The doctor realizes that it is one thing to make claims and another thing to back them up, so he has made it a rule not to ask for money unless he cures you, and when you are cured he feels sure chat yu will willingly pay him a small fee. International Pible Lesson for To-Morrow - David's Trust in God -Psalm 23rd.

Golden Text-"The Lord is my Shepherd. I shall not want."

If this was King David's experience under the law of God, at that day, what should not ours be under the gospel of His Son Jesus Christ, our Lord in 1903? Such a Psaim must have been lived before it was written. It describes the abundant provision for time and eternity for all who become willingly sheep of the Good herd, who gave His life for the sheep; herein is God's great assurance and insurance scheme, as a paid-up policy in the blood of the everlasting covening for whosoever will.

Verse 1-If I choose the Lord as my Shepherd I shall not want any good thing. "My beloved is mine and I am His."

V. 2-Shall not want rest, lie down;

V. 2-Shall not want rest, lie down; nor food, green pastures; not thirst, still waters.

V. 3-Not want forgiveness, He rev. 3-Not want increases, its restorcth my soul; not want guidance, He leadeth me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

V. 4-Shall not want company, for though I walk through places dark and dangerous Thou art with me. Shall not want comfort, Thy rod and thy stoff they comfort me.

V. t-Shall not want enemies to wilness God's providing bounty.

V. 5-Shall not be hot-headed and empty-hearted, but anointed and overthowing.

empty-hearted, but anointed and overflowing.

V. 6-Wanting nothing in time, for goodness and mercy follow us, nor wanting in etermity, for we shall dwell in the home of God.

Thousands are blinded by the god of this world, lest the light of this glorious Gospel of the Son of God should shime into their hearts and they be saved. they be saved.

Is He my Shepherd?

GUY BROS. MINSTRELS.

This superb company held the boards at the Habbard last evening, and fit was the universal verdict that this is the very best minstrel troupe that has visited Jackson in many a day. Each member of the company is an artist in his line. The company came here compare ratifically expenseded cay. Each member of the company is an artist in his line. The company came here comparatively unheralded, possibly the fault of its press agent, and the character of the performance last night was an agreeable surprise to those present. The Guy Bres. have too good a company to allow remissness in the way of advertising. Should they see fit to make another date for Jackson this season, or at any time in the future, they can rest assured that a crowded house will greet them. The Courier takes pleasure in stating the fact that there is not a medicard feature in their entertainment. There is also an entertainment. entertainment. There is also an ening on vulgaritty.—From the Jackson, Mich, Courier. They appear at the Opera House, this evening, Nov. 14th.

If you want to enjoy a long, hearty laugh of 180 minutes go to see "The Real Widow Brown," which comes to the Grand on Tuesday, Nov. 17th. It possesses the essential qualities and virtues of a genuine farce-comedy—clean. pure, exhiliarating, and with clean. pure, exhiliarating, and with sufficient spice of captivating songs and clever dances to compose one of the best drawing attractions on the road. The author has constructed an ingenious plot on which the laughable incidents hinge, a seemingly strange anomely, as the average farce-comedy is as barren as the Klondyke is of a dress suit case. Its cardinal object is to make you laugh and enjoy yourself. You may have a thousand domestic troubles and business cares, but you it troubles and business cares, but you'll forget them for the three hours you spend in the fascinating company of "The Real Widow Brown."

The best results can only be obtained from a cooking range when the operator has perfect control.

With most ranges control is out of the question-it is a roaring fire or a black fire box.

SKIN-TORTURED BABIES

And Tired, Fretted Mothers

Find Comfort in Cuticura Soap and Ointment

When All Other Remedies and Physicians Fail.

Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies and rest for tired, worried mothers in warm baths with Cuticura Soap, and gentle anoint ings with Cuticura Ointment, purest of emollient skin cures, to be followed in severe cases by mild doses of Cuticura Resolvent. The acquizing itching and burning sure to succeed when all other remedies and the best physicians fall.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in acne and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum,—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Criticura Scap, ointment and Resolvent are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy have made them the standard skin cures and humour remedies of the civilized world.
