

THE INDEPENDENT FORESTER.

having recently passed the entire slate of emotions from a boyish infatuation, resulting in great mental effort and physical exertion, he said after a paroxysm of ten years to all who asked him, "I don't know what it was, but I was in love with Miss Bell." Again, another patient, Mrs. A. L. Johnson, of Worcester, Mass., whose husband had been a drunkard for twenty years, and whose son was an idiot, said when he was given the cream of the Misses Bell's lotion, "I am perfectly well again; my son is a changed boy, and my wife has recovered from her fits of hysterics."

Many other cases of similar character could be given.

THE DISCOVERY<sup>TM</sup> AGE

A Woman was the Inventor

Many preparations intended to beautify the complexion have failed. Since they do not produce a tonic effect on the skin, regardless of the Misses Bell's Complexion Tonic has such an effect, it produces where all other cosmetics fail. This great remedy, discovered by the Misses Bell, the simplest complexion specialists of No. 78 Fifth Avenue, New York City, cures all blemishes which the blood gives to the skin of the face. It is strengthening and reviving whatever touches it. It purifies blackheads, moth-patches, wrinkles, liver-spots, complexion, mucus and eruptions, freckles, and the skin becomes soft and smooth.

The Misses Bell will furnish to all who call at their parlors, a free bottle of their Complexion Tonic. Those who are at a loss may have a free bottle by sending us certain silver or stamps to cover the cost of mailing and delivery. The price of this wonderful tonic is One Dollar a bottle.

The Misses Bell's book, "Secrets of Beauty," is also free. It tells how a woman can gain and keep a good complexion. Special chapters on the care of the hair, how to preserve its color and texture, even to old advanced age. Also, how to get rid of gray-colored hair in the scalp and keep white, without harm to the skin. This will be kept up to any person or person. Unquestionably a valuable possession.
