BASEBALL. (Wednesday's Daily.) EDMONTON 14, REGINA 9. Eleven hundred enthusiastic fans were down on the host last night to the ball grounds and experienced enough thrills during the two hours of the opening game between Regina and Edmonton to satisfy the most exacting. With the game apparently edging away in Walter's locker, the score being 6 to 1 in favor of the visitors up to Edmonton's half of the fifth, Mr. White's high-armed gentlemen procured a crow bar and succeeded in raising the cover of the receptacle wherein he had deposited the game and by hitting the ball with a dignified abandon in the fifth, sixth and eighth completely tore the lid of the aforesaid depository from its hinges, and as he extricated the game carried it to Mr. White and presented it to him with their compliments.

It was a great feat, and a wonderful hitting by the Edmonton bunch after they had thrown the game away by two very raw overthrows each of which netted Regina two runs, pulled the contest out of the fire, Grady, who mounted the rubber for the locals pitched fair ball. He was hit by two batsmen, one of the game of the other elements which entered into it were enough to discourage an older veteran than Grady. When the locals finally got to Sage, who seemed to do the leaving for Regina, they surely hit him. Baxter made a home run, Luss and Mills got two more, Grady and Quigley got two and Baxter and Luss each one two base hit.

As an umpire Mr. Johnson is a first. He has absolutely no judgment on balls and strikes. He further makes the mistake of attempting to even up when he hands out a penalty decision. Last night was his farewell appearance here during the present home series. The visitors scored in the third. Hoffman smote the atmosphere ineffectively three times. Collins singled. So did Walters, and then Mr. Spencer extinguished himself by shooting the ball several leagues above Baxter's head on third in an effort to catch the runner. Both men scored. McNeill walked but the next two were easy outs.

A similar overthrow in the third scored two more for the visitors. This time, however, it was Luss who did it. Chan, formerly third baseman for Calgary, walked. Letcher hit over pitcher. Hoffman had one in the third. Hoffman smote the atmosphere ineffectively three times. Collins singled. So did Walters, and then Mr. Spencer extinguished himself by shooting the ball several leagues above Baxter's head on third in an effort to catch the runner. Both men scored. McNeill walked but the next two were easy outs.

Then J. R. White's minions came to bat and covered the bases. The amount of glory by scoring one run. Both Cox and Luss were easy outs. Quigley, however, hit for two bases and Spencer's two-base knock brought him in.

Regina scored another in the fifth. Hoffman walked. Col was hit. Walters hit into a double, from Morse to Quigley who was covering first. McNeill singled and Walters was the third. Hoffman smote the atmosphere ineffectively three times. Collins singled. So did Walters, and then Mr. Spencer extinguished himself by shooting the ball several leagues above Baxter's head on third in an effort to catch the runner. Both men scored. McNeill walked but the next two were easy outs.

At this juncture of the game something happened. Mr. White's minions came to bat and covered the bases. The amount of glory by scoring one run. Both Cox and Luss were easy outs. Quigley, however, hit for two bases and Spencer's two-base knock brought him in.

BRITISH PRESS TAKES ROOSEVELT TO TASK

London Papers Make Ironical References to Ex-President's Guide, Hall Speech, in Which He Outlines Britain's Policy in Egypt.

London, June 6.—The London papers discuss Colonel Roosevelt's speech at length and all with more or less bitterness. Some of the leading comments are as follows:— The Saturday Review—As Unionists we are distracted between a feeling of gratitude for the truth plainly spoken and our sense of the absurdity of the situation. Mr. Roosevelt has merely confirmed what we previously said, but we are not blind to the comicality of our ally.

The National Review—It seems to make little difference whether one receives Theodore Roosevelt politely or not. The paper refused to receive him and came off, rather lightly. Sir Eldon Gorst felt him and his reward was an amazing crude and gratuitous attack upon our whole policy in Egypt. No summary can do justice to the vulgarity and ignorance of the oration delivered at the Guild hall in return for the freedom of the city.

The Nation—Mr. Roosevelt has at last achieved novelty. If he has fallen short originally, the views upon the state of Egypt to which he gave a certain spluttering emphasis at the Guild hall, are those which all the lesser members of the English colony at Cairo have been ventilating for some weeks past. The novelty lay only in this, that the person who expressed the same happens to be the former head of a great republic, whose Jack-boots doctrine would make the martyrs and heroes of American liberty turn in their graves.

New York, June 4.—"These questions are pertinent. It's none of your business, none of the business of your newspaper, it's none of the business of the public; it is the private business of the Singer Manufacturing company."

This is the statement of an angry official of the Singer company when the price of sewing machines remained stationary, despite the fact that the directors have just recommended the cutting of a $30,000,000 melon.

The company is capitalized at $30,000,000 and the stockholders will vote on June 18 on the proposal of the directors to issue $30,000,000 treasury stock as a stock dividend of one hundred per cent. This surplus has been earned since 1900 and is invested in the business. In 1900 the company's $100,000,000 capital stock was increased to $30,000,000 by the payment of a 200 per cent stock dividend.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Whose Speech at Guild Hall, London, Has Roused Ira of British Press.

Mr. Roosevelt's blunt and rasping sentences enable us to gauge the irreluctant behind them. They are exactly what criticism of some nice points of literature and history, from men who spoke in slang and bad grammar, but it does not seem even to have occurred to Mr. Roosevelt that the situation which he has scanned at Cairo is one of complexity and delicacy. He boasted, indeed, of intimate acquaintance with the problems of Africa, and uttered to the world in a public speech with the day of his arrival at Cairo.

He tore out the heart of the Egyptian ministry as he might have trampled through the jungle. The absent, familiar with the past and heard in Mohammedan lore, may doubt and question hope and fear, as they watch the struggle of old and new and the mingling of the Oriental nationalist with the cosmopolitan modern spirit.

Frankly, we fail to see that such an opinion deserves more weight than that of the first Cook tourist, who is a tourist who carries around the world his own sounding board and uses it for American more than for English ears. These crude opinions, these tyrannical incitements, these contemptuous heresies will go out to Egypt to form one more mound of difficulty in the position of vexation and anxiety which the Egyptian government has already assumed to create for Sir Eldon Gorst.
