The Eye Like a Camera

The eye is constructed so wonderfully and ingeniously that the handicraft of man has as yet not been able to construct as delicate an instrument. It is like a camera—the lens to focus, the iris as a shutter, the iris, or color, as the diaphragm, the thick coatings of the eye-ball as the dark room, the nerve as the sensitive plate, and strange as it may seem, the images are bottom side up, exactly as the image in the camera. Now so delicate and sensitive an instrument as the eye should have good care. If you experience eye-strain let us examine your eyes and make suitable glasses.

FRATERNAL VISIT

St. John's A. V. P. A. Visited St. James' Branch, South London.

St. John's branch of the Anglican Young People's Association were the guests of St. James' branch on Monday evening, and a pleasant gathering resulted. Mr. H. W. Lyons, B.A., secretary of the Men's Federation, addressed the young people on some phases of the work which the federation is attempting to accomplish in London. He dealt particularly with some of the problems presented by the immigrants from foreign countries who are coming here. It was difficult, he said, to arouse interest in these people among the citizens generally, but this was being largely overcome, and the outlook for the future was much brighter.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Lyons for his splendid address.
Following the address, a social half-hour was spent during which refreshments were served by the ladies of St. James' branch. Miss Clara Rowlands delighted the gathering with two excellent vocal numbers.

GIVES LECTURE-RECITAL ON SHAKESPERIAN PLAY

Walter Gordon Craig, of Toronto, Presents "Macbeth."

Shakespeare's "Macbeth" was the subject of a lecture-recital by Walter Gordon Craig, of Toronto, in St. Andrew's Hall Monday night under the auspices of St. Andrew's Young People's Guild.

In an entertaining manner Mr. Craig presented the play, reciting in a fine elocutionary, yet unaffected and natural manner, leading passages from it, and connecting each with the succeeding one by a simple and pleasing explanation of the intervening scenes.

"Macbeth," he said, was one of the most fascinating plays of Shakespeare. He spoke of the "sombre grandeur pervading it," and characterized Macbeth as being generous, honest and fair, but with some latent weakness in his character, which made him listen to the counsels of Lady Macbeth, who, keenly ambitious, deliberately strangles her conscience that she might murder the king.

Rev. H. McFarlane presided at the recital.

Interpersed with the numbers on the program were pleasing Victrola selections.

M'CARTHY-BOLAND

Pretty Wedding at Sacred Heart Church in Parkhill.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Church of the Sacred Heart, Parkhill, on Wednesday, when Miss Anna Boland became the bride of Mr. Joseph McCarthy. Rev. Father O'Neill officiated. The bride, who is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Boland, was attired in white satin with pearl trimmings, with a wedding hat of white satin velour, and carried a bridal bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Miss Anna McNelis, of London, who was bridesmaid, wore a dress of pink satin, with over drapery of corded pink nylon and black marabout trimmings and carried pink chrysanthemums. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. J. McCarthy. For travelling the bride wore a navy blue suit and navy blue hat with lighter blue ostrich trimmings. Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy left on the afternoon train for Stratford and Toronto. Upon their return the young couple will reside in McGillivray.

Closed, heated carriages for every occasion. Phone Hueston's Livery.
