THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1886.

GLENCOE AND VICINITY.

The next sitting of the Division Court will be held at the Town Hall on April 13th. Mr. J. Wood, of Moss, has rented the old Davis estate, on the 3rd concession of that township, and intends working it in connection with the farm on which he is living.

A public meeting of those interested in the formation of a brass band will be held in the Town Hall this (Thursday) evening. A large attendance is requested. Chair taken at 8 o'clock.

The costs in the suit of Matheson vs. County of Elgin, an action to quash the by-law incorporating the village of Dutton, have been taxed at $12.56, which will be paid by the county, the losers of the suit.

Mad underfoot, fogs overhead, Rain, drizzle, gloom and mist, Winter and spring are reconciled, Have met again and kissed.

The Dresden Times is authority for the statement that there is a strong probability of a branch railway being built from Sarnia to Bismarck, a station on the M. C. R. in the township of Alburgh, County of Elgin. The new line will touch Florence.

A meeting on the construction of rural, village, city and town schools has just been issued by the Minister of Education. The title of the work is "Hints and Suggestions on School Architecture and Hygiene, with Plans and Illustrations, for the use of School Trustees in Ontario."

Mr. P. M. Wickham, of Montreal, Inspector for the Queen Insurance Co., was in town last Monday, inspecting the risks covered by this Company. The Queen is one of the staunchest and most liberal companies doing business in Canada, and those who put their confidence in the Queen may rest assured of satisfactory settlements and prompt payments, should a loss occur.

At the March meeting of the Church of England Temperance Society, in Orillia, the Rev. G. E. Lloyd, Chaplain of the Reformatory for Boys, told how the Scott Act, unenforced as it was, had operated as a moral force for good. There was no drinking, no doubt, but one could go in and out of hotels without the evidences thereof being thrust upon their attention, as under license. The treating system was done away with; the monetary interest of the municipality in the traffic had ceased; and the law abiding would not countenance it, while the debased and lawless could not indulge their appetite to the same extent as under license. He had found from inquiries among the laity that the great feeder of such institutions as the reformatories and prisons.

Local and Other Items.

April 1st. Your day, dear reader. Prepare for house cleaning. Business was good, Saturday, at the new store, Trade Bank Block.

Prof. E. B. Lumley, of Newbury, delivered lectures at Dawn Mills, Croton, Wabash and Rutherford, recently, taking for his subject, "Continental Cities of Vice and Grandeur." Mr. Lumley is highly spoken of as a lecturer.

Mr. Cornelius Ryckman, having bought out the stove and tinware business of Robert McPherson, at Newbury, will remove to that place this week. Mr. R. leaves Glencoe with the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

The rumor that George J. Fryer, the absconder, died last week at a town in Kansas of inflammation of the lungs had no foundation whatever. The story, we are told, originated among three or four young men in Glencoe who grew jealous over their cups while in one of the hotels.

R. G. Evans has transferred the agency of his bakery to the store of George Parrott, where in future this branch of the business formerly carried on by S. D. Walker will be conducted. A full supply of bread, buns, roller flour and all kinds of confectionery will be kept on hand, and deliveries made promptly to customers.

An interesting time was had at the meeting of the Victoria Street Literary Society on Tuesday evening. Several outsiders were noticed in the audience, amongst others Mr. C. E. German, of Strathroy, who gave a very instructive address. The programme for next Tuesday evening will consist of readings, essays, vocal and instrumental music, &c.

The corpse of the young man Moore, of Ridgeway, has been buried. The suspicion was entertained that the remains were in a trance, but two doctors, after a close examination, pronounced him dead, and gave reasons or certain signs of life, that the mode of death would leave the body life-like, and cause the skin to have a ruddy glow and the flesh to retain its elasticity.

From the Presbyterian Record for March the following paragraph is clipped, which is asked to be published: "The prohibition sentiment is very strong in the Southern States; Georgia is thoroughly satisfied with the experiment, so far as it has been made. In every county that has adopted it, crime has been lessened eighty per cent., pauperism has almost disappeared, the deposits in Savings Banks have trebled, women and children are better fed and clothed, and secular and Sunday schools are better attended."

Archdeacon Farrer says that America and Canada are almost of England on the Temperance question. But England is rapidly advancing, there being now six million total abstainers. Mayor Howland, of Toronto, believes that opposition to the Temperance movement is decidedly on the wane, and that the final struggle is not far off, and that victory is certain. There is in the States the "World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union," one of its objects being to circulate a mammoth petition, to be signed by women only, to all the civilized governments of the world, beseeching them as follows: "To strip away the sanctions of the law from the drink traffic and the opium trade, and to protect our homes by the total prohibition of this two-fold source of civilization."

Early Spring Complaints. The warm weather is close upon us, when I hope our Council will look after the interest of our village and people by having every owner of village property to clean their back yards of the stuff which has accumulated there for the past year—I might be safe in saying for the past three years—which is an injury to health, besides being offensive to the eye. I also hope the Council will force these people who have wood lying on the sides of the streets to remove it. For instance look along McKellar street, alongside the building lately occupied by the post-office, and on McKee street, opposite the Traders' Bank, at a number of other places I could mention. And further, to prevent the throwing of ashes on the streets, like the owners of the buildings referred to who allow some of their tenants to throw ashes in the openings of the sewers. I do sincerely hope the Council will look after this matter, and would suggest that it be their first step.

A WISE RAYON.—A wide range of painful affections may be met with Hagar's Yellow Oil. James M. Lawson, of Woodville, Ont., speaks of it in high terms for rheumatism, lame back, sprains, and many painful complaints to numerous testimonials. It is used internally and externally.

Kilmartin, Mar. 29.—Another of those happy events which please the old, mystify the young and prompt the young man woman to "go and do likewise" took place at the residence of Mr. Wm. Leitch, of Metcalfe, on Thursday, March 18th, being the marriage of his daughter, Katie, to Mr. Neil McFarlane, of Elfrid. The bride was assisted by Miss Maggie Campbell and the groom by Mr. John Campbell. The nuptials were performed by the Rev. N. McKinnon. A large number of friends and relatives were invited.

Henderson, J. T. Harrington and W. H. Sparling were appointed a committee to estimate the cost, &c. Wardsville, March 31.—Mr. Richard Neal died at 8 o'clock this morning.

"Whoop It Up."—Probably one of the most difficult complaints to doctor is whooping cough. When treated by ordinary means the poor victim is left to whoop it up as best he can. Hagar's Pectoral Balsam gives relief in this as well as in all throat, bronchial and lung troubles.

SURE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.—If the system is properly cleansed by some medicine that acts upon the bowels, kidneys and skin, such as Burdock Blood Bitters, and the sufferer will use Hagar's Yellow Oil according to directions, there are few cases of rheumatism, however bad, but will yield promptly to the treatment. National Pills act promptly upon the liver, regulate the bowels and as a purgative are mild and thorough.

WORTH REMEMBERING.—In a long letter from John H. Hall, of Baddeck, Cape Breton, to H. A. Wilson, of Wilsedon, Ontario, he writes: "I should have been in my grave. It cured me of kidney and liver complaint and general debility which had nearly proved fatal. Freeman's Worm Powders destroy and remove worms without injury to adult or infant."
