Montreal, Que., Jan. 27.—There were about 650 head of but:hers' cattle, 25 calves and 400 sheep and lambs offered for sale at the Eastern abattoir today. Pretty good animals sold at from 2½c to 3½c; common dry cows and rough steers from 2c to 2½c, and leaner beasts from 1c to 2c per lb. A large number of the cattle will not be sold today. There was a good demand for good veal calves, and the farmer who owned the two best on the market was asking $28 for them, but he would probably take $24 or even less. Common young calves sold at from 3½c to 3½c per lb; good lambs sold at from 3½c to 3½c per lb; good lambs sold at from 3½c to 4c per lb, and choice ones would bring more.

SHOT IN THE HAND.

George Schwab Was Handling the Family Revolver,

And Now the Bullet Cannot Fe Dislodged -The Foundation of a Persistent Rumer.

All over the streets of London it was whispered last night that a man had been shot! Pedestrians stopped the policemen, visitors to the fire halls quizzed the firemen, and those who could, called up the newspaper offices by telephone. "Who was it that was shot?" was the universal query.

The policemen didn't know; the firemen had not been called, and the newspaper offices were equally in the dark. Old jokes were resurrected, and there could be found every little while the man who would suggest that perhaps the victim got shot at a hardware store—a half-pound or so.

A Dundas street policeman said that he had seen several people about "half-shot," but none were in critical enough condition to require his aid.

First it was asserted that the shooting had occurred near the sacred precincts of the Dundas Center Church, when the rumor was next heard the scene had been shifted to Richmond street. Everybody was puzzled.

Where there is so much smoke there generally is some fire, and in this case there certainly was a report. Sure enough, there was a shooting. It was and causing his parents no end of worry. The other boys were of another family and have proved very troublesome of late. The oldest was distributed by the short was a lad named George The victim was a lad named George Schwen who lives on Grey street just not even fired in self-defense.

The victim was a lad named George Schwab, who lives on Grey street, just in rear of the celebrated Waterloo street school building. George was handling the family revolver yesterday morning, when it exploded. The bullet pierced the right hand, and lodged somewhere about the spot where the hand leaves off and the arm commences. And the bullet has not yet been Doctors have probed and George has squirmed, but the bullet Schwab, of the G. T. R., is the father of the boy. He is about 16 years of age.

its existence. On motion of Rev. W. J. Clark, seconded by Rev. R. Johnston, the call was sustained as a regular gospel call, the conduct of the moderator approved, and the call ordered to be forwarded to Mr. Smith. A FATHER'S STRANGE SUIT. Montreal, Jan. 28.-A curious suit has been brought by Jean D. Herboudt against his children and children-inlaw compelling them to give him an allowance of $60 a month. The principal ones mentioned are Vicomte De Sieges, Vicomtesse D'Ivry, well known in New York, and one of his sons who is general superintendent of the Sun Life Insurance Company in Belgium. He says he is noble but poor, while they roll in riches.

GENERAL BOOTH COMING AGAIN. New York, N. Y., Jan. 28.—The unexpected order for Commander Ballington Booth's recall to England from America has occasioned such disquietude and murmuring among the rank and file of the Salvation Army in this country that General William Booth, father of Ballington, and commanderin-chief of the Salvation Army forces throughout the world, has decided to visit the United States next Spring. The general is in Australia, where he has been conducting a vigorous campaign against the devil for several months. He will sail for England early in March and may be expected in this country about the beginning of April.
