WEST YORK CONSERVATIVES.

A Convention Will be Held in
EAGLE'S HALL, WESTON, on
THURSDAY, NOV. 21ST, 1889.
at 1 o'Clock p.m.,
To Select a Candidate for the LOCAL LEGISLATURE
in place of
FRANK TURNER, ESQ., C.E.,
who has been compelled to resign, owing to his holding a commissionership from the Dominion Government on the Trent Valley Canal investigation.

W. J. BULL, Secretary. D. W. CLENDENAN, President.

Printed at The Comet Office, West Toronto Junction.

There was a goodly number of the above posters scattered throughout the banner riding of West York, as the dwellers therein delight to call it, during the past ten days, and it had the result of drawing together about one hundred delegates from the six municipalities yesterday afternoon. This was considered a very respectable turnout when the deplorable state of the country roads and the wet weather are put up as an offset against a full attendance of the association's delegates. It was thought that there would be "some fun" at the convention, and so there was a little. But after the convention had been in session for nearly three hours it broke up by giving the nomination unanimously to Mayor R. W. Clendenan of West Toronto Junction. The convention also passed a resolution endorsing the leadership and the course of Mr. W. R. Meredith in the Ontario Assembly and added a new officer to its list, Mr. J. B. Bruce of the Junction being appointed recording secretary.

Long before the convention met, which was at 2 p.m., there was a great deal of private conversation indulged in by the gathering delegates, who stood under the ample verandah of Eagle's Hotel and listened to the pitter-pat of the rain or went inside "to see a man" occasionally. Nearly every delegate was armed with a copy of yesterday's World, and the couple of columns devoted to the bolt of The Hamilton Spectator against the leadership of Mr. Meredith were eagerly scanned and talked over between times. This matter seemed to engross deeply the attention of the delegates up to the time of meeting.

Disciplining the Man for Galway.

It seemed to be the general opinion that His Worship of the Junction was to be the "man for Galway," but it was also mooted around that Mr. Clendenan needed some disciplining, as he was known to possess straight ideas on the Equal Rights question, and besides he had pronounced in favor of Prohibition. The thirty or so delegates who went from the Junction to back him were all said to be in line with the Mayor on Prohibition, but they did not want his Equal Rights doctrines thrust down their throats at his sweet will. Many of them gave it out that as they were Conservatives, first, last and all the time, Mr. Clendenan must go it slow if he expected their solid support. He must give and take a little.

Then it was known that Organizer Robert Birmingham and Mr. Clendenan would have it out because of the Mayor having stated at a meeting at the Junction the other night that because Mr. Birmingham was an Orangeman he should have worked for Equal Righter McCraney in West Lambton. Mr. Birmingham went out to Weston with blood in his eye, but all the harm that was done was the firing of a few broadsides between himself and the Mayor, when they came to terms and made it up in the most friendly way imaginable. Mr. Birmingham and Mr. G. F. Marter, M.L.A. for Muskoka, who, by the way, is now a full-fledged citizen of St. Allian's Ward, went out together on the 1 o'clock train, which Mayor Clendenan boarded at Carlton. He took a seat beside Mr. Birmingham, and by the time they reached Weston they had exchanged a few ideas. When the 100 delegates quitted the meeting place about 5 o'clock they all seemed imbued with harmony, but there are those who predict that Mayor Clendenan is liable to say something very straight about Equal Rights when he gets to stumping the riding and thus alienate the support of some of the men who helped to make his choice in yesterday's conclave.

Calling the Convention to Order.

Major Clendenan is also president of the West York Liberal-Conservative Association, and as such he called the convention to order by reading the poster above. Several prominent members of the association then came forward and took seats near the chairman. Among them were Frank Turner, C.E., J. C. Wallace, M.P.; Dr. R. B. Orr of Maple, J. P. Bull, G. F. Marter, M.L.A., and Mr. Birmingham.

Mr. Turner was asked to state the reasons why he had retired from the contest and he did so briefly, saying that he had been advised by his lawyers that he was ineligible to sit in the Ontario Assembly while holding a commission from the Dominion Government.

Mayor Clendenan announced that as he would, in all probability be one of those nominated he desired to vacate the chair. This he did and Mr. W. J. Smithson, the vice-president, a prosperous grainger with pleasant face, a flowing white beard and a charter member of the association, took his place. The chairman said he would receive nominations for half an hour. At the end of that time these names were before the convention:

Mayor D. W. CLENDENAN, West Toronto Junction—By J. P. Bull and George Wood.

Dr. R. B. ORR, Maple—By Frank Turner, C.E., and Reeve T. F. Wallace.

W. J. SMITHSON, Etobicoke—Dr. R. B. Orr and A. J. Griffith.

R. L. McCORMACK, West Toronto Junction—By Robert Armstrong and William Johnston.

J. P. BULL, York—By Peter Laughton and Seth Ashton.

Reeve T. F. WALLACE, Woodbridge—Dr. John Orr and William Cook.

ROBERT BIRMINGHAM, Toronto—By William Johnston and R. L. McCormack.

E. E. SHEPPARD, Toronto—By Dr. A. H. Perfect and C. Stevenson.

ROBERT ARMSTRONG, Toronto—By B. W. Clarke and W. Jackson.

He Declares for Equal Rights.

All of the nominees except Mayor Clendenan withdrew, but in doing so made short speeches. Mr. Clendenan, in opening the ball, held the floor for half an hour. He started out by declaring himself an ardent supporter of Sir John Macdonald, the N. P. and the C.P.R., up to a certain point. But when it came to the aggression of the Roman Catholic Church in Canada and the incorporation of the Jesuits he was not with the Premier at Ottawa. These were his opinions and he did not care a pot who knew it. He did not believe in the French getting a foothold in Ontario. He had understood that Sir John had promised the Roman Catholics of Quebec that he would do more for them than either Mercier or Laurier would do for them. If these were Sir John's sentiments towards the Roman Catholics of Quebec the sooner the Protestant majority of Ontario took him to task the better. If Mr. Meredith would come straight out on the Equal Rights platform he (Mr. C.) would give him his hearty support. The speaker also announced that he disagreed with Sir John Macdonald on his franchise act, and that he was in favor of prohibition and the doing away with the sale of intoxicating liquors. He was also an anti-provincialist, and believed that the interests of the whole Dominion should be considered ahead of any one province. The Mayor also declared that the liquor interest of the Province of Ontario was against the Conservative party and that it was paid to be so. If the delegates in the convention wanted him as their candidate on these terms he was with them heart and hand. Mr. Clendenan's remarks were frequently applauded.

One delegate, an old gentleman, who declared that he was an Orangeman, yelled out that Sir John Macdonald did perfectly right in allowing the incorporation of the Jesuits Act.

Mr. Frank Turner abjured the convention to remember that they were engaged in a provincial fight and not in a Dominion struggle. He did not think it was fair to drag Dominion politics into their local issues. The Dominion Government would take care of the Jesuit dispute, as it was properly their place to do so.

Dr. R. B. Orr said he had no desire to be a candidate, and in withdrawing his name paid a warm tribute to the worth of Mr. Meredith as the leader of the party in the Local Legislature. Mr. Meredith had filled the position at a great personal sacrifice to himself. [Applause.]

Mr. Birmingham and the Lambton Election.

Mr. Birmingham then addressed the convention and said of course it was out of the question to stand as a candidate. He pointedly informed Mr. Clendenan that he was a lifelong Orangeman and always expected to remain one. He was also an officer of the Conservative Union of Ontario. He had been sent into West Lambton to work and organize for Robert Fleck, an Orangeman and the nominee of the party in that riding. He did not go there to help Equal Righter McCraney, but he was sorry that 600 Conservatives had voted for that gentleman instead of their own party. Had they remained true to the Conservative party the Government candidate would have been routed and defeated. [Applause.] He (Mr. B.) would have placed himself in a nice position with his party had he not supported and worked hard for Mr. Fleck, the nominee of the Conservative party. Did not the Grits to a man support their candidate? What would have become of him had they voted for McCrae? They would have been in the soup. Mr. Birmingham then tendered some friendly advice to Mr. Clendenan as a West York. If they expected to carry the riding, and he had no doubt they could, they would have to work as a solid Conservative party. [Applause.]

Mr. Marter gave the convention some friendly and practical advice on their duty to the party. He quoted from motions made by Mr. Meredith in the House to show that he did not encourage the French encroachments complained of by Mr. Clendenan and that he (Mr. M.) had endeavored to get an amendment through the House to the Separate School Act whereby Roman Catholics would be enabled to choose for themselves where their children would be educated and which schools they would support. Every member of the Government and their followers had voted against such an amendment at the dictation of the Roman Catholic hierarchy. Mr. Meredith had a policy which they could all consistently follow, and if Mr. Clendenan professed not to be aware of this the enemies of the Conservative party in this province were. [Applause.] Mr. Meredith had also endeavored to rid the province of liquor license tyranny under which it suffered, and of which Mr. Clendenan so loudly complained. [Applause.]

A Round Up.

Mr. Clarke Wallace said he was prepared to stand by his vote on the Jesuit question—[applause]—in the House of Commons, but they were now engaged in a provincial fight, and not a Dominion one. Mr. Meredith had been a consistent leader. He advised all the delegates to rally round one candidate and he had no doubt they would win. [Applause.] In answer to a question, Mr. Wallace stated that if he were living and were at the next session of the Dominion Parliament he would move for the incorporation of the Loyal Orange Association of British America. [Applause.]

Both Mr. Martin and Mr. Wallace referred to the vigorous crusade made by The Toronto World in laying bare the many and glaring abuses that existed in administering the License Act by the partisan commissioners and their Hacksers of the Ontario Government.

Several other short addresses were made, the speakers all advising unity of action in this provincial fight and promising a thorough attention to Dominion affairs when the proper time came round. Mr. E. E. Sheppard was not present to withdraw.

All the candidates then commenced their formal withdrawal from the contest, and Mr. Clendenan was alone left. Mr. Seth Ashton of West Toronto Junction, formerly of Aurora, who declared that he was sound at the Reform party because he had voted for the N. P., then moved that Mr. Clendenan's nomination be made unanimous.

Several delegates wanted to know if Mr. Clendenan and Mr. Birmingham were of one cord and if the explanations to each other were satisfactory. They did not desire to see any discussions after they left the convention all. The enquirers were given to understand that everything was lovely.

Mr. Clendenan said he would like to see a ballot taken. If there were any delegates present who were opposed to him he desired to know it. The convention insisted on a standing vote and amid cheers Mr. Clendenan's nomination was made unanimous.

Mr. Birmingham said he would forgive Mr. Clendenan for the little fling he had made against him (Mr. B.) in his West Toronto Junction speech the other night.

Mr. J. P. Bull then moved that the convention endorse the leadership and policy of Mr. W. R. Meredith in the Ontario Assembly.

This was declared carried unanimously by the chairman.

The New Feature in West York.

West Toronto Junction is now the keystone to West York, and it may with truth be said that as goes the Junction so goes the riding. At the time of the last general elections in 1886 (Local) there were only 37 votes at the Junction. There are now 1350 and for the Dominion 1987. This new element is what will keep the two parties guessing during the campaign. One of the liveliest campaigns on record is predicted between Dr. J. T. Gilmour and Mayor Clendenan. It is said an attempt will be made to have them both run for the office of Mayor of the Junction next January just to test their respective strengths. Dr. Gilmour, it is thought, however, will not be drawn into any such arrangement.

An Invasion of Ketchum Park.

Ald. Hill, Tait and Gillespie visited Ketchum Park yesterday morning. The members of the School Board desire to take the park over for school purposes, and there were present on the park grounds, when the city representatives arrived, Trustees Frank Somers and Hastings. Men were at work removing the fences separating the park from the school ground when the aldermen put in an appearance. Some words were exchanged, Ald. Hill finally saying that he would apply for an injunction restraining the school board. Upon this the two trustees agreed to quit work until next Tuesday. A deputation from the board will then confer with the Parks and Gardens Committee. It is hoped that an agreement satisfactory to both parties may be arrived at.

The Land Security Company's Proposition

A sub-committee of the Board of Works met yesterday to consider an application from Mr. A. Pardoe acting for the Land Security Company, to open up a roadway from Dundas-street to High Park-avenue. The property owners who are interested offer to divert the street conditionally that the city pay them $5000. The committee thought the figure too high, but passed a resolution favoring the proposition, the question as to the amount to be paid to be settled after receiving a report from the Engineer and Assessment Commissioner.

Doric's New Officers.

Last evening Doric Lodge, A. F. & A.M., No. 316, held their annual elections, when these officers were chosen: Bro W McCartney, W M; W Bro R F Williams, I P M; Bro R J Barton, S W; Bro Harry Lecson, J W; Rev Bro Joseph Wild, D D, Chaplain; Bro John Sinclair, Jr, Treasurer; Bro Fred Bryers, Secretary; Bro John Pritchard, Tyler; Bro G S McConkey, Rep to Hall Trust; W Bro A A S Ardagh, Bro George Acheson, Bro H H Williams, Auditors. The worshipful masters, officers and members of York, Zeta and Zetland lodges paid a fraternal visit and a very pleasant evening was spent. The members of Doric will hold their annual conversazione at the Pavilion early in January.

FIGHTING ON THE MARCH.

STANLEY'S PROGRESS THROUGH THE DARK CONTINENT.

An Immense Southwesterly Extension of Lake Victoria Nyanza Discovered—It is "Major" Wissmann Now—The French Government Defeated in the Chamber of Deputies—General Cable News.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The British Consul at Zanzibar telegraphs to the Foreign Office as follows: Stanley arrived at Mpwapwa on the 55th day after his departure from the Victoria Nyanza and the 188th day after leaving the Albert Nyanza. In addition to the names already telegraphed Stanley has with him Hoffman, Emin's daughter and Fathers Graul and Schinz of the Algerian Mission. Stanley left Mpwapwa on Nov. 12, traveling toward the coast by way of Kemba and Mwemi. Stanley made an unexpected discovery of real value, in finding an extension of the Victoria Nyanza toward the southwest. The utmost southerly reach of the extension is south latitude 2, 48. This brings the Victoria Nyanza within 155 miles of Lake Tanganyika. The area of the extension is 26,900 square miles.

According to further advices received by the Foreign Office Stanley has with him 750 persons, of whom 290 are Emin's followers. There are also sixty children in the party. Stanley lost only 18 men during the march from the Victoria Nyanza. He had four days' fighting near Usukuma. The expedition is expected to arrive at Bagamoyo in a fortnight.

A Continuous Battle.

ZANZIBAR, Nov. 21.—Mr. Stanley in a letter to the British Consul at Zanzibar gives, in addition to the news already cabled the following story:

Every previous expedition has seen the lightening of its labors upon nearing the sea. But the long string of hammock bearers with us now tells a different tale. Till we can place the poor things in our company on shipboard there will be no rest for us. I swore one of it is that we have not the privilege of showing you at Zanzibar the full extent of our labors. After carrying some of them a thousand miles and fighting to the right and left of the sick driving the Warasura from their prey over ranges of mountains and by every energy on full strain they slip through our hands and die in their hammocks. One lady 75 years old, mother of Vakiel, died in this manner.

In North Unukuma, south of the Victoria Nyanza, we had a stirring time for four days as anywhere on our route. There was continuous fighting during the greater part of the daylight hours. The foolish natives took an unaccountable prejudice against Emin's people. They insisted that they were Cannibals and had come for no good purpose. Talking was useless, as any attempt to disprove their impression only drove them into a white, hot rage and in their mad hate flinging in themselves on us they suffered severely.

I am advised that the Sembs and Mivene route is best for securing an abundance of food and therefore I propose to adopt it. But as regards danger from attacks by natives one road seems to be as bad as another.

Regarding the Victoria Nyanza Stanley says it is 1000 square miles larger than reported by Speke, whose statement regarding the size of the lake was supposed to be exaggeration. Uriji also, which Speke so hastily sketched, turns out to be a very respectable lake with populated islands.

Stanley to Wissmann.

ZANZIBAR, Nov. 21.—Stanley, writing to Captain Wissmann from Mpwapwa Nov. 11, says: "I have often wished to see you. Fate has brought us within a few days of each other. I hope it will still be auspicious and keep you till I have a pleasing opportunity of knowing a colleague who has labored so unostentatiously and well in a similar field under the same royal patronage."

Mr. W. H. Smith Talks.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Right Hon. Wm. Henry Smith in a speech at Truro to-night announced that the Porte had granted amnesty to all political offenders in Crete. Referring to Irish affairs he said he hoped Parliament would see an extension of Local Government to Ireland.

A Defeat for the Tirard Ministry.

PARIS, Nov. 21.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day M. Leydet offered a motion in favor of allowing the free manufacture of matches. As present a company pays the State for a monopoly of the business.

M. Rouvier, Minister of Finance, proposed to withdraw the company's concession and to establish a direct Government monopoly.

This proposal was rejected, 312 to 236, and M. Leydet's motion was carried, 292 to 222.

The defeat of the Government has caused a sensation and is looked upon as a bad augury for the Ministry.

The Czar's Prayer.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 21.—The Czar to-day visited the artillery school. In an address he said he hoped the Russian artillery would be distinguished on the battlefield in the future as in the past. He added: "God grant that an occasion may not soon arise. May the Lord preserve us from that heavy trial."

Stanley announcing his arrival at Mpwapwa and stating that he expects to reach Zanzibar in four or five days. UNIVERSITY SENATE.

Important Business Transacted at Last Night's Meeting.

At the meeting of the University Senate last night the examiners for 1890 were appointed.

The report of the Board of Art Studies, submitting a draft curriculum for junior matriculation for the years 1891-5, was received. It was decided that copies be sent with the request for suggestions to the masters of the High Schools and Collegiate Institutes of the province and to other universities and educational institutions, public and private.

Prof. Loudon presented a report of the Committee on Amendments to Examination Statutes, which was adopted, and a statute embodying it received its first reading. The report provides that the University shall conduct the examination in the first and fourth years and also in all subjects taught by the University professoriate in the second and third years and that each confederating arts college may examine in the subjects taught by it in the second and third years, these examinations to be held simultaneously on a common program. It also provided that the confederating theological colleges shall conduct examinations in Biblical Greek, Biblical Literature, Church History and Apologetics where such subjects are accepted by the University as part of a regular arts course.

It was moved by Mr. W. F. Maclean, seconded by Mr. Creelman, that the communication of the graduates and undergraduates forwarded by Mr. Smoke and the petition of the students in metaphysics in the third and fourth years in arts be referred to a special committee to inquire into the allegations therein contained.

Dr. Ellis gave notice of a motion that a department of Physical science be established.

A statute was introduced by Prof. Baker, seconded by Dr. MacFarlane, providing that retiring members of teaching faculty in medicine may receive an allowance for five years after their retirement, such allowance being a percentage of their salary during the last year of office to be paid but of the salary of the newly appointed professor. The statute also provides that any retiring professor in the medical faculty may by resolution of the senate be appointed an emeritus professor of said faculty without remuneration.

A report of the Board of Medical and Dental Studies was introduced by Dr. Adam Wright and discussed for certain changes in the medical curriculum.

Mr. T. Beath was introduced and the degree of B.A. was conferred upon him.

A DETROIT COLONEL IN COURT.

After His Deserting Wife and His Jewel Case—The Villain in the Plot.

Col. John Sands, a Detroiter, appeared in the Police Court yesterday afternoon to air his grievances. The Colonel is the husband of a buxom, shrewd-faced lady. According to his statement he went "soldiering" last Aug. 12. When he came back he found one McCarthy keeping house with his better-half. The latter immediately "skipped," and McCarthy kindly offered to go and bring her back. The Colonel has been waiting ever since. McCarthy was arrested in Toronto by Detectives Walsh and Mulkern while in the house was Mrs. Sands and a large quantity of jewelry, which the Colonel claimed as his.

The runaway was put in the witness-box and swore that the jewelry belonged to her and not to her husband. She excused herself for leaving her husband by declaring that he had threatened to kill her, and she thought it better to leave than to be "chucked" out.

County Crown Attorney Badgerow's thundering away had not the slightest effect upon her, she only smiled sweetly and intimated that "the Colonel's fond of women, too," and that turn about was fair play.

The case was adjourned until Monday. In the meantime McCarthy languishes behind the bars. Bail was asked but the magistrate refused to grant it. He is charged with bringing stolen property into the Dominion.

SLIPPERY SAM.

A Lambton Napoleon of Finance Silently Steals Away.

WATFORD, Nov. 21.—Nearly everybody in this section knows Samuel Newell of the 6th line, S.E.R., Warwick. Samuel was a man that you don't meet every day, that is if he owes you anything. He is a big strapping fellow, over six feet in height, tips the scale at about 250 pounds, and was always the boss puller on a tug of war, and has captured several prizes in the fat men's race. He was a smooth talker was Samuel, and it was worth a small loan to listen to him negotiate. "Really, truly and honestly I will be in with a load of wheat on Saturday and pay you your money, yes, indeed I will, Mr. ——." For some time past Mr. Newell has been in deep water financially and has been robbing Peter to pay Paul, so to speak. The load of debt increased so rapidly that it was too much even for his broad shoulders to bear and he saw no way out of the woods but to seek seclusion under the protection of the starry banner.

The debt of the Government has caused a sensation and is looked upon as a bad augury for the Ministry.

Tuesday night he gathered together his household effects and some portable goods, loaded them into a hay rack and in the silent watches of the night struck out for Sarnia and crossed the river early on Friday.

In Port Huron he met Mr. J. Keller of this place, and told him he was moving his son over to Michigan. Mr. Keller, who is a creditor of Newell's, kindly assisted him in getting his goods across the line. When Mr. K. returned home and found that his friendly help had assisted in making his claim for $25 worthless you could have knocked him over with a two ounce pippin. Mr. J. Lovell, from whom Newell had obtained a $100 buggy the day previous, followed him up and succeeded in regaining possession of his rig. It is said that Newell's liabilities will foot up to over $5000, while the assets are a mere trifle. The claims range from $5 up and some of his friends and relatives will be heavy losers. Samuel is supposed to be in Michigan, but has not yet sent his postoffice address. It is another case of too many irons in the fire.

Good cellar storage, suitable for liquors in wood or case. Wool, woollen goods, etc. At Mitchell, Miller & Co's. warehouse, 45 Front-street, East.

ALIBIS FOR EVERYBODY.

Even the White Horse Has One—A Volunteer Witness for Coughlin.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Patrick Dinan, livery stable keeper, and owner of the famous white horse, was the first witness in the Cronin case to-day. He testified that his horse was in a dime museum in this city. He was the same horse he had let Coughlin's friend have on the evening of the murder.

Louis Budenbender of Hoboken, N. J., a real estate agent, testified that between Aug. 9, 1888, and May 21, 1889, he lived at Chicago in a flat in which Dr. Cronin lived with the Conklins. On the evening of the murder witness was in Jeckels' cigar store opposite Dr. Cronin's residence. He was positive he was in the cigar store at 7 o'clock and may have remained there until 8 or 9 o'clock. After he had been there a few minutes he noticed the horse and buggy in front of Dr. Cronin's office. It was an ordinary sidebar buggy and had the top up. Witness continued:

"I saw Dr. Cronin and another man come from the house and start to the buggy. The driver started for the horse while the Doctor started toward the buggy. There was some man on the sidewalk near the house-line who called to Dr. Cronin and attracted his attention, for the Doctor turned around, but still kept going towards the buggy. Then the driver went to the horse's head and unhitched the horse, went to the buggy, got in and sat on the west side. Then Dr. Cronin got in. He was talking to this man all the while, so it seemed to me. Then they shifted seats and this man got in front of the Doctor and then they sat down and went off. I saw Dr. Cronin what appeared to be a small chest or box, which might have contained his instruments or medicine." Witness was standing in the door of the cigar store looking at the horse for about fifteen minutes, and saw it before the men came down, and all the incidents of their departure.

"What was the color of that horse?" asked the lawyer.

"It was a grey; a speckled grey with dark legs. The horse which I saw yesterday at the dime museum was not the horse that drove Dr. Cronin away and did not resemble it. The horse I saw yesterday was a white horse, but the horse I saw take Dr. Cronin away on the night of May 4 was a speckled grey. The legs of the horse that took Dr. Cronin were dark, while the legs of this horse are white."

The remainder of the session was occupied by microscopic experts, who gave technical testimony showing that the Teichmann test was not a scientific test for distinguishing the hair of human beings from that of lower animals.

As Judge McConnell was entering court this morning he was met by a man, who introduced himself as "J. Martin." Martin said he had knowledge of value to one of the defendants in the Cronin case—Coughlin. He did not want to be mixed up in the case, he said, and for that reason had not spoken before. His conscience, however, would not let him rest till he had related what he knew. His story was that he had seen Coughlin between 9 and 10 o'clock on the night of the murder as the Chicago-avenue police station.

Judge McConnell informed the State's Attorney and Mr. Forrest of Martin's story, which corroborates the testimony of Officer McDonald. Martin will probably testify to-morrow.

It is said that the State has made several efforts to secure the presence here as a witness of Long, the Toronto reporter who sent out the bogus interview with Dr. Cronin, but the highly imaginative correspondent declines to subject himself to the ordeal of Judge Longenecker's "sweat box." Some sensational developments with regard to the Toronto story are, however, expected before the trial ends.

A NEW JERSEY CYCLONE.

Terrible Storm at Newberne—A Factory Blown Down—Two Persons Killed.

NEWBERNE, N.Y., Nov. 21.—At 1 o'clock to-day a fearful storm struck Newberne, coming from the southwest. The plate and pulp factory of S. H. Gray, in which there were sixty hands, was levelled to the ground. One employe was killed, another mortally injured and eight others injured. The factory was valued at $60,000. The damage to the house and stock is estimated at $8000, the machinery not yet known. The wind blew a perfect hurricane, unroofing houses, blowing down chimneys, trees and fences. The damage to the town is very great.

Bismarck's Finger in the Brazil Pie.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—A Berlin despatch says: "The hope is generally expressed here that in the event of a split up the 200,000 Germans in Southern Brazil will ask for German protection. It is not improbable that an attempt will be made, with the aid of the colonial party here, to secure partial if not complete independence.

This Cashier Died Suddenly.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 21.—Joseph Yglesias, Cashier of the International Mortgage Bank, died suddenly last night. It is rumored that he is a defaulter in $40,000 and that he committed suicide.

Took the Veil.

MONTREAL, Nov. 21.—A niece of Rev. Edmond Wood of St. John the Evangelist Church, Episcopalian, has taken the veil at the Sacred Heart Convent, Sault aux Recollet.

J. R. Armstrong & Co., of the "City Found ery," have removed from 151 Yonge-street to 219, 221 and 223 Queen-street east.

Fashions for Men.

In Europe the one-stud fashion for full dress is still to a certain extent considered good form. In fact all the best houses are showing them. Of course the two-stud will be the most popular. To meet the different tastes quinn has imported another full range of Virgoe Middleton's dress shirts one and two studs.

Through Parlor and Sleeping Car Line to Buffalo and New York.

Do not forget you can leave Toronto at 2.50 p.m. and arrive in Buffalo at 7 p.m. and New York next morning at 8.20. Magnificent parlor car runs through to Buffalo and connects with the Erie flyer at Hamilton. No changing of cars, either Pullman or coach, as it is a solid train from Chicago to New York.

The Khan on Barley (Not in the Liquid State).

[From The Hamilton Times, Nov. 21.]

"The Khan," a gentleman as well known in the literary as in the bucolic world, tells a strange story in to-day's Dundas Banner, and one which the farmers ought to read before passing the Hamilton grain market in search of higher prices. Mr. Kernighan declares that in Gali the farmer has to take what he gets and say nothing. "For instance, a farmer drives in with a load of grain and a buyer boards it. He offers so much a bushel, ridiculously low. The farmer refuses it and proceeds elsewhere. The first buyer rushes to a telephone and sends a faithful description of the farmer, his team and outfit, to the other buyers, and the farmer is met with a reduction in figures wherever he goes, and sacrifices his load, going home with the glad tidings that he sold his load anyhow."

Flannel shirts are being worn more to-day than ever they were. The people have found out they are more economical, more comfortable, easier to get done up, and what is best of all they don't cost as much as a white shirt. We have some really nice patterns made into shirts, and the flannel in the piece. A. White, 53 King-street west.

THE THREE BIG SCHEMES

FOR SETTLING THE MIXED PROBLEM IN THE ESPLANADE.

The Representative Bodies Discuss the Various Reports—Some New Points Raised by the Fruitful Ald. Baxter—Looking for Harmony in a Sub-Committee — More Meetings in Order.

|---|---|
| Wellington plan | $2,424,300 |
| Gzowski-Shanly plan | 1,700,000 |
| Citizens' plan | 1,921,500 |

These are the three schemes now before the city as a solution of the great existing Esplanade difficulties. All three, while differing in detail, agree in one main feature, that the tracks be elevated. The old Montreal agreement was practically buried under the snow at the last Esplanade meeting. The entire matter was once more gone over last night by a joint meeting in the City Council chamber, composed of representatives from the Board of Trade, Citizens' Association, City Council, Trades and Labor Council and Harbor Commissioners. These are the representatives who were present:

City Council—Ald. Boustead, chairman; the Mayor, Ald. Gillespie, Gibbs, Shaw, Ritchie, Baxter, Small, Tait, McDougall, Denison, Davies.

Board of Trade—D R Wilkie, J J Davidson, W Davies, E C Gurney, J J Withrow, William Ince.

Citizens' Association—D E Thomson, H Blain, Joseph Simpson, J H Armstrong, John Galt, E G Walker, C F Arnoldi.

Trades and Labor Council—President, R Glocking, W H Parr, John Armstrong.

Harbor Commissioners—Thomas Tully, M Baldwin.

Among the communications sent in was one from M. P. Cockburn and F. C. Denison, accepting the invitation to accompany the deputation appointed to interview the Railway Committee at Ottawa.

Reviewing the Various Plans.

A lengthy and exhaustive report was submitted by Assistant-Engineer Cunningham, in which he set forth the propositions before the meeting. In discussing the adoption of any of these schemes he thinks it only reasonable that the railway companies should be considered. The remainder of the report is largely devoted to a reviewal of the details of the various plans. With regard to the size and style of the viaduct Mr. Cunningham expressed the opinion that while the solid viaduct is much the cheaper of the two, if appearance and taste are deemed sufficient to outweigh the additional cost, $700,000, there is no reason why the open structure should not be adopted. Many other matters of detail with which the public is by this time, doubtless, familiar were considered in the report.

Immediately after the reading of Engineer Cunningham's report Ald. Baxter moved that before coming to a definite decision on the matter this committee would recommend that a conference be held with the railway concerns in order to ascertain their views on this question. If this viaduct scheme, he said, is carried out has it ever occurred to any of the gentlemen what an enormous sum it must cost the companies? Some of them, he said, have the property they now have extending from Scarboro Heights to Union Station, of which they have a perpetual lease. This viaduct, in his opinion, will just be a means of facilitating the passage of through freight to other destinations.

Ald. Tait Objects.

To this resolution Ald. Tait objected. In his opinion the joint meeting should first agree upon some definite policy before meeting the representatives of the railway companies. He moved in amendment: That it is the duty of this joint committee to adopt a scheme that will best serve the interests of the city and then arrange for a meeting with the representatives of the railway companies interested to discuss the merits of the scheme and the proportion of costs each party ought to pay.

Ald. Baxter's resolution was supported by Ald. Shaw.

Ald. Tait's motion was supported by Mr. Wilkie, who said that from the outset the viaduct had been opposed by Ald. Baxter. His motion to consult the railways evidenced his desire to strangle any scheme for a viaduct. They should agree before such consultation took place on some scheme among themselves. The cost of a viaduct was not after all so very great. The credit of Toronto and the good work done in England by Mayor Clarke—[applause]—would ensure that money could be borrowed cheaply. He trusted that Ald. Baxter would withdraw his resolution.

The Mayor pointed out that several reports had already been submitted and the joint committee should certainly decide upon some definite policy before meeting the railway companies.

The Public Interest Should be Paramount.

Mr. D. Thomson said that the public interests here should, as in England, be paramount. What was the precedent set in Rochester? There the railways had been elevated at the entire cost of the railway companies. [Ald. Baxter: "Hear, hear, we'll agree to that."] He also believed that some plan should be agreed upon before meeting the railway companies, the last question to be kept in reserve being the proportion of cost to be borne by the respective concerns. He thought that in the final settlement of this matter the city of Toronto, not the railway companies, should control the entrance by the Esplanade to Toronto. [Applause.]

Several speeches followed in support of the original resolution and in support of the amendment. The discussion branched off into the advisability of adopting or of rejecting the viaduct scheme, when His Worship read the resolution passed at a previous meeting committing the joint meeting to a viaduct.

Ald. Baxter made a reference to Mr. Frank Arnoldi, who had opposed his resolution. "As a lawyer," said Uncle John, "Mr. Arnoldi is a success, but as a practical man he is a lamentable failure." [Laughter.]

Mr. Edward Gurney spoke at some length in favor of Ald. Tait's motion. Once having reached a conclusion any member who differed from the general consensus of opinion would be disloyal to Toronto.

Calling For a Conference.

It was then moved by Mr. Wilkie and Mr. Ince:

That in the opinion of this meeting a conference between the City Engineer, the Engineer of the Citizens' Committee and Mr. Wellington is advisable with a view to the preparation, if possible, of a joint report on the various viaduct schemes to be laid before this committee at the earliest possible date and that the chairman of this committee arrange for the conference.

Assistant Engineer Cunningham addressed the meeting. He could see no object in calling such a conference between himself and the other engineers. They would simply be able to discuss their own reports and each engineer had not prepared his separate report without careful study.

All the above resolutions without any formal withdrawal disappeared, and as a final solution it was decided that a sub-committee of the joint committee be appointed to assist the engineers who have sent in reports in harmonizing the various schemes and to report as early as possible. The committee was composed of these representatives:

City Council—The Mayor, Ald. Boustead, Gillespie.

Citizens' Association—H. Blain, D. E. Thomson.

Board of Trade—D. R. Wilkie, Edward Gurney.

Harbor Commissioners—A. B. Lee.

Trades and Labor Council—John Armstrong, R. Glocking.

The committee will meet in the Mayor's office to-morrow afternoon.

A Great Downpour of Rain.

The beginning of this week a heavy fall of rain set in both north and south of Lake Erie; and up to late last night it still continued in this district. Its extent has been over a vast region of country, covering a large portion of the States of New York and Pennsylvania, also of the Province of Ontario. From Elmira, N.Y., also from Reading, Pa., much damage from floods is reported; and latest accounts rivers were still on the rise. The Herald says that although in that region the wind was not excessively violent, the rainfall has so far been phenomenally heavy, enough so for a September downpour. This is the passing over us of a cyclone of vast reach geographically; and we shall pretty certainly hear more of it ere the week closes. From Williamsport, Pa., it was telegraphed on Tuesday that by that time a three days' rain had transformed small streams into raging torrents, and that a repetition of the deluge of last June was looked for.

If the vast downpour of rain be not soon followed by the big freeze-up of the season, then our weather prophets of the old school may as well "hang up the fiddle and the bow" and retire from the business. The movement of the cyclone is probably north and east away down the St. Lawrence valley. To add to the remarkable features of the time, cold weather with a fall of snow is reported from South Carolina. Weather reports from the Northwest ought to be of special interest every hour that passes about this time.

And who shall say how long I'll last,
Now poor Dom Pedro's gone;
We Emperors have been quitting fast
Till I am left alone,
Och hone!
There'll be no millions given me,
No pension when I quit,
The ukase it will simply be:
"You just git up and git!"
I'll fit.

A Cheerful View.

The Globe's Montreal despatch a cheerful view is taken of Canada's export business for the season now drawing near its close. We quote:

The exportation of cattle and sheep from this port goes on steadily increasing from year to year. The trade is becoming larger, and better prices than formerly are being realised by the exporters. The demand for Canadian cattle has been very great, as will be shown by the following: In 1888 the number of cattle exported was 61,003, sheep 46,223; this year, up to yesterday, when the last for the season were shipped (Wednesday), the total stood, cattle 85,537, sheep 168,775. The tonnage entered at this port for the season was 692 vessels, with a total tonnage of 878,537. This is the largest tonnage for the past six years, as shown by the following table:

| | Total No. vessels. | Total tonnage |
|---|---|---|
| 1884 | 626 | 649,374 |
| 1885 | 629 | 683,854 |
| 1886 | 703 | 809,699 |
| 1887 | 767 | 879,773 |
| 1888 | 655 | 792,478 |
| 1889 | 692 | 878,537 |

Now carry the news, ye fearful ones, whose fear has been that under the National Policy this country has been going to wreck and ruin, and remember that the foregoing, also what now follows, all appeared in The Globe yesterday. Surely there is something going to happen:

The Kingston and Montreal Forwarding Company and the Montreal Transportation Company both report their steamers and barges fully employed. The former says: "We have carried more grain than in any season since organization, but, strange to say, we have not had one bushel of Canadian grain. Our trade has been altogether on Chicago and western account, a large proportion of which was from exporters who have never shipped by the St. Lawrence before. To retain this large export trade the Government will have to again rebate the canal tolls next season, and early intimation should be given.

The amount of grain carried by the Montreal Transportation Company this season exceeds that of any other season in the history of the company, now in existence 21 years. The large crop of corn harvested in the United States in 1888, and the low price at which it has sold throughout the season for export, is no doubt the cause of the increase via the St. Lawrence route, and clearly proves that with a canal toll equal to that of the Erie canal the St. Lawrence route can hold its own. A remarkable feature in the season's business is the fact that only four per cent. of all the grain carried by the company was Canadian product.

It is argued that Protection is established for the building up merely of certain "exotic" industries, which have no business in this country at all. It does not appear, however, that the native or indigenous industries are suffering very badly, meanwhile. Both farmers and export shippers may join The Globe in taking a cheerful view generally. And even the ocean and defender of that presumptuous fraud—commercial annexation—may begin to reflect what a gratuitous imposition the fraud aforesaid is upon the people of this independent and self-supporting country.

The present weather is "quite English, you know."

Complaint is being made that President Harrison has as yet given no intimation of what his forthcoming message will contain. Suppose he has nothing to say?

The convention of the Knights of Labor have decided not to endorse any general strike for the eight-hour movement. This shows sense. In these days of multifarious employments and continuous work no hard and fast line can be drawn in such matters. Circumstances must govern individual cases, though as a general proposition eight hours each day is as long as man should work.

Speaking of the proposed "merchant's day" for Toronto, The Sarnia Canadian suggests that Toronto merchants pay the fares of their customers visiting this city. No doubt they would be glad to do so in the form of a rebate on purchases.

A revolution has been averted in Quebec city by the removal of the lady type-writer who went there from Ontario to take a situation in the postoffice. Politics are getting down pretty fine when this can be regarded as a national issue.

Considering the results in West Lambton, and the subsequent call for the deposition of Mr. Meredith as leader of the Opposition, it may be questioned if Mr. Mowat is not a little sorry that he caused it to be announced that there would be another session before a general election.

THE TWO RUMORISTS.

Nye and Riley at the Pavilion—Fanny Davenport in "La Tosca."

Bill Nye appeared before the large audience at the Pavilion last evening wearing a very intellectual dress suit and a bald head. This head is his stock-in-trade, but he really ought to have it upholstered. There seems to be a lack of finish to it. A thin coat of veneer or something of that kind would add greatly to its attractiveness. At present it does not look as if it had been improved on since the day he was born.

Mr. Nye appears to be afflicted with a chronic complaint of the lips that seems to necessitate his continued licking of them with his tongue. Perhaps they are retractory and require licking. Or it may be that this is for the purpose of showing affection. In either case it leaves the audience guessing, and the simple auditor cannot help hoping that the gifted Mr. Nye would take to drink, if his lip cannot be moistened in any other way.

Mr. Nye as an elocutionist is a success. His clothes fit him well, and the object end of his Waterbury watch is glaringly protuberant. He tells a number of stories in a very funny way, and in one respect he has a decided advantage over the ordinary minstrel performer. He creates just as much laughter in just about half the same way, but he saves the bother of "washing-up," with the attendant enquiries of who stole his soap, after the performance is over.

Not that Mr. Nye is not clever, he is. He can make big money every night, and never lose a hair. He don't have to turn his hair, by the way, and it is lucky he don't. It saves him the price of the hair.

Mr. Nye spends a good deal of his time in adding to his bank account. He ought to spend the rest of it hugging himself over having such a soft snap.

Tom Mr. Nye up, he is a decidedly clever man who is willing to make a buffoon of himself for the sake of the money there is in it, and who is getting there with the almost regularity.

Mr. Nye's side partner is James Whitcomb Riley. Mr. Riley has written poetry that deserves to live. It reaches the human spot. He always manages to work in that touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. But had he never written a line, James Whitcomb Riley, as an actor, could command the masses. He is a natural-born comedian, and his fund of dry, quaint humor seems inexhaustible.

There are many comedians on the stage with less talent than Riley who pose as stars. He could pit himself against the best in the business and come out a winner.

Still, for all, Nye and Riley are fakirs. Clever ones—clever as they can be made—but still fakirs, using that term not in the slightest degree disrespectfully, but merely to describe in one word those who care more for the pecuniary than the artistic side of their performance.

They give a good show just the same.

Davenport as "La Tosca."

The strong lights of drama were turned on at the Grand Opera House last night, when Victorien Sardou's "La Tosca" was presented by Fanny Davenport and her company.

The play, as is generally known, pictures the intensity of Italian life—love that laughs at death, friendship that would forfeit life, the depth and strength of hate, and the elated triumph of satisfied revenge. A given last night the play was faultlessly staged and the parts were in the hands of accomplished artists without exception.

Miss Davenport as the divine Tosca, moved the audience to smiles and sympathy in the first act by her innocent adoration of Mario, her jealousies and her tender protestations of affection. The torture scene was a terrible reality, the throes of the victim, the repressed anguish of woman and Scarpia's unrelenting sternness made all heads bend in tension and all hearts beat with excitement. At the conclusion of the fourth act the actress appears at the height of dramatic glory, and her powers rise in that supreme moment to the complete delineation of passionate revenge.

Mr. MacDowell, as Le Baron Scarpia, played his part with the precision of an artist. No greater praise could have been bestowed on him than the hisses he was met with when he appeared before the curtain, a fact which he appeared to appreciate.

Mr. Oscar Eagle, as Angelotti, Theodore Roberts, as Mario, and the other members of the company appeared to good advantage.

The audience, considering the wet weather, was large, and the play was received with great enthusiasm. Miss Davenport was recalled twice after the second and third acts and repeatedly at the conclusion of the play. She graciously responded to each encore, looking as bright and pretty as a maid from school.

The play will run for the rest of the week with a matinee to-morrow. There is no advance in prices.

Amusement Notes.

Prof. R. L. Cumnock, who is to appear in Association Hall next Tuesday night, stands without a peer in his delineation of the heroic, the pathetic, the dramatic and the humorous. He has a national reputation as a perfect master of elocution.

The sale of seats for the Julia Marlowe performances at the Grand Opera House next week opens to-day.

On Wednesday evening Miss Alice M. Waltz, Miss Annie Langstaff, Mr. E. W. Schuch and Mr. W. E. Ramsay sang at the concert of St. Patrick's Society in Barrie, before a large and appreciative audience.

The distinguished English actress, Miss Helen Barry, will appear at the Academy of Music the last three nights of next week in the following repertoire: Thursday and Saturday evening, "Victor Durand;" Friday evening, "London Assurance" and Saturday matinee, "A Woman's Strategem." Plan opens next Monday morning.

"The Wages of Sin," an intensely interesting melo-drama that has been seen often in Toronto, will be the attraction at Jacobs & Sparrow's Opera House all next week.

GIGANTIC LACROSSE TOUR.

IN '91 A CANADIAN TEAM WILL VISIT AUSTRALIA.

Britishers May Accompany the Canucks—Jack Sinclair on the Situation—The Game in the Antipodes—The Banquet To-night—The Wanderers, Bicyclists and Snowshoers—O'Connor Returns.

A Canadian lacrosse team for Australia!

This is the latest in lacrosse circles here. But it is not at all a recent idea. For some time the plan has been carefully turned over in the minds of our lacrosse heroes. They have several times successfully piloted teams on English, Irish and Scotch soil, and now turn to a more gigantic project.

The reasons for the proposed tour are two fold—for the pleasure and travel of the men who will brave the voyage and to more firmly establish the game in the Antipodes.

But the personnel of the team may not be entirely Canadian, Jack Sinclair, that famous North of Ireland lacrosser, will probably be a party to the affair. His proposition is to combine a team of Canadians and Britishers. He himself is willing to go and would like nothing better than to travel with his staunch friends, the Garvins, the Mackenzies, etc.

The trip will not take place next year, but '91 has been favorably spoken of as the time, and before another year passes around something more definite will be known anent the affair.

Lacrosse in Australia is at present not the popular pastime. Cricket and football are the favorite Australian manly games. But the Antipodean is liberal and treats the visitor so generously and hospitably that our national game would be received with every consideration, and its merit would most certainly commend itself to the citizens of Melbourne, Sydney, Brisbane, etc.

VARSITY BASEBALLISTS.

Cornell University Invited to Come Here Next Spring.

The secretary of the 'Varsity Baseball Club has written to Cornell University for a game here early next spring, and offering a substantial guarantee. It will be remembered that 'Varsity played in Ithaca last year, winning a close game by ten runs to nine. The Cornellians made an effort to have another game on the next day and secure revenge, but this was impossible. The 'Varsity team were royally treated by the Cornellians and of course wish to reciprocate. An effort will be made to have the 'Varsity-Cornell match an annual fixture, which could result in nothing but good for both the colleges.

The 'Varsity team will have most of its old stars in the nauks next year, with several available men to draw from. A splendid addition is First Baseman Campbell, a stalwart six-footer, and not unlike Dan Brouthers in the manner he enables around the bags. He will replace Dr. Clarke, who is now a professor in the Buffalo Medical College. Andrus of the Bisons will be ready to assist the boys, being in attendance at medical lectures, and will play in the spring games, being a bona fide undergraduate.

The Honesty and Integrity of the National.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—A. G. Spalding of Chicago, John Day of New York and John I. Rogers of Philadelphia, the committee appointed at the annual meeting of the National League, have prepared an address to the public defining the position of the League in baseball controversies. The address says that the National League stands to-day as it has stood for 14 years sponsor for the honesty and integrity of professional baseball.

Dust from the Diamond.

Clarkson is to coach the Harvard College nine during the winter.

Glasscock has decided to stick to the Indianapolis League team.

Andrus says he expects to play in a Buffalo International team next year.

It is stated that New York capital is behind the Pittsburg Brotherhood club.

McPhee has agreed to terms and will play with the Cincinnati National League Club.

The athletic committee of Harvard has decided to allow the university nine to employ a professional coach.

Tom Miller, late of St. Paul, has signed with the Hams. This is the first International contract of the season.

The Cleveland Brotherhood have thus far signed seven players, including McKean, Stricker and Zimmer.

Mike Madden, the "Kid," has signed a contract for three years with the Boston Brotherhood team at a salary of $2700.

Wm. Shindle, third baseman of last year's Baltimore club, yesterday signed with the Philadelphia Brotherhood club.

Col. Robert G. Ingersoll says that the reserve clause in the League baseball contracts is not worth the paper it is written on.

Chas. Levkin of Stanford, Conn., a professional baseball player, was found dead at the Occidental Hotel at Quincy last night.

Charles Farrell, catcher of the Chicago League team the past season, has signed with one in the Players National League team of Chicago.

Von der Ahe says that Rochester will be admitted to the association, and that the fee for last choice would reset between Toronto and Detroit.

Bert Bennett was at the Detroit meeting. He says it was a most harmonious affair, everything points to a good year in '91. He says that the general opinion at the meeting was that the Brotherhood would no longer be in the force.

A Pittsburg despatch says: Galvin, Miller, Field, Kuehne and Hanlon have signed the players' contracts for Pittsburg. John M. Ward will be the manager, and will nurture of De Wolfe Hopper, the actor, as mascot to the new league. All the stock has been subscribed for the Players' National League Club in Pittsburg.

The general run of the minor league players does not impress the great and only Mike Kelly (him any particular corner of Queens of song). "They come into the National League," said he recently, "with a batting average of .229 7-10 and a fielding average of .928 3-5. They wind up with a batting average of .000 7-10 and a fielding average of .268 straightaway. Guy time," Kelly was always a National Leaguer!

Jack Rowe came on from Buffalo Monday and signed the following players for the Brotherhood Club: Ferson in Manchester, John Orr in South Boston, Carney in Salem and Conny Mack in Hartford. All were with Washington last year. With Wise, Rowe and White, this makes seven men now signed by the Buffalo club.—Boston Globe.

Vice-President Dickinson of the Syracuse club in regard to the report that Manager W. W. Burnham of the Worcesters had been engaged to manage the Stars next year, said yesterday that it was not true. The Star club, he said, had not made Burnham any offer and in fact was looking elsewhere. G. R. Schmeis of last season's Columbus team will probably be the man.

Fred. Pfeffer last night gave out the following list of men who have signed the Brotherhood agreement and will play with the Chicago Players National League club next season: Hugh Duffy, James Ryan, Charles Farrell, Dell Darling, John F Tener, M E Baldwin, Charles King, Frank Dwyer, Charley Bastian, W A Latham, Ed N Williamson and N F Pfeffer.

J. M. Ward has been traveling through the West hustling for the Brotherhood. To a Pittsburg reporter he said: Of one thing I can assure you—that though we are not doing much talking we're sawing a lot of wood, and when we meet on January 7th the results will show for themselves. The public will then see which is the stronger organization, and which will be able to play the better ball. As to the ultimate success of the new League there is no shadow of doubt. We will have the old League players, and in addition the pick of the Association.

The Lacrosse Club's Concert To-night.

Webb's dining parlors will be taxe to their utmost to-night at 8 o'clock, when the Toronto Lacrosse Club holds its annual supper and smoking concert. The club has a membership of over 200 and a good number of these, with many outside friends will be present. All the prominent city sporting organizations will send representatives to the concert and a most jolly time will certainly be the order of the evening. There are a number of tickets for sale yet, and those wishing to go will find that they are not yet too late. Evening dress may be dispensed with, as the committee are disciples of congeniality rather than strict etiquet.

Slavin Wants to Fight Sullivan.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Arthur T. Lumley, who looks after Sullivan's interests here, has received a letter from one of Frank P. Slavin's friends stating that the Australian pugilist intended to visit this country within a few months and is willing to box Sullivan in public or put up $10,000 stake money if J. L. will meet him to a finish under prize ring rules.

The Police Stop the Fight in the 6th.

HAMMOND, Ind., Nov. 21.—One of the greatest lightweight prize fights that ever occurred in the West took place here this morning. The participants were Tommy Morgan and Tom White. A more scientific battle has never been witnessed in America. White outfought his man from the start and proved himself a second Jack Dempsey. The fight was prolonged to over three hours. In the 54th round officers appeared and arrested both the principals. Morgan was horribly punished about the face and neck, while White only received a few scratches.

Sullivan Will Fight Jackson for $20,000.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 21.—John L. Sullivan to-day declared he would not fight Jackson, the colored pugilist, for less than $20,000. He said: "I once declared I would never fight a colored man, but they seem to think Jackson is a world-beater and I'm anxious to show them just where he belongs."

Jake Kilrain's Benefit.

John F. Scholes and Jake Kilrain having finished their successful tour of Ontario and Kilrain is on the eve of his departure for home a number of citizens have agreed to give him a testimonial benefit as a slight mark of their respect and esteem for his gentlemanly conduct and behavior since he has been in Canada. The benefit will take place in the Mutual-street Rink Monday evening next, on which occasion Kilrain and Scholes, together with a large number of voluntary artists, will appear. As the management have placed the admission at 25 and 50 cents a large audience is undoubtedly assured.

ABOUT THE WANDERERS.

Their First Smoking Concert—The Outlook for the Snowshoers.

The Wanderers are going to commence their winter season by giving a smoking concert on Thursday evening next, and are preparing a fine program for the occasion.

The one given at the opening of the new club rooms last April was so successful that the boys intend giving their friends if possible a greater treat than before. Although the season for riding is practically over yet bicyclists are not dead, and every evening the members may be seen endeavoring to lower the record on the two horse trainers at the club rooms. The gymnasium is being rapidly filled up with apparatus of all kinds, so that the boys have no excuse for not keeping themselves in good condition all winter, and if present energies are any criterion of results great things may be expected of some of them by the spring.

The Snowshoe Club has now been brought directly into the club proper, so that every Wanderer may enjoy the advantages of snowshoeing during the winter months. Last year a great many enjoyable runs were held, and although it was not then altogether connected with the bicycling club the members were energetic enough to hold their successful "Ice Honey," which proved by so many of their friends, so that this year with the extra advantages of increased membership things ought to boom. Altogether the outlook for a pleasant and prosperous winter for the club is very bright.

A NEW YACHT FOR TORONTO.

Messrs. Gray of the R.C.Y.C. After a New York Prize.

The Messrs. Gray of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club have almost completed the purchase of a very pretty boat from a member of the New York Yacht Club. She is a thirty-footer after the style of Burgess design and is expected to add greatly to the racing strength of the Royal Canadian.

O'Connor Will Row at Seattle.

Champion William O'Connor arrived home yesterday morning from New York, where he had gone to look after some English boats belonging to him. He will remain here for the remainder of the winter and expects to go west in the spring and row in C. C. Calkin's Washington Lake regatta, which he says will be a big affair. O'Connor left Hanlan last week when the ex-champion join-d the Dark Secret Company. Hanlan has written to O'Connor stating that he was much taken with his new profession and proposes to stick to it.

"No, I have not received an answer to any of my challenges, nor have I asked for any further engagements, and the chances are that my next race will be in the Washington Lake regatta," said Billy.

The Initial R.C.Y.C. Smoking Concert.

The first of the series of smoking concerts, to be held fortnightly by the R.C.Y.C. during the coming winter, will take place at the Town Club on Monday next at 8 p.m.

The committee in charge are determined to make a grand success of these concerts, and when the magnitude of the club, which numbers over 720 members, is taken into consideration, it is reasonable to expect that a good time will be experienced in obtaining a goodly array of talent, so that a choice program of vocal and instrumental music, readings, recitations, etc., may be secured for each entertainment.

The large club room has been recently refurnished and now affords accommodation both attractive and cosy. A large quantity of the Island Club House furnishings has been brought across for the winter.

After getting the horse Garrison offered to match him against his late owner's Troy, the winner to take both animals, but Alfred could not see it in that light.

Quite a number of racers are now congregated at the New Orleans race track in readiness for the beginning of the winter meeting next week. A large amount of money has been expended in improving the course and in providing a system of drainage that it is believed will quickly relieve the track from the effect of rain. Captain W. H. Williamson will act as presiding judge until the return of Colonel Simmons, after which they will act together. Mr. J. B. Ferguson will be the starter, with E. S. Gardner secretary and clerk of the scales.

VARSITY WILL TOUR.

A Proposed Trip to the New England States this Winter.

At a committee meeting of the 'Varsity Association club recently the subject of sending the team to the New England States about Christmas was discussed, and the opinion was almost unanimous that the idea was a good one. Mr. Forsyth's annual trip has been abandoned this year, so the 'Varsity very aptly propose to take up the tour and will begin correspondence at once. The 'Varsity club have met with so much success this season that they are stimulated to just such an undertaking, which would be almost certain to result satisfactorily to them. Newark, Fall River, Paterson and other places will be most anxious to secure the attraction of a crack college team like the 'Varsity, and the boys need only push a little bit to bring the scheme to a proper culmination.

The Rugby and Association men have come to an amicable agreement about their games to-morrow on the lawn. The Varsity-Galt will start sharp at two and the Toronto-Varsity Rugby game will begin immediately on its conclusion.

The record in the Intercollegiate Football League is as follows:

JOYFUL GATHERINGS OF TORONTO ANGLICANS YESTERDAY.

Services at All the Churches—Eloquence at St. James' Cathedral—Bishops, Clergy and Laity at the Festive Board—Speeches at the Banquet—Unwonted Flights of Oratory.

Toronto's Diocesan Jubilee Celebration commenced yesterday and satisfied the sanguine desires of its promoters. The religious observance of the event was gratifying. The crowds that flocked into St. James' Cathedral in the morning and into Holy Trinity Church at night were amply repaid their braving the rain and mud by the truly eloquent discourses from the Bishops of Huron and Western New York.

The banquet at Harry Webb's in the afternoon will become historic. The assemblage was a notable one, the speeches contributions to local, educational and ecclesiastical history, and "never a jarring note was heard. Auspiciously the Jubilee has commenced, good augury and earnest of its successful completion. Thankfulness for the past and an inspiration for the future were the traits of yesterday's jubilation.

THE SERVICE AT ST. JAMES'.

Bishop Baldwin Eloquently Describes the Church's Strength and Successes.

Filled to its utmost capacity was the capacious and recently restored Cathedral of St. James yesterday morning at the inaugural service of the jubilee celebration. One hundred white-robed choristers took part in the impressive full choral service, and nearly three score clergymen, headed by six bishops (Toronto, Ontario, Huron, Niagara, Nova Scotia and Western New York) were in the imposing procession.

Rev. J. D. Cayley, as precentor of the diocese, intoned the service. Rev. Prof. Clark assisted in the prayers, and the lessons were read by R.-v. Rural Dean Johnston of Brampton and Rev. Rural Dean Allan of Millbrook. The Right Rev. Dr. Baldwin, Bishop of Huron, was the preacher. His text was Psalm xiii.

6 I will sing unto the Lord because He hath dealt bountifully with me.

The sermon was a truly eloquent one. The Bishop dwelt on the vicissitudes of the past in the church's career in Canada, the hours of suspense and trial, as well as those of triumph and of peace, the issue of events which in their day were deemed almost fatal to her life, now seeing the ripened grain already for the harvest. The church to-day triumphantly says: "I will sing unto the Lord, because He hath dealt bountifully with me."

The rude forefathers of the hamlet sleep.

The grand record of the church down through history, its position in England to-day and its growth on this side of the Atlantic were tersely and admirably described.

THAT BUNGLING BOARD!

CONTRACTOR MACDONALD BEATS THE CITY IN THE DON CASE.

Solicitor Biggar Tells the Executive How ex-Mayor Rowland Neglected to Answer Certain Letters That Had Now Got Them Into Trouble—Asking for Instructions as to Whether They Shall Appeal.

Another instance of bungling in the Works Department was pointed out by City Solicitor Biggar at the meeting of the Executive Committee yesterday. Mr. Biggar asked for instructions from the Executive as to whether he should or should not appeal from the judgment given by Mr. Justice Ferguson yesterday in the case of Macdonald v. The City in regard to the Don improvements. He explained the facts, which are briefly these: In March, 1889, just before the spring freshet, Contractor Randolph Macdonald was ordered by the City Engineer to excavate a flood channel under the Gerrard-street bridge. He declined to do so on the ground that the city had prevented him from carrying out the work during the summer months, when it could have been done at a profit, whereas when ordered by the engineer to do the work the cost would be 70 cents per yard and the contract price was only 18 cents per yard. The City Engineer offered 30 cents a yard, but this was declined. The city thereupon went on with the work itself at a cost of $1 per yard. The action in which the decision was given yesterday was brought for a declaration that under the circumstances the city had no right to enter upon the time for the completion of the contract, Nov. 1, 1888, having expired and the delay being entirely due to the non-fulfilment by the city of its part of the contract. Mr. Macdonald swore that the city had not given him possession of the right of way at his point until the Christmas of 1888, though the contract was signed in January, 1887. He put in 17 letters written to Mayor Rowland, Chairman Carlyle and Engineer Sproatt for plans of bridges, etc., and swore that not one of these letters had been replied to.

When Mr. Biggar had arrived at this point in his recital of the facts in the case, Chairman Carlyle asked if during the trial he had questioned Engineer Sproatt.

Mr. Biggar replied in the affirmative and repeated the questions and answers which had passed between him and the engineer. Here they are:

Mr. Biggar: "Did you receive those letters?"

Mr. Sproatt: "I think I did."

"Did you answer any of them?"

"No, I don't remember that I did."

"Have you a receiving letter book in your office?"

"I don't think I have."

"Who is the head of your department?"

"I am."

"Then you have no record of letters received?"

"No, I don't think I have."

Mr. Biggar continuing said that by reason of these plans not being furnished the prosecutor could not fetch the bridges, and for want of the bridges could not excavate this channel in the summer of 1888, although the dredge was on hand ready to go on with the work. His contention was that he having been ready and willing to do the work at the time provided for in the contract, having been prevented from so doing by reason of the neglect and default of the City Engineer, could not call upon him in March, 1889, to do the work which should have been done months before.

His Lordship decided in favor of the plaintiff, awarding him costs but no damages, and giving him a declaration that the city was not justified in the course it took.

The City Solicitor further stated that, in view of the fact that the Don improvements involve the amount of $575,000, he would require instructions as to an appeal from the decision. The Executive decided to refer the matter to a sub-committee with power to advise the solicitor.

The Sherbourne-street Bridge.

The reports of the various committees were taken up. That of the Committee on Works was adopted with few amendments. The most important clause was that recommending the construction of the new Sherbourne-street bridge. It recommends the construction of an iron bridge, with stone abutments and iron piers as a local improvement and on the initiative principle. The cost of the work will be approximately, for bridge building $50,000, for land damages $45,000, and $95,000. Of this amount $30,000 will be paid by the city and the balance will be assessed on the several properties situate and abutting upon the streets benefited equally in proportion to frontage, they being equally benefited by the construction of the bridge.

There was some discussion on the above clause, but it was finally decided to send the recommendation on to the council.

The recommendation that bridges be constructed over the railways at Dundas-street in a line with College-avenue was also sent on. The approximate cost of the bridge is $38,000, of which the city is to pay $14,000, leaving the balance to be paid by local assessment.

When the report from the Property Committee came up a communication from J. & J. Taylor, the safe-makers, was read asking for a lease of a lot north of the City Morgue for a term of 21 years at $2.70 per foot frontage per annum. The company desire to lease the land for factory purposes.

Ald. Vokes opposed the application. He was of opinion that the company could afford to purchase the property and moved that it be put up for auction.

The application was referred to the Board of Works.

The Mill on the Esplanade.

The Property Committee had been asked by McLaughlin & Moore, the lessees of the lot on the northeast corner of Bay and Esplanade-streets, upon which a large stone flour mill is erected, to omit the clause in their renewal lease binding them in case the present building is burnt down to rerect a similar mill, to cost not less than $25,000. They say that it would not pay to re-erect the mill, as the land is too expensive for this class of building, and that if the clause for re-building is to be insisted upon they must decline to accept the Assessment Commissioner's valuation of $10 per foot as the renewal rental. The Assessment Commissioner states that the renewal rental represents the actual value of the land without any building restrictions.

The committee recommended that the clause referring to the rebuilding of the mill be omitted from the lease and a clause be inserted in lieu thereof, providing that in the event of the removal or of the destruction of the mill by fire the lessees be required to erect within one year and maintain buildings on the lot to the value of at least $10,000.

This recommendation was hardly approved by the Executive and it was decided to send the clause back to the Property Committee.

Publishing Assessment Rolls.

Among other miscellaneous matters considered by the committee was a report dealing with the proposal to print and publish the assessment rolls signed by the City Clerk and City Treasurer. In compliance with the directions from the committee they had made enquiries and submitted that there are 13 separate assessment rolls for the entire city, comprising in all 3000 pages. In addition to the above these rolls contain recapitulations and necessary return for taxes imposed and lands liable for imposed taxes. If prepared for the printer the necessary copies of the rolls, exclusive of the recapitulations mentioned, would cost over $1000. The cost of procuring one copy would be about $10,000. The cost of printing and binding had been variously estimated and would range from $11,500 to $14,000, and each additional 5000 copies would cost $1825. To print every one hundred copies after the first copy would cost for each single 100 copies $400.

The committee decided to invite tenders from all the city papers of the cost of publishing the assessment rolls.

H. Devon, a colored gentleman from St. John's Ward, appeared before the committee to claim $1500 due him for his property on the Drill Shed site. On the strength of receiving this money he had built a house in "The Ward." He said he was willing to take half the amount on account. As the case was considered a hard one, the treasurer was instructed to provide funds for the payment of the claim.

Routed By Randolph.

Mr. Justice Ferguson yesterday at Osgoode Hall gave judgment in the action brought by Mr. Randolph Macdonald against the city for damages for the latter interfering in the work of the former in the work of the Don improvement. His Lordship holds that the city had no authority to interfere with the work of the contractor, and that they must pay the costs of the injunction proceedings and of this action. He refused leave to the city to appeal direct to the Court of Appeal, but is understood an appeal will be made to the Divisional Court against the present judgment.

QUEBEC POLITICS.

A Hot Fight in Bronse—The Rimouski Contest—Mr. Chapleau's Book.

MONTREAL, Nov. 21.—It is said that Hon. J. A. Chapleau is to publish a complete history of the part he played in the Jesuits' estates question, which will contain documents not yet brought to light and likely to surprise even the Mercier regime.

To-night's Star says: Friends of the Mercier Government to-day claim that their leader has just found positive proof in the archives of the department at Quebec to confound Hon. J. A. Chapleau. This alleged discovery is said to be a letter by the ex-Premier to a high church dignitary in which he declared himself ready to settle the Jesuits claim in a quiet way and so as not to give offence to any class of the community. The Liberals claim that this letter completely destroys Mr. Chapleau's previous statements that he never recognized that the Jesuits had any claim to their former estates or to compensation in money. It is further reported that the Premier has wired his colleague, Hon. D. A. Ross, who is at the Knowlton meeting to-day, to announce the discovery and to declare that the Government are ready to prove conclusively that Mr. Chapleau would have done what Mr. Mercier has in this matter had he not been removed to Ottawa.

The vacancy in the Legislative Council caused by the death of Hon. L. E. Pacaud will, it is expected, be offered to Hon. Mr. Joly de Lotbiniere.

Archbishop Fabre is to act as arbitrator in the final settlement of the difficulty between Laval and Victoria.

The political forces of both parties are being concentrated in Bronse. The fight is to be the most hotly contested one since 1886 and promises to be close. So far Mr. England, the standard bearer of the Conservative party, seems to have the advantage. The Equal Rights and Prohibitionists are giving him short support and cries of "Down with the Mercier Administration" are frequently heard. In Rimouski the Government expect to hold the fort, but the Opposition are making such a stubborn fight that Mr. Mercier deems it necessary to be on the spot.

Against Orange Incorporation.

Parkdale True Blue L. O. L. No. 207, W. M. F. Reeves in the chair, at its last meeting unanimously passed this resolution, of which the W. M. and Bro. James Virtue

That this L. O. L. puts on record its entire disapproval of the suggestion of the committee appointed by certain members of the Grand Lodge to apply for incorporation of the Orange Association to Parliament. The present time is not the time for such an application, when among the alleged representatives of a Protestant country we see so many who have favored Jesuitism, the enemy of all liberty and progress. Orange incorporation should not have been asked for in such a government. It would be undignified on the part of the Loyal Orange Association of B. N. A. to make any such application until we can have a more responsible and representative government by and for the people in power.

This lodge has from 90 to 100 members, and at the last meeting four joined by certificate and there were two initiations. The next regular meeting is on the first Wednesday in December, when the election of officers will take place.

A good many people are wondering what the commissioners intend doing in the matter—whether Hawkins will be reinstated or not.

The Hospital Committee to-day decided to investigate the charge of malpractice preferred by Mrs. McNab against Dr. Cresthwaite, resident physician of the City Hospital. Mrs. McNab's father, John Hannah, was injured in a street melee and died two weeks afterwards in the Hospital, as Mrs. McNab alleges owing to lack of proper care and attention.

Wm. Harvey, a laborer aged 35, working in the Hamilton brick yards, was this evening buried under a mass of falling sand, and when the earth was removed he was dead. An inquest will be held to-morrow.

There is trouble here in the Church of Ascension. The pastor, Rev. J. P. Crawford, is ritualistically inclined and the church wardens claim he wants to make the Ascension a "high church."

Powderly To Be Arrested.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 21.—Ex-Representative John R. Byrne of the Knights of Labor was arrested at Scottdale, Pa., last evening on a charge of conspiracy preferred by ex-Representative Edward Callaghan. The information also includes the general masterworkman, Mr. Powderly, and Peter Wise, a local leader. Mr. Powderly will be placed under arrest on his return from Atlanta to Scranton. Wise is absent from home, but will be arrested at the earliest possible moment. The suit grew out of letters that Mr. Powderly published in The Journal of United Labor in June, 1888. At that time Callaghan was a candidate for the senatorial nomination, but was overwhelmingly defeated. Callaghan alleges that he was boycotted and injured in his business by the Knights of Labor through the influence of Byrne, Powderly and Wise. Byrne was released under bail.

Severe colds are easily cured by the use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, a medicine of extraordinary penetrating and healing properties. It is acknowledged by those who have used it as being the best medicine sold for coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs, and all affections of the throat and chest. Its agreeableness to the taste makes it a favorite with ladies and children.

Revenue Frauds in Quebec.

MONTREAL, Nov. 21.—Gigantic frauds on the revenue have been discovered in Quebec. The customs officials estimate that the Federal treasury was defrauded last year by whisky smugglers at Quebec alone of a sum considerably in excess of $250,000. The figures thus far in this vicinity foot up 117 barrels of fifty gallons each, upon which the duty should be $2.60 per gallon. This would make $140,000 that the smugglers would have pocketed; but there is no ascertaining how much they have defrauded the revenue out of. The spirits so far seized are principally highwines of greater strength than Canadian standard, and supposed to be of American manufacture. Several prominent persons are involved. Among the defendants is Dr. Belanger, house physician of Beauport asylum, upon whose premises, concealed in a well, 270 gallons of contraband stuff was found.

NOTING A CO-INCIDENCE.

[From The Liverpool Corn Trade News.]

It is worthy of passing remark that Sir John Lawes' experience of growing wheat continuously on land in this country that has not been manured at all during 46 years should tally so exactly with the American official returns of yield in that country, Sir John's figure being 12½ bushels per acre; the American average for the past 10 years—12 bushels per acre.

The Ministerial Association and Evangelists.

EDITOR WORLD: When we consider the nature and amount of work done by newspaper men, it is no marvel that occasional slight inaccuracies occur. I have found the Press most ready to make corrections—a courtesy which I am persuaded you will readily accord me on this occasion.

Your report of the Ministerial Association meeting, held in this city on Monday morning last, is correct when it credits the writer with favoring the use of evangelists, but it incorrectly represents me as insisting that only "ordained ministers" should be employed to do evangelistic work. The latter statement does not represent my views on the question, and I did not so express myself either at the meeting or at any other time. I said, among other things, that I would employ only duly accredited members of some Christian church to do evangelistic work. I made no reference whatever to ordination. I speak but little in the Ministerial Association meetings, but here are some questions on which I have strong convictions and when such questions are under consideration I do not hesitate to state my views when occasion seems to call for such expression. The question for discussion last Monday morning answered this condition.

While admitting that all pastors should do the work of evangelists—that is tell sinners of a Saviour, and while maintaining that it is not a healthy condition in a church when pastor and people think things must be at a standstill until some distinguished stranger is secured, yet for many years it has been my joy to proclaim: "Let him that heareth say come." Let the work be done by all that can do the work, be they men or women, ordained or unordained. If God is drawing I do not approve of undue ceremony as to the precise method of getting him out of the water. So in the matter of soul-saving time is too short and the work to be done is too important to allow us to engage in solemn trifling as to details of methods. The only question in order is: How and by whom can the work be most successfully accomplished? I believe every minister in our association is honestly endeavoring to give what seems to him to be the correct answer to this question. While having due regard to what is becoming in the church of God and to scriptural teaching, speaking for myself, I would say to all who would hamper us with slavish adherence to exact detail of methods, old or new, as I said in the ministers' meeting last Monday morning: "Hang the orthodoxy but save the men."

John McGregor Pleads His Own Cause.

Lawyer John McGregor appeared before the Common Pleas Divisional Court yesterday to argue his appeal against the orders made in the case of Pritchard v. Pritchard, including one made by Mr. Justice Street ordering McGregor, as solicitor for one of the parties, to pay some $600 into court which he had wrongfully, it was alleged, taken out and the order of Mr. Justice MacMahon for the committal of McGregor to jail for contempt in neglecting to pay in this morning.

The appellant argued that there is no authority for an order for committal to jail for mere non-payment of money; that the payment of the money under the order was never demanded from him, and that having appealed from those orders he was entitled to a stay of proceedings on the order to commit without payment into court of the money, which stay the court refused him. Mr. F. C. Moffat appeared for Pritchard. Judgment was reserved.

A NEW TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tube. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been discovered which permanently cures the most aggravated cases of these distressing diseases by a few simple applications made (painlessly apart) by the patient at home. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent free by A. H. Dixon & Son, 307 and 309 West King Street, Toronto, Canada.

MONEY will be cheaper than at present in a month or two—intending borrowers of large sums on Toronto property should hold back for lower rates. There is scarcely anything more sensitive than the money market—and for the moment it is a little fastidious—but we shall never see money at a very high rate here again. The great money centres of the world are constantly on the lookout for investment, and our general credit stands too high for our requirements to remain unsupplied.

800 PER CENT. PER ANNUM.

This is the profit made by a client of ours on an investment of $5000 for 4 1-2 months.

It is needless to compare this with the rate of interest you draw from any security. Yet real estate is the basis of all security. The Co-Ordinating Principle of Imperial Federation.

CAPITAL IN BRITAIN.

The national debt of Britain amounting to some £700,000,000 is owed to her own people. The interest upon that vast sum is a great source of income to the British people. The foreign investments of Britain amount to about £2,000,000,000, which at 4 per cent. returns an income to the British people of £80,000,000 annually. The profits on the shipping interests of Britain amount in the aggregate to £60,000,000 annually. From the interest on her foreign investments and the profits on her shipping Britain is in a position to import £140,000,000 annually over and above her exports without going into debt. The facts are conclusive as showing the enormous rapidity with which capital accumulates in Britain and that under the operation of free trade the wise and legitimate employment of that capital is only limited by the boundaries of the world. To every thinker on the subject of Imperial Federation it must be obvious how concerned Britain is in the welfare of all nations and that to no one nation can she afford to assume an attitude of injustice. The germ of Imperial Federation is Free Trade and its growth toward grand proportions and mighty possibilities can only be cultivated by strict adherence to free and just relations.

People who ask for a definite plan might as well ask the advocates of Imperial Federation to "build a tree." Progress is not produced by written constitutions. The favorable conditions to national development and growth are just internal and external relations. Britain knows by experience that the faith reposed in written constitutions is a superstition. Her example and success are the affectionate and maternal terms with which she meets the importunities of her precipitate colonies that advise her to adopt a discriminating policy in their favor as against foreign nations. The mission of Britain is to mankind. A free, noble and dignified manhood, true images and not counterfeits of Deity—God has blessed her in that direction. It is the duty of her colonies, if they value their existence, to learn the lessons which British wisdom teaches. Nations are under the law of necessity to do right, a wrong course has its end in national disgrace and ruin. It is said Canadian Confederation is not a success. It never will be a success until vitiating elements are entirely eliminated and abandoned. The internal relations of the country are not properly adjusted with a view to solidity in the national edifice. The presence of warring elements does not imply that the principle of Federation is wrong or impossible. On the contrary it demonstrates that those elements must give place to the true and substantial system, a system which, to be national, must recognize the state and its interests as supreme. If you want children to grow up in the bonds of fraternity and be patriots, education must be national and divested of all subjective denominationalism. In the same State one language should be dominant. Two national systems competing within the same State for supremacy must be fatal to Confederation. The instrument that guarantees such a state of things is only suitable for abortions. Imperial Federation is the highest national growth of an empire under conditions of justice and freedom. Colonies must first prove themselves worthy as co-ordinating elements in such a system of national unity.

Imperial Federation must be considered as the logical deduction of British policy, power and influence in direction of freedom and justice.

NOTICE.

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto intend to pass By-laws in pursuance of "The Municipal Act," for levying a frontage rate to pay for the construction of the following Local Improvement Works, viz.:

STREET OPENING—Opening of a new street on the line of the Rosedale Creek sewer, extending from Yonge-street to Park-road.

And that a statement showing the lands liable to pay the said rates, and the names of the owners thereof, as far as they can be ascertained from the last revised Assessment Roll, is now filed in the office of the City Clerk, and is open for inspection during office hours.

The following schedule shows the estimated cost of each of the said proposed works, the amount thereof to be provided out of the general funds of the municipality, and the amount to be charged in each case as a special assessment upon the lands immediately benefited:

| Location of Work. | Total Cost. | Special Assessment. |
|---|---|---|
| Street Opening—A new street on line of the Rosedale creek sewer | $12,000 | $12,000 |

And further, that unless in each of the above cases respectively, the majority of the owners of the lands liable to pay the said rate, representing at least one-half in value thereof, petition the said Council against such assessment within one month after the last publication of this notice, which will be on the 22nd day of November, A.D. 1889, the said by-laws will be passed.

A Court of Revision will be held at the City Hall, on the 2nd day of December, A.D. 1889, at 2 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of hearing complaints against the proposed assessments, or accuracy of the frontage measurements, or any other complaints which persons interested may desire to make, and which are by law cognizable by the Court.
