Money to Loan on First-Class Real Estate.

N. H. PHINNEY, -Oratorio and Choral Music.-TEACHER OF Singing, Voice Culture, and Thorough Bass. Dealer in Planos and Organs. Write for wholesale prices. 14 13

J. M. OWEN. BARRISTER - AT - LAW, Notary Public, Real Estate Agent. United States Consul Agent. Annapolis, Oct. 4th, 1882—

W. G. Parsons, B. A. Barrister, Solicitor, Etc. MIDDLETON, . . . N. S 43 Office,-" Dr. Gunter" building.

J. B. KINNEY, Architect and Civil Engineer for all classes of buildings. lence of Wm. E. Reed, Bridg

G. O. GATES, PLEASANT STREET, TRURO, N. S. Pianos & Organs. Manufacturers' agent for Leading American and Canadian Irstruments. Tuning and re pairing a specialty. Old instruments taken in exchange for new. Over twenty year's ex-

DR. M. G. E. MARSHALL, DENTIST.

Office and Residence: Queen St., Bridgetow James Primrose, D. D. S.

Office in Drug Store, corner Queen and Granville streets, formerly occupied by Dr. Fred Primrose. Dentistry in all its branches carefully and promptly attended to. Office days at Bridgetown, Monday and Tuesday of each week.

Bridgetown, Sept. 23rd, 1891. 25 tf

DENTISTRY.

DR. T. A. CROAKER. Graduate Philadelphia Dental College Will be at his office in Middleton.

EDWIN L. FISHER Real Estate & Insurance Agent.

Houses, Stores, Farms & Furniture INSURANCE AGENT FOR FIRE, LIFE, ACCIDENT, MARINE and PLATE GLASS at lowest possible rates compatible with security.

Correspondence solicited.
29 ly P. O. Box 16, Bridgetown.

O. S. MILLER, BARRISTER NOTARY PITBLI

Real Estate gent, etc. RANDOLPH'S BLOCK, BRIDGETOWN, N. S.

Prompt and satisfactory attention given to the collection of claims, and all other professional business.

51 tf

W. A. CHUTE. BUILDING MOVER.

BEAR RIVER, N. S. Buildings of all descriptions raised and moved without taking down chimneys or disturbing occupants.

Correspondence promptly attended to. Bear River, March 28th, 1893. 52 9i Bridgetown and St. John, touching at all intermediate ports, during the coming season. For particulars enquire of Neily & Crowe Bridgetown, or those on board. May 10th, 1893.

Executor's Notice.

Granville, March 20th, 1893. Executors' Notice.

All persons having any claims against state of HUGH FRASER, late of Bridgeto a the County of Anapolis, deceased, are uested to render the same within six mon rom this date, and all persons indebted to state are requested to make immediate 1

Nova Scotia Wins.

A Tiverton Miracle.

DOCK BLOOD PURIFIER

have found them, by far, the best medicine
I have ever used."
(Signed.) REV. J. E. WARNER,

The Rectory, Middleton.
Use Dr. Miller's Compound Syrup
Tar Cough Mixture for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis. Incipient Consumption, and all diseases of Mucous Membranes throughout the body. FARMERS!

We Can Sell Your Apples, FAT CATTLE, PORK tantly at my home."

AT For Sale by all Druggists and Respec

At Best Possible Advantage. Respectfully soliciting a continuance of your favors, we remain, yours sincerely, FOSTER, FOSTER & CO,

DR. J. WOODBURY'S

DINNER INDIGESTION, in all its forms.

For the Removal of DYSPEPSIA, Chronic Diseases of the LIVER, PILES, JAUNDICE IRREGULAR ACTION of the HEART, Etc., Etc., these Pills are EMPHATICALLY THE REMEDY

PRICE 25 CENTS PER BOX. Sold by all Druggists and General Dealers F. L. SHAFNER, - - PROPRIETOR. MANUFACTORIES at BOSTON, MASS., and MIDDLETON, N. S.

HAVING purchased the Stock in Trade and Book Accounts of Runciman, Randolph & Co. and T. Shaw.

FURNITURE BUSINESS lately conducted by them, under the management of J. B Reed, Esq., I intend to continue the same business at the

I have employed the services of Mr. Reed is salesman, and think I can guarantee good attisfaction to those wishing to purchase.

UNDERTAKING carried on as usual on the premises All those indebted to the old firm wil indly call and settle up as soon as possible. W. M. FORSYTH. Bridgetown, January 18th, 1893. 43

JUST ARRIVED! -A Fine Line of-BOOTS AND SHOES

OF ALL KINDS. -A Fine Line of-

DRY GOODS

Choice and Complete Lines of CROCERIES

Molasses, Tea, Sugar, Tobaccos, and all other goods usually to be found in FIRST-CLASS GENERAL STORE. B. E. CHUTE.

SURELY IF WE ACCEPT THE TRUTH ination. For tabulated pedigree and further information send nost card to It Must be the Clergy!

For more than twenty years I have been "For more than twenty years I have been afflicted with Chronic Constipation. Have been treated by several physicians here and in the States, and have tried many of the cures advertised through the press without receiving any permanent benefit.

In consequence of the complications arising from this disease I have been obliged to undergo a painful surgical operation, and was compelled last year to give up work. About six months ago I consulted Dr. Miller, who gave me a box of his DINNER PILLS, and I can cheerfully testify that their effect in my case has been little less than magical. Since then I have recommended them to some of my friends, who have experienced like good results from their use and returned me their warmest thanks, and I confidently give them a public recommendation, as I give them a public recommendation, as have found them, by far, the best medicine

NOTICE!

St. Macey, 10,033.

Crockery, Glassware, Lamps, Etc.

B. E. CHUTE.

foals.

His breeding can hardly be better. Twenty of the greatest brood mares are represented close up in his pedigree.

Be sure and not breed to any stallion till you see St. Macey and be convinced that what I say

AND HOW TO ATTAIN IT. Medical Work that Tells the Cause Points the Remedy

tifically the most valuable, artistically eautiful medical book ever publish

ERIE MEDICAL CO., Buffalo, N.Y. NOTICE!

J. H. LONGMIRE, Master.

the unpleasant necessity of having you gag-began to think.

frain from crying.

SALUS POPULI SUPREMA LEX EST.

Poetru.

Between the Lights. A little pause in life-while daylight lingers

Between the sunset and the pale moonrise, When daily labour slips from weary fingers, And calm, gray shadows veil the aching

Old perfumes wander back from fields of Beloved ones, whose earthly toil is over, Draw near as if they lived among us yet.

Old voices call me-through the dusk returning

I hear the echo of departing feet:
And then I ask with vain and troubled yearn things so sweet?

ing, "What is the charm which makes old

'Must the old joys be evermore withholden?

Even their memory keeps me pure and true; And yet from our Jerusalem the golden God speaketh, saying, "I make things

Father," I cry, "the old must still be nearer.

Stifle my love or give me back the past; Give me the fair old fields, whose paths are

Than all Thy shining streets and mansions

Peace! peace! the Lord of earth and Heaven

Shall vex thy soul and taint thine earth no

Serve Him in daily toil and holy living, And Faith shall lift thee to His sunlit

Then shall a psalm of gladness and thanks-

Fill the calm hour that comes between the Select Literature.

-Author Unknown.

clover, Seen in the light of stars that long have set:

BRIDGETOWN, N. S. · · · WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1893.

DR. J. WOODBURY'S

IS INFALLIBLY THE REMEDY FOR Horse Discemper, Coughs, Colds, Enlargement of the Glands, Affections of the Kidneys, SPLINTS, CURBS, BOG SPAVINS, STRAINS OF THE JOINTS AND

VOL. 21.

TENDONS, BRUISES, ETC., ETC. PRICE 25 CENTS PER BOTTLE Sold by all Druggists and General Dealers F. L. SHAFNER, PROPRIETOR

MANUFACTORIES at BOSTON, MASS., and MIDDLETON, N. S.

Beautiful Hard-Burnt Brick,

Bridgetown, Annapolis Co.

which are manufactured by the most approved modern machinery, from a superior clay, thoroughly mixed with sand; have smooth surfaces, square edges, and ARE GUARANTEED TO STAND THE WEATHER. Our selected stock brick will look as well in the front of a building as some of the so-called face or repress brick, nor are they liable to chip or split with the frost. So far as tested they have not shown any of the WHITE SUBSTANCE, which so disfigures some brick buildings, and we believe them to be entirely free from this ingredient. We aim to keep on hand a large quantity, so that the trade can always rely upon being supplied with good brick.

Having a good wharf on our property and a siding of the W. & A. Railway, we can ship either by vessel or rail.

For the information of builders we publish herewith a certificate from a well-known architect.

HECTOR MACLEAN, Manager

BACK-ACHE

WILL CURE YOU "Backache means the kid-neys are in "Delay is Dodd's dangerous. Negmeans the kid-neys are in trouble, Dodd's Kidney Pills give prompt relief," "175 per cent. of disease is first caused by disordered kid-neus.

neys. "Might as well try to have a healthy city without sewerage, as good health when the Dear Sirs,—I think I have been one of the worst sufferers you have yet heard of, having been six years in the hands of four of our best doctors without obtaining permanent relief, but continually growing worse, until almost beyond hope of recovery, I tried your Bitters and got relief in a few days. Every organ of my body was deranged, the liver enlarged, hardened and torpid, the heart and direstive organs seriously deranged, a large abscess in my back, followed by peralysis of the right leg, in fact the lower half of my body was entirely uscless. After using Burdock health when the exist where kidneys are clogged, they are Pills are used."

Sold by all dealers or sent by mail on receipt of price 50 cents, per box or six for $2.50.

Dr. L. A. Smith & Co. Toronto. Write for book called Kidney Talk. leg, in fact the lower half of my body was entirely uscless. After using Burdock Blood Bitters for a few days the abscess burst, discharging fully five quarts of pus in two hours. I felt as if I had received a shock from a powerful battery. My recovery after this was steady and the cure permanent, seeing that for the four years since I have had as good health as ever I had. I still take an occasional bottle, not that I need it but because I wish to keep my system in perfect working order. I my system in perfect working order. I can think of no more remarkable case than what I have myself passed through, and no words can express my thankfulness for such perfect recovery.

Welland P.O.

In this connection the following letter from T. Cumines, Esq., a leading druggist of Welland, Ont., speaks for itself:

Messs. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto.

Gentlemen,—I have been personally acquainted with Mr. C. C. Heun for the last 20 years, and have always found him a very reliable man. You may place the utmost confidence in anything he says with regard to your medicine. He has on many occasions within the last four years told me that it was marvellous the way the Burdock Blood Bitters had cured him, and that he now felt as able to do a day's work as he ever felt in his life. Although work as he ever felt in his life. Although quite well he still takes some B. B. B. occasionally, as he says, to keep him in perfect health. Yours truly, Complete Manhood The steadily increasing sale of B. B., the length of time it has been before the people, and the fact that it cures to stay cured, attest the sterling merit of this monarch of medicines, the people's favorite blood purifier, tonic and regulator.

WEARING APPAREL.

Nervous Debility, Impotence
Sterility, Development
Varicocele, The Husband,
Those Intending Marriage, etc. Every man who would know the Grand Tr.
e Plain Facts, the Old Secrets and New Disies of Medical Science as applied to Maife, who would atone for past follies rold future pitfalls, should write for YONDERFUL LITTLE BOOK.

TEMPLE BAR

Ayer's Pills

best remedy for Constipation. Jaundice, Headache, Biliousness, and Dyspepsia, Easy to Take

sure to cure all disorders of the Stomach. Liver, and Bowels.

Every Dose Effective

CHEMICAL FERTILIZER WORKS HALIFAX, N. S. Established 1878. CERES SUPERPHOSPHATE

TO THE PUBLIS! LAWRENCETOWN, MARCH 20th, 1893.

Speaks.

MR. C. C. HAUN. The following remarkable facts are fully

As will be seen from his letter, four has will be seen from his letter, four physicians had attended him, and it was only after he had given up hope of cure that he decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters on the recommendation of a neighbor who had been cured of a similar disease by its use. Mr. Haun writes as follows:

DEAR SIRS,—I think I have been one

C. C. HAUN, Welland P.O.

Complete Lines of HATS and CAPS

READY-MADE CLOTHING m the leading Canadian houses, in many patterns, thoroughly made, and in such variety and sizes as to meet the requirements of all ages,

BOOTS, SHOES, RUBBERS

and SLIPPERS.

atest Styles for Spring and Summer Wear AT EXCEEDINGLY LOW PRICES.

FULL AND FRESH LINES OF GROCERIES

may also be found at my store, an 'aspection of which will convince all that they are placed at right prices.

Provisions, Etc.

Please take notice that the agency held by R. B. Durling, of Lawrencetown, for Jack & Bell's Fertilizers in the past has now been transferred to Dr. L. R. Morse, who will be What One Girl Did. prepared to supply the farmers in the future with our fertilizers at prices and time tha The greatest case of female bravery and JACK & BELL. votion that ever came under my notice, said my friend, who had been a prominent WONDER IN WELLAND! letective in his day, was that of Margaret Whitney, the daughter of the doorkeeper of Jessrs. Bangshaw Brothers, bankers. On the eventful night in question Mar-A Representative Farmer garet's father had been sent out of town on business for the firm, and she was the sole occupant of the rooms in which they dwelt, they seemed shod with some felt-like material that deadened the sound of their footsteps considerably.

One of the men quickly and silently searched the room, while the other stood guard over her. The former presently returned, dangling a bunch of keps.

"Whose keys are these, what do they ppen," was asked the girl, in a low, combanding voice.

"They are my father".

"They are my father".

"They are my father".

"They are my father".

"The same felt-like material that deadened the sound of their footstand and all carried to the back yard and hung out upon lines or strung apparilla as personal cleanliness results from free use of soap and water. This great purifier thoroughly expels scordula, salt rheum to take it.

Now, as she looked down she saw that the door at the foot of the stairs had been forced open, and that the burglars were working upon the great and sull, solid thud, like the muffled blow of some heavy implement.

Now, as she looked down she saw that the door at the foot of the stairs had been forced open, and that the burglars were working upon the great and sull, solid thud, like the muffled blow of some heavy implement.

Now, as she looked down she saw that the door at the foot of the stairs had been forced open, and that the burglars were working upon the great and sull, solid thud, like the muffled blow of some heavy implement.

Now, as she looked down she saw that the door at the foot of the stairs had been forced open, and that the burglars were working upon the great and sull, solid thud, like the muffled blow of some heavy implement.

Now, as she looked down she saw that the door at the foot of the stairs had been forced open, and that the burglars were working upon the great and sull, solid thud, like the muffled blow of some heavy implement.

Now, as she looked down she saw that the door at the foot of the stairs had been forced open, and that the burglar were looked to the same and to be until they are made to bend the forces until they are made to bend the forces until they are made to b can obtain admission to the cellar during their absence."

operations with a lamp, held aloft in the hand. These had their backs to the stair-books, pamphlets and papers,—why, bless garet was surprised to see another figurethat of a woman, who was clothed in a dark ed their progress down with the slender ray of a lantern in her hand. "Is it not possible," said Margaret's chief aptor, when they had reached the foot of stairs," that one or other of the passkeys may be locked in the desk of their private "It is possible, but not likely," was the At the leader's command Margaret pointed the other.

A small jet of gas, commonly used for melting sealing-wax, was then lighted; a oag, containing a number of housebreaking implements, swathed in thick folds of flannel, was next produced; and the desk drawers were speedily forced open and searched.

But no key was to be found. He consulted in whispers with his comanions a moment, and then requested Margaret to point out the key that opened the op cellar door, saving that they would have burst open the lower one. She indicated e proper key, when he resumed:

coket a coil of long, thin cord, she pro-eded to tie Margaret firmly to the pillar. triumphant click, shut up, as in a trap, the Her arms were left at liberty till the last, three thieves below.

oeen riveted there.
"You see, I would not cause you unneces-"You see, I would not cause you unnecessary pain," said the courteous burglar, when all was made fast; "and to have fastened beating at it like madmen in their desperate

NO. 8.

site direction. She began to breathe more freely when they left her to herself, as they now at once did, with no other company than the tiny, faintly burning gas jet already mentioned

White-Washing.

hy which she could just make out the familiar features of the old-fashioned, but richlyfurnished private office of the banker brothcustody. It turned out that the rascals were non-A few desperate efforts to free herself only served to convince her of their futility. Then she resigned herself to her bonds and door to the bank. Of course they were sub sequently tried, convicted and sentenced. | for some weeks after a fraces of this kind with She knew that before a single sovereign in the Bangshaw Brothers' strong box could be

As for brave Margaret Whitney, she not only became the heroine of the hour, but more substantial advantages accrued to her and hers through her heroism and devotion. ouched, the burglars would have to force open two iron doors of immense strength, and knowing but little of the modern imrovements in the science of housebreaking, she made no doubt that those doors ould prove impregnable to all attempts. detective, in concluding his narrative. Many dreary minutes passed and her ramped attitude and the tightness of the ords that bound her gradually caused her such intense pain that she could scacely re- and mother, though her wrists still bore the practise of covering the walls of the various Suddenly, in the midst of her torture, a

knoweth
The human soul in all its heat and strife;
Out of His throne no stream of Death floweth,
But the pure river of eternal life. oom for anything else but suprise and delight. There right before her eyes was suddenly revealead to her at one glance a sure He giveth life, aye, life in all its sweetness; Old loves, old sunny scenes will he restore; Only the curse of sin and incompleteness and speedy mode of escape. upon the list."-Boston Globe. The pillar to which Margaret was tied was within a short yard of the desk that had been broken open: and right upon the edge of this desk was the upright gas pipe FOR THE MONITOR.

hought flashed into her brain that left no

om which sprang the small jet, still burn-

Then the process begins: the curtains are covered of the covered o holes were cut for the eyes and mount, and they seemed shod with some felt-like material that deadened the sound of their footsteps considerably.

forced open, and that the burglars were working upon the great safe itself.

"They are my father's keys," said Margaret, and they open the different rooms and places downstairs."

"Do they open the cellar and the strong box in which the money is kept?"

"No; one passkey is in the possession of the elder Mr. Hosca, the cashier. No one can obtain admission to the cellar during can obtain admission to the cellar and that the burglars were working upon the great safe itself.

One of the men was busy with a flannel state form the rag-hole in the cellar—not a place cacages unrummaged. Here a closet has thoroughly disgorged itself and scattered its contents promiscuously on the floor in broken tea close thas thoroughly disgorged itself and scattered its contents promiscuously on the floor in broken tea close thas thoroughly disgorged itself and scattered its contents promiscuously on the floor in broken tea close thas thoroughly disgorged itself a landing, close to the cellar door that had been forced open. Could she but obtain possession of it, she saw not only a way of escape for herself, but a way by which the theives might be caught in their own trap. The peril was tremendous! The chance apparently but one in a hundred, of her being able to creep down so softly as not even to cause them to turn a glance in her direction (which, of course, would seal her out the key that opened the door of the fate), and then cresp back with the keys rivate office, and the desk at which the langshaw Brothers generally sat, one facing But it was the only course open to to her, desperate as it was, and she adopted it with characteristic boldness and fearlessness.

Slowly, inch by inch, and with no more sound than a shadow, she stole into the doorway, and then down the staircase, step by step, counting them one by one by the palpitation of her own heart as she proceed-She reached the bottom of the steps, 15 in all, without causing them to turn a look.

The next difficulty was to pick up the keys, which were threaded on a steel ring, without detection.

Even this difficulty was conquered at last.

seen a mere toward into sudden activity.

She placed Margaret with her back to a dor, wheeled quickly around, and flung herealth and arms, body—against the caken large iron piller, which supported the ceiling, and then, producing from some hidden door, which, yielding to her strength, turned when they were bound together at the wrists Without the key, this door, which locked with a band of some strong woven stuff, of itself when pushed to, could neither be which held them as securely as if they had opened from one side or the other; with the key it could be opened on either side.

She had hardly closed it securely before she heard to two men inside tearing and all was made fast; "and to have fastened your arms down to your sides for a couple of hours would have been the referement of cruelty.

"But one point still regains. You must give me your word of hour that you will not cry out, nor in my way call for assisting the made in their desperate efforts to get out.

Still holding her bunch of keys, she ran out of the office and down a passage that give me your word of hour that you will not cry out, nor in my way call for assisting the made in their desperate efforts to get out.

Still holding her bunch of keys, she ran out of the office and down a passage that give me your word of hour that you will not cry out, nor in my way call for assisting the course demanded a settlement; but the recipit not being found, judgment was entered by the fact of cortain essent having occurred by the fact of certain essent that having paid a large sum of money and took a receipt therefor, which he left on his table, the creditor forgot to enter the payment on his books, and having died, his executors of having deed, his executors of the was trembling all over now, and had hardly course demanded a settlement; but the receipt not being found, judgment was entered by the fact of certain essent that having occurred by the fact of certain essent that having pocurred by the fact of certain essent that having paid a large sum of money and took a receipt therefor, which he left on his table, the creditor forgot to enter the payment on having occurred by the fact of certain essent that having occurred by the fact of certain essent that having occurred by the fact of certain essent that having occurred by the fact of certain essent that having occurred by the fact of certain essent that having occurred by the fact of certain essent that having occurred by the fact of certain essent that having occurred by the fact of certain essent that having occurred by the fact of certain essent that having occurred by the fact o

Jas. J. Ritchie, Q.C., Barrister and Solicitor,

MONEY TO LOAN ON REAL ESTATE SECURITY.

AGENT OF THE CITY OF LONDON FIRE INSUR-ANCE COMPANY.

EFSolicitor at Annapolis to Union Bank of Halifax, and Bank of Nova Scotia

"I give you my word," assented the door-keeper's daughter, after a moment of silent thought, "not to cry out while I remain policeman, who was coming from the oppopulation." begins. Every floor and bit of woodwork What sort of incoherent story she told has to be subjected to a deluge of water and him she could never afterwards quite remem soap-suds, without regard to the delicate ber; but it must have been to the purpose. The policeman at once summoned some comrades to his assistance, and a strong pose of different shades of color as usually charofficers reached the bank and took them it acterizes the loopard. These scrubbings and scourings, washings and dashings having others than a certain so-called Maj. Wool are brought into requisition, and the ceilford, his wife, and his servant, who had ings and walls are duly smeared and brushsome four months previously become the ed throughout with this material, while the tenants of an empty house that stood next whole atmosphere is redolent with its cans-

> "I saw Margaret about about two years An ingenious method has been devised by after that adventure," said my friend, the paper-makers to at least ameliorate, to detective, in concluding his narrative.
>
> "Her husband was doing thrivingly as a lessen the time of its operations, if such a small shopkeeper, and she was a happy wife thing were possible. They instituted the scorching scars of that terrible ordeal of fire, rooms in a house with paper patterns, which to which she so unhesitatingly submitted they have made of such pretty design and herself in the cause of honor and duty. herself in the cause of honor and duty.
>
> "The wound in her shoulder had quickly make them seem to the uninitiated as "just > healed, and I am sure that were a record lovely"; so much so that the women have kept of the brave and self-sacrificing deeds admitted the fashion without perceiving the of young women, her name would stand high design. Then, after the frenzy for washing and sweeping, the scouring and scrubbing within doors has exhausted itself, the residue of the malady is worked off outside of the premises, a servant scrambles out upon the veran case.

This entire picture Margaret's eyes took in at a glance. They took in one thing more that of a woman, who was clothed in a dark nantle from head to foot—who further light d their progress dawn with the sleep of the sheet of the shee mirror is laid on its back in this way, other things are piled upon it until the superin cumbent weight breaks the glass and the article is ruined. Then a fine picture is so placed as to lean against the corner of a table or other sharp projection, other things are made to lean against this until the glass of the well-known St. John barrister, was advised to seek a change of climate for the cure of acute bronchitis. He took Hawker's Tolu and was cured by two bottles. He considers it a remarkable remedy, and strongly recommends its use to all so afflicted.

to one destructive fire.

There is one place in the house, however,

I have heard of some very great losses

At last she sped down the silent street in ceipt was found among other rubbish in the white-Washing.

There is a custom which prevails among housekeepers during the springtime of the dwelling,—at the risk of her neck,—and with a dipper in hand and a bucket within reach, dashes away innumerable gallons of which mention has already been made.

By stretching out her arms Margaret could hold her wrists directly over the desk, and let the flame burn away the band by which they were bound together.

She knew the terrible scorching that it would inevitably cost her, but she did not hesitate an instant.

She at once thrust out her hands with a swift movement, and so held them extended, while the jet of bluish flame played on her wrists and the bands that secured them. She shut her eyes, held her breath, locked her teeth, and her eyebrows came together in a wreathing frown of supreme anguish.

Over and round the delicate skin and beating pulse the scorching fire-snake wound and wound, with its searing bite, its excruciating embrace and presently the encompassing of the family who are affected by it in a somewhat first almost and compasing of the filthings gold. wound, with its searing bite, its exeruciating embrace and presently the encompassing band burst into flame. Even then she did not falter, though it seemed that her very disposed to see any thing but dirt and dust at least one week in the year. And so the business for the firm, and she was the sole occupant of the rooms in which they dwelt, directly over the bank.

She had fallen asleep on a lounge, and was aroused by a sound of stealthy approaching feet over the carpeted stairway, just outside her door.

She had no sooner done so than two masked men suddenly sprang upon her. The light was dashed from her hand, their stainted. But the returning knowledge for her peril, and of the great work she had de out to do (her father's situation in the husband, however much he was the husband having arms held her in a vice-like grip, and before a dead woman! Do as you are told and no harm shall befall you."

Margaret Whitney was as brave as steed. She felt the cold muzzle of a pistol president of the efforts: and the first two loosened against her forehead, but she accepted the situation at once, and retaining perfect self-control, she replied in a low voice:

"Only release me, and tell me what it is I must do."

They released her after a moment's consultation, and relighted the could make of the cold muzzle of the pistol freeze were overleased the there is not the condown of the result of the winds the could see that their faces were owner of the stairs, up which she could see that their faces were overleased to the head without of the result of the cold muzzle of the pistol freeze were overleased between the could was a could be could see that their faces were overleased between the could was accepted the other of the could muzzle of the pistol freeze were overleased between the could was accepted the other of the could muzzle of the pistol freeze were overleased between the could was accepted the other of the could muzzle of the pistol present the post. This offered no great opposition and the pistol freeze were overleased between the post of the pistol freeze were overleased between the pistol freeze wer have to be rulled down and piled in heaps upon a bench or pedestal, and much damage to these sometimes is the result, for a fine any pants at all."

with our pants on and with all our clothes on. We need it badly, too, and if our delinquents do not soon pay up we will need it without any pants at all." mirror is laid on its back in this way, other are made to lean against this until the glass, of the under tier is cracked and the picture spoiled; but no matter, the object is to make everything clean; so this picture, or its frame, is subjected to a dose of spirits of terpentine and oil, and in the operation the terpentine is suffered to leak through the cracked glass and spoil the picture; but this is of no importance so long as the glass is clean and the frame shines. It has been estimated that the damage to furniture and ioss of property resulting from two of these whitewashings is equal to that caused by one removal, and that three removals are equal to one destructive fire.

My Little Boy.

GENTLEMEN—My little boy had a severe hacking cough and could not sleep at night. I tried Hayyard's Pectoral Balsam and it cured him very quickly. Mrs. J. Hackett, Linwood, Ont.

APPLE FOAM.—Pare and core six common sized apples; steam them soft and cool. Beat the whites of three eggs and one cupful of sugar with the apple nearly an hour till as light as possible, stir into the yolks one half cup of sugar and add to one-half pint of scaleling milk. Put the foam in a dish and pour the custard on it.

the proper key, when he resumed:

"I must compliment you on your sensible conduct in this affair. Now, however, you must excuse me if I am compelled to make you a prisoner for awhile. Dear friend, the cord."

The last words were addressed to the masked woman, who up to this time had been a mere looker on, but who now started into sudden activity.

She placed Margaret with her back to a large iron pillar, which supported the ceil.

and brushes, and commences to put things to rights. The papers that may have dropped upon the floor are with other debrishastily huddled into a dust-pan and carried to the ash-heap in the back yard; and in a being so easily taken."

short time everything is so completely disarranged and misplaced that a Philadelphia lawyer would probably be puzzled to find Hawker's Pills, and now always keeps a sup-

the whereabouts of anything,