OAK HALL

LOCAL HOTELMEN PRECLUDED FROM SELLING CIGARS ON SABBATH

But because a hotelkeeper chooses to annex to his business of an hotelkeeper that of a dealer in cigars (in view of the profits which he derives from it, or of the enhanced opportunities for the sale of such a commodity as is afforded him) it does not therefore follow that the business of dealing in cigars is incidental to or forms part of the business of an hotelkeeper. An hotelkeeper or innkeeper (and both terms are synonymous in this country) has many burdens and also has many extra privileges and rights under the law, but I cannot find anything to justify me in arriving at the conclusion that he has the right to annex another business to that of his business of hotelkeeping, and to say that the business of dealing in cigars is incidental to or forms part of the business of an hotelkeeper. It is not contended that a cigar can be regarded as a food or as an article of a necessary character, or that it can be bought under any such head.

It must not be forgotten that many others in this city are engaged solely in the business of dealing in cigars and tobacco, and it is not for a moment contended that these parties are privileged to dispose of their commodities on the Sabbath Day. If I were to give effect to the view contended for by the defendant in numerous violations of the Lord's Day Act, for instance, the drugist, who is by law entitled to keep his shop open on the Sabbath, has also for sale in his drug shop cigars, chewing gum, candles and other articles. Is he therefore entitled to deal in and dispose of these articles? I should consider not, and yet by a parity of reasoning, if the hotelkeeper is so entitled, the drugist would undoubtedly have the same right. It is not contended that a cigar can be regarded as a food or as an article of a necessary character, or that it can be bought under any such head.

Holding as I do the views above set forth, I must arrive at the conclusion that Mr. Stockton is a cigar dealer or merchant, in so far as the sale of such commodities as cigars are concerned, and that his employment, the defendant, is guilty of an offence under the statute in making the sales complained of. I therefore adjudge him guilty, and as it is the first case of this particular description that has ever been brought to my notice, I fine him the lowest sum possible under the act, namely, $1.

LAWRENCE—ROBINSON

Wedding at Home of Mr. W. J. Robinson, West London.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Charles street, West London, last evening, when their eldest daughter, Miss Ella, was united in marriage to Mr. Henry Lawrence, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Freeman, of the First Methodist Church. The bride, dressed in a white tulle gown, and the groom, in a white tulle suit, were accompanied by the bridesmaid, Miss Myrtle Robinson, sister of the bride, who wore a white tulle gown, and the groom's best man, Mr. J. W. Telfer, of this city. The wedding march was played by the bride's cousin, Miss Love Rossiter. The bride entered the room leaning on her father's arm. The guests consisted of the immediate relatives of the family. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion.

After the ceremony was performed, a dainty wedding breakfast was partaken of, after which the evening was spent in music and reading. The presents were costly and useful, among them being a beautiful silver service, accompanied by a neatly worded address, from the Helene Costume Company, where the bride was formerly employed. After an eastern trip, the young couple will reside in Hamilton, at the best wishes of their many friends who wish them.

ELDER EVANS THROWS A LIGHT ON THE NOTED "BOOK OF MORMON"

Shows The Advertiser Copy of the Rare Work—Does Not Indorse Polygamy.

In last evening's Advertiser, an article appeared which stated that a certain resident of Seneca Falls, N. Y., has just succeeded in securing one of the original copies of the Book of Mormon, printed at Palmyra, N. Y., at the instance of Joseph Smith, the translator, in 1830. It purports to be printed from plates taken from the plates of Nephi, which are supposed to have been the original plates that were found on Mormon Hill, near Palmyra, and which were the cornerstone upon which the Mormon faith was founded and has flourished.

Today Elder Evans, who resides at 474 Adelaide street, showed an Advertiser reporter a copy of the same rare work which was printed in 1830. The book was presented to Mr. Evans by Willard J. Smith, a descendant of the famous author, or more properly speaking, translator, of St. Louis, on Sept. 5, 1904. It is yellow with age, and is well-thumbed, showing that the possessors of it in bygone years had allowed it to molder on the shelf. On the fly-leaf appears the following explanation:

"THE BOOK OF MORMON.

"An Account Written by the Hand of Mormon Upon Plates Taken from the Plates of Nephi."

"Wherefore it is an abridgement of the record of the people of Nephi, and also of the Lamanites, written to the Jews and Gentiles, and also to Jew and Gentile, written by way of commandment, and also by way of prophecy, and revelation. Written and sealed up and hid up unto the Lord, that they might not be destroyed, to come forth by the gift and power of God unto the interpretation thereof.

Four Facts For Sick Women To Consider

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has an Unequalled Record of Cures—Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Is Confidential, Free, and Always Helpful

FIRST.—That almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful menstruation, leucorrhea, displacements of the uterus, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing-down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

SECOND.—The medicine that holds the record for the largest number of absolute cures of female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates, strengthens and cures diseases of the female organism as nothing else can.

For thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, curing backache, nervousness, kidney troubles, all uterine and ovarian inflammation, weakness and displacements, regulating menstruation perfectly and overcoming its pains. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the change of life.

THIRD.—The great volume of unsolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission, give absolute evidence of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

FOURTH.—Every ailing woman in Canada who is willing to accept the following invitation, "It will bring you health and may save your life." Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women.—Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. From symptoms given, your trouble may be located and the quickest and best way of recovery advised. Out of the vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Surely, any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

THE WIFE BEHIND THE URN.

There's a man behind the capital,
The man behind the gun,
The man behind the enterprise,
The man behind the son.
Though all-important they may be,
I quit them and return
To her who cheers my home for me—
The wife behind the urn.

What though the frenzied finances
Do tear each other down;
I leave my struggles, cares and fears
Behind me in the town.
For splendours and the glads of pride
I'll never, never yearn,
No other gift can rank beside
The wife behind the urn.

The wind may shake the window-pane
And boister in the tree;
Our roof can shed the driving rain,
Our love shoes trouble, too.
With CHASE & SANBORN'S coffee, dear,
True comfort do we learn;
I pledge you in its fragrant cheer—
The wife behind the urn.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

At the opening of the enquiry by the Parliamentary Special Committee on Telephone Systems it was charged that the existing Telephone Companies in Canada had absolutely neglected and discouraged the extension of the Telephone to rural communities. The person who made this charge was either ignorant of the facts, or he made a sweeping misstatement wilfully.

The sworn testimony of the officials of THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA shows that this Company has been giving constant attention to this branch of Telephone development since 1887—that we have been fifteen years in advance of the times in exploiting rural service. The Company has spent thousands of dollars in promoting and constructing rural Telephone Lines, many of which had afterwards to be abandoned for lack of support, and others have been maintained for years at a loss as an educative example. This has been supplemented by frequent and expensive personal canvasses over many districts to induce development of this class of service. Where rural communities have preferred to supply their own Telephone service on the co-operative plan, the Bell Telephone Company has aided and encouraged them by loaning experienced men to supervise their line construction and installation of instruments, and afterwards by making further expert inspection and repairs. This Company has then given connection to such lines with its Local and Long Distance Systems where the equipment of the local concern was in condition to give satisfactory service, and where they were not in direct competition with this Company's own business. The Bell Telephone Company has in addition to its own extensive and rapidly extending rural line system, working arrangements and an exchange of service with about forty such local systems.

It is only within the past three years that farmers have come generally to realize the practical advantage to them of Telephone service. Previous to that, farmers regarded the Telephone as a luxury which a few were prepared to pay for a time, but in most cases soon to be abandoned. Even yet a great many farmers see an advantage only in being connected with their neighbours. But they are commencing to realize the necessity to them as well as to those in towns and cities of being connected with one general system, constructed in such a thorough manner as will insure permanency and a constant and efficient service.

The Bell Telephone Company of Canada has been doing pioneer work in this as in other branches of Telephone development for twenty years, and is to-day in advance of the movement. We have now over two thousand rural Telephone subscribers and nearly eight hundred Toll Offices supplying service to rural communities. As we have pointed out, development of this class of service has only fairly begun. The season of 1905 will add more farmers' Telephones to the Company's system than all the years before, and already hundreds of extensions for 1906 have been approved or are now being exploited.

The policy of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, declared before the Special Committee, has been, and will continue to be, to develop Telephone service for every interest and every section of Canada in which it operates, and in this respect to keep pace with the public requirements. We may add that we deserve the continued support and confidence of the people by giving an efficient service at reasonable rates.

Found in the Bay.

Toronto, Aug. 4.—The body of a well-dressed man was this morning found in the bay. In the pocket of the man's coat was a large stone. Up to 1 o'clock the body had not been definitely identified.

Detroit Defeats Chatham.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 4.—Detroit cricketers beat Chatham yesterday on the D. A. C. grounds, Detroit, by ten runs. Sullivan, Taylor and Northwood did most of the run-getting for Chatham, and Northwood carried off the bowling honors for the same team.

Keep Your Bowels Regular In Nature's Way.

Suppose your bowels fail to move for a week or ten days. Don't you know you would be quickly prostrated? Of course you do. It is just the same, differing in degree, when your bowels don't move once every day. You know you soon become languid and tired, and your blood gets bad and you feel out of sorts—sick all over—if you don't have a full, healthy passage daily. Don't let such serious conditions develop. Use Smith's Pinapple and Butternut Pills. They will drive bowels out of your system and establish regularity. These little pills are purely vegetable and cure on a snap.

Remember that bowel poison is the direct cause of slow, wasting fevers, loss of memory, female weakness, nervous prostration and general debility. Bowel poison leads on to misery and death as surely as constipation or heart disease; the well-advised use of Smith's Pinapple and Butternut Pills will cure and establish bowel, stomach and liver health. Sick at night, well in the morning. Smith's Pinapple and Butternut Pills cure constipation, biliousness, headache in one night. At dealers, 25 cents.

All genuine signed W. F. Smith.

SMITH'S BUCHU LITHIA PILLS

CURE FOR HAY FEVER

W. T. Strong Says Hyomei Will Give Relief—Sold Under Guarantee.

The season for hay fever is almost at hand, and many people feel that they will be obliged to go away in order to avoid the sneezing, watery eyes, and other annoying symptoms of this disagreeable summer disease.

W. T. Strong wishes us to announce that when Hyomei is used as a preventive or a cure, there will be no hay fever. He advises daily treatment with Hyomei for two or three weeks before the usual time for the annual appearance of hay fever. If this is done, the attack will be prevented. However, if the preventive treatment is not started soon enough, and the disease makes its appearance, use Hyomei six or seven times daily, and relief will be given at once.

There is no stomach dosing when Hyomei is used. Breathed through the nasal pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, its medicated air reaches the minutest air cells, killing all germs and soothing and healing the irritated mucous membrane. The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1. extra bottles 50 cents. It is the only treatment for hay fever sold by W. T. Strong under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

People would have more faith in a reformer if he would furnish proof of his sincerity by beginning with himself. Where there is a man's will there is a woman's way to break it. Honeyuckles and the sweet girl graduates bloom simultaneously.

WHY GO LIMPING and whining about your corns when a 25-cent bottle of Hotloway's Corn Cure will remove them? Give it a trial and you will not regret it. A man seldom has to work overtime to make a fool of himself. Monkey Brand Soap makes copper like gold, tin like silver, crockery like marble, and windows like crystal.
