TOWN TOPICS.

Sudden Weather Changes—New Church Dedicated.

The Chautauque Circle—A Reformatory Needed.

Bad Accident on Black River—St. Mary's Church Quarrel.

December Fashions. December fashion sheets free to all, at John J. Wells.

Christmas Services. The members of the Free Baptist Sunday School and church are preparing a special Christmas service for Christmas Sunday evening.

A Successful Trip. Mr. Geo. Palmer has just returned from up river, where he had a most successful trip for Mr. John Wiley, who is attending his business well and profitably into the up river section.

Edison Electric. The communications and power holders of St. Paul's Church have elected the following as assistant elders: Dr. Bridges, Jackson Adams, Samuel McFarlane, C. S. Everett, Albert Sanderson and D. H. Forgan. The induction will take place next Sunday morning.

The Police Record. The notorious Johnny Jones, aged twelve, has been sent to jail for being drunk on the streets.

Two Lads were being drunk last night for creating a disturbance on the streets.

Musical and Literary Entertainment. A literary and musical entertainment will be given at the new Kingsclere agricultural hall on Friday evening. The programme includes an address by Mr. G. B. Parkin, instrumental and vocal readings, tableaux, etc. The object of the entertainment is to raise funds for the school library. A number from the city purpose attending.

Weather Indications. Toronto, Nov. 29.—Probable rain for Maritime Provinces. Fresh to strong west to northwesterly winds, gradually clearing and somewhat colder.

Wassenaar, Nov. 29.—Indications, fair weather, slight changes in temperature, light to fresh northerly winds, becoming variable.

Weather Bulletin. The accuracy with which the weather bulletins foretell the changes, is attracting widespread attention. When the weather probabilities were first recorded here, few took notice of them, but now they are beginning to be carefully studied and are fast becoming a useful and popular institution. They rarely ever miss the mark.

Out in Montana. Among the successful frontiersmen in Montana is Mr. George T. Scully, who left the city several years ago. He is stationed at Montana and is carrying on a very large sawmilling and manufacturing jewelry business at that place. Mr. Scully is a young man and will succeed wherever he goes.

An Emigrant Hunt Needed. Mr. John McElroy, of St. Mary's, is talking strongly of putting up steam grills and saw mills at St. Mary's end of the bridge. A great deal of money can be made in this way, and it would be a great accommodation for farmers, who could thereby make the job of marketing and selling their produce a great deal easier.

A Reformatory Needed. With regard to the recent exposure in the St. John's press of crime and immorality among the youth, Police Master McElroy has a GLASSER report this morning that steps ought to be taken at once to provide a reformatory. Scarcely a week passes in this city but that the need of such an institution is felt. The establishment of a reformatory for St. John would answer, he said, for the whole province.

The Weather and the River. Three times the river has been over opposite the city, this month, and still the river is free from ice and navigation unimpeded. In the early part of the month the older inhabitants were endeavoring to recall to mind the time when the river closed as early as it did this year, and they are beginning to scratch their heads for the late closing dates for commerce. The late weather which has been here, and which are beginning to scratch their heads for the late closing dates for commerce. Novel Miniature Village. With the approach of winter the Fredericton Boom Co. are at work making a miniature village in the direction of getting things in readiness for the winter's operations on the boom. The plan is to make a miniature village in the direction of getting things in readiness for the winter's operations on the boom. The plan is to make a miniature village in the direction of getting things in readiness for the winter's operations on the boom.

The Presbyterian Church at New Brunswick. The new Presbyterian church at New Brunswick, dedicated on Sabbath afternoon last, the Rev. J. H. Stewart, of St. Paul's church, presided on the dedication service, and being assisted in the services by the Rev. Mr. Crook. The reverend gentlemen chose as his text, "This is the house of God and the very gate of heaven." The service was interesting and well attended throughout. The church was filled to its utmost capacity, several persons from the city being present among the number. A choir which rendered excellent music and which sang with heart, consisted of Miss Ella Shaw, organist; Miss Ella Shaw, Mrs. Shaw, and Mrs. Green, soprano; Miss M. B. Harris, of Fredericton, alto; Mr. W. Shaw, tenor; Mr. Samuel Stewart, bass. At the conclusion of the exercises the Rev. Mr. Stewart congratulated the people of the settlement upon the success of their undertaking, upon reading for themselves so suitable a place of worship.

The church is a very neat one and reflects great credit upon the Presbyterians of New Brunswick, and in their zeal felt that they must erect and support a church of their own.

The collection at the dedication service amounted to something over $30.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

St. Andrew's Day tomorrow. A sudden fall in the temperature. The pluck walks for the winter have been laid about the Parliament buildings. The city storage shed is in course of erection on the water works grounds at West End.

A police cart pulled by two strolling ball dogs attracted no little attention on Queen street yesterday.

The Baptists of Gibson have a fancy sale and evening, in aid of their new church. The farmers have been taking advantage of the open weather and are getting a good share of their ploughing done in preparation for next season's operations.

A police marching down Queen street through the mud, followed by a well-trimmed span of dogs, which were hauling his seeds and chaff on a little cart, attracted the attention of most people on the street yesterday morning.

His Last Correspondence. Notes from "The Gleaner" by himself. Mr. St. Paul, Oct. 23.—Telling at present, every prospect of a heavy thaw. We have at present eighteen inches of snow, with every thing frozen up solid; splendid working in woods.

We are anticipating, next spring, in a short time, as game gets more abundant every day apparently. Four correspondents in one day four carriages, two deer, a moose, and countless numbers of partridges, and they were close to a road frequently traveled by men and teams.

Mr. Nicholas Gilman, who has been confined to bed for some time, is slowly recovering, and is again in his accustomed place among the crew. Patterson, who had been confined a short time since respects to be at work again in a few days.

Considerable strife prevails as to who among the teamsters will come in ahead with the weekly scale. One or two reached one thousand feet on one side, which is considered good work, in fact we think it will not be beaten on same kind of a chance. The members of this firm are all practical lumbermen and understand every detail of the business having followed the business successfully for about thirty years.

We have not yet had the result of the election petition. We await patiently for it and hope that right will prevail in the end. The people in this part of country are all liberally to a man, and consequently get along fairly in times political with our crew.

It is indeed and to publish the obituary notice of the writer of the above correspondence, is the same issue that these notes appear, written by him the evening before his death. For the last two months Mr. Sanford Brown has furnished the readers of The Gleaner with interesting local sketches and the details of York County men in the Quebec lumber woods. Little did he think when he penned the above notes, in the best of health and spirits, that his corpse would arrive here as soon as his correspondence.—Gleaner.

WILKES INSTANTLY. How much more than the lumber woods on Black River. The remains of Sanford Brown, of Bear Island, whose death in the Quebec lumber woods was briefly chronicled in the last issue, arrived in town last evening by the Northern & Western. Mr. Geo. F. Burke and Mr. Gilman, who arrived here with the body, stated that Sanford was accidentally killed on Friday morning, while at work on a log of cedar. The blow of the lumber on which he was at work caused him to be hurled down the embankment, the rolling logs striking him about the head, killing him instantly. A Frenchman who was at work on the log with him, jumped from the rolling logs and escaped a similar death. The Frenchman stated that he had been five minutes in the spot where Mr. Brown lay, and he showed no signs of life. Mr. Burke and Mr. Gilman were working only a few rods away, and they were struck dead by the blow of the log. His body was removed to the camp, and that night it was taken over to the railway station at St. Jean, eighteen miles distant, to be brought home for interment. Mr. Brown, wife of the deceased, who as before stated, had gone over to join her husband in the woods, arrived at St. Jean at six o'clock in the evening, expecting her husband to meet her there. A few hours after her arrival at St. Jean, the dead body of her husband was brought to the station. The woman, from home and among strangers, could scarcely be reconciled when she saw her husband's body. The death so sudden and unexpected, of one who was a general favorite with the crew, has cast a feeling of the deepest gloom. The large crew of the Gilman Bros. on Black River in the Quebec woods, are made up entirely of York County men, a large number of whom are from Bear Island. The remains were sent to Fredericton last evening by a number of deceased's friends from Bear Island and immediately taken up river. The funeral takes place at Lower Prince William this afternoon.

A GREAT DEMONSTRATION. In memory of the "Mancheville Martyr" killed by the Police—Rev. Mr. McElroy. LUNenburg, Nov. 27.—An attempt made today to hold a demonstration in honor of the Manchester martyr was suppressed by the police. The unveiling of a statue to commemorate the hanging of the man was set down as a portion of the programme. Fearing interference with the statue, a guard was stationed at the entrance, and during the night, Mr. McElroy, of New York, was chosen to preside and to address the people. The police then drew their batons and made an onslaught upon the crowd. This was answered by stones. The crowd dispersed and subsequently wherever groups were found assaulting the police charged them and seized their flags. In the encounter a number of people were hurt. Troops now occupy the thoroughfares. The mayor and other municipal officials are actively engaged in quelling the people.

To-night a crowd stoned and hooted the police, who cleared the street with batons and bayonets. They met with great resistance and many constables were injured. The wounded conveyed to a hospital. The police searched recklessly. The windows of hotels in the streets where the trouble occurred were filled with shot. Many taunted the police who replied through staffs, stones and breaking a number of windows. Thirty persons wounds were dressed.

Drum, Nov. 27.—Twelve thousand persons assembled at Glenview cemetery, today, in honor of the Manchester martyr. Dr. David in a speech said the martyr would have voted a pension to John Isacari. Dr. David unveiled a monument erected at his expense, inscribed to the memory of John Isacari, a tribute of gratitude from one who had helped to release from an English prison.

Registered Colds. Pain in the chest, and all diseases of the lungs, are cured by using Allen's Lung Balsam.

Twice Married.

Both Husbands Living in Fredericton.

Wife in Sunbury.

Hasty Courtship and Union of Mary Ann and John Thomas.

Married on the Day They Became Acquainted.

A Disappointed Bridegroom.

The Bride Grooms With all His Worldly Goods.

And Then He Discovers That She Was Married to Another Man.

After a long and successful quietness which has prevailed the police officers for some time past, the authorities have in the meantime been looking for a young man who is believed to have been married to a girl named Annie Bates, who is now living in Sunbury.

of any value. Bernard left town at the time, but it is stated that he has been in the city most of the time since then. Shortly after her husband's death, Mrs. Bernard left rather a reckless life, until she became a convert of the Salvation Army. Several months ago she went to Fredericton Junction to live. She gained the affections of a young man there, and they were about to be married when the young man's people learned something of her previous history while in the city, and the engagement was broken off. Her husband being thus lighted, but not to be undone, she set her affections on the innocent church painter, and set about to win him in the manner described above.

Rev. G. F. Currie, of Fredericton Junction, who was in town this morning, said that the story of their hasty courtship and marriage, as told by Walsh himself, is true and without any doubt. As understood by the people at the Junction, they were made acquainted and married on the same day. He believed that the girl's people lived on Grand Lake.

Mary Bates, daughter of Mr. Bernard, alias Mrs. Walsh is now believed to have made her escape to her old home in the country. Her mother who lived with her at the Junction, went by the name of Mrs. Campbell. There are some who believe that the girl's mother is now in the city, but a name assumed by her, after she had been charged with the crime.
