

ERRATA.

In the absence of the Editor last week a few errors were overlooked. In the Editorial, for "respector," read "respector" for practical service. The Poetry on the 196th page—for "age" read "The Poetry on the first page, being read in, in MS. was supposed to be original, and was by mistake headed "For the Wesleyan." It was selected from a small volume of choice poetry, entitled "Scenes in a West Indies, &c., By Adeline."

The reader will also please correct as follows a typographical error that occurred in the Rev. E. Evans's Letter which appears in the number for Decr. 22nd.—After the words—"The Rev. John Wesley's Four James of Sermons, and his Notes on the New Testament," in the 2nd column of the 77th page, place a period, instead of a comma, making the sentence end with those words.

"OF INTEREST TO ALL."

Mother's Relief—Indian Discovery.

All mothers anxious to avoid pains, distress and tears are earnestly entreated to calm their fears and allay their nervousness by the use of the extraordinary vegetable production. Those who will carefully observe its virtues, must approve of it in their hearts and will feel its most lenient duty to alleviate distress by a safe and certain method, which is, the use of the Mother's Relief.
