

CHAPTER XIII

Jane Ray's tricks continued—The broomstick ghost— Sleep-walking—Salted cider—Changing beds— Objects of some of her tricks—Feigned humility —Alarm .....	94
--	----

CHAPTER XIV.

Influencing novices—Difficulty of convincing persons from the United States—Tale of the Bishop in the city—The Bishop in the Convent—The prisoners in the cells—Practice in singing—Narratives— Jane Ray's hymns—The Superior's best trick ....	114
---	-----

CHAPTER XV.

Frequency of the priests' visits to the Nunnery—Their freedom and crimes—Difficulty of learning their names—Their holy retreat—Objections in our minds—Means used to counteract conscience—in- genious arguments .....	124
--	-----

CHAPTER XVI.

Treatment of young infants in the Convent—Talking in sleep—Amusements—Ceremonies at the public interment of deceased nuns—Sudden disappearance of the old Superior—Introduction of the new one —Superstition—Alarm of a nun—Difficulty of communication with other nuns .....	129
--	-----