

read the following from Mrs. Morrow. The Sarah referred to is one of the girls who was married some time since, but whose life became so unhappy that she was considered in danger of insanity unless released in some way :

VICTORIA, Dec. 12th, 1892.

. . . Everything is going on quietly in the Home. Sarah, who has returned to us, takes her part in the housework and the lessons and other tasks most cheerfully and willingly, and I think her influence is felt for good amongst the girls. At present her desire is to stay in the Home for a year or more and learn all she can to fit herself for a Bible-woman or helper to a missionary to her own people.

The girls have formed a little band among themselves. It is really a touching sight to see the quiet little meeting by themselves in the kitchen. I have given them just a few words of counsel and let them have their meeting. I have a regular morning Bible lesson with them, and I have been much pleased with the answers to questions I give.

For instance, two days ago the word "redemption" occurred in one of the verses, and in speaking of it I asked, "Can you give me a part of a verse that explains this?" and instantly, without hesitation, two girls at once were ready to respond, "Jesus paid it all, all the debt I owe."

I find my Sunday afternoon Bible class in the house of the married girls (the last married) increasing in interest, as I am learning better how to talk to them so that they understand. I find Ah Lin (Lily) most helpful in putting my English into Chinese for the benefit of those who know very little English. There is also one of the first married (Annie) who does very well. I have not been able to do much visiting among the women of Chinatown as yet, but it is work I should like to do if the Lord opens my way to
