LONDON, May 12. Premier Asquith to-day, pledged the Government to introduce an amending bill to the Home Rule measure, in the hope of its being passed by agreement between all parties. If this offer is accepted, he said, both the original Home Rule Bill and the Amending Bill will become law practically simultaneously. This, he contended, was the only proper way of carrying out any agreed on settlement, which might be reached.

LONDON, May 12. Sir Edward Carson was in the House of Commons to-day. His approaching marriage to the niece of Morton Frewen, the former O'Brien member for Cork, and cousin of Winston Churchill, has upset his Ulster colleagues and supporters. They cannot reconcile his threat of civil war with marriage bells.

BELFAST, May 12. Gun-running operations by Ulster Unionists have been renewed on a big scale. Twenty machine guns have been landed on the coast of County Down during the last two nights, according to information received by Customs authorities here to-day. This information has been reported to the Admiralty warships patrolling the Ulster coast, and they have been instructed to maintain a more vigilant watch for filibusters. The garrison at Holyrood Barracks is under orders to be ready for any emergency. This indicates a general confiscation of arms, if the Ulster Volunteers keep up filibustering. Autos owned by wealthy Unionist residents are being used by the volunteers for the transportation of arms. The presence of dozens of autos making trips towards the coast at night has given evidence of fresh ammunition being received, despite the watchfulness of the Government.

LONDON, May 12. The formal announcement of the murder of two British subjects in Mexico, at a recent date, and the serious wounding of a third, was made in Parliament to-day by the Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs. The dead are G. E. Williams and H. H. Green, and the wounded, F. Baird.

MONTREAL, May 12. A new liner will slip into Montreal in a couple of weeks. On her bridge will be a skipper unknown to the St. Lawrence route, but well known in many other services. The vessel is the new Cunarder Alaunia, commanded by Captain Keston, who rushed through the ice of the North Atlantic with the Carpathia, and saved many from death when the Titanic plunged beneath the water. The Alaunia is a sister ship to the Aurania, whose maiden voyage was made last summer. She is a twin-screw vessel of 13,400 tons.

LONDON, May 12. A suffragette, armed with a hatchet, to-day damaged the portrait of the Duke of Wellington in the Royal Academy.

CATANIA, May 12. Slight shocks of earthquake were felt to-day in the vicinity. Mount Etna became active again during the night. Flames issued from the crater, which was surmounted by a high column of smoke.

NORFOLK, May 12. Seven people were killed by an explosion in the engine room of the Old Dominion ship "E. Jefferson," near Cape Henry, last night. The ship returned to Norfolk last night, left the dead and injured, and then resumed her trip to New York.

A Special Feature.

THE CRIMINALS, IN TWO PARTS.

To-day and to-morrow will see one of the best programmes of pictures, song and music ever presented at the Crescent Picture Palace. The big special feature is "The Criminals," a two-reel story of the double life led by a gentleman who in daytime was a highly respected citizen and club man, and at night was a thief. M. J. Macquarrie is the lead. Another extra good drama is "His Imaginary Crime." One of the next good ones is a comedy "Her Friend the Butler," and it provides a sufficient amount of amusement. In the cast are Ramona Langley, Eddie Lyons and Donald McDonald. Mr. Sidney Ernsshaw, lyric baritone, sings that beautiful ballad "I will love you when the silver threads are shining 'mong the gold." Matinee performances every afternoon; good pictures, good songs, good music at the Home of Refinement, Comfort and Safety.

Child Scalded.

Yesterday afternoon a little boy named Lorenzo Martin, eighteen months old, was badly scalded at his home on George Street, by the contents of a kettle which he knocked off the stove. Dr. M. C. Roberts was summoned to the child who was terribly scalded about the face and body, and did everything possible for him. Later he was conveyed to the hospital where his injuries were further attended to. The child was taken home from the institution last night, and is expected will be alright again in a short time.

SAGONA AT LASCOE.—Word was received from the S. S. Sagona last evening by Messrs. Job Bros. & Co., saying that the ship was at LaScoe, and was not expected to get any farther north owing to the heavy jam of ice on the coast. The Sagona left here to bring up the seals captured by the people on the French Shore during the spring, but as the greater number of seals was taken on the north side of White Bay, it is feared that the ship will have to return to port without them.
