ty now boasts of two rural hockey leagues. Ingersoil has been made the center of a league with eight clubs, while Woodstock is the center of another circuit with eight clubs ready to battle for the Dave Smith Trophy.

The league with headquarters is way. All the teams are playing good basketball, and the race for honors will be an intersecting one.

The schedule follows:

Senior Section.

Jan. 27—St. Johns vs. St. Matts as Section. The league with headquarters in Woodstock has been divided into two with Tavistock, Embro, Hickson and Huntingford in one series and Pauls, Curries, Eastwood, Sweaburg and Bur- Feb. Curries, Eastwood, Sweaburg and Burgessville in the second.

It was staged in Chicago, Washing-

As Ellerbe rounded third and was half-way to the plate, he suddenly turned and raced to his position at short, passing Gharrity on the base lines. The umpires ruled Gharrity out

It was a very technical decision, but it went, despite about ten minutes of protesting on the part of Griffith. Gharrity was credited with only a two-base hit. We won the game 5 to 4, I believe, so had plenty of for passing a baserunner.

The schedule has been adopted, and calls for the opening game at Woodstock arena on Feb. 2, when all eight clubs will be seen in action. STRATFORD EDGES OVER

GALT, Jan. 25.—Galt's intermediate O. H. A. champs have received their second offer to make a trip to Cleveland. They were wanted for a two-game series in the Ohio city on Feb. 3 and 4, but since they are now in the midst of the O. H. A. race, they were forced to decline the proposition.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Possibility of a Jack Dempsey-Bill Brennan match in Boyle's weilknown patch in Jersey loomed up today with the expected arrival of Jack Kearns here for the purpose of taking up the possibilities of the match with Rickard. Rickard, however, has troubles of his own today at the west side court, and may not be able to see the champion's manager until tomorrow.

Chances of a Dempsey-Carpentier fight to be held in London or Paris are not regarded as good. Carpentier's victory over Cook brought the usual crop of rumors to the surface bearing on a possibility of another Dempsey-Carpentier match, but Rickard is convinced that neither the public nor the Frenchman need another demonstration of the relative merits of the men.

Bartley Madden is mentioned as a possibility instead of Brennan. Kearns is known to prefer closing for an early match, and Rickard may decide to close the Madison Square Garden season with either Madden or Brennan against the champion, instead of waiting until the Jersey open-air arena can be used.

ALL SAINTS FIVE

GALT, Jan. 25 .-- While the Woodstock intermediates have not won a game in the group, 2,000 fans were at the new arena tonight to see them play the Terriers, who had a walkaway, winning by the score of 13 to 3. While the play was one-sided, the game was nevertheless interestip and fast, with King and company fighting hard to the last, but they were outclassed in all depart-but they were outclassed in all departments.

The locals are unbeaten to date, with five wins to their credit, and with Ayr playing the final game of the group here Monday night, they should enter the play-off without a defeat.

The Galt boys ran in six goals in the first period, and held the visitors scoreless. Trump had the nonor of being the first visiting player to score in the new arena, opening the count in the second period, which ended with the locals leading by 11 to 1. Douglas and Parker each got a goal in the final frame, and the Terriers added two more. CAYUGA, Jan. 25.— Cayuga juniors playing their first junior O.H.A. game in the new rink were defeated here tonight, 5—1, by Port Colborne. The local youngsters put up a splendid game, considering that they had little practice. The score was 5—0 at the end of the second period, but the locals held the visitors in the last session and scored their lone tally.

ACPICIAN. more.

King and Douglas were the pick of the Woodstock team, although every man worked hard. The locals all played their usual strong game and showed some nice combination. Oliver led the goal-getting, with five to his credit, while Norman Himes, G. Himes, Aiex Wells and "Punch" George each got a pair. The teams:

The next day, as Peck came on the field for the opening game in Detroit, I greeted him thusly as he came up to the plate to give me the batting order: "Well, Roger, I see they finally stopped you."

"They sure did," he replied, "but it took one of the greatest pitchers in the country to do it. That takes some of the sting out of it."
