THE END OF THE KEARSARGE. A TERRIBLE NIGHT'S EXPERIENCE ON THE OLD SHIP.

Waves Found Her Unusually All Night, and the Crew Experienced Momentary Danger—Daylight and a Like Make Things Look Brighter—All Hands Saved.

New York, Feb. 9.—A special to The Herald from Colon says: The Kearsarge was wrecked on Underbank at 7 o'clock last Friday evening, Feb. 2. The Kearsarge was under full steam at the time, and was going about 10 knots when she struck. A heavy sea was running, and as the character of the waves in these waters was well-known to the Kearsarge's officers, it was evident that they were in for a rough time.

CROFTON ON TRIAL. The Man Who Forged Note on the Bank of Toronto.

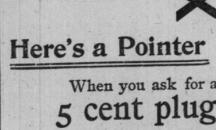

Algeron Francis Blake Crofton last October presented at the First National Bank, Chicago, for payment a draft for $7000, drawn on the Bank of Winnipeg, Man., by the Bank of Montreal at Toronto. The draft subsequently proved to be a forgery. In November Crofton was arrested in El Paso, Texas, and brought to Chicago. He had spent a large amount of the money.

Yesterdays in court his attorney said that he would enter a plea of guilty if he could be sent to the Reformatory School. Crofton is not yet 21 years old, but soon will be. The State objected to the plea, as that would practically be a punishment, for the moment Crofton became 21 years old he could demand and obtain his liberty. Crofton's attorney insisted that under a plea of guilty he was obligatory upon the court to sentence the prisoner to the Reformatory School. The case was continued.

Crofton was married a few months ago at Peterboro, where he was formerly employed.

Trade's Report. New York, Feb. 9.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: While business is quiet throughout Nova Scotia, Halifax telegraph reports that the outlook is for a fair spring trade. Toronto reports only a limited volume of business, with iron prices irregular and steel prices steady. Montreal advises that the volume of business has declined since the first of the year, but claims that the outlook is for a fair spring trade.
