"The Advertiser" is an organ of news dependent opinion. The Adventiser alone is responsible for opinions expressed in these

"The Advertiser" advocates Continental Free Trade, and as early as possible after, free trade with the whole world.

"The Advertiser" looks forward with hope to Canada's future as that of an Independent Canadian Nationality, in equally friendly alliance with the United States and with Great Britain, believing that such a status would be best for Canada, best for Great Britain, and promotive of the best attainable relations with the United States. As to Imperial Federation, sometimes spoken of, the ADVERTISER as yet has seen nothing proposed that bears any stamp of practicability, and in any case infinitely prefers the grander and more really hopeful scheme of a federation of the English-speaking

"The Advertiser" advocates prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor; and all expedient general legislation and persuasion in the meantime.

"The Advertiser" is an advocate of equal rights for women, whether as regards the franchise, or equal wages for equal work.

"The Advertiser" is a believer in Christian Union, and considers the time has come when the various Christian denominations should come closer together. Those bodies which are now nearest should unite first. Under the present system there is an unjustifiable waste of men, means and effort. The ADVERTISER

On Thursday, if gossip from the capital is to be trusted, the Cabinet meets to conider the whole question of reconstruction. Foor Mr. Abbott is in a bad way. He has omised to provide a clean Government, out he is handicapped by two circumstances.

1. He has at least half a dozen associates the House is so weak, and he is so much afraid of the personal jealousies that would develop from so clean a sweep, that he bardly knows which was to turn to fulfill hardly knows which way to turn to fulfill his pledge.

2. Mr. Abbott's worst trouble, however, is with Chapleau. That bumptious member has for years been working to unhorse Sir Hector Langevin, and have himself declared leader and chief distributor of patronage in the Province of Quebec. With that object in view he aided Mr. Tarte to prepare his case against Sir Hector, and no man rejoiced more than be when Sir Hector was brought thoroughly into discredit. Prior to that, however, Mr. Chapleau had let Mr. Abbott know that he was in dead earnest. On Sir John Macdonald's death
Mr. Chapleau went on strike. The position of Secretary of State did not give him enough of scope for his talents. There was not enough money going in the manager f the Printing Bureau, though it yielded $50,000 in hard cash to its exploiters in the ourse of a year or two. What Chapleau wanted, above all we a portfolio with opportunities for money-making. He had seen Tupper and Langevin get rich | as chiefs of the big spending departments, nities as they had. Sir John Macdonald leath and the incidental confusion broug im his opportunity. He then asked fo immediate promotion, but was refusd. He has told his friends, however, that he has Mr. Abbott's written promise that after the close of the session he could be made Minister o Railways and Canals, and can be placed in a position to control the immense patronage as soon as as the House adjourned he be-took himself to Montreal to celebrate his eccession to the chiefship of his party in Mr. Abbott's pledge holds good; but a report from an independent Conservative ource says that Mr. Abbott, acting under strong outside pressure, has refused to implement his bargain with the big-headed Secretary of State, and has threatened to bring on a general election if his tainted he will do. We shall soon see what action the timor ous old man now at the helm will summon courage to take. If he promotes Mr. Chapleau he will go directly in face of his assurance that he would make an endeavo to get rid of all tainted or incompetent Ministers. If he gives Mr. Chapleau charge of the principal spending depart nent it will be a confession of weakness that will cost the country dearly, for Mr. Chapleau makes no secret of his object in desiring to become chief distributor of patronage in the Administration.

EVERGREEN SHELTER.

As an economic policy and for other reasons the ADVERTISER has advocated the re-foresting of this Province at the same rate that its timber trees are laid low by farmers and lumbermen. While keeping in mind this important matter there is a minor one of a like nature that no farmer should forget, and that is the planting of evergreen windbreaks of spruce cedar, etc., especially to the north and west of farm house, garden and barn-yards. Such trees should be planted thick enough so that when a few years old they will effectually break the rough, keen force o winter blasts. Such a protection will add wonderfully to the comfort of the farmer and his family and of the live stock besides adding much to the beauty of the place. These considerations should never be lost sight of even though no direct cash return can be seen from the outlay and trouble requisite in making the improvement. An incidental benefit is the shelter afforded orchards and gardens which in a single season may amount in actual prevention of loss of ten times the cost of the windbreak.

WHY THEY KICK. The reception to Mr. Lister, M.P., by his friends and well-wishers in Lambton and adjoining counties has given much displeasure to some of the high tax journals. These critics know the good service which Mr. Lister has done to his native country in bringing to light the rascalities which have grown up and have been fostered under the present Administration. They express apprehension lest the recognition of Mr. Lister's patriotic endeavors may lead the public to believe that the member for West Lambton was in some way thwarted by members of the Government. It did not require this spontaneous tribute to his will endeavor to promote the movement for Christian union not alone by direct appeal and argument, but by seeking to present the best rather than the worst side of each denomination.

"The Advertiser" voting as both necessary and practicable. Nothing would so much enforce the idea that the tranchise is a duty, not a chattel.

"God's in His heaven, All's right with the world.

RECONSTRUCTION AT OTTAWA.
Col. O'Brien, a Conservative M. P., in response to a query from a correspondent, says he considers Mr. Chapleau "a mills stone about the neck of the party." Many Conservatives no doubt agree with the Colonel's estimate. But, in the worls of Bors Tweed, what are they going to dabout it?

On Thursday, if gossip from the capital is to be trusted, the Cabinet meets to constitute the trusted, the Cabinet meets to constitute the rest and the capital is to be trusted, the Cabinet meets to constitute the contents of the meets of the newspaper defend. Lambton was in some way thwarted by members of the Government, It did not require this spontaneous tribute to his able task for the newspaper defenders of the discredited Administration to reiterate their untenable apology for wrong-doing in high places. We tell them that there is not an intelligent elector, be he Conservative or Liberal, who in his heart can accept such conduct in the in the Government who ought to be sent investigation committee as proof of anxiety about their business, but his following in to get at the root of the rascalities. Young man, your vote counts as much as any other man's vote. De you know whether or not it is on the Dominion voters' list? If you are not certain call at the Liberal rooms, Oddfellews' Block, and have the matter looked up at once.

AT THE Ecumenical Methodist Conference in Washington, the feeling in favor of the federation of Protestantism, if not organic union of the various denominations, was strong, Rev. Hugh Prince Hughes, the distinguished London preacher, made a strong point when he said the Churches should unite in fighting the seven evils-intemperance, lust, gambling, ignorance, crime, pauperism

THE London ADVERTISER continues the advocacy of its compulsory voting fad. It professes to be a Liberal paper, but where Liberalism comes in in forcing a man to do what he doesn't want to do it is hard to see.—[St. Catharines Standard. There is nothing illiberal in making the bestowal of the franchise conditional on its exercise. Obligatory service of the State is a Liberal principle. We all in-dorse obligatory service on juries. What difference in principle is there between service of the country in the jury box and service of the country at the ballot

r is announced that Mr. Thomas Littlehales, manager of the Hamilton gas works, has solved a problem that will result in revolutionizing the process of gas production, and in effecting a big reduction in cost to the maker. By the proces now in vogue hardly more than a sixth of the carbon can be volatilized, or utilized for gas; but, by the process which Mr. Littlehales has invented, it is claimed that every pound of the 1,836 pounds of carbon in a ton of coal can be directly con-verted into gas, leaving nothing behind but useless slag. The new invention is said to be simple and easy of application.

If it can be carried out gas will become the cheapest of fuel, and be more and more used in manufacturing and for domestic purposes. The dawn of the era predicted by Stemeus may be at hand.

NOT FAT ALL ROUND,

Some of the fathers of confederation predicted a population of 15,000,000 in Canada by the time the Dominion had completed its first quarter century. Many believed them.
