Alarm in German Official Circles.

BERLIN, May 5.—The resurrection of the Pan-slavist party in Russia has reawakened alarm in official circles. The Czar's reinstatement of Gen. Bogdanovich in his former position in the Russian service is not an isolated areas, that the open adoption of an offensive proof that the open adoption of an offensive policy approaches. The Czar's assent to the revival of the Slav associations, closed ten years ago under an edict of the late Czar, has been obtained. Gen. Tehernieff will become the president, and a kindred association, the so-called "Slav Committee of Charity," with Gen. Ignatieff as president, will affiliate, thus forming a formidable body embracing both wealth and energy. The avowed alm is to incite insurrections among the Slav people and increase agitation, until Russia comes into possession of Constantizople."

It is impossible that the sudden reappearance of the forement men of the party is a mere coincidence. Gen. Bogdanovich's promotion might have been due to the influence of his friend Pokedonotzoff with the Czsr, but simultaneously with the appearance of Stounberds, Tchernieff and Ignatieff there is a warning of a coming tempest in the unmisof his friend Pobedonotzoff with the Czar, but simultaneously with the appearance of Stomberds, Tchernieff and Ignatieff there is a warning of a coming tempest in the unmistakable revival of a hostility of the German semi-official press, preceded by a distinct change in the attutude of Prince Bismarck to change in the said that Bulgaria's forces were centered on the one idea of independence.

All the indications point to him as the murderer, as the couple never lived harmonicously together. Mrs. Keeler has been missing since last September. It was supposed that she had gone west to visit relatives, but letters received from a town in Illinois where she was supposed to be brought the information that Mrs. Keeler never visited there. This aroused suspicion at once and the authorities instituted a search which resulted in the finding of the body. The nurderer after committing the deed packed the remains away between the floor and the foundation walls. Keeler's father was the foundation walls. Great for the murderer's capture.

THAT DREADFUL DISEASE.

MILBURN & Co. T. MILBURN & CO.

DEAR SIRS.—Having been troubled with that dreadful disease, Dyspepsia, and having tried every kind of medicine I knew of and all to no purpose, and finding the Doctors could do me little or no good, I at last resolved to try your Burdock Blood Bitters. I had been ill for four years. My health kept failing very fast until induced to try B.B.B. I was a good deal better after taking one good deal better after taking one bottle, so I kept right on, and when I had taken the sixth bottle I felt quite well. I would highly recommend it to all suffering with that dreadful disease, Dyspepsia. I think there is no medicine to equal B.B.B. I never felt so well before. I weigh now 178 pounds. I remain a true friend to Burdock Blood Bitters, matthew Sullivan

Dear Sers. — While living in Belleville.
I was a sufferer from that dreadful disease Dyspepsia. I had got so bad that I hardly cared whether I lived or not. After eating I felt giddy and stupid and could scarcely do any work. A gentleman living in Belleville seeing what I was suffering, advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. He was taking it for bad blood, (which it ultimately cured). I bought a bottle, and taking according to directions, experien ed great relief. On taking two more bottles. I was entirely cured. I can now eat a good meal without the least feeling of inconvenience after, and it seems a pleasure to live. I think of what I suffered before taking it. I have recommended it to several others, and it will always be my medicine when I require one that will do good to both body and blood. I feel it my duty to write you this as I am grat ful for the wonderful good your medicine did me in time of trouble. Yours sincerely, T. MILBURN & Co.

NEW YORK: May 5.—Up town last night there was no absence of the bullish feeling which has prevalled for some days. It was thought that the reactionary period was through with and that the inside people who were the first to soil their stocks early in the week had been buying them back sgain and were snow willing to see a further boom. The general impression was that backing and filling process would again prevail, but that with a little patience holders of stocks would realize large profits this year, particularly as Cleveland's policy is clearly defined.

Married in Spite of Themselves.
From The Chicago, Tribune.
Some years ago, when free-love notions were running around loose in New England, a Boston man and woman who had imbited of those doctrines until they affected to despise all the common conventionalities of life came. all the common conventionalities of life came to the conclusion that they would live to gether without going through the occumony of marriage. They had both moved in good society and made an secret of their intention. In fact they announced it to every one they met. Staid old Bostonic anistocracy was shaken to the depths. The man was prevailed upon to give a dinner party, to which were myited prominent society peuple, including the Governor of the state. When dessert was put upon the table the salk became general, and soon turned upon the perverse couple. The man and woman answered every question put to them with the most perfect equantity. Finally the Governor took a hand in the conversation. After asking a few questions, and commanning on the answers thereto, in a calm, judicial manner, he turned to the man and asked; "Do you, man as your wife, for good or evil, for better or worse?"

man as your wife, for good even, the convorce?

"Yes, sir," answered the man calmly.

"And do you, madam, intend to obby this man as your husband, for better or worse, for good or evil?"

"I do, sir," answered the, woman politely.

"Then by the power vested in me, as Governor of this Commonwealth I declare you to be man and wife."

And thus the plans of the couple were frustrated, for which they afterwards declared they were heartly thankful. They are now ald and respected residents of Chicago. Never Mind a Witness.
