A LOYAL MAJORITY

Shows its Strength in the Cape House of Assembly.

Cape Town, Aug. 15.—In the Cape house of assembly yesterday, by a vote of 46 against 38 the motion of J. W. Sauer, former commissioner of public works, that the house appoint a select committee to inquire into the administration of martial law in the colony was recommended. Mr. Schreiner, former premier, and Mr. Solomon, attorney-general in the Schreiner Cabinet, voted with the government against the motion. This was the first crucial division of the session and resulted in a large majority for the government of Sir John Gordon Spragg than had been expected. The passage of the treason bill is now assured.

AN UNHEALTHY COUNTRY.

Trooper Frank Peck, writing home to his father from Pretoria, laments the lack of letters from home which he says go astray on the way out. He thinks that fever will be rampant around Pretoria in a short time, owing to the large number of dead men and horses which lie unburied all over the country. In his opinion Johannesburg and Pretoria are as fine cities as Toronto.

WILL PUT UP A FIGHT

Against the Railways if Backed Up and Not Otherwise.

At the last meeting of the city council a communication was read from the board of health in which it was stated that the C. P. R. and G. T. R. cattle yards and hog pens were a public nuisance. The board asked, therefore, that the council do something towards granting relief to the long suffering residents in the immediate vicinity of these pens. Mayor Smith, in referring the matter to the property committee, spoke with considerable feeling, and concluded by saying that he hoped the committee would take vigorous measures towards wiping out this crying nuisance.

When Ald. Fleming was asked yesterday morning as to what his committee would do in the matter he said: "Of course this hog pen nuisance has been brought up time after time and committees have made reports galore upon it, but the council has always decided to take no action just at present, or has referred it back, etc., etc., until the agitation has finally dropped. Now, the Mayor has set the seal of his approbation upon a course involving vigorous measures, and the prospects are that the coming session of the property committee will see a report recommending that the much desired vigorous measures be resorted to. I think myself that we will have to consult the city solicitor first, as these big corporations are very likely to make a fight in case the city attempts to compel them to remove the pens. However, if we are assured that the Mayor and council are at our backs the property committee will not shrink from its duty to protect the rights of the citizens."

When Ald. Liddy was told what the chairman had said, he remarked: "The doctor is quite right. I am of the same opinion myself, but what can we do if the property committee is treated as it invariably has been during the entire year? At nearly all our meetings the chairman and myself are the only members present. At the important issues of the year, from which there was a chance of trouble arising, have been foisted upon the shoulders of the property committee by the Mayor and council, and then, when we go before the council with our reports and recommendations, the Mayor is the first one to sit on us. What can you expect from encouragement like that? If the council would assist us we would go into this new trouble with energy, but you see how it is. We would in the end have to bear the brunt of the storm while those who should back us up would cry us down with might and main."

SUCCESSFUL EXCURSION.

The William St. Baptist church held their annual picnic yesterday. They went to Belle Isle on the steamboat, and all enjoyed one of the pleasant outings of the season. Hugh Macaulay, superintendent of the Sunday school, and the Rev. Thos. Cornish were busy all day looking after the comforts of the excursionists. The lunch stand, in charge of Mrs. Albert Mann, Mrs. W. H. Benson, Mrs. Hugh Macaulay, Mrs. Walters and Miss Arnold. The ice cream stand was in charge of Mrs. James Odershaw, Miss Alice Cornhill, Miss Minny Odershaw and Miss Mary Green. The confectionery stand was in charge of James E. Odershaw, Matthew Side, Murray Clark and others. Superintendent Macaulay stated this morning that the finances had not yet been figured up, but there would be over $100 clear on the excursion. The committee all deserve great praise for their work. Everybody was well served, but unfortunately the ice cream and other confections were exhausted early in the afternoon. The whole day passed off without a single mishap, and the off without a single mishap, and the city shortly after nine.
