ronto, received the following despatch over their private wire yesterday from Kennett, Hopkins & Co., New York:—

New York, Feb. 27.—A very decided buying movement in St. Paul developed to-day, but like everything else connected with the market of a purely local character probably 25 per cent. of the buying was to cover shorts; aside from it the most prominent buying was said to be for a coterie of room traders at Lakewood. Grangers were stronger, in sympathy with Industrials. Yesterday's weakness continued, but in sugar yesterday's weakness was replaced by strength. Unaccompanied by rumors of any kind it is impossible to tell by the newspapers what arrangements have been reached by the Senate in regard to the Wilson Bill. Each paper contains a different account, but the market contains a different account, but the market acts to-day as if the sugar people had received positive assurance of moderate protection—of course, nothing like the McKinley Bill. Total sales, 147,500.

F. J. LEWIS & CO., 20 King street east, received the following despatch yesterday over their private wire from Kennett, Hopkins & Co., Chicago: —

Chicago, 111., Feb. 27 .- Wheat was raided yesterday by the bears, who put out considerable lines of short stuff. Left to itself to-day, and lines of short stuff. Left to itself to-day, and the influence of improving conditions, the decline was recovered. The closer one gets to the wheat fields the higher prices are relatively. This indicates a scarcity in farmers' hands, as well as light stocks carried by millers. The foundation of what strength there is in wheat comes from the country. Big visible stocks held the speculative demand in check, but cash wheat is held very lightly on and at prices relatively above futures all over the wheat growing wheat is held very lightly on and at prices elatively above futures all over the wheat growing States. This is what convinces conservative investors that it can now be bought on its merits, and that the onslaughts of bearish operators can accomplish only temporary set backs. Exports are increasing, and so are enquiries from exporters. The entire amount set afloat last week from exporting countries was 3,810,000 bushels, more than 3,500,000 bushels below the weekly European requirements. For several weeks past there has been a big deficit in European supplies, and it is evident that this

n European supplies, and it is evident that this must be made good from some source sooner or later. India and Argentine are practically out of the market, owing to currency embarrassments. According to the Board's advices India did not ship a bushel last week, and Argentine sent out but 1,000,000 bushels all last month.

Europe is awakening to the fact that she is depending on America, and this idea is just penetrating the brains of Americans. Corn and oats—Dull, but firm. Receipts are not so large as expected, and the estimate for to-morrow indicates a falling off. There is so little in the narket either way, and wheat is so much mor attractive that corn and oats are neglected
