. . . WHAT IS BEING SAID OF IT . . .

The Toronto Globe: "This book is a real message. It bears the stamp of scholarship on every page. . . . Rarely have we met with a more pungent and delightful bit of polemic. It may be called a popular confession of faith written in the language of definition. Dr. Workman exhibits a mastery of the literature, argument and spirit of the Old Testament that is refreshing. . . . We do not hesitate to say that this work is a distinct contribution to the theological literature of the time, and by its sober and rational spirit, its freedom from exaggeration and special pleading, its rational method, it cannot fail to exercise a lasting influence upon the religious thought of this country."

The Toronto Mail and Empire: "One of the most remarkable books issued from the press of this country for some time. It is emphatically a book of the period, dealing with living issues of the most vital character touching the foundations of the Christian faith. . . . Though the book is a small one, it is so compactly written that it contains a vast amount of valuable matter. . . . Altogether it is an admirable work, and the Methodist Church is to be congratulated upon having a Biblical scholar capable of producing such a book, and a publishing house capable of sending it out in such form."

The Christian Guardian: "Dr. Workman has an unwavering faith in the Bible, and seeks to contribute to that proper knowledge of the sacred book which will save men from scepticism concerning the Bible. . . . Dr. Burwash writes an excellent introduction, which is broad in its vision, judicious in its judgment, and spiritual and sympathetic in its tone. . . . In this book we have the work of a thorough Hebrew scholar, but at the same time the work is not pedantic, but popular."

REV. PRINCIPAL GRANT (in Christian Guardian) writes: "We owe this succinct, vigorous little volume to Dr. Goldwin Smith's article on 'Christianity's Millstone.' . . . In furnishing such an answer, Dr. Workman has done a public service, for which he deserves our thanks."

Diamond Jubilee Sunday-School Souvenir

A Beautiful Souvenir Card, for Sunday-school scholars, designed by one of Canada's cleverest artists. Lithographed in six colors, with medallion portraits of the Queen—one as she appeared at her accession, and the other from a recent photograph—these draped with the Union Jack and surrounded with a spray of maple leaves. Also designs emblematic of the various portions of the British Empire, and an open Bible, "the secret of England's greatness," as our good Queen nobly expressed it. This card—6½ x 5 inches in size—will be to the scholars "a thing of beauty and a joy forever," a thoroughly Canadian souvenir of the Diamond Jubilee, that they will retain and prize, and that will be worth keeping. There will be on each card a blank for the name of the scholar.

PRICES: Each, 5 cents; per dozen, 50 cents; per hundred, $4.00. Orders exceeding 300, at $3.50 per 100. We pay postage.
