TORONTO LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

TORONTO, Aug. 10.—With around $.606 cattle on sale at the Union Yards yesterday, the market was considerably lower for all classes. A large number of cattle were on the market from Winnipez and the west, and this naturally had a tendency to make the native Ontario cattle decline, which they did fully $1 per cwt.

Good butcher cows were fairly steady, but the medium and common were much lower, and even at the sharp decline the suyers were not apparently over anxious.

The buil trade, on the other hand, is satisfactory for the better class of handy-weight animals.

The lamb trade, with a heavy run, was slow and lower, the break in the price running all the way from $1 to 1.50 per cwt. with the bulk of the sales running around 15c, and a few oxira handy, light ones selling for a little more money.

The hog market is quoted at 19 &c.
