ELECTION RIOTS IN IRELAND.

Presentation From Californians to Lord Beaconsfield.

Collision in the Sea of Marmora.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—Election riots occurred in New Ross, Ireland, on Tuesday night, and many persons were wounded. The disturbances were caused by the Home Rulers, whose candidates were defeated at the election, parading the town, throwing stones and otherwise disturbing the peace. The police being unable to cope with them, their defeat was quite unexpected by the Home Rulers. They tried the place at the late election, when Mr. John Danbar was returned by 225 majority, and they had anticipated some very popular, and they did not expect among the Home Rulers, although nominally elected, were really kept up to the late moment, and had much to do with the Home Ruler's defeat.

Lord Beaconsfield received today at his official residence in Downing street, a deputation of Californians, headed by Mr. J. M. H. Brown, who presented him with an elegant and costly coat of American gold and silver, and an address in which they expressed their high appreciation of his lordship's great achievements as a statesman, and his position as an author. The deputation also presented him with a friendship which he had always manifested for his country.

Lord Beaconsfield, in his reply, thanked the deputation for their expressions and spoke of the national progress of the land from which they came, and said that he had stored upon some of its citizens. Referring to European politics, he said that the Treaty of Berlin, which had been signed, was a peace without honor, and that the European nations were suffering from the effects of the treaty.

Lord Beaconsfield expressed his sympathy for the Home Rulers, and said that he had always manifested his sympathy for the Home Rulers, and that he had always manifested his sympathy for the Home Rulers.
