FROM THE PEOPLE

WHAT CANADA MISSED.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Kindly give publication through the medium of your From the People Column to the following. It is with regret that one has to make reply to the epistle of a so-called parasite signed as Uncle Ruben, which appeared in your paper of a very recent date, regarding the majority of the returned boys' attitude as regards their after-war replacement.

One must admit that the returned man does present a problem in the affairs of our national life in a psychological and a material sense, a problem on which volumes could be written; but not, however, by men with such contracted, egotistical views as the illustrious Uncle Rube. Possibly he realizes his words were like applying oil to a blazing fire.

I do not purpose to answer any of the charges which have been made because they have been given very conclusive consideration by letters already published.

However, after reading the above mentioned letter, one cannot escape, after a careful analysis of the contents, the ungentlemanly and ignorant spirit in which the subject was written; also the adoption of anonymous name breathes a cowardly air. If Uncle Rube had the courage of his convictions, and if he was so decidedly sure his words were quite sufficient to strike terror to what he terms insultingly and sarcastically "heroes" that they would immediately cry out "Peace be still," why did he not sign his name? If you fight, stand up foursquare—appeal to men; do not slur them. Moreover, make your statements more convincing; do not mention the twos and threes as a majority, for figures are cold facts and the greater percentage of returned men have been re-established.

For the benefit of Uncle Rube, whose vision does not penetrate beyond the precincts of "Devil's Half Acre," or thereabouts, come with me for a short trip to the scene of the late struggle and picture what this fair Canada of ours might have been.

Again war, cruel and destructive; the call to arms, the natural spring to the colors of all red-blooded men. Your sons, your neighbors and a goodly percentage of the young of the vicinity don the khaki and eventually arrive in England, a step nearer the struggle. After months of tiresome and relentless preparation, we find ourselves arriving within the boom of the great guns. Do not get excited, Uncle? What you see is not a phantom; your mind is not playing you tricks, you are not experiencing a dream but a grim reality. That ruined heap was once the family hearth. Evening after evening the golden sunset had been admired and as many times the little kiddies had been tucked away for the night, lisping their childish prayers. Where are they now? Go to the cemetery, where they lie,—only a few thousand said the German with characteristic arrogance. These were the material that met the first Hun experiment with chlorine gas.

No; that is not a football you see falling directly on that hospital; it is only a few hundred pounds of T.N.T. forever stilling the moans of the very recent wounded and bringing fresh horrors in its train. That tattered uniform you see with the arms and waist all torn once adorned one of the noblest women on earth, the Red Cross worker, or, as we called them, "Sisters."

Those thousands of men which you see are not rehearsing a comic opera; they are not laughing, but gasping and dying for breath; their internals are being eaten away by the poisonous acids of war. (I refer to the second battle of Ypres). Yes; eating the bloody, muddy sod of Flanders fields in preference to the poison.

No, Uncle, there has been no fire here; that grass you see burned and withered, those roses crisped and shrivelled; that greenish water once was God's pure gift to man, but is now polluted by the gases of the Hun. No, that is not a billow we see; it is earth churned and twisted and thrown into the lightness of the gales of the deep.

Yes, that is a group of French women tending the graves of their husbands and sons, dead by the thousands. Their features are masculine; they follow the plow day after day, performing the work of their dead. On the Sabbath you can see them wending their way to church, presenting the saddest spectacle of all. I have watched them time after time; it seemed as if the very soul of France was passing by, all in black and in sorrow. Those forms which you see coming down the white tape are not apes, but men—bandaged and torn, bleeding and faint—coming back from the battle to be succored of their wounds.

The panorama of war you have just seen is merely the groundwork—only the major agonies of war. Space will not permit to show you further. Let us hurry back to England and suppose it is on the night of March 10, 1918, the night of the Aurora Borealis air raid on London. A few hundred women and children are taking shelter under Horatio Bottomley's shelter for air raids, and this is what I personally saw on the following morning: Forty-nine women and children were lifeless, and even travail had taken place before nature's time; mother's were hugging bits of calico which 24 hours before covered Dame Youth. And this, Uncle, was a common occurrence every night in the defenceless cities of Europe. Let us hurry back to our own Canada,—the stately spires, the pleasant fields, the happiness of home all greets us as we lapse into a sense of security. We breathe a great sigh of relief. Why do we? Simply through the sacrifice of those 66,000 immortals who sleep because we live, and the exertions of those who have returned, some crippled, of which I am one, and not lucky enough to get a slight wound in the knee either, others apparently unimpaired in health but all bearing the strain of untold misery.

These, Uncle, are the men you publicly, unjustly and ignorantly insult through the medium of the press, men who, if it were not for their service Canada would have shared the same fate as France. Therefore, have a sense of justice or an appreciation of fair play; exercise it, and don't play the most contemptible trick in the world—don't bite the hand that has been saving you.

Yours,
P. JEFFREY.

WHY DOES HOMELY GIRL WIN?

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—I would appreciate it very much if your readers would enlighten me upon the following case:

I have two very intimate girl friends. One is very attractive and pretty; the other is not so pretty or attractive in looks.

Now, on first meeting, the very attractive girl always "makes a hit," so to speak, while the other makes no great impression. But on further acquaintance the tide seems to turn. The very pretty girl seems quickly to lose her attractiveness, while the other becomes a favorite, and her charm seems to last.

I can truthfully say that both are fine and brainy girls. Why is it that the less attractive personality outvies the other?

Yours,
FRIENDLY INTEREST.

OAK HALL

Paying Toll for Neglect

Needless exposure to damp and cold frequently result in a derangement of the Kidneys and Bladder.

When these important organs fail to do their duty, various evils arise, such as rheumatism, swollen hands and ankles, stiff joints, lumbago, sciatic neuralgia, stone in the bladder or gravel, excruciating pains in the back and sides, constant headaches, dizziness, specks floating before the eyes, uneasiness of mind without reason, and general debility.

These are signs of serious kidney and bladder trouble, which require immediate attention. The most dependable remedy is found in Gin Pills. They often prevent the operations which constant neglect may render necessary. They quickly and safely relieve congested kidneys, passing stone and gravel, healing and soothing inflamed organs and restoring them to normal. Thousands of letters from people who have been relieved are continually coming to us. Their writers often beg us to spread the good news to other sufferers that Gin Pills certainly and surely will bring the help they need. $50,000 From Sale of Old Government House Can Only be Used to Provide Suitable Residence For the Lieutenant Governor in Fredericton

Bill to Give Authority for Sale Introduced In the Legislature.

MONEY TO BE PLACED IN A SPECIAL ACCOUNT

Will Donate Hospital Site but City Must Buy Water Works Site.

Hon. Mr. Foster introduced a bill in the Legislature yesterday to authorize the sale of the property known and described as Old Government House in the City of Fredericton.

In explanation of the measure he said: This bill is to give authority for the sale of what is known as Government House property, and for the disposal of the proceeds of such sale. As expressed in the preamble to the bill, this property was purchased under Chapter 7 of the Acts of 1816 by the Province of New Brunswick from the governor and trustees of the College of New Brunswick, who were the original grantees, and from Governor Carleton, who had leasehold interests. It was stated in the conveyance as containing 50 acres, but by actual survey it contains somewhat less than 30 acres—to be exact, 28.74 acres. As enacted by section 4 of the Act of 1816, the property was purchased "for the sole purpose of a residence for and the accommodation of the Governor or Commander in Chief of the Province;" and further by such section it was enacted that no part of this property should be alienated, granted or disposed of "without an Act of the General Assembly of this Province authorizing the same." At the time of the purchase there was on the property a Government House known as "Mansion House." This was burned in 1825 and shortly afterwards a building was erected by the Province which building is now generally referred to as Old Government House.

Under the British North America Act, passed upon the confederation of the Provinces into a Dominion, it was enacted that the public works and property of each province should be the property of Canada, except such as the Government of Canada should appropriate for the Provincial Legislatures and Governments; and the Government of Canada, by order-in-council made February 11th, 1887, appropriated for the use of the Government and Legislature of the Province of New Brunswick the properties in Fredericton known as the "Government House" property and the "Provincial Buildings" property. In 1893 there was passed by the Legislature of the Province an Act, being Chapter 25 of the Acts of 1893, declaring, by section 1, that this Government House property was vested in the Crown as represented by the Government of New Brunswick, and by section 2 of this Act it was provided that in the event of the sale of such property the proceeds should be used in providing a suitable residence for the Lieutenant-Governor, and until so used should be deposited to the credit of a special account. Upon this Act, with the other Acts of New Brunswick for 1893, being forwarded to the Secretary of State, they were considered by the then Minister of Justice, Hon. J. S. D. Thompson, and in his report thereon to the Governor General-in-Council, he stated concerning this Chapter 25 and the other Acts of New Brunswick for 1893 that "he is of opinion that they are unobjectionable, and may be left to their operation."

Pumping Station and Hospital Sites.

Since 1892, with what might be considered the consent of the Province the northeastern corner of the property has been in the possession of the City of Fredericton for its waterworks pumping station; since 1886, with a like consent, another portion, adjacent to this, has been occupied by the Victoria Hospital. For the past three or four years the remaining portion of this property, comprising 23½ acres, has been occupied by the Dominion of Canada, and it has erected on these lands extensive buildings for use as a hospital of returned soldiers and in connection with the D. S. C. R. Negotiations have been had between the Government of the Province and the Government at Ottawa for the sale of this property to the Dominion, with the result that a purchase price of $50,000 has been agreed upon; but when it came to the issuing of a grant the question arose whether the Province, under the Act of 1893, as against the express provisions in section 4 of the Act of 1816, could so sell and convey this Government House property. To remove this doubt this bill is presented to the House. In addition to the preamble, it consists of two sections. The first section authorizes the sale, with the consent of the Lieutenant Governor-in-Council of the property by the Minister of Lands and Mines as representing His Majesty the King. The second section is a re-enactment of section 2 of the Act of 1893, and preserves the proceeds of the sale as a trust fund towards providing a suitable residence for the Lieutenant Governor in the City of Fredericton.

Hon. Mr. Foster, continuing, said that shortly after the present Government took office in 1917 negotiations were opened with the Federal authorities for the sale of the property. A valuator was sent down from Ottawa and estimated it to be worth $35,000. The Government felt that that was not enough and the Minister of Public Works, Hon. Mr. Sifton, said that he would recommend that $50,000 be paid for it. As the Federal Government had possession of the property and the Provincial Government could make no use of it, it was decided to make the sale at the price agreed upon. As the money could only be used for a specific purpose it would be placed on deposit in a chartered bank at interest. He would invite sugegstions as to what disposition should be made of the interest as it accumulated.

Mr. Tilley wanted to know if the sale included the entire acreage of land.

Hon. Mr. Foster said it only dealt with the property occupied by the Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment. The City of Fredericton was negotiating for the lot now used for a pumping station and it was felt that the other might be handed over for hospital purposes.

The bill was read a first time.

Funding Automobile Fees

The bill to provide for the funding of the motor vehicle fees was agreed to in the Legislature yesterday with a limitation on the amount to be funded in any one year fixed at $200,000.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that the bill had previously been before the committee, but had been held over to give consideration to some proposed amendments. It had been decided to limit the amount to be funded in one year to $200,000. The original bill had fixed $820,000 as the amount to be borrowed, but he wished to reduce the amount to $800,000. The change had been made possible by a recent arrangement with the Federal authorities with respect to road improvements.

Worst Roads in Province Leading Into Fredericton

Hon. P. J. Veniot So Declares in Discussing Bill to Provide for Improvement of Highways Under Federal Aid—New Work Outlined.

The bill to provide for improvements to highways under federal aid was considered in the Legislature yesterday.

Hon. Mr. Veniot explained that federal aid was to be provided to the extent of forty per cent. of the amount expended. In order to meet that it would be necessary in the next five years to expend $1,800,000. The funding or auto fees in future would not provide sufficient, so it was proposed to empower the Governor-in-council to borrow a sum of money extending over a period of five years. The bonds would be for a period of twenty years and a sinking fund would be provided. As the work to be done had been set as the standard for all Canada he felt justified in asking the House for authority to borrow the money. Before the money could be expended the plans must be approved by the federal Government. A change had been made in the federal regulations, and instead of dating back to July, 1919, they now dated it to March of that year. The expenses of last year were according to the federal standard and would be covered.

Mr. Tilley—"Will that be credited on the deficit?"

Hon. Mr. Veniot—No, we will find other ways of meeting the deficit.

Mr. Pinder wanted to know if the hon. minister intended building a highway from the main boundary to Nova Scotia.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said he would tell the member that three-quarters of that highway was already completed. The money to be borrowed would be used on all trunk and farm roads under the Federal Aid Act.

The Roads Leading Into This City.

Mr. Smith (Carleton) said that he had referred on a previous occasion to the distinction which marked the expenditure on permanent roads. In 1918 Carleton county had $18,000, while last year it got $78,000. He hoped all counties would receive the full share to which they were justly entitled. York county was deserving of more generous treatment as the capital of the province was located there. At the present time some of the roads leading into Fredericton were not up to the standard. He had particular reference to the road leading to Oromocto and another leading in a southerly direction. He noticed that the county of Westmorland had been well treated, as $293,000 had been expended there in three years. In that time York county, which he believed had a greater mileage, had received but $89,827. He trusted that York would be better looked after in the future than it had been in the past. While he was glad that the province was to receive the benefit of the Dominion Act he hoped the minister would see to it that every county got its proper share. The present Government was the first to issue bonds for road expenditure. The old Government had enacted the policy but did not have an opportunity to carry it out.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that the terrible piece of road leading from Oromocto was in the city of Fredericton and the Department of Public Works had nothing to do with it. It was the worst in the province, and last year the Fredericton City Council became so ashamed of the fact that it adjoined an excellent piece of highway in the county of Sunbury that a certain sum of money was spent on it. The same was true west of the city. The poor road was within the city limits and the good road outside. Off the New Maryland road three miles lay in the city and in such a condition that farmers could not get over it. Last year the condition was such that he made a special arrangement whereby the province made an expenditure of $800 on that road because of the fact that provincial property to a considerable value was situated within the city and paid no taxes. It was true that there were bad roads in the province, but under the present Government there had been only twelve and a half months of actual work put on the road, and that was under war conditions. The department had been guided and would continue to be guided to a considerable extent by the Federal Highway Aid Board. As far as possible contracts would be let under federal regulation, but where advisable the province could perform work directly under federal engineers. Distribution among the counties could not be by mileage, for the Dominion grant was determined by the classification of the roads. Albert county had been completely excluded from participation in federal aid because it did not contain a road which the federal authorities would clasify as a great road. That had been modified on representation by the provincial department and the county would participate. Queens county had been in a similar position as far as the north bank of the St. John river was concerned, and a change had also been made there. Much had been made by hon. gentlemen opposite of the fact that more than $200,000 had been spent in Westmorland county in three years while York county had received considerably less. The mileage was about the same in the two counties, but Westmorland had a greater mileage of roads of high classification.

The Matter of Classification.

Mr. Smith (Carleton) said the provincial department of engineers had the power of classification and could make the roads what they liked.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said they could not.

Mr. Smith said that in York county the roads on both sides of the St. John river and up the Nashwaak should be of highest classification.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that Westmorland county possessed similar roads. However, he had increased the amount expended in York county and it had been found impossible to do all the work intended. Surveys had been made for work between Fredericton and Woodstock and also on the road toward Nashwaak via Heron Lake.

Mr. Baxter asked if Dominion aid were to be given only on contract work.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said not entirely. Surveys already had been undertaken on which calls for tenders would be made. If the tenders proved too high and the federal engineers could be convinced that the work could be done more cheaply by the province the grant would be paid to the latter.

Mr. Young said that York county should have expenditure on roads other than trunk roads. There were many farmers who never got on the trunk roads. They owned the majority of the cars in the county and so were contributing to the motor vehicle tax fund.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that it was only by considering York county apart from the city of Fredericton that it could be said that farmers owned the majority of the cars. He could assure his hon. friend there would be expenditure on secondary roads. One instance was the road from Nashwaak bridge to Stanley.

Mr. Peck asked concerning the road from Moncton to Hillsborough.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that road would be finished, as it had been accepted by the federal engineers.

Federal and Provincial Affairs.

Mr. Michaud said he had no objection to the bill other than a general objection to the tendency of the federal authorities to interfere in provincial affairs. The Maritime Provinces did not receive a proper hearing at Ottawa, and he believed that was largely due to the fact that they had too long sanctioned federal interference in provincial matters. Federal grants were received by New Brunswick in aid of agriculture, public health, technical education and road's, but there was a string attached and a direction as to how the money was to be expended. This was in direct violation of the principles of Confederation. If those principles were adhered to the views of the provinces would be received with greater respect at Ottawa. He hoped that that would be remembered when the next conference of provincial Premiers was held.

Mr. Tilley asked if the Minister of Public Works could give a statement of the total expenditure per annum for interest on the bonded indebtedness, for which the motor vehicle tax was being used; also a statement of how much the interest charges for permanent roads over-run the receipts from the motor vehicle tax.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that it was impossible for him to figure out the interest and sinking fund charges offhand. The estimates gave a statement which would show part of what was asked. He would have a statement prepared for his information.

Mr. Smith (Carleton) said in reference to a statement of the hon. member from Restigouche (LeBlanc) that $8,000 or $9,000 had been spent upon a hill leading into Campbellton, that the highest amount spent by the old Government on special work in Restigouche had been $3,654.

Mr. Baxter said he would like some more definite statement of the amount wanted to pay for work during the year ending July 31st.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that he would not be able to answer that until the engineers of the Federal Highway Aid Council should pass upon the work. Until then it would not be known how much would be reequired to supplement the 40 per cent. federal grant.

Mr. Tilley asked if it would require more than the $100,000.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said it would. He believed that it would take at least $300,000.

Progress was reported.

A Maxwell reveals the Wisdom of Light Weight

Maxwell
More miles per dollar
More miles on tires

A MAXWELL car carries the same average passenger weight over the same roads and at the same speed as other cars of greater weight and higher price—BUT, at extremely low cost.

Obviously, a Maxwell must not have one pound of superfluous weight.

To maintain the required strength without increasing weight necessitated the use of the best materials.

Such metals are obviously the quality metals; and a Maxwell car contains them throughout.

An analysis will show that pound for pound the metals that go into a Maxwell car are comparable with the metals in the highest priced cars in the world.

That is the underlying reason why Maxwell cars have given such rare accounts of themselves in every latitude and clime and have responded so well to every task to which they have been committed.

They last long.
They cost but little to run.

To date more than 300,000 Maxwells are gracing the highways of the world. These 300,000 have multiplied Maxwell friendships each day until 1920 finds 100,000 Maxwells in process of construction at the eight Maxwell plants.

Diocesan Synod Unanimously Endorse Rebuilding of King's College at the Windsor Site

The Report of the Governors of King's College Read and Acted Upon at This Morning's Session—The Financial Position of College and Estimated Cost of New Building.

This morning's session of the Diocesan Synod was taken up the report of the Governors of King's College, Windsor, and a lengthy discussion on the subject of rebuilding the College. A resolution was passed unanimously favoring the rebuilding of the College on the site of the one destroyed by fire last February. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Boyd, principal of the College, and Dr. M. G. Teed, Chancellor, on the subject of rebuilding. Very Rev. Dean Llwyd, of Nova Scotia, also gave an address on Christian Education, dealing with matters in connection with King's College.

The meeting opened at 10 o'clock with the reading of the minutes of yesterday's meeting by Ven. Archdeacon Newnham, of St. Stephen.

Rev. J. A. Cooper, of Bathurst, gave notice of motion concerning assessment. Consideration of this was left over until later.

The report of the Governors of King's College was then read by Rev. Canon Smithers. The report referred to the destruction of the main building of the College by fire in February of this year, and mention was made of the Hensley Memorial College Chapel which escaped the flames. The loss was placed at $300,000.

Estimates for replacing the building on the old foundation were:

Wooden structure	$125,000
Brick veneer building	150,000
Brick building	175,000

Assets	$325,000
Liabilities	32,685
Revenue	33,200
Approximate net value revenue	31,000
Annual expenditures	34,000
Extension and advance funds	51,000

Dr. Boyle's Address.

Rev. Dr. T. S. Boyle, President of King's College, and Rev. Dr. M. G. Teed, Chancellor, were called to the platform to address the Synod as a committee from King's College.

Referring to the conditions at the present day Rev. Dr. Boyle stated that the College had the largest class on record this year as well as a large number of women students, though there would be a small number of graduates. Three Rhodes scholars from the College, he stated, were at present at Oxford.

Six years ago, he stated, the College found itself in debt and it was determined to launch thte advance movement which had so helped the College that it was almost entirely clear of liabilities at present. Two obstacles which had much to do with the situation were the war and the high cost of living. The students after the fire had co-operated with the faculty in carrying out the plans of the latter.

The Board of Governors, he stated, were considering federation of King's College and Dalhousie College. The two colleges themselves had decided that the plan was not feasible at present. One plan suggested was the closing of the College for a limited period of time but this was let alone and the rebuilding was decided upon.

King's College today, the speaker stated, was finding difficulty in carrying on and he urged the Synod to keep up the financial assistance which they had given in the past. During the last ten years the college had been increasing their endowment and liquidating their liabilities so that at the present day the endowment had been increased to $18,000 and the college was $60,000 further ahead, aside from the fire, to what it was five years ago.

The matter of unity was touched upon by the speaker, who stated that all church people behind King's College should be united or there was no use in continuing the college if they were not.

Not Supporting King's College.

Dr. M. G. Teed, chancellor of the Synod, asked the clergy if they were broad enough to allow the teaching of different lines of thought at this college There was a strong feeling in the Diocese, he stated, that King's College was not getting the support it should from the clergy and bishops. When the latter had begun upon a proper foundation he stated their method would probably be effective. He referred to the founding of King's College and stated that at that time the college had been for New Brunswick as well as for other provinces.

Referring to His Lordship Bishop Richardson's statement that the college stood for history, he stated that he did not think that this was an incentive for the provinces to aid it or send students there. He contrasted the studies at Mount Allison University and King's College and advocated a wider course of study to make the college not only a college of divinity but a college of education for the young men and women of the Church of England.

Other Delegates Heard.

Other delegates who commended Dr. Teer's indictment were heard in the matter. These believed also that the fault lay with the clergy of the Diocest in not properly supporting the college.

Rev. H. H. Gillies, of Jemseg, thought that the matter of unity ought to be settled before any future plans for the college were laid.

Rev .Dr. Campbell, of Hampton, thought that the matter of unity was not as big a failure on the part of the clergy as it was of the laity in the Maritime Provinces.

Dr. Teed's statement concerning disunion of the clergy was challenged, but Dr. Teed stated that Bishop would explain the matter, as he had mentioned it in his charge.

Rev. H. H. Brown stated that the clergy of the diocese ought to work their hardest in a united effort with the clergy of the High Church in backing up the college. He thought one reason why the evangelican party did not support King's College was because of the fact that their teachings appeared to incline more toward Rome than Geneva.

Rev. Canon G. A. Kuhring, of St. John, stated that he thought the amalgamation of the Maritime provinces was a practical answer to the problem of union.

Very Rev. Dean Neales said he wished to deprecate any of the criticisms which had been made against the Bishop's charge.

Rev. W. B. Armstrong and other graduates of King's College stated they had every faith in the teachings of King's College as compared with those of larger colleges.

Bishop Richardson asked the Synod to weigh the charge against him and his predecessors that they had been lukewarm in the interests of King's College, saying it had been connected also with the Bishop of Nova Scotia. He stated that he believed in a small college where all could get personal instruction. The matter of distance, he said, had offered a drawback. He would not take steps on his authority alone to financially help the college, but would let that question rest with the Synod.

A resolution was passed that the Synod and the clergy of the diocese unite in backing up the policy of rebuilding adopted by the governors of King's College.

Very Rev. Dean Llywd, of Nova Scotia, was invited to the platform and he thanked the Synod for the honor which had been conferred upon him by allowing him to address them last evening at Christchurch Cathedral.

Dean Llywd then addressed the Synod on Christian Education, referring particularly to King's College. The only thing to do, he stated, was to rebuild, equip it and endow it and support it as it never had been supported before.

Gentlemen,—I have been selling and using NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE for a number of years. Always under guarantee. Have never heard a complaint and sale has steadily increased. I am convinced that for what it is recommended for, it is far superior to anything on the market.

I seldom have a call for other sort of GALL CURE and never from one who has tried it.

For scratches it is the only cure I have ever known.

Last summer I sold a number of bottles to River Drivers to use on sore feet.

Yours truly,

GROUP INSURANCE AT JOHN PALMER CO.

$125,000 Insurance at Outset in Most Generous Plan to Help Workers.

Announcement was made this morning that the John Palmer Company, Ltd., have adopted the group insurance plan for their employees. At the very inception of the scheme there is more than $125,000 insurance placed with the Metropolitan Insurance Company upon the employees, all made payable to the beneficiaries who the workers themselves nominate.

The adoption of the group insurance plan is along the lines of progressive policy upon which the oldest shoepack manufacturing company in Canada conducts its business and Charles K. Palmer, the president, this morning stated the company were anxious to adopt any means suggested as a reasonable method for bettering the conditions of their employees.

All employees who have been for six months in the employ of the company participate in the group insurance, $500 being the minimum amount placed on the lives of the unmarried and $1,000 on the married workers; the amount is increased with each year of continual service until the maximum of $2,000 is reached.

The company have 150 employees and have recently made important additions to their modern well equipped plant.

WILL HOUSE SHELVE N. B. POWER BILLS?

The Corporations Committee Failed to Take Any Action Today.

The New Brunswick Power bills were on the order paper for the Corporations Committee today as they have been on a number of occasions recently but through one reason and another they have never been reached.

Chairman Burchill tried to get the Corporations Committee together about noon today to consider the bills but was unable to. Some observers believe there is evidence of a disposition to again side-step a decision on the question which has been annually before the House for several years, but there seems no reason why the bills should not have proper consideration and disposition, in view of the fact that they were introduced early in the session and there has been ample opportunity for action.

There is an insistent drive on in the House, however, to reach prorogation by Saturday and it now seems likely to be accomplished.

Recovering from Accident.

OSTEOPATHS AND MEDICAL DOCTORS

The Medical Society's Qualification Bill Before the Committee Today.

The Committee on Law Practice and Procedure this morning considered the bill respecting the registrating and qualification of Physicians and Surgeons. Members of the New Brunswick Medical Association appeared in support of the bill. They were, Drs. L. M. Curran, S. S. Skinner, Thomas Walker, A. F. Emery G. A. B. Addy, ond H. L. Spangler, of St. John, and Dr. Russel Dakin, of Fredericton, appeared as representing the qualified osteopaths.

The Act was taken up section by section, Dr. Curran being the spokesman for the medical men. The bill produced little discussion until the section was reached relating to the practice of osteopathy. This section was to the effect that nothing in the act should interfere with those practicing as osteopaths.

2 Osteopaths 4 N4 N4 N4 N4 N4 N4

Dr. Spangler objected that nothing was defined by the section. The osteopath was not protected. He suggested a way to overcome the difficulty would be to insert a section which would recognize osteopathy as taught in the six schools of that science in which courses of four years are given. There were people in the Province hanging out their signs as osteopaths who never had seen a college.

Mr. Baxter said that the section had been introduced for the very purpose that Dr. Spangler said would not be fulfilled.

Several members of the medical delegation spoke and amendments were suggested. That offered by Dr. Spangler was not satisfactory to the promoters of the bill and he was not satisfied with what they suggested.

Dr. Spangler said that attempts had been made in many states of the Union and elsewhere to pass Acts which would include osteopaths and the ordinary medical practitioners but they never had succeeded. The same would be true of this bill.

The Committee went into private session, and decided to recommend the bill with some amendments. The section with regard to the practice of osteopathy was amended by altering the word "exclusively" to "commonly known as distinctively."

Find Soft Soap and Touring Cars Charged to Permanent Road Account of Province

$1,550 Was Paid for Car Which Was Turned Over to E. S. Carter—Premier Foster Explains Expenses for Prince's Receptions—Other Revelations.

The Public Accounts Committee of the Legislature had one of their most important meetings of the session this morning.

Premier Foster appeared before the committee in reference to the expenses in connection with the visit to the province of the Prince of Wales. He said that when the Duke of Devonshire visited New Brunswick some years ago the expense had run up to $25,000, but in the case of the Prince of Wales' visit the amount the province had had to pay was $11,687.

Regarding expenses of $800 and $384, the Premier said these amounts had been paid for fixing up the houses and grounds of Lieutenant Governor and his sister-in-law, Mrs. D. Pugsley, whose property adjoins that of the Governor at Rothesay, so they would be in suitable shape, the Prince's staff being put up at the residence of Mrs. D. Pugsley. The $800, he said, had not been paid to the Governor, but to those who did the work, which was considered necessary. The amounts might seem large, he said, but there had to be considerable expense in preparing for royalty.

Sale of Sedan Car.

The Premier said he had been surprised that the sedan car which had been bought for the use of the Prince did not sell at a premium, but it had been two weeks before it was sold at the price received, as heavy closed cars of that character were not in demand. The sale price of the car was some several hundred dollars below the cost, about $500.

Premier Foster also gave an explanation in reference to the amount of $834 paid for services and expenses of John S. Leighton, of Woodstock, in connection with the investigation in the Potatoes' case. He said Mr. Leighton had been employed in preparing the case for the lawyers. Mr. Jones, of Kings, asked about a statement Mr. Leighton was said to have made as he was leaving Woodstock that he was starting off to "get Frank Smith," meaning the ex-Minister of Public Works. Mr. Foster said he did not think Mr. Leighton would make a statement of that kind.

Soft Soap for the Roads.

W. Burton Hill, chief road engineer, was asked regarding Permanent Road Accounts, and the inquiries led to the purchase of two automobiles. One, he said, was for the use of the department at Fredericton and an other, which cost $1,550, was for E. S. Carter, who was an inspector of roads. The upkeep of these cars, he said, was paid by the department from the Permanent Roads accounts.

While accounts for the Public Works Department cars were under consideration, Mr. Pinder, of York, dug up an item for soft soap. "What soft soap charged to permanent roads," remarked Mr. Mersereau, of Sunbury. "Yes," replied Mr. Pinder, "here is an account for a barrel of soft soap charged to permanent roads."

The "Bone Dry" Resolution.

The resolution calling upon the Federal Government to have a plebiscite in New Brunswick on the question of importations of liquor for personal use —better known as the "bone dry" resolution—will come before the Legislature on Friday afternoon. Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, Minister of Agriculture, gave notice yesterday afternoon that he would move the resolution on that date, seconded by Mr. Peck, of Albert.

Engagements Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Wallace, Hartland, announce the engagement of their daughter, Effie Maude, to Raymond Oliver Belyea. The marriage will take place at an early date. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Greer, of New Maryland, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte Bernice, to John Sinclair, of Russagornis.

REJUVENATED BY "VITAL" TABLETS

People are today trying every means to keep young. Some are being fed on monkey glands, and others are having glands of other people injected into their system. We claim the method of injecting glands into the system is unnecessary. The revival of youth can be brought about by taking the French rejuvenator, VITAL Tablets. A person of sixty can feel like a person of twenty. We do not claim VITAL Tablets will do all this instantly, but by taking them regularly for a time, and the time will depend upon the person, but one will gradually feel younger, and eventually you will come back to the land of youth and pep. Diseases of every description will gradually disappear, men and women will be healthy and strong, doctors' bills will be reduced to a minimum. If you are not feeling yourself, go to your drug store and procure a box of these celebrated French Tablets, and you will experience such a change for the good, that you will forever bless the inventor of this wonderful rejuvenating tonic. VITAL Tablets are sold at all good drug stores, at fifty cents per box. Start taking them today. Tomorrow you will feel better.

AMATEUR BASEBALL PLANS FOR SEASON

Provincial League Said to Be Not Unlikely—May Be Two Local Leagues.

Prospective baseball teams for local leagues during the coming summer are being got in touch with by the Athletic Association of the local Y.M. C. A. and Physical Director Bert Cochrane, and it seems probable that two leagues will be formed, one to include the industrial teams which can be organized in the city and the other to include the Y.M.C.A. and teams from Devon, Marysville and perhaps other towns.

Even the Palace Bowling Alleys has been affected by the talk and are considering raising a strong team which will prove an easy job as many good players are amongst the bowlers.

The various factories in the city, the John Palmer Co., the Hartt Boot & Shoe Co. and the Palmer-McLellan Shoepack Co., are considering the question of putting teams into the industrial league if one is formed.

The Y.M.C.A. have been looking for material and it was stated last evening that it would not be a hard matter for that institution to put two teams into the proposed league. Several old players are included among the membership and it would not be surprising to see two strong teams representing the Y.M.C.A. here this summer.

A mass meeting of Y. M. C. A. members and other organizations in the city who are interested in baseball is being held at the Y.M.C.A. building on Friday evening to consider the formation of the League, and it was stated last evening that the town of Devon as well as Marysville and other local organizations would be represented.

It was learned yesterday that Minto, Chipman, Norton, Hampton, Woodstock, Moncton and St. John are all anxious to enter teams in a provincial amateur league for championship honors, and as Fredericton would enter a strong team in the same league it remains for representatives from each of these places to get together and organize.

Concerning the Y. M. C. A. League for the province, the other Y.M.C.A.'s have been communicated with by Secretary Trafford Donovan of the Athletic Association of the local "Y," but as yet no results have been obtained.—W. R. H.

CALGARY WANTS TO SEE CARPENTIER

Calgary, April 21.—The boxing commission at a meeting yesterday decided to offer a big guarantee with forty per cent. privilege to Georges Carpentier, European heavyweight champion, for an exhibition bout here late next month or early in June.

THE ST. CROIX VALLEY TO HAVE A BALL LEAGUE

Five Teams and Possibly Six From Towns on Border Will Be Entered.

G. W. V. A. WILL BACK TEAM AT ST. STEPHEN

St. Croix Valley Seems Certain to Have Banner Sporting Season This Year.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

St. Stephen, N. B., April 20.—St. Stephen will be on the baseball map this year through the efforts of the G. W. V. A. of this town, who have taken hold of the sporting game.

At a meeting recently held by them it was decided to finance the team for the coming season, although it will not be a G. W. V. A. team. This body of men are going to back it from a sporting standpoint, as no one else seemed willing to take a hold of the situation.

Already a substantial amount has been voted for the team and the suits have been ordered as well as other equipment, and practice will start as soon as the grounds can be put in shape. Lots of material is available with the exception of pitchers, but this will probably be overcome before the season starts.

A league will be formed on the border with Woodland, Calais, Milltown, Me., Milltown, N. B., St. Stephen and possibly Eastport. Much interest will be taken in the game this year, as there is great rivalry between these teams, and after the creditable way the G. W. V. A. has taken hold of the matter the people of this town should surely show their appreciation in lending a hand and turning out to the games.

With baseball and trotting this town is promised a good season of sport.—R. E. H.

The Big Leagues

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Ten Pitchers.

Cleveland, April 20.—Cleveland defeated Detroit, 11 to 10, today in a game that lasted more than three hours. Each team used five pitchers, who, probably because of the cold weather, neither had control nor effectiveness.

Jimmie O'Brien will open a public stable at Combination Park this week. One of his pupils will be R. H. Brett, 2.03¼, owned by Thomas McWilliams of Portsmouth, N. H.

Evelyn W., 2.00¾, has a 3-day-old colt at her side by Lu Princeton, 2.01, and owner Dr. John Morgan, of Hartford, Conn., has visions of much of the 1923 Futurity money coming to New England.

BOSTON STABLES WILL RACE HERE

Maritime and Maine Circuit Campaign May Be Made by Frank P. Fox.

Frank P. Fox, veteran of many racing campaigns and who for some years past has made his headquarters at Combination Park, Boston, is likely to bring a big stable of horses down East for the meetings of the Maritime and Maine Shortship Circuit.

It has been an open secret for some time that he has been in correspondeence with Hugh O'Neil, secretary of the Fredericton Park Association, regarding making such an expedition, and in the Boston Globe it is intimated by Frank G. Trott, the well known racing authority, that the Fox stable will probably make the campaign on the Maritime and Maine circuit.

It is now some years ago since the Fox stable made several visits to the Maritime Provines, one occasion being about ten years ago, when the most successful season in the recent history of harness racing resulted from the formation of a compact circuit similar in many respects to that which has been formed for this year. As on the former occasion the veteran from Cornish, Me., will probably not be the only one to jump down here from New England, as the Bay State Circuit has become too fast for anything but the best stables on the half mile tracks of America.

Frank Fox, if he makes the Maritime and Maine Circuit campaign, will find a host of old friends to welcome him—and some good racing.—J. D. B.

HOOF PRINTS.

A. H. Merrill, of Danvers, has sold Ray F., 2.14½, to Preston, Minn., parties.

More than 500 head will be trained over the Lexington, Ky., track this spring.

Nat Ray will move from Mt. Clements, Mich., to the North Randall track early in May.

As Mignola, 2.04¼, is to be raced, Grand Circuit followers hope to see the handsome stallion hook up with McGregor the Great.

Lou Dillon, 1.58½, has a colt at foot by Etawah, 2.03. The youngster is owned by Frank G. Jones, of Memphis, a gift from Lou's owner, C. K. G. Billings.

Allan J. Wilson's horses that wintered at Combination, Tom Donohue, 2.07¾; Forest McKinney, 2.08¼; Wilteen Boy, 2.15¼, and Ann Churchill, 2.24½, are now in training at Readville.

NUXATED IRON

A DRIVING FORCE

BEHIND KEEN SUCCESSFUL MEN AND WOMEN

When you think of the successful men and women you know—people who are doing things worth while—you will find that they possess force, vim and energy—the kind that simply brim over when the blood is filled with iron. Nuxated Iron by enriching the blood and creating new red blood cells, strengthens the nerves, rebuilds the weakened tissues and helps to instill renewed force and energy into the whole system. Three million people use it annually as a tonic, strength and blood-builder.

MAKE THIS TEST

See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired; next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form.

OVERALL CLUBS GAINING RECRUITS

Campaign Started in Florida Spreading All Over the United States.

Tampa, Fla., April 20.—Whether the wearing of overalls and calicoes instead of blue serges, native Palm beaches, homespuns, voiles and other expensive clothing will bring down the high cost of dressing is an experiment first started here and now spreading through all Florida and into Alabama. The whole country now knows of it and has characterized it as "the Tampa idea."

The new style movement, its originators say, is dictated in the spirit of public duty and necessity and does not indicate any lessening of desire on the part of either men or women for good and stylish apparel. They think, however, that it is worth while to try to popularize overalls for men and calicoes and ginhams for women and it is no secret that the feminine experimenters are still looking for the return of silks, satins, organdies and the like to the limitations of their purses.

So it came about that Hafford Jones, secretary of an insurance company, started the Overalls' Club of Tampa. Each member pledged to wear overalls as a regular thing until clothing prices tumbled. Hundreds have joined and many are making good. Others say they are keeping the pledge just as faithfully by taking advantage of the clause which allows them to wear old clothes in lieu of overalls—just so they don't buy any new stuff.

When the men organized the women took up the battle, the New Thought and Unity Club, headed by Mrs. Clara Lawton Metcalf, pledging its membership to calico dresses. All of this had its first public demonstration on Easter Day.

Men and women, correctly garbed to harmonize with the new idea, gathered in the court house square. Addresses were made, new pledges received, and petitions signed asking city, state and national officials to take notice and give aid. Merchants looked on and frowned, and later announced that their sales had not fallen off a bit. They are not the only ones who smile knowingly at the movement and predict that just as the foregoing of the luscious porterhouse steak and choice rib roasts increased the cost of brisket chicken and rump, the abondonment of beautiful silks and all wool garments will raise the cost of denims and calicoes.

"This overalls business is ony a fool joke," says one of the leading clothiers. "Just as long as folks who work for wages demand fifteen dollar silk shirts, three dollar silk neckties and two and a half dollar silk socks, they will get them. And while they're buying that sort of stuff you may lay your heaviest bet on their also buying the best suits of clothing the market affords."

The overall club, however, insists that the war has only begun, and that they'll stick it out and are gaining recruits in bunches.

The movement is being taken up all over the state. Clubs have been organized at Jacksonville, Lakeland, Center Hill and other places. If someone would come along with a cartload of sabots then folks might buy and take revenge on the boot sellers.

A part of the Easter Day programme was for the denims and calicoes to pair off and go to church. Only a few couples had the nerve to stick it out and they presented odd Darby and Joan contrast to besilked and befeathered women and tailor-moulded men.

THE FARMERS PAID LIGHT INCOME TAX

Ottawa, April 20.—A fairly long list of questions regarding income tax, particularly as the returns affect farmers, is due for the House Wednesday from H. H. Stevens, Vancouver. He asks if the statement attributed to T. B. Patton, "that income tax collected by the federal government from farmers in Canada amounted to $389,011 in four years and that the total amount from all other sources reached $83,768,110," is correct.

Mr. Stevens seeks details of all income tax collected by provinces and under the various headings, such as rentals, commissions and dividends, the latter of both British and foreign corporations.

BANK OF MONTREAL ISSUES NEW STOCK

Montreal, April 20.—The directors of the Bank of Montreal anounce the issue of $2,000,000 new capital stock. The new stock will be offered to shareholders of record as at the close of business on the 20th May, 1920, at $150 a share, one share for every ten. The new issue is to provide for the bank's expansion through its recent acquisition of a large interest in the Colonial Bank of Great Britain. The paid up capital of the Bank of Montreal, with the new issue, will be $22,000,000.

HORSES AND GROOMS OF STAFF OFFICERS

Ottawa, April 20.—A question which is of considerable interest to military officers generally will be asked in the House of Commons Wednesday by A. W. Chisholm, member for Inverness, N. S. He asks for a list of officers of headquarters staff who have had horses and grooms, or batmen, supplied them since August 4, 1914; also for the cost of such a proceeding.

The question ends by asking if officers who did not have a horse and groom received any extra pay in lieu thereof.

True Knights of Faith

"By my hilt! mon gar.," whispered Aylward to Alleyne, as the young squire stood with parted lips and wondering eyes, gazing down at the novel scene before him, "we have been seeking them all night, but now that we have found them I know not what we are to do with them."

"You say sooth, Samkin," quoth old Johnston. "I would that we were upon the far side of Ebro again, for there is neither honor nor profit to be gained here. What say you, Simon?"

"By the rood!" cried the fierce man-at-arms, "I will see the color of their blood ere I turn my mare's head for the mountains. Am I a child, that I should ride for three days and nought but words at the end of it?"

"Well said, my sweet honeysuckle!" cried Hordle John. "I am with you, like hilt to blade. Could I but lay hands upon one of those gay prancers yonder, I doubt not that I should have ransom enough from him to buy my mother a new cow."

"A cow!" said Aylward. "Say rather ten acres and a homestead on the Avon."

"Say you so? Then, by our Lady! here is for yonder one in the red jerkin!"

He was about to push recklessly forward into the open, when Sir Nigel himself darted in front of him, with his hand upon his breast.

"Back," said he. "Our time is not yet come, and we must lie here until evening. Throw off your jacks and headpieces, least their eyes catch the shine, and tether the horses among the rocks."

The order was swiftly obeyed, and in ten minutes the archers were stretched along by the side of the brook, munching the bread and the bacon which they had brought in their bags, and craning their necks to watch the ever-changing scene beneath them. Very quiet and still they lay, save for a muttered jest or whispered order, for tiwce during the long morning they heard bugle-calls from amid the hills on either side of them, which showed that they had thrust themselves in between the outposts of the enemy. The leaders sat amongst the box-wood, and took counsel together as to what they should do; while from below there surged up the buzz of voices, the shouting, the neighing of horses, and all the uproar of a great camp.

"What boots it to wait?" said Sir William Felton. "Let us ride down upon their camp ere they discover us."

"And so say I,' cried the Scottish early; "for they do know that there is an enemy within thirty long leagues of them."

"For my part," said Sir Simon Burley, "I think that it is madness, for you cannot hope to route this great army; and where are you to go and what are you to do when they have turned upon you? How say you, Sir Oliver Buttesthorn?"

'By the apple of Eve!" cried the fat knight, "it apears to me that this wind brings a very savory smell of garlic and of onions from their cooking kettles. I am in favor of riding down upon them at once, if my old friend and comrade here is of the same mind."

"Nay," said Sir Nigel, "I have a plan by which we may atempt some small deed upon them, and yet, by the help of God, may be able to draw off again; which, as Sir Simon Burley hath said, would be scarce possible in any other way."

"How, then, Sir Nigel?" asked several voices.

"We shall lie here all day; for amid this brushwood it is ill for them to see us. Then when evening comes we shall sally out upon them and see if we may not gain some honorable advancement from them.'

'But why then rather than now?"

"Because we shall have nightfall to cover us when we draw off, so that we may make our way back through the mountains. I would station a score of archers here in the pass, with all our pennons jutting forth from the rocks, and as many nakirs and drums and bugles as we have with us, so that those who follow us in the fading light may think that the whole army of the prince is upon them, and fear to go further. What think you of my plan, Sir Simon?"

"By my troth! I think very well of it," cried the prudent old commander.

'If four hundred men must needs run a tilt against sixty thousand, I cannot see how they can do it better or more safely."

'And so say I," cried Felton, heartily.

"But I wish the day were over, for it will be an ill thing for us if they chance to light upon us."

The words were scarce out of his mouth when there came a clatter of loose stones, the sharp clink of trotting hoofs, and a dark-faced cavalier, mounted upon a white horse, burst through the bushes and rode swiftly down the valley from the end which was farthest from the Spanish camp. Lightly armed, with his vizor open and a hawk perched upon his left wrist, he loked about him with the careless air of a man who is bent wholly upon pleasure and unconscious of the possibility of danger. Suddenly, however, his eyes lit upon the fierce faces which glared out at him from the brushwod. With a cry of terror, he thrust his spurs into his horse's sides and dashed for the narrow opening of the gorge. For a moment it seemed as though he would have reached it, for he had trampled over or dashed aside the archers who threw themselves in his way; but Hordle John seized him by the foot in his grasp of iron and dragged him from the sadle, while two others caught the frightened horse.

'Ho, ho!" roared the great archer. "How many cows wilt buy my moter, if I set thee free?"

"Hush that bull's bellowing!' cried Sir Nigel impatiently. "Bring the man here. By St. Paul! it is not the first time that we have met; for, if I mistake not, it is Don Diego Alvarez, who was once at the prince's court."

"It is indeed I," said the Spanish knight, speaking in the French tongue, "and I pray you to pass your sword through my heart; for how can I live—I, a caballero of Castile—after being dragged from my horse by the base hands of a common archer?"

TWO—STORY

"Fret not for that," answered Sir Nigel. "For, in sooth, hath he not pulled you down, a dozen cloth-yard shafts had crossed each other in your body."

"By St. James! it were better so than to be polluted by his touch," answered the Spaniard, with his black eyes sparkling with rage and hatred. "I trust that I am now the prisoner of some honorable knight or gentleman."

"You are the prisoner of the man who took you, Sir Diego," answered Sir Nigel. "And I may tell you that better men than either you or I have found themselves before now prisoners in the hands of archers of England."

"What ransom, then, does he demand?" asked the Spaniard.

Big John scratched his red head and grinned in high delight when the question was propounded to him. "Tell him, said he, "that I shall have ten cows and a bull, too, if it be but a little one. Also a dress of blue sendall for mother and a red one for Joan; with five acres of pasture land, two scythes, and a fine new grindstone. Likewise a small house, with stalls for the cows, and thirty-six gallons of beer for the thirsty weather."

"Tut, tut!" cried Sir Nigel, laughing. "All these things may be had for money; and I think, Don Diego, that five thousand crowns is not to much for so renowned a knight."

'It shall be duly paid him."

SPANISH BANDITS ATTACK TRAIN

Seville, Spain, April 20.—Bandits attacked a train last night on which Queen Victoria and her brother, the Marquis of Carisbrook, were travelling from Madrid to Seville. The robbers made an unsuccessful attempt to carry off the Royal plate which the Queen was taking with her.

The robbers, who were well armed, opened a regular fusilade when discovered, wounding two railway men, one of the probably mortally. The bandits escaped in a two horse carriage, leaving no clue to their ilentity.

A Baby Boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Downie, of Westmorland street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy at their home on Monday last.

Returned Soldier Weds.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Ann's church, Kingsclear, yesterday morning, when Rev. Miles Howland united in marriage Ludlow Stairs and Miss Mabel McGuire, both of Lower Southampton. The groom is a returned soldier and he and his bride will leave for Edmonton, Alta., where they will reside.

Remembered by Friends.

Miss May McLaren entertained a number of guests at her home on George street last evening, in honor of Miss Edith Clarke, who is leaving today for Halifax. During the course of the evening a presentation was made Miss Clarke accompanied by many good wishes.

Held Regular Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the ladies' auxiliary of the G. W. V. A. was held in the rooms last evening. Reports of different comittees were read and plans discussed for summer's work. After the different committees had been appointed the meeting adjourned.

Accepts Position in Montreal.

Miss Mary McClay, of Stanley, left on Monday for Montreal, where she has accepted a position as stenographer with the Bank of Montreal. Miss McClay is a recent graduate of the Fredericton Business College and her many friends will wish her success in her new home.

Death of Little Child.

Mr. and Mrs. Turney Munro, of Pokiok, are mourning the loss of their infant son, Edison, aged ten months, which occurred this morning at the home of Mrs. Chase, Victoria Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Munro and two children were visiting at Mrs. Chase's when the little child was taken ill. Besides the parents, one sister, Esther, survives. The funeral takes place tomorrow afternoon with service at the house at 2.30 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Young. Interment will be made at Rural cemetery.

Wore Overalls on a "Dare."

The overall movement was given a certain amount of recognition officially in New Brunswick yesterday when Hon. Dr. E. A. Smith, Minister of Lands and Mines, appeared in the Legislature yesterday afternoon wearing a pair of khaki colored denim trousers. However, the minister wore the overalls as a result of a "dare" it afterwards developed, and there doesn't seem any likelihood of their general adoption as conventional garb by members of the House, particularly as the session will probably close this week.

Shot Himself in Hand.

Oscar Mersereau, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Mersereau, of Russigornis, is at Victoria Hospital as the result of an accident which befel him yesterday while out hunting muskrats. Young Mersereau was carrying a gun in one hand, while with the other he was examining a trap he had set. In some way he struck the hammer of the gun, which went off, the shot going through his left hand, tearing it quite badly. He was brought to the city on the C. P. R. and taken to the hospital where Dr. Holden performed an operation on the injured hand and found it necessary to amputate the thumb.

Conductor Gets Gold Watch.

B. J. Quilty, for many years conductor on the C. P. R. and for the past winter trainmaster at McAdam, left last night for Sudbury, Ont., where he will reside. He has been appointed assistant superintendent for that district in Ontario. Yesterday afternoon representatives of the trainmen, yardmen and operators on the company's line between St. John and McAdam called on Mr. Quilty and presented him with a handsome gold watch, suitably engraved. Mr. Quilty has many friends here who, while regretting his departure from New Brunswick, will be pleased to learn of his promotion.

Given Parting Gift.

The local branch of the Women's Institute met last evening at the home of Miss Beverly to say farewell to Mrs. W. J. MacLean, who is leaving next week to reside in Brockton, Mass. Cards were played at four tables and solos were rendered by Mrs. C. D. Richards, Mrs. Harold Walker and Mrs. Gorham. During the evening Miss Beverly on behalf of the Institute presented Mrs. MacLean with a mahogany tray as a token of appreciation of the splendid work done by her since coming to Fredericton. Dainty refreshments were served and the gathering dispersed wishing Mrs. MacLean much success and happiness in her new home.

FRASER PAPER CO. BILL IS PASSED BY THE COMMITTEE

Satisfactory Agreement Reached for Handling Other Lumber on River.

CONFERENCE ABOUT RAILWAY LANDS

General H. H. McLean, M. P., Here for Conference With Archibald Fraser.

The Fraser Paper Company's bill was passed by the Corporations Committee of the Legislature this morning, a satisfactory agreement as to the handling of lumber on the Tobique at the proposed dam having been reached yesterday afternoon with the other interests.

Yesterday afternoon Major General H. H. McLean, M. P. for Royal, arrived here from Ottawa and he was in conference with Archibald Fraser, of Edmundston, at the Queen Hotel last evening. While no information was given out it is understood the New Brunswick Railway Company's timber limits were the subject under discussion.

When the Fraser Paper Company's bill was before the Corporations Committee a few days ago it was intimated that there would be some arrangement under which supply of pulp wood for the new pulp and paper mills at Tobique Narrows would come very largely from the New Brunswick Railways lands and it is believed that last night's conference was in that connection, General McLean representing the company owning the lands.

Watering Carts Out; Man With Straw Hat

With the official maximum temperature 67 and a summer-like sun shining, there seemed no doubt in Fredericton yesterday that spring was actually here.

The city water carts made their first appearance, a citizen was noticed walking up Queen street with a straw hat on, and the youngsters were playing baseball on every vacant lot.

HON. C. W. ROBINSON ON COMMISSION?

Amendments to Water Power Development Bill Make that Seem Likely.

Several amendments were made in the Legislature yesterday afternoon to the bill that provides for the development of the water powers of New Brunswick, which make it appear that Hon. C. W. Robinson is likely to be on the commission.

One amendment makes the Government's representative on the commission a member of the Government without portfolio, whereas the original bill made members of the House eligible; a second makes $1,000,000 the maximum amount that can be borrowed under the act in one year, and a third gives the commission authority to regulate the price of electric power sold by any municipality or its commission.

Mr. Tilley objected to a member of either the Government or the Legislature being on the commission upon the grounds that it would mean the introduction of politics, but Premier Foster contended that the policy was the same as that adopted in other provinces, naming Ontario and Nova Scotia, and the bill was agreed to with the amendments.

ST. GEORGE'S DAY.

Sons of England Celebrated Feast of Patron Saint at Social Last Evening.

St. George's Day was fittingly celebrated last evening when Islington Lodge, Sons of England Benefit Society, held a social in the Oddfellows' Hall, Queen Street, and welcomed Supreme President Carter of St. John.

About 150 were present and an interesting feature of the evening was the presentation of Past President's Jewel to John Bebbington, Sr. The following programme was carried out:

CONFERENCE ON TEACHERS SALARIES THIS AFTERNOON

Discussion by Members of the House Was Postponed from Yesterday.

SCHOOL INSPECTORS' SALARIES INCREASED

Superannuation for Prof. A. Belliveau is Provided for in Bill.

The round-table conference of members of both parties in the Legislature on the question of teachers' salaries, which was originally scheduled for yesterday, will take place this afternoon in the main committee room at the Legislature. Officials of the Education Office will be present.

Premier Foster made that announcement last evening towards the close of a day that had been marked by the introduction of several educational bills. The first bill met the demands voiced by members of the Opposition a few days ago for better pay for the school inspectors and provided for salaries of $2,000 each with annual expenses of $500 allowed.

The second bill, introduced by Premier Foster, provided for the superannuation of two of the veterans in the educational service of the province; one was Lieut. Col. George W. Mersereau, formerly inspector of schools, who had been over forty years in the service before he went overseas during the war and returned in broken health, and the other was Prof. Alphie Belliveau, still active as the head of the French department at the Provincial Normal School and who has been on the staff there for more than forty years. The bill gives the government authority to superannuate them.

Executive Meeting I. O. D. E.

The executive of the Provincial Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire met here yesterday afternoon and Mrs. Arthur Adams and Mrs. Heber Vroom, of St. John, and Miss Freda Wren, of St. Andrews, are here for the meeting.

Miss F. I. Goodspeed, R. N., of the nursing staff of the S. C. R. Hospital, River Glade, is spending a two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Goodspeed. Mrs. Goodspeed, who has been ill for two weeks, is able to be out again.

J. D. M. Laughlin, of Red Rapids, is a guest today at the Barker House.

THE SESSIONAL INDEMNITY WILL BE RAISED TO $1,000

Government Will Bring Down Bill in Legislature It Was Said Today.

REPORT FOLLOWS A GOVERNMENT CAUCUS

Opposition Also Held Caucus Today and It is Said Bill is Sure to Pass.

The session indemnities of the members of the Legislature are to be increased by a bill which will be brought in by the Government, it was intimated this morning.

The present indemnity is $500, but last year an additional amount of $100 was passed by the Contingencies Committee, and it was understood when the matter was brought up in the House last year that the amount would be increased this year to at least $800.

Last night there was a caucus of the Government party which opened at 9 o'clock and lasted until 2.30 a.m. This morning it was said that indemnity was one of the principal questions considered and that it had been decided, as one member on the Government side put it, "not to go half way." This, it was said, meant that $1,000 would be the amount to help the members battle with the high cost of living.

At noon today the Opposition had a caucus and this afternoon it was said the $1,000 indemnity was sure to go through the House.

It is not known whether the salaries of the Ministers will be increased from $2,100, but there is a disposition to do that, too.

FRANCE GETS HER WAY OVER HUN PROBLEM

British and Italian Representatives Proposed Germany Be Invited to Conference

FOR DISCUSSION OF ECONOMIC RELATIONS

France, However, Opposed the Suggestion and Discussions Will Be Held by Allies.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 22. — The San Remo correspondent of the Matin says he has been informed that the propositions of Premier Nitti and Lloyd-George on the question of dealing with Germany culminated in a suggestion that Germany be invited to take part in the conference here. The Premiers indicated, he declares, that in their view the presence of the German Chancellor in person would be desirable, as a means of making the discussion of the future and economic relations between Germany and her former enemies productive of the best results.

However, adds the correspondent, the representations of Premier Millerand ultimately convinced the Italian and British Premiers that they had taken the wrong view, and it was decided that discussion of the German problem should be confined to the members of the supreme council.

The German note requesting a revision of the military clauses of the peace treaty, so that Germany could maintain an army of 200,000 men until a general reduction of armaments had been brought about by the League of Nations, has been received by the President of the San Remo conference, the correspondent reports. In British circles, it is believed, he states, that the discussion of this note will necessitate a prolongation of the length of the conference.

REFORM CAMPAIGN IN QUEBEC RENTALS

Tenants Association to Apply to Legislature for Amendments to the Civil Code.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Quebec, April 22.—The Quebec Tenants' Association is starting up a very active reform campaign, and has resolved, among other things, to apply to the legislature at its next session to obtain certain amendments to the civil code to bring about the following changes:

A—To fix the day of moving from May to July.

B—Two months' notice between landlord and tenant.

C—To do away with the present abuse of visiting tenements or dwellings which are to let, by limiting the time for visits to three days a week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, between the hours of three and five in the afternoon.

DISAPPEARANCE OF AMBROSE J. SMALL

Sisters of Missing Man Complain of Inactivity of the Toronto Authorities.

Toronto, April 22.—In connection with the finding of a human hand in a back alley near Claremont Place, this city, last Friday, the disappearance of Ambrose J. Small, a wealthy theatrical man of Toronto, on December 2, 1919, has been recalled by Mr. Small's two sisters, asking Chief Coroner Dr Johnson for an order to view the hand, and were refused permission to see it. The reason advanced for the refusal was that the hand was badly burned by acids.

The Toronto World carries a story this morning to the effect that the hand in question does not bear evidence of having been an anatomical specimen, and though covered by dirt, it looks as if it had been the hand of a man in fairly good circumstances.

The World story states that the Misses Small, Ambrose Small's sisters, complain that they have been unable to obtain any information from the local authorities as to what is being done in the matter of clearing up the mystery of Mr. Small's disappearance, and that inquiries from them are met with the reply that the authorities are investigating for Ambrose Small's wife and solicitors.

AIRMAN KILLED.

Long Beach, Calif., April 22.—Geo. Daly, a pilot, and a passenger, were killed yesterday when Daly's airplane fell 1,000 feet into the Pacific Ocean off the recreation pier here.

Paris Labor Purposes to Stop Everything Except The Clocks on May Day

All Means of Transportation Are Expected to Cease Entirely

SHOES BY MAIL IN CARLOADS

The Outlaw Railwaymen Now Fighting Among Themselves.

Paris, April 22.—Just who will work and what service the public will get on May 1, when the labor leaders purpose to have everything except the clocks stopped, is still the main topic of discussion in all circles in Paris. The teachers have been instructed by the government to report for duty in all the schools at the customary hour. On the other hand, the Vincennes race track authorities have decided to abandon the proposed race meeting for that day, and a number of other sporting events also have been called off. At present it seems certain that all means of transportation will cease on May Day.

SHIPPING SHOES BY MAIL IN CARLOADS

Middleboro, Mass., April 22.—Express and freight shipments continue so uncertain because of strike and embargo conditions on the railroads that shoe manufacturers here are shipping shoes by mail in carloads. One car which left here yesterday carried $3,000 in postage.

The Railway Board and Strikers.

New York, April 22.—With all overtures on their behalf for peace rejected, members of the so-called "outlaw" union of railroad workers of America still on strike in the New York district, met in Jersey City today to decide on a course of future action.

The strikers anxiously awaited a report from E. A. McHugh, Chairman of the union's executive committee, on the results of his negotiations at Washington. McHugh sought in vain to place the strikers grievance before the Railway Labor Board, and later conferred with leaders of the "Big Four" Railway Brotherhoods.

Some improvement in the movement of freight was reported by all the lines in the district today, but it was admitted that absence of switchmen and yardmen was hampering complete resumption of traffic. Passenger service was declared to be almost normal.

Strikers Split by Revolt.

Chicago, April 22.—The next move of insurgent railroad strikers in the Chicago district, split by a revolt against their own leaders, was awaited today by federal officials and railroad representatvies while traffic conditions throughout the middle and far west returned to normal.

Several "rebel" leaders, repudiated yesterday by the strikers when at a mass meeting they counselled ending the walkout because they "could not fight the government,' abandoned the strike and led small groups of switchmen back to the yards.

PRINCIPALSHIP OF M'GILL UNIVERSITY

Montreal, April 22.—Mr. Wm. Birks, one of the governors of McGill University, who has just returned from a two months' business trip to England, and who returned on the same ship as Sir Auckland Geddes, said yesterday that he had discussed the question of the vacant principalship of the university with Sir Auckland. In the view of Mr. Birks, if a Canadian can be found for so important a post, he should be appointed.

The Labor Element in Spanish Town Go on Strike Because of Unauthorized Suspension Gambling Houses by Mayor

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

JAEN, Spain, April 22.—All workers here struck today because of a quarrel between the socialist mayor of this city and the civil governor, which arose from the former's suppression of gambling, which action, the Governor declared, was not authorized.

Workmen generally support the Mayor's action, and the city is without water, gas, electricity or street cars. Measures to maintain order have been taken by the authorities.

The Labor Situation in West Generally Free of Troubles And No Problems to Contront

A Shortage of Labor Reported in the British Columbia Lumber and Mining Districts—The Building Trades in Western Provinces Generally Satisfied.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Vancouver, B. C., April 22.—British Columbia coast points are practically free of labor troubles at present, nor are there any signs indicating strikes of large proportions anticipated in the immediate future.

New Demands on Labor Supply.

Nelson, B. C., April 22.—A marked shortage of skilled labor is reported by the lumber mills of the mountains, while common labor is none too plentiful. With sufficient water in the streams now, the period of heavy operations in mining is opening, which will make new demands on the labor supply. The One Big Union is a factor in the coal mining, mining and lumbering districts, but outside of this organization the sky is clear, except for the tie-up of railway construction near Princeton.

The Situation in Alberta.

Edmonton, Alta., April 22.—Everything in the labor world of Edmonton looks bright at the present time and no strikes are in prospect. Owing to the lateness of spring there is little demand for labor, but a large number are being placed by the provincial labor bureau for mining and lumbering work.

Building Trades Satisfied.

Regina, April 22.—Regina labor conditions in general are more reassuring than a year ago, when a general strike in the building trades was on. This year all the building trades unions have signed agreements at an advance over last year, with the exception of the carpenters, whose agreement does not expire until May 1. They are asking for a closed shop and a dollar an hour, and the contractors object to the closed shop principle. It is considered unlikely there will be any strike. The farm labor situation is regarded as satisfactory.

Ask Increases at Calgary.

Calgary, April 22.—One labor agreement, that of the Typographical Union, expires before June 1. This union is making requests for increases. At present there are no strikes in sight.

Plasterers laborers on June 1 will ask 75 cents an hour and sheet metal workers will ask $1, as will the electrical workers.

WOMEN CONFESSORS IN ANGLICAN CHURCH

Objection that a Woman Wouldn't Trust Another With a Secret.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 22.—Whether the church should provide women confessors is a question which the Lambeth conference of the clergy of Great Britain, to be held in July, may have to decide.

At a meeting of the national union for equal citizenship, Miss Edith Pickton-Turberville, said that letters had been received from girls in various parts of the country pleading for women confessors in high Anglican churches.

The Rev. Henry Ross, vicar of St. Albans, a large parish in Holborn, London, does not hold out much hope for the suggestion, for in a recent interview he said women would not confess to women, who are pitiless to their own sex.

"I have had considerable experience of public life outside the church," he said, "and while we welcome women's help, I have had evidence of this trait in their character.

"The church is quite clear on this subject," he added, "for we come at once up against the question of the priesthood. No woman can be admitted to the priesthood. Therefore, we can have neither women preachers nor women confessors. If there were no other, there is the psychological objection that one woman would not trust another woman to keep a secret, even if told in the confessional."

WOULD INCREASE THE FREIGHT RATES

Quebec Member Advises the Government to Raise Rates on the National Roads.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, April 22.—In the debate on the Grand Trunk bill in the House last night, Frank McCrea (Sherbrooke) opposed government ownership and wanted the freight rates raised.

'You cannot expect the cost of equipment, etc., to have gone up a hundred per cent. during the war and run the thing successfully by increasing the rates forty per cent.," he said.

A. T. Leger (Kent), was strongly against increased rates.

Hon. W. S. Fielding wanted the clause which provides for borrowing powers for the Railway Board made clear. It was understood that the government could not lend to the road without the consent of parliament, but Mr. Fielding asked that the Minister of Justice look into the wording of the clause and make the latter point quite plain before the act was printed.

PEOPLE OF MARS ARE NOT DISTURBED

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Omaha, April 22.—While no official announcement has been made that the proposed balloon flight on Friday by Prof. Todd, of Amherst, in an effort to signal Mars, has been abandoned, neither the Aero Club nor the Chamber of Commerce officials know of any preparations for the flight. Leo Stevens, who was to have piloted the balloon, said he had received no word of Prof. Todd's leaving New York.

SHIPBUILDING CONTRACT.

Seattle, Wash., April 22.—Contracts for five steel oil tankers, eah of 8,500 dead weight tons, were awarded to the Rogers Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, of Seattle, yesterday by the Anglo-Saxon Petroleum Company, of England, according to an announcement by the company.

Massachusetts To Legalize Sale of Beers and Light Wines

Bill to Allow Beers and Wines of Not More Than 2.75 Per Cent. of Alcoholic Contents Passed by the Senate With an Overwhelming Majority.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Boston, Mass., April 22.—A bill to legalize the sale in this State of beers and light wines with an alcoholic content of not more than 2.75 per cent. was passed by the Senate yesterday. The vote was 21 to 8. The measure has not yet been acted upon by the house.

NEW RULERS TO BROADEN IRISH POLICY

Sir Hamar Greenwood and Gen. Macready Said to Favor Moderation for Present.

ATTEMPT TO FIND OUT WHAT SINN FEIN WANTS

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 22.—England's new Irish policy may be something broader than the existing Home Rule scheme, and not unlike Dominion Home Rule, says the Daily Sketch.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, recently named Chief Secretary for Ireland, and Gen. Sir Cecil F. N. Macready, the newly appointed military commander there, are said to favor moderation and are making attempts to determine just what the Sinn Fein wants. A favorable atmosphere is being created, and the government, the newspaper says, will "go farther to reach a settlement than is generally believed."

Newspaper reports have recently speculated on the nature of the policy initiated by the government, and it seems the first steps in carrying out present plans will be taken as soon as Sir Hamar is re-elected a member for Parliament for Sunderland. Viscount Field Marshal French, Lord Lieutenant for Ireland, will resign, says the Sketch, and a clean sweep will be made of officials in Dublin Castle, who are charged with being largely responsible for errors which have led to the present situation in the island. Thus the way to harmonious co-operation will be paved, the newspaper asserts.

MINING COMPANY WINS BIG ACTION

Awarded $100,000 Actual Damages Against Striking United Mine Workers.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Ft. Smith, Ark., April 22.—Verdict for the Pennsylvania Mining Co. for $100,000 actual damages against district number 26, United Mine Workers of America, and loal mine workers' bodies in three Arkansas counties, was returned late yesterday in federal court here. Under the Sherman Act the judgment will be tripled, to aggregate $300,000, court officials explained.

The company operated a mine at Jamestown, Arkansas, for nearly six years under an open shop policy. A strike was alled in 1915 and in the suit growing out of the strike the company charged conspiracy to destroy its property and business.

ABANDONED TUG BROUGHT TO PORT

Prince Rupert, B. C., April 22.—The tug boat McDuff, which ran ashore at Alford Bay, with no one aboard, is on her way here, being sailed by an Indian. A letter was found aboard addressed to Mrs. Anne Brompton, 176 Burgess street, Grimsby, England, saying:

"Engine broken, rudder smashed, drifting to Hecate Straits. Storm. Bidding good bye to everyone for evermore."

EFFORTS TO SETTLE CORNER IN STUTZ

New York, April 22.—Efforts to effect a settlement of the controversy arising from the recent alleged corner in Stutz motor stock have been delayed, it was learned last night, pending the appointment of a mediation committee of three banks to fix the prices at which the shorts should settle their obligations.

10,000 to Parade On Saturday In Overall Suits

Post Office Employees Will Wear Overalls

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

London, Ont., April 22.—An "Overall Club" was formed yesterday among local post office employees. In one hour forty of the staff signed an agreement to wear overalls until June 30, or "such time as may be decided" by those signing.

DOUBLE DEMAND FOR WORKING CLOTHES

Overall Manufacturers Say They Have Not Increased Price, but Retailers Have

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 22.—Overall manufacturers in this city and Wappingers Falls report the demand for working clothes has doubled in the last week. At one factory it was said that the wholesale price has not been increased, although retailers everywhere have increased their prices to consumers.

Two hundred pupils of Poughkeepsie High School, all members of the senior class, went to school in overalls today, all having sworn not to wear any other outer clothing until they have graduated.

COMPENSATION ACT IN NOVA SCOTIA

Increase of Fifty Per Cent. in Compensation Allowed Widows and Orphans.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Halifax, N. S., April 22.—The second reading of the bill to amend the Workmen's Compensation Act occupied the attention of the local House yesterday afternoon. Hon. Mr. Armstrong, the introducer of the bill, explained its provisions and the reasons for the proposed amendments. Its main feature is an increase of fifty per cent. in the compensation to be allowed dependent widows and orphans. Very strong representations have been made from labor organizations for an increase in compensation, but the bill is not, it is pointed out, as sweeping as these organizations desire. Mr. Armstrong pointed out that similar increases had been granted or are under consideration by the other provinces of Canada. The industries, he said, should bear the burden of the increase.

New York to Foster the Drive Against the High Clothing Prices

STORES LOWER PRICE OF SUITS

Authorities Collecting Evidence Against Profiteers Now.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York, April 22.—Ten thousand persons, at least, will parade here on Saturday in overalls, according to estimates today by the "Cheese Club," which is fostering the drive against higher prices of clothing. It will be an "all overall" parade, from the police, who will head the procession, to the bands and marchers.

The price cutting movement by department stores, which started in Brooklyn, spread to Manhattan today, with the announcement by A. W. Riley, head of the Department of Justice flying squadron of profiteer hunters, that two big stores have volunteered to cut clothing and shoe prices. He said one was a large Fifth Avenue department store.

Mr. Riley said his agents had collected evidence against several New Yodk stores, indicating profiteering, and that arrests would follow soon, unless there were more voluntary price cuts.

Take Advantage of Movement

Ogden, Utah, April 22.—Mayor Frank Francis announced today a city investigation is being made of charges that stores had raised the price of overalls because of the widespread movement for overall clubs to combat the high cost of clothing. The Mayor said the result of the investigation would be published.

Sydney Forms a Club.

Sydney, N. S., April 22.—Sydney got in line with the overall club movement today when the mechanical and electrical departments of the Cape Breton Electric Co. formed a club, which will also include many officials of the tram company.

$6,800,000 BONDS SOLD BY ONTARIO

Payment in N. Y. Funds Equivalent to About 99.88 in Canada at Present Time.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Toronto, April 22.—The largest bond issue disposed of in Canada for many months was that of the province of Ontario for $6,800,000, sold yesterday to a syndicate of Canadian and American houses at 91.63 and interest. Payment is to be made in New York funds, which, at the present rate of exchange, would be equivalent to about 99.88 per cent. in Canada or a basis of 6.03 per cent. The bonds are for five years.

Only two bids were received, the lower being 91.03. The successful tenderer is a syndicate composed of the following firms:

Wood, Gundy & Co., Dominion Securities Corporation, A. E. Ames & Co., all of Toronto; First National Company, Detroit; E. H. Rollins & Sons, Boston; Clarke, Dodge & Co., New York; William R. Compton & Co., St. Louis.

WILL REPRESENT CANADA AT GENOA

A. W. Wright, of Kingston, Ont., Nominated to Represent the Shipping Interests.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Montreal, April 22.—Owing to the condition of his wife and the severe illness of his daughter, Thomas Robb, secretary of the Shipping Federation, will not be able to accept appointment as representative of the Canadian Steamship Employers at the seamen's conference at Genoa next June, under the terms of the peace conference and League of Nations. A meting of the ocean steamship owners was held yesterday, in conjunction with representatives of the Great Lakes navigation companies, when A. W. Wright, of Kingston, Ont., was nominated by the shipping operators as agreeable to them as a representative to present their case at the general conference at Genoa.

It was stated that Mr. Wright's name would be submitted to the Government as the nominee of the Canadian shipping interests at the Genoa conference.

Hon. B. Frank Smith Brought Matter Up in the House Last Night —Premier Foster Says Everything All Right Except Some Auto Tires Went Astray.

The expenditures in connection with the visit of the Prince of Wales to New Brunswick last year were aired in the House last night, when Premier Foster repeated his explanations given in the morning to the Public Accounts committee.

Hon. B. Frank Smith attacked the expenditures, particularly the amounts paid in connection with the residences and grounds of the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Anna Pugsley, his sister-in-law, at Rothesay, and the amounts paid for automobiles to J. A. Pugsley & Co., which he said, really brought the expense for automobiles that day to more than $1,600. He also referred to the purchase of "caps, gloves and even socks" for the chauffeurs and while he felt that His Royal Highness should have been fittingly entertained he "did not think the door should have been opened for graft."

Premier Foster gave the same explanation he had given the Public Accounts Committee only at a little further length and declared there was no reason for suggesting graft. He said he had authorized the expenditures, had certified them and he was not ashamed to accept the responsibility. He had done the best he could under the circumstances, but it was an occasion in which expense could not be the only consideration. Everything that had been done had been necessary and so far as he could see the only room for complaint was that it appeared that extra tires which had been purchased for the special cars provided for the Governor General and Sir Robert Borden and these had been allowed to remain on the cars instead of being re-sold.

An Anti-Conscriptionist Heard.

"Should have let him walk," shouted an anti-conscriptionist supporter of the Government when Premier Borden's name was mentioned.

Mr. Smith said the door had been left open for certain unscrupulous individuals to take advantage of. In the matter of cars for the day the deficit or expense for the province to pay had amounted to $1,600 and some of the bills were certified to by E. S. Carter and not by the Premier, as the latter had stated.

Hon. Mr. Foster said that while Mr. Carter may have certified to some of the bills he (Foster) saw them all and certified to many of them. There had been many newspaper and motion picture men on hand to greet the Prince, and it had been necessary to provide cars for them and properly so. Some expense had been incurred for the use of tugboats and the services of boatmen, which the Government had been asked to pay but had not done so. The member for Carleton could get all the information he required from the Public accounts. The total cost in connection with the entertainment of the Prince had been $11,687.23.

The item of unforeseen expenses passed, the committee reported progress and Hon. Mr. Foster moved that supply be made the order of the day for Friday.

Fees on School Bills.

Hon. Mr. Roberts introduced a bill to amend the Act relating to the New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Society, which on the ground of urgency was read a second time.

Hon. Mr. Foster introduced a bill to authorize the City of St. John to levy and collect for the purpose of paying current indebtedness incurred for school purposes. He explained that the amount to be collected was $75,000 and it was proposed to pay it off in three annual payments. On the ground of urgency the bill was read a second time.

Hon. Mr. Foster introduced a bill to ratify and confirm an issue of debenture made by the St. John school trustees in 1917. He said that some doubt had arisen in regard to the legality of the issue and it was proposed to confirm it by legislation.

Mr. Burchill wanted to know if the bills introduced by the Premier were Government measures. If not they were liable to the payment of fees.

Hon. Mr. Foster said that he had understood that bills relating to the Schools Act usually went through as Government measures without payment of fees. He suggested that the bills be given a second reading and a decision made in regard to the matter.

Hon. Mr. Speaker said that whatever was customary in the past should be followed.

Hon. Mr. Foster thought that the bills might be referred to the Standing Rules Committee.

Mr. Baxter said the Schools Act was essentially a matter for a Government bill and ought not to be amended by a bill introduced by a private member. He thought that the chairman of the Standing Rules Committee should give an opinion as to whether the bills should be referred to that committee.

The bills were read a second time.

Hon. Mr. Foster introduced a bill to amend the Schools Act. He explained that its object was to allow the City of St. John to increase the assessment for school purposes to $325,000. On the ground of urgency the bill was read a second time.

Back Down on Vaccination Order.

Hon. Mr. Roberts introduced a bill to enable the Parish of Lancaster to assess for recreation grounds and also a bill to confirm certain measures taken during the influneza epidemic, both of which were read a second time.

Hon. Mr. Roberts introduced a bill relating to grants of public money. He explained that its object was to enable municipalities, cities and towns to grant money towards the Victorian Order of Nurses if their desired to do so. It would also confirm an expenditure made in that way in the Parish of Lancaster.

Hon. Mr. Roberts introduced a bill to amend the Public Health Act of 1918. He said that the changes proposed in the Act were not of very important nature. One had to do with the publication of the regulations in the Royal Gazette and another concerned the vaccination of employees of lumber camps. The present act made employers in lumber camps responsible for an outbreak of smallpox within fourteen days even if they had seen to it that the employees had been vaccinated. It was proposed to change that feature of the Act. On the ground of urgency the bill was read a second time.

The Factories Act.

The House in committee, with Mr. Burchill in the chair, took up further consideration of a bill to consolidate the several Acts respecting the protection of persons employed in factories.

Mr. Sutton, speaking to the section providing an age limit of 14 years for boys and 16 years for girls, said that this was going to work hardship. There were numerous families in straitened circumstances, the children of which went to work at an early age to help support themselves.

Hon. Mr. Robinson said that such was the wording of the old Act.

Mr. Sutton said he knew that, but that legislation limiting chances to obtain employment was dangerous.

Hon. Mr. Robinson said that it had been considered desirable to make as few changes in the Act as possible. He believed there was a permissive clause which would cover the objection of the member for Carleton.

Mr. Sutton said that if such had been the law for some years past, the law had been violated generally. Children did go to work and there evidently was not respect for the Act.

The bill was reported as amneded.

The House went into Committee with Mr. Sutton in the chair and agreed to bills to enable the Town Council of Sackville to borrow money, to enable the Town Council of Sackville to grant further concessions to industries, to authorize the Town of Edmundston to borrow $25,000 for streets and sidewalks, relating to the Town of Sackville and relating to the Indiantown and Lancaster ferry.

The bills were reported.

Mr. Magee moved that the Special Committee on the bill for the Incorporation of Villages be permitted to meet during the sittings of the House.

Hon. Mr. Foster moved the suspension of Rule 77 to permit of the introduction of a bill to incorporate the Union Church of McAdam, York county.

The House adjourned at 9.44 p. m.

WONDERFUL WORK OF WOMEN IN WAR

London, April 21.—Lady Limerick writes to the London Daily Mail protesting against the exclusion from the big list of appointments to the O. B. E., recently issued, of women who assisted at her refreshment buffets for Canadian and other soldiers during the war.

"When in 1916, by invitation, I visited Canada to address a recruiting meeting," says Lady Limerick, "I found the buffet already known by our splendid Canadians. I cannot estimate how much the work of the women at the buffet helped to keep patriotism alive in Canada, and Australia too. Ninety-five per cent. of the wounded passing through London Bridge to Kentish hospitals were fed and tended on that station platform. One Christmas eve 900 repatriated Mons men came through. They would have had nothing had it not been for us. It was a great brotherhood of help and comfort, which ended with a balance of 2,800 pounds. With this we have bought, thanks to our Canadian friends, the Bramshott huts at Guildford, as the Glentworth ex-Service Men's Club, in memory of my dear son, who died in a gallant air fight, and as a reminder of the buffet.

"Eighty-four women, only one was paid, shared in the work of the London Bridge buffet, and I have not found one in this honors list.

OBITUARY.

Miss Frances Odell.

[Halifax Mail.]

There entered into rest eternal, at five o'clock Wednesday afternoon, at her residence, 34 Tobin street, Frances, second daughter of the Honorable Senator William Odell, of the Dominion Parliament, and Mrs. Odell, and granddaughter of the late Mr. Justice Bliss, for over thirty years puisne judge of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia. There is a circle to whom that sorrowful news will come with a quite poignant sense of loss, and a wider one which, while not of intimate friends, is yet of people who recognized in Miss Odell a very choice and most gentle spirit, and a lady of an almost vanished school.

It was about the middle of March that she developed the illness which was destined to prove fatal, but as late as Friday last, she seemed to rally and was so bright and buoyant that the members of the household were much encouraged and hoped that the fears of a few days earlier would prove unfounded. However, at evening on Saturday there was a sudden and ominous change and it immediately became apparent that the loosing of the silver cord was at hand. Steadily the shadow of death deepened over the little group of sisters between whom the tie was so peculiarly intimate and tender and, as intimated, the end came at about five o'clock Wednesday afternoon,

A lady, as stated, of a fast vanishing school, a devoted churchwoman, a highly valued member of the congregation of the Cathedral of All Saints as formerly of that of St. Luke's, Miss Odell was one of three sisters between whom as stated, the ties were particularly strong and tender ,and friends generally fully realize the nature of the blow to the two who are left, in this parting of the ways. One of the gentlest of women, and one of the most responsive to all need, the number of her quiet ministries will never be known—the utmost delicacy invariably characterize them and an exquisite simplicity. The work at the Cathedral which most fully enlisted her interest was that of the Sanctuary Guild, and many of the flowers, which in succeeding springs and summers made lovely the Altar, were from the beautiful garden in which she took delight. She was indeed a devoted churchwoman, her mother having been a sister of the late Bishop Binney and in all relating to the life of the church took the deepest interest.

There survive the two sisters already referred to—Ella and Mary Kearney. The loss of an only brother, Major Henry Odell, of the British army, whose death took place some years ago in India, was a grievous sorrow to her. A memorial to this brother is on the south wall of the Cathedral. Loved wherever known, she has entered on the rest which remains for the pure in heart — on all sides are heard expressions of sympathy to the members of her household, the sisters of her deepest devotion.

(In the above notice it is stated that Miss Odell's mother was a sister of the late Bishop Binney. This should have been "a sister of the wife of the late Bishop Binney.")

Would Prohibit Pussyfoot

HORATIO BOTTOMLEY, M. P., THE WELL-KNOWN BRITISH PUBLICIST, ENTERS AN INDIGNANT PROTEST AGAINST PAID ALIEN AGITATORS ENDEAVORING TO ENFORCE TEETOTALISM UPON THE CITIZENS OF GREAT BRITAIN.

It appears that Mr. 'Pussyfoot" Johnson is no more than the advance representative on this side of the water of the American Anti-Saloon League, the next move in the Yankee game being the inauguration of a World Prohibition campaign, backed by a fund of at least £10,000,000. Instead of staying at home to keep the United States "dry," and to round up the army of poisoners who seek to profit from the starved thirst of their countrymen, the Pussyfoot Brigade propose to invade these islands in force, where, with the help of our own United Kingdom Alliance and kindred organizations, they will initiate a "raging, tearing propaganda" against "the accursed drink."

No doubt it will all be very interesting, and, in ordinary circumstances, I might abstain from protest, leaving it to the common sense of my countrymen to rally in support of their threatened liberties and show the cranks to the door. But the circumstances are of a peculiar nature. For one thing, the times are critical; a moment when, from a variety of causes, the public mind is in a stae of ferment, being the least opportune for the introduction of a fresh cause of dissension. In the second place—it is as well to speak frankly—I dislike the intrusion of alien agitators in a matter of purely domestic concern.

I have no wish to employ the occasion for an attack on the American people or their Government; what I have had to say upon that score I have said openl and without reserve. But I do feel that even if the United States were still amongst our good Allies, we should have a right to protest against the flooding of this country with paid agitators from across the water. Such "misionary" enterprise from one civilized nation to another has the quality of an insult.

What would be said, I wonder, if the position were reveresd—if some society, with its headquarters in London, were to embark upon a crusade for the moral improvement of Uncle Sam? Really, I think that from the American standpoint it would almost amount to a casus belli. However, upon this point I will say no more than that a nation with a history like ours, rich in all that makes for the moral greatness of a people, does not need to sit at the feet of an adolescent Republic, or to learn the rudiments of social policy from the younger and less experienced branch of the Euglish-peaking race.

I hold, and have no hesitation in saying, that the reasonable use of good liquor is among the factors that contribute to a healthy, happy human life. Good beer and wine, used with sensible moderation, add a zest and sparkle to existence, robbing dull hours of their gloom, and making the sunny days brighter. Moreover, they make for what is known as "conviviality"—an instructive word which means, when we get to the bottom of it, the art of "living together." That is one of the benefits of alcohol. It helps people to get along together, rounds their corners, adds to the sense of fellowship. The man who talks of "the drink demon" has seen only its morbid manifestations, its effects on starved bodies or feeble minds. Such fanatics lose sight of its gentler and far commoner manifestations as a healer of discords, as a soothing and smoothing influence amid life's jolts and jars.

The trouble with the Prohibitionist agitator is that in proportion as he is sincere he is seldom a man of the world—his acquaintance with "drink" being derived principally from certain exceptional phenomena, and including no knoweldge of its legitimate social uses. Thus drunkenness is identified with "drinking," and from this it is an easy step to the demand for the suppression of the "liquor traffic," which, by a perverted logic, is held responsible for the failure of a small minority of the population to preserve their self-control.

My quarrel with the aggressive teetotaller has always been that, not content with personal abstinence—which is entirely his own affair—he is constantly endeavoring to enlist the aid of the State in imposing upon other people by law the habit that is his by choice. To this I object in any case, and more especially when the demand is put forward by professional agitators who are not even British citizens. My view is that there must be limits to the censorship of the State in the realm of private conduct, and that, except for some vital purpose that commands universal agreement, the Government has no right to interfere with the personal habits of free citizens. If I may so put it, the Government has no more right to make me a teetotaller against my will than to compel my friend, Mr. Leif ones, to consume three pints of liquor a day.

But because of my aversion from this Prohibitionist folly, with its risk of strife and division when above all else we need an increase of co-operation and goodwill, it does not follow that I am opposed to sane projects of reform in the conduct of the licensed trade. Indeed, I believe the opponents of Prohibition, and especially the spokesmen of the brewing interest, are making a very great mistake in pretending, so to speak, that "everything in thte garden is lovely," when, as a matter of fact, the whole system under which drink is sold and consumed in this country is riddled with abuses. What is needed is not Prohibition at the one extreme, or the extravagant folly of State purchase at the other, but a sane, middle policy directed to the two objects of providing the public with good, wholesome liquor, guaranteed against adulteration, and the opportunity to consume it with their friends in conditions of cleanliness and comfort.

If Pussyfoot is to be kept at bay, we must set our public-houses in order. It is along these lines that we shall find the remedy for such evils as exist, and the source of many real social advantages. The public-house needs not ending, but mending. In a word, wisdom will choose not Revolution, but Reform.

Between the public-house as it is and as it ought to be there is an immense gulf fixed, and to bridge this chasm of difference should be the object of all concerned. I am glad to see that one representative of "the Trade," at least, Sir William Peat, is alive to the logic of the situation. "What 'the Trade' needs to do," says Sir William, "is to assist the Temperance Party to get public-houses so built that a man may take his wife and family into them without dis- With a measure of truth, the public-house has been spoken of as the "workman's club," and I want to see more attention paid to this aspect of its usefulnes. Side by side with the sale of good liquor there should be facilities for all kinds of recreation—for games and dancing, for the enjoyment of music, and for friendly social intercourse to the accompaniment of jellity and good fellowship. To bring this about, it will be necessary to amend the obsolete Licensing Laws, which could scarcely differ from their present form if they had been framed with the express object of encouraging the execcsive consumption of liquor. We need a clean slate, and a fresh start.

This, then, is may answer to Pussyfoot. We can well dispense with the attentions of American cranks, the nation as a whole being in no mood to tolerate the placing of further obstacles in the way of reasonable refreshment. Instead of Prohibition—the wild and fantastic project of a handful of faddists—we will have Public-House Reform. The squalid drinking-shops that disfigure our great cities must either be improved or aboliched, and their place taken by clean and comfortable hostleries, in which respectable folks can spend a leisure hour or so under decent conditions, and in an agreeable social atmosphere. It is idle for "the Trade" simply to shout "No Prohibition" unless they are prepared with counter-measures, acceptable to moderate opinion, which, while it shrinks from revolutionary proposals, is alive to the necessity for reform.

As an earnest of good faith, I suggest to the brewers that they might very well try the experiment of selling real beer instead of the noxious compound which at present menaces the health of His Majesty's liges. A "Pure Beer Bill" and a "Public-House Reform Bill" are among the measures that should be marked "urgent" in the Prime Minister's diary. As soon as they see the light, I fancy Mr. "Pussyfoot" Johnson will be inclined to pack his "grip" and "get"

Newcastle, April 21.—Earl Underhill, of Blackville, was brought to the Miramichi Hospital badly injured by a kick from a horse. Mr. Underhill was working among his horses when one of them kicked, striking him in the head, rendering him unconscious for several hours, and for a time his life was despaired of, but there are slight hopes now for his recovery.

Messrs. A. S. Gremley, D.D.G.M., C. G. Condie and Murray Russell are in Campbellton attending the special Masonic services there on Sunday and today.

Dr. J. Alex M. Bell has returned from a business trip to Montreal.

ARCHBISHOP DEAD.

Paris, April 21.—The Archbishop of Aix, Mgr. Bonnefay, is dead at the age of 84. He was one of the last prelates appointed under the Concordate.

INTERNATIONAL CREDITS.

The proposal for a huge international joint credit of $100,000,000,000 is finding favor in the Senate of France. Antonin Dubost has stressed the idea, and it is said to be commanding attention and may be brought before the international financial congress called for next month at Brussels. Repayment on the amelioration plan over a period of 99 years, at four per cent., is suggested. Nations would be expected to furnish two per cent. of their natural resources, and where they are not equal to the requirements, tax levies would be made on coal, metals and public utilities.

To be forewarned is to be forearmed, declares an exchange. Countries like Canada, with large resources, and limited population, are fine prey for such plans. Previous proposals of Mr. Vanderlip and Sir George Paish met with very moderate support in responsible circles in Great Britain, the United States and Canada, and it is highly desirable that representatives of Canada who may attend the Brussels congress be prepared in advance for any such scheme. When the delegates to the International Labor Congress at Washington last year looked in the direction of placing a form of suzerain control over natural resources, Hon. N. W. Rowell took a decided stand for the national right of countries like Canada to hold distinct exclusive control of resources and over immigration. That put immediate light and direction in the way of the congress and prevented any misunderstanding of policy or principle.

When the distressed nations of Europe come to see the imperative necessity of following the example of Great Britain in the policy on taxation and finance, they will be in better condition to get consideration. Economy and retrenchment must be the guiding principles for creditor nations to judge needy debtors. There is a real danger that any large plan for financial readjustment in advance of recognition of these determined reforms, might tend to continue the ination and reckless expenditure in public economy.

President Samuel M. Vauclain, of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, who has arrived back in Paris after a trip into Rumania, Poland, Austria and Russia, where he booked large orders for engines, states that what is needed is credit for manufactured goods and raw material, rather than any heavy credits in money. With reorganized transportation facilities, he claims Europe can soon make headway.

As things have turned out, the Senate of the United States, whatever may be said against it, has provided the nations with the opportunity of reconsidering the Treaty of Peace, and revising the economic terms. The comprehensive review of the situation made by John Maynard Keynes, discloses what appear to be undeniable weaknesses in the terms of peace, and throws extreme doubt upon Germany's capacity ever to meet the obligations imposed. It is not merely for the purpose of being generous that he sees the advisability of the Allied nations writing off all claims against one another. For him it is a preliminary necessity of saving the situation, and of getting all things on a basis of sound finance. The proposal would mean much to Great Britain and most to the United States, nearly five billion net to the former and ten net to the latter. He puts Germany's ability to pay at the maximum of ten billion dollars. The main thought is, that it is highly important to get onto solid ground, and past the stage of false estimates and illusions on assets regarding indemnity.

In that connection it is interesting to note that Canadian leaders have never placed much value or importance on the possible indemnity due this country. Canada is quite as able to carry its share as any of the Allied states, even perhaps to the extent of writing off some part or all of the $215,000,000 balance due her from Great Britain after settlement of war claims and the $65,000,000 credits to France, Rumania and Greece. But we do not want to get into some new labyrinth of international finance, out of which this generation of Canadians could never hope to emerge.

SECOND BATTLE OF YPRES.

April 22 will forever be memorable in Canadian annals. On that date the Canadian soldiers stationed about Ypres got their first real insight into the horrors of warfare as instigated by the Prussian foe. In the face of clouds of poisonous gases and innumerable waves of grey-clad warriors, the boys from Canada gallantly withstood repeated assaults until the enemy sullenly gave up the attempt to break through to the Channel ports, from which they hoped to menace the shores of England. In this fearful encounter the Canadians suffered 8,000 casualties, but they added a lustre to the name of Canada that will never dim as long as the world lasts.

THE OVERALL DANGER.

Attempts are being made in various parts of the United States and Canada to cope with the cost of living by heroic means. There has come the overall club. It began in the Southern States, grew rapidly to imposing dimensions, spread northward to New York and has now reached Canada on its triumphal progress to the Pacific. The idea is that the high cost of tweeds, worsteds, vicunas, etc., will cease to matter when these materials cease to be worn. It is a sound principle and, given suitable weather conditions, is capable of extensive application, says the Montreal Gazette. No attempt has yet been made, however, to carry it to extremes, the movement having progressed no farther than the overall stage. The members of the overall club substitute an exterior covering of denim for raiment of other materials. It works well, provided a merchant does not mistake his banker for the janitor and make use of expressions calculated to impair his credit. Also it is good for the overall trade in all its branches, the good effects having already been manifested in the rising costs of overalls in districts where the clubs are strong. This, in turn, has evoked a protest from those whose avocations render the use of overalls indispensable. Nevertheless the movement is growing, and will continue to grow until those misguided persons who are taking part in it are brought to a full realization of their danger. The latter lies in the fact that any man wearing overalls may be mistaken by a shopkeeper for a plumber or a bricklayer, a rivetter or a carpenter, and charged according to the wealth which he may be presumed to possess as such. How is the shopkeeper to know that an overalled customer is not a union laborer, but merely a college professor, a merchant, or some other member of the poorer class? The possibility of distressing misunderstandings is almost unlimited, and can only be precluded by the issue to members of overall clubs of special marks of identification, proving them to be less than what they seem.

FORCEFUL BRITISH BANKING.

The shipment of gold to Argentina has continued at New York off and on for months, remarks an American exchange. As that country sold relatively little to the United States during the war and much to England, American observers had reason to suppose that New York was shipping the gold for England's account. Now comes the report from Buenos Aires that England will make a further payment to Argentina, not necessitating the movement thither of metal.

England, according to the report, owes $100,000,000 against Argentina wheat purchased in 1918, the credit coming due next January. Argentina on her side owes $50,000,000 to New York bankers, and the debt is said to be payable May 15. England, it appears, proposes to take care of this $50,000,000 for Argentina in New York against cancellation, at proper time, with interest adjustment, of half of the $100,000,000.

The net result, apart from question of direct profit on the transactions, is to regulate the flow of gold. To have Argentina rush back to U. S. of a sudden the gold previously sent there, and then perhaps presently to ship it back again for England's account, would have twisted the course of things, kept gold out of deposit and rendered the course of credit uncertain. Here as throughout the money dealings since the war the British financial power has played in impressively good form. In this case the English actually manage to replace the Americans as Argentina's bankers, even while they stand in Argentina's debt.

There will be much speculation as to what variety of serum has been injected into the political backbone of the Minister of Health to give him sufficient courage to face a bye-election in the city of St. John.

DALHOUSIE'S NEW COUNCIL

Dalhousie, April 21.—The election for mayor and aldermen held yesterday was the most exciting contest ever held in the shiretown of Restigouche county.

The population of Rome at the time of Vespasian has been estimated at 2,000,000.

TO DOUBLE TRACK LINE TO ST. JOHN

Announcement Made at Complimentary Dinner to H. C. Grout at St. John.

St. John, April 22.—That the capacity of the Canadian Pacific Railway system in this division, since the outbreak of the war, will be further increased fifty per cent., and that a development of the system here and the installation of a double track would follow the development of the St. John harbor, was the farewell message delivered by Horace C. Grout at a complimentary dinner given to him last night in the Union Club by his business and professional friends, on the eve of his departure for Toronto to take up the duties of superintendent of the Ontario division.

"St. John," he said, 'was the best recruiting ground for executive railway ability in the Dominion. It had produced two of the highest officials of the C. P. R. passenger service—Bruce Burpee and W. B. Howard, and it was probable that other men in the local office would be called soon to fill higher appointments."

James G. Harrison, after reading telegrams from Sir Douglas Hazen, Premier Foster, Judge Armstrong, Howard P. Robinson, Fred R. Taylor, K. C., and others regretting that they were unaable to be present at the dinner and offering best wishes to the guest, paid a glowing tribute to the excellent qualities of Mrs. Grout, to whom, he said, must be due quite a bit of the success of her husband. On behalf of those present he presented Mrs. Grout, through her husband, with a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. Mr. Grout fittingly replied.

ORANGEMEN ELECT GRAND OFFICERS

Convention at Woodstock Closed Last Evening—Next Session at Moncton.

Woodstock, N. B., April 22.—The Grand Orange Lodge, which has been in session here the last two days, completed its business after an all-night session last evening. The afternoon session was taken up with the report of the memorial orphanage committee. After a few hours of routine business in the evening the brothers were taken to McLean's restaurant as guests of the Woodstock lodge, where a banquet was held, after which they returned to complete the business of the session.

Grand Master, L.A. Palmer, Bathurst; S.D.G.M., M. L. Brewer, Fredericton; I.D.G.M., J. M. Cochrane, Moncton; grand chaplain, Rev. B.M. Penwarden, Harcourt; grand secretary, W.H. Sulis, St. John; grand treasurer, Robert Willis, St. John; grand lecturer, C.B. Ward, St. John; G.D. of C., J. W. McFarlane, Nashwaaksis; grand auditors, D.M. Charters, Sackville; F.M. Fowler, Chipman; D.G. chaplains, Rev. F. A. Wrighton, East Florenceville; Rev. J. B. Daggett, Marysville; Rev. E.M. Cochrane, Moncton; Rev. W.McM. Matthews, Milltown; Rev. A.D. Archibald, Bathurst; Rev. R.M. Gregg, Oromocto; Rev. A.W. Currie, Penobsquis, and Rev. E.W. Blackille; D.G.S., S.W. Smith, East Florenceville; D.G.L., James Duncan, Campbellton. Memorial committee, David Hipwell, Robert Wills, N.G. Wadman, W.M. Campbell, E.H. Clarkson, J.W. Babkirk, Neil J. Morrison, H.T. Bromer, W.M. Sulis, L.A. Palmer.

The officers were installed by Past Grand Master David Hipwell. The next session of the lodge will be held at Moncton the 3rd Tuesday in April, 1921. The session closed at 6 o'clock Thursday morning, and most of the delegates left for their homes.

THE FARMERS AND REPRESENTATION

Moncton, April 21.—J. J. Morrison, of Toronto, secretary of the United Farmers of Ontario, addressed a meeting held in Moncton city hall this afternoon. He urged increased political representation of farmers. Speaking of the personnel of commissions appointed at Ottawa to look after matters affecting the farmer, he said they were professional men, not agriculturists. They were taken from the consumers, not representatives of dollar diggers from the ground.

The Stock Market

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York (Wall Street), April 22.—Stocks were nervous and unsettled at the opening of today's session, but many of the speculative issues which sustained severe losses in yesterday's violent decline recorded substantial recoveries. General Motors made an initial gain of five points, which soon was extended to 10 points, and Crucible, Baldwin, American Woollen, U. S. Rubber, Pressed Steel Car, Vanadium and Replogle rose 1 to 3 points. These advances were offset by further reactions of one to five points for Mexican Petroleum, Lackawanna Steel, Shippings and Sugars. U. S. Steel also sold a fraction under yesterday's lowest quotation. Liberty bonds were in process of further liquidation, with new low records for the second 4½'s, third 4¼'s and the fourth 4¼'s.

OBITUARY.

John McKenzie.

Sussex, N. B., April 21.—John McKenzie, probably one of the oldest residents of Kings county, died this evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Feeney, Royal Hotel, aged 101 years. Mr. McKenzie was in good health up to a few days ago and took much comfort in reading the daily newspapers. He was a lifelong resident of the county and had lived in Sussex for the last fifty years. He is survived by five daughters—Mrs. Jas. Feeney, proprietress of the Royal Hotel, Sussex; Mrs. F. B. Weyman, Philadelphia; Mrs. Smith, Chesterhill, Mass.; Mrs. Odell, St. John, and Miss Georgie McKenzie, nurse, Springfield, Mass.; and three sons—Fred, James and William, all in the United States.

Mrs. C. A. McKeen.

Woodstock, N. B., April 21.—Mrs. C. A. McKeen, who has been ill at the Fisher Memorial Hospital for two months, died this morning, aged 65. Since the death of her husband, six years ago, she has been proprietress of McKean's drug store. She is survived by one son, James Long, by her first husband.

Mrs. W. N. Dyer.

On Friday evening, April 16, Bath was saddened by the passing away of Mrs. W. N. Dyer (nee Miss Elizabeth DeMerchant), aged 67 years. For four and a half months she suffered partial paralysis with splendid Christian patience and fortitude. She leaves five brothers—Clemens, George, Jerry, Norman and Edward—besides a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, to mourn their loss. The funeral service took place on Monday afternoon and was very largely attended and most impressive in every way, indicating the whole-hearted sympathy of the entire community.

Steam ploughing was introduced in England in 1832, but never made great headway.

THE LIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE

Here's the Cure, Ladies!

"Doctor, my wife is on the verge of neurasthenia from dallying with the cursed ouija board. What's the proper prescription for a case of this kind?"

"A change of board."

"You mean diet?"

"I mean washboard."

Not Exactly a Triumph.

Arthur (bitterly)—"I suppose you consider it a triumph to make a fool of me?"

Joan (sweetly)—"Oh, no! A triumph means accomplishing something that was very difficult."

Both Sides of It.

A smartly dressed woman was sitting in an omnibus, when a quiet-looking young man, in getting in, accidentally trod on her dress.

She talked to him for ten minutes, and wound up by saying:

"A gentleman would have apologized."

The young man bowed, and calmly said:

"A lady would have given me a chance!"

A LONG LIFE GOOD HEALTH AND VITALITY

Is the Birthright of Men and Women

It all Depends Upon Good Blood and a Normal, Healthy Circulation

Men and women who are anaemic, thin, pallid, all run-down, dejected, no energy, no strength and no vitality, miss all the joy of life—are prone to disease, and a burden to themselves and families, and their lives are shortened by this condition.

Here is a guaranteed non-secret remedy, and if you have drifted into this condition, why not take advantage of your druggist's guarantee and give VINOL a good trial.

You will certainly find that in a very short time your appetite will improve—it will enrich your blood, quicken your circulation, and strength and vigor will be imparted to every organ and muscle in your body and the bloom of health will return and life be worth living.

The reason physicians recommend VINOL is because they know it contains iron in its most easily assimilated form, together with the tissue, flesh and strength-building elements of cod liver and beef peptones and glycerophosphates, which are recognized as the best blood and body building tonics known.

Diocesan Synod Increase Clergy's Minimum Stipend

$1,200 for Priest for the First 5 Years and $200 For Travelling

MAKE COUNTRY PARISHES PAY

Closing Session of the Synod Was Held Last Evening.

The business of the 51st Diocesan Synod was all finished last evening with the exception of the meetings of several committees, which are taking place today. It was the first time in more than 20 years that the business of the Synod had been concluded in such a short time, it was said.

A new scale of stipends for the clergy of the diocese was agreed upon at last evening's session, while most of the afternoon was taken up with the election and appointment of committees.

Committee Reports.

The report of the Board of Education was read by H. F. Puddington at the afternoon session and showed that His Lordship the Bishop, Rev. Canon Daniel, H. B. Schofield, A. C. Skelton, P. R. L. Fairweather, J. M. Robinson, R. H. A. L. Fairweather and H. F. Puddington had been appointed as the executive of the Rothesay Collegiate School.

The report of the head master of the school, Dr. W. R. Hibbard, showed that approximately $9,000 had been subscribed up to date for a memorial chapel for the school. The auditor's report showed a balance on hand after the year's work of over $150.

The report of the Board of Finance of the Synod presented by A. C. Skelton showed that during the year amounts totalling $22,630 had been received by the board and investments amounting to $51,300 had been made during the year.

The report of the Synod representative on the Maritime Home for Girls was read by W. A. Fawcett. The report showed that the Home was at present filled to its capacity and that steps must be taken in a short time to either enlarge the building or build a new one. Forty-nine girls were at present inmates of the Home, of whom thirteen belonged to the Church of England.

The report of the standing committee on the Bishop's charge was presented by Very Rev. Dean Neale and accepted by the board.

The Synod then adjourned and the delegates were entertained by Mrs. Richardson at her home on Church street.

The Evening Session.

The evening session opened at 8 o'clock with notices of motion concerning amendments to canon 18, section 27. These were given by Ven. Archdeacon Newnham, of St. Stephen, on behalf of the committee on statistics, and were passed unanimously by both clerical and lay delegates.

A notice of motion of appreciation by the Synod of the work of the women's auxiliary and the work done in the Forward Movement was given by Rev. R. E. Baxter. This motion was passed unanimously.

A motion to the effect that the Synod believed in and endorsed the union of Christian churches was moved by W. E. Smith and carried unanimously.

The Forward Movement.

The standing of the diocese in the Forward Movement campaign was announced by Rev. Canon Armstrong. The total amounts showed $130,656.56 promised and $55,329.11 collected up to date. Of this $50,000 would come back to the diocese should the full amount be paid.

The thanks of the Synod were moved to Ven. Archdeacon Crowfoot and Rev. Canon Armstrong for their splendid and efficient work in the Forward Movement campaign and to the members of the women of the diocese as a whole who assisted.

Rev. E. Hailstone gave notice of motion that canon 18, section 1, be amended by the insertion of the words "the rural deans" after the words "the archdeacons." This was seconded by Rev. Canon Smithers and a discussion ensued, whereupon His Lordship Bishop Richardson stated that because of the difference of opinion a change in the canon could not be allowed.

Capt. J. H. A. L. Fairweather, M. C., treasurer of the Synod, moved that the money obtained from the Diocesan Forward Movement be invested, the revenue to be used by the Board of Missions.

Rev. Canon Kuhring thought that it would be wrong for the Synod to lose sight of the work of the past and have the revenue used for one purpose only.

Dr. M. G. Teed thought the executive ought to deal with the income.

The treasurer's motion was amended to read "be invested, the revenue to be put in the hands of the executive for special need of the diocese."

Increased Stipends.

The matter of the increased stipend to the clergy was introduced by Capt. Fairweather, who thought that the minimum stipend of the clergy should be $1,100 during the deaconate. The stipend of priests during the first five years of service should be $1,200 with a house and $1,300 if no house were provided, and that after five years of service the stipend should be $1,300 with a residence or $1,400 without one, to go into force January, 1921.

Bishop Richardson thought that the country parishes should bear the burdens of the increased stipends, as he stated that they were simply rolling in wealth to judge from the prices one had to pay for farm produce.

Horace Porter seconded the treasurer's motion. Mr. Fairweather also embodied in the resolution the clause that the clergy who found it necessary to use horse and carriage or automobile be granted $300 extra for the upkeep of such, this to be left to the mission board to superintend.

Several speakers thought that strong organized efforts ought to be made by the canon missionary, A. W. Smithers, and others to show the country people that they must increase their gifts to the church.

The lay delegate from New Denmark stated that the farmer was undoubtedly growing rich at the present time, but there had been a time when potatoes were thrown away, they had been so plentiful. He defended the action of the farmer in demanding increased prices by saying that no one knew what the future would produce and the farmer was but preparing for a fluctuating market.

The question then came up of the reimbursement of the clergy for railroad fares paid in the interest of their parishes, and a clause was added to the resolution that the clergy be reimbursed up to the sum of $200.

Very Rev. Dean Neales thought that machinery ought to be put at work on the matter of raising the additional amounts necessary for the increased stipends.

The resolution was then passed unanimously.

Thanks to Rev. Dr. Raymond.

Dr. W. S. Carter thought that a committee of several members should be appointed to work with Rev. Dr. W. O. Raymond in preparing a history of the churchmen of this province. Dr. Carter stated that he did not think Dr. Raymond would accept any remuneration for the work, as he knew he had refused it on several occasions.

Rev. Canon Armstrong stated that if Dr. Raymond would not receive any remuneration he would at least accept the heartfelt thanks of the Synod for his epochs on history of the province as well as churchmen.

The next place of meeting was fixed as the city of St. John on the third Tuesday following Easter.

A hearty vote of thanks was moved to the Y. M. C. A. of this city for allowing the Synod the use of their rooms as a place of meeting.

The appointing of the salaries of the treasurer and secretary was referred to the executive committee with power to act.

Very Rev. Dean Neales took the chair while a vote of thanks was moved by Dr. W. S. Carter to the Bishop for his attentive and courteous occupation of the chair during the sessions.

Dean Neales in a brief address thanked the Bishop on behalf of the Synod for his [illegible] service.

MRS. THAW WANTS DIVORCE

New York, April 21.—Attorneys for Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, now Mrs. Jack Clifford, said today that she would file countersuit for divorce against her husband and former dancing partner, charging improper conduct.

Clifford started divorce proceedings here, naming an actor as co-respondent.

STANLEY.

Stanley, April 19.—Agricultural Society No. 35, of Stanley, held a masquerade ball on Friday night last. Owing to the condition of the roads there was not a very large attendance, but what was lacking in numbers was made up in element. A very enjoyable time was spent. The new floor manager proved a very satisfactory asset.

Owing to so few being in costume the prize money awarded was given back to the society. Needless to say it was much appreciated on the part of the society, who are endeavoring to raise enough money to build a much needed annex to the fair building.

Amendment Now Promised To "Bone Dry" Resolution

Indications Are That the Resolution Will Not Pass

MAJORITY OF THE CABINET OPPOSED

Resolution Will Come Before the House Some Time on Friday.

The so-called "bone dry" resolution which will call upon Federal Government to hold a referendum in New Brunswick upon the question of importations of liquor for personal use into the province is to come before the Legislature some time tomorrow.

The House is expected to sit during the morning, afternoon and evening tomorrow but it is not expected that the "bone dry" resolution will be reached before the afternoon. It was definitely announced this morning that there would be an amendment moved to the resolution, which will probably call for no action on the "bone dry" referendum until after the vote already provided for in this year's estimates is held on the provincial prohibition act. It was said today that this amendment would draw so much support that the passage of the resolution was not now expected even by many of its most ardent supporters.

Majority of Cabinet Opposed.

Many members on both sides of the House will vote against the "bone dry" resolution at the present juncture, it was said, the supporters of the amendment including a majority of the members of the cabinet as well as all the French members of the House. The report which was generally spread by lobbyists for the resolution that Hon. P. J. Veniot would vote for the resolution was said by persons close to him today to be without foundation and the spreading of the report has caused much resentment.

Indications are there will not be a very full House by tomorrow, as several of the members are now at home and others find they cannot remain here any longer. It was estimated today that there would probably not be over 40 of the 48 members present when the vote on the resolution comes on.

Want Pastor Another Year.

At a largely attended business meeting of the Reformed Baptist church last night an unanimous invitation was extended to Rev. S. A. Baker to remain with the church the coming year. Rev. Mr. Baker's pastorate in Moncton has been very successful and his services are very much appreciated by his congregation.—Moncton Times.

Who Will Second Resolution?

J. L. Peck, M. L. A., for Albert, who was to have seconded the "bone dry" resolution in the Provincial Legislature, announced this morning that because of the delay in bringing the resolution before the House it would be impossible for him to remain here any longer. He has some important private business at his home in Albert County and will have to leave here tonight in order to be there in time for the foreclosure of a large mortgage in which he has a financial interest.

The resolution is to be moved by Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, Minister of Agriculture, but who will second it is not now known.

Ontario, Having Held Its Provincial Referendum, Likely to Pass Resolution

Some Members of the Legislature Deprecate the Enactment of Temperance Legislation More Advanced Than that Now Existing in the Province.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Toronto, April 22.—Safe passage for the McCreary referendum motion seemed assured at the close of last night's session of the legislature. A division was not reached, but favorable sentiment prevailed.

Besides the opposition offered by Mr. Halcrow, labor member for Hamilton, at the afternoon session, Sergeant Major MacNamara (Toronto) during the debate last night, took a definite stand against prohibiting the importation of liquor, and Charles H. McCrea, Conservative member for Sudbury, deprecated the enactment of temperance legislation more advanced than that now existing.

At the evening session the expected amendment was offered from the Liberal ranks, its sponsor being R. L. Brackin, of West Kent.

The amendment called for submission of a stated case to the Supreme Court of Ontario before the request for a referendum should be forwarded to the Dominion Government. This was seconded by Karl Hemulsa, Labor member for South Waterloo.

Just before the adjournment of the House P. S. Hill, Conservative member for West Ottawa, introduced an amendment calling on the Government to "assume full responsibility for action within the limits of provincial jurisdiction."

CREATE PURCHASING COMMISSION NOW

Ottawa, April 21.—The centralized buying of all Government supplies was debated in the Commons this afternoon on a resolution by Sir George Foster for the appointment of a purchasing commission which would have full control over all purchases. From the Liberal side there was opposition on the ground that this was simply a means of providing fat jobs for some one. John Best (Dufferin), a Government member, also opposed the measure on the ground that there were already too many commissions and this looked like an attempt to push the responsibility over to somebody else than the Government.

Sir George Foster and Hon. N. W. Rowell, among others, defended the principle in the resolution.

Boys Were Arrested.

Detective Harry Culligan, of the C. N. R., was in the city last night on his way from Long's Creek, where he rounded up two young boys for stealing freight from the cars. They admitted their guilt when taken before the Magistrate there and were allowed out on suspended sentence.

Patriotic Committee Met.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Patriotic Fund Met yesterday afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms. Several applications for relief were considered, some of which were passed and others turned down. Matters in connection with cleaning up work of the Federal Emergency Fund were also taken up.

Public Accounts Committee Want More Vigorous Policy or Office Discontinued.

The New Brunswick office in London was the principal subject under discussion at this morning's session of the Public Accounts Committee. At Toronto, precisely at 11 o'clock all public bodies and commercial establishments suspended business and other operations for a period of two minutes.

At Montreal the anniversary will be honored by a big parade, held under the auspices of the G.W.V.A. to take place this afternoon in Verdun.

LUMBER ADRIFT IN MIRAMICHI RIVER

[Chatham Commercial]

Councillor Vanderbeck who was in town yesterday gave this paper a call and expressed himself strongly against the action of the Foster Government in turning down the proposal to develop the Grey Rapids water power, simply to please a few lumbermen. Mr. Vanderbeck claimed that a dam at the Rapids would benefit lumbermen instead of hindering them. "Look at the logs going out to sea today," he said. 'Four thousand pieces worth $2.00 each have come through the Rapids and gone adrift because the Southwest Boom was not ready for them. If a dam were built at the Rapids the lumber that comes down with early freshet could remain in still water until wanted at the Boom." "We will have to turn out the present Government and elect men who will assist Miramichi in developing her resources," said the energetic Vanderbeck.

FREDERICTON IS TIED FOR HONORS

St. John, N. B., April 22.—The results in the bowling tournament this morning were as follows:

Black's, 1460; Y. M. C. A., 1415.
Y. M. C. A., 1438; Amherst, 1392.

This leaves the Fredericton team tied with the Y. M. C. A. for first place in the tournament.

Inspector C. D. La Nauze, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, who was recruiting in this city last year for the R.N.W.M.P., passed through the city today on his way to Halifax. He was placed in command of the headquarters of the R.C.M.P. at Halifax last January and since then has been touring the Maritime Provinces on inspection work.

$3,100,000 Base Rate For N. B. Power Company

The corporations committee this morning reached a decision on the New Brunswick Power Company bills. They fixed the base rate at $3,100,000, which is the figure the company have been holding out for, the return allowed being 8 per cent. for all purposes except that one per cent. additional is allowed for depreciation fund contingent upon it being shown to the Public Utilities Commission that it is necessary for carrying on the company's proposed extensions. The vote in the committee, which met in private session, was said to be 13 to 9.

TEACHERS SALARIES BILL IN THE HOUSE

Equalization Board for Valuation for Assessment Purposes to Come.

The bill to make effective the recommendations of the special commission who recently reported in regard to increased salaries for school teachers will be introduced in the Legislature by Premier Foster today and will be taken up tomorrow.

It is expected that one of the results of the discussion will be the determination to have in New Brunswick a Board whose duty it will be to bring about and maintain an equalization of valuation for assessment purposes so that there will be an equitable distribution of general taxation in the province for schools, highways and other purposes.

Premier Foster said today that such a move was under consideration but it is not likely to take concrete form before another session.

150 QUEBEC PULP WORKERS STRIKE

Claimed that Company Forced Men to Run Two Machines Instead of One.

Sherbrooke, Que., April 22.—About one hundred and fifty men from the Brompton Pulp Company at Bromptonville have left their work because, the men allege, the company sought to make them operate two machines instead of one. The men aired their grievances at a meeting held in the Tobin and Lambert hall, but have caused no disturbance so far. The officials of the company state that the action of the pressmen is not holding up production and the places of the strikers are fast being filled.

of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, stating that each of the three Governments of the Maritime Provinces had been requested to appoint committees to consider and go into all conditions leading up to the entrance of the three provinces into Confederation, and if found desirable to make representations to the federal Government outlining the reasons why the industries of these provinces should receive special consideration in the basing of freight rates.

The matter of the removal of the D. S. C. R. Hospital from this city to St. John, which has been rumored, was taken up by the board and the secretary was ordered to write Col. H. F. McLeod, M. P., at Ottawa in connection with the matter.

The board decided to ask the City Council that Westmorland, St. John and Queen streets be better lighted and the city's sidewalks on Queen street be repaired.

Ask that the Grand Falls Power Company Be Not Allowed to Retain Their Rights by the Mere Expenditure of $100,000 During the Present Year.

A delegation of citizens of Grand Falls, headed by Mayor D. J. Collins, arrived here at noon today and this afternoon will meet the Government to press upon them the necessity of having the development of the water power at Grand Falls proceeded with in complete form.

The delegation will urge that the Government do not permit the Grand Falls Power Company to merely spend their $100,000 before Jan. 10th, 1920, as proposed, and still hold the rights for future development, in accordance with their announced intentions. They want the complete development work undertaken without more delay.

In addition to Mayor Collins the other members of the delegation are F. W. Perie, W.E. McMonagle, F.W. Olmstead, H.C. Glenn, G.M. Taylor, Charles Mignault, Arthur Carroll and H.E. Wiley.

National Liquid Gall Cure

CURES

Scratches, Harness Galls, Cuts, Grease Heel and other wounds and sores on horses and cattle. It will also cure Eczema, Burns, Bruises, Ring Worm, or Run-round, Open Sores, etc. The best results will be obtained if the sore is first washed with NATIONAL DISINFECTANT.

NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE has been used for years by some of the largest Lumbering Concerns, and Railroad Contractors. OUR GUARANTEE: "We will see that your money is refunded if National Liquid Gall Cure does not cure any ailment for which it is recommended as quickly as the purchaser thinks it should." And we have never had to make a refund. Below are two testimonials given voluntarily:—

Estey & Curtis Co., Ltd.,
Hartland, N. B.

Gentlemen,—I have been selling and using NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE for a number of years. Always under guarantee. Have never heard a complaint and sale has steadily increased. I am convinced that for what it is recommended for, it is far superior to anything on the market.

I seldom have a call for other sort of GALL CURE and never from one who has tried it.

Last summer I sold a number of bottles to River Drivers to use on sore feet.

Yours truly,
(Sgd.) H. L. MORSE,
Harness Maker, Etc.

Estey & Curtis Co., Ltd.,
Hartland, N. B.

Gentlemen,—I have been asked by our local dealer to give my opinion of NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE and have no hesitation in saying that for scratches and other wounds on horses it has no equal. It is also an excellent remedy for water scalds on men's feet.

As foreman on lower section of St. John River Corporation Drive I have seen much suffering from this cause and in all my thirty-five years' experience on drives have never known anything to cure scalds on a man's feet while he continued to work in the water till last summer, when I saw NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE tried with perfect results.

Yours truly,
(Sgd.) ALEX. McCORQUINDALE,
Hawkshaw, N. B.

LOCAL BOWLERS RETURN TO FORM

After Losing First Game at St. John They Showed Some Real Rolling.

St. John, N. B., April 22.—The Fredericton team in the bowling tournament, after losing their first game yesterday, won three straight before the day's rolling was over, made the highest team score in the tournament and Murray Kierstead, one of their number, had put on the highest individual score, a string of 126.

The Fredericton team plays one game today, meeting Calais at 4 p.m., while the Y.M.C.I., unbeaten in their three games yesterday, have two games, but both are with their fellow St. John teams. It would therefore look as though the Fredericton team's bad beginning would turn out to be enough to beat them out of the championship in spite of their fine rolling since the opening.

The standing of the teams:

INTERCOLLEGIATE MEET ENLARGED?

Dalhousie and St. Francis Xavier Apply for Admission to Athletic Meet.

Dalhousie University, of Halifax, and St. Francis Xavier University, of Antigonish, N. S., have suggested to the three universities interested in the intercollegiate track meet to be staged at Wolfville, N. S., next month that it be thrown open to all the colleges of the Maritime Provinces, under which conditions they would be prepared to enter teams.

For some years past the University of New Brunswick, Acadia and Mount Allison have competed in annual track meets, but these were suspended during the war and are only now being resumed. It is not unlikely that the proposal to enlarge the scope of the meets will be approved and thus there will be an annual intercollegiate athletic meet open to all the universities in the Maritime Provinces. Meanwhile the present trophy will probably be competed for, as in the past, by the three institutions of the original combination and there may be a new cup for the general competition.—J .D. B.

The Pacific Coast pacers May Day Hal, 2.12¼, and Lena Alta Hal, will be raced on the Grand and Great Western Circuits. They are sisters to Hal Boy, 2.01.

One of the yearlings secured by Frank L. Burke, of Fatherland Farm, Byfield, at the New York sale is a brother to Sanardo, 2.00½.

RACING CIRCUIT IN CAPE BRETON

Active Preparations for the Coming Season—Want a Free-for-Aller.

An extensive propaganda is being carried on in Cape Breton by the sporting writers to bring about the organization of a harness racing circuit with all the tracks on the island as members.

In the past the Cape Breton tracks have clashed on almost every holiday and there has been a merry scramble each season to obtain enough horses to carry on the races. There are a number of tracks within a short distance of one another in Cape Breton and a profitable real shortship circuit should be possible.

Big Things Contemplated.

Referring to preparations for the racing season the Sydney Post says:

"At Glace Bay the Black Diamond Association have started to repair their track, while at North Sydney a company composed of Messrs. A. C. Thompson, Robert Lemoine, L. M. Thompson, F. C. Redding and Douglas Lemoine have purchased the track and will erect a new fence and install thirty new stalls. The company has a capitalization of $25,000 and are planning to do big things in conection with their plant this summer. Messrs. McCowan and Connolly, the local track managers, have already started to clear the centre field and repair the stalls at the Sydney track. All we want now is a circuit that will prevent clashing of dates."

Want a Free-for-aller.

D. L. Dolan, formerly of Fredericton, who writes an interesting column of sport dope for the Post, also has the following:

"Baby Doll or Royal McKinney came near coming to Cape Breton for this season The Lemoine Brothers, of North Sydney, were anxious to get either one of these horses for the free-for-alls in this part of tre country and sent a representative to Presque Isle, Maine, in an effort to land one or other of these pacers. The price asked was considered too high."

Master Ideal, a trotting bred stallion that could not trot, sold for $385 at the New York sale last fall. He was sent to England, and, offered as a show horse, brought $7,875 under the hammer.

Peter Worth, 2.09¾, goes to Europe.

Earl Pitman, trainer of W. H. Cane's Good Time stable, is at the Goshen track with Mary Coburn, 2.07¼; Blitsey 2.06¼; Klio, 2.15¾; Belvue, 2.23½; Sunflash, The Jolly Landlord, 2.11¼, and five youngsters.

JACK JOHNSON IS SHOWING OLD FORM

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

San Diego, Cal., April 22. — Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, showed much of former agility in a four round bout with Ray Neal at Tia Juana yesterday, acocrding to ringside critics.

Fulton Wins in Oregon.

Portland, Ore., April 22.—Fred Fulton was given the decision over Jock Thompson, Tulsa, Okla., negro, in the sixth round of a scheduled ten round bout last night.

Kilbane Puts K. O. Over.

Carpentier's First Appearance.

New York, April 22.—Georges Carpentier, champion European heavyweight boxer, will make his first appearance in ring togs in America on May 2 when he will box four exhibition rounds here with one of his sparring partners, it was announced today. The exhibition will be held in the 71st Regiment Armory for the benefit of a war veterans' building in this city.

Easy for Jimmy Wilde.

Camden, N. J., April 22.—Jimmy Wilde, British flyweight champion, so far outclassed Battling Murray, of Philadelphia, last night that the fight was stopped in the last round.

St. John, N. B., April 21.—J. M. Woodman, who recently succeeded H. C. Grout, as General Superintendent of the C. P. R., New Brunswick District, said today that he is most favorably impressed with the Province and feels that he is going to like it and the people. He said he has not seen much of it as yet, but what he has had an opportunity of seeing is very beautiful. In companiy with Mr. Grout yesterday, he said, he had the pleasure of meeting a number of people here and in Fredericton.

This evening the members of the Union Club will tender Mr. Grout a farewell banquet at which Mayor Hayes will preside.

FLYNN ATTACKS ON GOVERNMENT

Ottawa, April 21.—J. Harry Flynn, president of the United Veterans' League, returned last night to Ottawa and also to the attack on the government of Canada and its members. He did not exhibit any fastidiousness in his handling of them.

The primary purpose of the meeting in the Collegiate Institute Hall last night was to organize the first branch of the U.V.L. in Ottawa. This was done, and provisional officers elected. But Mr. Flynn, who was the principal speaker, also took occasion to deal in scathing terms of several members of the government.

These included Sir Robert Borden, whom he said was a leader of profiteers; Sir George E. Foster, whom he likened to a crook, quoting evidence Sir George had given in his famous suit for libel against the Toronto Globe in 1910; and Speaker Rhodes, whose election he said had been manipulated by the allotment of the "votes of heroes whom he now turned down" in the House of Commons.

Mr. Flynn said time did not permit him to deal with "Slick Jim" Calder, and also to furnish certain revelations about Sir Robert Borden. He did, however, find time to call upon W. J. Black, chairman of the Soldiers' Settlement Board, to resign on the ground that he was not a returned soldier and could not deal sympathetically with returned men.

SWEDISH ROYALTY.

EXEMPT FROM TAXATION

Boston, Mass., April 21.—The Senate yesterday passed a bill to exempt stock dividends from taxation, the exemption to apply to dividends received in 1919 and subsequently. The House has not yet acted upon the measure.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Margaret Leslie.

Newcastle, April 19.—Newcastle lost one of its most respected residents on Saturday in the death of Mrs. Margaret Leslie, which occurred at her home on King street shortly before 5 o'clock. The deceased lady was a native of Aberdeen, Scotland, but came to Newcastle at an early age and has resided here almost all her life, and where she has made many friends by her sterling character and generous ways. Deceased had been ill for about two months, suffering from tumor, which was the cause of her death. She was a faithful member of St. James' Presbyterian church. The late Mrs. Leslie is survived by one brother, George Stubles, of Newcastle, and four sons, John, of Vancouver, B. C., William, George and Frank, of Newcastle. Another son, Gordon, was killed while fighting with the 26th Battalion in France.

"For some days we must keep you with us; and I must crave leave also to use your shield, your armor, and your horse."

"My harness is yours by the law of arms," said the Spaniard gloomily.

I" do but ask the loan of it. I have need of it this day, but it shall be duly returned to you. Set guards, Aylward, with arrow on string, at either end of the pass; for it may happen that some other cavaliers may visit us ere the time be come." All day the little band of Englishmen lay in the sheltered gorge, looking down upon the vast host of their unconscious enemies. Shortly after midday, a great uproar of shouting and cheering broke out in the camp, with mustering of men and calling of bugles. Clambering up among the rocks, the companions saw a long rolling cloud of dust along the whole eastern sky-line, with the glint of spears and the flutter of pennons, which announced the approach of a large body of cavalry. For a moment a wild hope came upon them that perhaps the prince had moved more swiftly than had been planned, that he had crossed the Ebro, and that this was his vanguard sweeping to the attack.

"Not so," answered Sir Simon Burley, who had watched the approaching host with a darkening face. "It is even as I feared. That is the double eagle of Du Guesclin."

"You say very truly," cried the Earl of Angus. "These are the levies of France, for I can see the ensigns of the Marshal d'Andreghen, with that of the Lord of Antoing and of Briseuil, and of many another from Brittany and Anjou."

"By St. Paul! I am very glad of it," said Sir Nigel. "Of these Spaniards I know nothing; but the French are very worthy gentlemen, and will do what they can for our advancement."

"There are at the least four thousand of them, and all men-at-arms," cried Sir William Felton. "See, there is Bertrand himself, beside his banner, and there is King Henry, who rides to welcome him. Now they all turn and come into the camp together."

As he spoke, the vast throng of Spaniards and of Frenchmen trooped acros the plain, with brandished arms and tossing banners. All day long the sound of revelry and of rejoicing from the crowded camp swelled up to the ears of the Englishmen, and they could see the soldiers of the two nations throwing themselves into each other's arms and dancing hand-in-hand round the blazing fires. The sun had sunk behind a cloud-bank in the west before Sir Nigel at last gave word that the men should resume their arms and have their horses ready. He had himself thrown off his armor, and had dressed himself from head to foot in the harness of the captured Spaniard.

'Sir William," said he, 'it is my intention to attempt a small deed, and I ask you therefore that you will lead this outfall upon the camp. For me, I will ride into their very camp with my squire and two archers. I pray you to watch me, and to ride forth when I am come among the tents. You will leave twenty men behind here, as we planned this morning, and you will ride back here after you have ventured as far as seems good to you."

"I will do as you order, Nigel; but what is it that you propose to do?"

"You will see anon, and indeed it is but a trifling matter. Alleyne, you will come with me, and lead a spare horse by the bridle. I will have the two archers who rode with us through France, for they are trusty men and of stout heart. Let them ride behind us, and let them leave their bows here among the bushes for it is not my wish that they should know that we are Englishmen. Say no word to any whom we may meet, and, if any speak to you, pass on as though you heard them not. Are you ready?"

"I am ready, my fair lord," said Alleyne.

"And I," "And I," cried Aylward and John.

"Then the rest I leave to your wisdom, Sir William; and if God sends us fortune we shall meet you again in this gorge ere it be dark."

So saying Sir Nigel mounted the white horse of the Spanish cavalier, and rode quietly forth from his concealment with his three companions behind him, Alleyne leading his master's own steed by the bridle. So many small parties of French and Spanish horses were sweeping hither and thither that the small band attracted little notice, and making its way at a gentle trot across the plain, they came as far as the camp without challenge or hindrance. On and on they pushed past the endless lines of tents, amid the dense swarms of horsemen and of footmen, until the huge royal pavilion stretched in front of them. They were close upon it when of a sudden there broke out a wild hubbub from a distant portion of the camp, with screams and war-cries and all the wild tumult of battle. At the sound soldiers came rushing from their tents, knights shouted loudly for their squires, and there was mad turmoil on every hand of bewildered men and plunging horses. At the royal tent a crowd of gorgeously dressed servants ran hither and thither in helpless panic for the guard of soldiers who were stationed there had already ridden off in the direction of the alarm. A man at-arms on either side of the doorway were the sole protectors of the royal dwelling.

"I have come for the king," whispered Sir Nigel; "and, by Saint Paul! he must back with us or I must bide here."

Alleyne and Aylward sprang from their horses, and flew at the two sentries, who were disarmed and beaten down in an instant by so furious and unexpected an attack. Sir Nigel dashed into the royal tent, and was followed by Hordle John as soon as the horses had been secured. From within came wild screamings and the clash of steel, and then the two emerged once more, their swords and forearms reddened with blood, while John bore over his shoulder the senseless body of a man whose gray surcoat, adorned with the lions and towers of Castile, proclaimed him to belong to the royal house. A crowd of white-faced sewers and pages swarmed their heels, those behind pushing forwards, while the foremost shrank back from the fierce faces and reeking weapons of the adventurers. The senseless body was thrown across the spare horse, the four sprang to their sadles, and away they thundered with loose reins and busy spurs through the swarming camp.

But confusion and disorder still reigned among the Spaniards, for Sir William Felton and his men had crept through half their camp, leaving a long litter of the dead and the dying to mark their course. Uncertain who were their atackers, and unable to tell the English enemies from their newly-arrived Breton allies, the Spanish knights rode wildly hither and thither in aimless fury. The mad turmoil, the mixture of races, and the fading light, were all in favor of the four who alone knew their own purpose among the vast uncertain multitude. Twice ere they reached open ground they had to break their way through small bodies of horses, and once there came a whistle of arrows and singing of stones about their ears; but, still dashing onwards, they shot out from among the tents and found their own comrades retreating for the mountains at no very great distance from them. Another five minutes of wild galloping over the plain, and they were all back in their gorge, while their pursuers fell back before the rolling of drums and blare of trumpets, which seemed to proclaim that the whole army of the prince was about to emerge from the mountain passes.

CONTRACTS FOR PERMANENT ROADS TO BE AWARDED

First Tenders for Work Under Federal Aid Act to Be Called For.

TARVIA ROAD FROM CHATHAM TO NEWCASTLE

Important Work Planned on Roads to Woodstock and North Shore.

Hon. P. J. Veniot, Minister of Public Works, announced this morning the first plans for the construction of permanent roads this year in New Brunswick under the provisions of the Federal Highways Aid.

Next week tenders will be called for the construction of a tarvia road between the towns of Chatham and Newcastle on the North Shore so that those towns will be connected by a highway similar to that between St. John and Rothesay. Contracts will later be awarded, the Minister said, for permanent work on the road between Fredericton and Woodstock along the St. John river at some of the more important portions and also on the road between Fredericton and the North Shore via Killarney as well as the road between St. Stephen and St. John, one of the routes used by tourists entering New Brunswick from the New England States.

No figures of cost have been announced but it is understood all the contracted work will come within the porvisions of the act under which the Federal Government will pay 40 per cent. of the gross expenditure up to $15,000 per mile.

SEVENTY CASES OF 'FLU AT RILEY BROOK

No Deaths Occurred and Patients Well on Way to Recovery.

Dr. J. A. Wade, District Medical Health Officer, returned last evening from Riley Brook where he had been looking after some seventy 'flu cases during the past two weeks.

Dr. Wade stated this morning that he had left the cases in the hands of Miss Thomas, a nurse supplied by the Victoria County sub-district Board of Health. All but ten of the patients had made complete recoveries when he left yesterday and these ten were reported to be recovering rapidly. One very serious case of pneumonia had been included in the list of 'flu cases but this was reported a complete recovery.

ST. JULIEN DAY.

Fifth Anniversary of Second Battle of Ypres Is Being Observed.

The 5th anniversary of the battle of St. Julien, April 22nd, 1915, is to be observed in Fredericton by holding a banquet of the veterans of the First Contingent at Washington's Cafe this evening. It is expected that one hundred or more "originals" will be in attendance and there will be some distinguished speakers.

There is no other observance of the anniversary in Fredericton, but the Canadian Press, Ltd. wires, providing the news service from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast in Canada, were silent for two minutes, commencing at 11 a. m. Eastern Standard time, in recognition of the commemoration of the anniversary and in honor of Canada's gallant dead.

Given Surprise Party.

About sixty friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Moore, Needham street, and gave them a surprise party, the occasion being the second anniversary of their wedding and Mr. Moore's birthday. The evening was spent in games, music and social chat, and refreshments. Mr. Falle, on behalf of their many friends, presented Mr. and Mrs. Moore with a beautiful upholstered oak chair. Mr. Moore in a few words thanked the donors for their gift.

Gave Enjoyable Dance.

Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Holden gave an enjoyable dance at the Old Gaiety last evening. About 100 were present and some very pretty gowns were worn. Mrs. Holden received her guests in a gown of blue chiffon velvet, and was assisted by her sister, Miss Taylor, of St. John, who was gowned in pale green satin. A programme of sixteen dances with three extras was carried out and at 12.30 o'clock a delicious supper was served upstairs.

Held Birthday Party.

Miss Beatrice Cain entertained about twenty of her little friends on Tuesday evening at a birthday party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cain, St. John street, the occasion being her ninth birthday. Games were indulged in and a special feature which was much enjoyed by the party was the films of the Pictograph featuring the movie actors, Charlie Chaplin and Fatty Arbuckle.

Sure, You'll Be There!

Everything is in readiness for the big crowd expected at the G.W.V.A. dance tonight. Music with a swing, good floor, an efficient committee and Mrs. W. C. Crocket, Mrs. H. F. McLeod and Mrs. W. H. Irvine as the chaperones.

BOARD OF TRADE WANT THE STREET LIGHTING BETTER

Decide at Quarterly Meeting to Send Demand to City Council.

RUMORED REMOVAL OF D. S. C. R. HOSPITAL

Railway Matters Considered and Correspondence Was Read.

At the regular quarterly meeting of the Board of Trade last evening communications were considered by the board concerning the stationing of a permanent military unit in this city, the Employment Service Bureau, street railway rights over the new C. N. R. bridge, increased freight rates and the rumored removal of the D. S. C. R. Hospital to St. John.

A telegram was read from Col. H. F. McLeod, M. P., concerning the establishment of a permanent military unit in this city, and the secretary of the board was directed to write him asking him to give some definite word concerning the matter, as with the City Council and Commercial Club they would send delegates to Ottawa on the matter if it was found necessary.

A communication regarding the Employment Service Bureau from the Minister of Labor at Ottawa was read advising the board that unless the provincial Government deemed the matter of sufficent importance to take it up in conformity with the act the federal Government would not continue the offices.

A communication from the acting prime minister, Sir George Foster, was read concerning the board's suggestion that provision for a street railway be made in event of a new bridge being erected by the C. N. R. over the St. John river at Fredericton. The acting prime minister stated in his letter that the matter was being referred to the Minister of Railways and Canals for consideration.

The secretary was directed to write Dr. A. P. Barnhill, of St. John, a member of the C. N. R. board, concerning the survey of the proposed line of railway from Napudogan to Stanley, the survey of which was commenced a few weeks ago, also concerning improvements on the Canada Eastern branch from McGivney Junction to Fredericton. Information will be sought from the St. John board of Trade concerning harbor matters in connection with increased facilities for handling ocean traffic.

A communication concerning freight rates was read to the board from H. R. Thompson, of the Maritime branch

BYE-ELECTION IN ST. JOHN CITY WILL BE RESULTS

Hon. Dr. Roberts, Minister of Health, To Be Paid Salary of $2,100.

NO INCREASE IN THE MINISTERS' SALARIES

Bill to Increase Sessional Indemnities to $1,000 Expected Today.

Hon. Dr. Roberts, Minister of Public Health, is to be given a salary of $2,100 a year, the same figures as other ministers, and will thus have to consent to an election in the city of St. John.

A decision to that effect was reached at a caucus of the supporters of the Government which was held last night, it was said today, and provision to that effect will be made in the Government bills which will be presented to the Legislature probably some time today.

The intimation given yesterday that the sessional endemnity of members of the Legislature will be advanced to $1,000 from $500 has been officially confirmed and it is expected the bill providing for the increase will be introduced today. There will be no increase in the salaries of the Ministers, except that they participate in the increased indemnity, of course, with the other members of the House. It was said the supporters of the Government were prepared to vote for an increase in the Ministeres' salaries but they felt the additional indemnity would be sufficient.

BEAVER BOARD
FOR BETTER WALLS & CEILINGS

Skillful Work without Skilled Labor

Plasterers hard to get? Skilled labor scarce? No need to hold up your new building, repairing, or remodeling on this account. Build better walls and ceilings with sturdy panels of Beaver Board. Do the work with hammer, saw, and nails. These big lumber panels will never crack or fall, and after they are painted and decorated they can be easily washed with soap and water. They are permanent, too, for Beaver Board lasts as long as the building. Beaver Board is always carried in stock by us. Ask us for free literature and prices. We deliver it, of course.

FORCE DOWN THE HIGH COST OF CLOTHING

New York Firm Reduces the Price of Suits and Overcoats by One-Third.

CUT FIRM'S PROFITS TO HELP MOVEMENT

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York, April 23.—One of New York's large ready-to-wear clothing houses, in advertising today reductions to $37.50 in the prices of suits and overcoats ranging as high as $55, and reductions to $57.50 on those priced as high as $75, anonunced the drop as "a deliberate cutting of our own profit for the purpose of helping the movement to force down the high cost of clothing."

The advertisement was headed "Why wear overalls?" and explained the reduction was the firm's "contribution to the national drive to cut the high cost of clothing."

Canadians Take Action.

Toronto, April 23.—Retail clothiers, of Ottawa, Belleville, Barrie, Chatham, Sarnia, Lindsay and Toronto, gathered here yesterday and passed a resolution deploring the ever increasing prices of men's and boys' clothing and resolving to appoint a committee to meet the executive of the clothing manufacturers to see if something could be done to stop the increasing cost.

TO RETIRE IRISH UNDER SECRETARY

Sir John Taylor Looked Upon as the Power Behind Throne at Dublin Castle.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 23.—Sir John Taylor, Under Secretary in the Irish administration, will resign as a part of the new government policy toward Ireland, says the Daily Sketch.

"Sir John," says the neyspaper, has for years been the power behind the throne at Dublin Castle, and his life has been in constant danger. He was constantly guarded by detectives, and it is reported he had not left the Castle in six months until he was given a month's leave of absence recently. This leave may be prolonged indefinitely."

PLEDGE TO CAREFUL USE OF NEWSPAPERS

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

New York, April 23.—The American Newspaper Publishers' Association pledged its members not to consume any more newsprint from May 1 to Dec. 31 next than they did in the corresponding period last year.

Members will make monthly reports of newsprint consumption to a committee of the assoiation.

LESS ACREAGE IN MANITOBA CROPS

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Winnipeg, April 23.—That the acreage to be seeded this year will be from 10 to 15 per cent. lower than the average acreage for a number of years past and that this decrease will be due to the shortage of feed, the lateness of the spring and general labor conditions, was the statement made yesterday by Hon. Valentine Winkler, Minister of Agriculture for Manitoba.

Force Germany to Live up to Terms of Versailles Treaty

Allied Occupation of the Ruhr District for Non-Compliance

HUN OFFERS OF INDEMNITY

Entente Commission in Germany Obstructed in Every Way.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 23.—Premier Lloyd-George of Great Britain would approve of Anglo-French occupation of the Ruhr district of Germany in the event the Berlin government should refuse suitably to live up to the revised terms of the Versailles treaty, says Pertinax, political editor of the Echo de Paris.

He says intimation to this effect has come through a member of the British Premier's suite, for the purpose of overcoming Premier Millerand's opposition to revision of the German treaty.

GERMANY TO OFFER TRIFLE FOR INDEMNITY

Berlin, April 23.—Germany will announce before May 10 the amount she is able to pay as part of her indemnity to the Allies. The finance ministry has not yet definitely indicated the sum, but it is hinted that the amount will be below 1,000,000 marks.

Germany Obstructs Commission.

Paris, April 23.—Gen. Masterman, a member of the Entente commission of control in Germany, in a report made public yesterday, severely arraigns Germany for the way the Inter-Allied Commission has been obstructed in its mission. He says all sorts of difficulties have been placed in the commission's way and that access to places the commission desired to inspect has been prevented.

The commission, says Gen. Masterman, found three secret aviation depots near Berlin. The report adds that if the commission were given increased facilities, Gen. Masterman is sure many more such depots would be found. The report declares Germany is disposed to execute the treaty of peace, but that the government is entirely in the hands of the military party.

German Notes to Italy.

Paris, April 23.—According to the Havas correspondent at San Remo, two of the three notes received by the Italian Premier, Signor Nitti, from the German delegation, differ somewhat from those summarized in previous despatches. The second note states Germany is ready to withdraw her supplementary troops from the Ruhr region, but desires to retain there the 17,500 men and batteries authorized by the decision of the Allies on Aug. 8, 1919.

The third note asserts Germany's willingness to disband her local militia, through representing this operation as difficult. No allusion is made to the dissolution of the other militized police organizations, and volunteer civil guards.

The supreme council, the correspondent says, will consider on today or Saturday the response to be made to three notes.

France Opposed Idea.

London, April 23.—The London Times today confirms the Paris reports of yesterday that Premiers Lloyd-George and Nitti had urged that a German representative be summoned to San Remo for the purpose of revising the treaty of Versailles but that the proposal collapsed owing to French and Belgian opposition.

SHORTAGE OF COAL.

Hamilton, Ont., April 23.—Owing to a shortage of coal more than half of the big plant of the Steel Company of Canada in this city is closed.

Took Average of 395 Shells to Kill a Man

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 23.—Dr. Mercer, a member of the French Academy of Medicine, after an extended investigation, has determined that during a period of five months in 1917 a total of 3,690,000 shells fell on the front of three French armies.

The shells, according to the doctor, killed 13,265 men and wounded 55,412. According to his figures it took a total of 395 shells to kill one man and half as many to wound one.

GERMANY YIELDS TO RAILWAYMEN

The Men Threatened General Strike if Not Granted Increased Wages.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Berlin, April 23.—That the railway men's demands for increased wages have taken the shape of a peremptory ultimatum to the Government, with an alternative threat of a general strike, was indicated late yesterday, when at the close of the sitting of the National Assembly the socialist deputy Kotzur moved that 2,250,000,000 marks be immediately appropriated for that purpose.

Dr. Wirth, Minister of the Treasury, replied that wit hdeep reluctance he would ask the House to assent, as he had been informed that partial strikes had already occurred at certain points owing to the impression among the men that the Government was unduly delaying the matter. But he protested against the coercive methods employed as a violation of the rights of parliament and a pernicious example to other branches of the public service extort money by menace.

The Minister of Transport, Dr. Bell, also said he had reluctantly arrived at the conclusion that it wasa necessary to submit, as not only had the Prussians, but also the Wurtemburg and Baden railway men joined in the demands. But this would be the last time, he declared, that the Government would yield to coercion.

The Tages Zeitung describes this as a pitiful surrender and the bankruptcy of democratic government.

THE UNITED STATES AND ARMENIANS

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Washington, April 23.—A resolution proposing that the House declare in favor of the United States joining with the Allied powers in taking "the requisite measures" to protect Armenians from "massacres and acts of oppression" was introduced yesterday by Representative Eagan, Democrat. It also proposed that the House declare in favor of the United States recognizing the republic of Armenia, which should be safeguarded by the Allied Governments in such a way to prevent a recurrence of atrocities.

SCALP COMPLETELY TORN FROM HIS HEAD

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Quebec, April 23.—By an explosion in a compressed air reservoir in the mills of the Brown Corporation at Latuque, Que., Wednesday, Phileas Belanger, an employee, was instantly killed. The man's scalp was completely torn from his head. His body was recovered. He is survived by a wife and eight children.

SAVED FROM GALLOWS.

Regina, April 23.—John Watkins, convicted of the murder of Arthur Brand and Arthur Purcell, who was sentenced at Prince Albert February 7 to hang on April 26, has been reprieved and his sentene commuted to life imprisonment.

TO GUARD BANDIT.

Berlin, April 23.—With a view to preventing attempts to rescue the Saxon bandit Max Hoelz and his followers, they have been removed from Eger to Gitschen, which is more remote from the frontier.

SIR SAM HUGHES SAYS VETERANS NO ANARCHISTS

The Dominion Veterans Would Be First to Object to Violations of Laws of Country

SIR SAM THE GUEST OF HONOR OF VETS

Says Soldiers Have No Sympathy With Elements Responsible for Disorders.

Ottawa, April 23.—In commemoration of the second battle of Ypres, more than one hundred veterans of Ottawa, who sailed from Quebec with the first contingent in September, 1914, sat down to dinner together last night.

The gathering was presided over by Colonel R. H. Steacy, C. M. G., Director of Canadian Chaplain Services for a considerable period of the war.

The guest of honor was Lieut. General Sir Sam Hughes, former Minister of Militia, and described by the Chairman as "the Father of the First Contingent," and another prominent visitor was Major G. W. Andrews, M. P., Winnipeg.

Sir Sam Hughes appealed to Canadian returned men to take a strong stand on every necessary occasion in favor of the preservation of law and order in the country. Efforts had been made time and again to induce soldiers to adhere to the anarchistic and Bolshevistic element, which were responsible for disorders in all parts of the world at the present time.

In Canada these efforts had been unsuccessful and he knew from his study of the feelings of the vast majority of the people that the Dominion's veterans would be the first to put an end to any movement that had for its object the violation of the laws of the country.

Refuse to Attend Families of Strikers

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Quimper, Finisterre, France, April 23.—The physicians of Finisterre will refuse to attend the families of men who are on strike. The members of the medical society of Finisterre, in a congress held here, have adopted a resolution to that effect.

WANT TRUNK LINE THROUGH MARYSVILLE

Marysville, N. B., April 23.—A delegation consisting of Mayor J. W. Walker and Joseph Dolphin, of Marysville, W. H. Allen, of Penniac, and Mayor Gilbert Henry, of Devon, waited upon the Minister of Public Works yesterday to press the claims of their respective districts for the proposed trunk road from Fredericton to Chatham.

The original intention of the government was to run the trunk line by way of Killarney, and the citizens of Devon, Marysville and Penniac are of the opinion that the road should run through these places instead of by way of Killarney, as tourists motoring to Chatham from Fredericton would rather pass through these busy and interesting places than go by way of Killarney road, which is, for the greater portion of it, uninhabited.

The Minister received the delegation courteously and a consultation was held with Engineer Hill, who agreed with the delegates that the Marysville route was the proper route and the Killarney road a secondary one. The delegation was given to understand their request would be carried out.

A. E. Trites, claims agent for the C. N. R., was here yesterday holding an investigation into the killing of a colt belonging to N. Price, of Penniac, by the "Whooper" on Oct. 24, 1919. Several witnesses were examined, including Mr. Price, Ben Morris, section foreman of the C.N.R., Thomas Wade and others. Damages claimed amount to $150.

The machine gun battery had a drill last evening in their armory, Sergt. Major Warren being the instructor. The battery will hold the next drill on baseball hill.

A large number of citizens attended the entertainment in the Fraser Memorial Hall, Fredericton, last evening.

Cannot Carry Liquors From Quebec to Ontario

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

MONTREAL, April 23.—Ontario people who come to Montreal and buy liquor with a view to taking it back to Ontario under the belief that they are legally entitled to do so, are liable to find themselves mistaken, it was learned here yesterday. The provisions of the Quebec prohibition law and its manner of enforcement are to the effect that an Ontario man visiting this province is regarded as having his residence here and is treated as such. This means that he cannot come here from Ontario and order liquor for his own use and then take it back with him. He may, however, order it sent to him to a point in Ontario.

The only liquor that can legally be taken into Ontario is that secured by means of a medical prescription and under 43 ounces and there is no need to come to this province for it, since it can be obtained in exactly the same way and to the same amount in Ontario.

Former Premier Caillaux of France Sentenced to Prison For Correspondence With Foe

The Sentence of the Court Was Three Years, but the Time He Has Already Served Since Arrest is Deducted and He Will Get His Freedom in One Month.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 23.—Sentence of three years' imprisonment was imposed today upon former Premier Joseph Caillaux, convicted by the high court yesterday of commerce and correspondence with the enemy. The time during which he was under arrest will be deducted, however, leaving him but one month to serve.

M. Caillaux received the news of his conviction stolidly, showing less temper than at any time since the trial began. That the fight is not over and that Caillaux's friends in the high court are fighting to the bitter end was shown this morning when, after a two hours' session the court failed to agree on the text of the verdict to be read to M. Caillaux, rejecting the text presented by the investigation committee of the Senate as too severe.

Article 78 of the military code, under which M. Caillaux was convicted, dates back to 1808, and was aimed especially at French business men guilty of corresponding with British brokers during the continental blockade and giving them the stock exchange figures and other information.

M. Caillaux's plans for the future have not been made public, but it is learned on good authority that if he is sentenced to banishment for any length of time he will proceed to South America.

When the high court convened for the afternoon session the verdict was read to M. Caillaux, informing him he was guilty of violating Article 78 of the military code.

He was asked if he had anything to say. He replied: "No, I have nothing to say."

Maitre Demange then said for the defence: "Caillaux has been found guilty of the crime with which he was accused and against which he was not defended. I let you take the responsibility. I appeal to justice, I appeal to France."

After the reading of the verdict to M. Caillaux the high court convened in secret session to deliberate on the sentence to be imposed.

DEPUTY PROPOSES A FORCED LOAN

French Deputy Would Levy on Every Frenchman With Capital of 50,000 Francs.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 23.—In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday M. Lugol proposed a law instituting a forced loan to liquidate the war costs, whereby every Frenchman possessing a capital of more than fifty thousand francs should be required to subscribe in the following proportions:

From one hundred thousand to two hundred, ten per cent

From two hundred to five hundred, fifteen per cent.

From five hundred thousand to one million, 20 per cent.

From one million to two million, 25 per cent.

From two to ten million, 30 per cent.

From ten to twenty million, 40 per cent. Above that amount 60 per cent.

Repayment is to be made in twenty years through drawing by lot.

FAILED TO LYNCH NEGRO MURDERER

One Negro Killed and Fifteen Men Arrested During Indiana Demonstration.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 23.—One negro was shot and 15 men arrested last night in the attempt of a mob of two thousand men to take William Ray, colored, 19 years of age, from the Marion County jail, where he is held without bond for the murder of 14-year-old Martha Huff, a white girl, to which he confessed yesterday morning.

WOODSTOCK MAN WINS PROMOTION

A. Williams Appointed Superintendent of Farnham Division of the C. P. R.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, April 23.—A. Williams is appointed superintendent of the Farnham Division of the Canadian Pacific Railway, according to a circular just issued.

Mr. Williams joined the service of the C. P. R. in 1889 as station telegraph operator in the New Brunswick district.

Other appointments following were: 1896, assistant to trainmaster, St. John, N.B.; Oct. 1897, despatcher, N.B. district; January, 1905, chief train despatcher, Woodstock, N. B.; March, 1910, trainmaster instructor and chief despatcher, N. B. district; March, 1912, assistant superintendent, North Bay, Ont.; January, 1914, superintendent at Woodstock, N. B.; April, 1917, superintendent London (Ont.) division.

REPATRIATION OF FRENCH IN RUSSIA

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 23.—Conversations relative to the repatriation of French subjects detained in Russia are being protracted, but through no fault of the French government, according to an official statement issued here. The French representative has been instructed to give precedence to the matter of repatriation, but the pourparlers have again been suspended on account of new demands put forward by the Russian delegates.

EAST AND WEST CAN AGREE ON A NEW TARIFF

Delegation from Alberta in Conference with Canadian Manufacturers at Toronto.

SEEK TO ESTABLISH BRANCH INDUSTRIES

Say There is No Reason Why a Scientific Tariff Would Not Be Agreeable.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Toronto, April 23. — A delegation representing the Alberta Industrial Development Association and the Western Canada Colonization Association received a very cordial reception at a luncheon of the Canadian Manufacturers Association at the King Edward Hotel yesterday. President T. P. Howard introduced the western delegates.

Mayor Brown, of Medicine Hat, President of the Alberta Industrial Association, said the object of their organization and the Colonization Association, was to fill up the twenty million acres of unsettled lands with good settlers, assisting them to become Canadian citizens and giving them help and advice.

Mayor Brown said he believed there was nothing to prevent an agreement between the east and west on a scientific tariff. The western farmer, he said, was not an absolute free trader. He knew that such was an impossibility. The time had come for eastern manufacturers to establish branch industries in the west, Mr. Brown said.

President Howard said the association was on record as asking the government to appoint a scientific tariff board. They were not unreasonable. Industries that could not possibly succeed in Canada should not be protected, he said.

President Howard stated that some 1,800 labor organizations had been in accord with the C. M. A. in asking for the scientific tariff, also.

THE CONCILIATION BOARD IS ACTING

Satisfactory Agreement Expected with Employees of Old Grand Trunk Ry.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, April 23.—Though the exact terms of the increased wage demands and improved working conditions, which are being asked for by several thousand employees on the eastern division of the old Grand Trunk Railway, from Windsor, Ont., to Quebec, have not as yet been announced, it is understood that the primary object of the board of conciliation investigating the dispute has for its primary object the satisfactory settlement of the employees' requests with approval by the company and the elimination of a possible doubt as to a strike.

Today the Board of Conciliation, after a temporary lapse or cessation of its activities yesterday afternoon, will resume in session at the Central station, when it is expected that a definite pronouncement on behalf of the different grades affected will be made formally to the board, following on the "air tight" private meeting of the representatives from the labor end, held in the Central station yesterday afternoon.

DOES AEROPLANING AFFECT THE HEART?

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Mineola, N. Y., April 23.—Major R. W. Schroeder, who holds the airplane altitude record, has been directed by the War Department to undergo a physical examination to determine whether flying has affected his heart. His heart beats will be electrically photographed.

Hungary Seeks to Rid Herself Of Profiteering Galician Jews

The Hungarian Government Arrives at Agreement With Poles for the Repatriation of Galicians, Who Are Charged with Responsibility for High Prices.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Budapest, April 23.—The Hungarian government, in accordance with a previous arrangement with the Polish legation, has begun the repatriation of Galician Jews, whose profiteering, it is charged, is partly responsible for high prices. The first group to be transported, consisting of about 800 families, left yesterday.

Canadian Retail Merchants Advocate a Gross Sales Tax

President of the Retail Merchants Association Says that Such a Tax Would Be Preferable to the War Profits Tax—The Government Interviewed.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Winnipeg, Man., April 23.—The levy of a gross sale tax on all retail sales will be accepted by the retail merchants of Canada in lieu of a war profits tax, J. A. Banfield, Canadian President of the Retail Merchants Association, announced yesterday.

Mr. Banfield has just returned from Ottawa, where he has been meeting the government and Dominion Executive of the Retail Merchants in regard to retail taxation and other matters of legislation for merchantmen.

Summary of Night Dispatches

Paris, April 23.—Joseph Caillaux, former Premier of France and twice Minister of Finance, was last night convicted of having placed his personal political ambition during the war higher than the interests of his country. The verdict of the French Senate was "guilty of commerce and correspondence with the enemy." Sentence will be pronounced today, and the consensus of opinion is that it will be light in view of the 28 months that Caillaux has spent in jail and at a sanatarium.

Trial of Hun War Criminals.

Liepzig, April 23.—Preliminary proceedings for the trial by the supreme court of German war criminals has begun, but according to the Neueste Nachrichten is rendered difficult by the partly incomplete and partly erroneous data supplied by Allies' list of accused.

Japanese Peny Story.

Washington, April 23.—An official despatch from Tokio yesterday stated that reports that Japanese troops had fired on the barracks of U. S. engineers at Hailar, Manchuria, were erroneous.

To Clear Up Situation.

Chicago, April 23.—John Grunau, president of the Chicago Yardmen's Association, yesterday called a meeting for today to "clean up the entire situation" in connection with the strike of "outlaw" switchmen.

Pussyfoot Home Again.

New York, April 23.—William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson returned here yesterday from Liverpool.

Vote to Return to Work.

St. Louis, April 23.—The striking yardmen in the St. Louis district late yesterday voted to return to work pending decision on their wage demands by the Railroad Labor Board.

The Hero of Kut.

New York, April 23.—Gen. Sir Chas. Townsend, hero of Kut, will visit Toronto May 3 and will probably accept an invitation to deliver an address in that city.

Tornado Casualties.

Montgomery, Ala., April 23.—Latest reports at the offices of Gov. Kilby indicate that 76 persons were killed in Tuesday's tornado in Alabama, 500 injured and over 1,000 farm buildings destroyed.

Printers Back on Job.

Montreal, April 23.—The strike of Star printers ended last night, the men returning to work on the same wage conditions obtaining at the time they walked out last Friday.

Drank Formaline.

Regina, Sask., April 22.—Wm. James Bodie committed suicide by quaffing formaline in a fit of despair that his income tax return might be incorrect, according to reports of the provincial police from the Woodrow, Sask., district.

Canadians Robbed.

New York, April 22.—The latest haul of jewel robbers, whose ransacking of New York hotels, apartment houses and private houses have puzzled the police for several months, became known today. The victims were Mr. and Mrs. John McKay, wealthy Montrealers, who lost $10,000 in jewels.

Remove Sinn Fein Prisoners.

Belfast, April 23.—Removal of the 15 Sinn Fein prisoners from Belfast and a large number of destroyers from Queenstown leads to the belief that the authorities are planning to transport all Sinn Fein prisoners from Ireland.

Refuse to Take Back Strikers.

New York, April 23.—Coincident with the reported decision yesterday of several thousand outlaw strikers not to return to work, the Erie Railroad last night refused to take back 300 insurgents who came to the Jersey City yards in a body.

Trial of Irish Labor Leader.

New York, April 23.—Stormy court scenes accompanied the trial of James Larkin, Irish labor leader, on trial for criminal anarchy yesterday. The judge ordered his imprisonment during the rest of the trial, but later allowed bail on Larkin's plea that imprisonment would weaken his ability to conduct his defence.

Sale of Oleomargine.

Montreal, April 23.—Reiteration of protest against prohibition of manufacture and sale of oleomargine in Canada was made yesterday by the Board of Trade at a meeting of the council. Unless legislation adopted at this session of parliament providing otherwise, manufacture and sale of oleo will be prevented after September 20th.

For Heavy Work

The exclusive Palmer-McLellan Chromoil tanning process makes them as waterproof as is possible with leather, and very durable.

The special soles and heels are nailed on by a new machine method that gives the solidity of a heavy work boot, with the ease of a mocassin.

Palmer-McLellan Farm Boots wear like iron, keep their shape, do not harden or crack after wetting. Always soft and comfortable, and are cheaper than other boots that do not give such satisfactory service.

A Hint of Maritime Union Brings Dream Suggestions

Subject Mentioned in Legislature Yesterday in Discussion of Sale of Old Government House—Little Change in Fraser Paper Company's Bill.

In the Legislature yesterday the bill to incorporate the Fraser Paper Company, Ltd. passed the committee stage and will have its third reading some time today.

At the afternoon session there was a somewhat protracted discussion of the various features of the bill, particularly that referring to the fishways for the passage of salmon up the Tobique river by the dams which would be erected and the financial arrangements, including the provisions for amalgamations and such matters.

The result was that the bill was amended to provide for the approval of the Federal Department of Marine and Fisheries of such fishways as would have their approval, as not substantially affecting the passage of the salmon to their spawning grounds. The sections dealing with the financial aspects of the enterprise were allowed to stand until the resumption of consideration of the bill after recess, when it passed without any further substantial amendments.

Premier Foster, when the Committee resumed in the evening, said he had not informed the committee as to the amount the company should pay the province for the right to generate electrical power. He thought that some revenue should come to the province and had taken the matter up with the promoters of the bill. They had offered to pay a fixed amount of $500 in addition to 25 cents per annum per horse power. Not being conversant with the rates which should prevail, he had taken the matter up with Mr. Smith, consulting engineer for the Dominion Water Powers Commission, who had wired that a Dominion regulation stipulated 50 cents per horse power as an annual rental. As there was not a wide difference between the company's offer and the amount fixed in the Dominion regulation, he felt it should be left to the Governor-in-Council to determine. He had therefore prepared a new section to the bill, which would permit the Governor-in-Council to fix a rate for twenty years, at the end of which time a renewal would be granted for a like period at an increased rental. It also provided that the books and records of the company would be open for inspection by a chartered accountant named by the Governor-in-Council.

The bill was agreed to, as also was the bill to incorporate the Miramichi Light, Heat & Power Company. A section was added to the latter bill making provision for the payment of a rental to the province, the amount of which shall be determined by the Governor-in-Council.

The Elections Act.

The House again went into committee with Mr. Leger (Westmorland) in the chair, and agreed to a bill to amend the New Brunswick Election Act, with an amendment which provides that copies of voters' lists may be obtained from the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer on payment of a price per folio to be determined by the King's Printer.

The committee next took up consideration of a second bill to amend the New Brunswick Elections Act. This bill makes provision for the addition to the voters' lists of the names of qualified electors which had been inadvertently omitted.

Hon. Mr. Byrne said that when the bill was last before the committee an objection had been raised that it did not make provision for publicity in connection with names to be added to the list. He had prepared an amendment which provided that a list of names of electors whom it was proposed to add, should be posted in three conspicuous places, fourteen days before polling day. If any objections were made in writing to the placing of names on the lists within seven days thereafter the revisors would be required to call upon the applicant for additional proof as to their qualifications. He thought the amendment would safeguard the bill and prevent fraud from being perpetrated against either parties.

Mr. Baxter said the amendment would do away with last moment applications, and would meet his views except that there might be a longer period allowed than fourteen days. He thought it might be a good plan to provide for semi-annual revision of the Voters' Lists. There would always be a last-minute rush to have names added and it might be a question if it would not be better for the country if some of those who did not take sufficient interest to have their names recorded at the proper time, should be refused the right to vote. He had sympathy for the men who took an interest in public affairs, and whose name had been accidentally omitted from the list. There did not seem to him to be anything unfair about the amended bill.

Hon. Mr. Byrne said the two bills to amend the Elections Act would be incorporated into one.

The bill was agreed to.

The Succession Duties Act.

The House went into further consideration of an Act to amend the Succession Duty Act, 1915.

Hon. Mr. Byrne made an explanation.

Mr. Tilley stated that some hardship had been encountered in cases in which the beneficiaries were so nearly related that returns should not be made.

Hon. Mr. Byrne said that discretionary powers might be given.

Mr. Baxter said that the provisions of the Act might be relaxed now but not to the extent that officials would be allowed to use the decretion which should be exercised by the Attorney General alone. He would suggest that that feature might be suggested for action next year.

Hon. Mr. Byrne said that that could be done.

Mr. Baxter said that forms might be filled out by executors who would not be aware of the terms of the law.

Mr. Michaud said it would be easy for this to get into the hands of people who would be unable to judge. The law was all right as it was. Any required change could be made next year.

The bill was agreed to.

The Old Government House.

The committee also agreed to bills to amend the Jurors' Act, 1919, to amend the County Courts Act, to amend the Judicature Act and relating to the sale of the property known as Government House Property situated in the city of Fredericton.

Mr. Tilley asked what was to be done with the money from the sale of this property.

Hon. Mr. Foster said he would submit an amendment to provide for the investment in interest-bearing securities on the approval of the Lieutenant Governor-in-Council.

Mr. Tilley said that did not answer his question. Was the government going to purchase other property or devote the money to other purposes?

Hon. Mr. Foster said the proceeds must be placed in a trust fund. The money could be devoted only for the purpose of providing a residence for His Honor the Lieutenant Governor in the city of Fredericton. The establishment of such a residence was a serious matter and demanded lengthy consideration. He had said what might be done with the interest and there was only one thing to do with the principal. It was not the intention to purchase a residence at the present time, but he would be pleased to hear an expression of opinion concerning the disposition of the interest.

Mr. Young asked what was the future intention.

Hon. Mr. Foster said that thought had not been given that yet, and he would ask that the bill be reported.

Mr. Potts said that $50,000 would not do much nowadays towards building a residence. Let the interest accumulate to help.

Hon. Mr. Murray—"In the meantime we may have Maritime Union."

Mr. Potts—"Yes, and you might have a dream."

The bills were reported.

Hon. Mr. Foster introduced a bill to regulate the issue of shares and securities by public utilities. On the ground of urgency the bill was read a second time.

The Workmen's Compensation Act.

Hon. Mr. Byrne introduced a bill to amend the Workmen's Compensation Act. He explained that the amendment provided for increased amount for funeral expenses, for increased allowances to widows and children, for increased allowances for permanent partial disability and other matters. He stated also that changes were made in regard to payment for first aid. Provision also would be made that in cases in which any employer was making use of this scheme under which medical and hospital expenses were paid for his employees, he would be given credit for it at the discretion of the board.

Hon. Mr. Byrne introduced a bill to amend the act relating to the issue of school debentures in the towns of Milltown and St. Stephen. On the ground of urgency the bill was read a second time.

The Egg Laying Rooster.

When the House met Mr. McGrath rose to a question of privilege and read from the St. John Standard an article copied from the Chatham Commercial, which he said misrepresented the attitude of the Government and also of the members for Northumberland with respect to the Miramichi Water Power Bill. The same paper had published an article which set forth that George E. Fisher had imported from Ontario a Plymouth Rock rooster with an egg record of 286. He considered one statement about as reliable as the other.

Hon. Mr. Robinson introduced a bill relating to the Demoiselle Summer Resort Co., which was read for the second time.

Hon. Mr. Murray introduced bills to provide for the redemption of the Hartland bridge guaranteed debentures falling due in 1920, and to provide aid for cities, towns and municipalities in defraying the cost of smallpox and influenza outbreaks. On the ground of urgency the bills were read the second time.

Hon. Mr. Foster presented a petition signed by five hundred residents of Grand Falls praying that immediate steps be taken to develop the water power at that place and that no further exemption be granted to the present holders.

Hon. Mr. Foster introduced a bill to incorporate the Union church at McAdam; also a bill to repeal and amend the Consolidated Statutes relating to schools. He explained that the last named bill was based on the report of the commission which had made certain recommendations regarding teachers' salaries. The bills were read a second time.

Mr. Crocket moved that the bill to amend the act respecting the registration and qualification of dentists be

JUNKER PERIL REMOTE.

Rumors of a very disquieting kind are emanating from Paris. It is said that the German militarists are actively at work creating a new and formidable army, that men are being drilled in secret and vast stores of guns and ammunition piled up, that the government is lending its active support and co-operation. Gen. Foch declares that the peril of a new war undoubtedly exists. France is warned to remember that Jena was followed by Leipzig and that the Teutons of today are not accepting in good faith the outcome of the recent war.

The world will not become unduly alarmed at these reports. There is little reason to doubt that the Junkers would make one more effort for victory were there even a faint chance for success, but the most optimistic among them must realize that this chance does not exist at present. Not only would another appeal to arms invite new defeats and humiliation for Germany but it would afford a fresh opportunity for the Bolshevists and anarchists. France paid a heavy penalty for the Hundred Days; what Germany would suffer for a like attempt would be truly appalling.

Granted that it is possible for Ludendorff to collect and equip a large army, what hope would he have of driving Foch from his positions on the Rhine? Germany surrendered in 1918 chiefly because of her economic collapse. Has she recovered sufficiently to renew the struggle? The comparison with Leipsig does not fit the case, as the name, "Battle of the Nations," clearly indicates. Therein Prussians fought, not alone, but in company with Russians, Austrians and Swedes. On the other hand, in a war today Germany would have to fight the world. Any hope she might have of allied differences is futile. Whatever minor misunderstandings may exist would vanish before the possibility of a reversal of the verdict of the war, and the first call to arms would cement the old bonds more strongly than ever.

No doubt the military party in Germany will bear watching. They know no other world than that which was wrecked with the overthrow of the Hohenzollerns and will miss no reasonable chance to restore it. But neither Germany nor the world is in the humor to tolerate such an attempt, and it would be foredoomed to failure from the outset. To even the most uncompromising Junker this must be evident. It may be true, as Marshal Foch says, that the peril exists, but at present it seems remote.

EDUCATIONAL SYSTEMS.

Before the German child could well lisp the accents of his mother tongue, the German system, which invaded every precinct of human life, taught him to be a soldier. In the plastic mind of the child there was thrust the notion that the German was an incomparably superior being; that it was his destiny to conquer the world; that the greatest thing was force; that war was normal; and that to fight and dominate was the will of God. That explains the psychology of the war, and the state of Europe today, remarks an exchange.

Other nations might well take warning from the vicious example of Germany. In the advance of human society there is, first, tribal loyalty and feeling; that is followed by national patriotism; and upon these should supervene the international outlook. International feeling, transcending parochial bounds, is scarcely adumbrated, whereas national feeling is intense and passionate; and for a bit of color, signifying the Fatherland, will, if it be deemed necessary, drench the world in blood.

If the educational systems of the world would expunge from their text books the glorification of war, the exploits of national heroes, on the battlefield, and, instead of these incitements to national pride and passion, would set forth the great deeds which have preserved, not destroyed, human life, deeds wrought by men and women all over the world, in quietness, and which have lifted humanity to a higher sphere—that would, measurably, cause war to be unthinkable to the generations coming immediately after the present one. War will not cease from out the earth because of the fourteen points of an eloquent schoolmaster; but every new school book, expressing pacific sentiments, inculcating the principle of the Golden Rule, will make war unthinkably revolting.

Ruskin said that if the women of any nation which had purposed to go to war should wear mourning, and refuse all comfort or joy, the men, in the course of one week, would, in shame and guilt, give up their war plans. That is too spectacular to be practical, but the war virus begins in the mind of the child in the formative stage; and if this was supplanted by better and more ennobling thoughts, war would, in time, be removed to an unthinkable distance. The attitude toward life, the conduct of the world, is determined in the school room.

OUR NEW OERALLERS.

The demonstration of the overall wearers conveys their protest against the present cost of the more conventional sort of outer clothing. There is a bitter irony of fact in the state of things where the horny handed gainer of a hundred dollars or more a week performs his tasks in overalls or jeans while the humble brainworker who takes a month to earn the same pay or little over must still wear costly woollen suits for his business garb.

Does the rougher raiment belong by right to the less well paid? Apparently the paraders at New York last week wished to convey the idea that the financially fallen salaried folk had the right to give up sartorial respectability for cheapness, and ought to exercise this right, conferred upon them by their misfortune. We wonder whether the present high price of the kind of raiment picked out as cheap may not somewhat discourage those who would take up with the plan.

No one has the temerity to propose restoring the brain workers to their relative position, which would offer the only alternative to cutting down their way of living. A strike of teachers, of clerical workers, of business executives or of salaried technicians seems as unlikely as one of physicians. The high standard of responsibility among all these people makes such a strike, essentially a betrayal of trust, distasteful to them. Nor could they resort to it without giving up a qualification of their group that sets them apart from the striker element much more definitely than any false distinction of clothes.

Fortunately for the new overall folk, their sounder training makes it possible for them to accomplish miracles in the fine art of living in reduced circumstances: miracles quite beyond the comprehension of war-wage families. They have also before them the certainty that when wages go down salaries generally will remain stationary, even as they did during the wage upturn.

DR. ROBERTS' RESOLUTION.

If the port of St. John were not getting fairly generous treatment by the Federal Government, the motion before the Legislature to appoint a delegation, to be composed of members of the Assembly, to proceed to Ottawa at the expense of the public funds of the province might, possibly, be regarded as not wholly out of place. But the interests of the port of St. John are being pretty well provided for. The representatives of the City and County have been active in intelligently and broadly pressing the claims of the port, and it is understood that, as a result, the estimates this year will make further liberal provision. It is therefore difficult to understand why the Legislative Assembly should be asked to intervene, and pay the bills, in a matter which does not come within its province and which has resolved itself wholly into a local affair. There should be some sense of dignity and some sense of responsibility.

SHOUT FOR LAURIER AND RECIPROCITY

Toronto, Ont., April 22.—A well-known Ontario man, who was an ardent admirer of the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier and whose will has just been probated outside of Toronto, made certain bequests to his brother with a proviso that the brother should attend on his verandah every twenty-fourth of May and shout "Hurrah for Laurier and recoprocity."

Notice of the event must be posted in the post office on the 23rd of May each year, according to the terms of the will.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mary McDonald.

Moncton, N. B., April 22.—The death occurred at Humphrey Mills, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Polley this morning, of Mrs. Mary McDonald at the age of eighty-nine years. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Fletcher Polley, with whom she resided, Mrs. John R. MacDonald, of Boston, Mass., and Miss Katherine MacDonald at home, also several brothers and sisters.

J. Louis White.

St. John, April 22.—A theatrical man who is kindly remembered by friends here died recently in a sanitorium at Clifton Springs, N. Y., in the person of J. Louis White. Born fifty-eight years ago, Mr. White had been in the theatrical business upwards of thirty years. He came here many years ago as business manager for W. S. Harkins and afterwards was the right hand man of Kirk Le Shelle. Later, under Charles Dillingham, he was the company manager for Eddie Foy, Elsie Janis, Fritzi Scheff and other stars.

DRUGGISTS OF N. B. ASK LEGISLATION

Delegation Appears Before the Law Committee and Present Their Case.

Like the professional engineers, the dentists and other professions, the pharmacists of New Brunswick are seeking to tighten the fences around their membership. A delegation representing the New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Association, including Fred Munro, J. B. Mahoney and George F. Coupe, with H. O. McInerney, of St. John, as counsel, appeared before the law committee yesterday afternoon in support of proposed amendments to their registry act. This and a bill for the incorporation of a trust company were referred for private consideration, and after a short private session were allowed to stand until the next meeting of the committee.

The counsel for the association addressed the commitee, explaining the objects of the bill, which he said was to increase the fees payable to the society, to increase the penalty for violations of the act from twenty and forty dollars to one hundred and two hundred dollars, and to strengthen the provisions which are designed to prevent dispensing by unqualified persons. He also explained that the new bill would make it impossible for an unregistered druggist to do business under the protection of a physician who registered for the purpose.

Section three makes possible the cancellation of a physician's certificate for the practice of pharmacy unless he is actively and personally engaged in the business.

It was provided in section four that no incorporated company shall engage in the business unless a majority of the directors of the company, or, in the case of partnership, all of the partners are duly registered under the act, and unless one of the directors or partners shall personally conduct the place of business.

Section six prohibits the opening of branch stores except under the separate charge of another registered pharmacist.

Regarding the proposed increase in penalties, Mr. Munro said that those who were convicted paid the twenty dollar fine, laughed at it and went on with the business. None of the officers of the society were personally interested as they were all capable of continuing in business and meeting any kind of competition, but the duty of enforcing the act had been placed on them and they felt that it was practically impossible for them to continue unless the law was strengthened.

Various members of the delegation were heard and the bill was referred for private consideration.

The bill to incorporate the Central Trust Company, head office in Moncton, authorized capital $500,000, was taken up and explained by A. D. Holyoke, of Woodstock. No objections were reported and the bill was referred for private consideration.

The Stock Market

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York (Wall Street), April 23.—Selected issues, notably independent steels, made substantial addition to yesterday's rally at the opening of today's stock market. Replogle was the chief feature, six thousand shares changing hands at 81 to 83 an extreme overnight advance of 7 points. Shippings, oils, motors and sugars reflected further covering of short contracts and rails gave promise of greater activity at moderate gains. Part of the advance was cancelled within the first half hour when United States Steel and Baldwin Locomotive became reactionary.

FROM THE PEOPLE

THE CLOTHES PROBLEM.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—I can't keep still any longer on this clothes question. I want to say that the argument that a woman cannot dress on $5 a week is foolish. It can be done, for I do it. When I was a business woman and went out every day I never spent $260 a year, and after I married and wore wash dresses in the house I spent even less. Only once have I gone above $200 a year, and that was eight years ago, when I bought a beautiful fur coat.

I realize I am no criterion for most women, for I am exceptionally "easy" on my clothes. A broadcloth suit bought four years ago is as good today as when I bought it, and I shall probably wear it four years more. Everything else lasts in proportion. I am no frump, either, but always look well dressed.

One woman says it is impossible to get a gingham dress for $2. She gets five yards at 60 cents a yard; I get four yards at 50 cents a yard; so that statement is quashed.

In thinking over my friends in this town I could name a dozen that dress well on less than $5 a week.

Yours,
ECONOMY.

REAL LOVE AND COUNTERFEIT.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—I have read the many letters in 'From the People," and was especially interested in what a recent writer had to say about love. I believe he has a glimpse of a larger vision than many of the writers in that column. The trouble with most of the young people and all too many of the older ones as well, is the failure to distinguish between love and the state of "being in love," which to my mind are two very different things. They hear it said that love is greatest thing in the world, and they see the operation of what is called love around them and are puzzled, as they well may be.

The forces of nature love to be our friends, but by disobedience of their laws we can make them terrible enemies. It all depends on the use we make of them.

People have a sad time learning enough about love to make it a source of happiness. We think the love we are seeking is locked up in a certain other person and that in order to possess it we must possess that particular person. We assume we can be happy only when that delightful individual belongs to us and we have sole ownership. Never was a greater mistake. Love dwells in you, and is all around you, pressing in upon you, to be used for your happiness. Calmly use you own force and it will bring you what you are reaching out for. If you meet with disappointments in others do not mourn and grieve and say love is gone out of your life. Love awaits you everywhere, and if you are true to your own nature and your own ideals of love, some day you will meet the person whose love harmonizes with yours and then you may be sure of being happy.

Moreover, real love is not to be confined within four walls. Love transforms us in its growth and through us reaches out to an everwidening circle. We all know some great hearted people whose love, beginning as an ideal affection, outgrows all bounds and through it they see and love all men, and whose love for their children comes to embrace all of childhood.

Such a marriage, because of the love at its centre and which, consciously or unconsciously, is drawn from the limitless love which holds the universe together, is saved from narrowness and becomes an inspiration and blessing to all who come within its sphere of influence.

Yours,
ONE WHO LOVES.

St. Stephen, N. B., April 20, 1920.

THE FAMILY MAN.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—It would be well if some of these gentlemen who hold high positions in Canada could realize the amount it costs to exist in these days of profiteering and sky-line prices. The wage earner has secured that knowledge by bitter experience. The man with a numerous brood, who could make both ends meet before the war, on a salary of one hundred dollars per month, finds that to live in the same way these days, he would require about three times that amount. However his salary, unlike the cost of living, has been nearly stationary.

You are aware, sir, coal and wood have doubled in price, clothing is nearly four times dearer than formerly, rents are much higher, sugar will shortly be retailed at twenty-five cents a pound, all other commodities are three or four times dearer than five years ago. Under these circumstances the family man is suffering from insomnia—he can't sleep. No wonder. His children's clothes and boots are wearing out and he can't afford to get any more for them; his own suit is falling to pieces. He can't keep up his insurance. He would like to pay the doctor his bill, but he can't do it. He shys at going to church. His nerves are in a wretched condition, but he can't afford to show it. At business he must be alert, cheerful, accurate and obliging and keep on smiling or he will lose his position.

Would it not be better, under these circumstances, for some of our representatives in parliament to cultivate a kindly disposition, to use their superfluous energy in remedying this frightful profiteering business, instead of trying to boost the firm of Streets and Walkers. In conclusion, may I sign a name in harmony to some extent with this brief epistle.

Yours,
ROCKET.

Fredericton, N. B., April 20, 1920.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestents are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

A HINT OF UNION BRINGS SUGGESTIONS

placed on the order of the day for reference to the committee of the whole House.

Port of St. John Development.

Hon. Mr. Roberts gave notice that on Saturday next he would move, seconded by Mr. Potts, the following resolution:

"Whereas, that as it is in the interests of the province of New Brunswick that the port of Saint John should be adequately prepared for the handling of the commerce, both inward and outward, that will naturally seek it as a port, and,

"Whereas, the said port of Saint John has, for twenty years or more, been one of the two ports on the eastern seaboard of Canada which have been availed of during winter for the inward and outward overseas trade of Canada, and,

"Whereas, it has become abundantly manifest for several years, owing to the development of such trade or traffic, that the said port is unable to handle such increased trade with the promptness, despatch and economy necessary to such trade, and,

"Whereas, such inability has been solely owing to the lack of wharves, docks, warehouses and other essentials to sea-borne commerce, and,

"Whereas, the St. John Valley Railway has been built at great cost to this province and needs to be extended to conect with the transcontinental routes of Canada, so as to afford an additional facility for the said seaborne commerce of Canada, and so, should be taken over and extended and operated by the Government of Canada;

"Therefore resolved, that this House approves of and directs that a delegation composed of members of this House, from both sides and others, be sent at an early date to Ottawa to confer with the federal authorities there having the supervision and control of the trade and commerce of Canada, and to urge upon said authorities the vital necessity not only in the interests of the port of Saint John and the province of New Brunswick but of that of all Canada, that such additional facilities as hereinbefore mentioned in this resolution, be supplied the said port without further loss of time, aand that such delegation be named by a committee of this House, appointed by the honorable Speaker of this House, and composed of an equal number from each side of the House, so far as the House membership of the delegation is concerned, and,

"Further resolved, that the necessary travelling expenses of said delegation in consequence of said conference at Ottawa be a charge upon the public funds of this province."

"WET" OR "DRY"

Milk is the food of children and old people. Combined with cereals it makes the ideal ration—but if your stomach does not take kindly to milk pour a little hot water over two Shredded Wheat Biscuits, put a small chunk of butter on each Biscuit, allowing it to melt into the shreds. If you like the Biscuit "dry" split it into two halves and crisp them in the oven and eat them with butter—a real whole wheat toast, wholesome and nourishing.

SIR LOMER GOUIN TO RETURN SOON

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Quebec, April 23.—In a letter written to Hon. L. A. Taschereau, acting Premier and Atorney General of the province, Sir Lomer Gouin anounces that he will sail on May 14th from Liverpool on board the Minnedosa.

The Premier and Lady Gouin have been absent for over a month visiting France, Belgium and will conclude their trip by a visit in England.

Events of a Day In Parliament

Ottawa, April 23.—In the Commons yesterday:—

The Franchise bill was discussed in committee, Mr. Fielding moving an amendment restricting appointment of returning officers to certain defined officials. Hon. Hugh Guthrie gave notice of amendment to give wives and children of naturalized British citizens the right to vote. Debate was adjourned.

The Grand Trunk bill was up for third reading. The amendment which provides the government may not lend money to the Board of Management without authority of Parliament was carried. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie-King introduced an amendment to restore pension rights to employees who participated in strike of 1910. The King amendment was defeated, 90 to 69, and third reading was carried on the same division reversed.

In the Senate:—

The bill making uniform the practice of provincial divorce courts was put through committee with amendments.

The bill providing for identification of persons trading in German goods was put through committee.

There was a lengthy discussion on the question of publicity for income tax payers.

Legislature is Likely to Pass "Bone Dry" Resolution "Buck" Back to Parliament

Members Are Besieged With Telegraphic Urge to Pass Resolution

AN AMENDMENT HAS BEEN FRAMED

Expectation Today Is That Amendment Will Carry Almost 2 to 1.

"The New Brunswick Legislature will pass the 'bone dry' resolution 'buck' back to Parliament," declared an influential member of the House when asked this morning what would be the likely action upon the so-called "bone dry" resolution which is to be moved this afternoon by Hon. J. F. Tweeddale.

Mr. Peck, of Albert, who was originally named as the seconder of the resolution but who yesterday announced that he was returning immediately to his home on urgent private business, was at the Legislature today. He said he was waiting over until this evening's train.

During the past twenty-four hours the members of the Legislature have been bombarded with telegraphic urges from temperance organizations to pass the resolution, one message coming to Hon. Robert Murray, Provincial Secretary, from Rev. Ben Spence, of Toronto, the secretary of the Dominion Alliance.

Will Not Withdraw.

Last night and this morning the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance lobbyists have been active at the Legislature again. This morning Donald Fraser, the president, issued a statement to the effect that there had been an effort made yesterday to "shelve" the resolution for a year, but that the Alliance would not agree to that. Rev. Thomas Marshall, vice-president of the provincial organization, also denied that the resolution would be withdrawn; a number of avowed temperance men in the House had so recommended, it was reported.

This morning the amendment which will be introduced to the "bone dry" resolution was completed and, as forecasted, it sets forth that it is inadvisable to hold a referendum on the question of interprovincial trade until such time as the people of the province have passed on the provincial prohibition act. It was said at noon that there were not more than 14 members of the House who would finally vote in favor of the resolution, which, if true, would mean that the resolution will be defeated and the amendment passed by a vote of about two to one.

Amendment and Resolution

The following is the so-called "bone-dry" resolution:

"That the following resolutions be passed and sent to the Secretary of State of Canada:

"Resolved, that under the provisions of Part IV. of the Canada Temperance Act as enacted by chapter eight of the statutes passed at the second session of the Parliament of Canada held in 1919, this Legislative Assembly doth request that the votes of the electors in all the electoral districts of this Province may be taken for or against the following prohibition, that is to say:

"That the importation and bringing of intoxicating liquor into this Province for beverage purposes may be forbidden."

The amendment which will be proposed follows:

Whereas the Legislative Assembly of the Province has passed an Act known as the Intoxicating Liquor Act, 1916;

And, whereas the said act provides that after the declaration of peace the Lieutenant Governor in Council may appoint a day for the holding of an election for or against the retention of the said Act;

And, whereas the Government of this Province has promised that an election as aforesaid shall be held in the near future;

Be it therefore resolved, that in the opinion of this House it is not advisable that the people of this Province should express their opinion on the question of inter-provincial trade in liquors until they have pronounced themselves in favor of the retention of the prohibition law as now in force in New Brunswick.

By Remaining in Session All Night, House Likely to Be Prorogued Late Tomorrow

The Bill to Increase the Sessional Indemnity of Members to $1,000 Was Introduced This Morning—The Reports of Committees.

The Legislature will probably reach prorogation some time tomorrow, although it was admitted at noon today that it would probably entail sitting about all night tonight and it would probably be tomorrow afternoon or evening when the decks were entirely cleared.

"Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow," was sung by the members of the Corporations Committee at noon today when they finally completed their business. Cheers were also given for Hon. J. P. Burchhill, the chairman. The Public Accounts Committee also completed their work this morning with the exception of making up their report. The charge of $100 appearing in the public accounts as paid to A. E. Hanson, of Fredericton, was under investigation this morning. An explanation was given by W. E. McMullin, of the Department of Lands and Mines staff; it appears the money was paid to C. N. Goodspeed, of Penniac, to recompense him for an amount he had paid Mr. Hanson for running some surveys where his (Goodspeed's) and Crown Lands were concerned.

The Increased Indemnities.

The House got the routine of the day finished by meeting shortly before noon for a few minutes. Incidentally bills to increase the sessional indemnity to $1,000, and provide a salary of $2,100 for the Minister of Health were introduced by Premier Foster.

The House met at 12.30 p. m.

Mr. LeBlanc presented the report of the Municipalities Committee.

Mr. Magee from a special committee to whom was referred the bill relating to the Incorporation of Villages, submitted a report.

Hon. Mr. Foster introduced a bill to amend the Act relating to the indemnity of members of the Legislature. On the ground of urgency and with the unanimous consent of the House it was read a second tmie.

Hon. Mr. Foster introduced a bill to amend the Act respecting the levying of rates and taxes in the City of St. John, which was read a second time.

Hon. Mr. Foster introduced a bill to amend the Act respecting the Executive Council. He explained that the object of the bill was to provide a salary for the Minister of Health. The bill was read a second time.

The Committees Met.

The municipalities committee this morning considered a bill relating to the town of Dalhousie. The bill was agreed to with an amendment to provide for expenditure up to $5,000 for permanent sidewalks.

The corporations committee this this morning considered bills to incorporate the New Brunswick branch of the King's Daughters and Sons, to incorporate the Union church of the parish of McAdam and the Lemoiselle Summer Resort Co. The latter bill was amended so as to make the park open to the public. The bills were recommended.

The committee on law practice and procedure considered and recommended, with amendments, the bills relating to the registration of pharmacists and to incorporate the Central Trust Co.

The corporations committee met in private session this morning and considered the New Brunswick Power Co. bill. The bill was recommended with amendments. The recommendations of the citizens' consolidation committee with regard to local taxation was embodied in the bill.

A REGULAR AIR SERVICE IN FRANCE

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 23.—Comercial flying in France is making rapid progress, as evidenced by a report issued by one of the large companies, which operates air craft over several important routes.

This company is less than a year old, but its report shows that it has carried to date 579 passengers, 3,542 packages, 1,933 bags of mail and 98,000 newspapers. The lines operated by it are between Paris and Lille and Brussels; Paris and London and Paris, Deauville and Cherbourg.

Grand Falls Power Bill Coming Today

It was stated this morning in official circles that a bill would be introduced in the Legislature today by Premier Foster giving the Government authority to negotiate with the Grand Falls Power Company respecting their rights in the water powers at Grand Falls.

The delegation from Grand Falls, who appeared before the Government yesterday afternoon, were told that a bill would be introduced meeting their wishes that there be no further delay allowed in carrying on the development. T.W. Caldwell, M. P. for Carleton-Victoria, accompanied the delegation when they appeared before the Government and they were introduced by J. E. Michaud, M.L.A. for Madawaska.

8 CENTS FARES ON ST. JOHN TROLLEYS

Will Be Result of Increased Taxation Allowed the City Corporation.

An increase of fares on the street railway from 6 cents, as at present, to 8 cents was declared today to be the result which the citizens of St. John face as a result of the city taxation clauses put through by the corporations committee of the Legislature.

The statement was made to reporters by F. R. Taylor, K. C., who has been acting for the New Brunswick Power Company while the bills have been before the House this session and since the matter was first heard of three years ago. He said it would mean the company would have to pay not less than $110,[illegible] next year for various city taxes and charges, whereas the Street Railway Company's taxes were less than $30,000.

"It is the greatest imposition placed upon any street railway in any city the size of St. John in the world," declared Mr. Taylor. He said the company had been told they "could pass it along to the public," and he believed the result would be 8 cent fares Another estimate said it would mean 7 cent fares.

The Pound Sterling Is Losing Ground

Montreal, April 23.—The pound sterling was quoted today at $3.90. New York funds were held at 9½ cents.

BROKER FIRM IN HANDS OF RECEIVER

Boston, April 23.—The brokerage firm of J. D. Crowley & Co., members of the Boston Stock Exchange, was placed in the hands of a receiver today and suspended by the exchange. The house was a small one, organized recently by Crowley, who was a floor boy on the exchange until a few years ago. The break in security prices early this week were said to have caused the firm's embarrassment.

Death at Mar's Hill.

Mrs. C. L. Tracy received a telephone message yesterday afternoon from Mar's Hill Me., announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. Solomon W. Parent, aged 89 years. Deceased was a widow and had been in fairly good health until two days ago when she contracted a heavy cold and her death resulted yesterday. She was a former resident of York County and was a lady loved and revered by all who knew her, and is survived by one son, William B. Parent, of St. John, three daughters, Mrs. Lewis Heustis, of Lower Southampton, Mrs. C. L. Tracy, of this city, and Mrs. Harry Currie, of Mar's Hill, Me., at whose home she died, and one brother, Zopher Dunphy, of Keswick. Nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren also survive. The remains will be brought to Bear Island tomorrow by Mrs. Currie and the funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon, interment to be made in the family plot at Bear Island. Mrs. Tracy, Mrs. S. Hallet, of Marysville, Zopher Dunphy and Mrs. Melvin Yerxa, of Keswick, are leaving this afternoon for Bear Island to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Joseph Gallagher, of St. John, is the guest of her parents, ex-Ald. and Mrs. D. J. Shea.

CANADIAN HOCKEY TEAM FAVORITES

Will Play the Czecho-Slovak Team Saturday Night—Finals on Sunday.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Antwerp, April 23.—Canada's hockey representatives, the Falcons, of Winnipeg, will meet the Czecho-Slovakia team in the opening round of the Olympic games hockey tournament here tomorrow night. The game will be the third of the series, contests between other teams being scheduled for tonight and tomorrow afternoon. Tomorrow night's game will be watched with particular interest, for the Canadians and Czechs were named as favorites in the betting by the Belgian hockey enthusiasts when the teams displayed their speed in the first practices, and a keen contest is anticipated. The Canadians are still favorites with the majority of those who have been following the preliminary work of the teams, but the United States team appears to have replaced the Czechs as second choice with most of the experts.

Unless there is an unexpected upset, the Falcons are now expected to face the United States team in the semi-finals Sunday night.

JURY FAILED TO REACH A VERDICT

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York, April 23.—The jury in the court of general sessions which heard the case of Colonel Augustus Drum, former third deputy police commissioner, indicted in New York's vice war on a charge of neglect of duty, reported at 12.06 o'clock today that it had been unable to reach a verdict. It was ammediately discharged by Judge Malone.

The jury was out nearly 21 hours. It was reported that members stood nine to three for acquittal from the taking of the first ballot until they reported to the court.

SOLDIERS HAVE IMPORTANT DUTY

served the toast to the King was honored with the National Anthem, after which C. A. Atkinson proposed the toast to Our Departed Comrades, which was drunk in silence in honor of the Canadians who made the Supreme sacrifice while "saving the situation" at St. Julien on April 22nd, 1915.

Major Turner proposed a toast to Our Guests to which Very Rev. Dean Neales, Hon. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, acting leader of the Opposition in the Legislature, and J. D. Black, who were the guests of the First Contingent Boys, were called upon to reply. Very Rev. Dean Neales' son was with the First Contingent, having enlisted upon the outbreak of the war, and he spoke feelingly and heartily in praise of the "originals," declaring that there was nothing too much that could be done for the Canadians who had been credited with "saving the situation" in the official records and had won imperishable fame for this Dominion and the Empire.

Dr. Baxter, who was also most heartily received, paid a warm tribute to the self-sacrificing Canadian soldiers who had answered the call of the Empire and who by their devotion to the Empire had fought for civilization. Having saved civilization, he told them it was now their duty to make it worth while saving; they had, he said, important duties to perform as citizens and the whole Dominion was looking forward to them taking a leading part in the affairs of Canada. He expressed the regrets of Hon. W. E. Foster, premier of New Brunswick, who by pressure of business at the Legislature had been unable to be present.

A. B. Belyea replied on behalf of the "originals' 'and a toast to the ladies was proposed by Jack Markey and replied to by Charles Blair, who had acted as the secretary of committee in charge. During the evening there were musical numbers ,including selections by a quartette composed of Ray Brewer, "Chick" Atkinson, Loring Wandless and Charles Harris, and piano selections. The affair closed with a review by Major Turner of the organization of the First Contingent Boys in Fredericton and an urge for the returned men to stand together. He said that some other battalions—the 26th—had been so widely advertised that the people were inclined to forget the First Contingent Boys from New Brunswick.

The Action of Bank of B.N.A. Against St. John and Quebec Railway Company Dismissed

The Suit Was for Loans and Advances in Connection With the Contract Between the Hibbard Company and the St. John and Quebec Railway Company.

The King vs. Wm. Edgar Dean ex parte Adelaide Dean in re Catherine E. A. Dean, an infant (a St. John case). The written judgment of Judge Grimmer was read by Chief Justice Hazen. Appeal from the decision of Chief Justice McKeown, of the King's Bench Division, which allowed custody of infant to mother on habeas corpus proceedings, dismissed without costs.

LeBlanc vs. Moncton Tramways Co. Ltd. Judgment read by Chief Justice Hazen. New trial granted, costs of appeal to be paid by respondent.

Bank of B.N.A. vs. St. John & Quebec Ry. Co. et al. Judgment read by Chief Justice Hazen. Appeal dismissed with costs, and in compliance with judgment of Judge Chandler the matter should be referred to a master of the Supreme Court to take an account of the amount due by the Hibbard Co., Ltd. to the Bank of B.N.A. for loans and advances in connection with the contract between the Hibbard Co. and the St. John & Quebec Ry. Co., dated May 8, 1912, and that an account should be taken of the amount due from the St. John & Quebec Ry. Co. to the Hibbard Co., under the contract above mentioned.

In re McDonald estate, appeal allowed with costs to be paid by the respondent to appellant, matter remitted to Queen's County Probate Court to reopen and to proceed on hearing of petition for proof of will without requiring the petitioner to be cross-examined.

The court is this afternoon hearing the appeal by plaintiff in the case of Fitzpatrick vs. McSorley, Judge Barry, in the absence of Judge Grimmer, taking part in the hearing on appeal.

FREDERICTON WON BOWLING TOURNEY

Victorious Bowlers Return with Trophy but Lost Other Honors.

Bringing with them the silver cup, emblematic of the bowling championship of New Brunswick and Maine, the victorious Fredericton bowlers returned home by C. P. R. this morning from St. John. When they arrived at the station they jumped into an automobile and were taken to the home of Manager Thomas Powers of the Palace alleys, who, despite his illness, received them with enthusiasm. This afternoon the cup will be taken to a jeweller to have the inscription "Palace Alleys, 1920," placed upon it.

The final standing of the tournament follows.

FERGUSON KNOCKED OUT IN 8TH ROUND

Was Down 11 Times for a Total of 92 Seconds Before McTigue Stopped Him.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Halifax, N. S., April 23.—Mike McTigue, New York, knocked out Danny Ferguson, Philadelphia, in the eighth round of a bout scheduled to go fifteen rounds at the Armories last night.

Great gameness allowed Ferguson to last through the first part of the eighth, he being knocked down eleven times before he was out of the running. He took six counts of nine, three of eight and two seven, but he came back strong in every round, until finally knocked out for the full count with two stiff rights.

Ferguson shaped up well, his assets being his gameness and terrific right swings, but McTigue held him when he tried to get over his punch, and during the seven and a half rounds Ferguson was able to land only a few good stiff blows.

MAY DAY CHANGES ABOUT MARYSVILLE

Several Families to Make Changes—Lady Operated Upon for Appendicitis.

Marysville, N. B., April 22.—J. Y Mersereau, of Chatham, was the guest of Rev. J. J. and Mrs. Pinkerton Tuesday. While here Mr. Mersereau met many old friends.

Miss Blanche Dunbar was operated upon for appendicitis at the Victoria Hospital yesterday, and came through the operation successfully.

Mrs. J. W. Bubar is recovering from a very severe cold and is now able to be about her home.

Mrs. Francis Hovey's condition is considerably improved today.

The baseball boys are at work preparing the diamond for the coming season.

It looks as if we might have a good ball season, as efforts are being made to organize a league.

Frank Miller won the roll off Tuesday evening, capturing the fine brier pipe which was the prize for the week.

Mrs. Thomas Harris has returned from visiting friends at New York, Boston and Springfield, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge Harrison will occupy the newly renovated cottage belonging to the Canadian Cottons, Ltd., on Post Office street.

Charles McLean will occupy the cottage at present occupied by A. J. Lyons, and N. W. Langille will remove to the cottage now occupied by Mr. McLean.

Extensive repairs are being made to Water street, and when completed this street will be in first class condition.

PRESENTED GOLD WATCHES TO HEROES

Douglas T. Thompson and Martin B. Wilcox, Risked Lives to Save Drowning Persons

St. John, April 22.—In recognition of bravery the City Council today presented gold watches to Douglas Thornton Thompson, a returned soldier and a member of H. M. Customs, and Martin B. Wilcox, a stevedore, both of this city. Thompson, a customs examiner, rescued Berton McCabe, a five year old lad residing at 122 Brittain street, at 2 p. m. on October 19, 1919, from the water at the foot of Broad street extension. Although fully clothed he jumped overboard and rescued the lad from what would otherwise have been certain death.

Martin Wilcox, on March 7, 1920, at 7.30 p. m., in zero weather, rescued the second steward of the steamer Bilbster, who fell overboard at the West Side docks. Although it was pitch dark, Mr. Wilcox plunged into the icy water with all his heavy clothing on, located the drowning man, fastened a lowered chain about him and had him brought safely to the dock. A life preserver was thrown to Wilcox and, almost exhausted, he was got ashore. For several days he was confined to his bed as a result of his gallant act.

Both the recipients spoke modestly, thanking the mayor and commissioners for the recognition.

ZEALAND STATION, N. B.

Zealand Station, N. B., April 16.—The weather for the past few days has been quite fair, but last night and today it has rained continually.

Mr. Harvey Morehouse, who has been confined to his bed for over four months, we are sorry to say is not much better.

Mrs. Wilbert Morehouse is quite ill at present.

Our school has opened under the management of Miss Gorley of Tay Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. David Morehouse spent Easter Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hanson, of Middle Haynesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Brewer, who have spent the last year in Maine, have been called here on account of the illness of his mother.

Mr. Garfield Brewer, of Woodstock, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brewer, and expects to return in a few days.

Dr. C. McKay, of Fredericton, medical director of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment in New Brunswick, is at the Brunswick.—Moncton Times.

G. H. Trites, of Moncton, is at the Barker House.

WHY IS IT

that chronic skin diseases which have defied all other treatments yield to Zam-Buk?

It is because Zam-Buk is germicidal, and also has such power of penetration that it reaches disease in the underlying tissues and cures from the "root" up. That is the only way a permanent cure can be effected.

Mr. H. C. Buckley of 461 E. Broadway, Portland, Oregon, says: "For chronic skin diseases there is nothing like Zam-Buk. For fifteen years I had eczema, and I tried an endless number of so-called 'eczema cures,' but nothing was capable of curing me permanently until I used Zam-Buk. Ten months' use of Zam-Buk has effected a complete cure."

For ulcers, abscesses, boils, ringworm, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, scalds and cuts, Zam-Buk is equally good. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

"By my soul! Nigel," cried Sir Oliver, waving a great boiled ham over his head, "I have come by something which I may eat with my truffles! I had a hard fight for it, for there were three of them with their mouths open and the knives in their hands, all sitting agape round the table, when I rushed in upon them. How say you, Sir William, will you not try the smack of the famed Spanish swine, though we have but the brook water to wash it down?"

"Later, Sir Oliver," answered the old soldier, wiping his grimed face. "We must further into the mountains ere we be in safety. But what have we here, Nigel?"

"It is a prisoner whom I have taken, and in soth, as he came from the royal tent and wears the royal arms upon his jupon, I trust that he is the King of Spain."

"Nay, Sir Nigel," said Felton, peering at the prisoner through the uncertain light. "I have twice seen Henry of Transtamare, and certes this man in no way resembling him."

"Then, by the light of heaven! I will ride back for him," cried Sir Nigel.

"Nay, nay, the camp is in arms, and it would be rank madness. Who are you, fellow?" he added in Spanish, "and how is it that you dare to wear the arms of Castile?"

The prisoner was bent recovering the consciousness which had been squeezed from him by the grip of Hordle John. "If it please you," he answered, "I and nine others are the body-squires of the king, and must ever wear his arms, so as to shield him from even such perils as have threatened him this night. The king is at the tent of the brave Du Guesclin, where he will sup tonight. But I am a caballero of Aragon, Don Sancho Penelosa, and, though I be no king, I am yet ready to pay a fitting price for my ransom."

"By Saint Paul! I will not touch your gold," cried Sir Nigel. "Go back to your master and give him greeting from Sir Nigel Loring of Twynham Castle, telling him taht I had hoped to make his better acquaintance this night, and that, if I have disordered his tent, it was but in my eagerness to know so famed and courteous a knight. Spur on, comrades! for we must cover many a league ere we can venture to light fire or to loosen girth. I had hoped to ride without this patch tonight, but it seems that I must carry it yet a little longer."

CHAPTER XXXVI.

It was a cold, bleak morning in the beginning of March, and the mist was drifting in dense rolling clouds through the passes of the Cantabrian mountains. The Company, who had passed the night in a sheltered gully, were already astir, some crowding round the blazing fires and others romping or leaping over each other's backs, for their limbs were chilled and the air biting. Here and there, through the dense haze which surrounded them, there loomed out huge pinnacles and jutting boulders of rock; while high above the sea of vapor there towered up one gigantic peak, with the pink glow of the early sunshine upon its snow-capped head. The ground was wet, the rocks dripping, the grass and ever-greens sparkling with beads of moisture; yet the camp was loud with laughter and merriment, for a messenger had ridden in from the prince with words of heart-stirring praise for what they had done, and with orders that they should still abide in the forefront of the army.

Round one of the fires were clustered four or five of the leading men of the archers, cleaning the rust from their weapons, and glancing impatiently from time to time at a great pot which smoked over the blaze. There was Aylward squatting cross-legged in his shirt, while he scrubbed away at his chain-mail brigandine, whistling loudly the while. On one side of him sat old Josnston, who was busy in trimming the feathers of some arrows to his liking; and on the other Hordle John, who lay with his great limbs all asprawl, and his headpiece balanced upon his uplifted foot. Black Simon of Norwich crouched amid the rocks, crooning an Eastland ballad to himself, while he whetted his sword upon a flat stone which lay across his knees; while beside him sat Alleyne Edricson, and Norbury, the silent squire of Sir Oliver, holding out their chilled hands towards the crakling faggots.

"Cast on another culpon, John, and stir the broth with thy sword-sheath," growled Johnston, looking anxiously for the twentieth time at the reeking pot.

"By my hilt!" cried Aylward, "now that John hath come by this great ransom, he will scarce abide the fare of poor archer lads. How say you, camarade When you see Hordle once more, there will be no penny ale and fat bacon, but Gascon wines and baked meats every day of the seven."

"I know not about that," said John, kicking his helmet up into the air and catching it in his hand. "I do but know that whether the broth be ready or no, I am about to dip this into it."

"It simmers and it boils," cried Johnston, pushing his hard-lined face through the smoke. In an instant the pot had been plucked from the blaze, and its contents had been scooped up in half a dozen steel head-pieces, which were balanced betwixt their owners' knees, while, with spoon and gobbet of bread, they devoured their morning meal.

"It is ill weather for bows," remarked John at last, when, with a long sigh, he drained the last drop from his helmet. "My strings are as limp as a cow's tail this morning."

"You should rub them with water glue," quoth Johnston. "You remember, Samkin, that it was wetter than this on the morning of Crecy, and yet I cannot call to mind that there was aught amiss with our strings."

"It is in my thoughts," said Black Simon, still pensively grinding his sword, "that we may have need of your strings ere sundown. I dreamed of the red cow last night."

"I know not, young sir; but I can only say that on the eve of Cadsand, and on the eve of Crecy, and on the eve of Nogent, I dreamed of a red cow; and now the d ream has come upon me again, so I am now seting a very keen edge to my blade."

"Well said, old war-dog!" cried Aylward. "By my hilt! I pray that your dream ay come true, for the prince hath not set us out here to drink broth or to gather whortleberries. One more fight, and Iam ready to hang up my bow, marry a wife, and take to the fire corner. But, how now, Robin? Whom is that you seek?"

"The Lord Loring craves your attendance in his tent," said a young archer to Alleyne.

The squire rose and proceeded to the pavilion, where he found the knight seated upon a cushion, with his legs crossed in front of him and a broad ribbon of parchment laid across his knees, over which he was poring with frowning brows and pursed lips.

FARMERS, ATTENTION!

About May 1st, we, the undersigned, will be ready to start what will be known as the

Carleton County Woolen Mill

We will do custom carding of Farmers' Wool and will make it into yarn if desired. We have installed up-to-date machinery and will be able to give good satisfaction and return your work at an early date.

The roll for spinning at home we manufacture is in one long piece two or three hundred yards long without any splicing, which makes the spinning a great deal easier and faster.

Entertained at Bridge.

Mrs. J. B. Crocker was hostess yesterday afternoon at a very enjoyable bridge, cards being played at seven tables. Mrs. Walter Kitchen carried off the first prize, while Mrs. David Griffiths took the second prize. Mrs. Crocker is entertaining at tea tomorrow afternoon at her residence.

Returning to Old Country.

R. W. Lascelles, who came to this country a few years ago from England, and settled at Burton, Sunbury County, has disposed of his farm to T. H. Estabrooks, of St. John, and he and Mrs. Lascelles are leaving for St. John this evening to sail for England. They made many friends during their residence here who will regret their departure.

Drew Another Large Crowd.

The Fraser Memorial Hall was again last evening packed to the doors by an audience who thoroughly enjoyed the musical comedy, Bringing Up Father. As early as 7 o'clock people began to line up for admission, and when the performance began at 8 o'clock there was scarcely a vacant seat. The comedy evoked scream after scream of laughter from the rise to the fall of the curtain.

To Reside in St. Stephen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jinks are leaving this evening for St. Stephen, where they will reside. Mr. Jinks is a returned soldier, having gone overseas with the 26th Batalion. He was for some time attached to "K" unit in this city. He has been taking a course under the D. S. C. R. here and will finish his course in the gents' furnishing store conducted by A. C. O'Brien, also a returned soldier, at St. Stephen.

G. W. V. A. Dance Very Popular.

The dance last evening given by the ladies' auxiliary of the G. W. V. A. in their rooms drew another large crowd notwithstanding the many atractions. A programme of twelve dances and three extras was thoroughly enjoyed. The city orchestra played an excellent programme of music and many complimentary remarks were heard during the evening on the excellent music furnished. Mrs. W. E. Trites played the extras and Miss Maud Camp sang a solo which were greatly enjoyed. Mrs. W. C. Crocket and Mrs. W. H. Irvine acted as chaperones last evening.

Planning for New School.

Fletcher Peacock, Director of Vocational Education, stated this morning that at Sackville plans are being prepared for the extension of the High School Building or for a new Vocational School in order to supply the demand for more room in connection with Vocational work. Mr. Peacock returned yesterday from that locality and he stated that the matter had been brought up at a meeting of the citizens together with the Board of School Trustees and that the latter were giving the matter careful consideration and would report back to a meeting to be held early in May.

COURT OF APPEAL DISALLOWS APPEAL IN RANDOLPH CASE

The Order for Third Trial in Case Upset by Judgment Delivered Today.

MRS. FITZRANDOLPH THUS THE WINNER

Decision Probably Means that the Last Has Been Heard of Famous Case.

The Court of Appeal gave its decision this morning in the FitzRandolph divorce case, ruling against the recent decision which had been given by Mr. Justice Crocket granting an order for what would have been the third trial of the case.

The judgment of the court upon the appeal made on what is declared to have been "a fine legal point" raised by Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., for Mrs. FitzRandolph, after Dr. M. G. Teed, K.C., for Mr. FitzRandolph, the plaintiff, had secured an order for a new trial, was read by Mr. Justice White and concurred in by the court, the other members being Chief Justice Sir Douglas Hazen and Mr. Justice Grimmer, the latter being absent.

The case was first tried in 1918, when a divorce was granted by Mr. Justice Crocket to the plaintiff. An appeal was taken from that decision and a new trial with a jury asked; this was held in 1919, and the decision of the jury was in favor of the defendant. The plaintiff then appealed and Mr. Justice Crocket granted an order for another trial. It was on the appeal from that decision that the Court of Appeal decided today.

The decision today probably means that the last has been heard of the case, although there is, of course, the possibility of a new action being commenced upon new grounds. Mr. FitzRandolph has been residing in Montreal for some time, while Mrs. FitzRandolph is living with her sister in New York.

$20,000 PAID OUT OF EMERGENCY FUND

Grants from the Federal Emergency Fund will expire on April 24th for all married men and single men with dependents, and the Relief Committee of the Patriotic Fund, which has had these grants under consideration, was busily engaged last night in winding up the cases which came under the fund. Up to date $20,101.63 has been granted since the month of December, 1919, from this fund, as follows:

December, 1919	$ 235.35
January, 1920	3,240.58
February, 1920	5,403.60
March, 1920	6,976.66
April (up to date)	4,245.44
	$20,101.63

The increase in grants in January over the month of February is due to the fact that only two weeks in December were included in the time when the fund came into force. The grants for single men without dependents expired on April 10th.

The committee last evening also passed several applications for post discharge relief and several others were considered.

TUXIS CLUB FORMED.

The Boys of Christchurch Cathedral Organize Four Square Club with Good Membership.

The boys of Christchurch Cathedral met this week in the library of the Cathedral and organized a Tuxis Boys' Club. The objects of the club are fourfold—religious, educational, social and athletic— and the name given by the boys to their club is Cathedral Four Square Club.

The officers elected follow:

Mentor—Rev. H. H. Bulteel.
Pretor—A. Branscombe.
Scriptor—C. Wood.
Comptor—Albert Hanson.
Councillors—Harold Simpson and Nairn McCaffrey.

The club starts off with a good membership and at a meeting of the executive held last evening rules for the club were laid down and work for the season planned.

Hear Col. McMillan.

The public are cordially invited to the mass meeting Sunday afternoon in the Salvation Army Hall to be addressed by Col. McMillan. This is the colonel's first visit to this city and he will no doubt be greeted by a large and attentive throng of listeners as he is a most interesting speaker and his subject is on the great problems now confronting the world. His Worship Mayor Reid will preside.

To Reside in Mesopotamia.

Stanislaus Coveney left this morning for St. John and will sail this afternoon on the C. P. O. S. Minnedosa for Liverpool. After spending a few days in London he will proceed to Mesopotamia, where he will locate. Mr. Coveney was with the imperial army in Mesopotamia and has been visiting his parents in this city.

Miss Lannan, of St. John, is the guest of her uncle, ex-Ald. D. J. Shea.

ROYALTIES WILL BE COLLECTED ON SKINS AND FURS

Bill Making Such Provision Introduced Yesterday In Provincial Legislature.

WILL NOT CURTAIL OPEN SEASON FOR BIG GAME

But Some Important Changes Have Been Proposed for the Game Act.

The proposed curtailment of the open season for big game, which aroused strenuous objections from the New Brunswick Guides Association, has evidently been abandoned because there is no mention made of it in a bill which was introduced in the Legislature yesterday afternoon by Hon. Dr. E. A. Smith, Minister of Lands and Mines, to amend the Game Act.

However, the bill makes some radical changes, one of which is the placing of a royalty on all skins and furs of animals killed within the province. The amounts of the royalties is not set forth but will be determined by the Lieutenant Governor in Council and all pelts and furs will have to bear distinguishing tags which will be issued by the Game Warden or other official to whom the royalties are paid.

Provision is made in the bill for all dealers or others who sell furs outside the province to register and pay license fees, which are fixed at $10 for residents and $50 for all others, the licenses being renewable annually and not transferrable. A penalty of $100 is provided for failure to comply with the provisions of that section of the Act while the use of poison by trappers is prohibited with penalties set forth as fines of not less than $25 or more than $50 or imprisonment from one to three months.

Close Season on Beaver.

The bill provides for the extension of the close season on beaver to 1923 and gives the Minister of Lands and Mines authority to issue special licenses for the taking of beaver in streams, where it is found that a limited number could be taken without injuring the supply, for an increased fee. The bill provides also for the extension of the close season on sable. Provision is also made that licenses for game be accompanied by three tags, one for shipment of hides, one for the carcass and one for the head of the animal. A penalty not exceeding $25 and not less than $10 is imposed upon any persons for carrying rifles in the woods during the close season.

Provision is made whereby a ven-

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, April 24.—Old clothes or overalls will not only be worn on Sunday, but also worn in church. The first invitation to worshippers to wear overalls to church was extended by Erskine Presbyterians.

In the church notice published in today's paper for Erskine Church the concluding sentence reads:

At the evening service the text of the sermon will be that important question:

"What shall we wear."

KILLED HIMSELF TO FREE HIS WIFE

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Watsonburg, Colo., April 24.—That his 19 year old wife might be free, Dr. K. L. Clock, 57 years of age, killed himself yesterday, at Ravenwood, near here, where he was a mine physician. Dr. Clock wrote an explanatory note last night and then drank poison.

Mrs. Clock is attending a Pueblo boarding school. They were married a year ago.

PILGRIM DAY IN THE UNITED STATES

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Washington, April 24.—A resolution appropriating $400,000 for participation by the federal government in the observance this year of the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Provincetown and Plymouth, Mass., was adopted yesterday by the House and sent to the Senate.

REPARATIONS AND INDEMNITY

Allies United for Common Action Against Germany Now.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

San Remo, April 24.—A complete agreement with respect to the attitude the Allies shall adopt toward Germany in connection with the carrying out of the peace treaty has been reached by Premier Lloyd-George and Premier Millerand, it was stated here today.

The agreement was reached during a conference lasting three and a half hours between the two premiers. The French Premier left the conference room palpably brightened with the outcome. Premier Lloyd-George said:

"Everything is most satisfactory. A full agreement was reached in substance."

FRANCE IS SATISFIED WITH THE AGREEMENT

San Remo, April 24.—Members of the supreme council did not hold an official session this morning, wishing to discuss the German question and reach an adjustment of points of view before taking it up officially.

A consultation between Premiers Lloyd-George and Millerand lasted two hours and was reported to have resulted in an agreement on the essential points concerning the question of disarmament, reparations and common action by the Allies with regard to Germany. This agreement, it is understood, will be submitted to the supreme council tomorrow.

The Allies are reported to have decided to proceed as soon as possible to estimate the total amount to be demanded from Germany as reparation.

The German government, it is understood, will be authorized to make suggestions on this point through representatives who will be called later by the Allies with a view to conversations on the subject, which are likely to be held in Brussels.

Sir John Bradbury, the British member of the reparations commission, accompanied by the United States members, arrived here today to give information to the supreme council respecting the possibilities of coal deliveries by Germany.

BERLIN WEEDS OUT REACTIONARIES

Local Magnates With Historic Names Being Dismissed From Office.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Berlin, April 24.—The Government's process of weeding out reactionary elements from the provincial administration of Pomerania, and elsewhere, so far has resulted in the dismissal of 19 district councillors, all of whom were local magnates with historic names of the Prussian landed gentry.

The provincial governors of Hanover and Koenigsberg, and a half dozen others, including some chiefs of departments in the Prussian ministry of the interior, were also dismissed.

Canadians Must Pay In American Currency

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, April 24.—Notices were sent out yesterday by all United States railways sending goods to Canada that on and after May 1st next all consignments to Canada must be prepaid in United States currency.

This means an advance of about ten per cent in all goods imported from the States to Canada.

INCREASE PENSIONS CIVIL WAR VETS

Veterans to Get $50 Monthly, While Widows of Vets Will Be Given $30.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

CHARGE FRAUD IN THE THEATRE TAX

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Chicago, April 24.—Warrants were issued yesterday for six of the leading theatre ticket brokers in Chicago, charging them with defrauding the government of approximately $100,000 in war taxes during the past year. Two of the six are women.

INCORPORATE SHIP AS STOCK COMPANY

Ottawa, April 24.—Joint stock companies incorporated during the past week include eight vessels of the government merchant marine, each incorporated as a stock company, with a capital of $40,000 when ready for navigation.

WOOL AUCTION SALES.

London, April 24.—At the wool auction sales yesterday 11,700 bales were offered. Prices were firm, except for burry cross breds and inferior merinos, which were easy.

THREE MONTHS FOR REPORT ON GRAND FALLS

Amendment Passed When Bill to Enable Government to Act Come Up.

COMPTROLLER GENERAL'S SALARY MADE $3,000

Governor's Speech When He Prorogued the House This Afternoon.

This is the third day of the seventh week of the session and there have been more than 150 bills introduced, about 140 of which will have been finally passed before the House finally rises.

It was 11.15 a. m. before the House met today, the start being delayed over an hour because the clerk did not have his end of the work in readiness. When the Speaker finally got the business of the House in motion a bill was introduced by Premier Foster to amend the Audit Act so as to increase the salary of the Comptroller General from $2,400 to $3,000 a year.

Grand Falls Power Action.

The House then went into committee with Mr. Leger (Westmorland) in the chair and passed the bill relating to the Grand Falls Power Company, Ltd., with some amendments, one of of which set the time limit for a report on the situation to the Government at three months

The committee then agreed to the formal supply bills as well as those to amend the Vocational Education Act, to increase the sheriff's fees and to amend the act defining electoral districts. The latter affects only the counties of Charlotte, Gloucester and Northumberland.

The bill respecting the taxes on incorporated companies was amended so to fix the taxes to be paid by express companies on the basis of their offices in the provinces as follows:

Each city	$100
Each town	50
Unincorporated town or village of 2,000 population	25
Other office with agent employed.	10

The Increased Indemnity.

The bill increasing the sessional indemnity of the members from $500 to $1,000 was among those given third reading, Premier Foster announcing that the Lieutenant Governor recommended it to the favorable consideration of the House.

The bill to incorporate the Fraser Paper Co. Ltd. was also among those read a third time, also those providing a salary for the Minister of Health and the New Brunswick Power Company bill—all without a division.

At 12.20 p. m. the House took recess until 2.30 p. m., and announcement was made by Premier Foster that the Lieutenant Governor would attend at 3 p. m. to prorogue the House.

The Governor's Speech.

The Lieutenant Governor's speech in proroguing the House follows:

"Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly,—

"I thank you for the earnest attention which you have given to the general business of the session as well as to the many important matters which I have, from time to time, submitted to you.

"Important acts affecting the industrial life of the province have been submitted to you for consideration, and I am pleased to direct special attention to the act providing for the Generation of Electricity for Purposes of Light, Heat and Power.

"Other important measures include the acts relating to co-operation with the Federal Government in the construction of Permanent Highways, the act providing for the further funding of automobile receipts for the construction of more durable secondary trunk roads, and the provision for additions to the splendid permanent bridges of the province. I am pleased to know that the recommendations made by the committee appointed by the Legislature to consider the matter of increasing the salaries of school teachers have been embodied in amendments to the School Act which provide increased grants from the province and other sources. Much legislation has also been submitted to you from different municipalities, all of which, I am glad to note, has had your very careful attention.

"I thank you for the provision you have made for the important public services of the province, and in now relieving you from further attendance upon your legislative duties, I desire to extend to all of you my earnest wish for your individual prosperity and happiness."

"Defeated But Not Discouraged" by Vote

Immediately after the vote in the Legislature yesterday afternoon on the "bone dry" resolution a meeting of the executive of the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance, all of whom were present at the House, was held.

It was afterwards said they were considering "the next move," but further than that no statement was made as to any action to be taken. "We are defeated but not discouraged," was the comment of Rev. W. D. Wilson, chief inspector. "We must accept the decision like 'good sports,' remarked Rev. Mr. Boothroyd, the organizing secretary of the Alliance.

The Prohibitionists will now be able to turn their entire attention to the referendum on the provincial prohibitory law.

Clergyman Says Prohibition Will Destroy Freedom

Labor Party Oppose Ontario Referendum

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Hamilton, Ont., April 24.—The local branch of the independent labor party passed a resolution last night in opposition to the proposed referendum on the importation of liquor. The mover of the resolution suggested that Hon. Walter R. Rollo, Minister of Labor, who was present, be heard on the question, but the majority of the members present declared there should be no discussion on it.

MOONSHINGING IN EMERALD ISLE

The High Duties on Whiskey Leads to Many Evasions of the Excise Law.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Dublin, April 24.—High duties on whiskey have led to the continued practice of moonshining and revived the industry of illicit poteen making. The police hunt for secret stills is vigorous, and even the possession of the spirit is a punishable offence

A Monaghan who, who pleaded that the two glasses of poteen found on his premises were intended as a rub for his sister's rheumatism, has his defence disbelieved and was fined £100, but it was afterwards reduced to £6.

Official customs and excise returns show that in 1919 Dublin payments totalled £8,750,000, an increase of nearly £4,500,000 over the figures for 1918. This increase is due to higher duties and to the fact that in the latter year there was relaxation in restrictions on the quantities of beer and spirits allowed for consumption.

Figues for Belfast were a million less than that for Dublin, and showed an increase of only 20 per cent. over 1918.

ENDORSEMENT OF 2.75 PER CENT. BEER

New York Legislature Passes Bill to Legalize Sale of Such Beverages.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Albany, April 24.—The New York Senate early today placed its endorsement on 2.75 per cent. beer. By a vote of 27 to 23, minority leader James J. Walker's bill, designed to legalize the manufacture and sale of such beverage, was passed and sent to the assembly for concurrence.

Three minutes later, the anti-saloon league's enforcement bill, a measure patterned after the federal prohibition enforcement act, failed of passage, 21 to 29.

The bill of Senator Sutherland, Democrat, of King's, to legalize four per cent. beer and 12 per cent. wine, failed of passage, by 23 to 26.

The three bills were debated at the same time.

CITY OF QUEBEC BUDGET.

Quebec, April 24.—The City Council last night passed the budget for the year 1920-21, amounting to $2,178,957, an increase of $200,000 over the appropriation for the present year, and to provide for this extra amount the business tax will be increased from 12½ to 15 per cent.

WHAT GALLANT MEN FOUGHT FOR

Says Prohibition Would Be An Intolerable Wrong to People.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

London, April 24.—Proposing the toast of "the Imperial forces" at the anniversary festival of the licesend victuallers' school, Rev. B. G. Bouchier, Vicar of the Hampstead Garden suburb church, who recently returned from a visit to Canada, remarked that he had been honored with an invitation to be present because he had ventured to take a stand on behalf of one of the greatest principles which had been entrusted to our care—personal freedom.

"Prohibition, as I understand it," added Mr. Bouchier, "is a determined and considered attempt to attack and destroy one of the most cherished principles of free-born people. Surely our national character, of which we are mighty proud, finds its roots in good cheer and convivial company.

"Three-quarters of a million brave and gallent boys and men are lying in soldiers' graves. They died for freedom, and to introduce a measure of this kind at a moment when we are harassed by economic and political problems of a magnitude the like of which our nation had never known before, is to do the deal an intolerable wrong."

DAYLIGHT SAVING THROUGHOUT CANADA

Canadian Pacific Will Change Time Tables in Quebec Province to Conform.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, April 24.—Notification was sent out yesterday by the Canadian Pacific Railway that with the coming of the daylight saving time in Montreal and other Quebec points on Sunday, May 2nd, this time would be adopted at headquarters of the company and offices throughout the province. C. Norman Ham, secretary of the Express Association, stated also that the express companies were adopting the same plan.

K. OF C. TO ENGAGE IN LIFE INSURANCE

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, April 24.—Notice in given in the Canada Gazette that a license has been issued authorizing the Knights of Columbus, as a fraternal benefit society, to transact in Canada the business of life insurance. The chief agency of the society is to be situated at Saskatoon. A license has also been issued to the Workmen's Circle to transact the business of life insurance.

FOR DISTRESSED SEAMEN.

Ottawa, April 24.—In the House last night an item of $18,000 to pay examiners of masters and mates was passed with little comment, as was one of $12,300 to meet the cost of investigations into wrecks. The sum of $3,000 to provide for the temporary relief of distressed seamen was also carried.

STUTZ STOCK SETTLED FOR $550 A SHARE

Agreement Reached Today Between Stutz Company and Protective Committee.

TRADING IN STUTZ ON MARKET TODAY

Former Offer of Company to Settle at $520 Had Been Refused by Shorts.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York, April 24. — An agreement was reached today between Allan A. Ryan, Chairman of the Stutz Motor Car Company, and the protective committee organized to safeguard interests of 58 stock exchange houses under contract to deliver Stutz stock by which settlement with Mr. Ryan for $550 a share was arranged.

The settlement price was fixed at $425 a share, plus $85 for a 20 per cent. stock dividend, plus forty dollars for premiums for 20 days at two dollars a day.

When trading in Stutz was suspended by the Board of Governors of the exchange shares were selling at $331, and later odd lots were sold for more than $700 a share.

Immediately after the announcement that settlement had been made, bids on the curb where trading in Stutz opened with $550 bid and none offered, declined to $470 with none offered. The market reacted to the settlement by an upward trend of prices in the early trading.

Mr. Ryan previously had offered to settle with the traders short of Stutz at $520 a share, but he later withdrew this offer, which firms involved considered excessive, and announced it would not be revived.

The settlement followed several days of sharp exchanges between the committee representing shorts and Mr. Ryan, who it was intimated, had cornered Stutz stock. This he denied and said he had acted merely to protect Stutz stock holders against a "gang of raiders" who had attempted to beat the price down.

Wall Street authorities estimated the "short" interests involved three thousand to five thousand shares, which on the basis of the settlement price represented a loss to themselves of $750,000 to $1,200,000.

DAYLIGHT SAVING IN NEW ENGLAND

The Clocks Will Be Moved Ahead One Hour at 2 a. m. Tomorrow.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Boston, April 24.—Massachusetts and numerous cities in other New England States were preparing today to enter upon a five-month period of daylight saving. Time pieces will be moved ahead one hour at 2 a. m. tomorrow, in accordance with recently enacted laws.

THE QUEBEC SCHOOL SYSTEM CRITICIZED

Montreal, April 24.—Compulsory education of children in the province of Quebec was strongly urged by Prof. J. A. Dale, in an address delivered before the Montreal Branch of the Society of Chemical Industry at their annual meeting last night. Prof. Dale questioned the value of the only figures that are available as to attendance at schools in this province and he also complained of the lack of a census of children of school age, a thing, he said, that ought to, but does not, exist in this province.

Irishman Acquitted of the Murder of Lorry, Constable

The Lord Chief Justice Expressed Approval of the Jury's Action and a Great Demonstration Followed the Announcement of the Court's Decision.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

DUBLIN, April 24.—John Madden, charged with the murder of Sergeant Brady, at Lorry, Tipperary, last September, was acquitted in court here today, the Lord Chief Justice expressing approval of the jury's verdict. A remarkable demonstration followed the announcement of the court's action.

County Tipperary was placed under martial law for several months and markets and fairs were forbidden there in consequence of this murder.

MANY BILLS WERE JAMMED THROUGH

Supplementary Estimates and Teachers' Salaries Bill Are Included.

Absolutely without an equal in the modern history of the Provincial Legislature has been the rush of last minute legislation through the Provincial Legislature.

As soon as the "bone dry" resolution was disposed of yesterday afternoon the House went on with other business and bill after bill was disposed of until early this morning, some of them being of a highly contentious nature ordinarily, but with several notable distinctions they slipped along.

There was considerable discussion occasioned by the bill to carry out the recommendation of the commission on teachers' salaries and Dr. Crocket of York, pointed out that it was more of an equalization than an increase that was being made in the salaries. He made a strong appeal for support for the male teacher and several supporters of the Government voiced objections to passing a bill which made $700 the salary to be paid teachers who were willing to work for $600 and the marked increase in the school taxes which would be caused by the bill.

Supplementary Estimates.

Hon. Mr. Murray presented a message from His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, sumbitting the supplementary estimates, and moved that such message and estimates be referred to the Committee on Supply. The list follows:

Estimate of the sums required for the service of the province, not otherwise provided for for the current year:

Administration of Justice—
Rent, Law School, St. John ..	$ 500
Rent, Office of Chief Justice, King's Bench Division	150
Agriculture—
Butter and cheese factories—working capital, Madawaska Creamery	2,000
Exhibitions, grant to Gloucester County Exhibition, 75 p. c. of prize list	1,000
Limerock crusher and power for lime-grinding plant and equipment	12,800
Wheat mills, bonus, J. B. Leger, St. Mary's	500
Public Works—
Steam navigation, subsidies ...	800
Ferry maintenance and equipment	1,300
Department of Health, filing cabinets, etc.	1,000
Wharves, repairs	2,500
Colonization Roads	2,000
Imperial Press Conference ..	5,000

The House then went into Committee with Mr. Leger (Westmorland) in the chair, and took up consideration of the Supplementary Estimates.

Mr. Tilley, on the item of $12,800 for lime rock crusher and power, wanted to know if that sum was to be expended in addition to the $10,000 provided in the estimates.

Hon. Mr. Foster replied that it was.

Mr. Tilley thought it would be cheaper to buy the lime rock from one of the existing plants.

Hon. Mr. Foster said that after the plan worked out by the Hon. Minister of Agriculture had been given a trial, it would be for the hon. member to say whether or not the farmers were getting lime rock at a lower price than had been paid to dealers.

Hon. Mr. Foster, on the item of $5,000 for Imperial Press Conference made a brief explanation. He said the amount had been set aside to assist in providing entertainment for the members of the Conference when they visited the province. Lord Athelstan of the Montreal Star, was in charge of the financial arrangement. All other provinces of Canada were contributing to the fund. The party which would consist of about one hundred leading journalists, including Lord Northcliffe, would arrive in July or August and make a tour of the Maritime Provinces. He was sure that all wanted New Brunswick to do its part, and he trusted the grant would meet with approval of hon. members.

Hon. Mr. Murray introduced a bill to provide for the repairs and improvements to roads, and other public services; also a bill to defray certain expenses of the civil government of the province. On the ground of urgency these bills were read a second time.

The Grand Falls Power.

Hon. Mr. Robinson introduced a bill relating to the Grand Falls Co., Ltd. He said that the purpose of the bill already was well understood by the House. Under it power would be given the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to vest Grand Falls Powers rights in the Crown and to investigate all conditions surrounding it, also to appoint a commission to determine a fair price if the power should be taken over and to investigate the intention and the ability of the Company now possessing the franchise to proceed satisfactorily to develop the power.

The bill was given a second reading on ground of urgency.

Events of a Day In Parliament

Ottawa, April 24.—In the Commons: Lengthy debate on clause in Franchise Act as to appointment of returning officers and Hon. Mr. Fielding's amendment to said clause. Progress was reported at 6 o'clock.

Estimates of the Marine Department taken up. Item of $1,500,000 for maintenance and repairs to Dominion steamers and ice breakers carried. Two million dollar outlay for an ice breaker for the St. Lawrence river was sanctioned.

In the Senate:

Senator Lougheed informed chamber that the government was not even aware of the suggestion that Canada should be given a mandate over Armenia.

Debate on bill which seeks to compel merchants dealing in German goods to place signs over their doors was adjourned until Wednesday.

The chamber adjourned until Tuesday.

Dublin, April 24.—A new organization in Dublin, called the government of Ireland group, has been formed along lines of the home rule bill.

The "Bone Dry" Resolution is Beaten by Amendment, 22 to 18

Government Party Voted 17 to 6 for Amendment While Opposition Voted 12 to 5 in Favor of the Resolution—Resolution Aimed at Important Principles.

By a vote of 22 to 18 the Legislature yesterday afternoon defeated the resolution calling upon the Federal Government to bring on a referendum in New Brunswick on the question of the continuance of the present interprovincial trade under which importations of liquor for personal use is allowed, and passed an amendment which set forth that such a referendum should not take place until after the people of this province have pronounced in favor of the present provincial prohibition act.

Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, Minister of Agriculture, moved the resolution, with Mr. Peck of Albert as seconder, while Mr. Michaud of Madawaska moved the amendment, seconded by Dr. Campbell of St. John. The question was thus treated entirely as a non-party one, and the outcome was as generally anticipated, but the majority was not so large as expected. The vote, when analyzed, shows that forty votes were cast, the members of the Government party voting 17 to 6 in favor of the amendment, while the Opposition voted 12 to 5 in favor of the resolution. There were five absentees, two of whom were on the Government side and the three others on the Opposition side of the House.

There was only one member present who did not vote and that was Hon. C. W. Robinson, who took the ground that, being "paired" with Hon. J. A. Murray, leader of the Oposition, he was not entitled to vote on even non-party questions. One of the outcomes of his inaction was to make a 50-50 split in the Cabinet on the question. The galleries were occupied by an expectant gathering during the vote, which was preceded by short speeches by the movers and seconders of both the resolution and the amendment.

Plebiscite Now 18 Months Off.

Hon. Mr. Tweeddale, in moving the resolution, said in part.

"The Federal government, as a war measure, prohibited interprovincial traffic in intoxicating liquors and, since the cessation of hostilities, have rescinded the order, but along with it have made provision, by a statutory regulation, giving the people in the respective provinces an opportunity of making known to the Federal government their wishes in respect to interprovincial traffic in spirituous and intoxicating liquors. This is a recognition of the broad principles of democracy and takes away from the government the responsibilities of imposing what to some might seem to be an arbitrary law upon the respective provinces.

"In the Federal statutes providing for referendum it is necessary to have a resolution similar to this passed by the Legislature before the Federal government will hold a plebiscite. If this resolution was not moved in the House this session, a plebiscite could not be held on the question for 18 months hence.

"Attorney General Daniels, of the Nova Scotia government, gave notice of the resolution in the Legislature in that province as a government measure on the 16th instant.

"I am not going to undertake to use either argument or powers of persuasion. Every hon. member will be free to exercise his own judgment on the issue, and will be recorded in Hansard according as he votes for or against the issue.

"In my judgment, provincial prohibition is practically impossible of enforcement with interprovincial traffic in spirituous and intoxicating liquors permissible."

Mr. Peck, in seconding the resolution, said that it had been proposed by the New Brunswick branch of the Temperance Alliance and was cordially approved by a large number of clergymen and business men of the province. He considered it one of the most important questions at present agitating the public mind and he had much pleasure in seconding the resolution, the object of which was to give the people an opportunity to express their opinion.

Resents Federal Interference.

Mr. Michaud agreed with the mover of the resolution that all hon. members had the right to exercise their individual opinion on the question. He considered the matter an important one, not only for New Brunswick but for Canada. Personally he had always been a temperance man and had worked for the cause prior to the passage of the Intoxicating Liquor Act. Since that he had taken no part either for or against temperance and had not even appeared in court in connection with liquor cases. He was opposed to the resolution because it meant interference by the Federal Government in provincial affairs. Another reason for his being opposed to it was that he felt it would neutralize the effect of the plebiscite to be taken on the Intoxicating Liquor Act. Prior to the election in 1917 he had refused to commit himself on the question of prohibition but had agreed to do nothing to minimize its affects until such time as the people had pronounced upon the question. No appeal had yet been made to the people on the question and he did not think the result of the last election was a proper interpretation of the Intoxicating Liquor Act. He believed the people should have a chance to say whether or not they wanted prohibition before they were asked to say whether liquor was to be imported or not. He then moved the amendment.

Resolution "Put Cart Before Horse."

Mr. Campbell, in seconding the amendment, said that he had endeavored to look at the question from a constitutional and legal aspect. He had always been a temperance man in the best and truest sense of the term. As legislators they were not discussing total abstinence or the use of intoxicating liquors, but were to decide which way they were to vote on the resolution before the House. He noticed by the Dominion Hansard that when the question was before parliament strong and able opposition was made against the passage of the act. The controversy had been lengthy and numerous points had been raised, but he would only take time to refer to a few of them. It should be remembered that the act looked forward to prohibition of inter-provincial trade and only applied to provinces where the sale of liquor was prohibited. New Brunswick was one of these provinces and was about to decide the question by a plebiscite. Elections were always uncertain, and supposing the act was defeated where would the province be if in the meantime the electors had voted to prohibit inter-provincial trade. To use a common expression it would be a case of "putting the cart before the horse." It must be remembered that the plebiscite provided for by the Dominion act would have to be taken in federal electoral districts. That meant for instance that a vote could not be taken in the counties of York and Sunbury but in the constituency of York-Sunbury. He did not see how the representatives of Sunbury ould on the resolution before the House give expression to the views of the people of York county. He was hopeful that the points he had raised against the resolution would commend themselves to hon. members.

Yeas—Hon. Mr. Foster, Hon. Dr. Smith, Hon. Mr. Veniot, Hon. Mr. Dugal, Mr. Tilley, Dr. Taylor, Mr. Campbell, Mr. Carson, Mr. Magee, Dr. McGrath, Mr. Dysart, Mr. LeBlanc, Mr. Michaud, Mr. Leger (Gloucester), Mr. Mersereau, Mr. Smith (Sunbury), Mr. Melanson, Mr. Bordage, Mr. Robichaud, Mr. Leger(Westmorland), Mr. Sweeney, Dr. Crocket—22.

Nays—Hon. Mr. Byrne, Hon. Mr. Murray, Hon. Mr. Tweeddale, Hon. Dr. Roberts, Mr. Burchill, Mr. King, Mr. Young, Mr. Baxter, Mr. Potts, Mr. Peck, Mr. Smith (Albert), Mr. Pinder, Mr. Sutton, Mr. Grimmer, Mr. Smith (Charlotte), Mr. Jones, Mr. Dickson, Mr. Hunter—18.

Hon. Mr. Speaker declared the resolution carried as amended.

Should Pairs Count?

Hon. Mr. Robinson said that he had not voted on the amendment because he was paired with Mr. Murray (Kings) for the remainder of the session. Possibly that did not interfere with his right to vote, but as he did not know what attitude Mr. Murray

Legislature Voted 16 to 13 Last Night on a Bill Which Permits Dr. Gerrard to go On

Members for York and Sunbury a Unit in Favor of the Bill which is Fought in Committee Stage But Finally Passes.

The House in committee with Mr. Burchill in the chair last night took up consideration of a bill respecting the registration of dentists.

Mr. Sweeney said the law committee had refused to recommend this bill, and it was not often that a bill was referred back to committee of the whole under such circumstances. He had decided objection to the bill, which was not the kind of legislation wanted. The dentist society was composed of first class men, who were endeavoring to maintain and raise the standard of their profession. If the principle of this bill was right a man might be by legislation admitted as a lawyer, licensed as a teacher, or allowed to practice as a doctor without any qualifications. He believed that a man desiring to enter a profession should make some preliminary study. If there could be admission by legislation examinations of any kind need not be passed. Examinations evidently what was in the way in this case. He did not believe that the hon. member for York (Crocket) would want a man legislated in the medical profession.

Dr. Crocket—"It would not worry me a bit."

Mr. Sweeney said that doctors were just as jealous as lawyers or members of any other profession. Legislation of this kind would open the door to any one.

Bill Practically Pre-judged.

Dr. Crocket said he realized the difficulties under which any member must labor who suported a bill without the recommendation of the committee. It meant that the bill was practically pre-judged, but he was pleased to be able to say that the committee had not been unanimous. One reason why the bill had not been recommended was taht no credentials had been presented, anad it had been held that Dr. Gerrard had no credentials in England. One member of the dentist delegation had referred to him as an imposter. He proceeded to read an affidavit of Percy Harrison, of Gateshead-on-Tyne, England, to the effect that Dr. Gerrard had occupied premises owned by him prior to 1890. He also read a solemn declaration from Dr. Gerrard himself to a like effect. The bill was for the purpose of legislating William Gerrard on to the dental register exactly as had been done in 1890 with dentists practising in New Brunswick prior to that date. If Dr. Gerrard had been in the province at that time he would have been admitted. This man had begun as an apprentice at the age of 14 years. It was not fair to ask him to pass an examination at the age of 54 before a board of examiners known to be hostile to him. The opposition to him was the work of the small men of the dental profession. It could not be urged that if the bill was passed there would be a rush of dentists from Great Britain. The bill applied only to those practicing prior to 1890, and the majority of them would be about 60 years of age. This matter was purely a local one. The four members for York and the two members for Sunbury supported the bill. The persecution of Dr. Gerrard had been going on for some time, and last spring he served the sentence of ten days in jail rather than pay a fine of $30; it had been a matter of principle with him.

St. John Members Protest.

Hon. Dr. Roberts said he was surprised that the affidavit read had not been produced before the law committee. His own opinion was that there should not be two roads to any profession. It was essential that a standard be set and maintained. A Canadian making an application to be registered as a dentist in Great Britain under similiar circumstances would not receive consideration. He felt assured that under the circumstances if Dr. Gerrard should make an application for examination the special condition of his case could be taken into consideration, and his examination would be along practical lines. It would be better to do that than to upset the existing citizen.

Mr. Tilley said that the law committee of which he was a member had heard representations from 40 dentists from all parts of the province in regard to the bill. They had decided not to recommend it, and he thought it would be strange if the House should over ride the Committee's opinion and enact personal legislation for the benefit of one who failed to come up to the standard set by the profession. If they did that it would be useless to send young men to dental or medical colleges. He did not think the House should pass specific legislation for the benefit of any individual. If they did that it would be opening the door for almost any fellow who might come to the House and say he wanted to be adopted. The Law Committee after hearing both sides had decided against the bill, and its decision should be sustained.

Law Committee Differed.

Mr. Dysart said that as a member of the Law Committee he could not endorse the remarks which had been made by the previous speaker. He was sure that the affidavits read by the hon. member for York were genuine, otherwise he would not have produced them. The whole argument advanced by the Dental Society had been against Dr. Gerrard, although they pretended to be out to protect the interests of the people. Personally he did not know Dr. Gerrard, but had heard him very highly spoken of as a dentist. He had practiced in England thirty years ago, and should be placed on the same footing as dentists in New Brunswick who had been brought in under the Act of 1890 without examination. He believed on principle that such organizations as a Dental Society, in which control was placed in the hands of few individuals and was often arbitrarily used, should be given a check.

Mr. Leger (Westmorland) said if he were to consider the matter from a sentimental standpoint he would support the bill. While the hon. member for York had made out a good case, he (Leger) did not think that the Legislature should adjudicate on a matter of that kind. Different organizations were incorporated by the Legislature, and were empowered to compel candidates for admission to pass certain examinations. It would certainly not be logical for the Legislature to step in and over-ride one of its own laws. Should the House decide in favor of the bill, possibly he (Leger) who was quite expert as a tooth-puller, might during the next session make application for admission to practice.

Mr. Baxter said that like other hon members he approached the subject with a great deal of diffidence. Should the bill pass, it meant that Dr. Gerrard would be admitted to the Dental Society against the will of the members, and that, he thought, would be going too far. He did not think any dentist was injured by his competition. The fairest way might be to exclude him from the operation of the Act. He would then not be a member of the Dental Society, but would be immune from prosecution. He hoped the dentists would be broad enough to settle the matter.

Mr. Sweeney said it was amusing to see two members of two professions in the House practically repudiating the standards of their professions. The claim had been put up that Dr. Gerrard had practiced his profession in the old country. It seemed fortunate that he was not born in New Brunswick for if he had it would probably have been used against him. He did not think the Legislature should undertake to lower the standard of any professionn, of discourage those who were trying to raise that standard. If a lawyer were to be dismissed from the Barristers' Society for improper conduct, could he go to the Legislature and seek admission again? The Law Committee after careful consideration had decided against the bill, and that ought to settle the matter. He would move that the bill be given the six months' hoist.

Members for York Speak.

Mr. Pinder said that people were needed in the province, but if all were treated in the way Dr. Gerrard had been treated they would not stay long. He had practiced dentistry in Fredericton and was looked upon by the people of York and Sunbury as a first class man in his profession. So far as character was concerned, he would compare favorably with some men who were recognized by the profession. All dentists who came into the province from the United States and elsewhere prior to the passing of the Act were allowed to practice without examination, and Dr. Gerrard should have the same treatment.

Mr. Young said that no more was being asked for Dr. Gerrard than had been granted to those dentists who were made members of the Society in

Chairman For the Public Utilities Commission Has Not Yet Been Appointed

Government to Meet After Prorogation of House But There May Not Be Appointment In Time for Telephone Case to Go On Next Week.

The Provincial Government will hold a meeting this afternoon just as soon as the Legislature has been prorogued.

At that meeting, it was intimated today, there would probably not be an appointment made to the chairmanship of the Public Utilities Commission and it would therefore seem doubtful if there will be a chairman named in time for the New Brunswick Telephone Company's rate case to go on next Thursday, to which date it was adjourned.

It was further said today that under the present Act it is not possible to make temporary appointments and the suggestion that G. O. D. Otty, of Hampton, who has been chairman, might be reappointed to act at least until the Telephone case was disposed of now is impossible as there has not been a bill introduced in the Legislature to amend the original Act in that regard.

There seems to be a decided opinion that the new chairman will be a member of the legal profession, but that is about all that is so far known.

HOUSE TO VOTE ON DENTAL BILL

No Decision Reached About Dr. Gerrard When Noon Recess Was Taken.

The bill to amend the Dental Society's Act on behalf of Dr. William Gerrard had not been brought up for the third reading when recess was taken by the Legislature today.

Negotiations for a compromise were in progress all morning, but the last word was a telephone message from the officers of the Dental Society at St. John that they would accept no compromise but "demanded that there be a vote and that the names be taken."

Several members who voted on the bill last night in committee were absent today and there seemed much uncertainty as to the outcome of another vote.

The resolution of which Hon. Dr. Roberts had given notice will not come before the House, as sufficient notice was not given.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE REPORT

The report from the Committee on Public Accounts to the Legislature said:

"The matter of Immigration was carefully considered and in the opinion of your Committee the Province of New Brunswick should be more adequately represented in London and adequate publicity throughout Europe should be given our industries and natural resources; also the Department should send public reports and public literature to the Federal Immigration Office in Paris, as well as to London.

"Your Committee recommend that the members of the Public Accounts Committee shall not be members of other standing committees.

"Your Committee recommend the payment of fifty dollars to J. B. Dickson, the secretary."

FORTUNE LAVISHED ON "RED LANTERN"

New Nazimova Picture to Be Seen at Gaiety Theatre on Monday.

The expenditure of a quarter of a million dollars, costumes worth a king's ransom and the services of 1,200 persons, from director, scenario writers and art designers to an ensemble that embodied a small army in size, represent but a part of the tremendous outlay in money, time and effort given by Metro to the production of "The Red Lantern," in which the incomparable Nazimova appears at the Gaiety Theatre on Monday, April 26.

"The Red Lantern" is truly colossal when it is judged by the combination of the supreme artistry of its brilliant star and by the sumptuous environment provided for her and her supporting cast. It has the added value of being based upon one of the most talked of novels of the decade, "The Red Lantern," a romance of the ancient city of Pekin, from the pen of Edith Wherry, and published by the Bodley Head.

The total cost of producing "The Red Lantern" was, in round figures, $250,000. The time required to make it was three months; eight weeks in actual production and four weeks devoted to elaborate research work carried out by June Mathis and Albert Capellani, who made the screen adaptation and scenario and directed the production.

Nazimova's gowns alone—the splendid robes of state worn in the imperial court of the Manchus and the fantastic habiliments of the Goddess of the Red Lantern among them—were worth $75,000, and the costumes worn by supporting principals in the large cast and those of the hundreds of "extras" figuring in the palace scenes and the bloody street fighting scenes reproducing the Boxer uprising in Pekin at the time of the siege of the Allied legations in 1900, were worth $50,000. Real Chinese rugs used in the production represented a fabulous outlay.

REPEAL DAYLIGHT SAVING.

Albany, N. Y., April 24.—The Assembly yesterday passed the Fowler bill, designed to repeal the daylight saving law. The bill, which has already passed the Senate, now goes to the Governor.

J. A. Daniel, of Toronto, is registered at the Queen Hotel.

Miss Anna Thibodeau, of Boiestown, is spending the week end in this city, the guest of Mrs. J. H. Goodspeed, Brunswick street.

Mrs. Thomas Phillips, of Bangor, Me., is spending a few days in the city the guest of relatives.

GOVERNMENT CAN HAVE "SHOW DOWN"

The bill under which the Provincial Government have taken authority to bring about a "show down" on the development of Grand Falls was passed in the Legislature this morning. H. A. Powell, K. C., of St. John, representing the Grand Falls Power Co. Ltd., the present holders, being in attendance.

According to the terms of the bill, if the company can convince the government that it will undertake the immediate development of the power available and will also assent to the government regulation of the sale of the power, the company may be permitted to proceed, otherwise the government will take prompt action towards development on its own account.

The procedure outlined is action by order-in-council to vest the rights in the crown; report by the water power commission or other engineers on the power possibilities and development plans and by accountants and other experts on the value of the actual assets of the company; purchase by the government on the basis of this report or, failing an agreement with the company, reference of the appraisement to a committee of judges. In the event of the latter step being taken the government may either proceed with the purchase or report to the next session of the Legislature.

The preamble of the bill sets forth the history of the companies which secured rights of the falls and of their failure to develop the power. It sets forth that it is of vital importance to the province that this great natural water power should be developed and the interests of the people of the province should not be jeopardized by allowing the control of a public utility of such importance to remain vested in the control of one corporation to the exclusion of all other persons and corporations without any actual and bona fide development of such power, and that it is desirable and expedient in the interests of the province and in response to a universal public demand therefore, that power and authority shall be granted to the Lieutenant Governor-in-council to expedite the development of such water power.

Death at Acton Settlement.

William Hood, of Acton Settlement, passed away yesterday at his home in that locality following an attack of apoplexy. The deceased was 83 years of age and was a well known farmer. He is survived by four sons, Alexander of Queensbury, William C. of St. John, and James and Frederick at home, and by three daughters, Mrs. Thomas Thompson of Millinocket, Maine, Mrs. Charles Davis of Sherman Station, Maine, and Miss Melissa at home. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon, interment being made at Acton.

W. J. Ryan, of St. John, is at the Barker House.

France Agrees With Russia on The Free Exchange of Prisoners To Take Place Immediately

125 French Women and Children Are to Be Sent to the Finnish Frontier by the Soviet Authorities and in Exchange 3,000 Russian Soldiers Will Be Sent Home.

Paris, April 24.—Under the agreement relative to the exchange of resolution and French prisoners which has been signed at Copenhagen by M. Litvinoff and the French representatives, 125 French women and children are to be sent immediately to the Finnish frontier by soviet authorities. They will be released in exchange for the 3,000 Russian soldiers who have recently been landed at Odessa by order of the French Government.

The agreement also stipulates that all other French subjects held in Russia, without exception, shall be repatriated within three months by way of the Black Sea.

Contracts Subject to Tax.

Paris, April 24.—All Government contracts signed between July 24, 1914, and October 24, 1919, would be subjected to a tax by a Government bill ready for introduction in the chamber of deputies. The tax would be in addition t othe existing war profits taxes.

Under the proposed bill no such tax could exceed ten per cent. of the amount of the contract, and the tax would be graduated according to the total sum involved.

ANTI-SOCIALIST BILLS PASS IN N. Y.

Albany, N. Y., April 24.—The Walters-Fearon anti-socialist bills were passed in the State Senate last night. Under a closure rule adopted earlier in the day the debate was limited. The assembly passed both measures a few days ago and they now go to the Governor, who is expected to veto them.

Late Miss Alice Pond.

Miss Alice Pond, of this city, passed away at her home on Needham street at an early hour this morning. The deceased was a daughter of the late Moses and Drusilla Pond and was loved and esteemed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. She is survived by two sisters, Miss Tressa Pond, of this city, and Mrs. E. H. Emmerson, of Ellsworth, Maine. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Service will be conducted by Rev. G. C. Warren and interment will be made at the Rural cemetery.

Chief Secretary of Salvation Army.

Brigadier Moore, of St. John, divisional commander of the Salvation Army, is in the city today and Col. J. McMillan, chief secretary of the Salvation Army of Canada east, is expected to arrive in the city this evening. While here Col. McMillan will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Kilburn on Brunswick street.

Care of the Teeth

Is an investment in your individual asset of personal appearance, comfort and health. The opposite condition gives a disgusting appearance, foul and offensive breath, repugnant to all within its influence, and favors disease. We aim to save all teeth whenever possible, but useless ones are better out than retained in a condition of inefficiency and discomfort. THEIR REMOVAL IS ACCOMPLISHED WITHOUT PAIN BY OUR WONDERFUL PAINLESS METHOD.

Dr. Wilson:

Sir,—I enclose the twenty dollars owed you for work done for my mother. I wish to say that the work gives the very greatest satisfaction in every way and to thank you very much for the pains you took with it.

Yours very truly,

BRIDGE WORK.

Why not have those vacant spaces due to missing teeth filled in with Bridge Work? It is extremely durable and at our price is within the reach of all.

WE AIM TO PLEASE.

BEST SET OF TEETH $12.00.

No better made elsewhere no matter what you pay.

Careful attention is given to every detail of the work performed here by properly sterilizing all instruments and appliances used.

Dr. Wilson:

Dear Sir,—I feel I must express my appreciation of the dental work you have done for my wife. Not only for great skill and carefulness you exercised in extracting her terrible teeth, but for the lovely artificial set that you made for her. Both myself and all the family are delighted with the beauty and perfect fit. She has not had ten minutes' discomfort with them. Under your care no one need dread parting with their natural stumps. If I were asked to give a definition of your dental work, would say better than the best and cheaper than the cheapest.

Yours respectfully,

Nurse in attendance.

Come and have your teeth examined. It costs you nothing.

THE SESSION OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

The Fourth Session of the Seventh Legislative Assembly will be prorogued this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The session has been fruitful of some legislation of value. The water powers development measures were of first importance. The Government's general development measure, based on the Ontario Act, may have some objectionable features, but if the provisions are adhered to reasonably in the administration it should work out greatly to the advantage of the province. Cheap power and cheap lighting are essentials if we are to keep pace with the neighboring provinces in industrial enterprise and in agricultural development. If these are not provided, the fault will not be found in the Act. The measure dealing with the Grand Falls gives opportunities for negotiation, which may, as in the past, serve private rather than public interests. The process will be closely followed by the people who feel that governments were at fault in permitting the power of Grand Falls to go absolutely to waste for a long period of time, and that in the interest of a foreign corporation. The Act under which the Fraser Paper Company will develop another extensive enterprise, in this instance at the Tobique Narrows, is the most beneficial legislation of the session.

The measure fixing a salary for the Minister of Public Health meets personal requirements to some extent; and the increase of the members' sessional indemnity from $500 each to $1,000 was not an unexpected move in these piping times. The Teachers' Salaries measure is based upon the report of a Commission, which is not easily understandable, if understandable at all. This measure was, strangely, delayed until the closing hours of the session.

Supply provides inadequately for several of the public services, notably agriculture and education; but something approaching reasonable provision has been made for other services. The disinclination, or the inability, of the Government to fix and collect a reasonable rate of stumpage has made the situation very awkward in this period of development. The shortage of revenue does not permit reasonable appropriation for reasonable service, and yet there has been resort to a large measure of direct taxation while the lumbermen have been given stumpage at a price ridiculously below the market value.

The session has been interesting, some of the debates have been instructive, and the province is, perhaps, not much worse off than before.

A NOVEL TAX IDEA.

Governments all over the world are puzzling themselves how to get more money by taxes without doing more harm to anybody than can be helped. Tariff taxes, income taxes, profits taxes, estate taxes, business taxes, inheritance taxes, stamp taxes, amusement taxes, all have their advocates and their enemies. A proposition not entirely new in principle, but novel on the scale on which it is proposed, is made by a leading American banker, Otto H. Kahn, of New York, which could easily be made to get all the money any government might need, and would seemingly be both fair to everybody and without questionable indirect consequences. This proposition is that there should be a tax on all sales of goods, points out an exchange.

Mr. Kahn attacks the business profits tax and income tax, especially the former. He says these taxes, especially the former, militate against the prosperity and extension of industry. All taxation, he holds, falls ultimately upon the consumer, which of course is true more or less; so, argues he, let us choose a form of taxation if we can which, though it may fall upon the consumer directly, will have no side evils. Such a tax he sees in a sales tax. "Why not," he says,

"impose a small percentage tax, say 1 per cent., on all sale of commodities and products and presumably of real estate. Such a measure would be productive of an immense amount of revenue and would not be harmful to any one.

"The exact form which such a tax should take is debatable. It might be imposed on the seller according to the aggregate sales effected, the tax to be computed quarterly, semi-annually, or annually.

"Or it might, on every transaction, be paid by the purchaser, in which case it should not be included in the selling price, but specifically added to it as a separate item, probably best in the shape of stamps. Or it might be made applicable to retail sales only.

Mr. Kahn does not think business men would object, because they would simply add the tax to what would otherwise be the prices of their goods. And as far as the buyer was concerned, he would merely be paying in that fashion what he pays now in some other fashion, though sometimes he does not know it. The New York banker sums up thus:—

"A trifling sales tax on the huge volume of commodities changing hands annually would yield so vast a revenue that it would enable the excess-profits tax and practically all other abnormal business taxes (except, perhaps, the corporate income tax) to be eliminated, surtaxes on individual incomes to be greatly reduced, and Federal taxation of income up to, say, four thousand dollars to be abolished altogether.

"The result would be a great reduction in the cumulative percentages with which prices are now 'loaded' to meet taxation; that is to say, there would be bound to ensue a lowering of prices all round. Competition would see to that. If, contrary to all expectation and precedent, it should not do so, other agencies will.

"Another advantage of the sales tax is the great simplicity of its working and the definiteness of its application, especially as compared to the vexatious, uneven and unfair working of the excess-profits tax.

"Furthermore, to collect such a tax requires little expense, no complicated bookkeeping, no intricate schedules, no lawyers' and accountants' services, and no army of government employees. It can be increased or decreased in short order and without any resulting economic disturbance, according to the financial needs of the Government.

"If a 1 per cent. tax produces too much, it is a very simple process to decrease it by an appropriate percentage. If it produces too little, a small additional percentage will yield the sum needed."

As in both Canada and the United States at present, the national finances are showing enormous deficits, and tax receipts of some kind or other must be increased, it looks as though the sales tax idea might be advantageously tried. We have had it for a time in a small way in the shape of the stamp tax on various kinds of drugs and patent articles.

JUST 26 SECONDS TO DOUBLE INDEMNITY

The New Brunswick Legislature put on a new record for speed in passing legislation last night when the bill to double the sessional indemnities from $500 to $1,000 was put through.

Mr. LeBlanc of Restigouche was chairman of the committee of the whole House and despite the fact that he is an Acadian he read the bill through so rapidly that few of the members themselves realized the bill had been agreed until the chairman was starting on the new bill.

It just took 26 seconds to pass the bill. "What bill was that," drawled a sleepy member of the Opposition after it had been passed. "Don't mention it," returned one of the Government's supporters and the rest of the members joined in the laugh.

CIVIC ELECTIONS IN CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, N. B., April 21.—A large measure of public interest was manifested this year in the town elections, which took place on Tuesday last. Dr. Murray, who was elected mayor last year by acclamation and had filled that office for several terms in former years, was opposed in this election by W. H. Wallace, but was again elected by the largest majority ever recorded in a mayoralty contest in this town.

Of the eight aldermen who sat at the council board last year, seven offered for re-election and six were elected. The two new aldermen are H. J. Currie and A. C. Belleisle.

The town council for the ensuing year will be constituted as follows: Mayor, Dr. Daniel Murray; aldermen-at-large, John Devereau and C. Homer Matthews; aldermen for Ward 1, Henry J. Currie and Alphonse C. Belleisle; for Ward 2, Alphonse H. Ingram and T. N. Dickie; for Ward 3, John H. Bissett and Sydney H. Jamieson.

PROF. STOCKLEY REFUTES STORY

writes, that if this English militarism in Ireland is what we, soldiers, fought for, then

"By God, we're sold?"

Will you show there is more than wordy truth in Newman's: "An Englishman's repentance is greater than his sin."

Ask if Englishmen are not good Sinn Feiners, for England. Ask what English Sinn Feiners would say, and would do, if England were under an army of occupation, and a hostile government's armed police. Ask, why England supported Republican Polish Sinn Feiners, and would not compromise for even Dominion Home Rule for the Republic of Bohemia.

Ireland has asked these questions. Therefore, Ireland is full of Sinn Feiners who will not be answered, that only might is right. And, therefore, the tyrannous, and the unscrupulous, and the interested, hate and fear Sinn Fein, and hate and fear the English principles, so dinned into our ears of British justice and British freedom. Freedom! Justice! Alas!

"As slaves below, that under hatches lie,
Hear those on deck extol the sun and sky."

"Words, words, words": You have put points to our contempt, and on our sneering.

Sinn Fein is what England says, not what she does. "After her words, therefore, do ye; but, after her acts, do ye not."

We Irish know well that the rank and file of the English people care no more about Ireland either in fury or sympathy than if Ireland were distant as Timbuctoo. So it is said. And so we know. Therefore we are Sinn Feiners; that is, people who would mind their own business.

AMERICANS AFTER POTATO SUPPLY

Montreal Dealer Says Canada Is Being Swept Clean by American Buyers.

Montreal, April 23.—Are American buyers invading Canada in droves to buy up every potato that can be discovered? The assertion that they are doing so is made by local dealers who give this as the greatest reason for the high price now being paid here by the housewives for the family supplies.

"It is almost impossible to get potatoes anywhere in the provinces of Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick or Prince Edward Island now. The Americans have sent swarms of buyers into the Dominion and there are four or five men bidding for everything that is available. One United States buyer told us he had got five carloads at $5.75 per bag f. o. b. in Prince Edward Island; another said he had found eighty cars for Pittsburg at the same rate. I tried to get two cars for Montreal in Prince Edward Island. After a long time I got them at $4.75 f. o. b. there for a bag of 90 lbs. It costs about 75 cents per bag to bring them on to Montreal, making the cost here about $5.50. But the real reason why Montrealers are paying such enormous prices now is that the country has been swept clean of its crop by the Americans and so it has passed over the border."

"Papa," said little Horatio, "can you tell me what is natural philosophy?"

"Of course I can!" answered his proud parent. "Natural philosophy, my son, is the science of cause and reason. Now, for instance, you see the steam coming out of the spout of that kettle; but you don't know why or for what reason it does so, and—"

"Oh, but I do," papa!" chirped Horatio, knowingly. "The reason the steam comes out of the kettle is so that ma can open your letters without you knowing it!"

FROM THE PEOPLE

NOT OVERALLS NOW.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Please stop this overall stuff until our climate warrants lighter clothing. Bring the idea up, bring it up strong when warm weather comes, and watch the readers of The Gleaner follow you. —Yours,

COMMON SENSE.

St. Stephen, April 21, 1920.

BONUS AND WASTE.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Granting of bonuses to returned men at this time would certainly seem nothing more than a waste. Does the public realize that paying out a billion dollars for this purpose would at once enormously increase the cost of living at a time when we are told that the cost of living is about to decrease? What proportion of this billion dollars would be saved by the boys? Very little, indeed. Many of the married men would turn over to their wives a large portion of the bonus, only to be spent for expensive dresses and useless finery, and the men themselves would undoubtedly purchase at least a million not needed suits of clothes and millions of $10 and $20 silk shirts.

At this time we are constantly told from Ottawa and elsewhere to stop all useless spending.

Upon receiving this bonus numbers would very likely quit their jobs, and those unemployed would cease looking for work until they had spent the bonus money, whereas the slogan of the day is, "To work and save!"

By all means let our Government be more than liberal toward the wounded and disabled. But let us not squander the nation's money or increase the high cost of living with a new orgy of spending. I hope the people will do some thinking in the right direction. I have a son who was abroad four years, but is against all bonuses.

Yours,

CANADIAN.

Chatham, April 22, 1920.

CATS AND RATS.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Many years' close study of rat extermination prompts me to say a good word for puss. In the course of time (though I was enabled to invent numerous devices that would take care of the rodent) I found nothing so efficient as the household cat in keeping the ordinary home free from the pest. The rat's extraordinary sense of smell, quite equal to the fox's, is one reason he gives the cat a wide berth. Traps require great care in setting and disguising and the ordinary man has little time or inclination to bother with them. The farmer depends on his cat and cannot bother much with contraptions.

Many years ago Harrison Weir, the famous artist, lover of birds and author of All About Cats, tried to dispense with cats in his country seat "to save the birds." He was forced, however, to restore them to favor to save the birds' food, devoured by increasing number of rats. He declared, and my most recent experience confirms his opinion, that if we do not have millions of cats we would have billions of rats! Yours,

TEDDY.

Houlton, Me., April 21, 1920.

WICKEDNESS MAGNIFIED.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—A clergyman only continues a past practice in filling his church with a curious crowd by a recital of "sensational disclosures." The truth of the matter is that conditions as they actually exist are known to every person who is not continually asleep.

The lives of most of the city's inhabitants are far from immoral practices. If a person leaves his home in the evening and makes a determined search for vice he can find it in any place on earth where human beings congregate. It will, judging from the past, be impossible for the authorities to stamp it out entirely. When one method of concealment is discovered and remedied, another springs into existence. It is not a fact that vice has been removed from cities just because open districts have been disbanded.

Vice is a thing that must be fought mentally and physically by each individual and not by a few publicity seekers. The church should be a place for spiritual and moral advice with the weight of the words and deeds of its officials and laymen behind it as an example. When people follow the teachings of Christ, then vice will be overcome. Would it therefore not be better if a minister confined himself to inspiring sermons, leaving other conditions to be dealt with by the authorities appointed for that purpose? Yours,

FAITH.

Fredericton, April 22, 1920.

THE WHIRLWIND IS RIPE.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—To those who have been observing events since the armistice, there is no mystery in the damnably unwarranted strike of the railroad men in the United States. It is but the beginning of a red revolution encouraged and fostered by the Bolsheviki and the result of their propaganda, which the average American, owing to lack of vision and fatuous sense of security, has failed to recognize. We have been sitting in fancied security on the edge of a volcano which is about to erupt. Oh for a few weeks of Roosevelt!

Yours,

OBSERVER.

Beauty and Economy

is made—the colors being unfadeable, because they are the natural shades of the crushed slate used for the surface of this handsome roofing material.

Brantford Crystal Roofing is also a very economical roof. It is moderate in cost, can be very rapidly laid, and is a permanent material that is completely non-absorbent and therefore proof against the weather.

Note the extra heavy weight—80 to 85 lbs. per square; that means extra long life.

Suitable for homes, stores, factories, garages, churches, schools — all buildings on which an artistic yet economical roof is desired.

$2,100 Salary For Minister Of Health Passed by 17 to 10

Hon. Dr. Baxter Objects to Government Proposal and Suggests that There Be an Amalgamation of Several Departments of the Government.

The House in committee last night took up consideration of a bill to amend an Act respecting the Executive Council. This bill provides a salary of $2,100 for the Minister of Health.

Mr. Baxter said the Opposition did not take any stand against the proposal that the hon. Minister of Health should submit himself to the people. He believed it only right that any Minister upon taking charge of a department, which was expending public money, should go to the people for their approval. He could not say, however, that the Opposition approved of the payment of a salary to the Minister of Public Health. The Public Accounts of last year showed that less than $28,000 had been handled by that department, and less than $31,000 was in the estimates for the coming year. He could not think that interests of the county required that a Minister on full salary was necessary to look after the expenditure of less than $31,000. On both sides there was a feeling that members of the government were underpaid. That was no reason for adding another Minister to the list, but it was a cogent reason for the consolidation of several departments. He thought the duties of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer might be distributed among other departments without disadvantage to the country.

An Attorney General, Dr. Baxter said, was necessary, but was entitled to more than $2,100 a year. A Minister of Lands and Mines and a Minister of Public Works were also needed. He did not think that the Department of Agriculture called for a Minister who did nothing else. If they must have a Minister of Health, the department might be consolidated with that of Agriculture. He thought the departments should be carried on by a smaller number of better paid Ministers. It was an accident that the government had in its ranks a member of the medical profession to take charge of the Department of Health, but that might not always be the case. The next House might be without a medical practitioner, but he would not like to say that there would not be a farmer among the members. It might be to the advantage of the province to have a practical farmer in charge of the Department of Health. Such a man would no doubt provide good solid material for the public health. The opposition had not objected to Dr. Abramson, who was a good man, but it did object to medical inspectors running about the country in the interests of public health. He did not think the office of the Minister of Health was worth a salary of $2,100.

Mr. McGrath said he thought it might be more desirable to have the Minister of Agriculture act as Attorney-General, as he felt sure he would do better in that position than he would presiding over the Department of Health.

Mr. Pinder wanted to know where the government proposed to raise the $2,100. He thought a bond issue might be necessary.

A motion to adopt the bill was carried by a vote fo 17 to 10.

TRAIL CRIMINALS WITH AEROPLANES

Winnipeg, April 23.—Escaped criminals from Manitoba jails will in future be trailed by aeroplanes, Lieut.-Col. J. G. Rattray, chief of the Manitoba Provincial Police, has decided. In making the announcement, Col. Rattray stated that it would be possible in this way to trace prisoners across country not yet served by railways. Arrangements have been made for a local aeroplane company to hold a plane at the disposal of the provincial police department should the need arise.

THE "BONE DRY" RESOLUTION LOST

would have taken on the question he thought it only fair that he should refrain from voting.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that the fact that an hon. member was paired did not interfere with his right to vote on a private question.

Mr. Potts said that it had always been customary for members when paired to refrain from voting on any question. He was not inclined to accept the opinion of the Minister of Public Works on the question but would like a ruling from the chair.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that when two members pair it only meant that they were to abstain from voting on questions which concerned the Government. It was absurd to say that they did not have the right to vote on other matters.

Mr. Baxter said that when members on opposite sides were paired it meant that they would abstain from voting on questions which involved the downfall of the ministry. If the agreement were extended to private questions it would be impossible for a member to cast a vote on a private bill. He thought the Minister of Public Works was absolutely correct.

Hon. Mr. Speaker, referring to the question raised by the member for St. John (Potts) said that the hon. member for St. John county had expressed his views must beter than he could.

Mr. Sweney rose to a question of privilege. He said the member for St. John no doubt ahd reference to him when he questioned the right of those who were paired on vote on the prohibition resolution. He (Sweeney) was paired with Mr. Guptill and he did not want the insinuation thrown across the floor that he was taking advantage of Mr. Guptill by voting in his absence. He had attempted to make an explanation when the matter was under discussion but had been ruled out of order.

Hon. Mr. Speaker said that the hon. member had been ruled out of order for the time being because the chairman of the corporations committee had the floor.

Mr. Potts said that the hon. member from Westmorland was paired for the season and he did not think he had the right to vote. With all due deference to the member for St. John county, he did not agree with the opinion he had expressed.

THE LEGISLATURE VOTED 16 TO 13

1890 without examination. The doctor was almost a stranger to him, but he knew that he had a large practice in York and Sunbury and all spoke favorably of him.

The Committee divided on the amendment which was lost by a vote of 20 to 11. The Chairman, in reply to Mr. Tilley, who asked that the names be recorded, said it could only be done when the bill came before the House for a third reading.

The Committee agreed to the bill by a vote of 16 to 13.

"Masters of the Road"

Superb AND Supreme

¶ The measure of mileage you expect to get from an automobile tire is exactly the measure we are prepared to give you in Dunlop Cord Tires.

¶ Dunlop Tires are thoroughly "thought out" in the Scientific Research Department, then they are thoroughly "tried out" on the road. You, as a tire buyer, get the Final Result.

¶ The new ideas we have evolved from world-wide collaboration with Dunlop Master Tire Builders have worked wonders in tire construction.

¶ Every other make of tire has suffered in comparison with Dunlop in a test of endurance; and that means foreign-made tires as well as Canadian-made.

¶ And just as Dunlop Cord Tires, wherever you go, are being awarded the palm as "1920's best," so, right across Canada, our 1920 sales figures are registering the definite approval of motorists in decidedly unusual increases.

¶ When you buy Dunlop Tires you buy from the world's greatest rubber organization, whether the comparison is in technical knowledge, area of plants, financial resources, etc.

¶ Our new million-and-a-half-dollar factory is now nearing completion. It will be exclusively devoted to the manufacture of Dunlop Cord Tires — "Traction," "Ribbed."

and other wounds and sores on horses and cattle. It will also cure Eczema, Burns, Bruises, Ring Worm, or Run-round, Open Sores, etc. The best results will be obtained if the sore is first washed with NATIONAL DISINFECTANT.

NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE has been used for years by some of the largest Lumbering Concerns, and Railroad Contractors. OUR GUARANTEE: "We will see that your money is refunded if National Liquid Gall Cure does not cure any ailment for which it is recommended as quickly as the purchaser thinks it should." And we have never had to make a refund. Below are two testimonials given voluntarily:—

Estey & Curtis Co., Ltd.,
Hartland, N. B.

Gentlemen,—I have been selling and using NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE for a number of years. Always under guarantee. Have never heard a complaint and sale has steadily increased. I am convinced that for what it is recommended for, it is far superior to anything on the market.

I seldom have a call for other sort of GALL CURE and never from one who has tried it.

Last summer I sold a number of bottles to River Drivers to use on sore feet.

Yours truly,

Harness Maker, Etc.

Estey & Curtis Co., Ltd.,
Hartland, N. B.

Gentlemen,—I have been asked by our local dealer to give my opinion of NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE and have no hesitation in saying that for scratches and other wounds on horses it has no equal. It is also an excellent remedy for water scalds on men's feet.

As foreman on lower section of St. John River Corporation Drive I have seen much suffering from this cause and in all my thirty-five years' experience on drives have never known anything to cure scalds on a man's feet while he continued to work in the water till last summer, when I saw NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE tried with perfect results.

Yours truly,
(Sgd.) ALEX. McCORQUINDALE,
Hawkshaw, N. B.

Entertained a Number of Carleton Co. School Teachers

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Saunders Gather Former Teachers of Carleton County at Their Calgary Home and Delightfully Entertain Them—Some of Those at Gathering.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Woodstock, April 24.—Mr. and Mrs. H.P. Saunders, of Calgary, Alta., formerly of Woodstock, entertained a number of school teachers from Carleton county very delightfully at their home on Friday evening, April 9th. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Lunn and baby son, Gordon; the Misses Pearl Raymond, Lottie Kilpatrick, Loraine Blue, Helen and Alice Giberson, Lillian Shaw, Annie and Katie Graham and Edna Blackmore. Solos rendered by Mrs. Lunn were greatly appreciated. After a delicious luncheon the guests departed, all declaring Mr. and Mrs. Saunders to be royal entertainers.

Watts Lodge, No. 95, I.O.O.F., of McAdam Junction, will pay a fraternal visit to Carleton Lodge, No. 41, I.O.O.F., on Monday evening, April 26th, to confer the initiatory degree on ten candidates.

Make Good Recovery.

Mrs. Daisy DeLong, who has been recently operated on at the Fisher Memorial Hospital in Woodstock for tonsillitis, is recovering at her home in Springfield, Carleton county.

The friends of Dean Shaw, of Simonds, Carleton county, who underwent a surgical operation at Dr. Prescott's Hospital last week, will be pleased to know he is making a good recovery.

James W. Gallagher is confined to the house this week with rheumatism and a heavy cold.

There was a meeting of the executive of the reorganized G.W.V.A. in the offices of Dr. Daman on Wednesday evening, the president, Rev. F. M. Lockary, in the chair, and all the members present. Until such time as the armory is ready for occupancy by them as a clubroom, meetings will be held in other offices. The K. of P. have kindly loaned their rooms for the first regular meeting and smoking concert, which will be held at 8.30 on Tuesday evening, April 27.

Personal Notes.

C. F. Gallagher, of Bath, who was here on a business visit, returned home on Monday.

Miss Georgia Britton has returned to Presque Isle after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Bailey returned this week from a trip to Ottawa.

Mrs. G. E. Tracy and Miss Alice Tracy, after spending the winter in Houlton, have returned to their summer cottage at Richmond, Carleton county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ellsworth have arrived at their former home here, having spent the greater part of the winter in Nova Scotia. After visiting here a few weeks they will return to St. John.

Funeral Services.

The funeral of John Cronkhite, a highly respected and well known farmer of Northampton, took place on Tuesday afternoon, attended by Rev. L. E. Ackland, with burial in the Woodstock cemetery. He leaves a widow, five sons and one daughter.

The funeral of Mrs. W. N. Dyer, of Bath, occurred on Monday in that village. Deceased was aged 67 years and eight months. She was the daugter of the late John and Abigail DeMerchant and is survived by her husband and five brothers—Clement, Geo. and Edward, of Bath, Norman, of Up. Kent, and Jerry, of North Tilley, Victoria county.

Mountain Grown Orange Pekoes are Best

So there are poor Orange Pekoes and those of fine quality. Low price and high price.

The best Orange Pekoes are plucked from tea bushes grown from selected seed in the carefully cultivated soil of mountain side gardens, and gathered at a certain time of the year when the flavor is most fully developed in the leaves.

Naturally these command the highest price.

They are worth it, as you will agree when you taste their exquisite flavor in our Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea---the new and higher priced tea for those who are willing to pay a little extra price for a tea of extra quality.

There are numerous packages of Orange Pekoe teas on the market. See that the one you buy has the name---Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea---on our waxed board carton.

SWEDEN WINS IN OLYMPIC HOCKEY

Canadians Will Play Their First Game at Antwerp This Evening.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Antwerp, April 24.—Sweden defeated Belgium in the first game of the Olympian hockey tournament last night, the score being 8 to 0. The winner will meet the French team on Sunday afternoon, France having drawn a bye in the first round.

The Falcons of Winnipeg, who are upholding the honor of Canada at the big international tournament, will face the Czecho-Slovakia team tonight. Switzerland and the United States are to compete this afternoon. The semi-finals, between the winners of this afternoon's and tonight's games, and the victors in the Sweden-France match, will be held tomorrow, and the final match for the Olympic championship will take place Monday night.

Rearrangement of the line-up of the American team has been made necessary because the rink is too narrow to accommodate four forwards, and the position of rover will be middle defence.

The McCormack brothers and Drury are former Canadians and got their early hockey training in Ontario.

BASEBALL LEAGUE HERE A SURE THING

That Fredericton will have some good clean snappy baseball during the coming summer was assured when a representative gathering of those interested in the game met at the Y.M.C.A. last evening. Representatives from the town of Marysville were on hand to back up the proposition of a four or five team league, and while there were no other teams represented outside of that from the Y.M.C.A. itself it was due in a large part to the weather.

John Walker, president of the Y.M.C.A. Athletic Association, was appointed chairman for the occasion and a live discussion arose over the formation of a league in this city. Remembering the experiences of last year, the players present thought it would not do to have too many teams in the League, as this would lessen the interest in the game among the sporting public. The Marysville representatives present stated they were already prepared to go ahead as they had a team practically formed. By reports from those present it was ascertained that both Devon and Nashwaaksis were willing to enter the league. Other teams who had shown their intention to enter, but who were not represented at the meeting, were the John Palmer Co. and the Palace Bowling Alleys. These, with the Y.M.C.A. team ,would make a six-team league, but it was thought by those attending that the clubs of Devon and Nashwaaksis might favor the idea of a combined team from the over-the-river locality. This they thought would provide for better teams and better baseball and would undoubtedly create more interest in the game than a six-team league.

Because of the fact that only the two teams were represented it was suggested that a committee be appointed to get in touch with representatives of the various teams mentioned and have them assemble at the Y.M.C.A. on Wednesday of next week for the purpose of organizing a league. Acting upon the suggestion, the chairman appointed a committee of four, W. P. Keenan, Trafford Donovan, Hayward Paynter and Sandy Staples, to undertake the work and to impress upon the representatives referred to that the organization of the league would take place on Wednesday evening at the "Y" building. The matter of a trophy was then introduced by Sandy Staples, but this will stand over until some definite information has been secured as to the number of teams that will form the league.

Physical Director Cochrane announced that he had got in touch with the Y.M.C.A.'s at St. John and Moncton and that, while they were strongly in favor of having a provincial league of the three teams, they felt that if that could not be arranged for they would at least have a play-off for provincial championship honors. Reference was also made to the fact that several outside teams had written stating they were willing to enter a York County League, but these letters were stood over until a larger representation was present.—W. Has Arrived at Parlor Track With String of Six Horses to Train.

The Chatham Gazette says:

"Mr. Boutilier has come to the Chatham track from Bathurst with afine string of horses, and is starting their summer's training at the Chatham race track.

"At present there are six horses in Mr. Boutilier's string, but he expects to have some more arrive here a little later, and the Chatham paddock will be a pretty lively horse centre.

"In the list of horses at present training here are the celebrated John A. Hal, 2.03½, who holds the provincial record, made on the Chatham track; also Lacopia, the Great, green two-year-old colt, Will Be Sure, 2.24¼, The Northern Lady, a green one, and also a green pacer imported from North Carolina."

"They beat anything I ever tried"

"I have been using Planet Jr Horse Hoes for several years," writes C. R. Mote, Carrolton, Ga., "and they beat anything I ever tried. I just can't get along without them."

Planet Jr farm and garden implements get high praise from users because they produce bigger, better crops with less work. Their quick, easy, telling results are the product of over 45 years actual farming and manufacturing experience. Planet Jr tools last a lifetime—every one fully guaranteed.

Planet Jr

No. 8 Horse Hoe and Cultivator does a greater variety of work and does it more thoroughly than any other cultivator ever made. It has stronger, better construction. Its depth regulator and extra-long frame make it steady-running. Adaptable to deep or shallow cultivation and to different widths. 15 other styles of one-horse cultivators—various prices.

No. 4 Planet Jr Combined Hill and Drill Seeder, Wheel-Hoe, Cultivator and Plow does the work so quickly, easily and thoroughly that it pays for itself in a single season. Sows all garden seeds (in drills or hills) plows, opens furrows, and covers them, hoes and cultivates all through the season.

Stop in and see them.

New Standards of Value

$1365 F.O.B. CHATHAM WAR TAX EXTRA GRAY-DORT

Gray-Dort has brought peace-time standards of value to the motor car business. Greater value than the light car has heretofore offered. $1365 brings you a car comparable with those costing several hundred dollars more.

LOOK FOR THESE THINGS IN THE CAR YOU BUY

The Gray-Dort motor is big enough for its job—not stunted—3½" bore and 5" stroke—with big water jackets and a big, honeycomb radiator. The crankshaft is husky—many pounds heavier than other builders of light cars think necessary. The pistons are extra-light and three-ringed. Special design prevents valve-warping. High-carbon steel gives toughness to moving parts.

The whole chassis parallels the motor in quality. Heavy frame of channel steel. Husky rear axle, Chatham-built. Long springs, cantilever in the rear, and built here under our inspection. The big brakes now have Thermoid lining. A new steering gear, 50% larger and stronger than the light car standard.

The Gray-Dort is as pleasing to the artist and to the driver as it is to the mechanic.

The smooth lines of the body are restful after so much of the extreme in present-day cars. The Gray-Dort finish, development of 60 years' coach-building, will win your instant, and lasting approval. Add the smartness of French-pleated upholstery, and a new top, tailored in our own shops.

The big gasoline tank is now in the rear—for good-looks and convenience. As in big cars, the emergency brake is on a lever, the side-curtains open with the doors. A shorter, smarter cowl gives more room in the driving compartment. The new hood, with its many long, narrow louvres has a touch of European smartness.

AND YET THE PRICE IS $1365, (PLUS WAR TAX)

You know that such a car as the Gray-Dort will be in heavy demand at $1365. We have doubled our production this year. But there is likely to be a shortage. See the Gray-Dort dealer now.

PRICES

The Gray-Dort 5-passenger car, finished in Gray-Dort green and black and with standard equipment is $1365 f.o.b. Chatham. War tax extra.

The roomy 2-passenger roadster is the same price.

THE GRAY-DORT SPECIAL

For the man who wishes something a little extra in his car, we have built the Gray-Dort Special. Maroon body, with brown rayntite top. Plate glass rear window. Gipsy curtains. Rookie tan wheels. Motometer. Tilting steering wheel. Real leather upholstery. Mahogany instrument board. Just the touches which lift this car above the ordinary. $150 extra on the standard.

AND THE ACE!

The Gray-Dort Ace—the most beautiful light car of to-day. Sapper green body with handsome California top to match.

Trouble Lamp and bull's-eye flashlight. Electric cigar lighter. Rear-vision mirror. Plate glass windows. Oversize, grooved-tread tires. This is the de luxe car for the man who does not wish to pile up a tremendous operating cost. $255 extra on the standard.

STORAGE BATTERY SERVICE

Your Shield of Defense—

Give Your New Car a Fair Start

WHEN you drive out of the salesroom, drive in here for a battery test and a freshening charge—at no cost to you.

Many battery troubles are started in the early days of the car's active life. Batteries often lose some of their power in transit, owing to traffic delays and other causes. Sometimes, too, the car starts out with its generator sufficiently out of adjustment to cause serious damage to the battery if allowed to run any considerable length of time.

We will check this up for you, give you the correct charging rate for your generator, and start you off right.

It is the aim of Prest-O-Lite Service to provide such storage battery service that there need not be a stalled or dimly lighted car from coast to coast.

GOOD HEALTH IS MAGNETIC

All Admire Strong, Robust, Healthy, Vigorous Men and Women

If You Are Weak, Run-Down and Ailing, Let Vinol Enrich Your Blood and Create Strength and Vitality for You

For the weak, run-down, anaemic, over-worked, ailing men and women there is little joy in life. It is easy to drift into this condition, over-work, a neglected cold, or a severe sickness may have left in its wake, poor, thin, devitalized blood, a sluggish circulation, no vitality and you are simply dragging around from day to day, getting up each morning just as tired as you went to bed.

Now, why not change all this by taking advantage of your druggist's guarantee that VINOL will enrich your blood, quicken your circulation and carry strength and vigor to every part of your body, or return your money if it fails. Mrs. W. J. Nixon, of Yankleek Hill, Ont., says: "I was sick for months. I had no appetite and could not seem to get my strength back. I told my doctor I was going to try VINOL, and he said it was fine. I found it gave me a good appetite and I rapidly gained in strength."

For all run-down, nervous, anaemic conditions, weak women, over-worked men, feeble old people and delicate children there is nothing like VINOL.

"It came this morning by the princes' messenger," said he, "and was brought from England by Sir John Fallislee, who is now come from Sussex. What make you of this upon the outer side?"

"It is fairly anad clearly written," Alleyne answered, "and it signifies To Sir Nigel Loring, Knight Constable of Twnham Castle, by the hand of Cristopher, the servant of God at the Priory of Christchurch."

"So I read it," said Sir Nigel. "Now I pray you to read what is set forth within."

Alleyne turned to the letter, and, as his eyes rested upon it, his face turned pale and a cry of surprise and grief burst from his lips.

"What, then?" asked the knight, peering up at him anxiously. "There is nought amiss with the Lady Mary or with the Lady Maude?"

"It is my brother—my poor unhappy brother!" cried Alleyne, with his hand to his brow. "He is dead."

"By Saint Paul! I have never hear that he had shown so much love for you that you should mourn him so."

"Yet he was my brother, the only kith or kin that I had upon earth. Mayhap he had cause to be bitter against me, for his land was given to the abbey for my upbringing. Alas! alas! and I raised my staff against him when last we met! He has been slain—and slain, I fear, amidst crime and violence."

"Ha!" said Sir Nigel. "Read on, I pray you."

"God be with thee, my honored lord, and have thee in his holy keeping. The Lady Loring hath asked me to set down in writing what hath befallen at Twnham, and all that concerns the death of thy ill neighbor the Socman of Minstead. For when ye had left us, this evil man gathered around him all outlaws, villains, and masterless men, until they were come to such a force that they slew and scattered the king's men who went against them. Then, coming forth from the wods, they laid siege to thy castle, and for two days they girt us in and shot hard against us, with such numbers as were a marvel to see. Yet the Lady Loring held the place stoutly, and on the second day the Socman was slain—by his own men, as some think—so that we were delivered from their hands for which praise be to all the saints, and more especially to the holy Anselm, upon whose feast it came to pass. The Lady Loring, and the Lady Maude, thy fair daughter, are in good health; and so also also am I, save for an imposthume of the toe-joint, which hath been sent me for my sins. May all the saints preserve thee!"

"It was the vision of the Lady Tiphaine," said Sir Nigel, after a pause. "Marked you not how she said that the leader was one with a yellow beard, and how he fell before the gate. But how it came, Alleyne, that this woman, to whom all things are as crystal, and who hath not said one word which has not come to pass, was yet so led astray as to say that your thoughts turned to Twnham Castle even more than my own?"

"My fair lord," said Alleyne, with a flush on his weather-stained cheeks, "the Lady Tiphaine may have spoken sooth whe...) said it; for Twnham Castle is in my heart by day and in my dreams by night."

"Ha!" cried Sir Nigel, with side-long glance.

"Yes, my fair lord; for indeed I love your daughter, the Lady Maude; and, unworthy as I am, I would give my heart's blood to save her."

"By St. Paul! Edricson," said the knight coldly, arching his eyebrows, "you aim high in this matter. Our blood is very old."

"And mine also is very old," answered the squire.

"And the Lady Maude is our single chid. All our name and lands centre upon her."

"Alas! that I should say it, but I also am now the only Edricson."

"And why have I not heard this from you before, Alleyne? In sooth, I think that you have used me ill."

"Nay, my fair lord, say not so; for I know not whether your daughter loves me, and there is no pledge between us."

Sir Nigel pondered for a few moments, and then burst out a laughing. "By St. Paul!" said he, "I know not why I should mix in the matter; for I have ever found that the Lady Maude was very well able to look to her own affairs. Since first she could stamp her little foot, she hath ever been able to get that for which she craved; and if she set her heart on thee, Alleyne, and thou on her, I do not think that this Spanish king, with his three-score thousand men, could hold you apart. Yet this I will say, that I would see you a full knight ere you go to my daughter with words of love. I have ever said that a brave lance should wed her; and, by my soul! Edricson, if God spare you, I think that you will acquit yourself well. But enough of such trifles, for we have our work before us, and it will be time to speak of this matter when we see the white cliffs of England once more. Go to Sir William Felton, I pray you, and ask him to come hither, for it is time that we were marching. There is no pass at the further end of the valley, and it is a perilous place should an enemy come upon us."

Alleyne delivered his message, and then wandered forth from the camp, for his mind was all in a whirl with this unexpected news, and with his talk with Sir Nigel. Sitting upon a rock, with his burning brow resting upon his hands, he thought of his brother, of their quarrel, of the Lady Maude in her bedraggled riding-dress, of the gray old castle, of the proud pale fact in the armory, and of the last fiery words with which she had sped him on his way. Then he was but a penniless, monk-bred lad, unknown and unfriended. Now he was himself Socman of Minstead, the head of an old stock, and the lord of an estate which, if reduced from its former size, was still ample to preserve the dignity of his family. Further, he had become a man of experience, was counted brave among brave men, had won the esteem and confidence of her father, and, above all, had been listened to by him when he told him the secret of his love. As to the gaining of knighthood, in such stirring times it was no great matter for a brave squire of gentle birth to aspirt to that honor. He would leave his bones among these Spanish ravines, or he would do some deed which would call the eyes of men upon him.

Alleyne was still seated on the rock, his griefs and his joys drifting swiftly over his mind like the shadow of clouds upon a sunlit meadow, when of a sudden he became conscious of a low, deep sound which came booming up to him through the fog. Close behind him he could hear the murmur of the bowmen, the occasional bursts of hoarse laughter, and the champing and stamping of their horses. Behind it all, however, came that low-pitched, deep-toned hum, which seemed to come from every quarter and to fill the whole air. In the old monastic days he remembered to have heard such a sound when he had walked out one windy night at Bucklershard, and had listened to the long waves breaking upon the shingly shore. Here, however, was neither wind nor sea, and yet the dull murmur rose ever louder and stronger out of the heart of the rolling sea of vapor. He turned and ran to the camp, shouting an alarm at the top of his voice.

THE ENTERPRISE Blazer Furnace is built to last a life-time. Even abuse cannot loosen its joints. It is impossible for dust or gas to leak into the warm air chamber. The air, when it comes to you, is delightfully warm and comfortable, but it is as pure and fresh as the air outside.

For comfort in every corner of your house, for health and for economy, install an

ENTERPRISE BLAZER WARM AIR FURNACE

The cost of installation is a lot less than that of a hot water system; it is the simplest means of heating your home and it is the best.

The Enterprise Blazer saves money on the coal bill too. The first cost of a furnace is not the last. The Enterprise Blazer is designed to give an abundance of heat—to draw the last degree from every piece of coal that goes into it, and to give you the full use of all the heat it generates.

There is a Blazer for every home. Your dealer can tell you the size you require. Write us for our free illustrated booklet "Warmth and Comfort."

Seventy-one placements were made during the past week by the Employment Service Bureau at their offices on York street. Twenty-eight of those placed in positions were returned soldiers.

Given Birthday Party.

About forty friends gathered at the home of Henry Boyd, Nashwaaksis, last evening, the occasion being his birthday, and presented him with a safety razor. The presentation was made with an address by Ernest Sharpe. After the presentation dancing and games were indulged in, and the party broke up after refreshments had been served.

More Spring Arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Forbes, of Saunders street, are rejoicing upon the arrival of a baby girl at their home this morning. A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Logan, Jr., at North Devon, on Wednesday last. Mr. and Mrs. J. Nobles, of Nasonworth, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a baby boy at their home on Wednesday last.

Double Bridge, I. O. D. E.

Everybody is talking about the double bridge to be held by the Sir Howard Douglas Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, to be held at the G. W. V. A. Rooms, York street, on Wednesday evening, April 28th. A competent committee will look after the comfort of the guests and a good time is assured to all who attend. All are asked to come and help swell the Memorial Fund.

Were Married Here.

Robert Setchell, a prosperous farmer of Wickham, and Miss Jessie May Cuningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cunningham, of St. John, were united in marriage yesterday by Rev. G. M. Young, at the Methodist Parsonage. The bride's parents were in the city to attend the wedding and left yesterday for St. John. Herbert McGinn and Miss Clara McCoy, both of Stanley, were united in marriage at the parsonage on Thursday.

Engineers' Dance.

The annual Engineers' Dance, given by the Engineering Society of the University, was held in the College gymnasium last night. About two hundred and fifty young people enjoyed the dancing, which consisted of a programme of eighteen numbers with four extras. The dance was chaperoned by Mrs. John Stephens and Mrs. E. O. Turner and came to a close shortly after one o'clock. The music was furnished by Tennant's orchestra.

Mission Study Class Closes.

The women of the George street Baptist Mission Study Class met this week at the home of Mrs. Charles Wilcox. It being the closing meeting of the winter's study, the book, Medical Missions, was reviewed by the leader, Mrs. James Hunter, in an interesting and instructive address. At the close of the address a social hour was held and refreshments served. Mrs. Wilcox is removing in the near future to Burtt's Corner, where her husband holds a position, and she will be much missed by her many friends.

Presentation Last Evening.

Mrs. W. J. MacLean, who is removing from the city shortly, was presented by the Ashburnham Branch of the Red Cross with a beautiful bargin set in pearls last evening. The presentation was made by Lady Ashburnham at The Palms, and was accompanied by a very fitting address in which appreciation was expressed of the splendid work of Mrs. MacLean as secretary of the Ashburnham branch during the last two years. After the presentation the evening was enjoyably passed with a musical programme of recitations and singing.

CHECK PASSERS SENT UP FOR TRIAL AT CIRCUIT COURT

Herbert Adams and Eugene Guimont Remanded to Jail Until May 4.

A. W. ENGLAND'S CASE PUT OVER TO MONDAY

Another Witness Then To Be Called by Prosecution in "Pers" Case.

The preliminary hearing of Herbert Adams, of Metapedia, and Eugene Guimont, of Campbellton, who are charged with uttering a forged check for $250 at the Bank of Nova Scotia in this city, was concluded this morning and the two were committed to trial by Police Magistrate Limerick, to come before the York Circuit Court May 4th.

R. B. Hanson, K.C., for the prosecution, moved that the prisoners be sent up for trial. Adams and Guimont had nothing to say for themselves.

England Remanded.

Albert W. England, who is charged with forging prescriptions for liquor, came before the Police Magistrate this morning but was remanded until Monday when his preliminary hearing will be concluded. One witness who was to have appeared for the prosecution, did not make his appearance, and Magistrate Limerick stated he would remand the prisoner and adjourn the case until Monday to give the prosecution a chance to have the witness at the hearing.

Sheriffs Re-appointed And Fees Increased

Premier Foster announced this morning that all sheriffs in New Brunswick who have been in office this year have been reappointed for the year beginning on May 1st.

Under a bill before the Legislature the fees which the sheriffs are allowed to charge for service of writs, etc., is increased to 10 cents per mile each way. The old rate was 7½ cents.

Prof. Stockley Refutes Tale That His Assassination Was Ordered by Sinn Fein Leaders

Former U. N. B. Professor Arraigns England for Her Treatment of Ireland, and Holds Up the Sinn Fein Organization as a Patriotic Instrument to Free the People.

The Gleaner has received from Prof. W. F. P. Stockley, in Ireland, a copy of the Cork Examiner of April 2, with the request that the following be published:

The Daily Mail, March 30, learns "on unimpeachable authority that official inquiries have proved" that the Lord Mayor of Cork was murdered by Sinn Feiners; and that, by them, I was condemned to death.

I ask you, sir, not to shrink from publishing what I say. Were I to say all I feel, I could not ask you to publish it. You have been led to publish what is false. Whoever lied to you forgot the need to be precise in a lie. His very dates are wrong. About them, doubtless he knew little and cared less. Ignorant and careless!—in exasperating, in driving to despair of any justice, in loading suspicion, in encouraging to murder!

You are told that the late Lord Mayor and I attended "a private meeting of the Irish Republican brotherhood, on March 19," and "at this meeting it was reported that we had been expelled," and so doomed to death. I never was at a private meeting with the late Lord Mayor. I do not believe he was at such a meeting. I do not believe there was such a meeting. And the attempted murder of myself was on March 17, two days before this invented meeting of your unhappy informant, who says the Lord Mayor was murdered on March 20. He was murdered, the night, March 19-20. I say, sir, that your informant invented this murder meeting, and told a lie—Shakespeare's "odious, damned lie"; if need there be to write stronger words in order to make oneself believed. And I say, sir, that by poisoning men's judgments, and firing their prejudices, and maddening their imaginations, with 'lack Hands,' 'Inner Rings,' 'murderous orders,' and 'sentences on the untrustworthy,' you reduce an English journal to the level of Crabbe's newspapers, which:

"Coin their fresh tales, and live upon the lie."

Shame, sir. And the shame is not on Ireland. You know that what you have published is an unfounded rumor. If you can feel, seriously, the woes of men—Irishmen, too, are men—you are able to feel sorrow for publishing what stirs up, in Ireland, more contempt for England—were that now possible—more disbelief in English honor, more hate of an England which appears to Ireland as, first, a liar, and then a bully.

There is no such Sinn Fein as your cruel blinding words imply. I assume you do not really mean only to wound the living and insult the dead. I am assuming this possibility of an English journal being brought to recognize responsibility, at such a time as this.

What is Sinn Fein? It is the taking of England at England's word. Nothing more; nothing less. 'Twere hard, indeed (we are told), to ask proud England to act on America's word. Sinn Fein asked, only, that England should act on England's word. Sinn Fein then acted, as if England's word was something worth. England went back on her word to us; say thousands of ex-soldiers, now Sinn Feiners. Small nations; equal rights for great and small; self-determination; a new and juster world, a world not assuming that no bonds bind, except mere brute force—we fought for those things they say. And, therefore, we fight, heart and soul, against the England of hopeless and—finally—helpless, raiding and transporting and plundering and murdering and slandering, which is rampaging over Ireland today. Any of us who come from England are not those least ashamed of this England,

Have pity, sir, on your dead that died for right; though their country's leaders meant but wrong. Show your living young men how they may equal the young Sinn Fein men of Ireland; for such are the patriots that England needs; young men, brave, disciplined in heart, unselfseeking, generous, counting little the cost of worldly damage or ruin, ready to believe that the weak things are chosen by God's Eternal Justice to confound the strong.

Is it not possible for a powerful English journal to pause, to think, and to make confession, to make restitution, when an English soldier-poet

FINE APPAREL NOT NECESSARY IN THIS CHURCH

Ottawa Presbyterian Pastor Invites Congregation to Appear in Overalls.

INSERTS NOTICE IN THE PAPERS TODAY

Will Preach Sermon on the All Important Question of "What to Wear."

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, April 24.—Old clothes or overalls will not only be worn on Sunday, but also worn in church. The first invitation to worshippers to wear overalls to church was extended by Erskine Presbyterians.

In the church notice published in today's paper for Erskine Church the concluding sentence reads:

At the evening service the text of the sermon will be that important question:

"What shall we wear."

KILLED HIMSELF TO FREE HIS WIFE

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Watsonburg, Colo., April 24.—That his 19 year old wife might be free, Dr. K. L. Clock, 57 years of age, killed himself yesterday, at Ravenwood, near here, where he was a mine physician. Dr. Clock wrote an explanatory note last night and then drank poison.

Mrs. Clock is attending a Pueblo boarding school. They were married a year ago.

PILGRIM DAY IN THE UNITED STATES

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Washington, April 24.—A resolution appropriating $400,000 for participation by the federal government in the observance this year of the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Provincetown and Plymouth, Mass., was adopted yesterday by the House and sent to the Senate.

COLLECTIONS SLOW THROUGH CANADA

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Winnipeg, April 24.—Trade reports received this week from all the chief centers of Canada indicate a continuance of business activity, says the weekly statement of the Canadian Creditmen's Trust Association. Collections are, however, slow, and on the average about five per cent. of those of the corresponding period of 1919.

CLERGYMAN DEAD.

Providence, R. I., April 24.—Rev. John C. Emery, pastor of the Congregational church at Blackstone, Mass., and one of the oldest clergymen in active service in New England, died today. He was in his 87th year and in his 55 years as pastor had served many parishes in New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts.

French Premier Carries Point at San Remo Today

Germany Must Disarm at Once or Stand the Consequences

REPARATIONS AND INDEMNITY

Allies United for Common Action Against Germany Now.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

San Remo, April 24.—A complete agreement with respect to the attitude the Allies shall adopt toward Germany in connection with the carrying out of the peace treaty has been reached by Premier Lloyd-George and Premier Millerand, it was stated here today.

The agreement was reached during a conference lasting three and a half hours between the two premiers. The French Premier left the conference room palpably brightened with the outcome. Premier Lloyd-George said:

"Everything is most satisfactory. A full agreement was reached in substance."

FRANCE IS SATISFIED WITH THE AGREEMENT

San Remo, April 24.—Members of the supreme council did not hold an official session this morning, wishing to discuss the German question and reach an adjustment of points of view before taking it up officially.

A consultation between Premiers Lloyd-George and Millerand lasted two hours and was reported to have resulted in an agreement on the essential points concerning the question of disarmament, reparations and common action by the Allies with regard to Germany. This agreement, it is understood, will be submitted to the supreme council tomorrow.

The Allies are reported to have decided to proceed as soon as possible to estimate the total amount to be demanded from Germany as reparation.

The German government, it is understood, will be authorized to make suggestions on this point through representatives who will be called later by the Allies with a view to conversations on the subject, which are likely to be held in Brussels.

Sir John Bradbury, the British member of the reparations commission, accompanied by the United States members, arrived here today to give information to the supreme council respecting the possibilities of coal deliveries by Germany.

MEXICAN LOVER BEFORE U. S. COURT

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Douglas, Ariz., April 24.—General Pesqueira, president of the supreme military court of Mexico, and who came here to become military Governor of Sonora for the Carranza Government, is held in $5,000 for his appearance in American federal courts on a charge of transporting Senora Maria Rodriguez from Texas here for immoral purposes. She is held under bonds of $1,000 as a witness.

Germany Claims Troops Removed

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 24.—A note has been despatched to Paris by the German government, according to a Berlin wireless message received here, stating that the German troops in the Ruhr district no longer exceed the number stipulated by the peace treaty.

BERLIN WEEDS OUT REACTIONARIES

Local Magnates With Historic Names Being Dismissed From Office.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Berlin, April 24.—The Government's process of weeding out reactionary elements from the provincial administration of Pomerania and elsewhere, so far has resulted in the dismissal of 19 district councillors, all of whom were local magnates with historic names of the Prussian landed gentry.

The provincial governors of Hanover and Koenigsberg, and a half dozen others, including some chiefs of departments in the Prussian ministry of the interior, were also dismissed.

Canadians Must Pay In American Currency

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, April 24.—Notices were sent out yesterday by all United States railways sending goods to Canada that on and after May 1st next all consignments to Canada must be prepaid in United States currency.

This means an advance of about ten per cent in all goods imported from the States to Canada.

INCREASE PENSIONS CIVIL WAR VETS

Veterans to Get $50 Monthly, While Widows of Vets Will Be Given $30.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Washington, April 24.—The House bill increasing pensions of civil war veterans to fifty dollars monthly, and those of the widows and veterans to thirty dollars monthly, was passed by the Senate yesterday and now goes to onference. The increases were provided to meet the rising costs of living.

CHARGE FRAUD IN THE THEATRE TAX

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Chicago, April 24.—Warrants were issued yesterday for six of the leading theatre ticket brokers in Chicago, charging them with defrauding the government of approximately $100,000 in war taxes during the past year. Two of the six are women.

INCORPORATE SHIP AS STOCK COMPANY

Ottawa, April 24.—Joint stock companies incorporated during the past week include eight vessels of the government merchant marine, each incorporated as a stock company, with a capital of $40,000 when ready for navigation.

WOOL AUCTION SALES.

London, April 24.—At the wool auction sales yesterday 11,700 bales were offered. Prices were firm, except for fourry cross breds and inferior merinos, which were easy.

This is the third day of the seventh week of the session and there have been more than 150 bills introduced, about 140 of which will have been finally passed before the House finally rises.

It was 11.15 a. m. before the House met today, the start being delayed over an hour because the clerk did not have his end of the work in readiness. When the Speaker finally got the business of the House in motion a bill was introduced by Premier Foster to amend the Audit Act so as to increase the salary of the Comptroller General from $2,400 to $3,000 a year.

Grand Falls Power Action.

The House then went into committee with Mr. Leger (Westmorland) in the chair and passed the bill relating to the Grand Falls Power Company, Ltd., with some amendments, one of of which set the time limit for a report on the situation to the Government at three months

The committee then agreed to the formal supply bills, as well as those to amend the Vocational Education Act, to increase the sheriff's fees and to amend the act defining electoral districts. The latter affects only the counties of Charlotte, Gloucester and Northumberland.

The bill respecting the taxes on incorporated companies was amended so to fix the taxes to be paid by express companies on the basis of their offices in the provinces as follows:

Each city	$100
Each town	50
Unincorporated town or village of 2,000 population	25
Other office with agent employed.	10

The Increased Indemnity.

The bill increasing the sessional indemnity of the members from $500 to $1,000 was among those given third reading, Premier Foster announcing that the Lieutenant Governor recommended it to the favorable consideration of the House.

The bill to incorporate the Fraser Paper Co. Ltd. was also among those read a third time, also those providing a salary for the Minister of Health and the New Brunswick Power Company bill—all without a division.

At 12.20 p. m. the House took recess until 2.30 p. m., and announcement was made by Premier Foster that the Lieutenant Governor would attend at 3 p. m. to prorogue the House.

The Governor's Speech.

The Lieutenant Governor's speech in proroguing the House follows:

"Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly,—

"I thank you for the earnest attention which you have given to the general business of the session as well as to the many important matters which I have, from time to time, submitted to you.

"Important acts affecting the industrial life of the province have been submitted to you for consideration, and I am pleased to direct special attention to the act providing for the Generation of Electricity for Purposes of Light, Heat and Power.

"Other important measures include the acts relating to co-operation with the Federal Government in the construction of Permanent Highways, the act providing for the further funding of automobile receipts for the construction of more durable secondary trunk roads, and the provision for additions to the splendid permanent bridges of the province. I am pleased to know that the recommendations made by the committee appointed by the Legislature to consider the matter of increasing the salaries of school teachers have been embodied in amendments to the School Act which provide increased grants from the province and other sources. Much legislation has also been submitted to you from different municipalities, all of which, I am glad to note, has had your very careful attention.

"I thank you for the provision you have made for the important public services of the province, and in now relieving you from further attendance upon your legislative duties, I desire to extend to all of you my earnest wish for your individual prosperity and happiness."

"Defeated But Not Discouraged" by Vote

Immediately after the vote in the Legislature yesterday afternoon on the "bone dry" resolution a meeting of the executive of the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance, all of whom were present at the House, was held.

It was afterwards said they were considering "the next move," but further than that no statement was made as to any action to be taken. "We are defeated but not discouraged," was the comment of Rev. W. D. Wilson, chief inspector. "We must accept the decision like 'good sports,' remarked Rev. Mr. Boothroyd, the organizing secretary of the Alliance.

The Prohibitionists will now be able to turn their entire attention to the referendum on the provincial prohibitory law.

Labor Party Oppose Ontario Referendum

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Hamilton, Ont., April 24.—The local branch of the independent labor party passed a resolution last night in opposition to the proposed referendum on the importation of liquor. The mover of the resolution suggested that Hon. Walter R. Rollo, Minister of Labor, who was present, be heard on the question, but the majority of the members present declared there should be no discussion on it.

MOONSHINGING IN EMERALD ISLE

The High Duties on Whiskey Leads to Many Evasions of the Excise Law.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Dublin, April 24.—High duties on whiskey have led to the continued practice of moonshining and revived the industry of illicit poteen making. The police hunt for secret stills is vigorous, and even the possession of the spirit is a punishable offence

A Monaghan who, who pleaded that the two glasses of poteen found on his premises were intended as a rub for his sister's rheumatism, has his defence disbelieved and was fined £100, but it was afterwards reduced to £6.

Official custoins and excise returns show that in 1919 Dublin payments totalled £8,750,000, an increase of nearly £4,500,000 over the figures for 1918. This increase is due to higher duties and to the fact that in the latter year there was relaxation in restrictions on the quantities of beer and spirits allowed for consumption.

Figues for Belfast were a million less than that for Dublin, and showed an increase of only 20 per cent. over 1918.

ENDORSEMENT OF 2.75 PER CENT. BEER

New York Legislature Passes Bill to Legalize Sale of Such Beverages.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Albany, April 24.—The New York Senate early today placed its endorsement on 2.75 per cent. beer. By a vote of 27 to 23, minority leader James J. Walker's bill, designed to legalize the manufacture and sale of such beverage, was passed and sent to the assembly for concurrence.

Three minutes later, the anti-saloon league's enforcement bill, a measure patterned after the federal prohibition enforcement act, failed of passage, 21 to 29.

The bill of Senator Sutherland, Democrat, of King's, to legalize four per cent. beer and 12 per cent. wine, failed of passage, by 23 to 26.

The three bills were debated at the same time.

CITY OF QUEBEC BUDGET.

Quebec, April 24.—The City Council last night passed the budget for the year 1920-31, amounting to $2,178,957, an increase of $200,000 over the appropriation for the present year, and to provide for this extra amount the business tax will be increased from 12½ to 15 per cent.

British Vicar Appeals for Personal Freedom of Individual

WHAT GALLANT MEN FOUGHT FOR

Says Prohibition Would Be An Intolerable Wrong to People.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

London, April 24.—Proposing the toast of "the Imperial forces" at the anniversary festival of the licesend victuallers' school, Rev. B. G. Bouchier, Vicar of the Hampstead Garden suburb church, who recently returned from a visit to Canada, remarked that he had been honored with an invitation to be present because he had ventured to take a stand on behalf of one of the greatest principles which had been entrusted to our care—personal freedom.

"Prohibition, as I understand it," added Mr. Bouchier, "is a determined and considered attempt to attack and destroy one of the most cherished principles of free-born people. Surely our national character, of which we are mighty proud, finds its roots in good cheer and convivial company.

"Three-quarters of a million brave and gallent boys and men are lying in soldiers' graves. They died for freedom, and to introduce a measure of this kind at a moment when we are harassed by economic and political problems of a magnitude the like of which our nation had never known before, is to do the deal an intolerable wrong."

DAYLIGHT SAVING THROUGHOUT CANADA

Canadian Pacific Will Change Time Tables in Quebec Province to Conform.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, April 24.—Notification was sent out yesterday by the Canadian Pacific Railway that with the coming of the daylight saving time in Montreal and other Quebec points on Sunday, May 2nd, this time would be adopted at headquarters of the company and offices throughout the province. C. Norman Ham, secretary of the Express Association, stated also that the express companies were adopting the same plan.

K. OF C. TO ENGAGE IN LIFE INSURANCE

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, April 24.—Notice in given in the Canada Gazette that a license has been issued authorizing the Knights of Columbus, as a fraternal benefit society, to transact in Canada the business of life insurance. The chief agency of the society is to be situated at Saskatoon. A license has also been issued to the Workmen's Circle to transact the business of life insurance.

FOR DISTRESSED SEAMEN.

Ottawa, April 24.—In the House last night an item of $18,000 to pay examiners of masters and mates was passed with little comment, as was one of $12,300 to meet the cost of investigations into wrecks. The sum of $3,000 to provide for the temporary relief of distressed seamen was also carried.

STUTZ STOCK SETTLED FOR $550 A SHARE

Agreement Reached Today Between Stutz Company and Protective Committee.

TRADING IN STUTZ ON MARKET TODAY

Former Offer of Company to Settle at $520 Had Been Refused by Shorts.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York, April 24. — An agreement was reached today between Allan A. Ryan, Chairman of the Stutz Motor Car Company, and the protective committee organized to safeguard interests of 58 stock exchange houses under contract to deliver Stutz stock by which settlement with Mr. Ryan for $550 a share was arranged.

The settlement price was fixed at $425 a share, plus $85 for a 20 per cent. stock dividend, plus forty dollars for premiums for 20 days at two dollars a day.

When trading in Stutz was suspended by the Board of Governors of the exchange shares were selling at $331, and later odd lots were sold for more than $700 a share.

Immediately after the announcement that settlement had been made, bids on the curb where trading in Stutz opened with $550 bid and none offered, declined to $470 with none offered. The market reacted to the settlement by an upward trend of prices in the early trading.

Mr. Ryan previously had offered to settle with the traders short of Stutz at $520 a share, but he later withdrew this offer, which firms involved considered excessive, and announced it would not be revived.

The settlement followed several days of sharp exchanges between the committee representing shorts and Mr. Ryan, who it was intimated, had cornered Stutz stock. This he denied and said he had acted merely to protect Stutz stock holders against a "gang of raiders" who had attempted to beat the price down.

Wall Street authorities estimated the "short" interests involved three thousand to five thousand shares, which on the basis of the settlement price represented a loss to themselves of $750,000 to $1,200,000.

DAYLIGHT SAVING IN NEW ENGLAND

The Clocks Will Be Moved Ahead One Hour at 2 a. m. Tomorrow.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Boston, April 24.—Massachusetts and numerous cities in other New England States were preparing today to enter upon a five-month period of daylight saving. Time pieces will be moved ahead one hour at 2 a. m. tomorrow, in accordance with recently enacted laws.

THE QUEBEC SCHOOL SYSTEM CRITICIZED

Montreal, April 24.—Compulsory education of children in the province of Quebec was strongly urged by Prof. J. A. Dale, in an address delivered before the Montreal Branch of the Society of Chemical Industry at their annual meeting last night. Prof. Dale questioned the value of the only figures that are available as to attendance at schools in this province and he also complained of the lack of a census of children of school age, a thing, he said, that ought to, but does not, exist in this province.

The Lord Chief Justice Expressed Approval of the Jury's Action and a Great Demonstration Followed the Announcement of the Court's Decision.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

DUBLIN, April 24.—John Hayden, charged with the murder of Sergeant Brady, at Lorry, Tipperary, last September, was acquitted in court here today, the Lord Chief Justice expressing approval of the jury's verdict. A remarkable demonstration followed the announcement of the court's action.

County Tipperary was placed under martial law for several months and markets and fairs were forbidden there in consequence of this murder.

MANY BILLS WERE JAMMED THROUGH

Supplementary Estimates and Teachers' Salaries Bill Are Included.

Absolutely without an equal in the modern history of the Provincial Legislature has been the rush of last minute legislation through the Provincial Legislature.

As soon as the "bone dry" resolution was disposed of yesterday afternoon the House went on with other business and bill after bill was disposed of until early this morning, some of them being of a highly contentious nature ordinarily, but with several notable distinctions they slipped along.

There was considerable discussion occasioned by the bill to carry out the recommendation of the commission on teachers' salaries and Dr. Crocket of York, pointed out that it was more of an equalization than an increase that was being made in the salaries. He made a strong appeal for support for the male teacher and several supporters of the Government voiced objections to passing a bill which made $700 the salary to be paid teachers who were willing to work for $600 and the marked increase in the school fees which would be caused by the bill.

Supplementary Estimates.

Hon. Mr. Murray presented a message from His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, sumbitting the supplementary estimates, and moved that such message and estimates be referred to the Committee on Supply. The list follows:

Estimate of the sums required for the service of the province, not otherwise provided for for the current year:

Administration of Justice—
Rent, Law School, St. John ..$	500
Rent, Office of Chief Justice, King's Bench Division	150
Agriculture—
Butter and cheese factories—working capital, Madawaska Creamery	2,000
Exhibitions, grant to Gloucester County Exhibition, 75 p. c. of prize list	1,000
Limerock crusher and power for lime-grinding plant and equipment	12,800
Wheat mills, bonus, J. B. Leger, St. Mary's	500
Public Works—
Steam navigation, subsidies ...	800
Ferry maintenance and equipment	1,300
Department of Health, filing cabinets, etc.	1,000
Wharves, repairs	2,500
Colonization Roads	2,000
Imperial Press Conference ..	5,000

The House then went into Committee with Mr. Leger (Westmorland) in the chair, and took up consideration of the Supplementary Estimates.

Mr. Tilley, on the item of $12,800 for lime rock crusher and power, wanted to know if that sum was to be expended in addition to the $10,000 provided in the estimates.

Hon. Mr. Foster replied that it was.

Mr. Tilley thought it would be cheaper to buy the lime rock from one of the existing plants.

Hon. Mr. Foster said that after the plan worked out by the Hon. Minister of Agriculture had been given a trial, it would be for the hon. member to say whether or not the farmers were getting lime rock at a lower price than had been paid to dealers.

Hon. Mr. Foster, on the item of $5,000 for Imperial Press Conference made a brief explanation. He said the amount had been set aside to assist in providing entertainment for the members of the Conference when they visited the province. Lord Athelstan of the Montreal Star, was in charge of the financial arrangement. All other provinces of Canada were contributing to the fund. The party which would consist of about one hundred leading journalists, including Lord Northcliffe, would arrive in July or August and make a tour of the Maritime Provinces. He was sure that all wanted New Brunswick to do its part, and he trusted the grant would meet with approval of hon. members.

Hon. Mr. Murray introduced a bill to provide for the repairs and improvements to roads, and other public services; also a bill to defray certain expenses of the civil government of the province. On the ground of urgency these bills were read a second time.

The Grand Falls Power.

Hon. Mr. Robinson introduced a bill relating to the Grand Falls Co., Ltd. He said that the purpose of the bill already was well understood by the House. Under it power would be given the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to vest Grand Falls Powers rights in the Crown and to investigate all conditions surrounding it, also to appoint a commission to determine a fair price if the power should be taken over and to investigate the intention and the ability of the Company now possessing the franchise to proceed satisfactorily to develop the power.

The bill was given a second reading on ground of urgency.

Events of a Day In Parliament

Ottawa, April 24.—In the Commons: Lengthy debate on clause in Franchise Act as to appointment of returning officers and Hon. Mr. Fielding's amendment to said clause. Progress was reported at 6 o'clock.

Estimates of the Marine Department taken up. Item of $1,500,000 for maintenance and repairs to Dominion steamers and ice breakers carried. Two million dollar outlay for an ice breaker for the St. Lawrence river was sanctioned.

In the Senate:

Senator Lougheed informed chamber that the government was not even aware of the suggestion that Canada should be given a mandate over Armenia.

Debate on bill which seeks to compel merchants dealing in German goods to place signs over their doors was adjourned until Wednesday.

The chamber adjourned until Tuesday.

Dublin, April 24.—A new organization in Dublin, called the government of Ireland group, has been formed along lines of the home rule bill.

The "Bone Dry" Resolution is Beaten by Amendment, 22 to 18

Government Party Voted 17 to 6 for Amendment While Opposition Voted 12 to 5 in Favor of the Resolution—Resolution Aimed at Important Principles.

By a vote of 22 to 18 the Legislature yesterday afternoon defeated the resolution calling upon the Federal Government to bring on a referendum in New Brunswick on the question of the continuance of the present interprovincial trade under which importations of liquor for personal use is allowed, and passed an amendment which set forth that such a referendum should not take place until after the people of this province have pronounced in favor of the present provincial prohibition act.

Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, Minister of Agriculture, moved the resolution, with Mr. Peck of Albert as seconder, while Mr. Michaud of Madawaska moved the amendment, seconded by Dr. Campbell of St. John. The question was thus treated entirely as a non-party one, and the outcome was as generally anticipated, but the majority was not so large as expected. The vote, when analyzed, shows that forty votes were cast, the members of the Government party voting 17 to 6 in favor of the amendment, while the Opposition voted 12 to 5 in favor of the resolution. There were five absentees, two of whom were on the Government side and the three others on the Opposition side of the House.

There was only one member present who did not vote and that was Hon. C. W. Robinson, who took the ground that, being "paired" with Hon. J. A. Murray, leader of the Opposition, he was not entitled to vote on even non-party questions. One of the outcomes of his inaction was to make a 50-50 split in the Cabinet on the question. The galleries were occupied by an expectant gathering during the vote, which was preceded by short speeches by the movers and seconders of both the resolution and the amendment.

Plebiscite Now 18 Months Off.

Hon. Mr. Tweeddale, in moving the resolution, said in part.

"The Federal government, as a war measure, prohibited interprovincial traffic in intoxicating liquors and, since the cessation of hostilities, have rescinded the order, but along with it have made provision, by a statutory regulation, giving the people in the respective provinces an opportunity of making known to the Federal government their wishes in respect to interprovincial traffic in spirituous and intoxicating liquors. This is a recognition of the broad principles of democracy and takes away from the government the responsibilities of imposing what to some might seem to be an arbitrary law upon the respective provinces.

"In the Federal statutes providing for referendum it is necessary to have a resolution similar to this passed by the Legislature before the Federal government will hold a plebiscite. If this resolution was not moved in the House this session, a plebiscite could not be held on the question for 18 months hence."

"Attorney General Daniels, of the Nova Scotia government, gave notice of the resolution in the Legislature in that province as a government measure on the 16th instant.

"I am not going to undertake to use either argument or powers of persuasion. Every hon. member will be free to exercise his own judgment on the issue, and will be recorded in Hansard according as he votes for or against the issue.

"In my judgment, provincial prohibition is practically impossible of enforcement with interprovincial traffic in spirituous and intoxicating liquors permissible."

Mr. Peck, in seconding the resolution, said that it had been proposed by the New Brunswick branch of the Temperance Alliance and was cordially approved by a large number of clergymen and business men of the province. He considered it one of the most important questions at present agitating the public mind and he had much pleasure in seconding the resolution, the object of which was to give the people an opportunity to express their opinion.

Resents Federal Interference.

Mr. Michaud agreed with the mover of the resolution that all hon. members had the right to exercise their individual opinion on the question. He considered the matter an important one, not only for New Brunswick but for Canada. Personally he had always been a temperance man and had worked for the cause prior to the passage of the Intoxicating Liquor Act. Since that he had taken no part either for or against temperance and had not even appeared in court in connection with liquor cases. He was opposed to the resolution because it meant interference by the Federal Government in provincial affairs. Another reason for his being opposed to it was that he felt it would neutralize the effect of the plebiscite to be taken on the Intoxicating Liquor Act. Prior to the election in 1917 he had refused to commit himself on the question of prohibition but had agreed to do nothing to minimize its affects until such time as the people had pronounced upon the question. No appeal had yet been made to the people on the question and he did not think the result of the last election was a proper interpretation of the Intoxicating Liquor Act. He believed the people should have a chance to say whether or not they wanted prohibition before they were asked to say whether liquor was to be imported or not. He then moved the amendment.

Resolution "Put Cart Before Horse."

Mr. Campbell, in seconding the amendment, said that he had endeavored to look at the question from a constitutional and legal aspect. He had always been a temperance man in the best and truest sense of the term. As legislators they were not discussing total abstinence or the use of intoxicating liquors, but were to decide which way they were to vote on the resolution before the House. He noticed by the Dominion Hansard that when the question was before parliament strong and able opposition was made against the passage of the act. The controversy had been lengthy and numerous points had been raised, but he would only take time to refer to a few of them. It should be remembered that the act looked forward to prohibition of inter-provincial trade and only applied to provinces where the sale of liquor was prohibited. New Brunswick was one of these provinces and was about to decide the question by a plebiscite. Elections were always uncertain, and supposing the act was defeated where would the province be if in the meantime the electors had voted to prohibit inter-provincial trade. To use a common expression it would be a case of "putting the cart before the horse." It must be remembered that the plebiscite provided for by the Dominion act would have to be taken in federal electoral districts. That meant for instance that a vote could not be taken in the counties of York and Sunbury but in the constituency of York-Sunbury. He did not see how the representatives of Sunbury ould on the resolution before the House give expression to the views of the people of York county. He was hopeful that the points he had raised against the resolution would commend themselves to hon. members.

Yeas—Hon. Mr. Foster, Hon. Dr. Smith, Hon. Mr. Veniot, Hon. Mr. Dugal, Mr. Tilley, Dr. Taylor, Mr. Campbell, Mr. Carson, Mr. Magee, Dr. McGrath, Mr. Dysart, Mr. LeBlanc, Mr. Michaud, Mr. Leger (Gloucester), Mr. Mersereau, Mr. Smith (Sunbury), Mr. Melanson, Mr. Bordage, Mr. Robichaud, Mr. Leger (Westmorland), Mr. Sweeney, Dr. Crocket—22.

Nays—Hon. Mr. Byrne, Hon. Mr. Murray, Hon. Mr. Tweeddale, Hon. Dr. Roberts, Mr. Burchill, Mr. King, Mr. Young, Mr. Baxter, Mr. Potts, Mr. Peck, Mr. Smith (Albert), Mr. Pinder, Mr. Sutton, Mr. Grimmer, Mr. Smith (Charlotte), Mr. Jones, Mr. Dickson, Mr. Hunter—18.

Hon. Mr. Speaker declared the resolution carried as amended.

Should Pairs Count?

Hon. Mr. Robinson said that he had not voted on the amendment because he was paired with Mr. Murray (Kings) for the remainder of the session. Possibly that did not interfere with his right to vote, but as he did not know what attitude Mr. Murray

Legislature Voted 16 to 13 Last Night on a Bill Which Permits Dr. Gerrard to go On

Members for York and Sunbury a Unit in Favor of the Bill which is Fought in Committee Stage But Finally Passes.

The House in committee with Mr. Burchill in the chair last night took up consideration of a bill respecting the registration of dentists.

Mr. Sweeney said the law committee had refused to recommend this bill, and it was not often that a bill was referred back to committee of the whole under such circumstances. He had decided objection to the bill, which was not the kind of legislation wanted. The dentist society was composed of first class men, who were endeavoring to maintain and raise the standard of their profession. If the principle of this bill was right a man might be by legislation admitted as a lawyer, licensed as a teacher, or allowed to practice as a doctor without any qualifications. He believed that a man desiring to enter a profession should make some preliminary study. If there could be admission by legislation examinations of any kind need not be passed. Examinations evidently what was in the way in this case. He did not believe that the hon. member for York (Crocket) would want a man legislated in the medical profession.

Dr. Crocket—"It would not worry me a bit."

Mr. Sweeney said that doctors were just as jealous as lawyers or members of any other profession. Legislation of this kind would open the door to any one.

Bill Practically Pre-judged.

Dr. Crocket said he realized the difficulties under which any member must labor who suported a bill without the recommendation of the committee. It meant that the bill was practically pre-judged, but he was pleased to be able to say that the committee had not been unanimous. One reason why the bill had not been recommended was taht no credentials had been presented, anad it had been held that Dr. Gerrard had no credentials in England. One member of the dentist delegation had referred to him as an imposter. He proceeded to read an affidavit of Percy Harrison, of Gateshead-on-Tyne, England, to the effect that Dr. Gerrard had occupied premises owned by him prior to 1890. He also read a solemn declaration from Dr. Gerrard himself to a like effect. The bill was for the purpose of legislating William Gerrard on to the dental register exactly as had been done in 1890 with dentists practising in New Brunswick prior to that date. If Dr. Gerrard had been in the province at that time he would have been admitted. This man had begun as an apprentice at the age of 14 years. It was not fair to ask him to pass an examination at the age of 54 before a board of examiners known to be hostile to him. The opposition to him was the work of the small men of the dental profession. It could not be urged that if the bill was passed there would be a rush of dentists from Great Britain. The bill applied only to those practicing prior to 1890, and the majority of them would be about 60 years of age. This matter was purely a local one. The four members for York and the two members for Sunbury supported the bill. The persecution of Dr. Gerrard had been going on for some time, and last spring he served the sentence of ten days in jail rather than pay a fine of $30. It had been a matter of principle with him.

St. John Members Protest.

Hon. Dr. Roberts said he was surprised that the affidavit read had not been produced before the law committee. His own opinion was that there should not be two roads to any profession. It was essential that a standard be set and maintained. A Canadian making an application to be registered as a dentist in Great Britain under similiar circumstances would not receive consideration. He felt assured that under the circumstances if Dr. Gerrard should make an application for examination the special condition of his case could be taken into consideration, and his examination would be along practical lines. It would be better to do that than to upset the existing citizen.

Mr. Tilley said that the law committee of which he was a member had heard representations from 40 dentists from all parts of the province in regard to the bill. They had decided not to recommend it, and he thought it would be strange if the House should override the Committee's opinion and enact personal legislation for the benefit of one who failed to come up to the standard set by the profession. If they did that it would be useless to send young men to dental or medical colleges. He did not think the House should pass specific legislation for the benefit of any individual. If they did that it would be opening the door for almost any fellow who might come to the House and say he wanted to be adopted. The Law Committee after hearing both sides had decided against the bill, and its decision should be sustained.

Law Committee Differed.

Mr. Dysart said that as a member of the Law Committee he could not endorse the remarks which had been made by the previous speaker. He was sure that the affidavits read by the hon. member for York were genuine, otherwise he would not have produced them. The whole argument advanced by the Dental Society had been against Dr. Gerrard, although they pretended to be out to protect the interests of the people. Personally he did not know Dr. Gerrard, but had heard him very highly spoken of as a dentist. He had practiced in England thirty years ago, and should be placed on the same footing as dentists in New Brunswick who had been brought in under the Act of 1890 without examination. He believed on principle that such organizations as a Dental Society, in which control was placed in the hands of few individuals and was often arbitrarily used, should be given a check.

Mr. Leger (Westmorland) said if he were to consider the matter from a sentimental standpoint he would support the bill. While the hon. member for York had made out a good case, he (Leger) did not think that the Legislature should adjudicate on a matter of that kind. Different organizations were incorporated by the Legislature, and were empowered to compel candidates for admission to pass certain examinations. It would certainly not be logical for the Legislature to step in and over-ride one of its own laws. Should the House decide in favor of the bill, possibly he (Leger) who was quite expert as a tooth-puller, might during the next session make application for admission to practice.

Mr. Baxter said that like other hon members he approached the subject with a great deal of diffidence. Should the bill pass, it meant that Dr. Gerrard would be admitted to the Dental Society against the will of the members, and that, he thought, would be going too far. He did not think any dentist was injured by his competition. The fairest way might be to exclude him from the operation of the Act. He would then not be a member of the Dental Society, but would be immune from prosecution. He hoped the dentists would be broad enough to settle the matter.

Mr. Sweeney said it was amusing to see two members of two professions in the House practically repudiating the standards of their professions. The claim had been put up that Dr. Gerrard had practiced his profession in the old country. It seemed fortunate that he was not born in New Brunswick for if he had it would probably have been used against him. He did not think the Legislature should undertake to lower the standard of any professionn, of discourage those who were trying to raise that standard. If a lawyer were to be dismissed from the Barristers' Society for improper conduct, could he go to the Legislature and seek admission again? The Law Committee after careful consideration had decided against the bill, and that ought to settle the matter. He would move that the bill be given the six months' hoist.

Members for York Speak.

Mr. Pinder said that people were needed in the province, but if all were treated in the way Dr. Gerrard had been treated they would not stay long. He had practiced dentistry in Fredericton and was looked upon by the people of York and Sunbury as a first class man in his profession. So far as character was concerned, he would compare favorably with some men who were recognized by the profession. All dentists who came into the province from the United States and elsewhere prior to the passing of the Act were allowed to practice without examination, and Dr. Gerrard should have the same treatment.

Mr. Young said that no more was being asked for Dr. Gerrard than had been granted to those dentists who were made members of the Society in

Chairman For the Public Utilities Commission Has Not Yet Been Appointed

Government to Meet After Prorogation of House But There May Not Be Appointment in Time for Telephone Case to Go On Next Week.

The Provincial Government will hold a meeting this afternoon just as soon as the Legislature has been prorogued.

At that meeting, it was intimated today, there would probably not be an appointment made to the chairmanship of the Public Utilities Commission and it would therefore seem doubtful if there will be a chairman named in time for the New Brunswick Telephone Company's rate case to go on next Thursday, to which date it was adjourned.

It was further said today that under the present Act it is not possible to make temporary appointments and the suggestion that G. O. D. Otty, of Hampton, who has been chairman, might be reappointed to act at least until the Telephone case was disposed of now is impossible as there has not been a bill introduced in the Legislature to amend the original Act in that regard.

There seems to be a decided opinion that the new chairman will be a member of the legal profession, but that is about all that is so far known.

The Salvation Army Drive.

HOUSE TO VOTE ON DENTAL BILL

No Decision Reached About Dr. Gerrard When Noon Recess Was Taken.

The bill to amend the Dental Society's Act on behalf of Dr. William Gerrard had not been brought up for the third reading when recess was taken by the Legislature today.

Negotiations for a compromise were in progress all morning, but the last word was a telephone message from the officers of the Dental Society at St. John that they would accept no compromise but "demanded that there be a vote and that the names be taken."

Several members who voted on the bill last night in committee were absent today and there seemed much uncertainty as to the outcome of another vote.

The resolution of which Hon. Dr. Roberts had given notice will not come before the House, as sufficient notice was not given.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE REPORT

The report from the Committee on Public Accounts to the Legislature said:

"The matter of Immigration was carefully considered and in the opinion of your Committee the Province of New Brunswick should be more adequately represented in London and adequate publicity throughout Europe should be given our industries and natural resources; also the Department should send public reports and public literature to the Federal Immigration Office in Paris, as well as to London.

"Your Committee recommend that the members of the Public Accounts Committee shall not be members of other standing committees.

"Your Committee recommend the payment of fifty dollars to J. B. Dickson, the secretary."

New Nazimova Picture to Be Seen at Gaiety Theatre on Monday.

The expenditure of a quarter of a million dollars, costumes worth a king's ransom and the services of 1,200 persons, from director, scenario writers and art designers to an ensemble that embodied a small army in size, represent but a part of the tremendous outlay in money, time and effort given by Metro to the production of "The Red Lantern," in which the incomparable Nazimova appears at the Gaiety Theatre on Monday, April 26.

"The Red Lantern" is truly colossal when it is judged by the combination of the supreme artistry of its brilliant star and by the sumptuous environment provided for her and her supporting cast. It has the added value of being based upon one of the most talked of novels of the decade, "The Red Lantern," a romance of the ancient city of Pekin, from the pen of Edith Wherry, and published by the Bodley Head.

The total cost of producing "The Red Lantern" was, in round figures, $250,000. The time required to make it was three months; eight weeks in actual production and four weeks devoted to elaborate research work carried out by June Mathis and Albert Capellani, who made the screen adaptation and scenario and directed the production.

Nazimova's gowns alone—the splendid robes of state worn in the imperial court of the Manchus and the fantastic habiliments of the Goddess of the Red Lantern among them—were worth $75,000, and the costumes worn by supporting principals in the large cast and those of the hundreds of "extras" figuring in the palace scenes and the bloody street fighting scenes reproducing the Boxer uprising in Pekin at the time of the siege of the Allied legations in 1900, were worth $50,000. Real Chinese rugs used in the production represented a fabulous outlay.

GOVERNMENT CAN HAVE "SHOW DOWN"

The Grand Falls Development Matter Dealt With in a Bill.

The bill under which the Provincial Government have taken authority to bring about a "show down" on the development of Grand Falls was passed in the Legislature this morning. H. A. Powell, K. C., of St. John, representing the Grand Falls Power Co. Ltd., the present holders, being in attendance.

According to the terms of the bill, if the company can convince the government that it will undertake the immediate development of the power available and will also assent to the government regulation of the sale of the power, the company may be permitted to proceed, otherwise the government will take prompt action towards development on its own account.

The procedure outlined is action by order-in-council to vest the rights in the crown; report by the water power commission or other engineers on the power possibilities and development plans and by accountants and other experts on the value of the actual assets of the company; purchase by the government on the basis of this report or, failing an agreement with the company, reference of the appraisement to a committee of judges. In the event of the latter step being taken the government may either proceed with the purchase or report to the next session of the Legislature.

The preamble of the bill sets forth the history of the companies which secured rights of the falls and of their failure to develop the power. It sets forth that it is of vital importance to the province that this great natural water power should be developed and the interests of the people of the province should not be jeopardized by allowing the control of a public utility of such importance to remain vested in the control of one corporation to the exclusion of all other persons and corporations without any actual and bona fide development of such power, and that it is desirable and expedient in the interests of the province and in response to a universal public demand therefore, that power and authority shall be granted to the Lieutenant Governor-in-council to expedite the development of such water power.

Death at Acton Settlement.

William Hood, of Acton Settlement, passed away yesterday at his home in that locality following an attack of apoplexy. The deceased was 83 years of age and was a well known farmer. He is survived by four sons, Alexander of Queensbury, William C. of St. John, and James and Frederick at home, and by three daughters, Mrs. Thomas Thompson of Millinocket, Maine, Mrs. Charles Davis of Sherman Station, Maine, and Miss Melissa at home. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon, interment being made at Acton.

W. J. Ryan, of St. John, is at the Barker House.

France Agrees With Russia on The Free Exchange of Prisoners To Take Place Immediately

125 French Women and Children Are to Be Sent to the Finnish Frontier by the Soviet Authorities and in Exchange 3,000 Russian Soldiers Will Be Sent Home.

Paris, April 24.—Under the agreement relative to the exchange of resolution and French prisoners which has been signed at Copenhagen by M. Litvinoff and the French representatives, 125 French women and children are to be sent immediately to the Finnish frontier by soviet authorities. They will be released in exchange for the 3,000 Russian soldiers who have recently been landed at Odessa by order of the French Government.

The agreement also stipulates that all other French subjects held in Russia, without exception, shall be repatriated within three months by way of the Black Sea.

Contracts Subject to Tax.

Paris, April 24.—All Government contracts signed between July 24, 1914, and October 24, 1919, would be subjected to a tax by a Government bill ready for introduction in the chamber of deputies. The tax would be in addition t othe existing war profits taxes.

Under the proposed bill no such tax could exceed ten per cent. of the amount of the ontract, and the tax would be graduated according to the total sum involved.

ANTI-SOCIALIST BILLS PASS IN N. Y.

Albany, N. Y., April 24.—The Walters-Fearon anti-socialist bills were passed in the State Senate last night. Under a closure rule adopted earlier in the day the debate was limited. The assembly passed both measures a few days ago and they now go to the Governor, who is expected to veto them.

Late Miss Alice Pond.

Miss Alice Pond, of this city, passed away at her home on Needham street at an early hour this morning. The deceased was a daughter of the late Moses and Drusilla Pond and was loved and esteemed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. She is survived by two sisters, Miss Tressa Pond, of this city, and Mrs. E. H. Emmerson, of Ellsworth, Maine. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Service will be conducted by Rev. G. C. Warren and interment will be made at the Rural cemetery.

Chief Secretary of Salvation Army.

Brigadier Moore, of St. John, divisional commander of the Salvation Army, is in the city today and Col. J. McMillan, chief secretary of the Salvation Army of Canada east, is expected to arrive in the city this evening. While here Col. McMillan will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Kilburn on Brunswick street.

Care of the Teeth

Is an investment in your individual asset of personal appearance, comfort and health. The opposite condition gives a disgusting appearance, foul and offensive breath, repugnant to all within its influence, and favors disease. We aim to save all teeth whenever possible, but useless ones are better out than retained in a condition of inefficiency and discomfort. THEIR REMOVAL IS ACCOMPLISHED WITHOUT PAIN BY OUR WONDERFUL PAINLESS METHOD.

Dr. Wilson:

Sir,—I enclose the twenty dollars owed you for work done for my mother. I wish to say that the work gives the very greatest satisfaction in every way and to thank you very much for the pains you took with it.

Yours very truly,

BRIDGE WORK.

Why not have those vacant spaces due to missing teeth filled in with Bridge Work? It is extremely durable and at our price is within the reach of all.

WE AIM TO PLEASE.

We know continued success depends upon Fair Dealing and Reliable Work.

BEST SET OF TEETH $12.00.

No better made elsewhere no matter what you pay.

Careful attention is given to every detail of the work performed here by properly sterilizing all instruments and appliances used.

Dr. Wilson:

Dear Sir,—I feel I must express my appreciation of the dental work you have done for my wife. Not only for great skill and carefulness you exercised in extracting her terrible teeth, but for the lovely artificial set that you made for her. Both myself and all the family are delighted with the beauty and perfect fit. She has not had ten minutes' discomfort with them. Under your care no one need dread parting with their natural stumps. If I were asked to give a definition of your dental work, would say better than the best and cheaper than the cheapest.

Yours respectfully,

Nurse in attendance.

Come and have your teeth examined. It costs you nothing.

THE SESSION OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

The Fourth Session of the Seventh Legislative Assembly will be prorogued this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The session has been fruitful of some legislation of value. The water powers development measures were of first importance. The Government's general development measure, based on the Ontario Act, may have some objectionable features, but if the provisions are adhered to reasonably in the administration it should work out greatly to the advantage of the province. Cheap power and cheap lighting are essentials if we are to keep pace with the neighboring provinces in industrial enterprise and in agricultural development. If these are not provided, the fault will not be found in the Act. The measure dealing with the Grand Falls gives opportunities for negotiation, which may, as in the past, serve private rather than public interests. The process will be closely followed by the people who feel that governments were at fault in permitting the power of Grand Falls to go absolutely to waste for a long period of time, and that in the interest of a foreign corporation. The Act under which the Fraser Paper Company will develop another extensive enterprise, in this instance at the Tobique Narrows, is the most beneficial legislation of the session.

The measure fixing a salary for the Minister of Public Health meets personal requirements to some extent; and the increase of the members' sessional indemnity from $500 each to $1,000 was not an unexpected move in these piping times. The Teachers' Salaries measure is based upon the report of a Commission, which is not easily understandable, if understandable at all. This measure was, strangely, delayed until the closing hours of the session.

Supply provides inadequately for several of the public services, notably agriculture and education; but something approaching reasonable provision has been made for other services. The disinclination, or the inability, of the Government to fix and collect a reasonable rate of stumpage has made the situation very awkward in this period of development. The shortage of revenue does not permit reasonable appropriation for reasonable service, and yet there has been resort to a large measure of direct taxation while the lumbermen have been given stumpage at a price ridiculously below the market value.

The session has been interesting, some of the debates have been instructive, and the province is, perhaps, not much worse off than before.

A NOVEL TAX IDEA.

Governments all over the world are puzzling themselves how to get more money by taxes without doing more harm to anybody than can be helped. Tariff taxes, income taxes, profits taxes, estate taxes, business taxes, inheritance taxes, stamp taxes, amusement taxes, all have their advocates and their enemies. A proposition not entirely new in principle, but novel on the scale on which it is proposed, is made by a leading American banker, Otto H. Kahn, of New York, which could easily be made to get all the money any government might need, and would seemingly be both fair to everybody and without questionable indirect consequences. This proposition is that there should be a tax on all sales of goods, points out an exchange.

Mr. Kahn attacks the business profits tax and income tax, especially the former. He says these taxes, especially the former, militate against the prosperity and extension of industry. All taxation, he holds, falls ultimately upon the consumer, which of course is true more or less; so, argues he, let us choose a form of taxation if we can which, though it may fall upon the consumer directly, will have no side evils. Such a tax he sees in a sales tax. "Why not," he says,

"impose a small percentage tax, say 1 per cent., on all sale of commodities and products and presumably of real estate. Such a measure would be productive of an immense amount of revenue and would not be harmful to any one.

"The exact form which such a tax should take is debatable. It might be imposed on the seller according to the aggregate sales effected, the tax to be computed quarterly, semi-annually, or annually.

"Or it might, on every transaction, be paid by the purchaser, in which case it should not be included in the selling price, but specifically added to it as a separate item, probably best in the shape of stamps. Or it might be made applicable to retail sales only.

Mr. Kahn does not think business men would object, because they would simply add the tax to what would otherwise be the prices of their goods. And as far as the buyer was concerned, he would merely be paying in that fashion what he pays now in some other fashion, though sometimes he does not know it. The New York banker sums up thus:—

"A trifling sales tax on the huge volume of commodities changing hands annually would yield so vast a revenue that it would enable the excess-profits tax and practically all other abnormal business taxes (except, perhaps, the corporate income tax) to be eliminated, surtaxes on individual incomes to be greatly reduced, and Federal taxation of income up to, say, four thousand dollars to be abolished altogether.

"The result would be a great reduction in the cumulative percentages with which prices are now 'loaded' to meet taxation; that is to say, there would be bound to ensue a lowering of prices all round. Competition would see to that. If, contrary to all expectation and precedent, it should not do so, other agencies will.

"Another advantage of the sales tax is the great simplicity of its working and the definiteness of its application, especially as compared to the vexatious, uneven and unfair working of the excess-profits tax.

"Furthermore, to collect such a tax requires little expense, no complicated bookkeeping, no intricate schedules, no lawyers' and accountants' services, and no army of government employees. It can be increased or decreased in short order and without any resulting economic disturbance, according to the financial needs of the Government.

"If a 1 per cent. tax produces too much, it is a very simple process to decrease it by an appropriate percentage. If it produces too little, a small additional percentage will yield the sum needed."

As in both Canada and the United States at present, the national finances are showing enormous deficits, and tax receipts of some kind or other must be increased, it looks as though the sales tax idea might be advantageously tried. We have had it for a time in a small way in the shape of the stamp tax on various kinds of drugs and patent articles.

JUST 26 SECONDS TO DOUBLE INDEMNITY

The New Brunswick Legislature put on a new record for speed in passing legislation last night when the bill to double the sessional indemnities from $500 to $1,000 was put through.

Mr. LeBlanc of Restigouche was chairman of the committee of the whole House and despite the fact that he is an Acadian he read the bill through so rapidly that few of the members themselves realized the bill had been agreed until the chairman was starting on the new bill.

It just took 26 seconds to pass the bill. "What bill was that," drawled a sleepy member of the Opposition after it had been passed. "Don't mention it," returned one of the Government's supporters and the rest of the members joined in the laugh.

CIVIC ELECTIONS IN CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, N. B., April 21.—A large measure of public interest was manifested this year in the town elections, which took place on Tuesday last. Dr. Murray, who was elected mayor last year by acclamation and had filled that office for several terms in former years, was opposed in this election by W. H. Wallace, but was again elected by the largest majority ever recorded in a mayoralty contest in this town.

Of the eight aldermen who sat at the council board last year, seven offered for re-election and six were elected. The two new aldermen are H. J. Currie and A. C. Belleisle.

The town council for the ensuing year will be constituted as follows: Mayor, Dr. Daniel Murray; aldermen-at-large, John Devereau and C. Homer Matthews; aldermen for Ward 1, Henry J. Currie and Alphonse C. Belleisle; for Ward 2, Alphonse H. Ingram and T. N. Dickie; for Ward 3, John H. Bissett and Sydney H. Jamieson.

writes, that if this English militarism in Ireland is what we, soldiers, fought for, then

"By God, we're sold?"

Will you show there is more than wordy truth in Newman's: "An Englishman's repentance is greater than his sin."

Ask, if Englishmen are not good Sinn Feiners, for England. Ask what English Sinn Feiners would say, and would do, if England were under an army of occupation, and a hostile government's armed police. Ask, why England supported Republican Polish Sinn Feiners, and would not compromise for even Dominion Home Rule for the Republic of Bohemia.

Ireland has asked these questions. Therefore, Ireland is full of Sinn Feiners who will not be answered, that only might is right. And, therefore, the tyrannous, and the unscrupulous, and the interested, hate and fear Sinn Fein, and hate and fear the English principles, so dinned into our ears of British justice and British freedom. Freedom! Justice! Alas!

"As slaves below, that under hatches lie
Hear those on deck extol the sun and sky."

"Words, words, words": You have put points to our contempt, and on our sneering.

Sinn Fein is what England says, not what she does. "After her words, therefore, do ye; but, after her acts, do ye not."

We Irish know well that the rank and file of the English people care no more about Ireland either in fury or sympathy than if Ireland were distant as Timbuctoo. So it is said. And so we know. Therefore we are Sinn Feiners; that is, people who would mind their own business.

AMERICANS AFTER POTATO SUPPLY

Montreal Dealer Says Canada Is Being Swept Clean by American Buyers.

Montreal, April 23.—Are American buyers invading Canada in droves to buy up every potato that can be discovered? The assertion that they are doing so is made by local dealers who give this as the greatset reason for the high price now being paid here by the housewives for the family supplies.

"It is almost impossible to get potatoes anywhere in the provinces of Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick or Prince Edward Island now. The Americans have sent swarms of buyers into the Dominion and there are four or five men bidding for everything that is available. One United States buyer told us he had got five carloads at $5.75 per bag f. o. b. in Prince Edward Island; another said he had found eighty cars for Pittsburg at the same rate. I tried to get two cars for Montreal in Prince Edward Island. After a long time I got them at $4.75 f. o. b. there for a bag of 90 lbs. It costs about 75 cents per bag to bring them on to Montreal, making the cost here about $5.50. But the real reason why Montrealers are paying such enormous prices now is that the country has been swept clean of its crop by the Americans and so it has passed over the border."

"Papa," said little Horatio, "can you tell me what is natural philosophy?"

"Of course I can!" answered his proud parent. "Natural philosophy, my son, is the science of cause and reason. Now, for instance, you see the steam coming out of the spout of that kettle; but you don't know why or for what reason it does so, and—"

"Oh, but I do, papa!" chipped Horatio, knowingly. "The reason the steam comes out of the kettle is so that ma can open your letters without you knowing it!"

BONUS AND WASTE.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Granting of bonuses to returned men at this time would certainly seem nothing more than a waste. Does the public realize that paying out a billion dollars for this purpose would at once enormously increase the cost of living at a time when we are told that the cost of living is about to decrease? What proportion of this billion dollars would be saved by the boys? Very little, indeed. Many of the married men would turn over to their wives a large portion of the bonus, only to be spent for expensive dresses and useless finery, and the men themselves would undoubtedly purchase at least a million not needed suits of clothes and millions of $10 and $20 silk shirts.

At this time we are constantly told from Ottawa and elsewhere to stop all useless spending.

Upon receiving this bonus numbers would very likely quit their jobs, and those unemployed would cease looking for work until they had spent the bonus money, whereas the slogan of the day is, "To work and save!"

By all means let our Government be more than liberal toward the wounded and disabled. But let us not squander the nation's money or increase the high cost of living with a new orgy of spending. I hope the people will do some thinking in the right direction. I have a son who was abroad four years, but is against all bonuses.

Yours,

CANADIAN.

Chatham, April 22, 1920.

CATS AND RATS.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Many years' close study of rat extermination prompts me to say a good word for puss. In the course of time (though I was enabled to invent numerous devices that would take care of the rodent) I found nothing so efficient as the household cat in keeping the ordinary home free from the pest. The rat's extraordinary sense of smell, quite equal to the fox's, is one reason he gives the cat a wide berth. Traps require great care in setting and disguising and the ordinary man has little time or inclination to bother with them. The farmer depends on his cat and cannot bother much with contraptions.

Many years ago Harrison Weir, the famous artist, lover of birds and author of All About Cats, tried to dispense with cats in his country seat "to save the birds." He was forced, however, to restore them to favor to save the birds' food, devoured by increasing number of rats. He declared, and my most recent experience confirms his opinion, that if we do not have millions of cats we would have billions of rats! Yours,

TEDDY.

Houlton, Me., April 21, 1920.

WICKEDNESS MAGNIFIED.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—A clergyman only continues a past practice in filling his church with a curious crowd by a recital of "sensational disclosures." The truth of the matter is that conditions as they actually exist are known to every person who is not continually asleep.

The lives of most of the city's inhabitants are far from immoral practices. If a person leaves his home in the evening and makes a determined search for vice he can find it in any place on earth where human beings congregate. It will, judging from the past, be impossible for the authorities to stamp it out entirely. When one method of concealment is discovered and remedied, another springs into existence. It is not a fact that vice has been removed from cities just because open districts have been disbanded.

Vice is a thing that must be fought mentally and physically by each individual and not by a few publicity seekers. The church should be a place for spiritual and moral advice with the weight of the words and deeds of its officials and laymen behind it as an example. When people follow the teachings of Christ, then vice will be overcome. Would it therefore not be better if a minister confined himself to inspiring sermons, leaving other conditions to be dealt with by the authorities appointed for that purpose? Yours,

FAITH.

Fredericton, April 22, 1920.

THE WHIRLWIND IS RIPE.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—To those who have been observing events since the armistice, there is no mystery in the damnably unwarranted strike of the railroad men in the United States. It is but the beginning of a red revolution encouraged and fostered by the Bolsheviki and the result of their propaganda, which the average American, owing to lack of vision and fatuous sense of security, has failed to recognize. We have been sitting in fancied security on the edge of a volcano which is about to erupt. Oh for a few weeks of Roosevelt!

Yours,

OBSERVER.

Beauty and Economy

Brantford Crystal Roofing

is made—the colors being unfadeable, because they are the natural shades of the crushed slate used for the surface of this handsome roofing material.

Brantford Crystal Roofing is also a very economical roof. It is moderate in cost, can be very rapidly laid, and is a permanent material that is completely non-absorbent and therefore proof against the weather.

Note the extra heavy weight—80 to 85 lbs. per square; that means extra long life.

Suitable for homes, stores, factories, garages, churches, schools — all buildings on which an artistic yet economical roof is desired.

$2,100 Salary For Minister Of Health Passed by 17 to 10

Hon. Dr. Baxter Objects to Government Proposal and Suggests that There Be an Amalgamation of Several Departments of the Government.

The House in committee last night took up consideration of a bill to amend an Act respecting the Executive Council. This bill provides a salary of $2,100 for the Minister of Health.

Mr. Baxter said the Opposition did not take any stand against the proposal that the hon. Minister of Health should submit himself to the people. He believed it only right that any Minister upon taking charge of a department, which was expending public money, should go to the people for their approval. He could not say, however, that the Opposition approved of the payment of a salary to the Minister of Public Health. The Public Accounts of last year showed that less than $28,000 had been handled by that department, and less than $31,000 was in the estimates for the coming year. He could not think that interests of the county required that a Minister on full salary was necessary to look after the expenditure of less than $31,000. On both sides there was a feeling that members of the government were underpaid. That was no reason for adding another Minister to the list, but it was a cogent reason for the consolidation of several departments. He thought the duties of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer might be distributed among other departments without disadvantage to the country.

An Attorney General, Dr. Baxter said, was necessary, but was entitled to more than $2,100 a year. A Minister of Lands and Mines and a Minister of Public Works were also needed. He did not think that the Department of Agriculture called for a Minister who did nothing else. If they must have a Minister of Health, the department might be consolidated with that of Agriculture. He thought the departments should be carried on by a smaller number of better paid Ministers. It was an accident that the government had in its ranks a member of the medical profession to take charge of the Department of Health, but that might not always be the case. The next House might be without a medical practitioner, but he would not like to say that there would not be a farmer among the members. It might be to the advantage of the province to have a practical farmer in charge of the Department of Health. Such a man would no doubt provide good solid material for the public health. The opposition had not objected to Dr. Abramson, who was a good man, but it did object to medical inspectors running about the country in the interests of public health. He did not think the office of the Minister of Health was worth a salary of $2,100.

Mr. McGrath said he thought it might be more desirable to have the Minister of Agriculture act as Attorney-General, as he felt sure he would do better in that position than he would presiding over the Department of Health.

Mr. Pinder wanted to know where the government proposed to raise the $2,100. He thought a bond issue might be necessary.

A motion to adopt the bill was carried by a vote fo 17 to 10.

TRAIL CRIMINALS WITH AEROPLANES

Winnipeg, April 23.—Escaped criminals from Manitoba jails will in future be trailed by aeroplanes, Lieut.-Col. J. G. Rattray, chief of the Manitoba Provincial Police, has decided. In making the announcement, Col. Rattray stated that it would be possible in this way to trace prisoners across country not yet served by railways. Arrangements have been made for a local aeroplane company to hold a plane at the disposal of the provincial police department should the need arise.

THE "BONE DRY" RESOLUTION LOST

would have taken on the question he thought it only fair that he should refrain from voting.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that the fact that an hon. member was paired did not interfere with his right to vote on a private question.

Mr. Potts said that it had always been customary for members when paired to refrain from voting on any question. He was not inclined to accept the opinion of the Minister of Public Works on the question but would like a ruling from the chair.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that when two members pair it only meant that they were to abstain from voting on questions which concerned the Government. It was absurd to say that they did not have the right to vote on other matters.

Mr. Baxter said that when members on opposite sides were paired it meant that they would abstain from voting on questions which involved the downfall of the ministry. If the agreement were extended to private questions it would be impossible for a member to cast a vote on a private bill. He thought the Minister of Public Works was absolutely correct.

Hon. Mr. Speaker, referring to the question raised by the member for St. John (Potts) said that the hon. member for St. John county had expressed his views must beter than he could.

Mr. Sweney rose to a question of privilege. He said the member for St. John no doubt ahd reference to him when he questioned the right of thsos who were paired on vote on the prohibition resolution. He (Sweeney) was paired with Mr. Guptill and he did not want the insinuation thrown across the floor that he was taking advantage of Mr. Guptill by voting in his absence. He had attempted to make an explanation when the matter was under discussion but had been ruled out of order.

Hon. Mr. Speaker said that the hon. member had been ruled out of order for the time being because the chairman of the corporations committee had the floor.

Mr. Potts said that the hon. member from Westmorland was paired for the season and he did not think he had the right to vote. With all due deference to the member for St. John county, he did not agree with the opinion he had expressed.

1890 without examination. The doctor was almost a stranger to him, but he knew that he had a large practice in York and Sunbury and all spoke favorably of him.

The Committee divided on the amendment, which was lost by a vote of 20 to 11. The Chairman, in reply to Mr. Tilley, who asked that the names be recorded, said it could only be done when the bill came before the House for a third reading.

The Committee agreed to the bill by a vote of 16 to 13.

"Masters of the Road"

Superb AND Supreme

¶ The measure of mileage you expect to get from an automobile tire is exactly the measure we are prepared to give you in Dunlop Cord Tires.

¶ Dunlop Tires are thoroughly "thought out" in the Scientific Research Department, then they are thoroughly "tried out" on the road. You, as a tire buyer, get the Final Result.

¶ The new ideas we have evolved from world-wide collaboration with Dunlop Master Tire Builders have worked wonders in tire construction.

¶ Every other make of tire has suffered in comparison with Dunlop in a test of endurance; and that means foreign-made tires as well as Canadian-made.

¶ And just as Dunlop Cord Tires, wherever you go, are being awarded the palm as "1920's best," so, right across Canada, our 1920 sales figures are registering the definite approval of motorists in decidedly unusual increases.

¶ When you buy Dunlop Tires you buy from the world's greatest rubber organization, whether the comparison is in technical knowledge, area of plants, financial resources, etc.

¶ Our new million-and-a-half-dollar factory is now nearing completion. It will be exclusively devoted to the manufacture of Dunlop Cord Tires — "Traction," "Ribbed."

National Liquid Gall Cure

CURES

Scratches, Harness Galls, Cuts, Grease Heel

and other wounds and sores on horses and cattle. It will also cure Eczema, Burns, Bruises, Ring Worm, or Run-round, Open Sores, etc. The best results will be obtained if the sore is first washed with NATIONAL DISINFECTANT.

NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE has been used for years by some of the largest Lumbering Concerns, and Railroad Contractors. OUR GUARANTEE: "We will see that your money is refunded if National Liquid Gall Cure does not cure any ailment for which it is recommended as quickly as the purchaser thinks it should." And we have never had to make a refund. Below are two testimonials given voluntarily:—

Estey & Curtis Co., Ltd.,
Hartland, N. B.

Gentlemen,—I have been selling and using NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE for a number of years. Always under guarantee. Have never heard a complaint and sale has steadily increased. I am convinced that for what it is recommended for, it is far superior to anything on the market.

I seldom have a call for other sort of GALL CURE and never from one who has tried it.

For scratches it is the only cure I have ever known.

Last summer I sold a number of bottles to River Drivers to use on sore feet.

They claim it is a sure cure and hail it as a great boon.

You may recommend NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE for man as well as beast.

Yours truly,
(Sgd.) H. L. MORSE,
Harness Maker, Etc.

Estey & Curtis Co., Ltd.,
Hartland, N. B.

Gentlemen,—I have been asked by our local dealer to give my opinion of NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE and have no hesitation in saying that for scratches and other wounds on horses it has no equal. It is also an excellent remedy for water scalds on men's feet.

As foreman on lower section of St. John River Corporation Drive I have seen much suffering from this cause and in all my thirty-five years' experience on drives have never known anything to cure scalds on a man's feet while he continued to work in the water till last summer, when I saw NATIONAL LIQUID GALL CURE tried with perfect results.

Yours truly,
(Sgd.) ALEX. McCORQUINDALE,
Hawkshaw, N. B.

Entertained a Number of Carleton Co. School Teachers

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Woodstock, April 24.—Mr. and Mrs. H.P. Saunders, of Calgary, Alta., formerly of Woodstock, entertained a number of school teachers from Carleton county very delightfully at their home on Friday evening, April 9th. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Lunn and baby son, Gordon; the Misses Pearl Raymond, Lottie Kilpatrick, Loraine Blue, Helen and Alice Giberson, Lillian Shaw, Annie and Katie Graham and Edna Blackmore. Solos rendered by Mrs. Lunn were greatly appreciated. After a delicious luncheon the guests departed, all declaring Mr. and Mrs. Saunders to be royal entertainers.

Watts Lodge, No. 95, I.O.O.F., of McAdam Junction, will pay a fraternal visit to Carleton Lodge, No. 41, I.O.O.F., on Monday evening, April 26th, to confer the initiatory degree on ten candidates.

Make Good Recovery.

Mrs. Daisy DeLong, who has been recently operated on at the Fisher Memorial Hospital in Woodstock for tonsilitis, is recovering at her home in Springfield, Carleton county.

The friends of Dean Shaw, of Simonds, Carleton county, who underwent a surgical operation at Dr. Prescott's Hospital last week, will be pleased to know he is making a good recovery.

James W. Gallagher is confined to the house this week with rheumatism and a heavy cold.

There was a meeting of the executive of the reorganized G.W.V.A. in the offices of Dr. Daman on Wednesday evening, the president, Rev. F. M. Lockary, in the chair, and all the members present. Until such time as the armory is ready for occupancy by them as a clubroom, meetings will be held in other offices. The K. of P. have kindly loaned their rooms for the first regular meeting and smoking concert, which will be held at 8.30 on Tuesday evening, April 27.

Personal Notes.

C. F. Gallagher, of Bath, who was here on a business visit, returned home on Monday.

Miss Georgia Britton has returned to Presque Isle after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Bailey returned this week from a trip to Ottawa.

Mrs. G. E. Tracy and Miss Alice Tracy, after spending the winter in Houlton, have returned to their summer cottage at Richmond, Carleton county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ellsworth have arrived at their former home here, having spent the greater part of the winter in Nova Scotia. After visiting here a few weeks they will return to St. John.

Funeral Services.

The funeral of John Cronkhite, a highly respected and well known farmer of Northampton, took place on Tuesday afternoon, attended by Rev. L. E. Ackland, with burial in the Woodstock cemetery. He leaves a widow, five sons and one daughter.

The funeral of Mrs. W. N. Dyer, of Bath, occurred on Monday in that village. Deceased was aged 67 years and eight months. She was the daugter of the late John and Abigail DeMerchant and is survived by her husband and five brothers—Clement, Geo. and Edward, of Bath, Norman, of Up. Kent, and Jerry, of North Tilley, Victoria county.

Dental Act Amendments.

Doctors Daman, Clarke and Currie, of Woodstock, were among the dentists who appeared before the committee of the Legislature in opposition to the amendment to the Dental Act.

Mrs. H. B. Durost is visiting her parents in King's county.

Mrs. W. E. Dunn, of Bloomfield, who was visiting friends in Bar Harbor, Me., arrived home this week much improved in health.

Mountain Grown Orange Pekoes are Best

So there are poor Orange Pekoes and those of fine quality. Low price and high price.

The best Orange Pekoes are plucked from tea bushes grown from selected seed in the carefully cultivated soil of mountain side gardens, and gathered at a certain time of the year when the flavor is most fully developed in the leaves.

Naturally these command the highest price.

They are worth it, as you will agree when you taste their exquisite flavor in our Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea---the new and higher priced tea for those who are willing to pay a little extra price for a tea of extra quality.

There are numerous packages of Orange Pekoe teas on the market. See that the one you buy has the name---Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea---on our waxed board carton.

SWEDEN WINS IN OLYMPIC HOCKEY

Canadians Will Play Their First Game at Antwerp This Evening.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Antwerp, April 24.—Sweden defeated Belgium in the first game of the Olympian hockey tournament last night, the score being 8 to 0. The winner will meet the French team on Sunday afternoon, France having drawn a bye in the first round.

The Falcons of Winnipeg, who are upholding the honor of Canada at the big international tournament, will face the Czecho-Slovakia team tonight. Switzerland and the United States are to compete this afternoon. The semi-finals, between the winners of this afternoon's and tonight's games, and the victors in the Sweden-France match, will be held tomorrow, and the final match for the Olympic championship will take place Monday night.

Rearrangement of the line-up of the American team has been made necessary because the rink is too narrow to accommodate four forwards, and the position of rover will be middle defence.

The McCormack brothers and Drury are former Canadians and got their early hockey training in Ontario.

BASEBALL LEAGUE HERE A SURE THING

That Fredericton will have some good clean snappy baseball during the coming summer was assured when a representative gathering of those interested in the game met at the Y.M.C.A. last evening. Representatives from the town of Marysville were on hand to back up the proposition of a four or five team league, and while there were no other teams represented outside of that from the Y.M.C.A. itself it was due in a large part to the weather.

John Walker, president of the Y.M.C.A. Athletic Association, was appointed chairman for the occasion and a live discussion arose over the formation of a league in this city. Remembering the experiences of last year, the players present thought it would not do to have too many teams in the League, as this would lessen the interest in the game among the sporting public. The Marysville representatives present stated they were already prepared to go ahead as they had a team practically formed. By reports from those present it was ascertained that both Devon and Nashwaaksis were willing to enter the league. Other teams who had shown their intention to enter, but who were not represented at the meeting, were the John Palmer Co. and the Palace Bowling Alleys. These, with the Y.M.C.A. team ,would make a six-team league, but it was thought by those attending that the clubs of Devon and Nashwaaksis might favor the idea of a combined team from the over-the-river locality. This they thought would provide for better teams and better baseball and would undoubtedly create more interest in the game than a six-team league.

Because of the fact that only the two teams were represented it was suggested that a committee be appointed to get in touch with representatives of the various teams mentioned and have them assemble at the Y.M.C.A. on Wednesday of next week for the purpose of organizing a league. Acting upon the suggestion, the chairman appointed a committee of four, W. P. Keenan, Trafford Donovan, Hayward Paynter and Sandy Staples, to undertake the work and to impress upon the representatives referred to that the organization of the league would take place on Wednesday evening at the "Y" building. The matter of a trophy was then introduced by Sandy Staples, but this will stand over until some definite information has been secured as to the number of teams that will form the league.

Physical Director Cochrane announced that he had got in touch with the Y.M.C.A.'s at St. John and Moncton and that, while they were strongly in favor of having a provincial league of the three teams, they felt that if that could not be arranged for they would at least have a play-off for provincial championship honors. Reference was also made to the fact that several outside teams had written stating they were willing to enter a York County League, but these letters were stood over until a larger representation was present.—W. Has Arrived at Parlor Track With String of Six Horses to Train.

The Chatham Gazette says:

"Mr. Boutilier has come to the Chatham track from Bathurst with afine string of horses, and is starting their summer's training at the Chatham race track.

"At present there are six horses in Mr. Boutilier's string, but he expects to have some more arrive here a little later, and the Chatham paddock will be a pretty lively horse centre.

"In the list of horses at present training here are the celebrated John A. Hal, 2.03½, who holds the provincial record, made on the Chatham track; also Lacopia, the Great, green two-year-old colt, Will Be Sure, 2.24¼, The Northern Lady, a green one, and also a green pacer imported from North Carolina."

"They beat anything I ever tried"

"I have been using Planet Jr Horse Hoes for several years," writes C. R. Mote, Carrolton, Ga., "and they beat anything I ever tried. I just can't get along without them."

Planet Jr farm and garden implements get high praise from users because they produce bigger, better crops with less work. Their quick, easy, telling results are the product of over 45 years actual farming and manufacturing experience. Planet Jr tools last a lifetime—every one fully guaranteed.

Planet Jr

No. 8 Horse Hoe and Cultivator does a greater variety of work and does it more thoroughly than any other cultivator ever made. It has stronger, better construction. Its depth regulator and extra-long frame make it steady-running. Adaptable to deep or shallow cultivation and to different widths. 15 other styles of one-horse cultivators—various prices.

No. 4 Planet Jr Combined Hill and Drill Seeder, Wheel-Hoe, Cultivator and Plow does the work so quickly, easily and thoroughly that it pays for itself in a single season. Sows all garden seeds (in drills or hills) plows, opens furrows, and covers them, hoes and cultivates all through the season.

Stop in and see them.

New Standards of Value

$1365 F.O.B. CHATHAM WAR TAX EXTRA

GRAY-DORT

Gray-Dort has brought peace-time standards of value to the motor car business. Greater value than the light car has heretofore offered. $1365 brings you a car comparable with those costing several hundred dollars more.

LOOK FOR THESE THINGS IN THE CAR YOU BUY

The Gray-Dort motor is big enough for its job—not stunted—3½" bore and 5" stroke—with big water jackets and a big, honeycomb radiator. The crankshaft is husky—many pounds heavier than other builders of light cars think necessary. The pistons are extra-light and three-ringed. Special design prevents valve-warping. High-carbon steel gives toughness to moving parts.

The whole chassis parallels the motor in quality. Heavy frame of channel steel. Husky rear axle, Chatham-built. Long springs, cantilever in the rear, and built here under our inspection. The big brakes now have Thermoid lining. A new steering gear, 50% larger and stronger than the light car standard.

The Gray-Dort is as pleasing to the artist and to the driver as it is to the mechanic.

The smooth lines of the body are restful after so much of the extreme in present-day cars. The Gray-Dort finish, development of 60 years' coach-building, will win your instant, and lasting approval. Add the smartness of French-pleated upholstery, and a new top, tailored in our own shops.

The big gasoline tank is now in the rear—for good-looks and convenience. As in big cars, the emergency brake is on a lever, the side-curtains open with the doors. A shorter, smarter cowl gives more room in the driving compartment. The new hood, with its many long, narrow louvres has a touch of European smartness.

AND YET THE PRICE IS $1365,
(PLUS WAR TAX)

You know that such a car as the Gray-Dort will be in heavy demand at $1365. We have doubled our production this year. But there is likely to be a shortage. See the Gray-Dort dealer now.

PRICES

The Gray-Dort 5-passenger car, finished in Gray-Dort green and black and with standard equipment is $1365 f.o.b. Chatham. War tax extra.

The roomy 2-passenger roadster is the same price.

THE GRAY-DORT SPECIAL

For the man who wishes something a little extra in his car, we have built the Gray-Dort Special. Maroon body, with brown rayntite top. Plate glass rear window. Gipsy curtains. Rookie tan wheels. Motometer. Tilting steering wheel. Real leather upholstery. Mahogany instrument board. Just the touches which lift this car above the ordinary. $150 extra on the standard.

AND THE ACE!

The Gray-Dort Ace—the most beautiful light car of to-day. Sapper green body with handsome California top to match.

Trouble Lamp and bull's-eye flashlight. Electric cigar lighter. Rear-vision mirror. Plate glass windows. Oversize, grooved-tread tires. This is the de luxe car for the man who does not wish to pile up a tremendous operating cost. $255 extra on the standard.

Prest-O-Lite STORAGE BATTERY SERVICE

Your Shield of Defense—

Give Your New Car a Fair Start

WHEN you drive out of the salesroom, drive in here for a battery test and a freshening charge—at no cost to you.

Many battery troubles are started in the early days of the car's active life. Batteries often lose some of their power in transit, owing to traffic delays and other causes. Sometimes, too, the car starts out with its generator sufficiently out of adjustment to cause serious damage to the battery if allowed to run any considerable length of time.

We will check this up for you, give you the correct charging rate for your generator, and start you off right.

It is the aim of Prest-O-Lite Service to provide such storage battery service that there need not be a stalled or dimly lighted car from coast to coast.

GOOD HEALTH IS MAGNETIC

All Admire Strong, Robust, Healthy, Vigorous Men and Women

If You Are Weak, Run-Down and Ailing, Let Vinol Enrich Your Blood and Create Strength and Vitality for You

For the weak, run-down, anaemic, over-worked, ailing men and women there is little joy in life. It is easy to drift into this condition, overwork, a neglected cold, or a severe sickness may have left its wake, poor, thin, devitalized blood, a sluggish circulation, no vitality and you are simply dragging around from day to day, getting up each morning just as tired as you went to bed.

Now, why not change all this by taking advantage of your druggist's guarantee that VINOL will enrich your blood, quicken your circulation and carry strength and vigor to every part of your body, or return your money if it fails. Mrs. W. J. Nixon, of Vankleek Hill, Ont., says: "I was sick for months. I had no appetite and could not seem to get my strength back. I told my doctor I was going to try VINOL, and he said it was fine. I found it gave me a good appetite and I rapidly gained in strength."

For all run-down, nervous, anaemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children there is nothing like VINOL.

"It came this morning by the princes' messenger," said he, "and was brought from England by Sir John Fallislee, who is now come from Sussex. What make you of this upon the outer side?"

"It is fairly anad clearly written," Alleyne answered, "and it signifies To Sir Nigel Loring, Knight Constable of Twnham Castle, by the hand of Christopher, the servant of God at the Priory of Christchurch."

"So I read it," said Sir Nigel. "Now I pray you to read what is set forth within."

Alleyne turned to the letter, and, as his eyes rested upon it, his face turned pale and a cry of surprise and grief burst from his lips.

"What then?" asked the knight, peering up at him anxiously. "There is nought amiss with the Lady Mary or with the Lady Maude?"

"It is my brother—my poor unhappy brother!" cried Alleyne, with his hand to his brow. "He is dead."

"By Saint Paul! I have never hear that he had shown so much love for you that you should mourn him so."

"Yet he was my brother, the only kith or kin that I had upon earth. Mayhap he had cause to be bitter against me, for his land was given to the abbey for my upbringing. Alas! alas! and I raised my staff against him when last we met! He has been slain—and slain, I fear, amidst crime and violence."

"Ha!" said Sir Nigel. "Read on, I pray you."

"God be with thee, my honored lord, and have thee in his holy keeping. The Lady Loring hath asked me to set down in writing what hath befallen at Twnham, and all that concerns the death of thy ill neighbor the Socman of Minstead. For when ye had left us, this evil man gathered around him all outlaws, villains, and masterless men, until they were come to such a force that they slew and scattered the king's men who went against them. Then, coming forth from the weds, they laid siege to thy castle, and for two days they girt us in and shot hard against us, with such numbers as were a marvel to see. Yet the Lady Loring held the place stoutly, and on the second day the Socman was slain—by his own men, as some think—so that we were delivered from their hands for which praise be to all the saints, and more especially to the holy Anselm, upon whose feast it came to pass. The Lady Loring, and the Lady Maude, thy fair daughter, are in good health; and so also also am I, save for an imposthume of the toe-joint, which hath been sent me for my sins. May all the saints preserve thee!"

"It was the vision of the Lady Tiphaine," said Sir Nigel, after a pause. "Marked you not how she said that the leader was one with a yellow beard, and how he fell before the gate. But how it came, Alleyne, that this woman, to whom all things are as crystal, and who hath not said one word which has not come to pass, was yet so led astray as to say that your thoughts turned to Twnham Castle even more than my own?"

"My fair lord," said Alleyne, with a flush on his weather-stained cheeks, "the Lady Tiphaine may have spoken sooth whe... said it; for Twnham Castle is in my heart by day and in my dreams by night."

"Ha!" cried Sir Nigel, with sidelong glance.

"Yes, my fair lord; for indeed I love your daughter, the Lady Maude; and, unworthy as I am, I would give my heart's blood to save her."

"By St. Paul! Edricson," said the knight coldly, arching his eyebrows, "you aim high in this matter. Our blood is very old."

"And mine also is very old," answered the squire.

"Alas! that I should say it, but I also am now the only Edricson."

"And why have I not heard this from you before, Alleyne? In sooth, I think that you have used me ill."

"Nay, my fair lord, say not so; for I know not whether your daughter loves me, and there is no pledge between us."

Sir Nigel pondered for a few moments, and then burst out a-laughing. "By St. Paul!" said he, "I know not why I should mix in the matter; for I have ever found that the Lady Maude was very well able to look to her own affairs. Since first she could stamp her little foot, she hath ever been able to get that for which she craved; and if she set her heart on thee, Alleyne, and thou on her, I do not think that this Spanish king, with his three-score thousand men, could hold you apart. Yet this I will say, that I would see you a full knight ere you go to my daughter with words of love. I have ever said that a brave lance should wed her; and, by my soul! Edricson, if God spare you, I think that you will acquit yourself well. But enough of such trifles, for we have our work before us, and it will be time to speak of this matter when we see the white cliffs of England once more. Go to Sir William Felton, I pray you, and ask him to come hither, for it is time that we were marching. There is no pass at the further end of the valley, and it is a perilous place should an enemy come upon us."

Alleyne delivered his message, and then wandered forth from the camp, for his mind was all in a whirl with this unexpected news, and with his talk with Sir Nigel. Sitting upon a rock, with his burning brew resting upon his hands, he thought of his brother, of their quarrel, of the Lady Maude in her bedraggled riding-dress, of the gray old castle, of the proud pale fact in the armory, and of the last fiery words with which she had sped him on his way. Then he was but a penniless, monk-bred lad, unknown and unfriended. Now he was himself Socman of Minstead, the head of an old stock, and the lord of an estate which, if reduced from its former size, was still ample to preserve the dignity of his family. Further, he had become a man of experience, was counted brave among brave men, had won the esteem and confidence of her father, and, above all, had been listened to by him when he told him the secret of his love. As to the gaining of knighthood, in such stirring times it was no great matter for a brave squire of gentle birth to aspirt to that honor. He would leave his bones among these Spanish ravines, or he would do some deed which would call the eyes of men upon him.

Alleyne was still seated on the rock, his griefs and his joys drifting swiftly over his mind like the shadow of clouds upon a sunlit meadow, when of a sudden he became conscious of a low, deep sound which came booming up to him through the fog. Close behind him he could hear the murmur of the bowmen, the occasional bursts of hoarse laughter, and the champing and stamping of their horses. Behind it all, however, came that low-pitched, deep-toned hum, which seemed to come from every quarter and to fill the whole air. In the old monastic days he remembered to have heard such a sound when he had walked out one windy night at Bucklershard, and had listened to the long waves breaking upon the shingly shore. Here, however, was neither wind nor sea, and yet the dull murmur rose ever louder and stronger out of the heart of the rolling sea of vapor. He turned and ran to the camp, shouting an alarm at the top of his voice.

Seventy-one placements were made during the past week by the Employment Service Bureau at their offices on York street. Twenty-eight of those placed in positions were returned soldiers.

Given Birthday Party.

About forty friends gathered at the home of Henry Boyd, Nashwaaksis, last evening, the occasion being his birthday, and presented him with a safety razor. The presentation was made with an address by Ernest Sharpe. After the presentation dancing and games were indulged in, and the party broke up after refreshments had been served.

More Spring Arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Forbes, of Saunders street, are rejoicing upon the arrival of a baby girl at their home this morning. A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Logan, Jr., at North Devon, on Wednesday last. Mr. and Mrs. J. Nobles, of Nasonworth, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a baby boy at their home on Wednesday last.

Double Bridge, I. O. D. E.

Everybody is talking about the double bridge to be held by the Sir Howard Douglas Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, to be held at the G. W. V. A. Rooms, York street, on Wednesday evening, April 28th. A competent committee will look after the comfort of the guests and a good time is assured to all who attend. All are asked to come and help swell the Memorial Fund.

Were Married Here.

Robert Setchell, a prosperous farmer of Wickham, and Miss Jessie May Cuningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cunningham, of St. John, were united in marriage yesterday by Rev. G. M. Young, at the Methodist Parsonage. The bride's parents were in the city to attend the wedding and left yesterday for St. John. Herbert McGinn and Miss Clara McCoy, both of Stanley, were united in marriage at the parsonage on Thursday.

Engineers' Dance.

The annual Engineers' Dance, given by the Engineering Society of the University, was held in the College gymnasium last night. About two hundred and fifty young people enjoyed the dancing, which consisted of a programme of eighteen numbers with four extras. The dance was chaperoned by Mrs. John Stephens and Mrs. E. O. Turner and came to a close shortly after one o'clock. The music was furnished by Tennant's orchestra.

Mission Study Class Closes.

The women of the George street Baptist Mission Study Class met this week at the home of Mrs. Charles Wilcox. It being the closing meeting of the winter's study, the book, Medical Missions, was reviewed by the leader, Mrs. James Hunter, in an interesting and instructive address. At the close of the address a social hour was held and refreshments served. Mrs. Wilcox is removing in the near future to Burtt's Corner, where her husband holds a position, and she will be much missed by her many friends.

Presentation Last Evening.

Mrs. W. J. MacLean, who is removing from the city shortly, was presented by the Ashburnham Branch of the Red Cross with a beautiful barpin set in pearls last evening. The presentation was made by Lady Ashburnham at The Palms, and was accompanied by a very fitting address in which appreciation was expressed of the splendid work of Mrs. MacLean as secretary of the Ashburnham branch during the last two years. After the presentation the evening was enjoyably passed with a musical programme of recitations and singing.

CHECK PASSERS SENT UP FOR TRIAL AT CIRCUIT COURT

Herbert Adams and Eugene Guimont Remanded to Jail Until May 4.

A. W. ENGLAND'S CASE PUT OVER TO MONDAY

Another Witness Then To Be Called by Prosecution in "Pers" Case.

The preliminary hearing of Herbert Adams, of Metapedia, and Eugene Guimont, of Campbellton, who are charged with uttering a forged check for $250 at the Bank of Nova Scotia in this city, was concluded this morning and the two were committed to trial by Police Magistrate Limerick, to come before the York Circuit Court May 4th.

R. B. Hanson, K.C., for the prosecution, moved that the prisoners be sent up for trial. Adams and Guimont had nothing to say for themselves.

England Remanded.

Albert W. England, who is charged with forging prescriptions for liquor, came before the Police Magistrate this morning but was remanded until Monday when his preliminary hearing will be concluded. One witness who was to have appeared for the prosecution, did not make his appearance, and Magistrate Limerick stated he would remand the prisoner and adjourn the case until Monday to give the prosecution a chance to have the witness at the hearing.

Sheriffs Re-appointed And Fees Increased

Premier Foster announced this morning that all sheriffs in New Brunswick who have been in office this year have been reappointed for the year beginning on May 1st.

Prot. Stockley Refutes Tale That His Assassination Was Ordered by Sinn Fein Leaders

Former U. N. B. Professor Arraigns England for Her Treatment of Ireland, and Holds Up the Sinn Fein Organization as a Patriotic Instrument to Free the People.

The Gleaner has received from Prof. W.F.P. Stockley, in Ireland, a copy of the Cork Examiner of April 2, with the request that the following be published:

The Daily Mail, March 30, learns "on unimpeachable authority that official inquiries have proved" that the Lord Mayor of Cork was murdered by Sinn Feiners; and that, by them, I was condemned to death.

I ask you, sir, not to shrink from publishing what I say. Were I to say all I feel, I could not ask you to publish it. You have been led to publish what is false. Whoever lied to you forgot the need to be precise in a lie. His very dates are wrong. About them, doubtless he knew little and cared less. Ignorant and careless!—in exasperating, in driving to despair of any justice, in loading suspicion, in encouraging to murder!

You are told that the late Lord Mayor and I attended "a private meeting of the Irish Republican brotherhood, on March 19," and "at this meeting it was reported that we had been expelled," and so doomed to death. I never was at a private meeting with the late Lord Mayor. I do not believe he was at such a meeting. I do not believe there was such a meeting. And the attempted murder of myself was on March 17, two days before this invented meeting of your unhappy informant, who says the Lord Mayor was murdered on March 20. He was murdered, the night, March 19-20. I say, sir, that your informant invented this murder meeting, and told a lie—Shakespeare's "odious, damned lie"; if need there be to write stronger words in order to make oneself believed. And I say, sir, that by poisoning men's judgments, and firing their prejudices, and maddening their imaginations, with 'lack Hands,' 'Inner Rings,' 'murderous orders,' and 'sentences on the untrustworthy,' you reduce an English journal to the level of Crabbe's newspapers, which:

"Coin their fresh tales, and live upon the lie."

Shame, sir. And the shame is not on Ireland. You know that what you have published is an unfounded rumor. If you can feel, seriously, the woes of men—Irishmen, too, are men—you are able to feel sorrow for publishing what stirs up, in Ireland, more contempt for England—were that now possible—more disbelief in English honor, more hate of an England which appears to Ireland as, first, a liar, and then a bully.

There is no such Sinn Fein as your cruel blinding words imply. I assume you do not really mean only to wound the living and insult the dead. I am assuming this possibility of an English journal being brought to recognize responsibility, at such a time as this.

What is Sinn Fein? It is the taking of England at England's word. Nothing more; nothing less. 'Twere hard, indeed (we are told), to ask proud England to act on America's word. Sinn Fein asked, only, that England should act on England's word. Sinn Fein then acted, as if England's word was something worth. England went back on her word to us; say thousands of ex-soldiers, now Sinn Feiners. Small nations; equal rights for great and small; self-determination; a new and juster world, a world not assuming that no bonds bind, except mere brute force—we fought for those things they say. And, therefore, we fight, heart and soul, against the England of hopeless and—finally—helpless, raiding and transporting and plundering and murdering and slandering, which is rampaging over Ireland today. Any of us who come from England are not those least ashamed of this England,

Have pity, sir, on your dead that died for right; though their country's leaders meant but wrong. Show your living young men how they may equal the young Sinn Fein men of Ireland; for such are the patriots that England needs; young men, brave, disciplined in heart, unselfseeking, generous, counting little the cost of worldly damage or ruin, ready to believe that the weak things are chosen by God's Eternal Justice to confound the strong.

Is it not possible for a powerful English journal to pause, to think, and to make confession, to make restitution, when an English soldier-poet

Adriatic Policy Not Settled By Allied Council

Problem to be Left to Italian and Jugo-Slavia Governments

THE COUNCIL TO FINISH TODAY

Decision to Hear Russian Bolshevik Commercial Delegation.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

San Remo, April 26.—The supreme council began its work today with the intention of finishing its remaining labors before night. The Premiers had important decisions to make, chiefly those concerning the form in which the note to Germany, setting forth the Allied position with regard to execution of the treaty of Versailles should be drawn, and the Adriatic settlement.

The French and Italian delegations expect to leave for San Remo tonight. The British train has been ordered to be ready at ten thirty o'clock tomorrow morning. Premier Millerand and Marshal Foch and the Japanese and Greek delegations will leave for Paris by special train Tuesday morning.

To Hear Bolshevik Delegation.

London, April 26. — Decision to give a hearing to members of a Russian Bolshevik commercial delegation has been reached by the Supreme Allied Council, according to a semi-official announcement at San Remo, say a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. This delegation is headed by Maxim Litvinoff, Assistant Bolshevik Commissary of Foreign Affairs, but Great Britain objects to receiving him on the ground that he had taken advantage of diplomatic privilege and engaged in political propaganda while in England. On that occasion he issued an appeal to British labor.

The Adriatic Problem.

San Remo, April 26.—The council of Premiers, at the request of Premier Nitti of Italy, and Foreign Minister Trumbitch of Jugo-Slavia, will allow the Adriatic question to remain in negotiation between the Italian and Jugo-Slavia governments, it was learned today.

ARRAIGNED FOR MURDER OF GIRLS

Frank Valuzzi Charged With Shooting Two American Girls in French Court.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Nice, France, April 26.—Frank Valuzzi, when arraigned before a magistrate Saturday on the charge of having fired the shots that killed Lena Spinelli and Josephine Gentile, in New York on March 7, declared he was a deserter from the American army and lived in Paris during March. The two women, he declared, were killed by a person whom he named as James Papaccio.

It was brought out at the hearing that Papaccio has a large tattoo mark on his right wrist, while Valuzzi has not marking nor evidence that he ever had such a mark of identity on his person.

Lena Spinelli and Josephine Gentile, for whose murder Frank Valuzzi was arraigned Saturday in Nice, France, were killed by bullets fired from a doorway on Mulberry street, New York, on the evening of March 7. The shots were said to have been intended for Giuseppe De Cesare, who stood on the sidewalk as the girls walked by. Cesare was wounded, but his injuries were not serious.

POLICE WATCH OVER THE CONGREGATION

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York, April 26. — Detectives watched the congregation of St. George's Episcopal church yesterday, to allay the fears of parishioners who had been unnerved by the shooting there of Dr. James W. Markoe by a lunatic last Sunday. A uniformed policeman was stationed also at the front door. Only one man, whom the police said was a "park lounger," was asked to leave.

Dr. G. E. Brewer and J. Morgan Jones, who were wounded by bullets from the lunatic's revolver last week, attended the service.

FAMINE IN STAMPS.

Vienna, April 26.—Austria is suffering from a stamp famine due to paper shortage and the activity of collectors. The Government may resort to the old custom of having mail prepaid and forwarding it without stamps.

German Troops Have Evacuated the Ruhr

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 16.—Dr. Goeppert, head of the German delegation in Paris, today handed the Foreign Office a note addressed to Premier Millerand, stating that the additional troops which had entered the Ruhr district had all evacuated that district on April 21.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE HOLY LAND

British Representatives Assure Zionists as to Future Policy in Palestine.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

San Remo, April 26.—Assurances have been given Zionist representatives by British delegates here that the military administration of Palestine, which has been far from satisfatory to Jews, will be changed to a sympathetic civil rule. Zionists are represented in San Remo by Benjamin Cohen, of Chiago, Illinois, U. S. A., who came here from Palestine with Dr. Chayim Weismann, president of the world Zionists' committee there.

"Zionism as a political movement has ended,' said Mr. Cohen today. "With the creation of a national Jewish home, its work now is the development of Palestine and the bringing there of Jewish imigrants from eastern Europe. This development will be largely agricultural.

"Palestine has a population of 700,000. In the time of David it had 2,000,000."

"It can really support two or three times 700,000 and possibly four or five times that number, through the introduction of the best methods of agriculture. Jews in Russia, Poland and Rmania would be glad to emigrate.

"The plans of the Zionists are that we shall work with the hands rather than with the brain, as the Jews have been doing for the most part in other portions of the world. It will be an interesting social experiment. It will not be socialistic, but I think it may be called social.

"America, I think," added Mr. Cohen, "will have to supply most of the money until the new state gets going. While some of the expenditures will pe productive others will be unproductive.'

FRANCE TO RETAIN HER LUXURY TAX

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 26.—The chamber of deputies, in voting on Saturday clauses of the new tax bill, retained the ten per cent. luxury tax, which has been widely fought both in the chamber and by the general public. This tax also applies to first class hotels and is expected to yield about a billion francs in revenue.

AIRPLANE DRIVES THROUGH CROWD

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Fort Smith, Ark., April 26.—A boy was killed and two men injured at Sallisaw, Oklahoma, Saturday, when an airplane driven by Bob Fogg, a former army aviator, fell forty feet and ploughed its way through a crowd of 2,000 persons.

SPANISH AIR SERVICE.

Bilboa, Spain, Aug. 26.—A transport company has been formed for the establishment of an aerial line between this point and France and England. The service will be inaugurated May 15.

THE ALBANIAN GOVERNMENT OVERTHROWN

The Forces of Essad Pasha, Turkish Nationalist Leader, Have Occupied Tirania.

ALBANIAN FORCES ABANDON MUNITIONS

Durazzo Regarded as Objective of the Anti-Government Forces in Campaign.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 26.—Supporters of Essad Pasha, a Turkish Nationalist leader and former provisional president of Albania, have occupied Tiranda, Albania, and overthrown the Albanian Government, according to a message from Florina, transmitted by the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Athens.

The Albanian Government forces were compelled to abandon their munitions. The rifles they left have been taken over by the Italians, the massage states.

After considerable fighting between the Essad Pasha forces and the Government forces, the former occupied Kavakia, southwest of Durazzo and Krotz. Durazzo is regarded as the objective of the anti-Government forces.

It is reported there were 200 casualties in the fighting.

REVEAL ROBBERIES OF SOME $500,000

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Chicago, April 26.—Police today investigated an extensive card index system found in Harry J. James' automobile repair shop after he had been killed in a fight with policemen. They said they believed robberies totalling $500,000 would be revealed and that more than $100,000 worth of loot already had been recovered.

The index contained lists of places robbed, goods obtained, of stolen articles sold to pawn shops, of purchases of preference of various pawn brokers, and of valuables taken in the course of highway robberies.

James was killed last night in a gun battle with detectives, who were attempting to search him after he had been placed under arrest.

44,260 ACCIDENTS IN ONTARIO IN 1919

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Toronto, April 26.—The report of the Ontario workmen's compensation board for 1919 shows that there were 44,260 accidents, 429 of which were fatal, reported to the board, and that $4,192,859.93 was awarded in benefits to workmen for their dependents.

LAKE NAVIGATION IN FULL SWING

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Port Arthur, Ont., April 26.—Lake navigation was opened between the east and Port Arthur at five o'clock Sunday morning with the arrival of the Westmount of the Canadian Steamship Lines. The Westmount was followed into the twin ports by twelve other freighters, all light for grain, and including the W. Grant Morden, the largest freighter on the lakes. Ice conditions are not unfavorable to navigation, but eastbound steamers loaded find difficulty in getting through.

LAUNCH CANADIAN SHIP.

Montreal, April 26.—The first launching of 1920 from the yard of the Canadian Vickers, Ltd., took place on Saturday, when the third vessel built by them for Norwegian interests took the water. The vessel was the "Tatjana," of 8,300 tons, to the order of Winge & Co., of Christiania.

German Protestant Church Well Satisfied With Kaiser

The Synod of the Protestant State Church Pays a Tribute to Former Monarch for His Practical Christian Spirit and Works of Love Toward Brethren.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Berlin, April 26.—A vote of thanks to former Emperor William as the "last temporal head of the Protestant state church" was given at the closing session of the annual general synod. The synod also paid a tribute to the former monarch and his consort for having "in many ways testified to their practical Christian spirit by works of love toward their brethren."

Propose Taxation of British Teetotallers

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Toronto, April 26.—A special cable to the Mail and Empire from London says that taxation of teetotallers in the United Kingdom was proposed this week in the House of Commons by Capt. Sir Keith A. Fraser, who, on behalf of the workingmen's clubs," seeks a more general distribution of the heavy taxation borne by drinkers.

L. F. Jones, head of the prohibitionists, says:

"Sir Keith's idea is ridiculous. If I had my way, I would have the state pay a pension to all abstainers."

The New York Legislature Passes Measure Before Prorogation on Saturday.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Albany, N. Y., April 26—After one of the most trying weeks in its history the New York State Legislature closed its 1920 session shortly before two o'clock Sunday morning. Senators and assemblymen, wearied almost to the point of exhaustion by almost continuous sittings, hurried to their hotels and to bed.

Passing of the boxing and beer bills were features of the last day. The latter, passed by the Senate in the early morning hours of Saturday, received favorabale action by the assembly several hours later. The boxing bill by Senator Walker was passed by the lower House Saturday night.

The boxing bill is designed to permit 15 round bouts to a decision in the State and was drawn by the army, navy and civilian board of boxing control.

It is believed that the measure will place boxing on the same plane in New York State as it occupied twenty years ago.

The beer bill will place the alcoholic percentage of the beverage at 2.75.

STEEL-MACLEOD NUPTIALS TODAY

Miss Frances N. Steel Becomes the Bride of Rev. Geo. MacLeod at St. John.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

St. John, N. B., April 26.—Today at one o'clock Miss Frances N. Steel, M. A., only daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. George Steel, was united in marriage to Rev. George MacLeod, B. A., in the Portland Methodist church. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by Rev. N. McLaughlan, B. A., pastor of the church.

The bride is a graduate of Mount Allison, and recently returned from the West, where she taught for a year in the Indian industrial school at Brandon, and also for another year in the public school in Alberta. The groom is a graduate of Dalhousie University, Halifax, and at the conclusion of war, where he served four years, resumed his studies and engaged in Y. M. C. A. work. He was ordained at Hunter River, P. E. I., on April 15, and designated for work in British Guiana, to which place they will start from Halifax on the 30th instant.

The ushers were brothers of the bride, Percy J. and Arthur Steel, of returned men, while her eldest brother, Prof. G. Douglas Steel, accompanied the bride to the church. The newly married couple left for Truro by the 1.40 train.

MICHAEL KELLY TO BE CANDIDATE

Blind Orator Will Contest St. John County for Seat in the Legislature.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

St. John, N. B., April 26.—Michael Kelly, sometimes called "the blind orator," announced today that he would be an independent candidate at the next provincial elections, standing for a bone dry province, honesty, economy and retrenchment.

Jacob L. Wright, aged 94, died on Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Earle, Pleasant Point. Two sons and two daughters survive, including Mrs. Jane Thorne, of the Narrows. Mr. Wright was a native of Mill Stream, King's county.

SEVERE FIGHTING NEAR MEXICO CITY

No details of the engagement are given.

Saskatoon, Sask., April 26.—Rate payers Saturday defeated the daylight saving plebiscite by a majority of 254 against.

COLLAR AND SHIRT STRIKE STARTED NOW

Ten Thousand Chicago Men to Wear Khaki Shirts and Do Their Washing Home.

ALLEGE PROFITEERING BY HABERDASHERS

Washington People Will Not Don Overalls but Will Wear Old Clothes.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Chicago, April 26.—A "collar and shirt" strike aimed at alleged profiteering by haberdashers and laundrymen, to begin May 5 and continue 20 days, was announced yesterday by a local committee, who expect to have ten thousand adherents in a few days. The strikers will wear khaki shirts and their washing will be done at home.

Wear Clothes Until They Fall Off.

Washington, April 26.—"The modern emulators of the lowly snake," a body formed of professors and students of George Washington University here, refused to don overalls for fear of boosting the price of denim, but have sworn to "wear their clothes until they fall off."

Increase Price of Overalls.

Ottawa, April 26.—The opinion that the "back to overalls" movement may prove a misfortune to the laboring class has been expressed by at least one Canadian economist. Jack Murdock, labor commissioner of the board of commerce, asked for his opinion on the movement, stated:

"If the gentlemen, who, it is alleged, are going to wear overalls, no doubt many of them for the first time, will wear them until the articles require patching no loger, the campaig may have a beneficial effect. If, however, a temporary fad only is to be indulged in, the result will no doubt be to increase the price of overalls to the laboring man who has to wear them."

ONLY ONE RESCUED FROM CREW OF 18

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Soo, Mich., April 26.—The bodies of five men, believed to have been members of the crew of the steamer Myron, lost in a storm on Lake Superior last November, were recovered on the shore of Whitefish Bay, near Sault Point, Ontario, yesterday. None of the bodies were identified. Of the Myron's crew of 18 only one was rescued.

A boat was found near the point at which the bodies were picked up. It is believed they had all but reached safety when the small boat was overturned.

GERMANY HOLDS 200,000 RUSSIANS

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Berne, April 26.—The Swiss committee sent by the International Red Cross to investigate the condition of Russian prisoners in Germany, report that there are now 200,000 of these in 85 camps. Many thousands of them lacked clothing and are suffering from the shortage of soap, sugar, tea and tobacco.

Unions Vote to Join in General Strike at Paris

Nearly Every Branch of Labor to Quit Work on Saturday

RAILWAY WORKERS ENFORCE DEMANDS

Government Plans to Take More Vigorous Action Than Before.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 26.—This city faces an almost complete paralysis of business on Saturday, May 1, as the result of a large number of unions voting to join the labor demonstration by calling a general strike.

Hotel, post office, telephone and telegraph, local surface transportation and gas and electrical workers, all unionzed workers, on the pay rolls of the municipality with the exception of health officers, and a large number of less important branches of labor will participate in the strike. Work in most lines will be resumed after twenty hours, but the walkout of telephone and telegraph employees will interrupt communication.

Teachers will remain on duty and food stores will be open, at least part of the day.

Decision of the congress of French railway workers to call a strike to enforce demands threatens a new danger if the men lay down their tools before Saturday.

Nationalization of Railways.

Whether the finish fight for immediate nationalization of the railways and compliance with their other demands is brought on by the railway men, however, now appears to depend upon the co-operation of the general Confederation of Labor, which is not considered as anxious for a general movement as the new extremist majority of the railroad men. It is pointed out that this group comprises little more than half of the railroad organization membership of 330,000.

The Government's policy, either as regards the May day demonstrations, or the prospective railway strike, has not been officially announced, but it is known that it would include an immediate mobilization of the railroad men to break the strike as was the case in February.

As to the May day demonstrations, it is understood that the Government's plans call for even more vigorous action than last year. At that time the efforts to clear the streets ended with the troops charging the crowd and firing on the strikers, casualties occurring in the Rue Royale and before the Church of the Madeleine, while cavalry was used to disperse crowds which resisted the orders of the authorities.

French Dispute Settled.

Paris, April 26.—At a meeting yesterday between representatives of the mines and metallurgical factories in Lorraine and delegates of the workmen's unions of Alsace-Lorraine, the disputes which were the cause of the strike were amicably settled and an order was telephoned to Strassbourg for the men to resume work.

Union Expelled Railroad Workers

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York, April 26.—More than two thousand local railroad workers were expelled Sunday from the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen for the part they have taken in the unauthorized strike in this district, according to Edward McHugh, chairman of the strikers' executive committee. The charters of nine local unions were revoked, he said.

CALL OF GENERAL STRIKE AT VENICE

Serious Disorders in Which Police Commissioner Fired on the Crowd.

[Special Havas despatch by Leased Wire]

Paris, April 26.—Serious disorders occurred in Venice before the Labor Council of the city issued an order Sunday calling off the general strike which had been in progress there for several days. One person was killed and about fifteen wounded during the melee that followed an attack on the police commissioner, during which the officer fired on the crowd. The strike resulted from disorders in the garrison during which a soldier was shot by an officer.

FRENCH ACADEMY COSTS INCREASING

No Complaints, However, from Those Appointed Recently to August Body.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 26.—The expense of becoming a member of the French Academy, like the price of everything else in France, has taken an upward trend. Every new member honored by election to the academy must provide himself with a regulation uniform of green cloth with yellow facings. Before the war the outfit represented an expenditure of 659 francs, two years ago it arose to 1,200 francs and today Henry Bordeaux, who is about to be received into the Academy, will have to pay 2,061 francs for his uniform. In addition he must supply himself with a special hat, sword and sword belt, which have also shown a large increase in price.

Notwithstanding the expense connected with membership in this august body, no complaints have been heard from those recently honored.

LARGE ADDITION TO CHILEAN NAVY

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Santiago, Chile, April 26.—Five warships will be added to the Chilean navy as a result of negotiations between the Chilean and British governments. Chile has decided to accept the offer of Great Britain to dispose of one dreadnaught, three torpedo boat destroyers of 1,800 tons each and a transport.

Previous despatches have indicated that the dreadnaught in question was the Canada, one of two battleships originally built for Chile in England, both of which the British requisitioned for the European war. The destroyers and auxiliary vessels are taken by Chile to replace the second dreadnaught.

Hunger Striker Released in State of Collapse at Dublin

One Hundred Irish Prisoners in Wormwood Scrubs Prison on Hunger Strike as Protest Against Detention Without Trial—Manifestations on Dublin Streets.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 26.—Among the 150 Irish prisoners in Wormwood Scrubs prison, a large number have been on hunger strikes since Wednesday as a protest against detention without charge or trial. One of the men was released unconditionally Friday night in a state of collapse.

The London branches of the Irish Self-Determination League yesterday hastily organized a big demonstration outside the prison, thousands responded and last night indulged in manifestations similar to those recently carried out at Mount Joy prison in Dublin.

The crowd sang patriotic songs and burned flares.

MICHIGAN GIRL CHOKED TO DEATH

Body of Young Telephone Supervisor Found in Porch of House at Pontiac.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Pontiac, Mich., April 26.—The police and sheriff's departments, and a detail from the Detroit Detective Bureau, were last night engaged in the investigation of the death eary Sunday of Miss Vera Schnieder, a telephone suprevisor, whose body was found on the porch of a dwelling in one of the city's best residential sections.

The girl, who was twenty years of age, and whose home was at Elkton, Michigan, had apparanetly been choked to death, according to the authorities. The ground surrounding the porch was torn up in places, indicating a terrific struggle.

Bloodhounds will be brought here to follow what is believed to be the trail of the slayer across newly ploughed ground in the rear of the house, which is under construction and unoccupied.

Miss Schnieder, according to some of her friends, worked until late Saturday night and was seen in the company of a strange man about midnight. Since coming here last August she had seldom been seen with male companions, it was said.

IRISH-GERMAN SERVICE.

Prorogation of House Marked By Some Events Not on the Programme

Governor Did Not Wait to be Asked Before He Entered Chamber

SPEAKER MADE HURRIED EXIT

Whispered Conversations Because the Clerk Forgot a Date.

One or two events which were not exactly on the programme added considerably to the interest of the closing formalities at the prorogation of the Legislature on Saturday afternoon.

By the time the House was finally prorogued it was getting well along to 4 o'clock and only by rushing to the station was Lieutenant Governor Pugsley able to catch the C. P. R. train at 4.35 p. m. on which he was due to leave for Toronto.

Under ordinary circumstances the Lieutenant Governor awaits word from Mr. Speaker before entering the assembly chamber, but not so on Saturday. With the ceremonies due to start at 3 p. m. the Lieutenant Governor and his staff patiently waited until about half an hour later, only to find the final lot of bills had not all been passed.

The House had taken recess from 12.30 p. m. until 2.30 p. m.; but, as in the morning, things were not ready and it was said the clerk's branch was to blame. It was after 3 o'clock when the House got started business and the last of bills had just been given their third reading when Mr. Speaker was surprised to have Sergeant-at-Arms Rutter enter the chamber and announce: "His Honor the Lieutenant Governor has arrived.

Such an annoucement always means that not only has the Governor arrived but that he is about to enter the Assembly Chamber. "These bills having had three several readings is it the pleasure of the House that they do now pass?" rattled off Mr. Speaker as rapidly as possible as he tossed them back to the clerk's table, but before he had finished Governor Pugsley, attended by Lieut. Col. Osborne, A. D. C., and Robert S. Barker, private secretary, was entering the chamber. The Speaker and the clerks disappeared out the side door but soon returned, bowed before the Governor and asked his assent to the bills.

Clerk Keefe's Troubles.

Then J. Bacon Dickson, the assistant clerk, started to read off the titles of the 100 odd bills to be assented to, and he had not got very far along before it became evident that something was wrong. John M. Keefe, the clerk, was showing signs of nervousenss and it soon became more apparent for he shuffled over to where the sergeant-at-arms was standing with the big black rod in hand and whispered in Mr. Rutter's ear. The sergeant-at-arms shook his head and the clerk stepped back again to his place alongside the Speaker.

During the prorogation ceremonies there are certain places for the officials of the House to stand and they are supposed to remain in those places. Mr. Keefe, however, was plainly in trouble and the members commenced to snicker and in whispered conversations to speculate what it was that had been forgotten. In a few minutes, after much bowing towards the throne, he tip-toed over to where R. W. L. Tibbits, the Deputy Provincial Secretary, was seated and whispered in his ear, but he too shook his head. Then he moved along to Mr. Barker, who has attended so many prorogations with he 'umpteen Governors for whom he has officiated as secretary, but after his ear had been whispered the veteran secretary, who is supposed to know everything about formalities, precedence and all the rest of it it in official life, shook his head, too.

By this time the buzz of whispered conversation which the speculating members were carying on was making almost as much noise as the assistant clerk, who in spite of the trying circumstances kept on reading the titles to the bills without a hesitation. Then Premier Foster arose from his chair and the clerk followed him out into the Speaker's room. They remained there a few moments and the returned again with the Premier, half smiling, in the lead and the clerk, also evidently relieved, following.

Mr. Keefe, it appears, had forgotten to find out to what date he was supposed to announce the House was prorogued to and that was the cause of his distress and all the excitement. All the rest of the programme went by without a hitch and Thursday, May 20th, was the date named in the prorogation announcement.

As soon as the gubernatrioal party left the Assembly Chamber the National Anthem was sung, followed soon after by Le Marsellaise, which was just being finished when the usual fusilade of waste paper books, bills and reports commenced. The fourth session of the seventh Legislature was finished.

For the purpose of undergoing annual overhaul, the steamer Empress between St. John and Digby will be withdrawn from service from May 3rd to 8th, inclusive, resuming service from St. John Monday, May 10th.

142 Bills Were Passed

At the fourth session of the seventh Legislature, which closed on Saturday. 142 bills were passed, the largest number of Acts ever put on the Statute books at a single session of the Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick.

"The large number of bills passed shows how the business of the House is increasing," commented Premier Foster in discussing the session immediately after prorogation, "and is a good indication of the increasing industrial and commercial development that is taking place in this province. I feel that this has been one of the most important sessions this Legislature has ever held and that the prosperity which New Brunswick is enjoying is reflected in the legislation that has been passed."

"Public Confidence Shaken" By the Government's Tactics

Even the St. John Globe Condemns Rushing So Much Legislation Through in Closing Hours of Session—"Never Carried to Such Extremes"—The Dental Bill.

Even the St. John Globe, which latterly has got into the habit of saying nothing if it cannot praise the present provincial Government, has been unable to withhold certain criticism from the tactics pursued in rushing such a volume of important legislation through the House in the closing hours of the session as was done here last week.

"Within the past three or four days a score or more of bills, both private and public, were rushed through the Legislature. Little or no opportunity was given for study of these by the members, and practically no opportunity for community knowledge of the proposals. Never has this very bad practice been caried to such extremes as during the legislative session ending today. Such disergard of the public must inevitably shake public confidence."

The Dental Bill.

The bill to amend the Dental Society's Act and under which Dr. William Gerrard, of this city, would have been eligible for enrollment upon the register of the society, did not come up for a vote in the Legislature on Saturday afternoon.

After much negotiating with the officers of the Dental Soiety at St. John over the long distance telephone, it was finally determined not to press the third reading of the bill. It is understood that Dr. Gerrard is freed from further molestation, but the bill, which had passed the committee of the whole House on Friday night, was not heard from again on Saturday.

CHICAGO TRIES TO REGULATE RENTS

$100,000,000 Corporation to Build Homes and Sell Them on Easy Payments.

Chicago, April 24.—This city is attempting to prevent rent profiteering by regulating increases in rates and by organizing a $100,000,000 corporation to build homes and sell them on easy payments. Meanwhile Chicago's flat dwellers have been forming unions to wage war on alleged profiteering landlords and committees in the city council have been investigating increases in rents ranging up to 100 and even 200 per cent.

Several hundred families have solved their individual housing problems by making their homes in houseboats moored in the branches of the Chicago river, the Calumet and lakes in South Chicago. Once in possession of a houseboat, the owner only has to pay $1 a month for the privilege of mooring his craft. If he does not like his location he can move his home boat elsewhere. Many of these boats cost $1,000 each and have five rooms, parlor, dining room, kitchen and two bedrooms.

In some cases groups of tenants have solved the rent problem by forming co-operative companies and buying the apartment houses in which they live.

The housing corporation, which has been financed by banks and business men, has under consideration a plan to build a row of model homes in Grant Park, on the lake front. Examples of many types of standardized homes would be erected, furnished and surrounded by settings of trees and shrubbery so that a prospective purchaser of a new home could look over the styles before placing his order.

Attempts have been made to check rent profiteering by co-operation of the city council and the Cook County Real Estate Board which investigated complaints and, when increases were found to be excessive, advised the landlord to withdraw his demands. In general, the investigators have allowed an increase of about 30 per cent. over last year's rentals.

A proposal was made to erect scores of portable houses but the carpenters' union declared its opposition to that plan even if the houses came from union factories.

The recent tornadoes which destroyed 100 houses and damaged 400 more in Chicago and its suburbs have augmented a housing shortage which had already become acute through suspension of building operations in the war and long-drawn builders' contracts.

CHAPTER 3.

Dr. Crocket's Appeal for Support for Education

Member for York's Speech in Legislature on Teachers' Salaries—An Eloquent Demand for Same Generous Treatment for Education That is Being Given Other Public Services.

DR. W. C. CROCKET, M. L. A.

When the bill making effective the recommendations of the special commission on Teachers' Salaries was under consideration in the closing hours of the session of the Legislature, Dr. W. C. Crocket, M.L.A. for York, made an eloquent appeal for tlfe support for education. He said:

Before this report is considered in detail I wish to make some observations upon it, especially upon the principle which appears to have determined the action of the Commission. It is not a pleasant duty to have to criticize the work of a Commission serving without remuneration, often at much personal inconvenience and doing what it conceives to be in the best interests of the province. I trust, therefore, that the members of the Commission will receive the views I here express in the spirit in which I offer them.

To understand the Report it is necessary to consult the report of the Chief Superintendent of Education for information which might very well have been embodied in the report of the Commission. We are not informed, for instance, as to how many grammar and superior schools, nor how many grammar and superior school teachers there are in the province, with the salaries paid to teachers of those classes, information essential to a full consideration of the question of increased salaries for teachers and to enable us to judge as to whether increases should begin at the top or at the bottom of the scale. In the valuations given, no cities or towns are included. Nor does the report state the percentage of increase made by cities or towns from any date during recent years, as compared with those if any, made by governments during the same period.

The Minimum Salary.

As regards increases, the cities of St. John, Moncton and Fredericton have done well; of the efforts of other towns I have no information. Since the year 1911 the minimum salary paid to teachers in Fredericton has been increased from $300 to $700, or more than 100 per cent. What have governments done in the matter of increase during that time? As far as I have been able to learn, absolutely nothing.

Let me read, though I will not discuss, Sections 5, 6 and 7 and make one remark upon them. It will serve to anticipate and confirm what I have later on to say.

Section 5 recommends that the minimum salary, including government grants, to be paid by all districts with a valuation of $20,000 and under, shall be $500.

Section 6, that the minimum, including government grants, to be paid by all districts whose valuation is from $20,000 to $50,000 shall be $600.

Section 7, that $700 shall be the minimum salary, including government grants, in districts with a valuation of over $50,000.

The report distinctly states that no survey has been made of districts having a valuation of over $100,000, evidently showing that the Commission has dealt wholly with the salaries of the lower classes of teachers.

Equal Pay for Equal Work.

I will discuss very briefly Recommendation No. 1, as it is upon the principle laid down in that recommendation that the report of the Commission is based. The section reads, "that equal pay be given for equal work and that female teachers who are at present paid the same amounts of government money as males for all classes of license be also paid the same amounts as males for all other classes of license." Now, Sir, "equal pay for equal work" may be applicable to many fields of employment, but, as applied to all grades of the teaching profession, especially to Grammar School teachers, it is a principle I cannot accept. The Commission has evidently adopted the principle for two reasons. First, in consequence of what I believe to be an erroneous interpretation of a statute which fixed the salary of Grammar School teachers. When that Act was passed there were no female Grammar School teachers in this province. It was not till the University of New Brunswick opened its doors to female students, and when those students had graduated and had become eligible to take the prescribed course at the Normal School, and had passed the examinations required by that institution, that Grammar School licenses were granted to female teachers. It was never contemplated that Grammar School licenses would be granted to female teachers, as the means of obtaining them were not then within their reach. The Act, however, as far as I know, has never been amended in this respect, and Grammar School teachers, male and female, receive equal salaries as do those of the Superior class. It is not, however, the equalization of salaries of Superior School teachers I am now discussing; it is that of the Grammar School teachers. Female Grammar School teachers are as much interested in their work as are the male teachers; in efficiency they may be the equals of men; but as inspirers of boys (and how potent a force in the moulding of character is inspiration at that plastic time!), as inspirers of youth female teachers cannot be expected to compete with those whom nature has formed of sterner stuff and cast in a stronger mould. "Face the world stoutly, be self-reliant," comes much more fittingly from those who, with trying difficulties confronting them, with heavy responsibilities often resting upon them, have had for years to fight the testing battle of life. In quickness of perception, in alertness of mind, women are often the superiors of men; in the qualities which impart refinement they are usually so; but in those which awaken aspiration and inspirit for stout-hearted action and achievement, women, with few exceptions, must yield to men. Are we not, then, to recognize, to set a value upon one of the greatest assets a Grammar School teacher can possess?

The other reason which probably induced the Commission to accept the principle of equal pay for equal work is the view of the Governor of one of the States of the Union. His views are set forth in an extract which appears in the Chief Superintendent's report. The extract is headed "What the Governor Said," and is:

"'This bill amends the education law to provide increases in salaries of the teaching and supervising staff of the public schools throughout the State and increases the allotment of State funds to cities and rural school districts. Fifty-three thousand school teachers are affected by it. This measure establishes the principle of equal pay for women, corrects present discriminations and increases the inadequate salaries now paid to members of the teaching staff. It should result in filling the many vacancies in our schools, which were caused by higher compensation paid in other fields of employment'."

I place beside this an excerpt from the report of a British Commission on "English Teachers' Salaries: The Burnham Report":—

"Last summer a committee consisting of representatives of the National Union of Teachers, of the County Councils Association, of the London County Council, of the Association of Municipal Corporations, and of the Association of Education Committees, with Lord Burnham as chairman, was appointed to draw up new national scales of minimum salaries for teachers. Its report has been made public sooner than was expected. The report recommends the following provisional minimum scales: Certificated assistant masters, two years college-trained, minimum $800, annual increment $50, maximum $1,500. Other certificated assistant masters, minimum $750, annual increment $50, maximum $1,500. Certificated assistant mistresses, two years college-trained, minimum $750, annual increment $50, maximum $1,200. Other certificated assistant mistresses, minimum $700, annual increment $50, maximum $1,200. Certificated head teachers—For the purpose of head teachers' salaries schools will be graded according to average attendance, thus: Grade I., not over 100 in average attendance; Grade II., over 100 but not over 200; Grade III., over 200 but not over 350; Grade IV., over 350 but not over 500; Grade V., over 500.

"The maxima of the respective grades will be:

	I.	II.	III.	IV.	V.
"Headmasters	$1650	$1800	$1950	$2100	$2225
"Headmistresses	$1320	$1440	$1560	$1680	$1800

I offer no comment on these distinctly opposite views. Hon. members can judge for themselves which of the two is likely to be the more weighty and matured.

No Increase for Male Teachers.

While highly commending the Commission for recommending an increase in the salaries of female teachers, I regret to find no suggestion whatever that the salary of one male teacher be increased by participation in the additional government grant. Male teachers are unrewarded, unrecognized, excluded. Female teachers are almost always unmarried, they have themselves and perhaps a mother to support, while the male teacher is usually married, the head of a family, the bread-winner, struggling under the burden of a heavily-pressing time.

The Male Teacher Disappears.

There were during the second term of the last school year, according to the report of the Chief Superintendent of Education, 2,107 teachers in the province; 136 male and 1,971 female teachers. There were 16 male and 10 female Grammar School teachers. If we adopt the principle laid down in the report of the Commission, it will be necessary to increase the salaries of about 2,000 female teachers before one male teacher can have a farthing added to his salary no matter what his qualifications may be. What will be the ultimate result? The gradual elimination of male teachers from the educational service of the province—the male teacher disappears. And when this occurs, what will follow as a natural sequence? Where are our School Inspectors, now over-driven, physically-overstrained men, to come from? where the Principal of our Normal School? where, and I ask the House to ponder this, where must we look for a Chief Superintendent of Education, an officer requiring a masculine, a virile mind, to treat with men, with governments, with politicians? From the female teachers. The adoption of the slogan, "Equal pay for equal work," is fraught, in my judgment, with the greatest danger to our educational system.

Salaries Higher Up.

Since the year 1890, or thereabout, the salary of the Chief Superintendent of Education has been increased from $1,600 to $3,500, or considerably more than 100 per cent. I offer no objection whatever to that increase. The office of Chief Superintendent is an important, a responsible, a distinguished post. Increase in salary, from government, began therefore at the top. Should it not have been continued down the whole scale? Grammar and Superior School teachers would then have received recognition. By proceeding on this principle an incentive would be given to teachers of the lower classes to remain in and to rise in their profession, knowing that merit would receive its reward, while the course we are recommended to adopt recognizes only female teachers of the first, second and third classes.

What the Government Is Asked to Do.

What, after all, does the province's increased contribution amount to? In the case of service of seven years and upwards (I take the longest of the three periods), the average increase for first, second and third class female teachers is $33 a year, or 64 cents per week, when the cost of living is more than doubled and the laboring man demands and receives for his day's labor more than twice as much as he did three or four years ago. Could we wonder at the statement made by the Chief Superintendent when he addressed the Committee yesterday that "teachers are continuing to leave the profession for other work and that the Education Department was well-nigh driven to extremity to provide teachers for the service?"

I was pleased to hear the Chief Superintendent state that "teachers had been patient and moderate under most adverse conditions of living, that they had scrupulously observed their contracts and that, while they had formed associations, they had not struck."

How are we asked to reward those who have been patient and moderate under such conditions? How are we asked to reward those who have scrupulously observed their contracts and have not struck? By the government increasing the salaries of female teachers 64 cents a week and granting to male teachers not a penny.

Most of the older men, and many women, now teaching will probably have to spend the remainder of their active lives in their present occupation, unless they can find other employment in some way related to their work. But what about those who now have teaching in view? What inducements do we at present hold out to young men and women of promise to enter the profession? Our action today may determine for this province the cast of education of the future.

Education All-Important.

On the last page of the Report there is a statement in which I most heartily concur. "The future welfare of this province depends upon its teachers and schools more than upon any other agency. Salaries should be high enough not only to provide a living wage but also to reward training and competency. It is also necessary that we should be able to meet the competition of others for our best teachers. At the present time all branches of unskilled labor are paid more than many of our trained teachers." We make, Sir, large appropriations annually for public works, a most important, a necessary service; we borrow money on capital account for the construction of roads—we drive along at a rapid pace, while education limps behind. Important as the public works service is, is it more important than that of education? The report assures us, and it is signed by the Minister of Public Works, that it is not, "that the future welfare of the province depends upon its teachers and schools more than upon any other agency." I would not seek to divert to the educational service money appropriated for necessary public works, but, if I had to choose between the two alternatives, I would infinitely prefer to motor at a slower speed on our highway roads than to hobble along on the path of education. But there is no reason why both services should not be efficiently maintained. Our revenue has increased and is increasing; it has been called buoyant. Let us tap it, and see if, as regards education, it is gaseous; if it contains substance, let us draw from it nourishment sufficient for the intellectual growth of the youth of this province, let us see if we can obtain legislative and tangible recognition of a pronouncement that none can challenge—"that the future welfare of this province depends upon its teachers and schools more than upon any other agency."

Education a Remedy.

I do not intend to dwell upon the advantages of education. It is unnecessary to do so here. But let me express my firm conviction that education is the antidote for much of the world's present unrest. The well-balanced man taught to think, to reflect, the man of keen and ample vision, is not carried away, is not swayed by every wind of passing doctrine, by transient propaganda. He considers, he weighs, he dips into the future and sees or foresees the reaction, and the saner day.

Not Precept But Example.

The Commission recommends that the County Fund Tax be doubled, stating that this would add $100,000 to resources from which teachers' salaries may be increased; that the salaries of female and male teachers be equalized, $50,000 or $60,000 to be granted from the provincial treasury for that purpose. Is this increasing teachers' salaries from the additional government grant or is it equalizing them? If the County Fund Tax is to be doubled, let the government grant be doubled also, or more than doubled, and give an increase all round. The people will pay more for education than they are now doing, and will do it willingly, if proper encouragement is given them. Let this Legislature

TRADE WITH GERMANY.

A bill designed to discourage trade with Germany precipitated a debate of some warmth in the Senate last week. The discussion developed a wide range, covering the alleged shortcomings of the British Prime Minister, the untrustworthy character of the German people, and the consistency of certain individuals in this country now championing the cause of France. It is not necessary, nor is it desirable, to deal with all these. The German disposition, however, is the raison d'etre of the bill under discussion, a measure introduced by the Hon. George Lynch-Staunton, of Hamilton, to amend the Criminal Code, by providing that:

"Every person who knowingly deals in goods, wares or merchandise which are in whole or in part the growth, product or manufacture of Germany or Austria-Hungary, shall keep posted in letters easily legible over every outside entrance to his premises the words, 'Dealer in German goods,' and shall print the said words prominently in all his advertising and stationery."

The Montreal Gazette points out that Senator Lynch-Staunton put forward a fairly strong sentimental plea in support of this measure, reminding the Senate of Germany's long preparation for the war which had cost the lives of nine millions of men, including sixty thousand Canadians, of the failure of the great crime itself, the immunity of the guilty, and of the apparent efforts of the German people to repudiate the peace treaty and pave the way for a war of revenge. He thought that Canada, at least, should not forget the principle for which the war was fought. Other Senators, who participated in the debate, took much the same view, and there can be no difficulty in understanding and appreciating in the fullest measure the feelings which they expressed. The German of today is essentially the same as was the German of 1914. He has shown no remorse either for his responsibility in bringing on the war—which he disclaims—or for the horrible atrocities which were deliberately committed in accordance with the German policy of frightfulness. He has done nothing to suggest that, had he the means, he would not repeat the business of 1914-15 and succeeding years, with all its unspeakable accompaniments. Yet the world's memory is short, the memory of business still shorter, and all the countries which lately were at war with Germany are now seeking to establish, or have already renewed, commercial relations with her. Nor is this to be ascribed wholly to forgetfulness. The world's trade and the world's finances have been seriously disorganized, and it is of the highest importance that both be restored to normality as rapidly as possible. That end cannot be served by boycotting the products of a great producing country such as Germany was before the war and will be again. The resumption of trade relations with Germany does not necessarily imply the wiping of the slate. On the contrary, it may be argued that the products of German industry are a necessity as a means of repairing the economic and commercial damage for which the German people are responsible. In any event, trade will find its markets, barring such measures as are absolutely prohibitory.

Assuming that the policy of Canada is to exclude the products of Germany, will the measure proposed by Senator Lynch-Staunton be effective? Difficulties of enforcement will suggest themselves at once, and no explanation has been given as to how these difficulties are to be overcome. Parliament has at hand, however, an instrument which can be applied easily, quickly and effectively—the tariff. If it be the policy of the country to bar out the products of Germany, all that is necessary is to apply either a direct embargo or a prohibitive surtax, and the thing will have been done. The surtax, as applied to German goods, is not a new thing. It was borrowed from the German tariff law by the Laurier Government in 1903 for use against Germany, and German products were made subject to a duty of one-third more than the general tariff scale. That was Canada's answer to the German action in excluding Canadian products from the conventional rates in the favored nation tariff extended to the rest of the British Empire. It is as good a weapon now as it was then. The question to be determined is as to whether the people of Canada do or do not want to buy German-made goods. If they do not, the way is much easier than that proposed in the Lynch-Staunton bill.

CIVILIZATION WILL LIVE.

A sombre picture is painted by the correspondents of a desperate, unsettled, and almost despairing Europe. The idealism of President Wilson was welcomed as an evangel to a distracted world. The great war was to be the last to rob civilization of all it had laboriously built up. Wolfish conditions were to disappear. Human relationships were to be, if not perfect, vastly mended. Human brotherhood was to express itself without embarrassment. Human life was to be lived without the impending shadow of violence which had terrorized Europe for generations.

It was beautiful. Even those who cynically shrugged the shoulders as knowing human nature better than the glorified schoolmaster, wished it could be realized. It is not too much to say, points out an exchange, that the whole world was thrilled by the idealism of Mr. Wilson. But the last evil to leave the human breast is selfishness, and selfishness and jealousy and fear and ambition have shown a sinister activity in the carrying out of the teams of the Peace Treaty. The splendid ideologist has retired from the world he wanted to save. The League of Nations has not commenced to function; nor can it ever adequately function so long as the United States maintains its present attitude. The Allies experience strained relations, and England and France, which are the hope of the world, and whose friendship must continue at all costs, do not always see eye to eye in large and vital matters. That is the picture adumbrated by the press. It is disquieting; but it cannot be believed that civilization will perish. The very desperation of the situation in Europe will compel a mighty effort on the part of responsible leaders to avoid the possibility of another cataclysm, compared with which the Great War would be an innocent military promenade.

Economically, there are ameliorations. Labor in Britain has expressed the sense of reticence. Impossible demands are being modified, and Mr. Gompers, power in the labor world, is on the side of conservatism. From this there will be favorable reaction, and the economic situation is closely allied to political conditions.

The contentment of the masses makes for political quiescence.

In the West many of the labor leaders openly assert that world peace will never be established until the principles of the Golden Rule are regnant, not only in economic, but political affairs—a settlement which Lloyd-George has heartily assented to. It is already manifest that machine guns are not curing the misery of the world; but the chief desideratum is that the leaders of the Allies shall not be tempted, by haste, or unreason, or passion to jeopardize the precarious peace which still keeps Europe awake and disturbed.

Mr. Copp, M. P., of Westmorland, has discovered that the present unrest throughout the world is due to the defeat of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1911. There has been a feeling for some time that Mr. Copp would yet make a great discovery.

INCLUDE N. B. LANDS IN BIG TRANSFER

Passamaquoddy Land Company Formed and Takes Over 262,000 Acres.

The firm of H. P. Eaton & Sons has been reorganized by the formation of a new corporation capitalized at $400,000 to be known as the H. P. Eaton & Sons Co. The new corporation takes over certain timber lands on the St. Croix and elsewhere, mills, vessels, etc. of the old firm, the property as previously announced having been purchased by Edward B. Draper, of Bangor, and others. Phil R. Hussey is president, Wm. D. Hayes treasurer, Lewis B. Barrett, clerk; Wm. D. Hayes, Hussey and N. Barrett directors.

The controlling interests have also organized the Passamaquoddy Land Co., which will be the holding company for 262,000 acres in Maine and New Brunswick. These lands will supply pulpwood to three mills. D. A. Crocker is president of the Passamaquoddy company, Chas. F. Hutchings, treasurer; Mr. Crocker, Mr. Hutchings, Mr. Draper and F. E. Bragg directors.

ONTARIO SCHOOLS TO GET MILLIONS

Ottawa, April 25.—"Instead of bringing in estimates for hundreds of thousands of dollars for educational purposes in Ontario, we will have to talk and deal in millions," said Hon. R. H. Grant, M. L. A., Minister of Education, at the opening of the Creighton street school on Saturday night. "I have every right to consider that this will be favorably received by members on both sides of the House," he added.

"The old parties have intimated that they are prepared to support such legislation."

ONE MAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Arthur Orton, a returned soldier, was killed; and Manning Dorsey, of Fort Fairfield, and Mary Kelchie, of Grand Falls, were slightly injured when an automobile left the road at a point two miles above Aroostook Junction, Victoria county, on Saturday night. Orton, who conducted a garage at Fort Fairfield, left that town with the others as passengers for Aroostook Junction early in the evening. When speeding along the highway about 9 o'clock between Aroostook Junction and Aroostook Falls, the car suddenly left the road and was overturned. Orton was pinned under the wreckage and instantly killed, the others being thrown clear. Orton's body was taken to Fort Fairfield yesterday.

Orton was born in England and was about 30 years of age. He was well known on both sides of the boundary line. He had no relatives in either Maine or New Brunswick, so far as is known.

COPP'S REASON FOR GENERAL UNREST

Montreal, April 25.—A. B. Copp, M. P. for Westmorland, speaking at the weekly luncheon of the Reform Club here on Saturday, attributed the cause of the present unrest to the defeat of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his party in 1911, and the reason why there was less unrest in Quebec province than elsewhere in the Dominion, according to the speaker, was because the Liberal party had not lost its grip over the people of the province.

Mr. Copp in the course of his address brought to public notice for the first time what had taken place at the Liberal caucus when it had been agreed to let the government carry on without elections in 1916. Sir Wilfred had said that he would abide by the expressed wish of his followers and allow an extension of life to the government, but the old leader had added: "I think it would be much safer to stand on the solid bedrock of our constitution and to have elections when the time for them has come."

In allowing the extension of term, Mr. Copp said that the Liberal party was voting itself out of office for an indefinite period.

ELOPE AND WED.

The disappearance of a young Bangor couple last Wednesday, which looked like a mystery for a time, culminated in a wedding at St. Stephen, in which the principals were Miss Frances Chase, a high school student, and George Alward, son of former residents of New Brunswick.

The Stock Market

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York (Wall Street), April 26.—Steels, equipments and motors led the list at the strong opening of today's stock market. Traders evidently found much encouragement in the better local financial situation, as indicated by last Saturday's returns of the federal reserve bank and clearing house. Conspicuous features included Vanadium and Lackawanna Steels, Baldwin and Studebaker, at gains of 1½ to 3½ points. United States Steel opened unchanged but soon rose almost two points.

ST. STEPHEN MAN HAS FLYING CROSS

News has been received from London that Captain Edward J. Cronin, of this city, who reutrned a few months ago from overseas, after long service in many lands, is among officers who have been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for gallantry. The reasons for this award are greatly to Captain Cronin's credit, viz., that he "had taken part in eighty raids on enemy territory, displaying great ability and gallantry. The news will be very gratifying to Captain Cronin's friends in St. John and his home town, St. Stephen.

Captain Cronin went overseas with the 140th New Brunswick Battalion and saw service with the 25th Nova Scotia Battalion. Then he secured his transfer to the Royal Air Force, and his real career as a fighter began. Recently he was demobilized.

See Them Smiling

Watch the expression of delight in Jimmy's eyes. Observe the broad grin on Dad's face. They knew what was coming for dessert and were careful not to eat too much beforehand. That's the only fault with Pure Gold Quick Puddings—they're so good the family is never satisfied. But mother doesn't mind because it only takes her a few minutes to prepare them.

FROM THE PEOPLE

DID THE COLUMN HELP?

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—What is the answer? This question I have propounded until at last I had to burst forth in writing. By this I mean, What results have accrued from the advice and questioning printed in your, or rather our, From the People Column?

Would it not add to the interest of the thinkers if a few of the persons who have asked for advice would let us all know what conclusions they reached as a result of your readers' advice and with what success?

For instance, the writer would very much like to know whether a certain man gave his legacy to the help of cripples or for the education of young, healthful Canadians; whether a certain young man kept going to church in spite of his convictions otherwise; whether another went to Montreal or stuck to his job here, and many other answers.

Of course very personal matters are not included, only those which the magnanimous askers might be glad to "let us in on."

What's the answer?

Yours,
TOM.

Edmundston, April 22, 1920.

WHAT IS PROHIBITION?

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—What is Prohibition? I ask out of pure curiosity. It cannot be said that we have prohibition in New Brunswick, because I have looked into the matter and find that our laws allow any person who has a residence other than a hotel, boarding house or store to buy all the booze he wants, while those engaged in business may not have the same privilege. This law, then, allows the class of people known as "bums" to buy all the liquor they want as long as they have any kind of an old shack in which to live. The class of people who would be most apt to abuse their privilege, can procure all they want. The makers of these laws would surely be curious looking creatures—one almost wonders if they resemble the rest of humanity. They must have more than the average amount of gray matter to frame up such wonderful laws! What a blessing to the province to have these men of brains! According to the act, those whom one would think the law would keep the liquor from are those who can buy it by the case. Of what benefit then, are our prohibition laws to the people of New Brunswick? Are they not just a farce framed up to give employment to a lot of ex-preachers, about whom the Lord must have forgotten, else He would not have suffered them to forget the promises in regard to His Kingdom (which the Scriptures tell us is not of this world or age) and unite themselves with the governments of this world or age, of which the Scriptures state Satan is the god or ruler? Life offers a few thoughts on preachers: "The great need of the churches is to get the clergy interested in religion, and to contrive that a larger proportion of them shall know something about it. What usually happens is that the ministers, like other people, have to pump up religion for use as occasion requires." Small wonder, then, that the Lord forgets about them and they seek employment with our governments, currying favor with the rulers of earth, instead of being true unto their vows and waiting for the coming of their once promised King and Lord.

We hear much talk nowadays of the dreadful condition the world is in, of much wickedness and social unrest. Is the decline of religoin among the clergy in any way responsible? To my mind these clergymen who have not made good when called of God to tell the "good tidings of great joy" are not qualified to either make or carry out the laws of our country. We would not think they had brains enough for the former, or a sense of justice enough for the latter, as has been proven by our present prohibition act, and the way it is carried out. These "clergy-inspectors" seem to stand out in a class all by themselves, out of God's favor as His mouthpieces, and objects of scorn and ridicule to right-thinking men and women. Would it not be a good idea to frame up new prohibition laws and appoint men as inspectors who are capable of carrying them out? I would suggest putting the present "clergy-inspectors" on farms where they might be of use in producing foodstuffs" in greater abundance and thus help to bring down the high cost of living.

Yours,
WALTER M. JARDINE.

Millville, N. B., April 22, 1920.

IN THESE PIPING TIMES.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—For a long time I have been wanting to make a tour of Canada, and now that I am able to take the trip, I am at a loss to make out an itinerary; I don't know where to start and where to end, only that I am able to spend about six months on the trip.

Every province in this broad land of ours has its appeal—some lure of the picturesque, or certain industrial or historical features that beckon to me.

Perhaps others of your readers may be in a similar predicament, and I, for one, would greatly appreciate suggestion from "travel fans" who know the ropes.

Yours,
INQUIRER.

Summary of Night Dispatches

Edmonton, April 26.—Hon. A. J. McKay, Minister of Municipal Affairs in the provincial Government of Alberta, died Sunday morning of pneumonia.

Threaten British Strike.

Manchester, April 26.—Eighty-one thousand cotton operatives favor strike this week in Lancashire if demands for sixty per cent. advance gross wages not granted. It is hoped that a settlement may be reached before strike takes place.

London, April 26.—The Bolshevik foreign minister has sent a formal proposal to open peace negotiations to Czecho-Slovakia.

Control of Foodstuffs.

Ottawa, April 26.—It was announced last night that a move to place control of all commercial foodstuffs entirely in the hands of the federal Department of Agriculture is to be made in the House next week.

Dutch Strike Failed.

The Hague, April 26.—The strike of Rotterdam and Amsterdam transport workers, that lasted ten weeks, was ended Saturday, when the men resumed work under old conditions.

The Blockade of Fiume.

Fiume, April 26.—Fiume is again securely blockaded by land and sea, following a raid by D'Annunzio's soldiers on Abbazia, west of the city.

British Mandate for Palestine.

San Remoo, April 26.—The supreme council gave the mandate for Palestine to Great Britain and will send a request to the United States to accept the mandate for Armenia. An Adriatic settlement was proposed along the lines of President Wilson's December 9th note, with, however, the constitution of a buffer state of Fiume. The latter point brought French and British objections to which Premier Nitti of Italy will give a final answer today.

Whole Family Slain.

Turtle Lake, N. D., April 26.—Eight persons were found dead Saturday on the farm of Jacob Wolf, near here. Indications were that the whole family, except an eight months' old baby, were slain with a hatchet.

U. S. Congress a Failure.

Washington, April 26.—Sweeping charges that the present congress has failed the United States nation with "completeness and abandon" is made by Samuel Gompers in the current issue of the American Federationist.

Secure Huge Plant.

Ottawa, April 26.—Word reached here today that a strong group of Toronto and Montreal industrial interests had been successful in securing the huge plant of the British Chemicals, Limited, formerly operated by the Imperial Munitions Board at Trenton, Ont. Plants and equipments cover an area of 225 acres and were installed at a cost of over five million

DR. CROCKET'S APPEAL FOR EDUCATION

(for this matter has now been committed to our hands), give that encouragement and hand out to the taxpayers, not precept only, but example; let us mark, let us stamp our day in this House as the beginning of a broader time.

Serious Situation; No Further Neglect.

My hon. friend from the County of St. John, in his speech last year when the estimates for education were under discussion, told the House that he did not blame the present government more than former governments for their attitude towards education. Let that be the view of all of us. Let our realization of neglect in the past quicken in us a sense of the responsibilities which rest upon us this present hour.

Seldom, perhaps never in the history of this province, I assert, and I measure my words, has a Legislature been met by a more serious situation than the one which now confronts us. Let us meet it; let us meet it with a unity of spirit and of action, with a singleness of purpose worthy of representatives of a discerning and a liberal people.

GALLANT FIGHT CANADIAN AIRMAN

Relatives of Western Man Killed in Belgium Receive Letter Regarding Battle.

Winnipeg, Man., April 22.—There is a stirring of the imagination in a letter that has come to Winnipeg from the battlefields of Belgium. Last September, C. H. Wilson, of this city, inserted an advertisement in the local paper of Roulers, Belgium, asking for information of the grave of his son, Lieut. C. M. Wilson, who met his death while serving with the British Air Force, and whose grave was believed to be located in that district. Mr. Wilson has received a long letter from a Belgian citizen, giving details of the fight in which Lieut. Wilson lost his life. An eye-witness supplied the information that Lieut. Wilson had been killed in an air battle with the Germans on Oct. 7 or 8, 1918, just before the big German retreat. He was buried where his machine fell on a farm near the little town of Rumbeke.

The eye-witness, the letter states, saw the fight open between three British and four German machines. One of the British machines was surrounded by four Germans, yet he kept up the fight. Two of the Germans were shot down and the British continued battle against the other two, the two other British machines for some unknown reason having dropped out of the battle. While engaged in a machine-gun fight the lone British machine must have been damaged or the aviator wounded, and the aviator commenced to descend. About 1,000 yards from the earth the machine took fire, but the man apparently kept it under control. This was verified by the eye-witness when he came across the machine, which was not badly damaged. The dead airman was still strapped in his seat with his hands on the control wheel. Apparently he had been shot but lived long enough to bring the plane to earth.

WREST TREASURES FROM THE PACIFIC

Vancouver, B. C., April 24—To delve into the unknown depths of the sea off the west coast of Vancouver Island and wrest therefrom treasures hidden for many years, is the object of S. Maddison and his party of salvagers, who will begin operations early in May. Last autumn Mr. Maddison made submarine cruises among the crags which line the coast of the island and located four large wrecks besides a number of smaller ones. Two of the larger he identified as the Passmelford and the Valencia and one of the others he thinks is the long lost H. M. S. Condor which disappeared in 1903 and has never been heard of since. Some of the numerous boats which met their fate on the perilous west coast carried cargoes which at the time of sinking did not make it worth while salvaging; but under present day conditions there is freight aboard those boats which must be worth almost its weight in gold.

BURIED IN SNOW, TURKEYS SURVIVE

Brandon, Man., April 24.—On the day of the big snowstorm about the middle of March a farmer near here lost two turkeys and expected to find their dead bodies when the snow disappeared. On April 7 the turkeys came to life again after being buried under the snow for three weeks, and two days. One of the turkeys was able to get out of the snow prison and when the other was liberated it flew away as if nothing had happened.

URGENT NEED OF PUBLIC ECONOMY

Duties of Governments to Confine Themselves to Administration and Taxation.

London, April 24. — The London Times, in referring to the speeches at Lord Atholstan's luncheon, says that at the present time the Dominions and the Mother Country have one pressing need in common and that is the urgent need of economy.

Lord Inchcape invited Lord Atholstan to impress this need upon his readers and the Canadian government. He also suggested that the duty of governments is to confine themselves to administration and taxation and to leave business to business people.

The Times has no wish to quarrel with that dictum, but adds:

"There are certainly occasions when it is no less the duty of business to welcome, not so much the rivalry as the concurrence of the state for the general good of the empire, themselves included.

MARRIAGE DAY IN TURKISH EMPIRE

Sultan Appoints May 1 as Special Day on Which Sons of Empire Should Wed.

Constantinople, April 24.—The Sultan, Mohammed VI., has issued an imperial decree proclaiming May 1 as "marriage day" throughout Turkey in an effort to promote the weddings and to arrest the decline in the birthrate. This action was taken on the request of Hazim Bey, Minister of Interior, who ascribes the decreased number of births in Turkey to the frivolity of young women.

In the Sultan's decree, all engaged persons who have been unable to marry earlier are urged to do so on May 1. As an inducement, no charges are to be made for marriages performed on that day, guests at weddings are to make no gifts, the first children of those who wed on May 1 are to receive the names of the children of the Sultan and to receive the gift of a bracelet from the governor of the province in which the child is born.

The Sultan's son is named d'Ertoghroul and his daughters are Roukie and d'Uvie.

The edict is especially directed to the province of Broussa, in Anatolia, which attracted much unfavorable comment in the Mohammedan press because of its greatly reduced birthrate and the tendency of its population to violate the Moslem prohibition of the use of intoxicating beverages. Government officials allege that people of Anatolian villages, men and women alike, indulge what they call "burning nights" of music and feasting.

Indulgence in modern dancing has aroused the protest of a member of the Chamber of Deputies from Anatolia who has introduced a bill authorising officials to prevent women from "participating in the antics and capers of the ball room."

FRAUDULENT WAR CONTRACTS IN U. S.

Department of Justice Inquiring Into Charges of Illegal Transactions.

Washington, April 24.—Attorney General Palmer announced yesterday that investigations by the Department of Justice of alleged fraudulent war contracts had "uncovered illegal transactions involving millions of dollars," and that through civil and criminal prosecutions now completed or under way large sums would be saved for the government.

"Questionable vouchers unearthed in one class of contracts alone have resulted in the withholding of payments by the government amounting to approximately $4,420,000," the Department declared in a statement.

ENTIRE STAFF OF OFFICERS RESIGN

Peterboro, Ont., April 24.—Disagreeing with the executive policy of Colonel Lewis, officer comanding the collegiate institute cadets, the entire staff of officers resigned yesterday.

A meeting had been held previously and the resignation of the commanding officer requested. This was refused, and the staff quit.

ACROBAT DISRUPTS THE CAR SERVICE

Perches Himself on Electric Wires and Current Cannot Be Turned On.

Mobile, Ala., April 24.—A section of this city is without electric power and several street car lines are disrupted this morning because an unknown but gifted acrobat chooses to give an exhibition of his skill on the overhead electric light and telephone wires of a downtown street.

The man climbed a pole last night and began walking and swinging monkey-like among the wires. Early today he was still perched on his lofty seat midway between two poles. The police were unable to coax him to come down and have adopted a policy of watchful waiting, after having the current cut off to prevent a possible electrocution. They expressed belief that the man has become exhilarated on boot-leg whiskey or drugs.

JOHNSON LEADS IN MONTANA PRIMARY

Butte, Mont., April 24.—Senator Johnson of California had a wide margin over his opponents for the Republican presidential nomination in Montana's primary, held yesterday, according to widely scattered unofficial returns available to newspapers tabulating the vote early today.

Nearly 200 precincts of the total 1,500 gave Johnson 6,238 votes, Major Gen. Leonard Wood 1,604, Herbert Hoover 1,259, Gov. Lowden 1,139, and Senator Warren fewer than 500.

AN AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL FOR P. E. I.

Provincial Government Submits a Proposition to Federal Authorities.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., April 24.—Prof. L. W. Gill, Director of Technical Education, leaves the Island today after holding a conference with the Provincial Government regarding the establishment of an agricultural school, as farming is the main industry of the province. It is conceded that agricultural education may be considered technical education and the island can take advantage of the federal grant for the former purpose under certain condtions.

The government made a certain proposition which Prof. Gill will submit to the federal government. No agreement has yet been arrived at.

In the Legislature today a bill was brought down providing for increase in salaries to teachers as asked for by the Teachers' Union last December.

A convention of representatives of various classes of people was held in Charlottetown last March at which another schedule asking for still higher salaries was submitted. Teachers are now asking that the latter schedule be carried out by the Government.

"SWEET Me-moir-ies," thought the lady of the house, in a pleasantly whimsical mood, as a birthday reminder of Moir's Chocolates came from his office just after the lunch hour.

The times that Moir's had come in "courting days" were sweet memories to her in more than one way. Always fresh, delicious and rich, the heavy coatings made Moir's Chocolates the favorites for all time.

The main drive in the mill of Gloucester Lumber and Trading Co., Bathurst, Goodyear Extra Power Belt still in use after 5 years' service.

Master Belts of Industry

Goodyear has solved the problem of belting the great main drives of industry—the backbone of production.

Experience, in a thousand Canadian plants, says Goodyear Extra Power Belts.

Because these belts are strong—with the strength of properly selected fabric, every thread perfect.

Yet flexible, hugging pulleys, taking advantage of every inch of pulley surface. Flexible because in Goodyear Extra Power Belting high-grade rubber is forced through and through the fabric in generous quantities. Every strand is cushioned in it. No stitching to stiffen or weaken the belt. No separation of plies.

Its friction surface grips, even through dampness or dust. No slipping with Extra Power. No need for extra tight belts, pulling pulleys out of line. No need for belt dressing. No lost power.

The testimony for Goodyear Extra Power on main drives is very complete. For instance:—

The Norfolk Milling Company, of Simcoe, writing about their main drive belt, purchased a year ago, say:—

"Has been in continuous operation for one year, and has not stretched nor given us the slightest bit of trouble."

There are many others—some selected at random are:—

Swedish Crucible Steel Company, Ltd., Windsor, Ont.
Dominion Sugar Company, Ltd., Chatham, Ont.
Dominion Forge and Stamping Co., Ltd., Walkerville, Ont.
Page Wire Fence Company of Canada, Ltd., Walkerville, Ont.
Echo Flour Mills, Ltd., Gladstone, Man.
P. Burns Company, Ltd., Edmonton, Alta.
Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines Co, Ltd., Timmins, Ont.
Dome Mines Company, Ltd., South Porcupine, Ont.
Burrard Saw Mills, Ltd., Vancouver, B.C.
Silverton Lumber and Power Company, Ltd., Silverton, B.C.
Woodstock Electric Railway Light and Power Company, Ltd., Woodstock, N.B.
Gloucester Lumbering and Trading Company, Bathurst, N.B.
Amherst Foundry Company, Ltd., Amherst, N.S.
Hull Iron and Steel Foundries, Ltd., Hull, Que.
Quebec Graphite Co., Ltd., Buckingham, Que.

The complete story of Goodyear Extra Power Belts on main drives is interesting. There are facts about other types of drives just as important to you. Let a Goodyear belting man call and talk to you. No obligation. Just phone, wire or write the nearest branch.

A Real World Shortage of Paper, With Canada the Only Country to be Depended Upon

Likely to Be a Stringency in the European Market for Years to Come, and It is Feared that Many of the Smaller Newspapers Must Go to Wall.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

London, April 11.—(By Mail)—Lord Burnham, proprietor of the London Daily Telegraph, speaking at a luncheon here of newspaper directors, said:

"There was at present what was termed a paper famine, due to a real world shortage. What was happening was pregnant with meaning for those who believed that, although we could not perhaps ever be self-sufficient in the British Empire, we ought to be able to draw much more largely than we do on the output of the great Dominions beyond the seas.

"It was difficult to see, with the increasing use of paper for all sorts of purposes, how the supply could be made up, unless the resources, particularly of the Dominion of Canada, were utilized to a far greater degree.

"There was not likely to be for many years any effective competition from Germany in the paper trade. The mere fact that Italy had had to draw upon the west for its paper, instead of upon Austria, had contributed to the present scarcity and tended to raise prices to their present level. It was up to the leaders in the paper making industry to do all they could to interest the whole commercial community in the development of our resources in what was a prime necessity of civilized life. It would be their duty soon to set themselves in downright earnest to developing the paper resources of the Empire.

"For years to come there was likely to be a stringency which would react more prejudicially on the whole of our national life. No newspaper man could look without a good deal of fear at the coming years, which were likely to prove almost too heavy for smaller people to bear, and which might mean the end of many publications that had had an undoubted value as contributing to the efficiency and knowledge of the people, and might seriously handicap free access to information."

Visiting Clergyman.

Two visiting clergymen occupied the pulpits of the city churches yesterday, Rev. N. Franchette, Rector of Hartland, Carleton County, preaching at Christchurch Cathedral in the morning and at the Parish Church in the evening. Major the Rev. E. B. Hooper occupied the pulpit at Christchurch Cathedral in the evening and gave an inspiring sermon on St. George's Day. He referred to the Second Battle of Ypres and the Battle of Zeebrugge in 1918, both of which had been fought on St. George's Day and paid a tribute to the brave men who had given their lives in defence of the British Empire against the despotism of the Huns.

Fredericton Tourist Association.

At the organizing meeting of the Fredericton Tourist Association this morning C. K. Palmer was elected chairman, F. B. Edgecombe as treasurer and J. J. McCaffrey as secretary. A communication from the publishers in Boston of the association's booklet was received asking that the balance due on the booklet be paid. The secretary was directed to write the firm and arrange the matter of exchange.

Fined for Fighting.

Three local young men, charged with loitering on the public streets and refusing to give a satisfactory account of themselves when requested to by a police officer, were fined $5 or ten days jail each by Police Magistrate Limerick in the police court this morning. The prisoners were also given a reprimand by the magistrate.

TO STRAIGHTEN OUT MARYSVILLE ROAD

Government Inspector Proposes to Cut Off Present Curve at Mill Brook.

(Special. despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Marysville, N. B., April 26.—The Government inspector has been inspecting the road at Mill Brook with a view to straightening it out. It is proposed to cut off the present curve in the road and to run it in a straight line from a point near the old Donahue place to a point oposite the Stafford place.

Rev. G. W. Foster, of Lincoln, occupied the pulpit of the Olivet Baptist church last evening. There was a large congregation present.

The many friends of Mrs. Garfield Peterson will regret to learn that she is suffering from ill health.

Rev. E. W. Lester, pastor of the Reformed Baptist church, has signified his intention of resigning his pastorate the latter part of June.

Marysville Lodge, No. 18, K. P., held a very interesting function Friday evening. The lodge is now divided into two sides for entertainment purposes. The competition will continue until the end of the present term, when the losing side will entertain the winning side. Arthur J. Lyons, vice-chancellor of the lodge, who is soon to leave Marysville, tendered his resignation, which was regretfully accepted, and S. J. Hallett was elected as vice-chancellor of the lodge. Rev. J. J. Pinkerton, prelate of the lodge, in a brief but complimentary speeech, thanked Knight Lyons for the great interest he had shown in the Marysville Lodge, and on behalf of its members presented him with a substantial purse of money. Mr. Lyons was taken completely by surprise, and it was some time before he could find words with which to express his thanks to his brother knights for their kindness.

A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Spencer at an early hour this morning. Mr. Spencer is here from Minto for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Odbur Steeves, of Moncton, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy. Mrs. Steeves was formerly Miss Freda Dennison.

J. Kethro, of Newcastle, who has been visiting friends here during the past week, has returned to his home.

Rev. J. J. Pinkerton conducted service at the Methodist church, Penniac, Sunday afternoon.

The Guild of Main street Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Walker Friday evening. There was a large attendance and a very pleasant evening was spent by those present.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Stewart, Main street, was the scene of a very pleasant function Friday evening, when a large number of young people tendered their daughter, Miss Eva, a surprize party, it being her birthday. A most enjoyable evening was spent with music, games and other amusements. Refreshments were served during the evening. Miss Stewart was presented by her young friends with beautiful pieces of ivory.

Lt. Col. W. H. Gray, who has been in very poor health for some time past, is confined to his room with bronchitis and acute neuralgia.

The many friends of Mrs. J. McInnis will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly recovering from her recent operation.

FATAL ACCIDENT TO HOULTON BOY

Houlton, April 24.—Otho Wilson, 16 years old, son of Mrs. Matthew Wilson of Columbia street, was accidentally shot and killed about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It appears that he was attempting to take a cartridge from a Winchester rifle, when it was discharged, the bullet entering his right temple. His mother heard the report from the woodshed and when the boy was reached he was breathing his last. There are several brothers and sisters. His mother is a widow.

Record for Three Months.

The Policyholders Mutual Life Insurance Company obtained for the first three months of this year, no less than $750,000.00 new business.

The Policyholders is an admirable example of how a company can be built up with the expenditure of a reasonable amount of capital by the use of sound character and exceptional ability.

The late J. Howard Hunter, Government insurance expert who helped draft the Company's charter, stated before the Private Bills Committee, that it was his idea of what an insurance Company should be, and as soon as the insuring public understood its principles, it would be a huge success. The huge success is certainly in sight. Mr. W. H. Grey is the Company local agent at Marysville and Mr. L. A. Morrell of Fredericton is the General agent for York County. Doctors W. H. Irvine and D. W. Ross are the Company's physicians for York County. Mr. H. E. Beyea, of St. John, N. B., is the Company's manager for New Brunswick.

PROVINCE WILL WELCOME EDITORS

Government Will Cooperate With City in Greeting U. S. Editorial Party.

New Brunswick's welcome to the National Association's party of American editors numbering more than 200 who will visit the Maritime Provinces in June will take place in Fredericton on June 15th.

The party are due to arrive here at 3 p. m. on that date and remain until the following morning when they will leave in their special train by C. N. R. for Dalhousie, where they will be the guests at the All-New Brunswick Tourists and Resources League. Preliminary plans were made this morning by the joint civic and provincial government committee at their organization meeting when Premier Foster was appointed honorary chairman and Hon. P. J. Veniot, Minister of Public Works, was added to the joint committee.

The tentative programme calls for an automobile drive for the visitors upon their arrival here and in the evening there will be a band concert and entertainment at the Parliament Buildings, where thte provincial reception will take place, and afterwards there will be a showing of provincial motion pictures of fishing, hunting and lumbering scenes. President W. Harry Allen, of the New Brunswick Guides' Association read a letter which said that the departure of the party from that city would be arranged so as to provide for their early arrival here.

The sub-committees in charge of the two branches of entertainment of the party in Fredericton are:

Afternoon—Ald. J. Stewart Neill (chairman), Joseph Dolphin, W. D. Gunter, H. A. Smith and P. S. Watson.

Evening—J. J. McCaffrey (chairman), Ald. T. S. Wilkinson, F. B. Edgecombe, H. S. Campbell, W. Harry Allen, Mayor Gilbert Henry, of Devon, and C. Fred Chestnut.

A TRIPLE WEDDING.

A triple wedding of more than ordinary interest was solemnized in Moncton on April 21, the officiating clergyman being Rev. J. A. Ramsay, of St. John's Presbyterian church. At the same hour and at the manse, Rev. Mr. Ramsay united in marirage Vernon H. Betts and Miss Grace Watson, both of Northfield, Sunbury county; Ellery M. Kadey, of Chipman, and Miss Alice P. Watson, of Northfield, and Robert P. Wishart and Miss Mary A. Day, both of Chipman. The three happy couples returned on the N. T. R. express Thursday afternoon to their homes.

The Supreme Allied Council Adopts the Franco-British Declaration, After Some Objection by the Italian Premier Had Been Cleared Away—Final Unanimity.

[Special Havas despatch by Leased Wire]

San Remo, April 25.—The supreme council today adopted the Franco-British declaration with regard to Germany after inserting a clause declaring its readiness to take all measures, even the ocupation of additional German territory, if necessary, to assure the carrying out of the treaty of Versailles.

The adoption of this clause gave rise to some discussion, Premier Nitti of Italy opposing military measures. Premiers Millerand and Lloyd George, however, showed the Italian premier the necessity of considering such an eventuality and Foreign Minister Hymans of Belgium and Baron Matsui, the Japanese Ambassador to France, joined them in this point of view, which was adopted by the council.

Fined for Violations.

A local man who was arrested on Saturday evening charged with being drunk and having liquor in his possession in violation of the Intoxicating Liquor Act of 1916, was fined $8 or 30 days jail for being drunk and $2 or six months' jail for having liquor in his possession. Two bottles of whiskey with the seals unbroken were produced as evidence against him. Another man who had a pint flask of gin in his possession and who was arrested on Sunday evening was fined $58 or 4 months' jail.

IMPROVED TRAIN SERVICE TO BOSTON

Starting Today a Double Service Will Be in Operation Between St. John-Boston

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

St. John, N. B., April 26.—Starting today a double daily train service between St. John and Boston will be in operation again. For the next week this will be given by the morning train which during the winter ran between St. John and McAdam, which will now run to Vanceboro, where the parlor car which it will carry will be picked up by the Maine Central and carried through, the return service being given in the same way. Next week the regular through train will be on the route.

The imperial service medal was presented this morning in the Union station by L. R. Ross to Albert J. Atkinson, who entered the service of the government railways in 1870 and has served as brakeman and conductor.

Grant Hall, Vice President of the C. P. R., arrived in the city today in his private car, accompanying his daughter, who sails for England on the Metagama.

CANADIANS SURE TO WIN HOCKEY TITLE

Play Sweden Today—Czecho-Slovakia and United States Out.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Antwerp, April 26.—Canada and Sweden will meet in the ice palace here tonight in a game which will determine the Olympian hockey championship. France and the United States were eliminated for first place honors yesterday, the former by losing to Sweden by a score of 4 to 0 and the latter by going down to a 2 to 0 defeat before the Falcons of Canada, after a stirring contest. That Canada will win the championship seems certain, as the Swedish team has little hope except to hold the Falcons to a low score.

Under the Olympic rules, all teams directly beaten by the champion team must compete for second prize. Thus, the United States, Czecho-Slovakia and the loser of tonight's game will draw for opponents following that contest.

The American team was disappointed, but not chagrined, at its defeat by Canada last night.

"It was anybody's game until near the finish," said Manager Fellows, "but the best team won."

The girl was attempting to dance with a fat man who couldn't. The fat man was a great bungler and he knew it. He gasped as they hobbled about:

"It's awfully kind of you to dance with me—me the worst dancer in the room!"

Then he trod on her foot for the sixth time, and the girl replied:

"Oh, how can you say so? Why, you hardly seem to touch the floor."

EVERETT SCOTT TO ESTABLISH RECORD

Boston Americans' Shortstop Will Play His 534th Consecutive Game.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Boston, April 26.—Everett Scott, crack shortstop of the Boston Americans, will break all major league records for playing in consecutive games when he takes the field against the Athletics at Philadelphia today. With today's game Scott will have participated in 534 consecutive league contests. Luderus, of the Philadelphia Nationals set the record at 533 games last season, but he has not played this year.

Scott started his continuous playing on June 20, 1916, with the Red Sox, and he has not missed a game since. Actually Scott had previously outstripped Luderus through participation in eleven world series games in two years, but these post season contests have not been considered in the consecutive records for regular games.

The Boston shortstop has to his credit also for two years what is said to be the highest fielding average for any shortstop playing the full season in either major league. His mark of .976 made in both 1918 and 1919 is the highest on record, "Tuck" Turner's average of .973 in 1910 being the best previously made in the American League, and .968, Joe Tinker's record at short for Cincinnati, being the best in the National League.

WHEATON LEADS LOCAL BOWLERS

Had Best Average of Local Team in Tournament but Calais Team Led.

One of the results of the victory of the Fredericton team in the bowling tournament at St. John last week is that the 1921 tournament will be held at the Palace Alleys in this city.

Under the regulations the winners of the silver pin donated by the Brunswick-Balke-Collander Company as emblematic of the championship of the Maritime Provinces and Eastern Maine defend the honors at their home alleys and thus next year's tournament will be held here.

Statistics which have been compiled for the tournament show the Calais team had the largest pinfall, averaging 1,446 in their five strings, while J. Casey of the Calais team had the highest pinfall with an average of 100 4-15, Gillespie of the Calais team just nosing out Murray Kierstead of the Fredericton team for the highest individual single string with his score of 127 in the final game.

The Fredericton team, although winning the championship, were fourth in the total pinfall with an average of 1405 in their five strings, while Jimmie Wheaton upset the dope of many of the critics by leading the Fredericton team with the highest average pinfall, his record of 96 2-15 being the best made by the locals. Following is the total pinfall record of the tournament:

	Total	Avg.
Calais	7231	1446
Y. M. C. A.	7127	1425
Y. M. C. I.	7046	1409
Fredericton	7028	1405
Black's	6989	1398

Wheaton Leads for Roll Off.

Thirty-one bowlers have qualified for the weekly roll off at the Palace Alleys this evening with Jimmie Wheaton in the lead with a string of 124. T. Styran comes second with 120, followed by M. Kierstead with 119.

Those who have qualified are:

J. Wheaton 124, T. Styran 120, M. Kierstead 119, J. Peterson 118, J. Spencer 116, E. Edney 115, R. Paynter 115, C. Pederson 115, Kendall 111, W. Minue 110, K. Edney 109, Gibson 109, Gregg 107, H. HOULTON RACES ON THREE HEAT PLAN

Six Events on Programme for Maritime and Maine Circuit Opening.

The Houlton Agricultural Society have announced the programme for their races July 5 and 6. On the first day the 2.13 trot and pace, 2.19 trot and pace and 2.24 trot will be held. The classes for the second day's racing will be the free-for-all, 2.17 trot and pace and 2.22 trot. All the purses will be $300 with the exception of that for the free-for-all which will be $500. The races will be under the three heat plan. As this will be the opening of the Maritime-Maine circuit it is expected that some of the best horses in Eastern Canada will compete with those from Maine and New England.

J. A. DeWitt, of Presque Isle, Me., has moved his string of promising young horses to Woodstock where he will train them.

SKATERS AT OLYMPIC.

New York, April 24.—A representative field of figure skaters will compete for the Olympic games championship at the Antwerp ice palace during the next few days, according to a communication received by the American Olympic committee here today. Five nations have entered competitors for the women's events; nine will contest in the figures for men and six will be represented in the pair figure skating contests.

Is this Your Attic?

THINK twice before you say that the furniture in this attic is worn out. It may only look worn out.

Remember that once it had a fine coat of surface protection. Many a good piece of furniture has been discarded when the protective finish became shabby but before the actual surface suffered real damage.

If the surface is really good it can be made to look as good as ever. Look your attic treasures over carefully. Save them for years and years of further service with coats of surface protection. This is a good example of how true the expression is—"save the surface and you save all." For trifling expense you can have what is, to all intents and purposes, new furniture for old.

But best of all, keep the surfaces of the furniture you now have in use in perfect condition and prevent its being discarded. Keep the woodwork intact. Keep the floors sound and perfect. Keep the house free from decay on the outside. Keep metal parts from rust. Keep the whole property—house, barns, stables, outhouses, silo—keep it all sound, as a business asset. Every banker knows the good effect well-kept property has on a man's business rating.

All deterioration starts at the surface. Paint and varnish keep attacks from the surface. Unless the surface is broken through, damage cannot take place. Save the surface and you save all.

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT is issued by the Canadian Save the Surface Campaign Committee, for the purpose of educating the public in the Preservative and Protective value of Paint, Varnish and Allied Products for the Conservation of Property, and has received the approval of the Canadian Trade Commission in the following words:

"The realization of the above objects will lead to employment during the Reconstruction Period and bears our entire approval.

"They beat anything I ever tried"

"I have been using Planet Jr Horse Hoes for several years," writes C. R. Mote, Carrolton, Ga., "and they beat anything I ever tried. I just can't get along without them."

Planet Jr farm and garden implements get high praise from users because they produce bigger, better crops with less work. Their quick, easy, telling results are the product of over 45 years actual farming and manufacturing experience. Planet Jr tools last a lifetime—every one fully guaranteed.

Planet Jr

No. 8 Horse Hoe and Cultivator does a greater variety of work and does it more thoroughly than any other cultivator ever made. It has stronger, better construction. Its depth regulator and extra-long frame make it steady-running. Adaptable to deep or shallow cultivation and to different widths. 15 other styles of one-horse cultivators—various prices.

No. 4 Planet Jr Combined Hill and Drill Seeder, Wheel-Hoe, Cultivator and Plow does the work so quickly, easily and thoroughly that it pays for itself in a single season. Sows all garden seeds (in drills or hills) plows, opens furrows, and covers them, hoes and cultivates all through the season.

FRANCO-CANADIAN TREATY DENOUNCED

Both France and Canada Take Measures to End Old Commercial Arrangement.

Ottawa, April 24.—It is understood that the commercial convention signed between France and Canada in 1907, and ratified in 1910, by which certain Canadian imports into France have the advantage of the minimum tariff and in exchange certain French imports into Canada enjoyed somewhat similar privileges, has now been denounced by both countries, Canada having given the three months' notice required about the midle of March. France announced her intention of denouncing it some time ago, but during the last session of the Canadian parliament an arrangement was made by which it was extended three months, which expired in March. Canada will therefore return to the maximum treaty with France unless some new arrangements are made. Owing to the rise in price of all commodities the French Government, in order to maintain the same percentage of duties to values, has since the armistice increased the pre-war duties by a coefficient which varies from 1½ to 3 in order to offset the disadvantages of the exchange situation.

The opinion is expressed here among trade officials that this action of denouncing the treaties is merely to clear the decks for a new arrangement. At the peace conference it was understood that all the old commercial treaties were to go out of existence and new ones to be negotiated in the light of new conditions created by the war. Under the treaty now being denounced the chief advantage has accrued to Japan, under the "most favored nation" clause. When the war broke out many manufactured lines which we used to get from France, such as silks, fancy goods and so forth, could no longer be supplied and Japan went after this trade hard. The imports from Japan increased very heavily while those from France fell off. Our total trade with France for the year ending February was as follows: Imports, $8,818,039; exports, $66,539,409.

CHURCH CENSUS OF WINNIPEG TAKEN

Winnipeg, Man., April 24.—Figures resulting from the compilation of the recent church census of Winnipeg, while not complete, inasmuch as a large area of the city largely populated by foreigners was not included in the enumeration, throw an interesting light on the religious elements of the city's life. Owing to the lack of organization, this first census is not accepted as being exact in any sense. The total number of families enumerated was 31,628, including 56,232 adults and 16,714 children. Of this number, 1,249 families, including 2,322 adults, reported as not being allied with any church. Of those acknowleding adherence to a particular religious body, 11,002 reported that they had no preference as to which church of their faith they attended.

SOVIET EXPERIMENT.

Milan, April 24.—The Italian Socialist national council yesterday decided to make an experiment with the soviet form of government in all large Italian cities where the proletariat is well organized.

CARPENTIER WILL APPEAR AT CIRCUS

French Champion Makes Contract that Will Net Him About $100,000.

Toronto, April 24.—A Toronto Globe special from New York says that for $2,000 a day, according to the circus publicity agents, Georges Carpentier, the French champion, will mingle with elephants and clowns in one of the rings of the Sells-Floto circus.

Announcement of a contract that will net the boxer $100,000 was made today.

Carpentier will make his first appearance with the circus in Washington, May 10. His next appearance will be deferred until May 20 in Cleveland in order that he may keep previously made engagements in the meantime. He will make a seventy-day tour, giving two exhibitions a day.

The French boxer's contract was secured through a syndicate headed by Jack Curley.

JAP BANKS SUSPEND.

Washington, April 24.—Only two banks in Japan have suspended payment as the result of financial troubles in that country, the Department of Commerce was advised yesterday by its representative in Tokio.

COST OF JUSTICE.

Washington, April 24.—Attorney General Palmer yesterday asked congress for $50,000 for prosecuting and detecting crime, in adition to $2,600,000 already apropriated for the current year.

True Knights of Faith

(Confinued.)

It was but a hundred paces, and yet ere he had crossed it every bowman was ready at his horse's head, and the group of knights were out and listening intently to the ominous sound.

"It is a great body of horse," said Sir William Felton, "and they are riding very swiftly hitherwards."

"Yet they must be from the prince's army," remarked Sir Richard Causton, "for they came from the north."

"Nay," said the Earl of Angus, "it is not so certain; for the peasant with whom we spoke last night said that it was rumored that Don Tello, the Spanish king's brother, had ridden with six thousand chosen men to beat up the prince's camp. It may be that on their backward road they have come this way."

"By St. Paul!" cried Sir Nigel, "I think that it is even as you say, for that same peasant had a sour face and a shifting eye, as one who bore us little good will. I doubt not that he has brought these cavaliers upon us."

"But the mist covers us," said Sir Simon Burley. "We have yet time to ride through the further end of the pass."

"Were we a troop of mountain goats we might do so," answered Sir William Felton, "but it is not to be passed by a company of horsemen. If these be indeed Don Tello and his men, then we must bide where we are, and do what we can to make them rue the day that they found us in their path."

"Well spoken, William!" cried Sir Nigel, in high delight. "If there be so many as has been said, then there will be much honor to be gained from them and every hope of advancement. But the sound has ceased, and I fear that they have gone some other way."

"Or mayhap they have come to the mouth of the gorge, and are marshalling their ranks. Hush and hearken! for they are no great way from us."

The Company stood peering into the dense fog-wreath, amidst a silence so profound that the dripping of the water from the rocks and the breathing of the horses grew loud upon the ear. Suddenly from out the sea of mist came the shrill sound of a neigh, followed by a long blast upon a bugle.

"It is a Spanish call, my fair lord," said Black Simon. "It is used by their prickers and huntsmen when the beast hath not fled, but is still in its lair."

"By my faith!" said Sir Nigel, smiling, "if they are in a humor for venerie we may promise them some sport ere they sound the mort over us. But there is a hill in the centre of the gorge on which we might take our stand."

"I marked it yester-night," said Felton, "and no better spot could be found for our purpose, for it is very steep at the back. It is but a bow-shot to the left, and, indeed, I can see the shadow of it."

The whole Company, leading their horses, passed across to the small hill which loomed in front of them out of the mist. It was indeed admirably designed for defence, for it sloped down in front, all jagged and boulder-strewn, while it fell away behind in a sheer cliff of a hundred feet or more. On the summit was a small uneven plateau, with a stretch across of a hundred paces, and a depth of half as much again.

"Unloose the horses!" said Sir Nigel. "We have no space for them, and if we hold our own we shall have horses and to spare when this day's work is done. Nay, keep yours, my fair sirs, for we may have work for them. Aylward, Johnston, let your men form a harrow on either side of the ridge. Sir Oliver and you, my Lord Angus, I give you the right wing, and the left to you, Sir Simon, and to you, Sir Richard Causton, and Sir William Fenton will hold the centre with our men-at-arms. Now order the ranks, and fling wide the banners, for our souls are God's and our bodies the king's, and our swords for Saint George and for England!"

Sir Nigel had scarcely spoken when the mist seemed to thin in the valley, and to shred away into long ragged clouds which trailed from the edges in the cliffs. The gorge in which they had camped was a mere wedge-shaped cleft among the hills, three-quarters of a mile deep, with the small rugged rising upon which they stood at the further end, and the brown crags walling in on three sides. As the mist parted, and the sun broke through ,it gleamed and shimmered with dazzling brightness upon the armor and headpieces of a vast body of horsemen who stretched across the barranca from one cliff to the other, and extended backwards until their rear-guard were far out upon the plain beyond. Line after line, and rank after rank, they choked the neck of the valley with a long vista of tossing pennons, twinkling lances, waving plumes and streaming banderoles, while the curvets and gambades of the chargers lent a constant motion and shimmer to the glittering, many-colored mass. A yell of exultation, and a forest of waving steel through the length and breadth of their column, announced that they could at last see their entrapped enemies, while the swelling notes of a hundred bugles and drums, mixed with the clash of Morish cymbals, broke forth into a proud peal of martial triumph. Strange it was to these gallant and sparkling cavaliers of Spain to look upon this handful of men upon the hill, the thin lines of bowmen, the knots of knights and men-at-arms with armor rusted and discolored from long service, and to learn that these were indeed the soldiers whose fame and prowess had been the campfire talk of every army in Christendom. Very still and silent they stood, leaning upon their bows, while their leaders took counsel together in front of them. No clang of bugle rose from their stern ranks, but in the centre waved the leopards of England, on the right the ensign of their Company with the roses of Loring, and on the left, over three score of Welsh bowmen, there floated the red banner of Merlin with the boars'-heads of the Butesthorns. Gravely and sedately they stood beneath the morning sun waiting for the onslaught of their foemen.

"By Saint Paul!" said Sir Nigel, gazing with puckered eye down the valley, "there appear to be some very worthy people among them. What is this golden banner which waves upon the left?"

"It is the ensign of the Knigths of Calatrava," answered Felton.

"And the other upon te bright?"

"It marks the Knights of Santiago, and I see by this flag that their grand-master rides at their head. There too is the banner of Castile amid yonder sparkling squadron which heads the main battle. There are six thousand men-at-arms with ten squadrons of slingers as far as I maay judge their numbers."

"There are Frenchmen among them, my fair lord," remarked Black Simon. "I can see the pennons of De Couvette, De Brieux, Saint Pol, and many others who struck in against us for Charles of Blois."

"You are right," said Sir William, "for I can also see them. There is much Spanish blazonry also, if I could but read it. Don Diego, you know the arms of your own land. Who are they who have done us this honor?"

The Spanish prisoner looked with exultant eyes upon the deep and serried ranks of his countrymen.

"By Saint James," said he, "if ye fall this day fall by no mean hands, for the flower of the knighthood of Castile ride under the banner of Don Tello, with the chivalry of Asturias, Toledo, Leon, Cordova, Galicia, and Seville. I see the guidons of Albornez, Cacorla, Rodriguez, Tavora, with the two great orders, and the knights of France and of Aragon. If you will take my rede you will come to a composition with them, for they will give you such terms as you have given me."

The man who can't trust himself always imagines that other people ought to trust him.

If people could exchange troubles there would be just as much kicking as in a horse trade.

LIMIT PLACED ON CHILD INSURANCE

Victoria, B. C., April 24.—To remove any temptation which excessive insurance on a child's life might give, a bill prohibiting the writing of life insurance on any child under 12 months of age; and limiting the amount on children of 2 years to $32; three years to $40; four years, $48; and up to $260 for a child of ten, has been introduced in the Provincial Legislature.

BIG PROFITS NOW FOR FUR HUNTERS

Victoria, B. C., April 24.—Profits to be earned in the north by trappers are shown by the experience of Gunanoot the Kisplox Indian who was acquitted from a charge of double murder at the assizes last fall. He recently returned from six weeks' trapping with furs which sold to dealers for $870. Before facing trial last year he trapped beaver for five weeks and made $1,285 to keep his family while he interviewed the judge and jury.

Daughter of A R. Gould, of Presque Isle, Married Recently in Chicago.

William Henry Wildes, formerly of Skowhegan, and Miss Marie Y. Gould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Gould, of Presque Isle, were married at Chicago, April 7. Rev. Fr. O'Donnell, a personal friend of the groom, who was chaplain of the regiment in which Mr. Wildes was a captain overseas, officiated. Mrs. Wildes has a large circle of friends in this city, having frequently visited her sister, Mrs. Mildred E. Shields on Norfolk street. Miss Elizabeth Haynes, of Bangor, who was in Chicago to attend the wedding, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Wildes will make their home in Chicago where Mr. Wildes is engaged in the bond business.

LOWER HAINESVILLE, N. B.

Lower Hainesville, N. B., April 23.—The weather for the past few days has been very pleasant and springlike.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Whitehead, of Springfield, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Sterling Whitehead, of this place.

Our school, which has been closed for the winter, started after Easter vacation under the skilful management of Mrs. Eddie Jones.

Rev. Mr. Lawson, preacher of the Methodist church, will hold services here next Sunday afternoon.

Randolph Morgan, of Patton, Me., is visiting his niece, Mrs. Roy Johnson.

The W. M. A. S. was entertained at the home of Mrs. Sterling Whitehead on Wednesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brown made a flying trip to Fredericton on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morgan were visiting Charles Tucker, of Upper Hainesville one day this week.

The Sunday school which was closed for the winter, reopened on Sunday last for the summer.

Colds are the order of the day.

How many good people we hear of! And how few we see!

FARMERS, ATTENTION!

About May 1st, we, the undersigned, will be ready to start what will be known as the

Carleton County Woolen Mill

We will do custom carding of Farmers' Wool and will make it into yarn if desired. We have installed up-to-date machinery and will be able to give good satisfaction and return your work at an early date.

The roll for spinning at home we manufacture is in one long piece two or three hundred yards long without any splicing, which makes the spinning a great deal easier and faster.

Recovering Rapidly.

Mrs. William Seymour, of Aberdeen street, who was operated on last Wednesday at Victoria Public Hospital for internal trouble, is now recovering rapidly.

One Decision Made.

One decision was made at the George Street Baptist church last evening and the candidate for admission to that church was baptized.

For Mount Allison.

Mount Allison University, Sackville, will receive $60,000 from the special fund of $750,000 expected to come from the Methodist National Campaign.

Receiving Congratulations.

Dr. G. G. Melvin, chief medical health officer, celebrated his 59th birthday yesterday and received hearty congratulations from many friends in St. John and this city.

Twenty-two Were Baptized.

At the close of the special two weeks' services last evening at the United Baptist church, South Devon, twenty-two candidates were baptized by the pastor, Rev. H. H. Ferguson.

Undergoing Treatment at Boston.

Ald. F. L. Cooper has returned from Boston, where he accompanied Mrs. Cooper, who is undergoing treatment by specialists in a hospital. Ald. Cooper will return to Boston again in about ten days and Mrs. Cooper, who is showing considerable progress, will probable be able to return to Fredericton the latter part of May.

Death of Infant.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Ladds, of South Devon, upon the loss of their infant daughter after a brief illness. The deceased child is survived by her parents. The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, interment being made at St. John's Church Cemetery, Nashwaaksis. Rev. G. W. Fisher will conduct the service.

Returned Soldier Weds.

At the Brunswick street Baptist Church Parsonage on Saturday afternoon Milton McLean Fraser and Miss Elsie Vera Clark, both of Chipman, were united in marriage by Rev. G. C. Warren. They were attended by Charles Clarke, brother of the bride, and Miss Mabel Leaman, of this city. The groom is a returned soldier, having enlisted in 1915 with the 115th Battalion and having served two years in France. The happy couple will make their future residence at Chipman.

Married in California.

Miss Kathleen Burke, of London, who is well known in this province for her work in connetion with the American Red Cross and the Scottish Women's Hospitals, was married on April 6th to Frederick Forest Peabody, a wealthy manufacturer, of Santa Barbara at San Luis Obispo, California. As a recognition of her work in connection with the American Red Cross Miss Burke is a colonel of the 138th U. S. Artillery and has been honored with decorations by Serbia and other Allied countries.

Arrested for C. P. R. Thefts.

As a result of investigation by the C. P. R. investigation Department of the New Brunswick district, the homes of several trainmen at Brownville Junction, Me., were searched recently, and a quantity of goods stolen from the C. P. R. were found in the possession of the trainmen. Three arrests have been made in connection with the thefts, the prisoners being R. C. Stineford, W. J. Shaw and M. Howison. Shaw and Stinefoin were taken to Milo, Me., and were remanded for a week, while Howison was arrested in Jackman, Me., on a Canadian warrant, and is locked up at Sherbrooke, P. Q.

At the Salvation Army.

Col. J. McMillan, chief secretary of the Salvation Army of Canada (East), was the speaker at the Salvation Army services in this city yesterday. In the morning Col. McMillan conducted a Holiness meeting, while in the afternoon he lectured on the Army of the Helping Hand, giving an instructive address on the general work of the Salvation Army in Canada. In the absence, through illness, of Mayor Reid, Judge Wilson occupied the chair and at the close of the meeting a vote of thanks was moved to the speaker on behalf of those present, for his splendid address, by R. W. McLellan, who outlined the organization for the Self Denial Drive, just completed, giving the apportionment for this district. This morning Col. McMillan left for Woodstock, accompanied by Adjutant Miller.

WITNESS IN CASE OF FORGED "PERS" EXPECTED $150

McKay, However, Says Amount Was to Repay Him for Expenses in the Case.

DENIES THAT HE HAS BECOME A DETECTIVE

Tells of Trip Made to St. John at the Request of the Chief Inspector.

The preliminary hearing of Albert W. England, who is charged with forging prescriptions for liquor, was continued this morning, Ernest McKay, of Boiestown, being called by the prosecution. At the close of his testimony the case was adjourned until this afternoon at 4 o'clock, when judgment will be given.

McKay, the only witness, was asked by P. J. Hughes, for the prosecution, if, since his former evidence was given, he had ascertained the name of the drug store where he had had the prescription filled, and he said he had, that it was Burchill's drug store.

R. B. Hanson, K. C., for the defence, asked the witness how much he had been promised for giving his evidence, and he answered, "Nothing, that I know of."

"Did you not go to Allison McKay to see if you could get $150, which you were looking for for giving your evidence," Mr. Hanson asked. The witness replied that he had not asked for all that; what he wanted was the money he had paid out for railroad expenses and board.

When questioned further by Mr. Hanson, he stated he had gone to St. John at the Chief Inspector's request and had been taken to a "whiskey inspector" who had asked him if he had obtained any liquor in Fredericton. When asked if he were a detective in the Chief Inspector's employ, he said he was not, that he had been told to stay around his home until the inspectors wanted him and that his expenses would be paid. When asked what he thought his total PAGE 10—Witness in case . . . . . expenses would amount to, he stated that he had put out $150 in all.

Mr. Hughes asked the witness if he expected to get his expenses, and he replied in the affirmative.

The Magistrate then asked him if he knew that the fee for a witness was 25 cents a day. He said he had heard that.

Mr. Hughes stated that this closed the case for the prosecution, whereupon the Magistrate asked for the exhibits in the case. It was then said Inspector Saunders had them at his office and he left court to get them. The Magistrate said this was "Prohibition procedure all right, to trot off with the exhibits."

When they were produced, Mr. Hanson objected to the entering of the prescriptions as evidence in case they had not been already entered, giving

Post Office Clerks May Wear Overalls

The clerks at the Fredericton Post Office are about to don overalls as their wearing apparel.

The matter has been under consideration among the clerks for some time, and it was said this morning that a decision, which would probably be to hit the cost of living in the latest approved form would be made before night.

The letter carriers will not be affected as their uniforms are furnished by the Government.

NEW FISHERIES OVERSEER NAMED

Francis J. McAlenan to Take Charge of the York County District.

Francis J. McAlenan, of St. Andrews, has been selected by the Civil Service Commission as fisheries overseers for York county and will immediately enter upon his duties.

Announcement of the appointment was made by Inspector H. E. Harrison this morning and Mr. McAlenan will take up his residence in his territory at an early date. Although much over the military age limit, he went overseas with the McLean Highlanders and served with the railway construction corps. He will arrive here next week to take up his duties. He succeeds Major Cuthbert Donald, of Blackville, who was appointed last February as overseer but found it inconvenient to remove here and resigned.

W. L. Mersereau, of St. George, has been appointed overseer for Carleton and Sunbury counties and has removed to Woodstock. Milton Fraser, a returned soldier, of Chipman, who was appointed for Kings and Queens counties, resigned recently and that position has not been filled.

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE MURDER CASE AT GRAND FALLS

Attorney General Going to Victoria County Again This Week.

ALLEGED "KIDNAPPER" IS NOW OUT ON BAIL

Expect Newman Clark Will Be Well Enough to Appear in Court.

There have been some new developments in the Grand Falls murder case and its sequel, the escape of Newton Clark, the alleged murderer of Phoebe Bell, from the hospital at Grand Falls, about a week after the murder, which took place on March 25th last.

Just what the new developments are is not known but it is expected they are in connection with Clark's alleged "kidnapping" and it is said that Hon. J. P. Byrne, Attorney General, will appear personally at Andover this week when Peter Bois—or Wood, as the name is in English—appears on the charge of having assisted Clark to escape from the hospital.

Wood is now out on bail, the amount set being $1,000, and Clark has so far been considered physically unfit to undergo having to appear in court. It is likely that Clark will be able to appear in court this week and Attorney General Byrne, who went to Sussex to visit relatives for the week-end, is to carry on the prosecution, Hon. W. P. Jones, K. C., appearing for the defence.

Safeguard Your Roof

THE roof is an important item—it "makes" or "mars" the whole structure. In shingle-roofed houses it is even more necessary to see that it is in good regular repair, because once a roof commences to decay a general deterioration of house-value is the immediate result.

To ensure a permanent durability, as well as an added appearance, use

B-H Shingle Stain

either as a mixture in which shingles are dipped or as a stain to apply to the completed roof.

It comes in all colors, and gives a tough, durable "seasoning," besides contributing largely to the artistic effect of your home.

Like every other B-H product, the B-H Shingle Stain is first choice among people who know good paint.

Bolshevik Revolution Breaks Out In Jugo-Slavia; Hundreds Slain by Machine Guns In Riots at Belgrade

Serious Riots Are Also Reported at Laiback and Agram

SERBIANS ARE NOT ALARMED

Attribute the Uprising to Faction of the Italian Trouble Makers

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 27.—A Bolshevik revolution has broken out in Jugo-Slavia, says a Central News despatch from Rome, quoting Triest advices to the Messagero of that city.

Machine guns have been brought into action in Belgrade, where hundreds are said to have been slain, it is said, while fatal riots have occurred at Laibach and Agram.

SERBS NOT ALARMED OVER THE REPORTS

Official Jugo-Slavian quarters here are not alarmed over reports of revolutionary troubles in that country and declare diplomatic despatches from Belgrade yesterday indicated nothing amiss.

The Triest report of an uprising is attributed to "a faction of trouble making Italians, who are seeking to embarrass the impending Italo-Serbian negotiations."

The Conflict at Laibach.

Vienna, April 27. — Ten civilians were killed and twenty one injured in a conflict between strikers and gendarmes at Laibach, the capital of Carniola, in Jugo-Slavia, according to the Jugo-Slav press bureau. The strikers attempted to hold a prohibited meeting and the police surrounded and attempted to disarm them.

Thereupon, the message states, the communist leader called a general strike, which took effect immediately. The workers in the gas and water services remained at their posts.

The Adriatic Problem.

San Remo, April 27.—The question of the Adriatic settlement between Italy and Jugo-Slavia was discussed at a meeting in Nice yesterday between Vittorio Scialoia, the Italian Foreign Minister, and Anton Trumbitch, Foreign Minister of Jugo-Slavia.

When Mr. Trumbitch left Nice after the conference it was arranged that the two Foreign Ministers should meet again shortly at Stressa, on Lake Maggiore.

CHINESE BOYCOTT JAPANESE GOODS

New York, April 27.—Six hundred Chinese merchants from all sections of the United States, members of the On Leon Tong, went on record at a meeting here yesterday against the sale of Japanese goods. The merchants expressed resentment at the attitude of Japan toward China and voted neither to import nor deal in Japanese merchandise.

ENGLISH ATHLETES WILL NOT COMPETE

Toronto, April 27.—A special cable to the Mail and Empire from London says that English atahletes probably will not compete in the international games at Antwerp. The British Olympic council announced that the public is not supporting the appeals for funds to meet the expenses. Sixty-five thousand dollars is needed and so far only $9,000 has been subscribed.

Wholesale Desertions From Russian Soviet Army By Men Who Would Rather Sow Crops Than Go Into Battle Disturbs the Bolshevik

One Reason for the Failure of the Bolshevik Attack on the Polish Front Lately.

NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN RUSSIA AND FINLAND

Soviet Delegates Refuse to Consider Armistice Along Lines Asked by Finland.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Bucharest, April 27.—Russian soviet troops would rather sow spring crops than go into battle, and this was one of the reasons for the failure of the offensive against the Polish front, in the opinion of Simon Petlura, peasant leader of Ukraine.

He spent a short time here on his way from eastern Galicia to the Prague conference, and said the shortage of men to work on Russian farms had resulted in wholesale desertions from the soviet army.

Soviet Finn Negotiations.

Moscow, April 27.—The armistice negotiations between Russia and Finland reached a crisis Sunday and ended with the recall of the Russian delegates. The Russians demanded as a basis of the negotiations the status quo ante of 1914, and the Finns the status prior to their last offensive. This involves Finnish occupation of Petchenga and Karelia, a wide strip of territory extending almost to Murmansk and giving Finland great strategic advantage in the peace negotiations.

Another reason for the untenability of the proposal, according to the Russian viewpoint, was the declaration of Norway some time ago that in such a case the Government could make demands for a strip of territory on the Murmansk coast.

Negotiations Suspended.

The Lettish-Russian peace negotiations were suspended in order to permit the Letts to communicate with their Government regarding the question of boundaries.

Russia, it is said, is willing to grant the Letts part of the Ostrov district and the Pytalovo railroad junction, but demands Russia's former eastern administrative frontier. The Letts demand the inclusion in Letvia of the districts of Opotchka, Sebesen and Drissa.

A member of the Letvian delegation said today that the demands of Letvia were known to be endorsed by the Entente powers and that the Lettish Government did not intend to recede from its position.

Three members of the peace delegation have been elected to the Letvian constituent assembly in the elections just held. The elections were in favor of the present Government, and therefore changes in the delegation are regarded as unlikely.

The Annihilation of a Japanese Division is Reported From Siberia According to a Story From China

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

LONDON, April 27.—A Russian firm in Tien Tsin, China, has received a cablegram announcing the annihilation of a Japanese division in the Khabarovsk district of Siberia, according to a despatch from Tien Tsin to the Exchange Telegraph Company, under Monday's date. No official statement on incident could be obtained, the despatch adds.

German Minister Declares The Financial Collapse of Fatherland is Drawing Near War Profiteers Are Turning the Nation's Economic Plight to Own Advantage—Refers to Huge Sum Required to Support Occupational Armies in Rhineland.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Berlin, April 27.—Germany's financial collapse is near, according to a statement made before the National Assembly yesterday by Dr. Wirth, Minister of the Treasury, while presenting the budget for the coming year. The Minister attacked war profiteers who, he declared, "are turning the nation's economic plight to their own advantages."

Pointing to empty benches in the chamber, Dr. Wirth said the real truth of the situation was not adequately realized. He declared the army and navy budgets reached their present dimensions because Germany was maintaining a paid defence force, which former enemies should take into account in demobilizing the old army. This force has cost two billion marks, he asserted, while the government has already expended 3,000,000,000 marks on the maintenance of the oocupational armies in the Rhineland and elsewhere. The postal deficit was given as one billion marks and the shortage reported by the administration of state railways was 12,000,000.

Dr. Wirth favored the early flotation of an internal loan and demanded that Germany's obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles be clearly fixed.

STEEL COMPANY ELECTED OFFICERS

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Hamilton, Ont., April 27.—The annual meeting of the Steel Company of Canada was held yesterday afternoon at the Royal Connaught Hotel. The following officers were re-elected: Chairman of the Board, C. S. Wilcox; President, Robert Hobson; Vice Presidents, F. H. Whitton and Ross H. McMaster; Secretary-Treasurer, H. H. Champ; Assistant Treasurer, H. S. Alexander; Assistant Secretary, Corbett F. Whitton; Directors, C. A. Birge, A. G. Brown, Lloyd Harris, Hon. John Firne, Sir Edmund Osler and Sir Thomas White.

In his annual report, President Hobson announced that in connection with the coke ovens, a plant would be installed for the extraction of benzol.

Turkish Nationalist Troops Have Cut Bagdad Railway

Severe Fighting in Several Places in Asia Minor—The French Troops Have Re-occupied Aintab—Report of Destruction of Greek Villages Unfounded.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 27.—French troops re-occupied the village of Aintab, Asia Minor, on Monday, according to a constantinople despatch received by Reuters, Limited.

Forces supporting Mustapha Kemal, the Turkish nationalist leader, have cut the Bagdad Railway north and south of the Cilician Gates, where some fighting has occurred, and in which several Italian workmen have been killed and others made prisoner. French detachments have repaired the railway between Mersina and Adana, which was cut by Turkish forces.

Reports that Greek villages north of Hadjin have been destroyed, are declared to be without foundation.

Radicals Lose In Denmark Elections

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Copenhagen, April 27.—As a result of the elections held throughout Denmark yesterday, the radical party lost 15 seats in the lower house of parliament. The social democrats, independent rights and independent radicals each lost one seat. The trades party gained three seats, the conservatives seven, the socialists four and the liberals four.

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 28, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their programme, but the Danish people yesterday rallied around their King."

AN OLD MYSTERY NOW CLEARED UP

Find Skeleton of Hospital Patient Who Disappeared in Attic of Building.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 27.—A mystery of twenty years' standing was cleared up yesterday when the skeleton of Miss Harriet Salvage, who disappeared while an inmate of an Indianapolis hospital, March 11, 1900, was found in the attic of the building that had been formerly occupied by the hospital. On the day of her disappearance Miss Salvage had returned to her room after a walk with her nurse. She asked the nurse to go to the kitchen and get her some milk and when the attendant returned the patient had vanished. A country-wide search was made. The discovery was made when the building was being altered to convert it into a garage.

Six Criminal Cases to Come Before the Court, Which Opened This Morning.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Woodstock, N. B., April 27.—The circuit court opened at 11 o'clock this morning, Judge Crocket presiding. There are six criminal cases, that are now being considered by the grand jury, with C. F. Rogers as foreman.

The King vs. Douglas Walker, colored, on two counts, attempted rape on a white girl and indecent assault.

The King vs. Charles L. Clark, charged with assault and stabbing Oliver Blackmer.

The King vs. Newman Vantassel, charged with stealing from A. O. Thornton's store.

The Pound Sterling Is Still Receding

Montreal, April 27.—The pound sterling was quoted today at $3.74 3-4. New York funds were held at 11 1-8 to 11 1-4.

SCOTCH HIGHBALL PARSON NO JUDGE

New York, April 27.—The Rev. Dr. John R. Stratton admitted yesterday that he had never had a Scotch highball in his life before the one he tasted at John Healey's cafe during his recent explorations, and was ruled incompetent as a witness on the subject of whiskey because of inexperience, by Commissioner Hitchcock.

The parson admitted his acquaintance with whiskey had been slight since his college days. His last taste of whiskey previous to his recent tour of alleged vice resorts was five years ago when he took a small drink of American whiskey for therapeutic reasons. He had heard it was a good cure for a severe cold.

FATAL EXPLOSION.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 27.—One man was killed and six others seriously injured when an explosion and fire destroyed the Des Moines City gas plant early today. The explosion rocked buildings all over the city.

Italian Doctors and Embalmers on Strike

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Rome, April 27.—A fresh strike was begun in Milan and extended throughout that province today. It is reported 350 doctors, 250 secretaries, 1,000 embalmers, 350 midwives, 80 veterinarians and 3,000 workers in other lines have struck. Gas, electric and water services have been interrupted and no funerals can be held until the trouble is settled.

Work was resumed yesterday in Turin, Pavia, Milan and Alessandria, where strikes have been in progress for some time.

OVERALL MOVE FINDS OBJECTORS

Opponents Claim It Was Started in Cotton Belt to Dispose of Surplus Cotton.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, April 27.—The overall movement was organized by cotton growers in the South with the object in view of getting rid profitably of a surplus of cotton on hand to overall manufacturers, is the latest objection cited by the railway brotherhoods to the wholesale donning of the denim, and it is one of the arguments to be put forward in Ottawa against the spread of the movement locally.

Huge consignments of cotton, it is stated, have been held up on the Atlantic seaboard in the States owing to the shortage of shipping facilities. Just when the shipping companies will be able to accommodate the cotton growers is doubtful.

The overall movement started in the cotton belt and most of the boosting has come from that part of the world, it is stated.

The Old Clothes League, however, will have the support of the workers and the strong probabilities are that it will get away to an excellent start on May 1 in Ottawa.

TURN ALDERMEN OUT OF COUNCIL

Montreal, April 27.—Verdun City Council staged a very pretty set-to last night when the mayor ordered Alderman Cohn out of the room and threatened to have him put out by the police when he refused. The incident arose when the alderman said the mayor was not a gentleman, and although the other aldermen insisted that his worship bore all the hall marks of gentility, the mayor would not be calmed until Alderman Cohn had withdrawn his remark. The alderman refused, however, to do so, and finally the mayor won by having the alderman's name entered on the minutes as having technically been put out.

LEAVES EDITOR'S CHAIR.

Toronto, April 27.—Rev. R. D. Fraser, D. D., editor and business manager of Presbyterian publications, has decided to retire from that position, which he has held for twenty-two years.

AMERICAN RELEASED.

Vienna, April 27.—Junius Broll, an American who for some months has been in Austria with Bela Kun, former Hungarian dictator, and Bela Kun's associates, has been released and given a safe conduct to the United States.

Larger Coal Dealers of Boston Called to Give Evidence

ARBITRATION BOARD AWARD

Advances to Both Male and Female Clothing Workers at Toronto.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire)

Boston, April 27. — The federal grand jury met in special session today to consider evidence as to whether there was a conspiracy, or any other illegal action, in connection with the recent advance in the price of hard coal. Most of the larger coal dealers of the city have been called to testify.

The Toronto Clothing Workers.

Toronto, April 27.—The award of the board of arbitration in the wage dispute between the Toronto Branch of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers and their employers, which was announced yesterday by Dr. H. E. Sharman, Chairman of the Board, at a mass meeting of about 3,500 clothing workers, was unanimously accepted.

By the terms of the award all those male workers who had been engaged in the clothing industry prior to March 1st last, will receive an increase of five dollars weekly, and the female workers, under similar conditions, an increase of three dollars a week, commencing June 1. Male workers who entered the trade after March 1 will receive an increase of $3 a week, and women workers who entered the trade after March 1 an increase of $2 a week.

Stop Buying Potatoes.

St. Catharines, Ont., April 27.—At a meeting of 200 women of this city yesterday, it was decided not to buy and potatoes for a month except for seed and to ask hotel and restaurants not to serve potatoes more than at one meal each day.

New York Milk Prices.

New York, April 27.—A settlement of the controversy over the May price of milk was reached yesterday when it was agreed that members of the dairymen's league will receive $2.55 for 100 pounds from the distributors. This is the same price the dairymen are receiving for April.

LOOK FOR SLAYER OF TELEPHONE GIRL

A Suspect by the Name of Alfred Webb Held by Police for Investigation.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire)

Pontiac, Mich., April 27.—The body of Miss Vera Schneider, a 20 year old telephone operator, killed at a vacant house in a restricted residential section here Saturday, was taken to Elkton, Mich., today for burial at her old home, while authorities here and at Detroit continued their search for her assailant.

The local authorities are looking for a man who on several occasions recently had annoyed the young woman with his attentions and the Detroit officers were checking up the statements of Alfred Webb and his wife, in an effort to substantiate or disprove Webb's alibi.

Webb was in jail at Detroit, having been spirited away from Pontiac last night while a crowd of 1,800 persons, including many women, surrounded the county jail threatening violence. He was held without a warrant pending investigation of his story to the effect that he had known the Schneider girl and accompanied her home from work two nights last week, but had spent last Saturday and Sunday with his wife at Detroit.

Mrs. Webb corroborated the statement.

Webb is held for investigation in connection with the murder.

Miners Demand White Sheets And Pillow Cases in Quarters

The Employees of the Varden Mine in British Columbia Demand Six Dollars a Day and That They Be Charged Not More Than $1.25 a Day for Board.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Prince Rupert, B. C., April 27.—Such innovations as abolition of double bunks and the installation of white sheets and pillow cases have been combined in the demands for a wage of six dollars a day and a charge of not more than $1.25 a day for board is made by the employees at the Dolly Varden Mine, Alice Arm. The One Big Union has called a strike and eighty men have been paid off.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Sarah Estey.

Durham Bridge, April 25.—On April 2nd there passed peacefully to her rest, at her home in this place, Mrs. Sarah J. Estey, widow of the late Stephen Estey, aged 80 years. Mrs. Estey was loved and respected by all and will not only be missed in her own home but in the community as well. She leaves to mourn her loss four sons, Herbert, Caleb, George and Wilfred, of Durham Bridge, and four daughters, Mrs. C. J. Peters, Boston, Mrs. C. E. Allen, Hartland, Mrs. James Edmondson, Keswick, and Mrs. Dora Pond, at home.

While her death is a great sorrow and loss to all, yet with that sorrow we have the consoling knowledge that she is now "asleep in Jesus."

Funeral services were conducted on Easter Sunday by Rev. Mr. Westmorland, Methodist minister of this place, of which church the deceased was a member for many years. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

NO INDICTMENT AGAINST VANIER

Customs Officer Who Shot Alleged Smuggler Not on Grand Jury List.

Houlton, April 26.—The grand jury of the Aroostook S. J. Court reported late Saturday afternoon, bringing in two indictments which will not be made public until Monday.

There are no cases of much importance.

No indictment against Custom Officer Emile J. Vanier was reported in the case of the fatal shooting of Caridide Dumais alleged to be smuggling alcohol across the border early last month.

After a deliberation of over four hours the S. J. court jury returned a verdict of $3,833.33 for the plaintiff in the case of Albert White against Royal J. Colbath and Horace A. Henderson, also of Mars Hill. The allegations of the plaintiff are that he bought a farm for $10,000 of the defendants. They told him that a small portion was infected by potato scab, stating that it would not be advisaable to plant potatoes on certain portions. The plaintiff alleges that practically the entire potato land was infected and that the farm was not worth more than $6,000. F. H. Hussey, Shaw and Thornton; W. F. Brown, Chas. P. Barnes, opposing counsel.

The case next in order was Semion Nightingale and Stanley Wathen, of Caribou, vs. Walker D. Hines, Director Guild; Frank E. Ayer, L. A. Pierce, James E. Madigan was the opposing counsel.

This was a claim for damage to six carloads of potatoes which arrived in New York during the longshoremen's strike and was held for some time. A verdict of $1,500 in full for the claim was rendered.

The first case to be called Monday is Frank E. Clark vs. Henley-Kimball Co. The allegations are of breach of guarantee of automobile claimed to be new but alleged to have had old or worn parts. H. N. Briggs; R. M. Lawlis, C. P. Barnes.

NEWCASTLE TOWN COUNCIL MEETING

Various Committees Appointed—May 11th Was Set as Date for "Clean-up" Day

Newcastle, April 24.—The first meeting of the new Town Council was held last evening, Mayor Doyle presiding. May 11th was set as "clean up" day for 1920. The following committees were selected for the ensuing year:

Finance—Ald. P. Russell, Atkins, Durick.

Light, water and sewerage—Ald Crocker, Dalton, Mackay.

Public works—Ald. Durick, Dalton, Jeffrey.

Park and fire—Ald. Dalton, Witzell and Jeffrey.

Police and appointment to office—Ald. Atkinson, Russell and Witzell.

Newcastle, April 25.—The Miramichi district was visited by a regular old time snow storm over the week end and runners were in evidence both yesterday and today. Snow began falling about eleven o'clock Friday night and continued all day Saturday and until early Sunday morning, when about ten inches covered the ground. A snow storm of this calibre is very unusual this late in the season, but will be a big help to the drives.

Rev. W. R. and Mr. Charles Robinson, of St. John, Alex. and Major and Miss Belle Robinson, of Boston, are in town, having been called here by the death of their brother, the late Mr. John Robinson, jr.

Miss L. O. Morrison was successfully operated on for appendicitis at the Miramichi Hospital on Saturday, and her many friends are pleased to know she is doing nicely.

Miss Inez Copp has resigned her position with the N. B. Telephone Co. and accepted one with Dickison & Troy.

Miss Celia Murphy has returned from a visit to Quebec city.

Mr. Theodore Bell, of Derby, has been appointed fishery overseer of the Chatham district in place of Mr. L. H. Abbott.

WEDDINGS.

Dale-McGowan.

In St. Luke's church, St. John, on the 14th inst., a quiet wedding was solemnized when Frederic H. Dale, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dale, of Summer Hill, Queens Co., was united in marriage to Beatrice M. McGowan, of Lanefield, Queens Co., daughter of the late James McGowan. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. R. P. McKim, in the presence of a few immediate relatives. The bride, who was attired in a navy blue travelling suit with satin hat to match was given away by her uncle, Mr. Seward. She was unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Dale left immediately for a trip to Boston, Caribou and other New England cities and on their return they will reside at Summer Hill, N. B.

MELVILLE STONE TO TAKE HOLIDAY

New York, April 27.—An order issued yesterday by Frank B. Noyes, President of the Associated Press says the general manager, Melville Stone, having requested that on account of his health he be granted leave of absence, the assistant general manager, Frederick Martin, has been designated acting General Manager, with full authority.

Liberal Members in House Sniping at the Government Management of Railways

The Opposition Demand Fuller Information of the Working Policy of the Railway Management, but Told that It is Impossible to Run Great Railroad in that Manner.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Ottawa, April 27.—Returned soldiers in the House said that last night's performance reminded them forcibly of a night in the trenches. Some stray sniper would fire a shot, there would be retaliation from the other side, by and by the big guns would get to work, and soon there would be a general action. It was all reproduced last night in the House.

The lone sniper was Sinclair, of Guysboro, who stated that the government was trying to shelve questions regarding the operations of the railway and steamship systems. The Minister of Railways hotly resented the declaration and very soon the House got around to the Intercolonial Railway, which brought up the Maritime Province's reserves at the double.

Dr. Reid was very emphatic as to the attitude he proposed to take as Minister of Railways in regard to answering questions which might have the effect of giving aid and comfort to the Opposition, and he was perhaps not so propitiatory as he might have been. In fact, he was rather hot about the matter, and this brought into the fight some of the old Liberal war horses, who sniff the battle afar off whenever the I.C.R. is mentioned. Soon the floor of the House was littered with pages running to and fro with glasses of water, which indicated that a big action was imminent.

The Opposition Answered.

Dr. Reid apparently pushed his advance a little farther than some of the wiser tacticians on the government side thought advisable, and Messrs. Meighen and Calder, while consolidating the general position he had taken, appeared rather like some tired campaigners who wished their subordinates would not be quite so aggressive by stirring up the enemy unnecessarily, and conceded that while it was desirable that the country should have all the information required to the last detail, there was a proper time for it and the House could not discuss and expose all the details of the arrangement of a vast government system of railways from day to day. The fact that there would be a full report published, with all the details of the management of the road, audited by three separate boards of audit, seemed to them sufficient to satisfy everyone.

It did not satisfy Hon. Mr. Fielding, however, who said the Audit Act had been passed by the early fathers in their wisdom to demand an accounting of every dollar of the people's money, but the government had refused to bring the railway and steamship expenditure under its operation. If it were necessary to conceal the vast affairs of the railway department, they should apply the same reason to all Public Works departments. He was supported in this view by Mr. McMaster, who said the government was departing from the principle of British constitutions. If we are going to have government ownership, he said, the government must be responsible.

Heavy firing along the whole front was still on at night, with the Minister of Railways holding on grimly to his position.

The Opposition Attack.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, April 27.—In his criticism of the government's method of conducting the affairs of the Canadian National Railways and merchant marine, Hon. W. S. Fielding, in the House of Commons last night said the board which managed the railways and steamships of the country could not be brought into active contact with the Department of Railways, it appeared from the statements of the Ministers, without becoming political and partizan. By that argument, was brought under the suspicion of partizanship and corruption. If this service could be conducted without government supervision, then surely most of the government departments were superfluous and represented a waste of money.

Mr. Meighen asked if no distinction could be made between an ordinary department administering a public service without competition and such a one as the railways and steamships, which had to meet competition and use ordinary business reticence about its affairs.

Mr. Fielding thought that if secrecy was necessary about the administration of railways, that was a sign it was wrong.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie-King said the people of Canada ought to know that the government had last night placed themselves on record that with the increase of public ownership and the responsibility which went along with it, there must be less and less publicity regarding government administration and expenditure of public money.

William Duff (Lunenburg) declared that when the member for Antigonish and Guysboro had asked a question which could have been answered in a few minutes, the Minister of Railways had "wandered all over the horizon, dragging a red herring across the trail."

SAYS ST. JOHN NEEDS GENERAL CLEAN-UP

Police Magistrate Ritchie Says City is Going to the Dogs With Lawlessness.

[St. John Globe.]

The Police Magistrate this morning took occasion to speak vehemently of the condition of St. John. He summed the whole situation up by saying "The town is going to the dogs." He urged upon the police their duty of cleaning up the lawlessness in the city. He went on to state "I'm going to work harder than ever even though they reduce my salary", and he hoped the new council would take into consideration the disgraceful state of St. John and if they wanted information let them send for him and he'd give it to them under oath.

ST. JOHN INSPECTOR OF SCHOOLS QUITS

[St. John Globe.]

W. M. McLean, Inspector of Schools, has, it is understood, tendered his resignation. For upwards of fifty-two years Mr. McLean has been identified with the teaching profession, forty of them as a teacher in active service and the past eleven as inspector of the St. John and Charlotte district. No member of the profession is better known, none held in more kindly remembrance, than Mr. McLean. Teachers and scholars all over his district, and teachers all over the province will regret his early retirement from the work with which he has been so closely identified for more than half a century. It is understood that Mr. McLean will go west during the summer to visit relatives living in Alberta.

WAGES INCREASED BUT NOT EFFICIENCY

President of B. & A. Tells Employees There Must Be Honest Day's Work.

Bangor, Me., Aril 26.—On Saturday President Todd of the Bangor & Aroostook R. R. issued the following circular letter to officers and employees of the company, in which he says:

As you have already been advised, the operation of this railroad was on March 1, 1920, restored to the Corporation and I returned to the service of the Company as its President, and in connection with our future operations I desire to call attention of each of you to the following facts:

During Federal control there has been an enormous increase in Operating Expenses. These must be kept down as far as possible.

This year locomotive fuel will cost nearly three times as much as it did in 1917, the INCREASE being nearly $7 per ton, and the strictest economy in the use of fuel in locomotives, stations, etc., must be exercised.

The amount paid in wages during Federal control on this road increased over 100 per cent., but I regret to say that the efficiency of labor, instead of increasing with increased wages, has greatly diminished. During the past few years we have heard a great deal about the "square deal," it should be borne in mind that this means not only that an honest day's work deserves an honest day's pay but that an honest day's work SHOULD BE GIVEN for an honest day's pay, and it is my duty to say to you that the work of each officer and employee will be very closely watched. Slackers unwilling to do their duty will be dropped from the service and good work will be recognized.

Don't be surprised if you are turned down while waiting for something to turn up.

Early Settlement of N. B.

THE CHOICE OF THE ST. JOHN RIVER VALLEY AS THE HOME OF THE N. E. LOYALISTS GRAPHICALLY DESCRIBED BY REV. W. O. RAYMOND, LL. D., FORMERLY ARCHDEACON OF THE DIOCESE OF FREDERICTON AND NOW RESIDING IN TORONTO.

A tour of exploration of the St. John river made in the early summer of 1783 by Edward Winslow, Isaac Allne, Thomas Barclay, Daniel Murray and other officers of the British American regiments greatly impressed them with the advantages offered by the St. John River valley for the accommodation of the Loyalists. Winslow wrote in very enthusiastic terms to his friend, Ward Chipman, on the 23rd of July form Fort Howe: "I yetesrday evening arrived at this place after the most agreeable tour I ever had in my life. Barclay, Allen and a number of young bucks and myself have explored this grand river 120 miles from its mouth and we have returned delighted beyond expression."

The difficulty of grappling with the problem of settling so great a multitude of distressed exiles in a wilderness country, and of communicating with the authorities at Halifax in the then undeveloped condition of the country, led Col. Winslow to the conclusion that the only way to speedily settle the Loyalists on their lands would be to establish a new province with local government, north of the Bay of Fundy. The first intimation of such a plan is contained in his letter to Chipman of the 7th July, 1783, in which he writes:

"I am determined to distinguish myself by proposing a plan which affords the grandest field for speculation that ever offered. Take the map of this province (of Nova Scotia), as it is now bounded; observe how detached this part (north of the Bay) is from the rest. Consider the numberless inconveniences that must arise from its remoteness from the metropolis (Halifax) and the difficulty of communication. Think what multitudes have and will come here, and then judge if it must not from the nature of things become a separate government."

Provide for Distressed.

Winslow proposes that Chipman and other influential friends of the Loyalists at New York should proceed as soon as possible to England and there press upon the Imperial authorities the urgent need of providing an asylum for their distressed fellow countrymen. In his letter Winslow says: "Provided with the necessary facts, can you be better employed than in a solicitation of this kind properly authorized? You know how industrious I can be, if I please and you may rest assured I will pursue this project with unremitted attention. The people on the other side of the Bay are already jealous. Even Governor Parr evidently fears it; we have therefore been perfectly snug as yet."

Writing about the same time to Col. Joshua Upham, he says: "It is a source of infinite satisfaction that I am connected with two gentlemen whose sentiments in all important instances correspond with my own. Hitherto our matters have been conducted with great harmony, and I have no doubt that in a few weeks we shall be able to effect the grand object of our errand. We are convinced of the necessity of being prepared to point out to the Provincial Regiments as they arrive the tracts of land on which they are to settle.

"Why, Upham, was not some man, or men, of spirit appointed to take the direction of these people? Those who are doing this duty here are not the right kind of men."

Want Separate Province.

Writing to Ward Chipman again on April 26, 1784, Winslow says, "You know how zealously I have expressed myself on the subject of dividing the province of Nova Scotia and forming a new government on the northwest side of the Bay of Fundy."

"I have seen, my dear Chipman, in this country a vast collection of valuable men of different orders—men respectable for their conduct, with their families and the little remains of their property—unattended to and ungoverned. I saw all those Provincial Regiments (which we have so frequently mustered) landing in this inhospitable climate in the month of October without shelter and without knowing where to find a place to reside. The chagrin of the officers was not to me so truly affecting as the poignant grief of the men. Those respectable sergeants of Robinson's, Ludlow's, Cruger's, Fanning's, etc.; once hospitable yeomen of the country, addressed me in language which almost murdered me as I heard it. 'Sir,' they said, 'we have served all the war; your honor is witness how faithfully. We were promised land; we expected you had obtained it for us. We like the country, only let us have a spot of our own and give us such laws as will hinder bad men from injuring us.' Do you think, affecting as it was, that this would discourage me from exertion? No! It stimulated me to propose to General Fox, commander-in-chief, who was also a witness to their distress, the plan of forming a separate government as the only possible means of relief."

Sir Guy Carleton, at New York, had endeavored to provide for the proper care of the Loyalist troops on their arrival in Nova Scotia, as clearly appears from his correspondence. He wrote from New York to General Fox on the 22nd August, 1783: "The several corps should be disbanded as contiguous as possible to the lands on which they are to settle, for which purpose you will communicate with Governor Parr and press him not only to determine the spots for each regiment, but that he will also expedite as much as possible the location of lands for the general body of the Loyalists on the river St. John, which I am concerned to hear has been much delayed."

Assignment of Land.

Meanwhile Governor Parr had at length assigned a tract of land for the accommodation of the provincial regiments, beginning at the lower line of the present county of York and extending up the St. John river on both sides far enough to accomomdate the whole.

15,000 People Without a Roof.

The active interest displayed in this matter by Edward Winslow is described in the following memorandum found among his papers:

"At the termination of the American Revolution the commander-in-chief of the British army, Sir Guy Carleton, ordered Colonel Winslow, who had acted as Muster-Master-General of the Loyalist regiments during the war, to proceed to the Province of Nova Scotia and to explore and take up a tract of land sufficient to accommodate all the officers and men of the provincial regiments. Winslow, assisted by Lieut. Col. Stephen DeLancey and others, executed that duty and fixed on the River St. John as the only place where there was a tract of vacant land sufficient for the purpose, and in the fall of the year, as late as October, there had been between 14,000 and 15,000 people landed here without a roof to cover them.

By Winslow's persevering solicitations at Halifax he obtained authority to lay out blocks of land for the several corps, and they were afterwards put in possession. These blocks commenced at Fredericton and extended seventy miles up to the head of the settlements a little below Presque Isle."

Further extracts from Winslow's letters reveal his keen interest in the establishment of the new province. To Ward Chipman he writes:

"You can have no idea of the situation which the people on the St. John side of the Bay are now in. The difficulties of communication with the present metropolis of Halifax have been severely experienced this season. The unfortunate officers of the disbanded troops and others who have been prevented from obtaining possession of their lands have been put to an expensive trip which they could not afford. Some of 'em reside 100 miles from the mouth of the River St. John. They have of course after performing that journey to cross the Bay of Fundy and to travel by land from Annapolis 130 miles more till they arrive at Halifax, where expenses are enormous, and the worst part of the story is that they have generally returned without effectinir their business."

"An event such as the present never happened before, perhaps never will happen again. There are assembled here an immense multitude, not of dissolute vagrants such as commonly make the first efforts to settle new countries, but people of education, farmers, formerly independent, and respectable merchants, who by the fortune of war have been deprived of their property. They are as firmly attached to the British constitution as if they had never made a sacrifice. Here they stand with their wives and their children looking up for protection, and requesting such regulations as are necessary to the weal of society."

The Metropolis Fixed.

"If the metropolis of the new province is fixed, as I presume it will be, on the River St. John, the communication from Cumberland (now Westmorland) and places in the vicinity will be as convenient as the present communication with Halifax. I have presumed that the seat of government for the new province will be on the River St. John, because that river must be nearly centrical, and I should think it perfect good policy to establish the metropolis as high up the river as St. John Point. This would have a tendency to extend the settlements and enhanse the value of the land above, it would facilitate communication with Canada, which is a grand object. The situation is delightful—exalted above all freshets and directly opposite to the beautiful River Nashwaagh. The country about is inconceivably fertile, and the nevigation for small vessels not only practicable but convenient. The great township of Maugerville is in its neighborhood and so perfectly cultivated even at this time as to afford an immediate supply for market. A communication with Passamaquoddy over land is easily effected and the distance not very considerable. All these circumstances render it a very eligible situation. If the towns at the mouth of the river become great the Governor may prevent invonvenience by an occasional residence there."

The situation of affairs on the St. John River was an unfortunate one in May, 1784. The first winter had been a calamitous one at St. Ann's, and there was seemingly no prospect of things being any better in the near future. Winslow writes to Chipman and his friends in England: "What in the world are you about—37,000 people here are crying for provisions—magazines are empty and no provisions at market. Add to this a Governor without abilities and a council of Republicans in Halifax, combating with every weapon in their reach the whole corps of Loyalists and embarrassing them by every possible expedient. This is a pretty picture, but alas it is a true one."

Stripped of Possessions.

The situation of Colonel Winslow himself at this time was a peculiar one. At the close of the war he found himself stripped of all his possessions with a widowed mother and two sisters dependent upon him, as well as a wife and his own family of small children. His friends urged him to proceed immediately to England and apply for some position under government. He was assured that "assisted by a numerous train of friends and favored by the eclat which attends long and faithful services," he must at that time have succeeded. But at this critical juncture Lord Dorchester and Sir Brook Watson, who were his intimate friends and benefactors, recommended him for a task which appeared to him of the greatest interest and importance, and which he undertook with enthusiasm. This duty he describes in the following terms:

The body of provincial troops with whom I had served during the war, were to be disbanded and a great number of unfortunate refugees, whose zeal in the King's service precluded all chance of reconciliation with their countrymen were, with their families, reduced to a state of despair from the apprehension of being left without support and protection. To provide an asylum for this forlorn multitude was the service allotted to me, and I instantly embarked for this wilderness as their agent. I personally explored the country (now New Brunswick. I negotiated for the possession of it with the Governor of Nova Scotia, a man of the most jealous, difficult and impracticable temper that I ever met. In the autumn of that year (1783) and the spring following the land on the River St. John was surveyed, divided and sub-divided under my direction, and upwards of 14,000 of those desponding people were placed on lots which they could call their own. The bounties of government, benevolently ordered to save their lives, were distributed under arrangements made by myself, and I boldly assert that for these arduous and perplexing services, to which great responsibility was attached, I never received one single farthing of fee or reward, not even an allowance for actual expenses. The venerable Lord Dorchester and Sir Brook Watson san vouch for the truth of this fact. In the capacity of military secretary I attended General Fox to the River St. John, where in his presence I closed the accounts and disbanded such of the provincial corps as till then had continued to receive subsistence.

"A view of the country and due consideration of other circumstances confirmed General Fox in the opinion of the necessity of forming a separate province on this side of the Bay of Fundy, and he suggested to me that he should accept the government of the new province if I would engage to act as secretary. To this proposal I instantly consented."

Declined Governorship.

However, for political reasons General Fox in the end declined the position of Governor of the new province, as also did Colonel Musgrave, to whom it was next offered. At length Col. Thomas Carleton was nominated and on the 9th July, 1784, kissed the king's hand on his appointment. A host of prominent Loyalists were then in England, and Winslow experienced the truth of the proverb, "Out of sight, out of mind." He says: "The office of secretary was given to Mr. Odell, a clergyman who was then in England, and every other office of salary or emolument was bestowed upon men who were personally teasing the King's Ministers with their solicitations." He wrote to his friend, Col. John Coffin, under date October 4, 1784: "I confess that I shall be disappointed unless they have pointed out some decent employment for me, because it is the first object of my wishes to settle among you. If it turns out otherwise, and in this as in former instances I have beat the bush for others, I will make myself tolerably easy, for although my present situation (as military secretary to General Campbell) is not perfectly agreeable to my mind, it has its advantages. A multitude of people are coming out (with the new Governor) and by all accounts there are a great number of candidates for almost every office that is worth holding."

LORD CECIL DECLARES THE SITUATION GRAVE

Unless Government Proves Its Capacity to Govern, Anarchy Soon Control.

Millstreet, County Cork, April 27.—Two hundred men of the Irish republican army arrived in motor cars early Sunday morning, cut the wires and took up various positions in the town, then seized and carried off six people suspected of implication in a bank hold-up last November, when £18,000 was stolen. The intention was announced of holding these men until they disclose where the money is secreted.

The Irish Situation Grave.

London, April 27.—Lord Robert Cecil, in the Commons last night, strongly condemned the Irish administration, saying that the situation was graver than for centuries. Unless the government proved its capacity to govern, the country would drift through humiliation and anarchy to an Irish republic, he said.

Irish Hunger Strikers.

London, April 27.—Of the 179 Sinn Feiners interned in Wormwood Scrubs, all but five are on hunger strike, according to a statement by the Home Secretary in the Commons yesterday.

The New Gillette

Safety Razor

The "Big Fellow"

A better name could not have been picked for this special Gillette Safety Razor than the "Big Fellow"! It IS a big fellow, and it is made for the big fellows—that is, the handle is thicker and longer and heavier than the standard Gillette—or even the "Bulldog"—and is just the thing for the man with the heavy hand and the muscular grip.

But before you even see the razor, you are impressed! The "Big Fellow" Case is quite a new departure. It is of polished wood—Gum Wood—simple, but WELL made—and is worthy of a place in any man's personal equipment.

The "Big Fellow" is a Gillette Safety Razor with all that means in quality and service. It takes the standard Gillette Blade, made of the finest high-carbon steel, wafer-thin, and scientifically sharpened at the factory.

NO STROPPING—NO HONING

Like all Gillette Safety Razors, the "Big Fellow" is made for you men whose time is too valuable to bother with strops and hones.

The price is $5.00.

Ask any dealer catering to men's needs to show you the "Big Fellow."

Premier Borden Not Expected At Ottawa Until the Sess on Has Drawn Near to Its Close

Sir Robert Steadily Improving in Health, but It is Not Thought He Will Take an Active Part in Proceedings of House This Session.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Ottawa, April 27.—Sir Robert Borden is not expected to return to Ottawa until about a fortnight before the end of the session, according to information in Government circles, as the session is not nearly through, this probably meaning that he will not return for some weeks yet. The Premier is constantly in communication with some members of the Government, and he states he is steadily improving in health. It is not anticipated that he will take any active part in the proceedings of Parliament this session, and apparently will not be in Parliament for the budget debate.

New Status of Canada.

Eighty thousand dollars is appropriated in the estimates to defray all the expenses in connection with the proposed Canadian official representation at Washington, but no appointment to the post has yet been considered by the Government. The question of the status of the proposed representative is the subject of negotiations between the British and the Canadian governments, but the report that a bill to clearly define it would be presented at the present session is inaccurate.

It has been agreed that when the proper time comes an official announcement will be made simultaneously here and in London, and meanwhile considerable secrecy is being preserved. There is no question, however, but that a representative will be appointed, and while co-operating with the British Ambassador in respect to general policy, he will be able to negotiate directly with Washington on matters which are purely domestic as between this country and the United States. Thus it is hoped to avoid the process of circumlocution heretofore existing, whereby official communications between the two governments had to go through the British Colonial Office and the British Ambassador. The arrangement now being made will be in the nature of increased recognition of Canadian autonomy.

For the position, Hon. N. W. Rowell, who is regarded as eminently qualified, has been mentioned, but he has denied any ambition in that direction. When the proposition was originally broached in 1917, Sir Douglas Hazen was spoken of, but he was adverse to accepting such a position until its status was more clearly defined. Some reports have also coupled the name of Speaker Rhodes with the position.

Given Surprise Party.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Seeley, Charlotte street, last Friday evening, when a party of their friends to the number of forty-five gathered at their home to celebrate Mrs. Seeley's birthday. During the evening Mrs. Seeley was presented with a handsome silver sandwich tray and half a dozen sherbet glasses, the presentation being made by Fred Patterson. Although taken completely by surprise Mrs. Seeley was equal to the occasion and in an able manner thanked the gathering for their remembrances. Dainty refreshments were served and the gathering broke up in the wee sma' hours wishing Mrs. Seeley many happy returns of the day

HIS SECRET WIFE!

HE did not dare to let the world know she had married him. But when he lost her, then the fire in his broken heart consumed his foes.

A tale of a "coward" who fought like a man, of a "traitor" who proved himself true, of a great love, a great wrong, and of vengeance—"behind the door."

Gouveneur Morris's stirring romance of love, strife and adventure at sea, played by Bosworth at his best and a fine supporting cast, including Jane Novak and Wallace Beery.

FINED KING FOR WALKING ON GRASS

King Alfonso Stopped by Caretaker of Alzazar Gardens and Imposed Fine.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Madrid, April 27.—King Alfonso was fined two pesetas yesterday for walking across the grass in the gardens of the Alcazar. Every member of his suite who followed the King across the green was likewise fined.

The first intimation of the royal party that it had committed an offence was when a guardian approached and said:

"Your Majesty, walking on the grass is forbidden. I must fine you, according to my instructions."

At first the King was abashed, then he laughed and paid the money.

Later the Mayor of the town called at the palace and apologized to the King, but His Majesty told him the guardian had acted properly and should be rewarded for devotion to duty.

LATEST

Winnipeg, April 27.—A protest parade to be held May 1 was described yesterday as an "all day holiday and not a one day strike," by James Law, secretary of the Defence committee.

Paris, April 27.—General Von Watter, commander of German government troops in the Ruhr district during recent communist disorders there, has resigned, and his resignation has been accepted, according to advices from Berlin.

Moncton, April 27.—A slight C.N.R. runoff occurred at Harrisville this morning, near Moncton. A broken axle derailed the forward trucks of an eastbound freight. Traffic was tied up for some time. Damages to rolling stock were minor.

St. Joan, April 27.—The Canadian Pacific Ocean Services established a new record at this port during the season now closing. During the winter the steamers of this company landed here 35,981 passengers and carreid away 13,125 passengers.

GUARD THE BRITISH GOLD SHIPMENTS

American Authorities Take Great Precautions that No Mishap Takes Place.

New York, April 27.—Very efficient measures are taken by the banking and port officials in this city to protect the large shipments of gold which have been arriving in this counrty during the past few weeks from Great Britain in shipments averaging $10,000,000, and which continue to arrive intermittently. The regularity with which the shipments have been reaching this port has impelled the officials to adopt a system whereby the precious metal is carefully guarded from the time it leaves the vessel on which it was transported from Great Britain until it is ultimately placed within the precinct of the sub-treasury, where the shipments are generally taken immediately after their removal from the steamer.

The gold is usually consigned in boxes, a shipment of $10,000,000 consisting of about 350 boxes. Two strips of heavy tarpaulin are slung under the gang plank over which the gold is carried as an insurance against the treasures dropping into the water.

Four sets of checkers, representing all persons interested in the consignment, examine and chronicle the lading of each sealed box as it is set upon the truck. The route over which the trucks transport the gold cargo is guarded by groups of men who are stationed at intervals of four or five blocks and apprised of the time the costly caravan is to pass.

800 GUATEMALANS KILLED IN FIGHTING

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

San Salvador, April 27.—Men, women and children to the number of 800 were killed in the recent fighting in Guatemala City during the revolt which resulted in the overthrow of President Cabrera, according to the latest advices received here from Guatemala. Numerous adherents of Cabrera who remained faithful to their chief were killed in their own houses, the advices say.

Demands are being made that Cabrera, who is now a prisoner, be placed on trial. Large numbers of Guatemalans, who fled from the country, are returning and are being received with much enthusiasm.

PLIGHT OF BLIND VETERANS

Cannot Live on Total Disability Allowance as at Present.

Toronto, April 27.—A deputation left for Ottawa last night from the Amputation Association of the Great War, to wait on the Pension Commission. One of these delegates, R. Rawlinson, a blind returned soldier, states that it is an impossibility for any man to exist on the total disability pension to which he is entitled.

Mr. Rawlinson has drawn up his weekly expense account, which he states he will challenge any one to reasonably reduce. This will be read and submitted to the Pension Board at Ottawa;: Room, breakfast and dinner, $9; suppers, $1; lunch, $3.60; laundry, $1; medical and sundries, 75c.; transportation, $1.40; lothing, boots, etc., $4.50; smokes, $1.25. Total $22.

Mr. Rawlinson is in receipt of a pension of $60 a month, or $15 a week, not counting the odd days. He is allowed $14.58 a month for a guide, but declares that it is impossible to hire one for that amount. If one can be obtained for part time, then he is totally dependent upon the time of the guide, and can have no say as to where or when he himself may go from place to place. If single men in the civil service are entitled to a H. C. of L. bonus of $200, he asks, is not a returned soldier blinded in his country's service entitled to the same consideration?

PERSONAL.

Bonnar Palmer, of Seattle, Wash., was in the city yesterday, the guest of his brother, J. D. Palmer, and left last evening for Boston.

H. G. Smith, of East Florenceville, brother of Hon. B. F. Smith, is in the city today.

Resuming Active Work.

Frank Harris, who has recently recovered from a serious illness, is leaving shortly for Sackville to resume active work with the New Brunswick Telephone Company, Ltd., as district superintendent. It is expected that the change of climate and return to his former home will further improve his health.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

Annual Convention Opened at St. John This Morning—The Proceedings.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

St. John, April 27.—The opening session of the 17th annual meeting of Fredericton Diocesan branch of the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England, was held this morning in Trinity Church, Mrs. Thomas Walker presiding. The day began with a communion service conducted by Bishop Richardson, and the delegates, numbering about 400, then adjourned to the school room.

The names of 20 new life members were announced, but the vote on the disposition of funds was postponed until later.

An address of welcome was given by Mrs. W. I. Fenton of St. John, and Mrs. W. D. Belyea of Woodstock replied on behalf of the visitors.

The remainder of the morning was devoted to the reception of correspondence and reports. Luncheon was served at one o'clock by the ladies of the St. John churches.

REVISE RAILWAY WAGES IN CANADA

Canadian Railway Board Meeting Representatives of the Employees Today.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, April 27.—Negotiations for a revision of the yearly agreement between the railway companies and workers in the mechanical department, of whom shopmen form the largest body, open tomorrow between the Canadian Railway Board, representing the companies, and nine executive officers of Division No. 4 of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor, representing the workers.

The meetings, which are expected to last several days, will be held in the board's offices in the East Townships Bank building. Although nothing has been given out officially, it is expected that the men's executive will ask for a flat rate of 85 or 90 cents an hour for skilled workers in all crafts, together with a forty-hour week.

SHOE FACTORY AT MONTREAL BURNS

St. Henri Shoe Co. Building Destroyed, With a Loss of $200,000.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, April 27.—Fire which broke out at an early hour this morning destroyed the premises and stock of the St. Henri Shoe Company, valued at $200,000. Seven families residing over the factory were nearly trapped and were sayed by prompt action by the firemen.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES.

New Branches Formed at Perth, Grand Falls and Andover During the Past Week.

Miss Hazel McCain, supervisor of the Woman's Institute branch of the Department of Agriculture, returned last evening from an organizing trip to Perth, Grand Falls and Andover.

At Perth on Wednesday evening Miss McCain organized the first junior Women's Institute at that place with the following officers:

President—Miss Mary Lane.
Vice-president—Miss Isabel Olmstead.
Secretary-treasurer — Miss Pauline Lewis.
Directors—Miss Pansy Smith, Miss Hazel Grant, Miss Genevieve Armstrong and Miss Lillian Larlee.
Auditors—Miss Alma Smith and Miss Cassie Bishop

At Andover on Thursday evening a junior Institute was organized with the following officers:

President—Miss Vera Henderson.
Vice-president—Miss Rena Armstrong.
Secretary-treasurer—Miss Josephine Bedell.
Directors—Miss Isabel Wooten, Miss Mary McKinnon, Miss Anita Darch and Miss Henrietta Everett.
Auditors—Miss Sloat and Miss Mildred Everett.

On Thursday afternoon Miss McCain inspected the household science classes at Andover and was agreeably surprised at the splendid work being done.

On Friday a Women's Institute at Grand Falls was organized with the following officers:

President—Mrs. C. McCluskey.
Vice-president—Mrs. C. C. White.
Treasurer—Mrs. William Pirie.
Secretary—Mrs. J. L. White.

Atending Grand Lodge Meeting.

J. H. Hawthorn, J. R. Walker and S. L. Morrison left this morning for St. John to attend the meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge of New Brunswick in that city tonight. R. S. Barker and George E. Howle returned from that city this morning after attending the 33rd annual meeting of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of New Brunswick.

Discussing Drainage Plans.

City Engineer G. C. McDowell and the committee appointed at the last meeting of the City Council to confer with the C. P. R. and C. N. R. authorities concerning better drainage at the rear of the city, met with C. C. Treby, C. P. R. engineer, this afternoon to discuss the matter.

The Provincial Opposition Partys' Strong Candidates For Election at St. John

Dr. Murray MacLaren, Lt. Col. W. H. Harrison and Major Cyrus Inches Mentioned to Contest City Against Hon. Dr. Roberts, Minister of Health.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

St. John, N. B., April 27.—In political circles here today it was said that the provincial Opposition party are expecting the writ to be issued at an early date for the bye-election which is made necessary by the act passed by the Legislature last week providing for a salary for Hon. Dr. Roberts, Minister of Health.

There is evidence that the Opposition party are preparing for a contest, and in usually well informed circles today three names of well known men, any one of whom would be regarded as a decided acquisition to provincial public life, were mentioned in connection with the Opposition nomination. One of those whose names are mentioned is Dr. Murray MacLaren, C. M. G., who was colonel and for some time deputy director general of the Canadian medical services during his long services overseas, but who had previously been mentioned in connection with a federal nomination; the others are Lieut. Col. W. H. Harrison, D. S. O., who won distinctions during the war as commanding officer of the 1st Divisional Ammunition Column, and Major Cyrus Inches, M. C., who had an outstanding career during the war with the Canadian artillery.

With such an array of prospective candidates there is every indication of an interesting contest.

SENTENCE TODAY IN FORGERY CASE

Adams and Guimond Tried This Morning—Sentence This Afternoon.

Herbert Adams, of Campbellton, and Eugene Guimond, of Metapedia, charged with uttering a forged check for $250 upon the Bank of Nova Scotia in this city, appeared before Judge Wilson this morning under the Speedy Trials Act, pleaded guilty and were remanded until this afternoon at 3 o'clock for sentence.

P. J. Hughes, for the defence, offered an eloquent appeal for the prisoners. He produced a certificate from Mayor Murray, of Caampbellton, attesting to the good character of Herbert Adams and referred to Guimond's long military career, stating that he had enlisted and gone overseasa with the First Contingent, spending four years in military service at the front. The sacrifice of Guimond's widowed mother in giving four sons to fight for their country, three of whom were killed in action, was pictured by Mr. Hughes, who also referred to the anxiety with which the mother was awaiting the outcome of the trial. He thought that Judge Wilson should impose a suspended sentence and ind the two prisoners to good behaviour.

Judge Wilson stated that in view of the fact that he had not had sufficient time to look into the facts of the case he would remand the prisoners until 3 o'clock this afternoon, when he would give sentence. He stated that he had not known that Guimond was a returned soldier nor had he known other facts which Mr. Hughes referred to. He thought that men who fought for their country were entitled to great consideration. At the same time he felt that it fell upon his shoulders to impose sentence for an infraction of the laws of the country. In doing so he would have to give the matter great consideration as he felt that suspended sentences in the past had not always proved the best.

Gave Enjoyable Dance.

Misses Irma and Myrtle Scott were hostesses last evening at a very joyable dance at The Palms. They were assisted in receiving their guests by their mother, Mrs. James Scott. About seventy were present and a programme of twelve dances carried out. About 11 o'clock refreshments were served.

Fred Duffy, of Bolestown, is a guest today at the Queen Hotel.

DRIFT OF POLAR ICE.

Boston, April 27.—The spring southward drift of ice in the North Atlantic has started in earnest, according to officers of the British steamer Carnemore, which arrived yesterday from Glasgow. They said that for 26 hours the freighter slowly steamed through ice fields and made several detours to avoid bergs and growlers.

LEVYING ON CAPITAL.

Paying taxes seems to constitute the biggest single line of effort in the programmes of several leading countries. Several governments owe more than a government can owe without danger of becoming the slave of a gradually narrowing circle of creditors. Mortgaged governments must be redeemed, free and clear, or their debts at least brought down below the point of strain, else they will lose the trust of the governed.

But how reduce debts save by taxation? And how pile up taxation without alienating and even wronging the people? Each of the democratic nations seeks the answer to these baffling questions. The United States knows their difficulty in some degree. It must imagine that difficulty several times heightened in the case of England and far higher among the Continental Powers than in England's case.

The French have yet to shape a definitive after-war tax plan. The magnitude of the task has discouraged rapid action. The Senate and Chamber of Deputies have now at last reached the stage of studying adequate expedients. Among these, so serious is the plight, a single levy upon capital wealth has obtained, even in that conservative body, serious consideration. The possibility of collecting a 10 per cent. tax on capital in a country possessing representative government depends on many things.

In the ideal capital levy no doubt the public would frictionlessly pass over its dues in the shape of national bonds, and the country would be quits on a paper transaction. But such an outcome is hard to attain.

ABANDONED REFUGEES.

Case after case is reported from Switzerland of the self-destruction of refugees from Russia, women of gentle breeding. Their quality seems to bar them from effectual sympathy in an age that reserves its heart for the humble, including the silk shirted shipyard worker. Yet, sentiment apart, it stands to cold reason that the more fully developed temperament holds an increased faculty for pain as well as for pleasure. The pain reaction to a given stimulus is more intense in the white than in the Indian. Among whites it is most intense, safe to say, where the customary pleasurable sense stimuli most overbalance the inhibitive ones.

In particular, the paradise dweller, who has known the touch of soft beds and clothing, restful chairs and a tempered atmosphere, who has fed regularly upon dainty food, becomes vulnerable to cold, to hunger, to outrages of taste and smell, to fatigue, and above all to bodily pain, in a degree unknown to those who lose their acuteness of sense in perpetual battle with cold and weariness.

Were it only for this, some justice might reside in the view that the privileged class paid in terms of Emersonian compensation a just price for its creature comforts of the past. But the physical side serves only to illustrate the principle of greater sensitivity, a principle that pervades the whole being of the highly nurtured. The woman who has learned to play Chopin and enjoy Tschaikowsky feels separation, humiliation, tragedy, and worst of all dread, with a corresponding intensity.

The Russian women refugees in Switzerland have undergone all the forms and phases of spiritual suffering. They have sold their jewelry for food and lodging till none remained to sell. Then they have gone forth with their children in their arms, like the Baroness Karlensky, and made the bitter and successful search for death.

The strangest part in all their tragedy is the unconcern of their own kind. Men and women in Switzerland exist, in New York, London and Paris they abound, capable by their training of understanding the tragedy of a resourceless and hopeless upper class exile. Does the man of culture fall so much behind the unionist in brotherly feeling toward those most like him, or in courage to avow it, that he contents himself with a compassionate "Tk! Tk!" of tongue against palate, as he reads at his breakfast of another delicately nurtured, exquisitely sensitive gentle woman driven to take her life and her child's for lack of effectual aid?

THE RUINS OF YPRES.

Thousands of returned men will be deeply interested to learn that the Belgian government has decided to leave the ruins of the Cloth Hall and St. Martin's church at Ypres as they stand. They will remain in their present condition, surrounded by a belt of grass; but the rest of the town is to be rebuilt on a modified plan. The government must have compromised with the demand of those who see profit in sightseers and the impracticality of building up anew another town where Ypres stood in the marsh. For the Canadian soldier all that will remain as a visible symbolic memorial of what historians will describe as the most historic of the war's battles will be those serrated fragments in stone, the Cloth Hall and St. Martin's church. Ypres has an appeal unlike that of any other place on the western front. It was a sepulchre holy to the Canadian corps. In that region thrice the flower of the British army was sacrificed in offence and defence. Even in the spring of 1918, after close shaves beaten off in 1914 and 1915, the enemy, following the capture of Mont Kemmel, came within an ace of the achievement. The close of the war came without German feet having trod the streets of the place which was handed back to its Belgian inheritors. There was little of it, except heaps of bricks and stones and two outstanding monuments, the hall and the church, which are, as is understood and to be hoped, to be preserved for all time, shattered masterpieces memorials to the dogged resistance of an army of citizens which could not be beaten back upon and into the sea.

Today's despatches suggest that the provincial Opposition party in St. John is well supplied with good men. Either Dr. Murray McLaren, Col. W. H. Harrison or Major Cyrus Inches can well serve the interests of the people either in the Provincial Legislature or in Parliament; and if it be true that men of their capacity and general standing are available for the public life, the advices from our sister city will encourage those of our people who take an interest in public affairs.

There was some life in yesterday's session of Parliament, although general interest will not be aroused in the proceedings. Much time is wasted by Liberal members in small things, and it is while the House is in Committee of Supply that they figure in the details, but only in details. There was not a broad suggestion made in the ranks yesterday.

Woodstock will be pleased with the rumor of today that the Permanent Military Force is to be located at Woodstock instead of at Fredericton as originally intended.

John Thornton and J. H. Frink Elected Commissioners by the Final Vote.

St. John, April 27.—As a result of the vote taken yesterday in the final civic elections, E. Allan Schofield will be Mayor of the city of St. John for the next two years, and John Thornton and James H. Frink have been elected commissioners for the next four years. Commissioners Bullock and Jones, whose terms do not expire until 1922, complete the personnel of the new council.

How the vote stood:

For Mayor—

Schofield	4,070
Chesley	2,988

For Commissioners—

Thornton	4,422
Frink	3,591
McLellan	3,351
Campbell	2,830

MARYSVILLE HAPPENINGS.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Marysville, April 27.—A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feeney on Sunday at the home of Mrs. William Feeney. Mrs. Feeney's home is at Moncton, but she has been visiting here for some time past.

Miss Mary L. Pond, who has lately graduated from the Fredericton Business College, has accepted a position with J. Bacon Dickson.

Councillor Thomas Mitchell has purchased a new automobile.

Miss Blanche Dunbar's condition is as favorable as can be expected.

Minard Coakley is confined to his home with an injured arm.

Mrs. Hayward Brown is confined to her home with illness.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. W. G. White.

Bathurst, N. B., April 26.—With tragic suddenness the death of Mrs. W. G. White, one of Bathurst's most prominent and popular women took place at 8 o'clock tonight. Mrs. White was one of Bathurst's social leaders, the wife of William G. White, president of the large lumbering firm, The Gloucester Lumer and Trading Company, and fell a victim to influenza after only a few days' illness. She was formerly Miss Annie Bowser, of Chatham, N. B., and in her native town, as well as in Fredericton and other parts of the province, she was well and favorably known, and news of her sudden passing away will be heard by hosts of friends with the keenest regret. She leaves her husband and one little daughter, Ursula, and her mother, Mrs. H. Bowser, who has lived with her for the last few years.

THE MERCHANTS OF ST. STEPHEN MEET

Interesting Addresses on Business Matters at Banquet Last Evening.

St. Stephen, N. B., April 26.—About forty members of the Retail Merchants' Association of this town were present at the annual banquet which was held at the Queen Hotel this evening. Music was furnished throughout the evening by Phalen's Orchestra. Among the out of town guests were: F. A. Dykeman, Allen H. McIntyre and S. C. Matthews, of St. John.

W. G. DeWolfe presided as chairman of the gathering in a very able manner. After a bountiful supper, Chairman DeWolfe asked the members to rise and toast King George. Mr. DeWolfe then addressed the meeting, welcoming the out of town guests. He spoke briefly on the advantages of meetings which were held by the Association and the benefits derived by "getting together." A solo was then rendered by Verne Love.

LeRoy Hill, of Hill Bros., was the next speaker and he spoke of the good work which had been done by the Retail Merchants' Association all over the Dominion. He spoke especially of the office at St. John, and in closing his remarks, proposed a toast to the Association which was responded to by Allen H. McIntyre, of St. John.

On rising, Mr. McIntyre thanked the chairman and members of the Association for the kind invitation extended to him to their banquet. He then went on to show the great advantages of the R. M. A. and of co-operation. He spoke of two great things which had been accomplished by this Associatn. One, the saving of the tax on the stock, such as tea and matches which was on hand at time that this tax was imposed. The second great thing which was accomplished was the downing of the Board of Commerce which, he said, was a most unnecessary Board and caused many annoyances to the merchants. He also told of the uniform price selling plan which was being established in St. John with the idea that all merchants would be selling the same article at the same price.

MARRIAGE LAWS OF SOVIET RUSSIA

The Mere Desire of Husband or Wife to Be Freed Good Ground for Divorce.

London, April 20.—A Russian wife is required to support her husband if she be able to do so, and he is unable to work and in need of her support, under the marriage laws of Soviet Russia. A copy of this code, translated into English, has just reached London from the Russian Peoples Commissariat of Justice.

It provides that married persons shall be expected to support each other. Should one refuse and the other be what is classed as a "needful," unfit to work, the latter has the right to apply to the Department of Social Security to compel the husband or wife, as the case may be, to pay support.

Mutual consent of husband and wife or merely the desire of one of them to be freed from the other may be considered as grounds for divorce. Local judges are authorized to hear divorce cases, but their decisions are subject to appeal.

The matrimonial age is fixed at 18 for men and 16 for girls. Both must be of sound mind and mutually desirous of marriage. Differences of religion or vows of celibacy are no impediment. Married persons may choose to bear the surname of the bride or of the bridegroom, or their joint names. Marriages contracted in accordance with religious forms are not binding unless the union is registered under the prescribed form of civil, or Sovietist marriages. Old forms of marriage law or, as it is termed, "the legalized forging together of men and women" are abolished.

Under the laws of succession in the Soviet code, none but the "needful" and the state may inherit property. The estates of emigrants and of rebels are subject to confiscation by the state.

The Stock Market

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York (Wall Street), April 27.—Stocks were again influenced at the strong opening of today's market by favorable developments of the previous session, initial gains extending from 1 to 2½ points. Reading eased slightly at the outset, however, the first sale of 4,000 shares at 91½ to 91¾ comparing with yesterday's final price of 92½. Motors, oils, steels and textiles were prominent in the further rise. U. S. Steel, whose directors meeting after the close of the market for action on the quarterly dividend, made only a fractional gain. Preliminary quotations for exchange on London indicated further heaviness.

EXONERATE VANIER FOR KILLING MAN

The Aroostook county grand jury has returned no bill against Emile J. Vanier, United States customs officer, who shot and killed Candide Dumais, of Van Buren, a returned soldier and medalist, who lost his life at Madawaska, opposite Edmundston, early in March. The shooting occurred during a fight over a load of smuggled liquor. Vanier was injured in the head and a companion of Dumais shot in one hand.

Dividends Tell the Story

It requires vision to launch a new manufacturing concern, but too often the promoters have added to Vision those little letters a-r-y. Such was not the case with the members of the firm of Clark Bros., Limited, who created a national product and sold nearly $2,000,000 worth of women's shoes during the first seven years of factory operation. The regular quarterly dividend of Two Per Cent. is payable on May 1 and purchasers of the new issue at par flat, while the stock is selling ex-dividend, can count on receiving quarterly dividends on August 1 and November 1 of this year.

We recommend this stock.

"Nonsense," said the doctor, "the Lord isn't going to take you till you've passed the hundred mark."

MONTEVIDEO HAS A FIGHTING CHIEF

Montevideo, April 26.—A duel, to which President Baltasar Brum challenged Dr. Rodriguez Larreta, director of El Pais, following attacks in that newspaper against the President in connection with his lecture of Wednesday on inter-American affairs before the students of the University of Montevideo, probably will not be fought.

Dr. Larreta is quoted as saying he would fight only if the duel were held in a foreign country, alleging that there would be trouble with the police if President Brum should be wounded in a duel in Montevideo. It is learned that President Brum will not send his seconds to Dr. Larreta again.

The article in El Pais to which President Brum took exception asserted, among other things, that certain recent acts of the President constituted flagrant violations of justice.

FROM THE PEOPLE

PAY OF STENOGRAPHERS.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Having worked as a stenographer more years than I care to own up to, I feel I am qualified to say a few words on the subject of stenographers, the requirements and the pay.

I cannot see why most positions actually require a college education or the equivalent of it. I have known hundreds of stenographers and do not recall one who had a college education. In fact, most employers would be deeply grateful to obtain one with a very good working knowledge of the "three R's." I am now employed by a corporation employing several stenographers, the minimum salary of which is $15 a week, and sometimes when I see the work turned out by them I feel that the company is getting very little for its money.

Most of our girls live at home, which largely solves the question of the H. C. L. But I do feel a deep sympathy for a stenographer or any other woman employed at a moderate wage who has to live independently of family assistance in these days of high prices. To live independently, comfortably, even in the plainest way, will eat up a large salary, which is only another way of saying that those working for moderate pay are living uncomfortably, in cold rooms, with poor food, lack of amusements and of many other things which make life worth while.

Both employers and employees are having great difficulties just now. These difficulties are not easy to remedy, but a better day will come.

Yours,
STENOGRAPHER.

St. Stephen, April 23, 1920.

INFLUENCING THE VOTE.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—I hear that the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance's little brigade of clericals was "Marshalled" in full force in the front seats of the gallery of the House of Assembly on Friday—armed with threatening pencils and writing pads—while their bone dry resolution was under consideration. The manifest purpose was to scare the weaklings among the members of the House to vote as they had commanded.

Although such an exhibition must have been disgusting to any man with any sense of propriety or dignity who witnessed it, it is said that it actually succeeded in cowing three or four of the jelly fish against whom it was specially directed and who an hour or two before, it is said, had been talking privately against the scheme of these righteous brethren to mix up the Dominion with the Provincial referendum.

The province is to be congratulated, however, on the fact that a majority, at least, of its present Legislature are neither cowards nor hypocrites, and had the necessary courage to stand four-square against this latest attempt of a small coterie of audacious intruders, who pose as representatives of the Protestant churches, to establish their will as the law of New Brunswick, in disregard of the convictions of the duly elected representatives of the people.

All honor to the men who refused to surrender their own convictions and consciences and to betray the personal rights and liberties of all the people they represent at the command of these insolent and short-sighted imitators of Yankee fanatical methods.

It is well that the names of these men have been recorded. They are men whom no broadsides of pulpit abuse, however ingeniously directed, can defame, men who will always be able to declare in the presence of their fellow men, "We are at least neither cowards nor hypocrites."

As for the others—their names, too, are recorded—it is best that nothing should be said which might visit upon them any greater pain than that which they are no doubt already suffering and will forever continue to suffer from the realization of the fact that they have lost not only the respect of their most intimate friends, who know their opinions and their habits, but that sense of self-respect which affords to man his truest happiness.

This, of course, applies not to those members who were sincere in their votes, but to those who were not.

Most people in the different counties, I have no doubt, will be able to distinguish them.

Yours,
OBSERVER.

Fredericton, April 26, 1920.

PREVENT ADULTERATION.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—The "profiteer," who is universally condemned as a most unnatural being, is saddled with all the odium attached to the means of getting his desired "profits." There is one particular crime with which he is charged, and that one is the adulteration of the people's food. Now I want to ask these so-called "leaders of the workers" if it never "strikes" (familiar word "strikes") them that although the "capitalist profiteer" orders the goods, it is the "worker" who puts the rotten stuff in!

Let these trade union organizers instruct their members to refuse to put the "rotten stuff" in. The capitalist can not put it in himself. If the capitalist manufacturer ordered a faulty piece of machinery to be put into a railway engine, the mechanic would refuse, as the crime would be his if any lives were lost through his act. This should strike every other trade in equal manner.

People who are being crushed between the two parties are sick of hearing hard words being flung all the time, and are anxiously waiting for some solution to the dispute. Let the "worker" refuse to mix "substitutes" in his part of the job and we shall have the capitalist supplying the genuine.

Yours,
SOUND GOODS.

Fredericton, N. B., April 26, 1920.

HOMELY GIRL THE BEST.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—I would appreciate it very much if you would allow me space enought in the From the People column to answer, "Why Do Homely Girls Win?" I am a man that has knocked around a good deal and met girls of all classes, and I have always found homely girls had the nicest ways. I always found that a pretty girl had overbearing ways with them and they always put on too much style. Me for the homely girl, for beauty is only skin deep.

Yours,
ONE INTERESTED.

Westfield, Me., April 23, 1920.

MARRY AND BE HAPPY.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—In reply to letter in your paper of 22nd inst., under heading of From the People Column, "Family About the Neck."

Since you have reached the age of 21 and for the past seven years have been practically the head of the home, I don't see why you are not at liberty to do as you wish without the consent of anyone; and when it is spite work of others to break your wish, I say do as you wish. Marry and take your mother with you, and if this she objects to, give her all and make a home of your own, which you will far more appreciate, with less care. When you have kept a house for a family for so long, you can make a home for yourself on less, and at the same time not see your mother destitute.

Yours,
A SYMPATHIZER.

Summary of Night Dispatches

San Remo, April 27.—The results of the supreme council's ten days' meeting are such that each Government taking part considers that its aspirations have been measurably satisfied. Premiers and foreign ministers met in mutual distrust and parted in great personal cordiality and with much confidence for the future.

Slanders on Council.

London, April 27.—Stories published in France and England that there is dissension among the members of the supreme council are termed "slanders" and "cruel" in a statement issued by Earl Curzon, British Foreign Secretary, and telegraphed from San Remo yesterday.

Larkin Case to Jury.

New York, April 27.—The case of James Larkin, Irish labor leader, on trial here on the charge of criminal anarchy, will be submitted to the supreme court jury today.

Amundsen Steamer Icebound.

Washington, April 27.—The Amundsen Polar exploration party in steamer Maud is icebound in Kokyma river, Siberia, and awaiting a chance to sail south, according to a radio despatch published yesterday.

The Race Track Tax.

Toronto, April 27.—Hon. Peter Smith, Provincial Treasurer, confirmed last night reports that the race track tax would be reduced to $7,500 for each day on mile tracks, and half mile tracks $2,500.

To Organize New Union.

New York, April 27.—Edward McHugh, leader of the railroad [illegible] in New York district, announced yesterday that the strikers had gone into session at Jersey City to organize a new union to include the 17,000 members of 42 locals throughout the United States whose charters had been by the "Big Four" brotherhoods.

Bandits Rob Maryland Bank.

Hagerstown, Md., April 27.—The bank at Sandy Springs, Md., ten miles from Washington, was robbed yesterday by auto bandits, who shot and killed the son-in-law of the president and escaped with all the cash in the vaults, according to reports reaching here yesterday.

Conference on Labor Laws.

Ottawa, April 27.—By a vote of 16 to 3 it was decided yesterday to exclude the press from meetings of the conference on labor laws. The order of business will be workmen's compensation, factory legislation, mines regulation, minimum wage laws, industrial disputes act.

Prepayment of Freight from U. S.

Montreal, April 27.—No decision was arrived at yesterday by the conference between the transportation bureau committee of the Board of Trade and representatives of the New York Centraal, Delaware and Hudson, Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Railways as to incidence of recent order issued by the railroads regarding prepayment of freight from the United States to Canada.

Canada and the United States.

Washington, April 27.—With the approval of the British Government, Canada has made definite overtures to the United States for the establishment of direct diplomatic relations between the two adojining countries.

WINNIPEG AS A MILK CONSUMER

Winnipeg, Man., April 26.—Five million gallons of the 70,000,000 gallons of milk produced in Manitoba last year were consumed in Winnipeg, according to a city health department report. Other portions of the province consumed ten million gallons, while seven million gallons were consumed as sweet cream and ice cream, one million were manufactured into cheese, 25,000,000 gallons into dairy butter, 20,000,000 into creamery butter and 2,000,000 gallons fed to young calves. In Manitoba 19,000,000 pounds of butter were manufactured. Of this amount 150 carloads, or about 4,000,000 pounds, were exported.

Sixty thousand cows are required to satisfy Winnipeg's requirements, the report continues. On a population of 200,000 the annual per capita allowance of milk would be 25 gallons and butter 23 pounds.

Extra Years of Easy Riding

Many a bright, shiny-looking bicycle is a gay deceiver! It is merely built to sell. In a few short months it becomes a chipped, rusty-looking object that runs as hard as it looks.

On the other hand, C. C. M. Bicycles retain their looks and continue to run easily for years and years. Many in use for 10 to 20 years are still running well.

C. C. M. Bicycles depreciate more slowly than ordinary bicycles because they are made of better materials.

For example, C. C. M. case-hardened bearings are so hard a file cannot cut them. That is an assurance of extra long years of easy running.

C. C. M. smooth, highly-polished nickelling over rust-proof copper and C. C. M. brilliant, waterproof, triple enamelling mean a sparkling, bright finish with years of durability.

When you decide to buy a new model you can always obtain a good allowance for your used C. C. M.

This year's models have the new Hercules Positive Drive Brake—the Coaster Brake without a side arm. See them at your local dealer's.

LAST CHANCE TO APPLY FOR LOAN

Eligible Ex-Service Men Given More Time to Apply for Loans for Tools.

The time in which eligible ex-service men may apply for loans in order to purchase tools and equipment or to resume interrupted training and educational courses expires April 30th next.

Men not now on the strength of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, and who are eligible for such assistance, have until April 30 next in which to make application.

Loans up to $500, without interest, are available for these men who have satisfactorily completed a retraining course with the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment and who wish to start in business in line with training they have received ,and who are unabale to do so without such assistance.

Loans of $500, free from interest, may also be granted to those with a war disability who are not eligible for, or who have not had vocational re-training under the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, and whose pre-war training or education has been substantially interrupted by war service, and who are in need of such assistance for the purpose of continuing in training or education.

THE FIRST SPRAY BY APPLE GROWERS

Sprayers Should Be Overhauled at Once and So Be Ready for Business.

Last year the majority of Nova Scotia apple growers missed the pre-blossom sprays on account of their spray pumps being out of order. Practically all intended to apply the first spray, but when they got the sprayers out they found them disabled in one way or another. The result was that it took in some cases weeks to get repairs made and many were not able to apply any spray until the after-blossoms. Consequently we had a very dirty crop, and everyone, even the men who grew clean fruit suffered, for word went to the market that the Nova Scotia crop was dirty and clean lots of fruit were sold at a discount on account of the general reputation of the crop.

Growers should get their sprayers out at once and overhaul them so that if any parts are worn or broken they will be able to replace them before it is time to apply the first spray.

In Nova Scotia the first spray should be three pounds of bluestone, ten pounds of lime, one pound of arsenate of lime, to forty gallons of water. For aphids add three-fourths of one pint of Black Leaf 40 to each one hundred gallons of this mixture. This spray should be applied when the leaves are about the size of a ten cent piece.

Where bud moths are present in injurious numbers the amount of arsenate of lime may be increased to one and one-half pounds to forty gallons, and the spray applied at the highest pressure possible, and in such a manner as to drive it into every chink and crevice of the opening buds. If only a few bud moths are present a fog spray is much more desirable.

NO PREJUDICE TO UNION EMPLOYEE

Legislation to Impose Severe Penalty on Employer for Infraction of Law.

Ottawa, April 27.—Legislation has been drafted which is designed to impose severe penalties upon any employer who dismisses or in any way prejudices an employee either because he belongs to a trade union, or desires to become a member of such an organization. This matter has been under consideration by the Labor Department for some time, and the legislation drafted and of which notice has been given, though the bill is standing, will provide a penalty of one thousand dollars fine or six months' imprisonment in the case of any party adjudged guilty of such an offence.

Another Government bill on the order paper awaiting its turn is an amendment to the penitentiaries act, which provides that monies derived from the sale of convict made goods, in place of going to the public treasury, go to the particular penitentiary, to be used in meeting contingent expenses not provided for in the estimates.

By an act which amends the Exchequer Court Act, the powers of the registrar to his motions in chamber and so forth are reverted to an act passed last year, made some changes in the exchequer court and provided a president and two puisne judges, and also carved the powers of the registrar. The reorganization of the court has never taken place, nor is it imminent, so the registrar's powers are being revived.

CENTREVILLE, N. B.

INFLUENZA BREAKS YOUR VITALITY

It Leaves in its Wake Poor Blood, a run-down Nervous Condition

No Strength, No Ambition, No Energy

Vinol is Guaranteed to Make Rich, Red Blood, and Build You Up

If you are just recovering from influenza or any severe sickness, you need VINOL to restore your old time strength, energy and vitality, because the bad effects of poor devitalized blood cannot be over-estimated, and it is the beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptonates, and glycero-phosphates contained in VINOL that makes red corpuscles, enriches the blood, improves that sluggish circulation. In this natural manner VINOL creates a hearty appetite and soon every muscle and organ in the body is energized and re-vitalized, and you are once more restored to that vigorous, full-blooded health which is the birthright of every man and woman.

Mrs. Albert Boutilier of Halifax, N.S., says: "The influenza left me all run-down and so weak I could not work. Nothing seemed to help me until my daughter bought me a bottle of Vinol, and it accomplished wonders for me, as it built me up and restored my strength quickly. I cannot praise it enough."

VINOL is the one Remedy that is guaranteed to help you. Your druggist keeps it, so do not accept substitutes. He will return your money if it fails to help you.

The above represents the number of years spent in fruitless efforts to cure a bad case of eczema with ordinary ointments, compared with the time it took Zam-Buk to effect a complete and permanent cure.

This was the experience of Mr. H. C. Buckley of 461 East Broadway, Portland, Ore. Writing to the Zam-Buk Co., he says: "For fifteen years I suffered with a bad case of eczema, and used all kinds of so-called "cures" and treatments, but nothing was capable of curing me until I tried Zam-Buk. This wonderful balm, however, completely cured me in less than a year, and not only so, but I have had no return of the disease. I strongly recommend Zam-Buk to anyone afflicted as I was."

This is but one of the hundreds of cases where Zam-Buk has effected a cure when everything else failed. The reason is easily explained. Zam-Buk being unusually refined—containing absolutely no animal fats or mineral drugs such as are contained in ordinary ointments—is capable of penetrating to the underlying tissues where skin diseases have their roots. Ordinary ointments, on the contrary, never get beyond the surface skin and so are incapable of effecting permanent cures.

Zam-Buk is just as good for salt rheum, ringworm, boils, ulcers, abscesses, blood-poisoning, piles, cuts, burns, scalds and all skin injuries. All druggists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

ZAM-BUK

One of Montreal's Historic Relics

The running of the sands of time alone can give the proper perspective and value to historic buildings. Societies spring up to preserve these relics of the past.

Perhaps the most famous of these memorials of the past in Canada is the Chateau de Ramezay in Montreal, which has remained almost untouched since the days of the old French regime. It was built in 1705 by Seigneur Claude de Ramezay, eleventh governor of Montreal. Here he kept open house with his wife, whose hand was the reward of his gallant sortie with 300 men in aid of Quebec in 1690, when the Count de Frontenac, governor of Canada, fended off the English fleet of Sir William Phipps.

The Chateau stands in what was once the fashionable part of old Montreal, amid mansions and gardens that merged into the neighboring forests. To-day the homes of Montreal have forsaken the busy waterfront and climb, their charming gardens still clinging to them, up the slopes of Mount Royal.

From the days of de Ramezay the Chateau has been the scene of many historic assemblies. Its roof sheltered not only the governor-generals, their suites of fair women and brave men and their illustrious guests, but fur traders, scouts, militia leaders, and Indians.

In 1745 it passed into the hands of the Campagnie des Indes and as India House became the centre of a great fur trade, filling this picturesque and important role for nearly twenty years.

In 1763, after the cession of Canada, it was again the residence of the governor, and invitations to receptions held there during the following century are still in existence.

The Chateau was headquarters for the army of the Continental Congress in its fruitless effort to hold Canada for the thirteen colonies. After Benedict Arnold failed in his treason he retired to Montreal and stayed there for a time. Benjamin Franklin lived in the Chateau when he visited Montreal in 1776 in his effort to persuade the French Canadians to join the new nation to the south, but his was a vain hope. During his stay there he established the Montreal "Gazette," which is still running. Needless to say, he did not found this paper for the purpose of propaganda.

After 1849, the Chateau was for thirty-five years used for government offices. When the government removed to Ottawa, the city presented the Chateau to the Numismatic and Antiquarian Society for a museum, and as such it is unique. Its collection contains all sorts of things ranging from crude home-made utensils fashioned by the clumsy hands of frontier habitants to portraits done by world-renowned artists. One of the most precious things among the thousands catalogued is the Louisbourg bell, hung in the church there in 1724.

INHUMAN FATHER MISTREATS CHILD

Lashed His Daughter With Horse Whip Until Blood, When Sick.

Quebec, April 26.—The trial of Telesphore Gagnon, on a charge of murder in connection with the death of his daughter, Aurore, for whose death his wife has already been sentenced to hang on Oct. 1st, was resumed today in the criminal court before Judge Desy.

Arthur Leboeuf, of St. Jean Deschaillons, Lotbiniere county, in his testimony, said that some time last July he met the accused, father of the dead girl, and that he told witness of whipping the girl with a horsewhip. Witness said the accused told him he had flogged the girl because he would not have her boss his wife in the house. Accused told the witness that he took the girl upstairs, removed all her clothing and holding her at arm's length, by the hair of her head, lashed her with a horsehide whip. Witness said he understood the father took the girl upstairs to lash her so as to get more space for the whip lash. Witness added that the father, when he told witness of this kind of correction, said he had beaten the child over her naked body till the blood oozed out of her back and legs and that he had asked her if she had had enough and that she answered: "I don't know."

Accused then said to witness, "Now, if you care, you can see how we lash her."

Marguerite Leboeuf, daughter of the preceding witness, was then examined. She told of a visit she paid the Gagnon home some time last summer. She said the father had gone to the barn for the horsehide whip, after he had said he would lash Aurore, telling witness: "Now, if you care, you can see how we lash her."

Witness says she did not actually see the flogging, because she got frightened and ran away to the barn so as not to hear the lashing and screams. She says that when she returned to the house she saw Aurore with blue-streaked marks on her legs and on her back.

"How did you see the lash marks on her back?" asked counsel for the defence.

"Her mother lifted the girl's skirts and told me, 'Look, but her back is not sufficiently blue-streaked yet.'"

Marie Jean Gagnon, sister of the dead girl, was questioned by the court today. She said her father lashed the girl with a horsewhip, branches and barrel staves. She says that she did not see him actually whip the girl when upstairs, but that she heard the swish of the lash of his whip and then heard her sister scream. She also told of seeing blue streaks marked on the girl's legs and body after these lashings. She says that her father beat her sister on three occasions she knew of, between the time the girl returned from the ship at Quebec and the day of her death. She says that her father lashed the girl while she was seriously sick, and close to her death.

PREMIER BORDEN BACK NEXT MONTH

Ottawa, April 26.—Sir Robert Borden, it is understood, will be in Atlantic City early in May and spend a few days there before leaving for Ottawa. He will probably be here about the middle of next month. An effort is being made to prorogue in June, although the date will necessarily depend on progress made with business still to come before the House.

Mr. and Mrs. William McNulty, of this city, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a baby boy at their home on Charlotte street yesterday.

Women Give Enthusiastic Welcome to Beauty of New Patterns in Simmons Beds

Now in the Stores—the First Metal Beds Ever Designed in Harmony with Interior Decoration Today. Old-established House of Simmons Limited, Strengthens its Commanding Position as Leading Producers of Metal Beds

NO woman who sees these beautiful beds will wonder at the way they are being received.

Every day goes further to confirm the initiative of Simmons Limited in producing metal bed designs based on the sound principles of line, form and composition—such as the "Colonial," illustrated above.

This Simmons idea of putting real design into metal beds is just the latest example of initiative that has expanded Simmons Limited from one small plant twenty-five years ago to one of the great Canadian industries today.

It was Simmons Limited that first thought of sleep in relation to metal beds.

That led to the Simmons Patented Pressed Steel Corner Lock—the lock that holds the bed together firm, like one piece of metal—the lock that prevents squeak and rattle and makes the bed noiseless, inviting relaxation and deep repose.

They have consistently advocated the Twin Bed principle.

They have invented Springs, too, that yield evenly to the contours of the body—always resilient and elastic.

For example—

"Waldorf" Box Spring—Composed of finest oil-tempered double cone spirals, mounted on a frame of seasoned hardwood and upholstered with heavy layers of white cotton felt. Covered with attractive ticking. Finished with roll edge. A spring that really does give freely to all the contours of the body, yet supports the spine in any sleeping position.

Now this latest achievement—good design in metal beds—involves also the invention of a truly seamless tubing.

You know how it is with the old-fashioned metal beds. The tubing always has a seam running the full length of the tube. It is likely to be rough—does not take the enamel nicely.

When you see these new Simmons Beds, notice especially the tubing—its exquisite finish, free from seam and roughness—and how beautifully it takes the enamel.

* * *

YOU will find them in the leading stores—and with them some very charming Brass Beds and Children's Cribs—built for sleep, by Simmons Limited.

Prices of Simmons Beds are little, if any, higher than those of ordinary beds. If you have any trouble finding them we shall be glad to send you the names of Simmons merchants near your home.

Sleep is a big subject. Write us for the booklet, "What Leading Medical Journals and Health Magazines Say About Separate Beds and Sound Sleep." Free of charge.

Bangor Horsemen Located At Woodstock's Parlor Track With His Stable of Horses

About Thirty Horses Are Now in Training at the Island Track—Harry Nevers Big Stable at Houlton—St. John's Decision to Have a Fair.

[Special Havas despatch by Leased Wire]

Woodstock, N. B., April 27.—Pope D. McKinnon, the well known Bangor, Me., horseman, has joined the training colony at the parlor track at the Fair Grounds on the Island and there are now almost thirty horses located there with chances of a good many more being on hand before the racing starts.

Mr. McKinnon has three horses in his stable so far while J. A. DeWitt, of Presque Isle, Me., has five head in his stable, and Jimmie Gallagher, the well known local horseman, has five in his stable, too. W. F. Scott has two and R. E. Hamilton, H. M. Martell, C. T. Black, Earle Avery and A. A. Poole each have one horse they are fitting.

The Nevers Stable at Houlton.

The American Horse Breeder has the following:

"Andrew J. Saunders, foremost in the activities of the Houlton, Me., Agricultural Society, has in Harry Nevers' stable at the Houlton track the four-year-old mare, Harvest Queen, by The Harvester, 2.01, out of Baracalla (half sister to Carroll, 2.09¼), by Barongale, 2.11¼, and the three year-old filly, also by The Harvester, 2.01, out of Yosan J. (trial, 2.07¼), by Herschon, 2.29¼. The Sam Medium mare, Dazzle Medium, and Verna Whip, a three-year-old by The Whip, 2.09½, also are being trained by Nevers for the Maine sportsman. The record horses of the Nevers stable, consisting of sixteen head, include Zom Q., 2.09¼, Hayward Wilkes, 2.15¼, Peter Setzer, 2.16¼, Somersworth Boy, 2.18¼, and Baton, 2.20½."

Change of Dates May Result.

The decision to hold an exhibition at St. John this fall may cause a change in the schedule of the Maritime and Maine circuit so far as the September end of the chain is concerned. The St. John show will run the week of Labor Day, but those dates have already been allotted to the Chatham track. It may be, however, that the Chatham management will go on with their meeting as planned, figuring the holiday dates are good enough under any circumstances and, if that is the case, there can only be independent racing at St. John.

Horsemen throughout the provinces have been hoping that when St. Jonn got back to holding exhibitions again it would be at a new plant where there would be ample provision for racing and other attractions. Incidentally St. John's decision to hold an exhibition has eliminated any chance of preventing a clash in dates between the St. Stephen and Woodstock fairs.

Canada's Hockey Victory In the Olympic Series

The Winnipeg Falcons Defeated the Swedish Team by 12 to 1

EASY VICTORY FOR CANADIANS

Yankees Now Likely to Win Second Honors at Antwerp.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Antwerp, April 27.—The Falcons of Winnipeg, who last night defeated the Swedish Olympic hockey team by a score of 12 to 1, gained an easy victory over their opponents by the masterly style in which they played. They were considered unbeatable. The attacks of Hallderson, Frederickson and Goodman were superb and while the Swedish defence was courageous they were able to offer only a weak resistance to the lightning dashes of the victors.

The Canadian Victory.

Antwerp, April 26.—The Falcons of Winnipeg tonight defeated the Swedish Olympic hockey team by a score of 12 to 1, winning the Olympic championship.

In the figure skating, pairs, Finland won first place, Norway second, England third, and the United States fourth.

The Swedish hockey team, which won from Belgium in the preliminary canter, was composed of star skaters who lacked, however, the long and arduous training in the game that would fit them to cope with a first class team. The Swedes played desperately from first to last, working heroically to score, and despite the fact that they were hopelessly outclassed their stubborn defensive work kept the tally away below what the balance of play indicated.

Under the Olympic rules all teams directly beaten by the champion team must compete for second place. Thus the American, Czecho-Slovak and Swedish teams will now play off.

Announced in Parliament.

Ottawa, April 26.—In the middle of a warm debate in the Commons tonight, the House then being in supply, Dr. R. M. Blake (North Winnipeg), rose and asked permission to speak on a matter of interest The "Winnipeg Falcons have won the international hockey championship in Antwerp, 12 to 1," he said, and members applauded vigorously.

Sharkey and Friedman To Meet at Boston Tonight In Important 12 Round Bout

Jimmy Wilde to Run His American Earnings Up to $65,000 by Bout at Lawrence, Mass., on Saturday—Police Stop Mike O'Dowd's Bout at Philadelphia.

Boston, April 27. — Bantamweight Champion Pete Herman will await with more than passing interest the result of the bout between Jack Sharkey, of New York, and Abe Friedman, of Boston, who will meet in a 12-round bout to a decision tonight, at Mechanics' Hall, under the direction of the Armory A. A. The winner will stand out prominently as one of the most formidable contenders for Herman's title.

Realizing that in Friedman he will meet no sinecure, Sharkey arrived in Boston last Thursday to complete his training. He knows that he must be in his best physical condition if he is to avoid defeat. The contest will be for a decision. Were it a no-decision affair there would not be as much at stake, but a reverse coming at this time in his career would upset his plans for the future.

Jimmy Wilde's Next Bout.

British Flyweight Champion Jimmy Wilde will enter his ninth contest since arriving in this country when he steps into the ring at the Cuddy Brothers Arena, Lawrence, on Saturday afternoon, to box Bobby Dyson, of New Bedford, in a 12-round bout. The occasion will enlarge Wilde's earnings from the rings in this country to nearly $65,000.

His record here follows: Jack Sharkey, lost, received $11,000; Babe Asher, won, $5,000; Mike Ertle, won by a knockout, $5,000; Mike Russell, won by a knockout, $5,000; Patsey Wallace, won, $4,500; Frankie Mason, won, $10,750; Zulu Kid, won, $5,000; Battling Murray, won, $5,000. For meeting Dyson he will receive at least $10,000 and possibly more, as the interest in the meeting is greater than in any fight held in the Lawrence open-air arena.

Easy for Mike O'Dowd.

Philadelphia, April 27.—Mike O'Dowd, the middleweight champion, outclassed "Knockout" Sampson, of Philadelphia, here last night by such a wide margin that the police ordered the referee to stop the bout in the fourth round.

Britton Wins Tame Bout.

Canton, O., April 27.—Jack Britton won a newspaper decision over Jock Malone, of St. Paul, in a tame 12 round bout here last night.

Bogash Beats Palitz.

Bridgeport, Conn., April 27.—Louis Bogash, of this city, was given the decision over Dave Palitz, of Hartford, at the end of a 12 round bout here last night. They are welterweights.

They do not all go the galt bred for. This is brought to mind by the entry in the 3-year-old pace at Cleveland's August Grand Circuit meet, in which Tommy Murphy has named Chance, the son of San Francisco, 2.07¾, and Belvasia, 2.06¼, and Evening Gale, the daughter of Peter the Great, 2.07¼, and Morning Gale.

"They beat anything I ever tried"

"I have been using Planet Jr Horse Hoes for several years," writes C. R. Mote, Carrolton, Ga., "and they beat anything I ever tried. I just can't get along without them."

Planet Jr farm and garden implements get high praise from users because they produce bigger, better crops with less work. Their quick, easy, telling results are the product of over 45 years actual farming and manufacturing experience. Planet Jr tools last a lifetime—every one fully guaranteed.

Planet Jr

No. 8 Horse Hoe and Cultivator does a greater variety of work and does it more thoroughly than any other cultivator ever made. It has stronger, better construction. Its depth regulator and extra-long frame make it steady-running. Adaptable to deep or shallow cultivation and to different widths. 15 other styles of one-horse cultivators—various prices.

No. 4 Planet Jr Combined Hill and Drill Seeder, Wheel-Hoe, Cultivator and Plow does the work so quickly, easily and thoroughly that it pays for itself in a single season. Sows all garden seeds (in drills or hills) plows, opens furrows, and covers them, hoes and cultivates all through the season.

TITANIC BATTLE FOR FUR CONTROL

Dawson, Y. T., April 19.—Constables Wm. A. Campbell and Brooker, who arrived here with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police expeditions from Herschel Island and Fort McPherson on the Artic coast, bring the first advices from the vast region on the topmost end of the world since last summer. They report a titanic battle for control of the fur trade in the vast McKenzie valley between the Hudson's Bay Company and the new American firm of Lamson and Hubbard, who are cutting prices of commodities and raising offers on furs in order to get established. The average prices paid for mink were fifteen dollars and for muskrats a dollar and a half. Three ships made Herschel Island late last season. One of the ships forged ahead of the others and beat them to Banks Land, where there had been no ship for two years, and scored a big scoop, buying up two years' fur catch. Constable Campbell reports meeting Jukiro Wada, noted Arctic Japanese gold discoverer and stampeder, who was outfitted in New York last year. He made an expedition down the Mackenzie last year, and is now exploring for lost gold mines reported to exist on the Arctic slope south from Herschel. He was last seen en route there last fall.

PULPWOOD FROM LABRADOR NOW

Ottawa, April 26.—A million and a half acres of pulpwood forests in southern Labrador immediately north of Cape St. Charles in Newfoundland territory is being acquired by a United States securities firm to supply the British trade.

Details of the deal are not yet available, but it is understood that full survey of the area has been made by means of photographs from an airplane and the corporation has practically completed its arrangements to take over the forests, install machinery and prepare to ship pulp direct from its own harbors to Great Britain, where the pulp will be converted into paper.

The Knights of Faith

"Nay, by Saint Paul! it were pity if so many brave men were drawn together, and no little deed of arms to come of it. Ha! William, they advane upon us; and, by my soul! it is a sight that is worth oming over the seas to see."

As he spoke, the two wings of the Spanish host, consisting of the Knights of Calatrava on the one side and of Santiago upon the other, came swooping swiftly down the valley, while the main body followed more slowly behind. Five hundred paces from the English the two great bodies of horse crossed each other, and, sweeping round in a curve, retired in feigned confusion towards their centre. Often in bygone wars had the Moors tempted the hot-blooded Spaniards from their places of strength by such pretended flights, but there were men upon the hill to whom every ruse and trick of war were as their daily trade and practice. Again and even nearer came the rallying Spaniards, and again with cry of fear and stooping bodies they swerved off to right and left, but the English still stood stolid and observant among their rocks. The van guard halted a long bow-shot from the hill, and with waving spears and vaunting shouts challenged their enemies to come forth, while two cavaliers, pricking forward from the glittering ranks, walked their horses slowly between the two arrays with targets braced and lances in rest like the challenge in a tourney.

"By Saint Paul!" cried Sir Nigel, with his one eye glowing like an ember, "these appear to be two very worthy and debonnair gentlemen. I do not call to mind when I have seen any people who seemed of so great a heart and so high of enterprise. We have our horses, Sir William; shall we not relieve them of any vow which they may have upon their souls?"

Felton's reply was to bound upon his charger, and to urge it down the slope, while Sir Nigel followed not three spears'-lengths behind him. It was a rugged course, rocky and uneven, yet the two knights, choosing their men, dashed onwards at the top of their speed, while the gallant Spaniards flew as swiftly to meet them. The one to whom Felton found himself opposed was a tall stripling with a stag's head upon his shield, while Sir Nigel's man was broad and squat, with plain steel harness, and a pink and white torse bound round his helmet. The first struck Felton on the target with such force as to split it from side to side, but Sir William's lance crashed through the camail which shielded the Spaniard's throat, and he fall, screaming hoarsely, to the ground. Carried away by the heat and madness of fight, the English knight never drew rein, but charged straight on into the array of the knights of Calatrava. Long time the silent ranks upon the hill could see a swirl and eddy deep down in the heart of the Spanish column, with a circle of rearing chargers and flashing blades. Here and there tossed the white plume of the English helmet, rising and falling like the foam upon a wave, with the fierce gleam and sparkle ever circling round it, until at last it had sunk from view, and another brave man had turned from war to peace.

Sir Nigel, meanwhile, had found a foeman worthy of his steel, for his opponent was none other than Sebastian Gomez, the picked lance of the monkish Knights of Santiago, who had won fame in a hundred bloody combats with the Moors of Andalusia. So fierce was their meeting that their spears shivered up to the very grasps, and the horses reared backwards until it seemed that they must crash down upon their riders. Yet with consummate horsemanship they both swung round in a long curvet, and then plucking out their swords they lashed at each other like two lusty smiths hammering upon an anvil. The chargers spun round each other, biting and striking, while the two blades wheeled and whizzed and circled in gleams of dazzling light. Cut, parry, and thrust followed so swiftly upon each other that the eye could not follow them, until at last coming thigh to thigh, they cast their arms around each other and rolled off their saddles to the ground. The heavier Spaniard threw himself upon his enemy, and pinning him down beneath him raised his sword to slay him, while a shout of triumph rose from the ranks of his countrymen. But the fatal blow never fell, for even as his arm quivered before descending, the Spaniard gave a shudder, and stiffening himself rolled heavily over upon his side, with the blood gushing from his armpit and from the slit of his vizor. Sir Nigel sprang to his feet with his bloddy dagger in his left hand and gazed down upon his adversary, but that fatal and sudden stab in the vital spot, which the Spaniard had exposed by raising his arm, had proved instantly mortal. The Englishman leaped upon his horse and made for the hill, at the very instant that a yell of rage from a thousand voices and the clang of a score of bugles anounced the Spanish onset.

But the islanders were ready and eager for the encounter. With feet firmly planted, their sleeves rolled back to give free play to their muscles, their long yellow bow-staves in their left hands, and their quivers slung to the front, they had waited in four-feet harrow formation which gave strength to their array, and yet permitted every man to draw his arrow freely without harm to those in front. Aylward and Johnston had been engaged in throwing light tufts of grass into the air to gauge the wind force, and a hoarse whispor passed down the ranks from the file-leaders to the men, with scraps of advice and admonition.

'Do not shoot outside the fifteen-score paces,' cried Johnston. "We may need all our shafts ere we have done with them."

"Better to overshoot than to undershout," added Aylward. Better to strike the rear guard than to feather a shaft in the earth."

"Loose quick and sharp when they come," added another. "Let it be the eye to the string, the string to the shaft, and the shaft to the mark. By Our Lady! their banners advance, and we must hold our ground now if ever we are to see Southampton Water again."

Alleyne, standing with his sword drawn amidst the archers, saw a long toss and heave of the glittering squadrons. Then the front ranks began to surge slowly forward, to trot, to can-

The Social Service Council.

The Social Service Council met last night but only routine business was transacted. During the meeting Miss Peterson, the Victorian nurse, gave her report on the work she had done during the month, which included 193 visits, 150 of which were nursing visits, 7 child welfare cases and 26 cases. The report was indeed very gratifying and it showed that Miss Peterson worked on an average of ten hours a day.

Fined for Game Law Violations.

Chief Game Warden L. A. Gagnon returned last evening from Edmundston, where he had been prosecuting in two cases of violations of the game law which appeared before Magistrate J. B. Michaud of that town. The offences consisted of having a rifle in a lumber camp and killing moose in closed season. Convictions were secured in both and fines totalling $145 were imposed by the magistrate.

Boston Train Service.

Effective April 26th, the day service between St. John and Boston, and vice versa, will be restored. Until general change of time May 2nd, the morning train leaving St. John at 7.40 local time will run through to Vanceboro and connect with the Maine Central and Boston and Maine Railway for Boston. Coming from Boston connections will be made at Vanceboro and the express will reach St. John at 10.45 p. m., instead of 10.00 p. m., the time of arrival of McAdam express under winter schelude.

To Reside in Millville.

Star of the East L.O.B.A., No. 33, met in the Orange Hall last evening for their monthly meeting and also to say farewell to one of its members, Mrs. W. H. Gregory, Past Mistress, who is leaving the city soon to take up her residence in Millville, where her husband is located. Two members were initiated and afterwards the meeting took on a social aspect in honor of Mrs. Gregory, who has been a prominent member of the lodge. Mrs. J. M. Chappelle, Provincial Grand Chaplain, in a neat address expressing regret at Mrs. Gregory's removal from Fredericton presented her with some china on behalf of the lodge. Mrs. Gregory, who was taken completely by surprise, thanked the donors for their beautiful gift and good wishes. Dainty refreshments were served and the gathering dispersed with the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

WOODSTOCK MAY BE LOCATION OF MILITARY FORCE

Col. McLeod Writes that the Militia Council Have So Decided.

DELEGATION LIKELY TO GO TO OTTAWA

City Council, Board of Trade and Commercial Club Committee to Meet.

A meeting of the joint committee representing the City Council, Commercial Club and Board of Trade, who have been taking up with Col. H. F. McLeod, M. P., for York-Sunbury, the matter of the return of a unit of the Canadian permanent force to Fredericton will be held tonight at the Board of Trade rooms when it is expected it will be decided to send a delegation to Ottawa at once to press Fredericton's claims.

A communication has been received from Col. McLeod, it is understood, which says that "so far as the Militia Council is concerned, they have practically decided in favor of Woodstock as the location for the permanent unit". It is further pointed out that "under the new situation the Militia Council is the final court of appeal" but Col. McLeod has written that he has had "the matter held up in order that a delegation from Fredericton may be heard.".

Before the war an infantry unit had been stationed in Fredericton since the Canadian permanent force was first organizezd in 1883, but about a year ago it was announced that instead of infantry there would be a battery of horse artillery placed in Fredericton under the post-war establishment.

CITY CLUB WILL OPEN NEXT WEEK

Trustees Named at Meeting Last Night and Charter List is Closed.

At the meeting last night of the Fredericton City Club, the new business men's social organization, it was arranged that the club's quarters in the Dunbar Building would be ready for occupancy next week.

The club will occupy all the upper floors of the building as well as three rooms on the western side of the main entrance on the ground floor. The charter membership of the club was closed with seventy-five names and fifty other members will be enrolled as soon as they have been balloted upon.

R. W. McLellan, H. A. Smith and J. D. Tothill were named as trustees to act until the club has been incorporated, and Ald. J. Stewart Neill, Ald. F. L. Cooper, Col. H. Montgomery Campbell, P. S. Watson, J. M. Lemont and J. T. Jennings were appointed a committee to take charge of the furnishing of the club, which promises to be comfortably equipped.

101ST ANNIVERSARY.

Victoria Lodge of Oddfellows Hosts at Smoking Concert Last Night.

The 101st anniversary of the Independent Order of Oddfellows was celebrated last night by Victoria Lodge, No. 13, of this city, when they held a smoking concert at their hall in the Chestnut building.

About seventy members of the lodge and their guests were present and enjoyed a splendid programme put on by members of the lodge and others. Past Grand Master W. S. WHISKEY "PER" IS FOUND BY COURT TO BE DOCUMENT

Transfer of Goods is Brought About by Such Means, Says P. J. Hughes.

A. W. ENGLAND SENT TO CIRCUIT COURT

Charge for Forging Prescriptions for Liquor Will Be Tried Next Week.

The preliminary examination of Albert W. England, who is charged with having forged prescriptions for liquor, was concluded in the Police Court yesterday afternoon when the prisoner was sent up for trial at the York Circuit Court on Tuesday, May 4th, by Police Magistrate Limerick.

The Police Magistrate stated when the court resumed that he had found in reveiwing the evidence in the case that exhibit No. 2, one of the "pers" which the counsel for the defence had thought was not entered as evidence but which he thought had been held for identification, had been entered as evidence against the prisoner.

R. B. Hanson, K. C., for the defence, in addressing the court, stated that of all the sub-sections dealing with forgery, only one had any bearing upon the case. That was one, he stated, that referred to the forging of any document used as genuine, but he stated a prescription should not be regarded as a document. He therefore thought that the prisoner should not be sent up for trial, but dismissed.

P. J. Hughes, for the prosecution, stated that the sub-section which he had thought applicable was one which made an indictable offence of the forging of a document by which a transfer of property or goods could be made.

Magistrate Limerick then ruled that the prisoner would be sent up for trial at the York Circuit Court on Tuesday, May 4th.

NEWMAN CLARK TO UNDERGO OPERATION AT ANDOVER JAIL

Preliminary Examination on Murder Charge Will Be Further Delayed.

ATTORNEY GENERAL POSTPONES TRIP

Gets Report Here that Case Cannot Go On Until Middle of May.

Newman Clark, the alleged murderer of Phoebe Bell, the 15 year old girl who was shot and instantly killed at Grand Falls on March 25th last, will probably have to undergo an operation at the Victoria county jail at Andover because of the condition of his feet, which were badly frostbitten when he was "kidnapped" from the hospital at Grand Falls ten days after the tragedy and escaped to Limestone, Me., where he was captured.

Attorney General Byrne arrived here last night and expected to go on to Victoria county to proceed with the preliminary examination this week of Clark and also Peter Bois or Wood, who was named by the former as one of two men who kidnapped him from the hospital at Grand Falls, took him across the international boundary and abandoned him near Limestone. However, word came at noon today from Clerk of the Peace Stratton, of Andover, that a doctor had decided Clark would probably have to have at least one toe amputated because of the frost bites and that it would be two weeks before he could be moved to Grand Falls.

The Attorney General has therefore arranged for the two cases to be taken up about the middle of May at Grand Falls.

Safeguard Your Roof

THE roof is an important item—it "makes" or "mars" the whole structure. In shingle-roofed houses it is even more necessary to see that it is in good regular repair, because once a roof commences to decay a general deterioration of house-value is the immediate result.

To ensure a permanent durability, as well as an added appearance, use

B-H Shingle Stain

either as a mixture in which shingles are dipped or as a stain to apply to the completed roof.

It comes in all colors, and gives a tough, durable "seasoning," besides contributing largely to the artistic effect of your home.

Like every other B-H product, the B-H Shingle Stain is first choice among people who know good paint.

Fiume Entirely Blockaded by the Italian Troops

Sections of the Railway Entering City Have Been Torn Up

MACHINE GUNS GUARD FRONTIER

D'Annunzio Threatens to Start Counter Action Against Army.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Triest, April 28.—Fiume is now undergoing what is admittedly the most severe blockadae to which it has been subjected.

The communications of the town have been completely cut off, regular Italian troops tearing up sections of the railway and bringing up numbers of machine guns to guard the frontiers.

Passage in and out of the city is absolutely forbidden, not even milk going in, and connection with the outside world by the sea route has been completely severed.

'Annunzio is threatening counter action. "My army, navy and air forces are ready to occupy the coast of the Bay of Quarnero (in which Fiume lies), including Abbazia and Volosca, if the Nitti army continues its acts of reprisal against me," said the poet today. "They have cut off the food supplies for the women and children of the city, but they will find out that this brutal act will not daunt the spirit of my triumphant soldiers and sailors."

FRENCH AMBUSHED IN ASIA MINOR

Turks Broke Agreement to Allow French Troops to Retire in Safety from Urfu.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 28.—Official accounts of the French retreat from Urfa, Asia Minor, confirm the reports that the retreating column was ambushed, although the French had an agreement with the Turks which they believed would ensure a safe retirement.

The French, the official messages show, left Urfa only when food and water were lacking after a sustained siege of two months by forces equipped with artillery. The French losses in the siege are said to have been small while the admitted Turkish casualties totalled 500.

PEACE RESOLUTION IN THE U. S. SENATE

President Expected to Return Treaty of Versailles to Senate, with Suggestions.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Washington, April 28.—The joint Republican peace resolution will be considered again today by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Senator Knox is drafting a substitute which will modify the House measure in many places, but provides also for the ending of the state of war with Austria.

Republican and Democratic leaders said yesterday they would not be surprised if President would return the Treaty of Versailles to the Senate soon with suggestions regarding reservations. However, they disclaimed knowledge of the President's plan.

ELECTRIC CHAIR FOR GIRL SLAYER

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 28.—William Ray, colored, 19, was sentenced to be electrocuted August 5th at the Indiana State prison, Michigan City, by Judge James A. Collins, of the criminal court here yesterday, when a jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. Ray is said to have stabbed to death 14 year old Martha Huff, a white girl, on April 19.

U. S. WOMEN'S LEGION.

Washington, April 28.—The first national convention of the American Women's Legion will be held May 13, 14 and 15, it is announced. All women relatives of men who took part in the war are invited to organize locally and to send two delegates for every 25 members.

Former Governor of Kiel Under Arrest

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Berlin, April 28.—Rear Admiral Von Levetzow, former governor of Kiel, has been arrested and sent to Leipzig, according to a brief message from Kiel received by the Lokal Anzeiger.

His removal was beset with great difficulties, as attempts were made to assault him by the crowd.

ASK WITHDRAWAL OF ALLIED TROOPS

German Note Claims that Hun Troops Have Been Reduced to Treaty Demands.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Berlin, April 28.—The Deutsche Zeitung says the German Government is preparing a note to France, in which a demand will be made for the withdrawal of the Allied troops from Frankfort and other recently occupied districts. The demand will be based, says the newspaper, on the German claim that the German troops in the region have been reduced to the treaty stipulations.

INVITE HUNS TO SPA CONFERENCE

German Press Elated Over Disposition of Allies to Recognize Germany.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Berlin, April 28.—The German delegation to the Spa conference called by the Entente will consist of the Chancellor and the Foreign, Home and Finance Ministers, says the Deutsche Allegeine Zeitung.

The news that the Chancellor has been invited to attend is hailed joyfully by the Tageblatt as the first definite sign of a change from the Paris "militaristic policy."

Vorwaerts, commenting on it, says: "It is the first step on the road towards a state of true peace in Europe, but a satisfactory issue is possible only if the German ship of state is held to a true democratic course."

VETOED A LECTURE ON FAMOUS AUTHOR

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Richmond, Va., April 28.—The entire faculty of Chatham Episcopal Institute here resigned yesterday when the President vetoed a lecture on Harriet Beecher Stowe, on ground that eulogy of the author of Uncle Tom's Cabin before an audience of southern girls would be out of place. The teachers, many of them from the north, disagreed and resigned.

AERIAL RACE IN JULY.

New York, April 28.—The 1,200 mile aerial race on July 4, similar to the New York-Toronto Derby race last year, was authorized yesterday at a meeting of the board of governors of the American Flying Club. The circuit will include Boston, New Haven, New York, Princeton, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and points in Virginia.

WILL MODIFY DIVORCE LAWS OF ENGLAND

Legislation in Mater to Be Strongly Urged at Present Session of Parliament.

SOME ADDITIONAL GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

1,388 Cases Entered on the Divorce Court Docket for the Coming Term.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 28.—Legislation modifying England's divorce laws will be urged by the present session of the House of Commons.

The Government, it is contended, will in that event be morally bound to facilitate the passage of a measure which will sanction divorce on the following additional grounds:

Wilful desertion for three years.
Cruelty.
Lunacy.
Habitual drunkenness.
Commuted death sentences.

The church view concedes the demand for the cheapening of divorce proceedings, the equality of the sexes and increased grounds for nullity, but declines to go further.

Names of prominence in the social world figure in another heavy list of suits to be heard in the divorce court during the coming term, and of the 1,388 cases on the docket 1,243 are undefended. There were 1,544 slated at the beginning of the last term.

In the latest list, Lady Katherine De Vero Somerset daughter of the Duke of St. Albans; Viscountess Torrington, Sir Wm. Willoughby-Williams, the Hon. C. E. Cholmondeley and Mrs. Sherwood-Kelly appear.

TRANSFERS MADE IN METHODIST CHURCH

Several Ministers of N. B. and P. E. I. Conference Removing Elsewhere.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Toronto, April 28.—The transfer committee of the Methodist church met yesterday under the chairmanship of Rev. Dr. S. D. Chown and granted, among other things, the following transfers:

A. Clare Motyer, from New Brunswick and P. E. I. to the London conference.

John E. Whitham, from New Brunswick and P. E. I. into the Hamilton conference.

Robert C. Tait, from Nova Scotia into the Baay of Quinte conference.

Charles A. Adey, Albert Johnson and Robert S. Smith, from Newfoundland conference into Montreal.

H. B. Clarke and W. M. Ryan, B. A., from Nova Scotia into New Brunswick and P. E. I. conference.

Wm. G. Lane, superintendent, from New Brunswick and P. E. I. conference.

H. S. Bird, B. A., from Alberta; N. Cole and B. J. Warr, from Newfoundland, all into Nova Scotia conference.

Alberta J. Waterman, from Newfoundland conference into Saskatchewan.

P. Johnson, from Nova Scotia conference into Alberta.

John S. Allen, superintendent, from New Brunswick and P. E. I. conference into British Columbia.

PROHIBIT IMPORT OF CERTAIN GOODS

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 28.—A decree prohibiting the importation of certain foreign goods has been issued, following a report showing that the total of French imports during 1919 reached nearly 30,000,000,000 francs, while French exports did not reach 9,000,000,000 francs.

The decree says that goods shipped direct to France before the publication of the decree will be admitted. Goods imported for re-export also are excepted from the new order.

Ukrainians Rise Against Bolshevik

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Warsaw, April 28—Uprisings by civilian Ukrainians against the Russian Bolshevik in the district west of Kiev are reported in despatches reaching here.

It is said the Ukrainians are organizing because of a report that their country and Poland had signed a treaty by which the latter agreed to support Ukrainia in her proposed march toward the Dnieper river.

POLES VICTORIOUS.

General Forward Movement of Poles Into Ukraine; with Bolshevik Retreating.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Warsaw, April 28.—A general advance by Polish forces along a 180 mile front into the Ukraine was announced in today's communique by the Polish general staff. The movement, it is set forth, is for the expulsion of the "foreign invaders" (Russian Bolsheviki).

The Poles covered about fifty miles on the first day of their forward movement, their advanced line taking them within sixty miles of Kiev.

The advance was explained in a proclamation issued in the name of General Pilsudski, the head of the Polish state, and posted in the cities and villages through which the Polish forces marched. The document announced that after the expulsion of the foreign elements the Poles would remain in the Ukraine only until an authorized Ukrainian government had taken control.

The proclamation, dated April 26, was printed in Warsaw and then rushed to the front. Thousands of copies were taken by the Poles for distribution within the newly occupied territory.

One section of the proclamation reads:

"Together with the Poles, there are returning to the Ukraine, its heroic sons, under Simon Petlura, who have found a refuge within Poland and help in the darkest days for the Ukrainians."

The document expresses the hope that the Ukrainians will concentrate their forces to aid in retaining their freedom, which also will be of aid to Poland. Protection is guaranteed to all the inhabitants, who are asked to bear patiently the burdens of the war.

The important towns ocupied by the Poles on the first day of their movement include Owaruez, Jitomir and Berditchev, and further south, Winnitza and Zmyerynka.

CANADA'S STATUS AT WASHINGTON

New York Paper Pleased at Proposed Change in Diplomatic Relations.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York, April 28.—Under the heading "A Canadian Minister at Washington," the New York Times says editorially:

'For some thirty years Canada, though she has had no ambassadors in foreign capitals and her affairs there were in the hands of British diplomatists, acting in union with the Dominion Government, has negotiated commercial treaties. She has a department of external affairs, the organ of imperial and inter-dominion communication with Loidon, with the other British Dominions and colonies, with the foreign consuls in Canada and with the British Ambassador at Washington. The war greatly strengthened and enlarged the sense of unification and nationality among the Canadians. The desire of Canada for a place in the League of Nations was another evidence of her practical independence.

"Minister of Justice Doherty said in the Dominion parliament the other day that precedent and principle have been established that no treaty can bind Canada which she has not approved. Canadian nationality was further affirmed last month by the Government's notice of its intention to ask for the amendment of the British North America Act so that an act of the Canadian parliament shall operatae extraterritorially to the same effect as if enacted by the parliament of the United Kingdom. It is in line with these movements toward sovereignty that for some time the Canadian Government has been pondering the status of its representation at Washington.

"In the war it was represented at Washington by the Canadian War Mission. Canadian relations with the United States are so numerous and important that their discussion and settlement need to be reached by some quicker way than the round-about one through the British colonial office.'

Seville, Spain, April 28.—King Alfonso attempted to use the wireless telephone in communicating with King George of Great Britain yesterday, but failed. The Marconi wireless telephone system installed on William Marconi's yacht, the Electra, did not function properly.

BEST TELLS OF STANGLING THE YOUNG GIRL

Michigan Police Extract Confession from Man Held for Slaying Telephone Girl.

DECLARES THE GIRL PLEADED FOR DEATH

Says the Girl Was Tired of Life and Was Simply in the Way of Others.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Pontiac, Mich., April 28. — Anson Best, formerly of Flint, Mich., confessed early this morning, according to Prosecutor G. C. Gillespie, that he killed Miss Vera Schneider, telephone operator, whose body was found early Sunday morning on the porch of an unoccupied dwelling.

Best, according the the prosecutor, had been questioned throughout the night and broke down after being identified by a workman as having been seen washing his hands in the Clinton River, near the scene of the crime, a few minutes after its discovery.

"She asked me to kill her," Best was quoted as saying. He even declared, according to the prosecutor, that he met Miss Schneider for the first time late Saturday night.

Says the Girl Wanted to Die.

The confession, Mr. Gillespie declared, was made in the presence of a stenographer and several police officers, and gave no other reason than that Miss Schneider begged Best to end her life because she was tired of living and was "simply in the way of others." She even drew the handkerchiefs from his pockets and asked him to tie them together and place them about her neck. Best was quoted as saying. The officers said Best told them that when he complied he at first refused to pull the handkerchiefs tight, but she begged him to do so, saying she was ready to die.

Continuing, the statement quotes Best as saying he left the body and walked to the river nearby, where he washed his hands, which had been slightly bloodstained from blood that came from the girl's mouth. He retraced his steps to the place where the body already had been found by officers and when stopped by a policeman, even took a searchlight, went to the porch and looked at the girl's face.

Best was released at that time, but was re arrested Monday night after a workman had told of seeing a man coming up from the river shortly after the body was discovered.

MAORI TRIBESMEN AND PRINCE OF WALES

Refused to Associate With Other Tribes, but Wanted Prince to Visit Them.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 28. — Maori tribesmen, formerly enemies of the British in the Maori war, refused to be represented at Potorua in welcoming the Prince of Wales upon his arrival there, says a Central News despatch from Auckland. They pointed out their presence would associate them with other tribes, against which they made a protest.

Chiefs of the Maoris threatened that if the Prince of Wales did not stop at their village to receive them, they would hold up his train by lying down in front of it. They finally promised not to create a disturbance if permitted to welcome the royal visitor.

PLACED IN QUARANTINE

New York, April 28.—Steerage passengers to the number of 1,530 arriving here yesterday on the Italian steamer Belvedere, from Trieste, Patras and Palermo, will be detained on board the vessel in quarantine because of a case of smallpox which developed in the steerage on the voyage.

Members Pledged Not To Buy New Clothing

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Kingston, Ont., April 28.—The Kingston vocational council has passed a resolution pledging the members not to buy any new clothing until the prices come down. The council disapproves of the overall club movement because of the increase in the price of denim to the laboring man.

POTATO BOYCOTT HAS SOME EFFECT

Hundreds of Ontario Women Pledge Themselves Not to Purchase Potatoes.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Toronto, April 28.—Of thirty-four carloads of potatoes which were originally consigned to local dealers and which have been standing on the Grand Trunk sidings for some time to be unloaded or sent to the United States, only six will be unloaded here. Other supplies of spuds sent to this city have been re shipped to Windsor and Chatham. The boycott by the various women's organizations is thought to be having some effect.

Some three hundred women at a meeting in the city hall at Stratford yesterday afternoon pledged themselves not to buy any spuds for one month unless offered at three dollars a bag.

WESTERN MINERS GET WAGE INCREASE

Dispute With Coal Miners at Crows Nest Pass Adjusted by the Operators.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Calgary, Alta., April 28.—The coal miners' strike in the Crow's Nest Pass, which has more or less affected the mines in that district since the beginning of March, has now been settled, acording to information given the Canadian Press yesterday at the office of the director of coal operations, the United Mine Workers of America having gained a complete victory.

Now that this dispute has been settled, the new wage scale in line with that adopted in the United States will be discussed at an early date. This will mean an additional increase of approximately 11 per cent. in the miner's wage.

PREVENT EXPORT OF IMMATURE FRUITS

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Kingston, Ja., April 28.—The government yesterday introduced a bill in the legislative council to prevent the exportation from Jamaica of immature fruits. Competition in the banana trade is declared to have led to the exportation of this fruit while unfit for consumption.

STUDENTS IN PEKIN STRIKE

Railroad Traffic Is Suspended Throughout New Zealand.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Honolulu, April 28. — Street rail traffic in Tokio has been tied up by a general strike brought about by the discharge of fifty men who were acucsed of being agitators, according to Japanese cables received here.

Chinese Students Strike.

Pekin, April 28.—Students in the Pekin schools have declared a strike in sympathy with the students of Shanghai and fourteen of the provinces, who several days ago left their studies. No violence is reported.

The Shanghai strike was caused by refusal of the Pekin government to reply to demands that secret negotiations with Japan relative to Shantung cease and that a decree abrogating secret treaties be published.

New Zealand Has Its Trouble.

Rotorua, N. Z., April 28—Railroad traffic has been suspended throughout the northern island of New Zealand as a result of the strike of locomotive engineers and firemen, but it is not expected to delay the progress of the Prince of Wales, who is visiting this country, as the walkout is not directed against him. Thousands are involved in the strike, preparations for which were made long ago.

French Strike of Metal Workers.

Marseilles, April 28. — A general strike of metal workers was called yesterday. The employers in the naval buildings are affected by the strike order.

General Strike in Spain.

Saragossa, Spain, April 28.—A general strike has been declared here following the arrest of 15 members of the local radical committee who are said to be responsible for recent bomb outrages.

DECIDED NOT TO USE ROSS RIFLE

Quebec Rifle Association Preparing for Competitions for Bisley Team.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, April 28.—At a meeting of the executive of the province of Quebec Rifle Association last night it was decided that the Ross rifle should not be used in the competitions for selections of marksmen for the Bisley meet this year, since the rifle is barred from Bisley. Competitions for the selection of representatives of the province of Quebec on the Bisley team will be held at the Pointe Aux Trembles ranges. These will be held with ten shots at the 200, 300, 500 and 600 yard ranges.

The annual prize meeting of the province of Quebec Rifle Association will be held at the Pointe Aux Trembles ranges on August 10, 11, 12 and 13.

FAMOUS WESTERN COACH ON EXHIBIT

Concord, N. H., April 28.—A cablegram was sent to London yesterday offering to loan to the International Horse Show to be held in June a duplicate of the famous Deadwood coaches, common in the West many years ago, and exhibited more recently by the late Colonel William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill). The coach here, which is owned by the original makers, is believed to be the only one of its kind now availaable.

Sneaks Back Into Prison to Escape High Cost of Living

Man Paroled From Illinois State Penitentiary Scaled the Walls and Sneaked Back Into the Prison Because He Could Not Make Living Outside.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Joliet, Ills., April 28.—Robert Nexham, paroled three weeks ago after serving part of a sentence for burglary, scaled the walls of the State Penitentiary from the outside early yesterday and sneaked back into prison because he found himself unable to cope with the high cost of living as a free man. Prison officials said it was the first time a convict had climbed the walls to get back into the penitentiary.

"The only way to beat the high cost of living is to be in prison," said Nexham, when asked his reason for returning to the prison.

THE INQUIRY INTO PENSIONS QUESTION

An Increase of 25 Per Cent. all Around Necessary Under Present Conditions.

Ottawa, April 27.—The special committee on pensions and re-establishment has come within reaching distance of the end of the first phase of its work.

At a private sitting of the committee this evening the matter was placed before the members and it was felt that sufficient evidence on pensions had been secured to guide the committee in its deliberations. There are three or four more witnesses yet to be heard and the G. W. V. A. pension plan is to be taken up.

An increase of 25 per cent. all around is necessary if pensioners are to live comfortably under present standards of living, according to evidence given before the commitee today by Miss Helen Reid, of Montreal. Miss Reid stated that many soldiers' children in Montreal were suffering from mal-nutrition.

$100,000 DAMAGE BY A ST. JOHN FIRE

St. John, April 28.—Fire of mysterious origin, which spread from floor to floor with remarkaable rapidity, started in the large brick building, 93 to 97 Prince William street, numbered in the rear 32 to 40 Water street, and occupied by Dearborn & Co., Limited, wholesale grocers, spice and extract dealers and oaking powder manufacturers, and other firms, late last night and practically destroyed the interior of the entire structure. The buildings on either side escaped damage. The total loss was estimated by some persons this morniag at $100,000, very largely covered by insurance, but the amount cannot ieflnitely be stated tintil today. The Dearborn building, on the front side in Prince William street, is four stories in height and extends about 125 feet through to Water street, where it is of five stories. It has been the scene of several big fires, three of them within the last three years.

MORE GOLD FOR U. S.

New York, April 27.—International bankers were in receipt of advices today indicating an early resumption of gold imports from London to this country. It was estimated that some $50,000,000 of the metal may come here in addition to an equal amount which was consigned to this market in several shipments of last month.

OBITUARY.

Winslow G. Thomas.

Tay Settlement, April 21.—The community has been saddened by the sudden death of one of the most highly respected young men of this place. On Friday afternoon, April 16th, Winslow G. Thomas, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas, was killed while working at the dam on the South Tay. He was engaged with others, in breaking an ice jam at the gate of the dam, when the ice gave way suddenly beneath him, crushing him and causing instant death. The body was swept through the gate and down the river over a mile and was not recovered until the following afternoon.

The late Mr. Thomas was in his 23rd year and leaves besides his widow, who was formerly Miss Emily Bull, two little daughters, Gladys and Greta, two brothers, Allen and Herbert, both of Tay Settlement, seven sisters, Mrs. Wm. Biden, of Fredericton, Mrs. Maurice Tait, of Nashwaaksis, Mrs. Ralph Wilson, of Tay Settlement, and Harriet, Frances, Mildred and Myrtle, at home.

The funeral took place at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, the service at the house and church being conducted by Rev. R. A. Robinson and at the grave by his brother Orangemen who also marched in a body from the house.

The family have the deep sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sad and sudden bereavement.

Miles Farrell.

Moncton, April 27.—Miles Farrell, a well known resident of McKee's Mills, Kent county, died this morning aged 67 years. Mr. Farrell had been ill only a few hours. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Julia Weldon, who died several years ago. About a year ago he married Mrs. Chapman, McKee's Mills, who survives him. He also leaves five children.

Malcolm B. MacKinnon.

Moncton, April 27.—Malcolm MacKinnon, a retired C.N.R. employee, died at his home here today, aged 65 years. He was born in Scotch Settlement and was a resident of the city for a long time, having been employed as a carpenter in the C.N.R. service. He leaves his widow, three daughters and one son. Two sons of the deceased, John and Laughlin, former members of the 55th and 140th battalions, were killed in 1916 overseas while on active service.

Duncan Walker.

Andover, April 27.—The death of Duncan Walker occurred at his home at Tobique Narrows on Thursday morning. Mr. Walker, who was about 60 years of age, is survived by his wife and one daughter, also two brothers, John and Alexander Walker, of South Tilley, and one sister, Mrs. Hazen Chapman, of Wollaston, Mass.

Mrs. Elijah H. Sisson.

Andover, April 27.—The news of the death of Mrs. Elijah H. Sisson on Saturday morning came as a shock to her many friends. She was 59 years of age and is survived by her husband and three daughters, also three brothers and one sister.

COLONEL MACKENZIE NEW GRAND MASTER

Masonic Grand Lodge Also Elects J. H. Hawthorn of this City Senior Grand Warden

St. John, April 28.—The Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M., is holding its fifty-third annual session in St. John and in its meetings yesterday afternoon and last night disposed of considerable routine business. Under the direction of D. C. Clark, grand master, the reports of the grand secretary, grand treasurer, auditors and the Masonic Hall committee were received yesterday afternoon, and the address of the Grand Master also was read, in which was contained a very graphic description of the peace jubilee convocation held in London last spring.

Last night practically the whole session was given to the election of officers for the ensuing term, with the following results:

Grand Master—Col. J. D. B. F. Mackenzie, Chatham.

Past Grand Master—D. C. Clark, St. John.

Deputy Grand Master — LeBaron Wilson, St. John.

Senior Grand Warden—J. H. Hawthorne, Fredericton.

Junior Grand Warden — Roy E. Crawford, St. John.

Grand Chaplain—Rev. G. C. [illegible]rence, Hampton.

Grand Treasurer—George D. Ellis, St. John.

Grand Secretary—J. Twining Hartt, St. John.

Grand Tyler, Robert Clerke, S. John.

Grand Organist, D. Arnold Fox, St. John.

ST. STEPHEN MAN SEVERELY INJURED

St. Stephen, April 27.—Suffering from a fracture of the spinal column, near the base of the brain, and probably severe internal injuries, Frank Scott, foreman in the shoe factory of Clark Bros., Ltd., is now at his home here under the care of Drs. Oelnstadt and Dustan, who have doubts regarding his recovery. The accident happened late this afternoon. Mr. Scott was standing in the elevator pit just as the car began to descend from the floor above; he was caught and crushed to the floor of the pit.

INDICTMENTS IN AROOSTOOK COURT

Mrs. Lambert of Moro in the List—Civil Cases Before the Juries.

Houlton, Me., April 27.—Indictments as far as made public, found by the grand jury of the Aroostook S. J. court are as follows:

H. H. Noiles, Caribou, gambling.
Martin Burns, assault and battery.
Fred Drake, Houlton, keeping intoxicating liquors; nuisance.
Mrs. Hattie Dean, keeping house of ill fame.
Clyde A. Drew, Houlton; unlawful trapping.
Effie Edwards, Caribou, polygamy.
Walter Violette and Albert Soucey, Fort Fairfield, larceny.
Alfred Kronk, Presque Isle, forgery.
Rhdada Lambert, Moro, assault.
Chester Stewart, assault.

The Civil Docket.

The case of Clark vs. Henley-Kimball Co., alleged breach of guarantee of an automobile, assigned for today, was settled out of court.

Angie Clark sued Amos R. Gould on replevin acton to recover four cords of wood on the farm place she sold to defendant in Smyrna Mills. The jury found for the defendant.

The next case was Duris D'Ackerson, of Bridgewater, vs. Jere Lyons and trustees, a cross action on account. The plaintiff contracted with the defendant to operate a farm, to share expense and profits. They were unable to agree and the suits resulted. The case went to the jury late tonight and it will report Tuesday morning.

The next case assigned for trial is F. M. Vose and James E. Harrigan, of Houlton, vs. James A. Watson, of Littleton, an action on account. Dorrity and Tompkins; H. M. Briggs. It is understood that several more civil cases will come to trial.

PARENT'S REAL ESTATE AGENCY

Canteen Profits

The following statement has been given out from the Department of Overseas Military Forces:

During the war profits arose out of purchases made by Canadian troops in canteens in England and France.

An organization known as the "Navy and Army Canteen Board" was appointed by the War Office to operate canteens in Canada as well as in British camps in the British Isles. Where troops supplied buildings in which the canteens were run, a rebate of 10 per cent. of the gross takings of the canteens was made for the benefit of the troops immediately concerned. Where the buildings were not so supplied by the troops a rebate of 7½ per cent. was allowed. Four-fifths of this rebate has been paid regularly to Canadian troops in their arena for their benefit, and has been spent in accordance with the provisions of K. R. & O., regarding regimental funds. The balanace, one-fifth, was retained by the Canteen Board and paid to a Canadian central fund (known as the military funds trustees) less the proportion retained for administrative expenses, about £45,000 being Canada's share up to 31st August, 1919. Canada has received on account of her share of trading profits up to 31st December, 1918, about £41,000. The military funds trustees are the High Commissioner for Canada, the Minister of Overseas Military Forces, and the Chief of the General Staff, Canadians. In disbursing the funds the military funds trustees are guided by the terms of the trust deed constituting the board, and such funds as have been disbursed have for the benefit of the wives and children of Canadian soldiers in the British Isles, who needed financial assistance. Such expenditures were met as expenses for funerals in the case of death of a soldier's wife or any of his children; assistance to wives, who were unable to accompany their husbands; cases of hardship in connection with delayed pension claim; assistance to soldiers in need, who after taking their discharge in Canada returned to England, and those who under regulations took their discharge in England.

There is an entirely separate organization, known as the "Expeditionary Force Canteens Committee," whose operations extended elsewhere than in the British Isles. The profits of this organization, when ascertained, are to be divided amongst British, Canadian, Australian and New Zealand troops. The best information available indicates that the affairs of this committee are not likely to be closed so as to admit of an account being rendered until the middle or latter part of 1920. The proportion of profits to which the various partners will be entitled will be based upon the number of men, and the share of each partner will be affected, to a certain extent, by the amount of cash issues that were made to the soldiers of the different Dominions and the Mother Country in the field.

These canteen funds have at times been referred to as "Regimental Funds," but this is not an accurate description of them. Some units that were disbanded in England had regimental funds in their possession. These were paid to the Paymaster-General to hold in trust for the fulfilment of the unit concerned. The amount of these funds is not material and primarily the money must be disbursed, in accordance with the terms of the trust.

Never judge an argument by its sound; it may be all sound or not sound at all.

HEALTH PROGRAMME FOR NOVA SCOTIA

Travelling Clinics to Carry Gospel of Good Health to All Parts of Province.

Halifax, N. S., April 27.—Plans are rapidly assuming shape for the actual application of the provincial health programme of the Nova Scotia Red Cross Society, the chief features of which will be institution of two travelling clinics, which will tour the province during July and August, for the purpose of carrying the gospel of good health into the most remote districts of Nova Scotia.

These clinics are to be organized on a semi-military basis and will carry with them trained specialists with operating room outfit and complete equipment for removing tonsils and adenoids and the correction of other remedial defects found in school children in the remote districts of the province; a dentist and chair and outfit for cleansing and putting in hygenic condition the mouths of school children unable to get such service; tuberculosis specialists who will co-operate with the family doctor in helping to determine the diagnosis where the local physician seeks advice; an eye specialist to give advice or to fit and prescribe lenses where they may be advisable; a nursing corps to assist the doctors in their operative procedures, some training to go into the homes of the tuberculosis to establish such sanitary reforms as may be required; some of the doctors and nurses to be trained in health teaching.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

Perhaps because we have a Union Government, perhaps because of its sense of fairness, the measure before Parliament relating to the election of members of the House of Commons is broad, impartial, and thoroughly democratic. Criticism has been received with an open mind, modifications suggested in the general interest have been accepted, an earnest desire to obtain a just and liberal franchise and electoral law has been manifested; and tribute is due the Solicitor-General, Hon. Mr. Guthrie, for the skill, the ability, the obvious sincerity with which he has managed the bill in the Commons.

Upon one point, however, a stiff fight is being waged by the Opposition, namely, the selection of Returning Officers. The bill retains to the Government the appointment of these persons, and the contention is set up that this proceeding perpetuates patronage, which merely goes to show that in the creed of the Liberal party the merit of the case depends entirely upon the angle from which it is viewed. For fifteen years that party held office, and in four general elections appealed to the people, but throughout that considerable tenure of power the Liberals did not regard appointment of Returning Officers by the Government as an abridgement of electoral rights, nor as contributing to unfair elections. The attitude of hostility now assumed is mere simulation, and does not carry conviction, remarks the Montreal Gazette. Another test may be made. Has the nomination of Returning Officers by the Government perverted the electoral will? Have gross and glaring frauds been committed? No evidence whatever has been adduced to support such an accusation. On the contrary, according to the Solicitor-General, there is of record only one case of a Returning Officer being removed for misdemeanor, and he was an official of the class to which the Opposition desires to commit the duties. It is a fair proposition that before changing a long established practice, evidence be presented that it is faulty, inequitable, and prone to corruption; and this has not been done.

The alternative plan offered by Hon. Mr. Fielding is the appointment as returning officers of Sheriffs, Registrars, Collectors of Customs, Postmasters and other public officials having permanent tenure of office. To this plan there are some obvious objections. For one thing, it would not eliminate partizanship, nor ensure a more fair election. These officials have all in their day been partizans, and it is far from certain that they have lost their party proclivities, or are possessed of higher sense of honor or greater judicial capacity than are returning officers chosen by the Government, who, for the period of their office, are sworn to impartiality. The practice has always been to include sheriffs and registrars among returning officers, and this practice will doubtless continue; but it is not desirable to rigidly limit the choice to a restricted class. Then, Collectors or Customs and Postmasters are about the last persons who should be selected to administer electoral machinery. Their other duties forbid, frequently their unfitness for this work, and the notion of mixing up such officials with political contests is repellent. There are no qualifications inherent in the class of persons to which Hon. Mr. Fielding would confine the choice of returning officers not equally possessed by citizens of repute and integrity who, selected for the purpose, temporarily cease their party activities. As for the argument of Hon. Mr. Bureau that the appointment of returning officers should be taken from the Government in order to restore public confidence in Parliamentary institutions, it will be news to most people that that confidence has been destroyed by the method of appointing these officials. Parliamentary institutions rest upon a stronger foundation, a foundation whose firmness is dependent upon the legislative and executive conduct of the representatives chosen by the people; and when those representatives betray their trust, when they run counter to the wishes of a majority of the people, the machinery for supplanting them is provided.

We realize that a fair election is an essential of popular government, that the party in power must not load the dice, and if there were serious fault in the plan followed in the past it would be the duty of Parliament to introduce reform. But no evidence of peril to free and effectual expression of popular will has been produced against the present procedure, and when the controversy is candidly examined it is found to be not more important than fear, on the part of the Opposition, that the Government of the day may pursue the course followed for fifteen years by the Liberal party in office, and which that party would vigorously resent as having involved impropriety or implied restraint of free choice of representatives by the electors.

A NEW RESOURCE MAP OF CANADA.

A map of the Dominion of Canada indicating natural resources, transportation and trade routes, scale 100 miles to the inch, has just been published by the Department of the Interior.

On this map, varieties of mineral, agricultural and fishery resources, and the timber and fur in general are printed in red lettering in their proper locations. The sites of important water powers, developed and undeveloped, are indicated, and the lines of all railroads completed up to date are clearly defined.

The resources shown on the map extend from whales near Herschel Island in the Arctic to salt at the southern toe of the Ontario peninsula, and from the white whales of Ungava Bay to the fruit lands near Victoria, B. C. An important inset contains five circular diagrams, showing the comparative contributions of each province to field crops, commercial timber, developed water power, fisheries and minerals. A sixth diagram displays the proportion of the total exports filled in 1918 by manufactures and by the five great classes of natural resources severally.

The thorough reliability of this map is shown by the caution which ignores probabilities however promising. The trader, investor, manufacturer and economic student will read the map as an open book; its appearance is timely when demand is abnormal and enlarged production a necessity.

AUTOCRATIC, NOT DEMOCRATIC.

The Ottawa despatches of Monday say that legislation has been drafted which is designed to impose severe penalties upon any employer who dismisses or in any way prejudices an employee, either because he belongs to a trade union or desires to become a member of such an organization. This matter, the despatches further say, has been under consideration by the Labor Department for some time, and the legislation drafted, of which notice has been given though the bill is standing, will provide a penalty of $1,000 fine or six months' imprisonment, in the case of any party adjudged guilty of such an offence. Such legislation as this is not in keeping with democratic principles, about which there has been a good deal of boasting of late. We must proceed reasonably and intelligently; otherwise we will soon be back to absolute autocracy in the control and administration of affairs.

ST. JOHN AND CARLETON.

The writ for the provincial bye-election in St. John City is not likely to be long delayed, and there is some evidence that the Government is acting under a belief that there will be no opposition offered to the return of Dr. Roberts. A Carleton county seat has been vacant for four sessions of the Legislative Assembly, which is something unprecedented in the records of Parliaments of this country. The stigma cannot be carried longer. The writ for Carleton may be expected on the date on which the St. John writ is issued.

Winnipeg Telegram: "The personal "reasons given by the Hon. Mackenzie "King in explanation of the part he "played, or did not play, in the war "will elicit much sympathy for him "under such grievous losses; but if "every man set forth his personal "reasons why he might not have gone "to the war, few need have gone. "Mr. King has not yet explained how "it was that although he was unable "to go to the war he thought fit to "engage in an election on the side "of those who wished to defeat the "conscription which sent the badly "needed reinforcements to the corps "in France."

Ottawa Journal: "Parliament continues in its lethargic condition. "Everybody appears to be pursuing a "policy of watchful waiting, the "Government showing little disposition to hurry matters and the Opposition wasting much time over non-essentials. Indeed, this tendency of "the Liberals to make much ado over "nothing and to let matters that count "go by default, is one of the strange "features of a strange session."

Yes, the last session of the Legislative Assembly made a record in the number of Bills passed, but many of these were to amend Acts of recently preceding sessions—to undo blunders. Except the amending Acts, and the record of number disappears.

DEMOCRATIC LEADER.

Washington, April 27.—Senator Underwood of Alabama was elected democratic leader in the Senate today at a conference of Senate democrats.

ONTARIO HOUSE PASS REFERENDUM

On Question of Prohibiting the Importation of Liquor Into that Province.

Toronto, April 27.—A resolution, moved by H. McCreary, United Farmer member of the Legislature, asking the Legislature to apply to the Federal Government for submission of a referendum to the electors of the province of Ontario on the question of prohibiting the importation of liquor into this province, was carried on a division in the House tonight by 85 to 22, a number of Liberals and Conservatives voting with the United Farmers-Labor Government on the resolution.

The Ontario Temperance Act at present does not prohibit the importation of liquor.

PROFITEERING IN HAY IN ALBERTA

Edmonton, Alta., April 27.—Police reports reveal profiteering in hay sales in Edmonton, according to Mayor Clarke. There was clear evidence that hay had been sold here at exorbitant prices, he declared in speaking of the report. Instances were recorded where one firm on an investment of $720 had made a profit of $244. The police discovered that another firm made a profit of $27 a ton on hay brought in from British Columbia, while another netted a gain of $23 a ton on an inferior grade. It is also reported that the police discovered hay had been brought from Calgary at $52 and $56 a ton and turned over here for from $70 to $85.

A SINGLE EXHANGE SYSTEM FOR EMPIRE

London, April 27.—In the Commons last night the Under Secretary made an important statement in regard to the movement towards the adoption of single exchange system for the whole British Empire. He had personally investigated the matter and hoped it would be possible to secure such a growth of interest in the question, not only in this country but throughout the Empire, as would lead to practical results. It would stimulate investment and give impetus to imperial trade which the foreign trade would not have.

WORLD'S WHEAT SUPPLY.

Washington, April 27.—According to cable advices from London, the commission on wheat supplies estimates the yield from Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the United States, Argentina, Algeria, Rumania and India will be 50,250,000 tons, and the export available from all countries, 20,290,000 tons. These figures, submitted to the British board of trade, refer to the 1920 crop.

ASK CONFINEMENT.

Winnipeg, April 28.—In a desperate effort to cure themselves of the morphine habit, contracted while in the trenches, two returned soldiers have asked to be sent to prison for six weeks. Their requests will be granted.

WOMEN PREACHERS.

Berne, April 28.—Woman's first appearance in a Geneva pulpit will occur June 6th, when Miss Maud Royden, a London pastor, will preach at the Cathedral there.

The Stock Market

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York (Wall Street), April 28.—Price tendencies were downward at the outset of today's stock market dealings, yesterday's late rise of call money to ten per cent. evidently dampening the enthusiasm of traders. U. S. Steel opened with an offering of 4,000 shares at an extreme decline of 1⅛ despite the financial quarterly statement issued after the close of yesterday's session. Reading's initial sale showed a gain of 1½ points, but other rails were irregular. Crucible Steel and minor issues of the same class were fractionally higher, but oils and equipments yielded large fractions to 1½ points. General Motors declined 9 points, but soon reached more than half its loss.

Dividends Tell the Story

It requires vision to launch a new manufacturing concern, but too often the promoters have added to Vision those little letters a-r-y. Such was not the case with the members of the firm of Clark Bros., Limited, who created a national product and sold nearly $2,000,000 worth of women's shoes during the first seven years of factory operation. The regular quarterly dividend of Two Per Cent. is payable on May 1 and purchasers of the new issue at par flat, while the stock is selling ex-dividend, can count on receiving quarterly dividends on August 1 and November 1 of this year.

We recommend this stock.

The Best Boots for Boys

OUTFIT the boy with Palmer-McLellan Patented Farm Boots and he will have Footwear that will stand the most strenuous wear, in all kinds of weather, outlasting two pairs of ordinary boots, and will not rip or lose their shape.

We own exclusively the patents on these boots. They are made from heavy Palmer-McLellan Chromoil tanned leather, shaped on right and left lasts, and fitted with strong counters to support the heels. The soles are nailed on by improved machine method. These boots have all the foot-fitting comforts of a real moccasin, but will hold their shape and outwear footwear of much heavier construction for they are all solid leather.

Public Criticism.

Good, absent-minded, old Dr. Wilder was greatly dependent upon his practical wife. One morning Mrs. Wilder sent up an announcement after he had entered the pulpit with a footnote intended to be private.

"The Women's Missionary Society," he read aloud, "will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock sharp. Your necktie is crooked; please straighten toward the right."

Progressive Town.

"I see," remarked a gentleman as he paid a small newsboy for his paper, "that you are putting up a good many new buildings in your town."

"That is the only kind we put up here, sir," replied the little fellow, with a touch of civic pride.

Not Hopeless.

Strike Folly.

The mine-workers' leader was pointing out the folly of further coal strikes.

"We must stop striking, boys," he said, "or the common people, the great consuming public, won't listen to us when we talk to them about the idle rich. Instead of listening to us, they'll yell:

"The idle rich be durned! How about the empty grate?"

FROM THE PEOPLE

PROHIBITION.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—This amazing query has been made: "What more natural than that illicit resorts should take on a new lease of life with the stimulus that they receive from the prohibition of drink?" To attribute an increase in evil to prohibition is to ignore all the known facts. It cannot be successfully contradicted that the social evil received its chief stimulus from alcoholic drink. The induction of hundreds of innocent girls into evil life has been through wine, restaurants and beer. Illicit resorts have also been most generous patrons of the liquor vendors.

There is probably no increase in the number of resorts. It is the aroused public conscience insisting on the enforcement of the prohibition law that has suddenly brought the social evil into public view.

It was asserted that there would be an increase in the drug habit when prohibition was passed. This proved to be a false alarm. The same is true in regard to an increase in the social evil. Give prohibition a fair chance and it will bring about a marked decrease in illicit resorts, just as it has in the drug habit.

Yours,
TEMPERACE.

SUGGESTIVE COMPARISON.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—May I presume to take up a portion of your valuable space as one who has read Uncle Ruben's letter and subsequent replies thereto with much interest.

I was much interested in that letter, particularly in view of the fact that during the war conditions were, in one respect and almost without exception, as he stated, namely: the willingness of war brides to view life from a comfortable hammock or some such sinecure while those who were not fortunate in receiving a regular government allowance did the work. There were a goodly number of such instances throughout the country. Why weren't they doing their bit? Surely, if anyone should have set an example of patriotic industry, it ought to have been the war bride, generally speaking. The storm of protest, however, has been aroused by Uncle Ruben's remarks in connection with the cash gratuity question and his opinion that if a man were at all willing to work he could find the means and wherewithal to enable him to get along in his particular walk of life.

It is most interesting to read the views of the different contributors to this page and elsewhere on the $2,000 cash gratuity question (and, let us hope there may be many more opinions advanced), some satisfied that they can get along without it, the majority agreed they earned it and must have it. But one thing seems quite clear and that is, the country's load of indebtedness is about all it can carry at this period of reconstruction, and the men who insist upon such a gift as $2,000 gratuity will help pay for it in some way, more or less. Acknowledged that most of them "did their bit" over there, faced and met death in divers form, is their courage of any higher order than that of a woman who goes down into the Valley of the Shadow that she may give life to her child? I think not. While the soldier may meet with cruel and sudden death or wounds that leave him a cripple for the balance of his natural life, even so does the woman face death or helpless invalidism that life may continue and does not consider the price.

As for using the plea of "doing their bit" as a principle for demanding things reasonable and unreasonable, most folks are doing that in some measure each and every day of their life. It all depends upon what is in a man's own makeup as to whether he will give the best that is in him or not, and there's no getting away from the fact that when a nation is at war there must be a sufficient army to carry on to victory, if possible, and if men won't go of their own volition, it necessarily follows that they must be made to go.

Now, as a tangible evidence of the country's appreciation, not considering what has already been done for him, the soldier demands a $2,000 cash gratuity, and it seems just and fair that the man who has gone to war and received wounds that leave him a cripple or with impaired health, or otherwise handicapped, should receive more than $2,000 as a partial recompense for what he has sacrificed. But it does not seem right that the Government should add to its indebtedness by handing out any such sum to men who came back with unimpaired faculties and better health than ever. It seems reasonable to conclude that they are quite capable of carrying on as before, and, since generous endeavors are being made to assist them in doing so, there is no reason why they should not, after a reasonable period of time, settle down to occupation. Of course, the results rest with the man himself. The Government cannot make them work if they do not wish to do so on their own account and it seems as if that were the class frantically insisting that a gratuity be paid them. They are not to be convinced that the Government has their interests at heart in advancing loans and tracts of land. If a fair portion of the sum which the Government is being asked to hand out could be used for promoting the interests of the physically unfit and shell-shocked soldier it would be a most timely and appropriate expenditure. If there is any surplus cash in the Government treasury it could be well devoted to establishing separate asylums for the poor chaps with crazed minds and shattered nerves. And let the physically fit returned man look after his own interests as before.

And, now, I should like to have someone else come along and pick this letter all to pieces, but meanwhile I consider Uncle Ruben's views quite sound.

Yours,
VERY MUCH INTERESTED.

FARM SOLD—AND BOUGHT.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Apropos of farmers giving up farming, I would say that I have sold 320 acres of tillable land and retained ten acres, house and barn. The annual income from the money received from the sale of the land will be twice, at least, as much as I made last year after paying all expenses.

In addition to receiving twice as much money I have my services to sell and my wife and daughter will not have to work like slaves for the benefit of the members of the labor trust. My family can live, but the urban population will, in time, go hungry unless the agriculturist is provided with low cost labor, real labor, hewers of wood and drawers of water.

THE CELLULOID COLLAR.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—While the "overall movement" seems to be growing in popularity would it not be a good idea for a celluloid collar cry? Collars are now selling for twenty five and thirty cents up and the laundry charging three cents each for making them fit for the rag bag after about three washings. The celluloid collar would certainly look well with the overalls.

Long-Standing Evil

Effective Measures Taken

Since childhood Mr. A. Cail was under the shadow of a great evil, which always menaced his comfort and safety. Read what he says:—

"I was troubled with my kidneys since childhood and spent a large amount of money trying to get cured. Instead of getting better, I kept getting worse until a friend of mine advised me to try Gin Pills. I did so, and after taking one box, I was able to get out of bed and walk around. Two more boxes relieved me completely, and since then I have had no return of the trouble."

Many people have kidney and bladder trouble without knowing it. They think nothing of the backache, the pains in the sides, the constant headaches, the rheumatic, sciatic and neuralgic pains, the floating specks before the eyes, the swollen joints, the highly-coloured urine—all signs of trouble—all signs which should receive immediate attention and treatment with Gin Pills, which are by far the most effective of all preparations, and which may help you to avoid a fatal operation. They quickly relieve pain and heal the congested tissues, bringing the organs back to normal. At druggists and dealers, 50c a box. Money back if no relief. Send for free sample.

DOMINION'S NEED FOR IMMIGRANTS

Canada Has More to Offer to Settlers of Proper Class Than United States.

New York, April 27.—Canada's great need for immigrants of the proper class was emphasized by Col. J. S. Dennis, chief of the colonization and development department of the Canadian Pacific Railway in an address delivered before the recent conference on immigration held here under the auspices of the Inter-Racial Council. Col. Dennis, who was representative of the Canadian and British recruiting mission in the United States during the war and is familiar with conditions on this side of the line, compared the problems which Canada and the United States are faced in regard to immigration and frankly told his American hearers that Canada is in a more favorable position in having better inducements to offer.

"We think that in Canada we have perhaps more to offer the European immigrant today than you have in the United States," he said. "More in the sense of largely undeveloped resources, larger areas of cheap land and a growing industrial development which provides him with employment, if he is looking for it."

Dealing with the problem as it affected Canada, Col. Dennis said:

"We have a promising need for population because, due to our participation in the great war, which we went into voluntarily, and due to the fact that we provided our own army; that we enlisted a little over ten per cent. of our total population; that we equipped and paid and maintained our men; that our allowances to our men were very great—today in Canada we are faced with a very heavy debt and the interest on our war debt today, when added to our pension bill, amounts to a sum about three times as great as the total revenue of the Dominion in 1914, and our population has not increased very materially since that time. Therefore we have the pressing need of getting imigrants to come in and help us carry that burden and develop our natural resources so we can pay our bill and not be ultimately found in the hands of the sheriff.

Dealing with some of the difficulties which confront Canada in regard to immigration, Col. Denis remarked that Canada as part of the British Empire is so situated that it is absurd for Canadians to speak of any man as a foreigner, because the Empire includes people of every race.

"The British Empire is a hetergeneous collection of peoples of the world," he said, "and we are so situated and have the peculiar condition existing that in Canada, although a part of the Empire, we do not allow immigration from other parts of the Empire. For instance, we do not allow the Hindus, although they are British subjects in India, to come to Canada. It is a peculiar anomaly, but it shows the independent character of certain portions of the overseas dominions where we impose a tariff against the Mother Country and refuse to allow British subjets in other parts of the Empire to come to Canada."

Col. Dennis said that past experience in matters relating to immigration had convinced him that the trauble in handling immigrants was due to three things.

"First," he declared, "the immigrant is misinformed when he is solicited to move; second, he is manhandled in being moved; and third, he is turned loose without any protection or assistance when he arrives. That has been, I think, the foundation of the movement in the past, and we must endeavor to change it if we are to get the kind of people that we need, and if we are going to have greater success than we have had in the past in making them proud of the country they have come to, anxious to learn our language, to participate in our institutions, and to become good citizens.

FLOGGED THE GIRL WITH AXE HANDLE

Further Disclosures in the Horrible Usage of Quebec Girl By Inhuman Father.

Quebec, April 27.—The trial of Telesphore Gagnon, accused of having murdered his young daughter, Aurore, continued this morning before Justice Desy.

The first witness to take the stand was little George Gagnon, stepson of the accused. Questioned as to what treatment was meted out to the victim by the Gagnon man, the child said that Aurore was lashed three or four times by her father, using a cattle whip for that purpose and that from downstairs the moans and cries of the child could be heard.

Last summer the prisoner also flogged the girl with an axe handle and this winter with a rod.

Asked if he knew what gave rise to those beatings, witness said that they were brought about by the mother's complaints as to Aurore's conduct. The former stopped at nothing to arouse her husband's anger against the girl. On one occasion she even took a draping in church, which she then accused Aurore of having stolen.

The next witness was Odilon Houde, from Ste. Philamene. He worked last summer with Gagnon, who often spoke about his daughter's difficult character and freely related his harsh corrections. He admitted to Houde that he whipped her till the blood gushed out and left scars clearly discernable.

The trial was expected to end this afternoon.

A girl imagines that some men remain in the bachelor class because they do not understand women—but a widow knows better.

Many men argue with terrific frenzy over the religion they haven't got.

DOMINION TIRES

Royal Cord

Construction

TENS OF THOUSANDS of slender cords in many compact layers, each cord and each layer laid parallel one to another, and each embedded in pure rubber so they cannot touch — each separate cord and layer bringing its individual strength to the tremendous sum total of power and resistance—so is built the tire structure of the Dominion Royal Cord Tire. The key principle is the slender cord and the many layers or plies; thus the enormous strength to the structure and the heavier side walls make practical immunity from blow-out, puncture and the bruise.

Dominion Tires, Inner Tubes and Accessories are distributed through Dominion Rubber System Branches and sold by the Best Dealers throughout Canada.

Dominion Tire Accessories include everything you need to close a hole, plug up a bruise, or heal a cut in your tire. These helps will make your tires last longer. Carry a supply in your car.

Dominion Inner Tubes fit all Dominion Tires and ensure perfectly balanced tires. To add comfort to your car and mileage to your tires, always insist on having Dominion Inner Tubes.

Why "Royal Cord"?

BECAUSE—"Royal Cords" make possible Lower Gas Consumption, more miles per gallon than the same car can get on fabric tires. This saving alone pays the difference in cost, within the life of an ordinary set of tires.

BECAUSE—"Royal Cords" afford More Mileage than is possible from fabric tires. The carcass of the "Royal Cord," as well as the tread, absorbs the road shocks, and the carcass, in absorbing these road shocks, relieves the tread of a portion of its strain, giving longer life to the tread than is possible in fabric tires.

BECAUSE—"Royal Cords" are Non-Skid, and are so designed to be equally desirable for all four wheels, and their construction reduces side-slipping without impairing the ease in steering.

BECAUSE—"Royal Cords" eliminate Interior Friction. There's no chance for friction in them.

In "Royal Cords" each individual cord is coated with rubber, which prevents the parallel cords from rubbing each other.

And a layer of live, stretchable rubber separates each of the transverse layers of cords, preventing any friction there. No internal friction means Longer Life to the Tire.

BECAUSE—Lower Air Pressure is possible, and this means more comfort and easier riding.

MAY REVISE BAN ON AMUSEMENTS

Syracuse, N. Y., April 27.—Rev. Edmund M. Mills, acting secretary for the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which opens on Saturday at Des Moines, Ia., stated tonight that the conference probably would revise the ban on amusements, changing it from a mandatory act in the book of discipline to a word of advice.

Memorials submitted to Dr. Mills from conferences in all parts of the country show that about one-third of the preachers want to eliminate all reference to dancing, theatres and card playing.

In view of the fact that the preachers do not put men and women on trial for these amusements, Dr. Mills will move the elimination of the following words in that part of the book of discipline dealing with the trial of a member for imprudent conduct: Dancing, playing at games of chance, attending theatres, horse races, circuses, dancing parties, patronizing dancing schools or taking part in such other amusements as are obviously of misleading and questionable moral tendency." For such offence the law calls for first reproof by pastor, secondly reproof by pastor and class leader or "discreet" members of the church, and for the third offence the accused shall be brought to trial.

After striking out the words referred to, Dr. Mills would have a star placed at this point dealing with the trials making it compulsory for the ministers to read the chapter on "amusements" under the head of "advice."

Every community has its "meanest man," but the man who refuses to support his poor old mother is entitled to the championship.

Even a man of sand should have enough sense to build his house upon a rock.

The lazy man would rather take half a loaf than work for a whole one.

RESPONSIBILITY RESTS WITH DUTCH

The Hague, April 27—Responsibility for the continued residence in Holland of former Emperor William of Germany was placed squarely and exclusively on the Netherlands government in a note sent by Premier Lloyd-George of Great Britain on March 24 and published today for the first time in the Orange Book, containing documents relating to the demanded extradition of Count Hohenzollern.

Mr. Lloyd-George's note says:

"The Allied governments have learned of the royal decree assigning the former Emperor a definite place of internment in Utrecht, this decree being accompanied by an undertaking by the Netherlands government to assume complete responsibility for the custody of the former Emperor and control of his correspondence and relations with the outside world."

The note pointed out that William, in spite of precautions, is "a very serious danger so long as left within forty kilometres of the German frontier, and is a potential centre of reactionary propaganda and a constant menace to the peace of Europe."

Died at the Barony.

Mrs. Catharine Lockhard, widow of the late William Lockhard, died this morning at the Barony at the age of 80 years. The deceased is survived by three sons, James and George, of the Barony, and David of Washington Territory, one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Thompson of Dumphries, three brothers, John and Henry McMurray of Lake George and James F. McMurray of this city, and one sister, Mrs. Lawson, of Prince William. The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Middleton will conduct the services and interment will be made at the Barony.

And the proof of the political pudding lies in the plum distribution.

AMERICAN TIPPLE CALLED SNAKEBITE

Greenock, Scotland, April 27.—A report on American rye whiskey now being imported into Scotland has been filed by the chief constable of Greenock, who declares that the liquor is of the "shock" variety. The American tipple is known locally as "snakebite," says the chief constable.

The effects of pre-war whiskey, he says, even when it had not been bonded for three years before being sold at retail, were nothing as compared to the effects of some of the overseas brands.

"Whatever their composition," says the officer, "their effects are terrible. They not only poison, but madden. Their intoxicating effects have passed away."

A woman is really in a hurry if she says good-by that way.

Allied Financiers Take Steps To Prevent China Giving Any Special Treatment to Japan

Japs Were Endeavoring to Secure Special Railroad Concessions in Return for Loan, but This Does Not Meet the Views of Principal Allied Nations.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 28.—A definite step was taken yesterday in the negotiations for a loan to China by groups of financiers of Great Britain, the United States, France and Japan, when France formally notified Great Britain that she would join this country and the United States in declining to acquiesce in the special treatment Japan asked for herself. Japan wants certain railroad concessions which the other three countries are unwilling to grant.

The amount of the loan in question is reported to be £5,000,000, and a Pekin despatch last February said the Chinese government had accepted the loan stipulations of bankers of Great Britain, France, United States and Japan, on certain specified conditions. The loan was to be secured by the salt and other revenues.

Control of Chinese Railway.

Harbin, April 28.—M. Pimenoeff, head of the Russo-Asiatic Bank here, has been named general manager of the Chinese Eastern Railway, in succession to Lieut. Gen. Horvath, on the initiative of the local Chinese military governor, Gen. Pao. Chinese officials have been appointed to the posts of vice-director and vice-manager.

The French Consulate has protested on behalf of the French stockholders, on the ground that the appointments violate the railway construction treaty.

Lieut. Horvath, former general manager of the Chinese Eastern Railway, has been offered the post of advisor to the Ministry of Communications at Pekin.

THE ANGLICAN W. A. CONVENTION

Mrs. Geo. F. Smith Declines Nomination for President, but No Action Taken.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

St. John, April 28.—At the morning session of the Anglican W. A. Convention, Mrs. George F. Smith announced that she would be unable to accept the nomination for the office of President, to succeed Mrs. Thomas Walker, who is retiring after 17 years service. No action was taken. Mrs. G. A. Kuhring was unanimously nominated as Vice-President.

The meeting was devoted chiefly to the reception and discussion of reports.

MANUFACTURERS TO MEET AT VANCOUVER

Vancouver, B. C., April 27.—Though still in an embryonic state plans are being made locally for the reception and entertainment of delegates of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, who, to the number of 250, will arrive here from all parts of the Dominion to attend the annual convention on June 7.

The visitors will come in two special trains, one bearing Ontario delegates and the other those from Quebec and the Maritime Provinces.

"Get acquainted" will be the order of the day as soon as the delegates reach the city, for that purpose Monday morning being left vacant. For the afternoon there will be a motor trip around Burrard Peninsula to Coquitlam, and the party will be the guests of New Westminster while passing through the Royal City.

Morning and afternoon sessions for business will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, the delegates being entertained, it is anticipated, by various public bodies, at luncheon each day. Among these, in all probability, the Board of Trade, the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, and at some early stage of the garherings Premier Oliver will extend a welcome on behalf of the province.

A trip up the Inlet to the North Arm will be one of the most delightful events of the convention.

On Wednesday evening the annual banquet, always one of the most important features of the convention, will be held in the ball room of Hotel Vancouver.

This function will end the proceedings as far as Vancouver is concerned, and on Thursday morning the party will take boat to Victoria and in the afternoon will be taken to the magnificent gardens of R. B. Butchart, at Tod Inlet. In the evening there will be a ball or reception and on Friday morning there will be a motor trip around Esquimalt and Gordon Head.

Meanwhile the ladies of the party will be well looked after and a series of pleasant gatherings for their delectation are being arranged. One of these will be a trip by boat to Wigwam Inn, on the North Arm, and some of the ladies' organizations have other entertainments under way.

There will be no formal function when the party returns from Victoria, as the members will go immediately to their trains, en route for home.

All these plans are tentative at present, but the above is a general outline of the suggested entertainments.

Business matters to come before the convention are under consideration by the local branch of the association, which has 162 members in British Columbia. There are 4,100 members in the Dominion.

BLISS CARMAN IS REGAINING HEALTH

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Toronto, April 28.—Bliss Carman, who has been recuperating in California, is reported to have improved in health and expects to start for his home in Connecticut early in May. He intends to take a few weeks' treatment at Battle Creek, Michigan, and on his way through Canada will pay a visit to Peter McArthur, of Ekfrid, Middlesex county, an old friend of the poet.

DESERT CARRANZA.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Agua Prieta, April 28.—Approximately four thousand Carranza troops at Parral and Jiminez, Chihuahua, revolted yesterday, according to information given out here today by General Calles, commander of the revolutionists in northwest Mexico.

Death of Little Child.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Manderson are mourning the loss of their infant son, James Francis, aged six months, which occurred on Monday. The funeral took place yesterday from the late home on Charlotte street, and the following floral tributes were sent: Circle, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Moody Wright; broken circle, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Tilley; basket, Marjorie, Gertrude and Harry Wandless; cut flowers, Mrs. E. Francis; cut flowers, father and mother.

Withdrawal S. S. Empress.

For the purpose of undergoing annual overhaul, the steamer Empress between St. John and Digby will be withdrawn from service from May 3rd to 8th, inclusive, resuming service from St. John Monday, May 10th.

Ten Cent Discount On Canadian Dollar

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York, April 28.—Sterling exchange was strong today, 60-day bills being quoted at 380¼, the same rate prevailing at noon for 60-day bills on banks. Commercial 60-day bills were quoted at 379¾, demand 384¾ and cables 385½. Canadian dollars were quoted at noon at a discount of 10 per cent.

ST. JOHN TO GET NEW STATION

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

St. John, April 28.—It is expected that daylight saving will be adopted by the common council this afternoon as each member has expressed approval of the plan for the period from the middle of May to the first of September.

It was said at city hall this morning that unofficial word had been received than an appropriation of $1,600,000 has been made by the C. N. R. for the preliminary work on the new railway station and yards at St. John. It is believed that arrangements will be made for the provision of eight new through tracks on the present level and that the street traffic would be raised on a viaduct over the rails. Work will be commenced this year.

E. GUIMONT AND ADAMS SENTENCED

homes only to violate the laws of that country. He had given every consideration, he stated, to the statements of the counsel, as he had no time to read the depositions in the case, and had paid special attention to the statements made by Mr. Hughes that both prisoners had served overseas. They were deserving of much at the hands of their country, he said, but it was a great pity that they should get into trouble of such a nature. He referred to Guimont's aged mother and stated that Mr. Hughes' statement concerning her had done much to lessen the sentence which the prisoners would receive. The statement made by Mr. Hughes concerning Adams' good record and the certificate of character of the mayor of Campbellton had also caused him much thought, as he could not understand why Adams, who was such a good citizen of Campbellton, should get into such a predicament.

In view of the facts in connection with the case as laid before him by the counsel for the defence he would impose sentences of two years in Dorchester upon the prisoners, the sentence to date from April 1st. Sheriff Hawthorne took the pair to Dorchester this morning.

GOOD PRICE FOR BEAVER.

New York, April 27.—New York's annual fur auction came to a close today with total sales estimated at $8,000,000. Beaver was the best seller of the day, and not only brought prices ranging from $8.50 to $50 each, but showed an advance of six per cent. over the corresponding prices at the spring sale here in 1919.

WOOL AUCTION SALES.

London, April 28.—At the wool auction sales yesterday 10,430 bales were offered. The session was featureless. Good wools were steady and inferiors easy. Withdrawals were frequent.

U. S. IN SECOND PLACE.

Antwerp, April 28.—The United States team defeated Sweden in the games for second honors in the Olympic Hockey tournament last night; Frank Synott, formerly of Chatham, N. B., played on the forward line of the American team. The score was 7 to 0.

RESTRICTIONS LIFTED.

New York, April 28.—The French Government has lifted all restrictions on telegraphic relations with Germany, whether occupied by military forces or not, it was announced last night by the Commercial Cable Company.

Justices of Peace Appointed.

Seventeen justices of the peace have been appointed by His Honor the Lieutenant Governor during the past week according to today's Royal Gazette, and are as follows: Worden Geldart, of Elgin; George Babcock, of Elgin; Clovis T. Richard, of Bathurst; Levite Morneault, of Plourde post office; Frederick W. Underhill, of Underhill; William E. McCoy, of Ripples; Stanley Bailey, of Lower Newcastle; Bruce Hay, of Chipman; Maxime Legere, of Bronson; Thomas E Simpson, John Brayley, Charles A. Donald, John Kelly, of St. John; J. Edgar Lockhart, of Hainesville; George H. Moore, of Port Elgin; B. A. Bourgeois, of Moncton, and James L. Neville, of Fredericton.

Directors Met Yesterday.

A meeting of the shareholders of the McFarlane-Neil Manufacturing Co. was held yesterday afternoon to elect officers and directors for the ensuing year. The old board was returned, as follows: President, A. E. Dunlap, of Pembroke, Ont.; vice-president, M.A. Tweeddale; directors, Mrs. Walter McFarlane and S. L. Morrison, of this city; W. L. Hunter, Thomas Pink and A. L. Eastpott, of Pembroke. The question of installing new machinery in the factory was also considered.

Chatham Courses Successful.

Miss Hazel McCain, supervisor of the Women's Institute branch of the Department of Agriculture, received word this morning from Miss Elizabeth Nutter, who, with Miss Annie Love and Miss Alice Landry, is conducting short courses in cookery, nursing and millinery at Chatham, that the classes at that town were well attended and that the work was going along very successfully.

Buried at Marysville.

The remains of the late George Joseph Grosmon, who died at Kineo, Mainee, on Thursday, April 22nd, arrived here on Monday afternoon for burial and were interred in the family plot at the Methodist burying ground, Marysville. Rev. A. D. McLeod, assisted by Rev. J. J. Pinkerton, conducted the funeral services. The deceased was a brother-in-law of Harry King, of this city.

MEAT CUTTERS TO REMAIN AT WORK

Threatened Trouble at Toronto Packing Houses Has Been Satisfactorily Settled.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Toronto, April 28.—There will be no strike of the meat cutters and butchers employed by the five packing houses in this city, as threatened. The difference between the men and the employers was finally settled last night when the packers' offer of an advance of six cents an hour made at a conference in the afternoon was accepted at a mass meeting of the men in the Arena. The men's demands had been an advance of 7½ cents an hour, and the packers best previous offer was 5 cents.

REORGANIZATION FORD MOTOR CO.

Lansing, Mich., April 28.—Formal notice of the proposed reorganization of the Ford Motor Company and other interests of its stockholders was filed yesterday with the Secretary of State. The papers indicated that the automobile and tractor business will be consolidated and reincorporated as a $100,000,000 Delaware corporation.

The corporate owners of the new company will permit it to manufacture air craft, internal combusion locomotives and railroad cars and continue the automobile, truck and tractor business now conducted separately.

The capital stock, it is understood, will be held by Henry Ford, R. B. Ford and Mrs. Henry Ford.

Want Vocational Classes.

Fletcher Peacock, director of Vocational Education, left this morning for Moncton, where he will address a meeting of the women's associations of that city on vocational work. Mr. Peacock stated this morning that the women were very enthusiastic over the classes and were anxious to have them in that city.

New England Lumber Market

Boston, April 27.—Now that the welcome spring of 1920 is here the building trade is preparing for its spring business, and the retail yards, anticipating the requirements, are ready for the rush. But the general reports from the yards are not altogether encouraging; they claim they are not receiving the usual business for this time of the year, especially from the individual housebuilding sources. Where factory or employees' house construction is being conducted for some of the large corporations, dealers fortunate enough to be located nearby are busy. There seems to be, however, various commodities required for construction that are difficult and sometimes almost impossible to obtain, due largely, no doubt, to the recent outlaw railroad strike. Some of the largest consuming centres are practically out of such materials as cement, lime, brick, etc., while there is a very limited quantity of nails with premium prices being paid by contractors to obtain them for work they have in process of construction. All of this has an unsatisfactory bearing on the building trade.

Transportation facilities for shipment of Eastern lumber are somewhat improved by the lifting of the embargoes by the N. Y., N. H. & H. railroad and the Boston & Maine railroad, but much confusion has been caused by the agents at loading stations not being advised, and some of them declined shipments as recently as Thursday of last week. The car situation in Canada continues to be acute with transportation companies claiming they have a large number of their cars in the United States in excess of the American cars they have on their lines. It is felt by some that the matter of cars is a sort of "passing the buck" and there may be some desire on the part of public opinion to encourage the sale of Canadian lumber within its own borders as lumbermen are shipping all their lumber to the States instead of supplying the home market.

Dimensions.

There is a change in the aspect of the market for dimension. Some of those who were seeking $70 base and were somewhat determined to hold to that price have no doubt felt the pressure of the situation; that there was a limited amount of dimension business offered, outside of an occasional frame house being built the only large orders are for factory buildings and tenements for employees. The general price for dimension has would be considered today as $65.

Random.

It has been contended by men who are well posted on Eastern lumber that the price of dimension would have to recede from $70 base or the price of random materially advance. Therefore, with dimension being practically universal at $65 base, there has been little or no change to note in the price of random. There has been some scantling offered at $53 and $54, $53 in many cases being for short lengths or unsized stock. With dimension orders there is no doubt but what $55 is obtained. 2x6 and 2x7, $54 to $55, $55 being the ruling price for desirable stock, especially where there is some assurance that same would be shipped is included in the sale. On the 2x8, the selling range would be $56 to $58. Of 2x10 the business that has come to the writer's attention has been limited, with $59 being the general price for straight random cars. There is little or no business reported in 2x12.

Boards.

The board situation seems to lead the procession in the Eastern market and for dry stock and prompt shipment the top prices are often paid. Dealers consenting to take stock that is not thoroughly dry, for random spruce covering boards, 5 inches and no 8 feet and longer. Pts $55 is still the general price. There may be an occasional opportunity to pick up some at less, but investigation will find that their widths may run narrow, and their lengths may be short.

For matched spruce boards clipped, one large manufacturer is offering for stock widths 1x6 and 7 at $64, while for promiscuous lengths 8 to 16 feet, the price is $62. Some 1x4 and up, 12 feet, have been offered at $59. Others' ideas of prices have a range up to $65.

Clipped hemlock boards are selling at $55. No one seems inclined to quote less price. Random hemlock boards are offered from $49 to $52

Laths.

This seems to be an item about which the general impression has been that the prices must come down, but due to the inability of the manufacturers of substitutes for laths and plaster to get their material forward, laths for the present are holding out at $15 for 1½ inches and $16 for 1⅝ inches. These figures are no doubt that the volume of business is being done at although there may be some occasional sales at a little higher or lower than these figures. It is conceded by many in the trade that a few weeks from now may see lower lath prices, which seems reasonable when their relative price is compared with long lumber.

Furring.

For 2-inch furring the universal price is $55.

Shingles.

The demand for shingles this week is reported more active with shipment the prevailing part of the transaction. Transit lists of red cedars are receiving favorable attention and may have their effect on the present prices of white cedars. In red cedars, excellent makes of extra clears are quoted at $9.22, but good makes may be bought for $8.32 with serviceable brands for less.

Clapboards.

Eastern spruce clapboards have not been offered by any who make a specialty of handling this class of stock but there will probably be some offered within the next few weeks. While clapboards would be expected to command a relative value with other lumber products, the limited amount of house-building together with the tendency of the architecture of what houses are being built to be of shingle walls and asphalt shingle roofs, there is anticipated to be no great demand for clapboards. Also as paint and labor is so high, their use will be largely confined to repair and alteration work.

The prices for lumber immediately following are those at which retailers can buy of the wholesale trade. Spruce prices refer to lumber, 8 to 20 feet in length. For every two feet or fraction of 2 feet over 20 feet $1 is added when the sale is of dimension lumber.

Public Utilities Commission Without a Chairman and the Telephone Co. Case is Set Over

The Application to Increase Rates Set Over to May 26th—Another Petition From St. Stephen Light and Power Co. to Increase Rates Presented.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

St. John, N. B., April 28.—The New Brunswick Public Utilities Commission is still without a chairman, and as a result the cases of the New Brunswick Telephone Company and the York and Carleton Telephone Company's applications for increase in rates were set over to May 26 at this afternoon's meeting.

A petition was presented by representatives of the St. Stephen Electric Light and Power Company for permission to increase their rates. Commissioners Michaud and Connell, and the secretary, Fred Robinson, were present, but no business was transacted beyond the adajournment.

In the county court this morning before Judge Jonah, John E. Kelly, charged with having in his possession oats which he knew to be stolen, was tried under the Speedy Trials Act and acquitted. Kelly denied knowledge of the theft and his evidence was corroborated by two lads, named Morris, who previously had pleaded guilty to stealing the oats.

Fire still was smouldering this morning in the shell of the Dearborn building which was practically destroyed by fire last night, and the firemen still are on guard. The loss will be heavy, as the insurance on the building was only $13,000, and on the Dearborn & Co. stock $18,000. The several tenants in the building suffered their business losses through the destruction of business papers and records.

BILL TO PROVIDE FAIR RENTS IN N. S.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Halifax, N. S., April 26.—Sub-section 3 of Section 4 of the Act of 1919, to provide fair rents for dwelling houses and to restrict the eviction of tenants as amended, now reads as follows:

"No judgment or order for the recovery of possession of a dwelling house or the ejectment of a tenant therefrom shall be made and no tenant shall be evicted therefrom or dispossessed or put out of possession thereof, so long as the tenant continues to pay rent at a fair and reasonable rate, and performs the other conditions of the tenancy, except on the ground of conduct which is a nuisance or an annoyance to adjoining or neighboring occupiers, or that the premises are reasonably required by the landlord for the occupation of himself or some person in his employ or in the employ of some tenant from him or on some other ground, whether or not of the kind hereinbefore mentioned, which may be deemed satisfactory by the court or the judge making such judgment or order."

The law applies specifically to the city of Halifax and may be made operative in any city or incorporated town in the province upon application. It does not apply in the municipalities of the province.

DRAINAGE SYSTEM TO BE IMPROVED

District Engineer of C. P. R. Confers with Special Committee of City Council.

The special committee of the City Council, appointed to consider the matter of surface drainage at the rear of the city, together with City Engineer McDowell, conferred yesterday afternoon with District Engineer C. C. Kirby, of the C. P. R., on the matter of taking care of the surplus water resulting from the obstruction of the back drain, which causes a flood each Spring in the C. P. R. yards and cellars of houses in the neighborhood on York Street.

The situation was gone over and the District Engineer stated that he would recommend that a larger conduit be put in in place of the present one. He stated that levels would be taken and other necessary improvements made.

The siding at the C. P. R. station which projects into York Street, will be shortened in order that the sidewalks may be improved and the grounds cleared up

Chief Engineer Brown, of the C. N. R., who was expected to arrive in the city today, will not be here until Thursday, it was stated this morning. Similar matters will be talked over with him by the committee and it is understood that he and C. P. R. Engineer Kirby will confer over the general railway situation in this city.

Miss Adelaide Gillis, R. N., of Boston, is the guest of her sister, Miss Gillis, Charlotte street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McCurdy returned home yesterday after spending a few days at St. Andrews.

Why Do People Take Monkey Glands?

Rejuvenation, both physically and mental, can be acquired much easier and more pleasantly than by taking or eating the glands from monkeys. The French have invented a Medicine, in tablet form, that does away with all other means of rejuvenation. These Tablets are now universally sold throughout Canada, and are known as VITAL Tablets. They supply the necessary Vigor and Youth. There is no need to import chimpanzees from Africa, to take their glands to inject into people. Why go to all this trouble and expense, when VITAL Tablets can now be procured right in your own town, from your drug store? VITAL Tablets taken for a short period, disease of every description, old age with all its aches and pains, will be a thing of the past. Young men and women with their pale faces, thin blood, impure blood, blotches on the skin, run down, worn out, tired people can be placed in a state of good health, with pure blood, strong nerves, a strong stomach, a healthy body, full of youth and vigor. Every Tablet of this new medicine contains the elements to make you feel as nature intended to make you feel, no matter what your trouble is, go to your druggist and procure a box of VITAL Tablets. If they do not do you good, go back and get your money. Get on your feet, away with that pale, worn out look on the face. VITAL will bring back the rose of youth. Price fifty cents per box at all drug stores.

Sharkey and Friedman In 12-Round Draw at Boston

New Yorker Who Got Decision Over Jimmy Wilde Ran Into Real Fighter Last Night—Jack (Twin) Sullivan Still Going Strong.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Boston, April 28.—Jack Sharkey, of New York, and Abe Friedman, of this city, fought a 12 round draw here last night.

Jack Twin Still Good.

Jack (Twin) Sullivan, the Camridge heavyweight, may be classed as a veteran, but he showed in his battle with Karl Wicks, National amateur champion at the Union Square A. C., Somerville, last night, that he has not lost any of his cleverness or cunning. He gave Wicks such a whaling that the bout was stopped in the fifth round to save the ex-amateur from a knockout.

Hundreds of the old-time sports were present and they were surprised to see Sullivan show such good form. He proved his contention that he can defeat most of the heavyweights of today.

Where Is Adioo Guy, 2.00 3-4, To Be Raced This Season?

Sensational Facer is Entered on Bay State and Ohio Circuits

LOTS OF FAST ONES THERE, TOO

A Three Year Old Filly Has Already Taken A Record of 2.19 1-4.

Where Adioo Guy, 2.00¾, will race this season is a question which is exciting horsemen who plan campaigning on the half-mile track circuits both in the East and Middle West.

Will Hodson, who now has the clever chestnut pacer which started his sensational racing season in 1919 in Fredericton, has entered him in the free-for-alls at the early meetings both on the Bay State and the Ohio circuits, and there is a lot of speculation as to where he will race before the Orange County circuit in New York, with its $2,000 purses, opens in August.

Grace Direct, 2.00½; Adioo Guy, 2.00¾; Hal Mahone, 2.01½; O.U.C., 2.00¼; Verlie Patchen, 2.02⅜; Gladys R., 2.02¾; South Bend Girl, 2.02¾, and Roy Grattan, 2.03¼, are named in the fast pace at Canton, O., June 14-18.

Direct C. Burnett, 2.01¼; Directum J., 2.01¼; Lizzie March, 2.03¼; Ben Earl, 2.00½; Adioo Guy, 2.00¾, and Minor Hal, 2.04¼, are a few of the topliners entered in the $1,500 free-for-all at the Windsor meeting.

EARLY SPEED.

Adelaide Guy, a 3-Year-Old Filly, Took Breeder's Record of 2.19¼ Last Week.

[Boston Herald.]

What is believed to be a world record of its kind was made at Pinehurst, N. C., last Wednesday, when Trainer Fred Hyde gave the 3-year-old filly, Adelaide Guy, a breeder's record of 2.19¼. Young trotters of that age probably have worked that fast at this time of the year, but Hyde believes none ever was given a mark as fast as early as April 21, especially over a half-mile track.

In a letter to John W. Linnehan, of South Weymouth, owner of the precious youngster, Hyde says Adelaide Guy trotted the last half of her record mile in 1.07, while the final quarter was negotiated in 32 seconds, a 2.08 gait. Linnehan had planned to ship the filly home from Pinehurst, but on account of poor transportation facilities she will go to Cleveland next week with the other members of the Hyde stable, then will be shipped here in time to qualify for the junior league stake, in which she is entered.

Adelaide Guy is an own sister to David Guy, 2.05¼, one of the best 3-year-old trotters on the Grand Circuit two seasons ago, and which won the Matron stake that year. She is a daughter of Guy Axworthy, 2.08¾, sire of the champion trotting stallion, Lee Axworthy, 1.58¼.

New Trotter in Fox Stable

If Frank Fox, the veteran trainer who for many years has made his headquarters at Combination Park, Medford, Mass., makes his proposed campaign over the Maritime & Maine Circuit this year it is likely that Jimmie Forbes, 2.20¼, will be one of his trotters.

Fred Bellowes, the well known Boston horseman, sold the Forbes trotter a few days ago to Caleb Spencer, another well known New England horseman, who at once put him in the Fox stable and he is now occupying one of the stalls at the Hub's parlor twice-around. Whether the Fox string will come down East depends naturally upon suitable classes being arranged.

Canada's Marathon Team for The Olympic Race at Antwerp

Final Trial Will Take Place at Hamilton on July 19—George Goulding Seeking Reinstatement to Participate in the Olympic Walking Events Once Again.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Toronto, April 28.—Ontario's Olympic Marathon race will be run at St. Catharines on May 24. The distance will be 15 miles.

The final trial, in which runners from all parts of Canada will compete, will be run at Hamilton on the 19th of July.

The provincial Olympic boxing trials will be held in Toronto about July 1, while the final trials will also be decided here, the date being July 17th. The provincial track and field trials are carded for the Queen City on or about the second Saturday in July.

George Goulding, champion walker of the world, has applied to the national registration committee for reinstatement. Goulding is one of the fastest walkers ever developed, and he would undoubtedly win many points for Canada were he permitted to compete in the Olympic games. At Stockholm in 1912 he beat the best opponents in the world and was hailed as champion.

In case the registration committee declines to reinstate Goulding it is likely that "Jake" Freeman will represent Canada at the Olympiad.

SWEDEN WILL WIN OLYMPIC ICE EVENTS

Swedish Entrant Won Figure Skating Contest for Men Last Night.

Antwerp, April 28.—Grafstrom, of Sweden, won first place in the men's Olympic figure skating contest last night. Krogh, of Norway, was second; Strixrud, of Norway, third; Salchew, of Sweden, fourth, and N. W. Niles, of Boston, Mass., fifth.

Sweden is sure of winning the ice events on points, which now stands as follows:

Sweden 8, Norway 5, Finland and Canada 3 each, England 1 and the United States 1.

Three hockey points are yet to be considered, though it is considered certain that two of them will go to the United States.

DISCUSS REVISION OF RULES OF GOLF

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Chicago, April 28.—Wilbur H. Brooks, of Cleveland, president of the Western Golf Association, and James E. Nugent, of Kansas City, president of the Trans-Mississippi Golf Association, will attend a conference in New York on Friday between representatives of various associations and the special U. S. Golf Association committee selected to go abroad to discuss revision of the rules of golf with a committee of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland.

A number of state associations in the west which were asked to send representatives have requested Mr. Brooks to act for them. The western men, according to C. W. Higgins, assistant secretary of the Western Golf Association, will ask that the stymie be abolished and that the penalty for a lost ball be made the same as for a ball out of bounds. They also will urge that the rules be rewritten in a simpler manner.

HARVARD'S TEAM WAS SELECTED

Quincy, Mass., April 28.—Five Harvard track and field athletes were selected yesterday to compete in the University of Pennsylvania relay carnival on Friday and Saturday. Captain Dennis O'Connell, Bayard Wharton, Wm. H. Goodwin and Edward Gourdin will run in the medley and one mile relay races and Gourdin and Robert Harwood will compete in the field events.

New Haven, Conn., April 28.—Eddie Eagan, of Denver, former middleweight boxing champion of the A.E.F., was last night re-elected captain of the Yale boxing team for next season.

Local Baseball League's Main Trouble Seems to be Danger of Too Many Teams

Seven Clubs Are Said to Be Ready to Enter Teams, Including Devon, Marysville and Nashwaaksis—The Old Imperials Are to Be Resuscitated.

Representatives of seven different baseball teams have been asked to meet at the Y.M.C.A. building on York street this evening to consider the organization of a city baseball league. Four of the teams are from this city, while the other three are from Devon, Nashwaaksis and Marysville.

As far as is yet known, only four of the teams have organized themselves. These are the Nashwaaksis, Devon, Marysville and John Palmer Co. teams and the other three are the Imperials, Palace Alleys and Y.M.C.A. teams.

The Marysville team has played together for several years, and is a strong one, while the Palace Alleys team includes in its prospective line-up many of the players in last year's city league. The Imperials, Nashwaaksis and Devon and the John Palmer Co. are known to have some good material in the field while the probable Y.M.C.A. team is as yet a puzzle to members of the "Y."

The meeting this evening will consider the number of teams advisable to enter into the league. There seems to be some difference of opinion over this question, but true lovers of baseball will admit that it would be a mistake to have an unwieldly league with so many teams that the playing strength of some might be reduced.

The matter of grounds will also be considered at the meeting. The only grounds in sight at the present time are those used last year by the players at the Trotting Park. It is understood that the Y.M.C.A. directors decided some time ago to petition the City Council to proceed with the work on the city playground at Queen's Park, but the season is advanced too far now to have it fixed up properly for the coming baseball season.—W. R. H.

Eastern League Opening Today.

New Haven, Conn., April 28.—The Eastern Baseball League opens its fifth season today with seven of last year's teams in the circuit and Albany replacing Providence as the eighth contender.

Joe Birmingham, formerly with the Cleveland Americans, again is manager of the Pittsfield Club, which he piloted to the pennant last season.

New managers who will be seen this year include "Big Ed" Walsh, former Chicago American star, now at the head of the Bridgeport team, and Chief Bender, who is pilot of the New Haven club.

Today's schedule follows: Springfield at Hartford; Waterbury at Bridgeport; Pittsfield at Worcester, and New Haven at Albany.

Toronto, April 28.—Jack Forbes, who claims the lightweight wrestling championship of Canada, last night scored two straight falls in a match with a "masked demon" who proved to be a Toronto boy named Goldie, and whose identity had been kept secret.

SUGGEST EMBARGO ON FREIGHT CARS

Retaliatory Measures in the Shipment Raw Materials Across Boundary.

Montreal, April 27.—A railway authority here discussing Senator Underwood's advocacy of an embargo by the United States on raw material going into Canada because of the newsprint shortage, today stated that the remedy will be found in a supply of cars. This authority pointed out that the United States roads still owe Canada a net balance of twenty-one thousand cars. Thousands of cords of pulpwood are usually lying ready for shipment along the right of way of the Canadian railways, it was announced by this authority.

ter, to gallop, and in an instant the whole vast array was hurtling onward, line after line, the air full of the thunder of their cries, the ground shaking with the beat of their hoofs, the valley choked with the rushing torrent of steel, topped by the waving plumes, the slanting spears and the fluttering banderoles. On they swept over the level and up the slope, ere they met the blinding storm of the English arrows. Down went the whole ranks in a whirl of mad confusion, horses plunging and kicking, bewildered men falling, rising, staggering on or back, while ever new lines of horsemen came spurring through the gaps and urged their chargers up the fatal slope. All around him Alleyne could hear the stern, short orders of the master-bowmen, while the air was filled with the keen twanging of the strings and the swish and patter of the shafts. Right across the foot of the hill there had sprung up a long wall of struggling horses and stricken men, which ever grew and heightened as fresh squadrons poured on the attack. One young knight on a gray jennet leaped over his fallen comrades and galloped swiftly up the hill, shrieking loudly upon Saint James, ere he fell within a spear-length of the English line, with his feathers of arrows thrusting out from every crevice and joint of his armor. So for five long minutes the gallant horsemen of Spain and France strove ever and again to force a passage, until the wailing note of a bugle called them back, and they rode slowly out of bow-shot, leaving their best and their bravest in the ghostly, blood-mottled heap behind them.

But there was little rest for the victors. Whilst the kights had charged them in front the slingers had crept round upon either flank and had gained a footing upon the cliffs and behind the outlying rocks. A storm of stones broke suddenly upon the defenders, who, drawn up in lines upon the exposed summit, offered a fair mark to their hidden foes. Johnston, the old archer, was struck upon the temple and fell dead without a groan, while fifteen of his bowmen and six of the men-at-arms were struck down at the same moment. The others lay on their faces to avoid the deadly hail, while at each side of the plateau a fringe of bowmen exchanged shots with the slingers and crossbowmen among the rocks, aiming mainly at those who had swarmed up the cliffs, and bursting into laughter and cheers when a well-aimed shaft brought one of their opponents toppling down from his lofty perch.

"I think Nigel,' said Sir Oliver, striding across to the little knight, "that we should all acquit ourselves better had we our none-meat, for the sun is high in the heaven."

"By Saint Paul!" quoth Sir Nigel, plucking the patch from his eye, "I think that I am now clear of my vow, for this Spanish knight was a person from whom much honor might be won. Indeed, he was a very worthy gentleman, of good courage, and great hardiness, aand it grieves me that he should have come by such a hurt. As to what you say of food, Oliver, it is not to be thought of, for we have nothing with us upon the hill."

"Nigel!" cried Sir Simon Burley, hurrying up with consternation upon his face, "Aylward tells me that there are not ten-score arrows left in all their sheaves. See! they are springing from their horses, and cutting their sollerets that they may rush upon us. Might we not even now make a retreat "

"My soul will retreat from my body first!" cried the little knight. "Here I am, and here I bide, while God gives me strength to lift a sword."

"And so say!' shouted Sir Oliver, throwing his mace high into the air and catching it again by the handle.

"To your arms, men!" roared Sir Nigel. "Shoot while you may, and then out sword, and let us live or die together!"

CHAPTER XXVII.

How the White Company Came to Be Disbanded.

Then uprose from the hill in the rugged Calabrian valley a sound such as had not been heard in those parts before, nor was again, until the streams which rippled among the rocks had been frozen by over four hundred winters and thawed by as many returning springs. Deep and full and strong it thundered down the ravine, the fierce battle-call of a warrior race, the last stern welcome to whoso should join with them in that world-old game where the stake is death. Thrice it swelled forth and thrice it sank away, echoing and re-reverberating amidst the crags. Then, with set faces, the Company rose up among the storm of stones, and looked down upon the thousands who sped swiftly up the slope against them. Horse and spear had been set aside, but on foot, with sword and battle, axe, their broad shiledrs slung in front of them, the chivalry of Spain rushed to the attack.

And now arose a struggle so fell, so long, so evenly sustained, that even now the memory of it is handed down amongst the Calabrian mountaineers, and the ill-omened knoll is still pointed out by fathers to their children as the "Altura des los Inglezos," where the men from across the eas fought the great fight with the knights of the south. The last arrow was quickly shot, nor could the slingers hurl their stones, so close were friend and foe. From side to side stretched the thin line of the English, highly armed and quick-footed, while against it stormed and raged the pressing throng of fiery Spaniards and of gallant Bretons. The clink of crossing sword-blades, the dull thudding o fheavy blows, the panting and gasping of weary and wounded men, all rose together in a wild, long-drawn note, which swelled upwards to the ears of the wondering peasants who looked down from the edges of the cliffs upon the swaying turmoil of the battle beneath them. Back and forward reeled the leopard banner, now borne up the slope by the rush and weight of the onslaught, now pushing donwards again as Sir Nigel Burley, and Black Simon, with their veteran men-at-arms, flung themselves [illegible] Alleyne, at his lord's right hand, found himself swept hither and thither in the desperate struggle, exchanging savage thrusts one instant with a Spanish cavalier, and the next torn away by the whirl of men and dashed up against some new antagonist. To the right Sir Oliver, Aylward, Hordle John, aand the bowmen of the Company fought furiously against the monkish Knights of Santiago, who were led up the hill by their prior—a great, deep-chested man, who wore a brown monastic habit over his suit of mail. Three archers he slew in three giant strokes, but Sir Oliver flung his arms round him, and the two, staggering and straining, reeled backwards and fell, locked in each other's grasp, over the edge of the steep cliff which flanked the hill. In vain his knights stormed and raved against the thin line which barred their path; the sword of Aylward and the great axe of John gleamed in the forefront of the battle and huge jagged pieces of rock, hurled by the strong arms of the bowmen, crashed and hurtled amid their ranks. Slowly they gave back down the hill, the archers still hanging upon their skirts, with a long litter of writhing and twisted figures to mark the course which they had taken. At the same instant the Welshmen upon the left, led on by the Scotch earl, had charged out from among the rocks which sheltered them, and by the fury of their outfall had driven the Spaniards in front of them in headlong flight down the hill. In the centre only things seemed to be going ill with the defenders. Black Simon was down—dying, as he would wish to have died, like a grim old wolf in its lair with a ring of his slain around him.

An Arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Jewett are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a baby girl this morning at their home, 839 Charlotte street.

Boston Train Late.

The Boston train due here around 10 o'clock last night did not reach here until 1 o'clock this morning. The delay was caused by a derailed freight train at Harvey Station.

Estimates on White Way.

Capt. E. L. Burns, M. C., works officer of the Canadian Engineers, is in the city today getting estimates on the cost of having the "white way" on the military property ready for operation again.

Kingarth Property Changes Hands.

Mrs. Barry Kitchen, daughter of the late Mrs. John McKeen, has sold the Kingarth Hotel property, situated about thirteen miles above the city, to Ralph Kilburn, of Kingarth. The price paid was in the vicinity of $2,000.

Moving to This City.

George McEwan, of North Devon, has disposed of his house there to James Carten of Lower Hainesville, the price being in the vicinity of $1,500. Mr. Carten and family will move into the house about the first of May and Mr. and Mrs. McEwan will move to this city.

Married Last Evening.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the George street United Baptist parsonage last evening when Rev. Z. L. Fash united in marriage Miss Nellie Alberta Smith, of Gagetown, and Albert Ernest Boone, of French Lake. The young couple, who were unattended, will reside at French Lake, Sunbury county.

To Undergo Operation.

Hon. B. Frank Smith, M. L. A. for Carleton, who has been ill at the Barker House since some days before the Legislature closed, will probably undergo an operation at the Victoria Hospital this evening or tomorrow morning. He has been suffering from appendicitis and complications. Mrs. Smith and his brother, Harry Smith, of St. John, have been here for several days.

Death at Hardwood Ridge.

The death occurred recently at Hardwood Ridge, Sunbury county, of Mrs. Wesley Miller, aged 26 years, after a lingering illness. Deceased was formerly Miss Mary Corey, and was loved by all who knew her. She leaves to mourn besides her husband, two daughters, her mother, four sisters and seven brothers. The funeral took place at Hardwood Ridge and many floral tributes were sent by sympathetic friends.

Honored by Friends.

A farewell luncheon was tendered at the Union Club at noon yesterday by friends of Mrs. H. C. Grout in her honor prior to her departure for Toronto, where she will join her husband who has been made general superintendent for the C.P.R. in that district. Mrs. Grout was made the recipient of a handsome silver basket filled with roses. The presentation was made by Mrs. H. A. McKeown, who presided and who, on behalf of the gathering, extended heartiest wishes for her welfare and happiness in the Queen City.—St. John Telegraph.

Death at French Lake.

The death ocurred at French Lake, Sunbury County, this morning of Mrs. Martha Maria McLaughlan, widow of the late Michael McLaughlan, aged 78 years. Deceased had been ill for some time and is survived by two sons, Ernest, of French Lake, and William, of Boston, and three daughters, Mrs. Annie Stennick, of French Lake; Mrs. Albert Waltz, of Melrose, Mass., and Mrs. Martin Karserjian, of Everett, Mass. The remains will be taken to Fredericton Junction and service will be conducted in the Baptist Church by Rev. R. L. Gregg at 1.30 tomorrow afternoon and interment will be made at the Junction.

Delegation Going to Ottawa.

Mayor Reid, representing the Board of Trade, Ald. T. S. Wilkinson, as Deputy Mayor and representing the City Council, and Charles D. Richards, representing the York Commercial Club, will go to Ottawa next week to take up with the Militia Council the location of a unit of the permanent military force in Fredericton again. Announcement to that effect was made following a conference held by representatives of the three bodies last night, when the situation was discussed and the personnel of the delegation arranged. Col. McLeod, M.P., will be communicated with and asked to arrange for a hearing the latter part of next week and, if plans are arranged, the party will leave here next Wednesday evening.

GENERAL ADVANCE IN MILLMEN'S PAY HERE THIS YEAR

New Schedule Is Said to Call for Average Increase of About 20 Per Cent.

MILLS WILL START SAWING NEXT WEEK

New 500 Horse Power Engine is Being Installed at Victoria Mills.

A general advance in wages amounting to about 20 per cent. over the schedule of last year will go into effect at the local lumber mills when the sawing season commences next week, it was learned today.

Early next week it is believed that the first logs will be manufactured at the mills located on the St. John river here and there is every indication that all the mills will have a complete season's cut to be manufactured.

May 1st was the date set for starting operations at the Victoria Mills, the local plant of the Fraser Companies, Ltd., but a new 500 horse power engine is being installed there and, as it has not been tested, there is some uncertainty as to when it will be ready. W. D. Gunter's mill and the York & Sunbury Milling Company's plant at Devon will be ready to start probably some time next week, although the dates have not yet been definitely named.

While the drives on many of the streams in this vicinity have not been coming on very rapidly the past few days, it is expected conditions for driving will soon be improved and the logs brought out. Stream driving in every district is now under way.

City Officials Will Be Appointed Friday

City officials will be appointed and salaries for the ensuing year fixed at a special meeting of the City Council which will be held on Friday night at City Hall.

Mayor Reid ordered the notices for the meeting sent out today. It is expected that the matter of salaries will take up a good deal of the time of the meeting, although but so far few demands for advances have been received at City Hall.

HOUSE AT DOUGLAS BURNED YESTERDAY

Alfred Mills' House Burned to Ground—Loss Over $1,500 with Small Insurance.

Just about noon yesterday W. P. Smith, who drives the mail to Douglas, noticed flames issuing from the home of Alfred Mills at Nashwaaksis and he at once notified the inmates of the house, who were at their midday meal, and ignorant of the danger they were in. Mr. Mills was away at the time the fire caught.

The house was situated about 200 yards from the Douglas boom building and the men from there as well as others from the neighborhood hastened to the scene of the fire. They found their efforts to save the house unavailing so they turned their attention to saving the contents of the house and preventing the fire from spreading to the barn and this they succeeded in doing.

The loss is estimated at about $1,500 with about $900 insurance.

K. OF C. BALL.

The Fredericton Council, Knights of Columbus, Celebrate First Anniversary of Organization.

Fredericton Council, No. 1942, Knights of Columbus, celebrated its first anniversary last evening when about 200 invited guests partook of their hospitality at the Old Gaiety and enjoyed a dance and supper.

About 8.30 o'clock the guests began to arrive and they were received by Mrs. W. E. Farrell and Mrs. D. J. Shea, and from that until about 2 o'clock dancing continued, a programme of fifteen dances, including several square dances, and three extras, being carried out. The music was furnished by Tennant's Orchestra while Walter McGinn played the extras.

About 11.30 o'clock supper was started in the rooms upstairs and left no doubt that the Knights know how to put on a supper.

A committee composed of Gregory T. Feeney, Walter McGinn and Jack Lawlor were in charge of the arrangements and much credit is due them for the success of the function.

Eyes of Youth.

Clara Kimball Young in Max Marcin and Charles Guernon's famous play, "Eyes of Youth," which played for two seasons at the Maxine Elliott Theatre, New York, will be presented at the Gaiety Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, May 3rd and 4th.

Rev. E. J. Conway, of Chipman, who was the guest yesterday of Rev. M. J. Murphy, at St. Anthony's rectory, Devon, returned to Chipman today.

THE PROHIBITION FORCES WILL MEET HERE DURING MAY

Annual Convention of the N. B. Temperance Alliance Has Been Called.

PLANS FOR FUTURE WILL BE DISCUSSED

Report on Relations With the Government and Legislature To Be Given, Too.

The prohibition forces will formally inaugurate their provincial referendum campaign in New Brunswick at the annual convention of the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance, which will be held in Fredericton the second week in May.

The expectation is that the plebescite on the provincial prohibition law will take place some time in the month of June, and it is expected that the "drys" will carry on an intensive campaign following the convention until the voting takes place.

It was said this morning that at the convention here there would be a report from the executive on the work that has been done since the last annual convention in this city, and it is expected that their relations with the Provincial Government and the Legislature will be set forth in an illuminating manner. Since the last annual convention the Alliance has failed to secure the suggested amendments to the provincial prohibition law in regard to the sale of extracts which they asked the Government to make, and they also failed to secure passage of the "bone dry" resolution in the Legislature.

"Our plans for the future will probably form the chief subject for discussion," declared an officer of the Alliance this morning.

Dance Tomorrow Night.

Reserve tomorrow night for the dance at the G. W. V. A. rooms, if you want to have a real good time. The chaperones will be Mrs. McLeod and Mrs. Slipp and an efficient committee will be in charge to say nothing of the good music promised by the City Orchestra.

E. GUIMONT AND H. ADAMS ARE SENT TO PENITENTIARY

North Shore Men Had Pleaded Guilty to Uttering a Forged Check for $250.

SUSPENDED SENTENCE PLEA DID NOT AVAIL

Sentences in Dorchester to Date from April 1st, Says Judge Wilson.

Herbert Adams, of Campbellton, and Eugene Guimont, of Metapedia, were sentenced by Judge Wilson yesterday afternoon to two years' imprisonment in the Maritime penitentiary at Dorchester, N. B., having pleaded guilty in the charge of uttering a check for $250, knowing it to be forged, upon the Fredericton branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

In pronouncing the sentence upon the prisoners Judge Wilson stated that the maximum penalty for the offence which the prisoners had committed was 14 years' imprisonment. He could not understand why it was, he stated, that men would risk their lives for their country and then return to their

Germany Cheered And German Flags Flown, It Is Said

Police and Strikers in Heavy Fighting About Polish City

9,641 PERSONS SHOT BY SOVIET

Executions for Participation in Counter-Revolutionary Crimes.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Warsaw, April 29.—A state of siege has been declared in Posen and that region as a result of the fighting between police and strikers. Unconfirmed report says a number of persons have been killed or wounded.

The despatch says that the crowds cheered Germany and that German flags were flown.

THE EXECUTION OF SOVIET REVOLTERS

Berlin, April 29.—The Moscow Izvestia, a copy of which has been received here, prints the last installment of the report of the extraordinary commission appointed for combatting the counter-revolution during 1918 and 1919. In this period the commission arrested 128,000 persons, of whom 21,032 were accused of counter-revolutionary crimes, 19,673 of offences committed as officials, 8,367 of speculation and 9,514 of expressing anti-governmental opinions. The persons shot aggregated 9,641.

The figures refer only to the work of the Moscow and Petrograd commissions. No account is given of the arrests and executions by subordinate district commisisons which existed in every province under soviet control.

WORLD WALKING ON A TIGHT ROPE

American Financier Says Period of Depression Can Only Be Averted by Economy

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Toronto, April 29.—John Moody, president of Moody's Investment Service of New York, addressing the Toronto Board of Trade yesterday on "world finance," pictured the world as at present walking on a tight rope. In spite of this dangerous position, however, he was optimistic, and expressed the opinion that even if a panic came there would not be a long period of depression. Prosperity would soon return, he predicted, because the whole world was in need of goods.

A panic could be averted, Mr. Moody warned his audience, only by the practice of strict economy, increasing production of necessities, and decreasing production of luxuries.

Montreal, April 29. — Arthur McLean, 50 years of age, employed as a sweeper by the Canadian Explosives Company, Ltd., in the cartridge manufacturing plant at Beloil, Que., was killed Tuesday night when several large cases of cartridges exploded near him. Little damage was done to the plant.

Declares Russia Ready for Trade

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Copenhagen, April 29.—The Russian soviet commissary, M. Nogin, in the course of an interview with the Social Demokraten, said that the Russian trade commission had arrived at Copenhagen to open negotiations with Great Britain and Denmark.

"But," he added, "gradually so many countries approached us that we are carrying on negotiations for the delivery of commodities in greater quantities than every offered by any other country in the world. We are endeavoring to fix up large contracts with Sweden, Norway, the United States, Spain and Italy."

Mr. Nogin said that a clearing house had been started for this business, assisted by international finance and direct co-operation of the Russian Ministry of Commerce.

RUSSIAN SHIPS SEIZED AT GENOA

Police Interfered and Arrested Those Who Had Boarded the Vessels.

[Special Havas despatch by Leased Wire]

Paris, April 29.—Two merchant vessels, flying the Russian anti-Bolshevik flag, which were anchored in the harbor of Genoa, were seized Tuesday by members of the federation of port workers, who announced they took over the vessels for the purpose of returning them to the Russian soviet government. The police interfered and arrested those who had boarded the vessels.

NEW JERSEY VOTE FAVORS GEN. WOOD

Ohio Electors Strong for Harding, While Idaho Gives Johnson a Majority.

New York, April 29.—Returns late last night from the various state primaries afforded little change from earlier forecasts.

In New Jersey, Major General Leonard Wood had evidently scored a victory over Senator Hiram Johnson, of California, as Republican presidential favorite. With but eighty odd districts to hear from, and these favoring Wood in the complete returns, the soldier had about 600 of a lead last night.

In Ohio, Gen. Wood has not fared so well. Last night Senator W. G. Harding, of that State, was leading Wood by upwards of 15,000 votes. Only 190 precincts out of a total of 5,882 in the state were missing.

In Idaho, where the Republican state convention was held yesterday to name delegates to the national convention, Senator Borah A. Johnson was chosen, with two Wood partizans and one non-committal delegate, as delegates-at-large.

APPROVE BILL FOR A GREATER BERLIN

New German Capital Would Have a Population of 3,800,000 Under Plan.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Berlin, April 29.—The Diet has approved a bill creating a new greater Berlin, which in point of area, 622 square kilometres, ranks with New York. The newly incorporated communities will give the capital a population of 3,800,000, placing it fourth on the list of the world capitals.

The extreme southeastern city limits will be a distance of 25 kilometres from the former imperial palace, which is the hub of the city.

BILINGUAL ISSUE IN QUEBEC COURT

Frenchwoman Gets Into Trouble Because She Could Not Understand Conductor.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, April 29.—Another case involving bilingual issues was heard before the police court by Judge Cusson yesterday, when Dame Amalie Vincent, of Montreal, was sentenced to half a day's imprisonment for travelling firstclass on the Grand Trunk Railway with a second class ticket and refusing to pay the difference or go into the second class compartment.

Madame Vincent could not speak English and the conductor could not speak French and she claimed that she did not understand what the conductor wanted. Judge Cusson said that while he coudl not make it a crime of the fact that the conductor spoke only one language it was very unfortunate that such incidents should arise because two persons living in the same country could not understand one another. He concluded by delaring that unligualism was a fault of which both parties should try to cure themselves at the earliest opportunity.

ADVOCATE ZONE SYSTEM FOR PAPERS

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, April 29.—A deputation representing the smaller daily newspapers of Ontario met Hon. Mr. Blondin, Postmaaster General, yesterday, and made representations favoring the establishment of a zone system for paper postage.

Representations were also made looking to improved mail service.

Hon. Mr. Blondin gave a sympathetic hearing to the representations and promised careful consideration.

Mr. Crerar expects to be back in the House of Commons next Monday.

NEW ROCKET DESIGNED TO REACH MOON

Possibilities of New American Invention Will Be Tested at Worcester in July.

HOW ACCURACY IN FLIGHT IS SECURED

Valuable Information for Weather Forecaster Expected from New Discovery.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Washington, April 29.—Test of the new rocket apparatus designed by Prof. R. S. Goddard to reach altitudes far above the earth's air envelope and, as a vague possibility, even to the moon, will be made late in July at Worcester, Mass., the National Geographic Society announces.

The immediate objects of the inventor, the announcement said, was "the study of the aurora, and of the short wave lengths in the spectrum of the sun, which are entirely absorbed by the air."

At more moderate altitudes, Prof. Goddard hopes to obtain valuable information concerning measurements of wind velocity, humidity, temperature and pressure, all of which enter vitally into the business of weather forecasting.

The rocket will be propelled by the explosion of successive charges. For extreme altitudes, secondary rockets, or a rocket within a rocket, may be used.

A special parachute will prevent destruction of the delicate instruments on the return to the earth. Accuracy in flight, Prof. Goddard believes, may be obtained through the use of photo sensitive cells, which through influence of rays of light will keep the rocket on its course.

BEST REPUDIATES HIS CONFESSION

Says Confession Was Made Through Fear of Officers and Fatigue.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Pontiac, Mich., April 29. — Anson Best this morning in the presence of his attorney, Prosecutor Gillespie, and a number of newspaper men, repudiated the confession the prosecutor declared he made in the Vera Scneider murder case.

The prisoner maintained that his first story, told when he was stopped at the scene of the murder, is the truth and that his admissions made, according to the prosecutor, in the presence of several officers yesterday, were all false and due to his fear of officers and fatigue from questioning. Plans to arraign the man again in circuit court today have been deferred because of the new development.

Best, in his original statement as given out by Prosecutor Gillespie, declared he killed Miss Schnieder, "because she asked him to."

Last night, the officers say, he broke down completely and admitted he attacked her while they were sitting on the porch of the unoccupied house, where her body was found early last Sunday morning.

GIVEN CHANCE TO REDEEM PROPERTY

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Vancouver, B. C., April 29.—German holders of Vancouver property will be given a fair chance to avoid foreclosure and the right to redeem, according to a ruling made yesterday in the Supreme Court by Justice MacDonald.

Before the war Countess Mira Dornhoff, Countess Else Dornhoff, and Count Bogislav Dornhoff, of Berlin, Germany, purchased an apartment of this city for $90,000, paying $36,000 cash and assumed a mortgage. The amount remaining unpaid amounts to $22,000, and yesterday a local firm asked for foreclosure.

The defendants are asking for delay to enable a defence to be entered, and this the judge was inclined to grant.

DECLARE PROPOSAL IS MOST ABSURD

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Vancouver, B. C., April 29.—Voicing opposition to the reported proposal of the Department of Labor in Ottawa to bring down legislation making it an offence for any employer to discharge an employee because that employee belonged to any particular union, the British Columbia Manufacturers' Association is sending a request to Hon. Mr. Robertson, Minister of Labor, for full particulars of the proposal, which members declare is "too absurd for anything."

Sugar 30 Cents Soon

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, April 29.—There is every prospect of an early and considerable increase in the price of sugar, it was announced today by a man closely in touch with the market. The present price, high as it is, is based on the former cost price of the raw product in Cuba.

Counting all the costs to the grocery store, and basing them on the new Cuban price, a pound of sugar is now worth a little over 29 cents. The fact that people are not paying so much is because the refineries are still using the stocks for which they paid the lower price, it was said. The price, it was stated, will soon be 30 cents a pound.

Britain is Determined to Reduce It's Vast Load of Debt While Trade is Prosperous

The Chancellor of the Exchequer Defends the Increase in the Excess Profits Tax and the Corporation Tax—Announcement of New Plan to Fund the Public Debt.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 29.—Austen Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, has carried the whole of his budget proposals. Motions for the rejection of an increase in the excess profits duty and the corporation tax were defeated in the House of Commons last night by a vote of 287 to 75.

Mr. Chamberlain, defending his proposals, said it was his duty to make a real effort while trade was prosperous to reduce the vast load of debt, which was a potential danger to the country's credit. Nothing was more important at this moment, with British dependence on overseas supplies of food and raw materials than that Great Britain's international credit should stand high, especially with the United States.

For his part he was content to be judged on this budget by the verdict of informed American opinion concerning Britain's determination to set its house in order, "so that we might stand again as we stood for so long in the very front line as a great financial, commercial and industrial nation."

One of the strongest points of criticism of the recent budget was the failure of Austen Chamberlain to take steps to reduce or fund the enormous floating debt, amounting approximately £1,200,000,000.

Mr. Chamberlain announced yesterday his new plan to fund this debt. He means to issue five per cent. treasury bonds for fifteen years but carrying additional interest not exceeding two per cent., and regulated according to the current rate for treasury bills, which is at the present time six and a half per cent. The new bonds will carry an option by either the holder or the treasury in April, 1924, or after that date, of repayment at par on giving one year's notice.

Thus the public will have an opportunity of obtaining government bonds carrying interest in the neighborhood of 6½ per cent. while money remains at the present dear rates.

DOMINION GRANT TO CITY OF OTTAWA

The Amount Donated to the Capital by Government Increased to $250,000.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, April 29.—A bill increasing the Dominion Government payment to the city of Ottawa to $250,000 a year was given third reading in the Senate yesterday afternoon after Sir James Lougheed had stated to Senator Turriff that for the past eight years property in Ottawa leased to the government had not been exempt from municipal taxation.

Senator Turriff stated that in many of the cases the government paid not only the rent but the taxes, though the rent was at full rate.

N. S. AMENDMENTS TO HIGHWAY ACT

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Halifax, N. S., April 29.—At yesterday afternoon's sitting of the House of Assembly the committee of the whole continued its consideration of the important bill amending the Highways Act, but did not make sufficient progress to give the bill its third reading. The principal amendments that have been made in committee are a modification of the clause respecting telegraph poles, and a new clause providing for licenses for persons who wish to leave logs beside the roadway. A clause is also to be inserted enabling the Road Board to close roads to all or any traffic should they deem it necessary.

Mr. Chisholm introduced a bill amending the Education Act, which provides for high schools giving commercial courses and charging fees for them, and also for women trustees.

BUSINESS LIFE OF MONTREAL SOUND

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, April 29.—Never has Montreal such a sound industrial era. While failures in Montreal reached some two years ago a total of 280 in nearly four months, this year only 51 failures have been registered so far since the first of January last and about twenty of them are contested before the courts. Such a sound condition of Montreal's business life is alarming the curators, who, in many cases, are turning their activities towards other fields of action.

Vancouver, B. C., April 29.—Patrick Ludlow, who tried to catch a Canadian Pacific railway train at Agassiz by airplane in order to get to Calgary by Thursday night, failed in his attempt and returned to this city. Lieut. Trim, the pilot, would not face a storm in the mountains.

CHARGE CHAUFFEUR WITH AUTO THEFT

Car Taken Out Without Consent of Owner and Damaged to Extent of $6,000.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, April 29.—Lady Leblanc, widow of the late Sir Pierre Leblanc, former Lieutenant Governor of the province of Quebec, was present in police court yesterday as witness in a case against Leon Fournier, her chauffeur, charged with stealing her automobile and its contents, including a grey fox robe valued at over a thousand dollars. The charge was laid by Captain Leblanc, D.S.O., son of the late Lieutenant Governor. The chauffeur had taken the car out one night without Lady Leblanc's knoweldge. She was later informed by the police that the car had been found stalled in the street and that it had been damaged to the extent of $6,000. A few days later articles that had been missing, including the fox robe, had been returned to her.

The case will be continued next Wednesday.

FAVOR COMPULSORY MILITARY TRAINING

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

London, Ont., April 29.—At the first quarterly meeting of the newly organized Ontario Provincial Chapter, I. O. D. E., held here yesterday, a resolution in favor of compulsory military training was passed by a practically unanimous vote of the 200 or more delegates.

The motion, which was brought in by Lady Pope, and carried without discussion, will be sent to the National Executive and thence to the annual meeting as an expression of the stand of the Ontario Chapter.

American Troops Guard Border.

El Paso, Texas, April 29.—Funds of the customs office in Juarez were brought to an El aso bank late yesterday afternoon. American troops in El Paso last night were ordered to be prepared for action in event a threatened uprising in Juarez threatens this city. Military police in the city have been issued rifles and ammunition and the city police have made arrangements to patrol a dead line in the lower part of the city beyond which civilians will not be permitted to go in the direction of Rio Grande.

THE GRAND TRUNK SHAREHOLDERS MET

Sir Alfred Smithers Says Canada Made Good Bargain in Acquiring the Road.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

London, April 29.—The ordinary spring meeting of the Grand Trunk Railway shareholders today proceeded very quietly. Chairman Sir Alfred Smithers maintained that the people of Canada, in acquiring the road, had obtained an advantageous bargain. He earnestly appealed to the meeting to refrain from discussion.

One shareholder, with an Irish name, spoke of Canada's Bolshevist government. He was heard with about equal appreciation and restiveness. The remainder of the speeches were very moderate.

Sir Alfred, replying to the discussion, said that although there would be some sufferers, the directors, in taking the course adopted, had averted a real catastrophe. His life, during his ten years of office as chairman, he said, had been one of continuous hard work and anxiety.

This latter sentiment was sympathetically applauded.

STEAMERS HELD UP BY HARBOR STRIKE

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Buffalo, N. Y., April 29.—The steamers C. C. Jenkins and Thomas Barlum, arrived here from Duluth today with grain and were added to the fleet held up by the harbor strike, which now involves grain scoopers, tug firemen and linesmen and elevator housemen.

The arrival here tomorrow of a mediation board appointed by Governor Smith and T. V. O'Connor, President of the Longshoremen's Association, is expected to mark a definite step toward settlement.

Sinn Feiners' Court Arrests And Convicts Bank Robbers

Representatives of Irish Republican Army Visit Bank Officials and Offer to Hand Over Prisoners to Them and Furnish Evidence of Guilt on Certain Conditions.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Dublin, April 29.—It is stated that the six persons arrested early Sunday morning at Mill Street, a town 19 miles east of Killarney, County Cork, on suspicion of being implicated in the hold-up of bank officials last November, when £18,000 sterling was stolen, were tried by a Sinn Fein court and found guilty.

Following the trial representatives of the Republican Army on Tuesday visited the Munster and Leinster bank at Cork, and also the National Bank and offered to hand over the prisoners and furnish evidence of their guilt under certain conditions.

The bank officials, it is said, refused these conditions or to deal with the situation except through the constituted authorities.

Berlin Bakers Nearly Double The Price of Bread to People

The Household Loaf of Four Pounds Weight to Cost Four and a Half Marks—The Increase Said to Be Due to Higher Wages and Taxes on Light and Power.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Berlin, April 29.—The Berlin bakers announce a seventy per cent. increase in the price of bread, effective May 10, when the household loaf of 1900 grams, or, roughly, four pounds, will cost 4½ marks. All bakers' wares have been increased proportionately.

It is asserted that the increases are due to higher wages and taxes on light and power.

Committee of Brotherhood of Railroad Employees Take Up Matter at Winnipeg Convention—The Strike Called at Paris for May Day to Be Generally Observed.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Winnipeg, April 29.—Revision of wage schedules and working conditions for 3,500 employees in the clerical, freight and station departments of the Canadian National Railway is being undertaken by the general grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, in session here this week.

It is expected that the new schedule will be completed some time today and presented to the railway officials later.

In the absence of A. R. Mosher, grand president, M. M. McLean, grand secretary treasurer of the Brotherhood, presided over the meeting.

The Paris May Day Strike.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, April 29.—Orders for a general executive committee of the railroad eraal raailroad strike issued by the executive committee of the railroad strike issued by the executive committee og the railroad federation on Tuesday, calling for a walkout at midnight Friday, were issued conditionally and will become effective in case the General Labor Federation gives full support to the movement, it is understood. The strike order may be suspended by subsequent action of the executive committee of the railroad workers' union.

Officials of the General Labor Federation are now discussing the question of giving support to the railroad men by calling a strike in other trades. Extremists who have captured control of the railroad workers' federation are attempting to make the May 1 strike a starting point for an unlimited general strike for the nationalization of public utilities. In the past plans for the day have contemplated a mere demonstration by labor.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of William K. Oldham, who departed this life April 29, 1919.

Dear Will, one year has gone, our hearts are sore;
As time goes on, we miss thee more.
Because we smile some think the wound is healed;
But they little know the anguish that's within our hearts concealed.

CRIMINAL CASES IN CARLETON COURT

A Lad Named Newman Vantassel Charged With Stealing Goods from Store.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Woodstock, N. B., April 29.—The Supreme Court, Mr. Justice Crocket presiding, will likely finish its criminal business today. There were six criminal cases, and the last one is before the court this morning.

Asa O. Thornton, a storekeeper, charged a lad named Newman Vantassel with stealing from his store, on the last three days of January and Feb. 2nd, goods and money to the value of about $100. Mr. Thornton was on the stand all morning, and after dinner Myron McNinch and Clayton Hanson were heard as Crown witnesses. R. L. Sims for prisoner; J. C. Hartley and C. J. Jones for Crown.

C. N. R. OFFICIALS DISCUSSED BRIDGE

an easier entrance to the subway. The most important changes would be south of the tracks, however, where changes in University avenue would probably affect the property of Judge Wilson to some extent, although it is hoped to work out a satisfactory scheme that would not make any great dislocation.

Although no definite statements were obtainable this morning it was said that the C.N.R. officials had intimated that work on the new bridge would be commenced some time this year, but it was also said it would probably be the fall of 1921 before the superstructure was completed and the new bridge ready for use. Costs have been variously estimated, but it was said the lowest figures call for an expenditure of considerably more than $2,000,000 for the bridge, approaches and changes involved. All plans are being made for the purpose of providing for through traffic to St. John from Montreal and west via the Transcontinental division and the Canada Eastern from McGivney Junction to connect with the Valley Railway here.

In regard to the improvement of the surface drainage, in which both the C.P.R. and C.N.R. will co-operate with the city, it was said today that a complete survey will be made and work undertaken to provide adequate facilities for carrying off the water during spring floods in the future in such a manner that neither the railway yards nor the rear portion of the city will be flooded again as they were last spring and have been almost every year. The C.N.R. officials visited the scene of the recent washout on the Valley Railway north of McGinley's Ferry last evening and left this morning in their private car for Moncton.

SPECIAL MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD

special meeting will shortly be held to consider the whole matter.

Complaints were heard from parents about children being "kept in" during recess time and also at the noon hour. This it is said is in conflict with the regulation fo the board. The secretary will look into the matter. At St. John street parent makes a strong grievance about the "outlandish impositions" assigned to pupils. The board is not unmindful of the desire of the teacher to help the pupil to grade at close of the year—hence he is assigned extra work.

After faithful and strenuous work as principal of the Smythe street school Miss Annie L. Taylor has asked the trustees to release her from her heavy charge owing to the present condition of her health. In view of her long and faithful public service the board will accede to her request.

TEARING DOWN MILL AT MARYSVILLE

Lath Mill Has Been Fire Trap for Years and Removal Welcomed.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Marysville, N. B., April 29. — The Guild of the Main Street Baptist church held a novel and very successful entertainment in the Knights of Pythias Hall last evening. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity by a jolly and enthusiastic audience, to witness the Peddlers' Parade. Kingsley's Orchestra was in attendance and furnished several fine selections, which were heartily encored. A short but interesting programme was carried out, consisting of the following numbers:

Selection, orchestra; reading, Miss Christine Stafford; solo, Mrs. Joseph Capen, accompanied by Mrs. M. Dennison; overture, orchestra; club-swinging, Rev. J. J. Pinkerton, with piano accompaniment by Miss Edith Staples; solo, Miss Marion Stafford, accompanied by Miss Edith Staples; overture, orchestra; Peddler's Parade.

The latter number on the programme was a novel feature of the entertainment, consisting of about in the neighborhood of twenty persons, grotesquely attired, and marching to the accompaniment of snare-drums, bells and tambourines. They paraded around the hall, each carrying a basket, well laden with all sorts of tempting dainties for sale. These were rapidly disposed of to a large audience present. The parade evoked much merriment and amusement from the patrons. Refreshments consisting of tea, coffee, sandwiches and other delicacies were also sold. A large "grab-bag" containing all sorts of articles was soon emptied by eager purchasers. The affair was an unqualified success in every way. Bradford Pond very acceptably filled the position of chairman.

The Nashwaak Pulp & Paper Co. have a crew of men engaged in tearing down the old lath mill, the lumber of which will be used to erect houses for the use of the men at the rafting grounds. The removal of this old mill is a great relief to the citizens of Marysville, inasmuch as for a long time it has been an eyesore as well as a veritable firetrap.

Mrs. Cameron Daley left Tuesday afternoon for the Barony, to attend the funeral of her aunt, the late Mrs. Catherine Lockhard.

Miss Jessie McQuarrie who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. G. Dickenson, has gone to Bridgewater, N. S., to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fraser, of Aberdeen, Wash., who have been visiting friends in this section of the country, have left for their home. Mr. Fraser is well known here, having formerly worked in Marysville for several years, and was warmly welcomed by many old friends.

James Waterman and family have removed from Fredericton, and are now occupying a cottage on Bridge street. Mr. Waterman and his family are being warmly welcomed to Marysville.

The Canadian Cottons, Ltd., have started the erection of the new electric power, to be used in connection with their plant here. A new and very large reservoir is also to be erected in connection with the property.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Lyons have removed to St. John where they will reside in future.

Judson Arnold and family are now occupying the Charles Goodspeed property at Penniac.

A. Y. P. A. MASQUERADE.

The Anglican Young People's Association of Christchurch Cathedral held a masquerade ball last evening in the Church Hall and a most enjoyable time was spent.

The young people were attired in all kinds of costumes, many of them being very pretty and much admired, and the judges found it a difficult task to award the prizes. Miss Gladys Burns won the ladies' costume prize; Miss Doris Wainwright, the ladies' fancy; while W. McCarroll received the gents' fancy and Tom Styran, dressed as a typical Dutchman, carried off the comic prize. Special mention was also made of Albion Flood, who was dressed in fancy costume. About eleven o'clock super was served and dancing was continued until midnight. Rev. Mr. Bulteel, Mrs. S. Burns and Mrs. A. Branscombe were the chaperones.

PUSSYFOOT INSURANCE

London, April 29.—"Pussyfoot" insurance is the term which has been applied to a rate of ten shillings per one hundred pounds sterling now being offered in the London market to cover the risk of the passing of an act of parliament within 12 months prohibiting the sale of alcoholic liquors in England.

Little Difference in Exchange Situation

Montreal, April 29.—The pound sterling was quoted today at $3.88¼. New York funds were held at 9 7-8 cents.

LATEST

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 29.—The Royal Commission which has been enquiring into the question has decided against the adoption of the decimal system of coinage by this country. An alteration of the established system, it is pointed out, could not be made as an experiment.

Madrid, April 29.—Martial law has been proclaimed throughout the province of Oviedo, according to official announcement. This step was taken as a precaution against possible disturbance on May 1.

The Local Labor Bureau.

The proposal will be made to the City Council at its special meeting tomorrow night to continue the bureau in Fredericton of the Employment Service of Canada by the city paying one half of the expense entailed. The Provincial Government, having declined to assume half of the financial responsibility, the local office has been closed on instructions from Ottawa.

Married Yesterday Afternoon.

A quiet wedding was colemnized at the Methodist parsonage yesterday afternoon when Rev. G. M. Young united in marriage Harry McGowan, of Stanley, and Miss Myrtle D. Elliott, of Marysville. The young couple were unattended and left by C. P. R. last evening for St. John and Moncton, where they will spend their honeymoon.

SUNDAY SALES OF GASOLENE BANNED

Aroostook Sheriff's Order Causes Garage Owners to Decide to Close Up.

[Houlton Times.]

The edict by the sheriff was put into effect last Thursday, that no sales on gasolene or other goods in garages should be made on Sunday throughout the county. He did say that those garages that had cars for storage might keep open to let cars in or out but that was all, and after a meeting of the garage owners they decided that they would close up tight on Sundays and thus would not have the temptation to violate the law.

The authority for this action is taken from Chap. 126, Sec. 35 of the public laws of Maine, as follows:

"Whoever, on the Lord's Day, keeps open his shop, workhouse, warehouse or place of business, travels, or does any work, labor or business on that day except works of necessity or charity; uses any sport, game or recreation; or is present at any dancing, public diversion, show or entertainment, encouraging the same, shall be punished by fine not exceeding ten dollars."

This action meets with the approval of some and others are very much opposed to it, but the law stands.

"A public office is a Public Trust." How about the public?

MISSION BAND CONCERT.

A delightful concert was given by the Junior Mission Band of the George street Baptist church in the church vestry last evening. A fair sized audience was in attendance and thoroughly enjoyed the programme. The manner in which the little ones took their parts reflected great credit on those who did the training.

Mrs. W. H. Gregory, who has had charge of the Junior Band, is leaving in a few days for Millville, where she will reside. It is needless to say that Mrs. Gregory will be much missed by the children, and indeed by all members of the George street church, as she has ever been active in all that was of benefit to the church, especially with the young people.

The following programme was carried out:

Chorus—Jesus Wants Me for a Sunbeam.
Welcome by the pastor.
Recitation—Iris Beals.
Dialogue—Playing Doctor.
Recitation—Carrie Hickson.
Exercise—Good Tidings.
Recitation—Mildred Foster.

Northern Alberta Flooded By the Melting Banks of Snow And Railroads Under Water

The Town of Red Deer Particularly Affected, and the Citizens Turn Out in Effort to Stem the Tide of Rising Water—Rain and Sleet Fell in Southern Alberta.

Calgary, April 29.—Heavy flood conditions prevail throughout the north country. Red Deer town was flooded out last night by the rapidly melting banks of snow and citizens were out all evening stemming the tide. The country between Calgary and Red Deer is almost all under water.

Conditions on the Drumheller line are much improved, but it will be a month, it is believed, before normal train service is resumed between Calgary and that town. Rain and sleet fell all over southern Alberta today and from Red Deer south to the boundary.

Five Persons Killed In Train Collision

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Sanborn, Minn., April 29.—Five persons were killed and 12 injured when passenger trains Nos. 516 and 517, on the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad met in a head-on collision near here early today. The accident was said to have been caused by misinterpretation of orders. Four cars and both engines were wrecked.

Validity of Act Constituting The Board of Commerce Still Before the Canadian Courts

Uncertainty as to the Powers of the Board Has Greatly Interfered With Its Usefulness, and It is Likely to Be Months Before It is Settled.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Ottawa, April 29.—There is a likelihood that the question of the constitutionality of the Dominion statute conferring powers upon the Board of Commerce to deal with combines and fair prices will have to be argued de novo before the Supreme Court.

The validity of the Act has been questioned in several cases which came before the Board, with the result that the members of the Board asked that a stated case be submitted to the Supreme Court of Canada. The reference was made and the case was argued more than a month ago. Counsel for the Government and the Board of Commerce upheld the jurisdiction of the Board as laid down by the Act of Parliament. Counsel for a number of corporations which had attacked the legislation were also heard.

Since then a judgment has been awaited and was expected at the May sitting of the Supreme Court which opens next week. It is now reported that the court will probably ask for a new reference and for a re-argument of the question at issue. The justices will base their request, it is said, upon the ground that the case submitted to them was too general in its scope. They are understood to desire to hear argument on certain specific points.

There is thus a possibility that the uncertainty as to the powers of the Board of Commerce, which has tended to hamper the action of that tribunal, may have to continue until a new stated case can be heard and a judgment thereon can be given. The activities of the Board of Commerce have been held up for some weeks awaiting the judgment of the court, although there have been several requests from the consuming public that action should be taken in regard to several cases where the complainants believed extortionate prices were being demanded. If the constitutionality of the statute has to be re-argued that will mean a further delay.

The Board of Commerce, which a few months ago was one of the most fruitful sources of news at the capital, has almost disappeared from public notice in the meantime, although a number of questions relating to it have been asked in the House. For example, Mr. Pedlow, the Quaker member for South Renfrew, who is a retail merchant and does not like the Board of Commerce, asked yesterday if the report that Mr. O'Connor had resigned was true, and whether it was "the intention of the Government to demobilize the balance of the Board or just to allow it to efface itself by the process of elimination." He was told by Sir George Foster that the Government had no notice of the intention of Mr. O'Connor to resign.

Hon. W. S. Fielding asked if the Government had any intention of appointing a chairman of the Board, and, if so, when. To which the reply was that the question would have to remain a little time for answer.

There has been a notice of motion on the order paper since March 23rd asking for the correspondence respecting the resignation of Chief Commissioner Robson of the Board, but no action has been secured on it as yet. The Government does not appear to be anxious to precipitate a discussion on that subject, which would promise to be a sensational one, but members of the Board of Commerce have stated that they will not go out of office at least until that matter is cleared up, which it will have to be sooner or later.

PAY OF SOLDIERS CALLED TO BOARD

Matters of Great Concern to Soldiers Considered by Pension Commission.

Ottawa, April 28.—The G. W. V. A. pensions resolutions passed at the recent annual convention of that organization are now before the special committee of pensions and re-establishment. This stage in the committee's work means that the end of the pensions investigation is nearly over.

The first seven clauses of the G. W. V. A. recommendations have been dealt with. The first six were placed before the committee without any further presentation of evidence than has already been heard.

G. C. MacNeil, Dominion secretary, said that these referred to increases in pensions to totally disabled men and to dependents.

Clause 7 of the recommendations, "that all expenses incurred by pensioners during attendance at medical boards be paid, and that such expenses include compensation for loss of time from employment" provoked some lively passages between members of the committee and the Pension Board officials. The latter had stated that a man was paid in all $3.75 per day in addition to the $1.10 army pay for the time he was attending medical boards. This allowance was too parsimonious, Mr. Morphy declared. Col. J. W. Margeson, of the Pensions Board, admitted that it was too low.

Officials of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment were on the stand during the afternoon. Maj. C. D. Arthurs, chief inspector, said he had drawn up the regulations in regard to free issues of clothing. The patients had complained that they had "to be judged paupers and scarecrows" before they could secure an issue of clothes. They were also being charged $23 for overcoats, but this was returned on the rate of one dollar per month as long as the men were in hospital. Some members of the committee claimed they had recommended free clothing and that the D.S.C.R. officials had no right to charge for any part of it. Others thought the issue of hospital clothing covered what they had in mind when presenting their recommendations. It was brought out that the D.S.C.R. officials were given a certain latitude in interpreting the law.

CANADIAN OFFICER WAS CO-RESPONDENT

London, April 28. — Major Francis Saunders, of the Leinster Regiment, was today granted a divorce against his wife, who was accused of misconduct with Major Clarence Inglis of the Canadian army. The incidents leading up to the proceedings occurred when the wife occupied a flat in London, where, it was alleged, she was visited by the co-respondent who was serving at Argyll House. The evidence was strenuously denied by the co-respondent. The judge said that when a woman fell in love with a man she sometimes acted very unexpectedly. The respondent, he said, no doubt formed a passion for the co-respondent, who visited her flat when the husband was away.

TIRED, WORN-OUT WOMEN

You Who Are Over-Worked, Run-Down, Thin and Ailing

You Need Vinol, the Blood, Strength and Vitality Maker, to Restore Your Old Time Health and Energy

There are millions of women who have been under such a strain caused by the last few years of war that they have sacrificed their health, and it seems a long up-hill road to restore the old-time energy and vitality.

A prompt remedy for that continual tired, worn-out, listless, sluggish condition is VINOL, our cod liver and iron tonic without oil.

In a natural manner it creates a hearty appetite, aids digestion, makes rich, red blood, quickens the circulation, and strengthens every organ and muscle of the body, and vitality and energy quickly replace weakness and lassitude.

Mrs. E. Trotter, of Toronto, Ont., says: "I was weak, run-down and nervous. I had dizzy spells and no ambition to do anything. I saw VINOL advertised and tried it. In about one week I felt better, and it built me up and restored my strength. I want to recommend VINOL to other women who are weak, nervous and run-down."

VINOL is sold on a positive guarantee by the leading Druggists of Canada, to return your money if it fails to benefit you.

FRENCH CAN HANDLE ALEPPO.

Word that the French were driven out of Urfa with considerable loss comes from Constantinople, and receives confirmation from one of the American fugitives. The recent setbacks to French occupation in the interior of the vilayet of Aleppo indicate faulty handling of a difficult matter, but the means for its better handling exist and will no doubt be used.

The whole problem of French occupation calls for leadership of a different type from that which carried on the war. The French cannot afford to send an army of European dimensions into Asia Minor, and it would be bad economy for them to do so. They have to deal with unstable and insufficiently equipped opponents, warlike but among themselves divisible, and more alarmed at the idea of conquest, as barbarism conceives it, than at the loss of an independence which the weak have never had and the strong have always abused.

In their pacification of Morocco the French achieved a marvel of quick work and big results in a grim land that had in the past swallowed up Spanish armies, halted the British and wrecked in one great disaster the destiny of Portugal. Lyautey, the pacifier of that still new province, continues to administer it. His record represents the utmost in the development of the present school of French colonial soldiery, just as Foch stands foremost in the upgrowth of the quite different French school of European soldiery.

With the methods, perhaps with the personal direction, of Lyautey, the French could succeed in making intelligent though barbarous Moslems prefer European direction to native chaos, since he has already done this elsewhere. But the French must have time in order to accomplish this blessing; and they must avoid the methods that require hundreds of thousands of men, and return to the specialized methods their other military school created.

WILL JAPAN BECOME RED?

A full-fledged bolshevikal demand for the nationalization of industries has lately caused alarm to the leaders of Japan. From the shores of Primorsk to the Land of the Rising Sun is not far as political contagions travel. The possibility of Bolshevik disturbances among the Japanese must be recognized.

Though an intensely loyal, they are not a docile people. They do not naturally lend themselves to an authority such as their chief ruler exerts, a spiritual and temporal sway suitable to India, China or Russia. In Russia the force of Bolshevism broke loose with a violence proportionate to the density of the ignorance in which autocracy had confined the popular mind. Things cannot happen in quite the same way in Japan, for education there has been tremendously pushed.

Japanese education, according to some observers, has indoctrinated the people with rather naive notions about imperial sanctity, even while it sharpened their wits in general. May not the one feature of this teaching cause the pupils to unlearn the other. Therein lies the chief possibility, if one exist, of a Red Japan.

THE WOMAN OF TODAY.

The war has had many remarkable results—none more so than the thrusting of women of all classes and types into the spotlight. British women were, in especial, home keepers, nor did the great masses of them trouble about public questions, says an exchange. Always, of course, in the higher ranks, women had played a conspicuous part in political life—working for their husbands, invading the tenement districts for support, and buttonholeing the dandies in the salon (a feeble imitation of that in France) for votes, in the times of the Georges.

The war called millions of women from the home; and today, all over the world, there is a degree of feminine activity which could not have been dreamed of a few years ago. The lady member of Parliament no longer thrills with the rustle of a silk petticoat.

The woman orator is common both in Britain and the United States. Even in the East, where women are jealously screened from the public view, they are coming forward to espouse good causes, on the public platform.

All avocations are open to women today. A new sense of economic independence has eventuated since the war. The ordinary woman of today has discovered capacities and powers which, making for economic comfort and security, cause the male creature to function less and less in the individual life. There was a time, not long ago, when the young girl was taught that marriage was the chief end of a woman's existence. There is no danger of sentiment dying from out the race, and so long as you have youth and a golden moon, and a happy freedom from taxes, Dan Cupid will not be idle; but there are thousands of women today who joy in their economic independence. One thing is certain—the co-operation of women with men in doing the world's work gives some guarantee that it will be done better in the future than in the past.

Women in the legislative halls of the immediate future will not only shape large policies, but sweep out the dirty material and moral corners of life.

RESTRAINED ENTHUSIASM.

"The peace treaty," says Germany's Minister of Transport, "does not present a bewitchingly beautiful face." That is a pity, from an aesthetic point of view, yet we have the authority of a poet much admired in Germany for averring that beauty is but a vain and doubtful good. And the wise Minister goes on to the conclusion that it possesses "desirable qualities in political and economic directions." Nobody doubts the need of political and economic values everywhere, and if any nation is capable of discovering and exploiting them it is obviously Germany.

Toronto Telegram: "Hon. Mackenzie "King devoted much time and brain "power to 'reconciling Capital and "Labor.' He made a nice mess of it. "Perhaps, after all, it was just as "well he did not take charge of the "war."

CARLETON COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT

Woodstock, April 28.—In the circuit court yesterday the grand jury found no bill in the case of C. L. Clark, charged with assault, and Samuel Metz, charged with robbery.

The case of the King vs. Douglas Walker, a colored man, was tried behind closed doors. The accused having no counsel, R. L. Simms was assigned to defend him. C. J. Jones appeared for the crown. After being out twenty minutes the jury brought in a verdict of guilty.

Civil cases on the docket are Wm. and Emma Morey vs. G. Lewis Bell—Mr. Simms filed records.

McLean Produce Co. vs. C. P. R.—Jones and Jones filed record.

They are jury cases.

The case of A. Shaw, charged with assaulting his wife, was before the court today.

Events of a Day In Parliament

Ottawa, April 29.—Yesterday in parliament. The House:

The bill to amend the Canada Shipping regarding steamship inspection was given third reading.

The Opium and Drug Act amendments were put through committee and stand for third reading.

Third reading was given to bill to amend the Loan Company's Act, to the bill amending the Trust Company's Act and to the bill amending the Civil Service Insurance Act.

Sir George Foster told the House that negotiations looking to the appointment of a Canadian representative at Washington were being conducted. No definite announcement could be made.

A resolution providing for extension of time for manufacture and importation of oleomargine was introduced by Dr. Tolmie.

In the Senate:

The bill requiring persons trading in German goods to post an announcement over their place of business was given six months' hoist by vote of 39 to 23.

Third reading was given to bill increasing the Dominion Government payment to the city of Ottawa to $250,000.

P. E. I. OBJECTS TO A DIVORCE COURT

Ottawa, April 28.—Senator Murphy announced that the Prince Edward Island legislature had unanimously passed a resolution objecting to the establishment of a divorce court for that province.

STRIKE AT AMHERST.

Amherst, April 28.—A strike has been officially declared in the weaving department of the Amherst Woollen Mills. A hitch occurred in the negotiations between employees and management. As a result the strike call went into effect Monday, and only seven or eight of the forty-four weavers turned up at the mill. At the same time the mill was in operation yesterday. The other departments are not affected by the call.

It's easy to convince a superstitious man that finding a dollar is luckier than finding a horseshoe.

SHARP CRITICISM OF THE HEALTH ACT

New Drug Measure Attacked by Doctors and Druggists and Has Few Supporters.

Ottawa, April 28.—As if ashamed of its past lethargy the House today threw drowsiness to the winds and put a surprising snap into its proceedings. In the afternoon it met Mr. Rowell's drug and opium measure with a fusillade of criticism, attacking its various provisions with an abandon and a vim that was refreshing and which, incidentally compelled the Minister to substantially modify his bill, and in the evening it came back more militant than ever and appeared to take an impish delight in baiting Mr. Ballantyne, who was piloting through a ship inspection act.

Mr. Rowell's bill seemed to please nobody. The doctors attacked it on one score, and the druggists on another, rural representatives thought it placed a hardship upon people in districts where there were no drug stores and where patent medicines were (so they said) sometimes a Godsend. Mr. Cockshutt saw in it an example of the foolishness of tieing ourselves up with the League of Nations (the bill has some relation to an opium convention mentioned in the treaty); and Dr. McGibbon, a returned soldier, detected in it an infringement upon the people's liberty.

This last objection struck the most responsive chord. "I think," said Capt. McGibbon, "that the people of this country are getting sick and tired of restrictions. They are tired of being told that their thoughts and actions and conduct must be in line with certain standards laid down for them. What they want, if I am not very greatly mistagen, is a little less of interference with their habits and a little more of liberty."

A chorus of applause, sharp, spontaneous and general, showed plainly that he had spoken the mind of the House.

The Stock Market

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York (Wall Street), April 29.—Dealings were light and irregular at the opening of today's stock market, reflecting the mixed sentiment of professional traders. Strength was shown by some of the oils, equipments and rails, notably Mexican Petroleum, Baldwin Locomotive, Lacawanna, and Reading. This was neutralized by the heaviness of motors, shippings and food shares, sugars displaying marked weakness. Prices moved forward within the first half hour, however, General Motors and steels taking the lead. Preliminary quotations indicated further improvement in the London exchange rate.

THE LIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE

Realistic Memory.

Kritix—I don't quite make this painting of yours. What's the man holding in his hand a Bolshevist battle flag or a Navajo blanket?

Needham, the Artist—Neither. That's an impressionistic picture of a dollar bill. I painted it from memory, but that's the way they always look to me.

Good Opening.

Busy Man (irritably): "I really cannot see you."

Fair Caller: "Then it's lucky I called, I represent a firm of opticians."

Mr. Grump (calling upstairs)—What a time you are taking to get dressed for the concert! Look at me; a bit of wadding in each ear and I'm all ready.

"Truth crushed to earth will rise again," said the hopeful person.

"Yes," replied the cynic; "but it's liable to have to use a crutch for some time after."

FROM THE PEOPLE

SOLDIERS' GRATUITIES.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Does Returned Man who answered Uncle Ruben at such length really think that the man who returned from overseas should have a gratuity, when he is perfectly well and as able to work as he ever was? I am sure that the majority will not agree with him. It seems a pity that so many of the returned men should have their country's and countrymen's interest so little at heart as to wish to draw as much as possible into their own pockets. Was it for their own safety and only for selfish reasons that our men enlisted? If there is any gratuity to give, who is more entitled to it than the disabled or maimed soldier, and why should the perfectly well and sound man receive gratuity? Is there any reason why he should not have enlisted. It was a call for freedom and right and we all were into it for the public good, not for any personal benefits. The man overseas was not the only man or woman either who suffered during the war. We love and honor our soldiers, but are they the only ones entitled to honor? What if Uncle Ruben's daughter did help him in the fields? Evidently Returned Man thinks that very little, but don't you think if she had been in England she would have done just as much more? The English girls had far greater opportunities for sacrifice and service, and there is not a doubt but that the Canadians at home would have done just as well under similar circumstances. Returned Man must not think that all those who were not overseas were lying down sleeping, else we shall think that there is something that he does not know, and can this be possible? I have two brothers, a brother-in-law and several cousins, returned men, all well, and after a few months of restlessness have all settled down to work and would scorn to be dependent upon the Government when it is not necessary and there are so many who will need all the help available. The trouble is that grafters are not confined to civilians alone but even some of our returned men are into the game. Come, Returned Man, don't expect too much of your country. They have done well by you, and remember that we are heavily in debt, and it is up to you fellows to keep up the work and still fight for your country by earning your own little bit and lessen the debt.

My respects to Uncle Ruben.

Yours,
SISTER OF THREE.

Stanley, N. B., April 26, 1920.

WEAR INDISPENSABLES.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—A man of the business office cannot wear overalls, but nevertheless he can cut the cost of apparel. When buying his summer outfit let him simply get a pair of trousers.

Between the middle of June and the middle of September every man should lay aside the idea of "style" and refrain from wearing the inconvenient and uncomfortable sack coat. Those who wear a full suit of clothes during the hot weather are uncomfortable and are hindered in the execution of daily duties. Why not preserve comfort, convenience, patience and money?

The shirt makers could come to the aid of those who are radical slaves of "style" by producing a new shirt with more elaborate cut, which would be proclaimed as "in style" for street and business wear.

All together now for summer comfort—aside with the old sack coat!

Yours,
JIM.

Newcastle, N. B., April 27, 1920.

ART OF MAKING FRIENDS.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—This reply is directed to the "lonely" young men and women who are seeking to find an organization of some kind where they may make friends and find companionship. There are many societies, clubs, church gatherings, business organizations, non-sectarian organizations where any man, woman or child, regardless of creed, might find admittance and meet people worthy of companionship.

The difficulty lies not so much with the organizations as in the individual. Do you want a cordial reception? You get it by making friends. You must work to make them. You make them by attracting them. I always consider friendship a partnership from which I can hope to take only as much as I contribute. Many of us are willing to take all right, but offer no tangible contribution. I do not mean financial contribution. I mean interesting conversation, enlightening information, cheerful entertainment or any of the many things that go to make up friendships.

If you enjoy friends who debate, strive to make yourself an unusual debater. Friends will come to you. If you delight in friends who dance, attract them by exceeding in dancing yourself. If you crave for well-read companions, delve into books yourself, attend the lectures and schools they attend, join their societies. Well-read companions will gather round you; you have something to offer; something in common with them. It is up to you to show them. Excel in something, do something unusually well and you make yourself a magnet. And remember that to make friends you must attract them.

Yours,
AGE 23.

National League and World's Championship Pennants to Be Unfurled.

Cincinnati, April 29.—Saturday, May 22, was announced today by President August Herrmann of the Cincinnati National League Baseball Club, as the date on which the 1919 World's Championship penant will be hoisted at Redland Field.

Mayor John Galvin has agreed to declare a half holiday in the city so that as many fans as possible may witness the ceremony.

The National League banner, the first ever won by a Cincinnati club, will be raised May 17. There will be special ceremonies on both days.

Chicago, April 29.—Battling Levinsky, of New York, defeated Tony Melcher, of Chicago, last night in a ten round bout at Kenosha, Wis. The men are heavyweights.

$5,000 Now Price For Bill Sharon

Archie Alcorn, of Blackville, Says an Offer of $1,000 More Than He Paid for Champion 4 Year Old Trotter Has Been Refused--Racing Equipment is Ordered for Miramichi Lumberman.

An offer of $1,000 more than was recently paid for him has lately been turned down for Bill Sharon, 2.16¼, champion four year old trotting stallion of the Maritime Provinces.

Archie Alcorn, the prosperous young lumberman, of Blackville, N. B., who a few weeks ago paid $3,500 for the sensational chestnut trotter, made that admission yesterday afternoon at the Barker House, and said that $5,000 was the price he had placed on the horse.

Meanwhile a racing equipment for the son of Captain Aubrey, 2.07¾, has been ordered by Frank C. Murchie, of St. Stephen, N. B., who acts as chief adviser on racing matters to the young lumberman, whose successful business operations of the past several years read more like fiction than facts, and all the preliminary steps are being taken to get the horse ready for the season's campaign.

Mr. Alcorn went to St. John last night on a business trip. He said that a driver for his horse had not yet been engaged.—J. D. B.

OLYMPIC TRIALS FOR CANADIANS

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, April 29.—Arrangements for the holding of the Olympic elimination athletic trials were completed at a meeting of the Quebec branch of the Olympic committee, held last night at the M.A.A.A. clubhouse.

The elimination trials will be held for track and field events on Saturday, July 10. Trials for all provinces west of Ontario will be held at Winnipeg on the same day.

The finals in which the winners of the provincial competitions will compete will be held in Montreal on Saturday, July 17, and the team will sail for England on the following Saturday on the S. S. Melita.

That George R. Hodgson, Olympic champion of 1912, is fast rounding into condition was shown by his effort in the 440-yard race in the weekly swimming handicaps of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association last night, when he swam within eight seconds of his world's record for the 400 metres and seven seconds of his own Canadian record, which still stands.

Youngstown, O., has 215 entries in six early closing classes for its June meeting.

GIVE ATHLETES ANOTHER CHANCE

General Reinstatement of All Who Were Amateurs Before the War.

Truro, N. S., April 28.—At one of the largest meetings of a Maritime governing body dealing with athletics ever held in the Maritime provinces the delegates agreed, after a two and a half hour session tonight on the fate of the athletes of the Maritime Provinces. The long-standing question as to what action should be taken in deciding the status of a professional and amateur was decided by the unanimous adoption of the following motion, moved by W. R. Sterling, of St. John, and seconded by T. F. MacDonald, of the Halifax members:

"Resolved, that a general reinstatement of all who make application and who had not been professionals before the war, if recommended by a union representative, and the application of those professionalized before the war be carefully considered and acted upon as the executive deems best in the interests of sport, and any who then violate the rules to be barred from all kinds of amateur sport."

Fifty delegates were present, representing the leading athletic organizations in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

NEW METHOD TO DEVELOP FIGHTERS

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New Orleans, La., April 29.—Tex O'Rourke, of New York, representing the International Sporting Club, which according to O'Rourke, plans to develop a "really representative American champion heavyweight boxer," left here yesterday for Bogalusa, La., to select several lumbermen for training.

The club, O'Rourke said, proposes to select a number of promising candidates from among the five "strenuous" industries — lumbering, steel manufacturing, shipbuilding, mining and farming—take them to a training camp near New York, pay their expenses and a salary at least twenty-five per cent. greater than they formerly received and train them for a year. At the end of that time, a series of elimination contests will determine the champion, O'Rourke said.

Baseball League Plans Discussed

Eligibility of Fred McLean, Who Played in National Hockey League, Will Decide John Palmer Co. Team's Plans--May Have Only Four or Five Teams ---Want City Grant.

Fred McLean is once again the topic of discussion for local fans, not in hockey this time but in baseball.

At a meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. building last evening, at which representatives of seven different teams met for the purpose of organizing a city baseball league, it was decided that every player in the league would have to have registration cards on a purely amateur standing.

As the John Palmer Co. had considered entering a team in the league on condition that they would have the services of "Larry" McLean as their first string pitcher, the question arose as to whether or not that player, who had played with Quebec in the National Hockey League, could be reinstated as an amateur baseball player. Should it turn out that he can not be reinstated the John Palmer Co. will withdraw from the league.

The Proposed Amalgamations.

Representatives from Devon, Marysville, Palace Alleys, John Palmer Co., Oldtimers, Imperials, Y. M. C. A. and Nashwaaksis were present to forward the interests of their various teams. All teams were willing to enter the league, but the doubt was expressed as to whether Fredericton could produce five strong teams to enter the league. While there was talk of amalgamating the local teams in two or possibly three, their representatives held out for separate teams, and a committee was named as follows to meet on Thursday evening, May 6th, to discuss the number of teams available to enter the league: Y. M. C. A., Trafford Donovan; Palace Alleys, Rock Paynter; Oldtimers, Edward King; Imperials, Robert Chappell; Devon, Harold Keen; Nashwaaksis, Kenneth Staples; John Palmer Co., Harold Smith, and the executive.

Offiers Elected.

Officers for the league were appointed as follows:

Honorary president—Mayor Reid.

President—Sandy Staples.

Vice-president—Mayor Walker, of Marysville.

Secretary-treasurer — C. H. Cochrane.

The Devon and Nashwaaksis representatives present seemed to think that the union of the two teams from over the river would greatly increase their strength, and offered to give the matter consideration. It was explained that it was not the idea of the meeting to cut any teams out of the league, but that it was thought it was for the best interests of the clubs as well as the providing of a better class of baseball to have a four or five team league team instead of an unwieldy one which would not improve the interest in the game before it was started.

In connection with the statement respecting the eligibility of McLe made by Harold Smith, who represented the team from the John Palmer Co., the Marysville representatives stated that under the rules of the Cotton Mill League, which they had joined, they were not allowed to play with any team in whose line-up there was a professional who had not been reinstated as an amateur, and they thought that probably a ruling from A. W. Covey, president of the Maritime branch of the Amateur Athletic Association of Canada, might be obtained to re-instate McLean. If it were not possible they could not play that team. Mr. Smith stated that he was present simply to enter the Palmer Company team in the league if it were to be a semi-professional organization, but if it were not and McLean could not be reinstated he would withdraw the name of that team.

Grounds, Umpires and Funds.

The questions of grounds and umpires were then considered by those present, and it was found that the baseball grounds at Devon-Marysville and the trotting park in the city could be procured. College Field was also suggested, but it was not thought that these grounds could be procured. The suggestion was made that each place represented in the league propose the names of two men for the positions of umpire and substitute, and, this suggestion being put in the form of a motion, it was carried and left to the executive committee to consider.

The question of funds was also brought up, and it was thought that in addition to subscriptions, which it was expected to secure from citizens for the support of the city teams, the president of the league should wait upon Ald. T. S. Wilkinson to ascertain whether he would ask the City Council for an appropriation with which to carry on the league.

The meeting then adjourned to hold their regular meeting, on Thursday evening, May 6th, following the meeting of the organization committee which is to meet that evening.—W. R. H.

SCHANG LIKELY TO REJOIN RED SOX

Holdout Catcher Talks With Manager Barrow and May Soon Be Playing.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 29.—Manager Ed Barrow and holdout Wally Schang had a long conference here yesterday pertaining to Wally coming back to the Sox fold.

According to reports, Schang was holding out for a salary said to be something like $12,500, a figure entirely out of proportion to what Frazee and Barrow are willing to pay.

This is what Wally asked before the season opened, but it is said that the energetic catcher has greatly reduced that sum now and at the meeting today with Barrow the two practically reached an agreement on terms.

Neither would give out much information, but Barrow said Schang wanted time to think the matter over.

With Oscar Vitt due to join the club Saturday and the possibilities of Schang joining the house of Barrow, the Sox will present a mighty sweet looking aggregation for the rest of the American field to fight against.

Barrow said today: "If Schang joins forces with us we ought to be able to give the Boston fans ball such as they have been accustomed to from American League teams. I have a good pitching staff, the infield is much stronger than given credit for, and my outfield is good enough to satisfy me that it can hold its end with every outer garden crew with the exception of the White Sox, Tigers and Indians.

"I do not predict a pennant winner, but surprising things have happened in baseball, and I may have a 1920 miracle crew in the present Sox. Who knows?"

Frisch Under Knife.

New York, April 28.—Frank Frisch, third baseman of the New York Nationals, who was seized with appendicitis last Saturday while on his way here from Boston, today underwent an operation. He was reported tonight to be resting comfortably.

The Portland trainer, Johnny Amato is at the Dover track.

Twice Sir Nigel had been overborne, and twice Alleyne had fought over him until he had staggered to his feet once more. Burley lay senseless, stunned by a blow from a mace, and half of the men-at-arms lay littered upon the ground around him. Sir Nigel's shield was broken, his crest shorn, his armor cut and smashed, and the vizor torn from his helmet; yet he sprang hither and thither with light foot and ready hand, engaging two Bretons and a Spaniard at the same instant—thrusting, stooping, dashing in, springing out—while Alleyne still fought by his side, stemming with a handful of men the fierce tide which surged up against them. Yet it would have fared ill with them had not the archers from either side closed in upon the flanks of the attackers, and pressed them very slowly and foot by foot down the long slope, until they were on the plain once more, where their fellows were already rallying for a fresh assault.

But terrible indeed was the cost at which the last had been repelled. Of the three hundred and seventy men who had held the crest, one hundred and seventy-two were left standing, many of whom were sorely wounded and weak from loss of blood. Sir Oliver Buttesthorn, Sir Richard Causton, Sir Simon Burley, Black Simon, Johnston, a hundred and fifty archers, and forty-seven men-at-arms had fallen, while the pitiless hail of stones was already whizzing and piping once more about their ears, threatening every instant to further reduce their numbers.

Sir Nigel looked about him at his shattered ranks, and his face flushed with a soldier's pride.

"By St. Paul!" he cried, "I have fought in many a little bickering, but never one that I would be more loth to havt misser than this. But you are wounded, Alleyne?"

"It is nought," answered his squire, stanching the blood which dripped from a sword cut across his forehead.

"These gentlemen of Spain seem to be most courteous and worthy people. I see that they are already forming to continue this debate with us. Form up the bowmen two deep instead of four. By my faith! some very brave men have gone from among us. Aylward, you are a trusty soldier, for all that your shoulder has never felt accolade, nor your heels worn the gold spurs. Do you take charge of the right; I will hold the centre, and you, my Lord of Angus, the left."

'Ho! for Sir Samkin Aylward!" cried a rough voice among the archers, and a roar of laughter greeted their new leader.

"By my hilt!" said the old bowman, "I never thought to lead a wing in a stricken field. Stand close, camarades, for, by these finger-bones! we must play the man this day."

"Come hither, Alleyne," said Sir Nigel, walking back to the edge of the cliff which formed the rear of their position. "And you, Norbury," he continued, beckoning to the squire of Sir Oliver, "do you also come here."

The two squires hurried across to him, and the three stood looking down into the rocky ravine which lay a hundred and fifty feet beneath them.

"The prince must hear of how things are with us," said the knight. "Another onfall we may withstand, but they are many and we are few, so that the time must come when we can no longer form line across the hill. Yet if help were brought us we might hold the crest until it comes. See yonder horses which stray among the rocks beneath us?"

"I see them, my fair lord."

"And see yonder path which winds along the hill upon the further end of the valley?"

"I see it."

"Were you on those horses, and riding up yonder track, steep and rough as it is, I think that ye might gain the valley beyond. Then on to the prince, and tell him how we fare."

"But, my fair lord, how can we hope

"Ye cannot go round to them, for they would be upon you ere ye could come to them. Think ye that ye have heart enough to clamber down this cliff?"

'Had we but a rope."

"There is one here. It is but one hundred feet long, and for the rest ye must trust to God and to your fingers. Can you try it, Alleyne?"

"With all my heart, my dear lord, but how can I leave you in such a strait "

"Nay, it is to serve me that ye go. And you, Norbury?"

The silent squire said nothing, but he took up the rope, and, having examined it, he tied one end firmly round a projecting rock. Then he cast off his breast-plate, thigh pieces, and greaves, while Alleyne followed his example.

"Tell Chandos, or Calverley, or Knolles, should the prince have gone forward," cried Sir Nigel. "Now may God speed ye, for ye are brave and worthy men."

It was, indeed, a task which might make the heart of the bravest sink within him. The thin cord dangling down the face of the brown cliff seemed from above to reach little more than half-way down it. Beyond stretched the rugged rock, wet and shining, with a green tuft here and there thrusting out from it, but little sign of ridge or foothold. Far below the jagged points of the boulders bristled up, dark and menacing. Norbury tugged thrice with all his strength upon the cord, and then lowered himself over the edge, while a hundred anxious faces peered over at him as he slowly clambered downwards to the end of the rope. Twice he stretched out his foot, and twice he failed to reach the point at which he aimed, but even as he swung himself for a third effort a stone from a sling buzzed like a wasp from amid the rocks and struck him full upon the side of his head. His grasp relaxed, his feet slipped, and in an instant he was a crushed and mangled corpse upon the sharp ridges beneath him.

"If I have no better fortune," said Alleyne, leading Sir Nigel aside. "I pray you, my dear lord, that you will give my humble service to the Lady Maude, and say to her that I was ever her true servant and most unworthy cavalier."

Celebrating 50th Birthday.

Died in Framingham.

Mrs. J. A. McCutcheon, of 320 York street, has received the sad intelligence of the death of her sister, Mrs. George W. Kirkpatrik, at South Framingham, Mass.

Able to Leave Hospital.

George Crawford, who has been a patient at Victoria Hospital for some weeks suffering with pneumonia, has so far recovered as to be able to return to his home on York street.

Restored to Health Again.

George M. McDade, formerly of this city, now of Chatham (N. B.), arrived in the city on Tuesday after some months at Saranac where he has been recuperating after an illness. Many friends will be pleased to know that he has been restored to good health.—St. John Telegraph.

Married in St. John.

The wedding took place at St. John yesterday of William Opie Anthony, of Red Head, and Miss Lillian Grant, of St. John. The bride is a sister of William Grant of Marysville and has been a frequent visitor here. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony will reside at Red Head.

A Successful Operation.

Hon. B. Frank Smith, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at Victoria Hospital yesterday afternoon, was said this morning to be making a splendid recovery. Dr. G. C. VanWart and Dr. W. C. Crocket were the operating surgeons and complications, which were feared, have not developed.

Departure from City Regretted.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. MacLean and family left for Hyannis, Mass., where they will spend the summer. Mr. MacLean, who has been superintendent at the Hartt Shoe Company's factory for several years, will return again to the Brockton district. Their departure from Fredericton is regretted by a large circle of friends.

Death at South Devon.

The death occurred at South Devon yesterday afternoon of Albert Banks, aged 76 years, after a short illness. Deceased mad his home with his daughter, Mrs. Morehouse, South Devon, and the funeral took place this afternoon at two o'clock, with service by Rev. A. D. McLeod and interment at Sunny Bank Cemetery.

Better Service.

Owing to the illnes of some of his staff, R. L. Black regrets he was unable to properly serve the crowds who are taking advantage of his Great Slaughter Sale of Ladies' Garments. He has secured additional help and will now look after their needs. His values in new spring suits, coats and dresses are old time values.

To Train for Nurse.

Miss Pauline McLeod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McLeod, is leaving this evening for Newport, R. I., where she will take a nurse's training course. Miss McLeod has been one of Fredericton's most popular young ladies and has been the guest of honor at numerous social functions during the past fortnight. She was prominent in the work of the V. A. D's here, being quartermaster of Division No. 31, St. John Ambulance Brigade.

Patriotic Bridge a Success.

Notwithstanding the heavy rainstorm which prevailed all last evening, the patriotic bridge held by the Sir Howard Douglas Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire in the assembly room of the G. W. V. A. was well patronized and fifteen tables were kept going until about 11.15 o'clock when a dainty supper was served. Some high scores were made, Mrs. Harry G. Chestnut carrying off the ladies' prize, Miss Bessie Babbitt the second and Mrs. W. T. Gerald, the consolation prize. W. S. Thomas won the gentlemen's first prize, G. A. Taylor the second and Cecil Dewar carried off the consolation prize. Mrs. W. C. Crocket, Regent of the Chapter; Mrs. G. A. Taylor and Mrs. Wm. Robinson were untiring in their efforts to make the bridge a success and the memorial fund will be considerably increased by last night's receipts. The rooms were very prettily decorated with flags, bunting, potted plants and crepe paper and the beautiful gowns worn by the ladies made the scene a very pretty one.

Miss A. L. Taylor Seeks Relief from Duties—Protests from Parents.

John J. Weddall presided at the regular meeting of the School Board held yesterday, when Dr. VanWart, the chairman, and Dr. Crocket were both professionally engaged. The other members in attendance included Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Cox, Mr. Spurden, Mr Lemont, Mr. Hughes and Mr. Shute.

A delegation from Doak Settlement, composed of Messrs. Sauniers and Beatty, was received. They had the school district measured upon the suggestion of the inspector and claim that the geographical centre is in the neighborhood of the Ryan property, or that formerly owned by the late C. H. Thomas. This locality is where they would have the proposed new school house erected—about three-quarters of a mile nearer the river than the present site. Mr. Hughes had a sketch of the settlement before him, and while the proposed new site would be very much nearer the homes of the delegates, who live on the Wilsey road, it would not, he claimed, serve all the residents as well as the present location. After general conversation upon the subject Mr. Weddall informed the delegates that the board would consider their proposal later.

The report on the city schools for the year by Inspector Hanson was received and considered. While it contains encouraging features in connection with our schools it is evident some improvement may yet be anticipated before the acme is reached in all departments. However, the public as well as the trustees are proud of the position held by the Fredericton schools.

Among the communications read were several applications for positions on the board's teaching staff which were entered in a book kept for the purpose. Applications for increase of salary were received, notwithstanding the united claims recently presented to the trustees. A

NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL ON CHURCH STREET

Temporary Accommodations for the Cathedral Sunday School Being Provided.

To provide temporary accommodations for the Christchurch Cathedral Sunday School a building which was formerly a carriage house on Church street, adjoining Bishopscote, the official residence of the Bishop of Fredericton, is now being remodelled.

For many years the Church Hall building at the corner of Carleton and Brunswick streets has been used by the Cathedral Sunday School. Lately, however, there has been only a temporary arrangement, as it was proposed to erect a Chapter House near the Cathedral this year, and the Ancient Order of Hibernians have leased the upper portion of what was formerly the Church Hall building for a period of ten years and the lower floor is now a dance hall.

His Lordship Bishop Richardson said this morning that high costs would probably make it financially impossible to proceed this year with the construction of the proposed Chapter House for the Cathedral and that meanwhile the converted building will be utilized for Sunday School purposes.

C. N. R. Officials Discuss Location of New Bridge and New Layout in Fredericton

Propose Subway at Junction of Queen and Brunswick Streets With Waterloo Row and University Avenue for Street Traffic—No Crossing on George Street and Gates for Level Crossing on Charlotte Street—To Start Work on Bridge This Summer.

Officials of the Canadian National Railways discussed with representatives of the City of Fredericton yesterday plans for the construction of the new railway bridge across the St. John river here, the new location of the C.N.R. tracks through the city and the provisions for crossings for vehicular and other street traffic.

Chief Engineer Brown and General Superintendent L. S. Brown were among the C.N.R. representatives, while the city was represented by Mayor Reid, Deputy Mayor Wilkinson, City Engineer McDowell and others. They spent the afternoon looking over the ground for the bridge and approaches and afterwards inspected the proposed work for improving the drainage of the railway yards and the rear of the city in which the C.P.R. and C.N.R. will co-operate with the city and bear a portion of the expense.

Plans for the new bridge call for its location about 50 feet south of the present structure, a new substructure being erected, and the approach will, it is said, be so arranged that the present C.N.R. station can be utilized and not to call for the drastic changes which were suggested some time ago and which, it was said, would mean the expropriation of large blocks of property, including wiping out practically all the residences on George and Charlotte streets between the present C.N.R. tracks and University avenue, as well as a number of those on the latter thoroughfare.

Some Changes in Streets.

On the other hand, it is now said that not more than three or four properties at the most will be affected, but some changes in the layout of the streets in the vicinity of the bridge and C.N.R. station are under consideration, although it was declared that nothing would be done until plans of the whole new layout had been submitted to the City Council for approval. The present proposals, it is understood, call for a subway under the railway tracks at the end of the bridge, where there is a junction of Queen and Brunswick streets with Waterloo Row and University avenue, which would allow for uninterrupted passage of traffic irrespective of the movement of trains. The closing of George street at the tracks so there would be no passage of street traffic there is also being considered, while at Charlotte street it is proposed to install gates for a level crossing.

In order to secure a satisfactory location for the subway and obtain proper entrances from both ends, it will probably be necessary to make some changes in the location of University avenue and perhaps to place the tunnel somewhat nearer the river than the present railway crossing, while some comparatively slight changes might also be necessary at the foot of Brunswick street to make

FRENCH EMBARGO WILL HIT CANADA

Some of the Articles Forbidden Entrance Largely Obtained from Dominion.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Ottawa, April 30.—For some time France has under contemplation the imposing of an embargo on the importation of articles of luxury, and word has just been received here that as the result of a decree issued yesterday this has now been put into effect, and there are certain articles on the list which will affect Canada to a considerable extent.

The list consists of one hundred and eighty-seven articles, including lobsters, fountain pens, candied fruit, chocolate, silue lacea, hosiery, artificial silk, wall papers, cutlery, musical instruments, rubber wear, certain woolen and cotton fabrics, brushes and enamel ware. None of the above may be imported into France during the continuance of the decree.

The articles in which Canada will be affected are chiefly lobsters, of which we exported for the ten months ending January, 1920, $342,331 worth and for the same period in the previous year $146,634; confectionery, principally chocolates, $311,301; rubber wear, $430,659, and woollen and cotton clothing about $338,000 worth. There are some tiny articles on the list, of which we are not at present exporting much to France, but are nevertheless in a position to do so, including enamel ware, fountain pens, brushes, wall paper and hosiery. In the first mentioned particularly, a large order for Rumania was recently cancelled and could be diverted to France but for this embargo.

DELIVER HUNS FROM ISOLATION

General Rejoicing in Germany at Prospect of Having the Shackles Removed.

Berlin, April 29.—The invitation extended by the supreme council to the German government to send representatives to the conference, is viewed by George Bernhard, in the Vossische Zeitung as a signal improvement in Germany's diplomatic position, "Germany thereby being delivered from the shackles of its enforced isolation."

The cooperation of Germany, France and Belgium will form the nucleus of a new active policy to work out a European confraternity, he adds.

The semi-official Allgemeine Zeitung, discussing the destruction of war material under the treaty in state arsenals and about 25,000 private workshops, expresses the hope that the Entente may relax its demands for the surrender of all resulting waste material, which now constitutes virtually the sole raw material for keeping the iron and steel foundries in operation, since the supplies of ore from Lorraine, Luxembourg and other places have ceased.

Dr. Adolf Koester, Minister of Foreign Affairs, in an interview published in the same paper, said he welcomed the Entente's invitation of Germany to send representatives to the conference at Spa.

"We presume," he added, "that the negotiations will be between two partners, equally convinced of the necessity of firmly reconstructing Europe, and with the hope to show our former opponents that we have the earnest wish to fulfil the peace treaty to the utmost limit of our capacity."

Dr. Koester regretted that the statement of the Allied governments did not mention the occupation of Frankfort and the Main district, since the number of German troops in the neutral zone was now only seventeen thousand, which was allowed by the agreement of 1919.

"In these circumstances," he continued, "the occupation of the Main district is superfluous. Consequently, we have instructed the President of the German peace conference delegation to ask the Ambassadors' conference when the illegal occupation of the Main district will terminate."

PRAIRIE PROVINCES WANT SETTLEMENT

Disposition of Natural Resources Allowed to Drag from Session to Session.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Ottawa, April 30.—When the caucus of the western members supporting the Government is held this morning there will be presented the report of a special committee on resources and it will be urged on the caucus that action on the matter of the transfer of the resources to the provinces cannot be any longer delayed.

The special committee preparing this report consists of Messrs. Wright, Buchanan and R. F. Greene, representing Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia respectively, and J. A. Campbell, of Manitoba, convener. The report says that the financial condition of Canada makes a definite policy on natural resources a matter of immediate concern.

A necessary prerequisite to any satisfactory national policy on the matter is the definite settlement of the question of the ultimate control of the natural resources of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. It is pointed out that while the Government has announced that it is deferring action on the matter only until the provinces agree on a basis of transfer, such agreement appears to be no nearer than it was years ago, and there does not appear to be any likelihood of a settlement being reached in this way. It is held that the question is solely one Between the western provinces and the Dominion, that the Dominion Government has all the data and should work out and present to the western provinces a scheme according to the promise made to them by the Prime Minister. The committee recommend that the Government be informed that it is imperative that the question of the control of the resources of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba be settled at once.

The Man from Glengarry, via Temiskaming, was introduced to the House yesterday afternoon by J. W. Kennedy and Major Andrews, two other cross benchers. Angus MacDonald is a big husky giant of the same type as Caldwell of Carleton-Victoria, about fifty-five years of age and a working miner. He is the first Simon pure representative of labor to enter the House, in that he is not a labor leader but comes direct from the ranks. He has been heralded as an extremist—almost a Bolshevik—but he certainly does not look the part, and it is probable that his reputation in this respect has been exaggerated by those whom he defeated. At all events, the Farmers' party have received him with open arms, and the House will await his first utterances with interest.

GIGANTIC MERGER OF STEEL INTERESTS

$500,000,000 Corporation is Likely to Control Steel Trade of Dominion.

Montreal, April 29.—The directors of the Dominion Steel Corporation and Canada S. S. lines and the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company went into session in their various headquarters here this afternoon to discuss the organization plans of the British Empire Steel Corporation, calling for the formation of a $500,000,000 merger.

On the street it was generally conceded that the directors will unquestionably recommend to the shareholders of their companies that the merger be agreed upon. It is thought now that it will include, in addition to the Dominion Steel Corporation, the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, Canada Steamship lines, and the largest shipbuildings undertakings in Canada, which include the Halifax shipyards at Halifax, the Collingwood Shipbuilding Company, at Collingwood, Ontario, and the Port Arthur Shipbuilding Company, at Port Arthur, Ontario.

It is also reported that there is a strong probability of the Montreal Transportation Company being included, owing to its close relationship with the operations of Canada Steamship lines, and also the Maritime Nail Company, of St. John, N. B., one of the largest individual customers for certain products of the Dominion Steel Corporation.

Of the authorized capital, it is understood there will be issued $150,000,000 of first preference stock, $150,000,000 of second preference stock and $50,000,000 of third preference and participating stock, while the common share capital will amount to $200,000,000.

The general plan that has been discussed, it is thought, would provide for the exchange of preferred stocks of the different companies into first preference stock in the new corporation, while the common share-holders of the different companies will be given in exchange part second preference and part common stock of the new company. The $50,000,000 third preference and participating stock will represent the new capital that has been put into the corporation by the group of English interests over and above the large holdings in the different companies which they have recently accumulated in the open market.

Moving to This City.

C. H. Cochrane, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., with Mrs. Cochrane will take up their residence in this city on the upper end of Brunswick street in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McDonald and child are also moving to this city about the first of August, Mr. McDonald having found it imperative to live in this city in connection with his Y. M. C. A. duties.

When winter dies spring will furnish the flowers.

CANADA AND UNITED STATES.

Although the United States has shown a marked reluctance to interfere with the domestic affairs of European nations, it manifests no such delicacy in regard to this continent, says the Montreal Gazette. This may be due to the fact that the interests involved in the one case are merely those of humanity, while in the other they touch the sacred ark of American trade and industry. At any rate, this marked mobility of principle presents itself conspicuously, and nowhere more so than in the impudent attempt that is being made in Washington to bluff or blackmail Canadian provinces into the cancellation of certain export restrictions affecting the pulp and paper industry. For many years the United States has been engaged in squandering its pulpwood resources, waking up to the danger of exhaustion only when that danger had become a practical reality. Conservation, when conservation and reafforestation might have meant something, received no thought and, so far as its resources in raw materials were concerned, the pulp and paper industry drew with persistent recklessness, not only upon its interest but upon its capital, and now it feels the pinch.

For this instructive demonstration in national and industrial economics, certain politicians at Washington, acting, presumably, out of a disinterested regard for the earnings of the American pulp and paper industry, propose that Canada shall be made to pay; and if Canada is unwilling to foot the bill, then Canada must be bludgeoned into submission. Nothing less than that is meant by the resolution passed by the United States Senate asking for the appointment of a commission to "negotiate" with Canadian representatives with a view to the removal of the provincial embargoes on the export of pulpwood cut upon Crown lands. The offer to negotiate is backed by a threat that, if the embargoes are not removed the United States will stop coal and cotton shipments into this country. One of the leading exponents of this friendly and disarming method of opening international negotiations is Senator Underwood, of Alabama, the gentleman who, a few years ago, presided over the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives and gave his name to the Democratic tariff. Presenting his views to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, Mr. Underwood said that United States paper mills could not be operated at capacity without the free importation of Canadian pulpwood. He said that the United States had been more than liberal in its trade policy with Canada, giving liberally of coal and cotton and providing a market for 85 per cent. of Canadian newsprint. This is what is known in the United States as "bunk." The United States trade policy has been to sell as much in Canada and buy as little as possible, a strictly business policy, and the American market for Canadian newsprint is due to the very condition which Mr. Underwood now seeks to correct by what he calls retaliatory measures.

Embargoes on the export of pulpwood—so far from being a new thing—have been in force in Ontario, Quebec and New Brunswick for a number of years. They were imposed for the protection and development of home industry, the principle being identical with that of a protective tariff, a principle not unknown or unfavored in the United States. The embargoes against the export of sawlogs are still older. These restrictions, which apply only to wood cut upon lands leased from the Crown, are designed to reserve Canadian raw material for the benefit of Canadian industry, of Canadian labor, and for the furtherance of Canadian prosperity.

Another Washington witness, a paper manufacturer, is quoted as saying that two to three millions invested in Canadian pulpwood lands had been a dead loss, the implication being that some Canadian authority had broken faith with the American investor. The plain truth, which is not noticeably present in the statements of these witnesses, is that any company or individual holding timber limits in this country can use them, if he chooses, by erecting a mill in Canada. That is what the Michigan lumbermen did when the supply of Ontario sawlogs was stopped; that is what a protective measure is for. Moreover, the Canadian embargoes are not discriminatory. They place the Canadian manufacturer and the American manufacturer upon an absolutely equal footing as regards the use of Canadian pulpwood. No mention seems to have been made of that essential feature of the case at Washington.

A forced analogy is sought between Canadian exports of pulpwood and American exports of such raw materials as coal and cotton. Canada unquestionably requires both coal and cotton, and gets both from the United States. So far as coal is concerned, there is no analogy whatever. Coal is a raw material when it leaves the mine and is still a raw material when it enters the furnace. It passes through no process of manufacture, and therefore the principle of industrial protection cannot apply to it. The case of cotton is different; but a discriminatory embargo on raw cotton as a measure of retaliation for a pulpwood embargo, which is not discriminatory, would be a thing difficult to justify. Perhaps Mr. Underwood can do it.

THE GREATEST CITY.

London was the greatest city in the world, from the point of view of having the greatest number of people living in the same community, but it cannot boast the claim any longer. New York claims to have a population of eight million people. Immediately prior to the war London had seven million four hundred thousand. While it has been losing population, New York has been gaining it. The London press admits that it has not so stupendous a population as it had. Middle western papers in the United States are admitting that since the war there has been a drift of people into the eastern metropolis. They have been enmeshed in the industrialism and tinselled glorifications of America's Babylon. Tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands of citizens of the United States have settled in New York since the war. Its formerly congested streets have become moving streams of humanity. It is not so to live. Few of the republic's states contain so many inhabitants as does its principal city. Other cities are raising their over-populous corporations mammoth-like upon the plains where people sparsely have their being. Chicago is predicted to rival London before many decades, even though London retains her second rank by a huge majority. Paris, Petrograd, Berlin, Buenos Ayres; each a great city, each wielding powerful influence, each is small in comparison. The nations claiming them are wiser, in that their peoples are content to scatter over their rural parts rather than to congregate where even the very air man breathes is laden with the fetid odor of humanity. Cities in Canada, some laid out big enough for other New Yorks, Londons and Chicagos, offer freer breathing grounds for the congested myriads who live, pled family above family, in tiers.

IMPOSE SENTENCE IN CARLETON CO.

Douglas Walker Goes to Penitentiary for Seven Years for Serious Offence.

Woodstock, April 29.—In the supreme court today a conviction was made in the case of the boy Newman Vantassel for attempted robbery. Judge Crocket was not inclined to send the boy to the reformatory, saying that one case of a reformatory boy convicted of a serious offence in this court would indicate that this form of punishment is not a deterrent crime. He allowed the boy to go on suspended sentence.

Alonzo Shaw for assaulting his wife, and who has been in jail for three months, was given an additional five days' sentence.

Douglas Walker, colored, convicted of a serious offce was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. C. J. Jones acted for the prosecution in the above cases. The defence was conducted by R. L. Simms. The court adjourned until Monday when a civil case will be taken up.

ST. STEPHEN FATHER AND SON BANQUET

St. Stephen, N. B., April 29.—The C. S. E. T. boys of this town, with their fathers, attended a supper this evening in the Methodist vestry. There were 120 present. After enjoying the splendid banquet prepared by the women of the different churches, the boys and fathers sang some good old songs. Miss Phyllis Waterson played the piano and A. M. Gregg, who has charge of the boys' work in New Brunswick, led the singing.

George H. L. Cockburn acted as toastmaster. The supper was a great success and a good ending to the winter's work with the boys. Following are the toasts: The King, George H. I. Cockburn; Canada, Jack McLeod; Our Dads, Donald Towers, responded to by Elwell DeWolfe; Our Town, by B. Pomeroy, responded to by Coun. Nesbitt; The Defenders of the Empire, M. Smith, responded to by Hardy Gangng; The Church, by Robert Babb, responded to by Dr. Goucher; The C.S.E.T., by Stanley Huestic, responded to by A. M. Gregg.

LITTLE GIRL KILLED BY A MOTOR CAR

Two Occupants of Car Had Arms Broken and All Six Held for Theft of Car.

St. John, April 30.—A fatal accident occurred about 9.30 o'clock last night near Renforth station, when an automobile with six occupants, after crashing into the side of George H. Colby's store veered off the road and struck two little girls, injuring one, Virginia Garrett, so badly that she died about 30 minutes later. The other child, a sister, only received minor injuries. The two little girls are the daughters of Fred E. Garrett, of Renforth, who is connected with the firm of J. M. Roche & Co. Ltd., King street.

According to residents of Renforth, the children were on their way home about 9.30 and were accompanied by their cousin, Miss Finlay. They were about twenty yards from the main road, when the car which was going pretty fast, seemed to get out of control and crashed into the side of the store and then went off the road hitting Virginia Garrett who was nearest the store and knocking her down. It struck the younger sister, Margaret, only a grazing blow and ended up in the ditch.

The occupants of the motor car were all more or less injured and several were thrown out. One, Max Dean, had one of his arms broken in two places, his collar bone broken and it is thought that several ribs are broken. Another member of the party, Allan Curry, had his left arm broken. The other four received minor injuries. Their names are Harold Beverly, Jack Wilkinson, Charles Ross and John Kennedy. They were arrested last night by the detectives on the charge of stealing a motor car which is the property of W. E. Gunter.

The six men charged with the theft of the car will be held until the inquest, which will be made by the King's county coroner. They do not deny taking the car and admit all the occurrences, but it will be necessary to wait until the injured ones are recovered somewhat before full particulars are known. Two of the young men, hearing that the detectives were looking for them, went to the police headquarters and gave themselves up and the detectives had no difficulty in finding the others at their homes. The car is pretty badly damaged and was still at Renforth at a late hour.

PULP WORKERS TO GET MORE PAY

Chatham, N. B., April 29.—A committee of the Local International Brotherhood of Pulp & Sulphate workers with Mr. Labelle, organizer, met in conference with W. G. Stevens, manager of the Dominion Pulp Co. Ltd., on Saturday last and drew up a schedule of wages and conditions. This mill, which has been operating with two shifts, turned over to three tours of eight hours each and commenced operations under the new arrangements today.

The tour workers got increase in wages of 20 per cent., while all other labor received an increase of 30 per cent. Day workers work the nine-hour day as formerly.

The Stock Market

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York (Wall Street), April 30.—The trend of prices was downward again at the dull opening of today's stock market, tomorrow's recess with its attendant labor uncertainties impelling further selling. Crucible Steel, minus its stocks dividend, was the central feature, falling 9½ points to 140. Losses of 1 to 2½ points accompanied the early dealings in American Tobacco, Hide and Leather preferred and Chandler Motor, Reading, South Pacific, Baldwin Locomotive and several of the oils showed moderate improvement, but United States Steel soon declined a substantial fraction on pressure.

THE LIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE

His Modest Request.

The great pianist at a drawing-room function was clearly annoyed. "I do not ask," he said, "that you moderate your conversation to the point where you can hear me play. That, perhaps, would be too much. But, in order to do myself justice I must request that you allow me to hear myself."

He resumed his playing amid deep silence.

Kings and Their Characters.

The class composition was on "Kings," and this is what one boy wrote:

"The most powerful king on earth is wor-king; the laziest, shir-king; one of the worst kings, smo-king; the wittiest, jo-king; the quietest, thin-king; the thirstiest, drin-king; the sliest, win-king, and the noisiest, tal-king."

In 1925.

"The butler was intoxicated this afternoon, Henry. You must discharge him."

"Discharge him nothing. I'll double his wages. Maybe he'll tell where he got it."

Conflicting Accounts.

Little Helen—Mama, the minister told me today that God gave me to you.

Mother—Well, He did, my dear.

Helen—Then somebody isn't telling the truth. I heard auntie telling Mrs. Brown that the court gave me to you.

FROM THE PEOPLE

THAT GOVERNMENT BONUS.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Will you allow me space in your People's Column to say a few words in answer to the letter of the 24th instant, signed Canadian.

You said your son was abroad for four years, but you neglected to say whether he was in England, France or Bermuda. About the bonus to the returned soldiers. You call it waste, and say the men would be spending their money for new suits and $20 shirts. Now, some of you must think that returned men are all light-headed, but they are not. I think I understand what you are trying to get at; it's the high cost of living to you. Really, now, who is the cause of the high cost of living? When we were overseas fighting for $1.10 a day our "home-fighters" were making $15 to $20 a day, and by this time should be millionaires. That accounts for the high cost of living. If we get that $2,000 bonus it will be nothing more than what is coming to us in the way of back pay, and I do not think there is a returned man, who served in France, who is against the bonus. There are yet some people who do not realize the hardships we endured in France, eating hardtack while they were safe at home eating chicken and other luxuries; and these are the very ones who today are opposed to the government making the grant to the returned men.

Yours, etc.,
A RETURNED MAN.
Fredericton, April 27, 1920.

COMFORT IN CATS.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—As usual, the latest advocate of licensing cats ignores the very real difficulty of affixing the license, there being comparatively few cats which can safely wear collars.

Also it should be taken into consideration that many poor old people own and find comfort and pleasure in their cat, who cannot afford to keep a taxed animal. It seems a very cruel thing to take from such people what is often their only real pleasure. They will share their food with their cat, but they do not have cash to pay out for its license. The soft, warm body of the cat is wonderful comfort on old knees, often unable to carry their possessors where birds are to be seen and enjoyed.

No thinking person will deny that there are too many vagrant cats, but in our efforts to correct this I think we should be very sure that personal preference does not enter too largely into the method.

I know some very worthy bird lovers, for instance, who nevertheless would eliminate the English sparrow, row.

Yours,
E. M. C.

BONUS AND WASTE.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—If you will give me a little space in your valuable paper I will answer the letter on Bonus and Waste signed Canadian.

Now, Mr. Canadian, you refer to the granting of bonuses to returned men as a waste, and say the men would quit work and spend the money foolishly. You may be right in a way, but your way is funny, as I don't think any man who has a good job and a little common sense (and there are a great many of these men), will throw up his job when he sees a good chance to put a few dollars aside for a rainy day, and I think even a millionaire would find it some job to give his wife the money you speak of to spend foolishly and to buy a million suits for himself. This bonus won't make a millionaire of anyone.

Did it ever occur to you that while these men were fighting in France for $1.10 a day, men who were far more able to stand the hardships of France were having a good time at home on $75 and $100 a month—and sugar did not cost $20 a bag either.

You say your son served four years overseas; if so, where? And that he is against the granting of a bonus to his comrades. Well, there are a lot just like him; but if he had to support a wife and child and furnish a home on $2.50 per day, he would soon change his mind.

I might say that the granting of the bonus would not increase the cost of living. Let the government put a fixed price on foodstuffs so the "middlemen" and "food hogs" cannot get a chance to put their prices up and the cost of living would not be so high. The government has done splendidly for the returned man; but I still think it could stretch a point and do a little more, and give the soldier the bonus.

Now, I am sure that at least 95 out of every 100 of the returned men will agree and look at this matter the same as I do and use their money in a way that will benefit them.

Yours, etc.,
A RETURNED SOLDIER.

Dundee and Jackson Next Week.

New York, April 30.—The meeting of Johnny Dundee and Willie Jackson, the two foremost contenders for Benny Leonard's title, marks the promoting of Jersey's first twelve round bout under the Hurley law, recently signed by Governor Edwards, and which goes into effect May 1. The bout comes off five days later, May 6, and will be staged by the Newark Sportsmen's Club at the First Regiment Armory in Newark.

Coogan Gets New Manager.

Mel Coogan, the clever Brooklyn boxer, has placed himself under the managerial wing of Joe Woodman, the Bostonian who piloted the well known Sam Langford. Coogan holds newspaper decisions over some of the best men in his class, such as Johnny Dundee, Willie Jackson and Ritchie Mitchell. Coogan was defeated a short while ago by champion Benny Leonard. The new manager plans to start his man all over again. He is willing to pit Coogan against the likeliest contenders, especially Lew Tendler, the clever Philadelphian, and in this manner gain the right to another match with Leonard.

May Bird, 2.08 1-2, Will be Starter in Free for Alls

Frank Fox Definitely Decides to Campaign Down Here

WILL SHIP TO FREDERICTON

Expected to Make His First Starts Here at "Curtain Raiser".

May Bird, 2.08½, will be a starter in the free for alls on the Maritime & Maine Circuit this year.

This informaton has come from Frank Fox, the well known New England trainer, who has written to Hugh O Neill, secretary of the Fredericton Park Association, from his headquarters at Combination Park, Boston, that he will start the daughter of Ashland Bird in the free for alls. She made her winrace record of 2.08½ on a half mile track in 1918.

The present indications are that the Fox stable will be shiped direct to Fredericton from Boston by water, making the trip via St. John and then up the river, so their first start will be at the curtain raiser meeting at the Fredericton track on June 29th and 30th and July 1st, shipping from here to Houlton, Me., for the opening of the Maritime & Maine Circuit and then going right down the line.

String of Eight Horses Likely.

Writing to Mr. O'Neill under date of April 21st, Driver Fox said that all his patrons had assented to the proposal to make the whirl on the Maritime & Maine Circuit and that classes so far suggested would fit his horses satisfactorily. It is expected there will probably be about eight horses in the Fox stable but how soon they will arrive here is not known, although it will probably not be until about the middle of June. He campaigned in the Maritime Provinces in 1906 with Gloria, 2.10¼, which placed the Maritime Provinces record at 2.10¾; Dr. Band, 2.15¼, Warren F., Domestic and Sir George. In 1908 he raced Warren F., Northern Spy, Louise E., Bard Allerton, Grace Maud and Aintree on the New Brunswick circuit, and he was back here again in 1909.

It is expected that the St. John stables will be here some time next week to commence their training at the local track.—J. D. B.

BRITISH OLYMPIC TEAM NEEDS FUNDS

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, April 30.—Plans for British participation in the Antwerp Olympiad are being held up pending the outcome of the money raising campaign for financing the entrants. Pressing appeals have been made in recent weeks for £13,000, of which only £1,500 have been subscribed up to the present.

"Our main difficulty has been the multiplicity of appeals on behalf of war charities," said Secretary Laffan, of the British Olympic Association, to the Associated Press yesterday afternoon. "Nevertheless, we have by no means despaired of having a worthy representation at Antwerp."

Longboat Goes Back to Land

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

PRINCE ALBERT, SASK., April 30.—Tom Longboat, some years ago famous as a long distance runner, arrived here yesterday from Caledonia, Ontario, and presented his credentials to the Soldiers' Settlement Board and will take up land in Northern Saskatchewan. He has not decided upon his exact location. His wife is here with him and Longboat says he can make money farming in this district.

PERTINENT COMMENT on SPORTING TOPICS

Rain is playing havoc with the baseball schedules.

Only a couple of months to the Maritime & Maine Shortship Circuit opening.

Babe Ruth will probably hit his stride soon and then watch those Yankees climb!

The New York Giants have suffered a tough blow in the loss of Frank Frisch, the Fordham star, who has been doing so well at third base.

Old Jake Daubert got four safeties and a base on balls in five trips to the plate the other day. Too bad he's getting so aged!

What a wonderful horse Bill Sharon 2.16¼, might be in a renewal of Readville's famous handicap trot. There are a lot of horsemen who believe he is fit to race anywhere.

The early season form displayed by the clubs of the "big" leagues this year show just how uncertain baseball really is. Forecasts spilled before the season opened look sick already.

A returned soldiers' team could be formed in Fredericton that would clean up any other combination that could be selected for a local baseball leagen. It is too bad the local G.W.V.A. has not already taken the initiative in such a move, as it would be not only a benefit to sport but would doubtless prove a factor in pulling the returned men together and keeping them together. There should be some moving spirit amongst the ex-service men to get them all together for a strong G. W. V. A. basebal lteam.

It is usually May 1st before any serious start can be made by the trainers in charge of harness racing stables in this part of the country and this season does not appear to be any exception to that rule, only, perhaps, it may be a little more so.

The fact that the Fredericton bowlers captured the Maritime and Eastern Maine championship at the recent tournament at St. John should help the game locally, as next season's tournament will take place here. The visitors, by the way, will find a swell lot of alleys here to play their games.

The National Trotting Association's racing rules and bye-laws for 1920 are published this year in a volume which includes the official win-race list for 1920, embracing all live horses which acquired win-race record from 1914 to 1919 with the exception of those which have been exported to Europe. I received a copy of the book this morning from W. H. Gocher, the secretary of the N.T.A., who visited here in March to attend the meeting of the Maritime and Maine Circuit. Under present time allowance rules, anybody following harness racing will find it difficult to get along without the win-race list, and the veteran executive of the National Trotting Association is to be congratulated upon the excellent volume he has had produced.—J. D. B.

Johnny Evers Will "Start Something" to Collect His 1918 Salary From Red Sox

Turned Down $1,000 More Salary from St. Louis Cardinals and Was Not Given Any Reason for Being Dropped—Schang in Boston Uniform.

Boston, April 30.—Johnny Evers announced yesterday that he proposed shortly to start something with a view to collecting a season's salary that he claims is due him from the Boston Red Sox under his contract with that club in 1918.

"I do not care to make a law court case of it," he said, "for I believe that I can obtain satisfaction through the National Commission.

"There was no 10 days' clause in my contract and it was specifically agreed that I should be given my unconditional release at the end of the season. I never have been able to learn just why I was let out on the opening day.

"One unpleasant thing for me to recall now is that at the time I signed the contract with the Boston club I had in my pocket an unsigned contract with the St. Louis Cardinals, calling for $1,000 more salary than I was to receive from the Boston club. Under this, I was to go to St. Louis as an assistant to Jack Hendrix, then manager.

"I turned this down because I preferred locating in Boston. If any valid reason had been given for dropping me, I would have been satisfied at the time for I didn't want anybody's money without working for it. I couldn't get any explantion at the time nor since. Now I propose to see just what my rights are under the contract."

Evers will take a whirl around the circuit in each of the major leagues and may later become baseball coach at Boston College.

Schang in Boston Uniform.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 29. — Wally Schang was on the field today clad in a Boston uriform. Wally did not sign up or anything like that, but had such a keen desire to take some exercise that Manager Barrow hated to disappoint him. Schang has not yet spilled ink on the 1920 contract he insists on getting, but it's almost a cinch he will be all fixed up.

True Knights of Faith

The old knight said no word, but he put a hand on either shoulder, and kissed his squire, with the tears shining in his eyes. Alleyne sprang to the rope, and sliding swiftly down, soon found himself at its extremity. From above it seemed as though rope and cliff were well-nigh touching, but now, when swinging a hundred feet down, the squire found that he could scarce reach the face of the rock with his foot, and that it was as smooth as glass, with no resting-place where a mouse could stand. Some three feet lower, however, his eye lit upon a long jagged crack which slanted downwards, and this he must reach if he would save not only his own poor life, but that of the eight-score men above him. Yet it were madness to spring for that narrow slit with nought but the wet, smooth rock to cling to. He swung for a moment, full of thought and even as he hung there another of the hellish stones sang through his curls, and struck a chip from the face of the cliff. Up he clambered a few feet, drew up the loose end after him, unslung his belt, hung on with knee and with elbow while he spliced the long, tough leathern belt to the end of the cord; then lowering himself as far as he could go, he swung backwards and forwards until his hand reached the crack, when he left the rope and clung to the face of the cliff. Another stone struck him on the side, and he heard a sound like a breaking stick, with a keen stabbing pain which shot through the chest. Yet it was no time now to think of pain or ache. There was his lord and his eight-score comrades, and they must be plucked from the jaws of death. On he clambered, with his hand shuffling down the long sloping crack, sometimes bearing all his weight upon his arms, at others finding some small shell or tuft on which to rest his foot. Would he never pass over that fifty feet. He dared not look down, and could but grope slowly onwards, his face to the cliff, his fingers clutching, his feet scraping and feeling for a support. Every vein and crack and mottling of that face of rock remained forever stamped upon his memory. At last, however, his foot came upon a broad resting-place and he ventured to cast a glance downwards. Thank God! he had reached the highest of those fatal pinnacles upon his comrade had fallen. Quickly now he sprang from rock to rock until his feet were on the ground, and he had his hand stretched out for the horse's rein, when a sling-stone struck him on the head, and he dropped senseless upon the ground.

An evil blow it was for Alleyne, but a worse one still for him who struck it. The Spanish slinger, seeing the youth lie slain, and judging from his dress that he was no common man, rushed forward to plunder him, knowing well that the bowmen above him had expended their last shaft. He was still three paces, however, from his victim's side when John upon the cliff above plucked up a huge boulder, and, poising it for an instant, dropped it with fatal aim upon the slinger beneath him. It struck upon his shoulder, and hurled him, crushed and screaming to the ground, while Alleyne, recalled to his senses by these shrill cries in his very ear, staggered on to his feet, and gazed wildly about him. His eyes fell upon the horses, grazing upon the scanty pasture, and in an instant all had come back to him—his mission, his comrades, the need for haste. He was dizzy, sick, faint, but he must not die, and he must not tarry, for his life meant many lives that day. In an instant he was in his saddle and spurring down the valley. Loud rang the swift charger's hoofs over rock and reef, while the fire flew from the stroke of iron, and the loose stones showered up behind him. But his head was whirling round, the blood was gushing from his brow, his temple, his mouth. Ever keener and sharper was the deadly pain which shot like a red-hot arrow through his side. He felt that his eye was glazing, his senses slipping from him, his grasp upon the reins relaxing. Then with one mighty effort, he called up all his strength for a single minute. Stooping down, he loosened the stirrup-straps, bound his knees tightly to his saddle-flaps, twisted his hands in the bridle, and then, putting the gallant horse's head for the mountain path, he dashed the spurs in and fell forward fainting with his face buried in the coarse, black mane.

Little could he ever remember of that wild ride. Half conscious, but ever with the one thought beating in his mind, he goaded the horse onwards, rushing swiftly down steep ravines, over huge boulders, along the edges of black abysses. Dim memories had of beetling cliffs, of a group of huts with wondering faces at the doors, of foaming, clattering water, and of a bristle of mountain beeches. Once, ere he had ridden far, he heard behind him the deep, sullen shouts, which told him that his comrades had set their faces to the foe once more. Then all was blank until he woke to kindly blue English eyes peering down upon him and to hear the blessed sound of his country's speech. They were but a foraging party—a hundred archers and as many men-at-aarms—but their leader was Sir Hugh Calverley, and he was not a man to bide idle when good blows were to be had not three leagues from him. A scout was sent flying with a message to the camp, and Sir Hugh, with his two hundred men, thundered off to the rescue. With them went Alleyne, still bound to his saddle, still dripping with blood, and swooning and recovering, and swooning once again. On they rode, and on, until, at last, topping a ridge, they looked down upon the fateful valley. Alas! and alas! for the sight that met their eyes.

There, beneath them, was the blood-bathed hill, and from the highest pinnacle there flaunted the yellow and white banner with the lions and the towers of the royal house of Castile. Up the long slope rushed ranks and ranks of men—exultant, shouting, with waving pennons and brandished arms. Over the whole summit were dense throngs of knights, with no enemy that could be seen to face them, save only that at one corner of the plateau an eddy and swirl amid the crowded mass seemed to show that all resistance was not yet at an end. At the sight a deep groan of rage and despair went up from the baffled rescuers, and, spurring on their horses, they clattered down the long and winding path which led to the valley beneath.

But they were too late to avenge, as they had been too late to save. Long ere they could gain the level ground, the Spaniards, seeing them riding swiftly amid the rocks, and being ignorant of their numbers, drew off from the captured hill, and, having secured their few prisoners, rode slowly in a long column, with drum-beating and cymbal-clashing, out of the valley. Their rear ranks were already passing out of sight ere the new-comers were urging their panting, foaming horses up the slopes which had been the scene of that long-drawn and bloody fight.

This is Mr. Blair's first visit to his old home in thirty years and he sees many changes and improvements. He is being warmly welcomed and will spend a few days here before returning to Bangor.

Married This Week.

A pretty wedding took place in the Methodist parsonage, Rev. Geo. M. Young officiating, on Wednesday evening, when Harry S. McGowan, of Stanley, and Myrtle C. Gregory, of Marysville, were united in matrimony. The happy couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Donovan, and left by the next morning's train for a honeymoon trip to St. John and Moncton.

On Departmental Business.

Hon. P. J. Veniot, Minister of Public Works, who is in the city today on departmental business, expects to leave for his home at Bathurst this afternoon or tomorrow morning. This afternoon he is conferring with the chief bridge engineer on the arrangements for a temporary ferry and the construction of a new bridge on the St. John River at Hartland, replacing the structure which was damaged by the ice run this spring.

Transferred to New Glasgow.

District Superintendent W. R. Fitzmaurice, of the Campbellton Division of the Canadian National Railways, has been transferred to the New Glasgow Division, and R. H. Morris, district superintendent of the New Glasgow Division, has been transferred to Campbellton. Mr. Fitzmaurice has made many friends, not only in Campbellton, but all over the division, who will regret to learn of his removal. He left for New Glasgow this morning and his family will join him after the schools close.

Returned Soldier Weds.

On Saturday afternoon, April 24 a, at 2 o'clock, at St. Anthony's church, North Devon, Rev. M. T. Murphy, the pastor, officiating, a quiet wedding was solemnized when Edward Parlee, a returned soldier, of North Devon, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Emily Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Owens, of Marysville. James Owens, brother of the bride, supported the groom, while Miss Evelyn McSorley attended the bride. The happy couple will reside at Moncton, where the groom is taking a vocational course in cap making.

Houses Declared Unsanitary.

At the meeting of the Fredericton sub-district Board of Health last evening two dwelling houses in the city were declared unfit for tenants until proper water and sewerage accommodations had been installed; two houses were ordered thoroughly fumigated before new tenants could occupy them, on account of the condition in which they are at present. The local board also considered the matter of taking up with the County Board the inspection of barns of all milk vendors, to see that they were kept in proper condition. The water report by the City Analyist, H. H. Hagerman, was a very favorable one.

SIX PROHIBITION CASES HEARD TODAY IN POLICE COURT

Dentist Intimates that His Confrere "Pinched" Bottle During a Visit.

DEVON MAN'S LIQUOR ORDERED RETURNED

Deposit of $205 in Case of Man Charged with Selling at Road House.

The police court docket this morning consisted of prohibition cases, no less than six coming before the Police Magistrate.

Two applications for the return of seized liquor were entered, one being granted and the other being stood over until this afternoon, while two fines of $100 each and costs were imposed on offenders who had liquor in their possession other than in their private dwelling houses.

The principal case on the docket was that of a local dentist who was charged with having liquor in his possession other than in his private dwelling house. Two witnesses, one another dentist and the other the druggist by whom the prescription was filled were called to give evidence by the prosecution. The dentist called as a witness, stated that he had had the prescription filled and on receiving the bottle of 16 ounces of whiskey had taken it to his office where he had put it on his desk. While attending a patient between 8.15 and 9.45 o'clock in the evening, the other dentist called at the office on a friendly visit and, after the patient had left, he missed his bottle and was repulsed when he attempted to find out if his friend had it. The two left the office together, the former going to his lodgings, while the latter went to his hotel, where he was found with the bottle in his possession by the inspectors. The case was stood over until 2.30 o'clock this afternoon.

One local Hebrew and a man from Devon entered applications for the restoration of shipments of liquor. The Devon man's barrel was ordered returned while the application of the local man was stood over until this afternoon, the seizure made by the inspectors in this case amounting to one barrel and three cases of whiskey.

A man said to have been caught by the inspectors selling liquor at a road house near this city was stood over until May 6th, upon a deposit of $205 being made.

SALVATION ARMY JUBILEE DRIVE

Organization Meeting Held Following a Banquet Last Evening.

A dinner was held last evening at Washington's Cafe in the interests of the business men's drive for the Salvation Army. The purpose of the meeting was to further organize York and Sunbury Counties for the drive for $5,000 that is to commence on May 15th.

Speeches of any length were ruled out of order and immediately after the dinner the gathering resolved itself into a strictly business meeting with R. L. Phillips in the Chair.

Special committees were appointed as follows:

Publicity — G. W. Brown (Chairman) and J. D. Tothill.

Committee for Devon—P. S. Watson (Chairman), Benjamin Haines, A. W. Coombes, Maurice Perley, Mayor Henry, Rev. Mr. H. E. McLeod, Rev. Mr. McCall, Rev. Mr. H. H. Ferguson and Rev. Mr. G. W. Fisher.

Committee for Marysville — Jos. Dolphin (Chairman), Rev. J. B. Dagget, Rev. Mr. Pinkerton, A. W. Lester, E. J. Kingsley, Mayor Walker and S. J. Hallett.

The central committee will arrange for a Factories' Committee and also a special Subscription Committee in addition to a number of teams for canvassing the business blocks.

It was the feeling of the highly representative gathering that with a well planned organization and the co-operation of the women's organizations, it should be a relatively simple task to reach the objective.

IMPORTATIONS GROW.

Advance of $115,758 This Month in Values as Compared with Month of April, 1919.

The customs returns for the month of April, as given out by Collector of Customs L.C. Macnutt, show a marked increase in the value of goods entered at the Port of Fredericton, as follows:

April, 1920—Free goods, $12,766; dutiable, $129,034; total value, $141,800. Duty collected, $17,196.67.

April, 1919—Free goods, $2,323; dutiable, $23,719; total value, $26,042. Duty collected, $6,674.31.

There was an increase in value of imports for April, 1920, over same month last year of $115,758.

The increase in amount of duty collected in April, 1920, as compared with the same month last year, was $10,522.36.

War Excise Tax collected in April, 1919, $3.33; in April, 1920, $1,077.30.

THE CO-OPERATIVE STORE COMPANY'S DIRECTORS NAMED

Secretary of N. B. Teachers Association One of Twelve Who Were Elected.

THE ORGANIZATION MEETING LAST NIGHT

Adams Building as It Stands Represents Cost of About $8,200.

The organization of Fredericton Co-operative, Limited, the second co-operative company in this city, was completed at a meeting of the shareholders which was held last night at Union Hall.

The meeting continued until almost midnight and was marked by some lively discussion on the question of eligibility of shareholders to act as directors. Included in the directors elected was A. Stering McFarlane, who is the secretary of the New Brunswick Teachers' Association and has been active in the organization of the teachers in the province.

Edward Barry occupied the chair at the meeting and T. W. Williams aacted as secretary. The bye-laws as drawn up by the committee, of which William O'Donnell was secretary, were submitted and approved by the shareholders present. After being approved the question of one clause in the bye-laws caused a lively discussion, the members being unable to agree as to what qualifications were necessary for the position of director on the board. The bye-aws stated that any member who had paid in full for three shares of stock was entitled to be elected as a director, and it was ruled that those who had subscribed for that number of shares but had only paid up for one share could not be elected on the board of directors, but could vote in the election.

Directors were finaly elected as follows: For 12 months—William Christie, John Smith and A. S. McFarlane; for 9 months—G. C. Crawford, Weldon Burden and E. Cormier; for 6 months

MANY MOVING BUT SOME FIND IT IS NOW REAL LUXURY

Abnormal Charges Are Being Made by Some Truckmen, It is Reported.

MAY NOT BE "CHEAPER TO MOVE THAN PAY RENT"

Not Many Changes in Business Section But a Great Many Householders Move.

The old saying that it's cheaper to move than pay rent may have held good when it was originated, but it is doubtful whether a householder is not better off to submit to increasing rental charges than to brave the expense of moving in Fredericton this year.

The High Cost of Moving, however, has evidently not had an appreciable effect upon those changing their places of residence this year, and there is every indication today that there will be the largest number of changes made this May 1st for many years. Reports of abnormal charges

COLD STORAGE

There is no objection to each person having their own individual cold storage plant.

Of course this is at present impossible. No doubt in time science and the abuse of cold storage plants as practised will bring it.

In the matter of EGGS each one may have their own storage plant. Good Water Glass will keep eggs perfectly, far better than cold storage, at small cost. Mix a two lb. tin with two gallons water and put in eggs as you get them. Get the good kind.

MANY MAY DAY STRIKES TODAY

15,000 Miners in Cape Breton All Take a Day Off

Miners Are Protesting Against Imprisonment of Winnipeg Leaders

FEW STRIKES IN CANADA

Few Labor Disturbances Throughout Ontario, but Generally Quiet.

[By Canadian Associated Press.]

Toronto, May 1.—The idleness of 15,000 coal miners in the Sydney, N.S. district, as a May Day protest against the imprisonment of Winnipeg strike leaders, the general tie-up of the building trades in Ottawa, including those at work on the new parliament buildings and a street car strike in London, Ont., are the most serious developments reported in Canadian labor circles this morning.

In Toronto there is a strike of milk drivers and a threatened strike of bread bakers and drivers. There are murmurings among the sheet metal workers and plumbers, but they are so far still at work.

Montreal reports the situation industrially quiet, but many people taking a holiday to get "moved." Hamilton reports trouble among the steel workers.

At many points in the Dominion socialistic demonstrations have been arranged for this afternoon, principally in protest against the imprisonment of the Winnipeg strike leaders. These demonstrations will take the form of meetings in parks. No serious trouble is expected.

Demonstration by Miners.

Sydney, N. S., May 1.—Approximately 15,000 miners are idle and every colliery in the Nova Scotia district of the United Mine Workers is closed down today as a protest against the refusal of the authorities to release the Winnipeg strike leaders on bail pending the hearing of their several appeals to higher courts.

In Cape Breton the strike was strongly denounced by clergymen and others yesterday, but their protest appears to have had absolutely no effect. It was stated, however, that many of the men are indifferent to the Winnipeg issue and joined the walkout merely for the sake of the holiday.

No trouble of any kind is anticipated.

The Day at Montreal.

Montreal, May 1.—This city was industrially quiet today, but was going through its usual moving day exercises. Nearly twenty thousand people are migrating from one home to another today. They mostly belong to the better classes, the poorer people being, as a rule, unable to pay the huge prices charged by movers. Two hundred and fifty families dispossessed of homes today moved into the Nuerling region, where they will live until they can get houses.

Street Railway Strike.

London, Ont., May 1.—In accordance with their strike programme, the employees of the London Street Railway Company turned their cars into the barns at midnight last night, and Londoners will walk today. The cars will be brought out again when the demands of the men for an increase in wages from 44 to 65 cents an hour are met, say the employees. The demands cannot be met until the right to increase the fares is given, says the company.

Let the two parties fight the question out is the attitude adopted by the City Council.

Firemen Were Appeased.

How Women Might Battle With H.C.L.

[By Canadian Associated Press.]

Montreal, May 1.—At a meeting of the Montreal Housewives' League yesterday in sympathy with the high price of spuds, the sense of the gathering was against any boycott of the vegetable in question, but advocating limiting its use until the price came down. It was recommended that macaroni and rice be substituted as far as possible in its place.

It was also urged at the meeting that women should limit expenditures on luxuries and use as little powder, rouge and perfume as possible and avoid extravagance in dress.

THE SYDNEY MINERS ACCEPT THE AWARD

Patterson Wage Award Accepted Under Protest that it is Inadequate.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Glace Bay, N. S., May 1.—President Baxter, of the U. M. W., has arrived home from Sydney Mines and reports the situation there all settled. The Sydney Mines locals have accepted the Patterson wage award under protest, which means that they accepted the award under present conditions though thoroughly dissatisfied with it. President Baxter explained that the conciliation board could not make a high award there owing to the heavy cost of production at the Scotia collieries.

The mines in other parts of the province have all been settled with and the decks are cleared for action, said President Baxter. The U. M. W. are waiting for the operators to make the first move regarding the new wage scale, and if they are not heard from shortly the U. M. W. plan to force action. The new wage rate will be much easier settled than the recent wage awards, as there will be no classifications to bother with. The new increase will be a flat one.

SEARCH FOR MISSING TAXICAB DRIVER

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Providence, R. I., May 1.—Two thousand or more mill and factory employees of this city and Taunton, Mass., will devote their Saturday half holiday to a systematic search of the woods and swamps in the vicinity of Taunton for the body of Oliver L. Eklund, Providence taxicab driver, who is believed to have been murdered Sunday night by two of his passengers.

MONTREAL'S MANY TAX DELINQUENTS

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, May 1.—The sheriff's list of properties on which taxes for the past two years are due shows the number of such properties to be 22,300 against 11,338 on May 1st, 1919.

All these properties are scheduled to be sold at auction unless the taxes are paid by October 15th next.

Calls for Destruction Of Church and State

Hamilton, Ont., May 1.—Literature of a revolutionary character was distributed in many houses in this city last night. It called for the destruction of churches and state, and was signed "Anarchist Group of Ontario."

8,000,000 BRITISH WORKERS ARE IDLE

Observe May Day as a Holiday, But No Disorders Were Reported Anywhere.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, May 1. — Eight million workers are estimated to have participated in Great Britain's observance of May Day by taking the day off, parading and speech-making but there were no interruptions to the nation's essential public services, probably partly due to the fact that Saturday is normaly a half holiday.

The move to impede railway traffic through the "work to the rules" policy proclaimed by the London and Liverpool Railway men's locals proved a fiasco, not a single instance of a holdup due to this attempt to enforce the workers' demand for increased wages, unauthorized by the executives of the unions, being reported.

The feature which gave more promise of distinguishing the day was the inauguration of an overall-wearing campaign similar to that in Canada and the United States by the middle class union, calculated to cut down the price of clothing. The union officials appeared at their offices this morning garbed in denim and issued appeals to the membership of the union to emulate their example.

Miners, factory hands, shipbuilders, dockers, builders, painters, engineers, agricultural workers and municipal employees made holiday and joined in locally organized demonstrations or went to see the season's opening cricket matches, but no disorders were reported up to three o'clock this afternoon.

In London, several thousands paraded through the west end to Hyde Park, headed by a contingent of former service men. They swarmed about twelve platforms, from which 72 speakers made appeals for the betterment of working conditions, enthusiastically hailed the successes of the Russian soviet government and declared their obhorrence at "atrocities committed by the capitalist governments."

THE STATISTICS ON RE-ESTABLISHMENT

Statement Being Prepared for Pensions Committee Before Report is Sent Out.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, May 1.—Capt. N. F. Parkinson and E. H Scammell, Deputy Minister and Assistant Deputy Minister, respectively, of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, were called yesterday afternoon by the special committee on pensions and re-establishment for the purpose of providing the committee with statistics needed in their work of drawing up a report on the pension regulations. The cost of various plans which have been suggested to the committee will be gone into with D.S.C.R. officials, it is expected, so that the committee may secure an idea of what the cost may be to the country.

The executive sessions of the committee are expected to continue for several days before the pensions matter is finally disposed of. The re-establishment end of the inquiry will then be opened and witnesses will be called in connection with the same.

NO ORIENTALS ARE WANTED IN TOWN

Vancouver, B. C., May 1.—"No Orientals are desired in Stewart." So states a sign placed conspicuously on the wharf at Stewart, B. C., by the Stewart Citizens' Association, officials of which assert that they are looking to the welfare of the town, according to Mr. Morris Soskin, who has just arrived here from Stewart. Mr Soskin says there is every indication that there will be a great influx into the town this summer. Special vessels have been chartered to cary machinery to the mines there. Many old Alaskan miners are on the scene.

FUNDAMENTAL IRISH CHANGES ARE PLANNED

Premier Lloyd-George and Principal Advisors Decide on Policy to Be Pursued.

OFFICIAL PUBLICITY OF IRISH HAPPENINGS

More Severe Treatment to Be Meted Out to Perpetrators of Actual Crimes.

[Associated Press by Leased Wire.]

London, May 1.—An Irish conference, attended by Premier Lloyd-George, Andrew Bonar Law, Feild Marshal Viscount French, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, and Denis Henry, Attorney General for Ireland, discussed the situation on a basis of three fundamental changes in the government's policy.

The first change, it is understood, would provide for more severe treatment for the perpetrators of actual crimes; the second would grant the Irish almost the same freedom of speech as in England, and the third would provide official publicity of all happenings in Ireland. The last change is translated in some quarters as meaning the establishment of propaganda bureau to counteract the Sinn Fein propagandists.

While it is not announced whether these principles have been definitely decided upon, it may be stated that the intention now is that the new Irish officials will attempt to govern along these lines.

HOSPITAL WATER TANK COLLAPSED

One Wing of Hospital at Glace Bay Nearly Demolished by the Accident.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Glace Bay, N. S., May 1.—The large water tank at St. Joseph's Hospital collapsed last evening and nearly demolished one wing of the hospital. The girders at the top of the tank became weakened and caused the tank to collapse. Had the girders weakened at the bottom the tank would have gone through the roof of the hospital and many deaths would have resulted. The tank's capacity was thirty thousand gallons, and it was erected in 1919. An employee examined the tank five minutes before it collapsed.

U. S. TRADE BALANCE AGAINST EUROPE

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Washington, May 1.—The United States trade balance against Europe showed a further increase of $340,000,000 in March, but South America and Asia continued to pile up a balance against the United States.

Exports to Europe totalled $465,000,000, an increase of $81,000,000 over February, while imports from Europe were valued at only $125,000,000, an increase of $20,000,000 over February.

South America took American goods in March to the value of $54,000,000, but at the same time it sent back goods valued at $74,000,000. Exports to Asia were valued at $109,000,000, while imports exceeded this total by $34,000,000. Exports to North American countries totalled $153,00,000 and imports $146,000,000.

Exports to the United Kingdom in March were $221,000,000 against $169,000,000 in February, while imports from that country were $60,000,000 against $51,000,000 for the preceding month.

Showing only a slight increase over February, exports to France amounted to $70,000,000, against imports of $17,000,000. Trade with Italy amounted to $37,000,000 in exports, an increase of $10,000,000 over the preceding month, and $7,000,000 in imports.

INCITE GANG TO ATTACK OFFICER

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Montreal, May 1.—Chief of Police Belanger has before him a case where a policeman in uniform is accused of having incited a gang of men in a Dorchester street west restaurant to attack and badly beat a provincial revenue officer and a friend who was accompanying him. The case will be investigated by the chief in his office this morning.

This case comes as a climax to other attacks which have been made on revenue officers who are charged with the task of enforcing the prohibition law, and as a result there is a probability that in future such officers will be armed.

Declares Horne Has Gone Insane

WERNER HORNE.

German, Who Attempted to Blow up International Bridge at St. Croix, Likely to be Deported From the Maritime Penitentiary Where He Has Been Working In Tailor Shop.

Werner Horne, the former officer of the German army who was sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the Maritime penitentiary at Dorchester here a few months ago for having attempted to blow up the international bridge on the Canadian Pacific Railway at St. Croix, is a model prisoner, but his incarceration is resulting in his being rapidly driven insane.

John B. Hawthorn, sheriff of York county, who was the first officer to place his hands upon him after his crime on February 2nd, 1915, and who took him to the penitentiary a few months ago after he had been sentenced here, saw Horne at the penitentiary when turning two other prisoners over to the prison officials this week and said today he was surprised to find the difference which has already taken place in the German. "Horne had hardly commenced to talk before I could see that his mind was going back on him," said Sheriff Hawthorn this morning. "He talked about Germany in a manner which left no doubt that he is rapidly becoming insane." Horne has been employed in the prison tailor shop.

Officials of the Dominion Immigration Department have already been at the penitentiary to interview Horne, and it is believed that it will not be long before he is deported to Germany if the Berlin Government agree to accept him. A number of American citizens who are prisoners at the Dorchester penitentiary will also be deported to the United States at an early date, it is understood. There are now 318 prisoners in the Maritime penitentiary and additional cells have had to be constructed to provide accommodations, the number of prisoners being the largest in history.

HELD VOCATIONAL SCHOOL CONCERT

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Woodstock, May 1.—Last night, at the Vocational School, there was held a successful and very largely attended concert, marking the closing of the Agricultural Course, and at which prizes were presented to the successful students. If the number present at this function, approximating 250, is indicative of the interest of the townspeople in matters pertaining to vocational education, the local Vocational School Committee and the school staff are to be complimented upon the gratifying results attained. His Worship Mayor Nodden presided, while short addresses were given by W. S. Sutton, M.L.A., the Rev. Mr. Baird, E. W. Mair, chaplain of the Vocational School Committee, and W. Maxwell, director of the school. A very enjoyable programme, musical and vocal, was much appreciated by the interested audience.

DENOUNCE RIOTING AT LONDON THEATRE

London, May 1.—London newspapers denounce the breaking up of the first night's performance of J. Hartley Manners' play, "A Night in Rome," in the Garrick Theatre, by a gallery demonstration. The newspapers without exception take the ground that the attack was an organized affair, although the motive remains a mystery. Miss Laurette Taylor, the star, has decided to remain with the play, which will be resumed Monday.

At the office of Mr. Cochrane, manager, it was said today that there was ground for believing that the playwrecking was instigated by an individual, rather than by an organization. There is a rumor that Mr. Cochrane's recent fight promoting activties here have antagonized the ringside element.

PORT OF BAKU IS OCCUPIED BY BOLSHEVIK

The Centre of the Oil Trade on the Caspian Sea in Hands of the Enemy.

CLAIM ARMENIANS PERSECUTING TURKS

Turkish Commander at Erzenum Says 28 Turk Villages Were Destroyed.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, May 1.—Russian Bolshevik forces occupied Baku, an important port on the western coast of the Caspian Sea, and the centre of a very important petroleum field, on April 28, it was officially announced this morning.

Turks Claim Persecution.

Constantinople, May 1.—Kiazim Kara Bekir, commanding the 15th Turkish Army at Erzenum, wrote a letter on March 3 to the Armenian commander of that district protesting against persecution of the Turks by Armenians in the Kars and Ardahan sections since last January. The Turkish commander charged that twenty-eight Mohammedan villages had been destroyed, that cattle had been stolen and the populations maltreated. He claimed that upwards of two thousand of the residents of the villages were forced to proceed for Kars and that the majority of them died on the way.

Duplicity of Turk Officials.

Constantinople, May 1.—Valuable archives and a large sum of paper money were destroyed in a mysterious fire that broke out yesterday in the war office. The fire fighters found when they answered the alarm that ingress to the burning part of the building was barred by locked doors, and considerable time was lost in subduing the flames.

On all sides is found evidence that Turkish officers are not disposed to move against Mustapha Kemal, leader of Turkish nationalists in Asia Minor. The machinery of two Turkish gunboats anchored in the Golden Horn has been found to be disabled, while several ships carrying recruits to the Asiatic shore of the Sea of Marmora, where the Sultan's troops are being assembled, have gone aground.

Only 7,000 of the 13,000 Turkish officers known to be in this city have appeared at the war office in obedience to the order for all to report under heavy penalties for non-compliance.

Quiet is reigning momentarily in Anatolia, where Turkish nationalist troops under Mustapha Kemal are under arms.

An official statement issued by Mustapha Kemal says:

"We are fighting on three fronts, Armenia, Cilicia and along the shore of the Sea of Marmora, but temporarily we must be quiet on the Aidin front."

The Greeks are holding the line in Aidin.

Relations between the nationalists and the Italians are very cordial, and it is reported the latter are providing Mustapha Kemal with ammunition.

Pessimism is generally expressed by the newspapers of this city relative to the results of the San Remo conference. The treaty terms by which the future status of Thrace and Smyrna would be fixed are especially distasteful, and journals declare they hope they may be modified in the future.

The Bolshevik Retreat.

Warsaw, May 1.—A further communication issued by the Polish war office says:

Since the offensive began we have nearly defeated the 12th army. In the resulting actions, the 77th and 78th divisions have been destroyed. The remainder of the Bolshevik are retreating east.

The enemy has suffered heavily in killed and wounded.

SUSTAINED AIR FLIGHT.

New York, May 1.—An air flight from Miami, Fla., to New York, with one stop, in 15 hours and 35 minutes flying time, was made yesterday by the passenger seaplane "Miss Miami," piloted by Harry Rogers, of the American Flying Club. The long journey of nearly 1,500 miles along the coast line was interrupted at Moorehead City, N. C., where a stop was made for fuel.

MANITOBA BONDS SOLD TO MORGAN CO.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Winnipeg, May 1.—Announcement is made of the sale of $2,850,000 provincial bonds to J. P. Morgan & Co., of New York. This issue for five years at 6 per cent. will be used to pay for the capital expenditures voted at the last session of the Legislature.

The purchase was made in American funds, but the actual price paid could not be ascertained.

City Officials Appointed, Many Salaries Increased

Special Meeting of the City Council Was Held Last Night—Another Meeting to Decide Street Lighting Problems—Row Over Watering Carts.

The City Council last night made the appointments of city officials for the ensuing year, many of the salaries being increased in accordance with requests which had been received from the employees.

The Mayor's salary was the first question before the Council, but this was decided by His Worship himself, who stated that it had been $200 in the past and he would rather it stayed at that figure.

The salary of G. R. Perkins, City Clerk, was fixed at $2,085, $75 less than last year's, owing to the withdrawal of the position of manager of the City Opera House.

The appointment of City Auditor with the fixing of the salary for that official was set aside until the regular meeting of the Council on Monday evening.

The appointment of R. B. Hanson, K.C., as City Solicitor, was made at a fixed annual salary of $250.

A communication was read from Police Magistrate Limerick asking for an increase of $500 in his salary as magistrate of the city court.

The matter caused some discussion by the Council, and while they thought the Magisrate was underpaid with a salary of $500 they did not think they ought to fix a salary until they had ascertained what fees and payments he received outside of his salary. Mayor Reid stated he had had a conversation with the Magistrate on the matter and had been told that all fees arising out of capiases and summonses were turned into the city and that last year they amounted to between $1,400 and $1,500. He suggested that the matter be left to the Finance Committee to interview the Magistrate and report back to the regular meeting of the City Council next week. Ald. Neill thought the matter ought to be left to the Administration of Justice Committee and moved that it be left to that committee, which carried.

No Change in Salaries.

W. M. Clark, assistant fire chief	$ 175.00
W. Limerick, civil court judge	1,000.00
M. Bearisto, supt. of fire alarm and electrician	125.00
James Biggs, caretaker of city clock	60.00
H. H. Hagerman, city analyist and filtration supt.	900.00
Walter Raymond, caretaker Old Burying Ground	200.00
G.C. McDowell, city engineer	3,000.00

Increased Salaries.

The following appointments, with the increased salaries as shown, were made:

	1919	1920
T. A. Niles, commissioner Municipal Home	$200	$300
H. C. Rutter, fire chief	200	300
G. W. Ross, building and fire inspector	150	250
James Biggs, janitor of City Hall and the Opera House	720	840

William Hughes was appointed City Marshal at an annual salary of $100, to succeed the late James Roberts.

The following appointments were made, with the following salaries per month:

	1919	1920
Wm. Hughes, tax collector	$ 75	$ 80
G. N. Edney, foreman water and sewerage	95	95
J. H. Malloy, chief engineer Pumping Station	108	125
Walter McGinn, assistant engineer Pumping Sta.	98	110
Ed. McGinn, assitant engineer Pumping Sta.	98	110
W. Lyons, assistant engineer Pumping Station	98	110
Alfred Davidson, supt. of street lighting	95	125
Thomas Harvey, lineman	75	90
Ludlow Malloy, fireman	70	90
Henry Drillen, fireman	50	70

In connection with the salaries of the employees at the Pumping Station Ald. Neill moved that the Chief Engineer be paid $150 monthly and the other three engineers receive $120 each for their services, as he thought these men were worth all that and should receive what they were worth. Ald. Wilkinson amended Ald. Neill's motion with the above increases. The amendment was seconded by Ald. Camp and carried.

Trouble in Fire Department.

The appointments of Melvin Bearisto, Leo Ward and Peter Finnegan to the positions of drivers in the Fire Department was made, but the fixing of the salaries was left for the Fire Committee to determine. Driver Bearristo had not asked for an increase but the other two drivers had and it was thought by the council that he would be as much entitled to an incerase as the others. However, the question of payment for outside work, in repairing and installing new wires, by Driver Bearisto was considered and it was the opinion of the council that the Fire Committee take the matter up and report back to the City Council.

It was stated that the members of the permanent department had up till a short time ago seemed satisfied and had worked together well. Recently there had been discussions at the department and when one day the chairman of the Fire Committee was notified by citizens that no water cart had been around he proceeded to the department only to find two of the members in a wrangle as to whose turn it was to take out the cart. This it was stated, should be settled at once or, if that could not be done, more drastic steps could be taken.

Officers Without Salary.

The following appointments were also made:

Constables: W. H. Finley, William Hughes, Alex. G. Murray, A. Duncan Gunter, Thomas Davidson, James A. Fanjoy, Anthony Chapman, John Edney, James Biggs, Ford Yerxa, Nathaniel Jones, Thomas Hughes, Dell Hartt, James H. Smith, Walter Raymond, Alfred Lewis, Fred Timms, H. C. Rutter, J. B. Hawthorne.

Commons Drivers: W. H. Finley, William Hughes, Alex. G. Murray, Joseph Crowley, Corey Cook, Nathaniel Jones, Dell Hartt, A. D. Gunter, W. A. Clark, Ford Yerxa.

Surveyors of Wood and Lumber: David McGahey, James Dolan, Allan Horncastle, Charles V. Pickard, A. Duncan Thomas, James H. Smith, James H. Scott, Arthur Rankine, J. F. Gallagher.

Pound Keepers: J. B. Hawthorne, H. Forsey, Corey Cook, Charles Crewdson, Charles Burden.

Fence Viewers: William McKay and William Hughes.

The Street Lighting Question.

The street lighting question, now nearly exhausted, came up again and as the majority of Council had taken time to figure out the possible saving by buying current from the Maritime Electric Company a representative of that Company will be asked to address a meeting of the Council called for that purpose some time during the present month.

Ald. Baxter stated he had always been in favor of the city supplying its own light and was of that opinion yet. The committee, he stated, had met but had been unable to make any definite decision and so had given no report on the question.

Ald. Jennings said it was a deep question to think out, but he was of the opinion that it would be better to join up with the Maritime Electric Co. and buy the current.

Ald. Wilkinson stated that this year there was an increase of 25 per cent. in salaries and cost of coal. Transformers would be necessary in the event of the city supplying its own "juice" and he thought it would be cheaper to buy current from the Maritime Electric Co. than supply their own.

Ald. Cooper thought that if the current was bought the cost would be, roughly, $5,000, and to double the number of lights in the city it would be $10,000, an estimate under last year's cost of the lighting.

Ald. Neill thought if the city tied up with the Maritime Electric Co. for a period of several years it would be a saving to the city of a considerable amount of money.

Mayor Reid stated that in any case transformers would have to be bought.

Ald. Wilkinson said that the company would not be in a position until October to supply the city with current.

Ald. Neill said it was stated to him that as soon as the transformers could be put in shape, presumably two months, the Maritime Electric Co. would be prepared to hitch up. The line would have to be gone over and put in shape to prevent a 10 per cent. line loss, which was now taking place. He thought the matter ought to be settled as soon as possible. The City Solicitor should be asked to see that a proper contract was made.

Mayor Reid suggested that it would be best to ascertain more of the details before it could be settled.

Ald. Neill thought a committee should be appointed to get the plans of the company and submit them to the regular meeting. He thought the committee could take the matter in charge, if so empowered.

Ald. Wilkinson said a representative of the company could appear before the Council to discuss the different phases of the question. He thought it could well be put off until it was gone into more thoroughly.

Ald. Camp declared a representative should be asked to appear at the next regular meeting, when the matter could be thrashed out.

Ald. Baxter moved that a special meeting of the Council be called to have a representative of the company explain the matter. This was seconded by Ald. Barker and passed.

Summary Night Despatches

Washington, May 1.—Plans for the full diplomatic representation of Canada in Washington are now before President Wilson, and until he has acted on them it is not expected Ottawa will take any formal steps to forward the project.

Ontario Sessional Allowance.

Toronto, May 1.—Seventy-nine members of the provincial House have signed a round robin for presentation to Premier Drury asking that the sessional allowance be increased from $1,400 to $2,500.

Refute Criticisms of Board.

Ottawa, May 1.—The outcome of criticism levelled by the Attorney General of Ontario at the methods of the Board of Commerce recently in connection with its conduct into the alleged grocers' combine in Ontario is that the board has issued a statement refuting these criticisms and quoting evidence from official report showing the Attorney General was in error.

The Soldiers Called Out.

Hartford, Conn., May 1.—Charles W. Durpee, of the first state guard regiment here, at 1.10 this morning called his staff out. There was much secrecy in the summons and the cause for the call. It is stated the action is the result of a tip that the armory and bridge were to be blown up at dawn.

U. S. May Day Demonstrations.

Washington, May 1.—After checking over confidential reports from all parts of the country Government officials expressed confidence last night that the threatened May Day demonstrations by radicals would not result in any nation-wide attempt at violence.

Queber Murder Trial.

Quebec, May 1.—The chief witness at the trial yesterday of Romeo Remillard, charged with murder of Lieut. Morrissette was accused's sister, who stated she had heard him phone just prior to the shooting and tell some one to "come up, it's all right."

Send Hun Troops to Ruhr.

London, May 1.—It is officially announced in Berlin that German state defence troops will march into southern Ruhr district to preserve public order and protect industry.

Those University Dismissals.

Regina, May 1.—Judgment was rendered in the court of King's Bench yesterday in the matter of the dismissal of Professors MacLaurin, Hogg and MacKay and Mr. Greenway by the board of governors of the University of Saskatchewan. Judgment unanimously finds that the board of governors not only acted within their powers, but that "the facts disclosed in the enquiry prove that the course taken by the president and board was necessary and that it was impossible that these men should remain any longer in the service of the university."

U. S. Agents Given Large Powers.

Washington, May 1.—Federal agents have been instructed to "go as far as the law wil allow" in breaking up May Day radical demonstrations.

Bolshevik Defeated.

Warsaw, May 1.—The resistance of the Bolshevik has been broken in south Ukraine, according to today's official communique, which states 15,000 prisoners were taken and Mohilev captured.

University of Saskatchewan, of Which Dr. W. C. Murray, U. N. B., '86, is President

Long after the ivy peered in at the upper windows of such splendid universities as Oxford, Cambridge or Harvard, such an institution as the University of Saskatchewan had not even been imagined. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who laid the corner stone of this new university July 29th, 1910, was a student poring over his books few but Indians had stood on the height of land which is the site of the buildings shown in the accompanying photographs, and watched the waters of the South Saskatchewan River gliding swiftly and silently northward.

Although the prairie soil was as rich and the river as broad and full then as now, the City of Saskatoon was unconceived. Even as late as twenty years ago, where now stands a city of 30,000 people on three lines of railway, there were not one hundred men, women and children and these were housed in a few tents and shacks. The wildest enthusiast would hardly have dared to prophesy that one day a university would grow there—yet there it stands!

The buildings of the University of Saskatchewan crown the height of land north east of Saskatoon and the site could hardly have been more fortunately chosen. It includes half a mile of well-wooded river front and altogether embraces 1,333 acres of rich land, 293 acres of which are set aside for a campus, 160 acres for purposes of agricultural experimentation and 880 for the Agricultural College farm. The plan provides for the eventual accommodation of 5,000 students.

The present buildings consists of an administration building, containing a hall and offices for the different departments as well as class rooms, two students' residences, one containing a spacious dining hall and the other a gymnasium and swimming pool; an engineering building; livestock pavilion and up-to-date model farm buildings. All the buildings conform to the preconceived plan and will, like those already erected, be of stone in the Gothic style. Work has just recently begun on a new science building. There are also several private residences on the campus, the two principal stone ones provided for in the architect's plan being those of the President of the University and the Dean of Agriculture. The buildings of Emmanual College, a church of England Divinity School, the first of its kind in Saskatchewan also occupy a part of the campus. The University grants sites of from three to five acres to such affiliated colleges at a nominal rental. Eight thousand dollars has already been subscribed towards a beautiful structure which will be the home of the Presbyterian College.

The university provides degrees in Arts, Science, Law, Agriculture, Civil Engineering and a Diploma in Pharmacy.

The present enrolment is between 1,400 and 1,500, including returned soldiers who are retraining in various branches of skilled work, particularly engineering. Scores of promising returned soldiers have been turned out as capable motor mechanics. Steam engineering and the handling and repairing of farm tractors are also taught. Agricultural students, principally the sons of farmers, are training in livestock handling and judging, and even in the care and management of poultry.

An important feature of the work of the University of Saskatchewan has been its Extension Department consisting of short instructional courses at seasonable times for farmers and farmers' wives. Each year a special train is fitted out and a regular course of instruction mapped out including lectures to farmers. This train is widely advertised as the "Better Farming Train." It makes a tour of the Province, stopping at all important points and the farmers drive in for miles to examine the exhibits, talk over their problems with experts and hear the lectures. Realizing that the average busy farmer cannot go to the University, an effort is made to take the University to him and to let him know at first hand the results of experiments with special varities of grain, the latest information about methods of soil tillage, and the like.

During the recent winter evening lecture courses have been given at a nominal fee for the benefit of city residents. Some of the best educated people in the community have attended these classes.

From an educational standpoint Saskatoon offers as great opportunities as any city in Canada. Complete training from Kindergarten to University is provided through a fine set of public schools, thirteen large public schools, which ranged in cost from $118,000.00 to $156,000.00 at pre-war building prices. An accompanying photograph shows two of them in one block in the working class section of the city. The enrolment of pupils in the public schools is now well over 4,000.

The Collegiate Institute, which provides the intermediate stage between the Public Schools and the University, has an enrolment of about 2,000.

NEW ELECTRICAL DISCOVERY MADE

Winnipeg, Man., April 30.—Electrical discoveries which he claims to be of great importance to the farmers have been announced by Prof. J. W. Dorsey, of the electrical engineering department, Manitoba University. The main discovery is a method of transmitting electric power from main transmission lines direct to the farms. The method is inexpensive and practicable, he declared. It will be practical to serve all farms for 50 miles on each side of a main power line, and the farm, he said, "should be as convenient as any city home." He advocates the energizing of farms by electricity, which, he said, was a well known scientific fact that it would increase the productivity at least 25 per cent. By means of wires stretched across the fields, they could be energized at night when other power demands were negligible and at a moderate cost. It might, he declared, be possible with electric energizing to grow two crops in one year.

U. S. ACTRESS DEAD.

Findlay, Ohio, April 30.—Mrs. Cora Neilson, 73 years of age, for many years a popular actress on the American stage, died at the Hancock county home here yesterday. She was the leading lady in "Rip Van Winkle," "The French Spy," "Ingomar," and many other plays.

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine — double strenth — from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complextion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

THE ROAD TO FIUME IS SET WITH TRAPS

Italians Have Seven Posts and D'Annunzio Two Between Trieste and Fiume.

Trieste, April 26.—The road to Fiume is set with "traps" to catch the wandering adventurer. Nine posts of carabineers are placed along the way of 48 miles from Trieste and passports and other documents are examined with the closest scrutiny at each. An automobile cannot pass the post unless the man on watch has consented and raises a wooden gate similar to those at an American railroad crossing.

Seven of the "traps" are on the Italian regular command's side of the route and two on d'Annunzio's side. There are three within five miles of Trieste and the remaining four are scattered at about equal distances apart for the rest of the way until the poet's frontier is reached. At the poet's frontier the regular carabineer seeks the vise of the local zone guarding the armistice line, and if the traveller has not got it, he is sent to the headquarters of the nearest carabineer which is located at Abbazia, two miles away.

At Abbazia the wanderer to Fiume must satisfy the carabineer officers, who are the military police of Italy, that his mission to the poet's stronghold is legitimate, otherwise the vise is refused. The vise given, one must return to the last post on the frontier for the final examination before being admitted to the No Man's Land between the two forces. The crossing of No Man's Land is made especially romantic by the nature o. the terrain, which is woody and rocky and situated on a hill running down into the sea. The two frontiers are marked by stone walls and barbed wire protruding on the road at short intervals to an automobile that must twist and turn to evade them. Speed is thereby rendered an impossibility.

Reaching the d'Annunzio lines a careful examination takes place of the mission to Fiume. Scrutinizing of passports ensues and questions are asked about "What are you doing here?" Baggage is examined and false money looked for because of the recent falsifications of bank notes in the city. The word is given to "go forward" and then one passes for another examination along practically the same line to another group of d'Annunzio soldiers perhaps a hundred yards from the first. After passing this there are no more examinations or posts in the city except at the stations and wharves.

By rail the journey is even more inconvenient. The train takes five hours to do the 48 miles. Carabineers travel aboard it and make a minute scrutiny of their charges. At Abbazia all must detrain, bag and baggage. The baggage is given a thorough search by the armed custom house guards. Then the passengers to Fiume are ushered into another room, where they are searched.

At Fiume d'Annunzio's soldiers conduct another examination. When d'Annunzio first entered Fiume no one was allowed to pass into the city. It was necessary to evade carabineers and guards day and night. Today even searchlights play upon the various approaches to prevent anyone "running the guard line."

ROMANCE OF OLD WILDERNESS DAYS

Will Live Again in Celebration of Hudson Bay Co. Anniversary on May 3.

Winnipeg, Man., April 30.—With Indian fur brigades and York boats loaded with peltries on the Red River, council fires burning at Lower Fort Garry and the smoke of the peace pipe scenting the air, the romance of wilderness days will live again at the celebration of the 250th anniversary of the Hudson's Bay Company, which will be inaugurated in Winnipeg May 3.

Sir Robert Kindersley, G. B. E., latest of the distinguished line of Hudson's Bay Company governors, will be present from England and will take part in the river pageant and in the subsequent street pageants which will be held in Edmonton, May 6-8; Calgary, May 11-13; Vancouver, May 15-19, and Victoria, May 21-24.

The Red River pageant, which promises to be one of the most interesting historical spectacles ever staged in Canada, will start from the site of old Fort Garry, early capital of the company's once vast empire and about which Winnipeg grew, and pass down stream eighteen miles to Lower Fort Garry. Tricked out in bravery of paint, feathers and beaded buckskin, Indians from a dozen tribes will man York boats and canoes in fur brigade formation.. To do honor to the company to which their ancestors paid loyal allegiance, Indians will come from the shores of the Hudson Bay; James Bay;; Lake Superior fur country; northern Saskatchewan; from the prairies and from the Rocky Mountains, Athabasca and British Columbia.

A flotilla of freight boats piled high with bales of furs will trail in the wake of the York boats in charge of factors and trappers in pioneer costumes. As it glides in long procession through a countryside famous in Hudson's Bay traditions, past the site of old Fort Douglas, the scenes of Lord Selkirk's Red River settlements and the battlefield of Seven Oaks where Governor Semple and twenty men fell in conflict with their rivals of North West company, the pageant will seem to sail out of the past of 250 years ago.

When it reaches Lower Fort Garry, whose stone buildings and battlemented stone walls still preserve the picturesqueness of early days, two ancient brass cannons at the gate will boom a salute from their rusty throats. Within the walls of the old stronghold where the first treaty was signed between Canada and the western Indians in 1871, Governor Kindersley will seal anew the ancient friendship between the Redmen and the company by smoking the calumet of peace. The pipe, especially designed for the occasion, will bear carved upon its stem the totems of all the tribes and will be presented to the governor as a souvenir. Sir Robert will confer upon each of the braves a medal struck in honor of the anniversary and at a council at which the Indians will present a wampum belt to the governor in ratification of their pledges of fealty, and will partake of an old fashioned feast.

Street pageants will be held in the other four cities. Floats will picture romantic episodes in the company's history and the development of the West and in the parades will appear Indians, trappers, cowboys, dog teams, Red River carts, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, government officials and civic bodies. In all the cities moving pictures taken on a special expedition which spent seven months in the north and illustrating every phase of the fur trade, will be exhibited free to the public. During the pageants it is expected the five cities concerned will declare holidays.

GAGETOWN, N. B.

Gagetown, N. B., April 20.—On Saturday the Misses Peters entertained very pleasantly at an afternoon tea in honor of Mrs. J. A. Casswell, who is leaving next week for Cambridge, N. S., where they will make their home. Among those present were: Mrs. G. P. Rigby, Mrs. H. B. Bridges, Mrs. Frank DuVernet, Mrs. J. R. Dunn, Mrs. J. S. Sutherland, Mrs. J. A. Casswell, Mrs. J. Law, Mrs. H. Buckland, Mrs. Alward and Miss Elizabeth Robinson Scovil.

Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins, of Hampstead, were here last week. They have bought the house formerly owned by Dr. Casswell and will move here next week, where Dr. Jenkins will take the practice Dr. Casswell had.

Dr. J. A. Casswell and James Casswell left yesterday for Cambridge, N. S., where they will now reside. On Friday night a number of citizens gathered at the home of Dr. Casswell and presented him with a gold watch and chain.

The Women's Institute met on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. S. Rubins.

Mrs. R. R. Reid and Miss Mary Reid are visiting in St. John.

Mrs. Hewlet Scovil, of Hampstead, was visiting Mrs. Rubins last week.

On Thursday evening Mrs. J. S. Sutherland entertained at a thimble party in honor of Miss Frances Casswell. A very delightful evening was spent. Those present were: Miss Anna Jackson, Miss Lucille Nevers, Miss M. G. Otty, Miss Annie Dickie, Mrs. G. Rigby, Mrs. F. DuVernet, Miss Pearl Peters, Miss Lulu Peters, Miss Frances Casswell, Miss Greta Rubins.

Miss Geraldine Corey is visiting in St. John.

Mrs. E. S. Brodie entertained last Monday at bridge. A very pleasant evening was spent. Mrs. Rigby and Roger Scovil were the prize winners.

CENTENARY OF CHURCH.

Winnipeg, Man., May 1.—Extensive plans are being made for the celebration of the centenary of the Church of England in Rupert's Land, October 10-17, 1920. The first Christian church west of the Red River was established in 1820 and the centenary will be observed in all Anglican parises next fall.

It is difficult to greet misfortune with a smile when it is always frowning.

Events of a Day In Parliament

Ottawa, May 1.—Yesterday in parliament. House of Commons:

A resolution to extend the time for importation, manufacture and sale of oleomargine was adopted and a bill based thereon given first reading.

Estimates of the Department of Trade and Commerce were taken up. Many items were passed.

Sir George Foster announced the opening of the trade conference between Canada and the West Indies in Ottawa on May 31.

Business for next week was announced by the acting Premier.

In the Senate:

The removal of troops from Halifax to Montreal was discussed.

SECOND TRIAL FOR MURDER OF MOTHER

Buffalo, N. Y., April 30.—Summing up the prosecution's case yesterday District Attorney Moore asked for a verdict of first degree murder against John E. Telper, on trial charged with the murder of his mother, Mrs. Agnes M. Telper, on January 30, 1916. On the first trial of the case Telper was found guilty of second degree murder, but a re-trial was ordered by the appelate division.

CAPT. HILTON GETS GOLD-HEADED CANE

Montreal, April 30.—Yesterday a gold headed cane was presented to Captain Hilton, of the steamer Canadian Aviator in consideration of this vessel being the first ship to enter the port of Montreal in the present navigation season.

Captain Hilton was born at Yarmouth, N. S., and started his sea going career on the old Nova Scotia wind-jammers.

TO LIVE IN TENTS.

Winnipeg, April 30.—That he was in complete sympathy with persons desiring to establish themselves in tents and shacks during the summer months to get away from high rents and housing difficulties, was the statement of Mayor Gray yesterday.

It was all well enough to impress the child with the George Washington cherry tree story, but, of course, it was foolish to follow it up with the gift of a hatchet.

THE IMPORTATION OF OLEOMARGARINE

Members of Parliament Discuss the Subject from Every Standpoint Last Night.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, April 30.—"Thank God the farmers have got into a position where they can say, and they are doing it and will continue to do it. We have this country by the throat. They had us by the throat long enough and now we will defend ourselves."

This declaration came in the Commons today from John Best (Dufferin) when he was opposing a resolution by the Minister of Agriculture for one year the time for importation and sale of oleomargarine.

Discussion in House.

Ottawa, May 1.—In the discussion on the oleomargarine bill in the House of Commons last night, Hon. Mr. Fielding, replying to Dr. J. W. Edwards, said that during his fifteen years as Minister of Finance, there was no request for the entry of oleo. He protested that he had not urged protection for the manufacturers of oleo, but simply that they be given a fair show.

A. T. Leger (Kent) opposed the resolution, as did J. A. Sexsmith, (Peterboro East), who said he believed a good deal of the fat scraped from the hides was used in the manufacture of oleo.

Hon. Mr. Tolmie assured the House that the meat inspection development had active supervision of the manufacture of the commodity and saw to it that no unwholesome fats went into it.

In answer to questions, he stated that the Department was considering the matter of ordering that oleo be sold in a larger package than butter to prevent confusion.

H. M. Mowatt (Parkdale) and D. D. McKenzie (Cape Breton) supported the resolution as being in the interests of the people who might not be able to afford butter and wanted to use a substitute. Mr. McKenzie went on to say that the whole matter of the high cost of living was opened up and the government should consider the claims of the people, who were seriously hampered by high prices.

The Board of Commerce should be manned and equipped in every way to conduct its war against high prices. The chairman ruled Mr. McKenzie out of order in not sticking to the matter of the resolution.

The debate ended with unexpected suddeness and the resolution carried the committee without a vote.

Mr. Tolmie's bill to extend the period of importation of oleo was introduced and given first reading.

Barn and Silo Roofed with Brantford Asphalt Roofing.

Resists Fire, Sheds Water, Wears Long

Flying sparks and embers from a burning building often cause roofs near by to catch fire, especially in a dry, hot season. Under like conditions, roofs covered with

Brantford Asphalt Roofing

are in no danger from flying embers, because any that fall on Brantford Asphalt Roofing die out harmlessly. Build a bonfire on a roof of Brantford Asphalt Roofing and the fire will not spread and the boards underneath the roofing will be protected in a surprising manner.

If a fire starts in the interior of a building Brantford Asphalt Roofing acts as a retardant and keeps the fire from spreading. Fire chiefs and insurance companies endorse its use in the most congested cities.

Brantford Asphalt Roofing does not absorb water, but sheds the heaviest rain with ease. Acid proof and alkali proof. Reliable, durable, economical. Three weights—60 lb., 70 lb., 80 lb. per square.

Brantford Rubber Roofing

is the same quality as Brantford Asphalt, but has a smooth, rubbery surface instead of the sand. It is particularly suitable for verandah decks and floor coverings. Three weights—40 lb., 50 lb., and 60 lb. per square.

Leatheroid Roofing

Slightly lower quality than Brantford Rubber Roofing. Used for same purposes. Has a leathery surface. Exceptionally good roofing at a low price. 35 lb., 45 lb., and 55 lb. weights.

Standard Mohawk Roofing

is made of the same materials as Brantford Asphalt Roofing, but is lighter in weight. A thoroughly reliable roofing at a low price. Tested for years and has given entire satisfaction. Sanded on one side. One weight—40 lbs. per square.

Climax Sheathing Paper

A tough kraft paper coated with high-grade asphalt. For making buildings damp-proof and wind-proof. Also for roofing temporary bunk houses, lumber camps, etc.

Samples of any of these roofings and prices will be furnished on request.

Sale of the New Brunswick Railway Company's Lands To Frasers Seems Imminent

Special Meeting of Shareholders of Company Owning Lands Called to Consider Recommendations of Directors Regarding Sale.

The sale of the lands of the New Brunswick Railway Company, which consist of about 1,700,000 acres, to the Fraser interests is believed to be imminent.

Notices have been published calling a special meeting of the shareholders of the company at St. John on June 1st "to consider a recommendation of the directors concerning the sale of the company's properties and to authorize the directors to sell or dispose of all or any part of the same at such price and on such terms and conditions as they may approve."

Following the passage by the New Brunswick Legislature of the bill incorporating the Fraser Paper Company, Ltd., with authority to erect dams and pulp and paper mills at the Tobique Narrows, General H. H. McLean, M.P., representing the New Brunswick Railway Company, was here for a conference with Archibald Fraser and it was understood at the time, and so reported in The Gleaner, that details were being arranged for the Fraser interests to take over the New Brunswick Railway Company's lands in connection with their Tobique project.

If the Frasers are to take all the company's lands there will doubtless be more than $12,000,000 involved in the deal.

SCOTTISH LABOR FOR PROHIBITION

Trades Union Congress Favors Prohibition as Against State Control of Liquor.

London, May 1.—Officials of the British Trade Union Congress were not surprised by the Scottish Trades Union Congress resolution in favor of prohibition as against state control of liquor. The British trades union officials say such action on the part of Scottish labor party was more to be expected as it might be regarded as useful for the party's political purposes.

Advocacy of prohibition by action of British unionized labor is declared to be regarded by British union officials as little short of revolutionary, especially in view of the fact, they say, that it is this element on which the liquor interests have been concentrating their appeals in an effort to outmanoeuvre the prohibitionists.

THE MENNONITES TO DESERT CANADA

Leave Highly Improved Lands in Western Canada Valued at $10,000,000.

[By Canadian Associated Press.]

Winnipeg, May 1.—The Winnipeg Tribune says in part:

"Tiring of the fight to retain special privileges in the conduct of their schools and fearing that public opinion will eventually wrest it from them, their exemption from military service in time of war, the orthodox Mennonite church community in Manitoba and Saskatchewan plan to leave Canada this summer and establish a great colony in the Mississippi Valley.

"More than 8,000 persons, equally divided between Manitoba and Saskatchewan, will eb affected, 13 or 14 prairie towns will be practically depopulated, temporarily at least, and land holdings, highly improved valued at more than ten million dollars, will have to be sold for what they will bring."

IMPROVEMENT IN TRADE CONDITIONS

[By Canadian Associated Press.]

Winnipeg, Man., May 1.—Reports from all parts of Canada received by the Canadian Credit Men's Association, indicate an improvement in trade, following better weather conditions. This is particularly noticeable in the east, reports from Toronto, Montreal and St. John showing increased activity in wholesale trade and manufacture of all kinds of materials.

Call on Government to Prevent Sugar Increases.

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Toronto, May 1.—On the motion of Hon. Mr. Rollo, the Ontario legislature yesterday passed a resolution calling on the Dominion Government to take steps to prevent further increases in the price of sugar.

LATEST

Montreal, May 1.—The stock market here, as well as New York, is closed today.

Montreal, May 1.—On account of his circus engagements, Georges Carpentier, European heavyweight champion, has cancelled his contracts to appear in Canada during this month.

Vladivostok, May 1.—Severe fighting is in progress in Chalta, Trans-Baikalia, between the forces of General Voitzekoffsky, the sole remnant of Admiral Kolchak's army in Trans-Baikalia, and the opposing Bolshevik faction, according to reports from a Russian source. The Japanese are declared to be supporting General Voitzekoffsky.

Vienna, May 1.—Discovery of large quantities of currency bearing forged stamps has virtually paralyzed retail business in this city, merchants refusing to take certain money unless guaranteed against loss. Bankers are trying to find some solution of the problem.

Boston, May 1.—John R. Murray, a professional boxer who was knocked out in a bout with Dave Powers of Malden last night, died in a hospital today. Powers was arrested on the charge of manslaughter, but the court discharged him with the statement that Murray's death was obviously due to an accident.

Quebec, May 1.—The provincial government has authorized the licensing of twenty four vendors throughout the province for the coming license year, commencing the first of May. Twelve applications for club licenses were received from the city of Hull, but the licenses were refused.

Montreal, May 1. — Owing to the shortage of English income tax forms the time alloted to citizens for sending in their payments has been extended one month from April 30.

Calgary, Alta., May 1.—At a meeting of ratepayers here recently an association was formed for the object of preventing negroes from settling in the district bounded by Tenth avenue, Second street east, Seventeenth avenue and the Bow river.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., May 1.—The two year old daughter of Frederick MacDonald, Covehead Road, was drowned yesterday in a well on her father's farm. She had wandered into the well house during the absence of her parents.

Hamilton Engineers Strike.

Hamilton, Ont., May 1.—Steam and operating engineers of seven plants in the city late last night declared a strike because their demands for increased wages were not met by their employers. There are 117 licensed engineers among the strikers, including 96 men in the employ of the Steel Company of Canada.

At a mass meeting here last night of 600 journeymen carpenters it was decided to accept the contractors' compromise offer of 85 cents an hour. The men had demanded 95 cents an hour.

Death at North Devon.

The death of Mrs. Agnes Clark occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Peterson, North Devon, at 8.15 last evening, after a lengthy illness. Deceased was formerly Miss Agnes Stuart, of Stanley, but she had resided at Marysville and Devon since her marriage to the late Moses E. Clark, about 40 years ago. She was 65 years of age and is survived by seven daughters—Mrs. H. E. Price, of Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. H.W. MacDonald and Mrs. Percy Peterson, of Devon; Pearl and Mabel, of Lowell, Mass., and Nellie and Riva, at home. Three brothers, Hubert and William Stuart, of Vancouver, B. C., and Robert, of Stanley, and six sisters, Mrs. Alonzo Sparks, Mrs. James Cookson, Mrs. Alfred Clarkson, Mrs. Norman Clark and Mrs. Eldon McNeill, of Stanley, and Mrs. Maurice Gilmore, of Vancouver, also survive. Her husband predeceased her about five years ago. The funeral will be from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, North Devon, Sunday afternoon at 2.30, service conducted by Rev. P. J. Trafton, assisted by Rev. A. D. MacLeod and Rev. Mr. Lester Interment will be made at the Baptist burying ground, Marysville.

The Tuxis Boys were given the decision over the Young Men's Bible Class of the Brunswick Street Baptist church last evening in a spirited debate over the following resolution: "Resolved, that the Maritime Provinces should be united." The Tuxis Boys, supporting the affirmative, consisted of Leslie Booth, Ross Kerr and Ernest Bradley, and were given the decision over the Young Men's Class team of Porter, Fillmore and Bishop, all of the U.N.B. The judges were Dr. C. C. Jones, Dr. W. C. Keirstead and C. D. Richards.

Hon. B. F. Smith Improving.

Hon. B. Frank Smith, of East Florenceville, who was operated upon at Victoria Hospital on Wednesday last, is making a very favorable recovery.

SCOTCH LIBERALS CLASH IN VIEWS

The Asquith and Lloyd-George Wings of the Party Find Little in Common.

[By Canadian Associated Press.]

London, May 1.—At the Scottish Liberal Federation meeting held in Glasgow there was a provocative display and considerable feeling between the Asquith and Lloyd-George wings. The main question was whether the executive report should be referred back because it had omitted appreciation of the work done by Liberal Coalitionists and Premier Lloyd-George. The prominent Coalitionists attending the meeting included Mr. Winston Churchill, Mr. Robert Munro, the Scottish secretary; Mr. Ian MacPherson, the Pensions Minister, and Sir William Sutherland, the Scottish Liberal Coalition whip.

These Ministers spoke amid considerable interruption on the motion that the report should be referred back. This motion was defeated by a considerable majority amid great enthusiasm.

Premier Lloyd-George was described as a wrecker of Liberalism and the whole tone of the meeting was unmistakably hostile to Coalition.

The meeting at Oxford of the home counties on Liberal federation, though less bitter, betrayed similar cleavage of Liberal opinion.

MARYSVILLE K. OF P. ENTERTAINMENT

Rioting and Disorders About Wormwood Scrubbs Prison Where Hunger Strikers Kept

Crowd Dispersed by Mounted Police Last Night After Several Persons Were Injured—Three More Hunger Strikers Released in Very Bad Condition.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, May 1.—Sinn Fein sympathizers and opponents engaged in a strike fight before Wormwood Scrubbs prison last night, and Mounted Police had to charge on the crowd before it would disperse. Stones and clogs of earth were hurled and several persons were slightly injured.

Disorderly scenes occur almost nightly in the neighborhood of the prison, but the participants are drawn from the rougher elements of the vicinity, and the trouble is not attributed to feeling aroused by the hunger strike of men confined in the prison.

Announcement was made today that three more hunger strikers had been released, making a total of thirteen taken out of the place since they began refusing food ten days ago. Many of the strikers are in bad condition and it is expected several will be released soon.

One feature of last night's demonstration was the appearance of "Tin" Helmets worn by a large party of Irishmen engaged in keeping order. A choir of ladies sang Irish songs, and Mrs. Despard, sister of Field Marshal French, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, addressed the crowd.

WOODSTOCK BOARD OF TRADE OFFICERS

George E. Balmain Elected President and Geo. E. Filliter Secretary-Treasurer.

(Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.)

Woodstock, May 1.—At a special meeting of the Board of Trade last night George E. Balmain was elected president, to succeed A. D. Holyoke, who will be frequently absent from town this summer, and George E. Filliter was elected secretary-treasurer to succeed C. O. McDonald, who has removed to Halifax. The board decided to take charge of the Salvation Army Drive, which commences on May 15, for Woodstock, with Wallace Gibson as chairman. The drive in the county will be in charge of the branches of the United Farmers. The county will raise $3,000, of which amount Woodstock will contribute $1,000 and Hartland $500.

"Mutt and Jeff" in A New Show.

"Mutt and Jeff's Dream," the latest scream, said to be the funniest Mutt and Jeff show ever offered, will be the attraction at the Opera House next Monday matinee and night. It is positively a cure for all thoughts of profiteering, war taxes and the like and, in fact, it is even said family troubles disappear like mist in the sunshine and that is going some. One laugh deserves another and here is where you will get it at reasonable prices. Good, clean comedy, catchy music, side-splitting situations, pretty girls of the "sweet sixteen" type, gorgeous costumes, with a scenic investiture seldom equalled, will be there to greet you. Attend the special matinee at 3.

Leaving for Saskatoon.

Mrs. Charles Gunter and daughter, Miss Verna Gunter, are leaving shortly for Saskatoon. About thirty friends gathered at their home recently and gave them a genuine surprise party and presented Mrs. Gunter with a silk umbrella and Miss Gunter with an electric iron. The Brunswick Street Baptist Sunday School class, of which Miss Gunter is a member, presented her with several pieces of ivory, while her fellow clerks in A. Murray & Co.'s store presented her with a pearl and onyx ring.

G. M. Smith, of Moncton, is a guest at the Queen Hotel.

THE STATE OF EUROPE.

The European situation changes from day to day, nor could prediction be made, with any certainty, as to the issue of the many and complex problems which occupy the attention of the men who are trying to make the Peace Treaty real and operative, remarks an exchange.

France and England do not see eye to eye on many subjects. France is haunted by an incurable fear of German militarism, that fear being based upon the aggressions of Germany in the past, such aggressions being the underlying policy of the German hordes from time immemorial. France says that neither England nor Italy can understand the cogency and reason of this fear, because neither nation is contiguous to the French border. When France says that the increase in the German army from 100,000 to 200,000 men is in conflict with the terms of the treaty, and constitutes a menace to that country, the alarm does not extend to England or Italy in the same degree that it does to France, because the latter has had a bitter experience of German tendencies, expressed intermittently, during the past centuries.

Foch says that for the safety of France the German army must be restricted to the police force provided for in the treaty. Britain and Italy are disposed to modify, in certain regards, the tenor of the treaty in the interest, as they see it, of the speedy restoration of the German economic, political and social life.

What is of vital urgency is that England and France do not, on any account, part company. They represent, in a very special way, the hope of the world. As the United States has retired from the scene, leaving Europe to stew in its own juice, there remain France and England, typifying the highest civilization, upon whom the hope of the world is centered. Differences are bound to arise in the gigantic task of recasting the planet; but the general hope is that sanity and calmness and strong sense will triumph over official hair-splitting; and that the two great nations, which were mutually faithful in the war, will work together for the reconstruction of the world, which now presents a scene of chaos well calculated to test the highest statesmanship.

THE NEW TRAIN SCHEDULES.

Summer time tables on both the C. P. R. and C. N. R. systems will be effective tomorrow, and there is much disappointment that the C. N. R. management have not yet proven sufficiently progressive to inaugurate a daily passenger service on the St John Valley Railway.

When the present tri-weekly service was commenced last fall, assurances were given that the public could look forward to a daily passenger train service on the through route from Centreville to St. John by this spring, the mixed trains on alternate days being only a temporary arrangement for the winter and until the road was opened and became known to the travelling public. There is ample traffic to justify the C. N. R. in providing a daily passenger train service on this important link in their system without any further delay, and, if the larger problems of the National Railways are treated in a similar manner, it is easy to understand how a deficit running well up into the millions of dollars is mounting up annually.

On the other hand the C. P. R. have provided a train schedule which will give Fredericton, particularly, the best service that has ever been enjoyed.

A SIGNIFICANT WARNING.

The Montreal Star, writing under the above caption, refers to the fact that in Ontario a Coalition has been effected between the Independent Labor Party and the United Farmers. In Nova Scotia there is a movement to establish common action between these forces. In the West, too, there have been more or less definite attempts to find a basis of political partnership between the organized farmers and certain leaders of Labor. So in the United States there have been attempts to consolidate the farmers and elements of Labor as a common political party.

It is apparent, however, The Star continues, that continuous strikes are seriously affecting the attitude as well as the interests of farmers. Mr. Wm. J. Bryan used to tell a story of an alcoholic ibex at Washington who "leaped from jag to jag." For many months now all over the continent groups of workmen have "leaped from strike to strike," and farmers discover that the effects of strikes are not confined, as they may have thought under more stable conditions, to capitalists, manufacturers and transportation companies.

The Breeders' Gazette of Chicago, one of the soundest and most influential agricultural journals in the United States, says in its last issue:

"Due to labor strikes, thousands of carloads of stock ready for the market are being held at an enormous aggregate expense. Feeders cannot ship them until the existing embargoes are removed. Radicals are trying to use organized labor as a weapon with which, first, to wreck established businesses, and then the Government itself. Industrial workers are loafing and demanding higher wages while, as a direct result, stockfarmers are losing millions of dollars. Stock fattened on expensive feeds cannot be marketed because groups of laborers in cities refuse to work. A comparatively small number of men has achieved the power, through organization, of paralyzing one of the most vital productive industries of the country."

The Gazette continues:

"Stockmen on whom this misled power is inflicting a huge loss, are organizing, in self-defense, to fight the devil with fire. If organized labor follows the despotic leadership of its radicals, now in the saddle it will ally against itself every farmer in America. If labor welcomes that result, it is hopelessly lost. Farmers everywhere are beginning to say that men who refuse to work shall not eat. It would be a tragedy if organized labor permitted its revolutionary masters to continue leading it toward breadlines. Its real friends should solemnly warn their adherents that farmers, with the moral support of public opinion, are prepared to stand pat while insane radicalism is rationalized by hunger."

From such a journal as The Breeders' Gazette these statements have ominous significance. It is certain that organized labor cannot prevail over angry farmers and exasperated industrial interests. There is nothing in the legitimate demands of organized labor to which farmers can offer reasonable objection. But they are not likely to submit to government by the "outlaws," and they know that if the revolutionary elements of labor could secure control of industry the next and inevitable step would be to seize the land for which the farmers have paid in sweat and self-sacrifice.

It is pleasing to have the assurance of The Standard that the bye-election in St. John is to be contested. The Provincial Opposition party in St. John is strong in number and in good men; and the public welfare, particularly at this time, requires the best and all within the party to take an active interest in public affairs.

RAILWAY ANNULS NEWCASTLE ORDER

Moncton, N. B., April 30.—An order recently given by the C. N. R. management to do away with the despatcher's office at Newcastle and transfer the work of that office to Moncton has been cancelled from Ottawa. The work of dismantling the Newcastle office and fitting up extra despatcher's quarters at Moncton under way was stopped yesterday. The order to make the change, it was stated ,was cancelled following the visit of a deputation from the Newcastle Board of Trade to Ottawa.

48-HOUR WEEK FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS

Ottawa, April 30.—Dominion-wide application of the principle of a medium wage and a 48 hour working week for all women and girls, excepting those engaged in domestic or agriculture employment, was strongly favored by the Royal Commission on the unification of labor laws at the session here today.

CIGARETTE CASE MADE THE ROUNDS

Vancouver, B. C., April 30. — From Sanctuary Wood, where it was dropped when the owner was wounded, by devious ways, there has come to Fred Mather, supreme court registrar here, his silver cigarette case, which has thus ended a journey of many thousands of miles. The case was lost in May, 1916. A sergeant picked it up to give to Mather. The sergeant was wounded so he gave it to a private for safe keeping. The private passed it on to another man and this other man, in trying to locate the owner, shipped it to a Lieut. Fred Mathers, of Brockville, Ont. The Brockville soldier returned it and the case travelled slowly backward from hand to hand. The private who received it from the sergeant lost track of the sergeant until they met accidentally a short time ago in Victoria, B. C. He returned the case to him and the sergeant, coming over to Vancouver, finally handed the case over to its rightful owner.

ONTARIO HONEY CROP.

Toronto, April 30.—At a meeting of the Toronto Bee-Keepers' Association last night, Hon. Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, stated that the value of last year's crop of honey in this province exceeded $3,000,000.

LUMBER PRICES TO CONTINUE HIGH

No Relief in Sight From the Prevailing Scarcity—Demand Continues.

[Financial Post.]

There seems little prospect of relief in the near future from the serious scarcity and prevailing high prices for all forms of building materials which promises to curtail operations throughout the Dominion this season. In fact, A. E. Clarke, a prominent lumberman, stated in Toronto recently that even if the cost of production of lumber were to decrease at once, lumber prices would not begin to come down for another two years. Lumber, he states, reaches the market approximately two years from the time the money was placed in the product. Vindicating the lumbermen from charges of profiteering, he pointed out the rapidly increasing cost of production during the last five years. In order to increase production, he said, capital must be increased, and yet the people would not invest in standing timber at 7 per cent., when there was always the possibility of it being burned down.

There was no commodity, he added, which had not increased far more in price. During the war the timber manufacturer was straining every effort to supply war needs. Now there was unprecedented demands for timber and no surplus was available. In addition to a general shortage of labor the timber had to contend with a scarcity of transport facilities. Logging locomotives cost only $13,000 in 1913, and $40,000 in 1920. Steel rails in 1911 cost $22 a ton, now $63; and saw-mill costs had increased from 600 to 900 per cent.

Production Below Normal.

Production of lumber was below normal last year owing to adverse conditions, and in the Southern States which produced the finer wood, there was a serious slump in production. In addition to an increased demand for timber, not only in this country and the United States, there was an insistent market in Great Britain and France. In the United States permits in fifteen principal cities have increased 182 per cent., and building values 208 per cent. since the war. In Canada eleven cities report a 45 per cent. increase in permits, and a 77.7 increase in building values.

So serious has the situation become that the Dominion Government has given consideration to the matter of reducing prices, but has concluded that in the face of the abnormal scarcity and demand, it is practically helpless to exercise any control. Among the suggestions offered the government for alleviating the situation was help for the smaller mills to enable them to increase their output. It was pointed out that such mills would by this time have laid out their plans and would not be in a position to increase their capacity for another twelve months.

A telegram from Prince Albert Intimated that prices there had increased 85 per cent. in the last twelve months, with nothing like a corresponding increase in the cost of production. This was due to the demand from across the line. A recent report from Winnipeg that lumber has dropped $5 a thousand feet within the last few days, is better news, and was due to the inactivity of the Canadian Pacific Railway to provide cars to ship the timber growth, thus compelling manufacturers to sell their products at home. The question of an embargo on lumber was brought up, but the idea was not favorably received.

The lumber situation is the most disturbing influence in the building trade today. Present prices are almost prohibitive, and for this reason a large quantity of building will be held over to await a more favorable season.

SMUGGLING LIQUOR ACROSS THE BORDER

Manitoba Authorites Making Every Effort to Put a Stop to the Practice.

Winnipeg, Man., April 30.—Smuggling liquor across the border into the United States is being carried on very extensively, liquor men claim, and every effort is being made to put a stop to the practice. A liquor warehouse in Kenora has had its permit cancelled by the Ontario license board pending an investigation of a large shortage which appears in its stocks. It is suspected the shortage may be accounted for in the shipment of liquor into the United States by way of Lake of the Woods, officials said. There is also information that considerable quantities of liquor are being taken across the line from Gainsborough, Estevan and other western towns in automobiles.

JURY'S VERDICT IN AUTO FATALITY

St. John, May 1.—The coroner's jury which enquired into the death of Virginia G. Garrett, the eight-year-old daughter of Fred E. Garrett, who was fatally injured in a car accident at Renforth on Thursday night and died soon afterward, decided last evening that her death was due to being struck by an automobile, which was driven at an excessive rate of sped and in a careless manner.

EYES OF YOUTH.

Clara Kimball Young's Latest Production Is Remarkable Story.

Clara Kimball Young in "Eyes of Youth," which is billed as the special feature attraction at the Gaiety Theatre on Monday and Tuesday of next week, is one of the most famous plays of the year, as well as one of the best and most elaborate productions of Miss Young's entire screen career, the development of the story will show in a new and startling way the possibilities of reading the future through the process of crystal gazing. Probably one-half the world today is in some sense interested in the experiments of the people who are endeavoring to read the future by communicating with spirits or by some other method, and the other half of the world is sitting eagerly back, awaiting the result of these experiments before they, too, become actively interested. On account of the extra length of this production there will be one show only in the afternoon, starting at 2.30, and two shows in the evening, at 7.15 and 9.

PETITION FOR SUFFERERS.

St. John, N. B., May 1.—There is being circulated a petition in behalf of the St. John pilots who recently suffered the loss of their pilot schooner the Howard D. Troop, through collision with the Canadian Voyageur, asking that the federal Government supply a suitable boat for the service in the Bay of Fundy.

FROM THE PEOPLE

THAT GRATUITY.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Just a few words in your columns in answer to Uncle Ruben's side partner.

Now, I don't think our much interested friend has made any comparisons at all when he speaks of a woman going down in the valley of death, to the soldier who went to France, and it was not all courage that took us to France, but for the honor of our country and to make it possible for our children to live in freedom. I have seen good soldiers shaking with fear, and fight like wildcats and die saying, "I have done my duty." Is this country doing its duty to the ones that went through the same, all but death? I was over there nearly four years. I left here not a war bride, but a wife and children. She got separation allowance, assigned pay and patrotic money and, with living so high and a lot of sickness it was hard to keep out of debt. I have been home a year and have worked every day but one since then but it is a hard struggle to exist, and I think if Uncle Ruben and his friend could have a few of the hardships we have had and are now in getting a start again, they perhaps would change their views. Still there are some ungrateful ones that if you gave them a permit to Heaven, still would advocate the hot place for their benefactor.

Thanking you, Sir, for your valuable space and wishing to hear the opinions of others,

Yours,
WATCH AND WAIT.
Fredericton, April 28, 1920.

INSULTING SOLDIERS.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Will you please publish this letter in answer to one who signs himself as Very Much Interested.

You are just another who finds joy in deliberately insulting the ex-soldier and those who are dear to him. Maybe there were a few war brides who viewed life from a comfortable hammock; at least, I will take the word of Uncle Ruben and yourself that such was the case.

But why do you use the very few for a contemptible weapon to insult and slur the very many? You might have informed the public while you were about it, that the government allowance for those "war brides" was forty dollars (later increased to forty-five dollars per month). Handsome, is it not? If your wife got that much to live on, no doubt she would also be Very Much Interested.

Even taking your own argument, these war brides did their bit, by going down in the Valley of the Shadow, as you name it, to give life to her child for her soldier husband, and maybe as her husband gives his life for humanity's sake, she presents a new life to her country, therefore, I contend that in the majority of cases these girls were patriotic to their country by assenting to the wishes of their soldier sweethearts, while you and your kind are taking a contemptible means of trying to injure their reputation.

While we are on this "patriotic industry" question, how many civilian brides and others interested themselves in patriotic industry?

If they did work on the farm or in the factory, I guess they were well paid for it, by the way wages have jumped while we were away.

But did the soldiers' wages jump accordingly?

Did their dependents' allowance jump?

Maybe you will be very much interested to know that they did not.

Even the much slurred war brides' allowance did not jump.

You are very much scared as to whether the country can stand a cash bonus and it is very nice to hear this economy talk during the period of reconstruction.

Were you afraid for the security of your country while the husbands were away fighting for your country and you?

I guess you were not very much interested at the time.

You make an apt quotation when you write, "A very tangible evidence of the country's appreciation." You can get lots more of this kind of evidence if you are interested enough to look for it.

You have only to go to the hospital in your city and inquire of the men there, and you will find cases where men who were discharged from the army A1, and who later had to go to the hospital for treatment for rheumatism and such like, some of them had four years of service in France, and I don't think it would take a doctor to determine whether they had contracted these diseases in the service or not. Such men get treatment only and if they have a family, this country shows its appreciation by giving them nothing. Don't blame the doctors for this. They are only doing their duty to their Government.

Would not your wife be very much interested if she were one of these dependents?

You are very kind in suggesting the spending of the surplus cash in the Government treasury—if any—toward separate asylums for our unfortunate comrades with crazed minds. Of course, you know there is no surplus cash, and may never be.

You will no doubt be very much interested to know that I don't favor that nightmare of yours. I mean the $2,000, but I certainly think that the Government slapped their best friend on the face when they absolutely refused to consider proposals of the G. W. V. A. for afurther cash grant, which for your information was not $2,000.

I do not think you could have read Mr. Jeffrey's letter. If you did, I can assure you that he has written nothing but the truth, and very mild at that, too.

I hope he has read your Very Much Interested letter, and trust he will answer it, as he is more qualified so to do than I am.

Like him, I wish you would sign your name to your letters.

Maybe you realize how insulting you have been to the wives of our comrades.

I can only wish that if you can write no good of them, that you would be patriotic or interested enough not to write at all.

GOODS, NOT MONEY.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—To the average individual unfamiliar with principles of banking or with the significance of credit the present high cost of living presents a problem that is really baffling. Most of the explanations offered are technical. They tend to obscure rather than clarify. In normal times it is unnecessary for the average person to bother his head about principles of barter and exchange. He leaves these to financial experts trained to grapple with them. But in a great upheaval such as that of today it becomes instantly necessary that at least some of these fundamental principles should be understood by practically every one.

It is no longer possible for bankers alone to deal with the situation. There is too much involved. Too many seemingly conflicting elements are at stake. To the man on the street one thing only is apparent, namely, that it costs him a lot more to live. Not only are clothes and food advanced, but rents have risen beyond the point that the average man can afford to pay. Something is wrong. What is the solution?

To the man on the street, literally as well as figuratively, there is one solution, namely, he must have more money.

If increased pay is going really to solve the difficulty, wages should be promptly advanced. But is this the solution? If there is one fact connected with this perplexing problem that goes to its very root it is that to increase and to keep on increasing wages today is only to make the problem worse.

Let us suppose ten men starving on a desert island, and each of these men with $1,000 in his pocket. The money itself will not buy food. If, as happens today, there is not enough food to go round, money will not buy enough. It will only increase the cost. If there are not enough homes in the land to shelter all of us, money will not procure them. It doesn't make any difference how much of it there is, it will not buy food and shelter and clothing if there are not enough of these necessary things to go round.

There is in the world today a shortage of everything. For five years the world has been at war. Production of practically everything that did not directly or indirectly contribute to the prosecution of war was stopped, but the need for all these necessities did not stop. On the contrary, as the months and years passed by the need became ever greater, and today it is acute.

Let us leave to the bankers the difficult and intricate problem of adjusting finance. That is their province. Our duty is to work, and to work harder today than in our lives we have ever found it necessary to work before. We must produce and keep on producing more and more, not for what we can get but for what we can give to a stricken world.

Yours,
AN OBSERVER.

MAKES HIS OWN BONUS.

To the Editor of The Gleaner,

Sir,—Regarding the bonus proposal, our national indebtedness and the prevalence of excessively high wages everywhere in Canada make the bonus plan seem a crowning folly.

If any one were to pin down any average member of our recent military forces he would be forced to admit that his life under the flag had not injured him in any lasting way, and that physically and mentally it had improved him. The writer's experience was probably more extreme than average. Being "in the war" cost him in salary lost and in personal expenses about $2,500 over and above his negligible $33 per month pay.

Released from service a little over a year ago he took a new position, and has succeeded in making over four times as much a year in it as he did in his former place. His experience is identical with that of almost every man who settled down to a real day's work on his return home.

Certainly any man partially disabled or who suffered a serious loss which through no fault of his he has been unable to make up deserves consideration and a large consideration. But the vast majority of us can make our own bonuses.

Yours,
J. T.

NEWCASTLE MAN HAS DISAPPEARED

Feared that Clarence Wright Lost His Way in Woods While Ill.

Newcastle, April 30.—Much concern is felt locally for Clarence Wright, a well known local young man, who has mysteriously disappeared. Young Wright, who is a veteran of the Great War, was employed on Robinson's drive on the Northwest, was taken ill on Sunday, left the crew to walk to the settlement en route to Newcastle and since then no word has been received from him and it is feared that he has lost his way in the woods and perished. A searching party is now scouring the woods in search of the missing man.

A large delegation of citizens waited upon General Superintendent Brown and Superintendent Devenish of the C. N. R. here yesterday in regard to some reported changes in the local depot. Mr. Brown promised to have matters satisfactorily adjusted and improvements made at the station that would mean much for Newcastle.

The death of Mrs. George Hall took place at the Miramichi Hospital here today after a week's illness of paralysis.

James Murray, a well known resident of Chaplin Island Road, passed away yesterday after an illness of several weeks.

John O'Brien, of Newcastle, was fined $90 by Magistrate Lawlor on Tuesday for having beaver, sable and mink furs in his possession contrary to law. Furs to the value of about $2,500 were seized and confiscated.

The marriage of Miss Bessie McGowan, daughter of Mrs. B. McGowan, and John Walsh, of South Nelson, was solemnized at St. Mary's church yesterday afternoon. The bride was attended by Miss Nora Walsh, while Charles McGowan supported the groom.

A. S. Grimby and G. P. Burchill are in St. John this week, attending the Masonic Grand Lodge.

Hon. D. Morrison returned Wednesday from a business trip around the coast.

Willis McD. Nicholson was a visitor to St. John this week.

A very successful social time was held in the Town Hall Wednesday evening by the members of the Anglican Young People's Association. A large number were present. The chaperones were Mrs. James A. J. Ritchie, Mrs. Fred Morrell, Mrs. Charles Sargent, Mrs. Tracy Guild and Mrs. W. A. Park.

The many firends of D. R. Brown are pleased to hear that he is again to return to the Miramichi with James Robinson. Mr. Brown has been on the staff of the Workmen's Compensation Board, St. John, for the past two years.

Dr. D. R. Moore of Stanley, was a visitor in town on Thursday.

Dr. J. P. Weir, of Doaktown, spent Wednesday with Newcastle friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Andrews are removing this week to Fredericton, where they will reside in future.

Wallace Smallwood, of Halifax, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Smallwood.

A DONATION PARTY.

Mrs. Adney, Recent Aspirant for Political Honors, Issues Interesting Invitation.

The following item appears in the Woodstock Press:

To my pupils, friends, enemies, acquaintances and fellow citizens, you are cordially invited to attend and participate in a benefit for me, myself.

Some are born rich, some achieve richness while others have riches thrust upon them, so it is with donations, some have no bother getting them, their admiring and grateful social circle offer and provide them. I have waited long for a benefit suited to the magnitude of my services and meritorious work in your behalf, and we learn that "benefits delayed are benefits denied."

I am very poor and during the three years past I have been both cold and hungry, with no money and no credit.

The party will be in my music room, opposite Aberdeen Hotel, Friday evening, April 30th, half past eight. There will be a programme of music, I will sing the latest popular song, "Everything is Comin' My Way Now," and as encore "They All Look Like Chickens to Me."

Respectfully and hopefully yours,
MINNIE B. ADNEY.

CENTRAL BLISSVILLE, N. B.

Central Blissville, N. B., April 20.—A very enjoyable pie social was held at the home of Austin DeWitt by the ladies of the Baptist church. The sum of $56 was realized, which will be used towards finishing the work on the Baptist church.

Mrs. J. C. Nutter has returned to her home in Welsford after spending the past two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Smith.

We are very sorry to hear the "flu" has broken out in this place again, Frank Patchell being the victim, although we are glad to hear he is improving.

Thanks to the skilful management of Dr. Bailey, of Fredericton Jct., Mrs. Banks' wrist is much improved.

G. F. Smith's friends are congratulating him on his success with his Shine Creek drive. Mr. Smith has been driving but two days and expects to have his drive in early this week.

Mrs. Hartley Dupilseau was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. A. Boone, one day last week.

Arthur Shanks is expecting his mother and sister from Boston the latter part of the week.

We are sorry to learn of Grover Patchell's illness and are hoping for a speedy recovery.

We are sorry to learn that one of our popular young ladies, Miss Myrtle Smith, has not been able to return to the Fredericton Business College to resume her course on account of a recent illness.

"BARON" IS IN TROUBLE.

New York, April 30.—A man who introduced himself in Jersey City as Frank De Paris, a "baron of the White Tower" in Paris, and descendant of the Bourbons and who married Mrs. Henrietta Caroselli, a divorcee, a few weeks ago, was today committed to the Hudson county jail from the first criminal court on a charge of bigamy by Mrs. Annunziata Charmonti, of 672 Bond street, Montreal.

The Montreal police informed the prosecutor's office that De Paris had married three Italian women and a French woman without the intervention of death or divorce. De Paris denied the charge. He was held for extradition.

De Paris gave his Jersey City wife $5,000 of Liberty bonds, on which the initial payment has been made, as a wedding present.

Unless a woman is capable of earning $1 a day she has no business marrying a man to retain him.

LOST SUIT TO ANNUL MARRIAGE TO MODEL

Husband of Week's Courtship Calls on Wife as Witness But It Did No Good.

New York, April 30.—Mrs. Frances Kathryn Hallenbeck, a former model of Philadelphia, now living at 431 Riverside Drive, this city, was exonerated today in Justice Bijur's part of the Supreme Court when her husband, Ernest Albert Hallenbeck, manager of the Horn-Holland Varnish Company of Philadelphia, failed to get his marriage annulled.

Mr. Hallenbeck, who now lives in Fort Green Place, Brooklyn, alleged in his complaint that Mrs. Hallenbeck after her marriage to him in the Church of the Strangers on April 20, 1918, confessed that she had had affairs with four other men in Philadelphia.

He alleged that Mrs. Hallenbeck, whom he married after a courtship of only a week, had told him, since their marriage, she believed in the greatest freedom for a wife. He produced several witnesses in an attempt to convince Justice Bijur that there were grounds for anulment. Then Mr. Hallenbeck called his wife as his own witness.

Mrs. Hallenbeck denied that at any time had she ever made any confession of impropriety, adding there had never been any basis for such a confession.

SEEK TO SALVAGE GREEK STEAMER

Halifax, N. S., Apri 30.—With favorable weather the Atlantic Salvage Co., Ltd., expect to have the Greek steamer Platea, which went ashore on Sable Island last fall, safe in Halifax harbor by the middle of May. Their wrecking tug the Canadienne, with wrecking crews, is now at the island working on the ship and is making favorable progress.

The Platea struck on Sable Island last year, and owing to bad weather operations to refloat her were suspended until this spring. During the heavy storms of the last five months the steamer has practically maintained her position. As few ships have ever been salvaged from 'the graveyard of the Atlantic," the progress of the workers will be watched with interest.

MURDER TRIAL OF BOY.

Montreal, April 30.—Paul Heck, the fifteen year old boy charged with the murder of Camille Godin, 13 years of age, by shooting him through the head with a sparrow rifle, appeared yesterday in the enquete court. Heck pleaded not guilty and he will be examined on Monday.

WILLIAMSBURG, N. B.

Williamsburg, N. B., April 26.—The weather for the past few days has been very disagreeable and the roads are in a very bad condition.

The Squire's Daughter, a play put on by the Ladies' Aid of this place, was a big success. The characters and those portraying them were: The squire's daughter, Cora J. Fullarton; Mrs. Hawkins, Violet Goldning; Stella Brown, Myrtle Hassack; Squire Hawkins, John Fullarton; Josiah Brown, Percy Kerr; Albert Reade, Harry Kerr; Fred Dudley, Lorne B. Gallagher; Francois, John Hassack.

Warren Merritt has returned to Plaster Rock after visiting his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Dorcas are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a young daughter, Pearl Irene.

Miss Sarah Dorcas was the guest of Miss Edith McMillan one day last week.

James H. Dorcas has returned home after spending the winter in Napudogan.

Miss Cora J. Fullarton was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Neil Fullarton, one day last week.

John Fullarton and Harry Kerr made a flying trip to Fredericton one day last week.

The young boys of this place hired the hall on Monday night last and a very good dance was reported by all.

Mrs. James S. Fullarton was the guest of Mrs. Duncan Dorcas one day last week.

Miss M. E. Buchanan expects to leave soon for a few months' visit to New York.

Most of our young men have gone to the drive.

Miss Margaret J. Dorcas has returned from a flying trip to Plaster Rock, accompanied by Miss Cora Fullarton.

Housecleaning is the order of the day.

HOLTVILLE, N. B.

Holtville, N. B., April 19.—We are having some cool weather, which will delay the stream driving somewhat.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by a number of our young folks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Reid on the 17th inst. The evening was spent in music and various amusements. Violin music was rendered by John Smith, accompanied on the organ by Victor Munn. Refreshments were served toward the last of the evening and the party broke up at a late hour. All report a good time.

Miss Martha E. C. Reid was the guest of Mrs. A. Tennyson Munn on Saturday evening.

James Fraser passed through here recently en route to Dungarvon.

We are sorry to report that Miss Annie L. Cameron is not in as good health as we would wish her to be. She is very much troubled with a felon on her finger. We regret this very much as she is our esteemed organist.

Miss Ada I. Calhoun was the guest of Mrs. Theodore H. Pond on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Leo A. Carten was calling on Mrs. James A. Fowler recently.

HAS SOLUTION FOR HOUSING PROBLEM

Winnipeg, Man., April 30.—That he has devised a means of solving the housing problem through the use of electrical power was the claim made by J. W. Dorsey, assistant professor of electrical engineering in the University of Manitoba. "It will not be necessary for people to construct costly houses with a great deal of expensive material for the purpose of keeping out the cold. I believe I have discovered something that will eliminate all the drawbacks of cold," he said. "People will not have to consider the climate to anything like the extent they do now and they will enjoy conveniences that are not possible now." Prof. Dorsey expects to have some dwellings constructed here this summer which will demonstrate the efficiency and value of his invention. Details of the invention were not given out as he is preparing to obtain patents.

ST. JOHN TO FORM BASEBALL LEAGUE

St. John, April 30.—The formation of a city baseball league was assured at a meeting of the Playgrounds Association last evening, when representatives of Y.M.C.A., St. Peter's, East End League and the Sugar Refineries announced they would have teams in the field. It is expected that the games will be played on the new St. Peter's grounds and the East End grounds.

In the Probate Court letters testamentary have been issued to C. J. Fitzpatrick, executrix, under the will of Philip Fitzpatrick. The estate was valued at $1,443.

FARMER MURDERED.

Saskatoon, Sask., April 30. — With his head battered to a pulp and showing signs of having had a violent struggle, Harry D'Orguerre, wealthy farmer, was found dead Thursday night on his farm near Glidden. The body was found in the barn by his wife.

BRITISH PEERS SELLING ESTATES

The Heavy War Taxes Impose Great Drain on Big Land Proprietors There.

London, April 30.—England's war taxes continue to force many of her nobility to sell parts of their great estates. One of the greatest of these which recently has passed under the auctioneer's hammer is that of the Duke of Rutland, which is known as Belvoir. The Duke owns about 59,000 acres, of which he is selling about 13,000 acres located in the best part of the Lincolnshire hunting district. He explained at a public meeting that the sale was made necessary by the increasing burden of taxation resulting from the war.

Goadby Hall, one of the Duke's properties of 230 acres, was sold privately in the advance of the public sale and 100 tenants have bought from the Duke the farms he had rented to them.

Earl Manver's estate, known as "Holme Pierrepont" at Radcliffe-on-Trent, has been sold at auction for £42,685. It covers 320 acres.

It is reported that part of the estate of the Earl of Londesborough, comprising Raincliffe woods and racecourse, has been bought by a Scarborough financier.

PROHIBIT EXPORT OF WORKS OF ART

Paris, April 30.—The Chamber of Deputies yesterday passed a bill prohibiting the export of works of art which the state considers form a part of the nation's artistic patrimony. An export duty was placed on other ancient objects of art of fifty per cent. ad valorem, plus fifty centimes per thousand francs for objects valued up to 100,000 francs and of 100 per cent. for those valued over 100,000 francs.

Contentment may be better than money, but it is equally scarce.

An English Custom
Becoming Quite Common in Canada

Every country has its national customs and habits.

For instance, England has the custom of serving afternoon tea.

English homes, stores, offices, factories, work shops, hotels and tea rooms serve afternoon tea. It is part of the national life of England.

Our soldiers poked fun at it, but were not long in acquiring the habit.

And they are not giving it up now that they are back home.

They are influencing a more general adoption of afternoon tea in Canada.

To-day this English custom is quite common in Canadian homes.

It is spreading. New tea rooms are opening all over Canada. Hotels are making a specialty of afternoon tea. The habit is invading offices, stores and work shops.

A few minutes rest in the afternoon with a cup of good tea is a wonderful reviver, giving new zest to the busy business man, stenographer, clerk and worker.

Afternoon tea is a good business proposition.

Easily and quickly made. Very inexpensive.

Frankie Mason Knocked Out In First Round by Tremaine

Indiana Whirlwind Knocked Down Three Times Before Taking Count—Former Amateur Champion of New England May Die From Blow in Ring.

[Associated Press by Leased Wire.]

Toledo, O., May 1.—Carl Tremaine, of Cleveland, knocked out Frankie Mason, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., in the first round of their scheduled 12 round bout here last night.

Mason was knocked down three times before taking the final count. The knockout came after one minute and 15 seconds and was a right to the jaw. Tremaine weighed 116 and Mason 117.

Boxer May Be Fataly Hurt.

Boston, May 1.—In a bout at the Commercial Athletic Club last night John Murray, of Boston, was struck on the jaw by Dave Powers, of Malden, and fell to the canvas unconscious. He was taken to a hospital where physicians held out slight hope for his recovery. Murray was the champion three years ago, and has been a professional boxer for three months.

Papin and Tendler.

New York, May 1.—Georges Papin, lightweight boxing champion of France, and Lew Tendler, of Philadelphia, will meet in a 12 round bout at Jersey City, May 12, it is announced.

LYNCH IS WINNER.

St. Louis, Mo., April 30.—The scheduled eight-round bout here last night between Joe Lynch, of New York, and Kid Regan, a local fighter, was stopped by the referee in the fifth round to save Regan further punishment.

SOCCOR CHAMPIONSHIP.

St. Louis, Mo., April 30.—The soccer championship of the United States will be decided in a game here May 9, according to a telegram received yesterday by the St. Louis Soccer League from officials of the United States Football Association in New York.

K. O. BY BOB MARTIN.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 30.—Bob Martin, American Expeditionary Force heavyweight champion, knocked out Ted Jamieson, of Milwaukee, the champion of the 32nd Division, in the second round of a scheduled ten-round contest here last night.

Amherst Horsemen Talk of Buying a Free for Aller

Fast Record Pacer May Be Imported By The Nova Scotians

SEVERAL SALES ARE ANNOUNCED

Lady Kep, 2.15 1-4, Will be Trained This Year at Springhill.

The Amherst News says: There is some talk among the horsemen of bringing a fast free for aller to Amherst.

To Train at Springhill.

Lady Kip, 2.15¼, the fastest new performer of the season, has wintered well and will soon be worked on the Springhill track.

Goes to P. E. Island.

Hammond Kelly, Charlottetown, has purchased Abert J., 2.22¼, from Murray Jones, Sackville, at a reported price of $600.

Another for Cape Breton.

Moody Allen, of Glace Bay, has bought from Brenton Hooper, of Charlottetown, the race mare Oma, 2.20, sired by Aquiri, 2.27¼, dam Oma, 2.25, by Parkwood, for $500.

Hector McInnes' Latest.

Hector McInnes, of Boston, was in Michigan last week visiting with Nat Ray at M. Clemens and before leaving bought the 4-year-old pacer mare Lillian Heart by Happy Heart, 2.15¼, out of a Simmocolon mare. Hector says she is not a handsome thing, but she is charged with a mile around 2.12 over a half-mile track, and goes as a good pacer should.

THE ROSS STABLE.

Havre De Grace, Md., May 1.—J. K. L. Ross, the Canadian horseman, will ship twenty-three horses to Toronto, twelve of the lot being Canadian bred, it was announced today. The remainder of the big string of runners will go to Pimlico and thence to New York.

America Cup Trials

New York, May 1.—The trial races between the Resolute and the Vanitie for the right to defend the America's Cup against Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger, Shamrock IV., will be begun off Newport June 3, and continue until a series of twelve or fourteen races are sailed, the race committee of the New York Yacht Club announces.

The trial will be preceded by a series of six practice races in Long Island Sound off New Haven, beginning May 21.

OLD BOSTON PLAYER RUNS FOR SHERIFF

"Piano Legs" Hickman 19 Years in League Ball Candidate in W. Virginia.

Morgantown, W. Va., April 30.—Charles T. Hickman, known during his long years in the big leagues as "Cheerful Charles," "Piano Legs" and other equally appropriate titles, is not a candidate for re-election as mayor of Morgantown for a third term, but will run for sheriff of Monongalia county, of which Morgantown is the seat.

Back in 1894 "Charey" Hickman was a member of the first baseball team West Virginia University ever produced. Two years later he had learned to wield his heavy bat with such force that he was in the "big show and there he stuck for 19 years.

Cleveland, Boston, New York, Chicago, Washington, Philadelphia and Detroit saw him either of the National or American League teams, and he was known everywhere as a terrific cleanup hitter, noted for his long drives.

When he retired from baseball Hickman entered politics, winning for mayor easily in his first attempt and being unopposed for a second term.

Meanwhile he coached the university baseball team most successfully for three years.

BRITISH RUNNERS WERE DEFEATED

Americans Were Victorious in Sports Carnival at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 1.—A new world's record, the defeat of England's best collegiate distance runner, three teams, including Oxford Cambridge, left at the post in the star race and the winning of the Pentathlon by Bradley, of the University of Kansas, were the outstanding features of the opening day of the University of Pennsylvania relay carnival here yesterday.

The summary:

Broad jump (Pentathlon). Won by Wm. Yount, Redlands University, 22 feet 3¾ inches.

Throwing 56-pound weight. Won by Landrow, Massachusetts I. T. Distance, 29 feet ¾ inch.

440-yard hurdles. Won by J. M. Watt, Cornell University. Time, 54 1-5 seconds. B. G. Rudd, Oxford University, did not compete.

220 metres (Pentathlon). Won by Bertels, Pennsylvania.

Javelin throw (Pentathlon). Won by Bartels, Penn. Distance, 162 feet 8 inches.

International Intercollegiate 3-mile race. Won by G. T. Nightingale, of New Hampshire State College. Time by miles—4.55; 10 mins. flat and 14.56.

1,500 metres (Pentathlon). Won by Yount. Time, 5.17 1-5.

Running hop, step and jump. Won by Landers, Pennsylvania, 46 feet 7½ inches.

Amby McConnell Becomes Manager of Syracuse Team

Veteran Infielder Appointed to Take Charge of International League Club Was Formerly With Boston and Chicago Americans.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 1.—Ambrose McConnell, veteran infielder, for a number of years with the Boston and Chicago American League teams, has been appointed manager of the Syracuse Internationals.

Lee Magee's Case.

Cincinnati, April 30.—The Chicago National Baseball Club has filed a petition requesting that the suit against it of Lee Magee, ex-Cub outfielder, be transferred from the Common Pleas Court to the Federal Court here, on the ground that Magee is a citizen of Ohio and the officials of the club live in Illinois. Magee is suing for $9,500 damages, alleging that he has been barred from playing baseball.

Chelsea Boy to Join Pirates.

Boston, May 1.—Sam Gerrig, formerly a Chelsea High School baseball player, has signed with the Pittsburg nine of the National League as a catcher and will start Sunday to join the team.

With many of the crack horses going to the Great Western chain after the August meet at Cleveland, the management at Readville expects more entries from home trainers than ever before.—Boston Globe.

HOOF PRINTS.

Cum Laude, 2.08½, goes to England.

Lon McDonald is training the U. Forbes 2-year-old Eternal, 2.24½.

Pete Carney will train Lee Grand, 2.03¼, and the other J. J. Orr horses at Brockton.

Will Durfee has changed his mind about racing on the Grand Circuit and will remain in California.

The many times tried Peter Look, 2.01¾, is going to the half mile tracks for some early season racing.

The highly regarded Michigan trotter Aileen Frisco, 2.14¼, will be raced by Will Snow.

The Readville classes are 2.06, 2.08, 2.12, three-year-old 2.18 and two-year old trotting; 2.06 and 2.11 pacing.

Jack Leonard has a green pacer at Readville that he regards highly, by The Earl, 2.14¼, out of mare by Klatawah, 2.05¾.

Hal Boy, 2.01, and R. H. Brett, 2.03¼, are the fast record horses named in the 2.12 paces through the Orange County circuit.

Billy Fleming comes to Readville from Windsor this week with James Albert, 2.09½; Baby Doll, 2.10¼; Millie Irvin, 2.09¾, and two others.—Boston Globe.

Jack Kingsley is a busy man this spring, for in addition to his training he is running the hotel—and doing it well—just outside the gate at Readville. The members of his stable are Sister Pearl, 2.10¼; Hal King, 2.11¼; Little Frank B., 2.11¼; Direct Patch, 2.12¼; Gladys C., 2.16¼; Blanche Elder, green pacer, by Box Elder; Eleanor Coakley, a 3-year-old daughter of Manrico, 2.07¼, and Ethel Baron, sister to Moko, and Adelaide Guy, a 3-year-old, by Guy Axworthy, 2.08¾, out of Belle Zombro.

The record members of Dick McMahon's stable at Indianapolis are: Peter Look, 2.01¾; Drift Patch, 2.05¼; Miss Perfection, 2.06¾; Esperanza, 2.03¼; Red Bon, 2.09¼; Kentucky June, 2.09¾; Edgar Worthy, 2.11½; Sis Ring, 2.06½; John R. DeForest, 2.22½; Sister Azoff, 2.21½; Peter New, 2.25, and Terry Patchen, 2.25.

All the long-shot seekers will always regret they were not at New Zealand the past winter when a mutuel ticket on Wairoa Belle, winner of the Wakefield Trotting Handicap, paid around $8,000 on an investment of $5. That is the record long-shot.

Ted Horan declares that when Peter Look, 2.01¾, left Laurel Hall for McMahon's stable at the Indianapolis track written on his halter tag were the words, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

TAKE 10 YEARS TO RESTORE TRAFFIC

Russian Railroad Shops Utterly Unable to Provide Necessary Facilities for Roads

Moscow, April 30.—Russian railroad shops, working at a maximum of peace time capacity, will require more than 10 years to restore normal traffic with the present facilities of production, according to a survey recently published in the Economic Life. The chief needs are shown to be the importation of rolling stock and the home development of the transportation industry.

The survey shows that in 1914 the number of locomotives was approximately 20,000, with 16 per cent. unfit for use. The present number of locomotives is about 10,000, with 59 per cent. out of commission or in need of repairs, and the number of cars 250,000. Lines in operation have also diminished about 20 per cent.

The maximum pre-war production in the Russian shops was 1,800 locomotives and 40,000 cars annually, and the number that retired each year was 1,300 locomotives and 30,000 trucks. The present need is for 15,000 locomotives and 450,000 cars.

GEARY, N. B.

Geary, N. B., April 24.—We are having some very pleasant weather at present. Most of the men of this place have gone to the drive at Cavanaugh.

Mrs. Stanley Howe was visiting Mrs. Fred Boone on Wednesday.

T. Manzer Howe has got his drive in on Rockville and is rafting at present.

Mrs. Theodore Smith and Mrs. Sterling Smith have gone to St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carr are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy.

Miss Della Smith was the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hazen, on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Carr were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Smith on Tuesday.

Mrs. Wesley Maxwell has returned home after spending a few days with Ruby Hazen.

CANNOT SHELTER BEHIND TARIFF

Australian Premier Tells Manufacturers There They Must Live on Their Merits.

Sydney, Australia, April 30.—The proposed new Australian tariff is not intended to encourage manufacturers in "slothful ease" or to enable them to operate on any other basis than merit, declared Prime Minister Hughes, at a luncheon given here by the Australian Industries Protection League.

"The manufacturers of Australia," he said, "must take advantage of the opportunity which now unfolds itself before them. The government intends to lay upon the table of the House a tariff bill which has been carefully prepared with the deliberate intention of encouraging effectively the industries of Australia; but I want to tell the manufacturers that they must not think to find a safe and permanent shelter behind that tariff wall.

"You must live on your merits. The manufacturers of Australia must realize, as some have already done, that the bulwarks are imposed by the sparseness of our population. They must build their plants with the fullest intention of competing in the markets of the world. The tariff can set you on the road; but you must walk alone."

And a fearsome sight it was that met their eyes! Across the lower end lay the dense heap of men and horses where the first arrowstorm had burst. Above, the bodies of the dead and the dying—French, Spanish, and Aragonese—lay thick and thicker, until they covered the whole ground two and three deep in one dreadful tangle of slaughter. Above them lay the Englishmen in their lines, even as they had stood, and higher yet upon the plateau a wild medley of the dead of all nations, where the last deadly grapple had left them. In the further corner, under the shadow of a great rock, there crouched seven bowmen, with great John in the centre of them—all wounded, weary, and in sorry case, but still unconquered, with their blood-stained weapons waving and their voices ringing a welcome to their countrymen. Alleyne rode across to John, while Sir Hugh Calverley followed close behind him.

"By Saint George!" cried Sir Hugh, "I have never seen signs of so stern a fight, and I am right glad that we have been in time to save you."

"You have saved more than us," said John, pointing to the banner which leaned against the rock behind him.

"You have done nobly," cried the old free companion, gazing with a soldier's admiration at the huge frame and bold face of the archer. "But why is it, my good fellow, that you sit upon this man."

"By the rood! I had forgot him," John answered, rising and dragging from under him no less a person than the Spanish caballero, Don Diego Alvarez. "This man, my fair lord, means to me a new house, ten cows, one bull—if it be but a little once grindstone, and I know not what besides, so that I thought it well to sit upon him, lest he should take a fancy to leave me."

"Tell me, John," cried Alleyne faintly, "where is my dear lord, Sir Nigel Loring?"

"He is dead, I fear. I saw them throw his body across a horse and ride away with it, but I fear the life had gone from him."

"Now woe worth me! And where is Aylward?"

"He prang upon a riderless horse and rode after Sir Nigel to save him. I saw them throng round him, and he is either taken or slain."

"Blow the bugles!" cried Sir Hugh, with a scowling brow. "We must back to camp, and ere three days I trust that we may see these Spaniards again. I would fain have ye all in my company."

"We are of the White Company, my fair lord," said John.

"Nay, the White Company is here disbanded," answered Sir Hugh solemnly, looking round him at the lines of silent figures. "Look to the brave squire, for I fear that he will never see the sun rise again."

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

Of the Home-Coming to Hampshire.

It was a bright July morning four months after that fatal fight in the Spanish barranca. A blue heaven stretched above, a green rolling plain undulated below, intersected with hedgerows and flecked with grazing sheep. The sun was yet low in the heaven, and the red cows stood in the long shadow of the elms, chewing the cud and grazing with great vacant eyes at two horsemen who were spurring it down the long white road which dipped and curved away back to where the towers and pinnacles beneath the flat-topped hill marked the old town of Winchester.

Of the riders one was young, graceful and fair, clad in plain doublet and hosen of blue Brussels cloth, which served to show his active and well-knit figure. A flat velvet cap was drawn forward to keep the glare from his eyes, and he rode with lips compressed and anxious face, as one who has much care upon his mind. Young as he was and peaceful as was his dress the dainty golden spurs which twinkled upon his heels proclaimed his knighthood, while a long seam upon his brow and a scar upon his temple gave a manly grace to his refined and delicate countenance. His comrade was a large, red-headed man upon a great black horse, with a huge canvas bag slung from his saddle-bow, which jingled and clinked with every movement of his steed. His broad, brown face was lighted up by a continual smile, and he looked slowly from side to side with eyes which twinkled and shone with delight. Well might John rejoice, for was he not back in his native Hampshire, had he not Don Diego's five thousand crowns rasping against his knee, and above all was he not himself squire now to Sir Alleyne Edricson, the young Socman of Minstead, lately knighted by the sword of the Black Prince himself, and esteemed by the whole army as one of the most rising of the soldiers of England.

For the last stand of the Company had been told throughout Christendom wherever a brave deed of arms was loved, and honors had flowed in upon the few who had survived it. For two months Alleyne had wavered betwixt death and life, with a broken rib and a shattered head; yet youth and strength and a cleanly life were all upon his side, and he awoke from his long delirium to find that the war was over, that the Spaniards and their allies had been crushed at Navaretta, and that the price had himself heard the tale of his ride for succor and had come in person to his bedside to touch his shoulder with his sword and to insure that so brave and true a man should die, if he could not live, within the order of chivalry. The instant that he could set foot to ground Alleyne had started in search of his lord, but no word could he hear of him, dead or alive, and he had come home now sad-hearted, in the hope of raising money upon his estates and so starting upon his quest once more. Landing at London, he had hurried on with a mind full of care, for he had heard no word from Hampshire since the short note which had announced his brother's death.

"By the rood!" cried John, looking around him exultantly, "where have we seen since we left such noble cows, such fleecy sheep, grass so green, or a man so drunk as yonder rogue who lies in the gap of the hedge?"

"Ah, John," Alleyne answered wearily, "it is well for you, but I never thought that my home-coming would be so sad a one. My heart is heavy for my dear lord and for Aylward, and I know not how I may break the news to the Lady Mary and to the Lady Maude, if they have not yet had tidings of it."

John gave a groan which made the horses shy. 'It is indeed a black business," said he. "But be not sad, for I shall give half these crowns to my old mother, and half will I add to the money which you may have, and so we shall buy that yellow cog wherein we sailed to Bordeaux, and in it we shall go forth and seek Sir Nigel."

Alleyne smiled, but shook his head. "Were he alive we should have had word of him ere now," said he. "But what is this town before us?"

"Why, it is Romsey!" cried John. "See the tower of the old gray church and the long stretch of the nunnery. But here sits a very holy man, and I shall give him a crown for his prayers."

A Baby Boy.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blank are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son at their home on George street this morning.

Returning to Fredericton.

Miss Dorothy Dever, who has been residing at Sydney, C. B., for the past year, has returned to Fredericton to accept a position. Miss Dever was vice-president of the Business Girls' Club at Sydney and before leaving the club presented her with a set of ivory.

Grass Fire Reported.

Chief Forester G. H. Prince stated this morning that a grass fire had been reported to the Forestry Department from along the C.N.R. line near St. John earlier in the week. It was set by a spark from a passing engine but was extinguished before any damage had been done.

Married at St. Stephen.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Stephen on April 28th, when Miss Susie J. Smith, of Bolestown, became the bride of Edward C. Cox, of Perry, Me. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frederick H. Holmes, after which Mr. and Mrs. Cox left by auto for Perry, Me., where they will reside.

For Social Service Work.

A grant of $500 was ordered to the Social Service Council at last night's meeting of the City Council to cover the grant to that society for the work of the Victorian nurse during the year. The suggestion was made that the Council include in its membership the Commissioner of the Municipal Home, T. A. Niles.

Sunday School Banquet.

About 400 scholars of St. Paul's Presbyterian Sunday school held a banquet in the Fraser Memorial Hall last evening. The banquet was served in the gymnasium, which was very prettily decorated. A programme of songs, recitations and a one act comedy, "The Dentist," was put on and thoroughly enjoyed.

To Preach Baccalaureate Sermon.

Rev. H. A. Goodwin, of St. John, has been finally named to preach the baccalaureate sermon to the University of New Brunswick graduating class in connection with this year's encoenia proceedings. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached at the Methodist church on Sunday, May 9th. Those who will deliver the other addresses at the encoenia have already been announced in The Gleaner.

The Old Burial Ground.

The ladies' societies of the city, it was announced at the special meeting of the City Council last evening, are prepared to co-operate with the committee of the City Council for the improvement of the Old Burying Ground, which, it was urged, was badly in need of improvements, and Ald. Hall, chairman of the Committee, was instructed to find out to what extent the societies were willing to co-operate with the Council.

Operations at Victoria Hospital.

Mrs. John Stennick underwent an operation for abdominal trouble at the Victoria Hospital yesterday. Ernest Hall, a twelve year old boy, of Taymouth, was operated upon for appendicitis at the hospital yesterday, and Oakland Harris, another twelve year old boy, of Southampton, underwent an operation for appendicitis. Dr. H. H. McNally was the surgeon in these cases, and the patients are reported as resting comfortably today.

Held Interesting Debate.

The Young People's Society of the George Street Baptist church had a very interesting debate last evening. The question was, "Resolved, that the lure of the world is greater than the lure of the church." The affirmative was ably argued by Messrs. Beals, Steeves, Flowers and Miss Annie Vail, while the negative was argued by Messrs. Wickett, J. W. Bonnell, Mrs. W. C. Kerrstead and Miss Smith. The question was ably discussed by both sides and the judges decided in favor of the lure of the church.

Wedding Is Announced.

Announcement was made today of the wedding of Harry R. Adams and Miss Louise Bernice Curtiss, both of this city, which took place at St. John on December 29th, 1919. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. MacKelgan, of St. David's church. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Margaret Curtiss, of Newcastle, and for the past four years has made her home in this city, where she has made very many friends. The groom is a son of the late John G. Adams, a prominent in the Free Masons and Orange order and one of the city's best known young men. Mr. and Mrs. Adams are receiving the congratulations of their many friends and have taken up their residence at 230 St. John street.

MAY DAY BRINGS LOWER PRICES IN COUNTRY MARKET

No Labor Troubles but Many More Are Moving Than Usual in Fredericton.

STRIKING REDUCTIONS IN PRODUCE PRICES

Eggs Sold at 40 Cents, Butter at 50 Cents and There Were Other Drops.

The most startling event of the 1920 May Day in Fredericton has been the general reduction of prices for farm produce in the country market.

Eggs dropped to 40 cents a dozen, butter sold at 60 cents a pound, 18 cents per pound was the usual price for veal, and there were other similar reductions, the supply being so much in excess of the demand that the market lasted much longer than usual in spite of the price cutting.

New schedules of wages go into effect today in the building trades, calling for increased pay, and some other unions have had demands for advanced wages acceded to, but there has not been even a ripple on the industrial surface. There is more moving taking place in the city than on any May Day in recent years, but there are no vacant houses or flats.

Biggest Market Since Christmas.

One of the largest markets at Phoenix Square since the Christmas season was that of this morning, when three sides of the City Hall and one side of the Normal School grounds were lined with teams and automobiles loaded with country produce.

When the market opened eggs were selling at 50 cents a dozen, but by 11 o'clock they were being offered at 40 cents. Butter started in at 65 cents a pound, but it dropped to 50 cents at 11 o'clock, with prospects of it still going lower. Potatoes were offered at $8 and $9, and maple honey, which started in at 65 cents a bottle dropped to 50 cents for single bottles and less by the quantity.

The prevailing prices today were as follows:

Potatoes, per barrel, $8 to $9.
Turnips, per barrel, $1.25.
Apples, per barrel, $3 to $6.
Veal, per pound, 9 to 20 cents.
Pork, per pound, 25 cents.
Butter, per pound, 50 to 65 cents.
Eggs, per dozen, 40 to 50 cents.
Maple honey, per bottle, 50 to 65 cents.
Parsnips, per peck, 50 cents.
Beets, per peck, 40 cents.
Seed beans, per quart, 40 cents.
Hay, per ton, $30 to $35.

BIDS WERE OPENED FOR BONDS TODAY

New Brunswick Will Pay 6 3-8 Per Cent. Interest on Issue of $2,800,000 Bonds.

Bids were opened at noon today by W. A. Loudoun, comptroller general of New Brunswick, for $2,800,000 ten year 6 per cent. debentures of the province of New Brunswick, of which $1,800,000 are for permanent roads and bridges and $1,000,000 for construction of the St. John Valley Rail-

The bids were as follows:

A. E. Ames & Co., Toronto; J. M. Robinson & Sons, St. John; Wood, Gundy & Co., Toronto, and Eastern Securities, St. John—97.1747 with interest and principal payable in New York and Canada or 96.1579 interest and principal payable in Canada only. These would yield 6% and 6.52 per cent. respectively, the difference in the bids being about $28,000.

R. A. Daley & Co., Toronto; E. H. Rollins & Sons, Boston, Mass.; Equitable Trust Company, New York; W. R. Compton Co., New York, and Merrill, Oldham & Co., Boston—96.347 interest and principal payable in New York.

The bid of Harris Forbes & Co. was ruled out, as not being in accordance with conditions under which tenders were asked, but is about equal to 96 in Canadian funds. The Comptroller General will report the bids to the Government and it is expected that the first named combination's first bid which will yield 6% per cent. will be accepted.

PROHIBITION CASES.

Status of Local Jew's Residence Where He Conducts Junk Business, Too, In Doubt.

The prohibition case, in which a local dentist is the principal figure, was continued in the Police Court yesterday afternoon before Police Magistrate Limerick and finally stood over until Thursday, May 6th, when the defence will summon more witnesses.

Two witnesses testified that the bottle which had been produced in court belonged to the defendant and the case was stood over until Thursday next, when several witnesses will be called by the defence.

The application of a local Jew for the return of a barrel and three cases of gin seized by the sub-inspectors on the ground that he had no private dwelling, was considered by the Police Magistrate, who ordered that it be sent back to the place from whence it had been seized. The Magistrate stated that he did not think that he had the right to judge whether the applicant's combined place of residence and business was a dwelling or not and, as the booze had been consigned to the man at the place where he carried on a junk business, he did not think he had the right to return it to him.

Daily Passenger Trains on St. John Valley Railway Now Promised for June by C.N.R.

Summer Time Table on the C. P. R. Goes Into Effect Tomorrow and Provides Best Service Fredericton Has Ever Enjoyed —More Trains and Some Will Run Express.

The summer time table on the Canadian Pacific Railway goes into effect tomorrow and the changes provide what is generally declared to be the best train service that has ever been provided for Fredericton on the C.P.R. lines.

Only one change in the time table of the C.N.R. becomes effective, the mixed trains from St. John over the Valley Railway line arriving an hour later, but it was intimated this morning that there was still a likelihood of a daily passenger service being inaugurated from Centreville to St. John this season, although the change would not be effective until some time in June. Recommendations to that effect are said to have been made.

Under the new C.P.R. schedule the early morning train from Fredericton to St. John is restored with a connection for Boston and points north and south from McAdam, leaving here at 6.05 a. m. The second train, making connections for St. John and points East, will leave at 10.10 a. m. The first afternoon train with connections for Montreal and points north and south from McAdam will leave here at 4.45 p. m. and another train at 6.35 p. m. will connect with the Boston train and the second Montreal train. The evening train with connections for St. John and East is also restored, leaving here at 8.35 p. m. The trains leaving at 4.45 and 6.35 p.m. are to run express to Fredericton Junction without stops.

There will be five trains arriving daily over the Fredericton branch, as follows:

9.05 a. m.—From St. John and East.
12.20 p. m.—From Montreal, Boston, etc.
6.30 p. m.—From St. John.
8.25 p.m.—Local train from St. John.
10.40 p. m.—From Boston, etc. and points north and south of McAdam.

The trains arriving at 12.20 p. m. and 6.30 p.m. will run express from Fredericton Junction to this city without making any stops.

On the Gibson branch the train for Woodstock will leave Fredericton at 7.50 a.m. and North Devon at 8.25 a.m. and that for Otis will leave Fredericton at 3.40 p.m. and North Devon at 4.12 p.m. The Otis train will arrive at North Devon at 12.58 p.m. and at Fredericton at 1.35 p.m., while the Woodstock train will arrive at North Devon at 7.57 p. m. and at Fredericton at 8.20 p.m.

WITNESS IN U.S. BOMB OUTRAGES CASE A SUICIDE

TWO FATALITIES IN THE BOMB EXPLOSION

Bombs Were Placed in Homes of New York Judge and Attorney General Palmer

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York, May 3.—Tony Tazso, thirty years, detained by the Department of Justice as an important witness against a number of radicals involved in the bomb outrages of last June, committed suicide early today by hurling himself from a window on the fourteenth floor of a Park Row office building where the different head quarters are located.

The June bomb outrages included the homes of Judge Chas. C. Nott, or general assizes court in New York, and Attorney General Palmer at Washington. Explosions took place in eight cities and resulted in the death of two persons.

Tazso's suicide revealed for the first time that any important arrests had ever been made in conection with the case.

ROTTEN HYPOCRISY DISGUSTS LEADER

Lt. Col. Mackin, Toronto, Declares Members Citizens' League all for Self

Toronto, May 3.—Lieut. Colonel H. A. C. Machin, ex-M. P. P., has resigned the presidency of the Citizens' Liberty League in disgust.

In a letter to Secretary Carruthers, tendering his resignation, Col. Machin pours hot shot at many members of the League, whose motives in joining were those of "self and self alone," he states. He says he foolishly had thought these men were behind him on a matter of principle, but "their participation in our work," he says, "was at the time when their cellars were near depletion and they got busy and interested, but the moment restrictions were removed and they had their cellars full, nothing mattered."

Col. Machin says he spent $3,500 personally in connection with the League and has received no support from the wealthy. He expresses a desire to see the people get back to the days "when rugged honesty and truth were our national bulwarks," and to abolish "all rotten hypocrisy which at present exists, particularly on this subject."

AUSTRALIA WHEAT CROP A FAILURE

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

London, May 3.—Owing to the bad season there is fear that Australia may have to import wheat in 1921, says a despatch to the London Times from Sydney, N. S. W. The wheat board recently asked Great Britain to forego the balance of 1,500,00 tons owing her, but she refused. It is still hoped, says the despatch, that Great Britain will defer requiring the shipment of this wheat until the visible supply in Australia is assured. West Australia already has refused to contribute toward the British shipments and other states are being urged to take the same course.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN U. S.

New York, May 3.—A woman suffrage "flying squadron" departed today for Connecticut, where during the next four days suffragist orators will wage a campaign in an effort to put the state "over the top" for the final vote for ratification of the woman suffrage amendment.

One-Half of Paris Railway Service is Deleted by Strike

Virtually No Freights Were Moving This Morning

THE CABINET HOLD MEETING

Manager of Newspaper Arrested for Inciting Men to Strike.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, May 3.—At a meeting of the cabinet under the presidency of M. Millerand, this morning, at which all the Ministers and Under-Secretaries of State were present, M. Letocquer, Minister of Public Works, told the Ministers that all the essential public services has easily been kept functioning in spite of the strike which started on Saturday.

Railway Traffic Affected.

Paris, May 3.—The strike situation in this city was generally stationary at the north and east stations this morning, only about 50 per cent. of the usual number of trains being in operation. At the St. Lazare Station traffic was affected more seriously. Virtually no freight trains were moving during the forenoon.

The General Labor Federation last night issued a manifesto declaring it will continue the struggle, and disclaiming all responsibility for present events. It says it will not cease to defend the general interests of the nation and urges certain "indispensable measures which events since the armistice have proved necessary."

The manifesto recapitulates its programme, comprising a national economic council, an international commission to apportion raw materials, an international fleet under the League of Nations to bring down freights, reorganization of the railroads and other measures.

It concludes by affirming that execution of this programme would have prevented all the ills from which the country is suffering, and would have brought wealth and prosperity.

Strike Inciter Arrested.

M. Monette, managing director of the weekly publication Labor Life, which has been conducting a campaign for the continuation of the strike, was arrested this morning. This is the first arrest made by the police in connection with the railroad walkout, but other warrants have been drawn up at the Ministry of the Interior, and it is expected others will be detained.

Workers throughout France will be protected by the government against aggression by strikers, according to an interview with M. Le Trocque, Minister of Public Works, printed in this morning's Matin. The Minister declares all measures to furnish necessities of life to the people have been taken, and is optimistic that pending disputes will be settled by arbitration.

OFFER TO RANSOM KIDNAPPED GIRL

New York Girl Abducted While on Way to Bank to Make Deposit

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York, May 3.—An advertisement offering to ransom his fourteen-year-old daughter, Henrietta, who has been missing for two weeks, was inserted in a New York newspaper today by Louis Bulte, a cigar manufacturer. Mr. Bulte said the advertisement was inserted in compliance with demands in a letter received by him purporting to have been sent by kidnappers. The girl disappeared while on her way to a bank to deposit $265 for her father.

TORONTO WOMAN SUICIDES

Toronto, May 3.—Mrs. Skimington, 41 years of age, cut her throat with her husband's razor in the cellar of her home yesterday and died almost instantly. No inquest will be held.

Chicago Bakers Raise Price Of Bread to 14 Cents a Pound

Journeymen Bakers Recently Granted $50 a Week Wage and Drivers of Bread Wagons Making Similar Demand—Bakers Predict an 18c. Loaf

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Chicago, May 3.—U. S. District Attorney Cline summoned Chicago bakers to appear today in an investigation of bread prices. Journeyman bakers' demands for $50 a week recently were granted and bakers announced bread prices today would be from 12 to 14 cents a pound. Some bakers predicted an 18 cent loaf. The drivers now also are demanding $50 a week.

Marseilles Harbor Completely Paralyzed

Marseilles, May 3.—This harbor is almost completely paralyzed by the strike. No ships have left since the walkout was declared, and the docks are deserted.

STRIKE HOLDS UP FRENCH STEAMER

Liner Booked to Start for New York Today Had to Postpone Departure

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, May 3.—Announcement is made of the indefinite postponement of the sailing of the liner La France for New York, which was fixed for today. Officials of the French line were today unable to set any probable date for the departure of the vessel, although they were optimistic she would get away before the end of the week.

The postponement caused great inconvenience to many people who had booked passage and who expected to depart this morning by a special boat train from the St. Lazaire station. To their surprise the train had been cancelled this morning.

CANONIZATION OF TWO FRENCH WOMEN

The Red Hats to be Bestowed at the Coming Consistory of the Vatican

[Associated Press by Leased Wire.]

Rome, May 3.—Confirmation of reports that no Cardinals will be created at the coming consistory has been received from an official source at the Vatican. The consistory will concern itself entirely with the work of the canonization of Joan of Arc and Marie Alacque, a French mystic and nun, who died in 1690. Another consistory may possibly be held in June, but it is possible it will be postponed until the end of the year, when the question of the creation of new American Cardinals will be considered.

Creation of Cardinals is a personal prerogative of the pontiffs and, therefore, any reports as to who may be given the red hat are considered pure conjecture.

DISCUSS MERCHANT MARINE IN HOUSE

[By Canadian Associated Press.]

Ottawa, May 3.—That the Canadian Government merchant marine is due for some further rough handling from members of the oposition is indicated in several questions which are scheduled to come before the House of Commons early this week.

A significant item will apepar on the order paper on Monday afternoon when J. H. Sinclair (Antigonish) will ask if the rates of freight charged by vessels of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, Limited, are subject in any way to the control of the United States Shipping Board.

SHARP CONTEST FOR BATONNIER OF BAR

Montreal, May 3.—L. Conrad Pelletier, K.C., was elected batonnier of the Bar for the district of Montreal on Saturday, after the first contest there has been among the members for this high position for upwards of ten years.

Henri Gerin-Lajoie, K.C., was nominated, as well as Mr. Pelletier, and the ballot gave the office to the latter in succession to the Hon. G. G. Foster, K.C., by sixty votes.

Mustapha Kemal Moves His Troops Against British and Anti-Nationalist Forces

GATHERING ABOUT THE SEA OF MARMORA

Suliman Sheriff Pasha Given Command of Gov't. Troops Sent Against Mustapha

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Constantinople, May 3.—Mustapha Kemal, the nationalist leader, apparently is relaxing his efforts on other fronts in order to concentrate his strength against the British and anti-nationalist fronts along the Sea of Marmora. The nationalist front, to which many troops are being rushed from the direction of Angora, follows the line of Adabazar, Geve and Brusa.

The siege of Kadjin has been lifted. Bands have been called from Cilicia to assist against the anti-nationalists and British.

Damad Ferid Pasha, the Grand Vizier, has despatched a steamer with four battalions of troops to Ismid, and has named Suliman Sheriff Pasha, former Minister of War, as commander of the troops in that area.

Poles and Germans Clash in Silesia

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Berlin, May 3.—A violent collision occurred between Poles and Germans at Ratibor, Silesia, yesterday, on the occasion of the Polish national festival, according to a despatch published here. Many people were injured on both sides, some seriously, the despatch says.

LABOR TROUBLES AT HALIFAX THICKEN

Teamsters and Chauffeurs Strike for Higher Wages—Bakers Ask for Board

Halifax, N. S., May 3.—Approximately four hundred teamsters and chauffeurs were on strike today for higher wages. At the headquarters of the local today, it was said that about half the membership, which totals eight hundred, had been granted the increase in pay demanded from employers, but that the other half, whose demands have been refused, were not at work today.

The local bread and pastry makers, who had threatened to strike today for more pay, decided last night to apply for a board of conciliation, and this morning word was received from the Labor Department, Ottawa, that the formal form of application for such a board was being forwarded to the bakers.

Local marine workers have submitted a schedule to their employers requesting that it become effective May 1st. Their present rate of day pay is 45 cents per hour and they ask 65 cents, with time and a half from 5.30 p. m. until midnight and on Saturday afternoons, double time after midnight and on statutory holidays, and triple time on Sundays.

FATAL COLLISION WITH TROLLEY POLE

New York, May 3.—The mangled body of George H. Weaver, vice-president of the Remington Typewriter Company, was found dead in his wrecked touring car on the White Plains post road early yesterday. The car had struck a trolley pole at the side of the road with such force that the pole had been driven through the chassis.

Mr. Weaver spent the evening at a Bronxville golf club and started to drive home alone some time after midnight. He was 41 and unmarried.

OTTAWA LAD SHOT AT DETECTIVES

Ottawa, May 3.—Detectives McDonald and Ouimet when attempting to arrest three youngsters for breaking a plate glass window in a drug store, conducted by Mr. P. Nolan, at the corner of Wellington and Booth streets, had a narrow escape from being shot when one of the lads, said to be Lawrence Cassidy, 43 Ottawa St., drew a revolver and fired three shots at them. All shots went wide, however, and the lads were arrested.

Senator R. Clive Pringle Passes Away at Ottawa Home

Former Conservative Member Parliament for Ottawa Had Been Ill for Some Months

DECEASED WAS BORN AT COBOURG, ONTARIO

Studied Law and Practised in British Columbia Until 1903 Returning to Ottawa

(By Canadian Associated Press.)

Ottawa, May 3.—Senator the Hon. Roderick Clive Pringle died here yesterday afternoon of angina pectoris, in his fiftieth year. He had been ill for some months. Burial will take place at Cobourg on Tuesday.

He married on July 1, 1901, Rebecca Brooks Cornell, daughter of Richard Cornell, of Buffalo, N. Y., and she, with one son and two daughters, survive. He was summoned to the Senate on August 1, 1917. In politics he was a staunch Conservative, and in religion a member of the Church of England. The Pringle home is at New Hall, Cobourg.

A lawyer by profession, Mr. Pringle graduated from Toronto University. He began practice in Greenwood, B. C., as a member of the firm of Pringle & Whiteside and remained there until 1903, coming to Ottawa in that year. Ever since he has been head of the legal firm of Pringle & Guthrie.

KILLED THE MISSING BANK MESSENGER

Man Who Disappeared With $178,000 Securities a Victim of Assassins

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York, May 3.—Evidence that Benjamin Binkowitz, the bank messenger who was stabbed to death at Milford, Conn., last August, after he had disappeared with $178,000 worth of stolen securities, was killed by a hired assassin because he refused to turn over the securities for $3,000, was developed, it was learned today, through information obtained at secret hearings held before U. S. Commissioner Alex. Gilchrist here last month in connection with the bankruptcy case against Nicholas Arnstein, a fugitive from justice.

Binkowitz was in hiding with friends in an East Side tenement house. He is alleged to have been lured from his hiding place by the murderers, who induced him to accompany them in a limousine to Milford, where they claimed to have a purchaser for the stolen bonds.

Binkowitz, according to the report, went to a hotel in Milford, where he remained with the men who were to kill him several days.

The automobile containing Binkowitz and the assassins started through the Milford turnpike. When about two miles from the town, one of the assassins is alleged to have pulled young Binkowitz from his seat, while the other plunged a knife into his back. He was then thrown out of the car into a clump of bushes, where his body was found three days later.

The murderers then are reported to have stopped the car about a half mile from the scene and to have walked back to the body. Binkowitz was still alive, the report says, and put up a hard struggle with the assassins, who stabbed him upward of two dozen times before the death blow was administered. The police are said to be in possession of four stilettos with which he met his death, as well as a number of pistols found in one of the hotel rooms occupied by the murderers.

Arnstein, who is wanted by the police as the "Master Mind" in securities thefts exceeding one million dollars, is still in hiding. Police detectives are alleged to have evidence that he is secreted on some large estate not far from the metropolitan district, but they have not been able to locate the exact hiding place. Advertisements were printed in local papers today offering a reward of $2,500 for Arnstein's arrest.

THREE KILLED IN STALLED AIRPLANE

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Valejo, Cal., May 3.—His father and an eight-year-old girl were killed and a third person was seriously injured yesterday when Charles Stoffer, Jr., attempted to make a flight with three passengers in an airplane which he had recently purchased. Coming down from the flight, the engine died and the plane went into a nose dive.

THREE CANADIAN VICTIMS OF HUIRT

California Bluebeard Confesses to Killing Another Canadian Woman He Wed

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Los Angeles, Calif., May 3.—In a second alleged confession, which officers were checking today, Walter Andrew Watson, alias James R. Huirt, admitted killing a Canadian woman he had married but whose name he could not remember, according to Thomas Lee Woolwin, district attorney, who said the confession was made to him yesterday. This made five women the man was declared to have admitted slaying.

The district attorney said Watson told him he had married the woman in Tacoma, Wash., and that he choked her and pushed her overboard while they were boating on Lake Washington, near Seattle. He was quoted as saying he then rowed ashore leaving the woman's body in the water.

"Naturally, I told no one about it," the district attorney quoted him. Woolwin said his investigation showed that Watson married Mrs. Beatrice Andrew, a Canadian, in Tacoma, on Feb. 5, 1919, and that she was said to be missing. He said he had advised Washington authorities of Watson's statement.

Mrs. Beatrice Andrew is the third Canadian woman among Watson's alleged victims. The other two are listed as "missing."

Boston, May 3.—The crew of the motor schooner Risoer, who were forced to abandon their vessel when it was burned 250 miles east of New York yesterday, were transferred early today from the British steamer City of Canton which had picked them up, to the coast guard cutter Acushnet. The cutter reported by wireless that she would take 19 men of the Risoer to New Bedford.

It is much easier to tell people that there is no use in worrying than it is to tell them how to avoid it.

CROWD CHEERS THE VERDICT IN TIEPER'S CASE

Buffalo Man Charged With the Murder of His Mother Is Freed on Second Trial

HAD BEEN SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT

Tieper Claimed That He Was Attacked and Mother Killed by Negro Highwayman

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Buffalo, May 3.—The jury in the case of John Edward Tieper this morning returned a verdict of not guilty.

The jury had been out since Friday morning at 11.14 o'clock. All of the nearly 71 hours spent in considering the evidence brought out at the retrial, which like the first trial was based on an indictment charging Tieper with the murder of his mother, Mrs. Agnes M. Tieper.

Spectators in the court cheered when the jury foreman, at 10.05, reported the verdict of "not guilty" to Justice Taylor. Tieper, after embracing his wife, rushed to the jury box and shook hands with the jurymen. His wife followed him, shaking hands with each juror and thanking them.

Counsel for Tieper at once moved for formal discharge. Assistant District Attorney in the absence of his chief, Guy O. Moore, explained that another indictment charging Tieper with the murder of his brother, was pending. He suggested that Tieper be remanded t jail for an hour until Mr. Moore could be consulted.

Judge Taylor complied, adding that he would admit Tieper to bail if counsel so desired.

The murder of Mrs. Tieper and her son Frederick, occurred on the road between Orchard Park and Buffalo about midnight on the evening of Sunday, January 30, 1916, after a visit of the Tieper family to the home of John Edward in Orchard Park.

On February 1, two days later, John Edward Tieper was arrested. At his trial, the jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree. Tieper was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Tieper never deviated from the story told to the police on the night of the murder that the crime was committed by a negro highwayman.

NO SETTLEMENT OF ADRIATIC PROBLEM

Representatives of Italy and Jugo-Slavia Fail to Reach Agreement at Conference

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Rome, May 3. — Negotiations between Vittorio Scialoia, Italian Foreign Minister, and Anton Trumbitch, Foreign Minister of Jugo-Slavia, looking to the settlement of the Adriatic question, may be broken off, according to the Popolo Romano. Signor Scialoio returned here from Lake Magoire, where he had been conferring with M. Trumbitch and Stoyan Protich, Jugo-Slavian Premier, on Saturday, and the newspaper asserts the representatives of Jugo-Slavia have informed the Italian Foreign Minister that they were no longer authorized to negotiate on the Adriatic question on the basis of conversations which have been going on.

Czar's Murderer Wanted to Die in Silk Shirt of Victim

Man Who Riddled the Russian Emperor With Bullets Believed to Have Been Actuated by Covetous Desire to Obtain the Royal Apparel

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

Paris, May 3.—The man who confessed to having murdered Czar Nicholas, Bosrednitzky by name, was executed at Varsavoie yesterday. Before being led to the scaffold he begged that his last request in life be granted: That he be allowed to wear the silk shirt which Nicholas wore when he ridded him with bullets. It was granted. Those who have spoken at length with the murderer believe he slew the Czar mainly because he wanted the shirt.

ETHEL LORRAINE AWARDED $25:00

Actress Who Fell From Hippodrome Clock Wins Suit in the Courts

New York, May 1.—A verdict of $25,000 was awarded to Mrs. Ethel Schubert, known on the stage as Ethel Lorraine, against the Hippodrome Company by a jury in the Brooklyn Supreme Court today.

Mrs. Schubert, who lives at 1,284 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn, sued for $100,000 for injuries suffered a year ago while appearing on the Hippodrome stage. The accident resulted in the actress fracturing her left hip and she was confined ten months in Flower Hospital, eight of which were spent in bed.

The accident occurred during one of the scenes of the show, in which Miss Lorraine represented the hour of 3 o'clock on a big timepiece. In her complaint she said the ladder on which she stood, which was in the rear of the clock, was too short and also not close enough to the timepiece, with the result that she fell twenty feet to the stage.

Motion by the Hippodrome company to set aside the verdict was denied.

NORTHERN MAINE AUTO SHOW SUCCESS

[Fort Fairfield Review.]

To say that the third annual Northern Maine Auto Show, held at Reed's Garage, Fort Fairfield, from April 27 to May 1, inclusive, which is now partly over, has up to date been the most successful auto show ever held north of Portland is to put the case rather mildly.

This is a peculiar time of year for an auto show, but it would be indeed a fine one if the weather could be good, as the roads would then be at least fair, allowing people to get back and forth by automobile, and yet the date would be early enough not to interfere seriously with farming operations.

The general fine work of the various committees has been strongly in evidence. All have attended to their parts of the work with willingness and thoroughness, so that the arrangements give general satisfaction.

DAVID RUSSELL STARTS SUIT AGAIN

Hamilton, Ont., May 1.—A writ issued demanding the largest sum ever sued for in the local office of the Supreme Court has been issued by David Russell, of New Brunswick. The defendants in the action are Sir Edmund Osler, Hon. Wm. Pugsley, the National Trust Co. Ltd., executors and trustees of the estate of the late Herbert C. Hammond and Charles McInnes, trustees of the estate of the late Hon. Donald McInnes. Mr. Russell's claim is for $8,175,000 damages for alleged breach of contract under date of May 15, 1906.

LIQUOR CASES TRIED AT HOULTON

Houlton, May 1.—The criminal docket was taken up in the Supreme Court this morning and the entire day taken up with the trial of two cases. Fred A. Drake, of Houlton, was found not guilty of liquor nuisance after much testimony had been heard. Deputy Sheriff Bradstreet, of Sherman testified he bought liquor in Drake's place, of a man named Weston. The trial took up most of the forenoon and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

A verdict of not guilty was returned after the trial of William Boulier, of Fort Fairfield, on an indictment for rape, the jury reporting at 9 o'clock tonight.

BURGLARY CASE ON THE NORTH SHORE

[Campbellton Graphic.]

Tuesday morning of last week it was discovered that the Richard Mfg. Co.'s store at Richards had been broken into and a quantity of goods taken.

Chief of Police Adams was notified and after some clever work has laid information against Eric Bordeau and Fred White of Athol and these young men are being held for preliminary examination.

These two young men were also implicated in the theft of two buffalo robes, one the property of Scott McKenzie and the other of the Shives Lumber Co. They were also arrested and appeared before Magistrate Duncan on Tuesday and Bordeau was sent up for trial. White's case comes up this afternoon.

GRAIN STOCKS IN PUBLIC ELEVATORS

The Bureau of Statistics Sends Out Report on Situation Throughout Canada

Ottawa, May 1.—According to returns received at the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, for the week ended April 23rd, 1920, the quantity of wheat and oats in store at the different public elevators throughout Canada is less than last week by 760,998 bushels for wheat and 737,085 bushels for oats. Barley shows a small increase of some 3,665 bushels. Briefly the situation is as follows:

Western country elevators show a decrease in all grain of 2,503,535 bushels, wheat and oats making up the largest part, namely 2,425,117 bushels.

In the public terminal elevators at Fort William and Port Arthur an increase is shown of 1,666,280 bushels; wheat and oats make up the largest part of this, viz., 1,534,145 bushels.

An increase is shown in wheat of some 113,857 bushels in the private terminal elevators, Fort William and Port Arthur; the same may be said of the interior terminal elevators which show an increase in wheat of 125,183 bushels, while 114,995 bushels less oats are in store.

In the public elevators in the east a decrease is noted, caused by heavy shipments from the seaboard ports, while the lake port elevators await the arrival of ships from Fort William and Port Arthur. The decrease amounts to: Wheat, 444,310 bushels; oats, 36,075 bushels; barley, 41,934 bushels.

The United States Atlantic seaboard port elevators at Portland and Baltimore show a decrease of 232,069 bushels of wheat, while oats, barley and flax remain unchanged.

DEMAND INCREASE OF 90 PER CENT.

Rochester, N. Y., May 1.—All street car traffic in Rochester was at a standstill today, the employees at a meeting early today voting to go on strike notwithstanding an agreement between their international union, the Amalgamated Union of Street and Electric Railway Employees, and the company to arbitrate all differences. The men demanded an increase of approximately ninety per cent.

The company made a compromise offer, the terms of which have not been made public, but the men refused to accept it.

WESTERN LAND VALUES.

GENERAL MIX-UP OF VARIOUS TIMES

Standard, Local and Railway Schedules Will Sharpen the Faculties

Toronto, May 1.—Commencing tomorrow morning at two a. m., when some cities will adopt daylight saving locally, the average Canadian citizen will be presented with a new exercise for his mental faculties in trying to figure out where he is at in the general mix-up of standard, local and railway schedules time "by the clock."

The cities of Montreal and Quebec, in fact nearly all of Quebec province, will advance their clocks and thereby conform with the time in the neighboring state of New York. The Maritime Provinces, as a whole, will not adopt daylight saving. Ontario, generally speaking, will also stick to "old Sol's" dictum in the matter of time, although the cities of Toronto, Ottawa, Kitchner, Sarnia and Niagara Falls have locally to turn forward their clocks. All others, with the smaller towns and the great agricultural community of the province, will remain on standard time.

The train schedules in eastern Canada are a mass of double clock puzzles, as the result of local time changes. Many changes are being made to meet conditions and the officials will do their best to meet the difficulties. The members of the House of Commons and Senate sitting at Ottawa, and the members of the Farmer-Labor legislature of Ontario at Toronto, while admittedly opposed to daylight saving, find themselves compelled to work by it on account of local conditions.

In western Canada, except where the "west meets east" in a business and comemrcial sense, the confusion will not be apparent, as the larger part of the western provinces will stay by standard time.

ALLENDALE

Allendale, April 30.—On Sunday, April 18th, Mr. Alexander Adams passed away at his home here. Although the deceased had been in failing health for a number of years, he was able to attend to the work on his farm until a few months ago. He was 83 years of age, and besides his widow, who was formerly Miss Howard, of Newmarket, he is survived by three children, one daughter and two sons, also one brother, Fred Adams, of this place, and four sisters, Mrs. Alice Connolly, of Benton, Mrs. Wm. Rosborough, of Prince William, Mrs. George Simmons and Mrs. Alex. Simmons, residing here. The funeral was held on Wednesday. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Claire, of Hawkshaw and the body was laid to rest in the Barony cemetery. The pall-bearers were Robert Lowe, Fred Simmons, Edward Simmons and Hayden Simmons.

The many friends of D. W. Doherty will be sorry to learn of his death, which took place on Thursday, April 15th, at the home of his niece, Mrs. George McDowell, with whom he had lived for a few years. Deceased was 84 years of age and had suffered from cancer for some time.

The remains were taken to Woodstock on Sunday, interment being made in the Catholic cemetery.

CARRY EARNINGS ON THEIR BACKS

Mayor of Winnipeg Says Citizens Are Responsible for High Cost of Clothing.

Winnipeg, Man., April 30.—"Winnipeg citizens are themselves responsible for the high cost of clothing and by careful buying and pocketing some of their pride can bring the cost down to reasonable figures," declared Mayor Charles F. Gray, in an interview after deprecating what he termed the riot of high buying which is sweeping the city. Thousands of girls in the city he said, carry their entire earnings on their backs. The men, he said, are not any better and advocated that citizens co-operate to bring the cost of wearing apparel down. By way of illustrating w hat can be done, he said that he bought two suits of clothes for $35 each, 'and they are as good as many $60 suits. His overcoat, he said, cost $35. The hat he is wearing is six years old, and the boots he wears cost $8.50. He declared that as long as the cost of clothing is as high as at present he will refuse to buy the best and asked that citizens do the same.

You can make almost any man nervous by telling him that a policeman was asking about him.

HORNE MUST SERVE OUT HIS SENTENCE

The German Government Made a Request for Release of the Conspirator

[By Canadian Associated Press.]

Ottawa, May 1.—No application for the deportation of Werner Horne, now in the penitentiary at Dorchester, N. B., has reached the Department of Justice here, but after the war the German Government, through diplomatic channels, requested that Horne be released on the grounds that he was a German officer and a prisoner of war. The Canadian Government replied that they had no German officer of that name in prison; there was, however, a criminal named Horne in custody, whose release would not be granted.

SIR LOMER GOUIN WILL NOT RETIRE

Montreal, May 2.—The feature of the weekly luncheon Saturday at the Montreal Reform Club was the presence of Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, this being his first appearance before a semi-public local body since his return from overseas, where he received from the hands of King George the military cross awarded to his son, Captain Rody Lemieux who fell in the war. Mr. Lemieux announced that Sir Lomer Gouin was not to retire from active politics and would remain at the head of affairs in Quebec. This announcement, having regard to Mr. Lemieux's close association with Sir Lomer, is regarded as authoritative.

THE MANUFACTURERS MET AT MONCTON

Maritime Branch of Canadian Manufacturers' Assn. Discuss Important Matters

[St. John Standard.]

L. W. Simms, who presided at the meeting of the Maritime Branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association in Moncton, has returned home. The Maritime Branch adopted a resolution urging the restriction of the tariff preference on British goods to goods entering Canada through Canadian ports. The development of hydro-electric power in the Maritime Provinces was urged as a means of encouarging manufacturers, and the idea of maintaining the employment bureaus was endorsed. The Maritime Governments were urged to take co-operative action to secure increased subsidies from the Federal Government in lieu of the land grants made to the western provinces. The manufacturers opposed the policy of the railways offering special inducements to Maritime people to migrate to the West.

Mr. McPherson's total cost per acre was $386.49; total cost per barrel, $1.99, and per bushel, 72 cents. The costs include everything, including digging, hauling and storage. One hundred tons of manure on a five-acre field cost $350, including hauling and 10½ tons of fertilizer, including hauling, $856.90

OBITUARY.

Mrs. B. G. MacDonald.

At Shippigan, N. B., on Thursday, April 22, the death took place of Mrs. B. G. MacDonald, who has been residing there for several eyars. Mrs. MacDonald, who was about 56 years old, was a native of Chatham but spent most of her married life in Tracadie, Shippigan and other parts of Gloucester county.

Marion Maltby.

The death took place at the Miramichi Hospital, Newcastle, on Friday morning of Marion Maltby, second daughter of Ernest Maltby of Coronation, Sask. Marion, who was 15 years of age, had been a patient sufferer in the hospital for the last eight weeks. Since the death of her mother she has been residing in the east. Besides her father, at present in the west, she leaves two sisters, Mrs. Claude Jardine, and Luella, both of Newcastle, a stepmother and two half brothers, also in the west.

George Pitfield Trites.

George Pitfield Trites, one of the best known commercial men in the Maritime Provinces, died suddenly at his home in Rothesay yesterday. He was a son of the late John Starr Trites, of Moncton, and for several years has been on the travelling staff of the National Drug and Chemical Co. His wife, a daughter of the late Edward R. Moore, St. John, predeceased him some years ago. Two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Estabrooks, of Sackville, and Mrs. M. B. Gerow, of Ottawa, survive. The funeral will be under the auspices of the Union Lodge of Portland, F.A.M., No. 10, of which body the late Mr. Trites was a valued member.

MILLMEN ON NORTH SHORE ORGANIZE

New Wage Schedule Asked for Present Season—Want Nine Hour Day

On the busy North Shore, as a result of organization, a new wage schedule is being sought by the millmen. The companies which are interested are Shives Lumber Co., Richards Mfg. Co., W. H. Miller & Co., Fraser Lumber Co. Dalhousie Lumber Co., the Restigouche Boom Co., and A. Barberie. Band or rotary sawyers with rigger are asking $8 a day, band and rotary sawyers $6; band saw filer without helper, $14; gang sawyer, $6; round saw filers, $6.50; lath sawyers, $5; handymen, such as millright helpers, asistant foremen, pop sawyers and helpers, $5; blacksmiths, $7; mill engineers, $7; deal workers, $5; general labor, $4.

Among the conditions set forth is that nine hours constitute a day's work ,overtime to be paid for at the rate of time and a half with double time for Sundays and various holidays. Daylight saving time is tabooed.

THE FARMERS AFTER TORONTO WORLD

Ottawa, May 2.—Though no definite arrangement has yet been made, it is asserted here that negotiations have been proceeding for the acquirement by the United Farmers of the Toronto World. Some conservative politicians who had been negotiating for the purchase of the paper seem to have abandoned the effort for a time for reasons not unconnected with the recent revelations at Toronto concerning concessions of vast new Ontario territories as timber limits. For this reason and because of the departure to North Carolina of Hon. Howard Ferguson, it is expected here that the roundtable conference called for May 10 by Hon. Robert Rogers will not even be the partial success which had been hoped for by enthusiasts.

HOMLIEST WOMAN ON FACE OF EARTH

New York, April 28.—The title of the world's homeliest woman is claimed by Mrs. Mary A. Bevan, of London, who has just arrived here to join an American circus. While distinctly proud of her facial assets, Mrs. Bevan feels very peevish because she did not find out many years ago that a superlatively homely countenance has financial compensations. It was only last year that the judges at an English seaside resort "beauty show" proclaimed her the ugliest woman in England, at the same time warding her first prize of $5,000. Then Mrs. Bevan began to capitalize her looks. She has two sons, two daughters and a husband who never makes personal remarks.

PROSPECTING FOR GAS.

Calgary, Alta., May 3.—Though the Calgary Gas Company has already expended more than $300,000 in drilling new wells for gas without actual results as yet, it is intended to push the prospecting campaign more vigorously than ever this year, according to Manager H. B. Pearson.

PETITCODIAC, N. B.

Petitcodiac, April 29.—The returned soldiers were at home to their friends Tuesday evening. A pleasant time was spent in games and a programme of readings and music, instrumental and vocal, solos, etc.

The ladies of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. U. Y. King and presented their pastor's wife with a beautiful library table. Rev. A. Saunders has been appointed a pastor at large by the Baptist Association. The family will locate in a farm in the Annapolis Valley, N. S. His son, who has served overseas, will take charge of the farm.

The young friends of Harriet Saunders tendered her a farewell party on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith. Friday evening the Boys' Club waited on Adolphus Saunders and presented him with a pipe. The Dramatic Society of which he was a valued member also gave him a shaving set.

Bishop Richardson spent Sunday in Petitcodiac and Salisbury. Five candidates were confirmed in the Anglican church here and two in Salisbury.

Mrs. Litz, of Sussex, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. Crandall, today.

The many friends of Ernest Crandall, who was operated on in Montreal Hospital, will be glad to learn the operatio nwas successful and he is improving.

Mrs. Randall, who has been so seriously ill with pneumonia, passed away last evening. She is survived by her husband. Funeral Thursday afternoon conducted by Rev. M. Addison.

Mrs. Charles Munroe went to St. John to attend the meeting of the W. A. Anglican conference of New Brunswick.

Mr. Dunham will operate a vuloanizing plant at the Havelock Crossing this summer.

R. M. Owen, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, went to St. John on Monday.

Miss Lena Keith has returned home from visiting friends in Montreal and Boston.

Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Humphrey, was operated on for appendicitis in Moncton Hospital yesterday and his condition is very favorable.

BRITISH PURGE FOR ALIEN RADICALS.

Cable despatches from London bring news that England also is tired of giving harbor to ungrateful foreigners who abuse her hospitality with efforts to overthrow her Constitution, undermine her economic system and wreck her peace and prosperity. Without any drum beating or trumpet blowing the Government is gathering up the agitators and conspirators who infest London and other large seaports, and is shipping them back to their own countries. A majority, as might be expected, are returned to Russia, where they can find congenial institutions in operation.

British action in this regard is especially significant; because England has been, time out of mind, the refuge of political offenders of all sorts, who did not dare stay in their own countries. In fact, it has been a reproach to English rule among the more arbitrary governments of the Continent that revolutionary plotters and agents could not even be taken from under the British flag by extradition upon political charges.

Perhaps in a general way this principle may still be upheld academically in Downing Street. But in the past there was always the tacit condition that, whatever their propaganda or their activities, the refugees should let Britain herself alone. In return for safe asylum, they were bound by an unwritten covenant to keep out of British politics and to shun anything like organization of British discontent along revolutionary lines.

Of late, it would seem, this condition has been more or less generally disregarded. Foreign agitators have been circulating among British workers fomenting discontent and inculcating methods of change wholly repugnant to British ideas. They have been trying to infect the people of Glasgow and Birmingham and London with the sinister theories of the vicious class of Reds in Moscow and Berlin and Paris and Barcelona. This naturally the British Government refuses to tolerate.

As a means of repression, the troublemakers are simply being deported. It is the obvious, easy way. It is both more economical and more effectual than sending them to prison. It makes all pleas of martyrdom absurd since they are despatched to their own homes, not as accused persons under charges, but as aliens who are not desirable in England, but who presumably have a fit and natural place in their native lands. Strange to say, the "beneficiaries" of the plan are reluctant. They are going into hiding to escape being sent home. Why does a Russian sovietist so object to residence in the one only land of his ideals turned to practical reality?

But that question only in passing! The interesting point is the realization by the land, which has sheltered foreign agitators so liberally for generations, of their mortal danger to itself and its now starting to get rid of them as a mere matter of self protection. The experience of the British Government is the same as our own. Radicalism has lost all restraint of late. It is the universal danger. Free circulation and easy toleration encourage its spread all over the world. To check the virus it must be localized. It is the duty of every country to do its own share in sane repression. It is its privilege to protect itself against attack by the imported poison of lawlessness and inhumanity.

GOVERNMENT OF IRELAND.

In the domain of government, a policy that is static today becomes fluid tomorrow; and, with the advent to supreme military authority in Ireland of General Macready, a softer note is struck; the doors of the prison fly open; and the prisoners on hunger strike are unconditionally liberated.

One of the reasons why British rule in Ireland has been attended with constant difficulty has been the absence of any continuous policy, points out an exchange. Successive governments have blown hot and cold in the same breath. They caught at a mood, a tendency. They were satisfied if they could only get the day in.

General Macready is an able man—firm, yet considerate; a student of human nature; warm in his sympathies; a man of large experience, and, therefore, tolerant. Coming to the supreme command in Ireland, the General would naturally desire to produce a good impression; and, therefore, although the Government had said it would not recede from its position that the prisoners must be allowed to take the consequences if they deliberately starved themselves, it yielded at the last moment and flung open the doors of Mountjoy prison, to the unbounded joy of a volatile people.

This does not mean that General Macready will condone crime, or that the policy to be adopted will be determined by public ebullitions; but the British press takes the ground that to make martyrs out of the Sinn Feiners by allowing them to starve to death would not only recoil upon the Government, but shock the feelings of the civilized world, for although it might be logical to allow prisoners to suffer the consequence of their own obstinacy, there would be a painful revulsion of feeling if one after another were announced as having been permitted to starve to death.

"Vowing it would ne'er consent," the Government has "consented." Those who talk glibly in Parliament about the harsh policies of the Irish executive have no words of condemnation for the shocking outrages occurring almost daily in Ireland, and which show features of unequalled callousness; but it remains true that the severities of military rule, while they have been exasperating, have not been successful in causing the King's writ to "run freely" in the unhappy country.

Sinn Feinism will accept nothing but separation; but there are peaceable and well-meaning elements in Ireland who desire chiefly to be allowed to work out their destiny in quietness; and a policy of commingled firmness and considerateness, impartially and continuously applied, might produce ameliorative effects upon the quick and eager Irish character.

The restoration of public order will be a difficult task, owing to the sympathies or the fears of the general body of the people, who, witnessing the most abominable crimes, from day to day, conceal the perpetrators from the arm of justice; but General Macready has a great reputation for bringing order out of chaos; and, in any case, a new departure has been made in the hope of securing peace to a country which is at once unprecedently prosperous and politically chaotic.

LET US HOPE AND SMILE.

"The trouble with the world today," says Premier Nitti, "is that it has "forgotten how to smile. We are "becoming brutal and stupid because "we have war on the brain. We are "becoming crazy and hard."

The long years of terrible conflict through which the European peoples passed have left deep scars, not only upon their cities and their farms, but upon their souls as well. These people have just emerged from an inferno. On all sides they have seen their friends and loved ones swallowed up by the fires of war; they have seen their homes destroyed, their orchards cut down, their lands wasted, their factories razed; they have seen their ambitions wrecked, their hopes for the future blasted; they have had to suffer privation and hunger and cold. Can there be wonder that they have forgotten how to smile!

And yet Premier Nitti is right. Europe must turn her back upon the suffering of the past, to contemplate the bright future which lies before her. Where one has hope one can always smile, and Europe has good reason to hope. Her factories are once more beginning to hum, her railways are regaining their old perfection, her crops are increasing, her trade slowly but surely mounting. The mutterings of thunder are still heard, but the storm has passed, the sun is beginning to break through the clouds. Let the suffering world turn its face up to it and smile.

After all the war was not fought in vain. The world has been freed from the peril of slavery which menaced it, despotism has been overthrown in its ancient strongholds, many age long injustices have been righted, many oppressed peoples freed. History will probably judge that the gains for civilization and humanity were worth all the suffering they entailed.

THE LATE HON. CLIVE PRINGLE.

The Hon. Clive Pringle, who passed away at Ottawa yesterday, was a man of many sterling qualities. He was a leader of the Bar of Ontario, counsel for several large corporations, and the legal adviser of many of the most successful business men of the province. In politics—in which he took a deep interest in later years—he was a Conservative, and occupied a high place in the councils of the party. He was called to the Senate in 1916, and through his wide knowledge of public affairs, strength of character and good judgment he was at once recognized as one of the most influential members of that body. In private life Clive Pringle was a charming character.

The C. P. R. is giving Fredericton and the up-river sections an admirable service under its new timetable—far the best railway service ever given to the people of New Brunswick. If in this period of development in agriculture and in industry we do not advance rapidly, the weakness will not be found in the transportation system in the large section of the province splendidly served by the C. P. R. Modern transportation facilities are among the essentials if we are to successfully develop. These facilities have been provided by the Canadian Pacific, and provided liberally.

The fact that the province is now paying more than 6½ per cent for money for the public services will be viewed with considerable interest and perhaps with some alarm. Yet we are borrowing very frequently and in very large amounts.

HUNTING DOWN PRICE GOUGERS

American Public Incensed Over the Increased Prices Demanded for Ice Cream.

New York, May 3.—Retailing of the humble but necessary ice cream at 17 cents a plate has aroused the ire of the American public and set on foot an investigation by the "Flying Squadron" of the U. S. Department of Justice, which is hunting down price gougers in New York. A. W. Riley, director of the squad, has ruled that in the United States ice cream is a food and not one of those luxuries that can be done without by wearing overalls. Profiteers in ice cream are thus classified profiteers in food.

Before the war ice cream retailed at five to ten cents a plate, depending on the elegance of the shop vending it. In larger quantities, some dealers are now charging $1.20 a quart for ice cream that sold before the war for 40 cents. Mr. Riley says he will invoke the Lever Act under which the U. S. District Attorney has authority to institute criminal proceedings. The charge is freely made that prohibition has whetted the public appetite for sweets, and that the ice cream manufacturers have taken advantage of the increased demand for their product to boost prices.

The latest development is that a big ice cream corporation is starting a lobby at Washington to obstruct the campaign of the "Flying Squadron against ice cream H.C.L.

MARRIED A GIRL WITHOUT A CENT

Rumanian Prince Refused to Consider American Girl With Eleven Millions.

Regina, Sask., May 3.—"Before I had been six weeks in America I had received an offer of marriage from a woman reputed to be worth eleven million dollars," said Prince Ion Paleologue, Rumanian commissioner for Canada, a recent visitor here. "This is a peculiar country," continued the Prince. "I had not been long in America when I attended a social function in New York. During the evening a lady approached me, and much to my astonishment told me that I had not only made an impression on her sister, but that I could have her hand in marriage and all her wealth for the mere asking. I may be a Prince—that is purely an accident—but I am the most democratic Prince in the world. If I had been offered eleven million dollars I might have considered the matter. But they don't do things that way. When a European Prince marries an American girl of wealth he simply becomes an ornament in the family. He is no more wealthy than he was before," he declared. "I was not hasty, any, and as an actual matter of fact I married a girl who had not a cent."

OPPOSITIONT O RECALL SYSTEM

Ottawa, May 3.—Elated by their success in passing the clause in the franchise act which makes illegal the method of collecting funds adopted by the farmor and labor suporters of the national progressive party, it is understood that a prominent western unionist member will carry the war still further by introducing an amendment designed for the purpose of nullifying the election of any candidate who has left his recall in the hands of a committee. The idea of the members who favor this amendment to disqualify candidates so elected is that this will hit most of the large agrarian organizations which have made it a stipulation that before nomination the candidate should place his signed resignation in the hands of a committee which can make use of it at any time that it considers the representative is not carrying out the wishes of his constituents.

Opposition to the recall feature will be made by a considerable section on both sides of the House. The principal argument which will be used against it will be that if such a practice became general it might make one committee all powerful and enable it to outdo Tammany.

The Stock Market

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)

New York (Wall Street), May 3.—Trading on the stock exchange today opened with a number of substantial advances, sentiment evidently being encouraged at the absence of labor disturbances during the May Day recess. Brokers reported many buying orders from interior points, especially the west. General Motors was the strongest feature at the outset, gaining 5 points. Such recent favorites as Replogle, Studebaker, Baldwin and Mexican Petroleum gained one to two quarter points. The demand for rails was again very light at irregular changes.

BIG ACTS TOMORROW AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Famous Musicians, Great Comedy Skit, Clever Impersonator, Circus.

The Opera House is presenting tomorrow one of the best vaudeville bills they have been able to book in many weeks. Every act has special features and all are said to be real "head-liners." The programme will be as follows. Rond and Callaway, a brilliant pianist from Holland, accompanied by a talented harpist; Lew and Molly Hunting, formerly of the famous Four Huntings, who will appear in a variety novelty skit entitled "The Amateur Detective." This skit is teeming with real god comedy and is bound to make a big hit. Hal Springford, a famous impersonator, in "Feminine Follies"; Crumbley and Brown, "The Two Red Caps," in a riot of repartee and laughter; Billy Bouncer's Circus, which is conceded to be one of the biggest comedy screams of the season and which will introduce the famous bounding contests. Everyone is welcome to compete and prizes will be awarded to winners at every performance. This is said to be a great act, teeming with comedy and laughs.

PAPER GOES TO WALL

St. Catharines, Ont., May 3.—The Evening Journal suspended publication Saturday because of the increasing cost of material and advancement in wages. The paper was established in 1859.

Guard Your Home With Sound Investments

When you build your home you consult an experienced builder or expert architect. It is just as important to ask specialists for advice in creating a financial estate.

When we tell you certain securities are a good investment we tell you only after strict investigation of the values, products, purposes and people behind those securities. We made such an investigation of the new issue of Clark Bros., Limited, St. Stephen, N. B., and recommend purchase of this eight per cent. preferred stock, now selling ex-dividend at par flat for delivery and payment May 1. There is no uncertainty about this stock; the next quarterly dividend of Two per cent. will be paid August 1 next. Write for Circular.

Insurance That Hits On All Cylinders
For many years this agency has been writing insurance that hits on all cylinders. We won't sell a policy that doesn't ring true, or one that won't be there when the time comes. We take it for granted that you know this—but do you know that your rates are high simply because you are careless? Do you know that this agency can advise you how to reduce risks and so get lower rates? Well, it can and will if you say so.

EASY ON THE FEET

Palmer-McLellan Patented Farm Boots are made on roomy lasts, modeled to the natural shape of the foot.

The best selected leather is used after being tanned by the exclusive Palmer-McLellan Chromoil process, which makes it permanently water-resisting, durable and soft, and pliable under all conditions.

We own exclusively the patents on design and construction of these boots. They have all the foot fitting ease of real moccasins, but will hold their shape and will outwear other boots of much heavier construction, for they are all solid leather.

For long service and lasting foot comfort, wear Palmer-McLellan Farm Boots. Made in a variety of styles and shapes to suit every need.
