FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1851.
The Annual Festival of the Mechanics' Institute came off on Tuesday evening last, with great eclat, in the large Halls of the Bourse-Mercantile. The platform for visitors and spectators was placed in the usual situation, on the front wall of the Eastern Hall, and opposite to it was placed a stage for the Band. In addition to the Military Band, there was a Piano-Forte and a Melodion, (the latter from the Manufactory of Mr. S. Whitten). Mr. Anderson, and a party of musical gentlemen, contributed much to the gratification of the company, by the performance of a selection of the most popular pieces, &c. Mr. Millard, presiding at the Piano-Forte. The Hall was beautifully decorated with evergreens, flags, and banners, and the walls were hung with pictures, for the most part the work of Montreal Artists. Around part of the room, were placed the tables on which were arranged various specimens of the industrial skill of our fellow-citizens. The following is a list of some of the most prominent articles exhibited:—A pair of drawers, of fine fabric, from Reeves, Notre Dame Street; crackers, from Clark, Eliza; specimens of picture framing and gilding, from Carrière, Notre Dame Street; and another of a miniature iron of carved wood to imitate ivy leaves—a very elegant piece of workmanship; specimens of book-binding from the establishment of Messrs. R. & A. Miller, St. Francis Xavier Street, which were really splendid, and attracted universal notice and admiration; of up-
