Mr. C. D. Bogart of Maple Leaf Farm, Plum Hollow, was a caller at the "Reporter Office" last week. While here he secured a large number of orders for his famous maple syrup. Mr. Bogart usually taps about 1400 trees and has an annual output of from 300 to 400 gallons of syrup, which is put up in cans to suit the requirements of purchasers. Mr. Bogart has made maple syrup for over quarter of a century.

Resolution of Condolence

The Shareholders of the Plum Hollow and Eloida Ind. Telephone Co., in session, passed the following resolution, a copy of which was sent to the relatives of Mr. Geo. Tackaberry.

Athens, March 9th, 1923
Mr. Charles Tackaberry—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tackaberry and Family.

Dear Friends—The Shareholders of the Plum Hollow and Eloida Independent Telephone Co., Ltd., at their 14th annual session, take this their first opportunity of recording their profound grief and sincere regret at the loss sustained by this company in the death of its president—Mr. Geo. Tackaberry and extend on behalf of all the members a resolution of condolence to you—our late president's relatives. There was no man in our Company more ready at all times to do his part at any sacrifice for our cause.

At the formation of our company in 1909, Mr. Tackaberry was re-elected president, which office, he filled efficiently, until his death, May 12th, 1922. A nobler, more generous and more honorable man never held the high esteem of all who enjoyed his acquaintance.

We therefore request you to accept our heartfelt sympathy.

Signed in behalf of the P. L. and E. Ind. Telephone Co.

Temperance Lake

On Thursday afternoon, Inspector Taber and his sleuths visited the premises of one of our citizens and their search was rewarded by finding a small still, which Inspector Taber described as the nearest he had seen. Considerable sympathy is felt for the victim, as it is not thought he was peddling the dope but making it for home use.

BEATTY TROPHY NOT AT STAKE WHEN TWO HOCKEY TEAMS MET

Westport-Newboro Game Merely An Exhibition.

NEWS NOTES OF NEWBORO

Riley Houghton Appointed a Guard at the Ontario Hospital Here.

Newboro, March 13.—When Westport and Newboro hockey teams took part in the tournament held on Friday last at the Brockville Arena, the game which Newboro was not for the possession of the Beatty Cup, as has been stated. The rules governing this trophy specify that the game must be played on the holder's ice.

About fifty hockey fans from here accompanied the local sextette to Brockville. In spite of the fact that the Newboro team had not been on skates for the past three weeks they made a remarkable showing and surprised their numerous supporters when they defeated the fast Westport team in the first game by 2 to 1, but lost out to the better conditioned Caseys in the last by 1 to 0 after a strenuous half hour's play.

The last game being obliged to start in the second game with only ten minutes rest, whereas the Caseys had 35 and had only to battle against the weaker Athens team in their first encounter. Westport and Newboro put up a fast exhibition. The Westport team was strengthened by two Ottawa men but their presence did not keep the locals from victory. Newboro had on their line-up Lake who has been on their line-up for the past five seasons but is now living at Point Abino and he played his usual hard game and was in the fray every minute. Knapp, who played goal for the first time this season, put up a remarkable exhibition in the nets and stopped several that looked like sure goals. He had good protection from McCarthy and Williams who put up great games, both on the defensive and offensive. McCarthy being responsible for one of the goals scored against Westport. Taylor, at left wing, was also good and was credited with notching the deciding goal on a shot from the side. M. Hull, though on but a short time, did some fast skating and clever stick handling.

Death of Mrs. Fleming.

On Monday night the remains of Mrs. George Fleming, of Kingston, were conveyed to Newboro via C. N. R. and placed in the vault here. The deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Margaret McDonald, was born in Newboro and lived here until her marriage to Mr. Fleming some years ago, after which they took up residence in Kingston where she lived until her death. The deceased had only been ill a short time with pneumonia. Besides her husband she leaves four sons, William of Quebec, George, of Tilsonburg, E. C. and Melville of Kingston, and one daughter, Mrs. Steacy, of Brockville. Another son, Gordon, was killed in France in 1917. She was an Anglican in religion and took an active part in all church work. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the family in their sad bereavement.

A Noble Citizen Now At Rest!

Early Saturday morning, March 10th, 1923, the death occurred of Mr. Charles Tackaberry, at his home in Plum Hollow. He attained the remarkable age of 85 years and spent all his life in the township of Bastard, where he followed the occupation of farmer and was one of the most successful in Leeds county. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson, Athens. A son, Mr. Geo. Tackaberry died last spring. Mr. Frank Tackaberry, Reeve of Bastard and Burgess South, is a grandson.

The late Mr. Tackaberry was held in the highest esteem by a large circle of friends. He was a public spirited citizen and a noble character—a pioneer who placed honor and virtue above the external advantages of rank and fortune. In religion, he was a Baptist—a member of the Plum Hollow congregation, earnestly endeavoring to live a consistent Christian life. He has now passed to his reward and his works will follow him. In all the uncertainties of life, faith is the anchor. The funeral was held on Monday—interment taking place in the Plum Hollow cemetery.
