A Series of Earthquakes in Italy-

Several Persons Killed.

Rome, June 8.—The cities of Verona and Mantua, Italy, were shaken by an earthquake yesterday. Many houses were damaged. An invalid lady was so badly frightened by the shock that she died. A subterranean noise was heard like the roar of artillery which was followed by three strong shocks. The inhabitants rushed into the streets in terror. At Mardenigo three persons were killed, and at Badia Calavera seventeen persons were badly injured by falling houses and chimneys. At the latter place another shock was feit at 8 o'clock in the morning, and much additional damage was done. The movements were undulating in character, and were more or less over the whole of North Italy.

ROME, June 8.—Advices from Badia, Calavena and Tregnamro, two of the towns in northern Italy visited by earthquake yesterday, show that the inhabitants are terror stricken and that they have taken to the fields for safety. The subterranean rumblings continue, and occasionally slighter shocks than those of yesterday are felt. The damage done at these two please is more treater.
