DID NOT STAND

WILLIAM MCKINLEY

Elected President of the United States of America on the 6th Inst.

Skagway, November 12, 7:40 p. m.—McKinley has carried everything and won by a larger majority than he did four years ago.

Indiana in Line.

Indianapolis, Nov. 6, via Skagway, Nov. 12.—7:40 p. m.—Indiana's vote was close, but is safe for McKinley. Full returns from rural districts not expected before tomorrow, but will not materially effect McKinley's majority, which is less than 28,000.

Skagway, Nov. 12.—8:45 p. m.—The Seattle Times, a hot Bryan paper, of the 7th concedes McKinley's election, but takes comfort in the threadbare plea that later returns may change the result.

The same paper admits that Greater New York was carried by a majority of 146,000. The returns of the Times are not to be relied upon.

From other sources aside from the Seattle papers it is learned that McKinley has an overwhelming majority. Ohio was close, giving but 17,000 for McKinley.

Michigan experienced a regular landslide, McKinley sweeping the state by a majority of from 90,000 to 100,000.

Maryland gave McKinley 10,000.

while Virginia is in the same column with 8,000 majority.

Nebraska, Bryan's own state, rolls up small majority for McKinley.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

E. and A. Billevean were in court on the charge of having forcibly and unlawfully taken possession of a cabin on 35 below on Hunker, the property of Geo. E. Wilkins. As the prosecution was not present, and as it was stated that it had been duly notified that the cause would be on for hearing this morning, it was, therefore, dismissed.

It looked as though the Standard Theater Company was to play an engagement in police court this morning as all its members were there, including the leading lady, who wrings her hands and says: "Oh Love! Oh Fate!! Oh Death!" the low browed villain who hisses: "At last you are in my power!!" the black-faced comedian who runs errands in daylight, all were there, but the engagement was a short one. The cause of this appearance of theatrical people so early in the morning was due to the fact that Kid Fields had issued some worthless paper, a check for $50, which had been passed upon the theater people. Fields had been arrested and was out on bond and was not present when the case was called. He was represented by an attorney who asked that the case be continued. In behalf of the prosecution, Theodore Eggert, manager of the Standard, stated that there was no desire on its part to prosecute the case and, after instructing the attorney to warn his client to be more careful in his future conduct the case was dismissed.

Entertainment Tonight.

The concert and literary entertainment to be given tonight in the Dawson reading and recreation-room will be fully up to the high standard to which these semi-monthly entertainments have already attained. Judge Craig will preside as chairman. The following program will be presented:

Pianoforte solo, Scotch selections, Mrs. Alex McDonald; song, "The Shadow of Pines," Mrs. F. Maltby; song, "Flow, Gently Sweet Afton," Dr. A. G. MacDonald; recitation, "Dialect Sketch," Mr. Frank Johnston; song, "Love's Sorrows," Mrs. N. Devis; song, "Dawn," H. E. A. Robertson; violin solo, "A Torto ti Lagi Amor," Miss Elsie Larson; song, "Song of the Robin" (Bischoff) Miss Emma Allen; recitation, selected, J. S. Cowan; song, "Jack's the Boy for Work," C. W. MacPherson; zither solo, selected, Mr. Harding; recitation, "The Money Musk," Miss J. A. Killeen. "God Save the Queen."

The performance will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Snow Storm is General.

Reports from all over the district so far as have been yet received indicate that the fall of snow thus far has been uniform and unusually heavy for this season of the year. From Dawson all the way to the summit of White Pass a heavy snow fall is reported, and the same report comes from every creek in the Klondike. Those who have been in the country since '94 say that never in their experience has there been so much snow on the ground by the middle of November as there is now. Extremely high water is predicted for next spring and an abundance for sluicing purposes all through the summer. As one present result of the snow, the roads are now and will continue in first-class condition.

An American Author.

Hunker Creek.

Editor Nugget:

Dear Sir—Will you please decide this bet in the Nugget. A bets B $50 that the author of "After the Ball" is an Englishman and that the song was written in England.

B bets that the author was an American and was written in the United States. Very truly, READER OF THE NUGGET.

(The author of the above song is Chas. K. Harris, an American citizen.—ED.)

Needed in Dawson.

"Another thing," said the street railway advocate in a tone of protest, "a slight thing, perhaps, but it all goes to show how we are discriminated against and how little our philanthropy is appreciated."

"Your philanthropy!" echoed the critical citizen, as he gasped and clutched a railing.

"Yes, sir. You hire dog catchers and secure high salaried people to control their movements and see that stray canines are properly slain. It costs a lot of money. Now, our cars have hit and slaughtered countless stray dogs, for which service we have never collected a single penny. And yet we have never had so much as a vote of thanks from a citizens' association."—Washington Star.

A Public Warning.

There is a big notice posted on the front of the postoffice building this morning warning people against using water from the Yukon opposite or below town, or out of the slough back of the barracks for household purposes, and prescribing a fine of an amount not to exceed $500 as a penalty for so doing.

Would Be a Warm Time.

A well known Dawson business man was heard to say in a barber shop Saturday evening: "If Bryan is elected in the States and the Conservatives win in Canada there will not be sufficient whisky in Dawson to properly celebrate the joint victories."

Injunction Against the Water Company Was Dismissed This Morning

BY JUDGE CRAIG IN OPEN COURT.

Case Will Come Up for Hearing in Near Future.

HE BROKE JAIL IN JUNE

And Will Be Heard on That Charge Tomorrow—List of Cases for the Week.

Justice Craig this morning rendered a decision in the injunction case of Mrs. McConnell against the water company.

The motion to dissolve the previously granted injunction was argued Saturday, and it was thought by many that the injunction would stand, despite the fact that an ordinance had been passed by the Yukon council which practically disposed of the whole matter, inasmuch as it made the water company liable for damages, although this was contrary to the decision rendered when the injunction was granted.

This morning Justice Craig dissolved the injunction, but ordered an immediate trial of the case on its merits. The hearing of the case will probably take place either tomorrow or the next day, as the court has some time at its disposal before the jury cases commence Thursday.

Charles Daniels, a prisoner serving 18 months time for theft, and whose time expired at 11 o'clock this morning, was brought before Justice Dugas for sentence for having broken jail early last June. Hearing of his case was postponed till 10:30 tomorrow morning.

The case of Bonfield against Hense, a civil action growing out of the recently dismissed criminal charge, will come up sometime today.

The case of Hurt vs. Wilson has been adjourned, and the cases of Fields and Pioneer, Holden and Caforena and Donatelli against Ames have been dropped.

The case of Robertson vs. Gares has been settled out of court, which leaves only ten civil cases on the week's peremptory list, which is as follows: Dodds vs. B. L. & K. N. Co, Morgan vs. Wright, Dupavy vs. E. N. A., Smith vs. Carmody, Berryman vs. Spencer, Hawkins vs. Wright, Morrison vs. Bourke, Madden vs. Ripstein, Crofoot vs. Trevoarra, Albers vs. Toumeau, Binet vs. O'Brien.

$50.00 Reward.
