Digby Courier—Mrs. F. O. Best is looking for her husband Dr. F. O. Best, of Providence, on the 31st. He will leave for St. John on the 1st of August and if all things suit, he may make that city his future home. Dr. Best is a throat, eye and ear specialist and has attained much success during his residence at Providence.

The Rev. H. L. Kinsman, of the Baptist congregation, severs his connection in a few weeks. He has been with us for three years and has been an efficient and faithful pastor and the church has added large ly its members during his pastorate. His sermons show the hard work of the student and any congregation wishing the services of a capable and strenuous workman who rightly divides the word of truth, cannot do better than to employ this servant of the Most High.

Berwick Soldier Paralyzed By Bullet

Bridgetown, Aug. 4—While in town for a few hours, Private K. I. DeMell, of Berwick was interviewed by the Herald correspondent. On the 29th of February last this soldier had was half way up Vimy Ridge, in an outpost. Three feet underground he raised his periscope for a sight. It was immediately peppered with bullets. One struck the frozen parapet and glancing to his helmet tore through to his skull, gouged out a hole in the top of his head and left him paralyzed. He is slowly recovering after months in the hospital, and has been discharged.—Herald.

BILL PASSES SECOND READING IN SENATE WITH 29 MAJORITY

More than a dozen Liberal Senators, including Senator Bostock, their leader voted for the Measure

Ottawa, Aug. 2—The government's Military Service Bill passed its second reading in the Senate at an early hour this morning by a majority of 29. This astonishing large majority was entirely unlooked for, more than a dozen Liberal senators, including Senator Bostock, their leader supporting the Bill. The amendment requesting that the Bill be not go into operation until after a general election was defeated by a majority of nine.

KINGS COUNTY WILL "CARRY ON"

The public meeting held at the Band Stand on Saturday evening was very largely attended from all parts of the County. The fervid utterances of each of the speakers found a response in the hearts of the listeners and there was no doubt but that the citizens of Kings Co. are united in their determination to prosecute this terrible, cruel and devastating war to a successful finish.

The Band of the 246th furnished a choice program of music and received liberal applause for their work. To announce in our columns that Bandmaster Lloyd and his associates will furnish music is sufficient to draw a large crowd. Mayor Felton presided and explained the purpose of the gathering on this the third anniversary of the war and expressed the thought that the people here were united in their determination to prosecute the war and give aid to our lads at the front until victory and peace were assured.

Rev. T. C. Mellor led in a short prayer.

H. H. Wickwire, M.P.P., was the first speaker and his whole address was a patriotic and able effort, with the true ring of a fixed determination for Canada to stay in the war till the finish with men, munitions, brains, wealth, etc. He recited the leading events of the two years since a similar anniversary meeting was held at Kentville in which he addressed the people. These important events were: Death of the great Lord Kitchener, who had made Britain's citizen soldiers in a short time the equal of any trained troops; abdication of the Czar and Russia trying to govern now by equality of law and equality of people; the death of Francis Joseph; the passing out of office of Premier Asquith and the entrance in of Lloyd George and also the entrance of the United States into the conflict.

The present was not a time for rejoicing as our countrymen were laying down their lives in Europe. It was a time for stock-taking and a marshalling of all our resources for carrying on the war to a proper ending. He did not believe that Canada, Nova Scotia, or even in Kings County we had yet learned the full value of liberty and until liberty means to you and me will we be willing to sacrifice as we should.

Government by the people is now on trial in this war. If the enemy wins democracy will be a failure—we will have a dictator. A juster cause for our united efforts never before existed. We are doing much now but not enough. This is a national war and everyone has a joint responsibility and national duty to perform. Let us affirm unanimously that we desire and will work for a speedy termination. Applause.

Mr. Wickwire moved the following resolution:

Resolved—"That, on the anniversary of the declaration of a righteous war, this meeting of the Citizens of Kings Co., Nova Scotia records its firm conviction of the necessity of continuing to a victorious end the struggle in maintenance of those ideals of Liberty and Justice which are the common and sacred cause of the Allies."

Major (Dr.) Cutten of Wolfville was greeted with applause as he rose to second the resolution. He feelingly spoke of the longing hearts of mothers, wives, sisters, etc., for peace to come and their loved ones return from the war. The war was not merely a test of men, money, and munitions, but it was a question of national character as to whether we or the Germans should first be quit- ters. In an eloquent way the speaker told of what real liberty was. The question of our national character was whether we should carry on and maintain the qualities of our forefathers who stayed in the race until the end and fought to a finish, and made a great country out of Canada. This is the anniversary of a righteous war, and if not righteous we have no business to be in it. Dr. Cutten's short remarks certainly stirred to the depths, the whole audience.

Major Barry W. Roscoe was next called on to speak and as he rose a great shout of cheers led by Rev. T. C. Mellor greeted him. The vast audience gazed intently into the face of one who had by his ability in leadership of his troops, in most dangerous and trying circumstances won high recognition from the King himself and brought glory and credit to his native town and country, as well as to himself. Proud indeed were the mothers, wives and friends of our lads as they heard him tell of what Nova Scotia's boys were doing at the front. Among the boys from Canada there were none truer, more staunch or steady than those who came from our Province (Applause). They were every ready to go into the most dangerous places and did it willingly for the cause of liberty and the safety of our homeland. He was proud to lead such noble men. But while the boys were away fighting and striving to keep things running well, we here at home must give them all assistance or they would not be able to continue long. He wanted to go back soon to France with this message from the homeland that the people here were united in their determination to continue sending not only the comforts which have been going to the lads abroad but also in giving our best effort untidly to filling up the rapidly depleting ranks.

Many were disappointed in not seeing and hearing Capt. Wickwire.

The motion was put and answered with a great shout of awe from all parts of the audience.

SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

Our local papers have recently contained the doings and sins of those who occupy the high places in our town, that Sunday is no different from any other day. The greatest sin is the influence they are showing to those who are placed in less favorable circumstances. The responsibility of the morality of the town rests upon the former and not on the latter.

Last Sunday there was heard on Prospect Street ragtime music from an inferior Gramophone practically nearly all day, notwithstanding the fact, that there is sickness in nearby houses, and thus causing annoyance, besides breaking the Lord's Day. Where there is no thought for the Lord's Day there will be no thought for the feeling of others. The moral conscience of Kentville seems to be getting to a low standard.—Com.

SAD ACCIDENT

AT MIDDLETON.

The following tells of an accident to a former Kentville boy, son of Conductor and Mrs. Conrad:

Middleton, Aug. 4—A very painful accident occurred here this evening. Carl, the young son of Conductor W. H. Conrad, was jumping on a locomotive which was shunting, when he slipped and fell under the engine.

The locomotive passed over him severing one foot. He displayed wonderful pluck while Doctors Miller and Kirkpatrick were preparing to dress the limb. Carl stood well the ordeal of having the limb dressed and the prospects for his recovery are good.
