MILLINERY OPENING

March First Day Set for the Commencement of the Big Event.

Eagerly looked forward to by every trict surrounding, is the spring millin ery opening of Messrs. Smallman & Ingram, which takes place tomorrow The dancing, which commenced at 9 (Saturday), March 1, and following days. For weeks past the staff of expert milliners employed by this firm have been busily engaged in preparing hundreds of new styles of spring and summer headgear, and it is safe to say that this season the hats displayed will be more alluring than ever to the feminine eye. The tastefulness and exclusiveness of all the millinery carried each spring and autumn by Messrs. Smallman & Ingram is widely known and recognized by fastidious women. Many of the styles are made directly after models from Paris The feature of the evening was the storm dance," in which by means of in chic headgear from the world's fashand New York, and thus the latest ideas ion centres are made possible for the women of London. In addition to this, Messrs. Smallman & Ingram recognize he value of a beautiful setting for their display, and the showrooms are being most tastefully decorated for the open-

In fact, no pains are spared to make the semi-annual display an artistic event in every way, and no doubt the big store will be thronged with hundreds of feminine visitors tomorrow.
