TENTH YEAR. WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 16, 1889. PRICE ONE CENT.

A WITNESS' DEATH-THREAT

MRS. NORTON'S SENSATIONAL EVIDENCE YESTERDAY.

Second Day of the Hicks Poisoning Case—The Case for the Prosecution Not Concluded—Indifferent Demeanor of the Aunt and Nephew.

The Hicks murder trial was continued yesterday morning. The evidence for the prosecution took up the whole day, but was of an unimportant nature until Mrs. Norton was called in the afternoon, when the strongest evidence against the prisoners so far came out.

The first witness called was Constable Hodge. He testified that he had traced Mrs. White on Aug. 3 to a house in Alice-street. He did not know whether it was a disreputable house or not. Quite a sensation was caused when the prosecuting attorney asked witness if he had seen George White, the husband of Mrs. White, go into the room where the witnesses were on Monday. Witness answered that he had seen him in the room four times. White was called into the box, but swore he had only gone in to give his daughter some money, and had had no intercourse with the witnesses.

Drs. Norman Allen and Caleb E. Martin, who attended James W. Hicks the night before his death, testified that in their opinion, from the appearance and sickness of deceased, he had died from arsenical poisoning.

Mr. Frederick W. Babington, a Government analyst, and Prof. Ellis testified that they had examined the stomach of deceased and had found arsenic in large quantities.

Little Frank Norton, who lives next door to Mrs. White at Little York, was called, and described how Mrs. White had come into his mother's house and got up on a chair in the pantry at a shelf on which was a box of "Rough on Rats."

Dr. Annie Pickering testified that Mrs. White purchased a box of "Rough on Rats" at their drug-store, corner of Broadview-avenue and Queen-street, on Aug. 5.

The next witness called was Mrs. Mary Norton, who read an anonymous letter at the time of the inquest threatening that she would be shot if she told all she knew. According to her evidence yesterday, she certainly did keep back some important evidence. The prisoners watched her attentively, but betrayed no signs of feeling when she told her story.

She testified: I know Mrs. White. She lived next door to my house. We were on excellent terms. Prisoner, Mrs. White, had complained of mice and rats and I told her I had some "Rough on Rats" on the cupboard. And she could have some if she wished. She did not reply to this. This was two weeks before the tragedy. I saw Mrs. White the morning of the poisoning about 11 o'clock. She had on a pink striped basque. (Here witness identified the basque produced.) I also saw her early next morning. She left that day on the noon train. She said she was going to market. She returned about 4.20 o'clock in the afternoon. She had that basket (produced by court). I looked at the box of "Rough on Rats" the morning Arthur Hicks was arrested. Fully one-third of the powder was missing. I saw Mrs. White on the Saturday before the poisoning. She said two men had been shadowing her and seemed angry and nervous. She said one of them was P. C. Hodge. Sometimes Mrs. White appeared a little angry at her brother, once because of a letter about deceased marrying Miss Hamilton. She said at that time, "I will never give my consent. Sooner than see him marry her I would put a bullet through Jessie Hamilton." Another time Mrs. White had told her that deceased had been keeping Mr. White's books and had been cheating him. She was very angry. I learned of deceased's death on the Wednesday morning following from Mrs. White. I asked her what killed him and she said: "He has been poisoned with arsenic. They blamed it on the union men. They set fire to the buildings twice this summer." I saw Arthur Hicks on the Tuesday evening of the poisoning. He came in to my yard to the swing. I saw him afterwards in the evening. I was standing at the back door that night about 7 o'clock. In the other yard I heard Arthur Hicks talking. We were very close together, he on the one side of the fence and I on the other. I heard him say: "Cousin Sarah, that stuff I put in Uncle's tea has made him awful sick. They took him home in a hack and sent for a doctor. I don't think he's going to get well. But they don't think it's 'Rough on Rats,' they think it's blue vitriol."

The girl shortly after came running in and told me to come in. I asked her if it was true that her brother had been poisoned. She answered "Yes, but he did it himself. He is in the habit of taking laudanum. I said, "Perhaps he will get well." She replied, "No, for he isn't as strong as I am." When Arthur spoke in the yard I saw Mrs. White go toward him and I got the idea that she was trying to hush him up.

Mr. Holmes made a strong and clever attempt to break down the evidence of the witness and also to bring out testimony which would prove an alibi. The Crown Attorney afterwards asked and received permission to produce the threatening letter mentioned before. It reads as follows:

Tell one word that will go against that woman to-morrow night and you will get a bullet sent through your heart.

Witness also testified that another similar letter had been left in her washtub in the yard.

As the prisoners left the court-room at 6 o'clock Mrs. White remarked, "Her (Mrs. Norton's) evidence will get all broke up yet." The boy laughed and replied that he didn't care. What he wanted was his supper.

The case will be resumed to-day.

A DAY OF WEDDINGS.

The Nuptial Knot at Holy Trinity and Jarvis-street Baptist Churches.

In Holy Trinity Church yesterday afternoon Miss Madge Ince, daughter of Mr. Wm. Ince, and Mr. Archibald D. Langmuir, second son of Mr. J. W. Langmuir, manager of the Toronto General Trusts Co., were united in marriage. At 1 o'clock the bridal party moved up the aisle to the strains of the large organ; but long before a large and fashionable audience had taken possession and were whiling away the time by admiring the pretty decorations of flowers.

The bride was attired in a lovely costume of silver brocade and crepe du chene, with veil and orange blossoms. The bridesmaids, Miss Jessie Rowand of Quebec, Miss Maude Langmuir, sister of the groom, and Miss McArthur, all wore costumes of white silk, with pink sashes and white hats, and carried beautiful bouquets of pink roses. The groomsmen were Mr. Arthur Scott, Mr. Jack Langmuir and Mr. James Ince.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. John Pearson, rector of Holy Trinity, assisted by Rev. Dr. Bethune, headmaster of Trinity College School, Port Hope. The party then adjourned to "The Patches," the residence of the bride's father, in Grosvenor-street, where a tasty lunch was served. The wedded couple left in the evening for a trip in the east.

Brown—Abbott.

A big social event yesterday was the wedding of Mr. Richard Score Brown of Brown Bros. and Miss Jennie Eyre Abbott at Jarvis-street Baptist Church at 7.30 p.m. Rev. Dr. Thomas conducted the ceremony. There was a large number of spectators including a large representation of the fair sex. The bridesmaids were Miss Georgina Abbott and Misses Emily and Clara Brown, sisters of the groom. Mr. T. Albert Brown was best man. After the ceremony the guests proceeded to the house of the bride's parents, St. Patrick-street, and the newly married couple left for Detroit. The presents, a roomful in number, were both handsome and varied.

A Steamer Ashore.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 15.—The Clyde steamer Pioneer, from New York to Wilmington, N.C., with an assorted cargo, is reported ashore t Ocracoke Inlet, twenty miles south of Hatteras.

NOT BONUS HUNTERS.

The Projectorate's Secretary Talks—Ambitious City Notes.

HAMILTON, Oct. 15.—Secretary Miller, F. C. Helm and L. D. Latham of the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Railway were seen by a reporter this morning. "You can say," said Secretary Miller, "that we don't want the city to give us a cent of money until the road is finished. If the city will agree to give us a bonus we will buy the right of way through the city ourselves, but we don't ask the city to pay over any money until the railway is completed. I don't think that looks as if we were bonus hunters. It is certainly an evidence that we have a good financial backing behind us." From an inspection of the plans it appears that the railway from Toronto to Hamilton runs along the lake shore, and through the heart of the towns of Burlington, Oakville, Port Credit, etc. At Hamilton the line leaves here along the old N. & N. W. Railway, and runs in almost a direct line to Welland, opening up a tract of country which has hitherto been virtually without railway accommodation. From Welland there are two routes to Buffalo—one direct and the other via the Falls.

J. D. Bissonnette, the recently dismissed headmaster of the Dundas High School, has been sued by A. B. Cook, one of the teachers, for $3000 damages for slander, the allegation being that Bissonnette circulated a report "that Cook stank and that he was an infidel."

Judge Sinclair not being able to attend, the investigation of the Hawkins shooting case by the police commissioners was adjourned until Friday.

Wilson D. Peirce, one of the best known and most popular commercial travelers in Canada, died yesterday afternoon after a long illness, at the residence of his brother-in-law, James Walker, 105 Hunter-street west. The deceased was the youngest son of the late William Pierce, C.E., and was 35 years of age.

Serious Charge Against a Teacher.

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 15.—John Thomas Blondin, a school teacher in the Allan settlement, township of Madoc, was charged before A. F. Wood, J. P., with committing a criminal assault upon Lillie May Rollins of the same township. The prisoner was committed for trial and was sent to the County jail here yesterday in charge of Constable Huff. The victim is about 14 years of age. She was a pupil of the school taught by Mr. Blondin. The accused is 21 years of age, a son of Mr. John Blondin of Shannonville, who is a highly respectable resident of that village. He has been engaged for about 3 years in teaching school in the Allan settlement. The young man has hitherto borne an excellent character, nothing whatever having before been brought against him. He denies the charge.

Threshers Poisoned by Weeds.

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 15.—A remarkable case of poisoning comes from the fourth concession of Sidney. As is customary among the farming community, a number of the neighbors had assembled at the barns of Charle Rose for the purpose of helping him with the year's threshing. After the work was done several of the threshers were taken violently ill, and becoming no better were forced to take to their beds. When a doctor was finally summoned he pronounced it a bad case of poisoning as a result of inhaling dust of poisonous weeds which grow in abundance in that section. With medical treatment the men rallied and are now out of danger.

Victims of New York Thugs.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Edward H. Woodridge, a Western House Inspector, and Thomas Carey, a wealthy saloon keeper of Middleton, Conn., were found in the streets a few mornings ago badly injured and have since died. The police are of opinion that both were handcuffed and robbed. Inspector Byrnes has placed four skilful detectives on the track of the thugs.

Boering's Rope of Sand.

DULUTH, Oct. 15.—William Boering, claiming to be the owner of certain lots through which the Duluth ship canal was cut, to-day attempted to string a rope across the canal to prevent the passage of shipping. The rope was stretched to test title in the United States courts. It was stretched three times. It was cut once by the police, broke once by a steamer and once by a small vessel. No further attempts were made.

U. S. Harbor Improvements.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—General Casey, chief of engineers, in his annual estimates submitted to the Secretary of War recommends among others for appropriations for continuing work on improvements under his charge during the year ending June 30, 1891: Buffalo harbor $400,000, Tonawanda harbor and Niagara River $100,000.

East Elgin Reform Convention.

AYLMER, Oct. 15.—At the convention of the Reformers of East Elgin held here to-day to select a candidate for the Ontario Assembly in the coming elections Mr. J. C. Dance, the present member, was selected. Addresses were made by Mr. Dance and Dr. J. H. Wilson, M.P.

Upset in the East River.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The schooner Laura, laden with iron, was upset in the East River this morning. William Jackson, James Hughes and Alexander Christie of the crew are supposed to have been drowned.

A Whitby Farmer's Loss.

WHITBY, Oct. 15.—Early this morning a barn belonging to Henry Sonley, 4th concession of Whitby, was burnt together with its contents consisting of a threshing machine, 700 bushels of oats, etc. Loss about $900.

Pauncefote Will See Blaine.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Minister, who has returned to this city, said this evening that he expected within two or three weeks to call upon Secretary Blaine when he would broach the Canadian fisheries and the Behring Sea seal question which were in dispute between the two countries.

The Course of True Love, Etc.

BERRIEN SPRING, Mich., Oct. 15.—Horace Lebring, the youth who tried to poison the members of his family including his mother and father and thus come to possession of a paltry estate which would enable him to get married, was to-day sentenced to 25 years in prison.

The British Beer Syndicate.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 15.—The agent of the English syndicate to-day completed the purchase of Maus', Schmidt's and Lieber's breweries here. Their annual output is 125,000 barrels and it is understood the price paid for the three was $2,000,000.

A Texas Failure.

WACO, Tex., Oct. 15.—The firm of Tessing, Solomon & Rosenthal, wholesale drygoods and cotton factors, state that they are temporarily embarrassed. The liabilities are placed at about $650,000 with assets estimated at $1,200,000.

Ancient Knights of Malta.

WILKESBARRE, Oct. 15.—The first convocation of the Grand Commandery of America of the Ancient Knights of Malta commenced here to-day. Representatives are present from all parts of the United States, Great Britain and Canada.

Killed While Coupling Cars.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 15.—Alfred Cook, a brake man on the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg Railway, was killed at Silver Lake to-day while coupling cars. He lived in this city.

SANGUINARY ENCOUNTER IN THE ISLAND OF DEMARA.

Sir William MacGregor and 22 Men Repulse 250 Natives After a Hard Fight—The Czar Kills Red Deer—A Peer's Rank Saves Him.

BRISBANE, Oct. 15.—Sir Wm. MacGregor, Administrator of New Guinea, accompanied by 22 men, recently landed on the Island of Demara. Two hundred and fifty natives attacked the party, but after hard fighting they were repulsed.

The natives left eleven dead or wounded behind them.

Several of the whites were wounded.

Sir William's party then burned the village of the natives.

Saved by His Rank.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The scene in the court room at Dumfries when the jury in the case of the Earl of Galloway, charged with indecent behavior toward girls of tender years, brought in their verdict of acquittal, was one rarely witnessed in a criminal court in this country. The guilt of the accused seemed so clearly established even by such evidence as was allowed to filter through the objections of the six eminent counsel for the defence, that those present in the court room, many of whom were friends and relatives of the little girls whom the aged noble was charged with abusing, took no pains to conceal their disgust with the verdict. The announcement of the verdict was the signal for loud expressions of disapproval from the benches where the spectators were seated and the frowns and threats of the presiding judge were of no avail to suppress the cries of "shame!" "shame!" uttered by dozens of indignant persons. In London the news of the verdict is received with great indignation among the common people and it is pointed out that had the accused been anything but a great nobleman the evidence brought out would have been sufficient to convict him a dozen times over. The Marquis of Salisbury, who had manifested great interest in the case ever since the charges were first brought, hurried to London so as to receive the earliest news of the result of the trial. When informed that Galloway had been acquitted he received the news with every evidence of satisfaction. The Earl's best friends scarcely hoped for more than the Scotch verdict of "not proven," and an acquittal outright pleased them quite as much as it outraged the sense of justice of all other Englishmen.

Italy's Premier Talks.

ROME, Oct. 15.—A banquet was given to Prime Minister Crispi at Palermo last night. Forty-nine senators and 140 deputies were present. Signor Crispi referred to the severe strain of his Parliamentary labors since 1887, the blame for which, he admitted, it would be unjust to impute to the majority either in Parliament or the country, especially after the signs of affection lavished upon him when an assassin attempted his life. He touched upon the reforms necessary in the educational system and promised measures for the relief of the poor. He declared it was necessary to combat all persons, high or low, who were seeking to undermine the political edifice of Italy.

The temporal power of the Pope, although it had existed for centuries, had been only a transition period. Rome existed before it and would continue to exist without it. Complaints or threats either from home or abroad would have no effect. He declared unassailable the utterance of King Humbert that Rome forms an integral part of Italy just as law forms a part of the modern world. After asserting that the Pope possessed perfect religious liberty and was only restricted in liberty less harshly than in other Catholic states—from encroaching upon the sphere of national right, which is the right of reason, Signor Crispi exclaimed:

Let the Church, now free, endeavor to frighten Prometheus with the thunderbolts of Heaven. Our task is to fight in the cause of reason.

He next touched upon the subject of Anarchism, which, he said, was easier to combat than the Church. He appealed to all men of advanced years, but reasonable ideas, to separate openly from the creators of disorder, national discord and social disorganization, who were pretending to represent the ideas of Mazzini and Garibaldi.

WIMAN'S BAD BREAK.

He Violates a Pledge Made to All-America.

BUFFALO, Oct. 15.—When the delegates to the International-American Congress sat down to breakfast the members indulged in some gossip over the proceedings at the Clifton House dinner, at which Erastus Wiman urged reciprocity, and the South Americans appeared satisfied that their representatives had acquitted themselves well from a diplomatic point of view. William E. Curtis, however, seemed to feel somewhat sore and after an animated conversation with Mr. Wiman, who had given the dinner, he spoke to an associated press representative as follows:

Mr. Wiman met us on our way from West Point and told me he intended to be in Niagara when we were there and would like to entertain us at dinner. I said that my instructions from Mr. Blaine were to accept no hospitalities on Sunday, but I agreed to the invitation on Mr. Wiman's pledge that there should be no speechifying. In Springfield I saw by the newspapers that he had invited some Canadian officials to meet us. I reminded him by telegraph that the invitation had been accepted upon the understanding that the affair was to be entirely informal and that no speeches were to be delivered.

"Upon our arrival in Niagara Falls we talked matters over. I explained fully to him Mr. Blaine's wishes and instructions, which were that we should not have any formalities on Sunday, but that we should entirely abstain from travel and formalities, and at the same time leaving our guests absolutely free in their engagements on that day. He understood this fully. We agreed that Dr. Nin should be called upon between the courses to recite a Spanish poem descriptive of Niagara. I did not attend the dinner myself, but I felt that it would be better not to do so, but I notified Cornelius Bliss of my agreement with Mr. Wiman, and Mr. Bliss reminded him of that agreement. I was, however, much surprised when I learned what had taken place at the dinner, and this morning when I met Mr. Wiman in the station I told him I was very sorry to be compelled to telegraph Mr. Blaine that our agreement had been violated by him. I reminded him of his promise that no speeches would be made, whereupon he replied: 'There were no speeches, only a little talk.'

"I have informed Mr. Blaine of the circumstances, and also that I understand that before Mr. Wiman left New York he placed copies of the speech he intended to deliver in the offices of the newspapers."

INSURRECTION IN ALABAMA.

An Anti-tax Riot—Four Men Killed and a Dozen Wounded.

BOSTON, Oct. 15.—A special from Atlanta, Ga., says: The Alliance men have taken possession of the town of Dothen, Ala., to resist the Lyons tax. A riot in which two leading men have been killed is in progress. Two town officers were mortally wounded and a dozen others injured.

The trouble arose between the Town Council and the draymen of the Farmers' Warehouse, the latter refusing to pay the license required by the town authorities. They were several times arrested for violating the ordinance and fined and this caused the trouble between the farmers and the town. Both Marshals were shot and one will die. Two draymen defying the law were killed. Trouble was expected last night and the town was well guarded. Many enraged farmers are in town to-day but all is quiet.

French-American Convention.

TROY, N.Y., Oct. 15.—The state convention of French-American citizens met in this city to-day. Nearly 100 delegates from all parts of the state are present. The convention will consider how to secure naturalization of all French-Americans, to educate Frenchmen in their duties as citizens and to get better protection and justice in political rights.

President Manny spoke of the necessity of sending the children to American schools for their education instead of to the schools in Canada, also of the necessity of receiving an education that will fit them to hold any office under the United States. Mr. Manny emphasized the necessity of higher education.

The convention was called to order at 7 o'clock this evening with President Manny in the chair. The evening was occupied by discussing the forming of a league in the state. It is desired to organize clubs in all the cities and unite them in a league similar to the Republican State League. A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution and perfect the arrangements.

His Impressions of Toronto.

The Rev. David St. Wylie, Ph.D. of New York, spent part of his vacation in Toronto. In The Christian Nation he gives a brief statement of his impressions formed during his visit. Here are one or two extracts: The people are to be congratulated upon the large number of houses (and so of homes) and the absence of large flats and tenements. True, the land in the business part of the city is quite valuable, probably ranging in price with Omaha and Kansas City, if, indeed, quite so high, but for residence purposes comparatively cheap as compared with New York. Houses were pointed out as renting for four, five six and eight hundred dollars per year which in New York could command three times those amounts. Then, too, there are no great "dangerous classes." Foreigners are constantly coming to the city, but generally they are of the better classes. All this is greatly in favor of the city and augurs well for its future. Yet the city has some things against which to contend. One is the matter of keeping the water fronts of the city out of the hands of great corporations and monopolies. Another is the matter of good drainage. In this respect the city is not all it ought to be. One of the large sewers enters the bay at the spot where most of the passengers embark on the steamships, and where much business is transacted. This is a disgrace to Toronto, as it would be to any city.

WELTERING IN HIS BLOOD.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT IN A YORK-STREET DIVE.

In Disreputable Company William Yeomans is Fearfully Mauled and Stabbed in the Head—Two Men Arrested—A Big Sensation in York-street Circles.

"You don't get any news from me," said one of two viragos at a York-street dive last night to The World. That in which they were concerned, however, may prove to be a tragedy.

At the time that Detectives John Cuddy, Charlie Slemin and Watson were escorting a couple of fallen women from 151 York-street, the gory form of William Yeomans, a painter employed by Messrs. McCausland of this city, lay at Headquarters in the arms of Dr. Aikins, bleeding almost to death.

Those responsible for this dire outrage are William Ross, 48 Richmond-street west, and James Ross of 151 York-street.

Said Yeomans to a World reporter last night, "I was going along York-street tonight with a friend when we picked up two girls. One of these I took to 151 York-street. She wanted $3 from me." To this request Yeomans refused to comply and there was consequently a row. Yeomans tried to get out of the window, but found there was a wire screen and he tried to kick it through. Then one of the girls attacked him with a knife, and two or three men piled on him with chairs. The result was that he received a deep cut on the side of the head, four or five inches long.

Said Dr. Aikens while he was placing the bandages on the wounded man's head: "Unless blood poisoning sets in there will be no danger."

William Ross, one of the prisoners, had a big piece of flesh taken out of the fleshy part of his right arm and stated to The World that the wound had been inflicted while he was trying to protect his brother from Yeomans' knife.

John Conley, who keeps the boarding-house at 47 Richmond-street east, where Yeomans lives, says that the latter came from the United States about 5 weeks ago. "He's a perfect gentleman," he said, "and I don't think he started the row. All the people in the house liked him."

The English Hop Market.

Cattley, Gridley & Co., the big hop merchants of London, in their circular of Sept. 30 say:

An exceptionally warm spring favored a rapid growth of the vine and seemed to justify the expectation that quite a full average crop of exceptionally choice quality would be secured. From various causes, however, these favorable expectations have not been fully realized and the result proves that very many low and diseased samples are included in the growth, which we estimate at not more than equal to 2280,000 Old Duty; while quite a considerable quantity has been left on the poles as worthless.

The American, Californian and continental crops are up to a full average in quantity; the samples exhibited thus far show that some really choice and healthy hops are grown, but that the general crop is various.

Although the picking was unusually early this season a fair trade business has ensued for good samples at the moderate prices ruling and business has since steadily increased. The prices quoted are:

Choice East Kents per cwt. 95s to 120s, do Mid Kents 90s to 120s, useful to good East Kents and Mid Kents 60s to 85s, Weald of Kents 50s to 60s, Sussex 50s to 80s, Farnhams 70s to 105s, Worcesters 75s to 120s, Americans and Californians 30s to 100s, Bavarians and other Continentals 40 to 102s. Interior samples of all kinds from 35s upwards.

Cabinet Council.

A meeting of the cabinet was held at the Attorney-General's office yesterday afternoon, when a number of departmental matters were dealt with. The ministers present were the Premier, the Provincial Treasurer, the Provincial Secretary, the Commissioner of Crown Lands and the Minister of Education. The Hon. C. Drury, Commissioner of Agriculture, was absent at a meeting of the East Elgin Reform Association, held for the nomination of a candidate to contest the riding in the Liberal interest at the next election. The Commissioner of Works was away at his residence in the country. A deputation interviewed the ministers with reference to some matters connected with the Central Prison, but the particular nature of their business has not been allowed to transpire. Mr. Massey, warden of the Central Prison, was called into the council room to give some information on the subject.

With Masonic Honors.

The remains of the late Frederick James Bowen of Hamilton arrived at Buffalo yesterday afternoon accompanied by members of Zetland lodge, A.F. and A.M., who had charge of the funeral ceremonies. The wife and brother of deceased and several friends were present. The "Strict Observance Lodge" of Hamilton assisted. The remains were taken to St. James' Cemetery for interment. Mr. Bowen was engaged in business in this city three years ago and was well known among Masons and Foresters. Alex. Millard was funeral director. The Hamilton party went home at 4.55.

The Cat Out of the Bag.

On Monday next the Waterworks Committee on salaries, it is said, propose to hold a little meeting "under the rose." But one of the aldermen told The World yesterday that he would sit this committee meeting through, and would afterwards give the particulars to every representative of newspapers attending at the City Hall. He recognizes the power of the "fourth estate" and dislikes hole and corner proceedings.

DR. MINTYRE IN TORONTO.

He Lectures on Wyandotte Cave—Thirty Hours in a Sunless World.

Seldom has an audience the opportunity of enjoying such an intellectual treat as was afforded at the hall of the Y.M.C.A. last evening, when the opening lecture of the winter series was delivered by the Rev. Dr. McIntyre of Chicago. Mr. Robert Kilgour presided.

Dr. McIntyre is a man of a singularly striking presence. He is not above the medium height, but his countenance is full of expression and his features decidedly of an intellectual cast. His voice is rich and mellow, and is capable of arousing the enthusiasm of an audience to no ordinary degree. He prefaced his description of the cave by informing his hearers that during the past two years it had been his privilege to travel far over this world's surface—through America, Europe, Asia and part of Africa; but nothing had he seen that would equal Wyandotte—the world's most wonderful cavern. This remarkable phenomenon of nature, situated in Crawford County, Indiana, was vividly depicted in language which for brilliance and power few orators can hope to rival. Step by step the lecturer carried his enraptured audience through the 224 miles of a subterranean journey—every mile a miracle and every step a marvel. The journey was long—it took 30 hours to accomplish and 24 hours to describe. It was not only long but silent and mysterious. To give even an outline of it is more than our space will admit, but this much may be said that search the wide range of literature and nowhere will be found a record of anything that can approach the awful wonders of this vast cave. Something like it must have been in the mind of Rider Haggard when in his celebrated novel, "She," he makes Ayslia, Kallicrates and Holly traverse that terrible passage into the bowels of the earth—the passage that leads to the pillar of fire in which the enchantress meets her doom. In the Wyandotte cave, according to Dr. McIntyre, there is a pillar of fire, and so potent was its influence upon the divine that his soul prostrated itself, awe struck, before it, and he felt indeed in the presence of the Author of the Universe. As one stands by Niagara's mighty cataract he is constrained to exclaim that it is grand, sublime, inspiring, but it is not mysterious. It is the same with Yosemite, where you see from Mariposa Hill Nevada's cataracts fall; but this cave is indeed mysterious. No man living ever saw its borders.

The lecturer in graphic words described the interior wealth of crystalline ornamentation in the cave; the mammoth hall, the senate chamber, the monument, mountain which upreers its crest 175 feet. The mammoth hall, it may be noted, is the largest room in the world, capable of holding in its interior St. Peter's cathedral in Rome, or St. Paul's cathedral in London. The lecturer resumed his seat long after 10 o'clock amid great applause.

The Ontario Government and Gas.

The Government have under consideration a proposal which has been submitted for lighting a number of public institutions with what is known as sanitary gas. Yesterday afternoon Hon. J. M. Gibson, Provincial Secretary, and Hon. A. M. Ross, Provincial Treasurer, accompanied by several permanent officials, inspected the material and plant in connection with the system invented by General Eugene de Beauharnois. The gas works constructed by the General, consisting of small gas holder, tank and furnace, are situated in the premises connected with the shop No. 45 Queen-street east.

It is stated the generating apparatus is the best in operation, and has the additional advantage of being simple of construction, and easy to manage. The gas is of a fine grade, free from sulphur compounds, and deposits no refuse such as tar or solid matter. It is perfectly harmless and can be inhaled freely without injurious effects to the system. It is said to be remarkable for purity, cleanliness, great illuminating power and economy in manufacture and use. There are something like 17 institutions under the Government at which gas is made and this sanitary gas can be

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 16, 1889.

Muskrats are building their houses very high this year along the Assiniboine River, which fact is stated by The Northwest Canadian to be an unfailing sign of a hard winter. The muskrat is evidently a friend of the coal man and the plumber.

The White House is overrun with rats and a man has been engaged to exterminate them, his remuneration being $10 per day. But there is one nuisance which the President will never get rid of, not if he employed an army of exterminators—and that nuisance is the office-seekers.

There has been some dissatisfaction over the honorary titles conferred in the St. Albans Cathedral, and announced in The World of Monday, and in consequence it is altogether probable that many of those whose appointments were mentioned will resign. Some have already declined the honor, others will follow.

Some Salvationists at Brockville declined to cease beating their drums while passing an hotel where a commercial traveler lay critically ill. Their uncharitable conduct certainly displayed nothing of the Christianity which they so publicly profess and calls for prompt punishment either at the hands of the local authorities or the Army commander here in Toronto.

What May Be Done At Last.

Concerning the meeting just over, of the Emperor of Germany and the Czar of Russia, the accounts first sent across by cable said much about apparent coldness between the two sovereigns; and the opinion was expressed that their formal and rather distant professions of friendship were not likely to promote very much the cause of peace. Later on, however, the attitude of the two great rulers towards each other appeared to have improved; and ere they parted they managed to talk more like friends. Among recent despatches is one from Berlin, one which looks as if it might be really important if true. Political circles in Berlin are highly satisfied with the exchange of views between Emperor William and the Czar. "It is believed that peace is assured on the basis that Bulgaria belongs to Russian and Servia to Austrian spheres of interest." Now this certainly rubs closely enough to the facts of the case to make it look as if it might be true. For Servia's material connections are mostly with the lower Danube—that is, with Austria—while Bulgaria's connections are mostly with the Black Sea, which means, with Russia.

Perhaps some such idea as this was present to the writer of a magazine article which recently appeared in The Contemporary Review—and which has been freely attributed to Mr. Gladstone. The writer does not believe that Germany, Austria and Italy together would be a match for Russia and France combined; and he says in effect that Great Britain would be better out of the former alliance than in it. And the opinion is advanced that Great Britain's adherence to Bismarck's European policy is by no means so sure a thing as some people have believed. It is further suggested that were Gladstone to come back to power, replacing Salisbury, an important change in British policy would quickly follow.

With regard to the important differences of opinion indicated, much may be said on both sides respectively. Between the two great opposing authorities we do not profess to decide, though we may point to the suggestion now made of the compromise which may be coming. Some time after this, it may be as the result of a great war, or it may be without going the length of that last dread arbitrament—that conspicuous cause of trouble between some of "the Great Powers"—the inflammable section of Southeastern Europe will have to be portioned off among the Powers aforesaid. Now, people who do not want war will be apt to say: Why not divide up that dangerous section of Europe now without waiting for war? Why not resort to a compulsory division at last after it has been forced by war, destruction and bloodshed to a fearful amount? For to this complexion it must come at last. We may be sure that these highly troublesome and inflammable little States—Servia, Bulgaria and the rest of them—will continue to endanger the peace of Europe until their useless but highly dangerous existence is "wiped out." This thought can scarcely fail to occur to many wise and good men the civilized world over.

It appears that extraordinary precautions were deemed necessary during his visit to the Emperor William. The Nihilists are not all dead yet; and France is still a magazine of revolutionary dynamite. And, in view of assassination probabilities, both Emperors might feel upon them the pressure of personal reasons for wishing to remain at peace. Who knows?

He Is Also the Idol of The Times.

"Rah for Rae!"

The Port Arthur, Duluth & Western Railways.

[From The Port Arthur Herald.]

On Thursday The Herald representative went over that part of the railway now under construction, viz., The first 20 miles west of Fort William. The first ten miles is graded, with the exception of four small pieces, so that there is no fear of the grade hindering the laying of the iron. At the docks, now being used by the company, at Fort William I saw two rafts of 25,000 ties which were being hauled out of the water. Along the right of way more ties are being made.

The road-bed is a little low in our opinion, but it is solid, level and good. Construction trains can make forty miles an hour safely. I understand that there has been some delay with the iron, which is not expected in Buffalo till after the 15th inst.

I saw the engine and cars; they are labeled P., D. & W. Railway. It looks odd, as we are accustomed to see P. R., D. & W. Railway. The delay in having the iron forwarded and of the Fort William people in fixing up their bonus may check the tracklaying, but it is expected that everything will go right and that before the end of November the crossing of the Kaministiquia will be reached. The contractors are doing good work, and considering the weather we have had the work they have done is immense.

Catarrh is in the blood. No cure for this loathsome and dangerous disease is possible until the poison is thoroughly eradicated from the system. For this purpose, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best and most economical medicine. Price $1. Six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

Personal Mention.

Ms. P. Purcell, M.P., for Glengarry, is seriously ill.

George E. Casey, M.P., and Mrs. Casey of West Elgin are in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ross Robertson will arrive in New York to-morrow on their way home from Europe.

Provincial Christian Temperance Women.

The twelfth annual meeting of the Ontario W.C.T.U. will be held at Galt Oct. 29 to Nov. 1 inclusive.

A. D. Noyes, Newark, Michigan, writes: "I have enquired at the drug stores for Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, but have failed to find it. We brought a bottle with us from Quebec but it is nearly gone and we do not want to be without it, as my wife is troubled with a pain in the shoulder and nothing else gives relief. Can you send us some?"

A CANAL FOR ISLAND PARK.

Commissioner Coatsworth Says the Work Will be Commenced on Thursday.

The visit of the Island Park delegates to the Parks and Gardens Committee has already borne fruit. They won't get the $2300 moved in council by Ald. Swalt, but they will get $300 to make a cut from the bay to the lagoon south of the yacht club on sanitary grounds.

A World reporter dropped into Commissioner Coatsworth's office yesterday and found him busily perusing the Jarvis-street interviews published in The World.

"I have just returned from a trip south," said the Commissioner. "I have been over to the Island Park to see what can be done in the way of sanitary improvements."

"Don't you think the $300 voted rather small to carry out those improvements?" asked The World.

"Well, yes, rather small to carry them out satisfactorily," replied Commissioner Coatsworth. "We expect to get to work on Thursday," he continued, "and by putting a big force of men on we will have the work finished in ten days or two weeks."

Discussing the Casuals.

The Board of Management of the House of Industry met yesterday afternoon, Mr. Samuel Alcorn in the chair. There were present Rev. Dr. Potts, Rev. Dr. Rose, Rev. Father Laurent, Revs. A. H. Baldwin, D. J. Macdonnell, J. D. Cayley, A. J. Broughall, Hugh Johnston, John Gillespie, and Messrs. A. MacMurchy, James Scott, George Goulding, Charles Burns and Charles Duckett. The reading and discussion of the Casual Committee's report occupied most of the afternoon. The appointment of a man to undertake the duties of clerk at the institution was left to the Executive Committee and the appointment of a yardman will be dealt with by the Casual Committee. It was suggested that after keeping a man in the casual ward a fortnight, except under certain circumstances, he should be turned over to the jail authorities and dealt with. This matter will be further considered at a future meeting of the board.

Unjustifiable Opposition and Persistent Rebellion.

[From The Christian Guardian.]

We profoundly regret the division and strife which a small section of dissatisfied brethren have promoted by their unjustifiable opposition to federation; but we cannot purchase a precarious and hollow peace by the surrender of the principles we have maintained and acted upon, and the loyal support we owe to the rules and regulations of our Church. Those who keep up the unfriendly strife must bear the blame. It would be a calamity to take any course that would give ground for the all-gation that the Methodist Church is too weak to administer and enforce her constitutional decisions, and that persistent rebellion can at any time overthrow its authority.

A Lesson for Canadian Politicians.

[From The Christian Guardian.]

An overwhelming majority of the people of this country are utterly opposed to giving special favors to any church or religious society. We believe the strong and decided expression of this sentiment which the recent movement has brought out will at least have the effect of preventing our Canadian politicians of all parties from drifting on this sectarian line in future.

Mr. T. J. Humes, Columbus, Ohio, writes: "I have been afflicted for some time with kidney and bladder complaints, and Dr. Thomas' Pills the best medicine for these diseases." These pills do not cause pain or griping, and should be used by people of a sedentary habit. They are Gelatine coated and rolled in the flour of Licorice to preserve their purity, and give them a pleasant, agreeable taste.

Jottings About Town.

The Orange Battalion will hold their annual church parade Nov. 3.

William Cooney will spend 60 days in jail for assaulting his mother-in-law.

A gymnasium in connection with the Young Women's Christian Guild was opened last night.

The charge of obstructing the Street Railway preferred against Ald. E. A. Macdonald will be heard to-day.

Mickael Birtle, the victim of Louis Dess' bullet, was reported late last night to have slightly improved.

Edwin Ashton and John Bell, the maimed teamsters, were last night reported to be progressing favorably.

The Grand Jury presented true bills against W. G. Reid, Thomas Chapman and H. Clark for felonious wounding yesterday.

Mary Brown, for theft of a web of dress goods from Mrs. Cartan's store, 200 King-street east, was sent to the Mercer for six months.

On Sunday will be celebrated the 56th anniversary of Carlton-street Methodist Church. During the past year $15,701 was raised for church purposes.

On account of the breaking up of the Sherbourne-street line, north of Gerrard-street, a five minute service will be placed in Church-street, beginning to-day.

Rev. Dr. Fulton's lecture in Carlton-street Methodist Church last night was on the Virgin Mary. He strongly denounced "Mariolatry," Rev. Dr. Hunter presided.

John Tennyson, 22 Darling-avenue, was arrested yesterday by Policeman Welch for stealing $6 and some articles of value from Kate Ryan, 144 Terauley-street.

The Supreme President of the Order of the Sons of England addressed Bristol Lodge last night on the benefits of the society's building fund. Bro. Toogood occupied the chair.

A choral harvest festival service will be held in St. Bartholomew's Church, River-street, this evening. The preacher will be the Rev. W. Hoyes Clarke, rector of St. Barnabas' Church.

Messrs. A. G. Peuchen & Co. have forwarded to Chief Ardagh a check for $50 for the Firemen's Benevolent Fund in recognition of the gallant services rendered by the brigade at the recent fire.

At the Police Court yesterday Rodney Morrison, Charles Congrave and Michael Meteer were sent to jail for 60 days each for breaking into a C. P. R. car and stealing therefrom several cases of salmon.

Lodge 555, Order of the Iron Hall, held a well attended meeting last evening. Chief Justice Iredale occupied the chair. One candidate was initiated and four more proposed. Arrangements for a social were made.

Mrs. Elliott being still unable to leave the Hospital, the investigation into the charges of abortion preferred against Harry Perry, the East End contractor, was adjourned by the Magistrate yesterday to the 18th inst.

The annual thanksgiving meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. James' Square Presbyterian Church was held yesterday afternoon. A large number of ladies were present, each with a thank-offering to the church.

Court Harmony Lodge, Ancient Order of Foresters, met in "C" room of Shaftesbury Hall last night. Bro. Hessel occupied the chair. Four candidates were initiated and preparations made for an anniversary meeting and social.

The offices of Mr. Bruce Harman, representing the London and Lancashire Life Assurance Co., Fire Insurance Association of London, England, and Gore District Fire Insurance, have been removed to No. 19 Wellington-street east.

The musical committee of Elm-street Methodist Church have secured the services of Mrs. E. Humphery-Allen, soprano, and Mr. George J. Parker, tenor of Boston, for their concert on the evening of Thanksgiving day, Nov. 7.

At the October meeting of the Toronto Lady Teachers' Association, the president, Miss Keown, was in the chair. Miss A. Sanderson gave a vivid and interesting account of her trip to New York, using blackboard illustrations. After a hearty vote of thanks had been tendered Miss Sanderson the association adjourned until the second Friday in November.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Berkeley-street Methodist Church held their annual entertainment in the church last night. A very enjoyable evening was spent. Edward Galley presided. The program included songs and recitations from these ladies and gentlemen: Miss Simpson of Richmond Hill, Miss Winters and Mr. S. F. Martin, a piano solo by Mr. J. D. A. Tripp and violin solo by Signor Napolitano. Refreshments were served in the basement.

BROOKLYN TAKES THE BAG

REDS SCOOPS A GAME AND THE BROWNS THROW UP THE SPONGE.

Preparing for the World's Championship Series—Gothamites Will Back the Giants Heavily—Exhibition Games—The Toronto to Hunt Club's Program.

The big Brooklyn bridge separates the two pennant winners of the major baseball organizations of the continent. The Brooklyn team returned home yesterday and were welcomed by an immense crowd, who greeted them enthusiastically. The speculation now is on the result of the World's championship series, the first game of which it is likely will be played on Saturday next. New York opinion and the cranks who bet on the game on the outside favor the Giants by long odds, and in fact it is the general impression that the New York team will once more wear the title of "world's champions." Both the pennant winners have fought hard for the honors and shekels which the last contest between the winning nines of the big organization brings with it, and each is winner, in racing parlance, "by a nose" only. Both have superb pitching talent for the last contest, but the New York men are conceded to be the better batters and hope to win on this account. Should they be unable to do efficient stick work against Terry and Carruthers then there is fair hope that the Association Champions may see the World's flag. All depends on these two great pitchers so far as Brooklyn is concerned.

Dust from the Diamond.

Boston did not lose a series to any club.

Pitcher Vickery is sought after by two National League clubs.

Mr. Cushman told The World yesterday that he would not be in Toronto next season.

The New York team won a series from every club in the League but the Bostons, and lost seven games in its own grounds than any other club in the League.

The once reliable Jim McCormick, who was the positive end of the famous Chicago battery, McCormick and Kelly, has been shoved off Pittsburg's reserve list.

The agitation over the prospective plans of the Brotherhood is increasing every day, and there will be much gossip and speculation on the subject until the result of the League meeting next month is known.

Mr. T. S. Hobbs, president of the London Club, denies that one Knight or any other player has been sold. They have received overtures for Knight, but as $500 seemed to be about the value he was put down at he was not sold.

Manager Cushman turned up in town suddenly yesterday, having left Philadelphia the night before. He was very reticent as regards the future of his team, but it is now probably in connection with the release of one or two of the Toronto players.

Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati are all anxious to secure Burke, and the little star centre fielder is willing to go as he says to the place that gives him the most money, providing his release can be secured. President McConnell will let him go for $2000.

Mr. R. M. Wood of Washington is mentioned as the probable manager of the Syracuse team next season. A better man could not be secured by the Syracuse club. He handled the Toledo club last year like a veteran under the most discouraging circumstances.—Sporting Life.

Director Torrance announces that he will retire from the directorate at the annual meeting of the Toronto Club in December. He believes the poor showing of the club the past season was due to the fact that the manager was not allowed to exercise his own will in signing, releasing players, etc.

At the International meeting in Detroit the Toronto representative will introduce an amendment to the playing rules to abolish coaching altogether. This is a move in the right direction and would certainly increase the interest in the cheaper class of patrons can not tolerate the oratory of the average coacher.

The Philadelphians who are finding fault with Farrar and wants him dropped on account of his weak hitting, should reflect for a moment and look at Fautz's average. The catcher does not rank so high as the Philadelphian, but it must be said in Fautz's favor that he makes up for his weak batting by his fielding, as he is said and has a great reach, and besides he is a great base-runner and a good sacrifice hitter.—Sporting Life.

Henry Chadwick writes as follows: John Ward's release was sold to the Washington Club for $12,000. But Ward refused to go to that club, and so the bargain was not consummated and John received $4000 salary to play again in New York. Were does the "slavery" claim come in here? Mind you, I do not approve of this selling of releases under existing methods, but this talk of "slavery" in connection with its present working is simply bosh. Slaves with $4000 salaries for six months of recreative work are an anomaly.

The Great Bicycle Race.

This celebrated race for the championship of the world will open in Mutual-street rink Monday next, Oct. 21st, at 8 p.m. sharp. This will be the first six-day go in Canada, and all the celebrated long distance riders have entered in the professional event; the amateur element will be well represented by such riders as Bert Brown, W. R. C., W. F. Doll, J. E. Gury, D. Naismith, W. F. Gassler, Niagara Falls, and W. M. Carmon of Mount Pleasant, besides a large number from the principal cities of the United States. A letter was received by the management on Saturday from W. J. Corcoran, athletic trainer of Boston, in which he states that he intends to enter men from that city in all the amateur events. Doubtless this will be the great sporting event of the year in Canada, a good week's sport being absolutely assured.

THE FOOTBALL MATCHES.

Why a Fee Should be Charged to See the University Games.

There will be two important Rugby matches here on Saturday. The Royal Military College, Kingston, play the Varsity on the University lawn and the Hamilton fifteen meet the Toronto club on the Bloor-street grounds for their annual match. The Toronto Football Club has gone to considerable expense and trouble in securing grounds and aggregating a team. The game on the Varsity lawn is a free exhibition and no doubt will be as interesting as the one between the two city teams. Consequently persons will attend it in preference to paying a quarter to see the other match. This is provoking the games are played concurrently. But happily the free game begins at 1 o'clock and the other at three, which will privilege every person to see both games and not injure Toronto's finances. Varsity should not give free games. All their matches, both Rugby and Association, are good ones and well worth paying a trifle to see, as is done at the big American universities, but under the present regulations this is impossible. The Varsity Athletic Committee should bring their influence to bear on the University authorities and secure the right to charge an admission fee to their games and not place all the expense on the students nor compete unfairly with other city clubs.

Notes of the Kickers.

The Toronto Rugby players will wear a maple leaf on each of their jerseys in all matches.

The Hamilton Juniors will visit Toronto on Friday and play the Upper Canada fifteen.

The Toronto Rugby men put in some useful gymnasium work at the Argonaut Club last night.

The second fifteen of the Torontos play the Agricultural College team in Guelph on Saturday.

The Toronto team for the Hamilton match will be chosen after practice at the grounds this morning.

At Winnipeg, on Saturday, the Infantry School team defeated the city club after a hard tussle by a goal to a try.

A provincial Rugby Union has been formed in British Columbia. The English rules will be adopted.

Tickets for the Toronto—Hamilton match on the Bloor-street grounds are going like hot cakes. The crowd will likely be a record breaker.

Fred Killer will not play in the Toronto League team on Saturday against the Western Association, not being in proper condition. His place will likely be taken by Lockart of the Varsity.

AT JEROME PARK.

Close of The Racing Season—A Good Day For the Bookies.

JEROME PARK, Oct. 15.—The racing season in this state closed to-day. The weather here was quite pleasant and the attendance fair. The track was very heavy. The betting was lively and the bookmakers had far the best of it:

First race—1 1-16 miles, purse $1000, for 3-year olds that have not won since Oct. 1. Duplicity won; Eric 2, Vardee 3. Time 1.57.

Sixth race, 1 mile—Prince Fonso won, W. G Morris 2, Mount Lebanon 3. Time 1.47.

Trotting in Kentucky.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 15.—The attendance at the trotting races here to-day was larger than yesterday. The weather was cold and the track good. Interest centered in the five thousand dollar stake for the 2.20 class. Nelson, the favorite, was badly beaten by the Chicago horse, Jack, driven by Budd Doble, he winning the race in straight heats. The other races also made good sport.

Special purse $500, 2-year-olds—Repetition won, Wanita 2, Gov. Stanford 3. Time 2.20½.

2.20 class—Stake $5000. Jack won, Geneva 2, Nelson 3. Alcryon and Norval also started. Time 2.18¾.

The 2.24 class was unfinished on account of darkness.

The Hunt's Challenge Cup and Open Steeple chase.

Echo, Oliver, Repeater and Evangeline will go in the open steeplechase at the Woodbine on Saturday, and the hunters' steeplechase handicap has therefore been cancelled. Glen Fox will not enter. The weights will be: Echo 157, Oliver 152, Repeater 147, and Evangeline 147. There will be no penalties or allowances. The entrance is $25, which the winner takes. The stake and prizes $250, $100 and $50. Lochiel, Driftwood, Mackenzie, Dublin, Foundling and St. James have been entered for the Cox-Worts' challenge cup, which will ensure sufficient starters for a good race. The horses are working industriously at the track and everything promises good sport at Woodbine next Saturday. The entries close to-day and will appear in The World to-morrow. The hounds had a successful run yesterday starting at Hayden's hotel.

Spots of Sport.

Mr. Sam Bryant disposed of Come-to-Taw b c 3, by Long Taw—Mollie Seabrook to Hough Bros. at Jerome Park on Monday for $10,100.

Mr. W. A. Stratton has the best batting record in the Peterboro' Cricket Club for the season, averaging 23.15. His highest score was 85 not out.

The Dwyer Bros. purchased Zephyrus from W. C. Daly out of the selling race at Westchester on Saturday. He was entered for $2500 and bought for $3010.

The Toronto Rowing Club have become comfortably settled in their new winter quarters, 54 Adelaide-street east. The five rooms are very cosy indeed, and there the boys will spend another of their pleasant seasons.

The members of the Toronto small bore rifle club held a successful practice shoot at the Woodbine last Saturday. They will be out every Saturday for practice, and will be successfully cope with Orillia and the other strong Ontario clubs.

The Hamilton Caledonian Curling Club has elected the following officers: Adam Brown, M.P., patron; Mrs. A. Brown, patroness; W. R. Davis, president; John Malloy, vice-president; Dr. McIntosh, honorary president; A. Griffin, representative members; Rev. D. Laidlaw, Rev. Canon Curran, chaplains; W. G. Reid, secretary; D. McChie, D. Dexter, W. T. Miller, Dr. Griffin and A. Murdoch, managing committee.

Around the City Hall.

A special meeting of the Council will be held Friday evening to discuss the water front matter.

The Legislative Committee favorably discussed Ald. E. A. Macdonald's Civic Reform Bill yesterday.

Ald. Tait presided over a special committee yesterday to consider reform in the collection of taxes. No definite conclusion was arrived at.

The Board of Works and Esplanade Committee met to-day.

On Oct. 12 City Solicitor Biggar sent a letter to John Bell, Q.C., the solicitor for the G.T.R., asking that the company make some proposition for protection on level crossings. Mr. Bell sent a reply referring the City Solicitor to Local Manager Wragge and now Mr. Biggar mails a letter to the local manager, enclosing the communication to Solicitor Bell and asking Mr. Wragge for a reply at the earliest possible date, not later than Nov. 1. So this vexed question stands at present.

Mr. John McCarthy, Toronto, writes: "I can unhesitatingly say that Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery is the best medicine in the world. It cured me of Heartburn that troubled me for over thirty years. During that time I tried a great many different medicines, but this wonderful medicine was the only one that took hold and rooted out the disease."

Twenty Boarders Poisoned.

WOODBURY, N.J., Oct. 15.—Twenty persons have been poisoned at a boarding house here. The affair is involved in mystery. Some are dangerously ill.

The Calling of the Methodist Conference a Mistake.

[From The Canada Presbyterian.]

Looking at the difficulty from the outside we cannot help thinking that the calling of a special meeting of Conference to settle the Victoria federation question is a mistake. The Supreme Court did settle that question and the Church should have loyally accepted the decision and done all in its power to give it effect. If a special meeting of the supreme court of every Church is to be called every time a few obstinate disloyal men kick because they cannot have their own way these courts may as well sit all the time.

To License Newsboys and Shoeblacks.

A deputation from the Humane Society, consisting of Messrs. J. H. Pearce, Beverley Jones, Dr. J. C. Hodgins, Ald. McDougall and J. J. Kelso (secretary), waited upon the Police Commissioners yesterday afternoon in regard to the introduction of a bylaw for the licensing of newsboys and bootblacks. It is thought that this will go far towards keeping the boys in respectable company, as the police will have direct oversight of them. The board expressed themselves as favorable to the principle, and the proposed bylaw was referred to the City Solicitor.

The Municipal Vacancy.

The writ has been issued for an election in St. Matthew's Ward. Nominations a week from to-morrow and polling the Wednesday following.

FRAUD! FRAUD! FRAUD!

LOCK OUT FOR COUNTERFEITS!

THE LARGE AND INCREASING DEMAND FOR

throughout the country has caused myriads of imitators to spring up in all directions. They have adopted various insignia, but all are designed to take advantage of a confiding public.

We purpose to prosecute all infringers and have set the cannon ball rolling, as the following injunction will testify:

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE FOR ONTARIO,

QUEEN'S BENCH DIVISION

The Carter Medicine Company lately commenced action through their Solicitors, Messrs. Faulkiner & Masson, of Belleville, Ontario, against John T. Wait of Arnprior, Ontario, for infringement of their trade mark to their "LITTLE LIVER PILLS," and upon a motion coming on before the above Court on the 30th day of April, 1889, the defendant, John T. Wait (to save heavy damages and costs), agreed to destroy all labels, wrappers, circulars and packages marked with the plaintiff's trade mark or any part of said trade mark or any mark so nearly resembling such trade mark as to be calculated to deceive, and by consent of the said John T. Wait, the above Court did thereupon give judgment granting the Carter Medicine Company a PERPETUAL INJUNCTION restraining the said John T. Wait from using their Trade Mark as registered (Trade Mark Register, No. 6, folio 1692), or any part or imitation of such trade mark, or any part thereof, etc., etc.

In purchasing see that the word "CARTER'S" is on the wrapper. It should read thus:

The name is printed Black, on Red Paper, the letters, size and styles here shown.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. FOR HEADACHE. FOR DIZZINESS. FOR BILIOUSNESS. FOR TORPID LIVER. FOR CONSTIPATION. FOR SALLOW SKIN. FOR THE COMPLEXION

On the spurious some other name is substituted for "CARTER'S" or the words "LITTLE LIVER PILLS" alone are used.

Buy only of reputable parties and compare the Wrapper with the FAC-SIMILE on the back of Cover of our Book. 36

DESERVED HONORS.

Willie Whiten Will be Presented with a Bronze Medal on Friday.

The Mayor yesterday received a communication from the Royal Humane Society in Yonge-street enclosing a bronze medal to be presented to Willie Whiten, who has on several occasions saved lives from drowning. They also asked that the medal be presented with all due honors and in as public a manner as possible. The medal will accordingly be presented at the special meeting of the council called for next Friday to consider the Esplanade problem. The presentation will be made by Ald. McMillan.

Willie is only about 12 years of age. The last life he saved was that of Harry Hudson, and it is principally for this heroic act that the honor will be conferred upon him.

Mr. George Wells, 128 Wellington-street, also received a letter yesterday from the Royal Humane Society, it refers to the action of a young man named John Jones, employed by the Lansdowne Piano Co., on whom it confers its medal and diploma for having on Sunday saved the lives of two children in the bay near the foot of York-street on the evening of Sunday, July 28. It will be remembered that a boat containing three men and two children was upset. Jones and a companion went to the rescue when the men, neglecting the children, clung to the side of his boat and swamped it. Jones swam to the children, who were sinking, and held them till the party were picked up by the Louisa.

—Caswell, Massey & Co's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Pepsin and Quinine, is recognized as the best preparation known. Prescribed by the leading physicians. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal.

Mr. Cousineau v. The World.

Mr. Hall, solicitor for Mr. Cousineau, thinks that The World's paragraph of yesterday (in regard to Saturday's statement that Miss Dickson had been discharged by Mr. Cousineau because of her evidence in the Police Court) does an injustice to Mr. Cousineau. The solicitor also says: "The statement further appears to us to have been made by you with the express intention of doing Mr. Cousineau an injustice, and not Miss Dickson, and your subsequent notice proves this." The World neither had nor has any desire of doing Mr. Cousineau injustice, and withdraws and regrets the statement as first published, both on Mr. Cousineau's account and Miss Dickson's account. We further note, The World is so anxious to do Mr. Cousineau full justice in the matter that it will do so if he will furnish a full and accurate report of any evidence that may subsequently be given in connection with the case.

A remedy that is of such benefit in cases of indigestion, neuralgia, loss of appetite, dyspepsia as Dyer's Quinine and Iron Wine, is worth gold; it is easily taken by the weakest invalid. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal.

"Joy Indescribable."

Day and night irritation, pain, burning, kidney trouble, etc., made life to me miserable. For the past four months have used St. Leon Mineral Water. It cured me quickly. Have traveled much and tried many things, but found nothing in the world so equal St. Leon. The flow of high spirits and joy is beyond indescribable. WILLIAM GILL, Jewelry case maker, 4 Adelaide-street west, Toronto. 136

A Teachers' Convention.

The convention of fifth book teachers was held in Wellesley school yesterday afternoon, Inspector Hughes in the chair. In the forenoon classes were taught by Miss Keown, Miss Sturrock, Miss McKim and Mr. J. L. Leary. The afternoon was spent in discussing the plan adopted by these teachers and suggestions of plans adopted by themselves during the past year in those subjects that are new to them, or that they think are better than the old plans. In the discussion on music, the opinion was unanimously expressed that the music lesson by the boys' class, that morning was the best lesson the teachers had ever heard in music, and that the singing by the boys was the best singing that had ever been heard in a public class. The teachers present favorably entertained the idea of having pupils sing, as they read, from sight. Many useful practical suggestions were gleaned. The junior fifth book teachers meet to-day in Queen Victoria school.

Solid Comfort.

Those requiring Boots for the winter should leave their measure at W. Pickles, 393 Yonge-street. No other but skilled workmanship this and the best of material guarantees durability. Pickles studies the comfort and the pockets of the wearer. Leave your orders early. 36

Diamonds and Jewelry.

Money is saved in buying diamonds, watches and jewelry at D. H. Cunningham's, 77 Yonge-street, 2 doors north of King. 136

Around Osgoode Hall.

Prittie v Toronto, an arbitration case, was also enlarged.

There are now 122 students attending the Law School, many of whom are volunteers and the lectures are giving great satisfaction. The first moot court will be held next Friday.

The injunction obtained by the city restraining the Gas Company from emptying refuse tar, etc., into Parliament-street sewer came up for hearing yesterday but was enlarged two weeks. As the Gas Company promise to remedy the evil complained of further action by the city may be unnecessary.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS

Which Are Advertised in this City and Calculated to Mislead the Public.

Among these frauds are some institutions whose only stock in trade is "cheek" that are advertising to cure catarrh, dyspepsia and chronic diseases. They have no medical skill or experience and do not even consider it necessary to employ a medical man in their office. Those who are so unfortunate as to be afflicted with catarrh, dyspepsia and any chronic disease should not be deceived by the frauds above referred to, but go to the Medical Institute located at 198 King-street W., where you will find reliable and skilled physicians, in whom you can place full confidence, and as to your disease, whether curable or incurable, you can depend on the honesty of their opinion. The Medical Institute located at 198 King-street W. is not new nor a stranger in this city but is in its 5th year in Toronto, and the skill of its physicians together with its cures are vouched for by the character and stability of the citizens whose testimonials are published in the city papers.

The afflicted are invited to visit us and see our testimonials, which are not from distant strangers, but from citizens of this city, to whom we can send you for verification, and learn that in advertising as we do, we can do so conscientiously and with the knowledge that the closest investigation will show that the most reliable place for the treatment of Catarrah, Dyspepsia or any chronic disease is with

CURE
Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing
SICK
Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured
HEAD
Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head
ACHE
Is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.
Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

A YOUNG LADY WHO WAS
A Helpless Invalid Cured
BY
DR. LEMON,
THE MAGNETIC PHYSICIAN,
at the Russell House, Toronto,
Miss Lillie P., aged 20 years, light hair, blue eyes, an invalid for 6 years—about that time she began to suffer loss of appetite, great fatigue on making the slightest exertion, suffering from extreme nervous debility, loss of sleep, pain in the small of the back, hips and loins. After making any exertion she would experience a beating and throbbing sensation at the pit of the stomach accompanied by palpitation of the heart, digestion became seriously impaired, sour stomach with belching of large quantities of gas and morbid appetite for indigestible articles. The bowls obstinately constipated and monthlies ceased. As the disease advanced her face became sallow, then pale and bloodless, as if blood was turning to water. The lips lost their rosy color, eyes surrounded by dark circles, the whole system took on an unhealthy appearance, indicating a lack of power and energy in the vital forces of the whole nervous system. Indeed, it appeared as if this charming girl was doomed to an early grave. She felt better when in the open air. At the same time complained of chilliness on the least exposure to cold. Every effort that was made to cure her proved a failure. Reading of some of the remarkable cures that are being made by Prof. Lemon, the Esoteric and Magnetic Scientist and Physician, at the Russell House in Toronto, she decided to consult him and received her first treatment three months ago. She can now walk a long distance without fatigue. Her cheeks and lips are regaining their natural rosy hue, and all of the organs are fast obtaining their healthy condition. She will soon be well. Consultation free, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily. Letters of inquiry must contain stamped envelope.

ALMOST A DAILY QUESTION: "Why do we probe central property for our clients?" The answer covers experience gained by many years of close attention to the advance of Toronto property. Most of our clients are strong financial men who prefer safe investments that will give the least possible trouble in handling. Outside properties are more speculative, hence not so suitable to our clients as central property. Confidence is steadily growing with investors owing to their success in purchasing through us. R. J. GRIFFITH & CO., 16 King-street east.

OPENING of KEW BEACH
To All Whom it May Concern:
Notice is hereby given that at the expiration of one month from the date hereof the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto will pass the following By-law to establish and open up a street from Lee-avenue easterly along the shore of Lake Ontario, in the Ward of St. Lawrence, to be called Kew Beach.
PROPOSED BY-LAW
To establish and open up a street from Lee-avenue easterly along the shore of Lake Ontario, in the Ward of St. Lawrence, to be called Kew Beach.
WHEREAS, in the opinion of the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto, it has become desirable and necessary to open up a street from Lee-avenue easterly along the shore of Lake Ontario, in the Ward of St. Lawrence, to be paid for by local special rates on the properties upon the real property benefited thereby;
And Whereas no sufficiently signed petition has been presented to the Council against such improvement:
THEREFORE the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto enacts as follows:
1.
That a Public Highway or Street is hereby established and opened up from Lee-avenue easterly along the shores of Lake Ontario, in the Ward of St. Lawrence, to be known as Kew Beach, and that the lands surveyed, laid out and described by Villiers Sankey, City Surveyor, comprised within the limits of said street, so opened up as aforesaid by his plan and description of the same, dated the 21st day of August, A.D. 1889, which description is as follows, that is to say: All and singular, that certain parcel or tract of land and premises being composed of part of lots lettered S and R, on the south side of Queen-street east, formerly the Kingston-road, as shown on registered plan 90, being a subdivision of part of lot No. 4 in the Township of York, and of the water lots lying to the southward thereof, and which may be more particularly known and described as being a strip of land sixty-six feet in width, measured at right angles to and lying immediately to the southward of the following described north limit, commencing at a point on the west limit of said lot S, being the east limit of Lee-avenue, distant 1402 5-10 feet, measured southerly thereon from the south limit of Queen-street east; thence north 73.01 degrees east along the north limit of the herein described parcel or strip of land, five hundred and thirty-eight feet to the east limit of said lot R, as shown in print on a plan in the City Surveyor's office, dated 21st day of August, A.D. 1889, be and is hereby adopted, established and confirmed as one of the public streets and highways of the City of Toronto, and be forthwith opened up and made fit for public use under the direction of the City Engineer, who with servants, workmen and agents is hereby authorized to enter upon the said lands for the purposes aforesaid.

TENTH YEAR.

'TWAS DIRE SELF-MURDER
A CIVIC EMPLOYE KILLS HIMSELF YESTERDAY.
Francis Lobb, Rate and Tax Clerk, Fires the Fatal Shot—Full Details of the Tragedy—No Reasons Save Aberration of Mind Assigned.
"Lobb of the Treasury Department shot himself through the heart," whispered Ald. Boustead to the reporters seated around the table at the City Hall yesterday. So the discussion of civic import was going on at the time, one of the members of the Works Committee was just bringing to a close an argument in favor of certain city residents when the dread news of the suicide of as old and faithful a city servant as Toronto has ever possessed was brought in. The business was disposed of and the monotonous discussion was at an end. Outside the City Hall door stood a little knot of men; they had all known Francis Lobb, and they were talking in low voices of his sobriety, his strict attention to business, of his somewhat reserved manner, but there was said nothing to account for the disorder of the dead man, who lay in one of the passages of the—how aptly named—"cooler block" with a bullet in his heart and a 32 calibre revolver by his side. This little group was soon joined by the city representatives who so shortly before had been talking and discussing city matters.
Cold in death lay poor Francis Lobb in the corridor leading to J. McCuaig's place of business, 53 Wellington-street east. Beside him stood the stalwart form of Policeman Dick Dodds on guard. Every minute one of the eager crowd outside, prompted by a morbid curiosity would rap at one of the doors and endeavor to obtain admission. None, however, passed the fatal third hold but the press representatives and those whose duty it was to be there.
Beside the dead man stood a glass, the contents of which had evidently been used in a vain endeavor to bring back his fast ebbing life. The water drenched the floor all around but in that pure element there was seen no crimson stain. The bleeding must have been internal, for neither did the open vest reveal one blood drop. Death must have been almost instantaneous; the heavy calibre pistol used had done its fatal work most thoroughly.
"He was just gasping his last breath," said Policeman Dick Dodds. "He was not breathing his last breath when I came here. That was 20 minutes to 3," said the officer pulling out his watch. "How did I learn of it? A man came running into Police Station and said he had heard a shot fired and saw Lobb fall. Can't tell you the name of the man, but you can get it at the Police Station."
There Was no Money Trouble.
At first the idea was suggested that suicide had fired the fatal shot because he was short in his accounts, but this theory was soon dispelled. "That is not the reason," said a gentleman who had known Lobb for many years. "That is not the reason," said he, "I know The World. "For months," continued the same gentleman, "Francis Lobb has been suffering from nervous disease and consequent mental disorder. He seemed to be abstracted and morose. He has been 19 years in the civic service and must have been about 50 years of age. He was a married man, leaves a family of five, I think. He was as good health and spirits this morning as I have ever seen him in my life." "What is his position?" "He was the tax and rent clerk, one of the oldest and most respected clerks in the department, always sober, always assiduous."
It Must Have Been Suicide.
"There is no idea that it was a case of accident?" asked the reporter of another gentleman who stood in the corridor where lay the dead man. The response was unhesitating and decisive: "Oh, no, it's a clear case of suicide. He used frequently to go over to his brother's office and say that he would have to shoot himself. Then his brother would do all he could to cheer him and to brace him up. But it was no use.
Andrew Smith, 27 Soho-street, said he had noticed Lobb two or three times during the week waiting around to see his brother.
Ald. Carlyle of St. Thos. Ward had also met him during the day. "I noticed a look of depressed look about him," said Mr. Carlyle. "He was walking down Church-street. He did not see me and I spoke to him," he replied briefly. "I have known poor Lobb for fifteen years."
Was the Pistol Bought at Stark's?
City Solicitor Biggar said that Lobb was coming down Church-street in company with Alexander McMillan, clerk of the Treasury Department of Parkdale, now St. Alban's Ward. He walked over to Charles Stark's firearm establishment and inspected some fine revolvers. Then he paired with Mr. McMillan and muse afterwards have returned and purchased the revolver.
Mr. Lobb had been suffering for the better half of a year from melancholia and despondency, and was under the medical treatment of Dr. W. B. Geikie. About a year ago he obtained leave of absence from the department and took a trip to England for the benefit of his health. When he returned there was no marked improvement. Of late, too, he seemed to be in rather better health. No suggestion that he would take his own life ever fell from his lips.
A Relative's Testimony.
"My own impression is," said a relative of the dead man last night, "that it is just one of those cases where a man's desire for rest has become so strong that he will do anything, even take his own life to obtain it. He was in the same position in the Treasury Department for 19 years. Mr. Harman, the former treasurer, always spoke of him in terms of the highest praise and placed the utmost confidence in him. It was his failing to take his work with too great assiduity. He became so devoted to his duties that they had become an anxiety and a burden to him from over concentration. He was, as Mr. Coady said of him, conscientious to a degree. He would sometimes say that he did not deserve to draw his salary for the month but on these occasions he was always assured that he would be worth his salary, if he simply went to the office half an hour a day and give them the benefit of his experience."
The deceased was an Englishman by birth. He has been married for many years and leaves a wife and five children, three girls and two boys, the eldest 16 years of age. He was a member of the Jarvis-street Baptist Church ever since it was opened. In his capacity in the Treasury Department he received a salary of $1400 per annum. His family, however, it is feared are not well provided for.
It has not yet been ascertained where the revolver was purchased, although Stark's has been named as the place. Certain it is that Mr. Lobb never carried a fire-arm, although some cartridges were found in the bureau drawer of his room. Manager Frank Taggart emphatically denies that the revolver was bought from Stark's establishment. No revolver, he says, was sold from there yesterday afternoon. It is also difficult to ascertain who the man was who first brought the fatal intelligence to Police Headquarters. "I don't know his name," said Sergeant Somerville to The World last night. Constable Dodds was just coming on duty and went down to look after the matter."
Inspector Stephen telephoned Coroner Powell shortly after the shot was fired. After investigating the circumstances he decided that an inquest will be unnecessary. The body was then removed to ex-Ald. Jas. Lobb's office.
There were many sympathizing friends at the house of the afflicted family, 32 Prospect-street, last night.
The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon at 3.30. The interment will be in Necropolis and the burial service will probably be conducted by Rev. Elmore Harris, Dr. Thomas being now in Ottawa.
