

THE OLD SYSTEM MADE GOOD MEN.

From the San Francisco Alta.

The question of long hours of labor is one that will not be solved by the advance of the community to deprive large masses of men of needful rest and occasional leisure. But there were generations of men reared in this country under longer hours of labor than are anywhere exacted now, by mine, mill or railroad owners. Not many years ago the majority of laborers in this country were on farms engaged in rural occupations. We know how it went with them, for we were "there." Their average pay was $15 per month. Their hours of work were the work of the day averaged, the year round, 43.00 a.m., and their hour to knock off, when the last "chores" was done, 8 o'clock p.m., with a liability to a call in the night if a horse got "cast" in his stall, or a moon calf's mother ridden for to attend some sick member of the family. The day's work, from horse to sock, was a good full seven hours, for 30 cents. We seem to remember that it rained pretty good men. By three and a third months' work they earned enough money to enter forty acres of land, and were soon hiring other young fellows for the same wages. In those days the "Americans" were not blubbering on the roadside for sympathy. They had no "walking delegates" to demand business of employers who had been guilty of the incredible wickedness of giving them work and wages. They were not in the habit of permanent protest against their lot in life. Instead of whining about it they used it to their advantage to honorably work their way out of it, and they were better men, better husbands and better fathers for the manliness engendered by the experience.

Mothers' smiles are the sunlight of home. There would be fewer clouds and brighter sunshine in many households if every disappointed suffering woman realized what a boon Dr. Pierce's "Fruit Syrup" is for all weaknesses and maladies to which women are liable. No lady who gives this wonderful work a trial will be disappointed by the result. It not only acts promptly upon all functional derangements, but by its rare nourishing and tonic properties strengthens and repairs the whole feminine system. Prices reduced to one dollar. By druggists.

Why will you allow a cough to become your throat or lungs and run the risk of filling a consumptive's grave, when, by the timely use of Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the pain can be allayed and the danger avoided. This Syrup is pleasant to the taste, and unsurpassed for relieving, healing and curing all affections of the throat and lungs, cough, colds, bronchitis, etc., etc.

A prominent man in Philadelphia is named F. Burt Grubb. He is called a canny, smart fellow.

—Wonderful is the effect of West's World's Wonder or Family Liniment. One bottle will effect more cures than four times the number of any other liniment. 25 and 50c. All druggists.

Corns have been dated ever since the first century. Eggs are not dated yet.

—As a toilet article, Ayer's Hair Vigor stands unrivaled. It cleanses the scalp, removes dandruff, cures itching humors, restores the original color to faded and gray hair, and promotes its growth.

Woman's new masterpiece is an undertaking. It is to be hoped he will not develop a tendency in favor of dead letters.

The great lung trouble is found in that excellent medicine sold as Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane, and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness in the chest, throat, etc.

A man never drops into a newspaper office to tell about a little race on the road unless his horse comes in winner.

—Toadies. The great benefactor for the complexion. One of West's Skin-Care Liver Pills taken nightly, 30 pills 25c. All druggists.

The most attractive thing about a toboggan is a pretty girl.

Do not delay in getting relief for the little folks. Mother Graves' Food is a pleasant and sure cure for all ailments of the child. It is a food and a medicine.

—There are a number of varieties of corns. Yellow's Corn Cure will remove any and all. Call on your druggist and get a bottle at once.

Things one would rather have left unsaid—James (under the impression that he is making himself agreeable)—I don't care for you, my dear woman. I like a plain woman who has plenty to say for herself.

Why will you suffer with a bad cold when a few doses of West's Cough Syrup will cure you? Invaluable for all throat and lung troubles. Consumptive try it. All druggists. 25c. Large bottles $1. All druggists.

When a weakling acquires costs $500, and a diamond solitaire ring has cost as much as what does a ton of coal come to? The answer ought to be "ashes," but we find by a close calculation that it is really "dinkers and dinkers."

The other morning a farmer's wagon which was rattling down Michigan Grand-avenue to the market street, a colored man and a white man were sprawling into the mud. Several people rushed to help him up, and one inquired if he were much hurt. "Only in my feelings," he replied, "you know how much a man can't stand to be pulled down by a man, and how much a man can't stand to be pulled down by a man."

Mr. R. C. Winlow, Toronto, writes: "Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery is a valuable medicine to all who are troubled with indigestion. I tried a bottle of it after suffering for some ten years, and the results are certainly beyond description. I digest my food with no apparent effort, and am now entirely free from that sensation which every dyspeptic well knows, of unpleasant fullness after each meal."

"Righteous Indignation," I say, Dumley. "I hear you have reported about that I owe you money." "That may be, but I don't owe you anything now. That twenty-dollar debt became a man, and a man's word is his bond."

The people of this country have spoken. They declare by their patronage of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil that they believe in the cure of rheumatism, as well as believe the pains of fractures and dislocations, external injuries, corns, bunions, piles and other maladies.

"How did you enjoy the sermon yesterday morning?" "I didn't hear it. Mrs. Jarvey's bonnet was so loud that I didn't really know the minister was talking."

No other spring medicine has won for itself such universal confidence as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most powerful combination of vegetable alternatives ever offered to the public, and is acknowledged by the medical profession to be the best blood purifier.

"Yes," said Mr. James, "I did consent to have my son named James, but I am sorry that I shall never be shortened to Jim. Who would employ a boy named Jim James?"

West's Cough Syrup stops tickling in the throat, stops the hacking cough, and gives perfect relief; it is certainly worth a trial. All druggists.

Twenty-eight kinds of mince pie are served at New York restaurants. Nightmares in New York are evidently as badly mixed as New Jersey politics.
