order to that effect from the Officer commanding the said Troops or Militia, or a requisition in writing from the Officer commanding that cantonment, for such and so many carriages as may be requisite and necessary for the said Troops or Militia, is hereby required to issue his Warrant to such person or persons as may be possessed of carriages, horses or oxen, within his jurisdiction, requiring him or them to furnish the same for the service aforesaid, and if he refuse to furnish the same after receiving such Warrant, they may be impressed and taken for such service; but no such carriage, horse or ox, or any carriage, horse or ox, mentioned in the previous sections of this Act, shall be compelled to proceed more than thirty miles, unless in cases where other carriages, horses or oxen cannot immediately be had to replace them; and such carriages, horses or oxen shall be paid for at the usual rate of hire.

LXXXIV. In cases of emergency, when it may be necessary to provide proper and speedy means for the conveyance by Railway or by water, of the said Troops of Her Majesty or Militia, and also of their ammunition, stores, provisions and baggage, any Justice of the Peace of and in the locality where such Troops or Militia may be either on a march or in cantonment, upon receiving a requisition in writing from the Officer commanding such Troops or Militia, for such railway cars and engines, boats or other craft as may be requisite for the conveyance of the said Troops or Militia and their ammunition, stores, provisions and baggage, may issue and is hereby required to issue his warrant to such person or persons as may be possessed of such railway cars and engines, boats or other craft within his jurisdiction, requiring him or them to furnish the same for that service, at and after the rate of payment to be allowed by the said Justice, not exceeding the usual rate of hire for such railway cars and engines, boats or other craft; and if any such person or persons shall neglect or refuse, after receiving such Warrant, to furnish such railway cars or engines or his or their boats or craft for that service, such railway cars or engines, boats or other craft may be impressed and taken for such service: Provided always, that nothing herein shall be construed to impair the effect of any Act obliging any Railway Company to convey such Troops, Militia, and other articles aforesaid, in any manner or on any terms and conditions therein mentioned, or to release any such Company from any obligation or penalty thereby imposed.

PENALTIES.

Refusing to make rolls, &c.

LXXXV. Any Officer of Militia refusing or neglecting to make or transmit, as herein prescribed, any Roll or Return, or copy thereof, required by this Act or by any lawful authority, or wilfully making any false statement in any such Roll, Return, or copy, shall thereby incur a penalty of ten pounds, for each offence.
