Mr E. W. Sawyer, who has been spending some weeks on Prince Edward Island, returned home on Saturday last.

Mr and Mrs W. H. Chase and family returned on Wednesday from Digby, where they have been spending a few weeks.

Mr C. F. Crandall left on Thursday last for a trip to New Brunswick, during which he will visit different parts of the Province.

Dr. and Mrs R. V. Jones have returned from a visit of some weeks to Prince Edward Island, having had a most enjoyable visit.

Mrs W. C. King, of Chipman, N. B., has rented Mr C. E. Star's residence on Glasgow avenue and intends moving to Wolfville in a few weeks.

Mrs DeBish left on Saturday last to visit friends at Lakeville, after which she intends to go to Upper Alton, Ill. to spend the winter with her son, Dr. A. K. DeBish.

Mr Andrew Whitney, of New York, who is visiting his parents, Mr and Mrs G. W. Whitney, of Billtown, for a few weeks, was in town on Wednesday and paid the ACADIAN a call.

Mr Hedley DeWolf arrived in Wolfville last week, after an absence of eight years, and is spending a short vacation at his old home here. Mr DeWolf is now located in Boston, where he is engaged in the drug business.

Miss Tina Caldwell, B. A., leaves Wolfville the last of August to take a position as teacher in DeMille's Ladies' College, at St. Catharines, Ont. She will fill the position lately vacated by Miss Faye Caldwell (Mrs Stuart). We congratulate Miss Caldwell on her success.

Mr E. S. Harrington, of Kentville, passed through this town on Wednesday en route for Brussels, where he intends spending several years in the study of music and languages. Mr Harrington is possessed of more than ordinary ability, and is already known to many as a violinist of considerable merit. Mr Harrington is a brother of Mrs Taylor, of this town, and a former student of Acadia University.

The ACADIAN was favored by a pleasant call from Mr W. W. Buchanan during his visit to Wolfville. Mr Buchanan is one of the brightest journalists of Canada, and has had a large experience. He is besides a thoroughly patriotic Canadian. Both he and Miss Walton made many friends in Wolfville, who will be glad to welcome them should they ever return to our town. Mr Buchanan was entertained during his visit by Capt. Tingley, and Miss Walton by Mrs DeWitt.

Miss Blanche Taylor is spending the week at the Berwick camp meeting.

Mr George Salford arrived from his home in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., last Saturday, and is at "Acacia Villa." He intends to resume his studies when the school re opens.

Acacia Villa school has not only received a fresh coat of paint on the outside, but all the classrooms have been newly painted, papered and alabastined, as well as one section of the dormitories. Mr Patterson will have five assistants this year, all of whom will reside in the school. Mrs Jessie Cox, of Cambridge, has been secured as matron. A large number of new students have already engaged to come, as well as the usual proportion of former ones. Short-hand and typewriting have been added to the curriculum and classes will be organized at the beginning of the school year.

Ladies' Cotton Under Vests—5, 8, and 10 cents each. GLASGOW HOUSE.

Dr. A. J. McKenna has purchased that fine building lot from Mr G. V. Hand just west of the telephone central. The old building in which the customs office is now located will be removed and Dr. McKenna will erect a commodious building thereon. The lower floor will be fitted up for a store or stores and the second floor will be occupied as dental parlors by Dr. McKenna. The new building will be quite an addition to the town and we congratulate the doctor on the undertaking.

3 for $-3 pairs Ladies' Cotton Hose for 25c. GLASGOW HOUSE.

The changes that Mr L. W. Sleep has had made in his property during the past week have greatly improved its appearance. The fence has been taken away in front and a neat curbing placed in position. The sidewalk has been cleared of all weeds and grass and a broad concrete walk laid from the dwelling to the street. We are glad to see improvements of this kind made as they all tend to beautify the town.
