ELEVENTH YEAR. FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 4, 1890. ONE CENT.

THE END OF THE CARNIVAL.

IT GOES OUT WITH A BLAZE OF RED FIRE AND MUSIC.

The Firemen's Parade and Tournament at Exhibition Park—The Hose Reel And Other Contests—The Great Pageant Starts In The West End and Disperses Up In Queen's Park.

The Carnival is over! The people of the town are glad! So are the reporters. Many people in the city are well pleased, principally the saloon-keepers. Many are kicking! What are they kicking about? Some of them don't know. Some of them do. The provincial press, with few exceptions, are saying all the hard things they can against Toronto and its Carnival. This is to be expected. Toronto, they say, is hoggish because it has long ago distanced all the other cities in the province in the race for supremacy. We can't all be the chief city, and Hamilton, London and Ottawa ought to drop this childish cry.

Hamilton says the idea of the Carnival was stolen from them. Carnivals were held before the mountain at Hamilton was discovered. They have been held in summer and winter, in warm countries and in cold countries—and even in localities where history says it is decidedly sultry and where summer clothes and fans are at a premium. Halifax and St. John have both held Summer Carnivals, but the people down near the sea did not grow jealous when they learned that Toronto woulc hold a Carnival. Neither did they accuse us of plagiarism in our ideas.

Has it been a success? There is a wide diversity of opinion about this. Some people really did not know what they expected to see. It is a case something like the experience of Mr. William Christie, that genial and amiable manager of the Hess Ring during the fair. He was approached, the story goes, by a certain manager of a certain newspaper just at a moment when the ring was in full blast. The finest blooded horses of the province were prancing about the inner paddock, displaying their noble carriage and quality. Speedy pacers were flying past the crowded grand stand at 20 clips. Jockeys in gay colors were weighing in, and King Bob was vigorously ringing up the next race. The scene was decidedly horsey and animated, and in the midst of it all the aforesaid newspaper manager approached Mr. Christie with the remark: "When are you going to give us something to look at?" The man did not know what he wanted.

So it has been about the Carnival, as far as some people are concerned.

Many features of the Carnival were good; many were bad. But The World thinks it speaks the truth when it says that the affair was spread over too long a period. It should all have been put into a day and a night, or two days at the outside. It took up altogether too much time.

This is the chief objection at present.

The committee were blessed with perfect weather yesterday and the entire program was faithfully carried out, although the procession in the evening was nearly an hour behind time.

FIREMEN'S PARADE AND SPORTS.

A Notable Procession and a Number of Keen Competitors at the Park.

Could Carnival King Dodds have had the privilege of selecting his own weather for the firemen's tournament yesterday the choice would have been no improvement on the reality. A cloudy sky protected Exhibition Park from the sun, whilst a cool breeze from the north blew across the grounds. It was in truth a carnival day and the spectators were in carnival humor. They entered thoroughly into the spirit of the proceedings, yelling themselves hoarse over the games and going into ecstasies over the winners.

There were in all eight fire brigades present besides the city firemen. All but two of these assembled at the Central Fire Hall, Lombard-street, at 12½ p.m. By prompt and efficient management of Chief Ardagh the procession started at 1 o'clock. The route was down Jarvis to King-street, thence via Yonge to Queen and along Queen to Gwynne-avenue, thence via King and Dufferin to the western entrance of Exhibition Park. Crowds lined the way from Jarvis-street to Parkdale and the firemen were heartily cheered. Chief Ardagh headed the procession and behind him came Claxton's band.

Some of the Other Brigades.

Then followed the East Toronto Fire Brigade, 22 strong, with these officers: Chief A. Nelson, Assistant Chief Robert Hunter, J. Symons, first hose foreman; D. Brown, second hose foreman; C. Burns, first hook and ladder foreman; F. Jennings, second hook and ladder foreman.

Next came Little York brigade with 29 men and commanded by these officers: Chief A. J. Robinson, Assistant Chief F. Gilden; Robert Terry, hose foreman; H. Mackleberry, assistant hose foreman; Wm. Empernham, hook and ladder foreman; W. C. Taylor, assistant hook and ladder foreman.

The Cataract Hook and Ladder Company of Niagara Falls South followed with 22 men, including these officers: Chief J. F. Flaherty, Dr. Cook, captain; G. W. Powell, 1st lieutenant; A. Morse, 2nd lieutenant.

They were followed by Richmond Hill brigade, 30 strong. Officers: W. Pugsley, captain; P. G. Savage, lieutenant; B. Reddilt, foreman; L. C. Shepherd, assistant foreman.

Then came the members of the council, the Toronto firemen and their chemical engine and trucks.

Trenton brigade followed with 18 men commanded by Chief R. Weddell; Thomas Coyne, captain; John Jackson, 1st lieutenant; Walter Smith 2nd lieutenant; James Bleeker, foreman.

Then Oshawa's company, 23 strong, in command of Captain Joseph Pye and Lieutenant Charles Kirby.

The Seaforth brigade fell in at the Asylum with these officers: Chief George Murray, D. Smith, captain; R. McCosh, 1st lieutenant; J. Davis, 2nd lieutenant. They mustered 25 men.

Caledonia's firemen were at the grounds in command of Chief John Lawson. The officers of the companies were: Star Hose Company—H. C. Marshall, captain; and T. Flynn and V. Doyle, 1st and 2nd lieutenants. Phœnix Hook-and-ladder Company—O. Knife, lieutenant. Engineer James Riddell was also present. The companies mustered in all 60 men.

Rivals of Ancient Rome.

Had the charioteers of Ancient Rome who drove their swift steeds around the arena encouraged by the smiles and beauty of imperial dames—had they been permitted to awaken from their long sleep for one short hour they would yesterday have seen a sight to fill the heart of even a Ben Hur with envy. They would have seen a score or more of heavy reels drawn by steeds whose fiery spirit was conquered only by their perfect training and the strong hands that held the reins. Charioteers these drivers were in very truth though their chariots decked with flags serve a more useful purpose than did those of Rome.

The grand stand overlooking the horse ring was literally so crowded that you couldn't have swung the proverbial cat in it without hitting somebody. Yes, and the grounds were crowded too, and so was the field where the sports came off. Here on every side could be seen, if not a fireman from rustic parts, then at least an alderman or a school trustee or a boy selling ice-cold lemonade—alleged. There was plenty of music there too by Benitzman's Band. Even the King of the Carnival was there, but His Majesty didn't stay long, and some of the members of the Reception Committee were kicking because of this and because he did not arrive until rather late. But this little difficulty was all smoothed out and Frank Smith, not the one that prefixes his name with a big "Hon.," but just plain Smith, manager of the games, took charge and sent the sports merrily along. The other officers were judge at start, David Waterous, Brantford; judge at finish, John Rowe, London; time keepers, John F. Scholes, Robert Sparks. An automatic electric starter invented by Fireman Frank Smith was also utilized. The wheels were set a rolling by a hose race. The competing brigades were Caledonians, Trenton, Richmond hill, Little York, Oshawa, Seaforth, East Toronto, which resulted:

	Time.	Prize.
Seaforth	.50	$125
Caledonian	.50 1-5	75
Trenton	.51 3-5	25

In the race East Toronto dropped part of the hose and no time was declared.

The Race of the Hooks and Ladders.

The hook and ladder race, distance 300 yards, was then started with these entries: Little York, Chief A. J. Robinson; Caledonian, Chief S. Lawson; Richmond Hill, Chief W. H. Pugsley; Niagara Falls, Chief H. Cook. The competitors were required to have their reels along, place the ladder in position and have one of their men climb to the top. Niagara Falls took first place easily in 48 2-5 and carried off the prize of $100. Next came Richmond Hill in 50 1-5, winning the second prize of $60. The third prize of $25 was won by Little York in 55 1-5.

The 100-yard foot race was keenly contested. It was won by Alf. Menike of the Caledonians in 11 sec. H. Fog of Oshawa took second place and Charles Crewe of Norway came in third. The prizes were respectively $15, $10 and $5. The ¼ mile race was won by, 1st, D. Bennett, prize $20; 2d, W. Brierly, prize $15; 3rd, L. McKay, prize $10.

The hub and hub race was one of the most interesting on the program. It was run in heats, the final results being: 1, Caledonians, prize $50; 2, Richmond Hill, prize $25; 3, Trenton, prize $10. Best time 30¾.

There were two other events on the program, neither of which, however, was decided until a late hour in the evening. These were a competition for a silver water pitcher valued at $25 and to be awarded to the best uniformed company and a competition for a handsome clock valued at $25 to be awarded to the company having the best display of fire apparatus. The committee met in the evening and decided to award the prize to the Trenton brigade for the best uniformed company; and in the display of fire apparatus the Richmond Hill brigade were declared the winners.

It was also decided in the evening that on account of the Seaforth and Caledonia brigades not marching in the procession they were not entitled to any prize. The result in the first race when they were declared winners is therefore changed and Little York takes first place and the Trenton and Richmond Hill men who made the same time take second place and divide the prize.

There was also considerable of a kick against D. Bennett, who came in first in the ¼ mile race, it being charged that he did not belong to a fire brigade, but as the protest was not handed in until after the race it was not entertained.

The games were not over until nearly 8 o'clock. The grand stand was by this time pretty well deserted, and the visiting firemen were invited by the committee to partake of a cold luncheon served in Chivrell's.

Puffs from the Firemen's Tournament.

The visiting firemen were entertained at the expense of the Fire and Light Committee and partook of two substantial meals before they left the grounds.

The crowd was nearly as large as on Dominion Day and the spectators took full advantage of a free grand stand.

An enterprising side-show fakir let loose his wild man during the afternoon and a mob of urchins chased him down in real dime novel style.

Before leaving the grounds the city firemen mounted their reels and wagons and galloped around the horse ring. They received an ovation that frightened even the horses.

A contestant in the games as a member of a visiting fire brigade was asked by The World who were the officers of his company and strangely enough he did not know any of them.

A big excursion arrived last night from Caledonia and the vicinity to witness the procession. They registered at the Rossin.

The entire Toronto fire brigade were photographed yesterday by Messrs. Gilmour & Hynes. The boys look fine in their picture.

One of the fire reels used for the occasion was kindly furnished by Thomas McIlroy, jr.

All the firehalls along the line of march were tastefully decorated. The Chief's wife had a good view of the procession from a window of the Queen-street hall.

Many were heard to say that the fire reels as they passed the Main Building knocked out everything in the Carnival.

There was only one accident and that occurred during the hub and hub race. Cowell of the Richmond Hill brigade fell under a reel and sustained a slight injury.

The reason why the Carnival King didn't stay long on the grounds is easily explained. He was busily engaged arranging for the grand evening procession.

THE END OF THE SHOW.

A Gay Pageant Passes From the West End to Queen's Park.

The tail end of the Carnival by all odds surpassed all preceding features, excellent as some of the latter were, and those visitors who left the city satisfied with the menu provided in the first course without waiting for dessert missed a treat, the like of which they will not probably have an opportunity of enjoying again.

At 9½ the procession formed on King, between Niagara and Bathurst-streets. The advance guard consisted of several hundred bicycles, their wheels being beautifully illuminated, and their journey along King and Yonge-streets was signalized by repeated plaudits from the thousands of citizens who lined the thoroughfares. Owing to the difficulty experienced in getting the balance of the procession in order nearly ¾ of an hour elapsed before the "main army" followed the vanguard, but the multitude were well repaid for their patience in waiting. The mounted police followed the bicyclers, and sandwiched in between them and the firemen, many of whom carried torches, was Claxton's Military band, which discoursed inspiring strains along the line of march. The Knights of St. John and Malta presented a natty appearance, their black uniforms being conspicuously brought out by the flaring flambeaux which surrounded them on all sides. Heintzman's band followed, and next in order came the Executive Committee of the Carnival Association in carriages, including King Carnival Dodds himself, whose conspicuous white headgear could be observed bowing in stately fashion all along the line of march.

Cheering Miss Canada.

As the allegorical car "Canada," bedecked with beautiful flowers, passed along it evoked round after round of enthusiastic applause. A poem in tights, in the person of Miss Canada, crowned with maple leaves, could be observed, while a golden beaver reclined at her feet. The several floats, which had been arranged under the supervision of Mr. "Billy" Lytelle, were of the most gorgeous description. The first consisted of a representation of an antique white boat, with a border beneath the gunwale of scarlet and gold. A figure representing King Arthur, his hands clasped, kneels in the boat gazing on the hand of the Lady of the Lake, who holds the richly ornamented sword known in legendary lore as Excalibur.

The second float was also founded on Tennyson's "Idylls of the King," and was the representation of another of the experiences of King Arthur illustrating the visit of the maiden Lynette to the king while sitting with his knights in the hall of his castle at Camelot. The representation of Sir Gareth's encounter with Sir Death was effectively brought out.

The third float portrayed the disappearance of Merlin, the enchanter and favorite counsellor of Arthur, who was lost through the treachery of his lady love, fair Vivien, the Lady of the Lake. The representation of the woods of Broceliande, with Vivien seated at Merlin's feet wooing him as only an enchantress can, was at once beautiful and strikingly realistic.

The Love-Sick Lady of Shalott.

The figures in the fourth float, representing the fair Elaine, the dumb boatman and the two brothers of Elaine, were at once recognized by those who are familiar with this the most beautiful of the Arthurian legends. The imitation of the purple barge and the richly draped platform upon which the corpse of the love-sick lady of Shalott, "steered by the dumb went upward with the flood," was excellent. The story of the quest for the Holy Grail, with the figure of an angel standing out in relief between the arched windows of a gothic church, and the float hung with rich draperies, and set off with richly emblazoned shields, illustrative of the tourney successfully fought by Pelleas of the Isles in order to gain as his reward the hand of the noble Ettare, attracted more attention probably than any other two floats in the procession.

The story of Lancelot and Guinevere was portrayed in the seventh float, the parties to the court scandal being observed seated on a couch of what was supposed to be red velvet, while Sir Modred, the secret enemy of King Arthur, and his two spies were discernible, crouched on the terrace.

A dozen girls in costumes of varied degrees of abbreviation occupied the last float but one, while in the centre could be observed King Arthur with his head resting on a cushion. This float was the most warmly applauded of all, and so true to the legend was the portrayal that it needed little imagination to make the spectator believe that he was gazing upon the ill-fated king journeying to the Isle of Avalon surrounded by his queens. The concluding float represented the place where King Arthur

Lay dozing in the vale of Avalon
And watched by waking queens.

The float was beautifully arranged with flowers and the representation of the terraces of white marble added to the tout ensemble.

Stationed alongside each of the floats were a number of torch bearers, and the light shed by their flambeaux, assisted by the timely burning of red fire, served to bring out the effects with marvelous distinctness. Several accidents were narrowly averted along the line of march, droppings from the torches in scores of instances igniting the dresses of ladies of the Court. Stationed along the street, but the flames were extinguished before any damage had been occasioned other than the burning of holes in wearing apparel.

The Sons of Rest.

One of the richest things in the whole procession was Denny Grady's cab, the oldest hack in the city, which has weathered the storm of eighty-odd years. It has been rebuilt several times, but, like Bill's jack-knife which has had a dozen new blades and numerous new handles and is the same knife still, it can yet roll along. A gay party, calling themselves the Sons of Rest, chartered the ancient and honorable chariot for the evening. Dressed in all the gorgeousness of their order they were the admired of all admirers. Ex-Ald. Tom Pells is the Chief Rester of the Sons of Rest, and he was in command. The other Sons who took part were: John Bishop, Harry W. Rich, Frank Connor (with the noblest mug of them all), Thomas Walsh, Sam Rich, Robert J. Williams, Harry Lewis, W. G. McSherry—a gay throng, for sure.

In time the entire cavalcade reached the park and gradully dismissed itself in the greatest of good order, whilst the fascinated crowd gazed at the different floats now being rapidly denuded of their gaudiness whilst the rapidly diminishing lights and fast departing fumes of powder and sulphur were telling too plainly of the Carnival as being numbered with the things that were.

Miss Canada looked particularly tired as she stepped down from her throne of maple leaves, as did also the other allegories, and their powder and paint seemed a bit the worse of wear.

What Senator Frank Smith Says.

Hon. Frank Smith was watching the procession defile past King and Yonge-streets last night when The World asked him what he thought about the three days' celebration. "I think," he said, "that the people ought to be well satisfied with the Carnival. I have never seen such crowds in the city before. Of course there have been one or two mistakes, but it is impossible to please everybody. Ald. Dodds, to my mind, had too much work thrown on his shoulders."

Ald. McMullen: "That parade of to-night was a great one, and must raise Dodds' stock away up. Those floats were really magnificent."

Had a Right to Interfere.

SARNIA, July 3.—Those who were in the neighborhood of the Grand Trunk Station when the excursion train was leaving on Wednesday evening last, were treated to a bit of romance in real life. A family party, consisting of father, brother and daughter, the latter about 16, had come in from Petrolea on the excursion. When the time came to return the girl refused to start, saying that her relatives did not treat her well and that she would not go back home. While the dispute was going on a good-looking young colored man joined the party and took the girl's side of the question, saying that she should not be forced to go with her relatives if she did not wish to do so. When asked by the father what business he had to interfere, the mulatto pulled out a marriage certificate which showed that John Holland of Petrolea had that morning been joined in the bonds of matrimony to Carrie Webb of the same place. The disgusted father and brother gave up the discussion and entered the train, while the newly-wedded husband started up town with his bride.

POSTAL EMPLOYES REFUSE TO CHEER FOR THE QUEEN.

Press Comments on the Barrow-in-Furness Election—Lord Wolseley's Successor—Dr. Peters Arrives at Usugard—Alexander and Alexis are Out—Ex-King Milan's Banishment Urged.

LONDON, July 3.—The staff of the central telegraph office, numbering 400 persons, refused to cheer for the Queen on the invitation of the officials on the occasion of the postal jubilee. His Voice Is Still for Beer.

BERLIN, July 3.—Gen. Von Moltke in a letter to a friend says: "I have never said beer was Germany's greatest enemy. Take Your Choice.

LONDON, July 3.—The Daily News considers the result of the election at Barrow-in-Furness the greatest Liberal victory since the general election.

The Chronicle says: The votes for Mr. Caine were requested and given specifically in condemnation of the Government, for whom the result is a crushing defeat. Every day they hold office longer imperils the cause of union. A reconstruction of the Cabinet is imperative. The Chronicle also says Mr. Chamberlain's proposal for a conference on the Irish question is worthy of consideration.

The Telegraph and The Morning Post read Mr. Caine a lecture on vanity. The Post thinks the result shows the hollowness of the agitation against the licensing bill.

The Times says Mr. Caine, besides his personal blunder, divided the Unionist forces and allowed a Separatist to win.

The Standard in a similar argument says: "Better a Separationist than a wavering Unionist. It will be a lesson to other Unionists contemplating prostration before the Gladstone fetich. The anomaly of a Separatist occupying a Unionist seat will right itself at the proper time."

Franco-American Trade Relations.

PARIS, July 3.—A deputation of members of the Chamber of Deputies, representing the Departments of Finestre, Cotes du Nord and Loire Inferieure, called upon M. Roche, Minister of Commerce, and urged that the Government maintain the law prohibiting the importation of American lard. M. Roche replied that the vote on the McKinley Bill had changed France's commercial position toward the United States. The prohibition of the importation of American lard, he said, might have been one of the motives for passing the McKinley Bill. The question of the admission of lard had become a secondary question as compared with the whole trade between France and the United States, but apart from what the Government might decide upon after further negotiations with the United States, France could not at present meet the American avowal of an economic war by concessions. He assured the deputation that no immediate change would be made in the existing position.

REMARKABLE SAGACITY.

Painful Accident to a West Oxford Man—His Collie's Faithfulness.

WOODSTOCK, July 3.—William Murray of West Oxford left Woodstock late on Saturday night and drove home, says The Sentinel-Review. Having unharnessed his horses, he rode one of them down to a spring, about 400 yards down from the house, for the purpose of watering it, the other horse having started ahead on its own account. When he reached the spring the horse that was loose kicked, striking Mr. Murray in the leg. Mr. Murray knew that he was hurt, but had no idea how badly. He jumped from the horse he was riding to find his leg bend under him. It was broken below the knee. A compound fracture was produced by the kick and the jump from the horse on the broken limb aggravated the nature of the injury in a painful degree.

He called as loudly as he could for assistance, but at 400 yards from the house and there was no one there but his mother and sister. He tried to drag his body along the ground by pulling on the grass, but soon fainted away from pain and exhaustion. When he recovered he called again, but there was no response. A little collie puppy came down to where Mr. Murray was, and after licking his hands and acting as a dog would do started back for the house. At the house he barked furiously for a little while and then returned to where the injured man was, returning at once to the house to bark again. From the man to the house and the house to the man the dog ran for fully an hour, until finally Mr. Murray's sister got up to see what was the matter. Miss Murray, thinking that perhaps something was wrong, went to her brother's bedroom, but found that he was not there and had not been to bed.

The dog resumed his barking and started off in the direction of the scene of the accident. Miss Murray followed, and was led to the spot where her brother lay. With the assistance of her mother, an old lady, the wounded man was removed to the house, but it was a slow and painful task, and it was 3 o'clock in the morning before he was in his bed. A doctor was summoned and the wound was dressed, but it will be a couple of months before Mr. Murray will be himself again. The dog is only an ordinary one to look at, and was never suspected of any sagacity before.

A STRIKE THREATENED.

Serious State of Affairs at the U. S. Government Printing Office.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—A serious state of affairs exists in the Government Printing Office. A strike likely to involve the compositors and a majority of the pressmen is imminent. The pressmen of the office have heretofore belonged to a union under a charter issued by the International Typographical Union. Three months ago the pressmen secured a charter from an entirely separate organization, known as the "International Printing Pressmen's Union." At the May meeting of the Pressmen's Union a resolution was adopted transferring allegiance in accordance with the transfer of charter. A minority of the pressmen, however, opposed the resolution and claimed to reorganize under the old charter and appealed to the International Convention of the Typographical Union at its recent meeting at Atlanta, Ga., for aid and assistance.

The Typographical Union adopted a resolution of recognition and promised support. A few days ago the minority pressmen's union preferred charges of conspiracy against five of their old comrades and adopted a resolution expelling them from the order. President Plank of the International Typographical Union has arrived in Washington in response to the call of the minority pressmen's union. A meeting will be held of the Columbia Typographical Union and minority pressmen's union, and President Plank threatens that unless the five pressmen against whom charges have been preferred are expelled from the Government Printing Office a strike of the compositors and pressmen will be ordered. At least 600 men are involved in the controversy.

MR. BLAKE AND THE LEADERSHIP.

You Can Read Between the Lines and Draw Your Own Conclusions.

Hon. Edward Blake wrote a very funny letter to the editor of The Globe, and it was published in that journal yesterday. The letter created not a little comment around town. Old politicians were heard to remark that they did not know just what the ex-leader meant—whether it was a polite intimation to The Globe to mind its own business or an elegant piece of sarcasm. Here it is:

MAISONROUGE, Pointe au Pic, P.Q., June 30, 1890.

Editor Globe: My attention having been called to the fact that your recent article has given circulation among Liberals to Conservative allegations that I desire to resume the leadership of the Liberal party, I beg space to say there is not a grain of truth in these allegations, and that I am no more desirous to resume than I was to assume or to retain that post.

My only wish is that the confidence and affections of Liberals of all shades may induce Mr. Laurier to hold that place which he so admirably fills. EDWARD BLAKE.

THAT VACANT INSPECTORSHIP.

Another Scramble After the Office of the Late James Pepler.

W. S. Gilbert in his Bab Ballads says:

He smoked and smoked away
This Rev. Hopley Parter;
The deuce there was to pay
At Assesmilk—cum—walter.

And the deuce there is to pay just now regarding the appointment of a hide inspector for Toronto. It will be recollected that of the seventeen applicants for the position, only two secured certificates. Those who failed asked the examiners to again put them through a course of arrows, on the ground that they had not been given a fair show. This the examiners declined to do, claiming that they had been so instructed by the Inland Revenue Department at Ottawa. The friends of Mr. John James, Colborne-street commission man, who had by all odds the stronger political "pull" among the candidates, and who was one of those who failed to pass the exam, have been communicating with the Government ever since with the result that a letter was received by the examiners a day or two ago suggesting that the 15 who failed to secure certificates be again examined. For five hours the examiners held a secret session yesterday, and finally adjourned without deciding whether to adopt the Government's suggestion or not.

A Petition Against Sol. White.

Ever since the elections for the Assembly there have been various rumors of protests against the return of the fellows who "got there." Hamilton, West York, Lincoln, Welland and other constituencies have been mentioned as ones likely to be protested. The first actual move has been made in North Essex. In the Court of Appeal yesterday a petition was lodged against the return of Mr. Sol. White, who describes himself as an Independent Conservative. The petitioner is Thomas Coutts and the usual charges of bribery and corruption are alleged against his return.

Mr. White defeated Pacaud, Liberal, the ex-member, and Cleary, the regular nominee of the Liberal party.

One More for Mercier.

MONTREAL, July 3.—The election to the Quebec Assembly of Mr. Ste. Marie (Lib.), who resigned his seat in the Commons to contest Napierville in the recent provincial election, is to be contested on charges of corruption and fraud.

Mr. J. T. Cardinal has taken out an action for $10,000 damages against Mr. Ste. Marie, alleging that Mr. Ste. Marie had used defamatory language regarding him at an election contest.

PAN-AMERICAN COMMERCE.

Mr. Blaine Urges Subsidies for Postal and Cable Communication.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—President Harrison yesterday sent to Congress a message transmitting a letter from Secretary Blaine upon the reports adopted by the Pan-American Conference respecting postal and cable communication between the United States and the ports of Central and South America, which accompanied the letter. In his letter the Secretary says:

"The report of the Committee on Communication upon the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean Sea shows that Mexico and the republics of Central America, although containing a population and wealth that are but a fraction of our own, and with public revenues that do not compare with those of the United States, are doing more than this Government to maintain a commerce that is of much greater importance and advantage to us than it is to them.

"The representatives of countries bordering on the Pacific also recommend the cooperation of the various countries for the establishment of one or more subsidized steamship lines of the first-class between San Francisco and Valparaiso and intermediate points, each country to pay a share proportionate to its population. Between the United States and ports of Brazil, Uruguay and the Argentine Republic, it is recommended that a fast subsidized line be established and an auxiliary slower line between the United States and Brazil, to stop at minor ports."

All is Peace and Quietness To-Day.

Now that the Carnival is over and business has settled down to the even tenor of its way, we want to say a word to those who are going for a holiday—whether it is in the camping grounds of Muskoka or a trip up the great lakes or a sail among the Thousand Islands or an ocean voyage. You can't enjoy your outing without you are prepared with the proper kind of head covering. In a properly equipped hat store such as Dineen's you get the proper goods for every climate; if you are crossing the Atlantic heavier goods must be worn. The World's local columns contain the news, all the news and nothing but the news. Its crisp and complete record of daily happenings in this marvelously growing city has made it the Toronto people's paper.

ALL THE NEWS FOR ONE CENT

MOWAT AND MERCIER.

The people of Ontario, and especially those who have voted for Mr. Mowat because "he fought for provincial rights," ought to read Mr. Mercier's speech at Montreal on Wednesday night. He, too, is a great fighter for provincial rights. He believes in the provinces being free to do as they like, and he advocates a united raid on the federal treasury for the benefit of the provinces [Quebec]. "The maintenance of provincial rights depends in a large measure on the resources placed at the disposition of the provinces to meet all legitimate and necessary obligations. It is perfectly useless to hope to maintain provincial autonomy and to have it respected if the provinces are reduced to a state of poverty and become incapable of developing their resources." It would have been a cheap thing for Ontario if "provincial rights" had never been heard of. What Mercier means by "better terms for the provinces" is a raid on the pockets of the people of Ontario through the Dominion treasury, which is kept more or less full by the taxpayers of this province. What the people of Ontario must fight to the death is "provincial rights" and also "better terms." Mr. Mowat's victory has already cost us dear. Rielism, Mercierism, Better Terms, Provincial Rights, are some of its results.

Some of our papers given to advocacy of "continental free trade" allege that the average farmer in Ontario is poorer to-day than 30 years ago, and that the actual assessment of the farms is also less. The inference the reader is expected to draw is that "unrestricted reciprocity" would improve the farmer's condition. We deny this. The falling off in land and farm values in the States has been more pronounced than in Ontario. Unrestricted reciprocity would do three things for the Canadian farmer:

1. Put him under a tariff three times as "grinding" as the Canadian one.
2. Kill off his home market, and at the same time introduce the United States farmer as his most active rival.
3. Make farm values still lower.

The singing of "Little Annie Rooney" the other day caused a miniature riot in a New York tenement house. Who can blame the rioters?

"Chinese vice must not be allowed to taint our race," a New York paper declares. Vice is vice, old-fashioned people declare, whether it be of China or any other country, and the general impression is that American cities have a varied assortment of their own.

Read between the lines the first paragraph of Mr. Blake's letter to The Globe means, first that The Globe should have kept quiet about the Liberal leadership, and second, that he would just as soon be leader as ever before.

The foreign papers at this season of the year are largely devoted to accidents in the Alps. The mountain-climbers are on hand in the usual number, and the fatalities show no falling-off as compared with other years. Already this season four persons who were so foolhardy as to venture above the snowline have gone over the frightful precipices.—Winnipeg Tribune.

If tumbling over a precipice is not a falling off, what is?

Speaking of the tagging of newsboys, a local report says that "several lads of bad reputation and who are looked upon as incorrigible thieves have been refused badges." Will some social philosopher who has given the matter any thought kindly tell how thieves are to be reformed by refusing to them the means of making an honest living?

James E. Murdoch, the veteran actor and elocutionist, contributes to the current issue of The Forum an article on the "insanity of Hamlet." He holds that the Prince of Denmark was not insane, but merely feigning to be. This is the general impression of Shakespearean students, but it must be admitted that he feigned very successfully.

Blake to Laurier: "Hang on, you are all right, and I don't want the sit."

Blake to The Globe: "Let the question of the Liberal leadership rest. You are only making trouble in our own party."

When the Dominion Parliament buildings were in course of erection in the early 60's, some 52 Ottawa young men were engaged on the work as apprentices to the stonemason's trade. All have died within the past 30 years. The effects of the deadly sandstone were very apparent in this instance, all the deaths being brought about by an affection of the lungs. It is said that all of the masons who dressed the sandstone for the Ogdensburg customs house and postoffice building have been dead for many years and that all died from consumption, induced by inhaling the dust.—Ogdensburg Journal.

A remedy for this might be found in working with a wet sponge over the mouth and nostrils. The idea is not patented and is not strictly original.

A gypsy fortune-teller in Connecticut told a wife that her husband was unfaithful to her and received a tremendous beating from the enraged husband, either because he felt that he had been maligned, or because he did not intend to have his domestic peace ruined by any further disclosures. But what should be done with the wife fool enough to take any stock in the fortune-teller's story, or who was fool enough to go to the fortune-teller in the first place? Many so-called fortune-tellers can reveal a good deal that is true, but there is nothing occult about it when you know how.

Grip comments on a recent paragraph in The World which stated in effect that the prosperity of the banks showed an active state of trade, and says:

It stands to reason that the more the banks and other usurers and parasites take of the total earnings of productive industry, the less there must be left for the actual worker.

The World was not arguing as to the right or wrong of the banks getting the amount they do out of the total business done, but "it stands to reason" that if the banks are making a profit the money is in circulation and being used to promote trade and commerce. The banks could not make a profit by holding their capital in their coffers.

Why A. M. Ross Retired From Politics.

Globe, April 25.	Globe, May 28.
As a result, wholly or in part, of the fact that for the last two years his health has not been as satisfactory as could be desired, that his hearing deafness grows upon him, and that with advancing years he is more and more disposed to withdraw from the turmoil of politics and retire into the quiet home life of which he has been largely deprived since his acceptance of the treasurership.	Hon. A. M. Ross has already announced his intention of retiring owing to increasing deafness and a general loss of health.

Mr. Ross' "increasing deafness and a general loss of health" did not, however, prevent the Mowat Government foisting its ex-treasurer on the people of Toronto and the county of York, out of whose pockets this invalid from Huron will wring some $10,000 per annum.

The Government does not have to pay this handsome provision for one of its played-out partisans but the fee-burdened community of the city and county. And the Liberals around home who had stood by the Premier and his party were told to go to the devil (as Mr. Hardy would remark) when they asked for the office.

Many a man who never gets "loaded" will go off on a summer trip.

Freddie Gebhardt has been out of the public eye for some time, but he again pops up as the defendant in a suit for a barber's bill for $150. If he escapes payment, it will no doubt be by a close shave.

The second paragraph of Mr. Blake's letter to The Globe is a quiet little insinuation that Mr. Laurier does not possess the confidence and affection of the Liberals, and so feels disposed to throw up the leadership of the Liberal party in favor of one who equally dislikes the job.

PRECOCIOUS CRIMINALS.

The Hamilton Hospital Temporarily Reorganized—Robbed on the Train.

HAMILTON, July 3.—Maria Thornton, a 10-year-old kleptomaniac, received a 4-years' sentence at the Police Court this morning for stealing two tricycles, and 12-year-old Martin Rose was sent to jail for 20 days for larceny of $15.

The Revision of the Church Discipline Completed.

The British Methodist Episcopal Conference assembled again yesterday in Chestnut-street Church, Rev. Mr. Hawkins in the chair. The proceedings were formal and after a little business an adjournment was made to allow the committee on the revision of the discipline of the church to continue their labors.

The committee at once met and after a protracted sitting completed their labors. They will present their report to the conference to-day.

Last night Rev. Charles Fish preached the sermon in the church. To-night, in connection with the conference, a missionary meeting will be held in Agnes-street Church, at which several of the ministers will speak and the proceedings will be assisted by the colored choir.

They Will Push the Inquiry.

Now that the Carnival is over and the Colonel is back the sub-committee of the Executive on Police Court affairs proposes to continue its quest for information. A meeting has been called for 3 o'clock this afternoon and Chairman Saunders told The World that he for one was determined to press the enquiry with unabated vigor. Touching Ald. Lindsey he thought that that city father, instead of being pressing in his desire for a re-arrangement of Police Court affairs, had rather been lax, and certainly so far as he could see had not betrayed the slightest animus against the present occupant of the bench.

People Going Out of Town.

HAMILTON, July 3.—The Manitoba-Hamilton cricket match was resumed at 10 o'clock to-day. The Hamiltons went in for their inning and made 117 runs. Morris and Saunders went to bat. The former was caught by Tuckwell off Cameron. Gillespie followed. He and Saunders batted well, scoring 14 and 18 runs respectively. Ferrie and McGiverin made a good stand, scoring 41 runs between them. Fritz Martin carried his bat out for 28. Hamilton went in for her second and scored 99 for a loss of six wickets thus winning the match with four wickets to spare. Score:

LEAGUE CRICKET.

Some Tall Scoring by the Toronto Colts Against the Wanderers.

The Toronto Colts and Wanderers played a championship match in the Colt League series on the Bloor-street grounds yesterday. The features of the game were the steady batting of the Toronto eleven and the bowling of Millbank for the Torontos. Casey Wood's 65 gives him a big lead for the bat offered for the highest score in an inning. The Wanderers' bowling was caught hold of by the Colts with ease and boundary hits for fours were ridiculously frequent. The score:

Against Peterboro and Gooderham & Worts are the Toronto fixtures for to-morrow.

The match between Oxford University and Lancashire closed June 28, the former winning by an inning and 60 runs.

FIVE TO THREE.

Parkdale Defeats the Nationals in a Brilliant Contest.

The baseball match at the Exhibition grounds yesterday afternoon between Canadian amateur teams was a perfect treat as predicted yesterday. The Parkdales and Nationals of Toronto are clever nines and gave a rare exhibition. Bunched hits in the fifth gave the Flowery Suburb nine three runs and a game that proved insurmountable. Both batteries did grandly. The spectators liberally applauded the many excellent plays. Nine valuable silver medals will be worn by the Parkdales as a reward for their victory and also take the senior amateur championship. Score:

Manager Leadley is not impressed with the idea of going to St. Louis, and if the Detroits hold together may remain there.—London Free Press. Bob made his many friends here a pleasant good-bye Wednesday as he intended leaving shortly for St. Louis. He expects to manage a Detroit Brotherhood team next season.

Bob Leadley of the Detroits is reported as having said recently: "There's no telling how soon the League will go up. A meeting of the League Directors will be held at the Russell House Saturday, and it's dollars to little apples that this week ends the League. You can't support teams playing to bare benches. At Montreal that's the regular program, and it's getting so everywhere else."

FAKE FOOTBALLISTS.

Buffalo Kickers Trying to Capture Some Cheap Honors.

The Wanderers Football Club will play the Canadian International team which visited England last year, at Preston, Ont., next Tuesday.—Buffalo Commercial.

The Wanderers will not have the opportunity of meeting such a combination. It is understood that a scratch team from Waterloo county played the Wanderers a game of Association football at Preston July 1. The game was under the auspices of no club in any Canadian association, and as a matter of fact the Preston team only included 3 of the 17 players who visited Great Britain in 1888. However, the result (7 to 1) shows that the Wanderers are mean opponents of even a scratch team. These Buffalo men were evidently trying to capture some cheap honors.

THEY'D BEEN DRINKING.

Two Montrealers Attempt Suicide While Under the Influence of Whisky.

MONTREAL, July 3.—The other afternoon, Mrs. Hamelin, living in Claude-street, ran into No. 1 station, and excitedly told Sergeant Beauchemin that her husband was going to commit suicide, and asked for help.

Two policemen were sent up to her house, where they saw the husband sitting with a rope around his neck, but it was not tight enough to inconvenience his respiration. He was however brought down to the station house, and at a private examination this morning said that he had been drinking freely, but that he had no intention of committing any such rash act. He was warned not to frighten his wife in that manner again and discharged.

A respectable looking man named James Johnstone, 45 years of age, and formerly of Prescott, attempted suicide at Allan's wharf this morning. He had his coat and vest off and was in the act of jumping into the river when Constable Thomas Robinson caught him just as he was taking what might have been the fatal jump. He was conveyed to the police station on the wharf. He has lately lost his wife and had been drinking.

THE FOOL BOY AND THE GUN.

An Ottawa Girl Shot Dead—The Accident Duplicated Near Charlottetown.

OTTAWA, July 3.—Mabel Bichler, aged 14, was instantly killed this morning. She had just stepped out of her father's back door when a small rifle in the hands of a lad named Frank Leggat, aged 10, was discharged and the bullet hit the poor girl in the heart. An inquest will be held.

HALIFAX, July 3.—On Dominion Day two lads, Rufus Whittle and George Henderson of Charlottetown, went out in the country. They had a rifle and fired a number of times at trees and gate posts. One of the bullets struck and killed a little daughter of Samuel Gay. The boys did not see the child, nor did they know she had been shot. A woman named Catharine McDonald driving along the road saw the girl lying in a field, as she supposed asleep. She went to awaken her and found her dying. The boys were acquitted by a coroner's jury, who severely condemned the careless use of firearms.

The Minister Would Do Nothing.

At a recent meeting of the Drygoods Section of the Board of Trade, Mr. W. Blackley (McCall & Co.) was appointed to interview the Minister of Customs on behalf of the importers of ladies' straw hats and bonnets, respecting the amending of entries and payment of extra duties upon articles which were imported and duty paid thereon between the introduction of the Finance Minister's budget speech and the final adjustment of the tariff. Mr. Blackley and a couple of Montreal delegates waited upon the Minister yesterday and contended that, as they had paid duty upon articles in accordance with the tariff as originally recommended to Parliament last session, they should not be asked to pay any additional duties or amend their entries. Mr. Bowell replied that it was announced in Parliament at the time of the introduction of the tariff that all entries made between March 28, the date of the delivery of the budget speech, and the final adjustment of the tariff would be subject to amendment. Under the circumstances he did not see his way clear to accede to the request of the deputation.

The total loss by the fire at Seattle, Wash., was $109,000; insurance $49,000.

The entire business portion of Pullman, Wash., was burned yesterday.

The four story paint and oil warehouse of Phillips & Kane of Wilmington, Del., was completely gutted by fire yesterday. Loss $30,000, insurance two-thirds. Adjoining properties were damaged to the extent of $10,000.

The Vancleave block at Middletown, Ind., was burned yesterday. Loss about $5000. An old lady named Wise, who was subject to heart disease, died from shock. An old man named Seckler was run over and killed at the fire, and Clint Mewry, who assisted in putting out the fire, was so badly burned that his recovery is doubtful.

Early last evening the large five story building No. 50 Chauncey-street and No. 72 Bedford-street, Boston, caught fire. John J. Colleghan & Co., manufacturers of ladies' cloaks, lost $10,000; Wheelock & Burrage, dealers in ladies' ruffings; Gowing, Sawyer & Co., and H. Portersmith, dealers in woolens, aggregate loss of $5000 to $6000. All are insured. The damage to the building was slight.

Peabody Institute of Danvers, Mass., was destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss about $75,000; insurance on building, $35,000; on contents, $20,000. The library—15,000 volumes—was nearly all saved, with the picture of George Peabody. The fire was set by painters using naphtha lamps to burn off old paint. The building was presented to the town by George Peabody, the rich London banker, who also gave the library and a fund of $100,000. The building cost over $50,000.

A New Star.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—In signing the bill admitting Idaho as a state to-day the President agreeably disappointed a number of people in that State. The President found that the law ordained that a new star should be placed upon the American flag for each new State on the Fourth of July succeeding its admission to the Union. Forty-three stars are therefore due upon the flag to-morrow. The bill admitting Wyoming to statehood has not yet reached the President.

A 'Frisco Fraud.

The comet has a bright nucleus and a short tail and remains above the horizon the entire night.

An Alleged Dealer in Green Goods.

F. C. Atwood, the man who was arrested in the Rossin House on June 30, on a charge of offering to buy counterfeit bank notes, and who was caught by a job put up by Provincial Detectives Roger and Greer, got a hearing in the Police Court yesterday and was sent for trial. Atwood met the detectives by appointment at the Rossin, and thinking they were dealers in "green goods" unbosomed himself. He said he had once disposed of $1500 bogus Bank of Hamilton bills, which he bought from a dealer in New Orleans and easily passed off. He mentioned having bought that lot in New Orleans at 25 cents in the dollar, but would willingly give 35 cents for good stuff. He said he could take $1000 a month.

This evidence was, the Magistrate thought, sufficient to send him over to the Criminal Court.

A Toronto Boy.

The World notices in the final examinations of the Royal Military College, Kingston, that Robert C. Morris, son of the late Hon. Alexander Morris, carried off more than a share of the prizes. Mr. Morris obtained his diploma with high honors, especially in mathematics, and a commission in the Royal Artillery of the Imperial Army. He received his training at the Collegiate Institute here and Capt. Manley is very proud of his old pupil, and says he will be a credit to his native city wherever he goes. Mr. Morris will join his regiment in the fall.

DEVOURED BY INSECTS.

A Lumberman's Awful Fate in the Bush near Chapleau.

OTTAWA, July 3.—A terrible occurrence is reported from Pembroke. Last week Thomas Young, aged 23, of Clarke River, who was engaged as cook in one of the lumbering camps above Chapleau, feeling unwell, decided to go home.

On arriving at Chapleau he found that the train that he wished to take had not arrived, and thinking a walk might do him good determined to try it to the next station.

About half way he became so sick that he was obliged to seek refuge at a deserted camp. There he lay five days a prey to mosquitoes and black flies, unable to summon assistance and without anything to eat.

Finally he managed to drag himself two miles to the railway track, where he met the station men, who placed him on the train for home. He died shortly after reaching his destination, so disfigured by the bites of insects as to be hardly recognizable.

THE TAILORS' STRIKE.

New York Rioters Attack an Employer and His Family.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Abraham Rosenberg and a crowd of 30 other strikers visited the tailoring shop of Samuel Dillet in Eldredge-street to-day and began an indiscriminate attack upon Dillet, his wife and the workmen in the shop. Dillet defended himself with a revolver. He fired into the crowd and shot Rosenberg, inflicting a probably fatal wound.

The Boilermakers' Convention.

NEW YORK, July 3.—At to-day's meeting of the American Boilermakers' Association it was decided to organize local boards in the various cities which will have control of local affairs, such as matters of disturbances and trouble between employer and employe, such local boards to be under the control of the State committee. The report of the Apprenticeship committee was adopted. The next annual meeting will be held at St. Louis.

Passage of the Lottery Bill.

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 3.—The Lottery bill came up in the House to-day with the Senate amendment adding $250,000 to the amount of the yearly license fee. The amendment was concurred in by a vote of 68 to 25, two of the anti-lottery men voting for concurrence and the others against it. This fixes the yearly license fee at $1,250,000. The bill now goes to the Governor, the lottery people having decided that to be the proper course in order to prevent any question hereafter. They expect Governor Nicholls to veto it, but are confident that both houses will over-ride the veto. The

MERCIER'S GAME OF GRAB.

The Quebec Premier's Speech At The National Club Banquet in Montreal —To Raid the Treasury.

The feature of the evening at the banquet of the Club National in Montreal Wednesday was the speech of Premier Mercier to the toast of "The Provinces." In clear and unmistakable language he laid down the doctrine of provincial rights as the basis of the Nationalist program, attacked the Federal Government for its infringement on provincial rights, and made a bold bid for a united raid by the provinces on the Dominion treasury. He warmly defended Nationalism, and declared his intention of carrying it on despite all attacks. His speech is worthy of the careful perusal of every taxpayer of the Dominion, as Mr. Mercier, who has just secured another five years' lease of power, enunciates a policy that strikes at the very basis of the Federal compact. In the opening of his address the Quebec Premier, who was received with the greatest enthusiasm by the large gathering, referred to the recent Liberal victories in Ontario, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Quebec. These, he said, were not ordinary party triumphs. They were the triumphs of a great principle, and that principle was provincial autonomy.

The autonomy of the provinces, he continued, is the essential condition of Confederation—no provinces without autonomy and no confederation without the provinces. On the day when the provinces cease to have autonomy they will cease to exist, and on the day they cease to exist Confederation will end. It will give place to an unknown system, which some call legislative union and which others term Imperial federation. But the name matters little. Call it what you will, both things are the death of the provinces, and ultimately for one reason or the other the death of Confederation. [Applause.] Those, therefore, who are in favor of the maintenance of Confederation should be in favor of the maintenance of the provinces, and those who are in favor of the most complete and most absolute autonomy, not only within the limits of the Act of 1867, but within more extended limits and powers, should seek to obtain them if they do not wish the provinces restricted, in their action, to be extinguished either by the action of the law or by the action of the Federal power.

This Flag You Know.

The general proposition having been stated, Mr. Mercier said: "I wish to develop it by the two following—1st, the actual powers of the provinces must be maintained in their integrity and extended if possible; 2nd, additional financial means must be obtained to assure the maintenance of provincial institutions and the development of their riches." Before dealing with this feature Premier Mercier took occasion to thank the Club National for its assistance in gaining the recent great triumph in Quebec. He again raised the National flag, exclaiming amidst wild cheering, "This flag, gentlemen, you know. It is the National flag. The Government which you have you know. It is the National Government. The party which I have before me I know. It is the National party. This flag, this Government and this party are to-night honored by the National Club. It is a National triumph which we celebrate here to-night, and not National merely in name, but National in tendencies, aspirations and [sentiments." [Tremendous cheering.]

Returning to the question of provincial autonomy, Mr. Mercier said the powers of the provinces, it was true, were very limited, having been by an act of treason diminished at London with the consent of the French-Canadian delegates. But the more they are limited the more we should prevent any violation of them. These powers bear on matters essential to our existence as a people, our religious rights, civil and municipal laws, education and the administration of justice. These were the principal matters with which provincial rights were exercised. It is unnecessary to enter into details upon the exercise of these different rights, for their importance and necessity are easily understood. "I affirm," he continued, "that these rights constitute the essential basis of the autonomy of the provinces, and that to restrict them in the exercise of these rights is to endanger their political existence.

"I also affirm that the provinces must be left entirely free in their legislation on matters that are within their jurisdiction, and that the exercise of the veto in regard to all laws adopted under these conditions is a usurpation of the powers and consequently an imminent danger to the provinces. If the Federal veto should never be exercised—and I believe that is the true theory—against provincial laws which are not unconstitutional, this veto becomes useless, and consequently should be abolished in theory as well as in practice. In short, it is not wise to leave the question of the constitutionality of provincial laws to the judgment of the Federal power, and of men often belonging to parties hostile to those of the provinces. This right of disallowance should be left to the courts, before which alone we may hope to find the necessary impartiality. Again, questions of constitutionality being naturally questions of law, belong naturally to the judges of the country."

Premier Mercier, continuing, said that the resolutions of the inter-provincial conference must become in large measure the basis of the future Federal policy.

Give, Give, Give.

But the maintenance of these rights depended in a large measure on the resources placed at the disposition of the provinces to meet all legitimate and necessary obligations. It is perfectly useless to hope to maintain provincial autonomy and to have it respected if the provinces are reduced to a state of poverty and become incapable of developing their resources. It has been said that the object of those who framed Confederation was to realize their favorite idea of a legislative union by giving to the provinces the most feeble revenues. Thus, while the provinces give to the Federal power nearly $20,000,000 in customs and excise, they receive in return less than $4,000,000 in provincial subsidies. So restricted are the provinces that the only method left to them to secure the necessary funds is the suicidal one of direct taxation. The provinces are also called upon in many instances to do the work of the Federal Government, to construct railways in all directions, of which the Federal Government assumed the control on their completion. A debt of over $30,000,000 had been accumulated for this purpose, on which the provinces had to pay interest amounting to nearly $1,000,000 annually.

Another anomaly of the Federal Act was that the Dominion Parliament made the criminal laws and named the judges to see to their application, while the provinces were obliged to pay for the maintenance of the criminal courts and prisons. He hoped the day was not far distant when this anomaly would be removed, and that the only true and national doctrine would be accepted that the cost of the administration of justice would be borne by the Government which controls it. The existing railway policy was unjust, and should be modified at once if we did not wish the provinces to be overcome by burdens too heavy for them to bear. He thought the Provincial Governments might with good reason repeat the demand that certain municipalities in Ontario had made upon the Dominion Government when they said: "We have subscribed for the construction of railways, thinking that our Provincial Government would have the control of them, but since the Federal Government has usurped the control of the railways built by our money let them return our subscriptions." This demand might be made with far more reason by the Provincial Government, who had spent large sums of money in constructing railways to see them taken over by the Federal authorities.

To Milk the Ontario Cow.

The Province of Quebec had contracted a debt of nearly $20,000,000 in this connection, imposing annually a charge of nearly $1,000,000 for interest. Was it just that it should lose control of the works constructed at such a sacrifice? Was it not only justice that it should be reimbursed by the Federal Government, which had assumed absolute control of them? If this policy should succeed a new division of provincial debts would be made. The Province of Quebec would in this way be specially benefited, as it would remove the payment of the annual interest, and the province would be enabled to devote the $1,000,000 annually thus acquired for completing railways, colonization, education and augmenting the grants to institutions of charity, etc.

Premier Mercier next dealt with the proposed increase of provincial subsidies on the basis of the resolution of the inter-provincial conference of 1887. Now that the five provinces of Confederation which took part in this conference through their prime ministers are placed in a position to unite their efforts to assure the triumph of this policy which circumstances impose upon us, there is reason to hope.

"It is pretended in certain quarters that this demand of the inter-provincial conference was, as far as concerned the demands for money, a bare-faced attempt to rob the Dominion. What a strange assertion! Do not these five provinces constitute essential portions of the Dominion? Whence comes the money in the Federal treasury if not from these five provinces, and especially from Ontario and Quebec? Who furnishes the $30,649,110 of customs and excise if not in large part the two provinces of Ontario and Quebec? If such is the case, and nobody will dare to assert the contrary, how can those who furnish the money be accused of wishing to commit robbery by demanding a reasonable portion to maintain themselves in proper condition to furnish this money? No; at the inter-provincial conference in Quebec in 1887, all the provinces honestly demanded what was their due. They have a right to obtain it, and they should not cease in their efforts in this direction until they succeed."

MOWAT AND MERCIER.

The Christian Statesman's Congratulations for His Quebec Friend.

MONTREAL, July 3.—At the banquet of the Club National among the regrets was the Ontario Premier's:

TORONTO, July 2.

Mr. Gouin, Montreal.

Regret shall not be able; will write.

O. MOWAT.

He did write, as follows:

MY DEAR SIR.—I have already telegraphed you my regret that I am not able to accept the kind invitation of the National Club to their banquet to celebrate the victory obtained at your recent election. I see that some English-speaking Protestant Liberals in Quebec regret your success. This I do not understand. Though there are very important questions in which the Protestants and other Liberals of Ontario differ from Mr. Mercier and his party, yet in these matters we differ quite as much as from the party of the Opposition, and there are other important questions on which we agree with you and differ from them. While, therefore, regretting the difference between us, Ontario Liberals see no reason why they should not rejoice at the success which the party that is favored by the Liberals of Quebec generally has had over the Opposition. Holding this view I have much pleasure in congratulating you all and the able leader in the great victory which you have first achieved, and I feel sure that it will be used in promoting to the utmost the substantial good of the people of Quebec, and in advancing the common interests of the provinces of the Dominion. O. MOWAT.

Letters and telegrams were also read from Hon. Edward Blake, Sir R. Cartwright and Mr. Edgar from Ontario, and Hon. Messrs. Garneau and Duhamel from Quebec.

Hot Weather and Sleep.

One reason, no doubt, why so many people become "pulled down" in health during hot weather is that they do not exercise care to get their necessary amount of sleep. At the very time when the demands upon the endurance are greater than at any other period of the year they devote fewer hours to recuperating their bodies in nature's perfect way than at times when the demand upon the physical resources is only normal.

Of course it is to be remembered that this is the season when there is the greatest temptation to neglect the good old maxim of "Early to bed." At no other time of year is a bedroom less inviting than now, when, especially if it is near the roof, as bedrooms often are, its air will be hot and stagnant until changed by the evening breezes from the lake. At no other season are the temptations to sit out on the front piazza so great as now. This latter practice is one of the pleasantest of those which characterize American informal social life, and need not be entirely sacrificed. But to devote to it hours which should be passed in sleep is to shorten life, and one can be of very little use to society after he is dead—or to himself either so far as the matters of this mundane sphere are concerned. As the comic Irishman in the rhyme puts it:

What's the world to a man when his wife is a widdy?

The young can stand even less than the old the drain on their vitality caused by insufficient repose. The growing time of life, the time when body and mind are in the developmental stage, is a time when nutrition and conservation are imperatively necessary. So let the young folks, as well as the old folks, see to it these summer evenings that they get to bed betimes.

Those who find it difficult to sleep on account of the heat can readily circumvent old Sol by taking a bath. If it is only a handy sponge bath, it will do wonders in cooling the body, softening and freshening the skin and preparing the system for the ready enjoyment of "tired Nature's sweet restorer." Awakening from such a sleep as it is possible to secure even in warm rooms through which there is a draft of air, one is refreshed and fitted to cope to much better advantage with the hottest of weather than the tired and jaded beings who have tried to get along without duly availing them.elves of the only recuperative process which is at everybody's command.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 3.—Mrs. Anna Tapley, a young widow, who has been a clerk in the registered letter department of the postoffice, was married last evening. The groom is J. Frank Sweesy of Omaha, and the two had never seen each other until last Friday. The match was made by Mrs. Hartman, who went to Omaha some months ago. She carried a photograph of Mrs. Tapley. She met Mr. Sweesy shortly after her arrival and showed him the photograph, with which he fell deeply in love. An introduction by letter was arranged, and a correspondence followed, resulting in an engagement. The wedding day was set and last Thursday the groom called. He went to see Mrs. Tapley Friday and was so fascinated with her that he persuaded her to hurry matters. The wedding last evening was the result, and to-day Mr. and Mrs. Sweesy left for their Nebraska home.

Cholera morbus, cramps and kindred complaints annually make their appearance at the same time as the hot weather, green fruit, cucumbers, melons, etc., and many persons are debarred from eating these tempting fruits, but they need not abstain if they have Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, and take a few drops in water. It cures the cramps and cholera in a remarkable manner, and is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels.

Death of Dr. E. H. Horsey.

CHICAGO, July 3.—Dr. Edward H. Horsey, a native of Kingston, Ont., and for 15 years house physician at the Palmer, died here Tuesday afternoon. He was 54 years old, a graduate of Queen's College in '59, practised medicine in Montreal and at the breaking out of the war offered his services to the Union, was assigned to duty in Army Square Hospital and remained there until the collapse of the rebellion. For the last eight years he had spent the summer at Kingston, where he had built a handsome house. The remains were taken to Kingston for interment.

Burglary at Bennington.

EMBRO, July 3.—On Monday night some one entered the store of Peter Murray, Bennington, northwest of Embro, and stole about $50 worth of tobacco and canned goods. The thieves had a pile of drygoods and groceries piled up beside the window, through which they had effected an entrance, but were surprised and frightened off before they had time to remove them. There were two of them, and they had a buggy waiting outside, in which they drove off. They were followed for some distance, but managed to make their escape. One of them left his hat behind in his hurry.

Moses Had Asthma.

My husband had asthma for eight years with severe cough, and his lungs also were affected. He could neither rest, work, nor get relief from any medicine he tried. Some time ago we got Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, and after taking six or eight bottles his cough is entirely cured, the asthma greatly relieved and his lungs greatly benefited. MRS. MOSES COUCH, Apsley, Ont.

Pitchfork v. Revolver.

BERLIN, Ont., July 3.—At Preston the other day a blacksmith named Forbes had his horse grazing on the street and came near Casper Jacobs' house. The latter got mad and the bookbinder went to the blacksmith with a revolver and hit him in the arm, whereupon the latter went for the former with a pitchfork and nearly pitched him into eternity. Jacobs at last accounts was very low and may not recover.

The superiority of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is shown by its good effects on the children. Purchase a bottle and give it a trial.

BECAUSE OF THEIR POVERTY.

Supposed Suicide of a German Family—Mother and Babe Found.

HOBOKEN, July 3.—The body of Mrs. Frank Wentlandt was found in the river to-day and clasped tightly in the arms of the woman was a four-months-old babe. They had been dead only a short time. Wentlandt is missing and it is believed he and his wife committed suicide together on account of their poverty, as Wentland sent a note to his pastor this morning saying such was their intention. Wentlandt was a German journalist, but had been unfortunate.

Charged with Horse Stealing.

GUELPH, July 3.—James Troy of Mount Forest is now in the county jail, on the charge of stealing a mare from the pasture field of James Farrel. Mr. Farrel missed his animal in the early part of June and could get no trace of it. He advertised for it. Shortly afterwards a horse was found in James Troy's stable. When enquiry was made of the family concerning it they professed to know nothing about it. The animal was then turned on the street. A few days later the mare was found in the possession of a Shelburne livery stable keeper, who says it was traded with him by Troy, who said his name was Morrison, for another animal and that he gave some money to "boot." Troy was arrested on suspicion and he claims that he got the animal from some gypsies. Constable Bollen brought the prisoner down to the county jail on Tuesday and he will have his trial here.

Married By the Rabbi.

A select circle of friends assembled yesterday morning at the residence of Rabbi Phillips, pastor of the Richmond-street east Synagog, adjacent to the church, to witness the marriage of Miss Sophie, daughter of the Rabbi, to Mr. Nathan Bloomberg. Among those present were Rev. Dr. Wild, Rev. I. C. Cameron, Mrs. Sevenstein of New York and M. Cassels of Buffalo. The ceremony was performed by Mr. Phillips, who in his conclusion gave the couple some sound words of advice, taking as his text: "How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob!" The presents were handsome and numerous, and telegrams congratulating the bride and bridegroom were received from many friends in the United States and Canada.

A lady in Syracuse writes: "For about seven years before taking Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure I suffered from a complaint very prevalent with our sex. I was unable to walk any distance or stand on my feet for more than a few minutes at a time without feeling exhausted, but now I am thankful to say I can walk two miles without feeling the least inconvenience. For female complaints it has no rival."

City Hall Small Talk.

Members of the City Council will visit Wilson, N.Y., to-day, July 4.

It is agreed that the Victoria-street extension will be ready for public traffic by Sept. 1.

The Melinda-street sewer is held back through the action of the members of the Court of Revision in refusing to obey a call for a meeting.

George Jones, Street Commissioner Jones' son, is reported somewhat better.

It is probable that the old men asking for city employment will be given work at $1 per day.

The Executive Committee has been called for to-day at 4 o'clock.

The City Treasurer's offices have been rearranged and re-furnished.

The City Council meets on Monday night for the last time before the midsummer holidays.

The Metropolitan Street Railway matter will be considered at a special meeting of the Railway Franchise Committee to be held at 11 a.m. to-morrow.

The water in the Rosehill reservoir continues to fall.

Free and easy expectoration immediately relieves and frees the throat and lungs from viscid phlegm, and a medicine that promotes this is the best medicine to use for coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs and all affections of the throat and chest. This is precisely what Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup is a specific for, and wherever used it has given unbounded satisfaction. Children like it because it is pleasant, adults like it because it relieves and cures the disease.

Born With Teeth.

CINCINNATI, July 3.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Carl Kimble of No. 44 Kindel-avenue gave birth to twins. The doctors who were in attendance at the birth of the babes noticed that they were exceptionally large and well developed. Greatly to their surprise upon examining one of the twins it was discovered that it possessed two large lower front teeth, which are at least an eighth of an inch in length and perfectly formed. The teeth are of a pearly whiteness and look as natural as those of a child 6 or 8 years old. This is a rare occurrence, and a similar one has never been recorded before. There have been cases where there was one tooth when a single child was born, but never before when there were twins.

Parmelee's Pills possess the power of acting specifically upon the diseased organs, stimulating to action the dormant energies of the system, thereby removing disease. In fact so great is the power of this medicine to cleanse and purify that diseases of almost every name and nature are driven from the body. Mr. D. Caswell, Caswell P.O., Ont., writes: "I have tried Parmelee's Pills and find them an excellent medicine and one that will sell well."

Berlin's Carnival a Failure.

BERLIN, Ont., July 3.—The carnival here has not been a success and has done the town no good. There was an alleged parade this morning and the festivities closed to-night with a ball in the rink. Aside from the Dominion Day celebration the affair has been a disappointing failure.

The brightest flowers must fade, but young lives endangered by severe coughs and colds may be preserved by Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Croup, whooping cough, bronchitis, in short all affections of the throat and lungs, are relieved by this sterling preparation, which also remedies rheumatic pains, sores, bruises, piles, kidney difficulty, and is most economic.

Pitiful Fate of a Little Rawdon Girl.

BELLEVILLE, July 3.—The body of the little Scrimshaw girl was found yesterday in the bush near her father's home in Rawdon. She had evidently died from exposure and hunger.

M. Sheehan of Oscoda, Mich., writes: "I have used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil on horses for different diseases and found it to be just as you recommended. It has done justice to me every time and is the best oil for horses I ever used."

Injured by a Fall.

Thomas Healey, a laborer living at 180 Richmond-street west, slipped yesterday afternoon at Queen and Jarvis-streets, sustaining a severe injury to the right shoulder. The ambulance conveyed him to the Hospital.

Arrivals continue light. Wheat is easier; about 100 bushels sold to-day at 90c to 93c for spring and 70c to 73c for goose; 500 bushels barley sold at 46c to 50c, 100 bushels peas 59c to 60c and 200 bushels oats at 43c to 43 1-2c. Hay continues in limited supply at $12 to $14.50 for choice timothy and $8.50 to $10 for clover and mixed. Straw steady at $6.50 to $7.50.

St. Lawrence Market.

Business was unusually dull, scarcely a farmer's team being on the market. Eggs are in liberal supply at 14c per dozen and a drop in price is expected to-morrow. Butter continues firm with inadequate supply at 17c to 18c for lb. rolls. Meats unchanged. Poultry is cheaper and more plentiful; chickens have dropped to 40c and 50c per pair; turkeys 10c per lb. Potatoes are steady at 80c to 85c a single bag, and 75c to 80c by the load. Garden vegetables are becoming more reasonable; new potatoes can be had at 45c per peck, green peas 25c to 30c, beans 75c per peck and cabbages 7c to 9c per head.

Local Grain and Produce.

FLOUR—The demand is slow and the market quiet with business confined to small lots for local consumption. While there is no quotable change in prices from $4.50 for straight roller and $4.20 for extras, the feeling is easy and holders would no doubt shade prices in order to put through a round lot.

GRAIN—The grain market continues dull and uninteresting. Prices are steady in sympathy with U.S. markets, but in the absence of any considerable business prices are nominal. Advices from abroad to-day were quiet with poor demand. We quote: No. 2 fall wheat, outside at 93c to 94c, and 97c to 98c on spot; spring 94c on spot and 92c to 93c on Midland. Manitoba hards are easier at $1.15 to $1.17. Barley is firmer owing to limited offerings and No. 3 brings 53c. Oats quiet at 41c on track and 39½c outside for mixed and 37c for white outside. Peas nominal at 61c outside. The demand for bran is weak at $10.50 for carloads outside, Toronto freights, and $12 here.

PROVISIONS—The demand for hams and bacon continues good and the market is active and firm at 8¾c to 9c for long clear bacon in small jobbing lots, with as low as 8½c for large lots; hams 12c to 12½c, rolls 9½c and bellies and backs 11c to 11½c. Pork is steady, and as the stock is light higher prices are looked for. Ruling prices to-day are $16 to $16.50 for mess and $16.75 for short cut. There is a fair demand for lard at 9¼c to 9½c. Tallow is steady at 5¼c to 5½c.

PRODUCE—The egg market is easier at 13c to 13½c. Receipts are liberal, but business is quiet on account of the limited demand and sales are principally in small lots to fill actual requirements. The butter market continues firm. The demand is large, and the movement being brisk, stocks are not accumulating to any extent. The tone is firm and there are no indications that present prices of 14c to 15c for choice tub and 12c to 14c for large rolls would be shaded. There are no new features in the cheese market. Trade is quiet and quotations are unchanged at 9c to 9½c, but the prospects are that prices will go lower in the near future. We hear of no large transactions being effected.

HIDES, ETC.—No. 1 green cows still command 6c, with 4c to 5c for secondary; cured are quoted at 6½c. Calfskins firm at 5c to 8c; lambskins firmer at 50c for best. Large quantities of wool are being marketed at 20c to 22c.

The Fruit Market.

The fruit market yesterday was fairly active and the supplies were large. Strawberries were in good demand, the quantity being first-class. Cherries are becoming more plentiful and gooseberries and melons are increasing in supply. The prices range as follows: Strawberries, 7c to 8c per box; cherries $1 to $1.20 per basket; peaches, $2 to $2.75 per case; watermelons, $30 per hundred; pineapples, $30 per hundred; tomatoes, $2 per crate; cucumbers, $1 to $1.50 per crate.

Foreign Grain Markets.

IN LIVERPOOL to-day wheat was quiet; demand poor at 7s 1d for spring, 6s 11 for red winter and 7s 0½d to 7s 1d for No. 1 Cal. Corn quiet; demand poor at 3s 6½d, peas 5s 6½d, pork 54s 3d, lard 30s, bacon, long clear, heavy, 28s 6d, light 29s 6d, short clear 28s 6d, cheese 43s 6d.

BEERBOHM telegraphs: Floating cargoes—Corn firm, but less active; arrivals and sold nil, waiting orders, wheat 5, corn 2. Cargoes on passage—Wheat and corn rather quieter. French country markets rather firm. Weather showery. Liverpool spot wheat and corn easier.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET was quiet, and prices nominally unchanged at 50c for No. 2 Can. and 64c for No. 2 extra.

THE PULSE OF TRADE.

Stocks of Breadstuffs—Strike Statistics—Bank Clearings.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's indicate that the volume of general merchandise while large has decreased perceptibly, as is to be expected at this season, and the week, practically two days short, has further tended to restrict operations.

Iron and steel are steady and anthracite coal is really in better demand at improved prices. At the west hogs are in free movement to interior markets, and prices are weak and lower. Cattle are dull. Products barely hold their own as to prices. Wheat is up 1¼c on less encouraging reports from abroad and a heavy decrease of domestic stocks. Corn and oats are fractionally higher. In California the outlook is for a heavy wheat crop. Our Melbourne cable states that wheat stocks in Australia and New Zealand, out of farmers' hands, July 1, equal 4,973,000 bushels against 2,391,000 bushels one year ago.

There were 84 strikes, involving 33,939 strikers, reported to Bradstreet's in June. For the six months there were 681 strikes involving 174,236 strikers, against 349 strikes, involving 93,258 strikers last year, and 436 strikes and 172,452 strikers in 1888.

Bank clearings for June at 51 cities showed a decrease of 13.6 per cent. from the May total, but they are 7.3 per cent. larger than in June, 1889. For the six months they show at 37 cities a gain of 9.2 over last year.

At this, the close of the crop year of 1889-90, Bradstreet's reports point to 52,000,000 bushels of wheat carried over, against 37,000,000 bushels a year ago. Farmers' stocks are 7,000,000 bushels heavier than on July 1, 1889, and so-called available stocks 5,000,000 bushels. These totals point to the wheat crop of 1889 having been 470,000,000 bushels instead of 490,000,000 bushels. Stocks of Indian corn (available) carried over are 19,251,988 bushels, against 12,261,565 bushels a year ago. Stocks of oats are 7,287,424 bushels, against 7,470,989 bushels, of barley 637,255 bushels, against 454,167 bushels, and of rye 908,702 bushels, against 986,345 bushels. Stocks of wheat flour at leading points of manufacture and accumulation in first and second hands (exclusive of New York City) equal 1,429,378 barrels, against 1,317,800 barrels one year ago.

The Flour Market.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 3.—The Northwestern Miller says: The aggregate flour production of 12 mills last week was 83,833 bbls. A few firms are behind hand with orders and will run on the Fourth. The flour market is constantly improving. There is a very good domestic demand and the export orders received are encouraging. The export shipments for the week were 25,375 bbls. Patents for export are in good demand and one firm reports a sale of 2500 sacks of 280 pounds at a price equal to $5.25 at Boston, an advance of 15 cents over bidding figures. In bakers for export an advance of 6d is noted.

Business Embarrassments.

The creditors will meet at Hamilton on the 9th inst. John Calder & Co. of Hamilton are the largest creditors; several Toronto houses will rank for small amounts.

Ontario assignments include E. L. Wagner, merchant, Elzevir township; D. Brown, lumber, Owen Sound; R. Eaton & Son, merchants, St. Mary's.

NOTICE
WEIGHTS AND MEASURES

Traders, Manufacturers and Owners of Weights, Measures and Weighing Machines generally are specially requested to read carefully the following instructions and act accordingly:

1. The Weights and Measures Act provides for a regular biennial inspection of all Weights and Measures used for trade purposes, as well as for irregular inspections of the same, which may be made at any time when deemed necessary by the inspector, and it also imposes a heavy penalty on any trader or other person who wilfully obstructs or impedes an inspector or assistant inspector in the performance of his duty under said Act, or who refuses to produce the whole of his weights and measures for inspection when called upon to do so by an inspecting officer.

2. Every Trader, Manufacturer and Owner of Weights, Measures and Weighing Machines when paying moneys to Inspectors or Assistant Inspectors of Weights and Measures for verification fees is entitled to, and is specially requested to, demand from the officer who makes the inspection an official certificate ("Form O. 6" with the words "Original for the Trader" printed at the head thereof) properly filled out and stamped, and also at the same time to carefully ascertain whether or not the stamps attached to such certificate represent exactly the value the amount of cash paid. Traders are requested to bear in mind that certificates of verification are of no value whatever unless stamps covering the full amount of fees charged are attached.

3. Owners and holders of these official certificates are specially requested to keep them carefully for two years, and in order to secure their safe keeping it would be advisable to placard them in their places of business in the manner in which ordinary license certificates are done, for it must be distinctly understood that all traders who are unable to produce their properly stamped certificates when asked to do so by an inspector or assistant inspector may, in all probability, have to pay over again their verification fees.

E. MIALL, Commissioner.

NOTICE.

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto intend to pass bylaws in pursuance of "The Municipal Act," for levying a frontage rate to pay for the construction of the following local improvement works, viz:

Cedar Block Pavements on:

1. Grant-street, from Queen-street to its northern terminus.

2. Howland-avenue, from Wells-street to the C. P. Railway tracks.

A Wooden Sidewalk on:

3. Howland-avenue (both sides), from Wells-street to the C. P. Railway tracks.

And that a statement showing the lands liable to pay the said rates, and the names of the owners thereof, as far as they can be ascertained from the last revised Assessment Roll, is now filed in the office of the City Clerk, and is open for inspection during office hours.

The following schedule shows the estimated cost of each of the said proposed works, the amount thereof to be provided out of the general funds of the Municipality, and the amount to be charged in each case as a special assessment upon the lands immediately benefited:

LOCATION OF THE WORK.	Total Cost of Work.	City's Share.	Special Rate.
Cedar Block Pavements:
1. Grant-street.....	$2448	$244	[illegible]
2. Howland-avenue.....	4480	640	[illegible]
Wooden Sidewalk:
3. Howland-avenue.....	650	105	545

And further, that unless in each of the above cases respectively, the majority of the owners of the lands liable to pay the said rate, representing at least one-half in value thereof, petition the said Council against such assessment within one month after the last publication of this notice, which will be on the 4th day of July, A.D. 1890, the said bylaws will be passed.

A Court of Revision will be held at the City Hall on the 14th day of July, A.D. 1890, at 2 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of hearing complaints against the proposed assessments, or accuracy of the frontage measurements, or any other complaints which persons interested may desire to make, and which are by law cognizable by the court.

JOHN BLEVINS,
CITY CLERK'S OFFICE, City Clerk.
Toronto, June 27, 1890. 55

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for Wiarton Works," will be received at this office until Tuesday, the 8th day of July next, inclusively, for the construction of an extension to the Breakwater at Wiarton, Bruce County, Ontario, according to a plan and specification to be seen on application to Mr. David Dinsmore, Postmaster, Wiarton, and at the Department of Public Works, Ottawa.

Tenders will not be considered unless made on the form supplied and signed with the actual signature of tenderers.

An accepted bank cheque, payable to the order of the Minister of Public Works, equal to five per cent. of amount of tender, must accompany each tender.
