SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORTS WERE VERY ENCOURAGING

Annual Business Meeting of the TEACHERS' ALLIANCE Maitland Street Baptists Last Night.

The annual business meeting of the Maitland Street Baptist Sunday school was held last night in the schoolroom the presentation of an autograph quilt to the honrary president, Mrs. R. Fulton Irwin. The programme was presented by fourteen young ladies, members of the "Inasmuch Society," and was much appreciated and enjoyed. Rev. R. Fulton Irwin gave an address, in which he congratulated those who worked under the name of the "Inasmuch Society." Total proceeds were $130.

The programme was presented by fourteen young ladies, members of the "Inasmuch Society." The weekly offering also showed a corresponding increase under the splendid and efficient leadership of Mr. J. W. Westervelt, sen., as superintendent. The school has made marked and rapid progress along all lines. Words expressing high appreciation of Mr. Westervelt's were most encouraging, for they showed substantial progress along all lines. It was shown that the average weekly increase weekly increase in attendance per Sunday over that of last year was almost twenty. The weekly offering also showed a corresponding increase under the splendid annual meeting of the Ontario Teachers' Alliance last night, in the theatre of the Toronto Normal School, encouraging reports were presented by the secretary and treasurer, with recommendations by the former for the work of the coming year. The president, Dr. L. E. Embree, M. A., was in the chair.
