DIED.

Miss Helena, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. and Mrs. Squires, aged 6 months.

On Sunday morning, at the residence of Mr. W. Priddy, Poor Assistant, daughter of the late Capt.
James Cummins; funeral will take place from Mr. Priddy's residence, at 2 1/2 p.m., on Tuesday; friends kindly accept this, the only, intimation.

Furnishing the Home FOR
The June Bride.

Of course you have planned to have an attractive home, one that is comfortable, cozy and homelike.

Perhaps you are under the impression, though, that it will cost too much to furnish your home the way you would like to have it.

If this is the case, remember there is one BIG FUR-NITURE STORE where you can always get the greatest value for the least money in Furniture for your Dining Room, Parlor, Kitchen, Bedroom and Hall, also a beautiful selection of Brass and White Enamel Bedsteads, Linoleum—a Store that does not quote fictitious values with high sounding discounts to try and mislead the inexperienced buyer; a Store with one price only to all, and that price the lowest at which you can buy the best goods.

THE STORE that gives this service is CALLAHAN, GLASS & CO., LTD., the Big Furniture Store on Dickworth Street and Theatre Hill. Come in, look around; all we ask is investigation and comparison. We are ready, able and willing to prove every statement we make to your satisfaction.

We all like to feel at home in a store, and that is the way we want you to feel when you come here, from the time you get the friendly greeting at the door until you have finished.

You will find salespeople glad to show you around and also thoroughly competent to give you helpful service and practical advice in regards to any Home Furniture problems you may have.

It will be your own fault if you pay more than you should for the goods you need, if you buy without seeing the Big Stock and values offered by

CALLAHAN, GLASS & Co., Ltd.,

CAIRO ATTACKED BY AERO-PLANES.

CAIRO, Egypt, To-day.
An aerial attack was made on Cairo to-day, causing the death of two persons and injury to a number of others. The following official statement was issued: Two army aeroplanes dropped 16 bombs on Sunday morning, mostly on Arab quarters. Two civilians were killed and thirteen injured severely and five soldiers wounded.
The aeroplanes were driven off by anti-aircraft guns.

TURKS WILL MAKE A STAND AT SIVAS.

GENEVA, To-day.
The Constantinople correspondent of the Tribune, says Field Marshal Liman Von Sanders is assembling a strong force of Turkish troops at Sivas, Asiatic Turkey, to oppose the advance of the Russians. The Turks are equipped abundantly with artillery. The correspondent also says Turkey has called out recruits of ages 17 and 18.

WIMBORNE TO TESTIFY.

LONDON, To-day.
Baron Wimborne, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, arrived in London to-day to testify before the commission which is investigating the Irish revolt. Baron Wimborne is still technically Lord Lieut., his resignation not having been accepted. Right Hon. James Owens Wylie, Judge of the Supreme Court of Ireland, has been sworn in as Lord Justice for the Government of Ireland, during the absence of the Lord Lieut.

FAMOUS CHAUFFEUR KILLED.

PARIS, To-day.
Georges Bollot, automobile racer and aeronaut, was killed in a fight with five German aeroplanes. He succeeded in bringing down one German machine before a bullet pierced his heart. Bollot served earlier in the war as chauffeur to General Joffre, and won the grand prize of the Automobile Club of France in 1912 and 1913.

NINE KILLED.

DENISON, Texas, To-day.
Nine were killed and thirty-eight injured at Kemp City, Oklahoma, eight miles east of Denison which was wiped off the map by a tornado which last night swept a path three-fourths of a mile wide and five miles long in Kemp City section. Only three small dwellings remain standing in Kemp City.

GERMAN COLLIERIES SUNK.

STOCKHOLM, To-day.
The German steamers Hebe and Pera, carrying coal, was sunk on Saturday night by a submarine off the southern coast of the Cape of Oland, in the Baltic.

ITALIAN BRIGANTINE SUNK.

LONDON, To-day.
A Lloyd's despatch says the Italian brigantine Sant Andrea of two hundred and twenty-five tons sunk.

SUCCESSFUL AIR FIGHT.

LONDON, To-day.
A British official on the western campaign roasts: Yesterday, Saturday, our aeroplanes had several successful encounters. An aeroplane fell on fire into some trees near Abimfor Wood in the enemy's lines, one of its occupants being seen to fall out.
Another hostile machine fell in flames near Contalmalson, also in the enemy's lines after an encounter with one of our scouts, and the third crashed to earth in our lines near Maricourt. One of our aeroplanes fell into the enemy's lines. Much successful artillery work was accomplished early this morning. A hostile machine landed undamaged in our lines, and the pilot and observer were made prisoners.

JOHN DILLON'S MESSAGE.

LONDON, To-day.
John Dillon, the member of the Commons, who recently bitterly denounced the Government's methods of dealing with the Irish revolt, sent the following message to Judge McGorty, Irish Fellowship Club, Chicago:—
"Irish insurrection inflicted a serious injury to the Irish cause. All hope of securing Home Rule in the near future depends more than ever on the union of the Irish race throughout the world and especially the support of Irish America."

GARVIN ON AN IRISH SETTLE-MENT.

LONDON, To-day.
Discussing the Irish question, Editor Garvin of the Observer says the only real method of Irish settlement is to revive the Buckingham Palace Conference which broke down before the war chiefly on the narrow question of Tyronne. We assume this will be the Premier's main proposal. It is desirable this settlement be molded between Irishmen themselves, and we hope that if the Buckingham Palace conference is resumed, its basis will be somewhat enlarged so as to embrace men like Sir Horace Plunkett who was not included before, but above all more depends upon Sir Edward Carson and John Redmond than ever depended on Irishmen before.
Cannot Redmond and his friends concede the exclusion of Ulster at the outset in order to get an immediate settlement? Cannot Carson and his friends agree to the joint s-sions, meeting alternately at Dublin and Belfast, for the management of common Irish affairs? Let every effort be made first for the inclusion. If this does not work, then let Ulster be excluded for a time on such terms that there will be in a few years one Irish Parliament and one Irish nation.

T. P. O'CONNOR ON THE SITU-ATION.

LONDON, To-day.
T. P. O'Connor in an article in Reynolds Weekly newspaper says the suggested creation of a joint executive council, representing the two great Irish parties is impossible and would aggravate and not alleviate the passions and divisions. It would be disastrous to think, he says, of coercing Ulster, which must be won by equitable concessions. O'Connor adds he has received discouraging accounts as to the state of the feeling in Ireland. Among the wholesale arrests now going on there are those of many men who violently opposed Sinn Fein-ism. He says he knows personally the case of a boy of 17, home from school on vacation, who was sent to solitary confinement for five days, given insufficient food and only freed from his cell ten minutes out of each 24 hours and had nothing to read. This boy was the son of an ardent supporter of John Redmond.

COLLISION AT SEA.

LONDON, To-day.
Lloyds Barry correspondent reports that the British steamer Salient returned to port after having sunk during a collision off Rhooose Point on Saturday night the Danish steamer Havel, a vessel of 405 tons. Twelve of the Havel's crew are missing. The captain and three men of the crew were rescued by the Norwegian steamer Ivanhoe.

SENDING AID TO THE TURKS.

LONDON, To-day.
Four thousand German troops are expected at Bagdad in June, says the Times Bucharest correspondent.
Twelve thousand Austrians are already there. The Turks are weakening the defence of Constantinople and sending all possible reinforcements to Asia Minor, concentrating a large force at Marash, three days march N.
E. of Alexandrette, on the Mediterranean, in northern Syria, where they fear an attempted landing by the Entente Allies.

DUTCH WILL NOT ACCEPT GER-MAN STORY.

LONDON, To-day.
The Dutch Government has decided to send a strong note to Berlin, saying that the German version of the torpedoing of the Dutch steamer Tu-bantia cannot be accepted, and holding Germany responsible for it, says a despatch from Rotterdam.

AUSTRIANS AND ALBANIA.

PARIS, To-day.
A neutral diplomat who has just returned from Albania, is quoted in a despatch to the Mail from Athens as saying that the Austrians have withdrawn fifty thousand troops from Albania in the last three weeks. The abandonment of the Albanian front is said to be due to the impossibility of bringing up supplies. The statement adds that the Austrians are withdrawing their main forces from Albania, apparently conflicts with recent despatches from Athens and Paris, which stated that the Teutons were about to launch an attack in force against Avlona, the only town that remains in possession of the Italians.

THE POPE'S APPEAL TO THE KAISER.

ROME, To-day.
It is learned from diplomatic sources that the Pope's appeal to the Kaiser to discontinue submarine attacks on unarmed ships is likely to be successful.

TURKISH FORCES LARGE.

LONDON, To-day.
The Daily Mail's Athens correspondent computes the total Turkish forces at 860,000.

BRITISH CASUALTIES.

LONDON, To-day.
To-day's official casualty list covering losses in killed, sick, wounded and missing on all British fronts during the last week gives the number of officers as 306, of whom 79 were killed and that of men as 6,791, of whom 1, 547 were killed. This makes number total of casualties 9,090 of whom 1,626 were killed.

GOT TEN YEARS.

LONDON, To-day.
Official confirmation is obtained today of reports that the sentence of ten years in prison had been given in the case of Jeremiah Lynch, American citizen, charged with having participated in the Irish rebellion.

STRUGGLE TERRIFIC.

PARIS, To-day.
The French grenadiers occupied several blockhouses in Avoncourt Wood on Verdun front in the course of severe fighting last night. The struggle west of Deadman's Hill was terrific. The War Office statement of this afternoon says the attacks of German infantry were repulsed. The blockhouses in Avoncourt Wood were abandoned by Germans, east of Meuse.
Infantry fighting occurred at Handremont quarries, which were captured yesterday by the French. The Germans held those positions, and the statement asserts they were repulsed with heavy losses.
