nape this is due to the reason that I have been blessed with a sturdy contitution, and have never been ill a lay in my life. One day last fall after a hard day's tramp in the slush of Montreal, I developed a severe rain in my legs and of course like a man who has never had anything grong with him physically, I complained rather boisterously. The sood little wife says: "I will rub them with some liniment I have." "Go ahead," I said, just to humor ner. "Well, in she comes with a bot le of Minard's Liniment and gets tugy. Believe me the pain disappeared a few minutes after, and you can tell the world I said so."
