George Thomas, whose farm in Do-receded this afternoon animals were driven through water three or four feet deep to their own stables, which were emerging from the depths. Six years ago a similar flood, of 17 days' duration, paralyzed farming along the Thames, and it was thought that adequate safeguards, in the shape of ditches and embankments, had J. Golack, machinist, Montreal, been constructed sufficient to prevent another inundation. Farmers who have been driven out this week will get together and raise roads and dykes and deepen the township ditches. A. B. McCoig, member of Parliament from Kent riding, conferred with Division Superintendent Cunningham as to the best means of preventing future floods. The railroad
