Byron Does Some Wrong Work Manager of the Tigers Says and Row Starts With Manager Dunn.

fans Threaten To Do Rough Work, and Police Are Called To Protect Diamond King.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 15 .- Today's Baltimore and Rochester game ended in a row and resulted in Umpire Byron forfeiting the game to Rochester, while the Baltimore players were at the bat in their half of the eighth inning. Byron called Walsh out on strikes while the latter was standing on the plate, and McConnell was forced to pitch wide so as not to hit the batter. In the eighth he called strikes on Slagle while the little centre fielder was out of the box rubbing his hands in the dust. Dunn protested and Byron pulled his watch, and after waiting two minutes forfeited the game. But for the police protection he would have been roughly handled by the spectators. The game itself was a hard-hitting affair, the Bronchos scoring five runs in the fourth inning on five singles and a base
