

HELENA GRAHAM, THE BRIDE'S SACRIFICE.

CHAPTER VI.

"She will appear presently," he thought, not yet liking to inquire for her.

"Yes, it's as old as the hills," said Mrs. Ben, resuming her work.

"You deserve a premium for industry, Mrs. Ben," said Herbert.

"Well, you may be jokin' now, and I dare say you are; but it's true, for all that. Many a true word is spoke in jest, you know," said Mrs. Ben.

"You should make Fritz do these things, Mrs. Ben," said Herbert, still impatiently watching the door.

"Fritz? said Mrs. Ben, with a short laugh. "Lor-a-massy! he ain't worth his salt. He's the laziest young scapegoat ever any living body was plagued with."

Herbert laughed. And in such conversation the morning slipped away.

"You should make Fritz do these things, Mrs. Ben," said Herbert, still impatiently watching the door.

"What a confounded fool I have been," he exclaimed, savagely, "to stay there listening to the way to make butter, and flannel, and beef tea, as if the old bel-dame thought I was going to be some-body's housekeeper, or a female doctor; and all the time this enchanting little blue-eyed witch was wandering alone by herself. What an opportunity I have lost! and now, I suppose, I may search for an hour and not find her."

He turned an abrupt angle in the winding path, and stifled a sudden exclamation of surprise and delight.

He paused for a moment to contemplate the picture before him; for if Jessie had seemed beautiful when he first beheld her, oh! doubly lovely did she appear now in her attitude of unstudied grace.

Her dress was a loose, light muslin robe, fitted to perfection her rounded waist and swelling bust.

He advanced towards her. His shadow falling on the grass at her feet was the first token she had of his coming.

With a quick startled cry, she sprang to her feet in terror; but when she saw who it was that stood before her, she stopped short, while the color flushed gloriously to her rounded cheeks.

Her first impression was: "He has read my thoughts in my face, and knows I was thinking of him."

TELEGRAPHIC FEAR.—To send a message over the same telegraph wire both ways at the same time is a comparatively recent improvement in telegraphy; but this remarkable discovery has been somewhat cast in the shade.

Processes have been discovered and apparatus invented by means of which two messages can be sent in the same direction, and two others in the opposite direction, simultaneously upon one and the same wire.

This invention, the Quadruplex, has been in successful operation between New York and Boston for some time, and is satisfactorily performing an amount of work upon one wire quite equal to the capacity of four wires worked with the ordinary Morse apparatus.

MANUFACTURE OF COCOA.—"We will now give an account of the process adopted by Messrs. James Epps & Co., manufacturers of dietetic articles, at their works in the Boston Road, London."

Our Friends will bear in mind—Parties purchasing goods wish to buy them at the cheapest rate. Now the nearer you can get to the Manufacturer, the cheaper are the goods.

Mr. Horsman, the popular Hardware merchant of this town, last summer visited the manufacturing district of Europe, and purchased very largely from the manufacturers there.

He has also made special arrangements with manufacturers in the United States and Canada to have their goods at the lowest Cash prices.

In consequence of the extraordinary bargains Mr. Horsman offers, his sales this season are largely increased; in fact, there has been a perfect rush at his mammoth establishment during the last two months.

Remember, by purchasing Hardware from John Horsman the profits of the wholesale dealer, or middleman, are saved to the customers.

Stoves and Tinware have been added this season, and on account of the very low prices at which these goods are offered by Mr. Horsman this branch of the business has exceeded his most sanguine expectations.

Glines' Patent

SLATE ROOFING PAINT!

AGENTS WANTED IN EVERY TOWN.

A Roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this slate may be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better and lasting longer than new shingles without the slate, for ONE THIRD THE COST OF RE-SHINGLING. The expense of slating new shingles is only about the cost of simply laying them.

The Paint is Fire-Proof against Sparks or Flying Embers, as may be easily tested by anyone, and appears from the fact that Insurance Companies make nearly the Same Tariff as for Slated Roofs. For Tin and Iron it has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold, and NEVER CRACKS NOR SCALES. For Fences it is particularly adapted, as it will not corrode in the most exposed places. Roofs covered with Tar Sheathing Felt can be made water-tight at a small expense. The Slate Paint is EXTREMELY CHEAP!

Two gallons will cover over 100 square feet of shingle roof, or over 400 of tin or iron. No Tar is used in this Composition, therefore, it does not effect the water from the roof, if turned off from the eisters before the first few rains. On Decayed Shingles it fills up the holes and pores, hardens them, and gives a new, substantial roof that will last for years. Curled or Warped Shingles it brings to their place and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in tin or felt roofs, and STOPS THE LEAKS. The color of the slate when first applied is dark purple, changing in about a month to a light uniform slate colour, and is, to all intents and purposes, SLATE. The Paint has a very Heavy Body, but is easily put on, and, although a slow dryer, rain will not affect it in the least one hour after applying.

ROOFS EXAMINED. ESTIMATES GIVEN.

And when required will be Thoroughly Repaired.

Orders Respectfully Solicited.

BELL ORGANS AND HALLET & DAVIS PIANOS

STRAUSS, the celebrated Waltz composer, to Hallet, Davis & Co.—

GENTLEMEN.—Having heard your Pianos at the World's Peace Jubilee, and also used them during my stay in Boston, I am free to say that I have never before seen pianos possessing such a combination of truly wonderful quality and quantity of tone, meeting at once the wants of the largest Concert Hall and the drawing room.

I consider them superior to any pianos that have come under my observation.

JOHANN STRAUSS.

The following Musicians

Of world wide reputation give these Pianos their hearty commendation:

- FRANZ LISZT, The First Pianist in the World.
GOTTSCHALK, The well-known Pianist.
