Students Can Enter At Any Time

As we have no summer vacation, do not divide into terms, and the instruction given is mostly individual.
We do not find it convenient to give a summer vacation, as many of our students are far from home, and would be seriously inconvenienced by an interruption of their work.

Besides, St. John summer weather so cool that a vacation is not necessary.

Messrs C. Gates, Son & Co.,
Dear Sirs:
I have been thinking for some time that I should write and let you know what your

CERTAIN CHECK
has done for my son. He had such a bad case of Cholera that he was reduced to skeleton. We tried Doctors, drugs and every other remedy but without avail. Finally we procured your Certain Check and we believe it saved our boy's life, as it cured after everything else had failed.

Your Life of Man Bitters and Invigorating Syrup also cured me of Lung trouble. I consider that your medicines are all as recommended. Yours truly
W. L. Curtis.

J. D. Rockefeller Never Tasted Rum.

HE IMPORES YOUNG MEN TO EMULATE HIS EXAMPLE AND ABSTAIN FROM DRINK.

Cleveland, July 22—John D. Rockefeller made reference to his past life as one of strict abstinence in which he had never tasted a drop of intoxicating liquor, and he implored young men of the present generation to emulate him at a prayer meeting in the Euclid Avenue Baptist church last night. While others talked of their religious experiences as affecting their own characters, and still others exploited their daily life in the business world as being in strict accord with the Golden Rule's teachings, declaring they never wanted to be rich if they had to make a dollar dishonestly, the richest man in the world sat placidly by and waited his opportunity, which came three minutes before the close of a long meeting. "Since one week ago," said Mr. Rockefeller, "I have carried a weight on my conscience. It has borne me down. I have not enjoyed life."

Some expected it was a prelude to a refutation of Miss Ida Tarbell's recent attacks upon the Oil King's family and his business methods.

"I have been thinking of something I wanted to say at the last prayer meeting," continued the speaker and scores of necks craned to catch a glimpse of him. "I didn't have the courage to say it then. But now that the subject has been touched upon here to night I am not going to let the opportunity go by me."

"Let me impart one thing here to sustain from strong drink. No matter where we go, we see so much of the effects of liquor. Homes and families are ruined by this curse alone. Why will men fall victims to the poison? No man can succeed in business who uses strong drink, and no person has a place in better society who falls to its power."

"Men start out by taking a tippie. These hot days make summer drinks inviting to some, so they take a little. But that little often proves a little too much and men go down to ruin. It is the first little drop that paves the way."

"And right here I can say before my Maker that never in my life have I tasted a drop of drink. Even a little has been far too much for me to bear, and I could not take a drop now. A little is too much for any man."

"And right here, let me say to the women and girls—dear girls—do you realize what a weight of responsibility you have in this world? Have any of you ever thought you were the cause of the downfall of some man? But I have talked long enough. I'll stop."

In New England, 100 years ago it was by no means uncommon for people to provide their coffins long before their death and keep them in their houses, where they could see them every day.

Lost His Life In Heroic Effort

TO SAVE HIS MOTHER AND SISTER FROM A BURNING BUILDING.

New York, July 25—Nathan Newman, 20 years old, lost his life today in a heroic effort to save his mother and sister, who, with a score of others, were for a time in great peril from fire in a Brooklyn tenement house. Half a dozen families, all Hebrews, were sleeping in a double block three story building when the fire started. When the alarm was given the fire had reached practically every floor and the occupants were forced to flee for their lives. Many were too late to go down the stairway before the escape was cut off by the flames. These sought escape by the narrow ladder which leads to the roof. Newman, unable to find his mother and sister, went back into the burning building, found the women and escorted them through the opening. When he tried to follow them, however, the ladder was surrounded by flames. He made a rush through the fire, but was overcome just as he reached the top and fell into the flames to his death. All the other occupants of the house escaped. The loss of the building was $10,000.

William Lilly, the noted astrologer, could foretell the fortunes of other people, but not his own. He married a woman whom he himself declared to be of the temper of Mars. She left him, and she and her relatives incited suit against him, and he relates with tears, almost $5,000.

Building Work On North Shore.

CONTRACTOR JOHN McDONALD, OF CHATHAM, IN TOWN OF CONSID-ERABLE BEING DONE.

John McDonald, of John McDonald & Co., contractors, of Chatham, and one of the tenderers for the contract for repairs on the railway from Norton to Chipman, arrived in the city last night.

His firm is busy this summer fulfilling contracts for a half dozen or more buildings in and around Chatham. The largest of these is one for the building of a large brick and stone block for Hoffman & Sons on the south side of water street, opposite the post office. The building is 87x40 feet, and two and one-half stories high, with basement. The front is of cut and rock-faced stone, the sides of brick, and the basement all stone.

The ground floor will be used for a dry goods store. Half of the first floor will be used as a store-room in connection with suites of offices of three rooms each. The building will be heated with hot water and furnished with modern bath and closet conveniences; the roof will be fireproof and cornices of iron and copper furnished by Slinney & Mitchell, of this city.

The contract price in the vicinity of $11,000 and the building will be completed about the 1st of September. It will have in front two handsome plate-glass windows and will be one of the most attractive stores, Mr. McDonald says, in the lower provinces.

Mr. McDonald has also in course of erection a provision store for John Gray—a two-storeyed $2,000 wooden structure, with ice-house and cold storage, in Henderson street. This will be completed in about ten days. The upper storey will be used as a hall.

In Newcastle the firm is remodeling the residence of Robert Ritchie at a cost of approximately $3,000.

A residence is being erected by the firm at a cost of $2,500 in Duke street for Jas. Shields, inspector of government bridges, Chatham.

The firm has just completed a residence for James McDonald, in lower Douglastown.

Mr. McDonald is in the city mainly for the purpose of further consulting with the Central Railway commissioner and Premier Tweedie in the event of his tender for the railway work being accepted when the decision is arrived at today, as is possible.
