About one hundred and fifty Hamilton people took in the excursion Brantford last night to witness the hockey match between the Toronto and Brantford professional teams, and they were well repaid for the visit. The class of hockey supplyed by these teams last night was a revelation to them and more than exciting. On the return jour-more than exciting. On the return journey the question "Why can't Hamilton support this game," was repeated o'er and o'er, and the general answer was, the lack of accommodation.

In last night's delegation was Dr. Thompson, in charge of a dozen or more Tigers, and their lady escorts, and thirty or forty local hockey players of the City League two years ago.

Immediately upon arriving the Hamilton crowd, headed by three pipers of the 91st Highlanders, marched to the rink and found their section reserved for them. They then commenced their Tiger songs and yells, and in these were joined by the Hamilton Old Boys in Brantford, who had the section next to them. The combined forces made greatest fuss in the building. At half time the pipers, on request of the management, paraded up and down the ice to the amusement of all present. The rink was packed, many being turned away. The small boys were in their glory up in the rafters.

The star players in the game, as Hamilton saw it, were McDonald (captain).

by Rowden, of Port Hope, who proved speedy and a hard worker, but lacked weight. The feature of the game was the marvellous goal-tending of Lehman, of Berlin. Time after time he stopped impossible shots and broke up rush after to the marvellous goal-tending of Lehman, of Berlin started early, Dumart breaking with their old senior players, Lister, Cempbell, Herns, Secord and Bowesback in the game, means that they are going to give our champions a close run.

There will be a general meeting of the Hamilton Y. M. C. A. Swimming Club at the Y. M. C. A. Every member requested to be on hand.

BEAMSVILLE WON THIS GAME.

Beamsville, Jan. 12.—(Special)—The read and green boys from Beamsville got back at their old opponents, Grimsby, last night, in the first intermediate hockey match of the season in this district, and won quite handily on the Grimsby rink by one goal, the score being 7—6. At half time the visitors were behind by 4 to 3. The game was a nice exhibition for two teams out of practime, but the sport was keenly enjoyed by a large number of enthusiasts from both burgs.

The teams, with but three exceptions, were the same that clashed in four red.

It will be interesting to watch the career of Tom Longboat now that he has passed into the hands of one Patrick Powers. Chances are the only Pat will discover that there are harder jobs than managing baseball leagues and six-day bicycle grinds. As for Tom Flanagan he has accomplished wonders with the long-legged redskin. He picked up the only Thomas when the latter had nothing but his legs and his appetite. He left him with a wife, a reputation and a bank account. What more could even an Indian ask?

They are still printing the form charts at Los Angeles.

Longboat watched the Englishman's performance with particular interest. He never had seen Shrub at his best before, and remarked after the race that he had no idea the Briton was "so good."

The Indian, however, expressed perfect confidence in his ability to defeat Shrubb, explaining that he did not believe he could stick the 26 miles. It is believed that the Longboat-Shrubb race will be one of the heaviest betting events that has taken place in years.

MR FLANAGAN'S POSITION.

MR. FLANAGAN'S POSITION.

Toronto, Jan. 12.—Tom Flanagan, exmanager of Tom Longboat, will apply to the C. A. A. U. for reinstatement to amateur ranks. Of course, it is against the ethics of amateurism for a man to have anything to do with professional athletics or athletes in any form, but this is an exceptional case. Canadians would not have been satisfied with the Indian under any other care than Tom Flanagan's. President Derrick is dubious about Flanagan's chances of reinstatement.

DORANDO BEAT SMALLWOOD MR. FLANAGAN'S POSITION.

DORANDO BEAT SMALLWOOD DORANDO BEAT SMALLWOOD.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 12.—Dorando beat smallwood in their race here last night, making the Welshman quit. Smallwood complained of a sore leg during , the fourth mile, and before the race was over he had to stop and have it bandaged. He walked over part of the course, and Dorando beat him by five miles or more. The Italian was in good form, and would have given any of the professional Marathorers a hard race.

short-distance running records, certainly belies his name. The late lamented w. Shakespeare was probably right in that "What's in a name" thing of his.

Taking a tip from the theatrical profession, why wouldn't it be advisable for Tom Longboat to get Joseph Two Hearts or some other Carlisle Indian athlete to "do' the western circuit while he rakes in the shekels through the effete east!—Globe.

New York Sun: When Shrubb finished three miles in 15.56 he lapped Kanaly again in a wonderful sprint, the crowd, which numbered about 4,500 persons, cheering him wildly. The Briton was as fast as chain lightning, and as he continued to gain with every stride the crowd began to realize his greatness. Shrubb was the leader by 2½ laps as he completed the 3½ miles, and was travelling at the same speedy clip. He ran light-footed, and worked his arms like piston rods, keeping his head erect and being apparently as cool as ice. There was not a bead of perspiration on his face as he fairly flew around the track.

Then he began to talk about how we two could get rich. Three times he came to the rear of my barn and talked to me through the manure hole, twice he was at the river when I went to water my stock, and each time I felt that he was doing something that he was proud of. Once when I was going out to Columbus he was on the pike near the pike schoolhouse. When I overtook him he asked me to ride. I could not refuse. He asked me if ever I had driven up the pike to Port Huron, to which I answered no. Then he said: 'Come, let's drive up': I dissented, but he kept on until he persuaded me to go. He got out and stood at the corner while I went to the barn with the rig. Then, after we had been at the restaurant, for which he paid, also for the horse, he gave me half a dollar and he wanted me to go across there and buy a small hatchet for his boy to play with. I began to tell him to go and do his own buying, when he set his eyes upon me in the queerest sort of a look, something like the look of a snake's eyes. YIELDED TO HIS INFLUENCE.
