War Being Waged by Weavers.

Special to Evening Telegram.
MANCHESTER, Feb. 2.
The unremitting warfare which is being waged by weavers against non-unionists has caused the authorities to draft a large body of extra police into this city from various points in Lancashire for the protection of those workers who do not belong to unions.
The Trades Unionists also refuse to recognize Roman Catholic weavers, who have organized a union of their own. Rioting occurred in a number of localities. Another general strike of cotton operatives is threatened for Monday.

Won't Interfere.

Special to Evening Telegram.
MADRID, Feb. 2.
Premier Canalejas to-day denied that Spain had any intention of intervening in Portugal, as indicated by the semi-official Manana yesterday, which gave it to be understood that the Spanish government was considering a measure of that kind.

Union Jack
Trampled Upon

Special to Evening Telegram.
VANCOUVER, Feb. 2.
In the presence of hundreds of socialists at a meeting last night, the Union Jack was torn from the wall and trampled under foot, as a protest against police methods in suppressing alleged free speech meeting in the streets. Not a word of protest was uttered when the flag was torn down.

Crew of Eleven
Were Drowned

Special to Evening Telegram.
PORTSMOUTH, Feb. 2.
The British submarine, A 3, sank after collision with the British gun-boat Hazard off the eastern end of the Isle of Wight. She carried a crew of 11 men, all of whom were drowned. The A 3 went out of the harbor this morning to carry out some exercises, and sank like a stone immediately after the collision.

Willing to Join the Rebels.

Special to Evening Telegram.
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 2.
General Gal, commander-in-chief of the Imperial forces, telegraphed Sun Yat Sen yesterday that he had decided to join the revolutionary forces, and was ready to place his army at his disposal. This information is contained in a cable to the Chinese Free Press from Sun Yat Sen at Nanking.

Royalists

Special Evening Telegram.

The life of the city resumed normal conditions to-day. Reports re-

Carson Taunts
Churchill.

Special Evening Telegram.
LONDON, To-day.

Sir Edward Carson last night was the principal guest at a dinner of the Imperial and Constitutional League. He said he was glad to be able to fill the engagement through the somewhat belated and reluctant consent of Churchill. Had events taken another turn, he might still have been in Belfast, but the first Lord of the Admiralty had found discretion the better part of valor. Following up on his recent outbreak of Imperial loyalty in the Canadian elections he hoped they would show no mean contrast within the next few months. In Ulster they filled the hope with a longing for the battle, for which they were ready, and they were going to win.

"Marie,"

By Sir H. Rider Haggard.
In his latest work this famous author has recorded the first love-story of Allan Quartermain. The plot is laid in South Africa at the time of the great Boer Trek from Cape Colony to the Transvaal, and, as may be expected, the story sets out many perilous incidents encountered.
Dealing principally with the adventures of Marie's family, who took part in the trek this earlier portion of Allan Quartermain's autobiography describes the terrible hardships from fever and starvation suffered by those Boers who wandered into the neighborhood of Delagoa Bay, and includes a thrilling account of the massacre of Commandant Retief and his sixty followers, by Dimaann, the Zulu King.
Our readers will remember that Mr.
Haggard received his knightship at the beginning of this year. Marie is published by Cassell & Company, and is for sale wherever books are sold, at $1.25.

Sealers' Meeting.

The F. P. U. having applied to Mr. Karnopp, the manager of the Fishermen's Institute for the use of the building to hold a sealers meeting, under the auspices of the F. P. U., Mr. Karnopp very kindly consented.
The building is not finished, but it will be arranged sufficiently well to accommodate our meeting. We therefore avail of this opportunity to announce that a sealers meeting under the auspices of the F. P. U. will be held at the Fishermen's Institute on the evening of March the 11th, when the President and others will address the gathering. Every sealer is invited to attend, whether Union or non Union.—The Fishermen's Advocate.

THE LADIES OF ST. BON'S.

Members are reminded of the annual meeting which takes place at the College, on Thursday, February 8.
This has been one of the most successful years since the institution of the Association, and the annual meeting will be most interesting. Several of the leading officers have given notice that they will not be candidates for re-election, and as a new staff will probably be elected; the returns for the past year tabulated, and a new departure in the Association's activities for the coming year outlined, a full attendance of old members, as well as of lady friends who have not yet been enrolled, is earnestly requested. It is hoped that the friends of the College will turn up in large numbers, and make the annual meeting, like the last year's business, a record one.—feb3.11
