houde. Par conséquent, il reste que, peut-être contrairement aux ordres, il a reçu des cadeaux, des cadeaux d'amis, des cadeaux, la plupart du temps, des gens qu'il connaissait, avec qui il était lié, de liens qui ne venaient pas de ses fonctions militaires, et je soumets que ceci doit être pris en considération par la Cour en examinant les faits sur le premier chef.

Sur le deuxième chef. Vous n'avez sur le deuxième chef que la confession. Vous n'avez pas d'autre chose que cela, que la confession ou la déclaration faite par Houde. Par conséquent, vous devez la prendre et non pas aller au-delà.

En autant que le docteur Grondin est concerné, vous avez la preuve que Houde a donné $20.00 au docteur Grondin. Eh bien, je soumets respectueusement que, en vertu de tous les articles que mon confrère pourra citer, si un soldat dit: "J'ai donné $20.00 à un officier", je soumets respectueusement que ce n'est pas une offense. Il peut peut-être dire oui, mais si j'ai accepté $20.00... mais le fait de remettre $20.00 de main à main, d'un soldat à un officier, ce n'est pas une offense. Cela peut être une commission qu'il fait. Vous n'avez pas, étudiant les faits avec les prescriptions que la loi militaire vous donne, à supposer autre chose que ce qu'il y a là dans la confession, quand il n'y a pas d'autre chose que la confession.

Il dit: "j'ai donné $20.00 au docteur Grondin et j'ai donné $35.00 à $45.00 au sergent Fortin". Mais il n'y a pas de preuve que le docteur Grondin ait examiné aucune des recrues qui sont venues ici. Il n'y a pas de preuve que le docteur Grondin ait été en aucune façon influencé par le fait qu'il a reçu $20.00. Et par conséquent, s'il a donné $20.00, il ne l'a pas donné, suivant l'accusation "dans l'exécution de ses devoirs". Et s'il ne l'a pas donné dans l'exécution de ses devoirs, je dis que l'accusation n'est pas prouvée, et que pour la prouver, pour le trouver coupable en vertu de la confession, il faut sortir des cadres de laconfession; il faut ajouter de l'intention et des faits qui n'y sont pas. Je soumets, sur le deuxième chef, qu'il n'y a aucune preuve quelconque.

PLAIDOIRIE DE CLOTURE DE L'AVOCAT DE L'ACCUSE (fin)

Je laisse la cause de l'accusé entre vos mains, sachant que vous saurez l'apprécier et l'apprécier suivant les règles et les principes qui doivent être la base même de la loi militaire.

Et en terminant, j'attire l'attention de la Cour sur le fait que la preuve faite par la plupart des témoins en cette cause est une preuve faite par des complices, des complices qui ne peuvent pas se corroborer les uns les autres.

Si Houde a commis une offense, il est complice, non pas seulement, comme on l'a dit dans une cause précédente - s'il y a eu offense de commise, toutes les personnes qui ont reçu de l'argent sont des complices. Je soumets qu'il est parfaitement légal de faire condamner sur des témoignages de complices non corroborés, mais qu'il est dangereux de le faire, et je suis certain que la Cour s'éloignera de ce danger.

DIRECTIVES DU JUGE-AVOCAT

" La grande similitude qui existe entre la cause actuelle et la cause antérieure, celle du soldat Louis-Phillipe Hamel, me dispense de faire à la Cour un résumé de la preuve dans cette cause-ci, laquelle est claire, et sur laquelle il y a peu de contestation de part et d'autre, en autant qu'il s'agit de la poursuite et de la défense.

" Cela me dispense également d'élaborer longuement les principes de droit qui doivent diriger la Cour dans ses délibérations.

" Il est de mon devoir, et je le fais immédiatement, d'aviser la Cour que c'est son droit de trouver un accusé coupable sur le témoignage d'un complice seulement, et sans corroboration, mais qu'il est dangereux de le faire, et que la Cour doit, en toute cause, s'assurer que ces témoignages de complices sont bien l'expression de la vérité.

" Je dois également aviser la Cour et l'avertir qu'elle doit donner le bénéfice du doute à l'accusé, bénéfice d'un doute raisonnable.

" Comme dans la cause du soldat Hamel, nous sommes en présence de deux chefs d'accusation, les particularités desquelles sont similaires à la cause antérieure.

" La Cour devra se demander, en chaque cas, si les différents éléments mentionnés dans les "particulars of the charge" - dans les particularités de l'offense, ont été prouvés sans l'ombre d'un doute raisonnable. Circonstances d'endroit; circonstances de temps; le fait qu'un accusé aurait ou n'aurait pas reçu diverses sommes d'argent; le fait que l'accusé aurait ou n'aurait pas été employé relativement à des examens médicaux militaires; le fait que ces argents, s'il y en a eu de reçus par l'accusé, l'auraient été relativement à des examens militaires médicaux des personnes qui les ont payés; et que ces argents auraient été payés ou non à l'accusé relativement alors qu'il était dans l'exécution de ses devoirs militaires.

" Quant au second chef d'accusation, en plus des détails de lieu et de temps, la Cour aura à se poser la question suivante, à savoir: si elle est satisfaite que la preuve établit que l'accusé a distribué des sommes d'argent mentionnées dans le premier chef d'accusation. Et, si tel est le cas, si tel argent a été distribué à des personnes faisant partie du personnel médical du District Militaire No. 5.

" Elle devra également se poser la question suivante; "Est-ce que l'accusé a ou aurait distribué ces montants d'argent alors qu'il était employé relativement à des examens médicaux militaires?"

" Si la Cour en venait à la conclusion que tous ces éléments ne sont pas établis à la satisfaction de la Cour, si l'un quelconque de ces éléments n'a pas été établi à la satisfaction de la Cour, le devoir du Tribunal sera d'acquitter l'accusé sur l'un ou l'autre des chefs d'accusation.

DIRECTIVES DU JUGE-AVOCAT (fin)

" Si le Tribunal en vient à la conclusion que tous ces éléments sont établis, il devra, dans chaque cas, se poser la question suivante: "Est-ce que ces faits constituent l'offense reprochée à l'accusé, laquelle offense est récitée comme étant d'avoir fait preuve d'une conduite préjudiciable au bon ordre et à la discipline de l'Armée?"

" En d'autres termes, la Cour devra se poser la question suivante: "Est-ce que c'est contraire au bon ordre et à la discipline militaire pour un sergent, un sous-officier en charge d'un bureau d'examens militaires médicaux de recevoir diverses sommes d'argent dans les circonstances établies par la preuve, et d'en distribuer dans les circonstances qui ont été également prouvées?"

" Sur la question de réception de certains montants, j'attire l'attention des membres de la Cour, sur l'élément de clandestinité qui pourrait avoir une certaine portée quant à l'intention de l'accusé. Je réfère particulièrement au cas où, d'après la preuve faite, l'accusé se serait retiré dans une des salles de toilette, avec un des témoins, pour y recevoir certains montants. Cette preuve de clandestinité peut être prise en considération pour établir une intention, si la Cour croit qu'il y a lieu d'entrer dans le domaine de l'intention de l'accusé."

Preskam

La Cour décide, après délibérations, de se prévaloir du pouvoir discrétionnaire qui lui est donné sous la règle de procédure No. 71, paragraphe "D", et annonce que la sentence du présent accusé sera prise en considération en même temps que celle des autres accusés, s'il y en a d'autres, et non immédiatement.
